NEW COACHING STAFF . . .

THE FIVE MEN who will be responsible for the football fortunes of the Morton High School Indians are shown above as they prepared to put their charges through the gruelling paces of two-a-day practice sessions which began here Monday. Ted Whillock, center, takes over for the first year as head coach and athletic director and will be assisted by three who are brand new to Morton football and one holdover from last year's staff. Left to right they are Bill White, Lester Dupler, Whillock, Doug Reed and Tommy Thompson. Reed and Whillock coached here last year and the other three are new.

Marilyn Cade named 'Miss Cochran County' in contest

Marilyn Cade, 1969 graduate of Whitehouse High School, was chosen as "Miss Cochran County, 1970" on Wednesday afternoon, August 13, in a brief pageant at the county auditorium in Morton.

Ranmer-up in the contest was Rheda Jane Brown, 1969 graduate of Morton High School.

Miss Cade will represent Cochran County in the "Miss South Plains" contest in Cleveland on October 18 in a pageant sponsored by the Levelland Jaycees.

The parents of Miss Cade are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. "Gene" Cade of Morton rural. Rheda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown of Morton.

Preparations for the local contest was aimed too late to prepare a complete pageant. The contestants modeled and presented talent performances before a panel of judges and spectators.

For her talent presentation, Miss Cade made a patriotic speech which was interspersed with patriotic songs on the theme of "What America Means to Me." Miss Brown sang "Climb Every Mountain." The panel of judges was made up of presidents or other representatives of women's and civic clubs in the county. They included Mrs. Ray Griffith, Cochran County Garden Club; Mrs. Rodney Fralin, Emlea Smith Study Club; Mrs. Iva Williams, Elma L. Slaughter Study Club; Mrs. Bud Thomas, L'Allegro Study Club; and Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins, LeFleur Garden Club.

Other judges were Tommy Hawkins, Lions Club; Mrs. Willard Henry, Town and Country Study Club; Mrs. J. L. Schooler, Whiteface Garden Club; Mrs. Leonard Groves, Y-M Study Club; and Ray Griffith, Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Fred Weaver, who has helped with a number of pageants and who is a former South Plains "Maid of Cotton," made arrangements for the local contest, together with Chamber of Commerce manager Leon Kessler. Mrs. Weaver also served as a judge.

Police investigate Morton burglaries

Three burglaries have been reported to Morton police in the past eight days, involving two places of business and Morton High School.

The break-in at the high school occurred on Wednesday night, August 13. Nothing apparently was taken from the school, but some juveniles have been questioned in connection with the incident.

Four or more tires were taken from Luper Tire and Supply last Thursday night. Charges were filed Wednesday morning in the case, according to Police Chief Charley Ellis. Jessie Prieto and Paul Cisneros, local youths who are on probation as a result of earlier burglary convictions, were charged in the case.

Tuesday night, Kate's Kitchen restaurant was burglarized of a small amount of money, probably less than $2. However, damage to an office door and a window broken to gain entrance will amount to some $50, Ellis stated. A juvenile suspect, believed to be from Levelland, has not been questioned by police at the time the Tribune went to press.

Morton remembers distinguished pilot

By ELVIS E. FLEMING

The valedictorian of the class of 1938 from Morton High School, G. A. Davis, became one of the most outstanding fighter pilots in World War II and in the Korean War. He is also believed to be the only graduate of Morton High School to have received the Congressional Medal of Honor.

George Andrew Davis, Jr., was born December 8, 1920, in Dublin, Texas. In the 1930's, he resided with his parents and family on a farm near Maple in Bailey County. "Jiggs," as his friends called him, attended elementary school at the Wilson School in Maple.

There not being a high school at Maple, Davis attended Morton High School. During his senior year, he received awards for speech and track and was chosen the "Best All-Around Boy." At the head of his class upon graduation in 1938, he received a scholarship to Hardin College in Arkansas, where he attended one year.

