At the breakfast, head of the membership drive Sam Henry explained the enlistment procedure and expressed his thanks to the members present. Then chamber manager Doug Frazier explained membership sign up plan and some of the work the chamber does to help the farmers of this community.

Then Chamber President Gene Ehler discussed prospect cards and told the workers that the victory breakfast would be next Thursday morning. He added that the losing team would buy the breakfast for the winning team.

PROGRAM OF WORK

What does the Chamber of Commerce do? Each worker was given a green sheet showing the accomplishments of the Chamber at mid-year which included economic and industrial development in an all day meeting with the allies of industry, the commodity marketing seminar for farmers, sales promotions for retail business, better community appearance projects and new "Welcome to Floydada" signs and brochures created by the tourism committee.

Anyone not asked to join the Chamber, who would like to do so, should call 983-3434 and become a member.

Floydada Inn Open House Sunday

Mayor Parnell Powell will cut the ribbon at the official opening of the Floydada Inn on the Ralls Highway at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited to tour the new motel following the ribbon cutting ceremonies until 4:30 p.m.

There will be refreshments for everyone, stockholders and their wives will be on hand to show the visitors around the modern 30 unit motel.

Willson, Lon Davis, Louis Pyle, Jay S. Hale Jr., Fred Zimmerman Jr., Wayne Russell, Kinder Farris, W.L. Norman, and Malvin Jarboe.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Payne will manage the motel. The motel opened for business this week.

The unique color scheme inside and out is characteristic of this part of the state. Exterior walls are Indian beige with Spanish dray, desert adobe with comb columns. Stair railing in devil's food.

Interior colors are rust and earth tones, blue and brown tones.

THE PLACARD that Lisa and Julie Smith hold reminds the children of this community that there's a free movie the next two Saturdays in the MAC. It's a free movie sponsored by Floydada businesses. Walt Disney films and cartoons will be featured from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. The Smith girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A.O. Smith.

Band Plays, Tree Decorating Next Saturday

Since the FHS band cannot play until Saturday, December 17, the decorating of the tree on the Southwest corner of the square and the band concert have been scheduled Saturday, December 17 at 6 p.m.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the band music, join in a community sing, and watch the decorating of the tree.

Sponsorship of the event is by the Women's Division of The Chamber of Commerce.

It is possible that several Floydada businesses will remain open that evening for the convenience of the Christmas shoppers.

Jarrett Seeks Re-Election

Job Jarrett announces his candidacy for re-election as Floyd County Commissioner, Precinct 2, subject to the action of the May Democratic primary.

Blood Drive Today

Today, Thursday, Dec. 8, citizens of Floydada will have an opportunity to make an important, personal contribution to the welfare of this community. That is the scheduled date of a mobile blood drive to be held at Lighthouse Electric from 3 to 7 p.m.

C. E. Guffee, chairman of the drive, would like every person to consider this drive to be an invitation for personal action the simple, satisfying action of donating blood for a person in great need. In only 30 minutes you may give the most precious gift of all the "gift of life."

In 1977, 25,000 units of blood are needed to supply the needs of patients in our 40 hospitals, says Janice Hassell, Donor Development Specialist for South Plains Blood Service. This blood can only come from caring individuals—the human body is still the only source.

Be a lifesaver. Make an appointment to donate blood by calling C. E. Guffee, 983-2814, chairman of the drive.

Senior Citizens Need Help....Now!

By Wendell Tooley

Floydada's Senior Citizens need approximately 1500 and a few items of furniture for their new center located at 8th and Georgia Streets. The former church building has been repainted, carpeting is going down and by the first of the year, it should be open for the enjoyment of the members.

The Senior Citizens received some $1,000 government grant and must match this amount in work and money. To date they have supplied some $800 in credit on the grant.

Money donated is income tax deductible and may be deposited at the bank.

This letter from the Senior Citizens explain their needs.

grants from Title III funds.

Now we are wondering if there are some folks of this Community who will give us a little help that we may finish this project up before we move in to it (Jan. 15th, 78). If the people of Floydada could only match the amount the members of Senior Citizens have raised over $1,000.00! Yet 80 percent of them are just common "poor" people who have given all we could ask of them.

