Whiteface begins to re-build

With the dark pall of terror still vividly fresh in their minds, the citizens of Whiteface are hard at work this week rebuilding their town from the destruction wreaked by massive tornado actions Friday night.

There were no local deaths but property damage was phenomenally high from the huge twister that left its grizzly mark on almost every square inch of the town. An unofficial survey indicates that there were 32 persons from Whiteface treated for injuries at hospitals in Morton and Leveland. Most of the injuries were minor cuts from flying glass.

The raging funnel that ripped its way through Whiteface was one of several that ranged over the Panhandle-South Plains area Friday night and Saturday morning leaving a death toll of 22 and a list of injured soaring toward the 200 mark. Latest estimate by a state-appointed board of total property damage by all the tornadoes had reached $10 million and was still climbing by press time Wednesday.

There was no estimate of damage at Whiteface but it is believed to be well in excess of $1 million.

The twister played no favorites. Homes, business houses, schools, gins, elevators and dozens of other buildings received the brunt of its rage. Many people have described cowering on the floor while roofs and walls were literally torn from their houses.

Possibly the most fortunate of the people of Whiteface were the 150 who were in the high school auditorium attending the senior play when the tornado struck without warning at 8:50 p.m. The play was appropriately titled "Lights Out", and the audience thought it was part of the act when the lights suddenly went out. But they knew better in seconds as the players shouted "it's the real thing" and the windows were blown out with an ear-splitting roar.

Terror and confusion reigned as the screaming audience crawled under their seats in a hailstorm of showering glass. They may have been fortunate because of what could have happened to them had they been caught in the open or in a less solidly built structure.

Even though built of solid brick and generally heavy construction, the auditorium was heavily damaged with the tottering roof making it unsafe to enter the following morning.

All of the school system buildings suffered substantial damage, with one large cinder block utility building being totally destroyed. The high school building, elementary building and the gymnasium all received heavy damage. The school bus shed was a shambles, with half of it blown away and the other half collapsed onto the buses parked inside.

All Whiteface schools were dismissed for at least this week while damage is being assessed and emergency repairs completed to make them safe for occupancy.

All electrical power and water were cut off immediately when the storm struck adding vastly to the misery and terror of the townspeople. The water supply was restored at about midnight Saturday and partial electrical power was restored by Tuesday afternoon.

AWESOME POWER OF THE WIND . . .

THE FANTASTIC POWER contained in the funnel of a tornado is clearly illustrated by the destruction lavied in a matter of seconds on these grain elevator tanks in Whiteface. This scene of devastation was repeated throughout the entire town as the deadly twister reduced it to the condition of a World War One battlefield before moving on to wreak similar havoc to Whitharral where it produced one fatality. Additional picture pages can be found inside.

New board of education seated

The 1970 version of the Morton Independent School District Board of Education took its seat at the regular monthly meeting of the board Monday night.

The oath of office was administered by William J. Hodge to new board members Bill Foust and Ronald Coleman. The two were elected to the board April 4 and are replacing retiring board members Van Greene and John Fincannon.

Don Lynskey was named president of the board by acclamation in an election following the swearing-in ceremony. C. E. Dolle was elected vice-president and Robert Yearby was elected secretary, both also by acclamation.

The business session opened with a discussion by school counselor Robert Taylor of his recent visit with school authorities in Austin. Taylor explained that the primary purpose of the Austin meeting was to acquaint school administrators and school board members with the serious problems facing Texas schools today. He further stated that primary emphasis was placed on the problems of student unrest. Further discussion centered around the school boards' legal responsibility and the courts opinions concerning student civil rights.

The board agreed to conform to the provisions of Daylight Saving Time in order to be coordinated with other community activities.

Payment of the bills for the month of March in the amount of $66,429.90 was approved.

Superintendent Bob E. Travis advised the board that the average daily attendance in the Morton schools is stable at approximately 1,000. This figure will allow for 40 teachers whose salaries will be paid out of state funds, Travis stated.

Travis was given authority by the board to accept or reject, as he sees fit, an offer from a Lubbock office supply firm to trade in used school typewriters at a set allowance for standard and electric models. No local school funds were to be required in the transaction.

Mrs. Mike Doss was granted a leave of absence for one year to work on her Masters degree at Texas Tech. The leave was granted with the understanding that she will be employed again if there is an existing vacancy at the time of her return.

Final item of business on the agenda was the granting of approval for the payment to the Educational Service Center in Lubbock of $1.00 per student in average daily attendance for the use of educational films used by the Morton schools from the center.

