BEFORE AND THEY'RE WHISKERS, after all, permits Leonard Groves, as he carefully checks the beard sported by Bill Crone. Whiskers are becoming the order of the day for Morton men, most of whom are preferring to forego the razor rather than take a chance on a sentence in the brig. It's all in connection with the upcoming Last Frontier Rodeo here.

For the last time . . .

MRS. DEXTER NEBHUT prepares to apply that bit of color so dear to a lady's heart—lipstick—for the final time as she and other women of the area accept the edict set forth by the Chamber of Commerce. No lipstick for the fair sex from now until the rodeo, Aug. 12-14, unless a permit is purchased. Which is worse, beards or no lipsticks, is a current argument going on that promises to have no winner.

More enter queen race

Three more entries were officially announced today in the competition for Queen of Cochran County's Last Frontier Rodeo, bringing the total number of candidates seeking the honor to six.

They are Peggy Ramsey, Patty McBee and Donna Allsup, according to Jesse T. George, Chamber of Commerce manager, who is in charge of the Queen contest. All are residents of Morton.

Peggy, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ramsey, 304 South East Sixth, and was second runner-up for Junior Maid of Cotton as well as being named Miss MHS of Morton High, where she was a three-year member of Future Homemakers Association, serving as parliamentarian and president. She also was a treasurer and president of Future Teachers of America, was vice president of her sophomore class, four-year member of the a capella choir and Miss Indian Capers as a junior.

A graduate of Morton High School, she plans to attend college, majoring in home economics. Her hobbies include music, sewing and sport activities. She attends First Baptist Church.

Peggy, in commenting on why she entered the Queen contest, said "The rodeo is very symbolic of our western culture and being that I have been raised here, I feel it would be a great honor."

Peggy is sponsored by the L'Allegro Study Club.

Patty McBee, 15, daughter of Mrs. Nell McBee, 805 S.W. 6th, lists bowling, swimming and sewing as her hobbies, and is a member of the Future Teachers of America.

Rodeo parade attracts eight area riding units

Eight riding groups have committed themselves to ride in the parade preceding the 15th annual Last Frontier Rodeo, and also in the grand entry of the first night of the rodeo Thursday, August 12, it was learned Tuesday.

Those who have accepted the invitation to participate in the big Morton event include the Dawson County Sheriff's Posse, New Deal Riding Club, Andrews County Sheriff's Posse, Roosevelt Mounted Patrol, Plains Riding Club, Lubbock Range Riders, Roosevelt 4-H Riding Club and Hockley 4-H Riding Club.

The Denver City Riding Group and the Lea County Sheriff's Posse have expressed the desire to join in the Morton festivities, but have not as yet formally accepted the invitation extended by the Cochran County Sheriff's Posse. Riders in 30 different organizations were invited to the Morton parade by the local club.

ber and secretary of the TABY league. She also has served as president and secretary in Campfire Girls, and as treasurer of the Morton Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls. She attends the Church of Christ.

A student at Morton High, she plans to become a beautician or secretary. Patty has a horse, an Appaloosa, which she plans to ride in the parade.

Patty says she entered the Queen contest "because I feel like by trying I can help the community to win tickets . . . not so much to win, but to benefit my community."

Patty's candidacy as yet is not sponsored, and any club group interested in so doing is asked to contact her.

New water tanks credited with averting shortage

"We probably would have had to ration water if we hadn't have added the new water storage tanks to the lines this spring," Elra Oden, Morton city secretary said Tuesday.

A new 250,000 gallon over head storage tank and a 200,000 gallon ground tank, part of an overall city improvement plan voted by the people of Morton, were hooked to the city water lines several months ago.

Water consumption in Morton reached an all-time high during June, according to figures at the city hall. On Friday, June 25, a total of 1,984,200 gallons was used by city residents — the highest figure ever tallied by the local water department. Total consumption during June was 21,108,500 gallons, an average of 703,616 gallons per day.

"We have no problem with water now, with our added storage," Oden commented, "but we sure would have been in trouble if we didn't have it."

Morton coaches to leave Sunday for Dallas school

Morton High School coaches John P. Jones, Fred Weaver, and Ted Whillock will leave early Monday morning to attend the annual Texas Coaching School to be held in Dallas next week.

Jones is head football coach, while Weaver and Whillock are assistants, and Whillock is also head basketball mentor. One more coach is yet to be hired by the local school, to replace Robert Taylor, who recently resigned to accept assistant principalship at Friona. Dave Corley, who accepted an assistant coaching assignment at Canyon earlier in the summer, is not to be replaced, so that the local coaching staff will be operating with four members this year instead of five as they did last season.

Coach Jones has been selected by his fellow coaches as spokesman for District 4-AA at the annual press conference at the coaching school. This press conference usually gives the opinions of the various coaches in each district as to the outcome of the district football race. Although Jones already has the predictions of the conference coaches, he is not at liberty to release the information until the press conference.

In the 1965 issue of "Texas Football", an annual publication which has just been released, Morton was picked for second in District 4-AA, behind defending champion Denver City. Slaton, Post, and Frenship are selected in that order following the local squad.

Denver City, who went to the semi-finals last year before being eliminated, was also selected the No. 3 AA team in the state, with only Alpine and Port Acres in front of them. An unusual happenstance is that Belleville, whom Denver City defeated for the state championship in 1960, is rated No. 4, one position behind the Denver City team.

In commenting on the magazine's predictions, Coach Jones said, "I don't see how they can rate us above the other three

Final bids on Three-Way school project accepted

Final bids for the two phases of construction at Three-Way Schools were accepted last week. Building of three resident houses and the cafeteria are now underway.

The bid accepted on the residents houses was $19,612 from M. E. Lee Construction of Muleshoe. Other bidders were Sunset Lumber Co. of Lubbock, $22,350; Heathen Co. of Lubbock, $24,943; Hammock Brothers of Lubbock, $26,834; Forest Lumber Co. of Morton, $22,709; B&B Construction of Lubbock, $29,832; Baker and Franks of Morton, $23,590 and Medlock of Lubbock, $22,470.

A bid of $6,650 was accepted from West Texas Coffee Co. of Abilene for cafeteria equipment. Other bidders for the equipment were Lofley Distributing Co. of Lubbock, $7,100 and Golden-Light Coffee Co. of Lubbock, $7,256.

The overall contracting bid was $149,880 from Hammock Brothers of Lubbock. The architect fee was $8,992 for Rittenbury-Rittenbury of Amarillo. Outside water extension, drilling and capping new cesspools cost $2,008.

California men held for questioning

Local police were checking this week into the possibility of car theft by a pair of California men picked up for questioning in Morton Monday night.

The two are George Ray Cox, 19, and Alfred Ray Cox, 25, both reporting Wilmington, California as their home. They were picked up by city patrolman Bobby Word after acting suspiciously near Connie's Gulf Station.

A check with California officials showed that the younger Cox had been charged in California with joy riding in 1960; grand theft in 1962; grand theft again in 1962; hit and run in 1962; and grand theft in 1963. He is presently on parole.

The older Cox had been charged in California with joy riding in 1955 and twice in 1957; grand theft (4 automobiles) in 1957; and grand theft again in 1959. He was picked up in Arkansas in 1962 on a California warrant for burglary and grand theft, and was charged again in 1962 with grand theft.

The two were in a 1955 Chevrolet 2 door sedan when picked up for questioning. The older Cox told police officers that the automobile belonged to him, and that he had bought it six or seven months ago. According to California officials the car is registered to a Leonard Zelenka of Wilmington, Calif., who has been missing since June 12, 1965, and has not been heard from or seen since that time.

