Dunlap Views Soybean Import System

HAMBURG, Germany - After viewing grain unloading operations at the Port of Hamburg and visiting major German soybean crusher, R. G. Dunlap of Floydada, Texas, says the quality of soybeans imported from the U.S. continues to be a problem here.

Dunlap, chairman of the Texas Soybean Producers Board, made that observation early this week while participating in the Elanco Soybean Leaders Marketing Mission.

"Importers and crushers here are still not getting soybeans that meet specifications for the grade of beans they ordered and are paying for," said Dunlap. "There are some problems with damaged beans and splits, but the major complaint continues to be large amounts of foreign material."

Dunlap said he hopes the U.S. government will quickly be able to come up with effective means of controlling the quality of grain and soybean exports.

"Every unsatisfactory shipment further tarnishes the United States' image as an exporter and gives our foreign customer more reason to buy from another country, such as Brazil in the case of soybeans," he stated.

Dunlap, who also met with the American Soybean Association (ASA) market development staffers here, said the ASA staff is playing an important role by communicating to European importers that the U.S. is trying to solve its grain quality problems and by helping handle importers' complaints in the meantime.

After the stop in Hamburg, the mission was to continue to Poland and Yugoslavia. The trip is sponsored by Elanco Products Co.

NEW HIGHWAY PATROLMAN... A new highway patrolman Billy James Gilbert, has moved to Floydada and will be assisting patrolman Keith Gross. ## Texas Teacher Pay 24th In US

AUSTIN - Texas has moved up this year from 35th to 24th place among the 50 states in average annual pay for public school teachers, a national survey shows.

Average classroom teacher pay in Texas in 1975-76 is $11,373, according to a survey of the National Education Association titled "Estimates of School Statistics, 1975-76."

This still leaves Texas $1,151 below the national average of $12,524, as quoted in the NEA report. These are preliminary estimates, based on figures supplied by the 50 state education agencies, including the Texas Education Agency. Revised estimates will be compiled after the end of the school year.

The revised figures for the preceding year showed Texas in 35th place among the 50 states with average annual teacher pay of $9,807, which was $1,843 below the national average of $11,650 for 1974-75.

Callie W. Smith, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said that "these new figures show that while the 1975 Texas Legislature was passing House Bill 1126 to improve teacher pay, the other states were also moving ahead."

"We are pleased in the improved pay situation for Texas teachers, but we still have a long way to go to reach the national average, which probably will continue to climb from the present estimate of $11,650. TSTA has a goal of $10,000 for 1976. The Texas Legislature passed in 1975 the starting base pay for teachers at $8,000 and for teachers with 10 years of experience at $8,600. TSTA has again in the session to be aimed at boosting teacher pay to the national level. The Texas Society represents the state's 18,000 teachers. The Texas Society has a doctor in education, a gynecologist and a pediatrician.

The Floyd Philosopher Takes A Wary Glance At Postal Service Scheme To Sell More 13¢ Stamps

I'm not getting very far. Let's consider another angle. Take that proposed 15-million-dollar advertising campaign. Just to get its gross outlay back, the Postal Service would have to sell an extra 115,384,615 stamps. Assume it makes a profit of say three cents on each 13-cent letter mailed. It would have to sell 500,000,000 stamps just to break even. To make a real profit it'd have to sell one billion more stamps.

In other words, the people of this country have got to write 1,000,000,000 more letters than they're writing now, if this plan is going to work. The burden, however, does not fall evenly on the populace. Take away the people who don't write, the babies, the kindergartners, a State Legislator here and there, college freshman who can't pass a grammar course, the non-writers, the illiterate, the paper-less, the pencil-less, the Senior Citizens who have no money left for stamps when they get through paying their utility bills, and the vast unsorted who have nobody to write to and nothing to say if they did—take away all these and that doesn't leave very many people, who, to make the Postal Service's advertising campaign pay off, would have to knuckle down to writing letters night and day.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Flower Acreage To Be Down

irrigation and therefore the High Plains will continue to be prime sunflower country" points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

Sunflowers fit in well in a double cropping program in certain areas, and they also work well in a rotation system with corn and sorghum. Since the crop is tolerant to many of the varieties of weather, such as high winds and hail, it again makes it attractive to the High Plains.