(Doc) Blanchard, who is highly knowledgeable on the agriculture of the High Plains, inspired the FFA members to continue in their chosen profession after graduation. Registration for first grade, kindergarten slated May 4-5

It is once again time to register for the next school term in Morton which is the 1970-71 school year, district officials announced here this week.

There is a difference in procedures this year in that there will be a kindergarten registration in the Morton schools which has not existed in the past.

The two-day registration period will include both five and six-year-old children, those that will be beginning school for the first time and those who will be entering the kindergarten.

On Monday, May 4, at 2:45 p.m., the parents and children who will be starting to school in August will meet to fill out registration cards and to receive instructions for the coming school year. This meeting will be held in the school cafeteria. Parents were reminded that, this is important, and urged to make their plans to be in attendance.

On Tuesday afternoon, May 5, the principal will meet with the parents of the children who will be age 5 on or before April 1, 1970. This year all schools in Texas will be operating a kindergarten. Your child may be eligible to attend. There are requirements which must be met. These will be discussed in this meeting. The meeting will be in the school cafeteria at 2:45 p.m.

The state law states that "Pre-school (kindergarten) shall be extended first to the educationally handicapped." This means those children who (1) have difficulty in reading, writing, and understanding the English Language, and (2) who are members of families whose income is below a subsistence level may take advantage of this opportunity.

★ More tryouts

There will be a second tryout held for the Morton Little League for new players to be held at Little League Park Saturday, April 25 beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The second tryout session was made necessary by low attendance at the first one he'd last Saturday, Bill Wells, players agent announced. If you intend to play Little League ball this season, you are urged to attend this session.

Boys from surrounding communities that would like to join the league are also urged to attend, Wells said. There is a shortage of players and lots of opportunity to play, he added.

New cattle auction company adds to industry in Morton

A major new industry for Morton is fast taking shape three miles north of town. The Morton Livestock and Auction Company, Inc., recently formed by five local businessmen, is nearing completion of its auction barn and all-steel pens for the opening of business in the early part of May. The company is remodeling and re-equipping a large existing steel building to be the auction facility which is located on Highway 214 and across from the Emmett Jones feed lot.

When completed, the facility will have accommodations for 200 persons and will have the capacity to handle 1,000 head of cattle, sheep or hogs at a time. The company's aim is to draw cattle, sheep and hogs from the local area for sale on a regular weekly basis, Groves said.

Fairbanks Morse scales with a load capacity of 30,000 lbs. are available to the customer. Remodeling of the building is being done by Forrest Lumber Company of Bobby Taylor is constructing the pens. Acquisition and construction costs of the facilities were described as being in excess of $50,000.

In addition to Groves, those having an interest in the corporation include, Fred E. Emmett Jones, Dalton Hodnett and J. Jackson.

Five arrested here on burglary charge

Four local men were apprehended by Cochran County Sheriff's personnel Monday in connection with a burglary on J. D. Thomas farm five miles north of Morton. A fifth man was arrested Tuesday in connection with the same offense, the sheriff announced.

Andrew Duran, Jr., 17, and Felix Luz, both of Morton and Lewis Hall, 20, and Johnny Salas, 20, both of Whiteface, were first arrested for being drunk in the early Monday morning. Shortly after being booked, the burglary complaint was received and subsequent investigation connected them with the offense, the sheriff stated. The fifth man arrested was Tomas Ortiz.

Taken in the burglary were 24 packages of meat from a deep freeze on the farm. The meat was recovered by sheriff's deputies from a car driven by Salas from a local residence.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I have just received a note from Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Skaggs of Snyder, Texas, informing me of the death of Mr. Skaggs' mother, Mrs. W. L. Skaggs, of De Leon, Texas on April 13.

Bud and Lois, as they are fondly called by their friends in Morton, only moved to Snyder a few months ago and they have many, many friends in the Morton area who would be interested in knowing of the death of Bud's mother. Since it would be impossible for me to tell everyone who would be concerned, please print this note for me.

Mrs. W. L. Skaggs was 76 years of age, was a member of the Baptist Church and is survived by one son, three daughters, one step-son, 23 grandchildren, fifty great-grandchildren and two brothers and three sisters.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Daniel Rozell

Morton Tribune:
Dear Sirs:

I just wanted to say a few words concerning the show-cases of some of the empty stores cross town. I wonder how many have noticed the work that some of the ladies have been doing to camouflage that deserted look. Well, I for one have and feel very appreciative. I just hadn't noticed any mention of it and thought maybe everyone was like me and wanted for George to do it.

Sincerely, Mrs. F. J. Collins

The meeting opened with the singing, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," lead by Mrs. Buddy Greener, followed by the Bible enthronement, Mrs. Joe Prado, Jr. read the Scripture reading, Mrs. Herbert Greener, host parish president, gave the welcome with Mrs. Robert Greener, deanery president, responding.

