FIFTEEN CENTS

Chiefs close out season

Ten seniors set to play last HS game

The last showdown of the 1974 football season for Morton will get underway at 7:30 tomorrow night as they host the Friona Chieftains. Although this game has no direct effect on the winner of district play, a win would put the Indians in a three way tie with Friona and Littlefield for third place in the district. Therefore, the game is an important one for both teams and they will be ready for the clash.

In last year's meeting between the two ball clubs, Friona ended with the winning margin. Tomorrow night will present the Indians a welcomed chance to reverse the outcome.

The Chiefs have a 7-2 record and will be coming off last week's 10-7 loss to Dimmitt. The Chiefs have six offensive and five defensive returnees from a 6-4 campaign last year. These regulars include end Dale Cleveland, an all-South Plains selection.

The Indians who had an open date last week, have been occupied with making necessary offensive and defensive adjustments, which they feel will be helpful in their battle with Friona.

While a chance for a three-way tie for third place in a five team district may not seem exactly like winning the Super Bowl, there is another factor that enters the picture — that factor is the farewell performance of the 10 graduating seniors who will be appearing for the last time before the home town crowd.

This is their last opportunity to prove to their parents, family and friends that they are good football players, despite a very spotty record during their years of varsity play. Most of them have been in the MHS football program since the seventh grade and have expended many long, tough hours on the practice field and in the games.

SOMETHING NEW ADDED— The sign on the front of the Commercial Building may not look anything like a shingle—but that's what it is. It tells the world that the brand new law firm of Thomas and Clark, Attorneys at Law is open for business. Richard Clark, who recently received his license to practice law in Texas, has joined County Attorney Randy Thomas in private law practice.

WELL TO ARMS— in the high school grid that is. The above pictured seniors will take to the field Friday night for their final performance as school gridmen. Morton's record has not been impressive during their years on the squad, but they kept the faith and given their best and will be

Survey of county shows

Cancer rate below average

Recent mastectomy operations on First Lady Betty and Mrs. Rockefeller have drawn special attention in Cochran County to the incidence of cancer in the local area and to progress being made in the fight against the disease.

Figures compiled by the U.S. Health Service shed light on the size of the cancer problem and how it compares with the situation in other communities.

Based upon the Government's last three annual reports, the number of deaths in Cochran County caused by the various types of cancer has averaged 7 a year, with none of them attributed to breast cancer.

The figures relate to the resident population only. Deaths locally of non-residents are not included.

The overall cancer mortality in the area has been somewhat lower than in most parts of the country. The average has been 135 deaths per 100,000 population.

Throughout the United States as a whole, by way of comparison, the rate was 160 per 100,000 in the State of Texas it was 137.

In Cochran County in three years, it was responsible for 16 percent of all deaths. Elsewhere in the United States it averaged 17 percent.

Although the incidence of cancer has shown little or no decline in the last two decades, more cures are being effected than ever before. The American Cancer Society reports that one out of every three persons who get are being cured.

A new in-depth study of cancer cases in the United States, by far the largest ever undertaken, has been announced by the National Cancer Institute.

It will conduct a continuing survey of cancer occurrence involving a population of 23 million people, among whom it is expected that some 60,000 new cases will be discovered each year.

They will be carefully

Council, C of C plan beautification

Plans for beautifying the downtown areas of Morton were adopted by the City Council at its meeting Monday night. Approval of the beautification project came by unanimous vote following presentation of the project to the council by Carol Shelton and Jean Sayers, members of the chamber board of directors. The presentation was made by Shelton, using scale model drawings prepared by him and was followed by a general discussion between the council members and the two board members.

Partially, the plan calls for erecting a board fence across the vacant lot gaps on the square and for the installation of decorative benches and, where possible, the planting of trees or shrubs. Final plans are not yet complete and will be announced by the city at a later date.

The city council has agreed to finance the project with the advise and assistance of the chamber.

