Star Players Signed For Liowanis Softball Game

NO, NO, THE BALL, BOYS, THE BALL!—The two presidents of the Lion and Kiwanis clubs seem to be confused about the style of competition to be used in the upcoming Liowanis slow-pitch softball game to be played Thursday, August 5th, in Floydada. Lion McDonald and Kiwanian Stansell are eager to get at each other.

Two Stars have been signed by the two teams scheduled for battle in Floydada Thursday, August 5, in a closely matched slow-pitched softball game. Jack Stansell, who can't decide what position he is really qualified for, has been signed by the Kiwanis club. Could this be because he is president? Rank does have its privileges, it seems. Ray McDonald, catcher, has been signed by the Lions club to fill the home pocket. They say it's because of his prowess as a "coverer" of home plate. Also, he is president of the Lions club and the club is used to having him in front of them.

The coaches are planning to have a full roster in time to practice once, maybe, before the big event. Rojion Adams, Lion coach, said: "Our club is really in pretty magnificent shape and needs little practice. All we need to do is run around the bases a couple of times so they'll know which way to go should one of them hit a ball."

Tracy Puckett, Kiwanis coach, feels a little less comfortable about her team. "They are used to running around in circles, but this is more diamond shaped and some of them

Ratheal Places At

TAAF Track Meet

Randy Ratheal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ratheal of the Lakeview community, finished fifth in the state TAAF 440 dash finals at Dallas last week with a time of 51.6. He went into the 440 finals with the third best qualifying time of 50.6.

Ratheal qualified for the state TAAF meet by placing in four events at the TAAF track meet in Lubbock. He placed second in the long jump, first in the 220, 440 and sprint relay at the Lubbock competition.

may get a little confused. We plan to put some instructions on how to hold a bat. Most of the players want to cuddle when you talk about the "old bat," but with practice...maybe..." she mused.

Mets Win One, Cubs Lose Two At Playoffs

The Mets baseball team, representing Floydada's freshmen little league division, remain in competition at district playoffs in Idalou after winning their first game against Hawley 13-3 Monday night. The Cubs, representing Floydada's T-Shirt division, were edged out of district competition after losing two straight games Monday and Tuesday nights at New Deal.

METS WIN ONE
In the first round of district playoffs the Mets scored seven runs in the second inning, and two runs each in the third, fourth and fifth innings to blast

Hawley 13-3. Mets pitcher Phillip Garza held Hawley to only one run in the fourth inning and two runs in the sixth inning.

Mets Coach Billy Morren said that all his boys played real well and all hit good. "I was just real proud of them," he said.

In the next round of district playoffs the Mets will play the winner of the New Deal-Idalou game at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

If the Mets win Wednesday they will have at least one more game to win before being named district champions. The district champion will compete in the state playoffs next week at Sweetwater.

CUBS LOSE TWO
The Cubs lost a close game Monday night, being edged out 8-7 by the New Deal Reds. The lead in the game changed hands several times with the Cubs leading 5-3 from the third until the last inning of the game. However the Reds made five runs in the final inning to come from behind and win the game 8-7.

Dale Minner and Joey Jones pitched for the Cubs.

The Cubs were shut out from further district competition Tuesday night, losing to the Twin Cities team 14-7. (Twin Cities team was composed of players from Idalou and Roosevelt). The Cubs had 11 hits in the game. J. D. Wilson, Dale Minner and Joey Jones pitched for the Cubs.

NOTE from Dr. Eva that back in 1969 and were four doctors in Jordan, Guthrie, and a technician, whose name I can't remember...something...we're back to four in Floydada. Dr. Lockney...so that's population of 12,000 that "everyone who is able to work, should work." Of course the government pays a lot of people for not working. True, some are unable to work, but it's just my horseback opinion, there are enough jobs to go around if the unemployed want to seek a job, and hold that job by putting in a day's work for a day's pay.

Sure, some big cities don't have, enough jobs for the unemployed...some of the unemployed might have to move to other areas of the country to find work.

The Texas jobless rate climbed to 6.1 percent in June...up because so many high school and college students are looking for jobs.

Texas continues to fare better than the nation as a whole in having a lot of jobs and people at work....

