You don't... how good it makes me feel to know I have friends like the... in Bledsoe. It makes this mess a lot easier to take, know-... we are fighting for people like them and not for noth-

Tell them I appreciate their gifts and thoughts from the... of my heart."

Sometimes we get to thinking: What are we here for? No-... outside the immediate family even knows I am here, or if... they don't care. It is nice to know someone thinks of... it is pretty rough to see your friends blown to bits beside... and crawl through muddy rice paddies with bullets flying... here, and the next day see in the paper where people in... states condemn us for being here and say we have no reason... to be here. People in the states don't know how much... they have on the guys here."

"We came here to fight for you and what we believe in... people knock us, what can we do. We can't quit, we can't... what are we supposed to do?"

Well all I can think of is that I have a family to fight for... to fight for and above all a country in which I kind of... live in. Then of course there is always number 1. I like... whole bunch."

You ask if it got very cold over here. They say sometimes... down to 90 — it rains 21 hours out of 24; it is hot and... summer and hot and wet in winter."

Anyone still feels like we are fighting an 8 to 5 war they... just read some more letters the parents get from sons in... in Viet Nam.

In thankful prayer...

THE OWEN HOUSTON family photographically symbolizes the many Americans who will get on their knees today to thank God for the many bountiful blessings we have. This Thankgiving time, a time of prayer and rededication, reminds us of all we have, but more important, all we can do to make others thankful.

County assessor releases figures on tax here

Leonard Groves, county tax assessor, released some facts and figures concerning Cochran County today.

Total 1965 taxes: State Ad Val.— $117,808.30; Co. Ad. Val. — $273,952.56; water dist. — $2,781.29; Co. wide school — $57,167.32; road — $42,074.17.

Collected in October: State Ad Val. — $97,505.47; Co. Ad Val. — $219,844.39; water Dist. — $1,653.80; Co. wide school — $45,801.87; road — $34,108.14 (81.07% collected in October.)

Groves said that the last day to pay poll taxes would be Jan. 31. He said that a poll tax is required for area residents to vote, even though the matter of the poll tax is under attack by the federal government. Groves said that if the poll tax were repealed, it probably wouldn't be done so in time for voting.

★ Still there

It was incorrectly stated last week in the Tribune that the cattle pens at Bledsoe have been torn down. According to an official of the Santa Fe Railroad, they are still in operation and last week a couple of carloads of livestock were shipped from them.

Morton marching band wins first

The Morton High School marching band won first division in class double A for region 1, Tuesday afternoon, at the University Interscholastic League Regional Contest.

The annual contest was held in Jones Stadium. If the band can County waits on first freeze

According to SCS records maintained by Gordon Houghton, and all other available sources, this may be the longest period on record with out a sub-32 degree freeze.

According to SCS records over the last ten years, the average freeze date is Oct. 29. Last year, and the year before, the freeze came much later than usual also. In 1964 the first hard freeze came Nov. 18, and in 1963 it came Nov. 14.

This year, there was light frost reported Oct. 22, but there has been no killing freeze reported. So far, there has been no frost in November reported. The three lowest temperatures recorded in November were 33 on Nov. 6, and 35 degrees on both Nov. 7, 22. According to reports, a freeze was recorded in Lubbock on Nov. 22, but not in Cochran County.

Below are the freeze dates for the last ten years according to SCS records.

1964:	Nov. 18-hard freeze
1963:	Nov. 14-hard freeze
1962:	Nov. 7-light frost
1961:	Nov. 8-killing frost
1960:	Nov. 10-light freeze
1959:	Nov. 10-hard freeze
1958:	Nov. 2-light freeze
1957:	Oct. 26-hard freeze
1956:	None on record
1955:	Oct. 23-killing frost

The only possible exception to this seems to be the the Karl Griffin Gin west of Morton. A spokesman at the gin said that about 1300 bales had been ginned and that their records showed that the actual ginning didn't begin until about Thanksgiving last year. Most of the cotton ginned this year was classed as middling and strict low middling. The micronaire was about 3.2.

The Alamo Gin reported that it was ginning very little cotton and last year at this time it was ginning about 200 bales a day. About 60% of the cotton was strict low middling, about 40% middling white, and about 10% middling. The micronaire was between 3.4

Plans being finalized for big Christmas promotion

Plans are pushing forward for one of the biggest and best Christmas season promotions ever in the Morton area, under sponsorship of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Christmas season in Morton will kick-off on Thursday, December 2, with the appearance of Santa Claus for the pre-school children on the courthouse square at noon. Jolly Old St. Nick is scheduled to talk to the youngsters from noon until 2:30 p.m. that day.

Santa will also distribute bags of candy to the little ones, courtesy of Morton businessmen. At 4:30 that same afternoon, Thursday, December 2, the annual Christmas parade is scheduled to take place. The Christmas lights in downtown Morton will also be turned on at that time.

Entries in the parade have not been spotted as yet, but it is understood that a number of organizations are working on floats, but have not yet officially entered. All floats should be entered at the Chamber of Commerce office. To date, the official entries include the Emlea Smith Junior Study Club, sponsored by Morton Spraying & Fertilizer; L'Allegro Study Club, sponsored by Morton Tribune; and Little Folks Kindergarten, sponsored by Ideal Gift Shop. The Morton and Whiteface high school and junior high bands have been invited to participate in the parade, as well as the choral departments from all area schools, including Morton, Whiteface, Bledsoe, Bula, and Three-Way.

Registration for a give-away by Morton merchants will get underway December 2 also. All participating merchants will have a registration place for customers who are 16 years old and above.

The drawing for prizes, which will be in the form of gift certificates, will be on Saturday, December 18, at 2:00 p.m., on the courthouse square. It is not known as yet just how many gift certificates will be given, but indications are that the value of the certificates may well reach $1,000 or more.

Winners of the certificates do not have to be present to win, and the gift certificates will be mailed to the winners on the same day as the drawing. They will be redeemable in the various Morton stores all the following week, December 20 through 24.

Plans are also completed for the piping of Christmas music throughout downtown Morton, with speakers already in place. The music will originate in the Chamber of Commerce office. All downtown Christmas decorations, purchased last year by donations of Morton businessmen and individuals, are all in place, ready for the switch to be thrown to light them on December 2.

More details on the extensive Christmas program this year will be announced next week. The program has been planned by the Retail Promotions Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Members of the group are Royce Hanna, Ed Sursa, Jerry Daniel, Carl Ray, and Gene Snyder, with Ray and Snyder as co-chairmen.

Country Music Assoc. to give program Friday

Plans are now complete for the big holiday country music show in the County Auditorium in Morton on Friday, November 26, at 8:00 p.m.

The show, produced by the Country Music Festival Association of Morton, will feature stars of the 1965 Country Music Festival. Elton Williams, popular young singer from Lubbock who won first place in the 1964 Festival and third place in the 1965 Festival, will appear on the show. Williams now records for Banner Records. Jimmy and Rusty Griffin of Lubbock, stars of Gaylo Records, will also be featured on the show. The Griffin brothers won second place in both the 1964 and 1965 Festivals. A third Festival winner who will be featured in the performance is Elvis Fleming, Morton school teacher who won first place in the 1965 Festival by doing impressions of several country singers, playing the piano and playing the mandolin.

Before going into teaching, Fleming was a regular member of the

Two holiday events are set

The Cochran County Garden Club has scheduled the annual Christmas Lighting Contest for Monday, December 13, and the Club's presentation "Holiday Jewels" 1965 tour of homes for December 5.

The judging for the lighting contest will begin at 6:30 p.m. The theme for this year is "Gems of Christmas."

Entries will be judged on the following points: Distinction and Originality, 50 points; Balance and Harmony, 30 points; Crafts and Artistry, 20 points.

There will be no charge for entering this year, however, and those wishing to enter must notify Mrs. Don Workman or any member of the club as to a specified division entered.

The divisions are: Religious-door, window or outside scene; Non-Religious-door, window or outside scene, and the commercial or business division.

This lighting contest has been a project of the Cochran County Garden Club for several years and adds to the beauty of the Christmas Holiday Season.

The 1965 tour of homes, titled "Holiday Jewels" will be held on December 5, and is scheduled from 2 to 4, beginning at the home of Mrs. Truett McCuiston, and then proceeding to two other homes with refreshments being served at the last home.

The purpose of this tour is to show Christmas decorations that are made by club members. The homes will have decorations in every room and will show how the theme is carried from one room to another creating a gay and happy feeling throughout the home. All

Postmaster gives tips for holiday mailings

According to Postmaster Murray Crone, now is the deadline for sending surface mail (packages) and Dec. 5 is the deadline for sending airmail.

Crone said that even now it might possibly be a little late to send packages overseas by regular mail. The deadline for airmail cards and letters is Dec. 18-20. Regular mail has been taking about four days to get overseas Crone said. He commented, "We have been getting good reports on regular mail getting through, but as Christmas nears, an enormous amount of mail will be going across, and the regular mail may not get overseas as fast as it has been." Crone said that foods should be sent airmail, and preferably in coffee cans to insure freshness and safety.

He added that all persons sending overseas mail should address the mail correctly, and send it as soon as possible to ease the work load of the post office. He also said that items sent to servicemen overseas should be packaged and wrapped carefully.

"Last Christmas the post office handled more mail than ever before, yet the operation was the most efficient in history," Postmaster Crone said.

Nationally about 99 per cent of the Christmas mail reached its destination before Christmas Eve.

"ZIP Code use and the cooperation of the public in mailing early were the main reasons for our success. With the same or better cooperation this year, we expect to handle an even greater volume of mail with less effort than during the 1964 Christmas rush," Crone said.

