America Celebrates the 4th Independence Day with Pride

"We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness..." Our founding fathers had the foresight and wisdom to create a document which clearly defines our American ideals. For the past 201 years, we've upheld these values set forth in the Declaration of Independence and in so doing have become a strong nation of people... This July 4th let's celebrate the birth of our heritage with renewed spirit, unity and pride.

Community Appearance Activities Set

In a meeting held this week, the Community Appearance Committee of the Chamber of Commerce outlined several projects for their 1977 program. Chairman Troy Patton planned the various activities scheduled to continue throughout the summer months and into September. Projects include a junk car removal program, a summer litter clean-up program with youth organizations, and a special project with local businesses and the Chamber's Womens Division. Other activities include arranging for a sign painter to contact merchants needing new business signs, and working with local civic clubs in the program. The committee is also considering developing a prestigious award to present to the organization that does a particularly outstanding appearance

Shift The Fat

Feeling guilty about those 10 pounds you just put on? Blame it on your mother. Research conducted by a husband-and-wife team, Dr. Mervyn Susser and Dr. Zena Stein, at the Columbia University School of Public Health, suggests that heavyweights may be doomed to obesity by a food shortage during the first six months in the womb. The physicians based their study on the weights of 94,000 men born during the Holland famine of World War II. However, the study also showed that a baby poorly nourished during the last three months of pregnancy and the first few months of its life tends to become a skinny adult.

Tower To Address GOP County Chairmen

AUSTIN-GOP State Chairman Ray Hutchison announced today that United States Senator John Tower will be the featured speaker at a luncheon on Saturday, July 16, honoring Republican county chairmen from throughout the State. The luncheon will be one of the highlights of a two-day organizational meeting of the Republican County Chairman's Association.

Scheduled for the Driskill Hotel in Austin, the meeting agenda includes adoption of bylaws and election of officers for the newly-formed organization. "Republicans in Texas have never had an organization where their county chairmen could gather and exchange ideas and information about the political problems in their particular area," Hutchison said. "I was pleased that our State Republican Executive Committee voted recently to rectify this situation by the establishment of this organization."

"These community leaders can be of great value by providing advice to statewide candidates regarding grass roots opinion on the vital issues facing our State," Hutchison stated.

The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday morning, July 16. Every certified Republican county chairman, or his or her proxy, is entitled to register as a voting member of this organization. A luncheon will follow the Sunday morning, July 17, session with a meeting of the newly-elected officers of the Association to be held on Sunday afternoon. Election of officers will take place on Sunday morning.

District Weed Control

By David Duvak

The District is making good progress in the treating of bindweed on county barrow ditches and farmland. The District will work fence row applications in as soon as possible, we like to do this type of work in the fall of the year while bindweeds are dormant. Since bindweed is first preference for the treating of weeds we will have to devote all of our time to treating these.

Hinsley Says...No Future In Hog Business

BY DOUG SIMPSON
For Lonnie Hinsley, hog farmer, raising hogs is a thing of the past. Hinsley, possibly the county's largest hog farmer, stated in an interview Thursday that because neither the consumer nor the government cared about agriculture, there was really no future in the business.

Hinsley also said that there was little profit in the business because of this year's low grain prices. Hinsley has been raising hogs five years and farms approximately five miles southeast of Floydada.

He said that he took care of his own hogs and bought them to feed out rather than feeding them.

He markets them at Wilson's Food in Oklahoma City and prepares his feed at his own mill.

Farm Leader Describes Producers Protest Move

A protest action by farmers, possibly a strike or moratorium on supplies purchases, rallies and demonstrations has been announced by the Texas Farmers Union.

Speaking from the Panhandle where the Executive Board of the statewide general farm organization formed the official resolution of protest, President Jay Naman described the ensuing events.

