WHAM! POW!

New format gives Tribune more pizzazz

The Morton Tribune, a prize-winning newspaper in state and national contests, has completed changes designed to bring it closer to the best in newspaper format. Previous changes in the newspaper are a reduction in the width of the pages and a reduction of the number of columns from eight to six while widening the column width.

follow a modern trend in newspaper typography as pioneered by some of the largest and most progressive newspapers in the nation.

The tribune, back in 1958, was one of the first newspapers in Texas to adopt a new format — that of eliminating column rules and changing headline style to "down style", that is, not capitalizing the first letter of each word in a headline.

"The reason for our change to a new format today is three-fold," said Publisher Gene Snyder. "The Morton Tribune is not an 'old fogey' paper. We want to go modern and stay abreast of the newest designs in today's newspapers."

A second factor prompting the change is the advantage the reader and advertiser receives from what Tribune staff members have termed the "big inch."

Newspaper space is measured by the column inch — one column wide by one inch in depth. Now, the newspaper offers more space in the column inch. This means that the reader receives more words to the inch and the advertiser receives more space per inch.

The column inch now is 7/16 of an inch wider than under the old format of the newspaper.

The third factor prompting the change is an anticipated increase in operating efficiency from plant machinery.

Technically, the newspaper now offers six columns, each of which is 14 ems, or 2-5/16 inches in width. Formerly, under the eight-column format, the column was 11 1/2 ems, or 1-7/8 inches in width.

However, the change was not made overnight. Planning began early in the year encompassing such items as new paper size, folder adjustments, new parts, etc.

Heralding the change was arrival of a 29,284-pound shipment of the new narrower paper. The paper arrived Tuesday in Denver City, where the Tribune is printed.

The press upon which the Tribune is printed was re-vamped and re-adjusted completely to accommodate the new size of newsprint. Press cylinders got new "packing" to provide for better impression, and new press rollers were installed.

The folder, which folds the newspaper as it comes off the press, had to be re-adjusted to handle the smaller size of paper.

The typesetting machine, an Intertype model, posed one of the biggest jobs in making the change-over. The machine operates automatically under a teletypesetter system. New type-moulding devices had to be purchased to accommodate the wider lines of type and the machine had to be re-set to handle the wider lines.

The teletypesetter is a device which punches holes in a paper tape. The tape then is fed into the Intertype machine. Electronic connections hit holes in the tape and select the proper letters from the typesetting machine's bank of type. The teletypesetter tape punching machine had to under-go re-adjustment to accommodate the big inch . . . WITH THIS EDITION OF THE TRIBUNE, the format of the paper has changed from eight columns to six columns. The change has resulted in an increase in column width to the present 2-5/16 inch. The Tribune refers to the present width as the big inch . . . an increase in column inch size which benefits both reader and advertiser. (Staff Photo)

Tribune wins four newspaper awards

The Morton Tribune has pulled down four journalistic awards in state and national newspaper contests during the past week.

The Tribune was awarded a first in News Pictures and a second in Appearance in the Texas Press Assn. contest and honorable mentions in the General Excellence division and Excellence in Typography in the National Newspaper Assn.'s 1967 Better Newspaper Contest.

In the state-wide contest, the Tribune earned 175 points toward the coveted top honor of general excellence to tie for second place with the Clear Lake City Suburban Journal. The General Excellence award was won by the Diboll Free Press with 290 points. A total of 38 newspapers from across the state were entered in this division.

The awards were presented to the Tribune in Galveston Friday during the Texas Press Assn. summer convention. The awards include a copper plaque for first place and a certificate of merit for the second place.

The first place award in News Pictures represents the first first place award to be received by the Tribune in state-wide competition.

The national contest attracted 2,772 entries in 41 categories. Only eight newspapers from Texas won awards. Presentation of awards was made Saturday in Richmond, Va., during the NNA's 82nd annual convention.

Speaking about the General Excellence contest, judges said, "General Excellence is an all-encompassing category. Weaknesses are quick to be spotted and this is where the secondary elimination comes in. In general, it can be said that the over-all quality of entries speaks well for the future of journalism in the smaller communities."

Certificates of merit were presented the Tribune for winning honorable mention.

Cochran County gets $24.1 million yearly in economic stimulation from oil and gas, report states

More than $24.1 million a year of economic stimulation for Cochran County flows from its oil and gas wells each year, an annual study by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association showed today.

"As one of the 206 producing counties in Texas, Cochran County's economy is sensitive to fluctuations in the oil industry generally," commented W. A. Landreth, Fort Worth, Association president. "Long range, the demand for oil looks strong and current production rates continues to provide Texas a major source of its income. On the other hand, Texas operators are beset by competition from other oil producing areas, government ceilings on natural gas prices, heavy tax payments, and a price for crude oil that is insufficient to encourage the amount of exploratory drilling that is needed to find future reserves."

Based on latest U.S. Bureau of Mines production figures, Cochran County in 1965 produced 7.5 million barrels of crude oil, valued at $22.2 million and 15.9 billion cubic feet of natural gas valued at $1.9 million, and ranks 47th among Texas counties in production.

In addition, plants which process natural gas for liquids such as natural gasoline, butane and propane in 1965 produced more than 10.9 million gallons of liquids valued at $522,900.

A major distribution of income from sales of oil and gas went to county landowners in royalty payments totaling more than $3.0 million.

In 1966, a year that saw drilling in Texas fall to its lowest level since 1947, oil and gas operators drilled 38 wells in Cochran County. Of these 4 were wildcats seeking new fields.

The Association estimated that operators

Council gives raise to one and charges off accounts

Relatively little was accomplished during Morton's regular City Council meeting Monday at 7 p.m., other than raising one employees salary and charging off some accounts.

The meeting was under the direction of chairman Earl Stowe. Mayor Jack Ruston was out with the mumps.