In other business, the council heard a request by the Morton Coop Gin manager and board members for the paving of three

TV Guide Cut

The cable TV Guide that has appeared in the Morton Tribune for the past six months has, reluctantly, been cancelled as of this week.

The Tribune had high hopes for the success of the venture when it began last May, but experience has proven otherwise and under present conditions continued publishing of the guide is economically unfeasible.

Every effort will be made to come up with an alternate plan to provide this service to our readers in a reduced form. All comments and suggestions on this matter will be welcomed by the Tribune.

Harvest progress slow

South Plains cotton harvest is slowly gaining momentum. The past week saw stripping operations picking up, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the USDA's Classing Office in Amarillo.

"The harvest of the current crop is about two weeks later than normal due to the unusual amount of rain in October," he said.

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service reported 751,000 bales of cotton had been picked through Friday, October 8, 1974. On this same date last season the total was 700,000 bales.

Quality of this early cotton crop is widely depending on the amount of rain in the fields at time of picking. Dickson said. The highest grades so far are 41, 42, Grade 42 was assigned 42 percent while Grade 41 was assigned 24 percent.

Dominant Stamples were 31 percent, each amounting to 20 percent of the samples classed. Forty-six percent of the samples were reduced one grade because of bark content. Average readings in the range of 3.5 to 4.9 were recorded for 84 percent of the

Mr. Bill Sayers
Editor & Publisher
Morton Tribune

Morton, Texas 79346

Dear Bill:
How goes everything in Morton? Bill, even though I am a Haskell resident now, I appreciate it if you would let the home folk know how much we appreciated their support in campaign for Haskell County Treasurer.

I won the May 4th, Democratic Primary against the incumbent Treasurer by 1,803 votes to 974, and I came out of the Election held last week with votes.

I will become Haskell County's youngest public office holder. I still my home and I will have a warm place in my heart for the people who were so helpful in my growing years, and help mold my life.

Bill, I hope it will not be a taste for you to print this item for me. I was very excited about winning my first political office. And, who knows, I might be seeking Morton support and vote.

Give my best to the folks. Thanking you in advance.
Your friend
J. Wayne McDee

But in his defense, Fred argued that such a presumption was constitutional.

"No two individuals are alike in their ability to tolerate alcohol," he said. "I happen to be able to hold my liquor better than most people."

However, the court upheld the presumption and found Fred guilty as charged.

"Medical science," said the court, "has established a relationship between the percentage of alcohol in the blood and (the) condition of being under the influence of alcohol. Sobriety ceases as the percentage increases."

The idea of a presumption of intoxication, at a certain alcohol level in the blood, has spread nationwide. Almost invariably, it has been held to be constitutional.

Nor can a motorist avoid taking a sobriety test on grounds of self-incrimination. Traffic laws now provide that a motorist comes in advance, when he takes out driving license, to submit to being or lose the license.

Of course, the test must still administered properly to stand in court. Suppose that the equipment was inadequate. Or that much time elapsed between the arrest and the test. Either circumstance could invalidate the result.

In one case, the officer who administered a sobriety test knowledge at the trial that was not well trained in operating the device.

Result: the defendant motion was set free. The court said law would not automatically accept test results as valid merely because they happened to come out of a machine.

O.C. Rankin spent last week in various parts of the state visiting with his family. Blance Roberts in Tulsa attended a class reunion at the University where he graduated 42 years ago.

Mrs. Jimmy Rankin and her daughter moved to Levelland in advance. Your friends Diane and Wayne McDeer are still in the Don Martin Memorial Hospital in Levelland.

Sunday Soloman Hamilton and Bob Vinson, from the First Baptist Church, officiated the church services.

Mrs. Dovie Nichols, a resident, has had her brother, Albert Ivey, from Stanford visiting with her. We would like to extend our sympathy to both of them on the death of their sister.