"We are calling for major amendments to the four-year omnibus farm bill now before Congress. We find certain provisions intolerable, such as the importation of raw cotton, grain reserve systems which would assure constant surpluses and the resulting low prices, inadequate disaster programs, the destruction of the peanut and rice programs, and many other sections which are obviously implemented at the request of trade and processing groups. The leadership in Washington has apparently been lobbied into providing a farm bill which benefits commodity buyers who love cheap prices, trade groups who enjoy prices at a world bargaining level, and political leaders who fear food and fiber inflation. Domestic producers have been forgotten.

"If Congress does not, however, rewrite this bill, we ask the President for a veto and reversion to previous permanent farm legislation.

"Failing all of that, we find no other alternative than to organize into a posture of protest. If we are to be penalized for efficiency and surpluses, then we must find a way to slow down our production. This could mean an end to purchases of equipment, fertilizer, fuel... all supplies.

With the losses we are taking this market year, many farmers will not be financially able to buy these supplies anyhow.

"We will do whatever it takes to draw attention to the serious problems of farming and the fact that this situation cannot continue. If farmers are an ignored minority group, then we will use all the tools of a minority group to gain a voice before we are all forced out of business.

"Apparently the Administration and Congress are not interested in our need for survival through a fair price. And consumers are likely not interested in anything but the retail price they face.

"If everyone thinks we are going to be the scapegoat for inflation while facing our own huge cost increases in equipment, supplies and labor, they are wrong. Thousands of farmers have been going out of business over the past decade, and it's all going unnoticed while America enjoys the supermarket fantasy of always having plentiful, high quality food and fiber.

"That is not the reality of farming when we are getting mere pennies of the retail dollar. If you don't want to pay the producer a fair price, don't expect domestic agriculture to survive much longer.

"The time has come that we will no longer sit by and accept this. Even our bankers will be behind our protest because they cannot continue to finance a losing farm business either.

Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Holland returned home Monday from a stay at Lake Sam Rayburn with their sons and their families of the Ft. Worth-Dallas area. Joining their parents for the outing were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holland, Cris and Todd and David Holland.

Effective May 31, 1977, the interest rate on GI home loans for veterans became 8 1/2%. According to D.G. Ayres, Service Officer for Floyd County, the GI loan interest rate prior to that date was 8%. All GI home loans closed on and after May 31, 1977, will carry the interest rate of 8 1/2%.

Eligible for GI home loans are veterans who served honorably for 90 days or more at any time between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947. Also entitled are veterans who served honorably for 90 days or more during the Korean Conflict which began June 27, 1950, and ended January 31, 1955, or whose honorable service of 181 days or more occurred on or after January 31, 1955. Also eligible are the surviving spouses of persons who served during the above mentioned periods and whose deaths are shown to have been caused by such military service. In addition, GI home loans are available to the spouses of military personnel listed as missing in action or prisoners of war.

Most GI home loans are made by private lending institutions, with a portion of the loan being guaranteed by the government. Under present law, the Veterans Administration is authorized to guarantee 60% of the loan amount, up to a maximum of $17,500. Persons desiring a guaranteed home loan under the GI program should discuss their needs and desires with a local private lending firm, who will assist in completing the necessary paper work. A veteran remains eligible until he or she actually uses the VA entitlement, as there is no time deadline involved.

Further information on GI home loans may be obtained from the local Veterans Service Officer.

County 4-Hers To Compete In District Dress Revue

Heather Holt, Darlene Broeseh and Jill Whitfill will represent Floyd County in the District 2 4-H Dress Revue scheduled for July 7th in Lubbock. Winners will represent the district in state competition.

The three will be modeling their own creations which made them winner in county competition. Contestants are judged on their sewing and construction skills, overall appearance, modeling abilities, and their 4-H record books.

"Fashion Fandango" is the theme of the event which is set for the Texas Tech University Center ballroom, according to County Extension Agent Sharon Hillis.

A luncheon will be served for dress revue participants, parents and guests following contest activities. Revue and presentation of awards begin at 2 p.m. Mr. Edward Breihan, manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, will present the honors.