Raises were requested for Eddy Ray, department laborer, and Charles Tanner, water department laborer. Ray was asking $335 per month and Tanner $310 per month.

Ella Oden, city secretary, said that Tanner had just completed his 3-months probationary period and was due a raise. Ray was given a raise some months ago.

On a motion by Donnie Simpson, seconded by Herman Bedwell, a $25 raise was given to Tanner. His salary will now be $335 per month.

No action was taken on a raise for Ray. Oden then read a list of accounts that should be transferred from the active to delinquent files. The total amount was $132.99 for 12 accounts. He said that was for three months billing.

Oden also said that the names of the accounts were given to the Retail Merchants Association. Also, by placing the accounts in the delinquent file, the city may collect if and when the persons move back into town.

The motion to transfer the account was made by Simpson, seconded by George Hargrove.

Hargrove then asked Oden what had been done about the proposed codification of the city ordinances. Oden replied that he had not received replies from all those firms interested in the job.

Oden told the council that the city was having an increase in people moving in. He said that the city had six "turn-ons" or gas and water connections, Monday.

Hospital district election draws 10 candidates for July 22 contest

Before the filing deadline Tuesday at 5 p.m., 10 people were in the running for the director's positions on the Cochran Memorial Hospital District.

To be voted on July 22 will be the question of the formation of Cochran Memorial Hospital District and the election of five directors to the hospital district's board of directors.

Absentee voting is scheduled to begin Wednesday, June 29, at 8 a.m. in the county clerk's office in the courthouse. Voting will be held from 8-5 daily, except Saturdays and Sundays, until three days before election.

In the running from precinct 1 are Mrs. D. Hill, Mrs. Marie Adams, Jerry Iley, and Mrs. George Hargrove. Precinct 2's candidate is J. L. Schooler. Douglas is the sole candidate from precinct

3 and J. C. O'Brien is the only candidate from precinct 4.

At-Large candidates include N. C. Shelton, Glenn Thompson, and Van Greene.

Each precinct will vote for five candidates — one from each of the four precincts and one at-large candidate. Just before press time Wednesday, it was believed that each precinct would vote on its candidates only and not those of other precincts.

However, a last-minute legal interpretation by County Attorney James K. Walker changed the precinct-only voting procedure to that of the county-wide voting.

To vote in the hospital district election, the voter must be registered in Cochran County for the year 1967 or must be 65 or over. Voters are requested to bring their voter registration certificate with them at the time they vote.

They will be asked to vote FOR or AGAINST "the creation of Cochran Memorial Hospital District providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed 75 cents on the $100 valuation using Cochran County values and Cochran County tax rolls, and providing for the assumption by such district of all outstanding bonds and indebtedness heretofore issued by Cochran County and by any city or town within said county for hospital purposes."

The polling places are: precinct 1, Morton, Hume Russell, presiding judge, and L. T. Lemons, alternate judge; precinct 2, Whiteface, Truman Swinney and E. E. Jennings; precinct 3, Bledsoe, M. C. Hall and Alvie Harris; precinct 4, Neely-Ward, M. A. Tanner and T. M. Tanner; precinct 5, Lehman, Ralph Burt and Mrs. T. H. Brooks; and precinct 6, Townsend Gin, G. D. Lewis and Billy Gunter.

A re-scheduled protest Little League game, originally set for Thursday night, has been called off. Managers agreed the game would not be played since it would have no effect on the standings of any of the teams.

Morton Little League All-Star players were chosen Tuesday night. Their names will not be released until after their birth certificates and eligibility have been checked. All-Star coaches Jerrill Sharp and Vernon Sublett have called the first practice session for 7 p.m. Thursday, July 6, at the Little League park.

in the county spent more than $3.0 million in drilling last year, of which $1.2 million was lost in dry holes. Sharing heavily in the county's production each year is the State Treasury, which received $1.1 million in production taxes in 1965 paid by the producers and royalty owners. Crude oil production paid $1.0 million and natural gas production, $135,576. Texas Employment Commission figures for 1966 show that some 103 workers directly employed in oil and gas operations accounted for a payroll in excess of $632,848. Additional value is given oil and gas from the operation of processing plants. The Oil and Gas Journal lists 1 petrochemical plant, and 1 natural gasoline plant in the county with a capacity of 25.0 million cubic feet per day.

Conservation practice D-2 deadline is given

Farmers that signed up for ACP practice D-2, establishing a vegetative cover for summer protection from erosion will have until July 15, 1967, to complete this practice. July 1 was the deadline on completing the practice. The county committee decided that since the county has had some adverse weather and has caused unavoidable delay in performance that they would give the county a blanket extension on practice D-2. When the producer has completed this practice, you must report back to the county office and bring the invoice for the seed purchased. Some of the farmers had their cotton hailed out the past week, and if your cotton was destroyed and you want to seed the cotton land back to another crop, you must come into the ASCS Office and get approval before the other crop is planted. If the cotton acreage has been planted in cotton and it has been destroyed, you may replant the acres back to grain sorghum or soybeans, vegetables, or castor beans. Check with the ASCS Office before planting destroyed cotton acreage to feed grain. Exceeding your feed grain permitted acreage will make you ineligible for any feed grain payments and exceeding your feed grain base will effect other feed grain farms on which you or your landlord are participating in the feed grain program. The cotton diverted acreage must be maintained in an approved conservation use to be eligible for diverted acreage payments and price support payments. The county committee has opened another sign up period for measuring service. The ASCS Office will take requests for measuring service until July 14, 1967. After August 15, 1967, at least 25% of all farms will be checked by representatives of this office to assure compliance control. No adjustments will be permitted after August 15, 1967. The penalty rate for excess crops or deficient diverted or conserving acreage is very high and we believe all farmers will want to do their best to comply with their acreage limitations. The penalty for failure to fully comply will be approximately 1 1/2 times the support price. If the crop exceeds the permitted or diverted acreage is deficient by more than the larger of 2.0 acres or 5% (not to exceed 15.0 acres), the farm will become ineligible for all program benefits.