"The simple fact that sunflowers are new to Texas brings on a number of production problems that have to be ironed out," says Bremer. "Yields last year ranged from 150 to 3,000 pounds per acre, so this shows that there definitely are problems. Many questions hinge around varieties, planting rates, fertility levels, insect, disease and weed control, and harvesting techniques."

Variety problems have cropped up because planting seed had to be imported from foreign countries due to the expanded acreage last year. Many of these hybrids

Mrs. Randy Pernell and Mrs. Greer Christian presided at the serving table, laid with a lace cloth over gold. The centerpiece was a fall arrangement. Crystal appointments completed the table setting.

Hostesses presented the honoree with kitchen gadget corsages worn by each hostess, the two mothers and the honoree, along with a bed spread, bed pillows and a bath set.

BY PEGGY MEDLEY
HATS use to be a symbol of a way of life, even for women. In past days never would a woman think of leaving her home without head gear of some sort, whether it be a bonnet or church going attire. The same went for men. Always near the back door was his hat for outdoor work, and then another for 'wearing to town'. Some not as fortunate as others wore the same hat for work or 'dresen-up'.

A cowboy hat then was no different, nor is he today. In fact some remark "You can step on my boots but don't touch my hat." One rodeo rider quipped that a rodeo cowboy is usually a peaceful man, but one sure way of making him mad is to touch or take his hat. The feeling a cowboy has for his hat has developed out of more than a century of tradition of a hat being a part of a cowboy's image. One would look rather out of place astride a horse without his hat.

One rodeo performer says a hat is the badge of a cowboy while another remarked that a typical cowboy will spend his last dime on a good hat because a hat is that important to his ego and helps him look the part.

Today, the hat remains the strongest link with the past since its style is truly American in origin. For the true cowboy, a hat symbolizes and expresses the spirit of the Old West, and they say they wear them out of habit, not even conscious they have a hat on their head.

Superstitions follow the hats. For example, never throw a hat on the bed as it will bring bad luck before the day is over; never wear one inside the house, it would bring bad luck, and if a man wears his cowboy hat tilted to one side, watch out, he can't be trusted.

There are those who have a favorite hat, wearing it for every occasion because it was known to bring good luck. Casey Tibbs, famous saddle bronc rider, always spit in his hat before each event to help bring him good luck. Men use to wear their hats to be married in and buried in, a symbol of a way of life.

SIGN noted on the back of a camper owned by a recently retiree... "Too old to work and too young to die... just going by-by."

Shower Honors Miss Dipprey

Miss Charla Maye Dipprey was the honoree at a bridal shower Saturday, March 13 in the home of Mrs. Delton Jack. (Miss Dipprey and Ronald Dee Carthel are to be married April 3.)

Delayne Dipprey, sister of the honoree, registered the guests at a table covered with a white lace tablecloth and a centerpiece of yellow jonquills. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Jack, Miss Charla Dipprey, her mother Mrs. Charles Dipprey, and Mrs. John Lee Carthel, mother of the prospective groom.

Honored attendants wore corsages made of various kitchen utensils tied with yellow gingham, all to be given to the bride after the shower.

Mrs. Thomas (Jeanette) Marr displayed gifts. Refreshments-assorted cookies with pineapple lemon punch and lemon mints--were served by Miss Kathleen James and Miss Linda Nelson.

