Local plant engages in manufacture of pumps

Lathe operation

W. T. JACKSON works a lathe in the manufacturing process of a new pump. This high powered machine permits Jackson to meet specifications on various sized impellers to within one thousandth of an inch. Jackson has been with Loran-Tatham for seven years.

TRIBUNE Photo

With approximately 300,000 acres of Cochran County land in cultivation, 100,000 acres of this irrigated, supplying of water to the fields is a big item to farmers.

Among the industrial firms in Morton assisting farmers with their irrigation problems and requirements is Loran-Tatham, manufacturers under the trade name of LOTCO, of Vertical Turbine Pumps and Submersible Deep Well Turbine Pumps.

W. T. Jackson, lathe operator and specialist in the manufacture of both types of pump, has been with Loran-Tatham, over seven years. The two pumps manufactured by LOTCO were designed and developed by Lee Tatham of the Levelland office of Loran-Tatham.

Using a high powered lathe (one of the most expensive pieces of equipment in the shop) Jackson is able to meet specifications for the various sized impellers within 1000th of an inch. The lathe, a machine in which work is held and rotated while being shaped by a tool, is a sort of refined descendant of the potter's wheel.

The pumps have been manufactured in Levelland for several years. It was in February of 1964 when the local plant expanded into much larger quarters that manufacturing got started here.

Jackson also rebuilds old and worn-out impellers. First building the piece up with brass then latheing to specifications.

Loran-Tatham performs many jobs in the assembly of irrigation pipe. The pipe is bought and then various fittings are custom designed and put on the end of the aluminum irrigation line. Couplers, risers and sprinklers are pressed or welded onto the 30 to 40 ft. pipe.

But the assembly of these pieces while not an easy job, is rather routine in this type of business. The distinctive feature of the Loran-Tatham plant is its manufacturing of pump impellers. The latheing of the impeller is a highly specialized job requiring skill on the part of the lathe and the lathe operator.

An impeller is a round disc in a pump in which there are depressions called veins. The impeller is rotated at a high rate of speed which causes the vein to catch the water and throw it up into another chamber where a second impeller waits to carry the water to higher chambers until it reaches the pipes that lead to the kitchen faucet.

Loran-Tatham manufactures impellers for both submersible and vertical turbine pumps. Rough primitive impellers called castings are bought from a foundry, then they are latheing into a finished product. A steel bowl to inclose the impeller is also bought.

The Clawson 17 inch lathe must trim the impeller collet seat down to an accurate 1000th of an inch.

First, the casting is placed on the chuck of the lathe and the first rough cut is made on the hub or outside of the casting. Next the top face of the casting is trimmed, then a finer second cut is made on the outside to leave the impeller a perfect circle.

Now the lathe operator turns his attention to the inside of the hub. A hole in the casting is trimmed and made a perfect circle. A stainless steel shaft will be pushed through the holes before the pump is finished.

At this stage the rough cuts are completed. All the finished cuts are made by the specialized reamer. The collet seat, which fits into the center hole, is tapered and the rest of the impeller is trimmed to meet the most minute requirements.

Next big operation at Loran-Tatham, is the assembling of irrigation pipe. These assembly jobs are done on order and may be for a few of the pipe with joints or several hundred.

Two men, Bill Choate and Paul Beisel, working with a Helicarc Welder and a hydraulic press machine can complete two joints a minute. At the time of this interview the two men were working on an order for pipe calling for 11 or 1200 joints.

The amount of pipe required for this job, if laid end to end, would measure six and a quarter miles.

Pipe is bought in 30 and 40 foot lengths. The standard length used is usually 30 feet. Water is sprayed from every joint, to which is attached a riser, sprinkler head and nozzle.

Area watered depends on many factors, one is available water pressure. Other factors involve the type sprinkler head used (there are three types from which to choose) and which of nine different nozzles is selected.

Another specialty of Loran-Tatham is custom made fittings. Elmer Jones and Beisel are past masters of this art and there is hardly a fitting, no matter how difficult, that they cannot make.

In explaining the custom made couplings or fittings, George Hargrove said, "Often a farmer comes in and tells us he has a high pipe and low one, which he cannot connect, well, our men, Elmer and Paul, have never yet failed to come up with a workable and efficient coupling. They take great pride in doing the seemingly impossible."

Most of the work at Loran-Tatham is done for retail trade but the firm also does some wholesale business.

★ ML tourney

As a windup to their year's activities the Minor League teams of the Morton Little League will hold a three-game round robin tournament next week.

Three teams will be participating in the tournament, although four squads were involved in season play. Two of the teams were combined into one for the round robin play.

The tournament will begin Monday night at 7:00, with games continuing on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The minor league this year served some 50 boys too young to play in the Little League.

Wildlife kingdom in robust status throughout Texas

AUSTIN — The Texas animal kingdom at mid-summer has an overall robust status, but some remedies will be in order before it can pass a complete fall physical.

Here's the way E. A. Walker, assistant director for wildlife for the Parks and Wildlife Department sizes up the outlook:

Deer as numerous as ever, and apparently thriving despite hardship pockets caused by drought.

Wild turkey had a good hatch in most sections and seem adequate.

Quail are generally plentiful but continued extreme dryness during remaining hot months could be costly.

Mourning dove seemingly increase over last year.

White-winged doves have rallied from low count last year.

Antelope numbers are down based on first West Texas census, but next count awaited to determine regulations.

Walker said the fall harvest, based on present indications will be average or better. "It now looks like another good deer season," he said. "But as every hunter knows this is a critical time and a great deal depends on weather conditions from now until fall. There is no question that our deer population (estimated at 2,225,000) is healthy. But some parts of Texas are still very dry. It's simply a matter of enough food and water to sustain the herds, particularly in the heaviest populated areas."

