

And Junk Car Complaints Hit Council

each to a junk car dealer in Amarillo. He also explained the legal procedure for condemning the cars and picking them up.

The council took no action on his request, but said he would take the matter into consideration.

DOG PROBLEM

"This one dog has bitten five children in our neighborhood and yet we can't get anyone to shoot him or pick him up" an irate housewife told the council... and five other members of the same neighborhood said more children would be bitten.

Another said there were packs of dogs in the Della Plains area.

"Our children are afraid to walk down the streets, for fear of the dogs," another said.

The council listened with a sympathetic ear, admitting it was a problem and they were concerned, but it was hard to get a dog catcher.

PARK PROGRESS

Chamber of Commerce manager Doug Frazier reminded the council he had to make park improvement progress reports to the government in order to get the park grant. He said that only the FFA classes had given manpower needed and he asked the council to schedule city workmen at least a day a week on the park project.

The council told Frazier it would work out a schedule so the park improvement project could get a schedule.

All councilmen were present. Bill Kincaid attended the meeting in the absence of Randy Hollums.

The council approved CPA Newell Burk's audit of the city's books for the past year.

Lighthouse Electric crews were busy through the night Monday and Tuesday replacing some 32 poles snapped by high winds Monday night. Nine to ten poles were broken between Silverton and South Plains, several in the Harmony and McCoy area, as well as near Crosbyton. Southwestern Public had three poles snapped in the Barwise area where three and a half inches of rain fell but no hail. A spokesman at Barwise Elevator said tree limbs in that area were snapped off, corn laid over and some cotton burnt. Southwestern reported no outage in their city service and the City of Floydada had no problems with their electricity.

From McCoy to the Allmon Community farmers in that area were pretty well wiped out according to a spokesman at McCoy Grain. About 2 7/10 inches of rain was reported along with the hail which did heavy damage on the farms of Albert Jones, Royce O'Neal, Bill Hendrix and Turner Hunter. High winds snapped tree limbs and blew some shingles off of homes in that area.

Most farmers agree that the high winds carrying heavy dust did most of the damage to the cotton and feed, and the hard driving rain which followed didn't help. Mrs. Turner Hunter said this was the third time this year they had been hailed out on their farm place, but said her husband felt that maybe their feed would straighten out and still make.

Across to the Tom Porter place in the Starkey Community some three inches of rain fell and no hail, while the Weldon Beckers in the same community, on Ralls Highway atop Blanco Canyon, only reported one inch of rain and no hail. In Floydada, Pioneer Natural Gas reported 1 7/10 inches.

Agriculture people say it may be several days before the full extent of the wind and hail damage is known.

There was no pattern of hail damage as there were areas all over the county to receive hail. Jim Simpson near Harmony received 3.50 inches of rain, a small twister that hit his cotton trailers, his corn, cotton and cucumbers were hailed out.

Over the McCoy area Turner Hunter had one place hailed out for the second time this year, he received three inches of rain. Another place north of McCoy farmed by Scott Simpson was hailed out. Albert Jones and Royce O'Neal received hail...also Bill Hendrix over south and east of Harmony Johnny Smith, Billy Joe Smith, Ham Evans, W.R. Daniel received hail damage. Bill Daniel, back east of these farms received 2.50 inches of rain and no hail.

Over in the Mt. Blanco area Troy Leonard's farm two miles east of Mt. Blanco was hailed out and three inches of rainfall.

Streets were filled with water in Floydada where the official gauge at Pioneer Natural Gas showed 1.7 inches. The rain was blown in such "straight out" sheets many expressed the opinion that all of the rainfall couldn't get in a rain gauge.

It was also reported that the G.W. Smith farm east of Floydada received hail damage.

Most of the damage in the Lockney area came from the wind and rain-only small hail was reported anywhere near Lockney.

Rainfall totals in and around Lockney were from two to three inches-although all rainfall reports took into account the opinion that "the wind was blowing so hard that all the rain probably didn't get in the gauge."

John Holmes, 417 W. Spruce, reported 2 5/8 inches of rain, and the Carter Gin gauge showed an even three inches.

...The End Of A Dream

The end of a dream...I'm sure all the AFS students Floydada has had, said the same thing in June. It was a dream. It sure was. I remember how excited and such in a hurry I and my parents were last year these days: to get everything ready, not only for a trip over the other side of the world, but for staying there for a year! A year! How long we thought it would be. But now, it is like yesterday. All these excitements, hurry we had last year seem funny now. The year that we thought to be so long is already over.

Anyway, I feel even more sad while I'm writing this, because at home, here with my American parents Wanda and Pete, we prefer not to talk, even think about my leaving, it makes us very sad.

When I look back, I realize how mature I became how many "first" things I experienced, and what I did for my country who is my second love and the one I live for, and what I learned for the world peace through AFS within which all members share one common dream-the dream that one day all nations in the world will realize what we (AFS'ers) have learned-that all of us are brothers and sisters of a world family, that all of us work-without realizing it-for the same ideals.

I want to thank one more time to my host family and to Floydada for what they have done for me the whole year. I'll pray God for merry and compassion over the people of this town. May all beautiful things happen to you.

Bye Orhan Erisir

Electricity Goes Off Tonight!

The switchgear for the new engine at the City Power Plant will be connected Thursday night, June 16th after midnight. The power plant will be shut down and all electricity will be off approximately one hour. This connection will be done as fast as possible and the electric service will be restored as soon as possible.

The City would like to ask the cooperation of the customers of Floydada Power and Light during this time. Everyone is reminded to check appliances in the morning and get out the wind-up alarm tonight.

Extra men will be patrolling the town during this time.

We anticipate the new engine will be started and running within the next 2 or 3 weeks.

