A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The
TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

Weather Affects Crops

White reported that late stands have been especially affected by dry weather and heavy insect infestations. The Commissioner said that a few cotton fields in the Blacklands have been plowed up because of poor crop prospects.

White noted that despite unfavorable weather conditions, production is still 31 percent above last year's crop of 3.13 million bales.

Although sorghum production is estimated at 318 million bushels, down 56 million from last year, quality of the crop is reported good. Yield per acre has dropped two bushels below the August estimate, but is one bushel more than during 1975.

Peanut yield estimates of 1,600 pounds per acre are unchanged from last month, but are five percent more than in 1975. Production is projected at 491 million pounds, a 28 million pound increase from last year.

Sweet But Short... More Pork Chops On The Way... Citrus Harvest Begins.

This is a sweet report, but it's also on the short side. Texas commercial apiaries with 300 or more colonies expect to produce 5,400,000 pounds of honey this year. This compares with 7,488,000 pounds produced last year.

Average yield is expected to be only 45 pounds per colony this year compared with 72 pounds in 1975. Production was hurt by a cool, wet spring followed by an extremely dry summer.

Nationwide, honey production is expected to be about one per cent lower than a year ago.

MORE PORK CHOPS AND BACON

are on the way, judging from a report on hog and pig numbers from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Hogs and pigs in Texas as of Sept. 1 are estimated at slightly more than 1,000,000 head. This is 17 per cent above the Sept. 1, 1975, inventory and is nine per cent above that of two years ago.

The June-August 1976 pig crop totaled 365,000 head, which is almost a fourth more than last year. The number of sows farrowed totaled 50,000, which is 19 per cent above a year ago.

From now through February, 1977, Texas hog producers anticipate farrowing 90,000 sows. This would be up 17 per cent from the period a year ago. Farrowings during September-November are expected to total 42,000 sows, and farrowings from December, 1976, to February, 1977, are estimated at 48,000 sows.

Nationwide, the same trend is reported. Inventory of hogs and pigs as of Sept. 1 in 14 states is estimated at 48,700,000 head; this is up 17 per cent from a year ago. Breeding hog numbers increased 13 per cent while the market hog inventory rose 18 per cent over a year ago.

The June-August 1976 pig crop in the 14 states is up 21 per cent above a year ago. Producers intend to have 2,400,000 sows farrowed now through November. This is 16 per cent more than 1975.

HARVEST OF THE 1976-77 CITRUS CROP is now underway in the Rio Grande Valley. While that is beginning, wheat planting in the northern parts of the state is picking up tempo.

Thus far, wheat seeding is behind the pace of a year ago, but it is expected to intensify in the coming weeks. Cotton harvest is only about half as far along now as was the case last year. Grain sorghum harvest is about on schedule with that of last year. Slightly more than two-thirds of that crop have been harvested.

Peanut harvesting is behind schedule and is now about 30 per cent complete compared to about 50 per cent for the past three year average. Oat planting is slightly behind the schedule of a year ago. Soybean harvesting time is at hand along the Gulf Coast.

PECAN HARVESTING TIME

is also on tap. Some early varieties have opened in Central Texas. Prospects in the Trans-Pecos area look good despite some hickory shuckworm damage.

Corn harvesting throughout the state is now about 40 per cent complete compared with the three year average of 50 per cent. Fantastic yields are expected in the irrigated sections of the High Plains.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

The fourth and final hearing on a proposed amendment to the Cotton Research and Promotion Act was held September 30 in Phoenix, Arizona, completing another step in the direction of increased funding for Cotton Incorporated (CI).

The U.S. Department of Agriculture held the four hearings to gather cotton producer views on increasing their current $1 per bale contribution to research and market development through CI.

USDA earlier heard grower statements in Memphis, Tenn., Atlanta, Ga., and Dallas. The overwhelming balance of producers testifying at all four hearings favored the calling of a producer referendum on the proposed increase in December of this year.

Cattle Look Dim As Feedlots

Gary Culp of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association reported that except for one or two months in the spring, cattle feeders have not broken even due to low slaughter prices for a year.

"If we can ride out this period of overstocking and keep illegal imports down, prospects could brighten somewhat," White said.

Regulations which went into effect September 17 could help the ailing cattle industry somewhat, White reported.

The Federal decision to close the loopholes in the meat import law should slow down the flow of illegal shipments. Essentially the regulation has redefined beef to include processed beef so that it will fall within the provisions of the meat import act.

FACTS & FIGURES

A new, recyclable, lightweight soft drink container provides approximately 80 per cent energy saving when recycled as compared to the energy required to manufacture the original bottle. The original 32-ounce bottle uses 8800 BTUs (British Thermal Units). Recycling a 32-ounce bottle uses only 1800 BTUs.