Residents enjoyed homemade cookies Thursday afternoon, courtesy of Mrs. Jack Lane, Mrs. Ed Latimer and Mrs. Jack DeWitt of the Three Way Baptist Church. Needless to say, everyone hopes these ladies come again soon!

Thursday night church services were led by Rev. Rois Standifer of the First Missionary Baptist Church. We would like to thank all of the Morton pastors and Jack DeWitt, Three Way pastor, for sharing their time with us.

A new resident and a new staff member joined the home this week. Mr. Coon Burk of Portales, N.M. is the new resident and Mrs. Dalton Redman is the new office employee. A big welcome to both of them.

Mrs. Sarah Scillion was honored on her birthday this week. Mrs. Marie Adams provided entertainment for the celebration.

Walter Wilson is a patient in Cochran Memorial Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

This is their final — and it is hoped their most shining hour — and it is further hoped that there will be a crowded stadium to witness them on to victory in their effort for their Alma Mater. The ten Indian seniors, all of whom have distinguished themselves in one way or another during the current season, include: David Silhan, 165 lb. End. Chuck Rice, 160 lb. Fullback. Tony Soliz, 215 lb. Fullback. Rodney Cox, 160 lb. Guard. Greg Bell, 155 lb. End. Johnny Rozell, 180 lb. End. Alex Coffman, 160 lb. End. Monty Smith, 160 lb. Guard. Dennis Holladay, 190 lb. Tackle. Larry Silhan, 205 lb. Tackle. The Indians are ready for the season. Chiefs — Are their town fans?

Both the Morton High School and Junior High Band and the Morton High School choir will be singing and playing appropriate Christmas music and songs. Highlighting the program will be the turning on of the Christmas lights around the square and the arrival of Santa Claus with his big sack of "goodies" at 4:15 p.m. The Chamber is also sponsoring a coupon promotion. Merchants will have coupons to give to their customers redeemable for valuable prizes or store accounts. Many of the merchants are planning to hold in-store drawings. The Chamber will have a huge special drawing on Christmas Eve, December 24, with all the coupons in the hamper, for valuable gift certificates. These certificates may be redeemed in one of the participating stores. Details regarding the coupons will be announced in the Tribune at a later date. "This year we are re-orienting the Christmas drawing to focus on the square to give our town a more festive appearance," Jerry Schaeffer, Chamber President, stated. He added by saying, "We hope the musical program will become an annual event that everyone can look forward to."

allegations today because further court action and subsequent appeals still are pending. However, Orville Clevenger, president of Better Weather, Inc., an organization of local farmers which funds the Fresno, Calif.-based Atmospherics, Inc., noted that protesting farmers had nothing new to charge since their court hearing. "The things we're hearing here today are things we've heard before," said Clevenger. "We haven't heard anything new." The dryland farmers, citing crop outputs since the modification program began in 1970 and annual rainfall amounts over the years, claim the cloud-seeding operations actually reduce the chances of rain. A Levelland farmer displayed statistics which showed yearly rainfall of 21.25 inches in 1969 and 9.21 inches in 1970, when the Plainview operation began.

The TWDB which issues annual permits to the modification programs, will meet in the spring to consider expected applications from Atmospherics, Inc., whose permit expired Oct. 30, and Plains Weather Improvement, whose permit will expire Nov. 30.

malice against Charles L. Lee in the slaying of Obezonia "Little Boy" Garrett July 15, 1973. It took another hour to set the punishment at ten years in the state penitentiary. The trial, moved to the 121st District Courtroom in Cochran County on a change of venue, lasted three days and included Lee's testimony at the end of the second day. Lee admitted to firing at Garrett. Ballistics experts from the Austin Department of Public Safety testified that the three empty shell cases found at K.P.'s Cafe by Levelland Police were fired from the .25 calibre automatic pistol used by Lee in the shooting. Dr. William Strange, pathologist at Methodist Hospital, who performed an autopsy on Garrett, testified that one shot entered Garrett's chest to the right of the rib cage and lodged in the left side after going through the heart and lung. The jury, consisting of nine men and three women, heard testimonies of nineteen witnesses during the three-day trial.