According to the story told to the local police, the two men left California about two weeks ago with $24.00. They claimed they bought gas with the money, but started to steal gas in Arizona. The two supposedly drank water, cokes, and milk for ten days, and didn't eat during that time.

The two, who were questioned

S. M. Monroe cops golf title

S. M. (Smiley) Monroe birdied the 17th and 18th holes late Sunday afternoon to become the first local champion of the Morton Invitational Golf Tournament as he defeated another Mortonite, Babe Vanlandingham, 1-up.

Monroe was down one hole after 16 holes of the final round, but drew even on the 17th and walked off with the crown on the 18th.

On his way to the championship, Monroe took out W. L. Carson in the first round, 3-2, then defeated Mortonite Bob Travis 1-up in the second round. In the semi-finals, Monroe topped Jimmy Stewart, tabbed as the meet favorite, 3-2. Stewart, from Lubbock, assumed the role of favorite when he knocked off Sid Wall, former Texas Tech basketball star, 2-1, in the second round. Wall had defeated defending champion Irwin St. Clair from Muleshoe, 6-5, in the first round of play.

Vanlandingham, the tournament medalist with a fine 67 round in Thursday's qualifying rounds, defeated Terry Hans, 6-5, in the first round, took out Frank Hunt of Loveland 2-1, in the second round. Another Lubbockite, J. C. Mackey, fell before Van, 3-2, in the semi-finals.

Tournament director Ted Whillock won the first flight championship in the day's most exciting match as he chipped in a 35-foot shot for an eagle on the 23rd hole to defeat D. Cole, a coach in the Lubbock school system. Whillock defeated Bonner Lytle 1-up in the first round; took out Pat Windom, 2-1, in the second round, and eliminated Tom McAlister, 3-2, in the semi-finals. Cole's victims on the way to the finals were Jim Walker, 3-2, Dick Tucker, 3-2, and John Appleby.

Winner of the second flight was Slim Windom of Albuquerque, N. M., brother of Tip Windom of Morton. He defeated Jack Cole of Lubbock, 3-2, to win the championship. Windom knocked off Jack Wallace, Dickie Zarfas, and Neal Rose on his way to the title. Cole took out E. L. (Snoball) Willis, Richard Blackmore, and Dick Vanlandingham to win a place in the finals.

Third flight winner was Sammy Lindsey of Shallowater, who had to go an extra hole to defeat Ronnie Herrin of Dallas, 1-up on the 19th. Lindsey's victims on his way to the championship were Wayne

Whiteface school faculty complete, Cunningham says

Faculty for the 1965-66 school year at Whiteface is now complete with the hiring of four new teachers, according to James Cunningham, superintendent.

The new instructors include Jerry Roe, band instructor, who comes from Shallowater; Mrs. Wilson, public school music, Littlefield; Mrs. Sylvia Pape, second grade teacher from Clovis, N.M., and Mrs. Janet Mosley, homemaking instructor, a 1965 graduate of Texas Tech University.

Cunningham also reported that the Whiteface school system is now completely integrated, faculty and student body alike. All students in the Whiteface Independent School District will attend classes in the same building this coming year.

Pre-registration for students at Whiteface will be on Monday, August 30, with classes to begin on the following day.

Cunningham said that considerable work had been done this summer on the building and grounds of the Whiteface school. Buildings had been painted, and also the grandstand at the football field had been re-painted. A new press box has also been added to the field.

Aluminum windows are being installed in part of the school building also. Windows are now being put in the south side of the east part of the high school building. Each year, more aluminum windows will replace the older style windows until the entire school has the new type windows.

Routine session held on Monday by city council

Morton City Council met in regular session Monday night, conducting very routine business. Present were Councilmen Walter Taylor, Elma Seaney, Tom Rowden, and Kenneth Thompson, along with Mayor Dean Weatherly and City Secretary Elra Oden.

Ralph Douglas, city engineer, gave a report on the completion of the seal coat given approximately 28 city blocks recently. The job, done by Pioneer Pavers, cost the city $7,331.15, and included 52,000 square yards. Besides the regular street work, the intersection at SW 3rd and Buchanan, near the elementary school, was repaired.

An ordinance, appointing members to a board of equalization for the City of Morton was read and passed. Those appointed to the board include Don Allsup, Charles W. Bowen and R. C. Strickland. The board is to meet on Monday, August 9, at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Dorothy Irwin gave a report on the finances in the general fund of the city, and also presented an approximate budget for the year 1966.

Maurice Lwallen, city gas superintendent, reported to the council a comparison of consumption and cost of gas bought by the city from Great Plains Natural Gas Co. and El Paso Natural Gas Co. Ordinance No. 3-65, more commonly known as the "dog and cat ordinance" was passed by the council in the third and final reading before the group.

A report on the expenditures during the first quarter of 1965 was made by the city secretary. According to his report, expenditures during this period were well within the budget adopted by the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Saverance were in Abilene over the weekend where they visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Booser and Lori.

DO YOU RECALL.....

THOSE WONDERFUL YEARS...

They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness... The Lord has blessed us with children and now grandchildren. Our lives, and now theirs have been molded in the church. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. Pass on this priceless heritage to your children and grandchildren.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Jury 'heads or tails' rulings out of court

The hour was late and the jurors were weary of trying to decide whether the defendant had really committed the crime. Finally one exasperated juror proposed that they toss a coin.

"Tails he's guilty, heads he's innocent!"

Everyone agreed to abide by the toss. And, in obedience to the tails that turned up, they brought in a verdict of guilty. But when the facts came to the attention of the court, the verdict was set aside. Not accepted.

For the law does not recognize coin-tossing as a legitimate method of doing the job of a jury. Nor does it recognize cutting cards or drawing lots, which jurors have also been known to try. As one court put it:

"Nothing short of a free and deliberate finding, made upon a conscientious conviction of the judge-law."

Quotient verdict

Another shortcut, sometimes resorted to by a jury in fixing the amount of damages, is known as the "quotient verdict." In this method, each juror writes down how

AMA, high school coaches in timely talk on football

Is your boy one of the several hundred thousand American youngsters who will soon be "going out" for football at his junior high or high school?

If so, you may be interested in the new six-point joint recommendations of the American Medical Association and the National Federation of High School Athletic Associations that will help to insure that your boy is properly conditioned for this vigorous contact sport.

Beginning with a satisfactory pre-season medical examination, there is no substitute for requiring a standard of physical fitness that assures sufficient strength and endurance, a good level of skill, and acclimation to hot and humid weather, before exposing any individual to the rigors and risks of tackle football.

Following is the AMA-NFHSAA program for readiness of schoolboy gridders for participation:

The boys should follow faithfully a personal conditioning program during the summer, based on information gained through the school's health and physical education classes plus some specific training for the demands of tackle football.

At least the first week of practice should be limited to non-contact drill with emphasis on conditioning and fundamentals. Shorts, T-shirts and football shoes are the recommended training uniform in this period because of the heat. The boys also should wear their mouth protectors to begin to become accustomed to them.

The second week should include only controlled body contact drills and avoid wide-open play.

Practice games or game-conditioning scrimmages should be prohibited until after at least two weeks of practice.

A minimum of three weeks of carefully planned practice should precede the first regularly scheduled game.

The two organizations also pointed to two factors that should be considered in schoolboy football:

Participation in interscholastic football is not a right but a privilege for those who can demonstrate the high level of physical and emotional fitness necessary to play aggressively, skillfully and with sportsmanship.

Participation in high school football should not detract from keeping up with a broad-based physical education program and from sampling other sports during the off-season.

She is a seven-year member of the school band and was named to All-Region Band last year. Donna is also a member of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, and attends Missionary Baptist Church.

Her hobbies are music and all sports, and after graduation she plans to continue her education in college. Her reason for entering the Queen contest is "to help make the rodeo a success and Cochran County a better place to live." She is sponsored by the 1936 Study Club.