Walker said both the ground nesting game birds — wild turkey and quail — seem to have had a good hatch. "Quail are more sensitive to weather changes, however, and we just never know until the summer extremes are over," he said.

Walker said most sections report a higher mourning dove population than last year. "Again," he added, "it's up to the weather now."

He said there is a definite upturn along the Mexican border in the whitewing population which sagged last year prompting a closed season.

A/2c and Mrs. Dewayne Miller, are expected to arrive here Sunday from Minot AFB, N. Dak., where he has been stationed for nine months. Dewayne is to receive his discharge from the service this Friday. Mrs. Miller is the former Delberta Stephens of Stephenville. Airman Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Miller.

Bermuda mites begin destruction

Bermuda mites are starting their destructive invasion of bermudagrass lawns. In past years, these tiny, eight-legged pests have caused lawns considerable damage, reported County Agent Homer E. Thompson.

Thompson says infested lawns take on an unhealthy appearance and make slow growth. Stunted internodes are a noticeable symptom of injury. Individual mites are difficult to see without magnification, the agent points out.

Spraying with Dimeon, Ethion or Trithion will provide control. Two applications 10-14 days apart may be necessary for effective control. Use five gallons of spray mixture per 1,000 square feet of lawn area. Thompson says 1½ to 2 ounces of the above chemicals should be added to five gallons of water.

Passing thoughts and shifting sands

In November, 1962 a little boy in California who was seven years old went out to hunt lizards. He had a special canyon where he went to hunt these lizards so he headed that way fully expecting he would have a few hours of fun. When he reached "his canyon" he found that this previously open land was now occupied and fenced in as a field. Within this field a little boy could play alright but it had to be organized play with other groups of children. Disappointed, the little boy made his way to another nearby canyon, and there he found that canyon was gradually being filled up and leveled off for a large scale home construction program.

Absolutely defeated he made his way home and there to relieve his hurt feelings he wrote a letter. It was a seven year old little boy's laborious printed letter but it found its way through the mail to President John F. Kennedy. The letter said: Dear Mr. President: We have no place to go when we want to go out in the canyon because there are going to build houses so could you Setaside some land where we could play? Thank you for listening. Love Scott.

The letter to President Kennedy was forwarded to the Department of the Interior and there it was answered: Dear Scott . . . We are trying as hard as we can, President Kennedy and I, to do just what you asked — to set aside some land where you can play — not in groups with supervision, but just roaming around by yourself, and finding out how to relate to the earth and the sky . . . Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of the Interior.

Scott of course didn't realize it but he was tromping on some awful big feet. One set of feet represents the United States government and lined up in opposition is a whole lot of other feet of various industries.

Teddy Roosevelt once said this: "The nation behaves well if it treats the natural resources as assets which it must turn over to the next generation increased, and not impaired in value". Teddy loved the outdoors and there was still a lot of the outdoors unfenced, un-signboarded and un-smokestacked during his administration, but now progress is gradually hemming us in.

We outdoor recreation hunting Americans, with our fast cars, motor boats, camping gear, and trailers, have built up a twenty billion dollar annual tourist business but in doing so we are crowding to full capacity, the most remote beach and the most remote mountain canyon.

The Department of the Interior, frustrated by stumbling blocks of booming, expanding industries on one hand who are seeking more sites for growth, and millions of Americans who are seeking more and more recreation areas, are using every means to solve the problem. The Department asks us, "What kind of a country do you want America to be?" Then the Department shakes a warning government finger at us and adds, "Now is the time to wonder and worry what this country will look like twenty-five years from now". They have a right to ask us this for pushing slowly into our shore lines, our wooded areas, and obstructing scenes of beauty, are slabs of concrete, tall apartment houses, and broad stretches of industrial plants. People working over people and living over people and over all is polluted air. Population boom it is called and it means large scale farming and mechanized farming. The small farmer has moved to the city and the farm land is moving slowly into virgin lands. As one technologist pointed out, "One sure thing in twenty-five years we will have a crowded America but it will be a well fed America."

The American when off work likes to move — to have fun — and to see his family enjoying outdoor living. The Department of the Interior labels this "The Race for Inner Space". The Department is encouraging local and state governments to build lakes, camp spots, and create areas for wildlife refuge. This all has a two-way play for it brings the local people to where they play at home and spend money at home and the tourist to your town. Also a needed dam brings flood control but untold contribution to millions of Americans in recreation and a wildlife refuge. The tourism trade is brought in by the backwaters of a dam can run into millions. The Department of the Interior asks the negative shaking in Washington these questions: Who can put a price tag on health and serenity? Who can judge the thrill of pulling a big one from the cold waters of a lake? Who can judge the excitement of camping beneath the high in the Rocky Mountains? Who can judge the improved family relationship by playing together?

Our fears seem as big and as terrible as this alligator sometimes, don't they? Fear about this thing and that can paralyze us and prevent us from doing our daily work.

Many of our fears are real. A great many of our fears, however, are unfounded—a result of thinking and worrying about ourselves. Sir John Denham phrased it this way:

"My fears are causeless and ungrounded, Fantastic dreams and melancholy fumes."

There is only one thing that will dispel fear of this type. We must do something to get out of ourselves. That means loving and helping others.

