The parade is scheduled to roll on December 4

Annual Christmas Parade—featuring Santa Claus—will be held in Morton at 4 p.m. Dec. 4, the Chamber of Commerce executive committee said.

John Haggard and Mrs. Anglin, co-chairmen of the parade committee, said some already have been invited to enter a float in the parade.

"If anyone wishes to sponsor a float in the parade, we ask that they contact the Chamber of Commerce," Haggard said.

Prizes will be given to the float winners in the parade—$50 for first, $30 for second and $20 for third.

Tommy Lynch elected Chamber head

Tommy Lynch was elected 1965 president of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce at a general membership meeting Monday in the Wig Wam.

Lynch was not elected by the general membership, but, according to the organization's by-laws, was elected by members of the board of directors, including seven new members.

The directors, including four hold-over directors, named Don Workman as vice president and George Hargrove as secretary-treasurer.

New directors, elected from a slate of 14, are Jack Russell, Workman, Hargrove, Jerry Daniel, John Haggard, Tommy Hawkins and Woody Dixon.

They join Lynch, C. E. Doile, Simon Marina and Gene Snyder, outgoing president, on the board.

Lynch will take office Jan. 1. In addition to election of the new officers, the general membership also decided to start regular monthly membership meetings of the chamber to inform each member on what the chamber is doing.

A regular date for the monthly meeting will be set at the next meeting of the board of directors.

The membership also voted to transfer $200 from the chamber's general fund into the special Christmas promotion fund, augmenting the $100 previously set aside for the program.

The fund will provide for a give-away program of drawings during December, giving free gifts to shoppers.

Melvin McCoy discussed the need for additions to the Morton Memorial Hospital, and the membership agreed to have the board of directors look into a program promoting the expansion at their next meeting.

More explanation of direct distance dialing offered

(Ed. Note. — This is the second article in a three-part series on Direct Distance Dialing.)

When Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) is inaugurated here in December, telephone subscribers will not only be able to dial some million telephones across the nation, they can dial the information operator in many distant cities as well.

So if you wish to call a friend in Washington, D.C., and do not know the number, you may obtain it by dialing a special number, which will connect you with the Washington information operator. (A list of cities where you can dial the information operator will be included in a special DDD booklet which you will receive prior to Dec. 6.)

According to Rex Bailey, district manager for General Telephone of the Southwest, such a call is made in the same manner as a long distance call, except there are no charges on calls to information operators in distant cities. It works like this:

Decoration, lighting program is underway with $2,200 collected

Christmas festivities in Morton got a terrific boost here this week with action by the Chamber of Commerce, City Council, County Commissioners, merchants and the Lions Club.

Chamber of Commerce workers raised more than $1,200 from merchants to give Morton a festive air during the holiday season with Christmas decorations.

The City Council chipped in with another $1,000 to purchase the lighting equipment, raising the fund to some $2,200.

Commissioners agreed to purchase $75 worth of equipment to refurbish the lighting on the Court House.

The Lions Club executive board agreed to contribute $50 for a public address system to beam holiday music around the square for beautiful sounds as well as sights.

Merchants showed their wholehearted support of the Christmas lighting project by contributing fully to the program.

Johnny Johnson, manager of the chamber, said Tuesday he has ordered $2,100 worth of the decorations from a Houston manufacturer, with delivery assured before Thanksgiving.

Ordered were five more Christmas trees, like the one currently on display in front of the chamber office on the south side of the square, and 20 scrolls, like the decoration on display in front of Cochran Power and Light.

Johnson said plans presently are to put the trees on display around the square and as far out on the four major entrances into the city.

Plans presently are to install the decorations prior to the Dec. 4 Christmas Parade.

Drawings for gifts to be featured in Christmas program

Planning is underway for a huge Christmas give-away program in Morton.

In conjunction with the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce project of Christmas promotion, the give-away program will feature prizes to shoppers during December.

Tentative plans are to have drawings for the prizes Dec. 5, 12 and 19, at 4 p.m. each of those days for a number of prizes and free gifts given by the Chamber of Commerce.

Details presently are being worked out by the promotion committee, headed by Jerry Daniel.

Indian grid season ends Friday night

Morton's Indians, out of the running in the district 4-AA race after bowing to Denver City last week, take on the Freshship Tigers here in their closing performance Friday.

For nine of the Indians, it will be their bow-out game as they are seniors and slated to graduate this spring.

The seniors playing their last high school game will be Sherrill Griffith, Charles Ledbetter, Bobby Dobson, Mayland Abbe, Ronald Smart, Irwin Cooper, Donnie Dewbre, Danny Cade and Ernest Chesshir.

The Indians enter the contest relatively free of injury, though some starters may see only limited service.

Cooper, out recently with a knee injury is slated for service. Smart, knee injury, and Bill Laws, shin bruise, are slated to see limited action, though the coaches noted "they will not be running at full speed."

Griffith was injured in the Denver City clash, and also is slated to see limited service.

"We plan on a tough game," assistant coach Dave Corley said.

Corley said freshman tackle Ray King was shifted to the varsity for last week's contest to fill the injury-ridden ranks, but had been put back on the freshman ranks.

"It should be a pretty tough game," Corley said. "They (Freshship) have been able to move the Friday.

Some 200 attend Bledsoe reunion

BLED SOE — Wayne Coffman of Bledsoe was elected president of the Bledsoe Ex-Students Association here Saturday as more than 200 persons attended the annual Homecoming.

With Coffman, new officers are Johnny Bilbrey of Crossroads, N. M., vice president and Mrs. Edsel Young of Bledsoe, secretary-treasurer.

A parade through the community kicked off the celebration at 4 p.m. Saturday, followed by a supper, business meeting and basketball game.

Miss Linda Thoms, 13, was honored at 1964 Homecoming Queen. She is a freshman, a cheerleader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thoms of Bledsoe. She also is active in 4-H club work.

Linda was crowned during ceremonies at the basketball game by Arnie Bailey, captain of the team. She was escorted by Billy Bryant. Also present for the festivities was Miss Janie Ness, 1963 Homecoming Queen, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Parr. She was escorted by Clark King.

Miss Ness now is a student at Tarleton State College in Stephenville, Tex.

More than 200 persons lined the streets of the community to watch the parade, which featured six floats and several other displays.

Winner of the float contest was an entry sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association. It featured an "Indian Pow-wow" complete with tree attached to the float and a fire going on the bed of the trailer.

Second place honors went to a float sponsored by the graduating classes of 1956 and 1957, entitled "Desert Camp."

History of County is very fascinating story

"Texas' Last Frontier, a history of Cochran County," is an exciting, interesting book detailing the history of this area from the earliest record to the latest account.

Written by Elvis E. Fleming, a teacher in the Morton Public School System, the book is scheduled for publication early in 1965.

