Chamber banquet set tonight

Wagoner Carr, attorney general of Texas will arrive in Morton today to speak at the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

The banquet, one of the highlights of the year, is catered again by the Morton High School Choral Boosters.

The menu features roast beef, green beans, whipped potatoes, tossed salad, hot rolls, tea or coffee.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the naming of the Outstanding Citizen of the Year.

A community committee, headed by Neal Rose made the selection from nominations sent in from chamber members.

Previous outstanding citizens have been Mrs. J. C. (Blackie) Reynolds and Melvin McCoy.

Also, president Gene Snyder will present two Presidential Awards to members who have made a significant contribution to the chamber during the past year.

The new officers, including President Tommy Lynch, will be introduced during the banquet, though they won't take over until Jan. 1.

Along with Lynch, new officers are Don Workman, vice president, and George Hargrove, secretary-treasurer.

New directors are Jack Russell, Workman, Hargrove, Jerry Daniel, John Haggard, Tommy Hawkins and Woody Dixon.

George Boring will be master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Tickets, at $3 per person, are available today from any member of the board or at chamber office.

Four groups enter the Yule parade

Four organizations have entered floats in the Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade to be held Dec. 4 in downtown Morton.

Mrs. John Haggard, chairman of the parade committee, said the Girls' Auxiliary of First Baptist Church, Le Fleur Garden Club, L'Allegro Study Club and the Cochran County Garden Club have entered floats.

The Girls' Auxiliary float will be sponsored by Morton Drug; Le Fleur by Baker Feed and Seed, L'Allegro by the Tribune and the Garden Club sponsor has not been named.

Mrs. Haggard said both the variety and the floats will be

Worship services for all are slated on Thanksgiving

A special Thanksgiving message will be delivered by the Rev. Fred Thomas, pastor of First Baptist Church, during services to be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 25, in the Assembly of God Church.

Congregations of all local churches will participate, said the Rev. D. A. Watson, president of Morton Ministerial Alliance. Rev. Watson is pastor of Assembly of God Church.

A familiar sight

TRACTORS LIKE THIS ONE with cotton stripper attached, were familiar sights during the past week in the Morton Area as rains and hails bogged down the cotton harvest. More than a half inch of rain was reported the first three days of the week, with hail pounding sections of the county Sunday. Damage from the hail is as yet undetermined. TRIBUNE Photo

Rain, hail curtail cotton harvest

Old Man Winter's frosty fingers flexed toward the Morton area during the past week, but failed to bring the dry freeze hoped for.

Instead, the cold front which whipped through the South Plains brought rain and rain and rain.

Attendant with the rain was hail, which was reported Sunday, creating as yet undetermined damage to the cotton harvest.

The days of fog and drizzle bogged down the cotton harvest, with strippers and crews pressed not to get the crop in, but about how to spend the wet days.

Most farmers in the county appeared concerned that the wet weather would damage the quality of the crop though those in the south and western quadrants reported they will not know what damage the hail caused until they harvest the crop.

And worse than the weather we've had up to now this week—forecasters in Lubbock predict there is more of the bad, wet situation in store, at least until the end of the week.

So far, we have not had a freeze in Cochran County this season, probably the longest period on record without a sub-32-degree reading.

The mercury has dipped to 33 degrees three times in November, causing some ice glazing.

The 33 degree readings were recorded Nov. 6, Nov. 7 and Nov. 12.

Since the cold front blew through, Cochran County has received .61 of an inch of rain, according to official records kept at the Soil Conservation Service, recorded, on Monday, .07 was the reading, and Tuesday, .11 fell.

The .61 brings our November total to .72 of an inch.

A ten year survey of the weather records available in the SCS office, maintained by Gordon Houghton, show the average freeze date to be Oct. 29.

Last year, the killing freeze came late — Nov. 18, when the mercury dropped to 27 degrees.

From the weather records, previous freeze dates:

Nov. 7, 1962 — light freeze

Oct. 3, 1961 — light frost.

Nov. 8, 1961 — killing freeze.

Oct. 31, 1960 — light frost

Gold star winners are named here

Lyndon Henderson and Glenna Dawson were named Gold Star Award winners at the annual 4-H Achievement Award banquet last Thursday in the County Activities Building.

"Personal development, character and work with 4-H all play a part in this award," Homer Thompson, county agricultural agent said in presenting the award.

The banquet, which recognized youth and adults for work with the character building organization, was sponsored by the Bailey County Electrical Co-operative.

At the banquet, Mrs. Russell Hudson, secretary to Thompson and Jennie Allen, home demonstration agent, was recognized for 16 years service as secretary in the Texas Extension Service.

Adult leaders were recognized for their service in directing and

★ Booster banquet

Slingin' Sammy Baugh, the legendary football ace, will be speaker for the Morton Athletic Boosters annual awards banquet Feb. 19, Kenneth Thompson president, said.

Baugh, now head coach of the Houston Oilers, AFL, was All-American when he played for TCU, and set many records, still unbroken, in the National Football League.

At the banquet, the outstanding Morton football player will be given the traveling trophy sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison, and the basketball and football player with the most hustle will be given the annual Morton Tribune Award.

Thompson said final plans will be worked out in a meeting Monday night and urged all boosters to attend if possible.

Basketball play begins Monday

They also have new warmup jackets which are white with a picture of an Indian on the left front and the name of each boy on the back.

Three tournaments are featured on the schedule this year — Tulia, Caprock and Seagraves.

Whillock noted the Indians open in the Tulia Tourney against the AA top team in the state last year — Canyon — now gone AAA.

The Tulia tourney will be held Dec. 17, 18 and 19.

The Caprock meet, slated for Lubbock, will be held during the not district contenders," he said. "We were district co-champions last year in 3-AA loop," he added, noting that this year Morton is in 4-AA.

"Slaton, Denver City and Post all have good boys — Frerenship probably will be the only weak team in the district," the coach concluded.

One thing is guaranteed. The Morton squad will be one of the best dressed crews to take the court.

Their new outfits feature white uniforms and black uniforms trimmed with gold.

Thanksgiving Festival in Pep slated Nov. 26

The annual Pep Thanksgiving Festival is slated to begin at 11 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 26, with the public invited to attend regardless of religious faith.

Between 2,000 and 2,250 pounds of the famous Pep sausage is being prepared, also 26 large turkeys, dressing and all the trimmings, dressing and bread and cake.

Carnival attractions will be held throughout the day for young and old.

