

Educational Center dedicated . . .
 MOST REV. LAWRENCE DeFALCO, Bishop of Amarillo, addressed the large crowd attending the dedication of the new St. Ann's Educational Center here Sunday, praising the parish and pastor for the fine work being done as exemplified by the structure. The blessing and dedication was held in conjunction with the annual convention of Catholic Societies of Spanish Peoples.

Seniors say farewell to high school years

Fond — and nostalgic — farewells are being voiced over the area this week as high school careers for nearly 90 young men and women are brought to successful conclusions.

It is to these young people, who have completed 12 years of schooling, that this edition of The Tribune is respectfully dedicated. It is hoped that it will be treasured as a memoir of happy days; a reminder of friendships made and accomplishments achieved.

Pictured within this issue are 88 graduating seniors from area schools, many of whom are already making plans to further their education by enrolling in colleges or universities. Others will be establishing businesses and homes, or entering into the business world as an employee. Whatever the plans it will be a new and challenging one — for each and every graduate.

This 22 page issue has been made possible through the fine cooperation of business firms and individuals throughout the Morton area, and The Tribune urges that each congratulatory ad be read carefully, for they carry sincere good wishes. Fine cooperation has also been received from the area schools in obtaining for publication in The Tribune the photos of their graduates.

For the seniors, the past weeks have been full to the brim with activities, both school and social. They have been feted by their friends and classmates at home gatherings, have been recipients of many loving gifts, and have participated as honorees at the traditional school banquets.

This week, the majority of the seniors are also being principals in two of the most impressive and solemn observances that comprise the flurry of graduation, as baccalaureate services have been held with all of the religious significance, and commencement programs are conducted, climaxing with the awarding of the coveted diploma.

To all these graduates, the entire area extends congratulations and the very best of good wishes for a bright and worthwhile future.

VEHICLE BID WANTED

Morton post office is seeking bids for a motor vehicle, 1/2-ton panel or comparable, it was announced today by Murray Crone, postmaster. The vehicle must not be over six years old, with seat belts and side mounted rear view mirrors. Information and necessary bid forms may be secured at the post office. Bids will be accepted until Friday, May 27, at 3 p.m., said Crone.

SOME FACTS ABOUT

MILO GRAIN SORGHUM

SEVERAL MYTHS regarding the current grain sorghum situation are developing among some national and area farm and grain trade people. This could be exceedingly damaging to producers and the trade serving them if decisions on future production, marketing or financial plans were to be based on the MYTHS rather than FACTS as reflected in the new grain sorghum statistics just out.

MYTH NO. 1. Government programs causing cutbacks in grain sorghum production is the cause of reduced grain stocks.

FACT NO. 1. Either from the stand point of acreage or bushels, the production of grain sorghum is expanding both in Texas and the Nation—since 1956. Maximum grain sorghum acreage in Texas was 7.6 million in 1958, but production was only 251 million bushels—37 million bushels less than this past year.

Year	Texas		Nation
	Acreage	Production	Acreage	Production
1956	4.7 million	124 mil. bu.	9.2 mil.	224 mil. bu.
1961	5.1 million	229 mil. bu.	10.9 mil.	479 mil. bu.
1965	5.4 million	285 mil. bu.	13.3 mil.	666 mil. bu.

MYTH NO. 2. Exports are the principal drain on current stocks and main cause of reduced carryover and that grain sorghum exports have been unduly increased as compared to other feed grains.

FACT NO. 2. Even with strong promotion efforts, sorghum exports have not increased as fast as corn exports. Corn exports in 1959 were 211 million bushels, in 1965 they were 570 million bushels—up about 3 times. Sorghum exports in 1959 were 98 million bushels, in 1965 they were 200 million bushels, up 2 times. The biggest increased use of sorghum has been in area and other domestic livestock feeding, up from 172 million bushels in 1956 to 435 million bushels now. Over twice as much grain sorghum is fed as is exported.

MYTH NO. 3. There will be a 30% decrease in milo production in 1966, because of the big sign-up.

FACT NO. 3. The number of sorghum acres out of the government program will expand more than acres in the program. With normal weather and usual yield increases, 1966 sorghum production is expected to equal or surpass the 1965 record crop. Feeding and exports will both be up a little more so the carryover may be less and the market strong.

MYTH NO. 4. Increased aid and trade demand an immediate release of sorghum and other feed grain acreage to production, and farmers look only to these increased sales for maintaining or expanding income.

FACT NO. 4. Secretary Freeman said that "Even if food aid is increased, it will have little effect on corn and grain sorghum exports, for hungry nations don't feed livestock." Trade for feed grains will continue to develop at about the same rate as in the past few years. These demands could have a strong effect on sorghum growers in 10 to 15 years—but what about this year's and next year's need for income—with current freight and port situations, it doesn't appear that looking abroad for it is the answer and that keeping some soundness in the administration of current farm programs hold greater promise.

The stated purpose of the current reserve commodity bill which indicates that the principal purpose of a reserve should be to protect consumers against price rises in grain.

GRAIN SORGHUM PRODUCERS—and the related business serving them—are in one of the few growth industries in American agriculture. This doesn't mean we don't and won't have problems! In fact, our very growth rate itself is a problem. As we continue to strive to bring order to this expanding industry let's keep in mind that "God gave us two ends, one to think with and one to sit on. The future of our industry may depend on which we use. 'Heads' we win, 'Tails' we lose."

St. Ann's education center dedicated

The new St. Ann's Education Center, located on NE 8th Street, was formally blessed and dedicated by the Most Rev. Lawrence M. DeFalco, Bishop of Amarillo in ceremonies held Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

The blessing ceremony took place during the 8th annual convention for members of the Catholic Societies of Spanish Speaking Peoples, hosted by the local church.

Present for the ceremonies and convention Sunday in addition to Most Rev. DeFalco were the Very Rev. Matthew Schafle, Littlefield; Rev. Stanley Crocchiola, Pep; Rev. Richard MacLelland, Levelland; Rev. Thomas McGovern, and Rev.

Curtis Halfman, Lubbock; Rev. Alexander Eceiza, Ralls, and Rev. Anthony Gonzales, Plainview. Rev. Lawrence C. Bobsien, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church here, was host.

The convention opened with a special Mass for the delegates at 8 a.m., followed by breakfast and registration. Dinner, prepared and served by members of St. Ann's parish, was from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and the new education center made ready for the Blessing.

Following the blessing ceremony, the Bishop, in a brief speech, praised the people of the parish for the fine work done here.

The people and pastor of St.

Ann's parish are to be highly commended and congratulated for this very beautiful and practical building, said the Bishop. "It is something to be proud of and should help the young students to study and learn all the better things they should and must know about Our Lord", he stated.

General sessions of the convention followed, and the convocation closed with a Concelebrated outdoor Mass and procession of the 1,000 persons who attended.

The convention was the first event to be held in the new Education Center, completed the preceding week. The building was constructed at a cost of $43,388 which included a generous donation from the Catholic Church Extension Society of America.

BUY AN ELECTRIC DISHWASHER

No woman enjoys washing dishes by hand, every day, three times a day, forever and ever. It's time-consuming, messy, monotonous. An Electric Dishwasher can take over the rub-scrub, rinse-and-dry drudgery of doing more than 45,000 dishes a year for you. A dishwasher is so safe and easy to use. It does this time-consuming chore for you—electrically . . . automatically . . . giving you precious EXTRA HOURS for the things you'd rather do.

County 4-H'ers plan electric camp

Cochran County Senior 4-H Club members are now making plans for District II Electric Camp, held each year at Scott Abel, New Mexico.

The Cochran County 4-H'ers, attending the 1965 camp, were selected for the planning committee for 1966. Dates for camp this year are July 18-22.

Delegates on the planning committee from Cochran are Marilyn Cade and Ronald Hale, who, together with delegates from Bailey, Hockley and Lamb County, have planned classes in home lighting, motors, making power plugs and wiring.

Varied program
Tournaments have been selected in table tennis, volleyball and shuffle board, and a baseball game has been planned between the boys and men and a volleyball game between the girls and women. Hikes are also on the agenda, as well as one outdoor meal.

Each county has been assigned to plan recreation for one night. Others counties besides those on the planning committee — 14 in all — will be asked to prepare flag raising and lowering ceremonies and vespers. K. P. duty and cabin clean-up are divided equally.

Plan party
Cochran County will be in charge of recreation Tuesday night, July 19, and "Beach A'Go Go" has been selected as the theme. The party will be given several times to various groups within this county as preliminary practice.

Eight other 4-H'ers, including four boys and four girls from Cochran, will help plan the party and attend camp. They are Dale Burris, and W. C. Dawson from the Whiteface Club; Jan Thomas, Lanita Anglin, Cheryl Fincannon, Bobby Combs, Danny Culpepper, and DeAnna Coats from the Senior 4-H Club in Morton.

Adults attending will be Jennie Allen, Cochran home demonstration agent, and Homer Thompson, Cochran county agent, together with an additional man and woman yet to be selected.

and Lynn French, with Lyndon Henderson and Sheila Corder as second alternates and Eddie Bedwell and Lupe Orozco, third alternates.