Whiteface cagers win opener 65-39 against New Deal

The Whiteface basketball cagers won their first game of the season Tuesday night against New Deal 65-39.

Whiteface coach Cecil Maddox said, "The effort the team put forth was the best I have seen since I have been here." Maddox said that he was pleased with the progress of the team and that it looked like it might be a good year, but that it was too early in the season to really tell.

Five scorers were in the double column bracket for Whiteface. They were: Randy Wheeler, 17; Ronny Scribner, 13; Donnie Scribner, 13; Wid Seward, 11; Kenny Roberts, 11.

The Whiteface girls lost their tilt the same night at New Deal by 42-25. Janie De Leon was the high scorer for Whiteface with 14.

The annual Whiteface basketball tournament will be held Dec. 2, 3, and 4 this year. Four teams will compete in a round robin affair, with each team playing three games. The winner of the most games will be champion of the tournament. The four teams are Abernathy, Sudan, Bledsoe and Whiteface.

Bledsoe loses in squeaker to Spade

Bledsoe lost a squeaker Tuesday evening with Spade 71-70.

Bledsoe was minus one starter, Bill Bryant, but coach Raymond Adams said that it would have been a tough game on any account. Bryant will be back in the line up Tuesday when Bledsoe takes on Spade again at Bledsoe, Adams said that the coming game with Spade should be a good one and that Bledsoe was going to try to put forth a good battle and even the score.

Chris Box was way in the lead for Bledsoe point-wise with 30, followed by Larry Buchanan with 17, Veltan Funk with 14, and Steve Sutton with 9.

Spade was also the victor in the girls games, 64-22. Linda Brown scored 13 for Bledsoe.

Mrs. H. A. Barnes, who has been in Roberts Memorial Nursing Home, recently returned to her home on Star Route.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Doss and Mr. and Mrs. Van Greene returned home last Tuesday following a four day hunting trip at San Marcos.

Dr. and Mrs. Garnett Bryan and children spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Burson. Dr. Bryan, Grady and Mr. Burson went quail hunting in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Austin of Lubbock will spend Thanksgiving Day in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hume Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hanna and boys and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hoffman and girls are spending Thanksgiving in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hoffman of Whiteface. Also planning to spend the day are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Akin and son of Whiteface and Mrs. Marvalene Hoffman of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cunningham were honored with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fox of Plainview recently. They are the parents of the late Lt. Harold Fox, who was killed in action in Viet Nam September 1st. Lt. Fox and James Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cunningham, were with the Screaming Eagles of the 101st Air Born Division. He landed in Viet Nam July 29th.

Three Way FFA teams win honors

The Three Way FFA placed 2nd in Junior Chapter Conducting Saturday in Muleshoe. Members on this team were Chester Huff, Wendell Williams, Jackie Dupler, Kreg Chapman, Bruce Pruitt, Junior Perez and Wayne Cunningham.

The Senior Chapter Conducting team placed 4th in its contest. Members on this team were Perry Lynskey, Monty Toombs, Shorty Hale, Jerry Gibbs, Deaun Carpenter, Tommy Black and Wayne Cunningham.

The Radio Broadcast team placed 8th. Members on this team were Tommy Gish, James Kendall, and Billy Dewbre.

Awards for the contest will be given at the District Banquet at Springlake, December 6th.

Set meeting on water flooding for Monday

A meeting for all interested farmers concerning water flooding with the Ogallala water formation, will be held at Levelland at the courthouse Monday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m.

A representative from the High Plains Underground Conservation District will be present, Weldon Newson, Morton, said that the use of water by the oil companies will be discussed. Newson said, "We will discuss the use of water by the oil companies from the old farm 88 lease."

Scrub boards, wash pots and smoothing irons are now found mostly in antique and curio shops. Bailey County Electric Cooperative helped make them obsolete. The demand for these items has been supplanted by a billion dollar market for electrical equipment.

This incredible market for electric appliances is far from being saturated. The growing demand for new appliances and work saving devices by members of the electric cooperatives, nationally, will exceed one billion dollars this year.

Bailey County Electric Cooperative is good for all businesses today. Good for their members . . . good for the economy . . . good for all Texans.

The Marvels of God's Creations

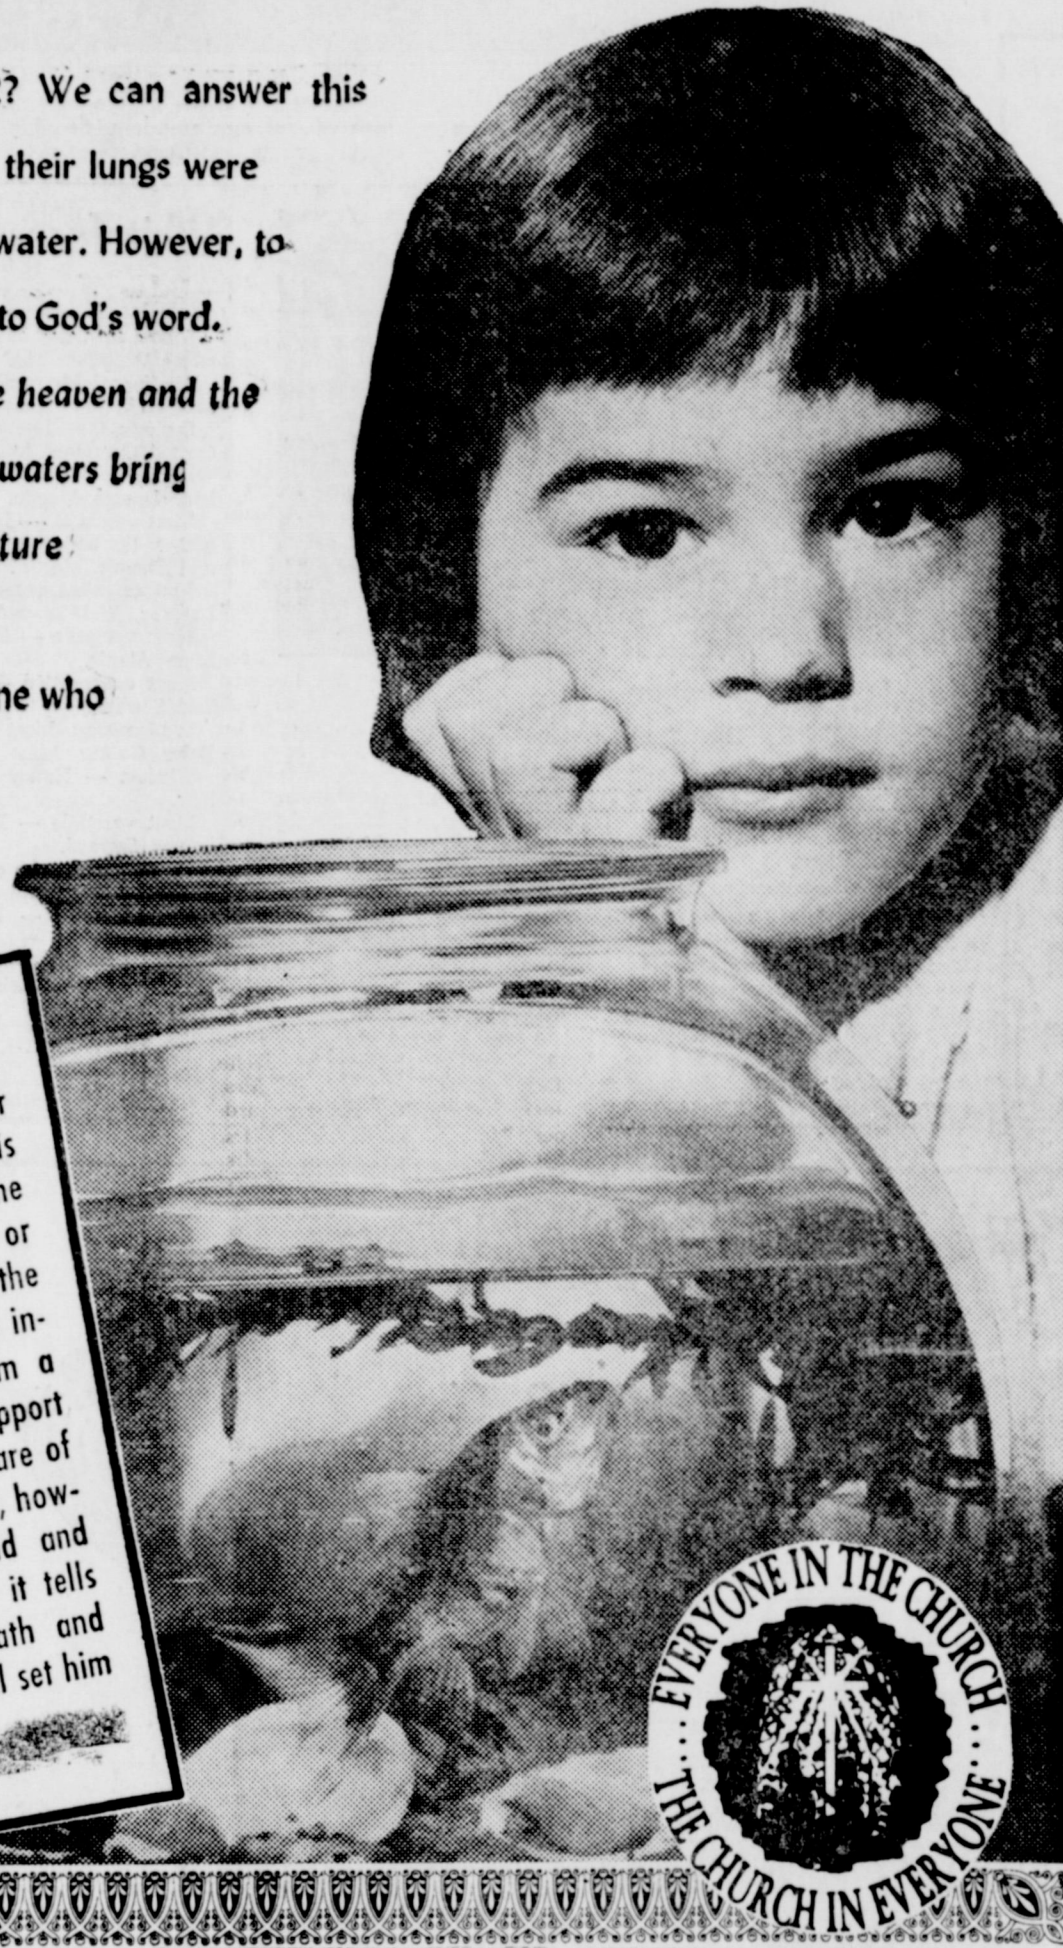

WHY DO FISH LIVE IN WATER? We can answer this question partially by saying: that their lungs were created to draw oxygen from the water. However, to know how and why, we must look to God's word.

