Election contest suit filed

Millar asks vote recount

A civil suit contesting the results of the Second Democratic Primary Election held June 1 for county commissioner for Precinct 4 was filed in 121st District Court in Morton on Thursday June 13.

The suit, styled Jimmy Millar VS Dorothy Barker, Et Al, is against Mrs. Barker, as chairman of the Cochran County Democratic Executive Committee and W.R. Key, Millar's opposing candidate in the election.

The suit asks for a recount on the vote, after all illegal votes have been removed from the voting boxes, and that a court order be made vesting the nomination for the Democratic Party for commissioner of Precinct 4 in the contestant, Jimmy Millar.

The suit alleges that votes were illegally cast by voters who did not reside within the voting box area within which their votes were cast. It further alleges that the manner in which the election was conducted allowed for illegal votes, legal votes prevented, false calculations and mistakes.

It asks a recount of the votes with the ballot stub boxes being opened and used in determining the proper residence of all voters as to voting box area.

Two voting boxes were used in conducting the election. The voting boxes were called Voting Box No. 4 of Election Precinct No. 4, and Voting Box No. 7 of Election Precinct No. 4. The Voting Box No. 4 was held at the County Barn in Commissioner's Precinct No. 4. Voting Box No. 7 of Election Precinct No. 4 was held in the County Activity Building in Morton.

The presiding officer of Voting Box No. 4 was Mrs.

Car-motorcycle crash injures Larry Silhan

A car-motorcycle crash at the intersection of SH 116 and Sixth Street Thursday afternoon resulted in serious injuries to Larry Silhan of Morton.

Silhan's injuries were reported by police to have included both wrists broken, deep cuts on his arms and severe abrasions and bruises over his body.

He was taken from the scene in a private automobile to Cochran Memorial Hospital where he was admitted and remained under treatment all Wednesday morning.

The accident occurred as Silhan was proceeding east on SH 116 on his motorcycle at approximately 6 p.m. and a 1965 Chevrolet driven by Fernando Riojas, was proceeding west and apparently attempting to turn left into E. Sixth Street, reports state.

Riojas reportedly came to a stop in the oncoming traffic and Silhan's vehicle struck him and the impact threw the motorcycle rider completely over the car.

Riojas was cited for assault with a motor vehicle with arraignment set for Wednesday.

FORMER MINNIE'S SHOP CHANGES HANDS—Pat Lynskey, right, has purchased the former Minnie's Shop from Mrs. L.B. Childs, left and has reopened it under the name of Pat's Fashions. Grand opening of the shop begins Friday June 21, Mrs. Childs had been in the same location for a total of 38 years before recently selling out. The building on the southwest corner of the square, was the first commercial building erected in Morton and served for many years as a general store and Morton's first post office.

School board sets tax ratio at 45%

At a called public meeting of the MISD Board of Education held June 6, the board voted to set the school tax assessment ratio at 45 percent of market value for computing the tax value for the 1974 school tax year.

The tax rate was raised last year from $1.95 per $100 valuation to $2.05 per $100. The $2.05 rate remains the same at present, but with the assessment ratio being increased from 34 percent to 45 percent of the market value, the 1974 tax bite will be substantially higher.

Reason for the adjustment upward is every increasing cost of operating the schools. The school budget for 1973-74 school year was in excess of $1 million dollars for the first time in history. Since costs have gone up sharply in the past year, this year's budget is expected to be substantially increased.

The meeting was called for the purpose of explaining to the public where and how the operating costs are rising and to discuss ways and means of increasing revenue for the operation of the schools. School superintendent Bob Travis and tax assessor-collector William Hodge gave presentations, with slides, that outlined the problem areas.

During his presentation on all areas of revenue, Supt. Travis pointed out that total revenue contemplated this year will be the highest in history of the schools and will total well over $1 million.

Twirling tryouts

Tryouts for MHS twirlers will be held Friday June 21 beginning at 1 p.m. in the Band Hall at the high school. Contestants are asked to bring their batons and musical instruments.

However, the total expenses are expected to be correspondingly high, and thus give cause for additional measures to raise more revenues.

The budget for the 1974-75 school year is not yet complete, so exact figures are not available.

Following his presentations, a question and answer session was held.