of metal drums drew favorable comment from the council, however no action was taken. The main advantage would be an increase in operating efficiency from the sanitation department, both in manpower and machine operation. The cost of mosquito spraying was discussed. The powder form, which was used last week, costs about $120. The city's fogging machine costs about $18. The former cost includes equipment usage, material costs and cost of the operator. The fogging machine price takes in only the cost of material. Another application of the powder will probably be used for test purposes. The council again talked about the installation of a pipe line from one of the city's water wells to Strickland Lake. However, no final action was taken on it pending consultation with the water district. The council was in agreement concerning the installation of the pipeline, especially if the lake is stocked with fish. The problem of children playing in the lake was brought up. Donnie Simpson contended that the lake was safer now than before development. He said that children faced a greater danger before in the form of snakes and broken bottles and rusty nails. The council urged parents to instruct their children about the dangers of playing in the lake. Oden said that city policemen have been keeping watch over children playing in the area. He also said that the police could not stay there all the time.

the wider lines. To handle the narrower format, metal frames know as chases, into which type is placed before going on the press, were cut down to the smaller size. Engravings of pictures now have to be made a different size which means that darkroom easels have to be marked to the new sizes. Printers are faced with knowing a completely different column measurement which will be used in "making-up" the paper. Editorial personnel have to memorize the new headline counts, the number of letters different headlines have per column. Other than these problems the change-over from eight to six columns is simple. We hope you enjoy the Tribune's new look. Subscribers who receive "single wrap" papers, those wrapped in brown paper, will notice that they received this edition of the Tribune in new printed sacks. These sacks facilitate the handling of the paper and mean that the reader gets his paper in better condition. Sacks will be used in place of the single wrap paper in all future editions. Just another service designed to help the reader get the best for his money.

MORE COW ON ROTATION
A deferred rotation grazing system here is boosting cattle profits about $11 a cow per year.
At Texas A&M University's Texas Experimental Ranch two methods of deferred rotation are being used. Both have given outstanding results, according to Dr. Wm. (Dub) Waldrip, in charge of the A&M Experimental Ranch.
He said, "Of all treatments, the system of grazing continues to have the most important dollar and cents influence on livestock production. Both the 2-pasture and the 4-pasture systems of deferred-rotation grazing have produced more and heavier calves than continuous grazing at the same stocking rate."
Waldrip said the 4-pasture system has produced the best gains so far. Weaning weights for the past 6 years have averaged 518 pounds on the 4-pasture system, 499 with the 2-pasture system and 487 on continuous grazing.
Calf production per cow averaged 482, 454, and 438 pounds under the 4-pasture, 2-pasture and continuous grazing systems respectively. Waldrip figured the increased production of the 4-pasture system over the continuous grazing is about $11 per cow.
Calving percentage with the 4-pasture system was a healthy 93 percent, he said.
The 4-pasture system allows each pasture to be grazed 12 months, then rest 4 months. It was developed at Texas A&M's Ranch Experiment Station, Sonora, by Dr. Leo Merrill, range scientist.
Waldrip says he not only gets more beef per acre and per cow with deferred rotation — but gets plenty of range improvements too.
TIMING VITAL FOR IRRIGATION
Proper timing of irrigation water can mean the difference between profit and loss for cotton farmers in Cochran County.
Research results at the South Plains Research and Extension Center at Lubbock indicate that one four-inch summer irrigation applied 15 to 25 days after first bloom on early to medium maturing stripper cotton varieties yield the greatest returns from irrigation water.

The key to increased income from one four-inch application includes the cotton variety and its growth stage. At peak bloom the plant can most efficiently utilize water. Net income decreases when application is made earlier or later than this stage.
Approximately $6 to $8 more per acre can be obtained by irrigating at this time as compared with the same water applied at 30 days after first bloom. Where the one summer irrigation is delayed until 40 to 45 days after first bloom, a loss of more than $14 per acre can occur when compared to optimum timing.
Late maturing stripper and non-stripper types can be irrigated as late as 30 to 35 days after first bloom.
Timing is also critical in late-planted cotton where maximum fiber quality is to be maintained, adds the agent. Any delay in applying irrigation water can delay maturity and decrease micronaire — an important quality measure. A reduction of at least $3.25 per bale can result from a micronaire below 3.5.
Production of maximum fiber quality and optimum yields, coupled with efficient utilization of irrigation water, leads to increased income for South Plains cotton producers. These and other factors can contribute to an annual potential increase of $27 million as projected in the South Plains Development (SPD) program.

TIMING VITAL FOR IRRIGATION
Proper timing of irrigation water can mean the difference between profit and loss for cotton farmers in Cochran County.

Research results at the South Plains Re-

WOOD FOR FIRE — Sometimes dry wood is scarce around a campsite. But dead trees can be found most anywhere. Local one near camp, tie a stone to one end of rope, throw stone over dead limb and pull. Your firewood should come down with crash.

"DRINK MORE MILK"

Many things have changed in rural areas but milking time still comes twice a day. But on dairy farms, this chore is now handled efficiently and economically with milking machines powered with electricity from BAILEY COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE. In many modern dairy farms, the milk goes directly to the cooler which means fresher more wholesome milk on your table. In every field of rural endeavor, rural electrification has helped lighten the load, brighten the day and in many instances increase profits. The abundant supply of electric power furnished by the BAILEY COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE is Helping Texas Grow.

Heavy rains bring critters . . .

LAST WEEK'S HEAVY RAINS have given Cochran County residents a look at some rather strange critters. This tortoise was found by a Tribune staffer who braved snapping mouth and clawing legs to bring it "back alive" to the office.