There is plenty of work available in Floydada. There probably aren't enough typing jobs available...or possibly clerking positions, but anyone wanting to work can get work here....it may be farm work, vegetable plant work...but there are plenty of jobs available.

And each town is different....I have a son who is making good money in Amarillo this summer working in a copper plant. The pay is good, the work is hard and in some areas of the plant plenty hot.

I have a daughter in Abilene (Where there are three colleges) who had a hard time finding a summer job. She finally landed a job as hostess at one of the Abilene restaurants. The pay isn't so good, because of the abundance of job seekers there, but it helps when you're going to college.

Bus Driving School

In order to comply with Texas Education Agency standards. All persons who intend to drive a school bus for the transportation of school children either on a regular route or for extra curricular activities will need to attend a 20 hour bus driving training course.

The course for Lockney and South Plains will be conducted at Lockney Jr. High Library beginning August 2 and will run through August 7. Starting time each week day will be 6 p.m. till 9 p.m. and from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Floydada and Dougherty bus drivers will have their course from August 16 through August 21 with starting times the same as that for the Lockney school.

Both courses have a limited enrollment of 30 students and it is imperative that each participant be there for the full 20 hours. In addition each driver is required to have his chauffers license or is in the process of obtaining it before Sept. 1.

For any additional information please call John Peck, 652-2104 in Lockney or Tommy Cathey 983-5167 in Floydada.

She was getting along well, but more surgery is required, and Tuesday morning of this week she will undergo more surgery. Her son and family,

Bullock To Reconsider Increase In Inheritance Tax Exemptions

AUSTIN—Comptroller Bob Bullock announced Thursday that he will recommend to the 65th Legislature that inheritance tax exemptions for surviving family members be increased to ease the financial burden imposed on many Texans, particularly farmers and ranchers. Bullock said his Inheritance Tax Division is on her leg. Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham and Mrs. Mamie Wood went up to Palo Duro Canyon last Friday night with the Singles Club, where they attended a showing of the great show, "Texas" and all enjoyed it very much.

Kristi Julian was hostess for a slumber party in her home Friday night with guests Miss Atha Blake, Miss Regina Sanders and Miss Renee Sanders spending the night with her.

Ricky Upton of Los Alamos, New Mexico visited here the first part of last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton, and also spent part of the week in Floydada with his other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blum.

We offer our sincere sympathy to Dr. and Mrs. Fred Howard of Plainview whose little grandson, Brian Sikes 11 from Herndon, Virginia, passed away last Tuesday morning there in Herndon Hospital after a fight of 3 1/2 years with Leukemia. Dr. and Mrs. Howard went back to Herndon and spent the week with their daughter and family, before the little Brian died, and were there when he got worse and was taken to the hospital. Brian was brought back to Santa Fe, New Mexico for burial and the funeral was held there on Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. with interment in Santa Fe. Dr. and Mrs. Howard are well-known in our vicinity, having pastored the Baptist Church at different times during the past years, and we are all sorry to hear of their loss.

State Jobless Rate Climbs In June

The Texas jobless rate climbed to 6.1 per cent in June. This is an increase of eight-tenths of one per cent over the May rate, according to Texas Employment Commission Chairman Harold K. Dudley, who added that it is no cause for concern.

"There's an increase every June," Dudley said, "as students and others entering the labor market begin looking for jobs." "Unemployment patterns since 1970 show larger fluctuations from May to June than the current increase," Dudley said. "The new figures actually are evidence of economic recovery. It appears that the economy is making a step in the right direction, but it is moving slowly."

During June, some 331,600 Texans were seeking jobs and 5,149,300 were employed.

"Texas continues to fare better than the nation as a whole," Dudley commented. "The national unadjusted rate for June is 8.0 per cent—a full 1.3 per cent higher than the May rate of 6.7 per cent."

The chairman predicted a gradual decline in joblessness in the months ahead.

