Rains brighten crop outlook

The intermittent rainfall that has dropped approximately 3.5 inches of moisture in the Morton area over the past 10 days has vastly brightened the crop outlook, both locally and over the entire High Plains area.

Agriculture officials deem the recent rains especially valuable due to their slow and steady characteristics. In most plains areas the moisture has been in the form of soaking rains rather than "gully washers" with their inherent runoff problems.

While the measurement in Morton was for 3.5 inches, there were some areas in the county that have received considerably more and some with less. All areas of the county have received at least some rainfall over the past week as near as can be determined.

The moisture was somewhat late for much of the local area's grain sorghum much of which has already headed out. It is of great value to the cotton crop, however, according to officials of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who recently estimated the 1971 crop substantially higher than that reached in 1970.

A joint production estimate by the two agencies pegs the expected output in the 25 county Plains area at 1,801,000 bales, up from 1,762,350 bales in 1970.

The August estimate, which is usually the first for the season, has 1971 Cochran county production at 40,000 bales as against 42,100 bales in 1970. This is on a total of 50,000 planted acres. The lower estimate in this county for 1971 can be attributed to the relatively large percentage of dry land acres, some of which did not receive a planting rain.

The general crop outlook, despite bleak spots in the dry land segment, is rated the best since 1965 when ginnings totaled a near-record 2,301,100 bales. The all-time record stands at 2,443,900 bales in 1961.

Grain sorghum, which ranks second only to cotton as a cash crop on the Plains, also is expected by most observers to equal or surpass last year's total tonnage.

While no official area production estimates are compiled on milo, a private forecast by one grain official here puts

COLORFUL AND TRADITIONAL . . .

THE GRAND ENTRY that traditionally kicks off each rodeo performance regardless of where it is held, is always colorful, as it was at the 21st Last Frontier Rodeo held here last weekend. This is one event in which everyone can participate without regard to age or skill and which produces pleasant memories for each person who takes part to cherish in the years to come. Such was the setting for the last performance of the rodeo which wound up Saturday night.

Successful rodeo pageant ends

The last yippee! and final bawl of a hard-pressed Brahma bull slowly faded into silence Saturday night signaling the end of what must be considered one of the most successful runs of all time of the Last Frontier Rodeo.

One of the greatest crowds in recent years helped inaugurate the festivities by attending the giant rodeo parade staged in downtown Morton Thursday and throngs of unusual proportions filled the stands for the three performances Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Main highlight of the annual celebration as it wound down to its conclusion Saturday night was the naming of Leslie Holden as "Last Frontier Rodeo Queen of 1972." Leslie, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Holden of Morton, was attended by her first runnerup Miss Terry Claunch, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Claunch of Bula. Miss Holden will reign over the 1972 Last Frontier Rodeo.

Capturing first place in the senior division riding group competition in the parade Thursday afternoon was the Terry County Sheriff's Posse of Brownfield. The Lamb County Sheriff's Posse garnered a second place and was followed in third by the New Deal Riding Club.

In the Junior Division, the Hickley County Rough Riders rode off with top honors, while the Y.L. 4-H Riding Club of Muleshoe took second with Three Way running a close third.

A new feature of the rodeo parade this year was the appearance of the Brownlow family's country and western band which entertained both before and after the parade on the courthouse lawn. The performance, which was broadcast over Radio Station KRAN, may be credited with luring one of the largest crowds in recent history to the parade.

The general consensus among participants, spectators and officials appears to be that this was the most successful rodeo in recent history and that anticipation toward 1972 is at a high pitch.

★ Last chance

Morton High School athletes were reminded by head football coach Doug Reed this week that they have only one more opportunity to receive athletic physicals free of charge.

That opportunity will be at 6 p.m. today in the old gymnasium where doctors will examine all those who missed the physical on Monday. If an athlete misses this one, and still wants to participate in any sport at the school, he must receive a physical examination by a physician at his own expense, Reed emphasized.

