Shower Brightens Crop Prospects

Sunday's cotton crop was estimated at 1.5 million bales, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Rain showers were set off by a weak cold front that entered the area early Monday morning.

Almost all areas of the county received a half an inch and some areas received down pours that amounted to over two inches.

One plus factor for all the hot and dry weather...it may have burned up a lot of mosquitoes and flies. This brings the total rainfall to 15.09 for the year. This compares with nine inches this time last year.

In downtown Lockney, the Jackson Tire Company gauge showed an inch Monday and a trace Tuesday morning. At the Co-op Elevator in the Sterley community, one inch was measured Monday morning.

Rodeo One Of Best

Although the annual Floydada rodeo was almost rained out opening night, Friday and Saturday night performances drew big crowds and it was considered a successful event by the sponsors.

David Barker of Floydada won the $700 saddle.

Don Faulkenberry took first place in the club calf roping, Joe Jones and George Quisenberry won first in the club team roping.

J. E. Waller was second in the club calf roping, Monroe Shannon of Lockney and Wayne Dendy of Petersburg were fourth in the team roping.

Billy Kirk of Mt. Blanco and Bill Halford of Matador took second place in club team roping.

Rhonda Bennett was honored as Rodeo Queen and sold the winning ticket to David. Becky Bertand was second, Shelby Shurbet third in the queen's contest.

RODEO QUEEN...Rhonda Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wayne Bennett was honored Saturday night at the final night of the Floydada rodeo. She sold the most tickets for the $700 saddle which was given away. (Staff Photo)

County Receives Petition For Weather Modification Vote

Judge J. K. Holmes their request for an election under the Weather Modification Act. Accompanying their request was a petition signed by more than 600 qualified voters of the area. The purpose of the election is to determine whether the voters approve of the issuance of a permit providing for weather modification including hail suppression in a major portion of Floyd County. All qualified voters in Floyd County may cast ballots with the exception of those voters living in the Baker, Goodnight, and Dougherty election precincts. It is projected that the election will be held the fourth week of August.

It is the position of the Citizens for Natural Weather that hail suppression dissipates the clouds and prevents their natural course of developing rain in the area.

Bill Delays Collecting Junk Cars

Because of the passage of Senate Bill 433 by the recent session of the Texas Legislature, the Chamber of Commerce Community Appearance Committee has temporarily set aside its plans for removal of junked vehicles within the city limits of Floydada.

The City Council will be called upon to pass a new ordinance in accordance with the new state statute. The new statute goes into effect on August 29, 1977, and expands the power of communities to deal with junk vehicle problems.

Members of the Chamber committee expressed their disappointment in the delay but look forward to having an effective means to rid the city of junk cars after adoption of the ordinance.

New Telephone Office Numbers

Telephone customers in Floydada have new telephone numbers to dial for telephone services. The new number for the business office is 1-951-7481 and the new number for repair service is 1-954-3131 according to Southwestern Bell manager Jim West.

West added that the new numbers are toll free, and that it will give Floydada customers a direct line to the business office and repair service. The new numbers are listed on the information page of the new directory.

Protest Action To Happen On August 8

Floyd County Farmers Union is urging its members—and all farmers in the county—to mail one or more boxes of wheat or other small grain to the President, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the chairmen of the House and Senate Agriculture Committees to protest what they consider lack of concern for the financial plight of the farmer.

The Floyd County effort is part of a statewide push by Farmers Union, which is in turn part of a nationwide effort to "flood Washington with cheap commodities" as a protest against low farm commodity prices. The Floyd County farmers' organization is hoping that at least 100 small boxes of grain—more, they hope—will be mailed to Washington from Floyd County on August 8, the date set for mass mailing all over the state and nation.

The packages of grain are to be sent along with a message to the effect of this one suggested by the Farmers Union:

Dear Mr. President (Sec. of Ag., Ag. Chairman, Etc.),

The prices we are getting for our crops are causing us to go broke. You have indicated that your concern is small and you certainly don't want Congress to pass supports which would help us. You're worried about inflation, but you're not worried about a whole segment of society and thousands of families going bankrupt.