The book is being sold by advance reservation, with a deadline of Dec. 1, when printing is slated to begin.

"Cochran County has a story that needs to be told," Fleming said.

"The early history is as exciting as a Western movie, with the quarrels between the cattlemen and 'nesters' over the organization of the county, the location of the county seat and the county government," he detailed.

The book is of much interest to the serious scholar of local history as well as to the dabbler in the past.

It is of value also, to just the relaxation type of reader, because the story of Cochran County is filled with color, glamor and excitement.

Fleming details the County from its first contact by Comanches and Coronado, through Texas Rangers, cattlemen, and the advent of the modern day.

He tells the story of one of the county's most famous citizens — Col. C. C. Slaughter, whose heirs still own land in the county.

Also told is the story of Jake McClure, world champion calf roping and Lt. Col. G. A. Davis, Korean Conflict jet fighter ace.

Compare those with the story of armed county commissioners who had a near gun battle over who were legal officers and where the court house would be, and the book is fascinating.

Fleming not only traces the early day history of the county, but comes into the 60s with his story. Listed are modern day developments which allow the area to take a top place in the state.

Fleming is a native of this area — he was born in a dugout near Maple in Bailey County on Aug. 1, 1936.

The youngest son of the late E. B. Fleming and Mrs. Ima E. Fleming (now Mrs. Ernest Bobbitt of Alto) Fleming attended Wilson School at Maple and Three Way School, where he graduated in 1953.

For five years, Fleming worked in Dallas in business and as an entertainer before entering Arlington State College. Later he transferred to Texas Christian University and was graduated in 1962.

He is a member of the Cochran County and Texas State Teachers Associations, the Texas Council for Social Studies, the National Education Association, the Phi Alpha Theta National Honor Society in History, the First Baptist Church of Morton where he and his wife are active in the church choir and other organizations.

He is the youngest member of the Board of Deacons at Baptist Church.

He is married to the former Miss Ira Menza Holden of Avoca. Of his book, Fleming says:

"I have spent many hours searching for information for this book. Effort has been made to secure the facts in all the important events. . . I have attempted to be objective in the writing, but any book must contain some subjectivity because a writer must choose what information to include and, therefore, what information to exclude."

This book, the first attempt to compile a complete and accurate record of this county, is an exciting and rewarding adventure in reading.

Mrs. Vernon Blackley had surgery Monday, Nov. 2, at Methodist Hospital of Lubbock. She is reported doing fine and able to have visitors.

Historian looks over old poll list

ELVIS E. FLEMING, a history teacher at Morton Junior High and author of a history of Cochran County looks over an old poll list which arrived at the Tribune during the past week. The list shows 10 voters in the Democratic primary of 1908. TRIBUNE Photo

Poll list shows county vote in 1908

Ten persons cast their ballots in the Democratic Party primary in Cochran County on the 25th of July, 1908.

This information reached the Tribune this week from Hiley T. Boyd, member of an early-day Cochran County family, who now lives at Southwest City, Mo.

Boyd found the old poll list and tally sheets among papers of his father, H. T. Boyd, in an old trunk.

"Naturally they (the lists) mean a lot to my sister and my family, I thought, however, if you wanted to copy or use any information on the papers, we would loan them to you," Boyd wrote.

Boyd added that one of the 10 men who voted in that election — that was before the days of universal suffrage — is living now.

"I hope there are others, but I am not certain."

"My uncle, O. F. Boyd, is 94 and lives in Glen Rose. He lived eight miles south of Whiteface in 1908," Boyd writes.

Voting in that election, as reflected on the yellowed, fading sheets of the poll list, were T. J. Gooding, A. L. Clements, J. L. Martin, Will Brannan, Will Wilson, W. A. Kirkland, H. T. Boyd, O. F. Boyd, Joe Boyd and A. J. Wheeler.

Joe Boyd was no kin to H. T. and O. F. Boyd, Hiley Boyd reports.

The election was held on the Slaughter Ranch a few miles south of the present day Morton.

H. T. Boyd was presiding judge, with W. A. Kirkland as assistant judge, Joe Boyd and O. F. Boyd were clerks.

Those 10 voters went 100 per cent for the Democratic electors nominated on the slate for the candidacy of William Jennings Bryan, who later was defeated by William Howard Taft.

At that time the electors rather than the candidates were listed on the slate.

Texas apparently had 18 electoral votes in 1908.

Voters however, split over the Democratic nomination for governor, giving R. R. Williams and Thomas M. Campbell four vote apiece. Campbell won and was governor.

What happened to the other two votes, is not shown.

Voters cast their ballots for lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, commissioner of the general land office, state treasurer, railroad commissioner, state supervisor of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture, judge of the court of criminal appeals, associate justice of the supreme court, associate justice of the court of criminal appeals.

Voters here were then part of Lubbock County and cast ballots for representative from the 16th district and a state representative from the 101st district.

Regular officials also were voted for in the election.

The yellowed poll lists from 56 years ago show a part of Cochran County's history before a county was organized.

Oh, yes, Texans back then were also called on to voice their favor or disfavor on Constitutional amendments.

In the primary election of 1908 the wet and dry battle reared up. Cochran County residents of that year voted eight to one for a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the general election.

Two Morton High School singers have been named to the All Region Choir from this area. The students, Rodney Hobson and Lynette Phillips, were named to the 96-voice choir after competition Saturday in Lubbock. Hobson, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Hobson, is a second tenor and Miss Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Phillips, is a first soprano. They won places on the choir by besting others of the some 250 students who entered competition. Nine students from Morton entered the contest. They were Peggy Ramsey, Carla McCarty, Carol Williams, Susan Blackley, Mayland Abbe, Jerry Cooper, Miss Phillips and Hobson. As members of the choir, they will participate in a concert in January, in which Haydn's Sixteenth Mass will be performed. Guy McLane, director of the Morton choirs, was a judge in the all-region contests, in the contralto competition.

Members of the group are Jeanette Cooper, Susan Blackley, Kay Peterson, Donna McMaster, Carla McCarty, Barbara Dunn, Dena Smith, Peggy Ramsey, Lynette Phillips, and Carol Williams accompanist. Tryouts for the Junior Play were held last week at Morton High School. The play a three act farce is to be presented in the county Auditorium Feb. 20. Members of the cast are: Juanice Skaggs, Jerry Elliott, Linda Blackstock, Mary Taylor, Kay Peterson, Glenda Smith, Susan Blackley, Jeanetta Rowden, Larry Embry, Bill Bob Freeland and Mike Irwin. Mrs. Elvis Fleming and Mrs. Dewayne Smith are directors of the play. There was a big Pep Rally in the Gym before the football game Friday. Mike Irwin gave a pep talk about the curse of the Wombie or Zombie or something. At least it was some kind of a curse. His cure for the curse worked pretty good as long as it lasted. Next time Mike, make one that will last four quarters instead of two. A number of MHS seniors were in Levelland at South Plains College Saturday morning for the American College Testing test. Among those were Robert Carter, Doug Miller, Barbara Dunn, Betsy Crowder, Barbara Kennedy, Gaylene Wood, Carol Williams, Carolyn Waters, Wadonna Strother, Elliott Elliott, Woody Self, Mike Doss, Ernest Cheshir, Donnie Dewbre, Charles Ledbetter, and Mike Egger. The Student Council is in for some trash barrel painting in the next few days. Janitors have burned trash in three of the barrels and the heat generated caused the enamel paint to char and peel off.

