

Morton Indians begin grid workout sessions

The snapping of shoulder pads coming in contact with each other, mixed with a few groans and the sound of a coach's cry "to get with it," could be heard on the Morton High School practice field Monday.

Head Coach J. P. Jones said about 41 boys turned out for the Morton Indians' first practice. He said he expected about five more to come out later. Jones said that he was very pleased with the turnout the first day.

In the morning session, Kenny Palmer, fullback suffered a dislocated shoulder and Jones said that he will probably be out the first two games.

Jones said that this year's team should have a little more depth than last year's, Jones said. "We have lots of boys and I can tell you that they hit hard. We are looking forward to a good year." The team has 12 returning lettermen.

The seniors out were: Jerry Elliott (C), Eddie Holloway (E), Mike Irwin (G), Jimmy Joyce (WB), Eddie Lyons (G), Kenny Palmer (FB), Timmy Petree (HB), Armando Saenz (HB), Ken Coats (T), and Penn Burkner (W).

The juniors out were: Danny Culppepper (E), Ralph Dyer, Rodney Hobson, Jerry Luper, Larry Shaw (T), John St. Clair (QB), Jimmy Studdard (FB), Randall Tanner (HB).

Sophomores were: Billy Baker (WB), Rick Coffman, Keith Cunningham (G), Lay Daniels (E), Lorenzo Green (E), Karl Griffith (HB), Donnie Harvey (HB), Randy Kelly (QB), Ray King (C), Willie

Moore, Billy Smart (T), Dick Vanlandingham (E).

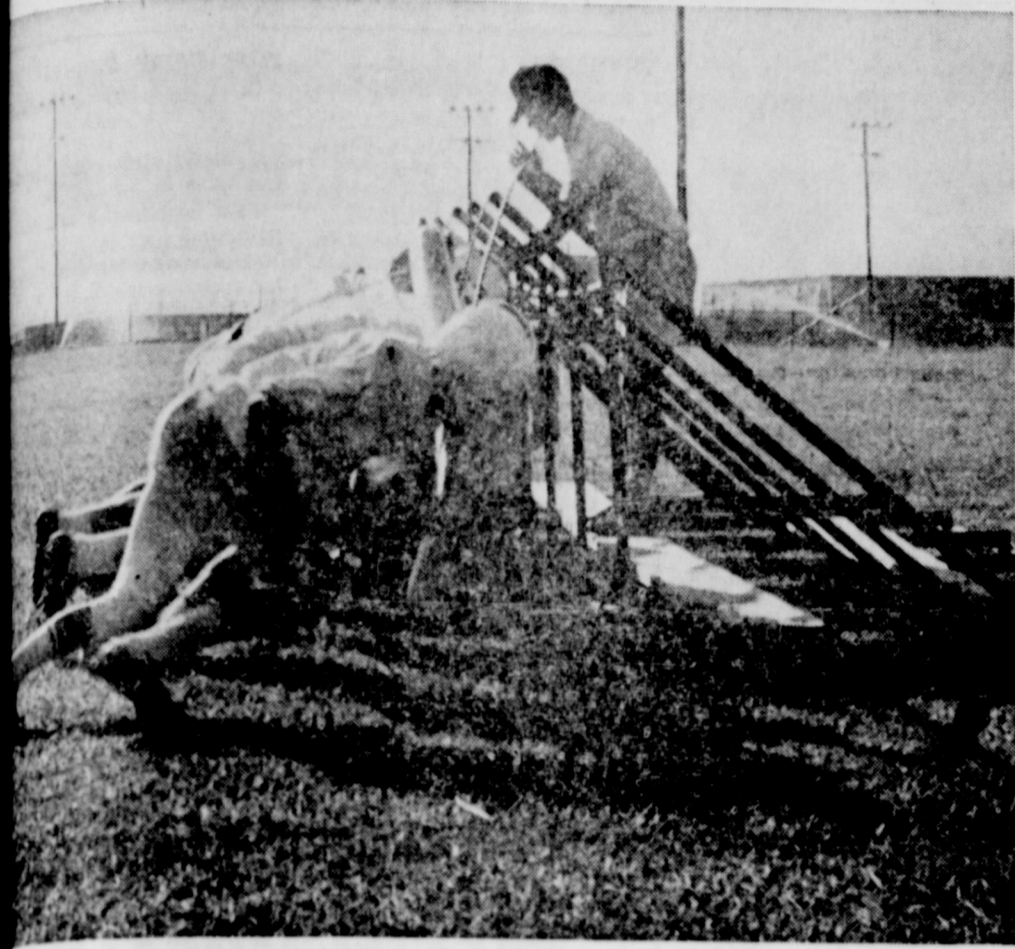

Freshmen out were: Wayne Thompson, Curtis Gandy, Charles Joyce, Bob Hawkins, Charles Hofman, Hershel Lamar, Tommy DeBusk, Ronnie Reeder, Rusty Rowden, Travis Roland, Sandy Sanders, Joe Perez.

Those that are expected to be out later are: Billy Laws (FB), Larry Smith (T), Lamell Abbe (E), Eddie Benefield (G), Randy DeBusk (HB).

Jones said that some of the positions listed above might change.

The Morton Indians' first game is with Olton Friday, Sept. 3. Last year Olton defeated the Indians 20-6. Head coach J. P. Jones and assistant coaches Fred Weaver and Ted Whillock will work with the boys for two a day workouts until school starts August 30. The workouts are at 7:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Coach Jones reported this week that the vacancy on the local coaching staff has not yet been filled but that he hopes to find someone soon.

Coach Fred Weaver gets a free ride as Morton Indian linemen hit the team sled in football workouts Tuesday afternoon. About forty boys are competing for positions on the squad, and are working out twice a day until school begins. TRIBpix

West Frontier Rodeo is big success

Plains and eastern New Mexico participated. There were more than a dozen riding groups with over 300 horses, floats, pretty girls, the Morton High School band, and various other individual riders and participants in the parade.

Kirk Dean Gin's float, called "Around the Clock With Cotton," won the first prize of $50. The senior class of Morton won a cash prize of $36 for their float "Friendship Still Abounds."

Andrews won first in the senior division for sheriff's posses, and Chavez won second, followed by Abernathy.

The Lubbock Range Riders won the junior division posse trophy, and the Hockley County 4-H group was second.

A beard judging contest was held after the parade and James Dewbre was judged to have the bushiest, Dale Debord the longest, and Wilson Hodge the most novel beard. The men were judged by contestants in the Rodeo Queen contest.

A capacity crowd turned out for the rodeo Thursday night. Charlotte Smart was crowned queen and given a bouquet of roses by mayor Weatherly. First runner-up was Peggy Ramsey, and second runner-up for rodeo queen was Linda Rose. The other contestants were Patty McBee, Connie Stowe and Donna Allsup.

Friday the 13th did bring a little bad luck with it this year to the rodeo. The evening performance was rained out and it was decided to have one Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

Saturday afternoon people from Cochran County enjoyed good music at the Last Frontier Rodeo Country Music Festival, held in the Jim Reeves Memorial Park. About 3:00 it began to rain and both the contestants and listeners alike made a run for the county activities building, where the judging got underway about 3:30 p.m.

The winners in the Country Music Festival were: Elvis Fleming.

Lanier said, "All the money will go to debt retirement. Not one cent will go to bonds or to pay raises or anywhere else." He added, "Through the years the indebtedness has piled up and this year something had to be done. The school board has been concerned about this problem greatly."

Lanier said that the Board had met in special session Aug. 2, and gone over the proposed budget and have been studying it since. He said they tried to trim the budget, that no matter how hard they tried, they couldn't have enough money left over to deal with the indebtedness.

"The Board didn't want to raise the taxes," Lanier said. "And I didn't want to either, but our kids are the most valuable asset we have and unless we raise the taxes we will be depriving them of a good education," he added.

Lanier said, "We certainly don't waste money. Every cent in the budget we need. The 10% raise will go only towards paying off the debt that has piled up over previous years." He concluded, "I want to stress that the money will not go for anything extra for the school. It's just this accrued back debt that it will go for."

The new tax increase will give the School Board an increase of approximately $25,000 to $30,000. The board amended last years budget at $674,107. The board also paid the school bills.

Lanier also announced that Mrs. Jo Ann Jones, wife of Coach J. P. Jones, has been hired as the new special education teacher. Mrs. Jones taught the 1st grade here in the 1961-62 school year.

Stockdale said that Monday was the first day of practice and that about 25 turned out. He said that quite a few of the students are still on vacation and that the band usually numbers around 50. Stockdale urged all students who are in the band to turn out for the practice sessions. He said that now they are practicing in the band hall but that next week they will probably go out and do some marching.

Stockdale said that he would also like to urge all parents to attend

Tax raise voted by school board

The Morton Independent School District Board of Education met in regular session Monday at 8:00 p.m. in the school administration building.

Ray Lanier, Superintendent of Schools, said that the Board raised the percent of assessment from 31% to 34%. This means that when the school tax statements come out in October the residents of the Morton Independent School District will have a 10% increase in the amount of taxes owed in 1965.

Lanier said, "All the money will go to debt retirement. Not one cent will go to bonds or to pay raises or anywhere else." He added, "Through the years the indebtedness has piled up and this year something had to be done. The school board has been concerned about this problem greatly."

$1,460,920 in FHA loans made here to Cochran

A total of 108 loans with a value of $1,460,920 were made to people in Cochran County during the 1965 fiscal year recently completed by the Farmers Home Administration, it was announced this week by Marvin E. Elliott, County Supervisor.

Of that amount, 43 were operating type loans, both initial and subsequent in an aggregate amount of $616,050. Operating loan funds were used for farm operating, family living expenses, purchase of livestock and equipment, minor land development, and refinancing of debts. The interest rate for operating loans is 5% with a repayment period of from 1 to 7 years on capital expenditures.

There were 54 emergency loans made in the amount of $750,200.00. These funds are used for annual farm operating and living expenses. The interest rate is 3% with the loans being due to be repaid in the crop year for which they are made. Emergency loans are

Pickup jackknives in front of vehicle attempting to pass

A pickup towing a flatbed truck jackknifed into the path of another pickup behind it heading in the same direction as both pickups attempted to pass another truck, Sunday about 7:00 p.m.

The accident occurred about 4.8 miles north of Morton on highway 214. Hugh Buckner of Friona, driving a 1961 International pickup, was towing his son Clifford Buckner north on highway 214 in a 1950 flat bed truck when the accident occurred. Buckner, in the pickup, pulled out to pass a butane truck, and according to investigating officer T. A. Rowland, didn't look back or either couldn't see too well behind him. At that time, Harvey Lauderdale, of Midland, driving a 1964 Chevrolet pickup, also going north on 214, was attempting to pass the butane truck. Clifford Buckner, in the flat bed truck being towed, saw the Lauderdale truck attempting to pass and applied his brakes. When he did,

Hawkins celebrates 25th year of business here

A quarter of a century ago H. S. Hawkins began the Hawkins Oldsmobile Co. in Morton by selling tractors and mules in an adobe building. He is currently celebrating his 25th year of sales and service to people in Cochran County.