In other action at the meeting, the board voted to accept the resignation of John

County home ownership higher than US average

In terms of assets, how well off is the average Cochran County family?

Most people have only a vague idea of their net worth. They have never taken the trouble to figure out how they stand in that respect. Their concern has been with more current matters—weekly income, food bills, taxes, medical costs and installment debt.

Were they to take stock of their possessions, such as cars, bank accounts, pension reserves, investments and the like they would probably discover that they are richer than they thought.

Among the assets that a large proportion of families in Cochran County have built up for themselves over the years, a major one is the family home.

The equity that they have in their home, over and above the mortgage debt on them, is approximately 4.2 million and is growing steadily with the increase in realty values. This total is for the one-family, non-farm dwellings that are owner-occupied.

Details on home ownership, covering all sections of the country, are contained in data compiled by the Department of Commerce in its latest Residential Finance Survey and in its Census of Housing

The total market value of all owner-occupied dwellings in Cochran County, based upon their findings, is estimated at $8.8 million.

The figures show that most one-family homes in the United States three-out of every five-- have mortgages on them.

As for local regional area, close to 60.5 percent are mortgaged, the other 39.5 percent being wholly owned by their occupants.

In general, mortgage debt amounts to about 52 percent of the market value of one-family homes. Applying this average to the homes in the local area, the mortgage total is approximately $4.6 million.

The difference between the market value and this debt is the equity that local families hold, about $4.2 million.

Home ownership in Cochran County remains at a high level. No less than 63.7 percent of the dwellings in the area are owned by the occupants, the government figures show.

By way of comparison, in the United States it is 62.9 percent.

FREEZING TIPS from Reddy Kilowatt

SELECT FOODS OF HIGH QUALITY. Remember that freezing retains quality, but cannot improve it.

CHOOSE BEST VARIETIES OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES. Some are better adapted to freezing than others.

FREEZE GARDEN PRODUCTS PROMPTLY. Freshly harvested fruits and vegetables rapidly lose quality at warm temperatures

USE PROPER PACKAGING MATERIALS. All foods in the freezer must be protected against air and escape of moisture.

FREEZE FOODS IMMEDIATELY AFTER PACKAGING. If there must be a delay, keep them refrigerated.

STORE FOODS AT 0 DEGREES F. OR BELOW. Avoid fluctuating temperatures

OBSERVE RECOMMENDED STORAGE PERIODS. Plan a constant turnover of the freezer contents so no foods are kept too long.

T.M. Tanner. The election judge of Voting Box No. 7 was Patsy J. Lynskey.

On June 4, 1974, the Cochran County Democratic Executive Committee met, and canvassed the results of the election. After having canvassed the results of the election the committee declared that W.R. Key, received 99 votes and that Jimmy Millar received 97 votes.

In her reply to the petition returned to the court late Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Barker asks for a dismissal of the suit on grounds that it is insufficient in law and that she has been improperly named as the contestee in the case under the Texas Election Code.

Mike Sanders, of Lubbock is attorney representing Mrs. Barker and James Walker of Morton is attorney representing Millar in the suit.

Hearing on the case is set for 10 a.m. Monday June 24 in 121st District Court here.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Secretary of State Mark White, Jr., disturbed over low voter participation in recent elections, is planning a massive, coordinated get-out-the-vote campaign for the general election.

White indicated he will seek to harmonize efforts of business, labor organizations, educational groups, the news media and lobbying interests to improve the turnout.

As chief Texas election officer, White is studying election systems used in other states, and he has outlined preliminary plans for a bi-partisan fall drive to stir the voters to action.

He has asked State Sen. O.H. (Ike) Harris, Dallas Republican, to assist with the initial contacts with groups whose assistance will be sought.

Only 30 per cent of eligible Texans took part in the May 4 primaries, and far fewer voted in the June 1 runoff.

White hopes to get a new registration push going and to encourage businesses to devote part of their promotional budgets to "innovative" get-out-the-vote appeals. Labor, which traditionally conducts its own campaigns to get union members to the polls, will also be asked to join in the overall effort.

"People must be made aware of the danger of ignoring the political system," said White.

He said he may even recommend a system of sales or property tax credits for practicing voters.