Public auction of cotton and other merchandise will be held at 7 p.m. Anyone wishing to donate for this auction is asked to contact the Rev. Father Stanley Crocchiola or A. H. Jungman, telephone 933-2182.

A dance will begin at 9 p.m. with music provided by a Western band. Meals are to be served from 11 a.m. till 2 p.m. and 5 till 8 p.m. Plates are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

This invitation to spend your Thanksgiving at Pep is extended to all the South Plains folks and anyone anxious to make this Thanksgiving a memorable one.

Giveaway prizes

JERRY DANIEL and Ed Sursa look over the prizes to be given during the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce Promotional activities during December. To be given away at drawings will be three miniature cars, six bicycles, 15 hams, and six transistor radios. Daniel was chairman of the chamber's promotional campaign committee and Sursa was a committee member. TRIBUNE Photo

Tribune's cotton production contest entries are listed

The Tribune's first annual cotton production guessing game is over — the deadline was extended but passed Nov. 14.

An even 20 entries were received in the contest, which promises $10 for the closest guess; $5 for second and $3 for third.

Winners will be named when complete production is tabulated in Cochran County.

So far, according to Texas Employment Commission reports, some 3,000 bales have been ginned in Cochran County. Estimates of production range from 60,000 to 75,000.

Guesses in our contest, however, ranged from 74,100, to 49,050.

In case of a tie, the earliest entry will win.

city and junior high school bands from Morton High School will be entered in the parade.

Santa Claus will lead the annual parade, Mrs. Haggard said. Cash prizes of $50, $30 and $20 will be given for best floats in the parade, as judged by out of towners.

"Everyone is invited to enter a float in the parade," Mrs. Haggard said, noting that sponsors will be provided for each float.

She said that some 15 merchants have been contacted and indicated their willingness to sponsor floats in the parade.

The theme of the parade this year will be "Christmas Cards".

In addition to Mrs. Haggard, Mrs. Truman Anglin is co-chairman of the parade committee. Members are Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Roy Hill and Mrs. Bobby Travis.

George Dukes observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Duke, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, when they were honored with a reception in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Duke 608 29th Street Lubbock. It was also Mrs. Duke's 69th birthday.

More than 125 guests signed the register. A grandson, Kerry Coker with the U. S. Navy at Beville, secured guests' names.

Guests traveling the farthest distance were a grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Jeffcoat, Gary and Jackie from Barstow, Calif.

Mr. Duke's two sisters, and niece came from Leonard, Tex. Mrs. Gene McCarley, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Combs.

Others came from Brownfield, Lamesa, Ropesville, Meadow, Hale Center, Lubbock and Morton.

The table was laid with an ivory lace cloth over gold. The centerpiece featured chrysanthemums of gold and yellow.

The two tier white cake was topped with a miniature horse and buggy, reminiscent of the Duke's outdoor ceremony performed in a buggy, at Leonard, Nov.

15, 1914. Gold candles also adorned the table. Punch was served from a chrysal punchbowl by granddaughters, Misses Nancy Jackson, Donna Duke, Sandy Lynch and Jo Ann Duke.

Mrs. Duke and all her daughters wore corsages of white carnations with gold ribbons. Duke and his sons wore boutonniers of white carnations.

Gifts were opened and displayed by the daughters.

Matching gold wedding bands were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Duke by their children.

Displayed on the register table were two photographs of Mr. and Mrs. Duke. One was recent, the other taken at their wedding in 1914.

Guests were welcomed by son, George Duke, host.

Those attending from Morton were daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Coker and girls, Landra, Jeannie, Toni and son, Joel.

Daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Jackson, Treva, Tom and John and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Duke and Ernie. Coming from Hobbs, N. M., were

By MRS. H. W. GARVIN
Mrs. Faye Musick of Red Bluff Calif. is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wheeler. The Wheelers and Mrs. Musick left to visit another sister Mrs. Lola Koger in San Antonio Friday. Mrs. Musick hadn't seen her sisters in twelve years.

The Three Way Basketball girls played a game with Lazbuddy Tuesday night and a game with Spring Lake Thursday night. Three Way lost both games. Football boys won district. They beat Bula Friday night, 32-0.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper visited their son and family at Southland Saturday.

The Methodist men, 14 in number, worked at the church Thursday. Four women fixed lunch and helped with the painting.

The basketball girls of Three Way, their coach and Mrs. Adolph Wittner attended the basketball clinic at Wayland College at Plainview Saturday.

Harvest is getting started in the community. The elevator is busy and all gins are working. Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson and family spent the weekend in Petersburg visiting.

The churches of the community are planning a Thanksgiving covered dish supper and program at the Three Way Methodist Church on Nov. 25. The meal starts at 7 p.m. A program will follow. Every one is welcome.

Mrs. Harold Toombs had minor surgery at Lubbock Friday. She is doing fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dupler and family of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Gib Dupler and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dupler and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dupler all of Maple spent Sunday in the home of their mother, Mrs. Minnie Dupler.

Earl Waldrop of Sundown spent Saturday with the Dean Waltrips. The men went quail hunting in the afternoon.

Mrs. Cora Brown, 86, celebrates birthday

An 86-year-old pioneer settler to Texas' Last Frontier was honored at a birthday party Saturday by her children in the Roberts Memorial Nursing Home here.

Mrs. J. M. Brown — Cora — shared cake and ice cream with her many friends in the home where she has lived since March 13, 1964.

Five of her eight children were on hand to help celebrate, Mrs. A. R. (Pete) Lindsey and Mrs. R. K. Lindsey both of Morton, Miss Gertrude Brown of Ropesville and two sons, Sam Brown of McAdoo and Frank Brown of Meadow. Another daughter, Mrs. Dewey Butler, was delayed in route, but arrived Sunday to wish her mother a happy birthday.

Born in 1878 at DeLeon, Comanche County, Mrs. Brown with her family came to the South Plains fifty-three years ago in a covered wagon.

At that time she had five small children, one a baby. Determined to settle and start a farm, the Browns brought with them horses to use in farming, milk cows and a start of chickens.

In true pioneer spirit, Mrs. Brown, perched atop the wagon hitched to a team of mules, drove the wagon laden with all their possessions to their destination.

Brown, who died in 1953, rode horseback and drove the cattle. Settling in the corner of Terry County which adjoins Hockley County, the family camped in the fall of the year beside their wagon while a farm house was built. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the youngest baby slept inside the wagon, while the other children bedded down outside.