Hostesses were Mmes. Delton Jack, Louis Ray Stapp, Boyce Mosley, Frank Duckworth, Thomas Marr, Glen Cooper, Kenneth Murdoch, Tommy Montandon, Kenneth Moody, Leonard Griffith, Walter Reves, Jack Gibson, Charles Huffman, F. G. Jones, Carl Lee, Jr., Dale Galloway, Durward Jack, Lynn Ray Smith, Arlon Miller, Sam Jones, Ricky Mosley, Belved Jack, Herman Huffman, and Mrs. Raymond Martin. Their gift to Miss Dipprey was a complete set of stainless steel faberware.

COLLEGE youngsters are home for spring break, or most will be by the weekend, however you Floydada students will have to wait another few weeks before a holiday. Easter is just around the corner, April 10, then you will have until the following Thursday before you hit the books again.

SPRING arrives Saturday morning, March 20, at 6:50 a.m., and we still do not know for sure just when we spring our clock hands forward.

TWO newspapers in the same small town were bitter rivals. One paper bought a new, high speed press and installed it in the basement in front of a window for all eyes to see, then announced "You are invited to come by Tuesday and see this magnificent press in operation for the first time at 4 p.m. I will print, cut and fold 10,000 copies of an eight page paper in an hour." The rival newspaper office rejoined: "Yes, and if you want to see the press in operation, you had better be punctual because, promptly at four minutes past 4 o'clock, the entire circulation will have been printed."

LCC Associates Hear Talks By AFS Students

Lubbock Christian College Associates, Floydada Chapter, heard delightful talks at their meeting Monday night by Floydada American Field Service students, Jep Timwathana of Thailand and Ana Maria Sonehara of Brazil.

The associates met in the Menard Field home with the vice-president, Mrs. J. A. Arwine conducted the meeting. Opening prayer was voiced by Mrs. Melvin Byrd followed by Mrs. Grady Walker reading the minutes.

Mrs. Walton Hale gave a report on the present projects of the college, which includes air conditioning and carpeting of the girls dormitory. The Floydada chapter plans to contribute to one or both projects. It was decided to sponsor a sales booth at the upcoming Lion's Club Bazaar. There will be baked items as well as other items.

The guest speakers were introduced by Mrs. Arwine with Ana Maria of Getulina, Sao Paulo, Brazil being the first speaker. She told of her home, her family and the living conditions in her country. She brought coffee beans both dried and shelled to display at the meeting, and gave an interesting description of coffee farming in her country, which is her father's occupation. Ana Maria also showed many interesting pictures of her home, family, and other things of interest in Brazil.

Jep of Bangkok, Thailand, contrasted some of the things in her country and the USA, especially in their religion and the way they drive cars. She also showed pictures of her family and of Buddha, their temples, and showed monies and other artifacts of her country.

Both girls represented their respective homelands quite well and with their happy and vivacious personalities make excellent "ambassadors of good will."

Mrs. Byrd assisted Mrs. Field with hostess duties in serving a refreshment plate.

ESCORTS OF LITTLE MISS BICENTENNIAL CONTESTANTS gentlemen had the honor of escorting contestants in the Pageant. They are Cody Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Dennis of Walls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Walls, Lockney; Ronnie Reese, son of Mrs. Danny Daniel of Floydada.

As It Looks From Here

GREAT SCO!
By Jack House, The Director
Teacher's Scotch Information Centre
SPURRING HIM ON
Most wives seem to have an uncanny sense of just the right way to nudge their husbands into action. Certainly this was true of the women who used to live in the Border part of Scotland just north of England.

The Borderers, constantly at war with their English neighbors, were also very accomplished cattle stealers.

One famous Borderer was Old Wat Scott. One day Old Wat came into his castle for his dinner and sat down at the table. In came his wife carrying a big covered platter. She lifted the dish-cover and all that was lying there was a pair of spurs.

Old Wat took the hint. He buckled on the spurs, gathered his men and rode off on a cattle raid.

Teacher's Scotch Information Centre says it's understood that Lady Harden didn't need to serve spurs to her husband again to get provisions for the castle.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Every once in a while legislation is proposed to consolidate all branches of the military service. The Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps would simply become known as Defense Forces.