DIVIDENDS DUE — Allstate Insurance Company will pay $4 million in dividends to auto policy holders whose policies expired between last October 3 and May 31, 1974.

The company bowed to State Insurance Board pressure in agreeing to pay the suspended dividends.

ACCENT ON HEALTH

school's out, and the summer ahead brings travel, swimming, boating, picnicking and other happy leisure hours. For the careless or the unfortunate, long-awaited vacation can be spoiled by intestinal problems which may be prevented.

Summer food poisoning can be carried in your picnic basket or obtained at a cafe, cafeteria or a church supper, says the State Health Department, it is the bottom of this pain and misery to be a bacterial infection called salmonellosis. It is commonly known as food poisoning and often is credited by animals as being a 24-hour virus.

Health authorities can tell anyone what causes salmonellosis and how to prevent it. It continues to be a health problem.

The term "salmonellosis" refers to infections caused by any of the numerous members of the genus salmonella. Some varieties are known and they may be either warm-blooded or cold-blooded animals. Major reservoirs of human salmonellosis are in domestic livestock, swine and poultry. Organisms may be transmitted to man either directly from animals or through contaminated products of animal origin. Not overlooked in importance is the human carrier. The most dramatic and highly publicized aspects of salmonellosis are food-borne infections which occur in groups of persons who have shared a common contaminated food. This type of contamination, the food likely has been prepared in advance in such a manner that the bacteria have had an opportunity to multiply.

State Health Department is so concerned with the problem of food-borne infections that it sponsors courses in food hygiene. Its regional offices and local health departments help carry out training programs for food handlers. Films and literature are available on the subject.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Most of us are trying to get the maximum for every dollar we spend these days.

But attorneys in our Consumer Protection Division note that it's not only the amount of a product you get for your money, but the quality of that product that determines if you made a good buy.

That's why it's important to shop carefully before making a purchase, they suggest.

One area in which quality is an especially important criterion is when you are purchasing either ready-made clothing or fabrics, by the yard for home sewing.

Some protection for consumers is offered by the Federal Trade Commission's Textile Fiber Product Identification Act, which requires all ready-made or yard-good items to have a label noting the fiber content.

In 1972, another FTC rule, the Care Labeling Trade Regulation, went into effect. This regulation requires all ready-mades and yard-goods to carry labels advising the consumer of proper fabric care. Typical labels may advise "Dry Clean Only," "Hand Wash in Cool Water" or give other specific instructions which make it easier for consumers to know how to care for fabrics after they get them home.

Most "store bought" clothes have been carrying such hang-tags for some time. The FTC Bureau of Consumer Protection reports, however, that some stores selling yard goods have not yet begun to implement the FTC directives and that others do not routinely supply such care labels unless they are requested by the consumer.

And even these efforts do not assure the consumer that an item will stand up to normal wear-and-tear. Complaints about ready-made garments that have reached the files of many consumer agencies include: dress seams that pull out after one washing; buttons that fall off expensive suits; uneven hems; and trimmings that fade onto a garment.

Complaints about yard goods include the tendency of some fabrics to "pick" "fuzz" or ravel; to trap body heat and not allow for evaporation of perspiration; and to stretch at stress points.

Garment industry experts suggest that persons planning to shop for ready-made clothes or to make their own familiarize themselves with the following marks of well-made clothing.

- Fabrics should be cut with, not against, the grain and fabrics featuring plaids, stripes, checks or designs should be carefully matched at seams.
- Seams should be stitched securely not just basted in, and should be wide enough for any alterations that may be needed in the future. Seam edges should be pinked, overcast, or taped to prevent raveling.
- Linings, facings, and trimmings should take the same type of care as the fabric itself and should be securely sewn to the garment.
- Hems and facings should not be visible from the right side of the garment.
- Buttonholes should be bound or stitched securely and of the proper size for the buttons. Too-small buttonholes show wear quickly since buttons must be forced through them and too-large buttonholes may allow buttons to come undone.
- All closings such as buttons, zippers, snaps, and grippers should be firmly sewn in the proper spot. Zippers should work easily and should be interstred without ripping the fabric.

