Whirlwinds Sweep 4-AA Track Meet

day in Tulia might as compared with

Floydada. But considering that the squad's previous efforts had included a sixth place finish and a runner-up spot at the Stamford Relays, and that a pair of invaluable sprinters had to battle back from costly injuries to compete just in the nick of time, that effort has got to raise a few eyebrows. What the Whirlwinds did last Friday was simply qualify in all but three events in amassing 181 points and wrapping up another district chamampionship, break a school record in the pole vault: set by Rance Young back in 1977, and breeze into regional status with a fresh dose of badly-needed momentum and confidence. Satisfied?

"We're very pleased with our performance by the entire group, and some gave their season's best effort," remarked Coach Joe Paty following the triumph. "There were many of these that gave their best performance," he added, "such as Danny Colston," whose sizzling 14.9 clocking in the 120-yard hurdles gave him first place and a regional berth.

In the field events, Floydada was able to rack up 56 total points, and qualify in all but two events, the shot put and high jump. Paul Radloff's 120' 3 7/8 throw in the discus was good enough for second place in that event, followed by Carmen Soliz in fourth and Junior Cuevas in fifth.

Meanwhile, a splendid effort by Mickey Minnitt was not enough to better a whopping 22 plus foot leap in the long jump by Lockney's Danny Clark, as the senior fighting Whirlwind honoree placed second with a 21' 10"

Debra Williams Honored With Gift Tea

Miss Debra Williams, bride elect of Larry Jones, was honored with a gift tea Saturday afternoon in the W. H. Simpson Jr., home. Mrs. Simpson received guests and presented each to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Horace Williams of Petersburg, and to the mother of the future groom, Mrs. Watson Jones of Floydada.

Miss Cindy Simpson presided at the silver and crystal service. The serving table was laid with a white polyester cotton cloth ruffled with white lace, centered with a small umbrella containing blue and white gingham flowers.

Hostesses for the gift tea included Meses. Andrew McCulley, Dennis Dempsey, J. W. Day Jr., T. L. Holland, Bob Aldredge, E. D. Morgan, Porter Finley, Wayne Collins, George Sherrill, Travis Jones, Bill Feuerbacher, Pete Hickerson, Sam Puckett, Al Galloway and Mrs. Simpson.

Their gift to the honoree was a set of cookware.

Miss Williams and Jones are to be married Sunday, May 22.

Miss June Moosberg, Tommy Sherman Wed

Miss June Moosberg and Tommy Sherman were married at 10:30 a.m. March 19 in the home of Bill and Mary Sherman, brother and sister-in-law of the groom, in the Lone Star community near Lockney. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Moosberg of Route 2, Floydada; the groom is the son of Mrs. L. K. Sherman of Lockney and the late Mr. Sherman.

Church of Christ minister Kelly Newman of Plainview performed the double-ring ceremony in the living room of the Sherman home, in front of the fireplace. On the mantel was a centerpiece of pink rosebuds, pussywillows, baby's breath and greenery. Two candelabra with votive candles also adorned the mantle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of petal-white silk Peau-d'ange with imported English silk net Alencon lace, and Point de-Paris lace enriched with Baroque design pearl bead work. The molded bodice featured a Mme. Pompadour sheer yolk of imported silk English net enriched with appliqued Alencon and Point-de-Paris lorettes interlocked with baroque pearl bead work. A high wedding band neckline was enriched in garlands of petite forget-me-not flowerets. The shell shaped Baroque design motif was repeated at the edge of the deep sheer yolk. From the molded empire bodice drifted the controlled candlestick sleeves of sheer imported silk English net with garlands of baroque pearl beadwork and were cuffed snug to the wrists; garlands of Point-de-Paris forget-me-not flowerets intertwined among the garlands of pearls to enrich the elegant motif. From the molded empire bodice drifted the controlled tulip shaped skirt of Peau-d'ange with gentle fullness gathered to the back of the Crescent waistline swept to form a chapel train.

She wore a Baroque garden hat of silk braid with a soft brim layered in Point-De-Paris lace edging ruffling, enriched with Alencon lace forget-me-not appliques and swathed in a band of silk illusion tied in a Mme. Pompadour French bow at the back of the crown. Pennies in her shoes bore the birth dates of the couple. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of pink rosebuds, baby's breath and daisies. Tied in it was her maternal grandmother's wedding band. The ring served as "something old" and "something borrowed." "Something new" was the bride's dress, and "something blue" was her garter.