Farewell Reception For Orhan

The Floydada A.F.S. Chapter is having a farewell reception at the Willie Room of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative on Sunday, June 19, 1977, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. for Orhan Erisir. He leaves on the A.F.S. Bus trip June 23 and will return to Istanbul, Turkey, on July 8.

All youth and adults are invited to come by Lighthouse and bid Orhan farewell.

Fieldan Expanding

According to a report from Bob Jacobs at the Fieldan Motel, he is in the process of adding four more rooms. Jacobs reported that business had been good and he expected it to get better.

Teasdales Will Be Honored Friday

Floydada Band Director Dennis Teasdale and Mrs. Teasdale will be honored with a "going away" ice cream supper Friday night, June 17, at 8 o'clock at the band hall at Junior High. Floydada Band Boosters are hosting the event.

Band students of all ages, their parents and friends are invited to attend.

The Teasdale family is moving to Lubbock where he will be in business.

PHOTOGRAPHING FLOYD FARMS (l to r) pilot Billy Brown, photographer Orville Marler and assistant Pedro Gonzales look over a day's work of shooting photos of Floyd farms Monday morning.

They shoot about ten farms an hour. The photos will update the county ASCS office record file. Bill has purchased this new Cessna airplane that will also be used in shooting farms in 22 other counties.

MAYOR PARNELL POWELL, city manager Bill Feuerbacher and members of the council get more unhappy phone calls about the dog problem in Floydada than any other.

It is almost impossible to get a dog catcher...the pay is around $600 per month or $3.00 per dog...and there are no takers. It's not a permanent job, because in about three months time all the strays are destroyed.

At the city council meeting Bill Kincaid came up with what I thought was a good idea...try to hire a college boy to be dog catcher each summer. By the time all strays are captured, it will be time for the college student to leave town.

And usually by the end of the three month period...the dog catcher has captured some house pets, so he isn't just real popular...and sorta needs to leave town.

I really think the city council is open to any suggestions you may have on the dog problem...any ideas?

IF YOU CAN'T stand solitude, maybe you bore others, too.

YOU KNOW you've reached middle age when your weight lifting consists solely of standing up.

PATIENT: "Doc, can you cure my skin disease?" DOCTOR: "I can't make any rash promises."

MAYOR PARNELL POWELL told me last week that just about the time all mosquitoes are killed, some more migrate in from the country.

Feeling rather ornery, I told the Mayor that we country people were trading mosquitoes for the dogs and cats the city people bring to the country.

NOT MANY METHODIST CHOIRS have a Turkish tenor...but our church does...at least for another week. I have really enjoyed the friendship of Orhan Erisir FHS student from Turkey this year.

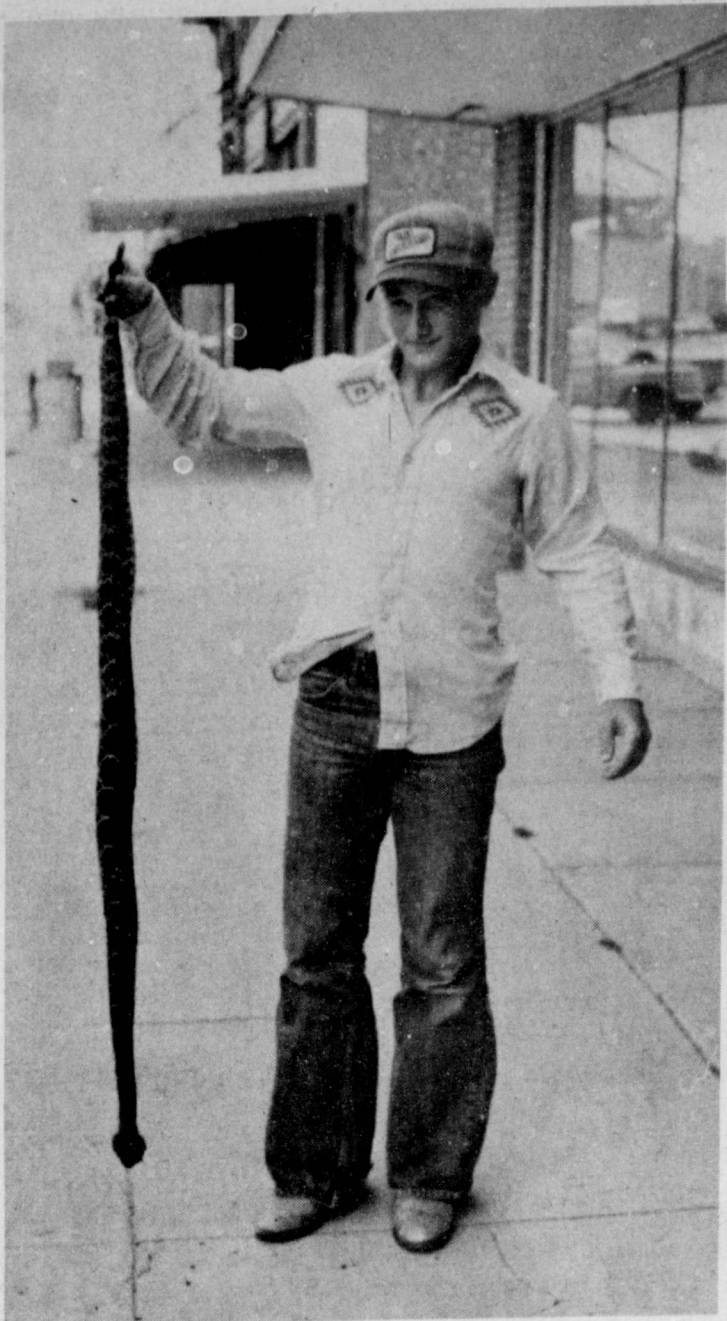

We'll miss him in this community and I'll miss him as my choir buddy. If he is a good example of the people of Turkey, they're nice people.