A minimum of $250 a ton is being offered by Monsanto Company for used containers of this kind, which are trademarked Cycle-Safe—about 1.8 cents per bottle!

ASK DAVIS FARM SUPPLY ABOUT REMOTE SENSING 1 Less Worry About Winter Wheat

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, gave its views at the Dallas hearing September 28. Current PCG President W.B. Criswell of Idalou told the hearing examiner that PCG "fully supports the Cotton Board's recommendation to the Secretary," and "urges the issuance by the Secretary of an order conforming to that recommendation..."

The Cotton Board, a producer group charged with collecting funds and contracting for their use in research and market promotion, held its own hearings earlier this month. Its recommendation calls for a referendum on increasing the producer's CI assessment by four-tenths of one percent of each bale's gross value, beginning with the 1977 crop. The Cotton Board also would provide that the assessment could be increased to a maximum of one full percent after 1977.

One percent is the maximum collection permitted in the legislation authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to call a referendum. Producers on the Cotton Board are quoted as saying the assessment would not be raised after 1977 "without an in-depth examination of the need, economic conditions and producer sentiment."

The National Cotton Council of America has accepted the responsibility for a complete educational campaign prior to the referendum. Meetings of producers are being scheduled for that purpose across the Cotton Belt.

A meeting is scheduled in Lubbock on October 13, beginning at 10:00 a.m. in the Southpark Inn, Loop 289 and Indiana. The meeting will conclude with a luncheon, and all High Plains producers and agri-businessmen are being urged to attend.

"The final decision on this matter will be made by producers who vote in the referendum," stresses Criswell, "so it is important that every producer make the effort to obtain complete and accurate information before his vote is cast."

The outcome of the referendum will not affect the status of the current $1 per bale CI collection. The supplemental four-tenths of one percent assessment, if approved by producers, will be subject to refund on request as is the $1 collection.

CATTLE RECOVERY

IN 77?—Cattlemen won't see higher beef prices in 1977 unless a lot of cows, non-fed cattle and calves are slaughtered this year, says a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Cattle numbers are still high, with 53.8 million cows, removed as summer calves wean at much lighter weights than calves born at other times of the year. Bulls should be removed by August 20 and cows should be palpated for pregnancy 40-60 days later. Bulls should be returned to the herd by December to get summer and fall calving cows bred for next year.

Lockney Woman Writes Of California-Alaska Tour

The following is written by Mrs. Merle Wofford about a trip she and her husband, Lloyd, made in August and September to California, up the west coast and a tour of Alaska and the western coast of Canada by bus, plane, and boat; and in their own car through the western states.)

We left Lockney August 10th, drove to Alameda, Calif. where we joined a group of people—30 women and 8 men. We were invited to join the group by a brother. Alamed Travelers is a club traveling all over the world.

We left Alameda, Calif. August 16th by bus for Alaska. We traveled the Alaska Highway to Anchorage. We took a 737 Boeing to Kotzebue, spent the night, then on to Nome the next morning. On our return to Anchorage, we met by Ralph Wofford who lives there; visited in his home and met his wife and children. Then he showed us the town, and the results of the earthquake before taking us back to our motel. A few days were spent on the tundra, seeing Mt. McKinley, and wildlife in the area—moose, caribou, bear, dahl sheep, marmot. On to Tok to see the pipeline which we had already seen in Fairbanks and Valdez. We better understood the controversy about the pipeline. Once the permafrost is thawed, it never freezes again. It is feared it may destroy the whole ecological structure of the state.

Then back to Whitehorse where the bus was loaded on a flat car and we had two coaches reserved for us. Spent the night in Skagway where we boarded the Inside Passage ferry boat "Taku." We were on the boat for 3 days, and stopped in Juneau for a 3-day stay. Flew over the Mendenhall Glacier in a 6-place Cessna seaplane. Then back on the boat to sleep overnight. We enjoyed sightseeing Victoria and the Butchart Gardens.

Our farewell party in Medford, Oregon was a sad but enjoyable time of parting with people we had been with constantly for 5 weeks.

We went to Grass Valley, Calif. for a week's visit; then to Payette, Idaho to visit Earl Rives, a classmate of Lloyd's and an ex-Lockneyite. Returned by Son and Loraine Shelton's, and saw the beautiful sights of Glenwood Springs, Colorado. Arrived home Saturday, October 2nd to find the summer gone and fall here. We had a wonderful trip with a wonderful group of people.

AT SEASON of the year when most homecoming, and most graduates pools and colleges get a letter urging them to attend the homecoming and reminisce with former classmates. And it is a lot of fun to go back and see people you haven't seen in years, discover what has happened to those nutty youngsters you went to school with, and to see how old and fat you have got in the intervening years.

