Deaths of 358,000 veterans during fiscal year 1975---209,000 with World War II service-has prompted the Veterans Administration to encourage 29 million living veterans and their families to become familiar with survivor benefits to which they may be entitled.

The FY 1975 death total was 61,000 higher than the total of veterans' deaths recorded in FY 1970. The World War I veteran population fell below the million figure to 963,000 in FY 1975 with the deaths of 108,000 veterans of that era. Veterans should make dependents aware of survivors' benefits, such as dependency and indemnity compensation for serviceconnected death or nonservice-connected death pensions for widows and certain children, Jack Coker, VA Regional Director, said.

Burial benefits for wartime and certain peacetime veterans include a maximum $250 burial or cremation allowance, plus a plot allowance not exceeding $150 for veterans buried outside national cemeteries. In lieu of these benefits, an $800 burial allowance is authorized if the veteran's death is service-connected. Claims must be filed within two years after burial or cremation.

By Faye Walters It seems so often of late our hearts are saddened by the passing away of one of our residents. This week it was Martha O'Bannon. She was a dear sweet lady and we will miss her so much. Our condolences go to her family, especially Mary Lee, her daughter, who worked at the nursing home for several years.

We realize because of our residents' ages and their health that this is bound to happen often, but we never get used to it because of our love for each one.

all the staff. We had some wonderful devotions this week. The residents look forward to these every day. It helps make their days brighter.

Wednesday we went on a nice field trip. The bus was full. Taking this trip was Henry Love, L. A. Sargent, Hope Hammonds, Agnes Anderson, Lydia Warren, Viola Weems, Florence Badgett, Hattie Selman, Dora Langford, the driver, Mr. Freeman and myself. We also enjoyed ice cream.

Thursday was a very busy day. The Sunshine Sunday School class brought all the residents fruit and cookies. then the ladies from the Sunset Church of Christ gave the birthday party of the month. They served cake and punch to all the residents and staff. It was a lovely party honoring Lillie Luttrell, Velma Spence, Hope Hammonds and Bessie Powell. Lillie was the oldest at 92 and Bessie the youngest at 82. We were sorry Velma was too ill to attend the party. Hope she will be up and around soon. We had a very nice lady. Mrs. Bailey, to bring three beautiful lap robes to Henry Love, Lydia Collins and one for anyone who needed it. She must have spent many hours making them.

Friday night the Floydada High School students came out and sang for the residents. They also brought pretty valentine treats.

Saturday the Love Sun day School class gave a Valentine party for the Nursing Home residents and served cookies and punch. A good time was had by all.

While we were gone to California the girl scout troop #336 came out and brought cookies and we want to thank them.

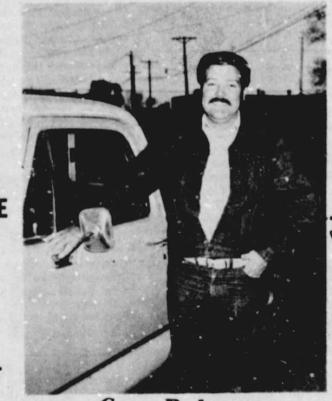

We appreciate each visi tor who came to see any of our residents this week Some of these visitors included: Gracie Riggle, Maggie Finley. What One Person Can Do

At age 31, Marion Rose had 10 years of community work behind her. It started when her oldest child, Gerry, was enrolled in the South Bronx Mott Haven Headstart program, and she planned a fashion show for fund-raising. It was highlighted this year by her political victory as the first ack in the South Bronx to become Democratic District Leader

'We didn't realize it then," she recalls, "but by making decisions about what type of food the children should have and, as inexperienced as we were, putting together a fashion show for fund-raising, we were being geared toward the political scene."

In 10 years' time, Mrs Rose has worked as a paraprofessional in P.S. 49. served as a parent program assistant in the early-childhood program, and directed "Project Justice." in which

Coffee Held For Women

Educators

The Iota Tau Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international association of women educators, met Saturday. February 14 at Floydada. A coffee, hosted by the Floydada members, preceded the meeting.