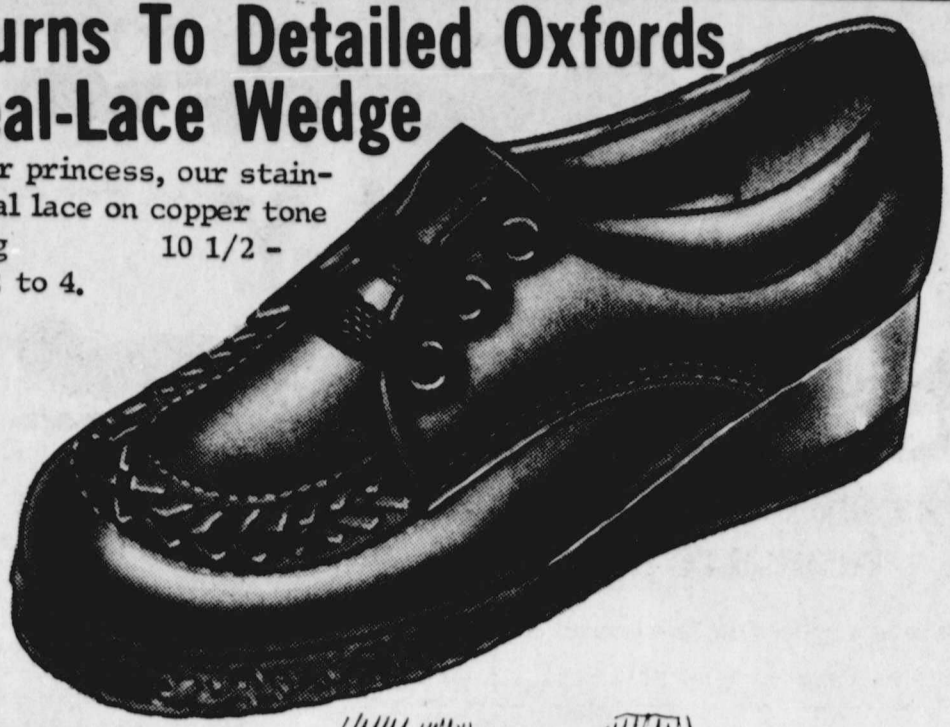

"The unemployment rate will go down very reluctantly and very gradually," he said. "Since there seems to be little chance of a sudden superheating of the economy, further decline in the unemployment rate is expected to come slowly."

Unemployment rates in major labor areas of Texas in June include Abilene, 4.1 per cent; Amarillo, 3.6 per cent; Austin, 5.1 per cent; Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange, 7.5 per cent; Brownsville-Harlingen-San Benito, 10.7 per cent; Corpus Christi, 6.7 per cent; El Paso, 9.6 per cent; Galveston-Texas City, 7.6 per cent; Laredo, 15.2 per cent; Longview-Marshall, 7.9 per cent; Lubbock, 4.2 per cent; McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg, 10.0 per cent; Midland, 3.4 per cent; Odessa, 4.3 per cent; San Angelo, 4.3 per cent; San Antonio, 8.8 per cent; Sherman-Denison, 8.7 per cent; Tyler, 6.2 per cent; Waco, 6.1 per cent; Wichita Falls, 4.6 per cent; Dallas-Fort Worth, 5.2 per cent; Houston, 6.3 per cent.

CONSERVING ENERGY

Tips From Whirlpool Home Economists

Energy conscious homemakers are looking for ways to conserve energy, both for themselves and the nation. Here are a few suggestions that can help you trim your energy tab and still let you enjoy the convenience of your automatic dryer.

- Dry full loads, but do not overload your dryer. Clothes that can tumble freely will dry faster.
- Dry your clothes in consecutive loads. This cuts down on the energy consumption required to heat up the unit.
- Avoid overdrying — remove clothes as soon as the dryer turns off.
- Sort clothes into loads of light or heavy fabrics for fastest drying.

Automatic dryers make washdays a lot easier. Following these tips can make it easier to save energy, too.

Miss Kramer, Robert Earl Stufbergen Wed

Alexa Marie Kramer and Robert Earl Stufbergen were wed Saturday in a 7 p.m. nuptial mass at St. Alice Catholic Church in Plainview with Rev. Edward Chrisman officiating.

Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas W. Kramer of Lockney are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mrs. George Watters of Lincoln, Nebraska, and the late John Stufbergen.

Providing musical accompaniment were organist Bill Deardorf and soloist Melody Malow, both of Plainview.

The bride's attendants were maid of honor Miss Teresa White of St. Paul, Minnesota; matron of honor Mrs. Paul Griego, sister of the bride, of Laguna, New Mexico; and bridesmaids Mrs. Jerry Hulcy, sister of the bride, of Sweetwater, Miss Diane Robinson, of Hurst, and Miss Willa Dendinger of Omaha, Nebraska.