Vote canvass shows only slight changes in count

Official returns, canvassed Monday by the Cochran County Commissioners court, indicate only slight changes in the Nov. 3 general election vote tallies, but none in the outcome of any race. Commissioners found a discrepancy of only five votes in the unofficial returns — four more cast for state treasurer Jesse James than originally reported, and one additional for W. A. (Bill) Johnson, Constitutional Party Candidate for Congressman at large. Commissioners, in their regular meeting, also approved the expenditure of $75 for refurbishing the Christmas lighting on the court house after Johnny Johnson, manager of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce appeared to make the request in line with the city lighting program. Jerry Daniel, head of the chamber's Christmas Promotion committee accompanied Johnson to the meeting. The commissioners also voted to install cast aluminum commodes in the county jail. County Judge J. A. Love noted that regular ceramics fixtures have been broken a number of times during the past year in the jail. Plans are, he said, to install a larger fixture in the jail's run-around, and two smaller fixtures in individual cells. Bill Harris was given the installation job on the new fixtures.

Dukes will celebrate golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Duke will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary with a reception from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Duke, 608 29th Street Lubbock.

The Dukes, who live at 429 SW 1st, have lived in Morton since 1954. They came here from Lubbock. Duke is a retired farmer and owns Duke's Used Clothing.

They were married in a buggy in an outdoor ceremony at Leonard, Texas, Nov. 15, 1914.

Their six children are Mrs. Juanita Askew of Lubbock, George Earl Duke of Lubbock, Mrs. M. R. Southerland of Hobbs, Mrs. C. T. Coker, Mrs. Dean Jackson and Clifford Duke all of Morton. They have 15 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Thirteen members of the Busy Fingers Sewing Club heard readings Thursday of History Repeats Itself and Only Once.

Mrs. C. W. Howard who had charge of the program presented the readings. The former is a history writer of the coincidences which occurred during the Lincoln and Kennedy administrations and including their assassinations.

Mrs. Jack Baker, Hostess, served refreshments of pie, nuts, coffee and hot tea to Mesdames Roy Allsup, Henry Bedwell, Mary Gowdy, J. T. Young, C. B. Markham, C. W. Howard, C. R. Lindsey, C. B. Newton, F. L. Fred, Sammie Williams, Willie Taylor, W. L. Miller.

For the adults who like a good "who done it", Gwendolyn Butler's "The Murdering Kind" should provide thrills aplenty. In this same caliber is "The Misty Curtain" by Lucy Cores.

Take a select handful of cats, dogs, roosters, snakes, and kids, kids, kids. Mix well, adding one slightly harried housewife with a delightful sense of the incongruous, and you have the stuff that laughs are made of. Peg Boland's "Don't Panic Mother" gives one a look at causes of panic for every mother, but which she sees for what they are: tempes in teapots and very funny ones at that.

Among the shipment of books just received is a much requested volume, "The Spy Who Came in From the Cold."

Several new titles: "Accent on April" by Betty Cavanna; "The Dog Who Came to Stay," by Hal Borland; "Wuthering Heights" by Emily Jane Bronte and "The Red Badge of Courage," by Stephen Crane.

Mrs. Doyle Brook entertained her "No Name" bridge club on Monday. Her guests were Mesdames Charles Jones, Charles McDermott, Harold Drennan, Lem Chesher, Fred Payne, W. B. McSpadden, Garnett Bryan, Kenneth Watts and J. C. Reynolds and two guests Mrs. Smiley Monroe and Mrs. John Haggard.

Carlton Luper left Sunday for Houston to visit his mother, Mrs. R. E. Luper who is ill. He will also visit with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Matthews.

Other program participants were Mrs. W. A. Wood, Mrs. Lyndall Burleson and Mrs. Melvin Yarbrough.

Others present were Mesdames Alton Burleson, A. R. Lindsey, Ray Griffith and J. O. Gathright.

The next circle meeting will be held Nov. 17 for a mission program.

Most sounds in the English language are formed by breathing out, only a very few by an in-drawn breath.

Staff members of the Morton Tribune and the Denver City Press were entertained with a Fish Fry Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Cal Snyder at Denver City.

Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Snyder and Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin Jr. and Arvin Stafford. Following the party, the group broke up for the Morton-Denver City game.

The David Tarvers had as their guests over Halloween his mother, Mrs. John Keith and son Jay of Lubbock, Little Jay 6, went trick or treating with Doug, Phil, and John, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barker.

Copper was the first metal to be utilized by primitive man.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to Mesdames H. B. Spadden, J. C. Reynolds, M. A.

Amusing school events were related by each member for roll call. Members also brought clothing for the clothes bank at the school.

A new member, Mrs. Jack Russell, was accepted. The resignation of Mrs. Melvin McCoy was accepted with regret.

Mrs. E. O. Willingham presided. Mrs. W. B. Merritt hosted the club in her home.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to Mesdames H. B. Spadden, J. C. Reynolds, M. A.

Food is the topic of Town & Country Club

An examination of the part food can play in a woman's lives was discussed during a meeting of the Town and Country Study Club Wednesday with Mrs. Charles Bowen in charge of the program.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Joe Seagler with Mrs. Connie Gray, president as co-hostess.

"Convenience Foods Can Free Our Times" was presented by Mrs. A. E. Sanders. She gave tips that would help each homemaker to cut down time in the kitchen, trips to the food store and in organizing meals and kitchen.

Mrs. Bowen presented "Food We Cook Can Show Love in a Very Special Way" — by gifts to people who serve you in a special way, remembering our friends in times of need, preparation of food for special occasions in the family.

Following the program, members exchanged recipes.

The resignation of Mrs. Jim Middleton was accepted with regret. Thank you notes and standing committee reports were read.

Members were encouraged to reserve copies of "Texas Last Frontier" by Elvis Fleming — a history of Cochran County.

Mrs. Willard Henry was elected corresponding secretary. A report was made that a package was mailed to the Polish refugee.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. LeRoy Johnson on Nov. 18. Members present were Mesdames Harold Arant, Eugene Bedwell, BULA — The Bulldogs traveled to far North Texas last Friday and emerged victorious over Morris, 6-0.