The Bible puts it so well in I John 4:18. "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

The Church is God's Agency designed to help you. We invite you to attend this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Army to call 2,762 men for early examinations

AUSTIN — State draft boards will forward 2,762 18-year-old males for Army mental-physical examinations in August, compared to 1,816 scheduled for July, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director said. These tests are the result of President Johnson's action early this year which ordered the Director of Selective Service and the Secretary of Defense to examine all newly-registered men who are out of school and available for service. Colonel Schwartz stressed that these youths will not be considered for armed forces service at this time. Normally, a man is not reached for draft induction until about age 22.

Only about 225 of the older males will be sent for the examinations in August, and only 119 men are scheduled for induction in that month. This is the lowest induction call the state has received since April 1961, when the quota was only 65. The highest monthly induction call since then was 1,112 in September 1961, as a result of the Berlin crisis.

The August quotas are scheduled to be placed in the mail to local boards Colonel Schwartz said.

Males married at age 18 and those known to be continuing in school, currently will not be examined. Also, high school graduates whose draft files show they intend to enter college this fall will not be ordered. If a high school graduate plans to enter college this fall, he should notify his draft board immediately.

The 18-year-olds going for the examination in August will be those who registered at boards during the first part of the year. "The 18-year-olds scheduled for examination in August," Colonel Schwartz said, "are those in class I-A, I-A-O, and I-O who became 18 this year, the oldest going first. The same rule is scheduled to apply in succeeding months."

The examination of these youths is a part of the President's actions on manpower conservation, generally referred to as the "war on poverty." The ones who fail the examination will be referred by draft board letters to local offices of the Texas Employment Commission, where they will receive advice and counsel on jobs and preparation for jobs.

The youths who get these letters will be under no compulsion to visit the TEC offices, but may do if they feel the government's offer of possible help will benefit them.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Walden and daughter, Reva, have returned from a visit in Twentynine Palms, Calif., with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Bobby Patterson and her husband, Mrs. Patterson, the former Patsy Walden, receives the Morton Tribune, courtesy of her mother, and says, "I just couldn't do without it, I look forward each week to its arrival."

The Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Dunn accompanied their son, Weymond Dunn and wife of Abilene, to Monument Lake, Colo., for a few days last week.

Sorghum midge shows signs of infestation

The sorghum midge is showing up in several Plains counties, according to James Harding, entomologist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock. Harding says very light population of midge have been found in a nine-county area — roughly centered by Lubbock county.

The entomologist cautions, however, that midge damage is not expected on grain sorghum blooming this early in the season. He says research and observations in usually not significant until about August 1. Application of chemicals for midge control before this date serves little useful purpose.

One important research finding was reported by Harding. He says midge have emerged from grain sorghum florets (flowers) that were covered with soil last fall up to a depth of eight inches. This indicates land preparation measures have little effect on destroying overwintering midge.

Two approaches to chemical control in late-planted sorghum may be followed.

1. Automatic or insurance method: Apply a recommended insecticide after 90% of the heads have emerged from the boot. A second, and possibly a third, application may be necessary at 3 to 4 day intervals if the field doesn't head uniformly.

2. As-required method: Carefully check for midge in wild host plants and early sorghum in field.

If midge are present in these early heads, control should begin when 90% of the heads are out of the boot. Heavy midge infestations will require two applications three to five days apart.

Recommended chemicals for the 1964 season include:

Endrin (1.6 lbs./gal) 1 1/4 pt. acre. Do not apply within 35 days of harvest. Apply once each season.

Toxaphene (6 lbs./gal) 1/3 to 1/2 gal/acre. Apply only once after heads are formed. Don't apply over 1/3 gal/acre within 28 days of harvest or over 1/2 gallon within 40 days of harvest. Don't pasture dairy or animals being finished for slaughter in toxaphene-treated fields. Don't ensile treated forage.

Sevin (80% WP) 1 1/4 to 2 1/2 lbs./acre. Can be applied to forage sorghum without limitation. Allow 21 days between last application and harvest of sorghum grain.

Carbophenothion (Trithion) (4 lb/gal) 1 pt/acre. Don't apply more than twice each season. Don't apply within 21 days of harvest.

Parathion (2 lbs./gal.) 1 qt/acre. Don't apply within 12 days of harvest or grazing.

Diazinon (4 lbs./gal) 1/2-1 pt/acre. Don't apply within 14 days of harvest. Don't graze or feed forage to livestock within 14 days after application.

Baptists attend summer camp near Floydada

Twenty girls along with five sponsors left the First Baptist Church on Monday for Baptist summer camp near Floydada. The camp is located in a beautiful canyon which affords quite a different kind of scenery than is found on our flat plains country.

Activities at the camp includes hiking, swimming, playing all kinds of organized games and hand craft. The girls will attend morning and evening church services in which foreign missionaries from all over the world will speak. Those attending the camp will be Marelyn Cade, Peggy Thomas, Trezelle Hill, Cindy Gunnels, Glorretta Gray, Karen Rozell, Diane Avery, Regina Butler and Terry Shifflett.

Others include Karen Edwards, Wandell Strother, Peggy Steed, Ann Townsend, Debbie Wallen, Ra-quitta Mitchell, Jeana Thomas, Debbie Willoughby and Vicky Shifflett.

Sponsors include Mrs. Wayne Mitchell, Mrs. Fred Thomas, Mrs. A. E. Cade, Mrs. Francis Shifflett and Mrs. Wade Strother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Windom and children, Ronnie and Mikela, left today for a fishing trip in Colorado.

Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne was here last weekend from her home at Knickerbocker.

Birthday party for Mrs. Lisenbee

Mrs. Maude Lisenbee was honored with a birthday party at the Robert's Memorial Nursing Home Thursday at 3:30 p.m. A beautiful white cake was served the guests after the group honored Mrs. Lisenbee by singing "Happy Birthday." The party was given in the reception room in which there was a centerpiece of pink and white flowers.