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." ... "And God said, let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life..."

Attend Church and worship the one who created these marvels.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

New staffer at Tena's Beauty Salon

Mrs. J. R. Kuykendall, owner of Tena's Beauty Salon, is announcing this week that a new staffer, Lynn Hooley, has joined the staff of the beauty shop.

Hooley has recently been discharged from the armed forces after serving 18 months overseas in Germany. Before entering service, she operated a beauty shop in Earth, Texas.

Mrs. Kuykendall commented that the addition of Mr. Hooley would enable them to give better service than ever before, and she invites Morton residents to come by and meet her nephew.

Top 96 fields produce 69.7% of Texas oil.

Program on candles enjoyed by ELS Club

A program on candle making was enjoyed by members of Elma L. Slaughter Study Club when they met November 18 in the home of Mrs. W. M. Butler, Jr.

Mrs. Roy Hill brought with her Mrs. Charles Gates, who explained her arrangement of varnished nuts and a large red candle which had been dipped, and a green candle with grapes and entwining ivy.

Mrs. Hill had numerous candle arrangements on display and told how each was made. She explained that paraffin should always be melted over water, using old utensils and said that old coffee cans were excellent for the paraffin as they could be crushed to form a pouring spout.

She added that crayons were used in the paraffin to obtain the desired color. Wicking could be bought or made and its size depended on the size of the candle. Mrs. Hill showed the group how to put a wick in the candle, how to decorate them and how to get them out of a mold.

Also given were ideas of things that could be used for molds and ways to use the finished candle in an arrangement. Some arrangements were placed on or in sherry glasses, wooden base covered with satin material, brassy snifters and many other items.

Mrs. Willie Taylor conducted the business meeting. A report on the bake sale to finance the library improvement project was given by Mrs. Taylor. The sale had been set for November 20. Each club member was asked to bake one cake, two pies or donate $2.00. Members attending the meeting specified what they would do.

A report on the club project of a wheel chair for Robert's Memorial Nursing Home was given by Mrs. Elra Oden. Club members were reminded to ask for their points when redeeming their Gold Bond Stamps as the club was still lacking considerably points to complete the project.

Mrs. Abb White was accepted as an associate member. A letter of resignation from Mrs. Earl Brownlow was read but club members decided not to take action on it until after they had talked with Mrs. Brownlow personally.

A report on the Area Youth Conference as given by Mrs. Leonard Coleman. The conference is well under way with ten seminars to be held. It was reported that as many as 40 speakers would be available for the affair. Mrs. Coleman said at the last meeting of the conference, Mrs. Joe Seagler reported that the meal could be prepared for about $150.

Mrs. H. B. Spotts reminded all the club members to bring cup towels and bowls for Girlstown to the next meeting which would be held in her home on December 2.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Elza Brown, Mrs. Lovelle Jackson, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Jack Gunnels, Mrs. Horace Gardner, Mrs. Elmer Gardner, Mrs. Spotts, Mrs. John L. McGee, Mrs. Iva Williams, Mrs. Oden, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Taylor and the two guests, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Gates.

4-H girls will meet on Nov. 30

Food and nutrition projects groups will be formed in 4-H next week. All girls interested are to meet November 30 after school at home economics dept. at the high school. Mothers are to attend with their daughters.

Mrs. JoAnne Bray, Assistant Educational Director, Bailey County Electric will give a demonstration on Christmas candles.

Project groups will be formed according to age and experience. Meeting dates will be set.

Girls who will be unable to attend the meeting but want foods as a 4-H project are to call the County Extension office.

Drive will aid Scouting in area

The Boy Scouts of America use the term "whole Scout family" to denote its three programs — Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Exploring, each designed to meet the needs of boys in different age groups.

All three are conducted by the Scout units of Morton, which on Dec. 2 launches its independent scout campaign to maintain and strengthen its work in this area.

Cub Scouting stimulates a boy's interest so that when he outgrows his Cub Scout Pack he joins a Boy Scout troop at eleven.

Locally 75 boys are Cub Scouts.

Mrs. O. B. Williams, Rhodney Williams and Jon Lloyd will visit in Dublin over the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lloyd and boys. Also Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Christian and children of Houston will be visiting in Dublin. Mrs. Williams is the mother of Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Christian.

Extra wear

to quote one Florsheim wearer.
Honest-to-goodness quality is always appreciated—the kind of quality that keeps every pair of Florsheim Shoes looking new and feeling great long after ordinary shoes have been discarded. Florsheim—America's standard of fine shoe value.

Florsheim

Why is this Brogue different?

It's a Florsheim!

There's always more to a Florsheim Shoe than meets the eye; superb quality in every detail, premium leathers, finer workmanship. And this traditional Florsheim longer wear that means lower cost in the long run.

Rev. Hobson speaks to L'Allegro Study Club

The Rev. William Hobson, pastor of the First Missionary Baptist Church, was guest speaker for the L'Allegro Study Club November 18. Mrs. W. B. Merritt opened the meeting by leading members in the pledge to the Christian Flag.

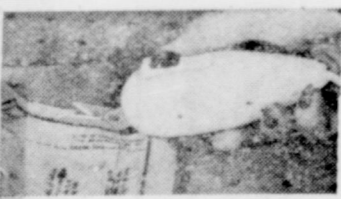

The Rev. Hobson was introduced to the club by Mrs. Bobby Travis. Title of his program was "Freedom of Religion is Truly Americanism". He told the club that one of the main reasons the Pilgrims came to the new world was to obtain freedom from religious persecution.

Many different religions from many countries came to the early colonies. These early settlers were very superstitious and did not trust anyone who did not believe as they did. Because of the different religious beliefs, they began to persecute each other in much the same way as they had been treated in the old country. This is one of the reasons they came together to write the constitution. Even then they were unable to agree until Benjamin Franklin arose and asked for prayer.

Rev. Hobson told the members that this religious freedom was one of the greatest heritages that our forefathers left us and we were in great danger of losing it. Only 8 per cent of the people in America today attend Sunday morning worship services. Two per cent attend Sunday night and one per cent attend Wednesday night.

Leading psychiatrists and psychologists state that 75 per cent of all mental problems have a religious basis. Rev. Hobson challenged the group as Americans today to guard this wonderful heritage.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in the home of Mrs. H. B. Barker who served refreshments to Rev. Hobson and the following members: Mrs. Truman Doss, Mrs. Harold Frennan, Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Elwood Harris, Mrs. James McClure, Mrs. McSpadden, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Al Mullinax, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Rowden, Mrs. Silvers, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Inez Swicegood, Mrs. Travis and Mrs. E. O. Willingham.

 "Big D Jamboree" in Dallas, and he also appeared on a number of other shows with such stars as Pat Boone, Jim Reeves, Johnny Horton, and Ferlin Huskey. Backing up the performers on the November 26 presentation will be a stage band composed of Doyle Ivy, Norman Houghton, and Terry Anglin, all of Morton. Other featured acts on the show will include fiddler H. W. Garvin from Maple, the men's gospel quartet from the First Baptist Church of Morton, and the musical-comedy trio, the "Simpliphony Orchestra."

In addition to the music and fun, a drawing will be held in which a number of door prizes from local merchants will be given away, along with $5 and $10 in cash. Dean Weatherly, vice-president of the CMFA, will MC the show. The Emlea Smith Junior Study Club will be selling concessions in the banquet room during the show. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for all school students, pre-schoolers free.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClure attended funeral services for J. C. Rowden Monday morning in Brownfield.

Mailings

 Crone had advice which would help mailers prepare for the upcoming mailing season.

A. Up date last year's address list and include ZIP Codes. The phone book is usually a good source for local addresses.

B. Prepare a gift list as soon as possible. Shop early to take advantage of full stocks. Be sure to have on hand enough shipping materials: boxes, tape wrapping paper, etc.

C. Use first class postage on greeting cards. This assures their being forwarded if the recipient has moved or that undeliverable cards will be returned if a return address is on the envelope.

The postmaster emphasized again this year that poorly wrapped and loosely packed cartons are the major cause of parcel post damage. He urged that cartons be packed tightly by using stuffing material to fill up the empty space around the merchandise. He also asked that all mailers make an effort to address their letters cards and packages as clearly as possible and that they make every attempt to mail often, not waiting until the last minute to deposit all their gifts and greetings.