In addition to the naming of the top seniors who will compete in the State 4-H Dress Revue this September, awards also will include the recognition of the girl making the best all-cotton outfit and the best all-wool garment.

Two junior level contests will be staged at the same time as senior competition, says Sharon Hillis. These younger lasses, ages 9-11 and 12-14 will not compete beyond the district level. For them, the event offers experience and leadership development.

Parents, 4-H leaders, and special guests will be on hand for the occasion. The public is invited to the 2 p.m. revue.

By the late 1800s, women's clubs had become very popular and, since many of them were consumer-oriented in interests, they were developing a lobbying influence which the government could not ignore.

One of the women to recognize this power and organize other women to use it, was a crusader against food additives, an issue still alive today. In 1906 she was responsible for one million women writing to Washington to demand federal standards for the labeling of food and drug products, the most dramatic of many of her accomplishments. Who was that lady? Alice Lakey.

What One Person Can Do

MARY KATHERINE GODDARD, PRINTER

The job of printing the official Declaration of Independence in 1777 went to a woman—Mary Katherine Goddard. Here's how it happened.

Congress approved the Declaration on July 4, 1776. But they did not print the official version bearing the authenticated names of the signers until the following January. At that point, they were in Baltimore, having fled Philadelphia to escape the British army. Mary Goddard, publisher of the Maryland Journal, was asked to print the document.

Mary Goddard was running the paper originally founded by her brilliant but quarrelsome brother, William. It was William Goddard who conceived the idea of the Colony Post Riders to replace the British-controlled mail system. Congress liked William's idea, but not him. Benjamin Franklin was named Postmaster General in 1775. William was made surveyor (traveling inspector) of the new system, until he quarrelled with Franklin a year later and was fired. Franklin appointed Mary Goddard as postmistress of Baltimore, a post which it was common for newspapers publishers to hold.

Miss Goddard ran the printshop and the Journal

Public Invited To Outdoor Concert

LUBBOCK—Lubbock and area residents are invited to bring lawn chairs and sit on the Texas Tech University campus at 1 p.m., Sunday (July 3), to hear a carillon concert to be presented by music professor Judson D. Maynard.

The program will be presented on the Ruth Baird Larabee Memorial Carillon in the west tower of the Administration Building on campus. Listeners may sit in the Administration Building courtyard directly south of the Administration Building or on the circle in the center of the campus. There will be no admission charge.

The rare instrument, built by Harry Van Bergen, was installed on the campus in May, 1976. It has 36 bells, the largest weighing more than 800 pounds. It is one of less than a dozen carillons in Texas.

Dr. Maynard performed in a carillon concert last year in celebration of the Bicentennial year, with more than 500 persons attending. Music Department officials said the concert likely will become an annual Independence Day event.

The program will include "Prelude No. 5 in D Minor" by Matthias Van Den Gheyn, "Adoro Te Devote" (a traditional piece), "A Song for the Bells" by Daniel Pinkham, "Higher Ground," a Baptist hymn by Gabriel and arranged by Myhre, "Gamelan and Jhala, Op. 106" by Alan Hovhaness, "Listen to the Mockingbird" by Milburn Myhre, "Romantic Suite" by Wim Franken and "The Entertainer" by Scott Joplin.

Dr. Maynard is head of the Organ Department and coordinator of sophomore theory.

until 1784, when her brother forced her to sell out her interest. The terms were so unfair that she left the printing business and refused to have anything to do with him from then on. She lost her postal position in 1789 in a political maneuver.

Mary Katherine Goddard died in 1816, alone and forgotten. But she made her mark: The Declaration of Independence bears her name as printer.

At a crucial time in the history of this nation, she contributed her talent. One person, she made a difference.