The budget presented by Mrs. C. J. Feagley, Muleshoe, was accepted.

Rev. Hubert Halfmann, chairman of the diocesan Liturgical Commission, spoke on the theme, "In the Spirit of the Gospel."

Three workshops were held: Liturgy I on the new rite of Baptism conducted by Rev. Hubert Halfmann; Liturgy II on the new funeral rites was conducted by Rev. Thomas Irlbeck and the Spanish workshop, Liturgy III, was conducted by Rev. Emilio Abeyta.

Rev. David Greka, host pastor, introduced the clergy at the luncheon. Bishop Lawrence DeFalco of Amarillo was the luncheon speaker. He spoke of the need for vocations in our diocese.

Mrs. Pat Poundstone, diocesan president, in her address, said "the theme phrase is used again and again in the documents of Vatican II. For example, the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity says that Christians are to make a new human society with the spirit of the Gospel. Led by the light of the Gospel and the mind of the church and motivated by Christian charity, Christians are to do what they can to renew social attitudes, social climate and social structure with a gospel spirit which differs radically from the worldly spirit which puts things before people and man before God."

Credentials chairman, Mrs. C. E. Dolle of Morton reported 107 attending the convention.

Workshop summaries were given by Mrs. Frank Melcher, Brownfield and Mrs. Tony Marquez, Earth.

St. Philip Benizi Guadalupanas of Shalwater will host next year's convention.

MHS class tourney gets underway today

Fierce competition and top basketball play will highlight the annual Morton High School Class Tournament that gets underway today at 6:30 p.m.

The two-day affair, to be played today and Saturday and sponsored by the MHS Athletic Booster Club, features boys and girls teams from each of the four high school classes. Admission will be 25c for all students, including players, and 50c for adults.

Thursday's games will match the freshmen against the juniors and the sophomores against the seniors. The winners and losers will meet in the finals Saturday with games beginning at 6:30.

A two-quarter girls' game will precede each boys' game.

The senior class is the traditional winner of the annual classic, but local fans expect stiff competition from the three lower classes. The seniors are handicapped in that only three of their members saw regular basketball action this year. The juniors, however, will enjoy the benefits of the play of all-star Terry Harvey, and all region stars, George Pritchett and M. C. Collins.

The sophomores cannot be left out of the picture as they will feature Elton Patton, Keith Embry, Bryant and Eddie Lewis, and Willie Holland, along with several other good players.

This year's freshman class feels that they will not be outclassed in the competition as they will feature a tall strong team with considerable experience.

There will be no games Friday night.

The VA's home loan guaranty program, signed into law in June, 1944, granted its first loan to Miles E. Meyers for purchase of a two-story row house in Washington, D. C.

1st Vice President, Mrs. Robert Martinez, Littlefield; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Walter Gerik, Pep; Secretary, Mrs. Carl Shambarger, Levelland; Treasurer, Mrs. Billy Gerik, Pep; Historian, Mrs. Joe Camarillo, Earth; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Herbert Greener, Morton.

These young ladies will be modeling wardrobes of 100% cotton.

★ Parents take heed

There will be a meeting of all fathers and mothers of Frontier Babe Ruth Baseball League players here Friday.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the city fire hall and all mothers and fathers are urged to attend.

There will be an election of officers for both the fathers and mothers associations, Maurice LeWallen, league secretary-treasurer, has announced.

This is only for the parents of boys that play in Morton with Whiteface and Sundown not involved, he emphasized.

Mrs. Silvers makes statement on her race for County Clerk

To the Voters of Cochran County:

It is my purpose to call on all citizens of this county to ask for your continued support in the race for County and District Clerk. I also want to tell you how much I appreciate the support you have given me in the past. I really do enjoy my visits with you in your homes, on the streets, or at your places of business.

I realize, however, that I may not be fortunate enough to find all of you at home or at work, I am taking this mean of soliciting your vote and influence.

I have served as County and District Clerk in the most efficient, economical and courteous way possible. Why train a new public servant when there is an experienced and successful person who is ready, willing and able?

Luncheon given by Lighter Later Tops

The Lighter Later Tops Club met April 15 in the home of Mrs. Brenda Gardner for a low calorie luncheon.

Mrs. Adala Alaquez was crowned 1969 "Tops Queen" and presented a corsage and crown charm bracelet.

Mrs. Donileta Chesshir was runner-up and also received a corsage.

Mrs. Gene Bridges led the group in the Tops pledge and Mrs. Marie Adams presented the program on "being Honest with yourself and others."