He is courteous, talented, just pretty versatile in all areas of life. Our best wishes go with him as he returns to his family.

I'm sure I express the feelings of our community as we also extend appreciation to Pete and Wanda Hickerson for sharing their home with Orhan.

The Floyd Philosopher Gets Parables And Poetry All Mixed Up In Explaining Cost Of Bread

Editor's note: the Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm, of all people, quotes poetry this week. It's possibly the heat.

Dear editor:
According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture the average loaf of bread now contains less than 3 cents worth of wheat, 2.7 cents worth, to be exact.

Just because I don't grow any wheat is no reason why I can't discuss this matter, any more than a Congressman who adds on his fingers can't discuss intercontinental ballistic missiles.

It seems to me therefore that the ancient saying, "Cast your bread upon the water and it will return a hundred-fold," could have a modern version; "Cast your wheat upon the market and some smart guys will take 2.7 cents worth of it and make a 60 cent loaf of bread out of it."

This is like taking 40 cents worth of cotton and making a $10 shirt out of it. It's like taking $200 worth of steel and making a $5,000 automobile. It's like taking a $100 state legislator and making a $57,000 Congressman out of him. It's like taking an ex-Secretary of State and making a multi-millionaire out of him.

People blame all this on the middle-man. As I understand it, in the case of wheat, the middle-men are those people between the wheat grower on his farm and the housewife in the grocery store buying a loaf of bread, and it takes some shrewd people to be able to squeeze from the middle and come out on the top only. You can't do it with an orange.

I guess the only answer to this is to buy your own wheat, grind it up, and make your own bread. You're going to run into trouble though when you try to make that plastic stuff to wrap it in.

Times have changed. Nowadays, if you cast your bread upon the water it's likely to hit an oil slick. These are the days when it's more profitable to repair appliances than own them.

As the poet said, "A jug of wine, a loaf of bread and thou singing beside me in the wilderness, ah, that were paradise enough, so long as farmers will keep on raising wheat at below cost." You can't beat poetry for getting at the truth.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Senator Farabee Asks Governor For Tax Relief

Senator Ray Farabee called on Governor Dolph Briscoe to include provisions for tax reform in the called session of the Legislature which is expected for July. He stated that tax reform should occur to reduce the property tax for financing public school education, utility tax for consumers of small amounts of energy, increase inheritance tax exemption, and allow for taxation of agricultural land on the basis of its productivity.

Senator Farabee said, "We were fortunate to have a surplus during the past year and I feel that some of this money should be returned to the people in the form of tax relief, specifically in the areas of property tax, inheritance tax and utility taxes. The inheritance tax laws have not been revised for many years. Also, inflation and high utility costs are taking a heavy toll on the taxpayers, especially those who must live on fixed incomes."

Although the Senate passed a measure providing for an expanded Constitutional amendment allowing agricultural land to be taxed on its productive value rather than on its market value, it failed to pass both houses of the Legislature. The mandatory 140 day session adjourned before the House could concur with Senate amendments to inheritance and utility tax relief plans. In reference to tax reform in his letter to the Governor, Senator Farabee stated, "Because of the uncertainties of agricultural production and prices, the present system is inequitable to farmers and ranchers. I share your goal of making Texas 'Number 1' in agricultural production, and it is my feeling that the legislation mentioned above would provide a needed incentive to Texas' agricultural producers."

The Governor is expected to call the special session because the Legislature was unable to agree on a public school finance bill before the end of the regular session. During a special session, the Legislature may consider only those issues which the Governor expressly authorizes.

Commissioners Put $50,000 More Revenue Sharing Money In Bank

Commissioners renewed their Certificate of Deposit with Floydada First National Bank Monday and agreed to place $50,000 more revenue sharing money to the deposit. The motion was made by Aaron Carthel, and carried unanimously.

Other business discussed by commissioners included the acceptance of the Grant Funding of the Juvenile Probation Department running from September 1, 1977 through August 31, 1979. The motion was made by Grigsby Milton that commissioners accept the funding and was seconded by Jack Lackey. The motion carried unanimously.

Lackey made the motion seconded by Bob Jarret that Sam Baker be the person designated to prepare Forms E-1's and E-2's for Workman's Compensation. The vote was unanimous.

The motion was made by Carthel and seconded by Jarret that $40,000 be transferred from the Road and Bridge Fund to various precincts, $10,000 each to the four precincts.

No jail house architect was selected. Commissioners adjourned to meet again next month.

Wedding Vows For Kim McCarter And Robert Murdock Solemnized

Wedding vows for Kim McCarter and Robert Murdock were solemnized in a candlelight service at 7:30 p.m., June 10, in the First United Methodist Church. Mr. John O. Peek, an elder of the Main St. Church of Christ, performed the double ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCarter and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murdock, all of Lockney.

Mrs. Joel Aaron registered guests as they entered the foyer. A spray of spring flowers and a white plumed pen adorned the registration table.

The altar area was decorated with tall candlebras and a kneeling bench containing white tapers, a memory candle, greenery and blue bows. The pews were marked with glittered butterflies and small ruffled parasols in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white.

Mrs. Bobby McCormick played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mr. Russell Thornton as he sang "If," and "Annie's Song" preceding the ceremony, and later the "Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Zach Cummings served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Anna Murdock, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Nathan Morris of New Home. They wore identical floor length dresses of pale blue voile which were sleeveless and featured square necklines with eyelet trim around the ruffle around the bottom with smaller ruffles creating an apron effect accented with a large bow in the center back. They carried white parasols made of bridal illusion edged in lace with a spring flower arrangement in the center of the partially opened parasols and cascading over the sides. They wore a small flower piece in the side of their hair.