The American farmer builds two things better than anyone else in the world. He builds the next generation, passing along a special kind of wisdom... respect for the soil, honesty, independence, and faith in the future. And he builds his land, leaving it better than he found it. That kind of building usually requires borrowed long-term capital. That's where we have helped for 60 years.

HEALTHY HAIR A TRIO FOR IT

Getting and keeping healthy hair depends on three care techniques. For healthy hair, eat a balanced diet daily, keep hair clean and conditioned regularly—and avoid stress and strain and harsh hair products.

Clean, Conditioned Hair Takes Knowhow Shampoo hair regularly—frequency depends on hair type and personal preference.

Oily hair requires more frequent washing than dry hair—and everyday shampooing with a mild product generally is not harmful to hair.

A low PH shampoo will leave hair a more natural (acidic) state, which means it will be stronger to withstand the heat of blow dryers, curling irons, or heated rollers.

For best hair condition, keep it cut and styled regularly.

Avoid pulling or tugging on wet or damp hair—as it is more susceptible to damage. Cream rinses lubricate the hair, make it easier to comb, and reduce danger of breakage.

Conditioners soften the hair and make it feel more silky and healthy looking, but they will not perform miracles, such as on split end

Fiddlers contest slated

By MARIE HARRIS
Herald Regional Editor

HALE CENTER — Preserving the colorful tradition of rural America, the 22nd annual All-American Country Fiddlers Contest will be the feature attraction of Hale Center's 4th of July celebration Monday.

The contest scheduled from 1 to 4 p.m. in Hale Center City Park by the City Hall will include three divisions — old fiddlers, open and junior division, with money prizes given in each group. Also a trophy will be given to the best guitar picker.

Glenn Wardlaw, who sparked the first fiddlers contest here in 1952, is director of the event. The fiddlers competition has attracted top musicians in the past including the late Eck Robertson, a legend-maker from the scene of old-time country music.

Well-known fiddlers from Texas, New Mexico, Kansas and Louisiana are expected to include the Hale Center special day in their itineraries.

Several of the fiddling favorites of the past will not be present because they now are busy as members of big western bands.

On Sunday night Wardlaw will host contestants at his home for a music jam session — a time for practicing, visiting and good fellowship.

COUNTRY WESTERN gospel singing, slated to begin at 6 p.m. Monday in the park, will bring some of the best performers in its category for the listening pleasure of July 4 observers. Included will be the Hazel Family Singers, the Bible Singers and the Youth Action Singers, the latter a group of 45 Explorer Boy Scouts.

Featured soloists will be Gary Pringle, Julia Newcomb and Nadine Stallings, all of Lubbock. Roy Love, also of Lubbock, will serve as master of ceremonies for the gospel singing session. Don R. Velington of Lubbock has arranged the program and secured coverage of the performance by radio and television.

Singing will go on until midnight if audience reception asks for such a continued evening of music. Phil Ritzinger is chairman of the gospel singing.

The Hale Center 4th will get underway with a parade at 10 a.m. to be followed at 11 a.m. by a concert by the Hale Center High School band directed by Harold Bufe. Also at 11 a.m. matched team roping is scheduled.

FROM 11:30 A.M. until 1 p.m. barbecue lunch will be served in the fire station. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Other entertainment for the day will include a professional carnival, food concessions and an art show.

DURING COOKOUT SEASON, buy less tender meat cuts, marinate or slow cook them, and save money—since greater demand for the more tender steaks makes their prices higher at this time, advises Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

PRETREAT HEAVILY SOILED areas and greasy stains in clothing, then use warm wash temperatures and save energy costs. This laundry method is as effective as hot-water washing, says Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Bob Bullock's Column

AUSTIN—Comptroller Bob Bullock said Tuesday that a new law passed by the Legislature will broaden the definition of groups eligible for exemptions from the sales and use tax.

Bullock said new groups that could qualify for exemptions include those that are scientific or literary or are organized to conduct public safety tests or to prevent cruelty to children or animals.