Freeze

 and 37.

The Kirk Dean Gin reported that it has ginned about 450 bales this year and that by this time last year it had ginned more than 2000 bales.

The Morton Gin Company reported that it has ginned about 375-400 bales and that it is running way behind what it had ginned last year at this time and the Barton Gin reported the same.

County agent Homer Thompson estimated that less than 5% of the cotton in Cochran County has been ginned. He said that most of the farmers are waiting for the frost before they start stripping, and that most of them have to wait for it because very few have defoliated. Thompson said that more farmers defoliated last year than this year.

Thompson said that because of the prolonged growing period, that the lint should be of good quality this year. He added, that there was also the danger of sandstorms damaging the cotton around Thanksgiving.

Big door prize . . .
 POSTMASTER MURRY CRONE, right, and Gene Benham, pose with a 100-lb. sack of red beans which was given as a door prize at the regional meeting of postmasters in Lubbock last weekend. Benham donated the beans, and Crone gave them as a gift from the Morton area. Lucky winner of the prize was B. M. Myers, regional director of the U. S. Post Office Department, of Dallas. TRIB pix

Rev. Hobson speaks to L'Allegro Study Club

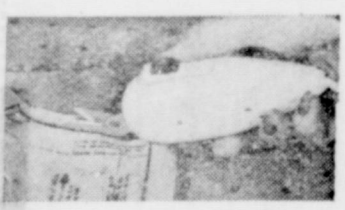

The Rev. William Hobson, pastor of the First Missionary Baptist Church, was guest speaker for the L'Allegro Study Club November 18. Mrs. W. B. Merritt opened the meeting by leading members in the pledge to the Christian Flag.

The Rev. Hobson was introduced to the club by Mrs. Bobby Travis. Title of his program was "Freedom of Religion is Truly Americanism". He told the club that one of the main reasons the Pilgrims came to the new world was to obtain freedom from religious persecution.

Many different religions from many countries came to the early colonies. These early settlers were very superstitious and did not trust anyone who did not believe as they did. Because of the different religious beliefs, they began to persecute each other in much the same way as they had been treated in the old country. This is one of the reasons they came together to write the constitution. Even then they were unable to agree until Benjamin Franklin arose and asked for prayer.

Rev. Hobson told the members that this religious freedom was one of the greatest heritages that our forefathers left us and we were in great danger of losing it. Only 5 per cent of the people in America today attend Sunday morning worship services. Two per cent attend Sunday night and one per cent attend Wednesday night.

Leading psychiatrists and psychologists state that 75 per cent of all mental problems have a religious basis. Rev. Hobson challenged the group as Americans today to guard this wonderful heritage.

Mailings

Crone had advice which would help mailers prepare for the upcoming mailing season.

A. Up date last year's address list and include ZIP Codes. The phone book is usually a good source for local addresses.

B. Prepare a gift list as soon as possible. Shop early to take advantage of full stocks. Be sure to have on hand enough shipping materials: boxes, tape wrapping paper, etc.

C. Use first class postage on greeting cards. This assures their being forwarded if the recipient has moved or that undeliverable cards will be returned if a return address is on the envelope.

The postmaster emphasized again this year that poorly wrapped and loosely packed cartons are the major cause of parcel post damage. He urged that cartons be packed tightly by using stuffing material to fill up the empty space around the merchandise. He also asked that all mailers make an effort to address their letters cards and packages as clearly as possible and that they make every attempt to mail often, not waiting until the last minute to deposit all their gifts and greetings.

The Kirk Dean Gin reported that it has ginned about 450 bales this year and that by this time last year it had ginned more than 2000 bales.

The Morton Gin Company reported that it has ginned about 375-400 bales and that it is running way behind what it had ginned last year at this time and the Barton Gin reported the same.

County agent Homer Thompson estimated that less than 5% of the cotton in Cochran County has been ginned. He said that most of the farmers are waiting for the frost before they start stripping, and that most of them have to wait for it because very few have defoliated. Thompson said that more farmers defoliated last year than this year.

Thompson said that because of the prolonged growing period, that the lint should be of good quality this year. He added, that there was also the danger of sandstorms damaging the cotton around Thanksgiving.

"Big D Jamboree" in Dallas, and he also appeared on a number of other shows with such stars as Pat Boone, Jim Reeves, Johnny Horton, and Ferlin Huskey. Backing up the performers on the November 26 presentation will be a stage band composed of Doyle Ivy, Norman Houghton, and Terry Anglin, all of Morton. Other featured acts on the show will include fiddler H. W. Garvin from Maple, the men's gospel quartet from the First Baptist Church of Morton, and the musical-comedy trio, the "Simplephony Orchestra."

In addition to the music and fun, a drawing will be held in which a number of door prizes from local merchants will be given away, along with $5 and $10 in cash. Dean Weatherly, vice-president of the CMFA, will MC the show. The Emile Smith Junior Study Club will be selling concessions in the banquet room during the show. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for all school students, pre-schoolers free.

This is the second year that the Cochran County Garden Club has presented a Tour of Homes. The 1964 tour was an outstanding success.

Each home will have one decoration or arrangement which will be given as a door prize.

The tour is being scheduled earlier than last year to enable those who attend to get "Christmas Decorating Ideas" for their own homes.

The charge of this tour is again $1.00. Tickets are available from any Cochran County Garden Club member. Mrs. Don Workman, projects chairman, is in charge of the tour and can be contacted for further information.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1965

Thanksgiving 1965

How swiftly the years and the seasons pass! That may be the tritest of truisms, but it is one that frequently enters the minds of all of us. And, probably, it is felt with the greatest weight each fall and winter, as the holiday season approaches.

Now another Thanksgiving is here. This, with the 4th of July, is the most thoroughly American of all our holidays. It celebrates the very beginning of this nation. And, when properly observed it honors the courage, skill and dedication of long-gone men and women who faced and conquered dangers and difficulties of an unbelievable scope.

This is a year of plenty. Most dinner tables will be piled high with the traditional Thanksgiving feast. There will be, inevitably, an emphasis on the material aspects of the day. Speakers will dwell on the abundance that is known so generally throughout the land.

But abundance is not enough. The strength of peoples and powers lies in the qualities possessed by those who celebrated the first Thanksgiving — independence, a profound sense of individual responsibility, a deep spiritual belief, and dedication to freedom for all.

This is what we should remember Thanksgiving day — and every other day of the year.

Past time

It is probable that most of us have largely forgotten the large number of tax changes that have taken place in the past quarter century.

During World War II and the Korean War, the established taxes were raised and new ones imposed. There was a rash of excise taxes, which are the same thing so far as the consumer is concerned as sales taxes. Subsequently, some taxes were reduced and others eliminated. The current Congress took a long overdue step when it abolished numbers of the war-imposed "nuisance taxes" levied on various kinds of merchandise.

But there is one taxpayer who has been given no relief—and who, instead, has been hit harder and harder. That is the motorist. Whether he knows it or not, he carries what many believe to be a grossly disproportionate share of the cost of state government.

A compilation issued by the National Association of Manufacturers tells the story. On the average, fuel and vehicle taxes—of which the gasoline tax is by far the largest factor—account for an average of 25.5 per cent of the total taxes collected by the states. The figure ranges from a low of 7.3 per cent in Hawaii to a high of 48.2 per cent in Nebraska.

In numbers of states, it is above 30 per cent. And to this must be added the four cents a gallon tax levied by the federal government.

To cite another average figure, total state and federal gasoline taxes now exceed 10 cents a gallon. That is about half the price of a gallon of gas before the tax.

Efforts are always under way to further boost this tax on an absolute necessity, even though no out and out luxury, save for tobacco and liquor, bears so heavy a burden. It certainly is time—past time—to call a halt.

Can you afford to be a moocher?

Social welfare programs continue to expand at a galloping pace. It seems a certainty that regardless of the party in power federal money or assistance of one kind or another will be made available to an even greater number of members of groups which will be singled out to be cuddled under the protective wing of the welfare state. Individual need for assistance will often be ignored and eligibility for benefits will depend on such factors as age, where you live, your race, occupation and even the amount of rent you pay relative to your total income. In this way, large blocks of citizens are given a common vested interest in the extensiveness of the welfare state. As this process continues, practically every person in the country will find himself, sooner or later, in a group being favored by some sort of public welfare. At this point, we will have to ask ourselves a very personal question. Is freedom really worth a monetary loss or can we be bought?

In the Odessa, Texas, American, Oscar Cooley observes that, "In one breath, people complain of 'big government'—and in the next demand their share of the loot . . . The fact is that between asking for a dole, and merely accepting it when proffered, the difference is so slight as to be invisible, at least to the eye of the average congressman. He judges the popularity of a dole by the number of takers and this statistic usually tells him to vote for it . . . Social evils become established because of their acceptance by individuals, one by one. Likewise, such evils

What is an American?

He yells for the government to balance the budget and then takes the last dime he has to make the down payment on a car.

He whips the enemy and then gives 'em the shirt off his back.

He yells for speed laws that will stop fast driving and then won't buy a car if it can't make 100 miles an hour.

An American gets scared to death if we vote a billion dollars for education but he's unconcerned when he finds out we are spending three billion dollars a year for cigarettes.

He knows the line-up of every baseball team in the American and National Leagues — and doesn't know half the words in the "Star Spangled Banner."

He'll spend half a day looking for a vitamin pill to make him live longer, then drive 90 miles an hour on slick pavement to make up for the time he lost.