Secret Pal names were drawn to encourage each other to lose weight. A new contest was started to run through May 27.

Thirteen members attended the luncheon.

The VA is the largest independent government agency, employing more than 107,000 full-time people, with about 87 percent of this staff assigned to the Department of Medicine and Surgery.

The first veteran's benefit on record in America is one enacted by the Pilgrims of Plymouth Colony in 1636.

VA operates 166 hospitals, 16 domiciliary, six restoration centers, 63 nursing home care units and outpatient clinics, and one of the nation's outstanding medical research programs.

America's tradition of providing for disabled veterans dates back to England, nearly two centuries before the United States became a nation.

No application is necessary for widows of servicemen and veterans who died after January 1957 of service-connected causes to receive increased payments under VA's new dependency and indemnity compensation law.

The Veterans Administration in its present form was created by Executive Order on July 21, 1930.

The outlook for cotton legislation continues to be clouded by differences of opinion on several issues between the Administration and the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture.

Donald Johnson, Executive Vice Pres. of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who just returned from Washington, reports that Subcommittee members are now considerably closer to agreement with the Administration, "but there is still some negotiating to be done before full accord is reached."

The Administration wrote the most recent draft of a bill, labeled "Print Number 6." The Subcommittee has read it through and suggested several revisions, having to do with "numbers" and minor language changes in various sections of the bill rather than its basic provisions. It is thought now that USDA policy makers and Administration officials will review the Subcommittee's revisions and in light of these may well have other suggestions of their own.

Still to be resolved is the level of the loan, the maximum acreage that producers can be required to "set aside" from production, the fate of acreage allotment leasing, release and reapportionment of acreage and other features of lesser importance.

As of April 17, according to Johnson, it appears that the best that can be hoped for is that a bill might reach the House floor by May 1. The subcommittee hopes to send something up to the full committee by April 22, and it is known that full committee Chairman Bob Poage (D-Tex.), will push it through the committee as fast as possible.

The full committee has already voted on dairy and wool sections of the bill and on a small land retirement program. The Committee has under consideration a wheat and feed grain bill and is expected to vote on these at any time.

U. S. cotton producers should shoot for production of an absolute minimum of 10.75 million bales of cotton in 1969-70 according to Donnell Echols of Lamesa, President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock based cotton producer organization.

The cotton carryover at the end of this marketing year July 31 is still expected to be around 6 million bales, about half a million less than last summer and the lowest level since the early 1950's.

Prospects for combined domestic mill use and exports in 1969-70 total only about 10.75 million bales, 2.5 for export and around 8.25 million for domestic consumption.

So Echols points out that U. S. producers must produce at least 10-3/4 million bales this crop year just to maintain the current carryover. And most in the industry are agreed that a 6 million bale carryover is not enough to provide cotton's customers both here and abroad with an adequate supply of all cotton qualities. They are borne out in this contention by the present lack of cotton in this country stapling below an inch. Virtually none of this type cotton is available for either domestic or foreign users, and this situation is obviously causing U. S. cotton to lose markets.

Failure to produce an adequate crop this year, according to Echols, will cause more domestic mills to abandon cotton in favor of substitute fibers and customers abroad will doubtless shift to other sources of supply. And some of the losses would be losses impossible for cotton to recover.

"Obviously every farmer's planting decisions must first take into consideration the immediate profit and loss prospect," Echols concludes, "but we also need to look beyond this year or even next year, because if we don't produce the cotton to supply our customers, cotton will have no future at all."

Short course . . .

Wrapping up the Monday night session will be Howard County Agent Paul Gross speaking on "Use of Existing Facilities for Small Farm Operators."

Leo White of Plains, Yoakum County Agricultural Agent will preside at the Tuesday night session. This session will begin with Dr. Bill Thomas discussing "Management for Maximum Litter Size." Martin Sartin, Extension Area Farm Management Specialist from Lubbock will follow and discuss "What is an Economical Swine Unit."

"Diseases That Limit Sow Productivity and a Swine Health Program" will be discussed Tuesday night by Dr. Gilbert Hollis.

Discussions on financing swine operations will be presented by D. E. Benham, President of the First State Bank of Morton and Trueman Murdoch, supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration of Morton.

Completing the Shortcourse will be Dr. Orts discussing cutting and measuring of market barrows and carcass results of the on-foot evaluation.

Both County Agent White and McClung encourage all pork producers and potential producers in the area to make plans and attend this swine shortcourse. It should prove to be quite informative, and all guest speakers will be available for individual consultation following the programs. This will offer interested individuals an opportunity to seek advice or additional information with regards to their individual situation.