In addition, Bullock reminded church and religious groups that another new law already in effect exempts their purchases or rentals of buses from the motor vehicle sales tax.

H.B. 2080, effective August 29 this year, provides that any group qualifying for exemption from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c) (3) may also qualify for exemption from the Texas sales and use tax, Bullock explained.

The Comptroller added, however, that the new law stipulates that every item purchased by such a group under that exemption must be related to the group's purpose and that no item purchased can be used for the personal benefit of any individual.

Bullock said Texas sales tax law already provides for exemptions for organizations created for religious, educational, charitable or eleemosynary purposes.

He urged organizations that qualify for federal income tax exemptions but have not yet qualified for Texas sales tax exemptions to apply to his Sales Tax Division by sending in a copy of their exemption under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Any group not certain about whether it qualifies should either in writing or by calling the toll-free WATS line number, 1-800-252-5555.

The Comptroller said that H.B. 190, effective July 10, exempts the sale or rental of a motor vehicle to a church or religious society if the vehicle is designed to carry more than six people and it is to be used primarily for transportation to and from church or religious services or meetings.

Independent Cattleman's Assoc. To Be At Hearing On School Finance Bill

Members of the Independent Cattleman's Association will be in Austin July 7 and 8 to attend public hearings at the State Capitol on the public school finance bill. T.A. Cunningham, president of the association, stressed to association members this week that any citizen who is tired of escalating property taxes should attend these hearings. During the special session, which begins July 11, legislators will pass a compromise public school finance bill. House members included property tax relief in their version of the bill. But the Senate version called for higher taxes. The conference committee compromise: use values based on figures from the Governor's office. "Ag use values must be maintained in public school financing," Cunningham said.

Cunningham said that any Independent Cattleman's Association member who wishes to testify can do so. "Elected state officials must be told the problems of agricultural landowners," Cunningham noted.

The bill will begin at 9:30 a.m. July 7 and will be held on the floor of the House of Representatives chamber.

POSTAL RATES TO INCREASE

Second, third and fourth-class items, such as newspapers, books and magazines, will cost more to mail beginning July 6, according to the Postal Service.

First-class mail will not be affected by this, the sixth rate increase since the Postal Service became a semi-independent agency.

The rate increase for second-class items will vary according to distance mailed, type of copy and weight.

Per-piece charge for mailing newspapers outside their home counties will increase from 0.8 cents to 1.1 cents. For mailing within the home county, rate increase will be from 0.6 to 0.7 cents.

Per-pound rates will go up to 6.7 cents from 6.0 cents in zones 1 and 2, and increase to 13.5 cents from 12.5 cents in zone 8.

Cost of mailing books and records will increase from 25 to 30 cents for the first pound and from 10 to 11 cents for each pound thereafter up to seven pounds. Each pound in excess of seven pounds will continue to cost 8 cents to mail.

Average weekly news magazines now will cost 6.8 cents to mail. The previous rate was 5.57 cents.

Book and record rate for libraries is increasing from 9 cents to 11 cents for the first pound. Each extra pound will cost the same 4 cents.

Cost for non-profit organizations mailing third-class, bulk rate items will increase from 2 to 2.1 cents.

As It Looks From Here

WASHINGTON, D.C.—In the days immediately ahead, we will know whether or not we are going to have the B-1 Bomber as a third leg of the three most important parts of national defense.

When President Carter was dispersed in a number of our airfields, other than strategic bases. It has a remarkable lifting capability, which means it can get off the ground in a hurry. It is able to fly at very low levels, avoiding detection by radar. It is twice as fast and only two-thirds the size of our old B-52's, but can carry twice the payload.

Some opponents to building the B-1 advocate modernizing our B-52, but it would still be a slow, vulnerable airplane.

Expensive? Of course. Some opponents of the strongest possible national defense say we can not afford a new bomber and, in fact, say we can not afford other weapons to protect this country. We can't afford it—we can't afford a thousand and one things the Federal Government is doing if we simply look at it in dollars and cents. The other side of the coin is that we can not afford not to have it.