Many were the trials, hardships and deprivations during those early years. Their only contact with the outside world was with the freight route which ran between Lubbock and Brownfield.

Brown made trips to buy enough supplies and groceries for his large family to last from one trip to the next. During the long, hard winters, trips were fewer and farther between.

Educating children was no easy matter in those days. The Brown children, with lunch buckets in hand, walked two miles in all kinds of weather to the nearest school—Primrose — located one mile south of Ropesville.

"We never had any fear of snakes or any other thing that could harm us," recalled daughter, Mrs. A. R. Lindsey. "Mother was our mainstay of strength and always encouraged us."

Near the school was a post office, then called Old Meadow, a grocery store and two churches. Though Baptist, the Browns attended the Methodist Church, which was the first to be established there. It was served by circuit riders.

Busy rearing eight of her own children and two of her nephews, Mrs. Brown always found time to attend the sick.

Many babies made their debut into the world through her able assistance. She was frequently called upon to accompany the one local doctor on his rounds of sick calls.

Due to circumstances, two of her own children were born without benefit of attending physician. Although, no doctor was available, Mrs. Brown was not alone.

Two neighbor women, both now dead, could be counted on in times of emergency. Mrs. Andrew local doctor on his rounds of sick Blakenship, mother of Wallace who owns the local theatre, and Mrs. Lee Cowan, are recalled with fond memories.

Mrs. Brown, truly possessing that spirit found only in pioneer life — a spirit of faith and contentment — continues a busy life in Roberts Memorial Home.

Here, where her frontier life is land 894-3669 after 6:00 p.m., or quilts — once a task of necessity — and braids rag rugs.

Letters to the Editor

November 11, 1964

Dear Friend: Your confidence in me and my family to represent you in the office of Lt. Governor of Texas has been one of the most rewarding things in my life.

And, I know it was your help in my re-election that made it possible for me to continue to work with you for Texas in a job I greatly respect and enjoy. I thank you very humbly for this honor.

During the next two years you may be sure of one thing: I will be working as hard as I can to help make a great state greater.

Very sincerely yours,
Preston Smith
Lieutenant Governor

Woman's role theme study club meeting

The Club Collect was led by Mrs. Hershel Tanner.

The resignation of Mrs. DeWayne Smith was accepted with regret. Mrs. Owen Houston was accepted as a new member.

Next meeting will be Dec. 10 in the home of Mrs. Rodney Fralin. Everyone is asked to bring a toy to be given to the needy.

Refreshments of pie and cokes were served to Mesdames Fralin, Elvis Fleming, Gillespie, Johnson, Johnny Johnson, Kern, Don Lynsky, Bob Polvado, Earl Polvado, Sidney Saverance, Danny Tankersley, Tanner, J. W. Tyson, James Walker, Don Workman, Bill Foust, Tommy Hawkins, Simpson, Gary Willingham.

Bobby Dobson, Morton's candidate for All-South Plains Honors, added 20 points to his year's scoring total, as he tallied three touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

Morton received the opening kickoff, and after a fine runback by Ledbetter from the 15 to the Morton 41, the Indians could move goalward only two yards, and punted. Frenship began to move immediately after receiving the punt on their own 28. Two first downs moved the Tigers into Indian territory for a first and ten on the 40. Quarterback Jerry Pinner was thrown for a three yard loss here, but Morton was offside and the Tigers had a first and five on the Indian 35. The Morton defense decided to play ball here,

Indians beat Frenship, 28-0, to close out football season

By GENE SNYDER

Morton Indian footballers rang down the curtain on the 1964 grid season Friday night by dropping the Frenship Tigers, 28-0, in a District 4-AA clash. The contest was played on the local gridiron.

The win gave the Indians a season record of seven wins and three losses, with a district mark of 2-2. Although Morton crossed the goal line four times, their offense sputtered and spewed at times, and the Friday night win was more of a victory for the defensive unit than for the offense. Frenship moved only to the Morton 21, late in the final period. Their lone threat was thwarted when Kenny Coats of the Indians gobbled up a loose pigskin at that point.

Bobby Dobson, Morton's candidate for All-South Plains Honors, added 20 points to his year's scoring total, as he tallied three touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

The hard-driving fullback slammed into the endzone twice from the one yard line and also crossed the double stripe on a 39-yard canter. Quarterback Charles Ledbetter counted the other Indian touchdown, and Kenny Palmer, running out of halfback instead of his customary tailback position, racked up the final two-point conversion.

Morton received the opening kickoff, and after a fine runback by Ledbetter from the 15 to the Morton 41, the Indians could move goalward only two yards, and punted. Frenship began to move immediately after receiving the punt on their own 28. Two first downs moved the Tigers into Indian territory for a first and ten on the 40. Quarterback Jerry Pinner was thrown for a three yard loss here, but Morton was offside and the Tigers had a first and five on the Indian 35. The Morton defense decided to play ball here, and allowed the visiting Frenship boys only four yards in the next four downs, so the ball changed hands at the Morton 31. This was to be Frenship's second deepest penetration of the evening.

From the 31, Dobson smashed for two yards, then Palmer broke loose on what appeared to be a sure touchdown dash, but he was caught and brought to earth at the Frenship one yard stripe. His gainer was good for 65 yards. Dobson crashed in for the touchdown on the first play thereafter, and also added the two points to give the Indians an 8-0 edge with 5:34 remaining in the first quarter.

Frenship couldn't move after receiving the kickoff, and punted, with the Indians taking over on the Tiger 41. Dobson and Palmer carried to a first down at the eight at which time the first period ended.

It took the Indians four downs to smash into the promised land, but Dobson did it from the one, although his try for the two-point conversion was stopped short. Morton kicked off again with 10:22 left in the half. Frenship crossed into Indian territory on the first play after the kickoff return, when halfback Van Grady spurred 26 yards to the Morton 49. However, one more yard was all the Tigers could gain and they kicked.

Morton's offense bogged down, and despite a Frenship penalty on an Indian punt, the local eleven still surrendered the ball via the punt route. Royce Wittie grabbed the ball for the Tigers on the Frenship 18, and when he finished zigging and zagging, he was brought down on the seven yard line — a loss of eleven yards on the punt return. A pair of five-yard penalties kept the Tigers in the hole and forced them to punt from the seven. Ledbetter returned the kick from the Frenship 36 to the 22, and the Indians were on their third scoring drive.