Other candidates to date and previously announced include Linda Rose, Connie Stowe and Charlotte Smart. There is still time for others to enter, according to Mr. George.

teams in the district (Slaton, Post, Frenship) but I hope they're right." He went on to say that Denver City had to be considered the overwhelming favorite in the league, but that the other four squads looked pretty even to him.

"Our ball club in 1965 is going to depend on how just a few boys come through," Jones commented. "If those few play the kind of ball of which they are capable, we'll be OK," the congenial Morton mentor went on to say. "but if they don't live up to our expectations, we may be in trouble."

The Morton team won't be real big this year, but should have fairly good size. As usual, the Indians will be hampered by lack of replacements in almost every position should one of the first line boys be injured. Jones went on to say that the young and untried boys will have to be used as replacements, and until they gain experience, it could affect overall performance of the team.

Several candidates for the 1965 team had this spring said they weren't going to go out for the grid sport this fall. It is hoped that the football bug will bite them as the season approaches and they change their minds. Their appearance on the scene could make a difference in this year's team.

They had spent the last few days working near Brownfield or Lubbock, but weren't sure where. They supposedly quit their jobs Monday, and were picked up in Morton that night.

A temporary driver's license in George Ray Cox' possession had been changed, but Cox told local police he did not make the changes on it. The automobile registration certificate the men had in their possession did not match motor number on the car they were driving.

Also found in possession of the men were a California dealer's tag for 1965, a dealer's notice for a used vehicle, 1965, and a key believed to be a master key to fit most Chevrolet models or possibly other vehicles.

The two said that when they stole a car, they used a master key for a Chevrolet model, and then switched license plates on the stolen vehicle. Investigation on the pair is continuing.

CITY of MORTON

"I'm so relieved! They caught that burglar!"

Once again a community newspaper has kept its readers informed of criminal activity which might threaten lives and property. The community has been concerned—may well have aided law enforcement officers in solving the thefts. And now the community is relieved. Residents again feel safe in their homes. This is one of the values of crime news coverage in your community. But the story is not concluded. The community will want to know what happens to the person arrested. Concern for citizen safety must now give way to concern that an individual gets a fair trial, and, if convicted, just punishment.

And the man will get a fair trial. A jury will hear the evidence, insisting upon proof that he is in fact guilty of the charge against him. For nearly two centuries this judicial system has served our nation. This, too, then, is a purpose of newspaper crime coverage—to interpret the processes of justice to the citizen, and to be ever watchful that these processes are faithfully observed. Our laws guarantee each citizen justice. No newspapers underwrite that guarantee.

Adventures of George Farhat are much stranger than any fiction

George S. Farhat of the Popular Store in Morton says, "It would take months for me to tell you all the adventures I've had and there wouldn't be room in the city of Morton for all the paper it would take to write it down."

Farhat, to begin at the beginning, made an adventure of even being born. His parents were from Syria but had been residents of what was then called Palestine, a country that no longer exists. His family ancestral home was only a few hours by horse or burro from Bethlehem where his mother was born, but by the time it was George's time to be born, his parents were living in Long Beach, California, U.S.A.

Not a person to allow anything like getting born to be simple, George had his parents visiting in Mexico when it came time for the "blessed event" and this made him a native of Hermano in Old Mexico, son of Arab parents of American citizenship and of Palestinian descent but of Syrian extraction — in other words, an American, Mexican, Syrian, Arabia, Palestinian and that's how he wound up in the English army a prisoner of the Germans in Austria after he was captured in Greece and had spent some time under the Italians in prison camp after escaping in France and Italy both and came to Morton, later.

During all this, George's brother was fighting a very uncomplimentary war as a U.S. Marine in the South Pacific with no complications except the Japanese and simple things like that.

In 1933 George Farhat went to Jordan, which, at that time, was not yet a country but was part of Palestine. His grandparents lived at the little town of Ramallah, which means, in Arabic, "God's Mountain". George came to attend school and complete his education. The air was cool up on Ramallah, among the giant cedar trees, where king Solomon had cut the timbers for his temple in Old Testament days. Living was fun, there were fine horses to ride, swimming and lots of hunting. His grandparents were alone and wanted him to stay. Seven years slipped by and George was 17 when the war broke out.

Palestine was an English possession at that time. George volunteered — he isn't sure why except it seemed the proper thing for him to do at the time. He was trained as an Infantryman in rifle, bayonet, machine gun and all the other subjects deemed proper by the British and became a part of the Palestinian Regiment of the British 8th Army.

In 1941, George was captured in Greece by the Germans and taken to Stalag 17 about 30 miles from Berlin where he was forced to shovel sand into box-cars for about nine months.

Next he was imprisoned in a factory inside Berlin where he made some sort of small part for something — he never knew what for. He was never allowed to leave the factory building. This lasted about seven months, he thinks. It was difficult to tell time and it has been quite a few years now — too long to remember the exact time, if he ever knew for sure. Next, he was sent to Svlmona in Italy and placed under the Italians. Later, Italy withdrew from the war and the guards at the prisoner of war camp were absent. Prisoners waited and then the Germans arrived. Before security measures were completed, George ran off into the mountains where he stayed 36 days, the last seven days and nights without food and most of the time, with no water.

Some children found George and helped him to a cave where he hid. Food was brought to him by people from a little village where the children lived. Someone "snatched" and the Germans surrounded the area, closed in and recaptured George.

He was sent next to Austria and was put to breaking rocks high in the mountains where it was "very cold" and no chance to escape "even if he could have gotten away, we could not have survived."

A few months later he was taken to France and used to help clean up and repair damage of allied bombings. "D" Day came and the Germans put the prisoners in box-cars and began moving them back.

George says the Germans used Red Cross signs to mark cars with their own troops or ammunition in them and the cars in which the PWs rode, which should have been marked with the big red crosses, were subject to bombing as were their prison camps and hospitals. He saw several sections of his train blown up and set fire by his own air forces.

Escape was dangerous but George says by this time "I really felt death might be better than being a prisoner with no freedom, no home and with little hope of anything better." "So I decided to escape again if I could."

George used his eating utensils to cut a hole thru the box-car and jumped while the train was moving into the brush. There was a machine gun on top of the car at both ends ready to deal instant death to any prisoner that "got out of line or even thought about trying to escape." He was sore and bruised but he made it.

This time it was different. He was in France and he had a white civilian-type shirt. He took off his army belt and insignia and attempted to disguise himself. He had learned a little French, too, while cleaning up the bomb damage in France.

He spent three days without food or water in some bushes and was captured again but this time by French farmers, not Germans. He says he was the honored guest and was treated royally in a little village near Bordeaux.

Eleven days later, the Americans came to the village. George was with his French allies, cheering from the top of the houses, waving little American and French flags they had made, — "we had a few drinks that day, too". George admits with a sheepish look, "and I didn't turn myself in right away like I was supposed to do — I waited until pretty late that night."