If our defense capabilities are neglected—should our country become more vulnerable to attack—then all the good things we have are not likely to be worth much. If we in this age fail to provide the best possible protection for the future, we fail in our responsibilities.

Weather vote bill explained

By DOUG McDONOUGH
Herald Staff Writer

The future of High Plains' hail suppression programs may be left up to voters after current permits expire Oct. 31, 1977. Legislation has been signed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe allowing voters in the affected areas to petition for an election in their county on whether or not to allow the projects to continue.

The measure, sponsored by state senators Max Sherman of Amarillo and Kent Hance of Lubbock and by House Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake, was in response to divided public opinion on the effects of hail suppression.

PERMITS FOR weather modification were issued by the Texas Water Development Board earlier in June to Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview and Better Weather Inc. of Littlefield, but these permits will expire Oct. 31.

Shortly after the permits were granted, Gov. Briscoe signed into law the measure which takes most of the authority for granting permits out of the TWDB hands.

THE ELECTIONS will be held if 10 percent of the voters in a county with portions included in the target or operational areas of the program petition the county clerk to hold the balloting. Counties affected, according to published accounts, include Hale, Lamb, Bailey, Swisher, Castro, Farmer, Randall, Deaf Smith, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Floyd and Briscoe Counties.

But the water development board still has unquestioned authority to issue permits for cloud seeding over areas where no election has been requested, an aide to Hance explained.

According to the bill, "If a majority of the qualified voters voting in any election precinct any part of an operational area... of the permit, that... be excluded from... permit, but if the... weather modification operation is still feasible... issued covering areas... is requested and... give their approval."

A&M To Be Featured On TV Special

Texas A&M University will be featured in a half-hour special on KLBK-TV at 2:30 p.m. Sunday (July 3).

The Channel 13 presentation includes a rebroadcast of a show produced by KDFW-TV in Dallas. It also features interviews with Dr. Haskell Monroe, dean of faculties at Texas A&M's Association of Former Students.

The Lubbock A&M Club is sponsoring the program. Production of the special was prompted by the centennial observance of Texas A&M, the state's first public institution of higher learning. Founded 100 years ago as an institution designed to teach the agricultural and mechanical arts and with only six students on hand for the first students, Texas A&M today has enrollment of 28,000—fastest-growing university in the nation throughout the 70's—and offers degrees in more than 80 fields. That 28,000 enrollment includes almost 9,000 women.

The production provides an overview of the university and emphasizes students, school spirit and academic programs. Included are interviews with numerous students who were asked to give their observations on such topics as "Aggie Spirit" and the quality of the education they are receiving at Texas A&M.

Facts About Texas Oil And Gas

DALLAS—Looking for the deepest well in Texas? According to "77 Facts About Texas Oil and Gas," published for free public distribution by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn., the state's deepest is a 28,938-foot Wheeler County gas well.

Or, how about the number of Texas offshore wildcats drilled in 1976? That would be 147, according to "77 Facts," 136 of which were dry holes.

These are among the 77 highlight facts and figures about the Texas oil and gas industry included in the latest edition of the Association's annual "Facts Series." The leaflet also points out that oil hunters spent $2.2 billion in Texas drilling ventures last year, with $745 million lost in dry holes.

For quick reference, "77 Facts" offers key statistics on all major phases of Texas oil and gas industry operations—historical, offshore, drilling, production, refining, processing, employment, economics, and taxation.

Copies of 77 Facts are free to the public upon request to the Association, 1341 W. Mockingbird Lane, Suite 1111-E, Dallas 75247.