Free classes in dressmaking will begin here soon

Free dressmaking instruction classes for beginners as well as experienced seamstresses will be conducted here in June, it was announced today by Mrs. Mable Sanders, high school homemaking teacher.

Classes for advanced students will begin Tuesday, June 7, at 9:30 o'clock in the homemaking department of the high school, Mrs. Sanders said. At this time, Mrs. Martha Schmidt of Lubbock will be present to explain the use of lining and interlinings in tailored and better garments.

The remainder of the week, the classes will meet in the afternoons, Mrs. Sanders said. There is no fee, but students will purchase their own materials.

Beginners will have the opportunity to learn fundamental sewing techniques beginning Monday, June 13, with successive classes scheduled for June 17, 18 and 21. The initial class, June 13, will get underway at 2:30 p.m., Mrs. Sanders said, and women planning to participate in the course are urged to attend this first class before buying fabrics and patterns.

Assisting Mrs. Sanders in teaching the beginner's class will be Jennie Allen, county home demonstration agent.

Deadline here for enrollment in summer school

Deadline for enrollment in summer school classes on both elementary and high school levels is fast approaching, school officials said today.

Principal Bob Travis said that enrollment of students in the third through seventh grade for reading and modern math classes, could not be extended beyond Monday. "We have six students enrolled at the present time", he explained, "and need 14 in order to conduct the courses. We want to encourage all parents to sign up their children right now, in order to insure the program."

Classes are scheduled to begin May 31, and will continue for a period of six weeks. Tuition is $20 per student.

The principal said the courses are not only remedial in nature but also are of the enrichment type for those students desiring to improve their skills in the subjects. Only a few days also remain for high school students to enroll for summer school courses in Texas history and civics, officials report. Both are half credit courses which are set to begin May 30 and continue for six weeks, with students meeting each weekday morning for five hours. Possibility also exists that a course in biology may be offered if more students enroll.

Tuition is $15 for a half credit course, and $30 for a full credit course or two half credit courses.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baldrige visited Mr. Oran Reeves Sr., in the hospital Sunday night.

Swimming pool to be open soon

Plans to open the county swimming pool about June 1 were announced today by Joe Bob Earls, who will manage the pool this summer.

Earls, faculty member of the Bledsoe schools, said the exact date of the opening would depend on the amount of work necessary to prepare the pool, and would be made public in the near future.

Plans are, he reported, to have the pool open seven days a week from 1 p.m. to 6 or 7 p.m. Earls will serve as a life guard, with additional personnel to be secured.

Vacation Bible School plans set by churches

With summer vacation nearly here, plans for the holding of Vacation Bible Schools are being announced by three local churches.

Bible schools at both First Baptist and First Missionary Baptist Church are scheduled to open Monday, May 30, with the Methodist Church to begin its session Sunday, May 29.

According to Rev. Fred Thomas, pastor of First Baptist Church, Vacation Bible School there will continue through June 8, with week-day sessions to be conducted from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Preparation Day will be held Saturday morning May 28, from 10 to 11 o'clock, with commencement to be conducted on the closing night, June 8, at 8 p.m. at the church.

Approximately 50 adult and young people will assist in the teaching, according to Jerry Stamps, minister of Music and Education at First Baptist, who will serve as VBS principal. Last year, over 150 boys and girls enrolled in the Bible school, and a similar number are anticipated to participate in the session planned. Children from three to 12 years of age are invited to attend.

Serving as department superintendents will be Mrs. A. E. Cade, 11-12 year olds; Mrs. Wendel Mason, 9-10 years; Mrs. E. E. Fleming and Mrs. Buddy McGehee, eight years; Mrs. Bobby Smith, seven years; Mrs. Chardyn Inglis, six years; Mrs. Odell Fulton, five years; Mrs. Weldon Newsom, four years; and Mrs. Max Clark, three year olds.

Topics for each department, according to Stamps, will be "Exploring Our Bible", 9-12 year olds; "Meeting Bible Friends", six to eight year olds; "Learning About Jesus", four to five year olds; and "Happy Times Together", three year olds.

Refreshments will be served each day. Stamps said.

Also planned
Vacation Bible School will also be conducted for all Negro children, ages four to 16 years, at the First Baptist Mexican Mission May 30 to June 3. Rev. Fred Thomas will serve as principal, and sessions will be held each day from 8:30 to 11 a.m.

Teachers include Mrs. Keith Kennedy, Mrs. Bud Thomas, intermediates; Mrs. H. B. Barker, Mrs. Kenneth Watts, Mrs. Bill Smith, juniors; Mrs. Harold Drennan, Mrs. Bill Crone, Mrs. S. M. Monroe, Mrs. Ray Griffith, primaries; Mrs. Fred Thomas, Meiba Townsend, Terry Shiffert, Marilyn Cade, Glorietta Gray, Diane Avery, and Karen Rozell, beginners.

"God Lives Today" will be the study theme for each age group. About 80 boys and girls are expected to enroll. Last year, the school was held at New Trinity Baptist Church, but has been moved to the First Baptist Mexican Mission.

Missionary Baptist
At First Missionary Baptist Church, registration will be conducted Friday morning, May 27, at 10 o'clock, with sessions to begin Monday, May 30, and continue through June 3, according to Rev. William Hobson, pastor.

Hours will be from 8:30 to 11 a.m. each day, with the closing program to be presented Friday night, June 3 at 8 p.m. A picnic for all enrolled children has been planned for Saturday, June 4, at the county park.

Superintendent of the VBS will be Mrs. William Hobson. In charge of departments will be Mrs. Kenneth Coats, nursery; Mrs. Donnie Baker, beginners; Mrs. Roy Turney, primary; Mrs. Buford Elliott, junior boys; Mrs. Maurice Lewallen, junior girls; Mrs. Eugene Bedwell, youth. Mrs. Louis Hodge will serve as assistant director and secretary.

Light refreshments will be served daily at recess, with Mrs. Joe Gibson and Mrs. Henry Bedwell in charge.

"Living With Jesus" will be the general theme for the Bible study, Mrs. Hobson said. Pianist will be LaNita Anglin and Rodney Hobson will serve as song leader.

Last year, 192 boys and girls were enrolled in the school, and a similar number are expected to participate this year.

Methodist
Methodist Church will open its Vacation Bible School at First Methodist Church will open Sunday morning, May 29, and continue through Sunday, June 5, it has been reported, with sessions to be conducted from 9:00 to 11:30 each morning. Mrs. Danny Key will serve as director. Further details are not available at this time.

Starter fertilizer answers sought at Hi-Plains farm

Two year research results from the High Plains Research Foundation show that placing nitrogen and phosphate fertilizers in contact with cotton seed at planting reduced plant stand, but increased plant size, boll size, and lint yield, according to Howard Malstrom, Associate Soil Scientist.

Data from many research centers have long indicated that the greatest need for nutrients is in the plant's first three weeks of growth. The major problem in using a starter fertilizer lies in placing close enough to the seed in sufficient quantities for early uptake, and yet avoid the "burning" effect which reduces germination.

Research has pointed to nitrate-nitrogen as being less toxic than ammonium-nitrogen in inhibiting germination. Howard Malstrom reported that two materials were applied in the 1965 test, 100 pounds per acre each of 20-20-0 (nitric-phosphate) and 16-20-0 (ammonium phosphate), metered in with the seed in order to compare the two nitrogen sources. A month after planting, all plots, including the check, received 70 pounds per acre of nitrogen from anhydrous ammonia.

Agronomic data such as plant stand, plant height, and boll counts were taken throughout the growing season. Little difference was observed between the nitric-phosphate and ammonium-phosphate, although they both varied significantly from the check in many aspects. Germination was reduced, compared to the check, in the case of both fertilizers, but the fertilized plants were larger all season, carried more bolls, and surpassed the check in yield, although not significantly.

Malstrom stated that this technique shows great promise and will be studied in more detail in 1966 at the Foundation. The effect on other crops, including grain sorghum, soybeans, and castors will be determined. Fertilizers will include the minor elements, zinc and iron, as well as nitrogen and phosphorus, and will be applied about one inch from the seed in an attempt to overcome reduced germination.

Study grant is awarded Rosson

Tommy Rosson, biology instructor at Morton High School, has been notified that he has been awarded a grant to attend an eight-week institute in biological science at Texas Tech this summer, sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

One of the highlights of the institute will be a two-week botany field trip in High Arctic Biome near Taos, New Mexico.

Rosson, who received his BS degree from West Texas State, is completing his third year as a member of the local faculty. His studies at the institute this summer will be credited towards his master's degree. Rosson said his master's work is based on flora of Bailey County.

Commencement for Bula 8th grade set for tonight

Eighth grade commencement at the Bula School has been scheduled for tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m., it was announced today.

The program will open with the processional, "Clayton's Grand March", by Mrs. John Gunter, followed by the invocation given by H. T. Thomas.

Donna Crume will deliver the salutatory, "A Pause in the March of Education", and Judy Snitker will read the class will. Class history will be given by Iva Clawson, followed by the valedictory by Margaret Richardson.