He ties up his dog but lets his sixteen year old son run wild.

An American will work hard on a farm so he can move into town where he can make more money so he can move back to the farm.

When an American is in his office he talks about baseball, football or fishing, but when he is out at the games or on the lake he talks of business.

He is the only fellow in the world who will pay 50 cents to park his car while he eats a 25 cent sandwich.

He is never ready for war but he has never lost one.

We're the country that has more food to eat than any other country in the world and more diets to keep us from eating it.

We're the most ambitious people on earth, and we run from morning until night trying to keep our earning power up with our yearning power.

We're supposed to be the most civilized Christian nation on earth but still can't deliver payrolls without an armored car.

In America we have more experts on marriage than any other country in the world — and more divorces.

But, we're still pretty nice folks. Calling a person "A real American" is the best compliment you can pay him. Most of the world is itching for what we have, but they'll never have it until they start scurrying for it the way we did.

Castro needs U.S. target

Cuba's Fidel Castro would be handicapped severely if the United States ceased suddenly to exist. He needs us. No matter what happens Castro has an explanation ready. He can blame the United States and do it at great length, with gestures and emotion.

That is how he responded when two little boats fired at the Havana waterfront. There is nobody to hold responsible, he said, "but the United States government and the CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) which have perpetrated all wither on the vine when individuals, one by one, condemn them and refuse to participate in their fruits."

When a dole gets around to you, make a decision. If you don't absolutely need it, refuse it, thereby registering a vote of "no confidence" in government domination over your life. Your Senators and Representatives in Congress may hesitate to collect more taxes from you, annoy you with regulations, depreciate your money and wreck your business in order to pay a dole of one sort or another that you don't want and won't accept.

types of crimes against our country.

Castro said it was good, not bad, that the attack was made because "we shall know how to behave as what we are — their irreconcilable enemies."

"In reality," he said, we do not want any peace with imperialism as long as it exists."

Castro needs an enemy to justify an emergency basis for dictatorship. He needs a target for his rallying speeches. He needs one who could slap him down but won't. That makes him look bigger.

Those thousands of Cubans waiting to get out of the country need a place to go. They could go to Mexico or somewhere in South America, but Castro couldn't find a suitable substitute for the United States as an enemy.

Reasons of propaganda

If you think your mailbox is loaded with rubble and propaganda, you should examine just one day's influx of mailing pieces that hit a weekly newspaper office.

It is well remembered that Nazi Germany mailed propaganda material to the Vindicator office and to most other United States newspaper offices right up to the time that we became involved in World War II. In our democratic society, they had a perfect right to do so.

The inflow is even more terrific during these comparatively peaceful days of 1965. Let us glance at a few samples.

First, "The Arab World." The September issue is a 16-page magazine published by the Arab Information Center. Dallas is headquarters for the Southern regional office, but the magazine is mailed from New York City.

Of course the Arab viewpoint is maximized. But the magazine includes such tidbits of knowledge as these: Kuwait has the world's largest seawater conversion complex in the world, the highest per capita income in the world, the hottest capital on earth (Kuwait City), and the most thoroughly air-conditioned capital in the world.

The magazine also contains a large amount of historic and modern-progress news. Today's mail included, among 50 to 75 other items, seven so-called newsletters and openly - political brochures from Democrats and Republicans. Both major parties, both Texas senators and several congressmen are regular contributors.

We receive a magazine from Hoffa's powerful union, a regular publication from a funds-soliciting foreign missionary not associated with any church organization, reams of material from manufacturers and distributors.

Would you like to guess where the bulk of the unsolicited mail originates? Your first guess probably would be correct. Yes, it's Washington, D.C.

Any time you need reference material on Social Security, the Peace Corps, U.S. Savings Bonds, Medicare the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Coast Guard, withholding taxes, the FBI, or Operation Head Start . . . just ask us to save our mail for a few days. Liberty Vindicator

Computers no answer

The theory of law behind the wave of redistricting going on at all levels of government is based on an idea that one man's vote should have as much influence on legislation or definition of policy as another's, and that districts, or precincts, of approximately equal population is the only way in which this can be achieved.

Electronic computers are coming into the picture as a major tool in setting up new districts for congressmen and legislators. Computers can take pre-determined facts, juggle them around, and come up with a lot of answers, if they are programmed with the proper information and if the types of answer needed can be properly planned ahead of time.

While computers may be the answer in larger areas of determination, and may work as to population, they are far from the answer in settling such questions in setting up precinct boundary lines of counties.

A great many more factors enter into county commissioner precinct lines in any county — and certainly in Pecos — than merely the number of people residing in certain areas.

There are the questions of common interest and of voting bloc alignment — which also can be changed but still must adhere to certain basic needs for communications, roads, distance, and convenience of those concerned. There are the important matters of road maintenance, done on a precinct basis in most counties, and there is another consideration — the valuation figures of the precinct areas.

Computers might be able to provide an answer to one of the questions here involved — but certainly there are a number which only the sound, considered thinking of sincere people can determine.

We think Pecos County has a good commissioners court. It has Highlights and Sidelights —

Agencies to be coordinate

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas' first major state government program for widespread coordination of public service activities is being activated.

Gov. John Connally soon will reveal his initial plans for the project that will "range across the entire spectrum" of governmental services.

PACT, the Planning Agency Council for Texas, was authorized by the 1965 Legislature — primarily to implement the statewide water program. However, Connally wants to broaden its scope into many other areas.

Legislation authorizing a central state planning agency cited the need to coordinate state efforts in the fields of water supply, recreation, transportation, highways and other programs financed with federal, state and local funds.

Eight major agencies — health, highway, parks and wildlife departments, industrial commission, soil conservation board, Texas employment commission, railroad commission and water development board — were designated by the Legislature as members of the initial PACT.

Connally's office was named administrative head of the planning agency and placed in charge of coordinating its activities.

Growth of government and a steadily-increasing number of federal programs requiring attention at state and local levels call for a "monumental endeavor" by public officials, Connally noted.

PRESS CONFERENCE — At a recent press conference Connally said:

He may ask the 1967 Legislature to again submit to the voters a proposed constitutional amendment calling for four-year terms for certain elected public officials holding statewide offices. But this time not at a special election.

He would call an early special session of the Legislature if federal court orders require legal action in congressional and legislative reapportionment cases and the suit to repeal poll tax.

He felt called on to make a statewide pitch for Texas as the site of the $340,000,000 atom smasher because of the competition among Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock and Odessa for the key scientific facility. He assured site-seekers from the Atomic Energy Commission that all of the state's resources would be available to support whichever Texas site might be chosen.

REDISTRICTING — Next year Texans may be able to elect House members under the new redistricting law.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr will urge a federal court at Houston to let voters elect the members, even though the court may believe legislative districts are not constitutional.

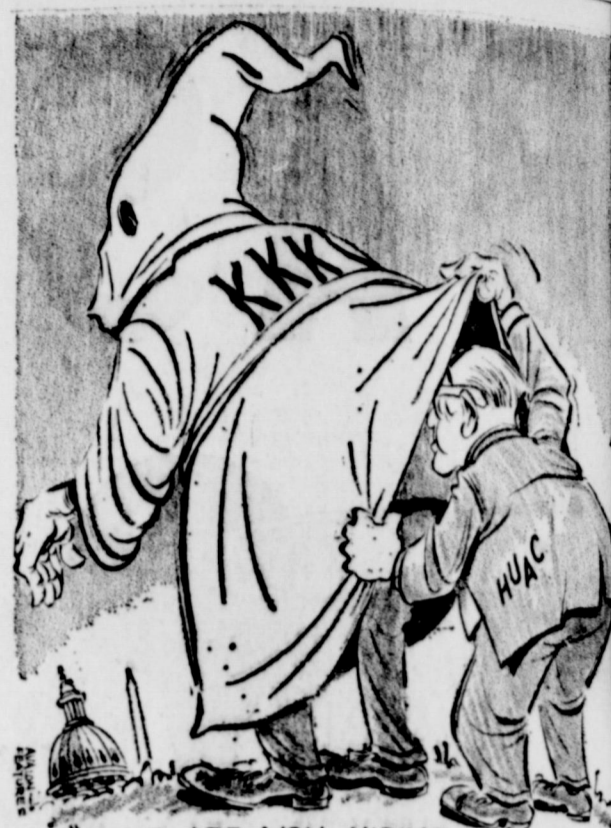

If the court will allow such action, the 1967 Legislature could pass a redistricting law without floriotal districts.

This year's redistricting law in demonstrated again its fairness and intelligence by calling a special meeting to consider the problems of redistricting, and by inviting the public to attend, and giving individual citizens a chance to express their views and come up with suggestions.

Finding an answer to the redistricting question in Pecos County will not be easy, but we are of the opinion, long held, that it can be worked out by intelligent effort and co-operation in a way that will be acceptable to most people, and be fair to a vast majority of this county's citizens voters.

The time for a beginning is Monday morning, Nov. 22, at 9 a.m. in the Courthouse.

Fort Stockton Pioneer

"WHAT ARE YOU HIDING IN HERE?"

cludes 11 floriotal districts resulting in a situation where small counties share representatives with large counties.

Judges believe this discriminates against sparsely-populated counties.

Court could declare the entire law unconstitutional and a special session of the Legislature would be needed to pass a new law.

Except for the floriotal districts, Court indicates new law is constitutional.

AIRPORT AID — Texas Aeronautics Commission is urging cities on the lookout for airport equipment to let them do the looking as part of the government surplus property program that began 14 months ago.