blocks of East Van Buren Avenue from SH214 east to the Gin offices. It was agreed that attempts would be made to arrange a meeting between the council, the county commissioners court and the gin board members to discuss ways and means of accomplishing the paving project. Authorization for the payment of bills for the month of October in the amount of $8,167.03 completed the meeting's agenda. On the agenda was listed the following cash accounts: General Account Cash, $35,902.38. Utilities Cash, 9,342.20. Bonds, $3,000. Accounts Receivable, $16,828.97. Certificates of Deposit, $35,899.64. Deposits, $27,065.50.

HARVEST

Pressley Strength tests for the area served by the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office averaged 84,000 pounds per square inch. Prices quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire range were: Grade 41, Staple 31 - 36.25 cents per pound and Grade 42, Staple 32 - 35.20 cents.

Business safety investment high

U.S. industry is investing more than $3 billion to improve on-the-job health and safety this year, according to a McGraw-Hill Publications Co. survey. This is 2.5 per cent of total capital investment, they point out.

RED MEATS —

Beef to continue plentiful, with production moderately higher than a year ago and a record for the month. Lower grade beef will account for the increase. Pork supplies to be adequate. Production will be seasonally large and moderately above a year ago but below the November 1970-72 average.

MILK & DAIRY PRODUCTS —

Fluid milk, butter, cheese, and nonfat dry milk to continue adequate even though milk production will be at its seasonal low. Commercial stocks of dairy products will remain well above the 1971-73 average for November.

Apples to be plentiful. The commercial crop equals last year's and is slightly above the 1971-73 average.

Farm-facts

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

A PROPOSAL that may, if adopted affect Texans has been made by the USDA. Those are the slaughterers and processors who slaughter and process meat and poultry brought to them and which is for use solely by the person who brings them in and by his family. Custom operations are not required to have full-time inspection but are subject to federal sanitation and labeling requirements. The new proposal would require registration of each owner of a custom operation and each establishment he owns. Those who want to comment on the proposal should send duplicate copies to the Hearing Clerk, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250 before May 2, 1975. Copies of the proposal may be obtained by writing APHIS, Room 1166-S USDA Washington, D.C.

OLDTIMERS can recall that beef clubs used to be common in rural communities. Several families would form the club and would take turns each month in butchering a calf of other animal. The meat would then be divided among the family members. The Texas Department of Agriculture used to be active in helping organize beef clubs, or Baby Beef Clubs. This was in the early days of TDA. (It came in existence in 1907) and Baby Beef Clubs fitted in with the Farmer's Institutes program which used to be a responsibility of TDA. However, that was in the days before refrigerators and deep freezers, when it was difficult to save meat more than a few days in the summer time. There would be a greater food shortage today if it were not for refrigerators and deep freezers, and, probably, there would be less cattle stealing today if there were no deep freezers.

TEXAS CROP and Livestock Reporting Service has come up with some interesting figures on four feed grain stocks that are of the most value to Texas; corn, oats, barley and sorghum. The Service states that grain sorghum stocks are down to 20 million bushels was noted in off-farm stocks but farm-held stocks were almost more than twice what they were a year ago. Wheat stocks in all positions are estimated at 60 million bushels, which is 31 percent below a year ago. There are an estimated 10,200,000 bushels of corn, and that is more than three times last year's reserves. Farm-held corn was slightly less than a year ago, but off-farm stocks accounted for the increase. There were an estimated 10.7 million bushels of oats, compared to 22.5 million last year; and barley stocks are estimated at 477 bushels a year ago. In the nation, stocks of sorghum, corn, oats and barley are estimated at 33.7 million tons, 25 percent less than a year ago.