Mrs. McCarter, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Barney Manning, grandmother of the bride, were dressed in identical blue and white voile princess style dresses with long full sleeves and corsages of spring flowers. Kay, Kim, Kathy, and Karen McCarter, sisters of the bride, were dressed in identical blue dresses with necklaces of spring flowers. Mrs. Murdock, mother of the groom, chose an aqua crepe dress with a full length lace coat of the same color. Her corsage was of pastel spring flowers. Mrs. Christine Carter, grandmother of the groom, wore a floral print dress with a white gladiola corsage.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza featuring a mandarin collar, empire waistline and full A-line skirt, with deep ruffle extending into a chapel length train. Cape sleeves extending to the waist in the back edged with wide cotton lace matching the lace on the collar, the bodice, and both top and bottom of the ruffle around the hem of the gown. The double cotton lace and attached to a small satin and lace covered caplet. She carried a large colonial bouquet of spring flowers with long lace streamers.

For the traditional something old and borrowed, the bride wore a diamond watch belonging to her grandmother, something new was a sapphire and diamond ring, gift from the groom, the traditional blue garter, and a penny in each shoe bearing the birthdates of the bride and groom.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony in the Fellowship Hall. The bride's and groom's table was laid with a white lace cloth over blue and a centerpiece of blue carnations and white daisies in a crystal and silver bowl. Sherbert punch was served from a large crystal punch bowl, and coffee from a silver service. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with shades of blue flowers, white sugar bells and topped with a large pair of wedding bells nestled in tulle, ribbons and flowers. Those presiding at the table were Tammie Carthel, Becky Bybee, and Mrs. Mike Ferguson, Plainview. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. John Dorman, Mrs. Joe Cunyus, Mrs. Omar Burleson, and Mrs. Easton Blenden, cousin of the bride.

For travel, the bride chose a red pantsuit with white accessories and a white daisy corsage. After a wedding trip to Corpus Christi, the couple will be at home in Lubbock where both are employed for the summer. They plan to continue their studies at Texas Tech in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murdock, parents of the groom, hosted a rehearsal dinner in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church following rehearsal on Thursday evening. SOAP Operas are a big thing on TV...More than likely if I didn't work I would be one of those glued to the set to watch "Days of Our Lives", "As The World Turns", "The Doctors" etc... My choice I think would be game shows tho. What this is leading to, is case you don't already know, is that Bill Hayes and his wife, Susan Seaforth have won awards for Best Actor and Actress for their program "Days of Our Lives." The soap opera also won Best Serial. This is the second consecutive win for Bill and Susan. Men are addicted to these shows as well. Its rather humorous to overhear someone say "Did you know so and so are expecting a new addition or so and so are getting a divorce?". Ears perk up and being a woman I have to ask, "who?"

Under the plan, the conversion of all speed limit signs will be completed by September 30, 1978, and milepost and guide signs designating distances between cities will be up by the same date in 1982. New vehicles already have the metric speedometers and odometers and those with older cars will simply convert theirs with a past-on layover label we're told.

NOT all brides float gracefully down the aisle! Catherine de Medici, for example, had a weakness for pearls that caused her a ton of trouble on her wedding day. She wore six ropes of "great pearls" and a pair of pearl earrings which were the biggest in the world at that time. This wasn't too bad but add a pearl crown, and Catherine was so completely weighed down the procession had to stop frequently on her way to the altar so that she could remove her jewelry and rest for a while. Of course they had long church aisles back then too.

NEWS 'N' NOTES

(by Sharon Hillis)

APPLIANCE INSTALLATION COSTS

A consumer "checkout" on appliance installation costs—or non-costs—can add more realism to buying decisions.

Following is an appliance installation checklist:

COOKING APPLIANCES

Gas range—"piped" natural gas or LP delivery service plus a gas line to the kitchen. Natural gas installation may be least costly if you already have gas heating or gas water heating.

Electric range—220-volt service from your electric service "box" to the range site. Built-in ovens, countertop units and "set-in" ranges will also require cabinet work, of course.

Microwave oven—no special installation for portable types.

Portable cooking appliances—normally no special installation.

INDOOR COMFORT APPLIANCES

Room air conditioner—no special wiring needed for small units, but separate 110-volt circuit or 220-volt service will be required for units with "BTU" cooling output higher than 7,000 and "amp" ratings higher than 7.5.

Humidifiers and dehumidifiers—no special wiring requirements. Best location of humidifier is important for best performance. A dehumidifier should be placed where excess humidity problem is greatest, such as in basement.

Food preservation appliances—Refrigerator and freezer—no special wiring requirements. But be sure doors and stairways are wide enough and floors strong enough for larger appliances. Also be sure door can be fully opened.

FOOD PRESERVATION APPLIANCES

Refrigerator and freezer—no special wiring requirements. But be sure doors and stairways are wide enough and floors strong enough for larger appliances. Also be sure door can be fully opened.

KITCHEN CLEANUP APPLIANCES

Dishwasher—no special wiring or plumbing required for portable type, but be sure it has a storage place when not in use. Built-in units require special wiring and plumbing. This work should be done professionally.

Disposer—special wiring and plumbing are required. Compactor—portable type requires no special installation. Wiring and cabinet work probably will be needed for built-in models.

HOME LAUNDRY APPLIANCES

Washer—requires no special wiring but a separate 15-amp circuit is desirable—and hot and cold water and drain facilities are essential.

Electric dryer—all but smallest types will need 220-volt electric service.

Gas dryer—natural or LP service required to the home and to the dryer site.