These are the people who haven't had a place before to meet and visit, along with a dinner with some kind of entertainment. We just know you will be glad to have a part in this good work. The building has been completely painted inside and outside, new floor has been put down and we must have Carpet throughout, a range stove, water heater, refrigerator, 65 banquet chairs, 16 tables 9 ft., we already have em cabinet and tables. This will enable us to get in to a new home without any debt. All of this property was a gift out right. 2 lots and the building.

TWO FROM GALILEE For 1934 Study Club

The 1934 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Floyd Lawson with Mrs. W.W. Trapp as co hostess Tuesday evening.

Following a short business meeting, a book review was brought by Mrs. J.M. Willson, Jr.

"TWO FROM GALILEE"

by Marjorie Holmes

"The greatest love story ever told two people caught up in a holy plan that ignored human law and placed on young shoulders the most awesome responsibility of all time. Mary, a devout and beautiful young Jewess; Joseph, a strong, hard working carpenter schooled in the traditions of the synagogue, young, in love, betrothed, joyously preparing for their wedding and new home. Then comes the totally unexpected announcement to Mary, "You shall conceive and bear a son and he will be the Son of God." How could it happen? Believing but bewildered, the teen age girl is faced with the practical problem of telling her parents and her beloved Joseph that she is to bear a child. The young couple face scandal, family conflict and the pressures of prophetic fulfillment as they begin their life together. Each chosen by God for a special part in His plan; Mary to bear and care for His son, and Joseph to guide and watch over the child; and together because they loved each other so much, so that this child, whatever his destiny, might begin his life in a home filled with love. Mary's time for delivery comes in a Bethlehem stable, far from home and the skillful help of her mother. Joseph's tender care and vigilance during the long, pain filled night are rewarded with the newborn infant's healthy cry, and as the two gaze on the tiny child they know a miracle has been achieved and they have been a part of it."

True to the Biblical account, TWO FROM GALILEE is the tender, moving love story of two young people whose love was strained almost beyond endurance, but whose faith in each other and in God always sustained and strengthened.

In attendance were Mmes. Allen Eingham, Wilson Lend, Floyd Bradley, W.H. Lunch, Maymie Clark, Dunlap Dempsey, R.G. Bunlap, Leon Ferguson, Garland Foster, Kyle Glover, J.S.

Hale, Jr., J.T. Huckabay, Floyd Lawson, M.J. McNeill, Jettie Moss, W.O. Newberry, Ella Reue, George Springer, Fred Stewart, L.I. Stewart, W.W. Trapp, J.R. Turner, Olen Watson, Jr. and A.L. Wylie.

Elinor Hendrix has promised her Wassail recipe to several, and since its nearing another holiday season, others may be interested in serving it during this time so...I told her I would print it in my column. The recipe calls for six cups apple cider; one cinnamon stick; one fourth teaspoon nutmeg; one fourth cup honey; three tablespoons lemon juice; one can (18 ounces) unsweetened pineapple juice (2 1/2 cups). In large saucepan heat cider and cinnamon stick to boiling, reduce heat, cover and simmer for five minutes. Uncover and stir in remaining ingredients, then simmer another five minutes. Use individual cinnamon sticks as servers.

The baby weighed 6 pounds, 14 1/2 ounces at birth and has been named Randall Elois. Grandparents include Mrs. Lobbie Campbell, Lubbock, Dick Campbell of Dalhart, Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Lontke of Kress, Mrs. Boedeker of Plainview is the other great grandmother.

Floydada Folk See King Tut Treasures

Six Floydadans flew to New Orleans Louisiana last week to see the Treasures of King Tutankhamun or King Tut as he is better known. The artifacts are on display at the museum there through December and according to the report are just magnificent. These treasures represent an archaeological and cultural discovery of enormous importance, as well as beauty. The group visited four chambers disclosing the wealth and worldly goods of King Tut.

Young King Tut, who died between the ages of 18 and 19, fulfills the old Egyptian tradition that believed they would live forever through their tombs. He lives again chiefly because his tomb was not totally plundered by grave robbers. Floydada folk who enjoyed the adventure into the past were Louis and Janice Lloyd, Billie and Jack Jordan, Mildred Wylie and Pat Ochoa.