John Stufbergen, brother of the groom, of O'Neill, Nebraska, was best man. Serving as groomsman were Mark Mattern of Collegeville, Minnesota, Eugene Soukup of O'Neill, Nebraska, Craig Cooksley, and Steve Wegner, both of Omaha, Nebraska.

William Hogge of Plainview was lector. Renee Hulcy, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Evan and Emil Kramer, brothers of the bride, and Bill and Andy Hoelscher, cousins of the bride, of O'Neill, Nebraska, were acolytes. Ushers were Frank French of Wayne, Nebraska, and Jerry Hulcy, brother-in-law of the bride, of Sweetwater.

The nuptial area was decorated with baskets of white mums, gladioli and imported palms. A candelabra completed the setting. The aisles were marked by white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal floor-length gown of organza over bridal taffeta designed with a lace victorian collar. The closely-fitted bodice of Chantilly lace was accented by seed pearls at the neck. Her long sheer tapered sleeves were swept to back fullness and cascaded into a full chapel train. Her three-tiered chapel length veil of bridal illusion was trimmed in matching lace and was traced with lace motifs. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, sweetheart roses with baby's breath on a white Bible and intertwined with a blue rosary belonging to her mother. For "something old," she carried her mother's rosary; "something new" was her bridal gown and veil; "something borrowed" was a sixpence used in both of her two older sisters' weddings; "something blue" was her garter.

The bridesmaids' dresses were floor-length gowns of pastel blue and were overlaid with a blue flocked sheer accented by yellow and pink roses. They were fashioned with empire waists, bouffant elbow-length sleeves, and full flare skirts. They carried nosegays of blue carnations, white daisies, yellow roses, and baby's breath.

The reception was held in the St. Alice Parish Hall. Claire McGarr and Carla Robinson of Plainview attended the guest book. Serving at the bride's table were Mr. M. G. Hoelscher, the bride's aunt, of Amarillo, and Misses Rebecca Leach of Amarillo, Lucy Maso, Janet Taylor, and Gina and Lori Kemp, all of Plainview.

The groom's table was attended by Misses Patti Mascrey, Mary Kirby, and Kathy O'Donnell of Omaha, Nebraska, and Janette Watkins of Laramie, Wyoming. Miss Lisa Andrews distributed wedding scrolls.

Piano selections by Bill Deardorf provided background music for the reception.

The bride's table was covered with white satin overlaid with silk illusion and accented with blue ribbons and American beauty bows. It held a centerpiece of silver candelabra encircled with the flowers of the attendants.

The groom's table was laid with an ivory knit cloth with a brown fringed overlay. Featured decorations were a brass candlestick, a wedding memory candle, and a silver coffee service.

After a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the couple will live in Omaha, Nebraska.

A 1973 graduate of Plainview High School, the bride is a senior in College of Nursing of Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, where she is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority. She is employed by Creighton Memorial St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha.

The groom is a 1972 graduate of St. Mary's High School in O'Neill, Nebraska, and is a senior in the School of Pharmacy of Creighton University. He is affiliated with the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity and is employed by the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

The groom's mother and step-father hosted the rehearsal dinner in the Garden Room of the First Presbyterian Church on Friday. Petite baskets of pastel blue carnations and white daisies were used in the decorations. Saturday at noon, the bridesmaids' luncheon was held at the Bridal House. Hostesses were

NEWS 'N' NOTES

(by Sharon Hillis)

FLOYDADA schools start their fall season Monday, August 23rd. But cheer-up kids, you get a holiday Monday, Sept. 6th.

SOMETHING sure needs to be done to the parking area in front of the post office.

WHEN cooking high odor foods such as cabbage, broccoli and brussel sprouts, put a heel of bread in the pot, and you'll find it will help prevent the odor. Also sprinkling salt in your frying pan keeps the grease from spattering.

THE cucumber season is upon us, and it may be a surprise to some housewives that cucumbers do not have to be cooled to be good. Try peeling and seeding them, cover with a small amount of salted boiling water until they are tender-crisp. Dress with fresh chopped dill and butter.