Coach Risinger will introduce the main speaker, C. W. Dukes, and awards and announcements will be made by Supt. M. J. McDaniels. The program will conclude with the school song, benediction by H. W. Whittenburg, and the recessional.

Still time to enroll children in "Head Start"

Enrollment is still open in Project Head Start, reported Principal Bob Travis today, and applications are currently being taken at his office from parents who qualify and wish to enroll their children in the new program.

Project Head Start, to be conducted here for the first time this summer, is an eight week program for boys and girls residing in the county who are five and six years of age. Eligibility for participation is based upon the degree of economic disability of the family. There is no charge to the family.

A maximum of 40 children can be enrolled in the program under the federal grant of $8,318 which has been approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

MOD meeting to be held Monday

Election of a campaign chairman to head up the annual fund drive of the National Foundation's March of Dimes will be the major business to be transacted at a meeting this Monday night, it was reported by Kenneth Thompson, county chapter chairman.

The fund drive is annually conducted by the Foundation's volunteer workers in January. Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, who is a state advisor of the National Foundation, will also show slides, "Five Facts in Five Minutes."

The public is not only invited but urged to attend the session, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the PCA building.

Alamo Gin

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF '66 GRADUATES!

Thomas Carlyle said: "An educated man stands, as it were, in the midst of a boundless arsenal and magazine, filled with all the weapons and engine which man's skill has been able to devise from the earliest time."

Applying these words to the American scene they become more important than when written. More than ever before in the world's history, it is the educated man and woman, the trained young people, who will find themselves working and participating members of an exciting society in the next few decades.

If you take advantage of the opportunities offered young people today, you will, as Carlyle indicated, stand in a boundless arsenal, equipped to meet the problem of the future as an individual.

That is why your graduation is so important. You have completed a part of your education and training, but it must not stop. You must seek more education and training if you are to find a place for yourself in the era of great technological change now taking place in this country.

We urge you to prepare yourself to the full degree of your ability.

And now we join your family, friends and the entire community in wishing each of you well in whatever endeavor you may plan for the future.

Through the telescope by LUCK
I feel sorry for those folks who were out of town Saturday. They missed Spring this year! At least, that might have been the end of it as temperatures soared Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to record levels. Truly, summer is here.

Farmers have been busy the last few days planting their cotton and milo. Most of the planting is expected to be finished by the end of the week, since, as one farmer put it, "No more acres than we can plant, it sure doesn't take long to get it all in."

We had an interesting visit with Adell Thomas of Haskell here Tuesday. He was talking about the uniform cotton planting day that started in Haskell last year and how it eliminated nearly all the bollweevils. Down there, they will all try to plant on Monday, May 23. In fact, he said that one farmer was going to be gone and asked a neighbor to plant for him this week. The neighbor refused, saying "I wouldn't dare. The other farmers would skin me alive if I planted before the day." Idea for the uniform planting day started over around Memphis and has been very successful.

Browsing around the County Activity building this week, we noticed the labels on a three-tiered desk tray on Budd Fountain's desk in the Soil Conservation office. The trays were tagged: Urgent, Frantic and Panic!

Still in the building, we noticed that there were two electric clocks, one above the other, in the Farmers Home Administration office. This seemed a little extravagant until secretary Sue Travis gave us the explanation. The larger clock was issued recently by the FHA for the office and is used only for telling time. The other clock is a smaller model with an alarm. I thought Sue was going to tell me the alarm was to remind her of coffee break time, but she said it was to remind her that the bank was about to close.

1966 in Cochran County may go down in history as the year of "The Great Bear Hunt". At least, things are shaping up that way as two reliable reports have been received during the past few days of a bear roaming around south of Morton. In honesty, we must report that the bear is said to be a small one and we are unable to verify its existence as yet. But a farmer and a local youth both have told of seeing the critter south of Lehman, in the vicinity of the roadside park that is just north of the National Sulphur plant. Most people who have heard about it seem to think it is a small brown honey bear that was brought back from the mountains and raised as a pet until it got too large, then was turned loose.

Monday was an interesting day. Returning from a shuttle run to Denver City, we broke an exhaust pipe on the small Tribune car. It sounded so powerful, almost left it that way. Later in the day, our personal car was involved in a minor collision that left it with drooping eyeballs, Monday evening, we were persuaded to get the air conditioner going, which involves crawling around in a hot, dusty attic for a time. But the action was successful, discounting one small faucet drip, and that's way above our usual score for "handymanning". It also resulted in a smug report that our rooftop survey showed the Tucks were ahead of 75 per cent of the neighborhood in getting the air conditioner running for the summer. I just hope we don't have another 35 degrees like we had last week, which would call for a second attic trip to cut off the cooler and firing up of the heater.

This is the week that is marked in red for the schools and particularly for the students, who have been counting the days for more than a month. We would like to extend our congratulations to the seniors from Morton, Whiteface, Bula, Bledsoe and Three Way and urge them to live up to the promise of their future.

"Hooray", "Best Wishes" we say To all the seniors on their day. For you, a wonderful world awaits, So be the masters of your fates.

Stockdale School ends with review, outing

The last to day's schedule of the Stockdale School will be Work day on May 19 when the 10 field trips will be reviewed, along with sounds, numbers, numeral sets, classification and category games. May 20 is family picnic day at the County Park. All little brothers and sisters are invited.

Bula annual is book of fond memories

Bound between the covers of the attractive yearbook of the Bula High School is the pictured memory of a year of activities for students. The annual, with white leatherette cover adorned with black etched drawing of a bulldog, and the year on a maroon stripe crossed by the annual's named in large black letters, was delivered recently to the student body.

Responsible for the school annual are Gordon McDaniel, Kenneth Overland, Barbara Autry, Lana Aduddell, Jo Linda Robertson, Nelda Seagler, Brenda Clawson, Dennis Turney, and Sammy Nichols, editor. FHA and FTA chapter officers are also shown.

High school cheerleaders are featured in a page picture, as well as Pep Squad for high school and Junior high. High school favorites are revealed as: Lana Aduddell and Dennis Turney, seniors; Marilyn McCall and Randal Robertson, juniors; Joyce Sowder and Dennis Newton, sophomores; and Patricia Grusendorf and Randy Aduddell, freshmen.

This year's "Bulldog" was dedicated to the parents of the students, and carried an "in memoriam" to the memory of Jean Archer, cook at Bula for 12 years. Senior section includes photos of each class member, together with an account of activities, and a page summary of the 12 years of school activities for the graduates. There is also the class prophecy and will.

Organizations are featured in another section. National Honor Society members are shown, including Sammy Nichols, president; Gordon McDaniel, vice president; Juana Young, party chairman; Marilyn McCall, parliamentarian; Lana Aduddell, treasurer; Betty Salzer, secretary; Barbara Autry, secretary and Brenda Clawson, reporter. New members installed included Joyce Sowder and Mike Richardson.

Miss Barbara Autry is pictured as Homecoming Queen, and Jo Linda Robertson and Kenneth Overland as Miss and Mr. B.H.S. Patricia Grusendorf and Mike Richardson are featured as most dependable; Elaine Tiller and Sammy Nichols as most courteous; Lana Aduddell and Kenneth Overland as most popular; Dennis Turney and Jo Linda Robertson as best all-round; Lana Aduddell and Mike Richardson, most likely to succeed; Barbara Autry and Kenneth Overland, personality plus; Lana Aduddell and Randy Aduddell, most attractive; Barbara Autry and Kenneth Overland, friendliest; Brenda Clawson and Randal Robertson, typical teenagers; Nelda Seagler and Kenneth Overland, wisest; Barbara Clawson and Dale McFadin, quietest.

Thompson has data on tech institute opening this fall

The James Connally Technical Institute, a part of the Texas A&M University System, will offer courses in 15 areas of study when its doors open for the first time in September.

The Institute was created by an act of the Texas Legislature in April 1965. The legislation authorized the Board of Directors of Texas A&M University to establish "a coeducational institution . . . which may offer courses of study in vocational and vocational-technical education for which there is a demand within the State of Texas."

Information on the new educational facility, located near Waco, is now available at the offices of all county agents. According to County Agent Homer E. Thompson agents have been supplied with a copy of the Institute's general catalog for the 1966-67 session.

Thompson said the instructional programs of the Institute are designed for training and retraining youth and adults so they may join the state and nation's work force as skilled workmen or technicians. A major objective of the Institute, he added, is to provide occupational training needed by Texas business and industry and for which there is sufficient demand by students.

The county agent said that persons desiring to enroll must submit applications for admission. High school graduates can be admitted as regular full time students. Mature individuals who have not graduated from high school will be permitted to register if they furnish evidence that their preparation is substantially the same as required of other applicants and have the ability and desire to profitably pursue their desired course of study.

Y M Club has called meeting

The Y-M Study Club met in a called session on Monday, May 16, in the home of Mrs. Jerry Winder. Mrs. Kenneth McMaisters called the meeting to order. The club voted unanimously to elect Mrs. Bill Smith to membership. A surprise party was held following the business to honor Mrs. Bill Matthews and Mrs. James Cogburn, who are moving. They were presented engraved disc pins as gifts.