Honor attendants were Alice and Carla Moosberg of Floydada. Their dresses were Louis XV blue garden gowns of imported French voile print. The basque bodice featured portrait necklines, accented with brief shoulder bands and dropped peasant puffed sleeves. The basque bodices were sashed at the crescent waistline. Full gathered bell shaped skirts of the imported French print voile drifted to brush the floor.

Best man was Bill Sherman, brother of the groom. Groomsman was Keith Phillips of Lockney. They wore western suits. Ushers were Mark Sherman and Sam Fortenberry of Lockney. Mark escorted Mrs. Moosberg and Sam escorted Mrs. Sherman. The bride's mother wore a pastel blue pebble knit street length dress of princess lines with a multicolored scarf at the neck, and white accessories. Her corsage matched the bride's bouquet.

The groom's mother wore a floor length aqua blue dress trimmed in lace on the paneled skirt, with beige accessories. Her corsage also matched the bride's bouquet.

The organist, Mrs. C. L. Record of Lockney, played "Unchained Melody" and the "Wedding March."

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the Sherman home immediately following the wedding.

The punch was on a table with a mint green cloth bordered with ivory lace. The cake and coffee were on a table covered with a lace tablecloth over a white knit tablecloth, also edged in lace. Mints and nuts were also on the cake and coffee table.

The three-layer cake was decorated with yellow, blue, pink, purple and salmon roses and buds with green leaves. The top piece was a large heart with a white rose and baby's breath in the center, along with white ribbon and green leaves.

Cake, coffee and punch were served by Marsha Fortenberry, Kay Sherman and Karla Sherman, nieces of the groom. Mrs. Eddie Fortenberry, sister of the groom, presided at the guest book. Little Miss Jennifer Fortenberry of Lockney, great-niece of the groom, distributed rice bags.

For travel the bride wore a blue wool houndstooth checked suit with a white vest and a white bowed blouse with blue accessories.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the newlyweds are at home in the Lone Star community.

Hale County Hesperian was the first newspaper in Hale County. In 1891 it was purchased by a fellow who changed the name to Hale County Herald.

THE capital "P's" had it as far as the Panhandle Press Association convention held last weekend in Amarillo, Plainview, Perryton and Pampa were among the big winners.

THE Virginia School Boards Association has offered a few tongue-in-cheek rules for beginning writers. "Don't use no double negative. Make each pronoun agree with their antecedent. Join clauses good, like a conjunction should. About them sentence fragments. When dangling, watch your participles. Verbs has to agree with their subject. Proof-read your writing to see if you any words out. Correct spelling is absolutely essential!"

Floyd 4-H'ers Top Shots In District Contest

4-H Club members from 20 South Plains Counties participated in the second round of District 2 contest Saturday in Lubbock, and as a result won the right to enter state competition at College Station in June.

About 350 boys and girls competed in the event at Texas Tech University which included livestock, dairy and horse judging and rifle skills.

Floyd County took top honors in the Rifle Skills by winning both Senior and Junior contests. The senior horse judging team placed third behind Lubbock and Bailey counties narrowly missing a chance at State 4-H Round-Up. The Junior Horse Team was 6th, the senior Livestock Judging team 5th and the Junior Livestock team 4th.

Kenny Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Willis, Baker, and Chris Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laron Fulton, Floydada, were high individuals in the Senior and Junior rifle contests respectively.

Mike Allen and Pat Miller made it a sure-fire win by placing 2nd and 3rd in the senior competition. Kenny was making up time because he had placed behind Pat in a couple of contests in prior years. Mike was showing the same skills he has portrayed as a junior shooter the past three years. Other members of the senior rifle team (with high scores) are Kathryn Moore and Mike Ford, alternate.

Chris led other junior rifle team members Norman Allen, Bryant Higginbotham, and Dane Daniel to their victory.

The rifle team coaches are Harvey Allen and Hugh B. Daniels assisted by Weldon Emert, Kenneth Willis and Raz Ford.