On the surface, this seems to have some logic. In reality, however, the mission and operation of each branch of the Armed Forces is so different that the idea has really never been seriously considered.

For instance, the law which created the Marine Corps had clearly the intent of being for use in a crisis situation. Ordinarily, the Marine Corps is thought of being used only in amphibious warfare but the law also requires specifically that the Marines shall be ready to perform "such other duties as the President may direct."

A recent study by the Brookings Institution put out a report suggesting that the Marines' specialty is outdated and that the Corps itself should be materially reorganized and reduced in size.

The truth is, while the Marines are indeed skilled in amphibious operations, they have actually won their respect by the American people for their ability to respond to an unexpected call without regard to the nature of the crisis.

Going back to World War I, Marines fought in the trenches in France; they have protected American lives and property in the West Indies, Central America; were the first in to save the Pusan Perimeter in the early days of the Korean war; faced up to trouble in the Dominican Republic, in Lebanon, and, more recently, rescued the freighter, Mayaguez. These were not limited to amphibious operations and were performed on short notice.

This has application in the modern scheme of things today. We talk of a balanced military posture with other nations of the world and, particularly, the Soviet Union. Most of this balance refers to nuclear capability.

A resort to nuclear weapons is, of course, the final chapter of any action should it ever come to that.

In the Meantime, we must have forces dedicated to instant and genuine readiness to prevent a nuclear confrontation and meet emergencies which could occur in this volatile world.

For example, the militant Castro of Cuba might some time decide to challenge the United States in Guanta-

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

Sadness once again settled over our Nursing Home this week with the death of Ollie Stewart. She had been a resident for several years. Often talked of going home. Now we know she is really "Home." Our condolences go to her family especially Penny, who watched after her mother with such loving and faithful care. We know the Lord will bless her for her unselfishness in caring for her through many illnesses.

We still have many residents that are sick. Verba Jackson, L.A. Sargent and Bill Dodson are all in the hospital. Surely next week all will be better.

Our devotions have been great but we still had two days with out any because of illness.

Tuesday we did manicures. You should see how our residents enjoy having their nails polished.

Wednesday we did get to go on a nice field trip and also enjoyed an ice cream treat. Taking this trip was driver, Mr. Freeman, Ray Reed, Lydia Warren, Viola Weems, Florence Badgett, Hope Hammonds, Dora Langford, Hattie Selman, Agnes Anderson, Mrs. Phillips and myself.

Thursday the ladies from City Park Church of Christ gave the Birthday Party of the month for our residents.

They had such a beautiful cake and served punch to all the residents, employees, and visitors. A good time was had by all. We were very sorry Verba Jackson and J.S. Hale were unable to attend their birthday party.

Our arts and crafts program is doing real good. We now have a doubleknit quilt in the frames and some of the residents do a real nice job quilting.

We appreciate each visitor who came this week which included Noah Phillips, John and Ameta Phillips, Mrs. Arthur Cheves, Sammy Galzon, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Anderson, Parnell Powell, Mrs. C.W. Denison, Mr. Elmer Warren, Mrs. W.M. Jackson, Virgil Williamson of Spearman Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert E. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hart.

Common Treatments For Poisoning Are Often Dangerous

By Robert L. Haney TAES Science Writer

If you suspect your pet has been poisoned, you may think that you are helping by giving it an emetic (something that induces vomiting) but you may actually be harming it, according to a scientist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

The remedies and techniques available to the average pet owner are usually ineffective and sometimes even dangerous, according to Dr. E. Murl Bailey, Jr., TAES scientist with the College of Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M University.

"Animals that are unconscious, or severely depressed, or that have been poisoned with tranquilizers or similar drugs should not be forced to rid themselves of the poisonous substance," Bailey says.