The Bulldogs' lone score came as Pat Risinger raced over right guard and netted 35 yards and the tally.

The game was a grueling defensive match, with Risinger's score and tally coming late in the third period.

The Bulldogs travel to Three-Way Friday night to take on the Eagles in the championship of 1 B 8-man district.

The winner of the game draws a bye in bi-district play and enters straight into regionals, as far as possible in 8-man play.

Ray Lanier speaks to L'Allegro Study Club

A summary of the history of education in America was given by Ray Lanier, high school superintendent, before members of the L'Allegro Study Club Thursday evening.

Lanier brought out the fact that federal aid to education is not a recent thing. He discussed the setting aside of government lands to be sold or used for the purpose of education. Thus the land grant colleges came into being.

Changes in education have been a slow and gradual process in this country, he said.

Education today is very unlike its earliest beginnings when members of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel dictated the curriculum. Early teaching methods were founded almost entirely on the scriptures, he said.

Mrs. Eddie Irwin was in charge of the program. Mrs. Dan Swicegood led members in a recitation of The American's Creed.

An education department report was given by Mrs. W. B. McSpadden who posed the question "What do you do to make a teacher appreciated?"

Amusing school events were related by each member for roll call. Members also brought clothing for the clothes bank at the school.

A new member, Mrs. Jack Russell, was accepted. The resignation of Mrs. Melvin McCoy was accepted with regret.

Mrs. E. O. Willingham presided. Mrs. W. B. Merritt hosted the club in her home.

Tribune's Cotton production game deadline extended until Saturday

Because the harvest is so slow in coming this year, the Tribune's Cotton guessing contest has been extended another week — but to enter, you better hurry, because the deadline is Nov. 14, this Saturday.

The contest is very simple. All you have to do is make a guess as to how much cotton will be harvested in Cochran County this year. After you make the estimate, come by the Tribune of-rice and drop your guess in the box especially provided for the contest. Or, you may mail your entry in, just so it is postmarked by noon Saturday.

If your guess is the closest, you win the $10 first prize. Other prizes are $5 for second and $3 for third.

Guesses range from 15,000 to 74,000 in the contest.

Texas Employment Commission estimates are for 80,000 while Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., estimate 75,000 bales for the county.

So far, 17 entries have been made in the Tribune contest.

They, without reference to order of entry, are:

Reunion

Third place winner was an entry by the Senior Class, featuring horsemen and entitled "Bonanza". TV show characters were shown. More than 200 persons were served during the supper-business meeting in the school cafeteria following the parade.

At the business meeting Mrs. Owen Christian of Los Angeles, Calif., was honored as the ex who traveled the longest distance to attend.

She is the former Patsy Webb, a 1958 graduate.

Marvin Brown, Jr. of McDonald, N.M., was honored as the grad who graduated the most years ago. He finished school in 1906.

While the theme of the homecoming parade and festivities this year was predominately western, exes chose "The Space Age" as next year's theme.

Highlighting the event were basketball contests in the school gym. Bledsoe boys and girls teams contested with Pep.

The boys won their game but the girls were defeated.

In the girls' match Pep won 59-17. Felipia Pardo bucketed 18 points for the visitors while Linda Brown netted nine and Anita Musick scored six for Bledsoe.

Bledsoe's boys team slipped by the Pep squad, 44-39.

The Antelopes trailed 13-10 at the end of the first quarter but pulled ahead by 18-16 by the half.

Mike Sutton hooped 13 points for Bledsoe to lead in high point honors while Robert Walker scored 15 for Pep.

ball on everybody they've played, but just haven't been able to score.

The mental attitude among the players is sharp, Corley said, noting the defeat at the Mustangs' hands had not depressed them.

"Some of the Denver City boys told our boys that we hit them harder than anyone else has hit them all year — and they've been playing triple-A clubs," Corley said.

"The boys were a little disappointed with the second half," Corley commented, noting that the safety was the turning point in the game. It put the Mustangs out ahead 10-8.

In Friday night's action, the Indians will be facing a team who has won no games this season.

The Tigers, however, feature a fast running and good passing offense.

Senior left halfback Royce Wittie, though weighing only 145 pounds, is a tough runner. Coaches note he is very, very fast. He also is a passer, they say.

Regular quarterback Jerry Pinner, a 140 pound sophomore, also has a good passing arm and can move the team.

On the defensive side of the Tiger lineup, Dale Cook, a 170 pound junior is the monster, or shifting linebacker. Jerry Kindred, a 150 pound senior is center linebacker.

Other outstanding defensivemen are Robert Parham, 150 pound senior at safety and Hal Holt, 178 pound tackle.

The Indians will be out to give the seniors a last game victory and to preserve their record at only three losses.

The Tigers, on the other hand, will be out to net a district victory and a victory for the season.

When you want to call the information operator in Washington, D.C. First you dial the access code, 112, then dial the area code of the place you are calling, which in this case is 202 and then dial 555-1212, the special information number.

At this point you will hear a "zip-zip" tone, indicating that an operator has come in on the line. After you give her the number from which you are calling, the distant information operator's number will begin ringing within five to ten seconds.

Bailey explained that while a ticket will be made on the call (since there is no way of initially distinguishing whether the call is an information call or a regular call) the telephone subscribed will not be billed for it.

When it is not possible to dial the information operator in a distant city, dial the long distance operator ("O") and ask for information in the place you wish to call. For example, "Dallas, information please."

John Duke home damaged by fire, estimate is $900

Fire did an estimated $900 damage to the home of John Duke, 504 Grant, about 4:15 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Duke said she returned to her home after being gone for a short while and found the house filled with smoke.

"When I tried to use the telephone, I found it was out too, so I started to go next door to call, Mrs. Duke said.

As she left her front door, she saw Texas Highway Patrolmen T. A. Rowland and Jerry Hunter driving by. They rushed inside after sounding the alarm over their police radio.

Hunter said the fire was scorching the ceiling and the house was full of smoke when he went in.

The fire was extinguished after firemen knocked a hole through the sheet-rock ceiling and sprayed water on the blaze.

The fire was centered around a central heating unit in a main hallway of the home.

MORTON BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the Morton Bridge Club met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Doyle K. Brook.

Three guests were present, Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and Mrs. John Haggard.

Members present were Mesdames Willard Cox, John Crowder, Carl England, Scott Hawkins, Roy Hickman, Lloyd Miller, Neal Rose, Hume Russell, J. W. McDermott and Brook.

Council contributes to lighting plan

City councilmen attended to a number of routine business items Monday — including the contribution of $1,000 to the Christmas lighting program, purchase of six lots for a water well site, and discussions with a paving contractor.

Councilmen, with Neal Rose presiding in place of Dean Weatherly, absent because of illness of his wife, discussed the lighting program with representatives of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

CC members present were Johnny Johnson, C. E. Dolle, Tommy Lynch, Jerry Daniel and Royce Hanna.