Echeverria Cites 7% GNP Growth In 4th State of Union Address

MEXICO CITY—During the past 12 months, Mexico's Gross National Product (GNP) increased 7%, President Luis Echeverria announced in his 4th State of the Union address before a nation-wide television audience.

This impressive increase was registered despite the international energy crisis and inflationary pressures and is indicative of the effectiveness of the bold economic policies of the Echeverria administration.

In order to maintain this growth rate, the President said his administration will continue to limit federal spending to those areas which increase production and generate new jobs.

He pledged his government to maintain the parity of the peso to the U. S. dollar at 12.50 to 1, to maintain free convertibility of currency with no restrictions on remissions.

President Echeverria emphasized that Mexico is taking an increasingly active part in international affairs. He has made official state visits to 20 countries.

"We are firmly convinced that our national reality is increasingly related to the international community. Therefore we have embarked on a program of diplomacy to increase and solidify our relations with all nations of the world," the President said.

He made special reference to relations with the United States, emphasizing that in July Mexico began to receive better quality water from the Colorado River flowing into the Mexicali Valley. For 12 years, the high saline content of these waters damaged Mexican farm lands and constituted the principle problem between the two nations.

President Echeverria also announced that he had accepted an invitation to meet with President Gerald Ford to discuss matters of common interest. Among these is Mexico's desire to sign a bilateral pact covering Mexican migrant farm workers in the United States, guaranteeing them minimum wages and adequate health and living conditions.

As neighbors with a 2,000 mile common border, both countries have a number of problems and points of friction of economic, social and cultural nature which will come under discussion during the Ford-Echeverria meeting.

Good News for Cotton Growers

We Have the Means For Getting Your Cotton To the Gin Quicker, Safer and At Lower Cost

Star Route Co-op Gin has a substantial number of these 40'x10'x10' portable containers with which to haul your field-stored cotton to the gin or to park on your turnout to store as you harvest and later pick up.

Our equipment includes a loader for transferring your ground-stored cotton into these containers for a quick trip to the gin.

Let Us Help You...

- * Eliminate high trailer costs
- * Eliminate the road hazards of trailer operation
- * Cut down on gin yard time by delivering much larger amounts per trip. These containers will store or haul up to eleven bales per load making it easier for you to schedule your crop through the gin.
- * Cut down on time lost to weather due to less time waiting in the gin yard

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

What's odorless, tasteless and colorless and can kill you before you know you're being poisoned?

The lethal answer to this State Health Department riddle is carbon monoxide, a product of all combustible substances — from gas used in your kitchen gas range to the gasoline in your automobile or gasoline-powered lawn mower.

Carbon monoxide poisoning is preventable, but a lot of people are unaware of its danger.

It is a threat year-round, but the most hazardous time is during the cold months of the year when homes and businesses are closed up tightly against the weather.

But, even summer air conditioning can add to the threat, say State Health Department engineers from the Occupational Health and Radiation Control Division.

In some air conditioned warehouses where forklifts are used to move heavy materials, carbon monoxide has been found at serious levels. This same problem has been found in garages, where automobile motors are often left running for tests. Enclosed parking garages and drive-in banks also have proved to be sources of trouble.

"You can't depend on leaks around doors or windows to bring in fresh air," says a Health Department engineer. "In places with a source of carbon monoxide, you've got to bring in fresh air constantly to keep up a positive pressure so stale air will be pushed out through ventilators."

The autumn chill in the air has brought heating units and gas stoves into play. Hopefully, each home owner had his heating system checked before turning it on for keeps.

This might've prevented a tragedy occurring at Killeen, where a family of four went to bed one night and three were dead the next morning. A little girl survived. An inspection later showed a faulty burner and faulty duct work in the home.

With Texas in the midst of its fall and winter hunting season, hunters should check ventilation in their stoves and should examine smokestacks and chimneys to be certain they aren't clogged.

Of particular concern are the use of catalytic heaters and other unvented heaters in tents and campers.