The adobe building where he began was located at the present site of the post office. He paid $20 a month rent for the building. Nearby, in a lot that is now owned by the Bedwell Implement Co., was a pen where he kept the horses and mules he bought from the ranchers in the surrounding area.

It seems that at that time farmers and ranchers here could make quite a bit of money by raising extra mules and work horses. Hawkins sold some of the mules and horses to people in and around Morton. Some of the people he first sold mules to are still his customers today, he says.

But most of the livestock went to the farmers in Mississippi. Hawkins says he can remember buying 90 head and having to drive them eight miles to Lehman, where they were loaded in box cars and shipped ped away. "We mostly used the railroad because roads leading into Morton weren't too good then, being pretty sandy, and trucks time," He added, "And besides, they didn't have very good trucks would have had a pretty difficult then. Now, with these new diesel rigs with their sleeper cabs, I don't believe that farmers use the railroads much any more."

After about a year Hawkins moved his business from the present site of the post office to where it is today, at 111 E. Washington Ave. This was another adobe building which he said was "good and sound." About that time he was in the feed and grain business also and was one of the first to ship grain out of Morton by rail car. In 1952 he built a new building which includes a show room and a complete shop where all kinds of automotive work can be done. He is in business with his grandson, Tommy Hawkins, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Scott Hawkins.

Hawkins remembers a few things about Morton and how it was 25 years ago. He said the courthouse

Area youths attending AG conference, Austin

Tuesday evening, August 10, the Cochran County delegates to the attorney general's youth conference met with 108 delegates from the Lubbock area at the home of Dr. J. Davis Arnistead in Lubbock. The delegates left Lubbock for Austin by chartered buses Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. They met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Seagler where transportation to Lubbock was furnished. The party will return August 22 at 11:30 p.m.

Those attending the meeting in Lubbock were Patty McClure, sponsored by the L'Allegro Study Club; Sue Lewis, sponsored by the Whiteface Lions Club; Cheryl McDaniel, sponsored by the Morton Lions Club; Don Vanlandingham, sponsored by the Morton Lions Club; Ronnie Windom, sponsored by Windom Oil; Bobby Combs, sponsored by Town and Country Study Club; Ronald Hale, sponsored by Farm Bureau; Linda Sanders, Gristown, sponsored by Joe Seagler and Amanda Rush, Gristown, sponsored by The First State Bank.

Mrs. Joe Seagler and Mr. and Mrs. James McClure accompanied the group to Lubbock.

Don Vanlandingham will participate in the State Youth Conference Band and Sue Lewis will represent this area as reporter.

1,600 young Texans from almost every county in Texas will be at the youth conference seeking methods of halting the increase of juvenile crime in Texas.

Attorney Gen. Waggoner Carr, host for the Conference, said, "the problems involved in this undertaking are monumental, and we are fortunate to have the services of many fine young Texans to help us. Certainly, it would be impossible to hold the Conference without their assistance, and all Texans owe them a great debt of gratitude."

A staff of ten young Texans, headed by former Assistant Attorney General Robert T. Davis, has been planning a program for the many delegates who will converge on Austin August 20.

Typical of the Conference's staff is Greg Hooser, formerly President of his senior class at Austin's McCallum High School, and Governor of "Hi-Y" and Youth Government. It is Hooser's responsibility to arrange for transportation for the delegates and the securing of junior and senior counselors for the Conference.

Jack Hanks of Midland, former vice-president of Boys Nation, is coordinating the activity programs that will be presented.

TROT LINES
Trotlines usually tie lines ashore to limber tree branches that will give with the strike of a heavy fish.

In places where there are no branches to tie to, use large rubber bands cut from old inner tubes and tie to a stake driven into the bank.

STOP SHORT STRIKES
Often when trailing a pork on your lure, especially from bait equipped with a treble hook the fish will strike short. There are two ways to remedy this.

First is to switch to a tailhook pork rind.

Second, open the eye of the hook and attach it to the stem.

Cochran refuge for Comanche warriors

(Ed. Note: The following article is by Elvis E. Fleming, teacher and author, whose recent book on Cochran County history has gained considerable publicity and recognition. The information, Fleming said, was not available in time to be included in his book.)

On the night of December 15, 1876, Chief Nigger Horse and 170 of his Quahadi Comanche warriors and their families escaped from Fort Sill, Oklahoma Indian Territory. For several months, they roamed the Staked Plains and North Central Plains of Texas, stealing livestock and causing trouble for the frontier Texans. On March 18, 1877, Nigger Horse and his warriors engaged a large group of buffalo hunters in the Battle of Big Thompson's Canyon on the Yellow House River in southeastern Lubbock County. Badly defeated, the Comanches retreated to Silver Lake, which they called Laguna Plata, in northeastern Cochran County.

Captain Phillip Ludwell Lee, a relative of Gen. Robert E. Lee, had been sent by the Army to capture the renegade Indians. Lee was in command of Company "G" of the 10th U. S. Cavalry, which was made up of seventy-two Negro soldiers. Guides for the soldiers were Tonkawa Johnson and four other Tonkawa Indians, and they trailed Nigger Horse and his tribe to Silver Lake in Cochran County. The soldiers arrived at the lake while most of the warriors were out on raids. When the Indians spotted the soldiers, they mounted their horses and attempted to escape. The warriors whose squaws were with them were riding double, and they rode south toward the sand hills in southern Cochran County. Chief Nigger Horse killed the first duty sergeant with a rifle shot; but before he died, the Negro sergeant shot and killed Nigger Horse and his squaw. The soldiers chased the Comanches for eight miles from Silver Lake toward the sand hills.

Five other warriors were killed in the running battle, and those who escaped scattered like quail into the refuge of the sand hills of southern Cochran County. Most of the women and children were captured. At the Silver Lake camp of the Indians, Lee destroyed almost three tons of jerky and fifteen cans of DuPont gunpowder. He also found some 300 pounds of bar lead, which he melted and poured into a hole in the ground for later recovery. The escaped Indians hid in the sand hills of western Cochran County and eastern Roosevelt County, New Mexico, for about three months until they saw an opportunity to return to Fort Sill and give themselves up to Gen. Raanald S. Mackenzie without having to face the guns of the Texas buffalo hunters and suffer the wrath of the Texas authorities. Their return to Oklahoma about August 1, 1877, ended the Indian depredations in Texas, and the nameless Cochran County battle in which Chief Nigger Horse was killed was the last Indian battle on the Staked Plains.

Sue Ramsey is shower honoree at Ftruve home

The home of Mrs. Frank Ftruve at Olton provided the setting for a bridal shower, August 11, honoring Miss Sue Ramsey, bride-elect of Jackie Pinson of Olton. Forty guests called between the hours of 9 and 11 a.m.

Attending from Morton with Miss Ramsey were her mother, Mrs. S. A. Ramsey and her sister, Miss Peggy Ramsey. Mrs. Vernon Stokes, Plainview, sister of the honoree also attended.

Spiced tea and coffee were served with banana nut bread from a refreshment table laid with a white lace cloth. White ribbon streamers with the name of "Sue and Jackie" in silver flowed from an arrangement of American Beauty Roses.

The floral arrangement together with Queen Elizabeth Bedspread, electric can opener and knife sharpener, electric coffee pot, portable mixer, electric dutch oven, Presto cooker and matching sets of sheets, pillow cases, and towels were presented to the honoree from the 37 hostesses.

Miss Ramsey wore a corsage of American Beauty Roses. Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Doyle Pinson, mother of the groom-elect, wore corsages of white carnations.

Miss Ramsey and Mr. Pinson will exchange wedding vows this Saturday in the First Baptist Church.

Cochran Co. Garden Club holds meeting

The Cochran County Garden Club met Monday, in the home of Mrs. Clyde Brownlow, Jewels of Knowledge was the program title. Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, program leader, read the quotation — "Use what talents you possess; the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those who sang best."

Mrs. Charles Jones presented qualities of design in flower arrangements. She listed beauty or eye appeal, originality or expression and harmony, meaning a oneness or unity.

Mrs. McSpadden gave the elements of design which are line, form, pattern, texture and color.

The following principles of design in arrangements were given by Mrs. C. B. Jones: Scale — A measure of the size of flowers to each other and to the container and accessory. Dominance — More of one line, form, or hue. Rhythm — A smooth flow of color and materials to create a feeling of motion. Contrast — The placing of elements to create differences. Proportion — The size of one part of an arrangement in relation to another — as the arrangement to the container. Usually the arrangement should be at least 1½ by the eight or width of the container. Balance — The result of the placement of weight. An imaginary vertical line down the center of the container will reveal if the arrangement is balanced.

Mrs. Wayne Porter presented the use of containers and mechanics. She listed 6 basic containers which would be of most use to a homemaker as follows: a low round container of pale gray or warmgreen pottery; a low oval pottery container in white shading to green for dining table centerpieces; a tall container with slightly curved sides of a pewter color for cool-colored flowers to use without a stem holder; a tall beige container with straight sides for warm colored flowers; an urn without handles in fine, pale, warm-gray pottery or white alabaster for mass arrangements; a large, tall, over 1 foot container of leaf-green or light brown pottery jar for floor arrangements of foliage and large flowers.

Mrs. J. L. Schooler gave the use of accessories. She defined an accessory in flower arrangements as anything except fresh cut plant material which is in or attached to the arrangement or container and including fresh cut plant material placed away from the arrangement. An accessory is an object necessary for the completion of a composition. She said, "A general rule for the use of an accessory is: When in doubt if one is needed, leave it out."

Mrs. Don Workman, projects chairman, reported plans for the bazaar to be held in connection with the fall flower show. She also asked for suggestions on planning for the Christmas tour of homes.

Mrs. McSpadden reported that the sale of ads for the rodeo program should net the club about $200.00. She presented the 1965-66 yearbooks to the members and reviewed the next program.

Mrs. C. B. Jones, civic beautification chairman, read a letter of thanks from Doctors W. B. McSpadden and Garnett C. Bryan for the club's efforts in landscaping beautification of the hospital grounds. Mrs. Jones reminded members of the monthly work day for the project on Tuesday, August 17.

Prospects for organizing a junior garden club were discussed by the members. Girls interested in flower arranging and gardening will be invited to attend the next regular meeting on September 6, in the home of Mrs. Workman.

President, Mrs. Charles Jones, read the list of committees for the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. Central Zone meeting which will be held in Morton on November 9. The Cochran County and LeFleur Garden Clubs will hostess the meeting.

Those present for the Monday night meeting were Mesdames Murray Crone, Bobby Travis, R. L. DeBusk, C. B. Jones, Truett McCuiston, Kenneth Thompson, Truman Doss, J. L. Schooler, Carl E. Belk, Willie Taylor, Wayne Porter, W. B. McSpadden, Earl Brownlow, Don Workman, Charles Jones, Clyde Brownlow and Roy Hill. Mrs. Irvin Shields, of Wichita Falls, sister of Mrs. McSpadden, was a guest.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Collins are Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Collins and Johnny of Atoka, Oklahoma.