Animals that have been poisoned by acids or alkalis will actually be harmed if they try to rid themselves of the poison. Such animals will show signs of corrosive damage about the mouth and forepaws and will suffer damage to the esophagus and oral cavity if forced to vomit.

Contacting your veterinarian quickly is one of the most important things you can do for your pet. Bailey stresses that instructions given over the phone may prove to be very important in the later treatment of the animal, and may even save its life.

If your pet was exposed to a contact type of poison, which will act directly on the skin, you should wash the animal's skin or eyes with large amounts of water. You should be careful while handling the animal not to expose yourself to the poison and should wear some type of protective clothing.

"Allowing the animal to drink as much water as it wants is an effective way to dilute many poisons. In most cases, milk or egg whites may be helpful. However, you should not give anything to eat or drink until you have consulted your veterinarian."

Baptist Church with the Rev. John Jenkins, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Plainview Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home of Lockney. Reeves died at 12:05 a.m. Tuesday in Nichols Hospital in Plainview. A retired farmer and native of Floyd County, he was married to Ruth Tannahill in Lockney on August 15, 1926. He is survived by his wife and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Howell of Plainview.

There is nothing free about cottonseed. Even ordinary cotton planting seed costs money. Good seed costs a little more.

Texas congressmen rated on farm voting

A report released Friday morning by the National Farmer's Union and Senators John Tower and Bentsen of Texas, each other on most issues before the U.S. House of Representatives.

Senior Republican from Wichita Falls and Bentsen voted together only on the key pieces of legislation.

Mr. Tower's Union survey of Bentsen's voting record in the House of Representatives on 10 occasions.

Mrs. Irwin visits Sunday J. Burgett of Arizona and her grandnephew Nelson Carthel of Dallas. C. H. Wise visits Irwin Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. DuBois of Lubbock Sunday with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. DuBois.

Mr. and Mrs. Jameson and Friona visited her grandnephew Gracie Riggler. Mr. Brown of Victoria furnished Saturday.

FLC'D Mr. and Mrs. of Midland and Pete Callaway visited in Floyd weekend with Fred Robertson.

Kristi Julian community, is Floydada Junior "Blue Stocking." Marble is in the part of the U.I.L. program, and Thursday to Idaho into competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Teague and Lubbock were and visitors night with Jazara Mrs. Mamie W.

By contrast, Tower voted as the Farmer's Union would have liked only once in the 10 test votes.

Bentsen and Tower agreed on two energy-related issues, and the Farmer's Union rated the two senators as voting "wrong" on each occasion.

Both Tower and Bentsen voted for legislation to decontrol the price of natural gas and against a bill that would require major oil and gas companies to divest themselves of other business operation.

Only two agriculture-related issues were among the 10 key votes recorded by the Farmer's Union.

The one issue on which Tower and Bentsen both voted in "favor" of the Farmer's Union position was legislation to increase the target prices for wheat, feed grains, soybeans and cotton over three years, and dairy products and tobacco over one year.

Bentsen and Tower split their vote on the other agricultural issue.

Bentsen voted with the two-thirds majority to override President Ford's veto of legislation extending the federal school lunch program to more children. Tower opposed the Farmer's Union's stand, and voted to sustain Ford's veto.

Other issues over which the Farmer's Union compared the two senators' voting records were foreign aid, tax reform unemployment compensation, and creation of a national consumer protection agency.

The Farmer's Union also extended the survey to rating the voting records of the 24 members of the Texas Congressional delegation on similar key issues.

The late Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana was listed as voting in favor of the Farmer's Union position on nine out of 10 votes. Patman differed from the organization's platform only when opposing legislation to create federal strip mining legislation.

However, it was two liberal democrats from Houston that received the most favorable position in the survey. Reps. Bob Eckhardt and Barbara Jordan were both recorded as voting as the Farmer's Union wanted with each of the 11 test votes taken in the House.