After the discussion, Councilman Van Greene moved that $1,000 be contributed to the project with Tom Rowden seconding.

Following the lighting discussion, Ralph Douglas, consulting engineer who is heading the gas, water and sewer improvements, filled councilmen in on progress being made in the job.

He told of the water well sites available and councilmen authorized Secretary Elra Oden to negotiate with the Morton Co-op gin on a site for a water well on their property.

Previously an agreement had been indicated which would allow the city the well sites on gin property in exchange for fire protection.

The councilmen also voted to purchase six lots on Country Club Road for use as water well sites in the future for $1,000.

Ronald Partell, vice president of Municipal Investment Corp. who did the paving job here this summer, also appeared before the council to discuss accounts far in arrears on paving assessments.

He noted suits will be filed soon against some of those who have not paid their assessments, and told councilmen of his plans in the lawsuit area.

Texaco's bid was $13.00 per hand-city's gasoline business for the coming year when bids on gasoline were opened by councilmen. Only two bids were entered.

Texaco's bid was $13.00 per hundred gallons of regular gasoline and $16.50 for ethyl.

Councilmen read the ordinance granting Neal Rose a non-exclusive 10-year franchise for cable television here, for the first time. Two more readings are required before final passage.

Joe Carruthers and Butch Wright were appointed to the ordinance board presently considering a new electrical code for the city. They join Maurice Lewallen, Rusty Bender and Fred Morrison.

Councilmen also voted to paint the two water towers gold and black in line with the school colors.

After first half battle, Indians lose to Mustangs

By DAN MARTIN
The Indians staged a gallant battle Friday night by accumulating 36-8 to the mighty City Mustangs.

shortly after the second half began, a safety put the Denver City margin just widened. The victory gave the undefeated Mustangs the unchallenged championship of District 4-AA and the right to represent the area in the playoffs. Morton, now with a 1-2 record in conference play and a 6-3 season record, will meet Frenship here Friday night before closing out the grid wars for this year.

The Indians nearly stymied the Mustangs in the first half, beating them in the statistics realm. The Morton squad almost doubled the yards rushing for the first 24 minutes, racking up 104 to the Mustangs' 59.

The story was different in the second period, as the Mustangs held the Indians to 26 yards rushing while rolling up 220 for themselves.

The first quarter see-sawed back and forth, with the Mustangs and Indians exchanging punts twice. The Indians appeared to have a drive going when Kenny Coats recovered a fumble by Roy Jay Henson on the Morton 29.

Morton staged a drive which took them to the Mustang 22 yard line. The situation was fourth down, six yards to go and the Indians elected to gamble.

Ledbetter handed off to Sherrill Griffith, who dropped back to pass. He was smeared, however, and lost nine yards, giving the Mustangs the ball on their own 31.

One Morton 15-yard penalty and nine plays later, David Mitchell went over the double stripe to score.

Mitchell plunged two yards for the counter and then added the dressing by passing to Jimmy Young for the conversion. With 6:20 left, the Mustangs led 8-0.

The Indians roared right back, however, taking the kickoff and staging a drive. Bobby Dobson took the kickoff on the Indian 12 and returned it to the 35.

From there, Dobson, Ledbetter and Griffith toted the pigskin and Ledbetter passed once to Griffith, as they marched 65 yards in 15 plays to score.

Ledbetter slipped in from four yards out to mark, and then passed to Jimmy Joyce for the conversion. Only 23-seconds were left.

As the half ended, the score was 8-8.

The second half appeared to start with the tough defensive battle going again but soon changed.

The Indians took the ball, but were held and Ledbetter punted. The Mustangs marched from the Morton 42 to the eight yard line, but the Indian defense held strong and took the ball on downs.

Then the situation changed suddenly. The Indians moved out to their

Mustang on the loose

DAVID MITCHELL, 11, speedy Denver City back put on the speed as he tried to get around Indian defenders. Just after photo was snapped, he was nailed, however.

Indians rushing in are Ernest Chesshir, 81; Mike Irwin, 61, Donnie Dewbre, 72, and Eddie Holloway, 81. Mustangs pictured are Mitchell and Mike Noble, 60.

12 yard line and attempted to pass. Ledbetter pitched back to Griffith, who fumbled the ball. Jerry Martin pursued and nailed him in the end zone for a safety.

When the ball was put back into play, the old adage of the third time being the charm held true. Ledbetter punted from his 20, but the Indians were penalized for being off sides.

On the next punt, the Mustangs were offside and penalized.

The third time, Henson took Ledbetter's punt on the Mustang 39 and returned it to the Morton 41.

The Indians were penalized 15 yards and the ball went to the Morton 26.

Mitchell aimed right and hit Martin in the end zone for 26 yards and the marker.

Mike Bickley kicked the points and the Mustangs led 17-8 with 4:29 left in the third period.

The Indians threatened no more after that.

The Mustangs scored three more times in the fourth quarter to ice down their victory.

Young raced around right end for 28 yards and a score with 9:58 left in the quarter after the Mustangs marched 65 yards in six plays. Mitchell passed to Billy Childers in a try for the extra points but it failed and the score was 23-8.

Dennis Morgan plunged over right guard from one yard out for the next score, with 5:02 left and Bickley passed to Chip Bennett for the conversion and the score was 29-8.

The last score came when Mitchell passed to Young for 24 yards and to cap a 54 yard drive. Bickley kicked the point and with 1:40 left, the score was final at 36-8.

Young was the game's leading ground gainer, picking up 141 yards on 14 carries for an average of 10 yards per carry. Mitchell got 81 yards for seven carries and an average of 11.5.

Dobson was the top runner for Morton, gaining 52 yards on 19 carries — far below his season average — or 2.9 yards per tote.

Other Morton backs who carried the ball were Griffith, 23 yards on 14 carries; Ledbetter, 38 yards on 15 carries; and Kenny Palmer, eight yards on three carries.

Mustangs runners who carried were Laughlin, 26 yards on 7 carries; Morgan 38 yards on four carries; and Henson, 10 yards on six carries.

Top defensive backs for Morton were Jimmy Joyce, who played a fine defensive game making several good saves; Dobson and Palmer.

Top defensive linemen were Kenny Coats, Mike Irwin, Larry Smith and Eddie Holloway.

Top defensive backs for the Mustangs were Morgan and Mitchell. Top linemen were Bennett, Mike Noble and Floyd Taylor.

Morton meets Frenship here at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Eddie Irwin is journeying to Abilene Saturday to attend the Texas Association of Assisting Officers which will be held Monday and Tuesday. She will return on Wednesday.