Know the drug threat

(Ninth in a Series)

Today's Subject: The Appeal of Drugs to Teens

Here are some of the reasons given by youthful drug users for taking drugs, in a series of national surveys of young people in the high school-college age groups:

1. It is a way of "hitting back" at parents getting even with them for the 1001 things parents do and make their children do in the growing-up process.
2. Taking drugs is a means of feeling love — love in general terms, not physical necessarily — drugs are a way of returning to the basic fundamentals of life.
3. Some students said they felt drug experimentation was in this modern day, a means and part of growing up.
4. Many said words to the effect that it was enjoyable to see their parents get upset about something genuinely. In short, taking drugs seems a method of telling the "old man" to go to hell with his hypocrisy.
5. There were those who gave the excuse that drugs were a release from daily tensions and the heavy demands of school work and offered relief from frustrations and the feeling of defeat!

Naturally, to combat the drug problem, we must know facts about drugs, but perhaps even more important is knowing some of the basic reasons why youngsters are using drugs in this beautiful land of opportunity we call America. The above reasons are only a small fraction of the entire list. I am sure, but will give us all food for thought within our own personal family situations.

In trying to analyze drug misuse we must certainly bear in mind that children today are raised in a chemical society. They have come to know, from infancy, they can go to the doctor and get a shot for this ailment and a pill for that; it follows then that there is a good reason why children have built the impression they can be doctored chemically for any physical or emotional problem. And, let's not forget the influence of t.v. Wouldn't a child easily come to feel that there is a chemical cure for everything by watching t.v. commercials?

It has been reported that some of the See DRUG THREAT, Page 3a

RODEO BEAUTIES . . .

Morton's fighting Indians prepare for '71 grid wars

Preparation for the 1971 version of the Indian gridiron wars were rounded into shape this week with the first practice session a few scant days ago.

The annual preliminaries of administrative physical examinations and issuing of football shoes were to be completed this week with the exams scheduled for Monday and Thursday and shoe fitting on all day Wednesday. A long grind of two-a-day practice sessions will begin Monday with the squad reporting at 8 a.m. for equipment issue and to the practice field for the first session at 9 a.m. During the two-week period, practice will begin at 9 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. each day.

The first intra-squad scrimmage has been scheduled for 6 p.m. Saturday, August 14, with an ice cream supper for both squad and athletic boosters to be held in the school's cafeteria after the game.

Inter-squad scrimmages against other schools have been scheduled with both games to be played in Morton. Exact dates have not been decided upon, according to Reed, but he advised that the first of the two will be against Muleshoe and the second against Seagraves.

1971 will be Reed's initial year in the head coaching position where he succeeded Ted Whillock after two years at the helm. Whillock will serve on the football coaching staff as freshmen coach and scout.

Other assistants on the staff include Lester Dupler, Tommy Thomson and Hubert Jones.

Opening of pre-school facility is announced

Morton has a new school.

Yes, Van's Pre-School, owned and taught by Mrs. G. A. Van Hoose, has been established at 206 Southeast Pierce in Morton. The new school, which has the capacity for 20 pupils, is now registering children in ages four, five and six.

In order to acquaint parents and interested persons in the area with the services to be offered, an open house will be held Sunday, August 15 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. with the premises open for their inspection.

School hours will be 8:30-11:30 a.m. each day and the charge per pupil will be $20 a month, Mrs. Van Hoose, stated and added that refreshments would be served to the students each morning.

Super radar speed detector to become operational here

Getting so the chronic highway speeder just doesn't have a chance anymore. Now he will not have after this week, at which time a completely new computerized radar speed detection system operated by DPS highway patrolmen will go into operation in Cochran County. The ultra-modern TR6 Traffic Radar System, manufactured by Kustom Signal, Inc. of Chanute, Kansas, is much more highly effective than the radar systems that have been in use heretofore, extending the range that speeders can be detected by several miles.