Refreshments of cake, cookies, Coke and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames Richard Biggs, Garnett Bryan, Leonard Groves, Ray Lanier, George Hargrove, Robbie Key, Kenneth McMaisters, Dexter Nebhut, Francis Shiftlett, David Stowe, Fred Weaver and the honorees.

Reception held to honor teacher

Mrs. Lolita Hovey, fourth grade teacher in the Morton schools, was honored at an informal reception Wednesday afternoon by elementary school teachers and administrators. The reception was held in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Hovey was presented with a shoulder corsage, and a remembrance gift of a gold school bell, suitably inscribed. Light refreshments were served. The honoree is completing her second year in the local school system, and is retiring from the teaching field after 32 years in public school service. Mrs. Hovey plans to continue to make Morton her home.

Major Doyce Black is visiting in Morton while on leave from the Air Force in California. Mr. and Mrs. Will Oden and daughter, Sherry Jo, of Phoenix, Ariz., left Tuesday to return to their home after visiting since last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Elra Oden. The men are brothers.

Sheriff's posse wins first place

Cochran County Sheriff's Posse brought home another trophy for the already bulging trophy case when the group was judged first place winner at the ENMU rodeo and parade May 7 at Portales.

The sheriff's posse from Clovis, New Mexico, received second. Riders in the local unit included Rob Richards, Sharon Tucker, Mrs. John Fried, Jack Bates, Harold Reynolds, Herb Hillman, Bert Eads and Nona Eads.

The group is scheduled to participate in the rodeo and parade at Lockney today (Thursday).

Cheese and cheese dishes should be cooked very slowly. Fast or high temperature makes cheese tough and rubbery.

Wilton Green now in Hereford

Wilton Green, formerly with the Soil Conservation Service here, assumed new duties this week as work unit conservationist for the SCS in Hereford.

Green transferred from Morton to Del City, about 90 miles from El Paso, where he has been located until his present new assignment.

He has been with the soil conservation service for about seven years, since February of 1959 when he began work at Muleshoe. After two months there, he was transferred to Levelland for two years, then to Morton where he remained for a three-year period.

A graduate of Texas Tech, he received his degree in agronomy

Bula seniors on trip . . .

HAPPY MEMORIES of a fun-filled week's trip are lingering with seniors at Bula High School, who returned Saturday after traveling to Brownwood, Austin and Galveston.
In Austin, they visited the state capital and other points of interest, and in Houston toured the Astrodome and Space Center. Students stayed at the Seahorse Hotel on Galveston Island, enjoying deep sea swimming and fishing. Shown at the hotel is the group.

Drylot cows produce longer than pasture cows, current tests show

Cows living in the confinement of a dry lot are staying productive longer than their pastured cousins in a scientific study at the Rolling Plains Livestock Research Station, according to information received by Homer Thompson, county agent.

Only 26 head of the original 36 head turned to pasture remain in the herd, says Station Superintendent Paul Marion, while 32 head of the original 36 put in drylot are still productive.

Part of the difference between the two groups may be a result of pure chance, according to the Texas A&M University researcher.

Both herds are part of 80 Hereford heifers purchased from the Waggoner Ranch at Vernon, Texas. They went into the drylot-versus - pasture experiment in May 1959.

Since then, five of the pasture cows have died, three have been sold because of cancer eye and two were sold because they were barren, Marion said.

Only one of the drylot cows has died, Marion said three have been sold — one with cancer eye, one with a hip injury and one which was barren.

"Apparently more things happen to cows in pasture," Marion said.
"For instance, eye irritation is greater on pasture and this may have caused two cows to get cancer eye while only one got it in the lot."

The pioneering drylot - pasture comparison first started as a project to learn more about the nutritional requirement of beef cows, Marion said.

Limited range forced the scientist to put one of the herds in drylot and the comparison between the two management systems has gotten more attention than the findings on beef - cow nutrition, Marion said.

Without considering longevity of production, the pasture cows have made a higher profit per head than the drylot cows, under the experimental conditions at the Texas A&M station.

But he believes modifications in the drylot system would make it highly competitive with traditional beef production systems.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Marshall over the weekend were his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell from Austin. Mrs. Mitchell also visited her father, W. O. Marshall. Also visiting in the T. D. Marshall's home over the Mother's Day weekend were their son and family,
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Marshall,
Mark and Gregory, from Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allsup were visited by their daughter, Mrs.
Glenda Washam and children Mike, Kim, Lance and Carla, over the weekend.

Over 400 at reception—

Rep. Jesse T. George honored

Well over 400 persons attended a reception in Brownfield Monday night in honor of State Rep. Jesse T. George, climaxing an officially proclaimed "Jesse T. George Day" in Terry County.

The crowd proved too large for the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs.
H. C. Hinson, and the event was moved to the outdoor patio where the honoree was publicly lauded for his outstanding record as a legislator and predictions were enthusiastically made for a bright and promising future.

The occasion was attended by many dignitaries, and hundreds of telegrams, letters and phone calls were received by the honoree throughout the day and evening.

Ben Barnes, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, made the trip to Brownfield from Austin by plane in order to personally laud the legislator before "home folks." Barnes, in addressing the group, said "The pages of history will reflect the name of Jesse T.
George on many occasions", and touched briefly on the many honors and recognitions already received by the honoree as well as the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow lawmakers.

Other distinguished guests included Sen. H. J. Blanchard and Mrs.
Blanchard of Lubbock, as well as city and county dignitaries from Terry and other areas, and telegrams of best wishes were received from Gov. John Connally, Lieut.
Gov. Preston Smith, U. S. Congressman George Mahon, Attorney General Waggoner Carr, Sen. Jack Hightower, and many other notables.

The entertaining rooms of the Hinson home were highlighted with elaborate floral arrangements with pictures or mementoes of the honored guest as focal points. Two full walls were covered with news clippings and memorabilia, chronicling George's legislative career as well as his outstanding record in Texas Jaycees and other activities.

Upon the fireplace mantle, a prediction of the future was the spotlighted replica of the Nation's Capitol, made of stitched white felt on a green background, and topped by glittered numbers "1984" above which waved the American flag. A glittered white felt pathway, emblazoned with "A Goin' Jesse—by George" extended from the floor to the Capitol.

For the brief program, Marge
Williams, president of the Terry County Women Democrats, extended a welcome and Mayor C. E.
Ross read the official proclamation which was then presented to George.

Howard Hurd, Terry County
Democratic chairman, introduced Sen. Blanchard, who in turn introduced Speaker Barnes.

Following Barnes talk, George gave a brief but heart-felt thanks in an emotion-charged voice, describing the event as the highlight of his career, and saying "I feel this is the highest honor that ever could be paid a public official . . .
everyone of the five counties in my district have made me feel I could make it a 'home' county". He expressed his deep appreciation to the Terry County Democratic Women, hosts for the event, to news media, to the Redcoats of the Chamber of Commerce who served as official welcoming committee, and to all those who had honored him by their presence.

Those long in political circles in West Texas termed the large attendance at the reception "unprecedented" and commented on the overwhelming gesture of appreciation, endorsement and confidence extended to the young legislator who has just completed his first term in public office.

George, recently elected State
Vice President of the Texas Jaycees, was guest of honor Monday noon of Brownfield Jaycees at a noon luncheon, and was interviewed by Radio Station KKUB both morning and afternoon. Individuals also appeared throughout the day before the KKUB microphone to make volunteer testimonials.

Some 20 Cochran Counties were present for the reception, and all five counties in Rep. George's district were represented by large delegations.

Rites held for former sheriff of Cochran County

Funeral services for Herman Crockett, former sheriff of Cochran County, were conducted Tuesday afternoon in First Methodist Church at Ellinwood, Kansas. Burial was made in the Ellinwood Cemetery.

Crockett who served as sheriff in 1948-50, died early Sunday of an apparent heart attack in Ellin-wood, where he had lived since 1954, while driving a pickup truck which then struck a utility pole.

A deputy for two years before becoming sheriff in the county, Crockett had worked as deputy in Borger and Stinnett prior to coming to Cochran. At the time of his death, he was employed by an oil company in Ellinwood.

Survivors include his wife, Lois;
four children, Herman, Body, Raydy, Twila and Mrs. Pat Raven-stein, all of the home; three sisters, Mrs. R. P. McCall, Enoch, Mrs. Mattie Lou Bridges, Abilene; and Mrs. Virginia Moudy, Ein-wood; and his mother, Mrs. Nath Crockett of Morton.

County Agent's Comments

County Agent's Comments

By HOMER E. THOMPSON
Rats are expensive

It isn't so much what they eat, but what they waste because of their filthy and living habits.

A single rat may actually eat only about $10 worth of grain of feed but will destroy 10 times as much. These pests need food, water and shelter and around the farm it is almost impossible to remove these necessities. They can, however, be discouraged if good housekeeping practices are carried out.

Clean up and straighten up all farm buildings. Abandoned implements, discarded building materials and rubbish piles make excellent homes for rats. Crop residues should be spread on fields or burned. Grain storage bins should be rat-proofed and all grain spilled outside the bin should be swept up. Weeds and tall grass should be cleared away from all buildings and kept mowed during the growing season.