WANT a pretty garnish for your fish, fruit, vegetable or dessert dishes. Make lemon roses. Cut thin slices from the stem of the lemon and with that as your starting point remove the peel in a thin spiral. Carefully curl the peeled spiral around itself until it resembles a yellow rose. Very pretty. The lemon itself may be squeezed into the juice for later use.

I WAS meddlin' round on the second floor of the court house Tuesday trying to find news and couldn't find anyone at home. The librarian was out for coffee; Mary McPherson was out of her office until August 2, the District Judge and court reporter all on vacation, or that's what I hear. For those of you who are not fond of Tired of hot, messy kitchens these steamy summer days? Try cooking outdoors—a popular way of life in Texas.

An outdoor meal is an easy way to entertain with minimum preparation and clean-up. Also, many charcoal grills require no electricity or gas, so they're a real energy-saver on the monthly utility bill.

An entire meal may be planned for cooking outside. Plan meals with adequate nutrition by including foods from the Basic Four Food Groups.

Meal service should be simple and easy, such as buffet style. It's easy to arrange for small or large groups, and plastic utensils and cups, paper dishes and napkins make easy clean-up. Assemble as much of the meal indoors as possible. Keep cold and perishable foods refrigerated until they are ready to eat or cook. Foods prepared in advance and left outside can be infested with organisms which multiply quickly and do not affect food taste, smell or appearance. Food-borne disease is possible when food is handled too much, improperly cooked or left exposed for several hours outside.

Texas Barbecue Sauce

1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1/2 cups vinegar
1 cup catsup or tomato paste
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons paprika
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cloves garlic, peeled and minced
2 medium onions, chopped finely.
Combine ingredients and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Yield: 3 cups.

Tomatoes and Onions

Cut medium-sized, firm tomatoes in half crosswise; season with salt and pepper. Place a thin slice of onion between the halves. Fasten with a toothpick and wrap each tomato in a square of heavy aluminum foil. Bake at edge of grill 15 to 20 minutes.

Garlic Bread

1 loaf unsliced French bread, 10-12 inches long
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 cup margarine or butter, melted
1 teaspoon paprika
Slice bread in one-inch thick slices, cutting to within one-fourth inch from the bottom of the loaf. Add garlic powder and paprika to margarine or butter and blend well. Spread between slices and over top of bread. Wrap in foil and heat on back of grill.

Roasted Corn-Indian Style

Pull back husks and remove silks. Replace husks and tie ends with string. Soak in cold water to prevent excessive browning. Place ears on grill; roast 15 to 20 minutes, turning frequently until husks are dry and browned.

MUTILATED TREE-Workers at Texas Highway Department discovered this vandalized cedar tree Monday morning at the department's headquarters at 708 N. 2nd St. Two of the branches had been sawed off; another limb had been chopped with an ax. A highway department spokesman told the Herald-Examiner as a weekend gathering place for the last two years, according to the spokesman. A few weeks ago vandals threw a whiskey bottle through one of the building's plate glass windows, according to the spokesman, the young persons have caused a problem in the area. City police have said that they will watch the area more closely.

By Mrs. J.E. Green

Vic Green of Plainview had a nice trip to Borger last Tuesday. We saw all the sisters and two nieces and all had a good dinner at the J. B. Massingill home. We saw beautiful crops and enjoyed the drive thru Palo Duro Canyon.

Senior Citizens of Floydada enjoyed a trip to Lubbock for the workshop Friday even though it was rainy. There were 14 of our members present and for the workshop and dinner afterwards at Furr's Cafeteria.

The Mt. Blanco-Pleasant Hill and Lakeview Reunion at the Massey Center was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Green visited briefly with the Pecks Sunday before Church. Visitors Sunday afternoon with the Pecks were former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore of Sundown. Miss Meredith, Mrs. Green and Miss Coward "dined out" Sunday before going to the Reunion. Mrs. Elmer Warren's Sunday guests were her son, John and family near Lubbock. Grandson, John remained to visit awhile with his grandmother. Another grandson, Gene Warren and wife of Halfway came Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Tony Balios and girls, Jacinda and Malissa of Lubbock visited her mother, Mrs. Frank Dunn Sunday. Jacinda remained for a longer visit with her grandmother.