Mrs. Lisenbee celebrated her 84th birthday by opening presents and by visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. D. Garvin from Whiteface. Mrs. Lisenbee was a former resident of Whiteface for seven years before moving to Morton. She has a son, T. E. Lisenbee, who lives in Levelland. She also has seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Guests present: Mrs. Maude Parker, Mrs. J. T. Price, Mrs. C. B. Qualls, Mr. A. B. Jones, Mr. C. I. Hammonds, Mrs. Emma Griffith, Mrs. N. Lann, Mrs. I. Ponds, and Jo Beth Hill, manager of the Nursing Home. Kathrine Baker, nurses aid, sat beside Mrs. Lisenbee during the party. It was also her birthday and she celebrated with Mrs. Lisenbee.

Jonas family attends reunion

Mrs. Floyd Jonas and three of her children, Ronnie, Donnie and Loree, returned Monday from Jacksboro, where they attended a reunion of the Jonas family.

The reunion held at old Fort Richardson was attended by about 250 relatives and friends. Mrs. C. W. Jonas, 77, of Bryson, mother of Floyd, was one of the oldest persons in attendance.

Mrs. C. H. Bottom of Wellman sister of Floyd, accompanied Mrs. Jonas and children to the reunion. Enroute home they stopped in Ropesville for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Arant, parents of Mrs. Jonas.

Conference

The seminars presented the problem of juvenile crime to the group, gave reasons for crimes, then illustrated ways to combat such crime. Specific examples were given as to how particular areas have fought juvenile crime by adopting an enlightened program to help young people.

All those interviewed said that one of the most valuable experiences a conference was a series of speeches made by four convicts who now have life sentences in a Texas state prison. The man have toured Texas' high schools and told students everywhere of their mistakes. Morton High School will try to get an appointment with the men for a fall assembly program here.

Statistics played an important part in making the students understand the growing problem of teenage crime in Texas and the United States. The group was told that the crime rate is growing at an alarming rate in urban areas then the program illustrated how some urban areas worked with the problem. Fort Worth, for instance, has a teenage jury who sits in judgement on juvenile offenders. The jury has been tried and it has been proven that the teenagers can make a wise, mature decision in criminal cases.

Mike Irwin said much emphasis was placed on the high school dropout. FFA, FHA, auto mechanics and other vocational training is seen as a possible way of decreasing the number of dropouts. While working on training projects, the student can also earn money.

Irwin commented on the fact that Texas is the only state that has a conference such as this to study crime. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, has highly praised Texas' efforts in this field. This is the second year of the conference.

Wagoner Carr urged the students not to forget what they had learned and to apply methods for solving problems to their own community.

Nancie Sanders of Whiteface said she felt the conference did a good job of comparing and contrasting problems of urban and rural districts of the state. It gave her a better understanding of the complex problem.

"These students have come back to their homes with ideas for improving their communities. They will present worthy programs to civic organizations and individual citizens. If they receive the cooperation they need, they will be able to put their ideas into action," Miss Sanders added.

One part of the proposed program for Morton includes the establishment of a youth center. The youth center is a recreation building where teenagers can spend some of their time. It has decreased idleness in many cities and towns across Texas.

Another very interesting part of the program will be a radio program entitled "Youth Speaks to You." The same program has been tried all over Texas. A panel of teenagers are at the studio to answer questions telephoned to the radio station by other teenagers. The questions may range from dating to civil rights. This seems to be a satisfactory way to let the community know how the youth think.

Cranfords attend ginning convention

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cranford attended a convention in Ruidoso this weekend of New Mexico Cotton Ginner.

The 1964 New Mexico Maid of Cotton also was selected in state finals at the Chaparral Hotel. Miss Jane Nelson of Alamogordo was selected Miss Maid of Cotton with Patsy Ann Moore, Carlsbad and Judy Corkran of Artesia as runners-up.

Betsy Crowder to have surgery in Minnesota

Betsy Crowder was scheduled for surgery Wednesday morning at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn., according to reports received in Morton Tuesday.

Betsy, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowder, went to Rochester last weekend for consultation and examination Monday at Mayo Clinic.

Dan Trice left here Tuesday for Rochester to be with Betsy and her parents. She only expects to be hospitalized for about four days but the family will remain in Rochester 10 days or two weeks. They are staying at Connally's Motel, room 16, 424 SW Third St., Rochester, Minn. Betsy is in room 7-226 at St. Mary's.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stephens and their families were recent visitors at Lake Ballinger.

ko began the scoring and Gary Jones followed. Hoover came in on Larry Clawson's hit then McCastland and Clawson were close behind with two more runs. Andy Haggard stole third base, then scored on Keith Embry's right-field single. Embry quickly captured third base, then took home on Balco's hit. Balco scored the last run of the inning on Doug Hill's double.

Colts replaced pitcher Bryant Lewis with Randy Bedwell, but Sox gained two more runs in the fourth inning while keeping the Colts down. Hoover put two Colts out at first base, then Balk covered first while Hoover chased the ball. Clawson and Embry scored for the Sox leaving a 10-3 bulge at the bottom of the fourth.

Fifth inning saw Hoover come in on Jones' hit and Williams come in on Clawson's hit. Jones scored on Arnold's hit and Arnold came in on Balco's single. The game ended with the Sox on top 14-3.

The second game was a hard hitting battle in which the Pirates emerged victorious in the last inning. Ken Taylor pitched for the Pirates until the middle of the fourth inning when he was replaced by Dub Bryan, M. C. Collins led the Cubs in a fine game.