Mr. N. H. Corder of Idalou, father of Mrs. L. W. House, recently fell and broke his knee. He had surgery at the University Hospital in Lubbock and is reported to be much better.

Sue Ramsey is honored Friday at bridal shower

Miss Sue Ramsey, bride-elect of Jackie Pinson, was honored August 13 with a pre-nuptial shower in the home of Mrs. F. G. Kennedy from 3 to 5 p.m.

White net over satin trimmed with fuchsia ribbon and wedding bells covered the refreshment table. A horizontal arrangement of garden flowers in shades of light orchid to deep fuchsia were placed in a crystal candlestick.

Raspberry punch and nuts were served with cake squares decorated with fuchsia colored roses. Crystal appointments completed the table decor.

Hostesses included Mrs. O. B. Huckabee, Mrs. Ross Shaw, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. Ollie Gathright, Mrs. Dub Henry, Mrs. W. A. Woods, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. Truett McCuiston, Mrs. S. E. Leverett, Sr., Mrs. T. D. Marshall and Mrs. Kennedy. Their gift was stainless steel cookware.

Guests registered in a white book placed on a white stand decorated with wedding bells.

Miss Ramsey, her mother, Mrs. S. A. Ramsey, and future mother-in-law, Mrs. Doyle Pinson of Olton, were presented corsages made of kitchen utensils and bridal wreath and tied with fuchsia ribbon.

Miss Ramsey and Mr. Pinson will be married Saturday night at 7:30 in the First Baptist Church.

New staffer for beauty salon here

Miss Roxanne Fine, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Fine of Dora, New Mexico, has joined the staff of Dortha Weeks Beauty Salon in Morton, it was announced by Mrs. Weeks, owner of the shop.

Miss Fine, who moved to Morton this week from Dora, is a 1962 graduate of Littlefield High School, and completed studies at Isbell's College of Cosmetology in Lubbock in 1964.

Roxanne has one brother, Ronny, 14 who lives with her parents in Dora.

4-H SADDLE CLUB

The Cochran County 4-H Saddle Club will have a trail ride Saturday, August 21, at Yellowhouse Ranch. The ride will start at 1:00 p.m. A cookout supper will be held. Members who plan to spend the night should come prepared.

An outdoorsman knows that, even on the darkest night, there is a little luminous quality that will permit him to see when his eyes are accustomed to it.

By this tiny bit of light, an experienced angler can approach his favorite weed bed, stop within casting distance of it, toss his plug to the edge of it, and entice the lunkers.

But he must be ready to react quickly.

You'll enjoy night fishing. Everything is still and quiet. There is just a little splash when your top water bait hits the water, and maybe a gurgle when you twitch it now and then. But you're never really ready when there comes a sound like a cow falling in the creek.

That's what it sounds like, in the still of night, when a lunker hits. It'll scare the living daylight out of you.

Your first thought is "careful."

You want to set the hook. But you also want to avoid unnecessary tension on the line.

I wouldn't worry too much about hook-setting when a big bass hits a topwater lure. Usually, he has tried to swallow the thing, or kill it, and it's well hooked.

If he's not on when you start hauling the line, wait a minute. He may have simply smashed it with the idea of stunning the thing. Now! Move the lure slightly, from time to time . . . a light twitch now and then. If no strike, reel in slowly and cast again. He'll come back for dinner.

Night fishing demands that you be ready when the big bass strikes. Be sure he's hooked, then bring him in quickly. Don't let him wind your line around moss or a submerged tree . . . if you can help it. That's his life-saving trick. At the same time, don't apply so much tension that you tear the hook out of his mouth.

It all sounds complicated . . . which it is. Also it involves judgment on your part. But in case of doubt, put on the pressure. When it's a big-mouth bass you're dealing with, you may have to horse him in. Don't give him any slack line — day or night.

What about night fishing for white bass?

Here's another fish that will take your lure at night. It's really his preferred feeding time. However the minnow is his favorite meal.

In the spring, whites migrate upstream and move out into the tributaries of large rivers and lakes, seeking shallow water for the spawning season.

Find the right place and you can load the boat with white bass.

You are looking for a spot where there is a current and the bottom is sandy or rocky. A stream running into a lake is perfect. Or a river dam where power is generated, creating a swift tail race, will do very well. Otherwise, locate a pot in the lake where a sand bar rises to 15 feet or less from the top.

Fish one of these locations in spring and summer, using minnows, spoons, jigs, and you will be rewarded with a fine string of sandies. Night fishing for whites in summer is a good and growing sport.

If you don't know where the white bass stay in summer, ask a fishing buddy, your friendly tackle shop man, or a good camp operator. You will learn that the white bass favors a certain area.

Go there at night, equipped with Coleman lantern, a bucket full of silver shiner minnows and patience to wait 'em out — and you'll have a full evening of fun.

You won't have much trouble finding the place, for other boats will be there too, with lanterns lighted. Often it looks like a small town on the water, as fishermen

Colorful opening of rodeo . . .

THE GRAND ENTRY, always one of the main features of a rodeo, is shown above at Thursday night's performance of Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo in Morton. Approximately 3,000 people viewed the opening night's activities. Some 350-400 horses and riders participated in the grand entry.

gather to bring in the white bass. When you are anchored and ready, fire up the lantern. Use a reflector shield, if you have one, to direct the bright light onto the water and not in your face. Aluminum foil will serve temporarily.

This illumination will attract small flying insects, and they in turn will attract shad, and shad will attract white bass. That's the theory — we won't argue with it. All we want to do is catch fish.

If the theory is based on truth, and it may well be, we don't care how many other boatmen are in the place — the more the merrier, in fact. More lights, more insects, more shad, more white bass. There's plenty for everybody when sandies congregate.

All you have to do, in this night fishing for white bass routine, is hook on a minnow, let it down to the proper depth, sit back in the boat, and relax. But watch your rod tip! Those boogers strike like lightning — but lightly.

Night fishing for crappie is an exciting game too, particularly in the summer.

I've been on a lighted dock when all hands took their limit in the last hours before sun-up. Here again, we're minnow fishing.

However, crappie will react to other baits, such as cut bait, small spinners, and what have you.

Whether you go to a commercial lighted dock, or set out your own, you must have the lights for night fishing. Same principle applies to crappie as in night fishing for whites. The lights attract the fish — so if you're going for crappie, be equipped with a lantern.

Finding the right depth is essential here, too.

Most crappie anglers will use spinning gear with a split shot, let the minnow down to the bottom and slowly reel in. When the first fish is captured by this method,

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governing agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder to accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes here-in provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund hereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or in violation of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and sold by a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to Texas veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955, and who upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All moneys attributable to the bonds heretofore and sold pursuant to the Constitutional Amendment adopted on November 6, 1956, shall be credited to said Veterans' Land Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing additional lands, to be sold as provided herein, until December 1, 1965; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965, all moneys attributable to such bonds shall be set aside for the retirement of such bonds and to pay interest thereon; and when there are sufficient moneys to retire all of such bonds, all of such moneys then remaining or thereafter becoming a part of said Veterans' Land Fund shall be expended as elsewhere provided herein.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a series of bonds being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until the expiration of the term to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby granted to the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law; and

"AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of same Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date set forth in said Amendment, and the Governor shall issue a proclamation in keeping therewith.

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this state.

Land needs 'winterizing'

By SANDY ASBILL

Winter is coming, school is starting within two weeks, harvest time is not far off, getting those winter clothes ready for the first cold spell, and getting our land ready for winter, all should be thoughts that occupy our minds at this time of year.

Getting our land ready to meet the stress and strain of winter is as important, if not more important, than getting our winter clothes out, or preparing for school. For the conservation of your land is not only your business, but also your neighbor's business, and your community's business. In fact, it involves the whole structure of our society.

You, the land owner and operator, in doing your part in applying conservation to your land, can help our community, our country, our state, and our nation to prosper.

But conservation does not start big and grandeur. It starts very small, with a single blade of grass, a single seed planted, a single stalk of residue left on the soil surface, a single vacant lot planted with rye, a single lawn maintained, a single flower bed mulched, a single contour row plowed, or a single terrace or water way built.

These are but a few things, little but important things, you can do to conserve our natural resources and help beautify our lands.

Let's all work together. Won't you do your little bit?

REVERSING LINE

Reversing the line on a reel can be a dreary job at best. But you can make the operation ten times easier by using your home as a king-size spool.

The free end of the line to a corner post, or door knob, or any other handy projection, then walk around the house until reel is un-wound.

This is guaranteed to prevent tangling.

Omnibus farm bill is discussed by Mahon

By GEORGE MAHON
U. S. Representative

To cotton farmers and business people whose economic welfare depends on cotton, I might say as the week of August 15 begins, "Hold you hat! Here we go." The long-awaited and much debated omnibus farm bill, which contains across-the-board legislation for many crops, including cotton, is scheduled for debate in the House beginning Tuesday noon.

With respect to cotton, neither farmers nor legislators can predict what the effect of the passage of the cotton section would be. I, myself, am deeply worried about what to do. The economy of the 19th Congressional District is largely dependent on cotton.

Shall we embrace the low loan and direct payment route which the bill prescribes? The loan on middling one-inch cotton would be twenty-one cents per pound for 1966. This would mean about eighteen cents for West Texas and Plains type cotton. The direct subsidy payment to the farmer under the bill, if he reduces the planting of his allotment by thirty-five percent as many would be expected to do, would be the equivalent of about fourteen and one-half cents per pound, seventy-two dollars per bale. The farmer would have to reduce the planting of his allotment by fifteen percent to be included in the program at all.

The bill is a four-year bill with provisions for the first year well spelled out; but after the first year the Secretary of Agriculture would have very broad discretion. The loan could not exceed ninety percent of the estimated world price, but it could be less. The direct payment to the farmer would be within the discretion of the secretary, but the loan, plus the direct subsidy to the farmer, would have to be equivalent to a total return to the farmer of not less than twenty-eight and one-half cents per pound for middling one-inch cotton.

How much money will Congress appropriate to make a direct payment to an individual cotton farmer? Under the present law supports are handled by the complicated Commodity Credit Corporation loan process, and the direct subsidy to the individual farmer is not readily apparent. Yet it can be determined.

Will Congress, over a period of years, make a direct payment of seventy-two dollars a bale, or even fifty dollars a bale to cotton farmers who produce from fifty to five hundred bales of cotton? This is doubtful. Most West Texas cotton growers are in the fifty to five hundred bale production bracket.

As Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, I have a special responsibility, and I am of the opinion that within a couple of years it would be most difficult to prevent a limitation being added to the Agricultural Appropriation bill limiting the amount of subsidy payment to any one producer. We already have the problem with us and this proposed program would make the problem more difficult to handle.