Mrs. Ava Jackson visited with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wright of Rotan, from Wednesday till Monday.

Mrs. O. C. Vinson's granddaughters, Janey

Huckabee of Stephenville and Lori Vinson of Harmony, visited her awhile Sunday morning, then drove on to Stephenville.

Carl Nelson of Dimmitt and Hermon Nelson of Oklahoma City visited Raymond Nelson in Plainview Saturday night. Miss Alma Ruth Nelson spent Saturday night in Plainview with Mrs. Klice Ooley (a sister). Then all came to the community Reunion.

We sympathize with the family and other loved ones of Mrs. Lee Burton, a beloved resident of the Fairview Community, who passed on last week.

Sunday death took another of the pioneers of this area; a retired farmer, church man and financier. Our sympathy goes out to the family of Fred Battey.

VA News

Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director in Waco, today reminded veterans that some of them may be making unnecessary premium payments on their National Service Life Insurance policies.

"All NSLI policies beginning with World War II provide for a waiver of premium payments if you become totally disabled," Coker said.

"A veteran owning this insurance may not be required to pay premiums if he or she becomes totally disabled before reaching the age of 65 and the disability has existed for at least six consecutive months," he added.

But Coker pointed out that, under the law, waiver of premium payments for disability is not automatic. "The veteran must apply for the waiver and refunds daughter, Gretchen reports that she and husband, Elmer Shore and their group arrived safely in Baghdad, Iraq, where the men are employed. She says, "We had a nice trip and a good time in Paris. It is interesting here. A lot of palm trees, mosques, helpful people, and hot weather-120 degrees F. every day."

After the onset of disability are usually limited to one year prior to the filing of the claim," he explained. Coker said "total disability" for insurance purposes means that the veteran is prevented from working because of the disability.

For additional information and application form, veterans should contact the nearest VA office or write to the VA Center which handles their insurance.

Caprock Hospital's Lab Provides Many Functions

By Charles Chessher

The Caprock Hospital lab is not just the only lab in town. The lab provides services for an area which includes Crosbyton, Silverton, Lockney and Matador. In Floydada alone the four-person staff is responsible for providing laboratory functions for TB control, migrant services, South Plains Health Provider, family planning, the city's clinic and outpatient services.

These lab functions include hermatology (blood count), urinalysis, blood chemistry, bacteriology, coagulation, blood banking and more. "The lab is equipped to do all lab procedures, T. M. Whitley, x-ray technician said. The x-ray and lab departments work closely together, according to Whitley.

Whiteley said that the lab staff is on call 24 hours a day. He said that Monday night he worked until 2 a.m. X-ray procedures are under the control of radiologist Dr. William J. Reed of Plainview who visits the lab once a week. Like the lab, the X-ray department does clinic work, accident and diagnostic procedures and functions alongside the area's TB program, South Plains Health Provider, Migrant Program and family planning.

As would be expected, hospitals are monitored closely by federal agencies and the lab has a part in making sure that these standards are met. The lab does cultures on all areas of the hospital such as the nursery and surgery room to ensure that the hospital is complying with federal standards. Medical technologist Teresa Nix who heads the Caprock lab refers to these as "environmental cultures."

A pathologist from Dallas visits lab once a month and runs quality control systems to make sure the hospital is complying with federal standards. Also, blood banking facilities are inspected once a year by the Food and Drug Administration.

"We have a continuing education program that we have to participate in all the time," says Whiteley.

Floyd Fourth In Soybeans

AUSTIN-Floyd County farmers placed fourth in 1975 Texas Soybean production with a crop of 636,000 bushels, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported. County Farmers harvested 22,700 acres with an average yield of 28.0 bushels per acre.

Good planting moisture allowed Texas farmers to start seeding on schedule in mid-May and complete planting by the end of June. Statewide harvest started on a uniform crop in October and, aided by excellent weather, reached completion nearly a month ahead of schedule in late November. Texas placed twentieth in the nation in soybean production with a crop of 9,065,000 bushels valued at $38 million.

Hale County led the state in production with 1,326,000 bushels. Complete figures on Texas field crops have been compiled in the "1975 Texas Field Crops Statistics."

ELIZABETH FARRIS WINS AT VERNON

Elizabeth Farris came home with a second place trophy from the Vernon tennis tournament last week. She and Vernon's Deana Wright placed second behind a couple of Wichita Falls women.