Pirates jumped to a 3-0 lead as Chipper Sheard, Wendell Bickett, and Ken Taylor scored in the first inning. But the Cubs retaliated with two runs of their own in the second inning. Ralph Soliz came in on Randy Jones' hit and D. Clayton was forced in on Collins' walk. Pirates matched the Cub scoring with a score by Taylor and Bickett to leave the score 5-2 at the bottom of the second inning.

Soliz scored a second run on Amada Ortega's single but no more Cub scoring was done.

Pirates pushed ahead 8-3 in the third. Mike Stevens came from second base to home on Taylor's single. McCall was in on McClintock's hit and McClintock was in on Bickett's double.

The fourth inning saw an amazing comeback by the Cubs. They exploded five runs that made the score an even 8-8. Arant was first hit. Three bases were loaded when Soliz stepped up to the batter's box. Soliz knocked an easy double, but one error after another cleaned the bases and brought Soliz in on his third score for the game. D. Woolam, Daniels and Forest Baker were in on Soliz' hit. Pirate Dub Bryan replaced Ken Taylor on the pitchers mound in the same inning.

Cubs pushed hard for a one point lead in the fifth. D. Woolam was in on a single by Soliz leaving the Cubs on top 9-8. The Pirates scored none in the bottom of the fifth. But they snatched a victory in the last inning when Gary Sullivan became pinch hitter for the Pirates. Sullivan's hit to rightfield brought in McCall. The score was an even 9-9. But Sullivan scored on an error placing the Pirates on top 10-9 in a hard fought victory.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1964

The guard must be kept up

It is customary to think of the United States as a young nation, and genealogically this is true. As a people, as Americans owing allegiance to none but ourselves, we are young. We declared our independence 188 years ago. We won it after seven bitter years of war 181 years ago. But what we forget is that young as we are, we are nevertheless the oldest major republic on earth. We have more experience at community government than any other nation save Switzerland. It has worked wonderfully well for us. Even our Civil War resulted in cementing us more firmly together, and in our 181 years we have grown from a small, barely independent nation into the lustiest, most powerful people of them all.

What our detractors cannot conceive is that we have no desire to rule. Autocratic governments must rule to live; they cannot govern because to govern is to carry out the wishes of the citizenry and few citizens of any nation want domination and political slavery.

The distractions which surround us must not obscure in our minds the means of preserving what our forefathers gained for us nearly 200 years ago. Those patriots lit a lamp that still burns brighter than any other and if we tend it well will continue to shed its warm and kindly light long after the cold flame of despotism has burned itself out.

Congressman notes expenditures

Congressman Abele of Ohio has looked into some of the more unusual federal appropriations of our tax money. As recounted by the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, here are a few:

- $15,200 for a study of society and demography in ancient Babylonia.
- $36,800 to look into the social behavior of ants.
- $2,100 to look into the behavior pattern of barren-ground caribou.
- $20,600 to try to learn about communication signs in birds.
- $13,700 to study the social structure in Madagascar.
- $65,400 to examine the behavior and ecology of the wandering albatross.

These studies are of specialized value. But it is difficult to see how they are the responsibility of the federal government. They represent the sort of thing that is, and should be, undertaken by universities, foundations and the various private research centers.

The amounts involved, it will be argued, are small. But a total of all the extra-curricular activities, so to speak, that the government now supports would reach a mighty impressive figure. Economical government can be achieved only if every nonessential expenditure is eliminated—whether the sum involved be $10,000 or $10 million and whether the project involves a power plant or the social behavior of ants!

conceivable obstacle — Rockefeller, Lodge, then Scranton, and now Eisenhower — in an attempt to stop Goldwater.

But what puzzles us most, from the gloom and doom of the columnists, is this: IF a Goldwater nomination spells such disaster for the GOP, how in the cat's whisker did he ever come up with the grass roots support to gain 680 delegates?

Maybe what is really upsetting the professionals is the fact that the people are finally getting a say-so about the nomination.

The Senate Rules Committee seems to have labored long to produce a mouse, much to the dismay of those who dared hope that the senators might have the courage to live by the same code they demand of others.

The committee approved a weak and carefully worded resolution last week that requires senators to disclose only certain limited facts about their finances.

The rule would make senators and top Senate employees disclose each year businesses in which they have an interest worth half or more of their salary. It would not, however, require them to reveal how much money they earn from these outside activities, and it would not cover income earned by their wives or members of their immediate families.

Some senators who voted for the resolution — an aftermath of the Bobby Baker hearing — said they did so because it "was better than nothing."

It may be better than nothing, but we share the sentiments of Sens. Joseph Clark, D-Pa., and Clifford Case, R-N.J., who have called the resolution totally inadequate. If, as other senators say, it is a small step in the right direction, let us hope that it will be followed soon by a giant step. Until then the Senate will be in a position comparable to that of the family on the block that keeps demanding everyone else chain and muzzle his dog while theirs is permitted to roam freely.

People charge newspapers with distorting the facts when the truth of the matter is that these people disagree with any story that does not present the facts as they see them, which may or may not be right. People will believe most readily what they prefer to believe in any given instance, without regard for either fact or fiction.

In the past few years we have had a good education in the effectiveness of skillful propaganda on several controversial issues in this community. When people get emotional about any issue, they are

Highlights & Sidelights

Steps taken on redistricting

AUSTIN, Tex. — New preliminary steps, inching Texas toward the inevitable realignment of congressional and legislative districts, were taken last week.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr asked that the federal district court at Houston allow time for the Legislature to redraw the districts in its session next year . . . as the court had done earlier with congressional apportionment.