Fishing Now A Steady Activity For Levis Gilliland

BY DOUG SIMPSON
For Levis Gilliland, March 17, 1976 was a very fateful day in his life. A tragic farm accident paralyzed him from the waist down, and immediately the threat of not being able to do the things he enjoyed put added pressure in his future. But through the support of the Texas Rehabilitation Center, Levis is now in excellent shape and can still enjoy his favorite pastime which is fishing, by driving up to the nearest fishing place by himself.

This was made possible through a metal rod-shaped lever which was placed on the steering column in his 1964 Pontiac. The lever operates the brake when pushed forward, and by pushing up, the accelerator is put to function. Also located on the steering column is the light dimmer switch which can be operated with convenience instead of its usual position on the floorboard. What great advantages does the lever introduce? Levis can not only drive with comfortable convenience, but is able to actually maneuver the controls of his whole car through the use of his steering column which is understandably easy to use.

And if Gilliland encounters trouble during his trip, he merely uses his two-way radio to call for help. When asked about the C.B., he replied, "It just got in and I don't have a handle yet."

The fact that Levis must quickly think of a name for his C.B. to assure the security of many more fishing trips is a mere "speck of dirt" in his life of many problems and much determination to keep going. For Levis Gilliland, the ability to fish and do many other things through the ingenuity of men is a thrill in itself.

Mets Crush Dodgers, 14-3

Paced by an impressive first inning stampee, the Freshman Mets protected their undefeated status by rolling over the Dodgers Thursday night by the score of 14-3. The Mets, now 5-0 for the season and in first place in the division by a comfortable two-game margin, took advantage of six runs in the very first inning at bat and were able to go to score eight more and trounce the Dodgers, now 3-2. They were also backed by the outstanding hurling efforts of pitchers Dale Miner, David Morren, and Steve Weaver.

Losing pitcher for the Dodgers was Cliff McLain.

Suffers Second Straight Loss

Idalou took advantage of a four-run performance in innings three and four to stage a thrilling come-from-behind 6-5 victory and hand the Floydada pony-leaguers their second consecutive setback in the past week last Thursday, at the Floydada ball park. Floydada had led in the game's second inning but fell victim to the high-flying Idalou bats, which wiped out a temporary 4-2 deficit and tied things up at 5 apiece by the crucial third inning of play.

Then, in the fourth time at the plate, the visitors cinched victory with a single game winning run.

For Floydada, Jimmy

Jackson scored two runs, followed by Todd Vickers' 1 run, as Brad Feuerbacher and Junior Cuevas also crossed the plate a single time. Losing pitcher was Todd Vickers.

TWP Official To Attend Wheat Session

The President of the Texas Wheat Producers Association, Winston Wilson of Quanah, will be in Washington D.C. the week of July 11-15 when the House of Representatives debates farm legislation applicable to wheat growers during the next four years. According to Wilson, this will be his fifth week-long sojourn to the Nations Capital this Congressional session since January as farm issues have been heard by various Senate and House sub-committees, committees and the full Senate prior to this final action by the House.

While in Washington, Wilson will be working closely with the Texas delegation and their staffs, especially Congressman Jack High-tower, a key member of the House Agriculture Committee whose district encompasses over seventy-five per cent of the commercial wheat production area of the state.

Wilson said that on behalf of the Association he would be working to get the Senate version of target prices and loan rates ($3.10 and $2.47) adopted by the House replacing their Ag committees recommendation of $3.00 and $2.35 respectively. Also the association will be attempting to get the House to adopt the Senate version of payment limitations of $50,000 (though not favoring any) instead of the House Ag Committee adopted level of $35,000—which is expected to be under strong attack by some groups to be reduced to the current level of $20,000 which would make any loan, target price, storage programs ineffective for most Texas producers. Wilson said that he will also be working toward holding current interest in updating the allotment provision to include current "planted acres" instead of only "historic allotment" in order to bring new growers into any future set-aside program which may be called for as already being discussed by Secretary of Agriculture, Bob Bergland.

Texas and other wheat-state leaders will be attempting to get the House to restore and expand market development funds which were reduced by the sub-committee from the Foreign Agriculture Service budget.