TEXAS SIXTH IN NATION IN POULTRY INDUSTRY—Cash receipts from poultry and eggs in Texas totaled $375.2 million last year, up $32 million from 1975. That was good enough to rank the state sixth in the U.S. poultry industry, says a poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Ex-tenions Service. Texas receipts accounted for 5.33 percent of the national total of more than $7 billion in 1976. On a commodity basis, Texas was sixth in turkey production, ninth in egg production and seventh in broiler production. Per capita egg consumption continued to decline last year while broiler and turkey consumption was up, the largest on record.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters

This has been a hot week, weather wise, but is good for the cotton.

We have had wonderful devotions and we appreciate every one who came out. This really makes life better for the residents.

We have had good exercise classes although some have not felt well enough to attend as Agnes Anderson was in a wreck Monday, and Pearl Carrick and Mollie Jones both have been feeling too bad to come to class, and also have missed playing dominoes. We hope all will feel better next week.

Tuesday was manicure day and I had so many nails to fix that I couldn't get finished with everyone.

Wednesday we took a nice field trip and enjoyed ice cream and seeing the crops looking real good.

Taking this trip were the driver Mr. Freeman, Florence Badgett, Dora Langford, Dacia Manning, Hope Hammonds and myself.

Thursday was fun day with Bingo. Top winners were Hope Hammonds and Agnes Anderson with 4 games each; Ray Reed, and Clara Williamson won 2 games and Pearl Carrick and Hallie Bertrand one game each.

Nance Thomas has had lots of relatives in to visit her this week and so has Ida Martin.

We love to see the happiness it brings these dear people when their loved ones come to see them from far away places.

Albert Martin is a new resident. We hope he will like it here.

We appreciate all our visitors this week which included: Buena and Oliver Holmes, Richardson; Clyde Meador, Phoenix, Ariz.; Josephine and Verdie Smith, Lockney; Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth, Winnboro; Mildred Plumlee, Ruth Benson, Billie Ruth Lawrence and Sean all of Matador; Dawn Thigpen, Kristina Moore, Pam Moore and Tres and Mary Adair Morgan all of Tulas, Okla; Cloyse Kelly of Kyle, Tex.; Mrs. Duane Markham, New Deal; Mary Amma and Ersel Matthews of Corpus Christi; Michelle and Dustin Holladay, Amarillo;

From Floydada visitors were Otis and Dorothy Anderson, Parnell Powell, Rev. and Mrs. Randy Nixon, Doyle and Sue Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Owens, Mrs. Roxie Covery, Mrs. Bernice Carey, Mrs. Merlene Breeding and Ricky, Mrs. Ila Belle McPeak, Mrs. Edna Patton, Mrs. Ray Cook, Mrs. Irene Wexler, Alma Ruth Nelson, Thelma Jones, Lorene Reasoner, Delzie Bradford, Lois Reynolds, Hurbert and Ruby Davis, Mrs. Geo. Wexler, Mrs. Lurene Gee, Mrs. Gus Hammonds, Burmah Probasco, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Mattie Wester, Artie Webb, Clara M. Hicks and Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass all of Floydada.

RURAL SHARE OF INDUSTRY DECLINES--

Major metropolitan areas are attracting the majority of new plants and factory expansions, points out an economist in business development with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Only 17 per cent of 448 new and expanding plants located outside the state's major metropolitan areas in 1976. This contrasts to 33 per cent of 700 new and expanding plants locating outside metropolitan areas in 1973. Rural community leaders need to give special attention to service factors that will make their communities more attractive to industrial development.

Texas is more than wide open spaces.

Our state is theme parks that bring fantasy to life... shops and museums with treasures gathered from around the world... a week or weekend vacation bargain.

4-H POULTRY EXPERTS--

This Floyd County 4-H team placed first in the Poultry Demonstration at the 1977 State 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University, June 7-8. They are Sharon Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Carlton, Jr. and Darlene Brose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brose, both of Lockney. Their demonstration was titled "Cents Sense." They were among more than 1,600 4-H youngsters from Texas competing in the 36 different events.

4-H'ers State Champs

College Station-Floyd County's 4-H Poultry Demonstration Team was named the 1977 State Champs here June 8. This show and tell contest is a part of the giant 4-H Roundup held on the campus of Texas A&M University each year.

Team members were Darlene Brose and Sharon Jones of Lockney. These champs scored 273.6 points of a possible 300.

Some 13 teams participated in this year's contest representing Texas communities from the northernmost tip of the Panhandle to the Gulf of Mexico and from the Piney Woods to the territory west of the Pecos.

McLennan County was a close second racking up 263.7 points. In third place was Upton County with 256.4 points.

The 4-H Poultry Demonstration Contest is cosponsored by the Texas Poultry Federation, Austin, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. An all-expense paid trip to the Junior Fact Finding Conference in Kansas City, Missouri, is awarded to the winning team by the TPF.

Gold, silver and bronze award medals were presented to members of the first, second and third place teams, respectively. Each coach received a beautiful recognition certificate.

Extension Poultry Specialist William O. Cawley served as Superintendent of the 1977 Poultry Demonstration Contest. Judges were Mr. Monroe Fuchs and Drs. R.C. Fanguy and F.A. Gahan.

Floyd County can be proud of these girls for their hard work and devotion to win at county, district, and state level.

Also competing at State Round-up from Floyd County was a rifle team consisting of Pat Miller, Kenny Willis, Mike Allen, and Kathryn Moore. Out of 48 teams the Floyd County rifle team placed 8th, scoring 753 out of a possible 900, in a very competitive contest. Pat Miller fired a score of 277, out of a possible 300, to place 4th high individual of the contest.

Clay Hamilton competed in the public speaking contest.