The program, under the direction of Marian Struve of Abernathy, consisted of sketches from the lives of women from Revolutionary War days who not only fought beside their men, nursed and kept their homes going, but also wrote and used their influence to secure legal recognition of women's rights. Besides the well-known Molly Pitcher, whose real name was Mary Hayes, there were: Mercy Warren, poet laureate and historian of the war and agitator for women's rights; Margaret Corcoran, first woman to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor, and a half-pension for out-standing courage and ection under fire; Nancy Wheatley who was captured as a young girl in Africa and sold to a Boston family who taught her to read and write. She later wrote many poems and stories. Many others were also presented Chapter members participating in the program were: Mary Nell Hall, Selesta Hughes, Martha Hall, Alice Scarborough and Carolyn Davis, all of Petersburg, and

Bettie Hardin of Abernathy. The Iota Tau Chapter is composed of women educators from Floydada, Lockney. Petersburg. Hale Center. Cotton Center, Plainview and Abernathy. During the business meeting, nominations for new members were presented and voted Clint Longley was? Well, the Dallas Cowboy quarterback is making a guest appearance at the Sweetwater Jaycee's 18th Annual Rattlesnake Roundup. So guess the rattlesnakes will learn now what a Clint Longley is. All you rattlesnake hunters, gather together whatever you gather, and get ready, the date is March 12, 13 and 14. According to a news release rattlesnake hunters are urged to bring their specimen in as early as possible since the price per pound diminishes with each day of roundup. Snakes will be selling for 55 cents per pound Friday; 25 cents per pound Saturday and 20 cents per pound Sunday. That doesn't seem like very much for risking your neck. Wonder if we have any rattlesnake hunters in this area?

AFTER a period of years I've learned that oil and vinegar do mix if you do it right, I just wasn't doing it right. I'm told by an expert (he thinks), put the oil on your salad first, toss the salad, then pour on vinegar and toss again. By golly, it works. He also tells me when something boils over in the oven, simply sprinkle it with salt and leave overnight. The next day it should come off easily with a pancake turner. I haven't tried this so don't take my word for it until you try.

WELL you better say

hello to the meter because you're going to be seeing more of it. They are just not going to let us be happy adding our 2'es and 3'es like we've always done before. To save money its smart to buy tools now that have both inevitable tensions between black and Puerto Rican parents, and frequent dissension between both When she ran for district leader, it was "to give blacks an image out there - blacks are not being recognized, not because of the Puerto Ricans, but because we can't get outselves together." It was a gratifying testimony to Marion Rose's commitment to both groups that she won the election with overwhelming support.

How long is a meter? Well, approximately 39.37 inches-a little more than a vard. That's crazy, what if you want to be sure? Whats an approximate?

Now it's time to divide a meter into smaller units, it's not a matter of threes and twelves, as in the system we are use to, but simply division by ten. One thousand millimeters make a meter and I'd rather be a mutter anytime. A mutter is a female that tells their children, "ask your father."

1. The St. George Cross was the first English flag used in North America. It was flown by John Cabot in 1497 under the reign of King Henry VII.

2. In 1620, when the Mayflower landed in America, a new flag was used for the colonies. King James I took the Cross of St. George and superimposed it onto the Scottish flag of St. Andrew and called it the Kings Colors.

3. In 1707 Queen Anne adopted a new flag for England and her colonies. The Kings Colors were placed on a field of red. This was called the British Red Ensign. Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown under this flag.

4. During the Revolutionary War the colonists began unfurling new flags; among them was the popular Continental Flag. It replaced the Kings Colors with a Pine Tree, symbolic of the New England way of life. Many historians believe this banner was flown during the famous battle of Bunker Hill

5. In 1775 the colonies launched some floating batteries in the New England area. These vessels were put into service against the British shore defenses. The flag flown on these ships was the famous Massachusetts Colony Flag that methods existed to insure the building of ENERGY EFFICIENT HOMES. But, inexpensive energy in the past made it logical to ignore the extra investment such a home would require. Now with energy costs rising, it becomes more and more important to use effectively every bit of energy we consume.