Kendrick Home, Scene Of Alpha Mu Delta Party

On December 3, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kendrick opened their home to the Alpha Mu Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi for its annual Christmas social.

The house was decorated with green, silver, and gold. The atmosphere was filled with the joy of Christmas. The menu was "Mexican Fiesta." Every member contributed to the dinner. Cakes, cookies, mints, and fudge were served as dessert with wassail and coffee to drink.

Following dinner the group played games and the winners were Pat Cates and Lynn Daniel. Presents were exchanged. A ceramic nativity scene was raffled and Vickie Allen was the lucky winner.

Attending the social were Mr. and Mrs. David Cates, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Hickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Daniel, and Mrs. Jerry Allen.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Kendrick were Lu Ann Collins, Stacy Smith, and Kaye Powell.

MBFA Film Seen by Auxiliary

The Floydada Hospital Auxiliary met Monday morning in the home of Mrs. William Smith to see a film concerning In Home Service for the elderly and disabled, presented by the MBFA Foundation, West Texas Health Providers.

The film entitled LOVE WITHOUT REGARD outlined the many services of the foundation. They want to see clients and patients live in their own homes as long as possible in familiar surroundings, to help them to maintain their independence. Their slogan is Dedicated to Serving The Total Individual.

They provide homemaker services and can provide professional physical therapy, injections and medical care, as well as have care for personal needs and clients never have to leave their homes.

Homemaker services are provided by persons who really want to serve and feel needed. It is particularly appealing to women whose children have all left home, who have a desire to be of service. Margie Calvert of Lubbock presented the film and her representative of MBFA locally is Norma Patton. For homemaker services locally the coordinator is Kathy Green. The services are provided on a graduating scale and may be served through many media...medicare, Medicaid, V.A. grants, insurance or private payments.

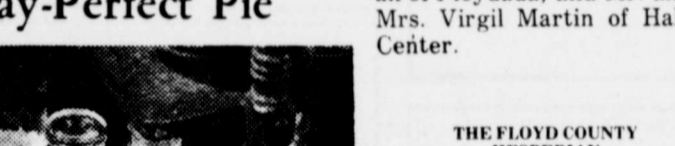

The MBFA provides homes, when persons must be institutionalized. They try to provide care for them that sees them as individuals and a place of love and caring including proper nourishment. Tea coffee, and breads were served to: Marjorie Calvert, Mrs. Jack Watson, Mae Jarboe, Mrs. Cager Carmack, Emma Lou Whitaker, Jo Bryant, Dovie Rushing, Lorella Bradley, Hill Tye, Patti Ochoa, Mrs. S.V. Hunter and Mary Tom Tooley and Troy and Norma Patton.

A CHRISTMAS DREAM - Will it come true? Deanna Connolly tries on the coat she hopes to receive for Christmas as Julie Wells, Sandy May, and Tory Daggett look on. These four residents of the Whiteface Campus of Grlstown, USA are among the 98 residents of the Borger, Whiteface and Austin Campuses of Grlstown, USA. The Lions Clubs of District 2T-1 presently have underway their 9th Annual Coat and Shoe Campaign for Grlstown with a goal of providing each girl with a $90 Gift Certificate to be used to purchase a new coat, a new pair of shoes and other needed clothing. FLOYD DATA
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Smith hosted a pre-Christmas dinner Sunday in their home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tardy and La Neel, and Thelma Jones all of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Martin of Hale Center.

Fresh Pears And Cranberries Make Holiday-Perfect Pie

A special treat for a special season, this fresh Holiday Pear and Cranberry Pie will bring plenty of festivity to your entertaining. Fresh Winter pears shine in this tart-sweet combination with cranberries, complementing their juicy full-flavored goodness. The tangy fresh cranberries add plenty of bright color and flavorful sparkle to the juicy pie filling. Fresh and Western Winter pears are busy filling markets from September through May with their color and variety. From the russet Bosc, to the green Anjou, to the crimson Comice, each variety offers a particular quality making it unique and special on its own. Don't let the color of the skin fool you. Fresh Winter pears are ripe and ready to eat when they yield to gentle pressure in the palm of your hand.