A 15-yard roughness penalty gave the Indians a first down on the six. Two offside penalties on the next two plays, one against each team, still left a first down at the eight. Palmer scored from the three on the play on which Morton Club was offside. Finally, on fourth down, Ledbetter drove in from the one with one minute remaining in the half. Dobson's conversion attempt was stopped short again. On the second play following the kickoff, Wittie fumbled for Frenship, and Morton's Ronald Smart grabbed the loose pig hide, but the Indians had time to get off only one desperation pass before the half ended. Morton 20, Frenship 0.

The Tigers appeared to have a drive going after receiving the second half kickoff, but the Indians' Jimmy Joyce stepped in front of a Pinner aerial at the mid-field stripe and intercepted for Morton. Dobson reeled off a 24-yard run to the 25, and Ledbetter dashed to the 14, but Tiger Jerry Kindred recovered a Dobson fumble there, and Frenship started again.

The Tigers worked the ball out to the 36 before they were forced to punt. The Indians battered their way into Frenship territory once more, getting to the enemy 34 before Ledbetter fumbled, and Johnny Holland came up with the pigskin for the Tigers as the third period ended.

Two plays into the final stanza, Frenship returned the favor by fumbling, and Larry Smith recovered for Morton on the Frenship 39. Dobson broke loose on the first play on one of his patented runs on which he appears stopped several times, and finally danced into the endzone leaving a trail of would-be tacklers behind him. Palmer added the two point conversion with 11:01 remaining in the contest.

The Tigers put forth their best concerted effort of the night after receiving the kickoff, moving from the 21, where they took the kick, to the Morton 30 yard stripe. Here a fourth down pass was batted down, and the Indians took over. However, the locals failed to make necessary yardage on a fourth down try, and Frenship was back in business on the Morton 40.

A 19-yard pass, Pinner to fullback Dale Cook put the Tigers on the Indian 21, their deepest penetration of the evening. On the next play, Frenship fumbled, and Kenny Coats came up with the ball for the Indians. With the Morton reserves getting a little game-time, the locals failed to make first down yardage, and Ledbetter punted. The visitors had time to get off only two plays before the contest ended with Morton on top, 28-0.

End Ernest Chesshir and guard Ronald Smart played good defensive ball for the Indians, as did most of their teammates. Bobby Dobson was the workhorse ball carrier for the Mortonites, carrying 22 times for 87 yards. Kenny Palmer emerged as top yardage gainer, however, as he tallied 97 yards on seven carries. Charles Ledbetter also toted the ball seven times, for 19 yards.

Salt for safety

An interesting paradox emerges from the National Safety Council's annual walter of traffic statistics: most cities seem to be getting safer for motorists as rural areas get more dangerous. In the first six months of this year, the traffic death total for 449 of 749 cities reporting to the Safety Council was lower than in corresponding months of 1963. The total of all states was up 12 percent to a record high.

The death total of all 749 cities was 6 percent higher than last year, indicating a marked worsening of conditions in a minority of towns. In the big towns the traffic death rates have tended to hold steady or dip slowly downward over the past several years. New York's 1963 rate was unchanged from the 1956 figure. Los Angeles had its best year ever in 1963. Chicago's current rate (2.4 deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles) is the best recorded by a major US city since the 1940's. Only Detroit seems to have shown any consistent increase - from 2.9 in 1956 to 3.3 in 1963.

Among factors affecting traffic death rate differentials and the comparative safety of cities, probably most important is the nearly 4-million tons of salt used for winter maintenance. Most cities, states and toll roads in the snow belt rely almost completely on salt, but there are still many areas where thoroughfares are consistently slippery in winter - except in the larger towns. These areas contribute heavily to the rising road tolls, and give the cities their big edge in safety.

A recent New York study showed streets made bare by salt reduced by half all deaths and injuries due to skidding accidents. From 1930 to 1936 there was an annual average of 21 deaths and 1,635 injuries from these causes in New York City. From 1940 to 1950, when the city used salt, the figures were reduced to 9 deaths and 736 injuries.

Modern road clearance is an obvious first step toward a safer, saner automotive record in winter.

An overwhelming case

Proponents of the Medicare plan for providing certain medical benefits to people drawing social security payments intimate, if they don't actually state, that next to nothing is being done to meet the medical problems of the needy elderly.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. Sometime ago, the federal Kerr-Mills law came into being. This is a joint federal-state project, which puts the administrative responsibility where it belongs—at the local instead of the national level. It offers health care to all elderly people who are actually in need. And it is a complete program, encompassing hospital, nursing home, medical, dental, surgical and drug care. In this all-important respect, it offers much more than Medicare.

The taxpayers are meeting the bill for this. If Medicare also became law—and the strongest kind of pressure will be put behind it when Congress next convenes—we'll be paying twice, unnecessarily. And the Medicare bill would be no small one. It would increase the social security tax, borne by employers and employees, to 10.4 percent of the first $5600 of annual income by 1971. That works out to $582.40 for each covered worker. Many think that even this wouldn't be sufficient to meet the costs, and that Medicare would imperil and undermine the whole social security system.

We have, in other words, under Kerr-Mills, a well conceived method of aiding the ill and infirm elderly. It can be further broadened and improved if that is found necessary. In addition, there are all manner of public and private welfare plans. The medical profession itself is pledged to provide care of all in need, regardless of the ability to pay. The case against Medicare is overwhelmingly strong.

The News made an error this week but it doesn't approach the combination of errors published by a neighboring newspaper in reporting the traditional wedding information.

The story went like this:

The bride was given in marriage by her father, wearing her mother's wedding gown. The marriage ended a romance begun when the couple were in high school. The bride wore a strand of tiny mated pearls. Her gown was of blue green with pink trimmings. The bride's mother wore a lace dress which fell to the floor. The maid of honor wore yellow tulle. The bridesmaids, carried tiny nosebags. The flower girl's dress was made with puffed sleeves touching her ankles. The bridegroom's mother wore a dawn blue gown touched off by a black stray hat. The nuptial setting was illuminated by brilliant Roman candles. After exchanging their vows, the couple passed out and greeted the guests. The ceremony was attended by only a few loose friends and relatives.

Andrews County News

Youth Crime Rate Soars A few years ago Price Daniel, then governor and previously attorney general of Texas, complained that juvenile crime was increasing four times as fast as the state's population. Progress has been made since then.