He returned to the farm until the Second World War broke out. He joined the Air Corps early in 1942 and trained at several fields in Texas.

In February, 1943, not long after he received his commission, Davis married a girl that he had met at church in Maple a few years before.

Davis was sent to the Pacific Theater and was assigned as a fighter pilot in an "island-hopping" unit which helped recapture islands from the Japanese. He flew P-47's and P-51's in 266 missions in World War II. He earned an "ace" rating by destroying seven Japanese fighter planes.

After the war was over, Davis stayed in the Air Force and won wide acclaim as a jet pilot. He often performed as a solo pilot in air acrobatic shows at various Air Force bases.

Davis and his wife, Doris, and their two children made their home in Lubbock. He left Lubbock for the Korean War in September, 1951.

Flying an F-86 jet fighter in Korea, Davis shot down two Russian-made MIG-15 jet fighters on November 28. Two days later he bagged another MIG-15 and three TU-2 propeller-driven bombers.

Davis destroyed two more MIG's on December 5 and four others on the 13th. By destroying 12 enemy planes in 16 days, Davis became the holder of every Allied jet-pilot combat record.

Because he used only one burst from his guns to send an enemy plane plunging to the earth below, Davis was called "One-Burst Davis" by his associates. He used the added speed of a dive to catch his prey, never firing until he was within 600 feet of his target.

After he set his spectacular record, Davis was limited to only one mission per day because he was considered too valuable to risk losing. There was some consideration of sending him home to instruct other pilots in his uncanny methods.

Although regulations called for rotating pilots home after they had shot down five enemy planes, for some reason Davis remained in Korea. His letters to his wife indicated his desire to come home. "They (the MIG's) had better stay away from me, because that is the fastest way

INDIAN LINEUP . . .

WITH FOOTBALL PRACTICE still in its infancy at Morton High School, there has been no starting lineup settled upon but the ten seniors and one junior, all lettermen, pictured above could very well turn out to be the work horses for the squad this year. All are sure to see plenty of action, according to head coach Ted Whillock. On the line, left to

Indian footballers begin workouts

"All the way in 4-AA" is the motto for the 1969 version of the Morton Indians as they work out this week in preparation for the approaching football season. Armed with a practically new coaching staff and ten hefty seniors, head coach Ted Whillock hopes to guide the Tribe to a reversal of last year's 1-8-1 record.

Thirty-two candidates reported Monday morning for workouts that will continue twice daily throughout next week. Eight lettermen, seniors Mike Bryan, Jerry Steed, Larry McClintock, J. D. Wisely, Ralph Soliz, Gary Sullivan, Gerald Baker, and junior Terry Harvey will be called on to fill the vacancies of six starters lost to graduation. In addition, seniors Johnny Arnold, Dennis Clayton, and Roger Sandefer add experienced leadership to the squad. Seven sophomores and juniors are also candidates for starting positions, and other underclassmen are expected to join workouts later in the season. Eight freshmen are working out with the squad.

Although Whillock is beginning his ninth year at Morton, he is serving for the first time as head coach and athletic director. He is especially pleased with his coaching staff and termed their work as showing "lots of enthusiasm."

Returning from last year is Doug Reed who will serve as assistant football, B team Basketball and head track coach. Reed is a 1968 graduate of West Texas State University and will teach biology in high school.

Three new men join the Indian coaching staff. Serving as coach of ninth grade athletics will be Lester Dupler, a 1968 Texas Tech graduate. Dupler coached at Whiteface last year.

Coaches Bill White and Tommy Thompson are new to the coaching ranks. Both will work with the junior high athletic program and will assist with high school football and track. White, a 1969 graduate of Abilene Christian College, is also a graduate of Morton High School. Thompson attended Morton junior high and is a 1969 graduate of Southern State College of Magnolia, Arkansas. He graduated from Sudan High School in 1964. White will teach junior high science and Thomson will be boys' physical education in-

Three Morton youths attend senator's 'day'

Three Cochran County 4-H Club members served refreshments to visitors at the morning and afternoon receptions in the governor's office last Friday during the "Governor-for-a-Day" celebrations which honored Cochran County's state senator, H. J. "Doc" Blanchard of Lubbock.