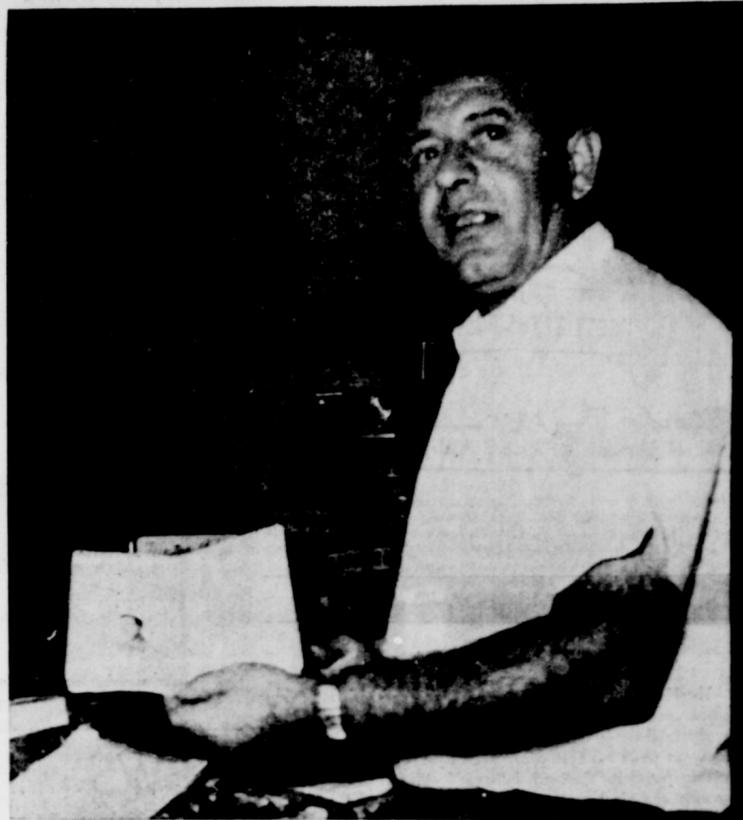

George was sent to England and questioned and interrogated. All prisoners on both sides, Allied and Axis, were paid by their captors. George's "pay" was a mark a day, about 35 cents. He still has some of the "prison" money, which was not the regular German currency but a special money which could be spent only in the prison commissary for razor blades and a few other items carried there. Meanwhile, his regular army pay continued to build. British army pay is not high. George started at about $6 a month and worked his way up to about $12 a month finally but drew $9 a month during most of his army career. When he got to England, he had enough back pay coming to buy two new suits and a few other items of civilian clothing. He had a small allotment going to his grandparents back in Ramallah all the time he was in service and this had depleted the "fortune" he had coming in three-years of back pay by a minor amount, anyway.

The English returned George to the place where he had enlisted and he was stranded back in Palestine. His relatives sent him money to get back to America — "It cost $1,400 for a one-way ticket", he recalls.

The war was still on and George had to stay in Portugal 36 days waiting for his ship but he was "home for Christmas in 1945". He had been gone more than ten years, more than three of it as a prisoner of war. He had spent Christmas of 1940 with his grandparents, waiting until after that day to enlist. It was 1945 before he had another Christmas a free man. Prior to that, he had been in Palestine for seven years.

George says if it had not been for the Red Cross, "We would all have died of malnutrition. Food packages were supposed to come once a week but averaged a little less than one package every two weeks. The packages contained high protein concentrated foods along with a few morale items as tobacco." George says the first four-months were the worst. "It was hard to stand up, you got dizzy from hunger weakness when you stood up". The Germans claimed the prisoners were getting the same rations as their own troops — "we knew this could not be true but it was hard to argue when the other side had all the guns". George recalls many narrow escapes from death. Once when the Germans raked the prison yard with machine gun fire, his buddy, sitting in a box with him in the yard, fell over, two bullets through his neck, dead. George was not hit.

The Germans had given the men orders in their own language to disperse and not "gang up". "We did not understand German and so failed to obey", George explain-

Two top athletic events set for Lubbock Oct. 2

West Texas sports fans will have an opportunity to see two top athletic attractions Oct. 2 in Lubbock.

At 7:30 p.m., Texas Tech's Red Raiders host the Texas Aggies in a Southwest Conference football clash at Jones Stadium.

And preceding the grid contest, there will be a 3 p.m. pro basketball game matching the St. Louis Hawks against the Philadelphia 76ers in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. It will be the first West Texas appearance by N-B-A teams in five years.

The pro cage tilt will star Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, generally recognized as the greatest basketball player of all time. The 7-foot-1 Philadelphia pivot has led all N-B-A scorers in each of his six seasons in the rugged league. No other player has ever approached that performance.

The 76ers also boast Lucious Jackson, a forward who was the N-B-A's "Rookie of the Year" last season. Other Philadelphia standouts include Hal Greer, Chet Walker, John Kerr, Dave Gambee and Larry Jones.

The Hawks have a well-balanced scoring attack led by veteran forward Cliff Hagan. Other key men on the St. Louis roster are Len Wilkens, Zelmo Beaty, Bill Bridges, Jeff Mullins and player-coach Richie Guerin.

Tickets for the pro cage game are priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, with all seats reserved. Fans may order ducats now by mailing a check in the proper amount to Pro Basketball, P.O. Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Mrs. A. S. Key and Cova toured points of interest in the Pecos Valley and visited at Roswell, Dexter, Hagerman and Artesia last week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Key's daughter and grandson, Mrs. Lowell Payton and Key of Hobbs, New Mexico. While on the trip they visited McDonald Flat where the Keys had once lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver and Melinda spent last week in Ruidoso, New Mexico. Mr. Weaver, Morton coach, attended the first session of summer school at Texas Tech where he took two history courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas and son were in Abilene over the weekend visiting his mother, Mrs. Carl Wilson.

Quite a story

The New York Stock Exchange has just issued its latest census of shareowners in American corporations. It shows that, early this year, the total was a smashing 20,120,000—more than three times as many as when the first count was taken 13 years ago.

This spectacular finding is buttressed with all manner of other interesting and significant information. For instance, the number of minors who own shares has reached 1,280,000, as against 450,000 in 1962. This group registered both the largest absolute and percentage increases. All the states have enacted legislation in recent years which make it easier for parents and others to give stocks to minors, and the elders, it is clear, are taking advantage of that. At the other end of the age scale, shareowners in the 65 and up bracket registered the second highest increase.

Shareownership is very definitely not just the province of the wealthy. The median household income of all the 20,120,000 individual shareowners was found to be $9,500 in this year's census. That is substantially more than in the previous tallies due to several factors, one being the general rise in family income in late years.

Shareowners make good use of their incomes. Examples: 88 per cent have savings accounts; exactly the same percentage life insurance; and 79 per cent own their homes.

It's quite a story, by any standard. And what it all adds up to is profound faith in the economic future of this nation.

Any volunteers?

Frankly, we don't expect to see any great rush of volunteers in response to efforts of pro-Communist agitators to recruit an American brigade to join the enemy Communist Viet Cong in Viet Nam. A few, perhaps, may travel there to don fatigues and ammunition bandoliers and pose for propaganda pictures. But, by and large, the participants in "teach-ins" and "peace rallies" who clamor so loudly for US withdrawal from Viet Nam simply don't strike us as the type prepared to demonstrate their purported convictions in a manner which would require any real sacrifice or danger to themselves.

Sit-ins, lie-ins and picketing are, after all, quite safe activities; the political powers-that-be can be counted on to order the police and possibly even the US Army to run interference for you. And should those same forces be directed to carefully remove you, you can always make a fuss, kick and bite and scream "police brutality."

But, actually to risk one's life for his cause—? Well, that's asking a bit too much of the general run of campus carpers and professional demonstrators. Witness the report recently that 10,000 participants at the University of California teach-in gave a standing ovation to a speaker who called upon "young American men and women to go and actively join" the Viet Cong in combat against American and Vietnamese troops.

We haven't heard of any of that 10,000 actually doing that which they so lustily applauded. Even so, Communist recruitment of American beatniks is not something to be taken lightly. Precisely because of their moral degeneracy and physical cowardice, these types are ideally suited to another Communist purpose—terrorist bombings and sabotage. These are now commonplace events in South Viet Nam, and altogether too commonplace here at home. Our newspapers testify to that. And official police reports document that, at an encampment in Michigan last May, an organization called "Students for a Democratic Society" gave training in the making of "Molotov Cocktails and other small explosives."