Others attending from Floyd County included: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brose, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Beedy and their daughter Tracy, all of Lockney; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Kenneth Willis, and County Extension Agents Sharon Hillis and Mike Brown, all of Floydada.

Taxpayers Should Request Identification Of Persons Claiming To Be IR Employees

Taxpayers should ask for the credentials of all persons identifying themselves as Internal Revenue Service employees.

In advising taxpayers to exercise this caution, the IRS explained that from time to time, unscrupulous individuals have posed as employees of the IRS to extort money for what these imposters refer to as unpaid taxes.

Taxpayers should bear in mind that every public contact IRS employee carries distinctive identification and is required to produce identification when conducting official business.

If, after seeing an employee's identification, a taxpayer still doubts his or her authenticity, the taxpayer should immediately contact his or her nearest IRS office.

Ricky Fuller Injured In Wreck

Ricky Fuller was injured in a truck mishap near Houston early yesterday morning but according to relatives is in a stable condition in a Houston hospital suffering from numerous cuts and bruises and a broken jaw.

Ricky's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fuller of Floydada explained for Houston yesterday morning upon being notified of the accident. Ricky's sister, Sharon Quisenberry also of Floydada, said she understood the Fuller truck was a total wreck. Ricky was driver of the loaded truck-trailer and traveling alone at the time of the one vehicle wreck. Additional details were not known at this time.

New Price Record is Set By Last Year's Peach Crop

AUSTIN—Total figures on the 1976 peach crop in Texas show a new price record set, even though production during the year was well below normal levels, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

Cash value of the crop was $3.6 million. Total production, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, was 438,000 bushels, up from the 333,000 harvest the previous year, but well below a season record of 760,000 bushels in 1958.

Severe hail damage reduced yields in the Hill Country, as well as the Cross-Timbers area. The majority of the commercial crop on the High and Low Plains was either lost or suffered extreme damage from a March freeze, Brown noted.

Texas is the 11th ranked state in peach production. There were 790,000 peach trees in the state as of January 1, 1977, with 530,000 of the trees in commercial orchards.

Gillespie County leads the state in the number of trees with 126,000, followed by Gaines County, 86,300; Duval, 37,000; Atascosa, 34,000 and Smith with 32,100.

Vegetable Crop Income '76 Hit Hard by Wavering Market

AUSTIN—Cash receipts from vegetable crops in Texas dropped $25.7 million below those of the previous year, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown explained that while crop production was at an average level, "the market just didn't hold up to the level of 1975." He noted that prices paid in 1975 were "unusually good."

Vegetable cash values in 1976 totaled $206,871,000. Greatest decline was shown by onions, down $15 million from the previous year. Also hard hit were carrots, down $6 million; cantaloups, down $4 million; tomatoes and sweet potatoes, both down $2 million and watermelons, down $1 million.

Significant gains in cash values were shown by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service for cabbage, up $6 million; cucumbers, up $1.5 million and lettuce, up $1.6 million.

Texas was the fifth leading state in acres harvested in vegetables, with 192,600, preceded by California, Wisconsin, Florida and Minnesota.

Farmers in Texas pay more than $188 million annually in farm property taxes, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

The first European known to have seen the Pacific Ocean was Antonio d' Abreu, a Portuguese, who in 1511 (two years before Balboa) sailed into it from the other direction, by way of the Indian Ocean.

that time and a solution is no nearer.

"The U.S. Government has a multitude of dilemmas of one kind or another and near the top of them is illegal aliens. No one can accurately estimate the number of illegal aliens in the Country at the present time. Retired General Leonard F. Chapman who heads the Immigration and Naturalization Service estimates the number at about ten million and says the problem is 'totally out of control.'

"Each year for the last several, something on the order of one million foreigners enter and remain in this Country. The great majority are from Latin America but they come from all over the world in search of jobs and a better life. They are found in the cities working on construction sites and among the ranks of professionals. It is estimated that the payroll for working aliens runs to around $10.5 billion each year.

"During 1974 General Chapman reports that over 800 thousand aliens were apprehended but he doubts the surface has been scratched to deal with the problem.

"Soon to be considered in the congress is a bill which attempts to treat this situation but it has many objections. The bill would impose penalties on employers who knowingly employ illegal aliens. At first there would be a $500 fine as a warning and then a $1000 fine with an option for the judge to impose a one-year prison sentence. The Attorney General would be empowered under this legislation to seek restraining orders against employers he believes are engaged in the practice of hiring such workers. As critics of this proposed legislation point out, other problems would be created. To begin with, the burden of enforcement to a large extent is put on employers. Law enforcement is a Governmental function but this bill would require employers to find out whether those they expect to hire are citizens or illegal aliens. Every person of Latin American descent would be subject to scrutiny and questioning. It would place our own Latin American citizens under suspicion that they may be illegal immigrants. With the ease of forged papers an employer could be constantly under investigation.

"The influx of aliens to this country has for many years been a problem but the present flood of entries grows by the day. In recent years, many immigrants have been exploited by organized efforts to get them into the Country and get them a job. It is reported that Chicago is brimming with people paying a part of their earnings to the underworld which smuggles them in. They are furnished with fake passports and identification papers but have to pay constantly for their protection in fear of being reported to the immigration officials.

"In the days of the old bracero program entrants from Latin America and, particularly Mexico, were given legal opportunity to work, which benefited both them and the employer. Then and now, farmers and ranchers in the agricultural area need this kind of labor and it could even be extended to apply to the industrial areas but there is no indication that the Congress would be willing to take this practical approach.

"Even if the immigration service was beefed up many times beyond what they now have, it is doubtful this situation could be remedied to any great degree. A much better track of illegal entries in this Country could be kept if there was a provision for legal entry and departure. Of course, many would remain illegally but many would return to their native land, knowing they could return as seasonable work was provided.