The reactions which I am getting from farmers and farm organizations at home are many and varied. To some farmers the bill is good; to others it is bad. The majority of those contacting me are skeptical about the cotton section or are against it. But most seem to grasp the seriousness of the situation and the urgent need for an improved program to reduce the mounting cotton surplus.

The Plains Cotton Growers organization is usually considered a pretty good barometer of cotton farmer sentiment. Last year the organization finally supported the enactment of the present law. It has thus far withheld support of the pending bill. Caution and concern are understandable since the facts are so complex, the future unpredictable and the matter of such vital importance to the economic well being of all our people.

Innumerable articles and volumes have been written on the subject of what to do about cotton. After hearing all the arguments, it is

Floyd Rowland brings in first load of sorghum

Floyd Rowland, who farms about ten miles west of Morton, delivered the first Cochran County load of grain to Guetersloh-Anderson Grain Corp., in Bledsoe Tuesday afternoon.

The load weighed 11,460 lbs., and was Texas 610 variety. Rowland received a $50.00 bonus from Guetersloh-Anderson for the first load of grain, and was paid $1.50 per hundred for the Milo.

Rowland planted the grain on April 27, and watered the patch twice. He did not fertilize. Rowland has about 350 acres of grain, but only about 65 acres were planted at the early date. Those 65 acres will be ready to cut in less than ten days, and Rowland said it looked as if he would get 2000-4000 lbs per acre yield.

still impossible to establish precisely what to do and not to do. Of course, everybody wants to overcome the competition of synthetics and sell large volumes of cotton to domestic mills and overseas. Also, we would like to see cotton move into the regular channels of trade and not into the loan.

The proposed bill would certainly reduce the amount of cotton moving into the loan. How much it would stimulate export trade is difficult to calculate but it would help.

The United States is producing about thirty per cent of the world crop of cotton. We have been exporting cotton at near world prices for years, but have had poor success with the export sales program in recent years.

If we cut the loan slightly below the world price, will we sell large additional cotton stocks abroad or will foreign producers, who have no way of holding their cotton, do as they do now, sell their cotton just below the American offering price? Would the twenty-one cent loan just mean a less price for cotton world-wide?

We are already selling middling one-inch U. S. cotton abroad for about twenty-four cents. If we reduce to twenty-one cents, this would certainly dampen plans for further cotton expansion abroad, but will foreign growers continue to meet our price and sell slightly below? Nobody can prove what the answer to this question is.

Congress will have to pass before it adjourns some type of farm bill to cover most major crops as many of the present laws expire this year.

If the omnibus farm bill is defeated in the House this week, the Committee on Agriculture will have to back - up and try some kind of new bill. As difficult as the situation is, it is not correct to say that the issue is the pending bill or nothing.

With respect to cotton, if the present proposal is defeated, a continuation of the present law with an amendment calculated to encourage a great improvement in exports would no doubt be among the approaches considered.

If the present law expires and nothing is done, cotton would revert back to the law of 1958 and that is not an acceptable solution.

It would be up to Congress to devise some kind of alternative to the present program which is not succeeding in moving sufficient cotton into export.

Senator Ellender, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, appears to scoff at the cotton version of the House bill, indicating that he will have no part of it.

At the moment it is just not possible to predict what this Congress will do about cotton. I believe something will and must be done but the dimensions of the final legislation are not yet apparent.

The wheat provision of the omnibus bill is in controversy because of opposition to the certificate plan. In my opinion this can and will be resolved. The feed grain portion of the bill is widely accepted and is not in trouble.

A few additional comments are in order. The bill has certain features which would be attractive to certain type farmers.

For example, the bill as now written would permit unlimited planting of cotton by a farmer who stayed out of the program. Farmers who do not have a cotton or feed grain allotment might want to plant all cotton and sell at the world price.

Indications are that the House Agriculture Committee may offer an amendment to change this so that only old growers could stay out of the program and plant cotton without limit.

Through the so-called release and reapportionment system West Texas farmers have been acquiring a total of nearly 100,000 additional acres of cotton allotment annually.

The bill as now written hedges the release and reapportionment program with so many restrictions, the program would probably be made ineffective. This would not be too bad because it would be made ineffective throughout the cotton belt and would discourage farmers from holding on to cotton allotments where cotton growing is being discontinued.

Indications are that the Agriculture Committee of the House may change course and recommend a continuation of release and reapportionment as it now is.

The cotton bill says nothing about skip-row practices. I would like to see the present skip-row rules continued as a matter of law but the chances that this can be done are remote.

All dry land cotton farmers and many irrigation farmers are deeply interested in this issue and right-ly so.

Fire marshal requests full support of city council as outlines duties

The City Council met at a special session Monday, at 5 p.m., in the city hall.

The members discussed the meter meters that are now being installed and paid the city bills. It was brought up that the veterinarian will be in Morton Thursday, Aug. 26, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Fire Marshal E. L. Reeder gave a report on the fire marshalls school he attended for a week at Brown, Texas. He reported that 138 persons were present, 472 of these being instructors. He said marshalls and firemen came from all over Texas as well as five foreign countries. He said there were some instructors from as far away as Maine, and some visiting instructors from Oklahoma. Reeder said that the visitors from other states said it was one of the best fire training schools that they had ever attended. Reeder will get a certificate for attending the school.

In his report Reeder said, "I want to work with the City Council. I want the backing of the City Council and I want to cooperate with it." He added, "But, if for some reason I can't get the backing of the council, then I will have to get backing from the state, and I can't get it from the state, then I will have to get it from the federal government. And I don't wish to do any of these latter things."

Reeder said that the state helps fire marshalls by sending out men to help them inspect and enforce the regulations.

Reeder said that at the school he attended there were courses in pumps, fire fighting, and courses for fire marshalls. He said that he hoped that a team of four would go next year, because it would help with fire fighting training.

He added that one block or one half a block was needed for a fireman's training school in Morton. He said that a place was needed where an old house could be moved in, an oil pit made, and where firemen could practice putting out butane fires as well.

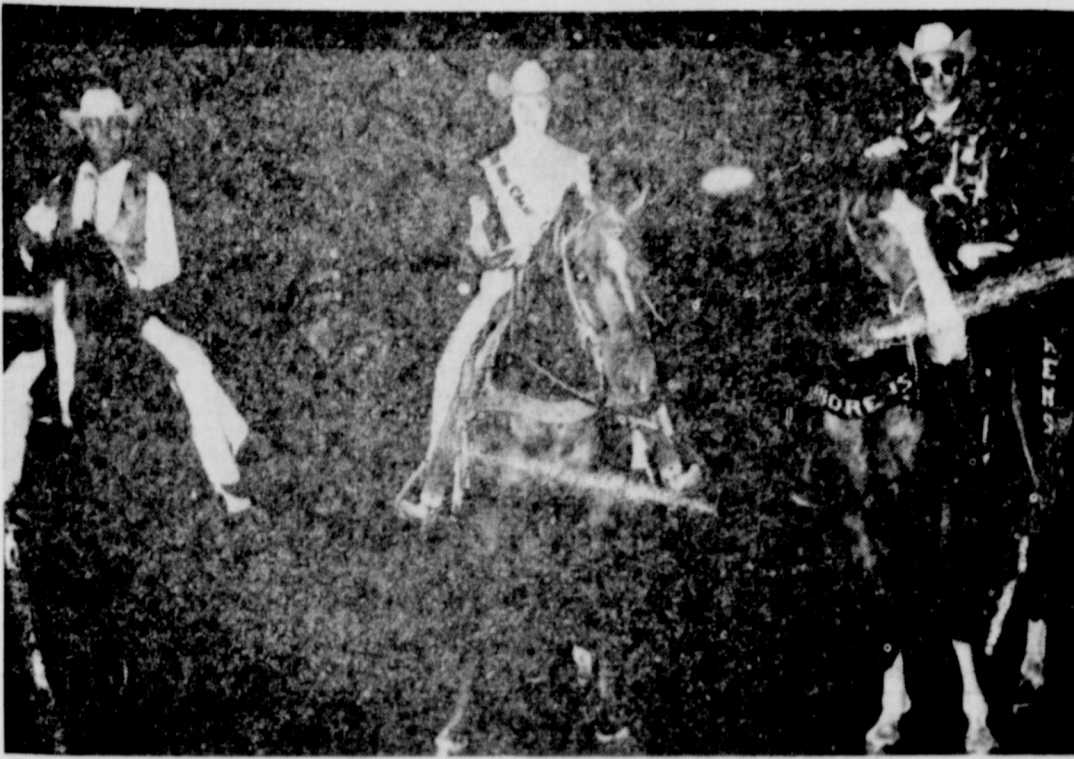

Reeder said that the job of fire marshal was to enforce, educate, and engineer. He stated that the job of fire marshal is separate from the fire department and that it had been recommended that the job should last for three years. He said, "I will be coming into your places of business to make inspection. I haven't yet completed inspecting the schools as of yet. My job is to prevent fire and then to investigate it."

Mayor Weatherly said that the Council would be only too happy to cooperate with the fire marshal.

Tom Rowden discussed briefly the fire trucks leaving the city limits.

Those present at the meeting were councilmen Tom Rowden, Walter Taylor, Kenneth Thompson, T. K. Williamson, E. C. Seany, Mayor Dean Weatherly and City Secretary Elra Oden.

L'Allegros plan essay contest, youth conference

L'Allegro Study Club held a special meeting August 11 in the home of its president, Mrs. W. B. McSpadden. The club will sponsor an essay contest on "What Americanism Means to Me". Students of Morton High School will participate in the contest. A cash award will be given to the winner.

Plans were also made to sponsor a Morton Area Youth Conference in the fall in conjunction with the essay contest. The young people who attended the Attorney General's Youth Conference in Austin will be asked to help in the conference. Mrs. E. O. Willingham, Mrs. James McClure and Mrs. Van Greene were appointed as a steering committee.

Also voted on was to delete the first meeting in September and the last meeting in May from its regular meeting dates.

Recommendations from the chairmen of the budget and finance committees were presented to the club. As a result of these reports, the club will print a new Morton Area Directory in the near future.

They also reported that the club helped sell tickets for their Rodeo Queen Candidate, Miss Peggy Ramsey. Miss Ramsey, placing second, was eight tickets behind that of the first place winner, 29 per cent of the sales went to the club.

Mrs. Bobby Travis, Mrs. H. B. Barker and Mrs. Al Mullinax were voted to the executive board by the other board members.

It was also announced that Mrs. McSpadden and Mrs. Travis had been appointed as chairmen of the decoration committee for the state convention to be held in Lubbock May 9-11 of next year.