I haven't been to my college homecoming (North Texas State) in more than 10 years, and I have never been to homecoming at my high school alma mater (Jacksboro). My high school class (1903, my daughters think) was the honor class at a homecoming reunion three or four years ago, and I have since regretted that I was not able to attend.

Several days ago, I attended a part of the annual Wilson High School homecoming. Since I was just there to eat and take pictures, almost nobody knew me. It's kind of fun to go up to some couple, shake his hand real big and hug her neck and exclaim how good it is to see them again after all these years, then cut out and leave them wondering who you are.

Listening to the conversation around you at one of these homecoming reunions is interesting, too. You hear things like this:

"Gee, you're sure looking good after all these years..." (the speaker sounded disappointed).

"Your face looks real familiar, but..." (your shape doesn't look like anything I ever saw before).

"I just couldn't wait another minute to come over and hug your neck..."

"I'm glad you told me who you are—I never would have known..." (or cared much).

"Who's that guy behind the one with the cap on? I oughtta know him..." (Oh, how silly of me, —that's my husband).

"Well, doggone, I haven't seen you in a hundred years." (An exaggeration, we hope).

"How come all these people look so much older than they did 20 years ago?" (and me still just as young and pretty).

"Aw, you couldn't possibly have a son 29 years old!" (Get away from me; I don't want anybody to know we graduated the same year).

"That guy who drove up in the new Lincoln was the dumbest guy in class."

"Quit hugging my wife, buster. You're no ex-student; you're that newspaper clown from Slaton."

There are 156 languages in the world, each of which is spoken by at least one million people.

Seventh Breezers Lose To Lockney 18-12

The Seventh Grade Breezers lost a close football game to Lockney 18-12 Tuesday night. It was the first district game for both teams.

Carlos Rainwater scored for the Breezers in the first quarter on an end sweep. Try for extra point and the score was all tied up 6-6 at halftime.

In the fourth quarter halfback Mark Nutt went around end for a beautiful 60 yard TD run. Try for extra point was no good.

Coach Arlon Barnes praised the outstanding play of Todd Beedy, Ricky Heflin, Robert Nixon, Carlos Rainwater, Mark Nutt, Gary Rinker, Norman Allen, Chris Fulton and Brent Duke.

Next Tuesday's game will be here with Tulia at 5 p.m. ...you all come out and cheer the Breezers on to victory.

What One Person Can Do

Fifty years in education have given Nelle Shean of Gilbert, Minnesota, a solid grasp of how students have changed over the last half-century.

Born in 1893 in Hurley, Wisconsin, she was one of 11 children. In 1906, her parents moved to the Iron Range mining region of Minnesota. After high school, Nelle Shean attended St. Cloud Teachers College, where she received a teaching certificate. But before graduation, tragedy struck. Her father died, and Miss Shean returned home to become the breadwinner for her large family, teaching school in Malta at a starting salary of $60 a month.

In the period between 1913 and 1963, Nelle Shean taught in eight elementary schools around Gilbert and also served as principal of the local junior high school. Her influence has been felt by virtually every child raised in that part of the state during the 50-year period.

"We had very few problems with discipline in the early years," Miss Shean recalls. "For the children of immigrants, education was the only way to a better life." Today, she admits, things are different. And she traces the difficulty to the home.

"How can you expect discipline in the young," she asks, "if parents themselves have no discipline in their lives? After all, we do learn by example, you know."

In gratitude to their pioneer educator, the community of Gilbert has named an elementary school after Nelle Shean. A fitting tribute to a woman whose example was such a potent force in education.

News & Reviews

Recently on television there was a rerun of the life story of Babe Didrikson Zaharias, the great woman athlete. If you enjoyed seeing this special you also might like to read Babe's autobiography THIS LIFE I'VE LED. She taped her story—reminiscing out loud for hours at a time and her collaborator assembled it all on paper. It reads just as she talked, informal and with candor. The book was published as she went to battle in her repeat bout with cancer. The book includes three sections of Babe in personal and press photographs.

The rich illustrations add a terrific bonus to this collection of AMERICA'S FAVORITE POEMS. Among the poem's in this volume are: When the Frost is On The Pumpkin, Paul Revere's Ride, The Charge of the Light Brigade, If, Chicago, Casey at the Bat, The Raven, Trees, O Captain! My Captain!, Annabel Lee, Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening, Winnie the Pooh, Sea Fever, How Do I Love Thee?, Rime of the Ancient Mariner, Song of Hiawatha, Hamlet's Soliloquy.

HELLO, GOD! PRAYERS FOR SMALL CHILDREN by Lois Walfrid Johnson is a book of informal prayers about simple things: games, feelings, friends, thunder, tears, sickness, balloons, mealtime, flowers, busy streets. These colorful pages and simple conversational prayers help small children talk to God. There are probably a number of adults who could also learn from this little book, which helps make praying a natural and easy part of everyday life.