Irrigation for Cochran County. But it will be needed generally.

Count report

The 1966 Reservoir Handbook for Cochran County has been completed. It contains information on water rights, irrigation, and other matters.

Sox drop Giants with two three-run homers Monday

In Monday night's games, the Sox used two three-run homers for an easy 13-2 win over the Giants. In the nightcap, the league champion Colts rallied behind the one-hit pitching of Bryant Lewis and downed the Pirates 6-1.

Jim Risenger started things off for the Sox with a single and Kevin Franks was safe as the fielder's choice failed. J. W. Carouthers blasted one over left center for a homer. Dub Hill doubled and Johnny Collins singled. Both scored as the Sox took a 4-0 lead.

The Sox added three more runs in the second. Franks got on by error, Carouthers singled and Hill homered.

Scotty Simpson scored for the Giants in the second on a walk, an infield out and a single by Lane Mayon.

But the Sox added four more with walks to Terry Cartwright and Tony Dickey, fielder's choices that didn't get any outs for Risenger and Franks, and a single by Carouthers.

Franks and Hill both singled in the fifth and scored after a walk to Dickey.

Last run for the Giants came in the fifth as Billy Joyce walked, Randy Kuehler was safe on a fielder's choice that failed. Monte Smith walked and Simpson was hit by the pitcher. Ricky Webb singled.

Dub Hill got credit for the win. He gave up two runs on four hits, walked seven, hit one and struck out five.

Randy Kuehler was tagged with the loss. He gave up 13 runs on ten hits, walked five, hit one and struck out 12.

Dub Hill had a homer, a double and a single in four trips. J. W. Carouthers got a homer and two singles.

Lane Mayon had a pair of singles for the Giants.

Bryant Lewis gave up one run and one hit in the first inning of the nightcap. But he faced only 16 Giants in the next five innings to win easily as the Colts closed out their season with a 13-1 mark.

Donnie Kuehler and Mike Gilliam walked to start things off for the Pirates in the first inning. Ted Thomas singled and Eugene Hawkins walked to drive in their only run.

Ricky Bedwell singled to open things up in the last of the first. Bedwell moved to second on an error, but was tagged out at third on Mark Fluit's fielder's choice. Then James Partlow parked a two-run homer that gave the Colts all the runs they needed.

In the fourth, the Colts picked up four unearned runs. With one out, Ronnie Bedwell walked. Both runners were safe on Lanny Tyson's fielder's choice. Bryant Lewis, Elton Jonas and Ricky Bedwell walked. Fluit was safe on a fielder's choice and Partlow walked. A pitching change finally retired the Colts.

Bryant Lewis got credit for the win. He gave up one run on one hit, walked four and struck out 12. Ted Thomas was tagged with the loss. He worked four and one-third innings. He allowed six runs on three hits, walked six and struck out five. Mike Gilliam came on in relief and struck out two.

James Partlow homered and singled to pace the Colt hitting attack. Ted Thomas got a single for the only hit by the Pirates.

Cubs blast Cards 23-0 in final game of year

In the final game of the 1967 Morton Little League season, the Cubs blasted the Cards 23-0 behind the pitching of Jack Sublett.

Neither team was able to score in the first. But in the second the Cubs opened up for eight runs. Tony Soliz started with a single, David Kessler walked, Tommy McClintock singled, Tommy Tuck singled, Andy Gunter walked, Jack Sublett singled, Larry Thompson got on by fielder's choice and Pete Soliz walked.

Cardinal hurler Jerry Silhan was relieved with one out by George Trejo who got the next two batters to ground-out.

The Cubs resumed the attack in the third inning with five more runs. Leslie Carter walked, Tuck and Gunter singled, Thompson got on by error, Pete Soliz walked and Tony Soliz singled.

In the fifth, the Cubs added three runs. Sublett was hit by the pitcher. He was forced at second by Thompson. Pete Soliz singled, Terry Donathan walked and David Kessler doubled.

The sixth stanza added seven more runs. Carter walked but was forced by Tuck. Gunter and Tuck were both safe on a fielder's choice. Sublett walked, Thompson singled, Pete Soliz and Terry Donathan walked, Kessler doubled and Carter walked.

Sublett allowed only two singles in his shut-out effort. He walked two, hit one and struck out 16.

Jerry Silhan took the loss. He gave up eight runs on four hits, walked four and struck out three. Trejo allowed 15 runs on seven hits, walked eight and struck out three.

Steve Newton and Steve Cox had the two hits for the Cards. David Kessler led the Cub hitting with two doubles, Tony Soliz and Tommy Tuck each had two singles.

Through the telescope by Luck

Rain, hail and high winds struck Cochran County again last weekend, leaving 3-5 inches of rain in many parts. The Lehman area, southwest of Morton, got clobbered by some golfball-sized hail that really stripped the crops. Generally, the rains were beneficial, coming just when another watering was due on cotton and maize.

Don Hill called in to report that his new parallel terraces really did the job. "We held every bit of the three and one-half inches of rain that fell," he said. "Some of the others around me hadn't put in the terraces and they got washed out." We understand that Harold Drennan is another landowner in that area that was high in his praise for the terraces.

We caught a land turtle or terrapin down around the sulphur plant Tuesday and brought it into the office. Secretary Carla McCarty was terrified of the critter, but finally consented to touch him. She blamed Jimmy Cartwright for bringing him in and poor Jimmy couldn't make her believe that he hadn't. Of course, Jimmy's just ornery enough that he would have done the same thing . . . given a chance. We finally released the terrapin at Strickland Park Lake, but he was strictly a West Texas-grown reptile. He headed away from the water just as fast as he could go.

This has been an interesting week, but a rather hectic one. The change-over to a wider column and narrower page width, we think, is a major improvement. It should aid both reader and advertiser. The Tribune is one of the first weeklies in the state to make such a change. And we thought it was particularly appropriate that we announced some honors for the paper the same week we made another stride forward.