The people of Whiteface did not lack for aid and comfort from their neighbors. The twister had hardly departed the area when the vanguard of people from the surrounding area began arriving to help restore order and aid in any way possible.

Morton was especially well represented. Large numbers of persons from here performed valuable services for those stricken and donations of food, clothing and working hands were phenomenal.

The work of trained personnel in many fields sent there by various Morton agencies was highly instrumental in the quick recovery the town is making. The Morton civil defense team, the Morton fire and police departments and the city utilities department had trained men on the scene almost immediately. The Cochran county Red Cross Chapter also performed valuable services, as did many other local organizations.

National Guard troops from Levelland and Brownfield cordoned off the town from the outside and mounted guards throughout the streets in efforts to cut down sight-seeer traffic and lessen the possibility of looting. The rifling of some women's purse left behind when the high school auditorium was evacuated, and the disappearance of the approximately $250 in receipts from the play, are the only instances of looting or theft that were reported.

Friday, April 17, 1970 will undoubtedly be a night that will live long in the memory of the citizens of Whiteface, to be enlarged upon as time dims the sharp focus of their memories. It can be looked back upon by them as a night for bravery, courage and the will to win through.

Their recovery powers are well attested to by the way they have already begun to fight back and have dug in their heels in the long, hard pull to rebuild their town. Their spirit evinces the deepest admiration from all who are privileged to be a witness.

VA's new dependency and indemnity compensation rates for widows of servicemen and veterans who died on or after Jan. 1, 1957, of service-connected causes provide for payment of $167 monthly for the lowest ranking enlisted man. This compares to an old rate of $134.

During Fiscal Year 1969, VA treated 868,340 patients in its facilities, non-VA hospitals, state homes and private nursing homes.

Do you put a higher price on an Olds than we do?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

Cutlass S: The sporty Olds—one of nine Olds models priced under $2995—right down with a lot of low-priced names. But Cutlass really widens the value gap with standard features like these: Regular-gas Rocket V-8 □ Nylon-blend loop-pile carpeting □ Foam-padded seats □ Deluxe steering wheel □ Bi-bulbed tires □ Door side-guard beams □ Recessed windshield wipers □ Hidden radio antenna.

Comments on Conservation

By Wayne Wilcox

SODBUSTER — that's the name the Plains Rancher called the man who plowed the prairie. It wasn't a complimentary term. In fact, the rancher was degrading the person he called a sodbuster. The rancher viewed the destruction of native sod or grass as a curse to the plains.

Today more and more ranchers are becoming sodbusters. On the better land, native grass is being replaced by rye and vetch for winter grazing. Hybrid sorghums are being used for summer grazing.

J. E. Birdwell is building quite an empire near Muleshoe. He is shooting for forage production that will carry 10,000 cows—year long. Irrigation and fertilization play a big role in his operation.

Darwood Marshall of Whiteface and Dr. Dean of Dallas have turned sodbusters. Rex Allison's heavy equipment is turning part of the Dick Lowe Ranch into temporary pasture. Here, too, annual planted crops, fertilization, and irrigation will play the key roles in forage production.

Yep, it looks like the term sodbuster may have taken on a new personality.

Bookmobile schedule

The High Plains Bookmobile will be in the area on the following dates:

Newspaper scholarship contest applications are being sought

West Texas Press Association is looking for another winner in its $300 newspaper scholarship contest.

Applications in the 1970 contest will be received from high school seniors until May 8, Richard H. Perry, chairman of the scholarship committee, has announced.

Applications should be sent to Richard H. Perry, The Ballinger Ledger, Box 111, Ballinger, Texas 76821. Announcement of the winner will be made by May 20.

West Texas Press Association, which started the newspaper scholarship in 1966, has four students in college this year. One will graduate this spring.

Rules for the scholarship contest have been mailed to high school principals and to newspaper editors or publishers of the West Texas Press Association area towns, who will be glad to help with the necessary application details.

Interested students should talk with their principal or editor and start immediately to prepare the application.

All applicants must be in the upper 25 per cent of their class, must have demonstrated ability in newspaper journalism and a desire for a newspaper career.

The winner will receive $200 per year ($100 per semester) for each of the four years of college, providing satisfactory academic requirements are met.

Eleven West Texas colleges and universities have been designated for scholarship winners by WTPA. These are Abilene Christian College, Angelo State College, Hardin-Simmons University, Howard Payne College, Midwestern University, Sul Ross College, Texas Tech University, University of Texas at El Paso, Texas Christian University, Wayland College and West Texas State University.