Leaky hydrants often supply all the water needed by rats. Water troughs should not be allowed to overflow to further curtail water supplies for the rodents.

After a thorough cleanup campaign, the next step is baiting. Rat baits are a good supplement to good housekeeping. Rats must eat baits if they are to be effective. If grain or other foods are available, getting them to take the baits may be a problem.

Baiting stations should be placed where they are easy for the rats to get but difficult for other animals or pets to find. The anticoagulant baits are effective and relatively safe.

The 4-H Clubs of Cochran County have the bait for sale in the county agent's office. See Mrs. Hudson, Secretary.

Cotton insects
Cotton insects can be economically controlled by the use of recommended insecticides at the correct time.

In order to assist cotton producers in their fight against insect pests, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has released the 1966 "Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects" and copies are available at the offices of all county agents in cotton producing counties.

Copies of the revised guide are now ready for distribution from the county agent's office to any interested cotton grower for the High and Rolling Plains and the Trans-Pecos areas.

The guide not only lists the recommended chemicals but also the amounts of each needed for insect control. Advice and suggestions are also given on the safe use of insecticides.

Recommendations in the guide are based on the results of continuing research conducted over the state by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Entomology Research Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The cotton insect control program for 1966 includes three phases: namely, early season control which insures early fruiting and maturity in certain areas; late season control which insures continued fruiting and fruit protection and early stalk destruction and farm cleanup which reduces overwintering populations of boll weevils, pink bollworms and tobacco budworms.

Cotton growers are advised to inspect their cotton fields to determine the degree of infestation and to check for such pests as aphids and spider mites which may influence the choice of insecticides before applying an insecticide.

Additional information on cotton insects as well as those which attack most of the farm grown crops and pastures may be secured at the county agent's office.

Only one rural traffic mishap in county in April

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of April according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

This crash resulted in one person injured and an estimated property damage of $1,000.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1966 shows a total of six accidents resulting in no persons killed, five persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $2,590.00.

Higher pay, more opportunities, and a chance to choose the geographical area of the state where they will be assigned are featured items in the Texas Department of Public Safety's bid this month for more than one hundred new patrolmen. "The pay during the training has been increased from $375 to $400 per month and upon graduation increased to $468 or $484, depending upon the branch of service to which the patrolman is assigned," the Sergeant stated.

Applications and information can be obtained by contacting any Department of Public Safety patrolman or office. June 6 is the deadline for accepting applications for the examination to qualify men for the August 9 training school.

Time to apply insecticides for grubworm control

Now is the time to apply insecticides to the lawn for the control of grubworms.

White grubs are the larvae (worm stage) of the hard-shelled May or June beetles. They live in the soil and feed on grass roots. Damage shows up in late April and May as brown, dead spots in the lawn.

Four insecticides, aldrin, heptachlor, dieldrin and Chlordane, used either as sprays or as granules will give good control. If an emulsified concentrate form of the insecticide is used, it should be mixed with water to give the recommended strength for the material. If the granular form is used, it can be applied to the lawn as it comes from the package.

Because of the different formulations available persons interested in treating their lawns for grub control that they come by County Agent's office for a free copy of L-199, "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants." Detailed information on mixing and applying the insecticides for grub control are outlined as well as the control measures for many other insect pests.

If the insecticides are used during periods of short rainfall, it will be necessary to water them in. Where insecticides are watered-in, children or pets should be kept off the lawn until it is dry.

The agent has other information available at his office on many subjects of interest of home gardeners and flower growers.

Freshman Horizon Club ends its year

The Freshman Horizon Club concluded the year's program with a meeting Monday, May 18, in the home of Mrs. Rodney Fralin. Miss Karen Rozell introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Kenneth Thompson, lab technician at Morton Memorial Hospital. Mr. Thompson spoke on the Campfire Law "Hold on to Health."

Mr. Thompson talked on some of the dread diseases as leukemia, other forms of cancer and tuberculosis. He explained some of the research being done and some preventive steps to take. Mr. Thompson also cautioned the girls about visiting sick patients in a hospital. He told the girls this was one of the easiest and fastest ways of spreading sickness.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served by Mrs. Fralin to the following: Carol Freeland, Karen Fred, Deborah Miller, Karen Rozell, Janella Nehbut and Mrs. Daniel Rozell. Also to Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. Loy Kern and Mrs. Bill Foust of the Elmlea Smith Jun-

Morton clubwomen are honored at TFWC convention in Lubbock

Clubwomen played key roles at the 68th convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, May 10-12 in Lubbock, receiving awards and actively participating in convention arrangements. The Emlea Smith Study Club earned a place citation for its work in promoting "Healthy Babies", as well as the "Jewels" honored Mrs. Jonas Salk. Mrs. LeRoy Johnson presented the awards to winners, on behalf of the National Foundation. Mrs. Bob Polvado received a place state award for Continuous Reporting, and Mrs. Sam Williams and Mrs. Roy Hill, Town and Country Study Club, among the "Jewels" honored the Diamond Jubilee reception. Mrs. Johnson was presented the award for organizing the 68th clubs in Texas during the Jubilee term, 1964-66, and was installed as second vice president of Caprock District. Mrs. Brownlow of Emlea Junior Club is the new Junior Director for the District. Bobby Travis and Mrs. W. McSpadden, L'Allegro Study Club members, were in charge of decorations throughout the convention, and Mrs. McSpadden also assisted with the Crafts and Style Show presentation. A Morton clubwoman served as hostess at each table at the Wednesday night dinner, at which some 700 Texas clubwomen were present. The convention opened with a dinner for state board members at KoKo Inn, Tuesday, May 10. Junior clubwomen met the following morning for breakfast and awards, and to hear Mrs. E. D. Pearce, Miami, Fla., incoming president of GFWC, as she brought an address. Among the 85 Juniors present were Emlea Smith Study Club members Mrs. Loy Kern, Mrs. Gary Willingham, Mrs. James Walker, president, and Mrs. Clyde Brownlow, Caprock Junior Director. Incoming officers of Caprock District were installed by Mrs. Pearce, and in addition to Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Brownlow of Morton, included Mrs. Louis Cummings, Plainview, president; Mrs. Layne Decker, Floydada, first vice president; Mrs. Joe Taylor, Lockney, third vice-president. Caprock District won five first place awards at the state meeting, one second and one third. Top awards were in the Musical Penny Fund, Pennies for Art, Latin American Scholarships, Texas Clubwoman Subscriptions and Four Quarters for Headquarters. The district earned a second in Koran Village Homes project, and a third in reporting. Local club members attending included: Town and Country Study Club—Mrs. Joe Seagler, president; Mrs. Connie Gray, Mrs. A. A. Fralin, Mrs. Weldon Newsom, Mrs. Bill Hovey, Mrs. W. L. Foust, Mrs. Keith Kennedy, Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, Mrs. Sammie Williams, Mrs. Roy Hill, and Mrs. Don Samford. Elma L. New construction at SPC announced

A new $234,000 girls' dorm is under construction at South Plains College, Levelland, scheduled for completion in time for the 1966-67 fall semester, announced Dr. Marvin L. Baker, college president. Taylor Construction Company of Lubbock is the contractor. The new U-shaped dorm will house sixty-four girls, and will be located just south of Sue Spencer Hall. Bids for the proposed library will probably be received in approximately sixty days, and as soon as it is completed and the present library stock is moved, construction is expected to begin on the proposed enlargement of the student center and cafeteria.

IN NEED OF Specialized HELP

The car's acting up... sometimes he can repair minor problems himself... but this time it looks like it may require the work of a specialist. To correct this problem he needs a mechanic, someone who has the knowledge and equipment for this particular work.

In spiritual matters, individual worship is necessary and vital to one's life, but God in his wisdom has said that we need to worship with others too. At church we can receive help from those who have dedicated their lives to special service for God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

It was just yesterday . . .

A moment of recall before graduation

(Editor's Note: The following story was written by A. N. Wall of Morton as a salute to all of the parents who have children, and particularly daughters, graduating from high school this month. We hope you enjoy reading it as much as we did.)

By A. N. WALL

There she was, just a squirming, wrinkled little thing. "Hi there, kid," I said. This was the way my newborn baby girl and I were introduced. Well, I can say right now I never really got to know her. Before I realized it she had become a lovely stranger that lived under my roof.

When she was four years of age I became certain of one thing and that was she could out-smart me. When she was six I was positive she was a little witch, and many times I stood off to one side and eyed her. By now she had learned that a tantrum would only bring on a spanking, that sulking would be received in silence, and that by walking over and taking my hand she would be forgiven.

"Oh, Hello Dad." Now she is ten. I made up my mind to give her more attention. Well, what will I say to her? You know something? She can throw a ball like a big league pitcher. She can swing herself up into a tree like an acrobat on a high bar. Maybe I ought not to say this, but the other day I saw her carry a football to a touch-down to the disgust of a lot of little boys.