Our Consumer Protection Attorneys suggest that you also (1) check all labels for fiber content and fabric care before purchasing, (2) try on all ready-made items for correct fit, (3) get any guarantee in writing, and (4) check in advance on the store's return policy (some yard-goods, especially cannot be returned.)

Thoughts

From The Living Bible
Honor the Lord by giving him the first part of all your income, and he will fill your barns with wheat and barley and overflow your wine vats with the finest wines. Young man, do not resent it when God chastens and corrects you, for his punishment is proof of his love. Just as a father punishes a son he delights in to make him better, so the Lord corrects you. The man who knows right from wrong and has good judgment and common sense is happier than the rich man.

Heroic Doctor

Two workmen digging at a construction site were buried to the waist by a sudden cave-in. A doctor, passing nearby, rushed to the scene and gave lifesaving first aid until they could be rescued by other workmen.

But the doctor himself suffered painful injuries. Was he entitled to collect damages from the construction company, on the ground that its negligence had caused the cave-in?

In a court test, the company said it was not liable. "We admire his courage," said the company, "but anyone who ventures voluntarily into danger does so at his own risk."

However, the court said the doctor was indeed entitled to a damage award. The court said the company should have foreseen not only that workmen might be trapped but also that rescuers might rush in and get hurt too.

As one judge put it: "Danger invites rescue. The cry of distress is the summons to relief. The wrong that imperils life is a wrong to the imperiled victim; it is a wrong also to the rescuer."

Generally speaking, the law pays due respect to the heroic impulse. In fact, most courts will favor a rescuer even when the danger is merely to property, not human life.

Thus, a man injured while trying to stop a rolling automobile was awarded damages later from the car owner, who had failed to set his brakes. The court said saving property, although less urgent than saving life, is nevertheless a laudable course of action.

Still, the law does not condone outright recklessness. Another case involved a woman who was killed by a freight train while trying to pull her dog off the tracks. She had leaped over even though the train was in plain sight, bearing down fast.

Under these circumstances, a court ruled, her family could not hold the railroad responsible for the tragedy.

"A person is not excused from the consequences of his own acts in exposing himself to danger," said the court, "where the peril is so obvious."

Cut Calories, Not Calcium

There's an important health message for dieters here, and that is—don't throw your whole system out of whack just because you need to lose weight. Follow the Recommended Daily Allowance for all nutrients, whether you're eating normally or trying to restrict your caloric intake.

Take calcium, for instance. You need to take it and keep on taking it all your life. Why? This vital mineral helps build bones and teeth, which is another way of saying that it is essential for skeletal health. In fact, almost 99% of the body's calcium is in the skeleton so you can see how important it is to all your bones. Another of calcium's jobs is to help retain the quality and strength of all muscles, including the heart. It helps muscles react normally to delay fatigue, and also helps tired muscles recover from fatigue. Calcium participates in various life-support systems too, such as blood clotting and hormone systems.

Unfortunately, calcium is continuously lost from the body in several ways—through elimination, through bile and pancreatic juices secreted into the alimentary system and not reabsorbed, and even through the skin.

Therefore, enough calcium must be consumed each day to carry on various vital functions and to compensate for the normal calcium loss. Otherwise, the body will begin to "rob" the skeleton for the calcium it needs to maintain various chemical balances and body functions.

Bone demineralization is a serious health problem. Over a period of years, bones can become porous and brittle as the result of a lack of dietary calcium. Decreases in bone density are noted first in the jawbone, often resulting in periodontal disease, and then in the vertebra and other bones. Improving calcium intake is one good way to practice preventive medicine.

How much calcium does the average American need each day? Recommended Daily Allowance is 800 mg. This translates to about 4 ounces of processed American cheese, or about 18 Atlantic sardines canned in oil, or 32 medium whole eggs, or less than 3 cups of milk. The cheapest and most convenient source of calcium is milk.

Naturally, getting enough calcium is only part of a dieter's problem. You need to be sure you get enough of all nutrients as you reduce your caloric intake. Each serving of Slender diet food from Carnation supplies ¼ of the RDA's of all nutrients, so you can substitute it for one or more regular meals as needed. Mixed with whole milk or ready-to-drink in cans, it keeps the calcium up and the calories down to 225 a meal. Remember that it's not enough to have "beautiful" bones. You want healthy bones, too.

Money talks.