Today, while the crime rate generally maintains that proportion, crime among young people is growing seven times as rapidly as the population, according to Waggoner Carr, the present attorney general. In a speech at the Waco Methodist Home recently, he warned that "a cancerous growth of crime will destroy America from within" unless immediate action is taken to check it.

COULD HE BE RIGHT? If so, youth will be in the vanguard of the destroying forces. Forty per cent of Texas' 12,000 convicts are 17 to 24 years old, Carr said, and more than half of the burglaries in Texas are committed by teen agers under 18.

But what kind of action can be taken to halt this frightening scourge of juvenile transgression? Attorney General Carr, practicing what he preaches, is attacking it one front. He has sponsored the Texas Youth Conference, a program for teen agers in cities of the state, designed to engage them in wholesome, enjoyable activities under adult guidance and thereby keep their feet out of the paths of evil.

THE YOUTH CONFERENCE plan sets an admirable example for all cities to follow. If enough young people could be enlisted in the program, the juvenile problem could be solved, the social cancer cured. The same can be said of the Boy Scouts, boys' clubs, and similar groups in schools, churches and other youth endeavors. But obviously, only a relative few are being attracted into such movements, else crime among young people would not be increasing at the alarming rate imported by the attorney general.

What's the matter with our youngsters, the reason for the rising tide of crime among them? Is it, as some authorities stoutly assert, that the underlying problem is one not so much of juvenile delinquency as of adult delinquency? There is generally a laxity of parental discipline and care of children, compared with that of a generation ago. Youths are enjoying - and many taking advantage of - a degree of freedom which their forebears did not have. Morals have loosened; some sociologists even condone sexual relations between students and other youthful couples.

LEWD LITERATURE IN magazine racks and libraries undoubtedly has contributed to the decline of morality, as movies and television shows have tended to make crime less repugnant. Another influence which certainly has not discouraged crime is the lessened certainty and fear of punishment. Courts have widened legal loopholes for defendants, and wiped out some of them entirely. Convicted wrongdoers have been given stronger hope of having their sentences reversed on appeal, especially in federal courts.

Smart men convicted of crimes, with smart lawyers and funds to pay them, at worst can expect up to two years of freedom on bond pending a final decision on appeal, and then possibly full freedom. The examples of such widely publicized characters as Billy Sol Estes, James R. Hoffa and Ben Jack Cage, all under heavy prison sentences but doing business as usual while under heavy prison sentences and flying high, wide and handsome, are not lost on individuals susceptible to crime.

THE "ACTION" WHICH Attorney General Carr says is necessary to save the country from criminal destruction is manifold. It must include tighter law enforcement, more such activities as the Youth Council, more attention to student affairs by school administrators, and, above all, more family life and parental direction of, companionship with, and example setting to children.

Although juvenile court judges, public officials and civic leaders have long been urging such measures, the youthful crime rate has steadily mounted. Curative medicines mean little or nothing if they are not taken. If Attorney General Carr, or anyone else, will get the state and nation to put the remedies into actual operation and not merely tell what they are, maybe the cancerous growth can be arrested before it becomes fatal. Otherwise, assuming the gravity and urgency of Carr's warning, perhaps it will take a national catastrophe of crime to awaken us.

Houston Post

Hunt That Buck Not a Buddy After the events of recent weeks, one possibly should be wary as to with whom he shares a hunting lease this deer season. But then, it pays to know your hunting companions, anyway.

Deer season opens next week in Bee County. Most hunters have zeroed in their rifles and have spent many hour making blinds and casing their leases. The weather has turned slightly cooler, but the best hunting is still awaiting a good stiff norther.

Each year newspapers carry accounts of people wounded or killed while out searching for that buck. In most instances the tragedy could have been prevented by care on the part of another hunter, or the person himself. Just as in driving a high powered automobile, the drinking should be left until the hunter is home or in camp for the night. Those who go just to imbibe and play poker would serve their families and those who care far better if they would leave their guns at home.

Crawling through fences take a toll each year. If you are climbing a fence or crawling between the barbed wires, unload your gun and lean it against a fence post several feet away. After crossing the fence, do not pull the gun through toward you, barrel first. Do not place a gun in an automobile until it has been checked to see if it is unloaded. Here, too, remember not to pull the gun out barrel first.

The most important fact in hunting is to be sure you know what is in your sights before you squeeze the trigger. There is much excitement, especially for the novice, and when that brush begins to move it is natural to raise your gun. Cows and does have fallen by this means, but men have, too. On a lease know where the other hunters are and stay in your own area. But if you take that second look, you will not put a life in jeopardy.

Hunting is a wonderful sport. It gets a man out of an office, into the country for possibly the first time that year. He cannot think of the job while listening to every strange sound and searching for deer. He is breathing fresh air and getting much needed exercise. He is also flirting with danger if he is careless.

There is a time and place for everything. On the hunt is the time for enjoyment, relaxation, and a fine day in the open. Don't spoil it by drinking or carelessness which could bring death to you or your friends.

Highlights and sidelights

Austin in national spotlight

AUSTIN, Tex. - International attention came to Austin as Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson carried on the nation's business while resting from his campaign.

President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz of Mexico flew in for informal discussions at the LBJ Ranch. President and Mrs. Johnson arranged a barbecue in appreciation of the strong support given his candidacy by Americans of Mexican ancestry.

Latin-American leaders from Texas, New Mexico, California, Kansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana were invited to the affair. Heaviest representation came from the cities of South Texas where huge LBJ majorities were rolled up.

Top business leaders from Houston, Dallas, San Antonio and Los Angeles also were on the select list of guests. All were entertained by Milton Berle, Eddie Fisher and Gene Autry. Also by Clint Harlow's sheep-dog troupe and a bevy of Mexican musicians and singers.

There was talk of a possible change in a cabinet post vital to Texas - that of secretary of agriculture.

If Orville Freeman should be named senator from Minnesota to replace Vice President President-elect Hubert Humphrey, Johnson may choose a secretary from Texas. Among those considered to be on the list are Dolph Briscoe Jr., Uvalde rancher, and Sterling C. Evans, Houston farmer and rancher who heads the Texas A&M University board of directors.

LATE INAUGURAL - Gov. John Connally may have a late inauguration.

Ceremonies likely will be postponed from January 19, when he normally would take oath of office, to January 26.

Postponement, ramrodded by the State Democratic Executive Committee, is aimed at helping Texans arrange their scheduled so they can attend inauguration ceremonies for both President Johnson and Governor Connally.