Newspapers usually play down their own achievements while building and boosting other community enterprises and efforts. But it is gratifying to have your efforts recognized by others in your business. It also demonstrates to readers and advertisers that they are getting a quality product each week. Although a first place and a second place sound more impressive, we were probably even happier to win a pair of honorable mentions in a nationwide contest. Having hung up the plaque and certificates, we now turn our attention to making the Tribune even better . . . and hopefully toward higher honors next year.

Morton's Little League baseball season came to a close Tuesday night, with the All-Star team being selected after the final game. It seems rather early for play to end, with two-thirds of the summer left, but it has to be this way in order to put the All-Star team together. During their meeting Tuesday night, managers and coaches discussed the possibility of dropping association with Little League Baseball and forming a local youth baseball team. If this is done, play wouldn't start until after school closed and competition would last until the end of August. If you have any thoughts on the matter, let one of the Little League officials hear from you.

Following a meeting Tuesday morning the Retail Trade Committee of the Chamber had most of its plans complete for a Frontier Friendship Festival, which will be held late in July. Chairmen Ed Sursa and Carl Ray are ironing out the last details now. Watch for this event . . . it's going to be a dandy.

We are looking forward to Friday night's softball game between the Lions and the Jaycees. It's going to get started at 8 p.m. Friday at the Morton Little League Park . . . if the Lions aren't too sore from their practice sessions. Rumors have it that I'm supposed to be one of the umpires, since I belong to neither group. But I've also gotten the word that I'm supposed to pay my way into the ballpark. Can you imagine anyone willingly paying for the privilege of being booed?

All you golfers are reminded of Tuesday's big July Fourth golf tournament at the Morton Country Club. Flights will be played for both men and women. Action starts at 10 a.m. with players furnishing their own picnic lunch.

Tuesday, July 4, is going to be a general holiday in Morton. With the exception of a few service stations, and possibly a cafe or two, everything is going to be closed.

During Tuesday's holiday, Pause for a moment, we pray, And rededicate yourself some way To the spirit of Independence Day.

James Partlow singled and Ricky Woods singled before the side was retired.

The Sox got one run in the third on singles by Kevin Franks and Steve Thompson.

But the Colts picked up six more runs in the third. Randy Bedwell and Jonas were hit by the pitcher, Lewis was safe on a fielder's choice, Davidson singled before two outs were recorded. But Partlow doubled, Woods singled, Ricky Bedwell walked and Randy Bedwell was safe on an error.

In the top of the fourth, the Sox got their last run as Dub Hill blasted a solo homer.

In the last of the inning, the Colts tacked up four more runs. Lewis doubled, Davidson got on by error, Ronny Bedwell was hit by the pitcher, Mark Fluit got on by fielder's choice, Partlow walked, Woods singled and Ricky Bedwell walked.

Final run for the Colts came in the fifth as Davidson and Ronny Bedwell walked, Fluit was hit by the pitcher and Partlow walked.

Bryant Lewis was the winning pitcher as he allowed two runs on four hits, walked three, hit two and struck out 12. Dub Hill absorbed the loss. He pitched four and one-third innings. He gave up 17 runs on nine hits, walked 11, hit four and struck out five. Hill was injured in the first inning and retired with one out in the fifth. James Snitker came on in relief and walked one.

The four Sox hits were scattered among four players. Hill got a homer and J. W. Carouthers had a double.

Ricky Woods had three singles in four trips for the Colts. Lewis had a single and a double in four trips.

The Cubs picked up two runs in the bottom of the first and were never headed. Tommy Tuck singled, followed by walks to Leslie Carter, Jack Sublett, Larry Thompson and Pete Soliz.

One more run came in for the Cubs in the second. Danny Hill singled, Tuck singled, Leslie Carter was hit by a pitch and Sublett got on by fielder's choice that forced Hill. The run came in on an infield out.

Cochran County faces one increase and three decreases in insurance

State's automobile insurance rate spiral has slowed down, according to information provided to the State Board of Insurance last week by statisticians from the Insurance Department.

The Insurance Department staff recommended that the State Board of Insurance approve automobile insurance rates representing an overall reduction of 1%, or an estimated amount of about $4,200,000. As in the past, the proposed rates will vary according to territory and use of the automobile.

District 26, which includes Cochran and other counties, faces increase in property damage premiums but reductions in other categories.

Premiums, both present and indicated, are compared for new Fords or Chevrolets (most models) not used in business or driven to and from work with no operators under 25 years of age.

Coverage is based on 10/20/5 liability, $50 deductible collision, and full coverage comprehensive.

There is no change indicated in bodily injury for district 26. Property damage premiums, up $1; $100 deductible collision down $5; full coverage comprehensive, down $6; and all coverages combined, down $10.

All coverages combined will range from a $9 increase in Jefferson County to a decrease of $13 in Lubbock.

Motorists who use their car for pleasure or drive to work will have their annual premiums for basic liability insurance, full comprehensive insurance, and $50 deductible collision insurance modified to decrease as great as $13 and increase to $8 a year for all these coverages combined.

Largest reductions occur on automobile insurance written for garages and commercial vehicles. Premiums for this class will be reduced 5.6% for liability coverage and 4.8% for Physical Damage insurance. The Department specialists are approving commenting on the report made by the Insurance Department, Wm. Hunter McLean, Chairman, State Board of Insurance, noted that both accident frequency and average claim cost were up last year and that the Texas Driving Insurance Plan helped make these reductions possible.

"Accidents increased in Texas by 11.3% and the costs of these accidents were up.

Hit My student of the week this week is Margaret Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hansen of Rt. 2, Morton.