Elizabeth teamed up with another Vernon player in the mixed doubles but lost early in the tournament.

Teresa Nix received a bachelor of science degree in medical technology from Texas Tech and then trained for a year at Methodist Hospital lab school in Lubbock. Whiteley attended two years of lab school, three years of X-ray school and has had "lots of years on the job." Tom Lovell has been working at the lab the last two summers while he attends Tech, majoring in the pre-med program. Lovell started working at the lab as part of Floydada High School's D. E. program. The lab still employs a high school student each year. Also working in the lab is Dovie Hart who received nurses' training and later transferred to the lab.

IN STATELY, TALL PINES is an excellent place to gain knowledge just what the 4-H's from Floyd County are doing. The 4-H Club, sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company, is being held at the week, 28 miles southeast of Cloudcroft, New Mexico in the high mountains. Those representing Floyd county are, front row, Leeta Willis, Beverly Burleson, Leeta Adams, and Caren Campbell. Back row, Tom Lovell, Teresa Nix, and Dovie Hart. Lubbock is the SPS instructor.

Jones In WTSU Tennis Camp

AMARILLO-CANYON.-Floydada's Terry Jones is currently among more than 250 young tennis players participating in the sixth annual West Texas Tennis Camp this week (July 25-31) on the campus of West Texas State University.

The current camp is one of three scheduled this summer on the Canyon campus. The camp is under the direction of WTSU tennis coach David Kent and Amarillo Town Club pro Roland Ingram.

"We try to do two things in the camp," Kent says. "One, we try to improve each individual's game, and two, we try to have some fun."

Assisting Kent and Ingram are members of WTSU 1976 Missouri Valley Conference championship team. The Buffaloes won their fourth straight league title in the meet held on WTSU's 14 Laykold courts in May. It was WT's fifth MVC championship in six years on competition.

In addition to the great tennis facilities, campers also have the use of the university's $4 million Student Activities Center.

Matador Ranch Founder Remembered By Grandson

by Felicia Applewhite
Vance Campbell, to most people, is a farmer-stockman, but to the writer and historian, he is the grandson of the famed "Paint" Campbell who founded Matador Ranch.

Vance and his wife Betty live in Motley County just across the Floyd County line. That is, their house is in Motley County. The address is Floydada. Most of the land is in Floyd County.

"It seems fitting that the Vance Campbell home sits on the Plains overlooking the vast panorama of foothills to the east. The house commands the view of the land originally owned by Vance's grandfather Henry H. (Paint) Campbell as well as portions of land to the north, south and east once owned by the Matador Ranch which was founded by him. There, too, Mrs. Campbell's father A. T. Swepston had his start as a young man," writes Eleanor Traweck.

Vance knows more about his grandfather and the early day than anyone. That he did not experience first hand was told him by his father.

"I have heard Papa tell about how it was possible in 1882 when you came up on the Cap to see the rolling sandhills of the Callahan

Land, 20,000 acres, the atmosphere was so clear and the mirage was so good.

"Granddad owned all of it once, but he had to turn it back in 1892 for taxes because of the drought that lasted through 1891 and '92. He had paid one dollar an acre for it. The court records show that he was the first owner.

"The Callahan School Land lay southwest of where Lockney is now. He put down a 15 foot, hand-dug well somewhere between where Barwise and Sandhill are now.

"Charles Goodnight laughed at Grandfather for buying 'that old Plains land,' but Grandfather told him it would be worth $15 an acre some day."

Another story about "Paint" Campbell had to do with his trail drive to California. It was about 1869 that he was two years driving the herd to California. When he arrived there, all of his hands quit and stayed there. But there was a negro boy who wanted to come to Texas. He and the boy hid during the day time coming back and rode at night. He was carrying money from his cattle sale-his nest egg to begin ranching operations.

The cattle on those long trail drives were wild. The slightest movement or noise could set off a stampede. For this reason, night wranglers had to sing, yodel whistle or talk aloud to prevent a stillness where a sudden noise shocked the cattle into action. The origin of many cowboy songs were the result of cowboys searching for something to say.

After Mr. Campbell founded Matador Ranch it reached from Callahan School Land to Paducah. It joined the F's on to Dickens. It was time of free, open country.