It's high time that the administration puts a stop to this recruitment and training program. Student pranks and steam-letting are one thing. But Molotov Cocktails are a bit too heady.

An American Medical Association release observes that many questions remain about the effects of smoking on health. Some of the complicated problems still to be solved by scientific investigators are: How does tobacco smoke produce damage to the human body? Why do some people appear to tolerate the effects of smoking better than others? Is there a single factor involved in the tobacco smoke danger or are there several factors? The medical profession is taking an active role in attempting to answer these questions. The AMA's Education and Research Foundation alone is supporting more than 40 research projects in the United States and Europe.

By 1985, the U.S. Census Bureau reports, the nation's population will climb to somewhere between 248 million and 276 million.

Max Ascoli writes in The Reporter: "All delusions or illusions to the contrary, the Communist adversary still wishes us ill; his ways of wishing us ill are infinitely varied; ours of responding pitifully few. But the major difference between us still comes from the fact that they are more adroit in the most insidious practices of warfare. That is why President Johnson was so right in Vietnam when he started repaying them in their own coin. We have also had a tendency to interpret the divisiveness in their ranks as being automatically in our favor. Not a single instance has been provided so far that this is so..."

Wages and worth

Many well-meaning people, on admirable humanitarian grounds, favor the current proposal to extend the federal minimum wage to some 4.6 million workers, largely engaged in retail trades and other service enterprises, who are now exempt.

The trouble is that this way of attacking the low earnings problem has a grave and built-in defect. Experience has proven that there is a definite relationship between the steady increase in the minimum wage and its expanding coverage and the high unemployment among young people and others who have little or no experience or skill. Employers, operating in a highly competitive climate, have no choice but to hire as few marginal workers as is possible. The trend toward mechanization is accelerated. Thus many of those whom the wage is designed to benefit are penalized instead.

There are alternatives which offer far brighter prospects an arbitrary wage requirement which takes no account of a worker's value to an enterprise. One is to raise the productivity of the unemployed and of youth through training and retraining. Another lies in government policies which will provide maximum support to business expansion. Then wages, along with profits and employment will rise too.

No law can change the fact that a worker's wage is dependent on his worth as a producer.

Freedom at Stake

As the pressure builds up from administration and labor spokesmen alike to marshal support for repeal of Section 14b (affirming the right of the states to pass and enforce right to work legislation) it is necessary to re-emphasize the important issues involved.

Section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act is another freedom which is in danger of being taken away from us. The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association heartily endorses this right-to-work law. The Association strongly opposes the repeal of this law. We, in Texas, have praised Governor John Connally for his stand, supporting the law, and the Texas House for its resolution asking that Section 14b remain on the books. As most of you know, the administration has called for repeal of this section.

Along with the right to join a union should go a corollary right not to join a union. Where compulsory unionism is practiced, the individual loses his freedom of choice and self-determination.

Much is being said these days about the rights of minorities some of it by the very people who want to repeal Section 14b and take away the rights of minorities not to be forced into a union against their wills.

Agriculture today has many good organizations representing its interests. The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association is one. The various cattle groups and Farm Bureau are notable examples.

All these organizations — whatever their divergent views may be — share one common characteristic. All are voluntary. No one can force you to be a member of TS&GRA, or any other such group.

That's the way it should be. Certainly there are times when people who work hard in an organization become discouraged and wish there were some way to make others contribute whether they want to or not. But that would not be right. The very fact that these organizations are voluntary ### is one of the sources of their strength. The members believe in them, or they wouldn't pay their dues.

Not everyone in this country has a choice. In states without a right-to-work law, a union ship can force a worker to join a union whose policies he may personally find abhorrent. This union may take some of the worker's dues and apply the money to support political candidates whom he may oppose, or political philosophies not in line with his own. To be sure, there are federal laws restricting use of dues for political purposes, but it is no secret that these laws are flouted.

Now the administration has called for repeal of Section 14b of the Taft-Hartley law, that section which allows states to pass right-to-work laws. No matter how many weasel-worded news releases may be printed to the contrary, how many official speeches may deny it, the fact remains that such a repeal actually puts the weight of the federal government behind union drives for compulsory membership.

It is being argued that absence of right-to-work laws does not force an employer to sign a closed-shop agreement. But experience shows that most unions can force such an agreement by use of the strike threat. The federal government usually sides with the union in such cases.

The result is little short of slave labor. The worker is given just one choice: join or get out of his line of work.

In a free country, this is totalitarianism. No one anymore opposes a worker's right to join a union if he wants to. By the same token, he should have an equal right to stay out of a union if he wants to do so.

No war is 'small'

We wish the newspapers, TV reporters, and high military types in Washington would quit referring to what's happening in Viet Nam as a "brush fire war" or "police action" or anything at all except what it is . . . which is a genuine old-fashioned shooting action.

There's no such thing as a "small" battle or a "small" war to the men who are on the firing line. For the fellow who is in the line of fire, it's total war if he's the only man in the action . . . because he's laying everything he's got on the line.

And, we imagine, to those who receive those next-of-kin notifications from the Department of Defense, it's also pretty much a total war.

"Brush fire war" and "police actions" exist only in the minds of the high military brass, who can vie "the big picture", we suppose, with cool detachment . . . and we don't intend this as any biting criticism of the military commanders. This is the job they're trained for . . . it's a necessary one and a hard one, and their decisions are as tough as any man makes.

But for the GI who's fighting it, there's no such thing as a "small" war. When the bullets start whining around his ears, any little old war is big enough to fill his whole world.

Uncle Sam looks behind

It's a crazy world. Out of Washington comes news from a government survey stating that women have a broader "seat breadth" than men.

But the broader can take heart. The average difference is only four-tenths of an inch. The survey was made under the auspices of the U.S. Public Health Service, which explains that measurements were taken in the seated position with computations made "across the greatest lateral protrusion on each side of the buttocks, using light but sure contact to compress the clothing but not the body."

By golly, when Uncle Sam measures something he doesn't fool around, does he?

'What is happiness?'

What is happiness? It's finding a bluebird's nest in a fencepost, and dragging your bare feet in the sandy road right after a summer rain.

Happiness is 12 years old and slipping away to go fishing, and most of all it's watching your cork bob up and down and slipping under the water and the feel of the pole when a fish has taken your bait and you know he is a big one, though he may be only three inches long, and he's your fish and you will eat him that very night.

Happiness is going to church on a bright Sunday morning and hearing all the people in church singing the wonderful old hymns you've heard all your life. Happiness is sitting in church until the sweat galls your backsides, waiting to get out and go swimming or play ball or simply to play.

Happiness is climbing a tree in summer and getting the feel of the wind in the leaves and against your body, and feeling like you can conquer the world.

Happiness is climbing in bed at night, too tired to move, and with only a few moments to daydream the very special dreams of youth before overpowering sleep over takes you. Happiness is awaking next morning to the smell of frying ham or sausage, with all the problems and weariness of the day washed away into the limbo of forgotten things.

Happiness is many things to a boy, but most of all he's happy to meet the challenge of each new day, and happy to meet the world and find out all about it, for the days are never long enough for him to learn it all. Mostly, happiness is just being alive and 12 years old.

War babies are here!

Fully state-financed senior institutions — including Sul Ross State College in Alpine — will bear the brunt of the enrollment increase in Texas colleges and universities within the next few years, reports Dr. Jack W. Hudgins Jr., program analyst for the Texas Commission on Higher Education.

Dr. Hudgins predicts an enrollment of 240,339 students in state institutions by 1971, compared to 148,328 last year. The enrollment for all colleges in Texas by 1971 is expected to reach 398,572.

A few schools may have to turn away students because of lack of room, and some may start holding more late afternoon, night and Saturday classes to handle the load, he said.