Margaret has lived here all of her life and is a 1966 graduate of Morton High School. During her stay at MSH, she was in choir four years and a member of Future Teachers of America, National Honor Society, and Future Homemakers of America for three years. She served as secretary and as third vice president in FHA.

During her senior year, Margaret was chosen as "Most Likely to Succeed," "Best All-Around Girl," and MHS student of the year.

Margaret has just completed her first year at South Plains College in Levelland, where she is majoring in elementary education. While attending SPC, she stayed at north Sue Spencer Hall.

Among her several activities of the South Plains campus, Margaret participated in the choir there. She said that the group gave two concerts; one Christmas and one in the spring. They also put on a performance of the musical "Carnival", which in Margaret's words "turned out quite well."

Margaret was also a member of the Student Education Association, which she described as being something like the Future Teachers of America.

She served as parliamentarian of Koshare, a girls' spirit organization. This club's job is to welcome visitors to the campus, help in the homecoming festivities, and just to generally boost the spirit of the whole student body.

Margaret said that she liked going to school at SPC and "wouldn't take anything for the experience."

However, Margaret has things on her mind lately other than school. She plans to be married to Bill Schlabach July 14, in her parents' home.

Bill is a 1962 graduate of Morton High School. He is presently a PFC in the army band and is stationed at Ft. Bliss near El Paso.

The couple plans to move to El Paso after the wedding. Margaret says she is not sure of her plans about school yet.

Some of Margaret's hobbies are planning for the wedding (of course), sewing, music, reading, and writing to all the girls she met while at South Plains.

Well, I guess all the kids around must have decided to take a rest this week or something, because I just don't know of anything anyone did that would be newsworthy.

I guess I'll have to get out and stir up a little trouble for myself so I can fill up more space and really impress the boss.

See you around!

Lake full of water . . .

Lions and Jaycees set softball game Friday

A challenge softball game between the Morton Lions Club and the Morton Junior Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday, June 30. The game will be played at the Morton Little League field.

Originally the game was set for the Babe Ruth Park, but the longer distance between bases and the deeper outfield fence might have had a bearing on the change.

"Experience is our strong suit," puffed one of the Lions following a practice session.

Just as confidently, one of the Jaycees confided, "We've got youth and enthusiasm on our side."

The Lions are the challengers in the game. All proceeds will go toward the construction of a new Scout Hut in Morton.

Capt. Shirley Gipson ends officer course

Captain Shirley L. Gipson, whose parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gipson, live in Morton completed a 22-week medical officer career course at Brooke Army Medical Center, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., June 23.

Capt. Gipson was trained in the duties and responsibilities of Army Medical Service officers. Instruction included organization and administration of medical units, command and staff procedures, hospital management and courses in field medicine and surgery.

Capt. Gipson was graduated from Missoula (Mont.) County High School in 1952 and received a B.S. degree from Montana State University, Bozeman, in 1967, and a Master's degree from Ohio State University, Columbus, in 1966.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tuck attended the Texas Press Association summer convention held in Galveston June 22-24. They also visited Mrs. Tuck's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Lee, in Houston.

GOING OUT FOR BUSINESS

We know to get and deserve your business, we must do all we can to be competitive with the Big Boys east of Morton. To be honest with ourselves, as well as you, we must admit that we cannot compete on some items, due to their volume of buying and selling. It has been estimated that 7,000 to 10,000 people trade with one of the big stores in Lubbock every day . . . and that is a lot of people. But we can compete on some things in price and do. We invite you to come in and compare the quality and price of our merchandise. There is one thing we know for sure — we appreciate your business more than the big boys, because they don't even know you are in the store with those other 9,999 folks.

Nothing constant but change

"Nothing is constant but change" and the Tribune is proud of the change it unveils this week in its format. We think the six-column design will make the paper easier to read and the narrower width will make it easier to handle.

Our advertisers will discover their displays will be better-read and more prominent. For each column-inch they buy, they will receive more width and a better chance to attract potential customers.

The six-column format is relatively new in Texas, with only one other weekly paper in the state using it, to our knowledge.

And we think it is a delightful coincidence that the change was made at the same time the Tribune was announced as a winner in both state and national newspaper contests. We aren't satisfied with what we have done in the past, and we don't plan to rest on our occasional honors in the future.

We think the change in format is for the best. We hope our readers will agree that it makes the Tribune easier to read.

Watch children near lake

A sense of adventure, or a dare perhaps, could lure youngsters to the rainfall-filled in Strickland Park. And the lure could be fatal.

The weekend's downpour has filled Strickland Park lake to the brim, providing a centerpiece for the new city park. But it could also provide an attractive lure for youngsters who might not know the danger that lurks on its banks.

The lake is steeply-banked and offers no hand-holds or easy places to climb out. Freshly-sodden banks will offer no aid to a child who might begin sliding toward the water.

So, we ask that parents keep a particularly close watch on their children this summer. Evaporation isn't likely to lower the water level much and the city isn't able to provide city watchmen or lifeguards around the lake. That leaves it up to parents to make it clear to their children about the dangers of playing too close to the lake. The entire park should be off limits to them until the park project is finished. By then, we hope that a fence will provide an "off limits" barrier to the water.

Fourth of July is different

Time and mobility have changed a major holiday in the United States. Gone are the summer-warmed picnics, with band concerts and traditional speeches by veterans of almost forgotten wars. Gone is the gathering of neighbors to mark the Fourth of July, punctuated by the frantic efforts of small boys to pop every firecracker in town.

In its place, America now considers the Fourth as a time to head for the mountains, the seashore, to grandma's, or any other place that their wheels will take them. Leisure is more abundant, traveling is easier.

Old-fashioned flag-waving is out. There will be a few Independence Day celebrations, such as the one at Muleshoe. But more of us will mark the day with rest at home or a frantic trip away.