Line camps were established around the outskirts of the ranch and of other ranches for the purpose of keeping cattle pushed back to where they belonged.

These line camps were dugouts for the early Matador Ranch and were placed at intervals along around the ranch. Two men to the camp was customary. Each day they rode out in opposite directions to throw back any cattle nearing the ranch boundary.

The line riders would stay in camp together so long they "would hate each other." Once one started humming a song and the other said that "nobody but a fool" would sing a song like that. They ended up by shooting each other. They both died of the gun shots.

Another time two "fellers" were trapped in a dugout when a panther stayed around eating some beef just outside the door. They couldn't shoot the panther to clear the way out because their guns were outside on their saddles.

The line riders were relieved to an extent when round up time came. In the old time round ups, everything west of Matador would be pulled in on one roundup.

"Papa said Grandfather would skirt these complete Plains and drop off one cowboy here and one there, then he would come all the way back to see if they were doing the job and not leaving cattle behind. Cattle were so wild, they would run but not hide. Papa said you would come by in a wagon and just 'holler' at 'em and they'd take off in the direction of the round up."

There was a place that attracted the cowboys. It was Tepee City. It was just an old buffalo hunter's camp with a saloon and dance hall girls. It was located northeast of the Matador Ranch.

Regardless where Paint Campbell sent a cowboy, it seemed the Tepee City was on the way there. So Mr. Campbell bought Tepee City and closed it out.

Once when a baseball, (the only one between the ranch and Wichita Falls) was brought to the ranch men came for miles to play one day. Paint Campbell was the first to bat. He hit the ball and it went flying across the field and went into a prairie dog hole.

When Grandmother Campbell came to the ranch as a bride, there was but one other white woman within 70 miles. When those women went to visit each other, they stayed two weeks. They "dern shore" got the visit out after going that far in buggy.

"Once Papa asked about the wild dogs that were always here. It seems there were some men that were raising hogs for the army, and found out they were not making much of it, so went off and left their hogs. The hogs lived on the remains of buffaloes left by the buffalo hunters who wanted only the hides. The hogs became wild and multiplied."

Old Timers said that Paint Campbell had a horse that he often rode from the ranch to Colorado City in one day from sun up to sun down. That's a "great Big 100 miles" through three counties. They say it wasn't like "running a race," just a slow lope. Paint Campbell had ridden all his life—thought nothing of it. Back then he would get on a horse and go to Ft. Worth—just climb on and take off.

"Papa had a windmill that wasn't pumping through a long period of calm no wind to turn the wheel. Day after day he turned the mill by hand to get water for his cattle. The whole country was open, so a man from near Antelope let his horses drink the water supply low repeatedly following the hand pumping. Papa just built a barbed wire fence around the tank just high enough for the cows to go under, but not big enough for a horse."

After the ranch was sold to Scotsmen, Paint Campbell became manager for ten years. Once they asked how many calves they would have that year. The answer was an estimated 25,000, but later when the actual count

HARRY H. CAMPBELL with his favorite standbys—pipe and bowtie—home in West Matador in January, 1951, when he was 70 years old. (Vance Campbell's father) was born May 15, 1881, in Motley County, February 17, 1969 at his home.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters

This has been a good week at the Nursing home. The only resident we had in the hospital, Lydia Collins, got to come home. We sure missed her sweet smiling face and everyone is happy she is back. The residents are kind of like a family and when something affects one it affects all here.

We have had some new faces in exercise class too. We all enjoy these exercises and encourage everyone who can to attend.

The games this week were fun. We all received a great blessing from the wonderful devotions. May God bless everyone who took part in them.

Wednesday we took a nice field trip in the country. The crops are so pretty now, just like a picture. Taking this trip were Florence Badgett, Agnes Anderson, Viola Weems, Hope Hammonds, Dora Langford, myself and the bus driver. Thursday was "Bingo Day." We always have so much fun playing. The top winner was Hope Hammonds, and Ray Reed with three games each. Agnes Anderson, Della Finley and Hallie Bertrand won two games each. Clara Williamson did not get to play as she was in the beauty shop.

Our visitors this week include: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Anderson, Mrs. George Wexler, Alma Ruth Nelson, Dovie Rushing, Glenn Bills,