Joyce stops him

JIMMY JOYCE, 44, an outstanding player for the Morton Indians as they fought a losing battle against the Denver City Mustangs last Friday night, wraps around David Mitchell, 11, to stop him during the match.

Education pays dividend

"Education Pays Dividends" the American Education Week theme for 1964, lends particular emphasis to what the observance has meant to the nation through the years.

This week, Nov. 8-14, is American Education Week. Since its inception in 1921, AEW has become a rallying point in the struggle to achieve adequate education for all citizens.

The week focuses the attention of a hundred million citizens on the public school programs in their communities, counties and states as well as across the nation.

Last year during the week, more than 32 million parents visited the schools to see first hand what is being done, and, more important, to see what the schools must yet do if they are to continue performing a vital role in the preservation of a democratic society.

The week could appropriately be called "Teachers and Administrators week," also.

For without our teachers and public school administrators, we could have no schools. It is through their efforts that our schools have reached the high levels they have.

Most old bromides have a portion of the truth about them—except one, "Them that can't do, teach." Nothing could be further from the truth.

School teaching is an exacting job, where preparation, patience, imagination, humor and care are most important. It is a job where pay is not very good, but where intrinsic benefits somewhat offset the hours, frustrations and poor pay.

It is a job in which a good teacher can open immense vistas to the imagination of a youngster, or where a bad teacher can ruin the efforts of a dozen outstanding ones.

Not only this week do we pause to pay tribute to our wonderful school systems, but we here want to say a hearty "Thank you, teacher" to those, especially, who teach our youngsters in this area.

Brown case testimony

An almost unbelievable situation has developed in the Brown case, the 1954 school-desegregation matter that started the current civil-rights drive.

U. S. District Judge Sydney C. Mize has recently found that the evidence indicates the NAACP tricked the Supreme Court to get its decision in Brown. Judge Mize says the evidence shows "what appears to have been a pattern of evasion of fact, if not an actual misleading concealment of fact in that case."

What inspired this Federal judge to use such language was the uncontradicted testimony in a case he heard last July, the Evers case. In his decision in that case, Judge Mize said the NAACP suppressed evidence during the Brown hearing; it did not disclose to the Supreme Court test results it had that tended to destroy its arguments. Judge Mize found that the results the NAACP withheld went to prove that integrated classrooms were not good for either race but were, instead, psychologically and educationally harmful to both.

For this reason, he said, "the principal evidence of injury relied on by the Supreme Court in Brown was unworthy of belief," and concluded by saying Brown "cries out" to be heard.

It is a startling development and why it has been left to lie without comment, from July until now, is not easy to explain.

Here we have a Federal Judge who has put the Supreme Court on notice that all the available evidence was not presented when it heard the Brown case. Moreover, this Federal Judge, having heard the evidence the Supreme Court did not hear, found the truth to be the opposite of the findings of the Supreme Court.

It is startling. What is more, it raises three blazing questions:

- 1) Was the NAACP, in Brown, guilty of unethical conduct, did it knowingly deceive the Court, suppress evidence?
2) Has the Supreme Court, by its ruling in Brown, sent the American people off on the wrong "race" track?
3) With these questions opened by Judge Mize's findings, does the Supreme Court now have the courage to look again at the most momentous ruling in its history, to face this challenge to its intellectual honesty?

The conclusion to all of this is inescapable:

If the facts, as Judge Mize found them, are right and the Supreme Court is wrong, then the Brown decision is destroying the effectiveness of every public-school child's education and it had better be rectified before critical damage is done to the next generation of American children.

Judge Mize says Brown "cries out" to be reheard. Indeed it does.

VIEW... of other editors

Charges of press partiality is not new in Presidential campaigns.

In order to understand what is involved certain facts about the function of newspapers should be understood. Content of newspapers, other than advertising, is made up of straight news reporting, interpretation of the news and editorials.

News reports are supposed to be as nearly an impartial record of what happens as human objectivity can make them. Most reporters take seriously this responsibility and conscientiously try to avoid slanting their stories. But reporters are people and it is not always easy to avoid reflecting personal opinions in news writing.

Those who interpret the news enjoy a larger degree of freedom. They may express opinions in news writing.

Editorials, of course, belong in an entirely different category from either news reporting or commentary. The state views on specific issues and make clear-cut choices between rival candidates for public office. But the public is on notice that the opinions are those of the publication and may be partisan or even biased.

Apparently, editorial support on a Presidential campaign has little relation to the outcome of an election. Republican candidates have consistently had the support of the nation's editors, but they haven't done too well since 1928. Levelland Sun-News

It's All Over Now!

We read the other day an old axiom in the law business, reportedly having been said by an attorney friend of an editor, which says that if the law favors your client, build your case around the law; if the facts favor your client, build your case around the facts; but if neither the law nor the facts are on your side, then attack your opponent.

Using this bit of logic as a thumbnail rule, apply it to the recent political campaign waged to unseat Democratic incumbents, and you learn a wealth of insight into the thinking of the high paid public relations boys who write the speeches and direct the behind-the-scenes strategy.

Most of us are well versed in the letter of the law of our nation, because we are a nation governed by laws, and most of us, at last those of voting age, know the basic facts in the national picture. Where some get confused is in recognizing the signs of the offensive... the attack stage of a campaign.

The American people during the last 50 years have come to regard things of a technical nature highly desirable, while neglecting things of a spiritual and literary nature as being less important. However, this can be most dangerous because this is exactly the same state of affairs that Adolf Hitler found in Germany when he made his push for power, which proved to be most successful.

The first thing that must be done when a political party goes to the offensive is to divide, sow discontent, doubt, suspicion. If this step is successfully completed, the job must be undertaken to offer solutions to the problems, (it makes little difference whether the problems are real or imaginary). And, if things go as planned, you are in power.

Glenn Shelton, columnist of the Wichita Falls Record News, wrote what's lousy about our country, how morally decadent we are individually, how disloyal our leadership, how corrupt our institutions.

Better turn on your radio, your television set, and open your newspaper. You just might be better equipped to lead. "The direction in which you lead us must be one which will preserve the heritage and freedoms of our great nation." Stamford American

Veterans' Day—all but forgotten

Veterans' Day, which is gradually losing ground as a nationally-observed holiday, is next Wednesday, Nov. 11. The only observance marking it locally will be the annual Veterans' Day supper at the American Legion Hall.

It's too bad that the nation has forgotten so soon that it isn't doing too much for our war veterans to set aside a day in their honor. For a few years following each of the World Wars, we paused long enough to properly observe the day, but not any more, except in a few isolated instances.

The services the veterans rendered their country should mean just as much today as it did the first year following each of the big wars, when we went all out to observe Veterans' Day, or Armistice Day, as it was then called.

Actually, our men and women in the armed forces have never stopped contributing to their nation's safety, even though we have not officially been at war since 1945. The Korean conflict, in which thousands of American men died, was not officially designated as a war by this nation. Our present embroilment in South Vietnam is not a war, yet scores of our servicemen are being killed and wounded there.