Opposing the Farmer's Union position almost consistently were Rep. Bill Archer, a Houston republican, and Rep. Jim Wright, a Dallas democrat. Both Archer and Wright voted against the Farmer's Union stand on 10 of 11 occasions.

Rep. George Mahon of Lubbock, now the senior member of the Texas delegation in Congress, split his voting record to the Farmers Union's way of thinking. He voted with the organization on seven occasions, and opposed it on four votes.

Rep. Bob Poage, a former chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, also had a split voting record. Poage's ballots were divided 6-4 in favor of the farm organization's point of view.

Poage was recorded as "absent" from the vote increasing federal assistance of the school lunchroom program.

In terms of overall production, the March 5 edition of the Farmer's Union's national newsletter rated the 94th Congress as "being the hardest-working... in 25 years."

According to the farm organization's logs, when the session adjourned on Dec. 19, the House had spent more than 930 hours in floor session. Only one other Congress, in 1967, had spent more than 800 hours in session, it said.

What One Person Can Do

When Lois Jaffe, 45, learned she has acute leukemia, the most important words she heard were her husband's. After they had cried together, he asked, "What are you going to do with the time you have left?"

The words gave her hope. They freed her to think about work she wanted to do, people she wanted to see. The question made her realize how happy she had been as a wife, mother of four, professor, psychiatric social worker. Mainly, she decided, she wanted to keep on doing what she had been doing.

Every five weeks, Mrs. Jaffe returns to the hospital for chemotherapy. In between it's "business as usual." She still practices family therapy in the Stacy Mental Health Center in Butler, Pennsylvania, where the Jaffes live. She has a seminar at the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Social Work, called "methods of intervention with dying patients. In the same vein, she conducts workshops, lectures and works with patients in the V.A. hospital.

AG CONFAB TO DEAL WITH ENVIRONMENT--The 1976 Texas Animal Agriculture Conference at Texas A&M University, April 8-10, will give special emphasis to environmental management and the private landowner, says an agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Five top agency officials will deal with the issues of environmental management programs that directly affect Texas farmers and ranchers. The conference will also feature production short courses on beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, horses, pastures and forage, and range and wildlife. The conference is a part of a special Agricultural Centennial Week at Texas A&M.

SUNFLOWER ACREAGE TO BE DOWN--Despite a boom in sunflower production in Texas last year, producers are shying away from this relatively new crop for the 1976 season, points out an agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This is mainly due to over production last year when the crop was buoyed by lucrative prices. Some 375,000 acres were planted to sunflowers last year, but the 1976 crop is expected to be down to about 100,000 acres. At the same time, the market price should be way down from the 15-cents per pound mark last year; the current price is about 8 cents per pound.

Tennis Tournament March 20

The Floydada Tennis Club is sponsoring a Round Robin Mixed Doubles tournament Saturday and Sunday, March 20 and 21. The tournament is free to all club members. Those interested in playing who are not members may join by paying $2.00 (club dues for one year) to Frank Barrow at the First National Bank or to Mrs. Bob Copeland. To enter the tournament call Eleanor Hendrix at 983-5064 or 983-2823.

Play will begin at 2:20 Saturday afternoon at Floydada High School courts. Pro sets (total of 8 games) will probably be used, instead of the best 2 out of 3 sets, so that play will rotate more frequently. Round Robin play means that at the end of the match each player will get a new partner for the next match. You do not have to have a partner to enter. Players enter individually, not as teams.

Individual winners will be determined by number of games won. Round Robin play is an excellent way of getting acquainted with other tennis players while enjoying your game at the same time. Mixed doubles play is always a lot of fun for everyone. This type of play is more relaxed, less competitive and more social than men's or women's doubles. The Floydada Tennis Club sponsors such tournaments as this several times a year in order to promote tennis and to give its club members the opportunity to be together and enjoy their favorite sport. Spectators are always welcome to come and share the fun. This tournament is serving as the monthly meeting for March so there will be no regular meeting until April.