The Cochran County young people who made the trip to Austin were Larry Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hale; Denise Aldridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hill; and Nan Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ohlen Ray. The local young people accompanied Billy Gunter of Lubbock, district agricultural agent, to the Austin festivities.

Hale, Miss Aldridge, and Miss Ray attended the prayer breakfast at the Commodore Perry Hotel and other activities of the day.

Before the season opener at Plains on September 12, the Indians tentatively are scheduled to host Muleshoe and Seagraves in controlled scrimmages on August 29 and September 5.

Coach Ted Whillock offered nothing but praise for his boys' attitude and work. He stated that he is "real proud" of their progress. His pride also stems from the uniformity of his moderate-sized, but well-balanced squad. Averaging 173 pounds on the line and 170 pounds in the backfield, the Indians will rely on good blocking and hard running for their attack.

Coach Whillock plans to let his squad scramble for starting positions, but early workouts hint at a senior-dominated lineup. Tentative plans include Dennis Clayton and Roger Sandefer at ends, Larry McClintock and J. D. Wisely at tackles, Gary Sullivan and Jerry Steed at guards,

By Libby Mudgett

THERE'S AN ARTICLE in this week's Life magazine that shakes me up a good deal. It's about experiments in marriage (and non-marriage) in Scandinavia. Now it's gotten to where nothing that Scandinavians, in particular the Swedes, do surprises me anymore. The shaking up comes from the beginners of these different things I think I see over here in my own country.

BUT SURELY I'm imagining things. Tell me I am, please.

First there's the "group marriage" explanation. In the one used to illustrate, there's nine members, four men and five women (I think). They all consider themselves spiritually married to one another.

Now two of the couples had been traditionally married, but divorces quickly took care of that little obstacle. Now they're all spiritually married, but emphasize that sexual relationships are kept monogamous.

OH THERE'S BEEN a few shifts in partners, but it's all monogamous!

They hasten to add that their "group marriage" thing is much more intimate than the communes springing up in

Reynolds-Newsom pledge candlelight ceremony vows

Miss Pamela Jo Reynolds became the bride of David Horton Newsom in a candlelight ceremony, Saturday evening, in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Harold Drennan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Newsom. Grandparents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newsom, Levelland, Mr. and America.

And then there's the unwed mothers. There's whole new apartment developments and compounds for them, complete with kindergartens and schools to keep their fatherless children for 12 hours while they work or take government sponsored training to work.

THEY ARE UNDER no pressure to marry to gain either financial security or respectability on account of they already have both.

These child care centers are something. The $50-a-month tuition is underwritten by the state and is manned by trained personnel. Psychologists (it doesn't say which psychologists) claim that children who develop in care centers emerge better balanced than children who grow up in the home (and again it doesn't say what kind of home).

EACH CHILD NAPS at the same time, in identical cribs, blankets, clothing, etc. All toilet train at the same time on identical potties, etc. Sort of like the Army, you know.

There's also beginning to emerge a strange phenomena — the house husband.

In case the wife is bored with housework and kids and likes to work at a job but likes housework and kids, presto! They change places.

IT'S ALL PART of something called "women's rights."

One woman, divorced and pregnant by the man with whom she now lives, believes that marriage ceased to be meaningful when society industrialized and the source of production moved out of the family.

She's not just an ordinary run-of-the-mill person, I guess. She's a Swedish legislator.

THEN THERE'S this female spokesman for women's rights in the Danish parliament that says a housewife's role is pointless. "Cleaning and cooking — it's all so easy nowadays. It's hard just getting through a day. It's wrong for women to think of marriage as a job."

Another female, a Swedish writer, says "keeping the woman in the house is inhuman and economically insane."