Presently the Aeronautics Commission locates the surplus at military air bases and effects the transfer. Then the equipment is given to needy cities and towns free.

So far, 41 Texas cities have received surplus property worth more than $120,000 for use in the development and maintenance of local airports.

Grants totaling $64,500 have been approved. This money went to Caldwell ($10,000), Comanche ($12,000), Hallettsville ($10,000), Hearne ($2,000), Kountze ($7,500), Lampasas ($8,000), and Pineland ($15,000).

Six others may get an additional $68,000 if they finalize acceptance during the next three months. They are Cameron ($10,000), Clarksville ($12,000), Floyd a-d-a ($12,000), Gatesville ($12,000), Jacksboro ($10,000), and Post ($12,000).

AG RULES — Trial and state attorneys fees in Justice of Peace courts are abolished by the new code of criminal procedure, but an offender may be assessed other incurred costs, says Attorney General Waggoner Carr. Opinion was requested by Goliad County Atty. Wayne B. Davis.

In other opinions, Carr held that: Law enforcement officers may seize unopened cigarettes when they have the legal right to arrest a person possessing them.

Cigarette tax is a valid use levy, and distributing agents must pay and file stamps to packages before they leave warehouses except on those to be delivered to certain persons designated to sell unopened cigarettes.

Person cannot hold office of constable at same time he is deputy tax collector and truant officer of independent school district.

Lamesa school teacher who spent 10 months teaching in Germany did not lose Texas resident classification for college tuition purposes.

OIL ALLOWABLE — Texas oil production may hit a six-year high in 1965. This thanks to a jump in December allowable to 31.4 per cent of potential.

December production maximum is 3,084,545 barrels daily. Railroad Commission increased the percentage factor from 30 per cent for November. Firm markets and low inventories are given as the reasons for the increase.

APPOINTMENTS — Hubert A. Henry has been appointed to the new division of automation to be created December 1 in the top administration level of the Texas Highway Department.

Governor Connally announced these appointments: Teacher Retirement Board — Henry M. Bell Jr., Tyler; and C. O. Chandler, Victoria.

Texas Water Rights Commission — Judge Otha F. Dent of Littlefield (reappointed).

Board of Registration for Professional Engineers — Robert E. Moore of Austin and Uel Stephens of Fort Worth.

Civil Judicial Council — Richard M. Morehead, Austin; Clark Anderson, Lufkin; Mrs. Harris L. Kempner, Galveston and Judge

Solomon Casse Jr., San Antonio Dallas County Flood Control District — Marion Solomon of Dallas (reappointed).

House Speaker Ben Barnes pointed the following five-member committee of Representatives to study operations of livestock auction companies: Nelson Co. of Hallsville; E. M. Edwards of Pottsboro; Roy Arledge of Slatersburg; Charles H. Jungmichel of LaGrange and David C. Howard of Uvalde.

COURT SPEAK — Billie Soltes' swindling case landed in the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals after the U.S. Supreme Court reversed the conviction. Court here is expected to set Tyler for retrial, without a vision coverage.

In a case involving student demonstrations against war in Vietnam, the Court of Criminal Appeals refused to say whether district civil court judge can prevent enforcement of a city ordinance. Issue now is moot no longer a timely legal question — opinion concluded.

State Supreme Court found that American Oil Producing Company owes $3,866 in sales tax on the purchase of a computer.

Supreme Court granted to view a case alleging fraudulent collection methods by an insurance company.

Attorneys for Longview and Clark Sample Jr., argued before Supreme Court that State Railroad Commission is without power to cut future oil production to compensate for over production in the past. Commission is seeking charge about $1,000,000 worth of oil to operators it claims overproduced.

PROGRAM APPROVED — as Highway Commission has approved a two-year $350,000,000 solidated highway program it deemed the most important in the history of Texas.

The 1967-68 program will work on 9,469 miles of roads in department jurisdiction. Commission approved projects totaling $337,900,000 with $12,700,000 in reserve. Many safety projects included.

SHORT SNORTS — Governor Connally's new 15-member Committee on Public School Education named to conduct a three-year study of the needs of Texas schools is in operation by January.

Coordinating Board, The College and University System named seven committees composed of higher education faculty administrators to advise on policies. . . . Veterans Land Board ordered a resolution drawn before Attorney General Carr to require Irving millionaire C. D. Wichita pay about $175,000 due on 112 acres of Dimmitt County land contracted for in 1963. . . . Connally has designated December 15 as Bill of Rights Day, 17th anniversary of its adoption. . . . $30,000,000 of $78,000,000 available in federal funds to the Texas school districts, under a new federal aid to education act, has been applied for, so a lot of money will go back to the federal government if more districts don't apply for their shares.

Morton cagers drop tilts to Bledsoe, Levelland

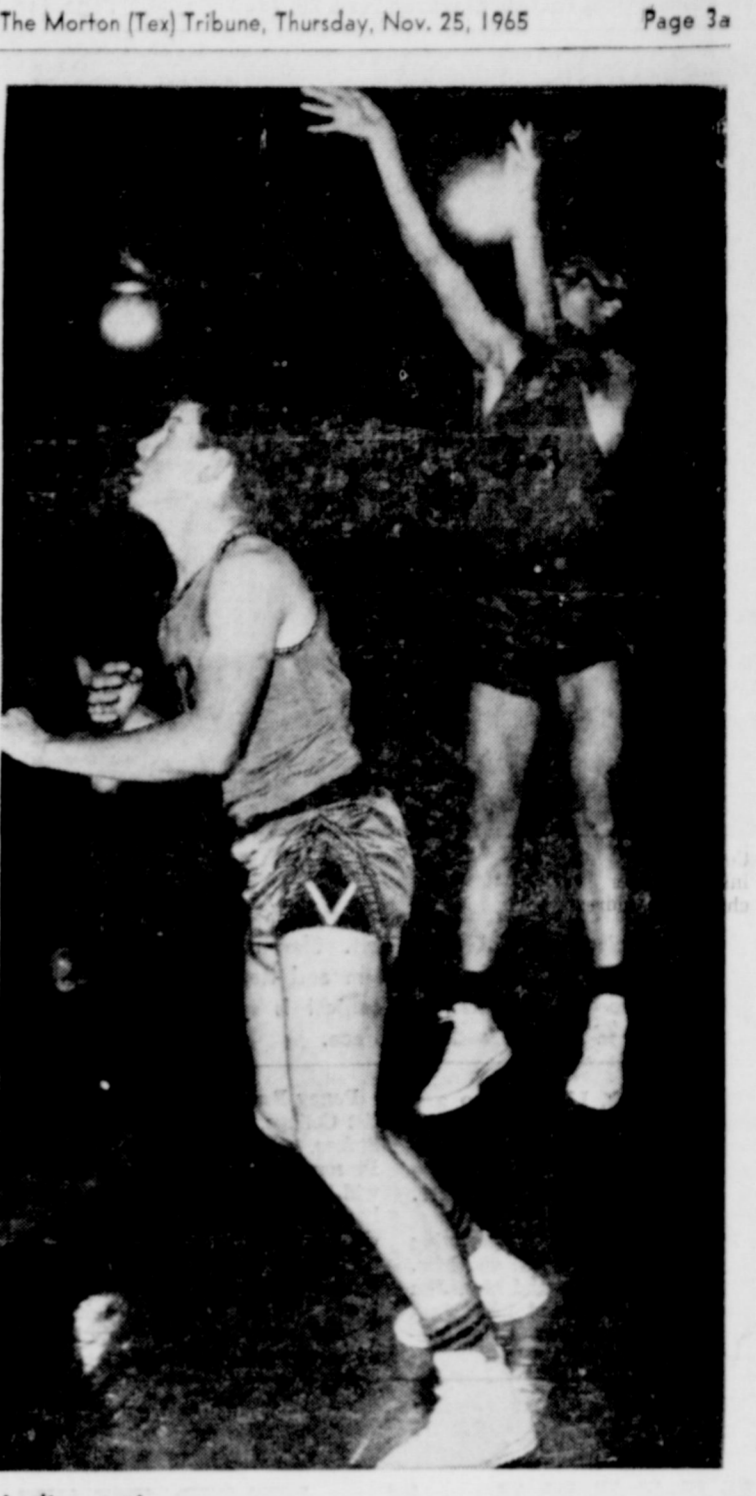

Morton's young basketballers dropped two basketball games in the past week, bringing the year's count to 0-3.

The Indians were dropped by Bledsoe, 51-48, Friday night in the local gym, and then fell before a Levelland onslaught, 56-26, Tuesday night on the Lobo's court.

In the Friday night affair with Bledsoe, the local five closed fast but couldn't catch the smooth-working Antelope bunch. The winners jumped to a 16-13 first quarter margin, and they were ahead 27-22 at the half, and 40-23 at the end of three periods of play.

A nine-point production by Indian Jimmy Joyce in the final eight minutes of play brought the local boys close, but they couldn't get closer than the final three points.

Joyce led the Morton scoring with an evening's total of 15, while Byron Willis jumped in nine tallies for the locals. Willie Moore with eight, and Freddie Thomas and DON Vanlandingham with half a dozen each added to the Indian cause. High point honors for the evening, however, went to Bled-

Freshman cage tournament set for Dec. 2, 4
 The second annual Freshman Basketball Tournament will be staged in the Morton High School Gymnasium on Thursday and Saturday, December 2-4, it was announced this week by Ted Whillock, MHS basketball mentor.

Teams competing in the event besides the host Morton squad are Levelland, Muleshoe, Friona, Littlefield and Plains. The Levelland club won last year's tournament.