The two part set, all of which is portable, consists of the radar transmitter and receiver and the computer unit which converts the radar signals into visual and audio signals. It can be either mounted on the patrol car or the patrolman can dismount and hand-hold it and point it in any direction for the detection of the speed of any vehicle. "The days of one-way highway speed detection are over, so if you see a patrol car checking traffic in the opposite lane, don't assume that he cannot check your speed as well," DPS patrolman John Salter of Morton stated during a demonstration to the Tribune last week.

Salter also added that the system is equally effective in determining vehicle speeds either coming toward it or going away. It can further pick out one vehicle among several that is traveling at a higher rate of speed than the others, as the radar automatically locks onto the fastest traveling target.

The system works on the principle of the Doppler Effect, wherein the radar transmits a signal which is bounced off the target and sent back to the receiver which measures the time interval between transmissions and their return, which is fed into the computer unit and converted into miles per hour. The operator reads the speed on the computer which is presented in digital form as miles per hour. When the speed limit, which the operator has pre-set on a dial in the unit, is exceeded, the digital figure begins flashing and an audible tone is beeped by the unit.

Operational status of the system is quickly and easily checked by the operator by use of a built-in test calculation switch or by use of a special tuning fork. "We will test the system and note it each time we issue a speeding ticket, Salter said, so that both the motorist and ourselves can be satisfied that the set was

Register now!

All 5 year old children in Morton must meet the economics standards set up by the Office of Economic Opportunity (O.E.O.) should register for Head Start or Kindergarten immediately. Parents may register for their child at the Principal's office of the Morton Elementary School or at the Cochran County Community Action Center.

The economic standards, if they are not familiar to the parent, will be explained to the parent at the time the child enrolls his child.

School officials urge parents of eligible children to enroll them as soon as possible.

SPEEDER-PROOF RADAR IN ACTION . . .

A NEW AND POWERFUL radar speed detector that is enough to curdle the blood of heavy-footed motorists is demonstrated above by DPS patrolman John S. Salter of Morton. The ultra modern device is computerized and is effective for a distance of several miles. The computer flashes a digital number representing the exact speed of the vehicle and beeps an audible tone when the speed limit set into it is exceeded. The equipment is non-directional and can be pointed in any direction to detect vehicle speeds both coming and going away from it. The new set is expected to be in operation in Cochran County by this weekend — so speeders beware!

 prospective tonnage in a 39-county region at almost 15.5 million bushels, more than last year's crop of 173,000 bushels.
 High Plains, which last year had 1.5 million acres of cropland under irrigation, leads the nation in the production of cotton and grain sorghum.
 In 1970, cotton produced on the Plains averaged 55 per cent of the Texas crop and comprised 17 per cent of the output. The Plains grain sorghum last year represented 53 per cent of Texas tonnage and 25 per cent of the total yield.
 Irrigation which has been irrigated now is leading up unusually well," said L. Ray, coordinator of cotton research at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock, said Thursday. Approximately two-thirds of the region's cotton acreage traditionally has been irrigated. Most farmers will shut off irrigation wells later this month to prevent excessive vegetative growth and the late start of fruit that wouldn't have time to mature before frost.
 Although some farmers have excellent crop prospects, the overall outlook for non-irrigated cotton is poor. "We also have some dryland cotton crops like it could make a bale per acre," he added. He pointed out August often is "a make-or-break" for dryland cotton.
 "While the crop is considered a little later than normal," this has created concern about the effects of normal temperatures the past two weeks on fiber development in irrigated areas.
 Newton, agricultural meteorologist with the National Weather Service here said Thursday the crop "has lost about six or eight days of normal maturity during the last 15."
 This means an early and cool fall will be highly significant in further cutting down the maturity period," Newton said. "The first freeze is later than normal, and the effects of the recent cool weather best children, the articulate child who brings home good grades and may often be a student body officer . . . even these youngsters are high on the list of drug abusers. So then, another reason for trying drugs comes to the front: to be one of the group, to be accepted as equal, to be recognized as an un-square.