MEANS 40% OR MORES ON HEATING & COOLING It has been known for some time

The TOTAL ELECTRIC ENERGY
EFFICIENT HOME does this ... and, it means, conservatively, a 40% reduction in heating and cooling

Ag Credit Improving In Texas

College Station - Texas farmers and ranchers may find money more available and cheaper this year, believes Dr. Wayne Hayenga, an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In a recent survey of bankers, Hayenga found that interest rates have gone down in the past six months and that many lenders are actively soliciting new farm and ranch loan accounts.

"The survey shows that Texas agricultural finance conditions are good," says Hayenga. "Lending institutions are lending more money to more farmers and ranchers."

In the past six months the interest rate on feeder cattle loans was down from 9.32 percent to 9.17 percent, while interest on real estate loans dropped from 8.63 percent to 8.58 percent and interest on operating loans decreased from 9.13 percent to 9.01 percent.

Almost 70 percent of the lenders surveyed expect interest on long-term real estate loan rates to stay the same over the next six months and 62 percent expect short-term interest rates to remain stable also. Almost 30 percent of the lenders are serving more average loan size. Sixty-five percent are actively soliciting new farm and ranch loan accounts and only 7 percent expect a shortage of funds in the next six months, points out the Texas A&M University System economist.

Demand for short-term loans is expected to increase in the future while long-term loan demands should decrease," says Hayenga. Thirty-two percent of the lenders expect to issue fewer long-term loans in the future while 44 percent expect an increased demand for short-term loans.

"The survey also shows that fewer borrowers are contracting part of their crops," says the economist. Lenders report that only a third of their borrowers contracted a portion of their crops as compared with almost 40 percent who contracted crops last May. Sixty-five percent of the lenders prefer farmers to

Dear Editor:

I don't guess there's anything funnier than a far-out environmentalist who has run out of something to warn against.

According to an article I read last night hile I was sitting comfortably in front of my fireplace, an environmentalist has figured out that fireplaces take out more warm air up through the chimney than they leave in the room and are therefore an utter waste of

Here for centuries past, before gas and electricity, men have been building fireplaces, standing in front of them, sitting in front of them, cooking in keeping them warm but all they were doing, enough coal yards in most cities. according to this environmentalist, was chilling the room, not to mention polluting

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M.C. 17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C. - The fact that the unemployment rate fell last month from 8.3% to 7.8%, the U. S. House of Representatives passed another big jobs bill last week. This action followed on the heels of a $6.2 billion public works bill and brings to a total of more than $12 billion to be used for make-work as aid to States and cities which have an unemployment rate of 6 1/2% or above.

The bill provides that money to create 280,000 jobs should go only to areas with this rate of unemployment.

No one argues that the high rate of unemployment across the Nation is not reason for concern. The fellow out of a job is not particularly interested in what the rate is or how many other people are not working. He is unemployed and needs a job, but there is no certainty that this sort of big spending will do him any

It is open to doubt as to whether all these huge expenditures will create all the jobs they are supposed to. A study by the Urban Institute finds that for each $1 billion spent in such programs only 30 to 60 thousand jobs will be created. That is a far holler from the assertions of those who support this type of legislation, claiming that 600,000 jobs will be added in State and local Governments and another 280,000 in the private sector. Opponents, in debating these measures, contended that most of the projects to furnish jobs could not possibly begin for 9 to 19 months and it would be nearly two years before the impact would be felt. It would require considerable

It takes no expert analysis to figure out the reason for Congress passing this legislation. The greater number of Members come from the more populous areas - the big cities - and that is where the money will go.