Nearer at hand, the Hudgins report forecasts total enrollment of 280,106 at 107 colleges and universities next September, 26,275, more than registered last fall at 104 schools.

Dr. L. Harlan Ford, acting president, has already forecast enrollments at Sul Ross of 1700 for the September, 1965, term and 2150 for September, 1966.

Major reason for the college crush is the result of the post-World War II baby boom, but Dr. Hudgins lists these other factors:

1. "It's more popular to go to college now. Kids automatically think of going to college when they finish high school. Once they just got married and went to

Highlights and Sidelights —

Texas tourism hits record

AUSTIN, Tex. — Not even prolonged spring rains were enough to dampen Texas tourism this year.

Attendance at tourist attractions the first six months of 1965 increased 14 per cent over the same period last year.

A mid-year survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency shows that 14,069,333 visitors were counted by 18 attractions and the state parks, with some places showing a 25 per cent increase in out-of-state visitors.

Largest single increase was reported by the Fort Davis Historic Site in far West Texas. Although the fort still is under going restorations, the tourist load there increased almost 50 per cent.

Other leaders in the visitors' increase were the Old Stone Fort at Nacogdoches, Big Bend National Park, and a replica of the original Fort Bliss in El Paso.

SCREWORMS BACK — A combination of mild winter weather and inattentiveness on the part of livestock producers is believed to be behind a sudden spiral upward in the number of screwworm cases reported last month.

In a joint report the Texas Animal Health Commission and the US Department of Agriculture reveal that 129 Texas cases were confirmed between May 30 and June 26. Only 35 cases were reported in the entire Southwest in June, 1964.

FEDERAL MONEY — Austin, Corpus Christi, San Antonio and Houston are sub-cities in areas given top priority in a matching-fund program for construction of facilities for the mentally retarded. They will get first shot at some $500,000 in federal funds soon to be available.

Priority list, which will be one of the controlling factors in the allocation of the federal funds by the State Health Department, is part of a plan now in the hands of the US Surgeon General. He has authority to approve it or ask that changes be made.

Applications for funds first go to the State Advisory Council for Mental Retardation Facility Construction. Applicants must have their half of the funds for any proposed project in hand, in liquid assets.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled that a county may not legally operate a "translator system" to bring TV to its people.

Garza County cannot close the county hospital, but it may lease or sell it.

A prisoner "laying out" fines at $3 a day in the county jail may not get credit on two cases at the same time. In order words, the two jail terms follow each other instead of running concurrently.

TRAINING MANPOWER — Texas Industrial Commission is urging Texas communities to look into benefits of the Manpower Development and Training Act as a way of adding impetus to industry attraction.

Industrial Commission has scheduled six Industrial Planning Seminars to explain the Act. They will be held in August in Austin, Dumas, McAllen and Sweeney.

NYC PROJECTS — Neighborhood Youth Corps job projects continue to get approval all over the state. Gov. John Connally announced final clearance for grants in the following areas:

Aspermont, Denton, Snyder, Del Rio, Quinlan, Mineral Wells, Robert Lee, Comanche County, Beaumont, Breckenridge, Matador, Waco, San Angelo, Round Top-Carmine, Fort Worth, Hempstead, Roma, Lubbock, McKinney, Hemp Hill, Amarillo, McKinney, Bridge City, Mason, Childress, Groesbeck, Quanah, Laredo, Eagle Pass, Wichita Falls and Mt. Vernon.

APPOINTMENTS — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith has made several committee appointments.

To the Texas Legislative Council, research arm of the Legislature, he appointed Sens. Neveille H. Colson of Navasota, Louis Crump of San Saba, George Parkhouse of Dallas, Murray Watson of Mart and J. P. Word of Meridian.

Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg will head the Senate Investigating Committee. Other members are Sens. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi.

Sens. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Criss Cole of Houston and Charles Herring of Austin will serve on the Legislative Study on Multiple Use and Pollution of All Waters of Texas, with Krueger as chairman. Three representatives work."

2. Students are finding more education makes job-hunting easier.

3. There are increasing numbers of out-of-state students and more students are coming to Texas than are leaving for higher education.

This sharp increase in college enrollment comes as no surprise, of course. Educators have been planning for the boom for some time. Now it's up to the rest of Texas to keep pace with the educators.

Alpine Avalanche

and five private citizens also will serve on panel.

COURTS SPEAK — Third Court of Civil Appeals, invalidating part of Texas Regulatory Loan Act, has held small loan companies dealing in bonds and securities are subject to inspection by State Banking Department.

Forty-four Allied Finance Companies sued the Banking Department claiming they are exempt from its examinations. Appeals court instructed district court to reopen case as to penalties against 40 of the Texas-based concerns.

An Austin district court enjoined Texas Railroad Commission from enforcing order that natural gas purchasers must extend lines to all producers in a field. Rio Grande Valley Gas Company, ordered to run its lines to West Port Isabel Field, brought the suit.

BOUNDARY MEETING — First formal meeting of new Texas-Louisiana boundary commission will be held here August 10.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler expressed hope a line between the two states finally can be agreed on for submission to their legislatures and congress. Agreement would prevent litigation and permit both states to be able to identify their land for purposes of oil and gas leasing and other useful purposes, he said.

Texas members of the commission are Sadler, Attorney General Carr, Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, Sen. Jack Strong of Longview, Rep. David Crews of Conroe, Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin, and Larry Temple, executive assistant to Connally.

REDISTRICTING SUIT — Nine Republicans filed a motion to intervene in a federal court challenge of constitutionality of the new congressional redistricting act.

They charged the Texas Legislature failed to create 23 districts of equal population as ordered by the court in 1963 and that the redistricting act "constitutes an extreme and indeed classic case of gerrymandering against certain political and metropolitan groups."

Inequalities were cited in Dallas, Bexar, Jefferson, Orange, Ector and Midland counties. Districts, the new plaintiffs maintained, vary from 9.7 per cent above the average to 9.7 below. They asked the court to apportion the state into proper districts after an investigation supervised by a master in chancery.

SHORT SNORTS — Governor Connally has named Jack Gore, Dallas, vice president of National Maritime Union, as state chairman, United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

House Speaker Ben Barnes presented Texas on the proposed Guadalupe National Park near Paso at a hearing before the Senate and House committees on land and insular affairs. State Park and Wildlife Commission has endorsed conversion of an area in El Capitan Mountain into a national park.

Committee of the Governor's Boards of State Colleges and Universities has unanimously endorsed the Constitutional Amendment that provides for reallocation of the ad valorem tax, increases amount from 5 cents to 10 cents and increases the number of participating institutions from 12 to 17. Proposal will go to the voters on November 2.

Texas Employment Commission reports total employment in Texas stood at 3,760,100 in mid-May, 28,600 from mid-April and a 100 gain from May, 1964.

A regional representative of Federal Office of Aging indicated that the Texas share of funds allocated by the Older Americans will be $157,055 during the year.

Texas Highway Department let contracts for widening bridges on US 290 in Gillespie, Blanco Counties near the Rio Ranch. They are the Three Creek Bridge, two miles west of Stonewall, and the William Creek Bridge, four miles east of Stonewall.

State General Land Office came up with legal description relocation of disputed county between Parker and Tarrant counties at the request of local officials.

Governor Connally has waived 2,122 Texas pecans against a football game on Aug. 14 between Texas and Pennsylvania High School all stars.

Texas Water Commission released a new report on groundwater resources of the Rio Grande Basin from El Paso to Brownville and as far north as Wichita County.

d. "At Large" shall be intended to mean off the premises of the owner, and not under the control of the owner or a member of its immediate family either by leash, cord, chain or otherwise.