Refreshments were served to one guest, Mrs. Jane Ann Abell of Austin, and the following members: Mrs. H. B. Barker, Mrs. Carl E. Belk, Mrs. Harold Drennan, Mrs. Van Greene, Mrs. John Haggard, Mrs. Elwood Harris, Mrs. James McClure, Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, Mrs. W. B. Merritt, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. M. A. Silvers, Mrs. Gene Snyder, Mrs. Bill Thomas, Mrs. Bobby Travis, Mrs. E. O. Willingham, and Mrs. Al Mullinax.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Silhan were Mr. and Mrs. John Dukatnik of Whitharral.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Smith, Debbie and Patti of Roosevelt visited over the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Taylor.

Agriculture's importance not keyed to farm living

Agriculture's importance to the economy of Cochran County and Texas as a whole is not determined by the number of people living on farms and ranches, points out Homer Thompson, Cochran county agent.

And, he says, don't be misled by the fact that only eight percent of the state's population now reside on farms or ranches.

There's a lot more to the story. According to information furnished by John G. McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University, in addition to the eight per cent who operate the state's farms and ranches, another 32 per cent of the state's residents derive all or part of their income by supplying production items for farm and ranch use or by processing or distributing agricultural products for consumer use. That, says the economist, adds up to 40 per cent and a mighty important segment in the state's overall economy. No citizen is far removed from agriculture nor its business generating effects upon the economy of Texas, emphasizes McHaney.

As for the distribution of population, McHaney says this too can be misleading. A check of the 1960 census figures shows 168 Texas counties with farm populations exceeding 10 per cent or more of the total population and only 68 counties with less than 9 per cent of their total population living on farms or ranches.

Almost half of the counties in the group with nine per cent or less of the total population living on farms or ranches are located in far west and southwest Texas where ranching is very important. The discovery of oil and gas in these and other areas increased the total population and caused the drop in the percentage of persons engaged in farming and ranching. Agriculture is just as important to the economy of these counties as before, explains the economist.

And to go a step further, McHaney points to Lubbock County where the percentage of farm population dropped to only 7 per cent of the total in 1960, but farm products sold had a value of $62.2 million. Lubbock County ranked number one in the state in farm income in 1960. El Paso County which ranked sixth showed only 1 per cent of its total population living on farms or ranches. Parmer County which ranked ninth in farm sales in 1960, on the other hand, showed 47 per cent of its total population living on farms and ranches.

And asks McHaney, are these farm producers, even though they make up a small percentage of the total population, important? He gives an emphatic yes for his answer. The growth of towns and cities in many of the top agriculturally producing counties must be credited to agriculture and businesses, agribusiness, closely associated with or related to agricultural production.

McHaney doesn't play down other factors which have contributed to the growth and prosperity of Texas towns and cities but says that through the years, the large cities became trade centers for wide areas and the development of agricultural resources throughout the state played a major role in their early growth and continues to do so today.

Oil and agriculture are the state's largest industries and they mean a lot. Neither should be taken for granted because a decline in either is felt all the way from the local producing area to the big cities which supply the smaller towns and cities with goods and services.

And concludes McHaney, don't let anyone tell you that agriculture isn't important since only about 8 per cent of the total Texas population now lives on farms or ranches. Don't forget the other 32 per cent who derive all or part of their income from agribusinesses.

Agriculture's importance is not determined by the percentage of the total population which now live in the country but by the contributions it is making to the well-being of Texas, the nation and the world.

can return to normal credit sources. There were eight real estate loans made in the amount of $88,210.00. These loans were for construction of rural dwellings and the re-organizations and development of irrigation systems.

There were three loans made in the amount of $6,440.00 under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. These loans are for low income families living in rural areas to enable them to improve their standard of living and increase their income. They may be of a farm or a non-farm nature. The interest rate is 4 1/2% with a repayment period of from a to 15 years.

All loans by Farmers Home Administration, Elliott added, are made only to rural families who cannot obtain the necessary credit from private or cooperative sources.

Mr. Elliott said that FHA borrowers with 1964 cotton allotments average 423 pounds of lint as compared to 392 pounds County average. This was accomplished by most FHA borrowers being closely supervised and having the benefit of experienced and technical advice on their operation.

Elliott also reported the appointment of Emmett E. Thomas of 204 East Hayes, Morton, as new FHA Cochran County Committeeman. He was appointed by L. J. Cappelman, Temple, state FHA Director. Thomas succeeds Vernon Blackley, whose three year term expired. Others members of the committee include H. B. Barker and C. C. Harvey.

Duties of the committee, Elliott said, are to review all FHA loan applications and certify as to whether the applicant is eligible to receive FHA assistance. The com-

The Morton (Tex.) Tribune, Thursday, Aug. 19, 1965 Page 8

By VERN SANFORD

You've heard the slogan, "Take a boy fishing." I go for that! But, as in everything else, there's a right way and a wrong way to go about it.

A boy wants action. If he's fishing, he wants to catch fish. If he doesn't catch 'em often, he's going to tire of the inactivity real soon.

So introduce him to the bream. It's a natural-born, boy-type of fish.

Bream are present in considerable numbers almost everywhere. They bite anytime of the day. They go for all kinds of bait.

Worms, of course

Worms, of course, are the favorite bait for this kind of fishing.

Tackle should consist of the simplest ingredients . . . a pole, a line, a bobber, a very light weight and a small hook.

Select a light cane pole that the kid can handle. A 6-foot pole should be long enough to start with. Rig it up right for him and explain how and why you do it.

Tie on about a 6 foot cord and fix it to the pole with a series of half-hitches extending back a foot or so from the tip.

At the end of this line make a small loop. Into the loop tie some very light nylon leader, and let it extend to the other end of the pole.

Use tiny hook

The hook should be tiny, and a little split shot will do for a sinker.

Put a bobber on some three or four feet above the hook, depending on how deep the bream are.

If you're serious about this kid-fishing business and really want to succeed at it, you will have gone out ahead of time and discovered a good fishing hole where the bream respond willingly.

When you get there with the youngsters, you'll have to bait the hook for him, at first. Show him how it's done. Be very patient.

Pretty soon he'll be wanting to do it himself, and you'll let him do it.

Caution him, of course, that the hook is sharp and will stick his finger if he isn't careful.

Big deal

Now, here comes the big deal—he drops his bait in the water, at the spot you have previously selected for him.

Don't make light of it. This is a big-time operation for him. Pretty soon his bobber is going to start moving and maybe submerge. He'll want to yank the thing hard enough to toss the fish into the next county. Instruct him to take it easy. Just give a little yank to set the hook, and then bring the fish in gently.

So the boy has caught a fish. Listen, that boy is just as happy as if he'd set a new record for farpon. His first fish!

Take it off the hook for him.

THANKS!

Thanks to everyone who bought tickets on the Saddle given away at the rodeo. We appreciate the donations very much.

Police to enforce ordinance against bikes on sidewalks

Police Chief Curtis Cloud announced this week that a city ordinance prohibiting the riding of bicycles on sidewalks would be enforced by local officers beginning immediately.

A fine of $5.00 will be assessed to violators of the ordinance. Chief Cloud also issued a warning to bicyclists and motorists alike that with the coming of school extreme caution should be employed because of the additional bicycle traffic.

The local police chief is asking the cooperation of the public in the matter of bicycle safety.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1965

Tailored livestock

Americans are eating more meat than ever before, and beef tops the list. The beef we consume today is a very different article from that of yesteryear.

Nowadays, the housewife insists on high standards of flavor and leanness. Demand has increased for the choicer cuts of beef. This has posed a problem for producers and the other elements involved in the big job of turning livestock on the range into meat in the butcher's cabinet. But they are solving it. For instance, selective breeding practices and scientifically balanced diets make it possible to tailor the animal to our wants.

The whole meat industry provides an excellent example of technological progress. Packers and processors, like producers, pursue a never-ending search for better, more economical methods, with the demands of the consumer always in view. The result is an improved product which reaches us at a price within the means of the average family's income.

Another point that can't be emphasized too strongly is that meat is an example of highly competitive free enterprise at its best. The meat people have always strongly opposed government subsidies and controls even when the going has been hard. They are content with taking their chances in the free market. And that is one big reason why the industry is so sensitive to public needs and desires.

Viet Nam policy still cloudy

U.S. policy toward the conflict in Viet Nam has now been somewhat clarified at the highest official level. At the same time, the matter is still surrounded with clouds of uncertainty. This is because no one can yet know whether the course decided upon by the President can be effective and bring about the desired end, which is to punish the Viet Cong sufficiently so that their will to continue the war will be diminished and that they will finally agree to a negotiated truce. Nor can anyone be completely sure as to what, in the long pull, the decisions of Red China and the Soviet Union will be.

The White House decision, in the language now fashionable in Washington, follows a policy of gradualism. In other words, an all-out drive in Viet Nam, which some top military men are said to have urged, was vetoed. This would have required hundreds of thousands of U.S. troops, plus still greater numbers of South Vietnamese forces, plus enormous masses of material. The nod was given to a middle course. American forces will be immediately increased to 125,000 men, with more later. Bombings will be stepped up. Command arrangements will be overhauled. Draft calls will gradually be doubled, to 35,000 a month, and some reserve and National Guard organizations will be brought to a higher state of readiness.

Now it remains to be seen what all this will accomplish. Classic doctrine holds that a troop ratio of 10-to-1 is needed to defeat a well-trained guerrilla force. Some military leaders, of which General Wheeler, head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, is one, disagree—they think that with modern fire power a 5-to-1 ratio is closer to the fact. In any event, U.S. training is now to lay heavy stress on antiguerrilla tactics.

The problems confronting us in Viet Nam are truly formidable. The terrain is eminently suited to hit-and-run guerrilla forces. The Viet Cong are highly trained and expert at disguise and infiltration. They are ruthless in using terror to control the civilian population. The Viet Nam forces which oppose them are largely, according to observers, of indifferent quality. Desertions are commonplace. Great numbers of the Vietnamese people are indifferent to the war, and the successive governments have been chaotically unstable.

Then there are the political possibilities that accompany even a limited extension of the American war effort in that unhappy country. The public opinion polls indicate that the President has a substantial majority of citizens behind him. But there are numbers of dissenters. So influential a commentator as Walter Lippman, for instance, has taken the view that we should not and cannot assume the role of world policeman. There is widespread fear of what a full-scale land war in Asia, brought on by the inexorable force of events, would involve. Whether increased American action, with the higher casualties and the heavy costs that are an inescapable part of it, will result in a deepening of opposition in and out of Congress is another of the unanswered questions.

Finally, there are those who believe that our commitments in Viet Nam must be accompanied by sharp reductions in high-priced domestic programs. The White House may be confronted with a stiffening of the congressional attitude toward spending.

The "pacifist" demonstrators

Yale University history professor, Staughton Lynd, the latest favorite of the radical-left in this country—because he can lend an air of respectability to their shenanigans—pinpointed the real purpose of the "march on Washington" in "Viet Report," one of the left's new anti-war magazines. He urged civil disobedience because "it will have international visibility."