NOW ALONG COMES a gallant male, a Swedish politician, who helps run his own house when parliament is not in session. Says he: "The life of a housewife is frustrating. A family should not be based on having the wife at home all day."

Well, there you are. That should be enough! And I'm still waiting for someone to tell me I'm wrong when I say I'm afraid I see the seeds of similarity to that situation in my own beloved country.

I THINK I'LL close by quoting St. Paul, who always had some pretty hard things to say about women. But he did all the time, anyhow. This from Titus 2:4, 5. (modern translation, which helps a little.)

"These older women must train the younger women to live quietly, to love their husbands and their children, and to be sensible and clean minded, spending their time in their own homes, being kind and obedient to their husbands . . ."

Paul wasn't exactly a spokesman for "women's rights."

Mrs. Jim Horton of Whitharral, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hill and Mrs. C. C. Reynolds of Morton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk organza and accented with jeweled Alencon lace. Her veil of French silk illusion was waist length, trimmed with lace, attached to a petal cluster of pearl tear drops. She carried a bouquet of a white orchid complemented by stephanotis and English ivy.

Miss Betsy Crowder was maid of honor. Matron of honor was Mrs. Mayland Abbe of Lubbock with Mrs. Dale DeBord of Midland as bridesmatron. Miss Phyllis Johnson of Calhan, Colo., Miss Trezelle Hill of Mineral Wells and Miss Sandra Hill of Lubbock were bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of pomegranate delusted satin with empire waists and carried nosegays centered with a votive candle surrounded by puffs of pomegranate velvet ribbon and feathered white carnations.

Best man was Joe Newsom, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Dale Johnson, Doyle Johnson and Don Johnson of Calhan, Colo., John Neil Newsom and Len Ray Newsom both of Midland. Ushers were Ken Polk of Lubbock, James Hayes of Whitharral and Dub Hill of Mineral Wells.

Jan Hamilton of Lubbock and Gary Hayes of Whitharral lighted candles. Flower girl was Shelia Polk of Lubbock. Rob Leese of Lubbock was ring bearer.

Mrs. Rex Bessent of Brownwood played the organ and Miss Paula Jordon of Andrews was soloist.

A reception for the couple was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Karen Hayes registered guest. Serving at the bride's table were: Miss Deana DeBerry of Olton, Miss Lynn Hamilton of Lubbock and Mrs. Ronnie Glass of Levelland.

Serving at the groom's table were: Miss Beverly Benham, Lovington, N. M., Miss Mca Jean Rodgers of Post Oak and Miss Kathy Passmore from San Antonio.

For a wedding trip to El Paso and Ruidoso, N. M., the bride wore a pomegranate costume suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

A PLACE TO PRAY

Man can, and should, pray anywhere. God has placed no limitations on his communing with him.

Our Lord has said, "... Ask and ye shall receive." God listens when we seek him, no matter where, however he desires that we gather together in prayer too. "... mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

"ROCKY'S ROAD ROLLER" . . .

ROBERT "ROCKY" HAMILTON, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison, of Morton, is pictured here in the soap box racer with which he won first place in the District Soap Box Derby in Carlsbad, N. M. Rocky's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hamilton of Artesia. Rocky and his family are in Akron, Ohio, this week for the national finals of the Soap Box Derby.

Carlsbad derby winner grandson of Morrisons

Robert "Rocky" Hamilton, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hamilton of Artesia, N. M., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison of Morton, won first place in the District Soap Box Derby in Carlsbad on June 22 and is in Akron, Ohio to get ready for the national Soap Box Derby on Saturday, August 23.

Rocky's prizes in the Carlsbad event included a heat trophy, a huge wall plaque from General Motors, a $500 bond, and $250 in cash for the Ohio trip. The big prizes in Akron are scholarships ranging from $1,000 to $7,500 and totaling $30,000.

The first words Rocky said after winning were, "I'm really going to sleep tomorrow night." His comment reflects the amount of sleep he lost while working on his gravity-powered racer, which he dubbed "Rocky's Road Roller."