In view of U. S. Supreme Court decisions that both houses of the state legislature must be selected on the basis of population alone, Carr concluded that there is little doubt that Texas districts would be declared unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, in Fort Worth and Dallas a committee of the Texas Legislative Council held its first public hearing seeking advice on how congressional districts should be redrawn.

A parade of witnesses was heard before the committee recessed briefly. It will move to Houston for its third hearing on July 17. A fourth hearing will be held in San Antonio. Committee spokesmen have indicated they may go to West Texas, then perhaps return to South Texas for further testimony.

A session of the full Legislative Council, research arm of the Legislature is scheduled for July 27 in Austin. At that time, the Council is expected to decide whether to broaden its own study to include the explosive, close-to-home problems of re-carving the state's House and Senate districts.

ARCHIVES MURAL — Work has begun on a $30,000 mural in the new Texas Archives and Library Building. It will portray state history from the days of the Spanish explorers to the present.

American painter Peter Hurd and English artist Peter Rogers, who is Hurd's son-in-law, will work together on the 45 by 13 foot mural. Texans will recognize among the figures Stephen F. Austin, the Father of Texas; Sam Houston, general, governor, senator, and president of the Republic of Texas; Anson Jones, last president of the Republic; and Jim Bowie, Davy Crockett and William B. Travis, heroes of the Alamo.

Work is scheduled to be finished by September. SCHOOL FUND APPROVED — State Board of Education raised the per student apportionment of state available school fund money to local districts from $78.50 to $81.50.

This $3 per capita hike represents an overall $7,600,000 raise in available fund aid to the districts for 1964-65, based on a current estimate of more than 2,500,000 students.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert estimated the fund for the coming school year at $218,300,000. Board allocated $10,500,000 to finance the cost of purchasing and handling text books. This left $207,800,000 to be distributed on a per capita basis.

This increase means no increase in overall state aid. Allocations to all but the few prosperous "budget balance" districts for salaries and operations will be decreased by an amount equivalent to the available fund boost.

Dr. L. S. Richardson, Brazosport Public Schools superintendent, was appointed to the 1964 state textbook committee to study books offered for school adoption.

Board also agreed to name a study committee to look into a proposal for $1,400,000 junior college at Pampa.

A policy change directed that more time in driver education courses be spent on behind-the-wheel instruction and less on general safety lectures.

ARMY EXAMS — The number of 18-year-olds who will be given Army mental-physical exams by Texas draft boards during August will be increased to 2,762 (from 1,816 in July).

Tests are in line with the President's call for examination of all newly registered men out of school and available for service. They will not be considered for immediate armed forces service. But those failing the examination will be referred to the Texas Employment Commission for advice and counsel on jobs or job training.

Only about 225 in the draft age bracket (most of them 22 or above) will be examined next month — and only 119 are scheduled for induction during August.

This is the lowest induction call for Texas since April 1961, when the quota was 65.

INVALIDATION UPHOLD — Third court of Civil Appeals agreed with an Austin district court that a requirement of the new small loan act that Texans own more than 50 per cent of the stock in new Texas lending companies is unconstitutional.

Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell had denied applications for loan branch offices in Houston, Waco, Texarkana, El Paso, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Arlington on the stock ownership provision.

Ruling does not apply to other sections of the 1963 law. PARKS & WILDLIFE DEPT. — Weldon Watson, director of the State Department of Parks

LIFE IN THE ROAR

"I WANT A MOUSE TRAP THAT'LL CATCH MICE — NOT CATS!"

Wildlife, reports that a lot of people want state parks built near the many reservoirs under construction around the state. He feels, however, that nothing should be added until old parks are rehabilitated.

Watson made this statement when he filed a request for a $25,700,000 budget for 1966-67. This is an increase over the current biennial budget of $11,000,000. Included are $7,000,000 more for parks and $4,000,000 more for wildlife projects.

He pointed out that most of the facilities in existing parks were built by C.C.C. workers some 30 years ago, and they're in bad repair. He said there's hardly a beam in the cabins at popular Bastrop State Park that hasn't rotted out.

But Watson described a poor pay structure as the Parks and Wildlife Department's chief ailment. He said the starting salary for game warden trainees of about $330 a month is so low that it is impossible to recruit "men the state will be proud of."

He wants a complete revision of the Parks and Wildlife's pay classification formula, so trainees as well as regional department heads will be paid in line with Department of Public Safety salaries.

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED — Gov. John Connally named Terry L. Jacks of San Marcos as district judge of the 22nd judicial district, effective August 1. He replaces veteran Judge J. R. Fuchs who resigned.

Jacks has been Hays County Attorney since 1955. The 22nd District covers Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Fayette and Austin counties. Jacks was nominated for the court in primary elections this year when Fuchs did not seek another term.

PORT ARANSAS BANK APPROVED — State Bank Board approved a charter application for Island State Bank at Port Aransas. A requested charter for the State Bank of Hurst, in Tarrant County, was refused. Action was deferred on the proposed Yorktown Community Bank of Houston.

COLLEGE STUDY UNVEILED — Long - secret and long - awaited recommendations by the governor's committee for making Texas colleges and universities No. 1 in the nation have just been unveiled.

College officials and the press were briefed on highlights of the report by the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School. It followed a year of intensive research.

Report now has gone to the printers and will be presented to Governor Connally and the Legislature by August 31.

YOUTH CONFERENCE HELD — Some 1,800 teenagers from 230 counties convened here for the attorney general's second Youth Conference. All are outstanding teenagers who were sponsored by a civic, church or school group.