VIEWS . . . of other editors

Embarrassment of winning

Texas likes to win. And the Texans in Dallas have chalked up another first. Per capita-wise, Dallas is again embarrassed to lead the nation in murder. According to newspaper reports, Methodist district attorney Henry Wade, discussing Dallas' latest Oscar, used the phrase "frontier justice" — a phrase that got folks steamed up when it was used by outside newsmen nearly two years ago. It is still aggravating to hear it used but Henry Wade serves well when he makes us face the problem frankly.

This is a time for the church to be frank also. Could not the Council of Churches or even a great denomination like the Methodist Church recruit a committee of qualified people to find the answer to such questions as:
Who are these people who have been murdered?
What, if anything, were they doing to provoke the murder?
Was there alcohol involvement, parental neglect?
What was the religious background and practice of the murderer and murdered?
Do not the Methodists, with SMU and its research facilities right at hand, have some kind of special responsibility to study the problem and aid law enforcement officers in its solution? Isn't this what relevance means?

A passing season

The seasons of the year run their course swiftly. No one knows that better than our tens of millions of youngsters. For the summer vacation is almost gone, and the beginning of the next school year approaches swiftly.

Many, perhaps most, will return to school with a feeling of regret. Summer vacation, with all its sports and many-sided attractions, is fun. It's only human nature to wish it could continue forever. But, for all of the labor-saving progress that has been made, we still live in a world in which work and knowledge are essentials. And the advances of science and technology have vastly increased the kind and amount of education that needed if the young person is to have a successful and rewarding career as an adult. Little room is left for the uneducated and the half-educated. Those who lack at least a high school education face a tough road ahead. And college training of necessity demanded by more and more employers.

Nowadays, stress is laid on physics, mathematics, the chemical arts, and other of the sciences. But the boy or girl who learns only a trade or a profession is but half a person. The finished student must have at least a fair working knowledge of literature, the other fine arts, and economics. It is in this last classification that the schools, in too many instances, seem to have failed. Too many graduates leave the halls of ivy with an insufficient understanding of this country's economic system and the system of representative government it supports, which together have protected the individual's liberty and made this nation great and powerful. Lack of understanding of the political and economic heritage by which we live is a most serious weakness in a world torn by conflicting and angry ideologies.

Let the student return to school with a will. And let his school properly prepare him for a constructive place in the world he will enter as an adult.

Squeeze on producers

Almost every news story coming out of Washington these days tells of legislation, ruling, or edict which puts the squeeze on the producer even more drastically than is already the case.

The first of last week it was announcement of plans to legislate a raise in the minimum wage rate and broaden the scope of coverage. Later in the week it was the ruling of the Federal Power Commission to severely limit the price of gas at the wellhead. In each instance the theory behind the legislation or regulation is to provide the wage-earner, and the consumer, with an advantage, though it may turn out to be a poorly conceived plan with ultimate harm to everyone resulting from a program of scarcity.

Fantastically higher prices for food products and for many services will hit the wage earner, the retired person, and that darling of bureaucracy — the relief client. Fresh produce of many kinds already is feeling the pinch of scarce and expensive labor as result of the one-sided attitude of the U.S. labor department toward the braconero program. Add the strangling regulation of minimum wages at the proposed levels to the burden of producing and harvesting produce and other crops and real scarcity is going to become reality in this great and prosperous land of ours.

And now the restrictive ceiling on gas well-head prices — in the guise of keeping fuel costs low to the consumer, the other darling of the bureaus, is going to curtail the search for gas reserves — if allowed to stand — because it is unrealistic and not based on the soundest principles of economics — supply and demand and the profit motive.

All production costs are going up . . . and the return to producers is bound to decline — under the fuzzy-brained type of socialist thinking now the vogue in our nation's capital.

Same old remedy

If a doctor prescribes something to improve the health of a patient and it doesn't work, he isn't likely to keep on prescribing the same remedy, any more than a business man will continue a sales program that has flopped.

But the federal government looks at things differently. Despite the fact that Congress is made up of mature men who must have at some stage of life shown mature judgement, its members keep on recommending spending measures to pump life into a defunct bureau, probably because the bureaucrats involved figure out some way to keep their jobs.

The Area Redevelopment Administration, a temporary federal agency, has spent about $400 million during the past four years in an attempt to boost employment in depressed areas.

This ARA expired this summer, but doesn't count it out. The ARA record is pretty sorry and it has little to show for its money, if we are to interpret what we read. In some places the ARA has subsidized new enterprises competing directly with established enterprises, such as a new ski lift in New Hampshire to compete with an established one, and a resort in Virginia to compete with existing ones.

The ARA likes to spend money, but not always wisely. It has been a political football in some areas, with politicians deftly slicing off federal funds for their projects while other were denied.

The ARA as a device for stimulating the economy and providing new jobs in depressed areas is a failure. So is it abandoned?

Not by a long shot. There are plans afoot now to change the ARA into something called the Economic Development Administration, with $685 million to dispose of over five years. The EDA, if Congress goes along, will be a more expensive dose of medicine than the ARA.

What there is about the halls of Congress to inspire its mem-

Highlights and Sidelights —

Texas poll tax is under fire

AUSTIN, Tex. — Federal authorities have brought suit here to abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting in Texas elections. Suit was filed under the new voting rights act.

If they are successful in getting an early hearing, a special session of the Legislature may be necessary to enact a valid voter registration statute.

Texas' poll tax is the only existing form of registration for state and local elections. However, there is a procedure for obtaining "free" poll taxes to vote in federal elections.

Observers feel near chaos would result at the polls next year if a final ruling is handing down in favor of the federal suit, without prior enactment of registration procedures.

Although the U. S. Attorney General maintains the tax is not used to raise revenue for the state, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert estimates over $5,000,000 income for the next biennium from that source. That's $5,000,000 the state treasury won't get if the poll tax is repealed. Reliable estimates so far see the biennium ending with government in the black by only $1,300,000 to $4,200,000 including income from all existing levies.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has announced he will oppose the federal suit to invalidate the poll tax and to enjoin state and local officials from enforcing its requirements for any general, special or primary elections.

Suit seeks to direct Travis County Tax Collector Fritz Robinson and his employees to compile and certify local voter lists "without regard to payment of the poll tax or any other tax."

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. John Connally named five public members to the new Legislative Study Committee on Multiple Use and Pollution of All Waters of Texas.

They are Dr. Carl J. Lind Jr., Stone Wells and Charles Sowell, all of Houston, John Clegg of Port Lavaca and Bill Senter of Abilene. Legislative members selected earlier are Sens. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Criss Cole of Houston and Charles Herring of Austin and Reps. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, John Mobley of Kilgore and Dean Neugent of Texas City.

Charles W. Lindsey was the Governor's choice for judge of the new Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County.

Connally picked Lester Prokop, Houston builder and lumber executive, to succeed Judge Robert L. Lowry of Houston as a member of Texas State Historical Survey Commission.

LT. Gov. Preston Smith appointed Sens. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and A. R. Schwartz of Galveston to a committee to study possible development of a state park on Pleasure Island near Port Arthur.

Smith named Sens. Jim Bates of Edinburg and Herring to a panel to negotiate for the return of a flag captured by Mexican forces at the Alamo. Governor Connally has stated he prefers to leave the negotiations in the hands of the U.S. State Department and will name no members of the state committee himself.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE — First meeting of negotiating committees from Texas and Louisiana reached no firm conclusions in their effort to settle a long-standing boundary dispute between the states.

Room was seen for arbitration of the dividing line in the Sabine River ship channel at the Gulf jetties. But the river boundary question seems likely to end up in federal courts.

At stake in the dispute are valuable mineral rights along the river, as well as control of fishing and future barge traffic.

Texas contends the middle of the Sabine should be the boundary between the states. Louisiana claims the line was extended to the west bank of the river by the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.

Negotiators agreed to keep trying — perhaps to study possible extension of a federal boundary running between jetties bordering the channel — and to exchange briefs in future meetings.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler

bers to keep pushing good money after bad, we do not know. But a program that has had as many failures and as much criticism as the Area Redevelopment Administration should be allowed to die and rest in peace.

Reviving it and renaming it is only another waste of federal funds. We know it and you know it, but does Congress know it? Quite evidently not.

presided at the initial conference. High State officials and legislators from both states were present.

ENROLLMENTS — Texas Commission on Higher Education forecasts that college and university enrollments in Texas will zoom from 280,106 to nearly 400,000 by 1971.

Enrollments in the state-supported institutions are due to increase from 168,000 to 240,000.

Nearly all Texas schools report they are short on space for their present students. Predicted increases will affect every one of the existing state-supported institutions, Commission believes.

ATTORNEY GENERAL — In recent official opinions, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that:
A valid surface lease on land being purchased under the state veterans land program cannot be given in excess of 10 years.

First assistants and chief deputies in state departments are entitled to reimbursement for actual meals, lodging and incidental expenses while traveling on official business inside or outside the state.

Employees of the State Highway Department who drill or supervise drilling of an occasional water well on land owned by the state do not have to be registered as drillers under new act.

Unclaimed wages and personal property held in Texas by foreign corporations for persons whose last known address is unknown or outside Texas must be reported to the State Treasurer under escheat statutes.

Vouchers issued to colleges and universities providing teacher training under a plan approved by Central Education Agency and U. S. Government are valid.

No refunds may be made by the State Comptroller for unused cigarette tax stamps purchased prior to September 1, 1959.

DRAFT IN TEXAS — State Selective Service officials say Texas men born in 1946 and after are safe from the draft — with occasional exceptions — through October. But some of them may be called up for military service in November.

Married men who are not fathers are 1-A, but are in the fourth rank of selection. Most draftees come from the third rank.

Col. M. S. Schwartz, head of the state office, says the state is toward college students is college students."

However, the plight of deferred as students or because of their occupations is in the hands of the local draft boards.

SHORT SNORTS — State Insurance Board reaffirmed its long order boosting auto insurance rates an average of 13.4 per cent. Rates went into effect on August 15.

Attorney General Carr defied constitutionality of the Texas legislature's version of House of representatives redistricting and federal court to set immediate deadline for further petitions intervention on the suit.

Texas Employment Commission has set up a new special grants department, headed by Rell Townsend of San Angelo, to handle growing number of federal state cooperative manpower projects.

Texas National Guard and server forces will be ready merger if and when delayed amalgamation plans are revived. Maj. Thomas S. Bishop, adjutant general.

Dollar volume of securities registered for sale in Texas during current fiscal year may equal or exceed 1961 record, according to University of Texas Bureau Business Research.

Texas Parks and Wildlife department is setting up special accommodations in Rio Grande Valley for white-winged dove hunters' month.

Miss Mabel Smith, formerly Somerville, will retire August after record 44-years' service Texas State Library.

Lloyd R. Bell, Dallas junior school principal, will become assistant director of Division of Public Relations for Texas State Teachers Association on September 1.