SECTION 2. License and Registration Required. All dogs and/or cats kept, harbored, or maintained by their owners in the City of Morton shall be licensed and registered if over seven months of age. Dog and/or cat licenses shall be issued by the City Assessor-Collector upon payment of their license tax of $4.00 for each male or female dog and/or cat. The owner shall state at the time application is made for such license and upon forms provided for such purposes his name and address and name, breed, color and sex of each dog and/or cat owned or kept by him. The provisions of this Section shall not be intended to apply to dogs and/or cats, whose owners are non-residents temporarily within the City, not to exceed 15 days, nor to dogs and/or cats brought into the City for the purpose of participating in any dog and/or cat show, nor to "seeing-eye" dogs properly trained to assist blind persons when such dogs are actually being used by blind persons for the purpose of aiding them in going from place to place.

SECTION 3. Tag and Collar. Upon payment of the license fee the City Assessor-Collector shall issue to the owner a license certificate and a metallic tag for each dog and/or cat so licensed. The shape of the tag shall be changed every year and shall have a stamp thereon showing the year for which it was issued and the number corresponding with the number on the certificate. Every owner shall be required to provide each dog and/or cat with a collar to which the license tag must be affixed and shall see that the collar and tag are constantly worn. In case a dog and/or cat tag is lost or destroyed, a duplicate will be issued by the City Assessor-Collector upon presentation of a receipt showing the payment of the license fee for the current year and the payment of a $1.00 fee for such duplicate. Dog and/or cat tags shall not be transferable from one dog and/or cat to another and no refund shall be made on any dog and/or cat license fee because of death of the dog and/or cat or the owner's leaving the City before expiration of the license.

SECTION 4. Impounding. The Chief of Police shall designate a special officer to be known and designated as the DOG CATCHER, whose duty it shall be to carry out the terms of this ordinance. It shall be the duty of the DOG CATCHER to apprehend any dog and/or cat found running at large contrary to the provisions of this ordinance and to impound such dog and/or cat in the city pound or other suitable place. The pound master upon receiving any dog and/or cat shall make a complete registry, entering the breed, color and sex of such dog and/or cat and whether licensed. If licensed he shall enter the name and address of the owner and the number of the license tag.

SECTION 5. Notice to owner and redemption. Not later than three days after the impounding of any dog and/or cat the owner shall be notified or if the owner of the dog and/or cat is unknown written notice shall be posted for three days at a conspicuous place in the City Hall describing the dog and/or cat and the place and time of taking. The owner of the dog and/or cat so impounded may claim such dog and/or cat upon payment of the license fee, if unpaid, and of all costs and charges incurred by the City of Morton for impounding and maintenance of said dog and/or cat. Following charges shall be paid to the Assessor-Collector for impounding any dog and/or cat:
For keeping any dog and/or cat — $2.00 per day.
For giving notice — $4.00.

SECTION 6. Disposition of unclaimed or infected dogs and/or cats. It shall be the duty of the pound master to keep all dogs and/or cats so impounded for a period of five days. If at the expiration of five days from the date of notice to the owner or the posting of notice such dogs and/or cats shall not have been redeemed and may be destroyed. Any unlicensed dog and/or cat required by law to be licensed, or any dog and/or cat which appears to be suffering from rabies or affected with hydrophobia, mange or other infectious or dangerous disease shall not be released, but may be forthwith destroyed.

SECTION 7. Confinement of certain dogs and/or cats. No dog and/or cat of fierce, dangerous or vicious propensities, and no female dog and/or cat in heat, whether licensed or not, shall be allowed to run at large or upon the premises of one other than the owner. If any such dog and/or cat is found running at large in violation of this provision it shall be taken up and impounded and shall not be released except upon approval of the Chief of Police after payment of the fees provided in Section 5; provided, however, that if any dangerous, fierce or vicious dog and/or cat so found at large cannot be safely taken up and impounded such dog and/or cat may be slain by any policeman.

Any unmuzzled dog and/or cat running at large during the time of the proclamation shall be seized and impounded unless noticeably infected with rabies. All dogs and/or cats so noticeably infected with rabies and displaying vicious propensities may be killed by any police officer, without notice to the owner. Dogs and/or cats impounded during the period of such proclamation shall be claimed within five days, be released to the owner, unless infected with rabies, upon payment of the impounding charges provided for in Section 5. Every owner or other person upon ascertaining a dog and/or cat as rabid shall immediately notify the Chief of Police who shall either remove the dog and/or cat to the pound if possible, and if not, to summarily destroy it.

SECTION 10. Vaccination. It shall be unlawful for the owner of any dog and/or cat to keep, maintain, or allow such dog and/or cat to run at large unless it shall have been vaccinated by a licensed veterinarian with anti-rabies vaccine. All dogs and/or cats within the City of Morton, Texas, are hereby required to be vaccinated against rabies by a licensed veterinarian on or before Sept. 2, 1965, and each year thereafter at the owner's expense. No... the small stalk was not electrocuted. The big stalk was irrigated with water pumped with power from the Bailey County Electric Cooperative.

Boys Ranch has touch of Ol' West

There's a touch of the Old West and a lot of the new for visitors to see up in the Panhandle country of Texas. The place to see it is at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch near Amarillo.

The ranch, the first of its kind in America, is open to visitors and there are park facilities at the entrance for those who wish to picnic.

Situated along the bank of the Canadian River, the Boys Ranch is about 36 miles northwest of Amarillo and may be reached by taking Highway 1061 from Amarillo or U.S. 385 from Vega. It occupies the site of what was once Old Tascosa, Cowboy Capital of the Plains. Old Tascosa for a time was the center of the open range world, stamping ground for some of the West's most notorious bad men and focal point for cattle thieves and ranchers.

Trading post
Located at an easy river crossing, the site started as a meeting place for Indians and Mexican traders who exchanged contraband goods, including women and children. The first permanent settlement was made by sheep herders in 1876, the same year Charles Goodnight and Thomas S. Bugbee brought the first cattle to the free grass empire.

Small ranchers and nesters followed and the boom was on. Hundreds of miles from civilization, Old Tascosa lured the lawless and the law men. Names like Billy the Kid and Pat Garrett live in its history. Gun fights made a "Boot Hill" cemetery necessary. The heaviest toll in a single shoot-out occurred March 21, 1886, when three cowboys and a restaurant owner died in a five minute period. All went to Boot Hill.

The coming of barbed wire pinched off the cattle trails, Tascosa's life blood, and sealed the fate of the settlement. Today, only the town's stone court house and Boot Hill remain. Twenty-five years ago, the court house and 120 acres surrounding it were donated to a dream of a home in the country for boys who needed a helping hand.

Cal Farley
The man who had that dream is Cal Farley, a champion athlete and successful businessman who founded the Boys Ranch with a handful of unfortunate kids. Since that time, boys from 4 to 17 from virtually every state in the Union have come to the ranch for help at the request of relatives, social workers, ministers and juvenile court judges, and Cal and Mrs.

SHORT COWBOY, HIGH HORSE — At Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, a point of tourist interest at Old Tascosa, 36 miles northwest of Amarillo, each youngster must learn to saddle his own horse.

Farley have served as foster parents to more than 1500 youngsters who have become useful, productive citizens.

Financed by donations and operating on a nonsectarian basis, the ranch has thrived without fraternal, religious or governmental affiliations.

Today, Boys Ranch covers 1,400 acres, has 30 buildings, and boasts its own bank, post office and independent school district. Some 350 boys are living there in a normal, family atmosphere with staff "parenters" who live right in the dormitories or "homes."

Timely hints given for stretching dollar during summer vacation trip

Vacation time is here for most of us and planning for it can't start too soon. Here are some hints for stretching the vacation dollar:

Travel light.
Consider eating at diners or cafeterias once you reach your destination.