The thing I can't understand is — well confound it — she slouches around the house with blue jeans on and her shirttail hanging out. Her hair is over her eyes and ears. It's no wonder at times she can't see or hear me. You know something? She eats up everything in the house. Because of her we buy groceries everyday. Something else. It's impossible to read the paper when she has the radio blaring rock and roll. If it isn't the radio, she is standing in the doorway shouting at some kid way down the street.

"Hi daddy." I have just parked the car in the driveway. It is a beautiful Spring evening. She is standing in the yard by a rambling rose bush. Unconsciously I shut the ignition switch off and then I just sit there and watch her. Her hair is waved back and combed down in a modern day teenage style. It certainly does one thing for her, it shows the kid is a young lady. She is looking at the roses and I can tell she is thinking seriously of something.

I wonder what it could be. Maybe college? A tennis game? A car ride with a bunch of friends? A boy? Oh, of course not. Marriage? Now wait a minute. She is just a kid. Daggum it. I will have a talk with Mom about her. Now she is walking slowly towards me and without a word she takes my hand. Together we enter the house, this wonderful person, this stranger that lives under my roof.

"She graduates tonight. Please try and get home early this evening." It's Mom talking.

Who graduates? That kid? It was only yesterday — or was it — I had to crawl under the house and rescue her when she got stuck. But here I am in from work early. "Oh, there you are Daddy. How do I look?"

She just seemed to glide into the room. A vision of loveliness. She stands before me and suddenly I'm sitting straight in my chair and staring at her. Without realizing

I had laid my newspaper down. She had on a — well — I guess they call it a formal — a sort of a white creation. Her wavy hair touched her shoulders. She is standing there, looking at me, wide-eyed, wanting my approval. She's gotten so tall. I look down at her feet expecting to see them in old battered tennis shoes. She is wearing dainty pointed slippers. Of course she knows what to do where I am concerned. She knows I can't find the right words so she just leans over and kisses me. Ah, that crazy kid, this gorgeous stranger that lives under my roof. Let's see now — yea — she is eighteen.

"She will leave for college on this afternoon's train. Will you drive her to the station?" It's Mom again.

She sits in the front seat with me. I remembered when she used to stand up in the seat and I would place an arm around her to steady a jumping-up-and-down little girl. I drive without saying a word and I look straight ahead. Eventually I steal a glance at her. She looks very serious. She is dressed so proper, so well groomed with just the right amount of perfume on. Don't tell me that it was this beautiful person who once got hung up in the fork of a tree and scared all the neighbors by her unending screams. You know all those milkshakes didn't seem to hurt her figure. Maybe it was that twist dance she was always doing in the kitchen that kept her trim. You know something? I'm going to miss her around the house, especially the shrieking of the rear tires when she backs out of the driveway. At least I will get to use the phone once in a while.

Well Dad?" I stand before her at the railroad station and tell myself if I am ever going to say anything now is the time. The train whistle sounds off and the conductor yells, "All aboard."

I look down at my shoes and the people about me. Daggum it, I can't look into her eyes. I blurt out like a fool, "Kid, you take care of yourself." Now wasn't that silly? Course she will take care of herself.

She smiles a bit, then, "Dad?" She is in my arms. She mimics me, "You know something? You're a great Dad." Then she is on the train and finds a seat by a window where she can look down at me. She raises the window then, with a smile, gives me a wave.

I say it then and I say it real loud, "Daggum it kid, I'm sure proud of you."

She winks at me and blows me a kiss. The train is pulling away. Us Dads are dumb, aren't we. Just downright dumb. We raise these lovely creatures and never do understand them.

Whiteface senior class visits top Colorado scenery

Members of the Senior Class of Whiteface High School, Whiteface, Texas, visited Colorado's famed Royal Gorge on their recent tour.

It was the highlight of a trip that included Mt. Manitou Incline, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, Van Briggle Pottery, Garden of the Gods, Seven Falls, Miracle House, Ghost Town, Pikes Peak and the U. S. Air Force Academy, all in Colorado Springs; the Colorado State Penitentiary in Canon City; as well as other points of scenic and historic interest in and around Colorado Springs and Canon City.

At the Royal Gorge, they crossed the world's highest bridge (1,100 feet above the roaring Arkansas River), rode the world's steepest incline railway (100 percent grade) and viewed some of Colorado's most magnificent scenery.

Sponsors on the tour were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moseley and Mr. Charles Booz.

Students were Connie Cumpton, Diane Linder Judy Wemken, Sibyl Tilley, Amado Alaniz, Mike Howard, Dennis Martin, Robert Pond, Gen Dale Pearson and Loyd Strother.

Texas oil men drilled 13,152 wells in 1964, or 29.1% of U.S. drilling.

Bledsoe baccalaureate, graduation dates set

Bledsoe High School has been scheduled for Sunday night, May 22, and graduation for Tuesday night, May 24, it was announced today by Supt. Otis Parr. Both events will begin at 8:15 p.m. and will be held in the school auditorium.

Rev. C. R. Smelser, pastor of Bledsoe Methodist Church, will give the sermon at baccalaureate, and will be introduced by A. A. Chandler, high school principal. Supt. Otis Parr will speak briefly, and special music will be presented by Mrs. Charles McCormack, Clide McCormack, Mrs. Ed Young and Mrs. Rex Griffiths. Devotional will be by Mr. Buford Ward, pastor of Bledsoe Baptist Church. Processional and recessional will be furnished by Mrs. Clide McCormack.

Dave Shields will serve as master of ceremonies for the graduation ceremonies, with invocation to be by C. R. Smelser, Larry Buchanan will present the salutatory address, followed by special vocal music by Mrs. Loretta McCormack, Tom Williams, Clide McCormack and Rev. Dale M. Ward.

Class prophecy will be read by Chris Box, and class history by Billy Bryant. Principal A. A. Chandler will be in charge of presentation of awards, and Supt. Parr will present the graduating class. Diplomas will be awarded by Rex Griffiths, president of the school board.

Valedictory address will be given by Adrian King. The program will conclude with benediction by Rev. Dale M. Ward, and processional and recessional will be by Mrs. Beatrice McCormack.

Class motto for the Bledsoe 1966 seniors is "Keep Climbing Higher on the ladder of success." The red rose is the class flower, and class colors are blue and white. Class sponsors are Mrs. C. E. King and Raymond Adams.

Serving as ushers and usherettes for baccalaureate and commencement will be JoAnn Shields, Benny Rawls, Janice Buchanan, Linda Thoms, Karen King, Velton Funk, Pauline Knox, Steve Dunn, Brenda Hall, Linda Brown, JoJack Garza and Linda Burns.

Members of the graduating class are all boys this year. They are Adrian King, Larry Buchanan, Billy Bryant, Dave Shields and Chris Box.

The group returned Saturday from a week-long senior trip, traveling to New Orleans and Galveston for sight seeing, visiting the Astrodome in Houston where they saw the Astros play Atlanta, and enjoying Six Flays Over Texas at Dallas.

Annual junior-senior banquet was held May 6 at the Wig Wam in Morton, with a graduation theme being used for decorations. Bill Shackelford of Whiteface was the guest speaker, and Pauline Knox was mistress of ceremonies. Joining the graduates for the event were the two members of the junior class, Miss Knox and Jo Ann Shields.

TEACHER RESIGNS

One teacher, Mrs. D. H. McGinley, has resigned from the faculty at the Bula school, it was announced by Supt. M. J. McDaniel, who said Mrs. McGinley was retiring from the teaching field. She has taught in the elementary grades this year. Contracts have been offered to all members of the faculty and administrators for the 1966-67 term, Supt. McDaniel said.

Honor assembly held at MHS Friday

Top scholastic students in subjects were announced and other honors made at an awards assembly at Morton High School Friday morning.

Students convened in the patio at the high school for the program, with Fred Weaver, chairman of the faculty awards committee, presenting the majority of the recognitions.

Special honors were accorded to Joey Newson, valedictorian, and Glenda Smith, salutatorian, who had been named previously as recipients of the top scholastic awards in the senior class.

Taking top honors in literary interpretation, an English award, were Glenda Smith and Jerry Mings.

In the history department, Gail Rowland was named honor student in American history, David Gentry, world history, and Glenda Smith, civics.

Honor students in math were Wayne Thompson, algebra I, Donna Hofman, algebra II; Mike McDermott, geometry; and Joey Newson, trigonometry.

Science awards went to Billy Freeland, chemistry; Rheda Brown, biology; and Joey Newson, physics.

Business department honor student was Mickeye Raindl, who received the honors in all three studies, typing, bookkeeping and shorthand.

Randy Kelly was honor student in industrial arts, and Joyce Stevens and Rita Jean McMinn were top home economics students. Jimmy Roddy topped the list in auto mechanics, and Anita Salas in Spanish.

Margaret Hansen and Jerry Elliott were honored as best all-around girl and boy.

Betty Taylor and Mary Taylor were recipients of the Danforth Scholarship Award.

In band, John Stockdale, director, announced Larry Seigler as recipient of the John Phillips Sousa Award, and Jeanetta Rowden as the Arion Award winner.

Perfect attendance awards were also presented to high school students who had not missed a day of school.