Rocky defeated his best friend, Hank Medford III, to win the derby. A total of 29 racers were entered in the event.

Needless to say, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are very proud of their grandson, the racing driver.

Three Way athletes see coaching school football game action

Three Way's Bruce Pruitt and Charlie Abbe represented the Eagles well in Saturday's 1969 Eight-Man All-Star football game played for the state-wide Six and Eight-Man Coaching School held in Levelland. Both Pruitt and Abbe saw considerable action as they helped the West fight back from a 140 deficit before the East finally won, 22-14.

Pruitt scored the points-after-touchdown for the West after Guy Zampt had scored from 45-yards out. The East bounced back with a clinching TD to stretch their lead to 22-8, but a last-minute drive put the West on the scoreboard again to close the margin to 22-14.

Larry Strickland was the star for the East as he passed for one touchdown, set up another on a 41-yard run, and scored four extra points.

The East also won the Six-Man contest Friday night, 18-14, but the West took the Thursday basketball game, 59-45.

DOA official meets with area farmers

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Clarence D. Palmy, who was in Lubbock Wednesday to address a joint annual meeting of four cotton cooperatives headquartered in Lubbock, also met with a six-county agricultural committee representing farmers in Cochran, Terry, Hockley, Yoakum, Lamb, and Bailey Counties.

Don Hamill of Levelland was the chairman for the group. The committee presented to Palmy and to Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock some proposals regarding the cotton situation, grain sorghum conditions, the farm labor problem, and other problems facing farmers on the South Plains. About 50 persons were present for the presentation.

The six-county committee, which does not represent any official farm organization, has been preparing for the meeting with Department of Agriculture officials for many months. Five men from each of the six counties form five sub-committees which deal with different aspects of the farm problem in this area.

Museum board, survey committee have meet

All of the items on display in the Cochran County Historical Museum were properly catalogued during the work days last month, according to a report the museum association's board of directors heard at its monthly meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. H. B. Barker, Evelyn Seagler, and Elvis Fleming reported that each item in the museum has been tagged and recorded under the name of the donor. The museum workers expect to give the donors lists of the items which each has placed in the museum.

The county Historical Survey Committee, which met in joint session with the museum board, was told that the historical markers which have been ordered for the museum building and for the Whiteface hotel will be delivered sometime in January or February.

Fleming resigned as chairman of the committee because he has moved out of the county. Mrs. Seagler was elected to replace Fleming on the advisory committee of the museum board. A nominating committee made up of Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Neal Rose, and Mrs. Hume Russell was appointed to choose another chairman.

Eight members and guests attended the meeting at the Wig Wam Restaurant.

This Costs Texans $ 2 MILLION A DAY

YOU HELP PAY THE BILL

The way cars are being wrecked and the way folks are being injured and killed in traffic accidents, it looks like this year's Texas traffic toll will top $800 million. This figures out to be more than $2 million a day and that is a lot of money!

When you pay for your auto insurance you help pay this bill because most of your insurance rate is for the amount of money insurance companies pay for traffic accidents. Add to this the amount they pay for autos destroyed or damaged by collision, fire, hail, theft and pilferage. Lower these pay amounts and your insurance costs will go down. Raise these amounts that insurance companies must pay and your auto insurance costs will have to go up. It is as simple as that.

Here are three ways to cut your auto insurance costs.

1. Help reduce the number of Texas traffic accidents. You can do this by driving the very best you can and by insisting that traffic laws are enforced in your town, county, and state. Let your Mayor, County Officials and Governor Smith know that you want all traffic laws enforced.

2. Help cut down on car thefts and vandalism by locking your car and taking the keys whenever you park. Always try to park your car in a safe place.

3. Ask your insurance agent to show you how you can save money on your auto insurance by taking full advantage of the Driver Education, Two Car and other discounts now offered in Texas.