So here's some wheat (example). Bake it. Eat it. Plant it. Do whatever you want to with it. But look at it good and use it wisely. It might be the last you see, because it will be the last we produce for a nation which doesn't want to pay for it.

WE WON'T GROW IT FOR PEANUTS!
Signed,
xxxx

THE NEXT TIME someone tells you the price of advertising makes things cost more, consider this: Advertising more of ten reduces the cost of things we buy.

Take the case of electronic calculators. Ten years ago they were expensive little machines costing several hundred dollars each. They were bought mainly by scientists, engineers and accountants because of the expense.

Then one company discovered that volume savings would reduce the cost of making calculators up to 25 per cent every time production doubles. If the first 100,000 units each cost $250, then the 200,000th unit would cost $188, the 400,000th unit would cost only $141.

By the time they got total production to 50 million units, the cost per unit would be down to $18.

We all know what happened. The company started advertising heavily. They created new markets with the ads. Sales boomed and so did production.

That increased production has created tens of thousands of new jobs in their industry. It has increased the productivity of almost every other industry "by making complicated and time consuming math computations almost instantly available to every shop and office in the country. It has even simplified the once tedious task of balancing the family checkbook.

But most important, the increased sales and production caused by the advertising has made it possible for anyone to buy an electronic pocket calculator for under $10 today—a fraction of what it cost ten years ago.

So the next time someone tells you the price of advertising makes things cost more—set 'em straight.

Do Women Lie More Than Men?

Women tell more lies than men do, but "lie" is probably too harsh a word for their kind of dishonesty, says Dr. Irving Harris, a staff member at the Illinois State Psychiatric Institute. "It should more appropriately be called 'white lying,'" he says. "White lying" means lying for the listener's benefit, such as when one woman compliments another on her dress when, in fact, it is bulging at the seams. "Many lies also are told by women to bolster men's sensitive egos," says Dr. Harris. At the risk of being labeled a chauvinist, however, Harris also believes that women are more prone to avoid hard truth than are men. "Because women often have to live more pragmatically and do whatever is necessary rather than what may be high-principled, they are more flexible about lying. They are more practical. They would not say, as President Carter did, 'I will never lie to you.'" Lying has been on the increase in the nation as a whole because of a general relaxation of moral standards, the psychiatrist contends, noting that the phrase "credibility gap" is now part of the national vocabulary.

Felicia Louise Applewhite

Noted area artist, Miss Felicia Louise Applewhite, 45, of Lockney died at 7 a.m. Sunday, July 31, in Lockney General Hospital. Services at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church of Lockney with Reverend John J. Jenkins and William Prater officiating. Burial was in Lockney Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home, Lockney.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goree C. Applewhite of Rt. F, Lockney; one sister, Miss Myra Applewhite of Austin; and one brother, C.W. Applewhite of Houston.

Stricken with polio in 1945, Miss Applewhite was flown by orders of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt by special bomber to Warm Springs, Georgia where she received treatment for that disease. Through recommendations by actresses Barbara Stanwyck and Heddra Hopper and actor Leo McCarey, NBC later aired nationwide the story of that incident.

Miss Applewhite went on to graduate in 1951 from Lockney High and in 1956 from Baylor University. She was awarded the Dunlap Hemphill Wells purchase prize for her oil "Jody" in 1964 and was 1967's Young Woman of America.

Briscoe County Not For Weather Modification!

In the heaviest voting in Briscoe County history, precincts one and three turned out to condemn cloud seeding by a vote of 430 to three, a margin of 143 to one.

Citizens for Natural Weather in Bailey, Swisher and Lamb counties have already turned in petitions calling similar elections in those counties and are waiting for dates to be set by commissioners' courts.

Castro, Parmer and Floyd county committees are continuing work to complete petitions which require signatures of at least 10% of the qualified voters in the areas affected by cloud seeding.

Lloyd Kurtz, treasurer for the district-wide Citizens for Natural Weather, said the first election in Briscoe County has created "even more fervent interest in the program to call elections on cloud seeding."