College students aid cleanup of towns struck by tornado

Approximately 150 South Plains College students have been aiding in the clean-up and reconstruction of homes and businesses in Whiteface and Whitharral. The South Plains College Student Council voted Monday night to expand this aid and attempt to raise money and secure food and clothing for these two communities.

Activity proceeds to go to the campaign sponsored by the Council includes all-campus carwash to be held in about eight different places Thursday and Friday afternoons on the SPC campus. The proceeds from all these carwashes will go to the tornado stricken towns.

Carwashes will be held in the parking lots of all campus dormitories therefore anyone in town should find time and a place to have their car or cars washed. The price charged will be $1.00 per vehicle for an outside wash only; if the owner desires both an inside and outside finished job, the charge will be $1.50. Satisfaction is promised on all vehicles washed by the college students.

The parking lots of Frazier Hall, Stroud Hall, Forrest Hall, Lamar Hall, Magee Hall, Gillespie Hall, South Sue Spencer and North Sue Spencer will be the locations of the carwashes.

In addition to the carwashes, persons attending the free concert by the College's Texan Band and Choir will be encouraged to make cash donations or to bring food and clothing donations. Receptacles will be placed at the SPC Auditorium door for the purpose of collection of those items.

The concert, which is an annual spring-time event of the Music Department at the college, will be an entertaining program that will be enjoyed by all who attend. No admission is charged, however, the donations are encouraged and patrons can be assured that all money, food or clothing will go directly to Whiteface or Whitharral.

School choirs slate annual Indian Capers

MHS choir students have been working hard in preparation for the annual Indian Capers presentation that is staged annually by the school choral department. This year's edition will be presented Friday, May 1, at the county auditorium.

With a theme of "Music Of Our Land," the junior high and high school choirs will give a variety music program that includes something for every individual taste in music.

The selections, as varied as the American music scene today, range from top country and western sounds to the pop beat.

Outstanding individual numbers also will also be presented.

Director for the program is Mr. Bruce Ayres, choral instructor for MHS. Ayres has been featured on programs throughout the southwest and is a highly popular attraction in the area in his own right.

The MHS choral director will be featured on Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour July 19.

High school speakers have busy schedule

With four separate projects in preparation at the same time, the Morton High School Speech Department has been the scene of considerable activity for the past two weeks.

Two of the projects will be presented at an assembly Tuesday at 1:15 for the high school and junior high as the speech class will perform two one-act plays. The first play will be the contest performance given two weeks ago at the district contest. The play, "Impromptu," features Helen Lynch, Kirby Gresham, Cindy Kuehler, and Larry Moore. The public is welcome to attend the plays.

The second play is a comedy farce entitled, "It's Cold In Them Thar Hills." The cast includes John Fincannon, Anita Jones, Larry McClintock, Sherry Macdonald, Geneva Turney, Debbie Kuehler, Rita Bedwell, Kathleen Joyce, Steve Crockett, Glo Gray, and George Pritchett.

Speech students also competed with other MHS scholastics in the district literary meet Friday and Saturday. Sherry Macdonald placed second in girls' persuasive speaking. Other students participating included Helen Lynch, Debbie Kuehler, John Fincannon, Gerald Grusendorf, Barbara Brown, Becky Harris, Sherry Fred, Tommy Lewis, Glo Gray, J. Wayne McDermott, Nan Ray, Nancy Courtney, Lanita Combs, Susan Reyes and Mike Hunter.

Both the girls' and boys' debate teams were defeated by district champions. Helen Lynch and Debbie Kuehler lost to Denver Girl in girls' debate and Gerald Grusendorf and John Fincannon were edged by Frenship.

Donna Hofman named Who's Who at SP

Donna Hofman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hofman of Bell Ranch, New Mexico and former Morton residents, has been named to Who's Who by the college faculty at South Plains College and will also be recognized at the May 5 meeting of the South Plains College Faculty Women's Club in the Student Union Building as one of the "Outstanding Women on Campus."

Donna is a graduate of Morton High School and is now a sophomore at South Plains majoring in mathematics. She was a member of Methodist Student Organization, Women's Recreation Association, Math-Science Club, Texan Band, Phi Theta Kappa, Texan Cheerleader and one of the sixteen outstanding Women on Campus her freshman year. This year she is a wing advisor in Gillespie Hall, Student Council, M.S.D., W.R.A., Texan Band, Phi Theta Kappa and Texan Cheerleader.

A third of all Australian government bonds and company shares and debentures sold each year are bought by the pension funds and life companies in Australia.

Mr. White speaks to Club on Lubbock State School

Bobby C. White, from the Lubbock State School for Mentally Retarded, spoke to the 1936 Study Club at their meeting April 15 at the home of Mrs. Maurice Lewallen.