But no matter whether you are mowing the lawn, catching up on your sleep, or making a trip . . . try to pause for a moment and think of what Independence Day really means to you, your family, and your nation.

You enjoy freedom earned by blood and sacrifice and devotion. You live in prosperity beyond the dreams of much of the world. You come and go as you please, free to worship, to work, to speak and act as you wish. Your freedoms are guaranteed by a Constitution that was written by men wise almost beyond belief.

There might not be many orators around next Tuesday to remind you of these precious heritages. But you can remind yourself how fortunate you are to live in this land. You can reaffirm your faith in this nation, and resolve to protect, defend and pass on those hard-won freedoms to the next generation.

Federal training for farm mechanics set

It was announced today by Richard Bunting, Office Manager, Texas Employment Commission in Lubbock that his office had requested a training project be approved under the Manpower Development Training Act (MDTA) to train Farm Equipment Mechanics. The training project is expected to be approved to start some time in July.

Bunting reported that the training will be conducted in the Lubbock area, but the location is not yet known. The exact requirements for the training have not been announced, but in general, any person with mechanical experience or aptitude, 18 year or above with 10th grade education or equivalent, may qualify for the training. Training allowances are paid in most instances.

Bunting announced that his office is compiling a waiting list for this training project and invites anyone interested to contact T. K. Morris at the Lubbock office, 1602-16th Street.

Invaders Are On TV

Some folks feel like the John Birchers are right when they preach that America is being secretly invaded by communist forces.

What they fail to see is that a much larger and more blatantly open force already has the country stupefied, brain-washed or living in abject fear, whichever you prefer.

That force comes from the brains of Madison Avenue ad men and is openly flaunted on millions of TV sets.

They brought in some nut on a white horse a while back who races around suburban neighborhoods invading private property and doing his devilish work putting laundries out of business. This is a direct stab at the small businessman, the frontiersman of America's economic childhood.

These ad men have filled our used car lots with animals, birds and fish. It is no longer necessary to visit a zoo to get next to nature. A man takes his life in his hands when he steps in amidst uncaged cougars stalking frantic impalas, and mustangs running around loose leaving piles of work for street cleaners. Can you imagine a mustang with a tiger in his tank? There are slashing barracudas, and almost everywhere one looks he sees tiger paws. If you'd like to leave the animals alone and get involved in a demonstration (which seems currently popular) you can join the Dodge Rebellion.

Coming out of the car lot, we get run down by another nut on a horse rushing a jar of instant coffee to a helicopter that will deliver it to a boat that will deliver it to a genuine Iroquois long-distance runner who ought to run up and throw it in the face of that rich pampered white man who drinks only his own product.

From the other direction we get hit by an old fellow named Olson who is running around with an empty coffee cup and swearing he'll kill "that woman who is so busy making coffee for other people" that she hasn't the time to stay home and make him a cup.

Did you know that Madison Avenue has it fixed up so you can be socially ostracized for using the wrong soap and that your teenagers likely will grow up with bad breath traumas unless you stock six different kinds of mouth-wash? You can easily get around this problem. Give the kid a Fresca and he'll freeze up so fast he won't smell. Even if he does, people won't be able to recognize who it is because of the

recognize who it is because of the blizzard raging around him.

The ad boys have turned a monster loose on us. They have liberated a pied pipe in Levi Sta-Prest slacks wearing Brylcreem on his hair, guzzling Micrin and chewing Certs who is leading all our young women out of town for glory only knows what purpose.

We have been assaulted with plastic shields flying over waxed floors, doves diving through kitchen windows and firemen chasing white tornadoes while climbing over ceiling-high washing machines, which is a good trick in itself in a one-story house.

To top it off, the ad men have spread a true-to-life pestilence among our population. It's a new disease called "the blahs." They didn't just invent it. It arose spontaneously when the first commercial TV program hit the air.

The cure isn't aspirin, a buffered product, a powdered product or any facsimile. The cure is a swift motion of the hand (either hand will do) that turns the OFF-ON switch on the Madison Avenue mid-wife to the OFF position and a following swift motion of the feet that carries a victim out into his vack yard to water the lawn for a few minutes or just look at his flowers. If it's nighttime, install outside lighting. — Richard Cook, The Battalion (Texas A. and M. University).

From Gridiron to Stage?

There's a type of reader who leafs wildly through the paper until he lights upon the sports page. Another type of reader heads like a homing pigeon straight for news of the theater and the arts. So seldom do the twain meet that when they do it's bound to make news.

Today the world of sports and that of the arts are finding a new point of convergence. Petite and lithesome teachers of ballet are drilling whole classes of husky football players in the art of the dance.

And what's more it makes sense. Players develop control, coordination, timing, maneuverability. American football coaches who have incorporated ballet in their training programs are reportedly pleased with the results.

And so is a New Zealand Rugby coach whose men are finding that springs, leaps, and other movements are greatly improving their techniques. The pirouetting play-

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS & SIDELIGHTS

Governor cuts from appropriations bill

AUSTIN, Tex. — Exercising his veto power to cut appropriations, Gov. John Connally sliced $3,214,121 of the one-year general appropriation bill and killed 37 bills passed by the 60th Legislature.

Nine of the vetoed bills called for total annual expenditures of $12,819,760 beginning September 1, 1968.

By way of explanation of his line-item vetoes in the appropriations bill, Connally said, "I endorse the actions taken by the Legislature to provide the funds needed to meet the state's increasing services to its people. However, there are several items of expenditures for which money was appropriated that I do not consider essential or justified."

CONNALLY DELETED a $600,000 appropriation which would have allowed the New Texas Research Institute of Mental Sciences at Houston to lease and operate hospital facilities. "This item was not requested by the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation in its budget request, nor was it included in my budget recommendations or those of the Budget Board," the Governor explained.