Presidential inauguration is fixed at January 20 and thousands of Texans plan to attend. Many prominent political figures would have to pass up Connally's swearing in to reach Washington on time for Johnson's ceremonies.

Besides, the president wants Governor and Mrs. Connally there. SDEC will call on members of the Legislature to co-sponsor a joint resolution to postpone the governor's inauguration.

If a majority of lawmakers sign, the Texas inaugural committee will go ahead with its plan to push back the Connally swearing-in date. A vote of the Legislature would make the change official after lawmakers convene here on January 12.

Texas constitution provides that the governor shall be installed on the first Tuesday after organization of the Legislature, "or as soon thereafter as practicable."

COURTS SPEAK - Supreme Court agreed that, to protect the public, the State Department of Public Safety has full authority to suspend driver licenses of motorists found to be habitual traffic violators.

High court declared moot a Starr County Republican candidate's suit to void 650 poll tax receipts in the stormy South Texas county. The GOP office-seeker claimed the poll taxes were neither paid for nor requested by their holders.

A November 25 hearing was set by the Supreme Court on a suit by Trinity River Authority to force the state attorney general to approve a $42,000,000 bond sale to finance construction of Livingstone Dam. Houston voters approved the issue 4-1.

Court of Criminal Appeals ordered new trials in San Antonio and Houston murder convictions in line with a U.S. Supreme Court mandate. Its opinion suggested new guidelines for passing on admissibility of confessions. Trial judges now must hold special hearings where a question exists as to whether a confession was voluntary. They may exclude confessions from a trial or withdraw them from jury consideration if they find that all evidence tends to indicate the confession was not voluntary.

An Austin district court denied an injunction sought by House of Tobacco Inc. of Houston to get back its state permit to distribute cigarettes. Comptroller Robert S. Calvert cancelled the permit after the firm's operator was charged with cigarette tax irregularities.

SLANT-WELL SUITS - Filing of two civil penality suits in the 53rd District Court in Austin, for alleged slant-well activity, were made by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

First to be filed against were J. C. Stroud and W. V. Stroud, both of Rusk County, and G. M. Jordan of Kilgore. Suit involves one well in Rusk County.

Named as defendants in the second suit were the Strouds and M. M. Harding of Kilgore. Second suit involves two wells in Rusk County.

AG OPINIONS - Attorney General Carr ruled that it would be legal for a commissioners court to buy a helicopter for the county sheriff, if there is enough money in the right funds.

He held that a sheriff may buy any equipment he needs to do his work, but it is up to the commissioners court to decide whether a helicopter comes under "reasonable" expenses.

Carr also determined that, under a treaty clause, a Mexican consul stationed in Texas and bringing in liquor for use by consular officials, is not bound by the liquor import restrictions (quart per person) applying to Texas citizens.

He concluded that the State Parks and Wildlife Commission has the right to prohibit deer hunting on state-owned dry river beds of Dimmitt, Uvalde, and Zavala Counties.

CONNALLY FIRST - Governor Connally was the first Texan to participate in the 1964 Census of Agriculture of the U. S. Department of Commerce. He filled out a census form concerning his ranch operation near Floresville.

Agricultural resources census has been taken every five years since 1840. Data is confidential and can be used only for statistical purposes.

VALLEY MENTAL FACILITY - State Hospital Board was informed that a new in-patient mental treatment facility, for the Lower Rio Grande Valley, will be provided in the near future.

Dr. C. J. Rullmann, director of mental health and hospitals, said such a service is under consideration. It is to be patterned after the local-participation "care" recently made available at Beaumont, El Paso and Lubbock.

Board members accepted a $225,000 grant by the Moody Foundation of Galveston to conduct regional diagnostic center for mentally retarded children at Richmond State School. Center will be headed by Board Chairman E. Tellepsen as a breakthrough in cooperating between state and private agencies to combat mental retardation.

BANK HEARINGS SET - Banking Board set hearings November 24 on applications for charters by the proposed Lone Line and Western State banks in Houston, the Jacinto City Bank in Jacinto City and the Commerce and Trust Company in Commerce.

November 25 hearings were set for the proposed Mercantile and the Stella Link State banks in Houston.

VET LAND LIST LIMITED - Veterans' Land Board used no more names to be accepted waiting list since funds will be available to purchase land veterans not already on the Land Commissioner Jerry J. Ler stated that more than 100,000 veterans will be bought land through the program when it ends in December. Those already on the list expect to be reached before the program ends.

CARR TO WASHINGTON - Attorney General Carr made his first in a series of appearances before the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington, D.C., this week. He argued for the State of Texas in the hearing on John W. Stanford Jr. versus the State of Texas.

Stanford is the San Antonio Subversive Activities Control Board in Washington to register as a Communist. He is appealing that order in another court.

Appeal Carr is working on involves Stanford's protest of State officials illegally seizing his house and took some items, including personal effects, without lawful cause.

Stanford is being defended by attorneys for the American Civil Liberties Union.

HUNTING SEASON HINTS - Parks and Wildlife Department prepared a new hunting digest which shows where to go, what and when. The digest, available at most places where licenses are issued, also is available, free, by writing the department in Austin.

Parks and Wildlife Department is advising hunters to fill out deer tags carefully and attach them to the deer killed. The tags are used to determine the number of deer licenses are issued, also is available, free, by writing the department in Austin.

SHORT SNORTS - Herb Commission Chairman H. B. Pety Jr. told the 800-plus delegates to the Texas Public Employees Association convention in Austin that they have a million bosses - namely all citizens of Texas.

State Service Director Col. M. S. Schwartz announced that state draft quota for 1964 is only 280, compared to 307 in 1963.

State's General Fund still is $22,400,000 in the black. State Board of Education voted 14-6 to place protested biology textbooks on list from which local districts choose texts.

State Commissioner James G. Gerst turned down application for a new savings and loan association at DeSoto in Dallas County.

District Judge Herman Jones Austin upheld the State Bank Board in granting a charter to new bank at Jack Cox, who campaigned for congress, governor and U. S. Senator, now is Executive Vice President of the Padre (Island) Investment Corporation with offices here.

'The Woman You Want to Be' is reviewed for club

"To be the woman you want to be, it is necessary to know oneself, and to accept that self as an important individual with a definite place in the world . . ." said Mrs. Vern Beebe when the Whiteface Study Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Baker.