Thanks to Duffy Ratheal for writing last week's column while Beth Pratt was in Nashville for a Church Library Approved Worker's Seminar. This Wednesday at 12:00 noon there will be a library staff meeting at the church.

Whirlwind Jayvees Crush Arch-Rival Lockney 19-0

By Doug Simpson

The Floydada Whirlwind Junior Varsity squad rushed to an early 12-0 lead and took advantage of outstanding play from its consistent defensive unit, to take a convincing 19-0 decision from Lockney, in a game played Thursday, October 7, at Wester Field. The Whirlwinds, who improved their season record to 2-1-1, continued to sparkle on defense as they allowed their opponents a total of only 1 first down, and prevented the Longhorns from penetrating inside the Floydada 40-yardline.

The Whirlwinds jumped on the scoreboard early as Ricky Day went over from six yards out with 5:15 remaining in the 1st Quarter. The PAT attempt sailed wide to the right, and Floydada held a 6-0 lead. Day's TD capped a drive of just 37 yards, as the Longhorns' punting team, which had difficulties all evening, could manage a 3-yard boot. Floydada took over from that point and went the distance in 9 plays.

Opportunity knocked once more for the Winds on Lockney's next offensive series, as Ricky Luna pounced on a fumble at the Longhorn 19-yard line. Day's 3-yard end run with 2:54 remaining highlighted the scoring drive and put Floydada up by 12-0, a lead which would remain until the third quarter. The conversion was again unsuccessful.

FLOYDDATA Walter "Shorty" Hall, who underwent open heart surgery this week in Lubbock Methodist Hospital, is now out of intensive care unit, and reported to be doing fine. He hopes to be home within ten days. Here with Mr. and Mrs. Hall during his convalescing period is Mr. Hall's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Tolbert of Cordova, Alabama.

CARD OF THANKS

WE WISH TO EXPRESS our appreciation to each of you for your thoughtfulness, love and prayers at the time of my father's death. The flowers were beautiful. Your kind words, phone calls, cards and books thrilled our hearts. Friends mean so much at a time like this. The poem below written by Rev. S. R. McClung (my dad) express our feelings much better than we can: We have many friends. We count them by the score. They come from many places. They come from next door. True friends are great to have. No one could wish for more; They come from many faiths. Each one we do adore. 'Tis great to have such friends. God in heaven looks them over. And in a brighter better land, We'll have them evermore. The Bates McClung

I WISH TO THANK all my friends and neighbors who were so thoughtful during my recent stay in the hospital. Your cards, visits, phone calls and other acts of kindness are deeply appreciated. My special thanks goes to Dr. Mangold and all the nurses and staff at Lockney Hospital for the special care they gave me while I was there. Your kindnesses will always be remembered. Myrtle Roy

VA News

Families of veterans should be made aware of the VA burial allowances available to former servicemen and women, Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director, said today.

For example, VA provides a payment of up to $250 toward the burial expenses of eligible veterans. An additional $150 is available as a plot or interment allowance when burial is not in a National Cemetery or other cemetery under jurisdiction of the federal government.

VA burial or plot allowances are not paid to the extent that payment has been made by the veteran's employer or by a state agency or political subdivision of a state.

When the veteran's death is service-connected, payment of an amount not to exceed $800 will be made in lieu of the usual burial and interment allowances.

With the exception of Arlington National Cemetery, burial is available to eligible veterans at all National Cemeteries having space. Burial in these cemeteries may also be authorized for an eligible veteran's wife or husband, minor children and, under certain conditions, unmarried adult children.

Since 1967, burial in Arlington National Cemetery has been limited to persons dying while on active military duty, Medal of Honor winners, former service personnel on official service retired lists who are eligible for compensation stemming from their active service; certain high officials of the Federal government and certain members of the immediate families of those listed above or those already buried there.

A headstone or grave marker is available from the VA for eligible veterans and memorial markers are provided for certain members of the armed forces who die on active duty and whose remains are not recovered or who are buried at sea. VA will also, upon request, provide an American flag to drape the casket of the veteran.

Veterans eligible for the plot allowance are those who were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable and who served in the Spanish American War, Mexican Border period, World Wars I and II, the Korean Conflict, the Vietnam Era, or peacetime veterans entitled to service-connected compensation at time of death or discharge, or who were retired for disability incurred in the line of duty.

Full information concerning these allowances and eligibility criteria for them is available at any Veterans Administration office, or veterans county service office.

HALLOWEEN, formerly All Hallow's Eve, is a combination of pagan and religious celebrations. It celebrates the return from death of spirits in the form of witches, cats and goblins the night before All Saints' Day. Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.