Even in peacetime maneuvers, many of our servicemen make the supreme sacrifice for their country. In the maneuvers now under way by the Navy off Spain, 14 American aviators have lost their lives in air accidents.

Every day they serve, the men and women in our armed forces are contributing to their country's safety. They come out as veterans, not as war veterans, perhaps, but as veterans nevertheless. Nov. 11 is their day, the day originally set aside to honor them.

Our veterans may wonder, but they're not supposed to ask why on anything they're told to do while in the service. How many of them, do you suppose, wonder after they leave the service why this nation has all but forgotten Veterans' Day? Post Dispatch

Read the fine print

Elderly Americans are being bilked out of millions of dollars yearly by a "fine print" insurance companies because they don't read the fine print in the health policies they buy when they believe they are being protected against the costs of doctor and hospital bills in their illnesses and accidents. The Senate subcommittee on frauds, against aging citizens was so informed recently according to The Kansas, Ill. Daily Journal.

Officials of the Federal Trade Commission and of California, Florida, New Jersey, Virginia and other states testified to health insurance policies peddled by mail which later proved worthless. The FTC has prepared a new code of ethics for companies which sell insurance plans by mail to buyers in states where they have no agents. Federal agents cannot move in where state regulation is effective.

The solution, most agreed, is a combination of public education and aggressive cooperation by the state to do insurance business in their states, whether direct or by mail. The would be policy holder should satisfy himself by reading the fine print in his policy. His health, and even his life, may de-

Highlights and sidelights

Connally dominates state

AUSTIN, Tex. — Gov. John Connally remains the dominant figure on the statehouse scene. He received over 1,800,000 votes in the general election, to lead the Democratic ticket.

An overwhelming majority of Texas voters liked the dem ticket headed by native son Pres. Lyndon Baines Johnson.

Republicans were left with little to be encouraged about. However, GOP leaders insisted their party has "the zeal and spirit to make a fast comeback" and will begin the 1966 campaign immediately.

Statisticians for the two political parties have gone to work to explain the tremendous Democratic sweep of Texas. One logical explanation of Johnson's landslide simply was that 400,000 more Texans than ever before appeared at the polls. And apparently they were about all Democrats. Turnout was some 88 per cent of the qualified voters, also a new record in this century in Texas.

President Johnson received 64 per cent of the 2,700,000 Texas votes cast (to 36 per cent for Sen. Barry Goldwater). This represented the largest total in a presidential race since the late Franklin D. Roosevelt's 71 per cent margin for a fourth term in 1944.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough defeated GOP candidate George Bush by carrying nearly 56 per cent of the total. But Bush got more votes than any previous Texas Republican candidate for senator. The Houston oilman was the first GOP senate candidate to rack up more than a million votes.

Republicans, although better organized and financed than ever, lost every statewide and congressional race and all legislative races except one. GOP Frank Cahoon of Midland won. In the scramble the Republicans lost two congressmen Bruce Alger of Dallas and Ed Foreman of Odessa, and nine members of the Texas Legislature.

Makeup of the Legislature in general remains conservative-moderate. Leadership will continue in the hands of Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and House Speaker Byron Tunnell. The latter is assured another term as speaker on strength of member pledges.

Texas voters also approved all three state constitutional amendments on the ballot.

In so doing they knocked out legislative authority to transfer one per cent of the permanent school fund to the available school fund; Authorized the Legislature to enact a program of medical aid to the aged not on welfare rolls but having difficulty paying their doctor bills; and required bills creating or substantially altering conservation and reclamation districts to be published in newspapers and cleared by Texas Water Commission.

LBJ HOME — President Johnson closed out his campaign and celebrated his landslide victory in the Central Texas congressional district where he got his political start. Final speech of his nationwide

General Telephone appoints aide for communications

E. R. "Randy" Robertson has been named communications consultant with General Telephone of the Southwest in Brownfield.

Robertson's duties will involve sales contact work in 29 South Plains cities, to the phone firm's western division manager. H. B. Elam of Brownfield said.

A native of Afon, Robertson is a veteran of 24 years of service with the United States Air Force. He retired from active duty in September of this year and was employed with General Oct. 5. During his career with the Air Force, Robertson served overseas tours in the southwest Pacific, Korea, and Germany.

He graduated from Patton Springs (Texas) high school and attended Sam Houston State College in Huntsville. Robertson and his wife, Gloria, have four children.

While stationed at Reese Air Force Base, the Robertsons were members of the First Methodist Church of Lubbock.

BIG JOHN RIDES AGAIN

vote hunt was made to 100,000 at an Austin rally in front of the State Capitol.

He voted at his old precinct in Johnson City on election day.

Johnson returned to Austin to make his first statement to the nation after the election — a call for American unity and a pledge to work for a government offering equal opportunities to all.

CHANGES — Some Texans learned to their dismay that, if they had moved from one county to another within the last six months, they lost their right to vote.

Others found that if they had moved from one precinct to another in the same county, but had failed to transfer their poll taxes by the Thursday before election, they had lost the right to vote.

These situations naturally led to talk of making changes in the law or of lawsuits to set aside the laws which cut off rights to vote on technicalities.

SALT WATER — District Judge Herman Jones heard three days of evidence as to whether the Texas Railroad Commission or the Texas Water Pollution Control Board should regulate the disposal of the surface in oil and gas wells.

Oilmen contend it should be wholly under the Railroad Commission. Users of surface and ground water contend that the new Pollution Control Board has the authority, and should exercise it, to prevent pollution.

After filing on briefs and oral arguments, Jones will reach a decision about November 20.

COURTS SPEAK — National chain loan companies got the word they wanted from the Texas Supreme Court. It upheld lower court decisions that an effort by the Legislature to restrict non-Texas companies from opening new loan offices in Texas clearly was unconstitutional.

Small Texas firms had convinced the Legislature that loan licenses should be issued only to companies owned at least 51 per cent by Texans. But the court said that is not valid, under both state and federal constitutions.

On request of the Upshur Rural Electric Cooperative and Southwestern Electric Power Company of Shreveport, Supreme Court dismissed appeals in a dispute involving construction of a $9,000,000 rural power generating plant near Ore City in East Texas.

Southwestern claimed the Upshur Coop, serving 10 North East Texas counties, had no authority to discontinue buying power and to start generating its own. All matters in dispute reportedly were settled.

An Austin district court refused the Houston House of Tobacco's request for a temporary restraining order to retain its distributor's permit. But it set a November 12 hearing on an injunction to keep the State Comptroller from revoking the permit. Firm's operator was charged with participating in cigarette tax stamp fraud scheme said to run into millions of dollars.