Mrs. Baker reviewed the book, "The Woman You Want to Be," by Margery Wilson.

"One can have the opportunity of turning dreams of herself into reality through reading this book," she pointed out.

"One can work an inner miracle that would illuminate the whole personality with charm and graciousness — qualities much more precious than beauty itself. . . . to acquire poise and charm by making friends, by calling out the best in people by really being a woman, by being energetic, by setting a goal, by avoiding cynicism, by being relaxed, avoiding comparisons and to exercise self discipline.

Mrs. Beebe pointed out that Miss Wilson, displayed a thread of Christianity through her book without preaching.

"Her main theme was nothing more than the Golden Rule: 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you,'" she said.

"A woman can be a power for good and can be refreshing when she goes about the business of really being a woman. Everyone turns to her as a source of freshness as to clear, clean water and a woman must recognize this in herself and subject herself to living for others — if she would claim poise and charm.

"Margery Wilson's observation of life was aptly expressed in this quotation: 'The higher you lift your own light, the wider your radiance will shine'."

Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. James Cunningham.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames J. W. Allen, Beebe, Mrs. S. J. Bills, Rex Black, Cunningham, Dickie Dickerson, Wendell Dunlap, Jack French, Marvin Kuhler, Marvin Lasater, Cecil Maddox, Darwood Marshall, Jackie Pape, Ralph Peters, Quentin Rhodes, Truman Swinney and hostess Kenneth Baker.

Parallel terracing on Kuehler farm

SCS news notes

By THELBERT C. ASBILL

Does the word "Terrace" send cold chills playing up your spine or tend to make you sick? Don't feel lonesome, because there are many farmers who get sick and tremble at the mention of "terraces".

The correctly installed standard terrace system coupled with horse drawn equipment could be tolerated, even with 30 to 40% point-rows, but with modern multi-row equipment point-rows are more than a headache.

A new concept for water holding and erosion preventing structures had to be developed to facilitate the efficient and economical use of modern equipment. The answer, to date, is wide based, parallel structures that can be farmed easily.

The new parallel structures are designed with a three fold purpose in mind. First, they are designed to conserve what moisture we do get, secondly, to prevent water erosion when we do get that heavy rain, and thirdly, to facilitate the efficient use of modern equipment.

An added concept is to push the terrace up from the lower or down-grade side, thereby eliminating the channel above the terrace.

Parallel terraces are a new concept to modern farming. Some farmers of the Cochran County Soil Conservation District have already installed 16,600 feet of parallel terraces. One of these farmers, who is already looking to the future is Wayne Kuehler, who's farm is located two miles north and three miles east of Morton, Kuehler says, "they're alright. I haven't had them long enough to tell if they will increase production, but they seem to be doing the job." Wayne installed his terraces in January 1963. He says that farming the terraces in like farming on the contour.

A disadvantage of parallel terraces installation is the increased cost over the cost of standard terraces, however the returns will be higher and cost-share assistance is available through ACP or the Great Plains Program.

Look to the future when you plan your farm. Parallel terraces are designed for the future with the farmer in mind.

Funeral services held for area resident's kin

Services for Jack Ward of Ardmore, father of Mrs. Jack Cartwright of Morton, were held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 10, in the Baptist Church at Leon, Okla.

Officiating was John French, Church of Christ minister from Ardmore. Burial was in the Leon Cemetery.

Attending the services from here were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cartwright and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Cartwright and Sherry Lynn.

Refreshments were served by the G.M.A.

Mrs. Keith Kennedy returned home Sunday from Methodist Hospital of Lubbock. She welcomes visitors and is doing fine following surgery.

Thanksgiving theme of CC Garden Club

In Thanksgiving — Thanksgiving Table is the program theme for Cochran County Garden Club Monday night when they met in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill.

The program was presented by Mrs. Harold Arant and Mrs. J. J. Jenkins.

Opening the program, Mrs. Arant read the poem, "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin." Thanksgiving is symbolized by the two words, "thank you," she said.

"This is one of the hardest social skills we have to learn, but the first we must learn to accept. From the beginning of time we have had and are having gifts constantly bestowed upon us. Receiving is one of the earliest joys of a human being.

"Somewhere, sometime along the years of life, many lose this sense of pleasure of accepting and therefore take from another the joy of happy giving.

"The art of giving and receiving never grow rusty or be forgotten from lack of daily use. We should all let thankfulness be our daily practice lest we find one day the costliness of a thankless spirit. One may realize the things we are most careless of are the things we most prize. Things taken for granted are the things we most miss when they are gone.

The month of November holds for us so many joys. The spicy fragrance of chrysanthemums in our gardens, the delicious aroma coming from our kitchen where it is a pleasure to prepare that favorite dish and decorate a table for one of our best loved holidays in America — Thanksgiving."

A discussion on ways to decorate for Thanksgiving was conducted by Mrs. Jenkins.

"We must consider certain things in decorating," she said. "Size of room, size of table, number of guests, color of room, formal, informal or semi-formal all must be considered.

"We must consider too, the flowers available this time of year. Whether local or dried material will be used or fresh vegetables or fruit and how to go about preparing them for use," she said.

Several arrangements were made by Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Arant which were suitable for Thanksgiving use.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Bobby Travis.

It was decided that the club would enter a float in the Christmas parade on December 4. A workshop will be held Dec. 7, with committee members discussing the home they will help decorate for the Christmas tour of homes.

The tour will be conducted from 2-4 p.m. Dec. 13, starting at Mrs. Roy Hill's home.

Christmas highlights will be the theme for the Christmas Lighting contest December 14.

No Christmas party will be given this year. Members will participate in the tour of homes.

Members present were Mesdames Arant, Gene Cade, Hill, Jenkins, C. B. Jones, Charles Jones, Truett McCuiston, W. B. McSpadden, J. L. Schooler, Hessie B. Spotts, T. M. Tanner, Willie Taylor, Bud Thomas, Travis and Don Workman.

Mrs. Jerry Winder and daughters Sue and Ann and Mrs. T. K. Williamson attended the Texas-Tech-Washington State game at Lubbock Saturday.

The Fred Weavers had at their weekend guests, Mrs. Weaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wienkie of Lubbock. They attended the football game Friday night.

John Crowders are hosts to Club 21

Mr. and Mrs. John Crowder hosted members of Club 21, the couples bridge club, in their home Thursday evening.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Brook, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nicewarner and Mrs. Lesaye Silvers.