WTCC opposes legislation

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has gone on record as opposing numerous federal legislative proposals, among which are changes in medicare and social security, the enacted civil rights bill, President Johnson's anti-poverty bill and his proposed aid program for the 10-state Appalachian Mountain region.

Morton's director in the organization, Gene Benham, along with Morton Area Chamber of Commerce manager, Johnny Johnson, were in Lubbock for the meetings at which the opposition was expressed against the proposals.

The opposition came as Benham and other WTCC directors discussed national affairs.

Proposals cited
Opposition was expressed to such federal proposals as:
Medicare and Social Security — The House Ways and Means Committee ordered H.R. 11865 reported June 30. The bill provides for: (1) a 5% across-the-board increase in social security benefits; (2) expansion of the taxable wage base to $5,400 effective January 1, 1965; (3) an increase in the tax rate to 3.5% on employer and employee effective January 1, 1965 but with subsequent increases until 1971 of 1/4% less than is provided for in existing law; (4) extension of children's benefits to age 22 if a child is in school; (5) benefits for persons in their seventies who have less than six but three or more quarters of coverage; and (6) coverage of physicians and other miscellaneous changes. Prior to approving the bill, the committee agreed to give no consideration either to revising the existing Medical Assistance for the Aged Act or enacting medical care for the aged under OASDI. House debated not expected before the week of July 20.

Civil Rights — On July 2 the House accepted the Senate amendments to H.R. 7152 and the President approved it immediately. The Act prohibits racial or religious discrimination in public accommodations and employment. It grants the States, where applicable local law exists, exclusive jurisdiction for sixty days over complaints of discrimination in employment or community action grant program to attack poverty and combat illiteracy and lack of job skills; a special assistance program for migratory farm workers; a loan and grant program for farmers and farm associations; a loan program for small businesses; and the creation of an Office and a Council of Economic Opportunity. The bill authorizes a one-year appropriation of $962.5 million for fiscal 1965. It is under consideration by the Rules Committee. The Senate Labor Committee is meeting in executive session on S.2642.

Aid to Appalachia — The House and Senate Public Works Committees have completed hearings on H.R. 11065 and S. 2782, respectively. The President's proposed program calls for spending authorizations of $228 million for fiscal 1965 for several billions of dollars over five years. It encompasses aid to occupational training and other human resources, highway construction, water resources facilities, sewage and water treatment facilities, conversion of cropland to pastures, coal research and technical assistance. No further action scheduled to date.

Attack on Poverty — On June 2 the House Education and Labor Committee reported H.R. 1377 to provide for President Johnson's proposed attack on poverty. The bill would authorize the following youth programs: a Job Corps of 100,000 enrollees, a national work-training program of 200,000 enrollees, and a work-study program of 140,000 college-student enrollees. It would also provide for a domestic peace corps of 5,000 enrollees to be known as Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA); a job-training program for adults receiving public assistance; a com-

Swimming meet yields five event winners

Five winners out of twenty entries were chosen at the local swimming contest Friday afternoon. Winners of the swimming contest for boys and girls over ten years, were to receive a week's free pass to the Rose Theatre. Dorsey Olaphant, manager of Rose Theatre, also gave free passes to winners of a diving contest.

Everybody benefits when rural electric generate business in the billions

The seeds of our national prosperity take root in Rural America. America's rural electric do more than generate, transmit and distribute power to the nation's countryside. They also generate business in the billions for people who make and sell electrical equipment for the farm and home . . . and everybody benefits.

Rural power has also put the rural electric consumer in the market each year for more than a billion dollars worth of refrigerators, freezers, milking machines, washers, feed grinders, toasters, heaters and scores of other electrical appliances. This means jobs for hundreds of thousands of people in the cities and in rural communities . . . jobs in manufacturing, distributing and servicing those appliances.

MORTON

Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Stafford and children, Scott, Sharon and Debbie, are vacationing in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill were in Lubbock Saturday where they visited with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Waydell Hill, who had undergone surgery the day before.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lanier and son, Bill, are visiting in Texarkana, Ark., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Lanier. The senior Laniers will observe their golden wedding anniversary on July 19.

Van Greene and father, Joe Greene of Lamesa were in Presidio last Saturday.

Mrs. Jimmy Gast and children of Amarillo were recent visitors here in the home of her mother, Mrs. John M. Waller.

Mrs. J. W. Sharron is visiting in Garland and Denton with relatives. Leon Sharron came from Amarillo to stay with his father while Mrs. Sharron is away.

Up and down the street — almost any street — on these sunny summer days a little cowboy or several may be seen strutting his staff.

After a hard day of ridin' and ropin' what is more fun than a cook-out, particularly if big juicy burgers are in the offing.

The Tribune offers for this week's favorite recipe a Paul Bunyon burger; that boys like Bill Lanier and his friends dream of—giant burgers topped with everything the fertile imagination of a seven going on eight year old boy can conjure up.

Burgers

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1/2 cup cider vinegar
- 1/4 cup water
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup coarsely chopped onion
- 1 tomato cut into 1/2 inch cubes
- 1/2 medium, unpeeled cucumber, sliced paper thin
- 1/4 cup drained sweet pickle relish

Mix vinegar, water, sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Add tomato, onion and cucumber. Mix and cover. Refrigerate 1 to 2 hours; drain before using.

Combine meat, 1 1/2 teaspoons of salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper; mix lightly and shape into 12-inch thin patties. Grill burgers over glowing coals, turning once. Stir pickle relish into drained vegetables. Top a bun half with a meat patty. Spoon on vegetables. Cover with second meat patty, vegetables and bun top. Makes six double-decker burgers.