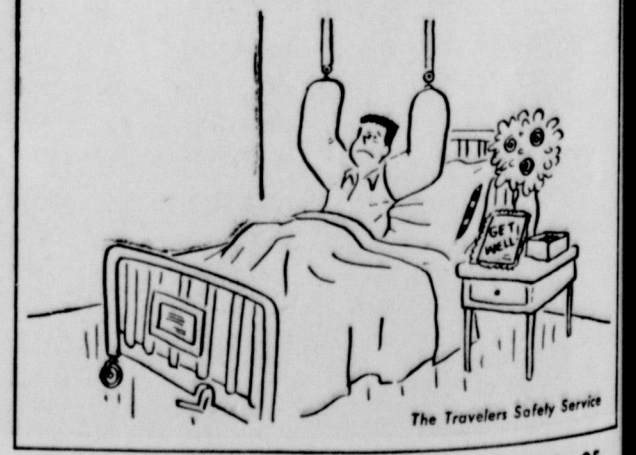

Texas Commission Railroad set September 15 for hearing on Missouri Pacific Railroad Company request to discontinue Houston-to-Brownsville passenger train.

Visitors stopping at Texas Highway Department tourist information centers soon will get a set at bluebonnets regardless of season — plastic ones, that made in Italy.

State Rep. Dick Cherry of Dallas has named administrative assistant to Sen. Ralph Yarborough.

County Agent's report . . .

HOMER E. THOMPSON
family vacation plans

Have you completed plans for a family vacation? Chances are good they will be by automobile and here are suggestions from County Agent Homer Thompson which will help make the trip more pleasant and a safe one.

The trip, especially if it is a long one, should be carefully planned. Do not start early since there is plenty of time for driving, seeing the sights and visiting. Have the automobile checked, especially from the standpoint of safety, and if the belts are lacking, Thompson suggests having them installed on the front and back seats. Then use them when they are used.

The County Agent believes it will be wise to start early since traffic is lighter and it's cooler, too. Later on during the heat of the day, you can take it easier.

Stop often when the weather is hot. A few minutes spent parked in the shade of a tree will permit you to cool off a bit, get some water and to drive on more relaxed, alert and relaxed.

Make traveling more enjoyable by giving each member of the family some surprise packages along the way. A new toy or game can keep them busy for hours.

Never drive when you are tired or feel drowsy. Let someone else drive or take a rest stop.

Observe all highway signs are not only for your protection, but it's a good idea to become familiar with those in the states you are driving through.

you'll be driving through. Always observe and heed road signs. Keep a safe distance from the car in front of you, always allowing a comfortable margin for safety.

Such items as a clean windshield, sun visors, a litter bag in the car, colored glasses and a good set of road maps can add to the pleasure and safety of your trip.

Low interest rate loans

Loans with low interest rates can be obtained from the Farmers Home Administration by family farm operators for livestock purchases, new equipment, refinancing or operating expenses, reports County Agent Homer E. Thompson.

Loans may also be made to farmers to finance recreational enterprises, to supplement farm income, produce trees and other forestry products and to raise fish under controlled conditions.

The interest rate on an FHA loan is five percent per year on the unpaid principal, except that the rate on loan funds used for forestry purposes is three percent. Loans are scheduled for repayment within a period consistent with the borrower's ability to repay.

Who may borrow from the FHA? The FHA says to be eligible, an applicant must:

(1) Have a farm background and experience necessary to be successful in the proposed farming operation. (2) Possess character, industry and ability to carry out the proposed operation. (3) Manage and operate the farm. (4) Be unable to obtain sufficient credit elsewhere at reasonable rates and terms to finance his needs. (5) Be a citizen of the United States and of legal age. (6) After the loan is made, be an owner or tenant operating nor larger than a family farm.

The county committee of the FHA, consisting of three farmers, determines the eligibility of an applicant.

Interested persons should contact the Farmers Home Administration county supervisor, Marvin Elliott, suggests Thompson.

More farms in county showing cotton disease

More Cochran County farms are showing up with cotton diseases and cotton root knot nematode in 1965. Little spots to big spots are showing up in many fields. Little can be done at this time about their control, but much can be done for next year if cotton is to be planted on the same land. Since 1958 County Agent Homer E. Thompson has been following these nematode areas very closely. As new areas were identified the infestation of root knot nematode count increased annually. As the areas spread in the field, the cotton yields decreased until treatment for control began.

This is what can be done before treatment begins for 1966 cotton crop. Know the exact area infested by working it on your field sketch. When temperature has warmed up to 55 degrees in April, you may decide to treat the designated area. The fumigant used for nematode control should be applied two weeks ahead of cotton planting and after the soil has warmed up to 55 degrees.

If you suspect root knot nematode, examine your cotton plants now. Don't pull up the stalk, get a long nose shovel and dig the plant up being careful not to disturb the lateral and tap roots. Shake the dirt out of the root zone and examine all roots for knots. These may be small or large knots. The more knots on the root system the worse the infestation.

The cost for treatment for nematode runs about $10.00 to $12.00 per acre, using recommended fumigants. It is applied by chiseling. If you cannot rotate crops, then treat the soil with a fumigant if you continue to grow cotton on the same land.

One field in the county has been treated annually for seven consecutive years. Roughly the increase in lint yield has been about 1/2 bale per acre, over the untreated area. A two acre spot has been left untreated annually in various locations to determine the increase. Earl Polvado is the local farmer who has been carrying out this seven year practice.

Noel Crow and Merlin Roberts are carrying out this same practice in 1965. Merlin advised he did not think it would make as much difference by looking at it. He will know when he harvests this fall. The untreated rows are north of his house, east of Morton.

Country Music Festival group organized here

An organized meeting was held Monday afternoon, August 16, at the Chamber of Commerce office in Morton for the purpose of organizing the Country Music Festival Association to produce Morton's annual Texas Last Frontier Country Music Festival. Elvis E. Fleming was elected president; Dean Weatherly, vice president; and Edna Lee Dewbre, secretary.

It was decided to sell memberships in the Association for $2.00 each in order to raise money for the expenses and prize money for the 1966 Festival. T. E. Lynch of Morton paid $10.00 for the first membership card. Interested persons may obtain membership cards by contacting any of the officers.

Several changes for the 1966 Festival were adopted at the meeting. Four winners will be selected to receive $100, $75, $50, and $25, respectively. In addition, six performers will receive Honorable Mention and $5 each. Another new ruling adopted at the meeting was that each year's winners will not be eligible the following year, but must wait two years before competing again. The possibility of having a two-day Festival in 1966 was discussed, as was the feasibility of having the show in the Cochran County Auditorium rather than in the Jim Reeves Memorial Park. No action was taken on the latter. The officers expressed their thanks to the many people who contributed equipment, food, money, and time to the 1965 Festival, which was held Saturday, August 14.

Van Greene visits Rayburn Library

Van Greene, of Morton, visited the Sam Rayburn Library in Bonham recently. He saw the books, papers and historical mementoes collected by the late Speaker Sam Rayburn during his more than fifty years of service to his country.

The library also contains a replica of the office Mr. Rayburn occupied in the Capitol during the time he served more than twice as long as any other man as Speaker of the House.

More than 6,000,000 people in this country wear contact lenses.

TREATMENT FOR BURNS

Camp burns can be treated with at least two common substances that doctors suggest. First is tea. Tannic acid in tea soothes blistered skin and is excellent for treatment of sunburn.

Apply one of the other and let dry. Then repeat the treatment.

Courts have interests in what you can insure

Suppose you notice that a neighbor's children like to play with matches in their garage. If you are the dastardly type, a cunning idea might occur to you. Why not take out a fire insurance policy on that garage, wait for a fire, and then pocket the proceeds?

The catch is, you could not collect a cent on such a policy. For you have no "insurable interest" in the garage.

Generally speaking, you cannot take out insurance on another person's property — or another person's life, either — unless you do have an insurable interest. The law says you must have something at stake, some motive for wanting that property — or that life — to be preserved.

Not always so. In the early days of modern insurance, at Lloyd's famous coffee house in London, anyone could take out life insurance on anyone else. Lives of prominent persons became speculative free-for-alls. An inside tip about some dignitary's failing health could be turned into easy money.

But twin evils became apparent: the stimulus to gambling, and the incentive to murder. Such incidents, wrote Oliver Wendell Holmes, "is a pure wager that gives the insured a sinister interest in having the life come to an end."

The law responded with the requirement of an insurable interest. What constitutes an insurable interest? The usual test is financial — whether you would suffer financial harm if the insured property was damaged or the insured life lost.

Thus, if you had a mortgage on that neighbor's garage, you would have the necessary insurable interest. The destruction of the garage would destroy something of value to you.

Similarly, in life insurance, a man has an insurable interest in his wife because she owes him services. And a wife has an insurable interest in her husband because he owes her support.

Even when the financial interest is not so clear, a clear sentimental interest will sometimes satisfy the courts. For instance, they usually uphold an insurance policy that a girl, engaged to be married, takes out on the life of her fiancé.

"The relation," explained one court, "naturally inclines her to the hope that his life may be prolonged."

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 47 proposing an Amendment to Section 4, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, to provide four-year terms of office for State Representatives.

Section 1. That Section 4, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 4. The members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen by the qualified electors for the term of four years; but a new House of Representatives shall be chosen after every apportionment, and the members elected after each apportionment shall be divided by lot into two classes. The seats of the members of Class A shall be vacated at the expiration of the first two years, and those of Class B at the expiration of four years, so that one-half of the members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen biennially thereafter. Representatives shall take office following their election, on the day set by law for the convening of the regular session of the Legislature. Section 5 of this Constitution shall be amended so as to extend the term of office of any officeholder previously elected to a two-year term."

Section 2. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of the State.

Section 3. That Section 23, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 23. The Comptroller of Public Accounts, the Treasurer, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and any statutory state officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution."

Section 4. The members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen by the qualified electors for the term of four years; but a new House of Representatives shall be chosen after every apportionment, and the members elected after each apportionment shall be divided by lot into two classes. Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 57 proposing an Amendment to Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding to said Section the following provisions: requiring automatic retirement of certain District and Appellate Judges at age seventy-five (75) or such earlier age, not under seventy (70), as may be provided by law; creating a State Judicial Qualifications Commission and providing for its composition and the qualifications, methods of selection and terms of office of its members; defining the functions and powers of said Commission, including the duty to investigate, and hold hearings in respect of, disability and misconduct of District and Appellate Judges and to make recommendations to the Supreme Court of Texas for involuntary retirement or removal of such Judges; empowering the Supreme Court of Texas, in its discretion, to retire such Judges for disability and to remove them for misconduct, upon recommendation of the aforesaid Commission and consideration of the record made before it; defining misconduct for which said Judges may be removed; providing that the proceedings of said Commission shall be confidential unless the Supreme Court with recommendation for retirement or removal; and providing that the removal provisions hereby established shall be alternative to and cumulative of those provided elsewhere in the Constitution.

Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period of periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

"(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate.

"(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

"(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section 1-a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties, or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability resulting from misconduct or inability of particular Justices or Judges, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in any District Court.