Auto insurance costs will be cut in Texas after accidents and their costs go down. You and other motorists of Texas can bring this about . . . if you really want to. IT IS UP TO YOU!

Putting Money in the Bank

••• a bank you can draw on for customers, a job, friends in time of trouble, schools for your children, churches for spiritual help ... and the good life in this community ... where everybody is Somebody

Every time you spend a dollar in this community for goods and services, a substantial part of that dollar automatically becomes an investment in an enriched social and business life for YOU and your family and friends.

It's an investment you can draw on every day of your life ... an investment that pays big dividends in happiness and prosperity, as it strengthens and builds up the vitality of this area in which you live ... and in which YOU are important.

Contrast this with what the community-building and supporting part of your dollar does for you when you spend it away from home, send it to some mail order house, or surrender it to some migratory peddler.

It's gone. To support some other area ... to build up wealth that YOU can never draw on ... and to strengthen those who aggressively drain off the trade of your community ... to weaken your business, your schools and churches, to eliminate your job, and devalue your property.

ELVIS E. FLEMING

THIS, DEAR HEARTS, will be our Song as far as this column and short career in journalism are concerned. For the past three months, we have been writing the majority of news items in the Tribune, as well as feature pieces and this here now column. We don't believe, however, that the Tribune will win any Pulitzer prizes because of our contributions. Please allow us the luxury of some personal references in this last column.

IT HAS BEEN ENRICHING to meet the boards of directors, city council, city commissioners, etc., and other people who scoop around for news scoops. Our wife has had her patience tried, especially when we talk in headlines, like "Irate Husband Refuses to Eat Leftovers." Or when we use the editorial "we" in conversation as we have stylized this column. Like, "We can't find our brown belt."

WE HAVE MOVED to Roswell, where we will be teaching American History at Eastern New Mexico University - Roswell Campus. When we told Morton Superintendent Bob Travis that we were resigning, his first comment was, "I sure hate to see the Symphonies break up." We guess that august aggregation has become somewhat of an institution in these parts.

WE ARE DOMICILED within a stone's throw, both literally and figuratively, of the ENMUR campus. It won't be too bad, though. There are few radicals in the student body; no ultra-liberals in the administration; and no kooks on the faculty. Until now, at least.

PEOPLE HAVE SAID that we'd get used to New Mexico soon. That may be true for most people, but we've been teaching Texas history so long that being a Texan is part of our career. These New Mexicans who take our U.S. history course will come out knowing more Texas history than your average New Mexican. However, judging from the people we've met, your average New Mexican IS a Texan, transplanted.

IT MAY BE HARD to get used to a state where the inter-scholastic league (or whatever they call it in N.M.) activities for high schools include Indian war dances and hoop dances.

AND OF COURSE we have fought horse-race gambling and liberalized beer and liquor laws in Texas every time we had a chance. It remains to be seen whether living in a state where such iniquity is flagrant will corrupt us or not.

FRANCES BEVERLY, our four-year-old, was playing around in the back yard one day right after we moved to Roswell. We were out there putting her gym set together, when she inquired, "Daddy, where did I come from?" We thought, "Well, the time has come for a little birds-and-bees talk." Approaching the question from another angle first, however, we wisely answered, "You came from Morton." That was what she wanted to know; it seems the little boy two doors down had been telling her that he came from Carlsbad, so she wanted to be able to tell him where she came from, too.

THE HOSPITAL BOARD had long faces back in June when there were only four people in the hospital, because it takes an average of 16 patients a day to break even. A couple of weeks later when they met, they were informed that there were 21 people in the hospital by then. You should've seen their faces light up!

WE ARE IMPRESSED by the competence, sincerity, and integrity of the hospital board members. The average citizen probably has little appreciation of the work that they (and other such bodies) accomplish. We must pass this one on: last week at the board's meeting, they were looking over the bills, etc. Some of the bills were for consulting-doctors, anesthetists, etc., along with routine stuff. As they were all busily signing bills, Elmer Gardner commented, "Dr. Pepper doesn't get as much as these other doctors, does he?"