"This issue has been a severe problem throughout this area for seven years and people want to get this matter settled one and for all. There are many disadvantages to our people feeling so seriously about an issue like this for so long. I think it hurts our progress and the best way, the democratic way, to settle these differences is at the polls. We are pleased that the Water Development Board wants these elections and we hope to get all of them completed within the next month," Kurtz said.

Earl Cosby, of Tulia CFNA, was encouraged that the Briscoe County voting "gave all our people more determination than ever to get this thing over with as soon as possible." Swisher County Commissioners are expected to set a date early

Mrs. Clar Schacht

Judy Maggard, Clar Schacht Married Saturday In Plainview

A Caribbean cruise to the Bahamas was the wedding trip for Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clar Schacht who were married Saturday evening in Plainview.

Mrs. Schacht is the former Miss Judith Ann Maggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Maggard of Plainview. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Fritz O. Schacht of Lockney and the late Mr. Schacht.

Officiating at the 7:30 double ring ceremony in the chapel of First Baptist Church in Plainview was Bill Webb, director of the Baptist Student Union at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Candlelight from a candelarch flanked by cathedral candelabras set the scene for the exchange of wedding promises. Focal point of the nuptial area was a kneeling bench holding a unity candle. Tropical foliage and gypsophila tied with mint green satin enhanced the candelabras and kneeling bench. Pews were marked with tropical foliage and white lace bows.

Ernie Maggard of Houston and Byron Schacht of Bryan, brothers of the bride and groom respectively, were ushers.

Mrs. Sarah Cameron of Canyon, sister of the groom, was a soloist. She was accompanied at the organ by her husband, David Cameron.

sophila tied with blue satin. Best man was Jim Shafer of Tribune, Kansas, and therford served as groomsmen.

Escorted to the altar area and given in marriage by her father, L.H. Maggard, the bride chose for her wedding a formal gown of candlelight chiffon. It was designed with a moulded bodice of re-em-broidered alencon lace and English net. The mandarin neckline of the bodice front was adorned with tiny seed pearls. The long Juliet sleeves of the gown were trimmed with cuffs of matching lace and English net. The Empire-waistline fell into a full skirt with a full chapel train. An alencon lace half-cap held her double-tiered butterfly veil of candlelight bridal illusion edged in seed pearls. Atop a white Bible, the former Miss Maggard carried a cascade arrangement of green cymbidium orchids and ming fern.

Following bridal tradition, she used "something old" which was her great-grandmother's pin. "Something new" was gold earrings, "something borrowed" was the white Bible she carried with her bouquet; and "something blue" was a garter. In her shoe was a luck sixpence.

The parlor of the church was scene of the wedding reception. Assistants at the refreshment table were the bride's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Maggard and Mrs. David Maggard, both of Houston; the groom's sister, Miss Margaret Schacht; his sister-in-law, Mrs. Byron Schacht of Bryan; Cheryl Crain of Amarillo and Lou Ella Scarbrough.

An oyster linen cloth covered the serving table. A candelabra arrangement of pastel flowers, gypsophila and ming fern shared the table with the wedding cake. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

JOYCE Williams was in Houston recently and said she noted at M.D. Anderson Hospital that patients undergoing chemotherapy treatment there were making use of wigs presented to the hospital by various organizations and individuals. You may recall sometime back in Meddlins I mentioned that wigs and other hairpieces were needed by the hospital. Joyce said these wigs are washed, restyled and shaped to fit the individual patient. It could be a worthwhile project for clubs to undertake in our area.

West Texas IS Different For New Jersey Farm

'It's different ...I like it'

Linda Bush

By JIM DAVIS
PLAINVIEW REPORTER-NEWS
There's a new girl in the neighborhood...a yankee, no less...an aggie yankee.

And, if the West Texans she deals with envision the East as mostly big cities, big buildings and pavement, she's going to change some images.

A couple of weeks in West Texas has already changed some images for her.

She's Linda Bush. She's 24. And, Monday a week ago she went to work for the USDA Soil Conservation Service in Floydada.

Linda was born and raised in New Jersey, but if one were to listen to her recite her background without tagging it geographically, they might think she was born and raised in West Texas.

"I've always lived on a farm," she says. She liked farm life and it interests her, so, she took it up as a profession.

Until they retired recently, her parents operated a farm in the midst of rural New Jersey.