"One thing is sure—the problem is going to grow — not go away."

WASHINGTON, D.C.— A DISCUSSION OF THIS NATURE should probably be left to the editorial writers. On the other hand, since it is a matter of interworkings between the President and the Congress, certain impressions might be of interest.

IT IS STILL TOO EARLY TO KNOW FOR SURE but the President may turn out to be a rarity: one who means what he says about restraint on Federal spending.

THIS IS THE IMPRESSION on some of us who have met with him and had a rather frank and open discussion. The more conservative Members of Congress are heartened by what they heard. The liberals did not like it at all.

OTHER THAN WELFARE REVISION, Mr. Carter mentioned no new programs and, in fact, said that budget increases would come from higher hospital costs, retirement programs, public housing, public works and recommended that there be restraints in these and other programs.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S CHIEF BUDGET OFFICER, Director Bert Lance, advised that if the budget is to be balanced by 1981, new programs would not be possible and that revisions in the tax and welfare systems could not be made in less than three years.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHIEF ECONOMIC ADVISOR, Dr. Charles Schultz, echoed the President's oft-stated position that the Administration means to balance the budget in four years, reduce unemployment to around 4.75% and get inflation down to near a 4% rate.

AS HAS BEEN SAID HERTOFORE, there is a skepticism as to whether all this will be done but the very fact that there appears to be strong determination on the part of those men gives encouragement. Thus far, the main reaction among our fellow Democrats of the more liberal persuasion is a comment that the President is "too conservative."

WHILE ONE CAN DIFFER with details of the President's budget policy, his stated goals are commendable. What he seems to be saying is that deficit spending is not a free lunch; that the Treasury must borrow to pay the Government's bills and that there has got to be a limit to it.

Agricultural Official Supports President's Farm Proposal

By LARRY STALCUP
Globe-News Farm Writer

Former Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White — unlike most Texas farmers — says he backs President Carter's farm program.

White was named Deputy Secretary of Agriculture by Carter in March after serving the Texas post 26 years. In a telephone interview yesterday, he said price supports on wheat should not be raised above the President's proposals, a move favored by farmers everywhere who face near-disastrous markets for their commodities.

"If you up the loan you make the problem (wheat surplus) even worse," he said from his Washington, D.C. office. "We would produce more wheat and we can't even sell what we've got now. The way out of the surplus situation is to get rid of it," and an increased loan rate would only give farmers an incentive to grow more wheat.

White, known for his criticism of Republican farm policies, blamed the bad situation facing farmers on the Nixon and Ford administrations.

"Previous administrations thought there would be a large foreign market for wheat," he said, "but you can't predict the weather. Other countries are not buying wheat because of their own good crops."

"I think we would dig a deeper hole

if we increase the loan rate," said White.

Panhandle farmers have said recently that Carter is not living up to promises he made to farmers while campaigning in Texas. But White said the President's program "meets the commitments made during the campaign."

"He is doing about as much as you can expect for the farm program unless you want a program addressed to profit," said White. "We believe (higher supports) would make the U.S. government the market itself."

"That's the kind of program that put Billy Sol Estes in business, and we don't want that kind of a program. I don't think farmers do either."

He said he believed the President would veto any farm program with a price tag much higher than $2 billion (the Senate bill would cost nearly $4 billion).

"He (Carter) hasn't told me personally, but he has told Secretary Bergland that if a program were above $2 billion he would veto it," White said.

He said Carter might agree on a program between $2 billion to $2.5 billion, "but I don't have the slightest doubt that he will veto" a $4 billion program.

White said he "understands the pain" being suffered by farmers, "but I don't think the President intended to support a farm program guaranteed a profit production costs."

He said producers are to rise with America's future in either the oil companies' energy program or whether they should have the high energy program. When White took his rumors spread that he had with his post and Texas. But he denied yesterday.

"I'm very happy with the job and it's a hard guess that need to pick the hardest deal I've ever seen."

likely to develop between the Congress and the President over the level of spending. Just last week, the Subcommittee on Appropriations handling welfare voted out a bill of about $1.4 billion above the recommended by the President. The same is going to be true in other legislation which is just now beginning to emerge to the point of seeing their costs. If the President sticks to his guns, there are likely to be some vetoes coming along in the summer.

THERE ARE SOME FAINT SIGNS OF CONCERN in the Congress for restraints on spending and the deficits which it creates. It is just possible the President may have his way if he is really determined to hold the line. The trouble is that this attitude is not noticeably prevalent in the higher echelons of the leadership in Congress.

THE TROUBLE ALWAYS IS that each program and each section of the Country has its own clientele which pushes for certain programs beneficial to them. Alliances are made up by affected groups who have a way of bringing their influence to bear and whereas one program might be held in check, another will mushroom.

IT ALL COMES DOWN AS TO WHETHER THE PRESIDENT can bring real restraint on the tendency of Congress to swing and sway under all the influences brought to bear from every quarter.

Cleland said VA field specialists will help eligible veterans in choosing a suitable lot for the housing unit, in obtaining the services of an architect, securing construction bids and arranging financing.

The VA Administrator also reminded veterans that some states provide special tax relief for owners of "wheelchair homes" and up to $40,000 mortgage life insurance is available to most veterans who receive the housing grant.

VA's annual report outlines the $18 billion scope of the agency's work among the nation's 29.6 million veterans, noted Administrator of Veterans Affairs Max Cleland.

In releasing the document today, Mr. Cleland also said the 224-page report presents highlights of the VA's health care network and multifaceted benefits program for fiscal year 1976.