Freshmen earning the certificate were Johnny Ortiz, Beverly Browne, Karen Fred, Rita Monroe, Curtis C. Griffith, Bob H. Hawkins, Thomas M. Stevens.

Sophomores included Ray King, Darwin D. McCasland, Mickey W. Patterson, Danny H. Wisely, Jean Raindl, Clara J. Richards.

Juniors were Roy Dale Gentry, Rory N. Kuehler, Carl M. Woods, Patricia A. Grice, Mary A. Holloway and Carolyn Gladden, with two students in the senior class being recipients, Jerry W. Mings and Armando Saenz.

Graduation set Saturday for Three Way seniors

Graduation service for seniors at Three Way High School will be conducted Saturday night, May 21, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Dr. Marvin Baker, president of South Plains College, Levelland, will bring the main address, with J. W. Aldridge, school principal, in charge of the presentation of awards. T. D. Davis, president of the board of education, will present graduates with their diplomas and Ann Preston will present special music, "The Halls of Ivy". Alan Eck will bring the invocation and Rev. C. E. Strickland the benediction.

Johnny Harris, valedictorian, and Doyleen Davis, salutatorian, will present short addresses. Processional and recessional will be by Kathy Hicks.

Members of the senior class include Johnny Harris, president; Madalyn Galt, vice president; Doyleen Davis, secretary; Sharyn Wittner, treasurer; Geneva Huff, reporter; and Gracie Davila, Katherine Masten, Janice Toombs, Linda Heard and Gene Perez.

Baccalaureate for the graduating seniors was held Sunday, May 15, at the school auditorium, with Rev. Dennis Heard, pastor of Maple Baptist Church, as speaker. Invo-

George to speak to Three-Way 8th

State Rep. Jesse T. George will bring the address Friday night at the graduation exercise for members of the eighth grade class at Three Way school, it was announced today.

Short talks will be presented by Sam Feagley, class valedictorian, and Kathy Hicks, salutatorian. Students will be presented their certificates by J. W. Aldridge, the school principal.

The program is scheduled for 8 p.m., with Doyleen Davis to furnish the processional and recessional. Fourteen students are completing their 8th grade work.

Class members were honored guests Saturday, May 7, at the 7th and 8th grade banquet, held at the school. Principal Aldridge was the speaker.

Bledsoe 8 graders graduate May 23

Graduation exercises for eighth grade students at Bledsoe will be held Monday night, May 23, at 8:15 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Supt. Otis Parr will be speaker for the service, and the top ranking honor students, Mark Thomas, valedictorian and Doug Burns, salutatorian, will present brief addresses.

Members of the class enjoyed a year-end skating party on May 14.

Students in the eighth grade class include Robbie Burkett, Jessie Trango, Olivia Garza, Doug Burns, Mark Thoms, John King, Terry Funk, Monte Hall and Tvo Flores.

About 30% of Texas, or some 50 million acres, is under lease for oil and gas exploration.

James Webb to graduate at WT

James Webb, Morton, is one of more than 400 candidates who expect to receive degrees at the May 22 convocation at West Texas State University.

Activities for graduating students open May 21 with a reception by President and Mrs. James P. Cornette, and the convocation at 5 p. m. May 22. Final examinations for regular students are May 23 through 26.

Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Webb, Route 1, is a candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree.

Children visit Tribune and iris garden in outing

The children from the Stockdale School visited the Morton Tribune Thursday and Mr. Norman Beauchamp showed them a few of the mysteries of the printing presses, and the excitement of the print shop. Then they went to the Iris garden of Mrs. Bert Darland. She talked to them and presented a bouquet to Mrs. Roberts and gave Mrs. Woods some specimens to bring back to school to be used for sketching models.

Those making the trip were: David Jones, David Russell, David Lamb, Kim Weatherly, Kim Fred, Carla Sealy, Robin Rowland, Robin Polvado, Robin Houston, Kerry Dupler, Lynnette Davis, Patti Groves, Clint Oden III, Grady and Leigh Ann Bryan, Timothy Stamps, Dona Hanna, Debbie Young, Ron-da Abbe and Donnie Masten.

Bob Dobson battling for Taft football spot

Bob Dobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Dobson, attending Taft College, in Taft, Calif., will be battling for a key role in the defensive alignment in spring training. Bob saw only brief action last fall since he reported late due to an appendectomy which was performed just before the season began. Dobson will be playing outside linebacker, is excellent on pass defense and a crisp tackler. Bob played for the Indians four years and was a four year letterman. He also was all district in 1965. He is attending Taft College on a football scholarship.

The value of Texas crude oil, natural gas and gas liquids in 1964 was $4.2 billion.

preparation for success

Commencement signifies a great achievement! Years of learning and doing have made this time a reality for the Seniors.

Yet in a larger sense, Commencement marks not an "ending" but a grand beginning! The future holds enormous opportunities for the new Graduates . . . and because they have willingly prepared for it in the past, we are confident of their success in the future.

Our congratulations and best wishes to every member of the Senior Class!

School annual arrives Monday at BHS

Monday at Bledsoe was the arrival of the 1965-66 school annual. The book sported a sparkler cover, with the initials and the name "Antelope". The annual is dedicated to the school custodian, Willie Caudle, school custodian but sincere "He's our friend."

Theme photo for the freshman section shows a band cap, musical instrument, and hamburger reposing on a sheet of music. Individual photos are of each student, as well as group class photo with sponsor, Roscoe Trostle, and class favorites, Margie Griffiths and Steve Sutton. A snapshot page is also included.

Activity section features pictures of Brenda Hall, homecoming queen; Lynda Thoms and Billy Bryant as Miss and Mr. B.H.S.; Cheryl Smart as Halloween Carnival Queen; Chris Box and Linda Brown, recipients of the Fighting Hearts Award; and Who's Who at B.H.S. honorees. These include Margie Griffiths, Janis Buchanan, Karen King and Adrian King, citizenship; Linda Brown and Chris Box, leadership; Linda Brown and Larry Buchanan, sportsmanship.

Athletic section includes individual photos of the boys and girls' basketball teams, and the junior high boys' and girls' basketball squads.

Y-M concludes with installation dinner

The Y-M Study Club met at 7:30, May 12 in the home of Mrs. Garnett Bryan for their installation dinner and service. The tables were set with spring flowers and crepe paper decorations were hung from the center light. Mrs. Lowell Webb called the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Leonard Groves who read "Stars of Our Past", a recollection of the past year's happenings. Mrs. Webb then introduced Mrs. George Hargrove who gave the farewell address and was given a gift by the club in appreciation of her leadership over the past year. Mrs. Hargrove then presented the club with a silver compote dish.

Nobhut, Francis Shifflett, Bill Matthews, Noel Jones, Weldon Wynn, James Cogburn, Richard Biggs, David Stowe, Leonard Groves, Robbie Key, George Hargrove and Kenneth McMasters.

Self improving HD club topic

The Happy Homemakers Home Demonstration Club met May 12 at 9:15 in the home of Mrs. Eugene Bedwell. Roll call was answered with "One way I aim for self-improvement."

A very interesting program on "Self Improvement Through Good Grooming" was given by Mrs. C. W. Wiggins. Mrs. Burford Elliott modeled as the suggestions for walking, sitting and other activities were given. Then others were given an opportunity to model. The members decided they needed to change some of their habits in order to be well groomed.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Roy Davis, Mrs. M. L. Abbe, Mrs. C. W. Wiggins, Mrs. Buford Elliott, Mrs. E. C. Hale, Mrs. Owen Egger and the hostess, Mrs. Eugene Bedwell.

1936 Study Club has installation

The 1936 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. H. B. King Wednesday evening, May 4, for the final meeting of the club year and installation of new officers of the coming year. A seven-course salad supper was served.

Mrs. Roy Hill, president of La Fleur Garden Club, was the installing officer. She used as her theme different jewels of service and presented each new officer a jewel encased in a lovely handmade paper weight. The jeweled favors were made by Mrs. Hill.

She presented a diamond to Mrs. Glenn Thompson, incoming president, stating that legend tells that God's mind desired a perfect gift so He took one each of all the jewels and crushed them to make the perfect diamond, so the President of the club takes the talents and work of each member and blends them into outstanding service.

The first vice president, Mrs. Joe Gipson, was presented with an emerald, which is the color of creation. This gem is symbolic of the planning and function of the work of the club.

The second vice president, Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne, was presented a ruby, which is said to contain an eternal flame. Membership is the color and life of the club.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Neal Rose, was given a blue sapphire, which is the gem of wisdom and truth, so must the recording of minutes be true and correct.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, was given an orange gem, which is symbolic of the sun, the source of life. She suggested life in constancy, comparing it to the 1936 study club and other clubs in federation.

The parliamentarian, Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter was presented with a collection of games, depicting that all things be properly conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order. Mrs. Hill pointed out that there is a law that is higher than these, which is the law of love and kindness.

The historian, Mrs. L. F. Hargrove, was presented with a Pearl. Mrs. Hill pointed out that the pearl grows more beautiful in aging, just as the records of the club years are treasured through the years.