 Some experts in the field of drug abuse say that it is time for the "generation gap" and all such nonsense to come to a dead halt. In other words, now is probably the best time for parents to take the reins once again and find out what is going on among the children. Let's begin to recognize the signs of a situation developing into a serious problem BEFORE it happens, instead of placing ourselves in the position of simply saying, "I'm sorry" after it has happened.
 There are many professional people, doctors, ministers, family counselors, and your public services, that stand ready to help you solve problems BEFORE they become catastrophic in nature. Don't wait too long . . . that child you save may be your own!
 Next week there will be another article for your consideration. Thanks for being with me.

 Each system carries a two year warranty and it is expected that all maintenance on the sets will be done at the factory, Salter said.
 In addition to Cochran, other nearby counties receiving the new systems include Yoakum, Terry, Bailey, Lamb and Lubbock counties, Salter concluded.

Harden Ray accepts Three Way school post; Rankin leaving

The announcement of losing and gaining a superintendent was made this week by the Three Way school district.
 Harden Ray, 37, of Rosser, has accepted the position of superintendent of the Three Way Independent School District, the announcement read. This followed closely on the heels of the announcement that Dan F. Rankin, superintendent for two years, had resigned effective August 15, to accept a similar post at Byers, Texas.
 Ray comes to Three Way from the Scurry-Rosser schools where he has served as superintendent for the past four years. He received his bachelor of arts degree with a major in government from North Texas State University in 1955 and his master's degree from the same university in 1960 with a major in public school administration.
 Ray and wife Jerry have two daughters,

Blinda, a seventh grader and Jo Ann, a third grader.
 Rankin is a veteran of 22 years service to Texas public schools.
 Mrs. Rankin is a registered nurse and has been a member of the staff of the Cochran County Memorial Hospital during his tenure at Three Way.
 The Rankins have five children, one of whom is a veteran of the Vietnam war. Upon his departure, Rankin expressed deep appreciation for the friendship and kindnesses offered himself and his family during their stay in this area.

Short pastures and limited hay supplies caused by the drought are reason enough for stockmen to plan now and plant early the needed winter pastures. Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist, says research and on-the-farm demonstrations have shown that early planted winter pastures consistently out-produce those where planting is delayed. Don't forget, reminds Pratt, about a soil test to determine fertilizer needed.

Keep More of Your Marbles In the Home Game

After all . . . here's where you get to take your turn at shooting

Our big-city neighbors offer invitations to us every day to put our marbles in their bigger and fancier rings . . . so they can take out more for themselves.

But the game that OUR winnings have to come out of . . . is the HOME game. And . . . the more of our marbles we put into THIS game, the more WE get a chance to take out.

Maybe you've noticed the city folks bragging about how much trade volume they take away from the small towns like ours in their "trade area" . . . getting our marbles into their pockets for keeps.

Trading at home . . . and making it more attractive for our neighbors to trade here . . . is the direct and positive route to better jobs, better property values . . . better schools, better living . . . a better community for US to live in.

RODEO RAILBIRDS . . .

OF COURSE, THERE IS ALWAYS these railbirds at every rodeo that sit upon their rail and tell one and all how it should have been done . . . That's what was found in great profusion at this year's Last Frontier extravaganza. Would you believe? they even tried to tell the clown what to do. Well, if we have to put up with these kookies, they may as well be our own. Some of them may make good on their advice and become rodeo stars of the future — you wanna bet?

Local soldier assigned to experimental unit

Private Gilbert E. Williams, son of Mrs. Willie Williams, 412 W. Filmore, Morton, is assigned to Fort Ord, California where he is training under the modern volunteer army field experiment.

The new concept, called Volar, combines basic and advanced individual training into a single 16-week program. Decentralized instruction at the unit level and a reduction of formations and inspections gives the soldier more time to train and increased off-duty time. Fewer restrictions on off-duty travel and improved living facilities are other benefits of the Volar concept.