The difference between there and here is mostly a matter of scale. Linda says her father's place was about 60-acres where he raised vegetables. 60-acres was a big farm as New Jersey farms go, Linda says.

Farming in the East just isn't the big business that it is in West Texas. It's more a sideline.

But, it is still rural America just as West Texas is rural America.

Linda says she attended grammar school in a four-room school in New Gretna, N.J., a town of about 800 people.

She says that when she came out to West Texas she was amazed at the size of the towns here. "The towns are bigger. At home towns are smaller...They're closer together but they're smaller."

She graduated from high school at a consolidated school—Southern Regional High School—which served an area that went 30 miles in all directions and, yet, was only a little over half the size of Plainview High.

Of course, West Texas is physically very different from what Linda Bush is accustomed to. "Where's the trees?" she says she asked first off.

"It's different," she says. "I like it. I like it more and more."

Linda says that having been raised on the farm agriculture interested her, so, after graduating from high school in 1971, she attended Murray State University in Murray, Ky. The school in far western Kentucky was a long way from home, but she chose it for its agriculture program (and "because I'd never been there").

She took a degree in agronomy in 1975.

"I wanted to use my degree," she says, so fresh out of college she joined the Peace Corps. For 10 months, she lived and worked in the Central American country of El Salvador.

She says she was among about 100 Peace Corps volunteers trying to bring some modern agricultural techniques to a tiny Pacific coast nation where farming is still primarily people and animal powered.

She says changes were being made... "You could see little things that had been left by other volunteers. It was nothing drastic. The people there are like people everywhere. It takes a long time."

She says she spent most of her time trying to teach the El Salvadorians to build silos to store grain sorghum. The practice there was to store the grain in holes in the ground lined with sheets of plastic.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters

This has been another busy week at the Nursing Home. We have another quilt completed and have a new helper, Robbie Bratton. She quilts real good. Of course Dora Langford is always ready to quilt. In fact I think she would quilt 8 hours a day if I would let her.

We had a real nice field trip and also enjoyed ice cream Wednesday. We were happy to have my two sisters, Ola Mae Sullivan and Jo McNelly take the trip with us.

Jo has been visiting us from Alaska and this heat has sure been hard on her. Thursday was fun day again with Bingo. Top winner was Ray Reed with five games. Hallie Bertrand, Clara Williamson, Hope Hammonds, Pearl Carrick and Agnes Anderson won two games each.

Our exercise class has been very well attended this week and so has our devotions. We have had such beautiful singing and good preaching. May God bless every one who took part in any way.

We would like to thank Bill Daniel for the peas he brought our residents. They sure enjoyed them. We have two new residents, Gladys Wimberly and Clara Murry. We are very happy to have them and hope we can help make them comfortable.

We are sorry we have Paul Luttrell in the hospital. Hope he will be back with us very soon.

We appreciate all our visitors this week which included:

Mrs. George Wexler; Alma Ruth Nelson; Sue Moore; Artie Webb; Doyle and Sue Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Davis; Floydada. Mrs. Bill Smallwood and Thanie Smallwood of Matorador; Mrs. Don Davis and children, Paris, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Holladay and children; Trema McElWang; and Jackie Jackson; Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar King, Monticello, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne King, and Debbie, Patsy, Robert of Rantoul, Ill.; Mrs. Sue Cassell and children David, Cindy, Becky and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill, Amarillo.

FLOYDDATA

Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams and sons, accompanied by her sister, Peggy Carter returned home Saturday after a vacation through New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, and California. They toured National Parks along the way and also Disneyland, coming back by way of Lake Tahoe before returning home.

Baptist Group At Camp

A group of Baptist youth and their counselors left Monday in the First Baptist church bus for Camp Summer Life at Tres Ritos, New Mexico. They will return to Floydada tomorrow.

Counselors making the trip are Judy Allen, Ann Helms, Norman and Edith Muncy, Melvin and Ouita Powell and Rick Son.

A popular song during World War I, "How Long Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?", comes to mind whenever I think of our decreasing farm population and what this means to Texas and the nation.