Boys of all ages like potatoes; a favorite recipe for serving with burgers is good ol' potato salad.

Patio Potato Salad

- 8 cups cubed, cooked potatoes
  - 2 small onions, minced
  - 2 cups thick salad dressing
  - 2 cups finely cut celery
  - 1 cup chopped pickle
  - 4 hard cooked eggs, diced
- Mix lightly the potatoes, onions and salad dressing. Chill until serving time and mix lightly. Add salt if needed.

Lemonade is good with the burgers and salad.

"Make Ahead" lemonade

- 3 cups fresh lemon juice
  - 2 1/2 cups sugar
  - 3 1/2 quarts water
  - 2 trays ice cubes
- Combine lemon juice and sugar; stir until sugar dissolves. Store in refrigerator in covered glass container. When ready to use, add ice and water.

Beauty for the asking

By Inez Swicegood, Beauty Consultant

MERLE NORMAN COSMETICS STUDIO

With the so-called natural look really back in fashion again, you're probably discovering that it takes even more skill to look "natural" than to look "made up."

For one thing, you've probably long-since forgotten about rouge, and how to apply it to lend new brightness to your eyes and a new glow to your face. And now, fashion experts agree, rouge is as important to your new look as a clear skin.

It has been my experience that there's only one really effective rouge—a creamy bluish rouge which changes color on your face to match your own rosy complexion tone.

Learn to apply it correctly and you'll be delighted with the subtle way it enhances your face and eyes.

The procedure is really quite simple.

First, the thorough cleansing with all-purpose deep cleansing cold cream. Then a velvety powder base and now, your blush rouge, a soft gentle pink.

Use sparingly. A little dab on the end of a toothpick goes a long, long way. Start at the cheekbone and blend smoothly, under the eye from nose to temple, and over your smile area. Smile, so you know the area I mean, and stop right there.

When you blend this creamy rouge to the very edge of the lower eyelid, you'll see a surprising thing—a new brightness to your eyes and an end to the white puffiness just under your lower lashes.

Your face acquires a warm glowing look. For the finishing touches of your make-up, you're on your own, but be sure to add face powder, to set your cosmetics for all-day loveliness, and that natural look.

Don't be afraid to experiment with lipsticks and lipstick colors.

Along with this new non-theatrical make-up, this fresh look, lipsticks are clear and brighter and there's much more emphasis on the shape of your mouth. Keep it natural. Use a lipstick brush for a clean smooth tracing of your own mouth's outlines.

If you're unskilled with a lipstick brush, or afraid to tackle the new bluish-rouge glowing look, please write to me, care of this newspaper, or phone me and please let me treat you to a complimentary make-up and an hour of beauty education besides.

Farming friends aid John Crowder family

Friends and neighbors rallied to the aid of John Crowder recently while he and his wife, Dorothy, accompanied their daughter, Betty, to Houston for medical consultation.

"Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor" was exemplified as men with equipment went into the fields to knife and fertilize. Everyone in the community offered help.

Fertilizer and application equipment was sent out to the Crowder farm by Red Barn Chemical Company, at no cost.

There were many more offers for help than could be accepted. Button Silvers of Silvers Butane Company offered free fuel to the tractors in the field, this was refused as individuals wanted to supply the need.

The use of tractors and hands also was offered by Carl Griffith, George Williams and Francis Shiflet offered their services to fly Betty and her parents to Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

Several tractors in the fields at one time completed the work in a day's time. Responsible for the work and furnishing equipment was B. H. Tucker, Jimmy Miller, Roy Brooks, John Brooks, Cliff Harvey and Hadley Kern.

Another example of the esteem in which the Crowders are held is the love offering which shortly after it was started amounted to more than one thousand dollars. While cotton store is receiving the monetary gifts.

This, certainly, is not the first time, nor will it be the last, that friends have vied with one another to help others in their time of need. Texans, particularly those in this section are not only willing but anxious to express "love" for their friends and neighbors in whatever way they can.

What is more important is even than supplying the practical needs for this family are the prayers being offered continuously in their behalf, not only from the congregation of First Methodist Church, where all three of the Crowders have taken an active part in the church activities, but from members of all the other churches.

Morning coffee for Mrs. Johnson

Mrs. Johnny Johnson was named honoree for an introductory coffee Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Don Hofman.

Mrs. Johnson, wife of the manager of Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, joined her husband here a few weeks ago.

Guests were greeted in the family room and introduced to Mrs. Johnson.

Blue delphinium and baby's breath in mass arrangement provided a focal point of interest in the serving room.

Mrs. Johnson wore a two piece ensemble of black skirt and checked overblouse enhanced by a corsage of white carnations tied with pink and blue ribbons.

Mrs. Hofman was assisted with hostesses by Mrs. H. F. Dunn, Mrs. Leonard Groves and Mrs. James K. Walker.

Gift-coffee fetes bride in home

Mrs. Richard Houston, nee Kay King, was named honoree for a gift-coffee Friday morning in the home of Mrs. J. W. McDermott.

Hostesses were Mesdames McDermott, Willard Cox, Hume Russell, Gene Benham, Arvel Snodgrass, Roy Brown, James St. Clair and Buck Huckabee.

An arrangement of peach glads, daisies and greenery in low crystal bowl was centered with double white hearts on the linen covered refreshment table. A melon bowl of fruit and grapes outlined with grape leaves and the silver service completed table decor.

Mrs. Houston was wearing a two piece lace trousseau dress with white accessories and a shoulder arrangement of white carnations.