Twenty-one members of the Floydada tennis team traveled to Brownfield March 12, 13 to compete in the Brownfield Tournament. In all, 24 towns entered the competition. The final team standings were Brownfield, first; Denver City 2nd; and Floydada 3rd. Coach Raymond Jones said, "We got an exceptionally strong showing from Keith Tooley, Tracy Brown and Alonzo Gonzalez, and Elizabeth Farris." "Elizabeth, seeded third, defeated the number two seed Jane Hill of Lamesa in the semis but took second place when she fell to Teresa Cargill of Brownfield in the finals. (Cargill defeated Deana Wright of Vernon last year in AAA State Meet.) "Keith Tooley lost in the semis to number one seeded Scott Slentz of Denver City who won the tournament. Keith lost the match for third to Hayden Buren of Brownfield 6-1, 6-7, 7-6. The match was the closest of the entire tournament in any division." "Floydada's strongest effort came from Tracy Brown and Alonzo Gonzalez. They lost in the semis to Waitz and Thornton from Denver City 6-2, 6-4. The Denver City pair then defeated Hegi and Brunting from the Class A State Champions from Petersburg 6-2, 6-3. In the match for third Brown and Gonzalez defeated Brownfield's No. 1 doubles team 6-1, 6-4. The Brownfield team has earlier defeated the team of Setlaff and Eudy who won 2nd at State last year in Class B. The FHS tennis team will be playing in Lubbock Friday and Saturday.

As It Looks From Here

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- A HUNDRED YEARS AGO THIS MONTH -- March 1876 -- it was known that Alexander Graham Bell had invented the telephone. It was at that time he was granted a patent for this curious instrument which has had an effect on the lives and dispositions of untold millions.

AN OLD DOGGEREL OF SEVERAL YEARS AGO WENT LIKE THIS. "Misery, misery, mumble, moan -- someone invented the telephone." Our gratitude goes to Mr. Bell for the convenience and, at times, inconvenience of this great development in communication.

THE TELEPHONE HAS BOTH LIBERATED AND ENSNARED US, given us wings to our wildest wishes and shackled us in our own bad habits.

OF COURSE, THE SAME MIGHT BE SAID OF MANY OTHER INVENTIONS AND DEVELOPMENTS in comparatively recent years -- the automobile, radio, television and the hairdryer. The telephone, however, possesses a difference in degree from these other marvels -- it can be more demanding and intrusive but, again, our gratitude to Mr. Bell.

"EVERY SWEET HATH ITS SOUR," wrote Mr. Emerson. The problem it seems is that the sweet when the telephone rings at 2:00 in the morning and a voice on the other end says it is the wrong number. Sometimes, it's one of those inebriated voices and you have not the faintest idea to whom it belongs. Then again, there is the call you are anxiously awaiting -- like the news of a loved one who has had an accident or who is sick, and on answering, someone asks if you want to subscribe to some sort of a publication.

BUT, THEN, HARKENING TO THE WORDS OF MR. EMERSON, we must think of the loneliness the telephone has relieved, the personal misadventures which have given comfort and even the lives it has saved.

THE INVENTION OF

THE TELEPHONE CLEARLY HAS SERVED us well in our daily lives, even if at times it provides annoyance. Like the many technological advances made over the years, we would not even try to get along without a phone. So we might as well accept the sour and the sweet and leave this communicative device and its successors to get about the business of greater improvement. The successors in time will be a video arrangement already in use by some business executives. It can be assumed that not everyone would be required to have a picture telephone and if they did have one surely a switch would be provided to turn it off. Otherwise there would be a rush to comb hair or maybe the lady to touch up the lip-stick before saying hello.

The Floyd County Hesperian

MR. BELL WOULD, OF COURSE, NOT RECOGNIZE THE ADVANCES made in his 1876 invention. Neither could he, at that time have envisioned the tremendous growth of the company bearing his name. He could hardly have imagined the attempts made