Wilson said that the more producers and FAS are successful in their joint export promotion programs, the less acreage and other adjustments will have to be made. Over sixty per cent of the National wheat crop is produced for export—over ninety per cent in Texas.

Legislative activities of the Texas Wheat Producers Association are voluntarily supported by individual producer memberships of $40.00 annually.

IMPROVEMENTS CONTINUE...at Floydada Park. Pole fences going up to mark individual areas and new playground equipment has arrived which will be placed in the park as soon as possible, according to the chairman of the Parks Improvement committee, Doug Frazier. (Staff Photo)

What you pay to lease a Zimmatic depends on the price of corn.

Here's another first from Lindsay... the Zimmatic Corn Crop Lease. Instead of a fixed lease payment, you pay for your Zimmatic based on the price of corn. If corn prices plunge, so does your lease payment.

By offering this new lease, Lindsay is sharing some of the same risks that you face every year. Corn prices fluctuate, which affects your profit picture. That's why Lindsay developed the exclusive Zimmatic Corn Crop Lease... a revolutionary program that tailors your lease payments to the changing price of corn, from one year to the next.

The Zimmatic Corn Crop Lease is designed so you can lease a Zimmatic without using your normal operating credit sources... your Zimmatic pays its own way by turning on your production.

The number of Zimmatics available under this program and the time period of this offer are limited so come in soon and get all the details on the Corn Crop Lease and other exclusive leasing programs available only through Lindsay Credit Corp.

Take advantage of a program that has never been offered in the industry before... it's the lease we can do for you.

By Doug Simpson
The Texas Rangers are a contending baseball team... on the field at least. The Ranger organization—on the field and off, could suitably be described as the most publicized club in the major leagues this season. Who's to blame? The front office, of course. Frank Lucchesi had the Rangers at the top of the American League West division, just three games out of first when the former Texas skipper was fired. Why? Because of the hostility of the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex fans. They actually put enough pressure on the front office by not supporting the team at the box office that something had to be done. The power in sports nowadays doesn't belong to the owner, general manager, vice-president, or the press. It's the supporting public. If Texas can do something about the turmoil between the fans and the front office—they just might get things together and win a pennant.

If you have a son or daughter of high school age and wish to send him (or her) to a summer camp designed to teach valuable skills and fundamentals—better teach him yourself! The Federal Court supported the ULL ruling last week that high school age athletes are unable to attend or be a part of such an organization. Southern Methodist basketball coach Sonny Parker is challenging the ruling. His son, a senior-to-be in high school this year, will be unable to attend in spite of his father's wishes. Parker plans to contend with the courts and reach a settlement. Lotsa luck, Sonny!

It's sort of ironic that these athletes may enter a summer golf tournament or tennis tournament but cannot attend a fundamentals organization. Each cost money, each take time, each are directed toward the same purpose, so what's the difference? Let them learn as much as they possibly can! It's not too early that minds should wander to the Whirlwind training camp, scheduled to get in full swing in about six weeks. Lots of talent and promising newcomers to fulfill vacant positions left by graduation should indicate an eventful and exciting season ahead. In a future published article, I hope to furnish scouting reports on all 10 teams on tap for Floydada's 1977 schedule.

The past weekend, you may have enjoyed watching the Wimbledon Open and golf's Western Open on Television. Picture this. In about 10 years, a Floydada hailed tennis or golf champion might be filling the shoes of Tom Watson or a finalist in the Wimbledon tournament. He might have gotten his sports start in, possibly, through picking up valuable experience in a locally sponsored event like the Floydada Open or PGA Junior open. Praise and thanks should go to those sponsors and directors who show an interest in promoting athletics in our city.

ment received here this week. Performances will be at 8 p.m. nightly. Reserved seats for the rodeo performances may be secured by calling 806-669-3241 or by writing Box 1942, Pampa, Texas 79065.