In the home, make sure the damper is open before lighting the fireplace. Have your gas refrigerator service-checked annually even though newer models have improved control systems. All furnaces, regardless of fuel type, should be checked and properly vented to the outside. Combustion-chamber leakage is a serious hazard, particularly if the heating unit is old. All individual room-type gas heating equipment should be vented. And, say safety experts, don't use your gas cooking range for heating.

Automobiles and trucks, as well as other gasoline engines, shouldn't be run indoors for long periods — even with the garage door open. A charcoal grill or hibachi should be used only outdoors.

While carbon monoxide poisoning is sneaky, there are recognizable symptoms — if you are alert.

Early symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include yawning, headache, nausea, dizziness, ringing in the ears, and abdominal pain. Difficult breathing and unconsciousness quickly follow. The victim should get fresh air immediately and should be kept lying down and warm. A physician should be called promptly, and inhalations of oxygen or an oxygen-carbon dioxide mixture should be administered.

Once carbon monoxide is inhaled, it invades the blood stream through the lungs. It unites with the hemoglobin in the red blood cells so they cannot carry oxygen to the cells of the body. Asphyxiation results.

Carbon monoxide is so poisonous that when combined with red cells in the blood the bond between the two is 200 times stronger than the normal bond between oxygen and red cells. When oxygen and sizable amounts of carbon monoxide are breathed together, the carbon monoxide muscles the oxygen aside, causing illness. If oxygen is depleted sufficiently, death follows. Many deaths occur from faulty appliances even though a window may be slightly open, says the Health Department. At least 1,400 deaths are attributed in the United States each year to carbon monoxide poisoning. Texas had 141 deaths in 1973. More than 10,000 persons nationwide are poisoned by carbon monoxide. Those not killed may suffer temporary or permanent damage to the brain, with serious disturbances of vision, hearing, speech and memory.

The District 3-AA race goes down to the last game of the season - just like many predicted it would - when Dimmitt hosts Olton in the title game Friday night.

Dimmitt, 9-0 for the season and 3-0 in loop play, is seeking its first appearance in the football playoffs since 1960. Olton, 8-1 and likewise 3-0, wants to represent district for the first time since 1968.

The teams boast a lot of offense and a lot of defense. The game will pit the league's top two scorers, as Olton's Glenn Johnson leads with 106 points, to 92 for Dimmitt's Robert Mayberry.

In addition, four of the district's top six rushers will be pitted on opposite sides. Johnson, who had a fabulous game against Littlefield, leads with 1,376 yards, to Mayberry's 1,034. Gene Veals of Dimmitt is the district's fifth leading rusher with 514 yards, and Olton's Joe Alcorta is sixth with 458.

But the two teams also can play defense. Dimmitt has allowed the fewest points of any district team - 50 (Friona has given up 51). Olton has allowed nine opponents only about 100 yards per game.

It took several stellar defensive plays by the Bobcats last week against Friona to preserve their unbeaten mark, and set up the title match with Olton.

Robert Mayberry was involved in one of the plays, as he caught Friona's Clay Bandy from behind, at the Dimmitt one yard line, to prevent a score. End Travis Hampton intercepted a Bandy pass late in the game, in the Bobcat end zone, to prevent another attempted go-ahead touchdown.

While the leaders are slugging it out, Friona's Chieftains, just a hair-breadth separating them from a title appearance, will attempt to wind up their season with a win when they visit Morton.

Littlefield was the first district team to finish up, and Wildcat coach Jerry Blakley says it wasn't any too soon. Tailback Bill Turner suffered a knee injury against Olton, as did fullback Rick Hopping. Linebacker Reginald Payton also was hurt. "We'd be hard pressed to field a team this week," Blakley says.

Olton coach Ed Miller says he thinks the Mustangs will have to control the football to beat Dimmitt. "They are dangerous when they have the ball, so we must try to keep it as possible," he says.