Pvt. Williams is scheduled to complete the first phase of his Volar training on September 3.

The Small Town

EDITOR'S NOTE: This guest editorial came from the Friona's Star's 'Star Lites' column, written by the publisher, Bill Ellis.

A recent article in the Mid-Continent Banker magazine dealt with the problems facing small towns, and what town leaders can do to keep the small town from slipping "into oblivion."

The article pointed out that between 60 and 70 million Americans live in towns under 10,000 population. There are some 7,697 communities of under 10,000 — and 6,303 under 5,000. This is the bracket into which Friona falls.

The author of the article pointed out that the key to a community's long-range survival is jobs. Friona would seem to have bridged this important problem, with the addition of Missouri Beef Packers, the feedlots and other related industries and businesses.

The availability of jobs should continue to be good, as other industries to service the cattle and packing industries are envisioned for the future.

However, the writer warned that without modern retailing facilities, long-range survival for a community may not be possible, in spite of everything else a community may have going for it.

The author posed questions concerning the plans of present businesses to continue, after the present owners and operators retire.

He asked the following questions:

(1) How many businessmen in your town are nearing retirement age? (2) How many of these businesses will be continued by second-generation, capable family members. (3) If there are no qualified family successors, do these merchants have anyone working for them who might run the business in the future?

Other questions asked were the following:

(4) What kind of selection do customers in your area have for products in the following classes: men's, women's and children's clothing; shoes for the entire family; major appliances; hardware-housewares-sporting goods; drugs; food; furniture?

(5) How much shopping for stylish or big-ticket items do townspeople do outside your town?

(6) How many local merchants have modernized their shopping facilities (or enlarged them) within the past five or 10 years?

The writer asks one final question which hits Friona right between the eyes "What is happening to presently vacated and deteriorating buildings?"

Are they being left as everpresent, ever more ominous eyesores to consumers, discouraging shopping visits and prostrating a dying instead of a living community? Perhaps these buildings should be torn down and the sites converted into needed parking areas to supplement that always-limited on-street parking.

These are all problems that face the city of Friona.

Someone in business, or perhaps a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, needs to be working on the problems stated.

SOMETHING NEW ADDED . . .

ADDED FROSTING TO THE CAKE for the annual big parade of the Last Frontier Rodeo this year was a concert of country and western music by the "Country Classic" band of the Brownlow family, playing on the courthouse lawn both before and after the parade. Though scheduled to play only 1/2 hour before and 1/2 hour after the parade, they performed a full hour before the start of the delayed parade and the allotted half hour afterwards. The largest crowd in recent years turned out for the parade, one reason for which could have been the appearance of the very popular western band.

Correction

The August 5th issue of the Morton Tribune carried a news article about Dee Bowman. Reference was made to Dee Bowman as "pastor" of the Auburn St. Church of Christ and Van Cash host "pastor" of Church of Christ in Morton. The following article is presented to alleviate the mis-use of the term "pastor" as referred to in this article.

I find no justification for the term "pastor" as it many times today is applied to a preacher of the Gospel. A preacher is not a pastor unless he is an elder. The terms "pastor," "bishop," and "elder," are used interchangeably in the word of God.

In Acts 20:17 the record tells us that Paul "sent to Ephesus and called to the elders of the church." Verse 28 tells us that Paul in addressing these elders said, "Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit hath made you bishops, to feed (pastor) the church of the Lord which he purchased with his own blood." Hence the elders are the bishops, and the bishops are to "shepherd" the flock, "pastor" the flock, or feed the flock.

This word in the original (poinaino) occurs again in 1 Pet 5:2 "Tend the flock of God," and was directed unto the elders 1 Pet 5:1 (Poemeen) occurs in Eph 4:11 and is there translated "pastor."

There is no scriptural ground for the modern conception that the preacher is the "pastor" of the congregation, and, as such, is in authority. He is but a member, and as all other members are subject to the elders, so must he be in order to please God.