The reporter, Mrs. H. R. Ramp, was given a gold topaz, which is the Moon gem. So as the moon reflects life by its rays, the reporter reflects the life of the club by the press reports.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, outgoing president, expressed her appreciation to the clubmembers for the cooperation she had received as president this past year. She outlined some of the accomplishments in the past club year. She was presented a gift from the members.

Mrs. Glenn Thompson, the incoming president, conducted a short business meeting and named the following department chairmen for the new club year.

Conservation — Mrs. Lloyd Miller.
Education — Mrs. Joe Gipson.
Fine Arts — Mrs. H. B. King.
Home Life — Mrs. James St. Clair.

International Affairs — Mrs. D. E. Benham.
Public Affairs — Mrs. Neal Rose.
Texas Heritage — Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter.

City Federation Representatives — Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter and Mrs. Glen Thompson.
Federation Counselor — Mrs. Joe Nicewarner.
Members present were Mrs. D. E. Benham, Mrs. Joe Gipson, Mrs.

Den 2, Cub Scouts record activities

In the past three months the Cub Scouts of Den 2, Pack 644 have been on the go with many activities. The Cub Scouts have been under the direction of Den Mother Julia and Assistant Den Mother Smith. Each opening and has been in the home of the other Lanier.

Activities for March, April included:

1st - A trip to the gym skating and basketball.

5th - Mr. and Mrs. Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby carried the Cub Scouts to the Texas Technological Museum on the purpose of learning more of West Texas Heritage.

12th - The Cub Scouts by the Carnation place judge sundaes and banana before returning to Morton a stop at Buddy's to see the wonderful tropical fish and pets.

March 15 - The Cub Scouts took a nature hike. They hiked to the County Park. All along the way they picked up and put into a sack all of the interesting things of nature that they found on the way. Much fun was had on the park equipment and refreshments were served at the park.

March 22nd - The Cub Scouts were treated to a roller skating party given in the honor of Monty Smith by his mother Assistant Den Mother, Mrs. Janell Smith. The boys had an hour of fun at the roller rink and were then driven to the Wig-Wam for the birthday cake. All the Cub Scouts joined together in singing "Happy Birthday" to Monty.

March 29th - The Cub Scouts were carried to the Morton Tribune where Mr. Tuck showed the boys through the Tribune and explained the type print, triple print and press in operation.

April 12th - The Cub Scouts were driven to the Maple Seed and DeJanting plant where Mr. John D. Holden showed and explained the process of acid delinting. After a tour of the plant the Cub Scouts went to the office where Mrs. Holden show and explained seed germination.

April 19th - The Cub Scouts were driven to the County Court House where they were given an interesting tour through the court house by Sheriff Hancock. After a tour of all the offices and jail the sheriff took the Cub Scouts to his office and made a thumb print of each boy for a souvenir. Before closing the meeting the boys were read "The Clock of Life" by Will Rogers.

April 29th - The boys were driven to Bakers Flower Shop where they were shown through the green house by Mr. and Mrs. Baker. Mrs. Baker explained the bedding process of the many plants, shrubs and trees. Mrs. Patterson showed the boys through the Flower Shop. Each boy was given a red St. John Salvia plant to set out at home. The flower was a gift by the Den Mother and Assistant Den Mother.

May 2nd - The project for the day was for each Cub Scout to make a napkin holder for the Mother for Mother's Day. Material used were coffee cans, foil, plastic scrubbers and plastic fruit. When the project was completed the boys enjoyed playing horse shoes and tether ball in the yard.

May 10th - Den 2 Pack 644 completed cub scouting this season by going on a treasure hunt through the neighborhood. The treasure hunt began at the home of Den Mother Lanier and after many clues were found the last clue led them back to the home of Den Mother Lanier where the boys found a picnic waiting for them prepared by Den Mother Lanier and Assistant Den Mother Janell Smith. After the picnic the boys enjoyed games in the yard. They were dismissed and will have their next meeting in September.

SPC graduation to include eight students of area

South Plains College commencement exercises have been set for 10 a.m. Friday, May 27 in the college auditorium.

Dr. Thomas M. Spencer, first president of SPC, will deliver the commencement address. He is now president of San Jacinto Junior College, Pasadena, Texas.

The processional "Air for G String," Bach, and the recessional "March of the War Priests," Mendelssohn, will open and close the program, respectively.

Henry C. Adair, college Psychology and Sociology instructor, will give the invocation and the college choir, under the direction of Harry Bulls, will sing "Lord Make Me An Instrument," by York and "Almighty God of Our Fathers," by James.

The speaker will be introduced by South Plains College President Dr. Marvin L. Baker, who will also present the diplomas to the graduates after certification by Academic Dean Nathan Tubb.

Following the presentation of diplomas, there will be a special convocation followed by the benediction, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," by Lutkin, sung by the choir and accompanied by Gerald Johnson of the college music department.

A reception in the Student Union paret of the graduates. Hostesses for the hospitality will be members of the college Faculty Women's Club with Mrs. Bob Beck serving as chairman.

Local area students graduating from the South Plains College are: Johnny Patrick Albus, Robert Charles Decker, all of Pep.

Robert Gene Garrett, Bobbie Ruth McDonald, Cindy Lu Salsar, all of Whiteface; Shelly Marshall Grimes, John C. Tucker, Cleo DeWayne Wemken all of Morton.

Charles Ledbetter to head student Council for 1966-67 at South Plains

Student Council Officers of South Plains College have been named for the year 1966-67. They are: Charles Ledbetter of Morton, president; Bob Myers, DeKalb, Illinois, vice-president; and Darlene Bragg, Estelina, secretary-treasurer.

While attending high school in Morton, Ledbetter, son of Judge and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter, played football, basketball and track for the Morton Indians. He was a member of the choir, a member of the choir council of which he served as vice-president. He was listed on Who's Who at Morton High. Ledbetter was a member of the Science Club, the National Honor Society and was a class officer both his junior and senior years.

At South Plains College during his freshman year, Ledbetter was a member of the varsity basketball team, was named All-Conference in Track and Field, was a member of the T-Club, plus various other campus organizations.

this is the day!

May it be a milestone in your efforts for true success.

Mrs. Bedwell is HD meet hostess

The Modern Mothers Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday night, May 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Lynch. Roll call was answered with, "One aim I have for self improvement."

The program was "Self Improvement," through good grooming and "Do You Pass the Model Test?" Mrs. Ray gave a demonstration on the correct way to sit and stand and the proper way to get in and out of a car. Mrs. Lynch gave a demonstration on how to select a purse to suit you and how to carry it and on how and when to wear hat and gloves.

Mrs. Doyle Webb was elected as the club's representative for T.H.D.A. Chairman.

Mrs. Herman Brown was elected delegate from the Modern Mothers Club to go to the State Convention in Corpus Christi in September for a five-day workshop.

The hostess served punch, cookies and brownies to the following: Mrs. Herman Brown, Mrs. Carl Ray, Mrs. Doyle Webb, Mrs. Doug Zuber and Mrs. Donnye Baker.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Donald Masten May 24 at 7:30 p.m. The program will be given by Miss Jennie Allen.

Local pianists in recital May 23

A group of pianists will be presented in recital open to the public on May 23, 1966, in the auditorium of the County Activity Building, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The program is a medley of all musical categories, so the theme "Potpourri" is most appropriate. The students have chosen from their repertoire the selection they like best and wish to perform. Many duets will be heard which are improvisations using knowledge of keyboard harmony and have been worked up by the students.

On the stage for the opening number will be Cindy Hutchison, Gail Lassiter, Julie Brown, Dannie Elliott, Farley Inglis, Carolyn Gray, Renee Anglin, Laneta Davis, Laneta Combs, Becky Goodman and Pam Linder. Setting will be an old-fashioned classroom with Miss Susan Blackley as teacher acting as emcee. She will lead the group in singing "Do-re-mi" and then each student will perform his solo.

With J. L. Hutchison as emcee, the next group to play will be musicians Eddie Turney, Nan Ray, Sue Winder, Jeana Thomas, Vicki Shifflett, Trezell Hill, Diane McCasland, Debra Linder, Teresa Mullinax, Kay Davis, and J. L. Hutchison.

The last group will have Sam Feagley as emcee, and will include Susan Blackley, vocal, Giorietta Gray, Sam Feagley, Charlotte Jones, Jeanie McMinn, Peggy Thomas, Lanya Dolle, Vicki Goodman, Terry Shifflett, LaNelda Romans, Sharon Davis, Byron Willis, Dan McCasland, Laneta Anglin, and Rheda Jane Brown.

The evening will be climaxed by the presentation of awards by Mrs. Norma McCarty, teacher of the group. Students who will receive certificates in the Hymn Playing Festival are Charlotte Jones, Sue Thomas, Glen Gray, Trezell Hill, Vicki and Terry Shifflett, Vicki Goodman, Diane McCasland, and Laneta Combs. Receiving National Audition Awards, which are pins, will be Local pins, Gail Lassiter, Julie Brown, Farley Inglis, Renee Anglin, Laneta Anglin, Laneta Davis, Jeana Thomas, Teresa Mullinax, Kay Davis, Eddie Turney, and the Sue Winder.