Regular members attending were the Willard Coxes, the Hume Russells, the W. P. Houstons and Mrs. Scott Hawkins.

A Look at the Cross on THANKSGIVING

"Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted."

"But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

"All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Isaiah 53:4-6

Our prayer this Thanksgiving Season is that everyone will attend the house of God, giving thanks unto him for his great gift, which is eternal life through his son.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Horse and Pony meetings planned

Approximately 22 adult and 4-H club leaders met with the County Agricultural Agent Home E. Simpson in the Whiteface School, Monday Nov. 16 to plan horse and pony educational meetings for the next months.

The following subjects and training programs were selected for the meetings:

Horse Psychology — by Lynn Smith and Mary Sanders
 Records — by Glynda Dawson
 Mrs. Calvin Dawson
 Training a Horse — by Shot and de Sanders
 Horse Equitation — by Stanley Lyndon Henderson
 First Aid — by Bonnie French
 Nina French
 Soundness, blemishes and locations — by Calvin and W. Dawson
 Riding Courtesies — by E. J. Smith, Jr. and Sue Hodge

Safety Precautions — by Shot Sanders and Mike Smith
 Dressing and Grooming — by Betty Jones and Ann Cagle
 Care of Equipment — by Dale Hill and Jimmy Jones
 Feeding of Horses — by Calvin Dawson and Leroy Tackett

Other business matters discussed were conducting contests at regular meetings and at competitive meetings, discipline, order of business for each regular meeting, and the use of Junior Leaders to help instruct in the educational meetings. Awards were also discussed and the interscholastic League ruling applying to the Texas 4-H Horse program was discussed. They agreed to comply with the interscholastic league ruling, after the rules were explained.

Eagles down Bula for championship

A victorious exit atop strong shoulders

COACH SPUD ALDRIDGE of Three-Way is borne away from the playing field by his players after the Eagles stomped the Bula Bulldogs, 22-0 for the championship of District 1-B, eight man football. The Eagles took an early lead and never faltered as they stymied the Bulldogs. Identifiable in the photo are Billy Dewbre, 19; Johnnie Harris, 58; Tommy Dupler, 41; Marvin Long, 44; Perry Lynskie, 51; and L. L. Lemons, 36.

THREE-WAY — The Three-Way Eagles pulled a Friday 13th jinx on the Bula Bulldogs here last Friday to emerge 22-0 winners of the contest and undefeated winners of District 1-B, eight man football.

The Eagles capitalized on a recovered fumble and intercepted pass to score in the first half, while holding the Bulldogs scoreless throughout the match.

Bula took the opening kickoff, but on the first play from scrimmage Pat Risinger fumbled. Eagle J. L. Lemons pounced on the ball and the Three-Way boys took control at the Bulldog 18 yard line.

Four plays later, Tommy Dupler took the pigskin into the end zone from eight yards out to score. He tried to convert, but failed.

Late in the second period, Lemons recovered another Bula fumble and the Eagles drove to the Bulldog 10 yard line where the ball went over on downs.

As the Bulldogs took possession,

Risinger attempted to pass, but Three-Way's Tommy Terrell was right there, snatched the pass and raced into the end zone to make it 12-0 for the Eagles.

The most serious threat the Bulldogs were able to muster came as the half ended — and the whistle ended the drive, also.

The Bulldogs took the kickoff and marched to the Eagle three-yard line when the period ended.

Risinger hit on passes of 19, 10 and 22 to move the Bula crew to the three yard line.

The Eagles scored twice in the third stanza, both on passes from sophomore quarterback James Kindle to Terrell.

The first shot was for 14 yards and the counter, and the second was for 21 yards.

Kindle also hit Terrell for a conversion try and when the quarter ended, the score was 26-0.

In the final period, Dupler raced 60 yards for the final score of the game.

In the game Lemons pounced on four Bula fumbles.

Sophomore Billy Dewbre led in defense for Three-Way, making 10 unassisted-tackles, and assisting on five more.

Holiday flower arrangements are discussed by club

Holiday arrangements were discussed step by step by Mrs. Jack Baker and Mrs. Bill Cranford to members of Le Fleur Garden Club Thursday night.

The Club met in the home of Mrs. Marion Matthews.

A triangle Thanksgiving arrangement was made by Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Cranford. The group joined the discussion.

The Club voted to enter a float in the Christmas Parade to be held Dec. 4.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Cranford, Baker, Roy Hill, Eugene Bedwell, Ray Tucker, Herman Bedwell, B. H. Tucker, Connie Joiner, Matthews, Sammie Williams, Don Samford and S. M. Monroe.

Following closely behind were Marvin Long, Harold Carpenter, Lemons, Johnny Harris, Dupler and Kindle.

Also carrying the ball for Three-Way was Monte Toombs, a freshman.

Coach Spud Aldridge played reserves Roger Beam, Shorty Hale and Perry Lynskie who turned in creditable performances.

Outstanding defensive man for the Bulldogs was Kenneth Overland.

Top rushers for Bula were Risinger, Sammy Nichols and Michael Overland.

Three-Way draws a bye in bi-district competition, and will go straight into regionals, against a team and at a date to be announced later.

Going for the points

W. WILLIAMS, 44, of Three-Way, jumps high in the air as he tries to make the points as the Eagles lost to the Tatum squad during the Bledsoe junior high school tournament last weekend. Going up with him are Rodney Stearns, 15, of Tatum; Ronnie Brinker, 45, also of Tatum and Manuel Lasoya. The other Eagle player is unidentified. TRIBUNE Photo

Bula girls, Tatum boys are top Bledsoe tourney winners

BLEDSEOE — Tatum and Bula were top winners in the Junior High School Basketball tournament here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The Tatum boys beat the Three-Way boys in the finals of the boys section of the tournament. Bula's girls whipped the Whiteface distaff roundballers to win that segment of the meet. Consolation winners were Spade for the girls and Bledsoe for the boys.

Also entered in the match were Baldrige and Spade and Bula for the boys; Baldrige, Three - Way and Bledsoe for the girls. J. K. Adams, basketball coach at Bledsoe and director of the tourney, said: "It was a real good tourney — the best one we've had in a number of years. We had real good crowds out."

Top scorers in the tournament were Ronnie Brinker of Tatum and Elizabeth Tiller of Bula. Brinker had 64 points spread across the three matches and Miss Tiller had 53 points in three games.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hanna were visitors in Denver City Sunday.