Mrs. James St. Clair was in charge of the program "Because West Texans Care" and introduced Mr. White.

He gave the members facts concerning the school, its services, program and plans for the future. "The school can accommodate only 282 at present, however, plans are to eventually accommodate 828. This will be only a small portion of the estimated 30,000 eligible for the program in this area, a section covering 52 counties with a population of over a million," Mr. White stated.

Those eligible are the ones with a tested IQ of below seventy which according to law in Texas is the classification for a retardate. In addition to the resident students at the school there is provided a day care program for those who live at home but attend the school for academic or dorm training; a diagnostic and evaluation center where suspected retardates may be tested, by pre-arranged appointments; an emergency 14 day study program allowing the temporary admittance of a child as a relief measure for his family; a system of half-way houses where students over 20 with job potential are given sheltered living, away from the school, taught how to get a job, how to manage transportation, how to care for themselves and save their money until they are able to become totally independent, leading useful, happy lives.

In addition to the school at Lubbock Mr. White explained the operation of satellite schools in many area towns, where the local community with city, county, school and volunteer aid provided the location and equipment and the state school hires and pays a teacher, to give special training to pre-school retardates or those of school age but ineligible for Special Education classes.

The teacher of these schools, where classes are limited to no more than eight pupils, may be a degree or non-degree teacher, retired or otherwise chosen especially for her patience, compassion and special abilities for break down training where progress is slow. These schools operate only four hours a day and the teacher is paid $220 a month for a five day week. "There are more of these schools in the West Texas area than in any other part of the state and the Health Committee of the Local Community Center Board is currently investigating the need or possibility for such a facility in Morton," Mr. White continued.

He concluded by saying, "The Lubbock State School for Mentally Retarded does indeed stand as an example that West Texans care."

Present for the meeting were: Mesdames Gage Knox, Neal Rose, John McGee, M. C. Ledbetter, Cyrus Fields, Glenn Thompson, John Crowder, W. C. Benham, D. E. Benham, Joe Nicewarmer and Hume Russell.

Thompson Explains Duties of County Judge

In the following series of short articles, Glenn W. Thompson, candidate for the office of County Judge and Ex-officio School Supt., outlines some of the duties of this office in an effort to clarify the position for the general public.

1. As County Judge, he presides over the County Court, which is in short sessions most any day, conducting hearings, hearing pleas or conducting non-jury trials. Jury commissions are called in from time to time and instructed on preparing prospective jury lists for future jury terms of Court. These Jury Court terms are called two or more times each year. As the Judge, County Attorney and Sheriff's office working together, calls them. The County Court Docket is kept by the County Clerk's office and is used to determine which cases will be called to trial.

2. The County Judge is a member of the Commissioner's Court and serves as the chairman. The second Monday of each month is the beginning of each regular term of the court. It can last one or more days as is necessary. A special meeting of the court may be called at any time by the Judge or any three commissioners. The Judge prepares an agenda and presents it to the court at their meetings.

Any Commissioner may add other items to the agenda. The Commissioners Court has the duty of transacting all the business affairs of the County, such as the handling of Bonds, Road projects of all kinds, buying equipment, setting County evaluation on property for tax purposes, entering into contracts of various kinds for the County with other parties. The Court meets with any of its citizens or taxpayers at any of its meetings. The meetings are open meetings. In transacting County business there must be present at least three members and any matter considered by the court must have three or more votes to pass. All bills and claims against the county are presented to them once each month by the County Auditor, for their examination and approval for payment. Each bill is signed by at least three members or all, for payment by the court. The Judge's foremost concern is to keep harmony and good will among all members of the court, and to work for the best interest of all parts of the county, not favoring any particular part. These are just some of the duties of the County Judge when serving as chairman of the commissioner's court.

3. The County Judge is also Judge of the Juvenile Court and serves as a counselor and a probation officer for the juvenile who may break the law and need help. The Juvenile Court is a separate court from all others and visitors or news media are not allowed at its hearings or trials unless at the request of the parent or guardian. If all other measures of correction fail, he may send them to a State Correctional School for either Boys or Girls. They may be paroled back to his custody and care at anytime from these schools. I have attended many district and state Juvenile Judges and Officers meetings in Texas and having reared my own family, after looking after and schooling my own brothers and sister after my father passed away, I feel that I have a very good background and experience to help me in this position. The County Judge makes appointments with the State Highway Commission in Austin, from time to time, to keep abreast of their Farm to Market road programs and to plan for any needed additional road mileage for Cochran County. A squeaking wheel gets the grease. The County Judge should work with and help each commissioner in his respective precinct to improve his roads or any other thing that he can. He is to be a leader and a counselor for the commissioners and the commissioners court, acting as their chairman.