The other Floyd County 4-H Teams are: Senior Horse Judging: Jay Waller, John Fortenberry, Kevin Turner, Steve Jones and Charise Nolan, alternate; Junior Horse Judging team—Bobby West, Jim Waller and Cathy Noland with adult leader, J. E. Waller;

Senior Livestock Judging Team: Mark Beedy, Greg Jones, Byron Brock and Greg Pruitt;

Junior Livestock Judging Team: Todd Beedy, Kyle Brock and Ty Williams.

Cedar Hill

By Grace...

CEDAR HILL, April 18—A beautiful rain fell in our community this week that we gratefully appreciate. We received from 2 to 2.40 inches of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Lackey and children of Burleson visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. Lackey from Thursday until Sunday afternoon. E. Lackey visited with the Lackeys Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Greer Lackey, Kelly and Troy, Wanda DuBois and Quinn of Floydada and Mrs. Craig DuBois and Cole had lunch Sunday in Silverton with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fowler and Clayton Rev. and Mrs. Jackie Thompson and family. Al Shanna, Gentry, and Dennis Shaw from the Children's Home at Fairview, Texas enjoyed a weenie roast Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Vanhose.

Thursday the Shaw children accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Jackie Thompson and family to Crosbyton to a G. A. Rally at the Assembly of God Church. Friday the children returned to the Home at Fairview.

Everyone is cordially invited to a weekend revival at the Assembly of God Church beginning April 29th and closing May 1st with evening services starting at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Leslie Thompson of Sulfer, Oklahoma will do the preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kelley had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Welch and Connie Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cephus Fortenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry returned Rodney to his home in Dumas Thursday and visited with their son-in-law who recently had gall bladder surgery and found him improving nicely. The Fred Fortenberrys visited with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Fortenberry. Mrs. Elmo Fortenberry is also recovering from a recent gall bladder surgery. The local couples returned

At some of these banquets, particularly the chamber and civic club type which are not related to schools, you can wear out your hand clapping for folks who are recognized. Even when the master of ceremonies tries desperately to shorten things, it may not work out. For example, the emcee may suggest that the audience "please hold your applause until all the guests (or coaches, or players) have been introduced." But then the second or third person introduced has something very clever to say as he stands, and the crowd breaks out in spontaneous applause. Then as the next 37 people are introduced, everybody applauds each time because they don't want to hurt the feelings of all these others, since they have clapped for one person.

Most banquets don't need speakers because they are long enough without them. By the time all the special awards and presentations are made, the crowd has enjoyed sitting down about all it can, and this puts an unfair burden on both the speaker and audience.

And so far as those green beans are concerned, they are always there. There are many things I could say about green beans, but I have been warned by members of my family that I make too big a thing out of them, and besides, if I can't say something nice, don't say anything. The nicest thing I can say about green beans is that nobody ever tries to serve them at breakfast.

I mentioned to a friend that I might write a column on banquets and apparently his experience has been a bit different from mine. He complains that the banquet fare is okay, so long as the cooks don't try to get too fancy. He says when they stick to the basics, it usually works out okay, but when they try to serve something like pheasant under glass or roast rump of caribou, they invariably make a mess of it.

I don't know what kind of banquets he has been going to. All I ever get is green beans and ham...and iced tea. I can drink tea, especially if it's either that or choke to death, but I really prefer water, which is never served at banquets. About the only way to get water at a banquet is at the point of a gun.

In spite of all this griping I've done, I still like banquets, because they do serve some good food — usually the meat, potatoes and hot rolls are excellent.

And besides, we newspaper people learned long ago that if you carry a camera in your hand, they'll usually let you in free, whether there is any film in it or not.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley,
Speaking on behalf of myself and members of the F.H.S. tennis team, I would like to say a few words about Coach Gary Steves. First of all, when he came here he not only had a big job in filling the tennis coach spot, he was also an assistant football and basketball coach. I think he has done well at all three.
As a tennis coach he has put much time and effort into building a solid tennis program. He has worked with not only the varsity level players but has spent a great amount of time and effort into helping the younger players. As a coach he is always very encouraging. He sees your good points and compliments them. On the other hand, he tries to help correct your errors.
As for the results, the tennis team has done well in dual matches against teams such as Nazareth, Morton and Levelland. Also we have six girls and four boys who won district and who will advance to regional, which is one of the largest numbers of players ever to advance.
All these things say to me and other members of the team that Coach Steves has done a good job with the team. We feel that with Coach Steves' encouragement and our player's will and determination, the team will hold on to a tradition Floydada has long been known for—winning!