Feb. 1 cold storage holdings about 30% less than a year earlier and about 20% under the '73-75 average. This means that total Feb. turkey supplies will be down about one-fifth from a year earlier.

high, with the economy still wobbly in its recovery, and with elections not far off, any measure alleged to create jobs has great allure. It is, however, far from engraved in stone that a very great amount of unemployment is going to be relieved by this artificial respiration. It sounds good of course and has a high political popularity. Even assuming all this money created the number of jobs it is supposed to, it would be an exceedingly high price for the sort of economic recovery it is supposed to bring about. At most, jobs would be temporary and produce little to advance the economy for the benefit of all. Unless the private sector for more lasting recovery,

The old WPA Program in the great depression days left some permanent improvements but, these present proposals are too vague and undefined to really produce anything. The Nation's economy has a chance to recover from a slump if the Government will leave it alone. few examples of this. "In 1975, about 11.4 million cows were slaughtered and a lot of people thought the oversupply problem was over. What they didn't realize was that almost 11 million head of replacement heifers were added to the breeding herd." Another mistaken belief, says Uvacek, is that the feedlot business has completely recovered and feedlots are using all the calves that are produced.

"It's true that feedlot placements have increased substantially, but the number available for feeding is still much higher than the feedlots can handle. In 1975, only 23 million head of cattle out of a total supply of 103 million available head were placed on feed.

"The idea that both beef consumption and retail beef prices were at record highs in 1975 is not completely true either," says the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Retail prices for Choice beef were at record highs in 1975, but because there was so much non-fed cattle slaughtered, the consumption of Choice beef was down," he explains.

Calf prices will probably go up in 1976 and 1977, says Uvacek, but the cost of inflation will take away any potential profits

Children find it extremely fascinating to do this because it gives them feeling of power and importance. The fact that certain words are forbidden increases that fascination,' she continued. Parents and teachers wonder how to cope with these verbal expressions. Sometimes parents paddle a child, wash out his mouth or punish him in some other way. These approaches may stop the words, but what about the child's thoughts and emotions?

"Perhaps the best approach is to relax, not worry and try not to react emotionally at all. In this way, the child will not experience the 'emotional power' of these words.

VA NEWS

Those disabled veterans and survivors of servicemen, who appear to be eligible for property tax exemptions under a new law recently enacted by the State of Texas, will be furnished a letter verifying service-connected disability data according to Jack Coker, Director, VA Regional Office. Waco, Texas.

It will not be necessary to since a computerized letter containing the required verification will be mailed by the VA automatically by April 1, or earlier.

The state law authorizing tax exemptions applies to veterans who have a service-connected disability of ten percent or more and to certain widows and minor children of servicemen who died while on active duty. Also included are certain widows and minor children of veterans who at time of death had a service-connected disability of ten percent

Those desiring to claim the exemption should present a copy of a letter from VA to the appropriate Tax Collector on or before April 30, 1976, verifying serviceconnected disability.

Some veterans and survivors who meet serviceconnected disability requirements will not receive the computerized letter and will have to request such a letter from the regional office where their records are located or from the appropriate military service department. These include widows and children of veterans who died after leaving military service, those persons who reside out of state, and those where VA records are incomplete or do not exist because disability payments are made by the military service department instead of VA. In these cases eligible veterans and survivors owning property in the State of Texas may now request a verification letter.

The Veterans Administration spent $1,045,775,326 in Texas during fiscal year 1975 for facilities, operations and benefits to veterans and dependents, Jack Coker, Director of Waco Veterans Administration Regional Office said today.

The compilation of VA spending in Texas is broken down by counties and shows amount for Veterans' compensation and pension, readjustment and education payments, insurance, loans, construction costs and hospital and regional office operating costs, Coker said. As of June 30, 1975, the Veterans Administration estimated there were 1.594. 000 veterans living in Texas. Of the total, Coker said approximately 399,000 served during the Vietnam era. Some 248,000 are veterans the Korean conflic 732,000 served during World War I. Approximately 168,-000 served during the period between the Vietnam and Korean conflicts.

Veterans Administration spending in Texas during fiscal 1975 compared with the 1.85 billion VA spent in California, which has a veterans population of approximately 3,238,000, the largest in this nation. Second ranked in terms of

VA spending during fiscal 1975 was New York State, with 2,519,000 veterans and an expenditure of $1.186