A $300,000 appropriation for additional Phase I construction at the Corpus Christi State School also was vetoed. Connally said it was not requested by the MHMR Department or in budget recommendations submitted by the Legislative Budget Board or by Connally. He pointed out that the 1965 Legislature appropriated $2,224,000 for the proposed school.

Connally slashed $800,000 off the appropriation for the University of Texas Medical School at San Antonio. "With construction of the medical school and teaching hospital and the recruitment of faculty and staff still in process, the number of students actually enrolled will be limited during the 1968 fiscal year," the Governor said.

"EVEN AFTER VETOING" this item," he continued, "the medical school's appropriation for the 1968 fiscal year will exceed my recommendation by $685,795 and will represent a 145 per cent increase over the amount appropriated for the current year."

Also vetoed was $325,000 earmarked to the State Department of Agriculture for expanding market outlets for Texas' agricultural commodities. Connally explained that "The appropriation of $325,000 duplicated in purpose a major portion of the $500,000 'special program' appropriation for marketing and market outlet research, quality research, statistical reporting and other programs relating to agriculture."

Other bills vetoed included those extending the curfew of alcoholic beverage drinking until 2 a.m. in the metropolitan counties, doubling retirement benefits for legislators and improvements in state employees' retirement benefits, prohibiting employment of youngsters under 21 in stores which sell beer and liquor, permitting broader powers for the State Soil and Water Conservation Board, allowing the ers from Down Under owe their increasing ability to an arrangement between the Royal Academy of Dancing and the English Amateur Athletic Association.

While the playing fields have yet to produce a Nijinsky or a Nureyev, their teachers report that some of the athletes show unusual promise. Should ballet training for athletes really catch on, who knows? The male stars of the ballet may one day be able to tell how it all started back on the football field.

Christian Science Monitor

State Comptroller to seize property for tax debts and sell it without court action, setting up special county boards to assess tax values on agricultural land near cities, and granting cities police powers on private property such as shopping center parking lots.

COSTLY OVERTIME — Extension of federal minimum wage act to state hospital and school employees would cost state government in Texas at least $14,000,000 a year, according to Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin.

Martin says he intends to keep fighting inclusion of state institutions under the act all the way to the Supreme Court.

Three federal judges in Maryland recently handed down conflicting opinions on the issue but not a final order.

Under the new appropriations bill, all State employees will get more than the required federal minimum wage. Big catch financially is that the federal act also requires time and a half payment for overtime — or an hour and a half payment for every hour of overtime worked during the same pay period. Texas employees get compensatory time off (no cash) on an hour-for-hour basis.

CAR INSURANCE — Careless Texas drivers will pay more for their car insurance on policies written after July 31. They will be charged more because of their accidents or traffic law violations during the nine months which ended May 1.

Penalties which range from 15 to 80 per cent, depending on the number and importance of the law violation — will add up to $6,439,362 during the year starting August 1.

These penalties, feeding that much more money into the auto insurance "kitty," will prevent rate increases for most drivers.

State Board of Insurance held its annual auto insurance rate hearing and got a staff recommendation for a general rate reduction of one percent in insurance rates. It varies from area to area, and from classification of cars and drivers.

There would have been a general rate increase had it not been for the more than $6,000,000 in penalties which will be charged against the drivers who violate the law and have accidents.

Board also took under consideration a proposal that high school and college students whose grades average B or better be given a 25 percent insurance rate reduction. State Farm Insurance Co. started such a program in 1962. It found that students who make high grades drive less and have fewer accidents. Hence it is a valid basis for lower rates for those who make the honor roll or the dean's list.

COLLEGE TUITION — Instead of doubling tuition as requested by the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University system, the Legislature made it easier for poorer youngsters to get tuition and fee exemptions.

Exemptions would go only to students from families with gross incomes of $4,000 a year or less. No student would be allowed to attend college more than two years under the exemption plan.

To be eligible, students must be graduated in top 25 per cent of their high school classes. Or score in the top 20 percent on a nationally standardized college admission examination.

DIPPING NOT REQUIRED — Panhandle cattle no longer must be dipped before shipment to California.

Dr. S. B. Walker, director of Texas Animal Health Commission said the West Coast has removed the requirement since inspection of Panhandle herds during last winter showed no evidence of scabies. Herd owners in nine Texas counties and north and west of them need only permit and health inspection certificates for California shipment: Yoakum, Lynn, Garza, Kerr, Terry, Stonewall, King, Cottle and Childress.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — State agencies charged with providing services to the handicapped may spend money under contract for specific programs and projects conducted by non-profit groups. Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In another opinion, Martin concluded that the value of an indebtedness secured by mortgages against real estate in California held by a resident decedent of Texas should be included in his estate when computing inheritance taxes due.

SHORT SNORTS — State's first baffle cotton was ginned in the Lower Rio Grande Valley on June 11, setting a new record, reports the State Agriculture Department.

Inmate population at the Huntsville state penitentiary unit dropped by 480 — to 11,384 — during the last fiscal year, according to State Auditor C. H. Caveness.

State, county and municipal officials have been urged to encourage ringing of all available bells to celebrate July 4 — at 1 p.m. CDT — as part of "Bells of Independence Day" observance throughout the nation.

A $22,048 federal grant has been approved for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, to be matched by the Department, to develop a recreational area at Copano Bay, located north of Rockport.

State Highway Department is observing its 50th birthday this month . . . and will celebrate the anniversary again in September in connection with National Highway week.

The STRENGTH of a Nation...

At this time, our thoughts are turned to our nation and the war that was fought to bring freedom to our land. Pictured here is a monument to the leader of our people at that time. The people were willing to give their lives that we might be free from tyranny, and have the right to worship as we please. God was with us then as he was with the children of Israel when Moses led them from Egypt. Upon receiving their freedom they sang... "The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him." Exodus 15:2

Help keep our Nation strong by relying on the strength of the Lord. Attend Church Regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