Sincerely yours,
Members of F.H.S. Tennis Team

FLOYDADA Rest Home Birthday Party

How nice it is in April With new-born trees and flowers... With birthday celebrations and the sweet refreshing showers.

Now Mrs. Annie Neff is boasting 90 years! She's had a lot of happiness With, now and then, some tears.

We greet our Mr. Dodson... His friends all call him Bill... He loves his friends and neighbors.

Mr. Moore is with us... He counts from '88... He is a kindly gentleman An we all think he's great.

A very pretty lady Is Mrs. Hattie Baker... She always looks so "spic and span" With clothes that really "make her"

How nice it is to have our "Mom" lived so many years... Her 101 is quite a span... For her we give "three cheers!"

Let's serenade these lovely folk With the good old birthday song...

To add some cheer along their way. So join the "sing-along".

Thursday, April 14 was birthday time again at the Rest Home with the ladies of the City Park Church of Christ as hostesses.

The traditional pictures and the party was off to a happy start. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of beautiful fresh flowers wired to Mrs. Mary Hattie Baker for this special occasion.

Yellow and white was the color scheme for the table and the refreshments and complimentary birthday cards marked each of the places for the honorees. We are sorry to report that Mr. Dodson was unable to be at the "honor" table and we hope he will soon be feeling much better.

The poem was read and all joined in singing the birthday song. A special birthday cake was beautifully decorated with yellow roses and "squares" were served, complemented by a delightful fruit punch. A pound cake, baked by Mr. Moore's daughter, was a special treat served with the other refreshments.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters This has been a lovely week with nice showers which were badly needed. The devotions have been so good as well as the singing.

We want to thank Virginia Owens for the candy rabbits, and the Primitive Baptist Church for the cupcakes they brought all the residents for Easter.

Wednesday the weather was too bad for the field trip but I think everyone much preferred the rain any way. Thursday the ladies from City Park Church of Christ gave the residents birthday party of the month.

It was so nice. They served cake and punch to all the residents, employees, and guests. Everyone had a real good time. We had five with birthdays in April: "Mom" Buchanan was 101, Annie Neff was 90, D. M. Moore was 89, Mary Baker was 79, and Bill Dodson was 75 years old.

We appreciate these ladies who are so good to come out every month and show how much they love these residents by giving of their time and expense. It doesn't make any difference what kind of weather, they are still here anyway.

We are so proud of our new register board. It was donated by the Hale family in loving memory of their dad and mother, Sam and Mattie Hale who lived here for several months before they passed away. Come by and see how nice it is, if you haven't already.

We appreciate every visitor we had this week which included: Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lackey and Brandy, Parnell Powell, Jerry Jarrett, Chick Jarrett, Lora Jarrett, Mrs. George Wexler, Alma Ruth Nelson, Sue Moore, Otis and Dorothy Anderson, Doris Snodgrass, Mrs. Paul E. Wilson, Hazel and Kim Bradley, Burmah Probasco, all of Floydada, Darleen Cockburn of Midland, Josephine and Verdie Smith of Lockney.

presented the program, a part of a Hands-Up project of General Federation of Women's Clubs to prevent crime in the nation.

In his opening remarks, Henniger stated that Crime Prevention is "doing something before a crime ever occurs."

Henniger, who is law Enforcement Training Coordinator of South Plains Association of Governments, said, "There are three elements for crime... opportunity... desire... and ability..."

"Desire and ability are controlled within a person, however, we can control or take away easy opportunity."

The film shown stated that two thirds of burglaries are committed by persons under 21 years of age. One half of burglaries are by persons under 17 years of age.

Brochures were distributed which discuss and illustrate defenses to prevent a residential burglary.

Andy Rainwater just missed going to regional, as his 5'10" leap came prior to one too many misses, and he settled for third place in a tie.

Steve Westbrook outdueled a superb performance by Rusty Cagle, whose 13'6" effort in the pole vault was not enough to outshine Westbrook's 13'7" leap, a new school mark. The pair will compete in the regional meet after taking 1-2 in the event.