"(7) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(8) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

"(9) The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of the State.

"(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master, or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to the opportunity of being heard by the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to be heard, to be confronted with his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No Justice or Judge shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the method of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of the State.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Article VII, Section 17, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions; providing for allocation of funds therefor; authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and the pledging of allotted funds for the payment of same; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

Section 1. That Section 17 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund, as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning provided that none of the proceeds of this tax shall be used for auxiliary enterprises; and the governing board of each such institution of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in not more than ten (10) years; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty Cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"The following state institutions then in existence shall be eligible to receive funds raised from said Ten Cent (10¢) tax levy for the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, and for the succeeding ten-year periods: Arlington State College at Arlington; Texas Technological College at Lubbock; North Texas State University at Denton; Lamar State College of Technology at Beaumont; Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville; Texas Woman's University at Denton; Texas Southern University at Houston; Midwestern University at Wichita Falls; University of Houston at Houston; Pan American College at Edinburg; East Texas State College at Commerce; Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville; Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos; West Texas State University at Canyon.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate ten per cent (10%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate ten per cent (10%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate ten per cent (10%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate ten per cent (10%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"All such designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any general revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall be authorized to use an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue Funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and appropriate warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for such purposes. This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption so as to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment, such obligations shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the Amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Section 17 thereof, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions of higher learning."

"AGAINST the Amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Section 17 thereof, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions of higher learning."

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Section 4. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of the State.

Section 5. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the constitution and laws of the State.

BAROMETER for the FUTURE

Webster says that a barometer is an instrument measuring the weight or pressure of the atmosphere, foretelling and measuring changes of weather and altitude.

If God were to place a barometer on our lives, would we be cold, lukewarm, or on fire for the Lord. The past we can not change... the future is up to us.

"... what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul." ATTEND CHURCH REGULARLY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Traffic mishaps in July hurt 2 and do $3,350 in damages

Two persons were injured in five rural traffic accidents resulting in a property damage of an estimated $3,350 for the month of July, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts, Highway Patrol Supervisor for this area.

The rural traffic accident summary in Cochran County for the first seven months of 1965 shows a total of 20 crashes resulting in two persons killed, 18 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $16,077.

Sergeant Roberts said that school days are almost here again and that many schools in this area will be starting their classes before Labor Day. He added that drivers have become accustomed to ignoring school zones and signs during the summer months, but that now the time is rapidly approaching to start paying close attention to these zones and signs.

He added that many parents will attempt to make the Labor Day weekend their final vacation outing. He said, "Don't let this final outing be fatal." Thirty-nine lives were lost in traffic over the Labor Day weekend in 1964.

Advance ticket sale begins for 'Holiday on Ice'

Mail order applications are now being accepted for advance tickets to the "Holiday on Ice" extravaganza being presented in conjunction with the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock Sept. 27-Oct. 2.

All seats are reserved and tickets are priced at $2, $2.50, $3 and $3.50. Children 12 and under are admitted for one-half price at all performances.

The "Holiday on Ice" schedule includes performances at 2:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sept. 27; 7:30 p.m. nightly Sept. 28 through Oct. 1, and 2:00 p.m. Oct. 2.

All advance mail orders receive priority and will include the gate admission to the fair. Individuals ordering $3.50 tickets are asked to indicate whether they desire rink or balcony reservations.

Applicants are urged to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for ticket return. Orders may be mailed to "Holiday on Ice," Post Office Box 208, Lubbock.

The show includes a smooth blend of fantasy, ballet, comedy, novelty, plus championship and pair skating routines. The show comes to Lubbock direct from a triumphant tour of Central and South America.

Bands invited to South Plains Fair

Nearly 60 area high school bands are being invited to participate in the "Parade of Bands," annual kickoff event for the Panhandle South Plains Fair at Lubbock Sept. 27.

More than half that number are expected to accept invitation to compete for $1,125 in cash prizes to be awarded in Classes A, AA, AAA, AAAA, and B. Awards of $100, $75, and $50 will be made to the top three winners in all divisions.

As an added feature being offered for the first time this year, trophies will be awarded to all bands participating in the colorful 10 a.m. parade.

One out-of-state judge is being secured for the 1965 event. A committee in charge of arrangements felt this procedure would help speed up the judging process, formerly done by a panel of three.

The 48th annual fair will be featuring "area school day" on opening day Sept. 27. The fair runs through Oct. 2.

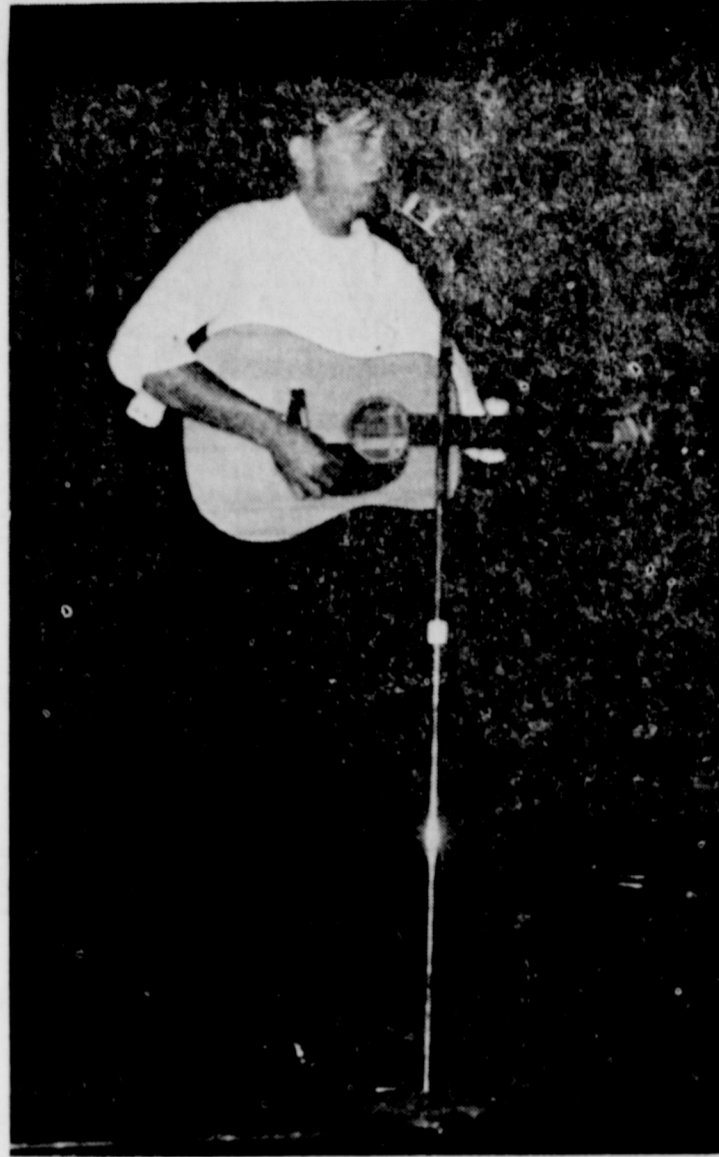

Teacher training program planned

There will be a teachers-in-training program at Morton High School Thursday and Friday, Aug. 26-27, Superintendent of schools

Lanier said that an in-training program is held every year for Morton area teachers to get a lot of paper work done, to let the teachers meet the principals and plan out their teaching programs for the coming year, and to familiarize teachers with their classrooms.

Lanier said that possibly films might be shown, and that meetings and discussions would be held and that teachers could get the paper work done that is involved with signing up with their professional organizations. He also added that there might be a short session held for school bus drivers.

Annual field day set Sept. 21 at research center

Plans for the annual field day at the South Plains research and extension center north of Lubbock have been announced by Charles Fisher, Superintendent of the center.

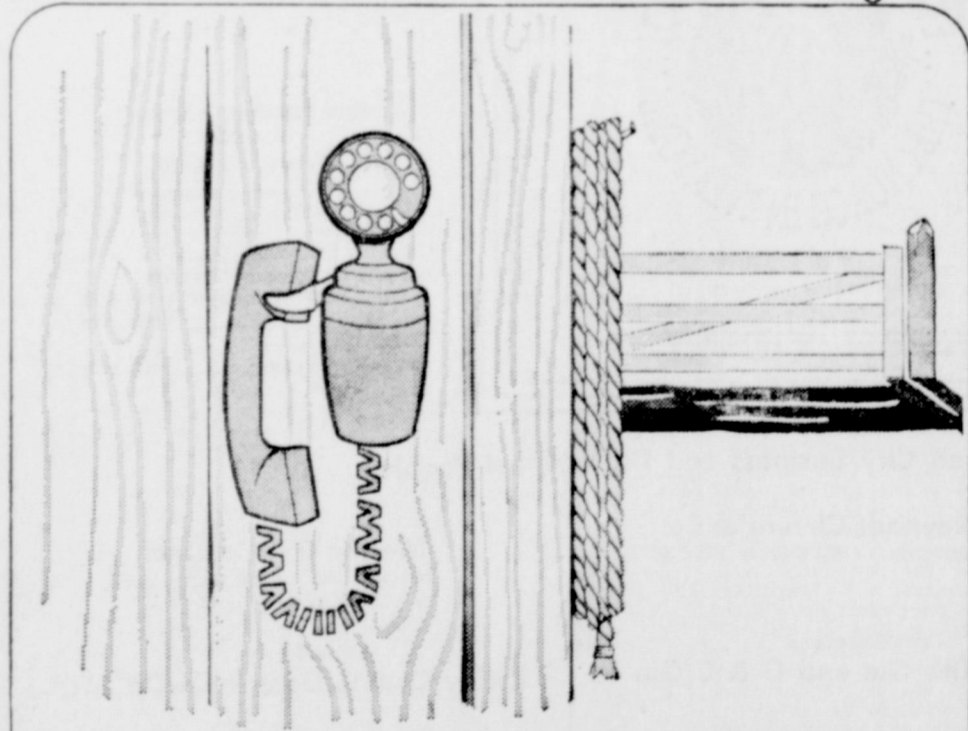

The event will be held at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 21 and the general theme will be "Today's Six Keys to Lowering Crop Production Costs," according to Fisher.

He said the intention is to discuss results producers can use to make management decisions about water, fertilization, timing operations, agricultural chemicals, mechanization and varieties.

Water conservation and efficient water use, two important fields of research at the center, will receive special emphasis at the field day, Fisher said.

County Agent Thompson hopes to see a big turn out of farmers and businessmen from Cochran County. These six keys will help many good farmers in our county.

COMMUNICATIONS — Your Tool for Progress

What! An extension telephone in the barn?

Time was when a telephone in the barn was the last thing you'd ever expect. Not so today. Many of our rural customers have extension telephones in barns, stables and poultry houses, to save time and trouble just as city people do. Here is another example of how Communications can be your Tool for Progress. For full information about our many communications services, please call our Business Office.