It shows, for example, that "VA experienced an unparalleled expansion in health care and in the demand for these services" during the 12-month period.

More than 2.25 million applications for medical care were received during the year and hospital inpatients treated increased by 67,000 to a total of 1,287,000.

Out-patient care also rose with a total of 16.4 million patient visits recorded, Cleland said.

The annual report can be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20420. The price is $3.75.

U.S. MEAT CONSUMPTION REALLY NOT HIGH—Consumption of red meat in America is really not as high as most people think, says a livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Although the wholesale weight of meat consumed by the average American was at a record 129 pounds in 1976, the actual amount consumed was only 67 pounds. This allows for loss from trimming the meat and from cooking. The average American consumed about two ounces of cooked beef daily last year. By including lamb,

A grant of up to $25,000 is available for seriously disabled veterans interested in "wheelchair homes."

This word came from Administrator of Veterans Affairs Mac Cleland who, himself, lost both legs and an arm during the Vietnam conflict.

He reminded eligible veterans the grant can be applied to a new home, used to remodel an existing dwelling or to pay off the balance owing on a home the veteran has modified at his own expense.

Under the law, eligible veterans may obtain a VA grant of up to half the cost of a specially adapted home to a maximum of $25,000.

Basically, eligible veterans are those who have suffered permanent and total military service-connected disability due to the loss (or loss of use) of both legs; blindness, plus loss of use of one leg; or other injury which prevents them from moving from place to place without the aid of a wheelchair, braces, crutches or canes.

Cleland urged disabled veterans to consult their nearest Veterans Administration office for detailed eligibility requirements.

He pointed out other eligibility requirements include a provision that the veteran must be able to afford purchase of the "wheelchair home" with the assistance of the grant and that it must be medically feasible for the veteran to live there.

To qualify for a VA grant, a new housing unit must have at least two entry ramps located to avoid fire hazards, doorways at least 36 inches wide, hallways at

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson
17th district, Texas
WASHINGTON, D.C.—
From the time schools close in May or June until they open again in the latter part of August or September, there is an influx of visitors to Washington. Included are large numbers of young people who come to view firsthand those things they have learned about during the school year. For many, this is their first trip away from home and, no doubt, will be long remembered.

It is a fine thing for people to see their Nation's Capital and, especially the Congress in session. It must give a greater appreciation of what the seat of Government is about.

We have just had a group of Future Farmers of America who were here on an annual trip sponsored by the FFA and their schools. In a few days, we will have a large group of 4-H Clubbers and Government-in-Action students who will tour various Government buildings, including visits to the galleries of the House of Representatives and the Senate. This is also an annual occasion, as are a number of other groups of young people chosen from organizations to come to Washington.

Those who have been here and observed the Sessions of Congress may have experienced disappointments in seeing the procedures on the Floors of the two bodies of Congress. Depending on the type of legislation being considered and at what stage it is being debated, all too often the impression is left that there is not a total participation by Members. Oftentimes, a Member is up making a speech with few Members in their seats and apparently those not paying very close attention to what is being said. This impression is not good and, especially, for younger people who expect to see every Member in his seat and everything in order.

The fact is that it is virtually impossible for every Member to be in attendance at all times. There are Committee meetings where, in most instances, the real work on legislation is performed. Others are seeing Constituents, answering their telephones, responding to the multitude of letters which arrive daily or conferring with staff people. All sorts of demands are made on a Member's time and becomes a part of his daily duties.

Legislation is first debated under what is known as "general" debate. The time for general debate is set by the Rules Committee and can be from one hour to ten hours, depending on the particular legislation. During this period, time is yielded by the managers of the bill to other Members. When the time for a general debate has expired, rules permitting amendments follow. Members of the Committee from which legislation comes are first recognized for amendments, followed by other Members who wish to offer some change. In this period, the attendance is much greater since only three Committees, namely, the Ways and Means, Rules and Appropriations, can hold sessions during this time. It is necessary for a Member to be present to become informed before voting.

So, a lot depends on what period a particular debate is in for visitors in the galleries to get a true impression. There are times when the conduct in the Chamber appears to be something like the New York Stock Exchange and, again, when it appears that no one is interested in what is taking place.

As often as possible this is explained to Constituents and, particularly, our young people. It seems important that they have an understanding of what goes on and why.

Palo Duro Drama Opens

CANYON—A combination of music, dancing, romance, comedy, history, along with dramatic sound and lighting effects will again reverberate from Palo Duro canyon as the musical drama "Texas" reopens June 15.

Paul Green, a Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright, wrote it all down and West Texans, many of whom are descended from the families that first staked their claim on the high plains, portray those roles in the outdoor drama which plays nightly except Sunday through Aug. 20.

A special one-night performance will be presented on Sunday, July 3rd, during the summer schedule.

The production with a cast of 80 actors, singers, and dancers, begins each evening at 8:30 p.m. CDST just as the sun slides behind the canyon rim and twilight settles over the park. The park permit will not be required of persons enroute to the drama after 6 p.m. each evening.

Palo Duro canyon, itself a part of Panhandle history, furnishes a dramatic backdrop as the drama unfolds in the Pioneer amphitheatre.

The drama is fast becoming one of the Southwest's major tourist attractions with the help of Margaret Murphy, founder and publicist of the drama.

Advance reservations are recommended for the drama according to Mrs. Murphy as ticket requests come in by phone and mail. Over 98,000 visitors witnessed the drama in 1976 and bookings have already been set for future shows into 1981.

Palo Duro State Park, which hosts the drama, is located 12 miles east of Canyon and 35 miles south-east of Amarillo. The park is a major attraction as visitors are surprised to see the park road suddenly curve downward to reveal brilliantly colored cliffs stretching along the main chasm and several side canyons.