Plains and Muleshoe kick off the tournament at 6:00 p.m. Thursday, followed by the Littlefield-Morton clash at 7:30. Levelland and Friona battle it out at 11:30 Saturday morning. Finals of the tournament will be staged Saturday night at 8:00.

Whillock, who will be tournament director, announced that trophies will be given for first place, second place and consolation winner in the tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boring, Lynne, and Brad of Houston and Mrs. DeWayne Hull will be visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wisely over the holidays. Mrs. Hill will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Womack, of Whiteface.

Doug Corley, who is a student at Texas A&M will spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Johnson and girls of Lubbock visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Price Sunday.

Why more motorists switch to the Tiger when it gets cold.

Many cars that ran just fine all summer get into trouble when ear-muff time rolls around — stalling at stoplights and coughing and chugging halfway into town.

That's when a lot of people switch to the Tiger. Winter-formula Enco Extra gasoline is blended to match the weather conditions in your area — including a special additive to help guard against icing. Result: easier starting, faster warm-up and a lot less worry about stalling.

You'll like the way new Enco Extra behaves on the open road, too. It's the high-energy gasoline with the: (1) cleaning power; (2) firing power; (3) octane power to help preserve the performance of new cars and restore lost power and mileage to many older cars.

Switch to the Tiger and get that nice warm feeling. Happy Motoring!

Ramada winner . . .

THIS WEEK'S winner of a free weekend at a Ramada Inn of her choice is Mrs. J. N. Burnett. Shown with Mrs. Burnett is Dean Jackson, of Jackson Farm and Ranch Store, where she registered. The Ramada contest is sponsored by the merchants of Morton and Whiteface.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allsup and son of Plains and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Washam and children of Lubbock visited Sunday in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allsup.

Planning to spend Thanksgiving Day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allsup are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Washam and children, all of Lubbock.

Peggy Ramsey of Wayland Baptist College, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stokes, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Pinson and his parents of Olton will be guests in the S. A. Ramsey home over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ramsey attended the Beauty Pageant at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview Friday night. Peggy and Sue Ramsey were in the top fifteen.

Town & Country has meeting at Seaglers

The Town and Country Study Club met Wednesday, November

17th in the home of Mrs. Joe Seagler, with Mrs. Charles Bowen assisting.

The theme of the program was "Taking an Active Part in Our Country's Affairs." Roll call was answered by things members were "thankful for."

Mrs. Keith Kennedy was in charge of the program. Mrs. Kennedy explained how the Write Your Congressman Club worked. The club was organized in 1958. Bills that are introduced in Congress are received each month and members are asked for their opinions on a bill and to write your Senators and Representative. Also information is received on how Congress voted for each bill.

Mrs. Connie Gray presided over the business meeting. Members were reminded of the bake sale to raise funds for library books for children. The club voted to give $50 for Area Youth Conference Fund. The club voted to give $10 to the Salvation Army fund.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames A. A. Fralin, Connie Gray, Keith Kennedy, Vernon Blackley, Cheryl Inglis, S. E. Williams, Roy Hill and A. E. Sanders.

Reception to honor Newlyweds

All friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Don Coupland (nee Miss Clara Gail Daniel) are invited to a reception to be held Saturday, November 27. The affair will be held in the Prairie Room of the Wig Wam Restaurant beginning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Naomi McClure left on Wednesday for Amarillo to visit with her son, Wendall A. McClure, over the holidays.

Pep Thanksgiving Festival has full schedule planned

The 20th annual Pep Thanksgiving Festival will be held there Thursday in St. Philip's parish hall.

Meals will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 5 to 8 p.m. There will be more than 2,000 pounds of Pep's famous sausage prepared by men of the church parish, A. J. Sokora is chairman. Women of the church will prepare 30 large turkeys and trimmings. Mrs. A. A. Dueterhaus is chairman.

Throughout the day, there will be carnival attractions for youngsters including games, fish pond, grab bag, a country store and others.

A public dance will be held to close out the day's activities. It will be preceded by the well known cotton auction at 7 p.m.

The Rev. S. Stanley Crochola is general chairman of the traditional festival. The publicity committee includes Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jungman, Mrs. Frank Simmacher, Mrs. J. W. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burt.

The Pep event annually is one of the headline Thanksgiving Day observances on the South Plains. Attendance has been growing through the years. The entire community usually turns out to eat Thanksgiving dinner at the St. Philip's Church.

The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Roberts and family of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Igo of Kermit are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Igo.

Charles Ledbetter of South Plains College and Betty Lou Ledbetter of the University of Texas will visit over the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter.

Well preserved dug-out west of Maple is reminder of this county's history

BUCK SCHEIB
The old dugout sits just off road 54, about two miles west of Maple. It is a simple reminder of how far this area has come in such a short while. When the first residents came to this part of the country, the first dugouts they usually erected were of this type. Then, as they and their progeny prospered, they built more permanent type structures. Actually, this wasn't so very long ago in historical speaking.

About 1937 F. O. Masten bought 6400 acres from the large Camel Ranch about 12 miles northwest of town. He put the entire tract into cotton, and built dugouts for his 450 some odd workers. The remains of these dugouts may be seen today.
When J. B. Carter moved from a farm west of Morton to an adobe in the 400 block of S.W. 7th St., in 1942, he said that the area was full of the ruins of dugouts and that he even had to fill a large one in at the rear of his home so that he could farm the land.

Elvis Fleming, author of "Texas' Last Frontier," and a local history teacher in the Morton school system, was born in a dugout near Maple on August 1, 1939. Fleming's dugout was about a mile and a half west of the one on farm 54 and he can remember his mother taking him to visit "The folks" that lived there.
The old dugout west of Maple is in excellent condition. Actually, it might be termed a half dugout, because about four feet of it has been dug out of the earth, and the top two feet are built above the ground with lumber and adobe. It is about 12' wide and 30' long.
The entrance to the dugout is a small wooden and adobe room about five and one half feet high, above ground. Five stone steps lead down into the earthen part of the dugout.
The walls on the inside of the structure are plastered in adobe. The floor is of dirt that has been tightly packed down. The ceiling has been boarded over and the adobe walls on the inside have been boarded and in some places plastered. Remnants of cheerful wall paper with designs of pine trees and birds can be seen on the walls.
The dugout has one window on the south, and one door on the east. It is a little dim on the inside, but there is no earthy smell. In fact, the air somehow appears to remain fresh, and cool.
Victor Amalla Sr., who has farmed the place for the past 12 years, says that when he first saw the dugout, only the sloping tin roof was sticking out of the sand. He says that he used a tractor with a blade on it to scrape the sand away, and that he scooped the inside out also. Amalla said that he had to replace the outside boards, but the roof and the rest of the dugout is pretty much like he found it.
Amalla says that he still uses the dugout as a sort of a "guest house" and that he sometimes prefers to sleep in it during the hot summer months because it is cool. Amalla says that it also makes an excellent storm cellar.
According to Amalla, the farm that the dugout is built on belongs to D. V. Terrell. According to Elvis Fleming, who was born in a similar dugout near there, Maple residents probably would know the area as the D. Rector place.

Fleming said that at one time a great deal of the land in that vicinity belonged to the Maple Wilson Ranch, and that about 1925 his father and D. Rector and a great many other farmers in the Maple area bought farm land from Wilson.
There is no way to actually determine how old the dug out is. No one in the area can seem to remember just who lived there. Amalla can remember it being there for at least 25 years and he thinks it has been there much longer. Fleming used to go visit the people who lived on the place when he was a very young boy. At that time he says the people had moved out of the dugout and into a frame house and that the dugout looked pretty old even then. This would make it at least 35 years old.
It would be a pretty safe bet that the dugout was constructed about 1925 when the farmers in that area were buying tracts of land from Maple Wilson. This would make it at least 40 years old.
Fleming says the dugout he was born in and lived in was "just like" the one that is preserved west of Maple. He said that he, his two parents, and five other brothers and sisters lived in the dugout until he was in the first or second grade in 1942 or 1943.
The dugout Fleming lived in had three rooms, was about the same size as the one west of Maple, 30' x 12', and had a concrete floor. The walls were plastered and it was fixed so that the water would run away from the dwelling. Fleming said that it "got a little crowded at times" with eight persons living in it.
Fleming's family used a wood stove at first to cook on, and bought coal for it. Later they used another kerosene stove for heat. Water was carried from a windmill in a wooden bucket. The dugout had no electricity until the last two or three years. Fleming lived there. The door of the structure faced the east, and there were three windows each on the north and south.
Farm road 54 now is a smoothly paved road. But Fleming can remember it being a rough, rutted dirt road when he was a young boy. When it was finally graded, he can remember his brothers running along in front of the grader kicking large stones out of its path.
The road might also have some additional historical significance. Fleming's father, when he first came to this part of the country saw rocks with OT painted on them along what is now Farm road 54. OT might possibly stand for the Ozark Trail, which according to Fleming, ran from Arkansas to Oklahoma City, on to Amarillo through New Mexico to Roswell, and then back to El Paso. Fleming said that quite possibly farm 54 could be an offshoot of the Ozark Trail.
Today, modern high speed cars zoom past the old dugout west of Maple on farm 54. But, it still remains as a historical monument to when this country was young, not so very long ago.

Reminder of area's history . . .

THIS DUGOUT, about 40 years old, is a simple reminder of how far this area has come in such a short while. Early Cochran County residents lived in this type of structure when they first came here, and then later built more permanent type homes. The dugout is located about two miles west of Maple, and is in excellent condition.