The Winds' 440-yard relay team is now within three tenths of a second from the state's supreme team, Rockdale High, as a 43.0 clocking was much more than enough for first place. The Floydada's foursome includes Jay Womack, Danny Colston, Randy Ratheal and Mickey Minnitt.

Colston landed first place in the 120-yard high hurdles with a blazing 14.9 finish, his finest of the season.

Once again, Floydada's winning west combination, Womack and Minnitt, crossed the tape side by side for first and second place in the 100-yard dash, Minnitt taking top medal with his 9.9 timing, and Womack, runner-up honors with a 9.95 sprint.

Randy Ratheal gained regional honors in the 440-yard dash, with a first place finish and a 50.5 time.

Colston missed qualifying in the intermediate hurdles by four tenths of a second, as his 40.8 clocking was adequate enough for third place. Minnitt returned to excellent form in the 220 yard dash, as his 23.25 time netted first place.

For the first time in many weeks, Floydada placed three distance runners in the Mile Run, as Richard Ramirez, Jesse Martinez, and Jerry Coleman placed 1st, 2nd, and 5th, respectively. Ramirez took top honors with a time of 4:53.0, while Martinez placed runner-up at a 4:53.5 timing.

The Mile Relay team of Womack, Ricky Day, Charles Bradford, and Ratheal erased any doubts of its capability of outdueling Tulia for first place with a 3:30.0 time.

In the 880 yard run Charles Bradford placed fourth with a time of 2:05.6.

Making the special awards were Coach Rollie Rinker in boy's basketball, Coach Cliff Stephens in girl's basketball and track, and Coach Joe Paty in boy's track.

Tennis Coach Gary Steves and golf coaches Wilson and Dale Tyer introduced and praised their athletes. Coaches Daniel Coward and Don Carthel assisted in the plaque presentations.

Both JV and Varsity cheerleaders were honored with gifts, then the various team captains gave gifts of appreciation to their coaches.

The banquet concluded with the singing of the school song, led by the cheerleaders.

Freshmen Are Runner-Up Winners At 4-AA

By Doug Simpson

Daniel Coward's freshmen Whirlwind tracksters gave one of their finest efforts of the 1977 season in the District 4-AA track meet last Friday afternoon. Floydada captured second place in the event with a respectable 143-point effort behind the Wildcats of Idalou, who according to Coach Coward, are no pansies.

"We were very disappointed in the outcome but also proud of the effort in which our boys gave," remarked Coward following the meet. "Idalou is a very strong team, and it was simply a matter of not putting enough people into the finals, which made the difference."

Behind the Winds in third was Abernathy with 79 points, followed by Tulia with 51 1/2 and Lockney with 28.

In the field events, Floydada contributed 45 points toward its 140-plus tally, placing participants in all but one event, the discus.

David Welborn took first place in the shot put with a toss of 48' 11 1/2", followed by Keith Nixon in 6th with a 46 feet, 1 inch throw. Junior Arredondo was the lone participant to gain honors in the long jump, as he landed first with a leap of 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

It was Tracy Womack, Arredondo, and Neal Becker capturing 2nd, 3rd and 6th place respectively, in the high jump, with performances of 5' 4", 5' 6", and 5' 8".

In the pole vault, Larry Westbrook's 10' 6" effort netted his second runner-up medal in succession, while Mike Campbell's 9' leap took 6th place.

The 440 yard relay team of Ray Mercado, Troy Marquis, Womack and Arredondo captured the top award in that event with a 46.7 clocking.

Rex Reeves and Duncan Woody landed the 4th and 5th spots in the 660-yard dash with respective times of 1:36.9 and 1:37.9.

In the 80-yard high hurdles, the Winds placed a trio of sprinters, as Arredondo took top honors with a 10.8 timing, followed by Henry Gonzalez in 2nd with a 11.0 registering, and Danny Nutt in 6th place at 12.2.

Marquis' 11.3 effort in the 100-yard dash proved to be the lone points scored in that event with 5th place, as was true in the 330-yard dash where Becker landed 4th with a 40.4 time. In the 230-yard intermediate hurdles, Arredondo took still another 1st place medal with a time of 28.5 timing while Danny Nutt placed 4th with a 29.8.

Womack placed runner-up honors in the 220-yard dash with a 24.5 performance, while it was Felix Cervantes also taking second in the