ONE STUDENT'S RECORDS that we

Mrs. Thomas Dayton III

Miss Crowder, Mr. Dayton say vows here Monday

Miss Elizabeth Ann (Betsy) Crowder and Delmar Thomas Dayton III were united in marriage at 10 a.m. Monday in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Kenneth Wyatt officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Crowder and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Dayton of Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of dotted Swiss over a fitted sheath of bridal tulle. The fitted bodice featured a rolled collar and the short fitted sleeves were cuffed in a border of Venise lace. The high rise waistline was marked by a border of the lace which was repeated around the entire hemline which swept to a chapel train. Her elbow length silk illusion veil was attached to a headpiece of pearl petals and crystal points. For something old the bride wore the gloves her paternal grandmother wore on her wedding day. For blue she wore a garter, handmade by a close friend. The bride carried a cascade of daisies centered with white roses.

Mrs. Jimmy Blackburn of Dallas was matron of honor and Nancy and Betsy Dayton both of Chagrin Falls were junior bridesmaids. They wore empire street-length dresses of yellow delustered satin and carried nosegays of white daisies.

D. T. Dayton served his son as best man and Dr. John A. Burke of San Antonio and Jimmy Blackburn of Dallas were groomsmen and also seated guests.

Mrs. Peguese Houston, organist presented musical selections and Glenn Shackelford of Tyler sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception was given in the home of the brides parents. Registering guests were Mrs. Wimon Williams and Miss Sue Tuttle.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth embroidered with roses. The center piece was made of white daisies and stock. Crystal appointments were used. Mrs. Neal Rose, Mrs. John Burke, Jr., and Mrs. Ray Garrison served. The Groom's table was centered with the bridal bouquet and featured silver appointments. Miss Margaret Ledbetter and Mrs. Pierce Bruckner served.

Other members of the house party included: Mrs. Raymond Ross, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Owen Egger, Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter, Mrs. E. V. Boynton, Mrs. Courtney Sonders, Mrs. Robert DeBusk,

IT'S BEEN A BALL, Y'ALL. The response that this column has received has been most gratifying. Our thanks to our faithful readers; your comments are too kind. We've done a little ribbing, a little giggling, a little toe-tromping, a little critiquing. We've tried to offer food for thought, a little humor, a little philosophy, a little of the unusual. We trust that the space that has been devoted to this column has been worthwhile.

A DEPARTING THOUGHT: What would this old world be like if everybody else were just exactly like you? !Vaya con Dios!

I know to come home."

While he was on his 60th Korean mission on February 10, 1952, Lt. Col. Davis and his wingman met 12 MIG's trying to attack some U.S. bombers. After he had downed two of the enemy planes, Davis' F-86 was hit and he crashed into a mountain without bailing out. His body has never been recovered.

The medals which Davis had received for his flying accomplishments included two Silver Stars, the Distinguished Flying Cross with one Oak Leaf Cluster, an Air Medal with eight clusters, and the Distinguished Service Cross.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Davis requested an investigation to find out why Davis had not been rotated home according to regulations. When Air Force officials told her that there was nothing to investigate, Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock demanded action.

General Vandenberg conducted an inquiry in the matter. He told Mahon that two other officers testified that Davis had stayed in Korea at his own request. Although Mrs. Davis contended that he was asked to stay, nothing further came of the investigation.

In ceremonies in Lubbock on May 14, 1954, the Congressional Medal of Honor was awarded posthumously to Davis. The medal was presented to his widow in ceremonies attended by several top Air Force officials, Congressman Mahon, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, and a number of Davis' relatives. Davis' sister, Mrs. William H. "Bill" Eubanks, and his brother, R. L. "Mutt" Davis, both of Maple, were present for the Lubbock ceremonies.

Certainly the accomplishments of George A. Davis, Jr., are worthy of remembrance by those of us who are indebted to men like him who gave their lives that we might continue to live as free Americans.