Use the family car. Here four or five people can ride as cheaply as one. Surveys show automobiles take only 14 cents of the travel dollar versus 22 cents on public transportation.

Take along a picnic basket and a thermos for picnic lunches and snacks to trim food expenses.
Consider camping out. Complete equipment can be rented from $45 to $80 for a two-weeks period.

The "check list": There are many small but important items which need attention when preparing for a vacation. Are these items on your check list?

Notify landlord, neighbors, or police of departure and return date.

Notify the milkman, mailman, and newspaper boy. (You might want to give the Post Office your forwarding address.)

Store outdoor furniture and equipment.

If you leave your electric power on, disconnect appliances.

Have your car thoroughly checked and serviced. Three of the principal causes of car failure

Aransas Wildlife Refuge suggested as place to visit in Texas this year

If your sightseeing tastes run to deer, wild turkey, great blue heron, collared peccary, caracara or several hundred other types of wildlife — then the Aransas Wildlife Refuge should be on your list of Texas places to visit this year.

This National Wildlife Refuge covers 47,261 acres on Blackjack Peninsula, about 75 miles north and slightly east of Corpus Christi off State Highway 35. The Refuge was established in 1937 for the protection and production of all forms of wildlife. It is administered by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife under the U. S. Department of Interior.

Visitors are asked to register at Refuge headquarters, located eight miles southeast of Austwell, Texas (Refugio County).

Summer visitors are encouraged to plan visits for late afternoon when more wildlife can be observed from the Refuge's 25 miles of shell-surfaced roads. Visiting hours are from 8:00 a.m. to sunset, daily.

Occupants of vehicles bearing a Land and Water Conservation Fund sticker are admitted free. For all other persons over 16 years of age, there is a 25 cent fee, effective June 1, 1965. Picnic areas are available in the Refuge.

For complete information on the area, you may write to Refuge Manager, Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, Austwell, Texas 77950, or Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Washington, D.C. 10240.

Increase noted in crimes over nation in 1964

Attorney General Nicholas deB. Katzenbach today released figures made available by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover disclosing that the Nation's law enforcement agencies reported more than 2,600,000 serious crimes throughout the United States last year, a 13 per cent increase over 1963.

The FBI's annual publication, Uniform Crime Reports — 1964, reveals that crimes of violence—murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault — climbed 15 per cent as a group, while the property crimes of burglary, larceny $50 and over, and auto theft were up 13 per cent.

All crimes used by the FBI as an index to nationwide criminality showed increases, with murder up 8 per cent, forcible rape 21 per cent, robbery 12 per cent, aggravated assault 17 per cent, burglary 12 per cent, larceny $50 and over 13 per cent, and auto theft 16 per cent.

History buff attracted to state park

A leisurely drive along the upper Gulf Coast offers a number of attractions, but one in particular will appeal to the Texas history buff, the lover of period pieces in a proper setting, and the wheeling admirer of the scenic coastal country.

The Varner - Hogg Plantation State Park will prove interesting to the motorist with one or all three years. Since 1965 is another year with more than the usual number of three-day holiday weekends, it is a good time to make this tour. The spot has been drawing a fair share of vacationists.

In Brazoria County
Relatively small by some standards, the state park embraces 52 acres and is located one mile northeast of West Columbia in Brazoria County. It is just one mile off State Highway 35.

The centerpiece against a background of trees is the colonial-style mansion, built in 1836, and which has period furnishings. It was the early sugar plantation home of James S. Hogg, which was given to the State by Miss Ima Hogg of Houston, daughter of Texas' first native governor, with an endowment "to perpetuate an appreciation of the simple, industrious and sometimes elegant life of the early settlers of Texas."

Bonus sightseeing
Mementos of the "Texian Campaign," the Mexican War, and the Confederacy are reminders that excitement, too, reached this quiet spot.

A bit of bonus sightseeing is to be found on Brazos Street in West Columbia: the state marker and flag pole on the site of the birthplace of a republic — the old capitol of Texas (1836-1837).

Varner - Hogg Plantation State Park is open from 10:00 a.m. to

GOV. JIM HOGG'S HOME — Texas tourists visit sugar plantation home of one of the state's great governors, James S. Hogg (1891-1895) in Brazoria County, located in Varner-Hogg Plantation State Park.

12:00 noon, and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. every day, except Mondays and Wednesdays. A nominal charge (50 cents and 25 cents for children) is made for admission. The park has a picnic area in the shade.

Hospitable West Columbia, the home town of Mrs. Bing Crosby, nee Kathryn Grandstaff, also has the McKinstry homestead where Stephen F. Austin died in 1836.

Other reasons to gas up and go to Houston, Galveston and Freeport beach are less than an hour away.

'Cool' foodstuffs for August month

August usually is the key hot-weather month.

So, it's especially nice that so many "cool" foods are plentiful during August, says the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Leading the list are fresh plums, closely followed by grapes, frozen concentrated orange juice and broiler-fryers.

With USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service reporting that a plentiful supply of broilers this month, you'll find fried chicken the perfect hot-weather protein dish.

Supplies of frozen concentrate orange juice may reach as high as 100 million gallons, and lowering prices favor budget costs.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 15 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board for Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Board and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) of bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times and at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board shall be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price hereof, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as here provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes here provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund hereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) shall be used by said Board for the purpose of retiring all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all of the bonds issued and sold by said Board; but there may be no such use of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violation of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a legislative framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

Swindlers Sell Fabrics Marked "All Wool"

SALT LAKE CITY—A smoothly operating band of door-to-door salesmen who sell cheap substitute fabrics as "all-wool" are cheating the nation's housewives out of hundreds of thousands of dollars each year, the American Wool Council has warned here.

The swiftly spreading racket, which local authorities in most communities, has reached as far West as Southern California and as far East as Hartford, Conn., according to the Better Business Bureau in New York. In most cases, victims are persons who can ill afford to be swindled.

Fast-talking and fast-moving members of the organization hit with greatest frequency in rural America. Here, in smaller towns with few stores, these slickly polished gyps can reach the heart of the nation's budget-conscious, home-sewing market.

Telling a story of personal hard luck, the itinerant salesman offers what are described as luxury wool fabrics at sacrifice prices. Victims of the racket report authentic-looking labels identifying the fabrics as "all-wool" play a big part in clinching most sales, they add.

Only after the salesman has sped away in his high powered car do both the salesman's story and fabric prove to be synthetic.

"These operations, which constitute a nationwide swindle of gigantic proportions, are cleverly devised to escape effective prosecution and are geographically planned to victimize widely scattered segments of the population," says W. H. Steiner, the American Wool Council's president.

"For every one of the hundreds of local incidents reported each year," he adds, "thousands of sales unquestionably go unreported."

How to Be a Sucker in 3 Easy Lessons

LESSON ONE — Things to Avoid

1. Don't read stories like this clipping from the newspaper. To do so may undermine your confidence in hit-and-run salesmen to such an extent that you will never be able to achieve Grade A Suckership.
2. Keep away from your local, taxpaying, community-supporting stores. To shop them carefully may interfere with your free acceptance of the salesman's pitch about offering values that the stores can't beat.

LESSON TWO — Have Faith

1. Swallow whatever line the nice man hands you, because he and his company (which you probably never heard of) guarantees what he says.
2. Don't display your rudeness by asking him to further jeopardize his immortal soul by inquiring where he could be found by tomorrow if you had to try to collect on his guarantee.

LESSON THREE — Forget

1. Forget that you may want the people you do business with to help out with local money-raising projects. And where will the peddler be then?
2. Forget that about one-third of the money you spend with local business establishments finds its way into community upkeep and progress, while the peddler puts this part down in his sock.