4. The County Judge also serves as the Judge of the Probate Court. This Court is where all wills of the deceased are probated and estates are settled for the benefit of all heirs. The Probate Judge is responsible for all claimants against the estate and all minor heirs. The Probate Judge appoints appraisers to view and appraise the property of the deceased for the heirs and for inheritance tax purposes.

5. The County Judge is also the County School Supt. in Cochran County due to the small scholastic census. He serves as secretary to the county wide school board and carries out their orders and other business. The County School Board consists of 5 members, one from each commissioner's precinct, and one at large over the county. The County School Board meets once each month and transacts any business that may come before it.

6. The County Judge also serves as the County Welfare Officer and all problems of this nature are handled by him and the commissioners court. The State Department of Public Welfare and the Social Security Administration works through the County Judge's office in each county.

7. The County Judge is the co-ordinating officer of the entire county in the matter of civil defense and works with all other communities and Peace Officers in the administration of these duties regardless of what the occasion.

8. Most generally the County Judge is the purchasing officer of the county for supplies at the court house and other places of county business.

9. He appoints the members of the County Historical Committee and works with them in County Historical work and preservation of county historical records and exhibits. He is their budget officer on the court.

10. The County Judge, along with the County Auditor, prepares a budget for the county each year before the time for the levying of taxes and the making of a tax roll by the County Tax Assessor. The Commissioner's Court examines, makes any corrections that they deem necessary, before approving the budget and advertising it for a public hearing and setting the tax rate to service the budget.

The first four duties of the County Judge I have given you, namely the different Judge's Offices that he holds, does not provide for a deputy or an assistant. He is the sole administrator. He is allowed a secretary and that is all. These duties have been set out in a brief manner and I hope they have helped you to understand some of the duties of the County Judge's Office.

TEEN SCENE

By Vicki Goodman

Only six weeks remaining before the summer vacation and just five weeks for the Senior class. Everyone is counting the days. Seems as though these few weeks have more activities than days to have them.

Last Saturday, several M.H.S. students traveled to Idalou for the annual U.I.L. meet. Congratulations to these!

Last week was filled with excitement! The banquet honoring the M.H.S. athletic teams was last Tuesday and there was a tremendous crowd on hand for the event. Everyone was thrilled when the awards were bestowed on such deserving boys. It was a happy time, but also a sad time as the seniors hate to think it's their last.

Then Thursday, the F.F.A. Banquet was held. There was also a large crowd at this occasion. The entertainment was presented by Bruce Ayers. There has certainly been a lot of people at these events backing the youth of the community.

The N.H.S. has finally set a date for the induction ceremonies which will be on May 7th.

Tonight marks the beginning of the class tournaments. The games will be considerably shorted this time with the girls games set to begin first. Last year, the high school girls made quite a showing. I'm not saying whether it was good or bad, just funny. The finals will be played on Saturday night. No one will want to miss these games!

Friday night, the annual Miss Cotton contest will be held in the County Auditorium. There are so many pretty girls entered from M.H.S. that I don't see how any of them could be losers.

The High School Choir is frantically preparing for Indian Capers. Mr. Ayers is going to be a lot of trouble this year. There is going to be a lot of real cute acts, like, "Aquires," "Do you know the way to San Jose," "This Is My Country," "Raindrops Keep Falling on my Head" and numerous others. Everyone be sure and not miss this one!

Becky, where did you get that rose? It obviously wasn't the good fairy!

The Pep Squad met last week and elevated officers for the coming year. They are: President, Helen Christian; Vice president, Daloma Sanders; secretary, Becky Harris; treasurer, Deloria Brown, and scrapbook chairman, Teri Harris.

Mary, whose coat did you have on? The M.H.S. annuals were handed out

School menu

Monday, April 27, Beef foldovers, green beans, tomato salad, mixed fruit, batter bread and butter, milk.

Tuesday, April 28, corn dogs, mustard,

Monday morning. Then Mr. Weaver allowed a class period for signing them. The theme of the annual this year is "The Year of the Indian." Neat, huh!

pinto beans, whole kernel corn, plain cake with chocolate sauce, bread and butter, milk.

Wednesday, April 29, baked ham, potato salad, blackeye peas, raisin cobbler, biscuits and butter, milk.

Thursday, April 30, Hamburgers, baked beans, carrot ambrosia salad, peanut butter cookies, chocolate milk.

Friday, May 1, fish, catsup, buttered potatoes, toss salad, chilled apricots, rolls and butter, milk.