Our farm population began its decline after World

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Tooley,
I would like to take this opportunity to give their time and efforts a concession a success this year. A very must go out to Mary Porter, Billie Daffron. These dear friends gave of their often without my asking, that I just concession without them.
I pray that the ladies of our town will support of our baseball program.

Floydada Airman From Radar Course

TAMPA, Fla.—Airman First Class Sarah E. Lerda, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Hollums of Floydada,

War I, I'm not certain that it was, as the song claims, "after they've seen Paris" that started the migration from the farms and rural towns and villages. But whatever the cause, it must have been contagious because the fever remains. Texas and the other 49 states continue to record a decline in farm population.

Although great progress has been and is being made in the production of food and fiber, there still remains that single ingredient that makes us the best-fed people in the world, the farmer and his eternal optimism and his love of his land. Without that ingredient we are lost.

HITCHHIKER AND KING OF THE ROAD...King Close that is, was waiting for his ride at the Floyd County court house when this picture was snapped by a Hesperian photographer. The retired man from Long Beach, Calif., has been "footen it" since April, getting the itch to see the U.S. by thumb after hitch-hiking home from Canada last year. He admitted that he did very little walking commenting that his "White hair and the Good Lord" helped him get rides. He is a friend to all who pick him up and usually ends up as their houseguest for a day or two or enjoys a family meal at their home. He has even dined with the Captain of a merchant ship in his travels along the New England states; was proposed to by a young widow within ten hours after she and her son picked him up; has been made an honorary member of several colleges after staying in their dormitories; and has encountered no problems in all his travels. If the "Good Lord is willing I will reach my home in Long Beach in August," Close said. Before reaching Floydada he spent several days at Throckmorton working on a ranch and helping with the cattle, something new to him. He left Lubbock yesterday enroute to New Mexico, Arizona and Nevada, visiting new found friends along the way. (Staff Photo)

PhilCates Will Not Seek Re-Election

State Representative Phil Cates today officially announced his intention not to seek reelection. Cates is completing his fourth term as State Representative from the 66th Legislative District composed of Armstrong, Briscoe, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley, Floyd, Gray, Hall, Motley, and Wheeler Counties. "Landslide Cates", as he is referred to because of having won his first primary election by only two votes, expressed his heartfelt appreciation to those who enthusiastically supported him throughout the eight years that he will have served as state representative.

"The one person who deserves more credit than anyone else for these years of service," Cates explained, "is my gifted wife Nancy, who is the mother of our three-year-old son Andy and our nine-month-old son John David. Even now," Cates continued, "Nancy encourages me to run for reelection for the House seat or for another higher office. Many have expressed disappointment that I would choose to leave the position of service that I have held for four legislative terms, and for their trust and this high compliment that they have given me, I am very grateful."

"The decision is mine alone. There are simply more important tasks for me at this time. I must make certain that my family is in the kind of strong and healthy environment that I want for my sons. This we would do if we stayed in politics, but it would simply be much easier in the business field. Someday, I would hope to again hold this or other offices of the public trust."

"There are major important goals, issues, and needs for good services which I have left unfinished. In this regard, I would support the very best person seeking the position of state representative. I feel that this is my responsibility as a private citizen. I would never seek to name my successor, but rather to fulfill this responsibility by supporting the best possible person. I must mention my personal pleasure of having been associated with public servants like Max Sherman, Bob Simpson, and Bob Close along with the many responsible leaders within the district."

"Benjamin Franklin expressed my feelings best during the Constitutional debates when he said in essence that leaving public office will be considered by our best leaders as the higher honor than even having been originally elected to that position. In other words, it is exciting to be reelected and to serve, but it is even greater to return to walk equally as a private citizen with ones former constituents."

Quick Takes

An amazing 91% of all American homes have at least one living house plant, according to a survey by a New York market research company. You can gain insight into a woman's personality by looking at her tube of lipstick, says François de Roussy de Sales, international director of advertising and public relations for a major cosmetic line. If a woman's tube of lipstick is worn down on one side, it shows she is casual, possibly over-relaxed. Lipstick worn to a point indicates a woman is tense and uptight. If the lipstick is rounded on the end, it belongs to a sensuous woman.