Scholarship for college expenses now available

Seniors who would like to apply for a Lockheed scholarship, big enough to pay for a full college education, should ask the principal or a science teacher for details, according to Morton High Principal Bill Matthews.

The Lockheed Leadership Fund offers 15 scholarships for qualified high school seniors who plan to start to college next fall.

Scholarships, worth over $10,000, provide: free tuition and basic expenses at a major college or university for a period of four years; $500 a year for personal expenses.

Ten of the scholarships are in the fields of engineering and science. Five are in other fields. The purpose is to help prepare students for scientific and business careers in the most exciting of modern industries, aerospace and electronics.

Applicants will be judged by their leadership qualities, as reflected by school grades and the student's participating in school and community activities.

Any senior who is eligible to start college next fall, may apply. Most colleges have early deadlines, so students are urged to do so right away. Information on the Lockheed scholarship may be obtained in the principal's office at Morton High School.

Miss Daniel is bride of Donald Coupland

Miss Clara Gail Daniel became the bride of Donald Wayne Coupland in a double ring ceremony performed at the First Baptist Chapel, Stephenville, Saturday at 2:00 o'clock. The Rev. Emil V. Becker, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Daniel, Morton and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coupland, Mangum, Oklahoma.

Baskets of white mums and seven branched candelabrum provided the background for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length, white satin gown which swept into a modified chapel train. The bodice featuring a Sabrina neckline was overlaid with Alecon lace sprinkdled with pearls. The long sleeves ended in petal points.

Her veil of illusion was shoulder length and fell from a large white satin cabbage rose. She added a strand of white pearls and carried an arrangement of white orchids and carnations atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Steve M. Middleton, Commerce, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length sheath of dusty rose velvet with matching hat. Her corsage was of white carnations and a white orchid.

J. R. Coupland of La Porte served his brother as best man.

The candles were lighted by Loy Vern Daniel, brother of the bride.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Jerry Martin of Stephenville.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mrs. Lola Booth, aunt of the bride. The bride's table, covered with white lace over dusty rose, featured a three tiered bridal confection topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver and white milkglass appointments were used. Miss Beverly Helms of Littlefield and Miss Cindy Herring, Austin, cousins of the bride, served. Miss Mary Jo Layne, Houston, cousin of the bride presided at the guest register.

Instead of tossing her bouquet to her guests, the bride sent her bride's bouquet to Mrs. C. R. Roberts, Lemon Grove, California, who was unable to attend the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Roberts is the bride's maternal grandmother.

For travel to points East, the bride chose a soft gold suit with dark accessories and wore a white orchid corsage.

The couple will make their home in Houston where she is employed by T.R.W. Systems and he is employed by Brown & Root Construction Company.

MRS. DONALD WAYNE COUPLAND

Y-M Study Club has amendments program

"Constitutional Amendments, Old and New" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Cullen Dansby to the Y-M Study Club Thursday evening. Mrs. James Cogburn served as hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. George Hargrove, president, presided and led the Club Collect as the opening exercise.

A letter from Mr. Marshall Cooper of Gristown was read. In his letter he told of ways a club could be of assistance to Gristown.

In Mrs. Dansby's program she pointed out that the United States is celebrating the 176th birthday of the signing of its constitution. As a background, she told of the colonists coming to America, the reasons for them coming and the type of people they were. After the constitution was drawn up it was nearly three years before the original thirteen states signed. The first ten amendments, The Bill of Rights, were added after the constitutional signing. From that time to the present, twenty-four amendments have been added to the Constitution. The twenty-fifth is now in action.

In closing Mrs. Dansby led the members in reading the American Creed and Mrs. Hargrove led the singing of the Federation Song.

Mrs. Everett Johnston was a guest of the Y-M's. Members present were Mrs. Richard Biggs, Mrs. Fred Weaver, Mrs. Robbie Key, Mrs. Leonard Groves, Mrs. Weldon Wynn, Mrs. Pete Pierce, Mrs. Ray Lanier, Mrs. Dexter Nebhut, Mrs. Jerry Winder, Mrs. Francis Shifflet, Mrs. Kenneth McMasters, Mrs. Dansby and Mrs. Hargrove.

Next meeting will be December 2 in the home of Mrs. Groves.

LaFleur Garden Club to continue Thrift Shop here

The La Fleur Garden Club met in the Thrift Shop at 9:30 Thursday, November 18th for a business meeting.

Mrs. John Daniel became a new member. The club president Mrs. Don Samford, called the meeting to order. It was decided that the Thrift Shop, opened the first of September in the east room of the American Legion Hall, would continue to serve the public for four more Saturdays, then would close until after New Year's. Two officers were appointed for duty, Mrs. Sonny Bedwell, treasurer and Mrs. Sammie Williams as publicity and reports chairman.

Members present were Mesdames D. K. Brock, Herman Bedwell, W. A. Woods, Samford, Roy Hill, Williams, W. T. Cranford, Ray Tucker and Little Miss Tucker and B. H. Tucker.

The next meeting will be December 9th in the Hill home at 2:30 hosted by Mrs. Samford. Candle making and Christmas arrangements will be given by Mrs. Hill.

Wocoha Club holds election of officers

The Wocoha Club met November 16 in the home of Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter with Jean Raindl as hostess.

The following officers were chosen for the coming year. Ginger McCasland, president; Margaret Ledbetter, vice president; Linda McCamish, secretary - treasurer and Dana Webb, reporter.

Other members present were Barbara Brook, Lanya Dolle, and Sharon Davis. Assisting Mrs. Ledbetter as leader, was Mrs. Leonard Davis.

Mrs. Ronnie Smith and Terry Don of Fort Worth visited recently with Mrs. C. B. Earley.

Wesleyan Service Guild convenes at Hofman home

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild met November 8 in the home of Mrs. Don Hofman with the president, Mrs. W. J. Wood, presiding.

W. J. Wood spoke to the ladies concerning volunteers who would accept duties for the Lord's Acre project. Mrs. J. W. Nichols and Mrs. W. G. Freeland agreed to work on the project.

"Paradoxes in the Bible" was the title of the evening devotional given by Mrs. Joe Seager.

Mrs. Fred Stuckdale continued her study "A Christian's Calling." She was assisted by Miss Dorothy McKowen, who gave a synopsis from the study book "Realms of God."

The scripture, Matthew 5, from the New English Bible was read by Mrs. Bob Cross. She presented the author's interpretation of the Beatitudes as they could apply to our daily lives.

The meeting closed with members giving the Guild Benediction in unison.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lesye Silvers, served refreshments to Mrs. Finis Baldrige.

'36 Study Club hears of Sandburg

The 1936 Study Club met Wednesday November 17 in the home of Mrs. C. H. Silvers.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, president, called the meeting to order. Members revealed their likes in literature as they answered roll call with famous quotations by American authors.

Club members voted to contribute $25 towards the Youth Conference lunch. Mrs. Gage Knox reported the conference would be held January 22. Several members volunteered to help with the meal in any way they would be needed.

Twenty dollars was donated by the members to the Community Improvement Project. Other members will bake cakes and pies for the bake sale. All proceeds will go to the County Library.

Mrs. Lloyd Miller and Mrs. Harold Reynolds were accepted by the club as new members.

Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne, the Fe-

Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. Charles Gates, Mrs. J. R. Kuykendall, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Hardy Rhyme, Mrs. Seagler, Mrs. E. O. Willingham, Mrs. R. L. DeBusk, Mrs. Bob Mayon, Mrs. Hessie B. Spotts, Mrs. McKowen and one guest, Mrs. Ethel Montgomery.

deration Counselor, reported on the "Fashions for Fun" contest which is being conducted by the Texas Federation. Awards will be made on local, district and state levels.

A committee was appointed to make recommendations for the outstanding clubwoman of the 1936 Study Club.

Program chairman, Mrs. Glenn Thompson, introduced Mrs. D. E. Benham who gave a most interesting resume of the "Highlights of Carl Sandburg's Life and Works." He was born in Chicago in 1878 to poor Swedish immigrants. At the age of 18 he traveled to the wheat fields of Kansas. He spent most of his early life traveling by freight car and seeing small towns, big cities and the varied types of American life.

Sandburg came to the American scene as a journalist, writing newspaper stories for radical magazines in Wisconsin and Illinois. He later distinguished himself in five fields, poetry, history, fiction, biography and music.

The words written by Carl Sandburg are studied in school classrooms more than the writings of any other American writer. He knew and understood people of all walks of life and wrote about them so his writings wouldn't be just for the intellectual.

Mrs. Benham quoted the famous poem, "Fog" and excerpts from "Chicago" and "The Windy City." Sandburg wrote, "I am the people - the mob - the crowd - the mass. The people, yes."

Members present were Mesdames Neal Rose, Hume Russell, E. B. King, Thompson, Knox, L. Hargrove, M. C. Ledbetter, Doug Brook, James St. Clair, Hawthorne, Cyrus Fields, Benham, J. B. Warner, Bob Ramp and Thompson also one guest, Mrs. Harold Reynolds.

THANKSGIVING

A TIME TO PAUSE...
AND SAY "THANK YOU"

OUR PILGRIM FOREFATHERS conceived Thanksgiving as a day to stop and take stock of all the good things in life. They had, as we do today, a constant threat of upheaval. They too were beset by problems - economic, political - big and small - but they found time, once each year, to thank God and thank each other for all the good things they enjoyed.

WE ARE THANKFUL for the opportunity we have of being part of a thriving community and for you, our friends and customers, whom we are privileged to serve. We pledge our continued efforts to be worthy of your patronage.