El Paso Electric Company is challenging constitutionality of the state gross receipts tax on its energy sales in El Paso, Van Horn and Anthony. It seeks a $300,000 refund in appeal to Third Court of Appeals.

COLLEGE GROWTH — The 32 junior colleges which are supported in part by state money gained 16.7 per cent in enrollments this fall.

Growth of community colleges was even greater than state colleges and universities, which checked in 144,309 students, a gain of 9.4 per cent over last year.

New emphasis on the need for higher education, plus the simple fact that the bumper "war baby crop" is reaching college age, accounts for growth.

Community colleges, to give vocational and technical courses, water needs to the same date.

are a major part of the recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond High School. Need for at least dozen new community colleges indicated.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said a section of the state driver responsibility requiring "immediate" surrender of driver licenses when actual liability requirements are not met is unconstitutional. Department of Public Safety said it still is lawful for anyone to refuse to render a suspended or revoked license.

In other opinions, Carr held that:

El Paso Commissioners have authority to lease the county museum to individuals for a future sale; construction of a highway bridge with fender system which may interfere with a landowner's access to a navigable stream is not unconstitutional; seizure of property; State Board of Plumbing Examiners has authority to set minimum apprenticeship period for license applicants to adopt necessary rules.

WATER — A committee of legislators and citizens headed by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake is considering a recommendation to the Legislature in the field of soil and water conservation.

A daylong hearing revealed oil and water regulatory bodies don't mix. Spokesmen for oil companies want the law clarified so their salt water disposals are regulated only by the Railroad Commission. Bill Abington, counsel for the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, outlined that view.

But J. W. Buchanan of Dallas, pollution control chairman for the Texas Water Conservation Association, felt differently. He thought the Texas Water Commission should be given the power to vet applications for salt water disposals into the ground, as a means of making sure that underground water supplies are not polluted.

Committee will meet again to reach decisions on this and other proposals before it.

HEARING ON DREDGING — Parks and Wildlife Commission set a hearing for 9 a.m. on November 16 on application of the defenseless Brothers of Corpus Christi to take 100,000 cubic yards of mud shell from a 2,500-acre area of Copano Bay to use on road construction.

Rep. Paul Haring and others have entered strong protest. Insisting dredging will kill live oyster reefs and damage fishing and tourist attractions.

SHORT SHORTS — State Board of Insurance has delayed to January 1 a requirement that mutual aid and burial associations raise their rates high enough to build reserves to meet expected demands on their policies, except the November 1 date did not give the associations time to calculate necessary statistics. Thirty travel writers from many states and four foreign countries were tour guests of the Texas Tourist Agency and visited Dallas, Fort Worth, Amarillo, Palo Duro Canyon, Odessa, El Paso, Ciudad Juarez (Mexico), Guadalupe Peak, Fort Davis, Big Bend National Park, Fort Clark and Floresville Ranch of Governor Connally.

State Board of Education heard revised protest against adoption of five biology books allegedly promoting atheism and three government texts.

Workers' compensation insurance rates go up 1.4 per cent on December 1 as losses pushed up premium rates in many lines of business.

The University of Texas and Texas A&M University have undertaken studies which will make up a part of the Texas Water Commission's master plan for Texas — UT will determine water needs of each area of Texas to the year 2000.

A&M will forecast agricultural and technical courses, water needs to the same date.

"Think beautiful within and a radiant beauty will glow without.
My philosophy of life can be summed up in these few words," said
Mrs. Raby Kellogg of 808 SW 6th Street.

"Although a victim of polio at the early age of eight months, I have never permitted this to become a handicap.

"I was taught and I learned in the 'tender years' that life is precisely what one makes it. I chose to make it as pleasant for myself and those about me, as much as possible."

This simple, yet astounding philosophy in an age marked with frustrations and insecurities, is reflected by each member of the Kellogg family.

There are three children, of whom she and husband, Raby, are quite proud. Rodney, 17, is a senior in Morton High School and a member of the National Honor Society and MHS marching band.

Twin daughters, Rhonda and Wanda are nine years old. They are fourth graders in the Morton Elementary school, where they are very enthusiastic with their work.

The Kelloggs have resided here four years. Kellogg is employed with McCoy Ford Sales as a mechanical technician.

Prior to moving to Morton, they lived at Earth, where Kellogg served as Service Manager at Earth Motor Company.

In her home, which is kept spotlessly clean, Albertene — or Teen-ie — is quite busy with canning, cooking and the usual routine. She enjoys it all, "even though occasionally," she admits, "it becomes a chore.

"My interests and hobbies are varied, but the most fascinating interest of all is simply — people.

I enjoy meeting and making new acquaintances.
"I deeply admire people who are honest, humble and of strong character.
"As to hobbies, I enjoy doing research on ancient cities and religions and working with flowers and potted plants.
The highlight of the year for the Kellogg family, is the traditional "family reunion." These are held each year in August in the beautiful Hancock Park at Lampasas, with 200 to 300 relatives and friends attending.
"As my whole family enjoys talking, I have wondered what it would be like — trying to make a recording at one of these festivals."

"Our family enjoys traveling and sightseeing together. Although we have never traveled extensively, we still thrill at "discovering" new places in our great state of Texas, especially in the spring of the year, during bluebonnet season."

The Kelloggs are members of Second Street Church of Christ, where Mrs. Kellogg teaches a Bible class for primary age children.
She has taught twelve years.

She has been a reporter for the Band Boosters Club the past three years and also helped with the sale of calendars. She has been a member of the Happy Homemakers Club the past 10 months.

While employed with the Ordinance Division at Fort Hood during World War II, the former Miss Albertene Hill met Raby Kellogg at a Sunday morning church service.

A correspondence began and
Kellogg served in Europe and terminated with their marriage March 6, 1946, at Gatesville, four months after he returned to the United States.

Prior to going to Fort Hood, without further citation or notice to any parties herein, and all said parties shall take notice of and and pleadings now on file and which may hereafter be filed in said cause by all other parties herein, and all of those taxing units above named who may intervene herein and set up their respective tax claims against said property.

You are hereby commanded to appear and defend such suit on the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two (42) days from and after the date of issuance hereof, the same being the 21st day of December, A.D., 1964, (which is the return day of such citation), before the honorable District Court of Cochran County, Texas, to be held at the courthouse thereof, then to show cause why judgment shall not be rendered for such taxes, penalties, interest and

PARENTS' RESPONSIBILITY

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6

Ask anyone what his most precious possession is, and he will almost invariably say, "My children." The desire for the welfare of our children enables us to "move mountains". We will do anything, give them anything, if we think it will help them.

The one most important thing we can do for them, however, is to instill in them a love of God, and a desire to obey him. The church can help you in this endeavor, inspire and strengthen you. We invite you to take your family to church this week. It may make a great difference in the life direction taken by your children.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