Holiday Pear and Cranberry Pie
3 fresh Western Winter pears
1-1/2 cups fresh cranberries
2 teaspoons grated orange peel
1 cup sugar
Core and slice pears. Combine with cranberries, orange peel, sugar, salt and tapioca. Line pie pan with half of pastry and flute edges. Place filling in pie shell. Roll out remaining pastry and cut into shape of pear tree and partridge. Place carefully over filling. Bake in a 400-degree oven until fruit is tender and pastry is golden, about 40 to 50 minutes. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

Easy Shepherd's Pie—With Tuna

Here's a different way to make that oldtime favorite, Shepherd's Pie, whenever you want to produce something warm and homey (and easy) for the family—or for kids enjoying a get-together. This upside-down version has savory canned tuna, cheese and vegetable mixture spooned over the mashed potatoes, instead of the other way around.

Lots of people are serving tuna in hot skillet and casserole dishes (as well as sandwiches and salads) several times a week. It's great with macaroni and cheese, with rice and cream sauce, with scrambled eggs, or fixed with cheese for a grilled sandwich. Don't forget, tuna's complete protein makes it an important main dish food.

UPSIDE-DOWN TUNA SHEPHERD'S PIE
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk
1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 package (10 ounces) frozen succotash or other vegetables, thawed and drained
2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil
6 cups mashed potatoes

In a medium saucepan melt butter. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Stir in milk, cheese and onion. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Stir in succotash and tuna. Make a nest of mashed potatoes in 6 individual baking dishes. Spoon mixture in the center of the potatoes. Place dishes on a baking sheet. Bake in 350°F. oven 20 to 25 minutes. YIELD: 6 servings. Note: If desired, sprinkle potatoes with buttered bread crumbs before baking.

CEDAR HILL NEWS

By Grace Lemons

Fred Conner of Amarillo visited with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conner Thursday.

Glenda Kay Thompson spent Friday night with a friend, Sandra Ferguson at Wayland College.

Tom and Gladys Fortenberry enjoyed cake and coffee in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Jackie Thompson after services Sunday.

Rev. Earl Arnold was guest speaker at the Assembly of God Church Sunday with a good congregation present.

The Cedar Hill Assembly of God Church will present their annual Christmas play in the evening of December 18th and you have a cordial invitation.

Edna Gilly and family had Thanksgiving dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Teeple at South Plains. Their daughter and husband -Hilene and David Reddout of Louisiana were also present.

Edna Gilly, Ruth Hill, Clara Redd of Floydada and Juanita Teeple visited Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Davis in Hart Saturday. Ruth Hill and Clara Redd visited Edna Gilly Tuesday.

Friday of last week Edna Gilly visited with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hammit in Plainview. Their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammit of Holly, Colorado were also present.

Inflation - Fighting FOOD IDEAS

HEARTY RICE CASSEROLES

- 1/2 cup melted pepper
- 1 cup sliced mushrooms
- 1 can (12 oz) condensed soup
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 2 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
- 2 cans (5 oz) tomato sauce
- 2 chicken breasts, cubed
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- Salt and pepper
- 1/3 cup soft bread crumbs

Combine onion, celery, rice, egg and tomato sauce in a large bowl. Boil on medium heat for 10 minutes. Season to taste. Spoon into casserole. Top with crumbs. Bake 30 minutes. Make variations.

There's more to rice casseroles than meets the eye; they taste and smell as good as they look.

Couples Should Take Honeymoons

moons, noting that some marriage specialists suggest as many as three a year. "Mini-honeymoons mean taking time to remain lovers and revitalize the intimate relationship of husband and wife without the children. "Honeymoons free a couple from the pressures of being mother or father. "This is important because most couples will be partners two or three times as many years as they will be parents actively involved in rearing children," the specialist explains.

TODAY'S MARRIAGES DIFFER FROM PAST

Today's marriages are different from traditional marriages of the past, so of course they require different skills, Miss Taylor emphasizes.

"The traditional marriage of a century ago has all but vanished in this country particularly.

"In the past, marriage was primarily an economic and procreative alliance in which the sex roles were rigidly fixed and the husband was in charge. These marriages were often held together more by a sense of duty than by love or commitment.

"Today's marriages tend to be friendlier and warmer. Most men and women marry because they love each other, enjoy each other's company and want to share their lives in an intimate way," she says.

OLD MYTHS HURT TODAY'S MARRIAGES

However, widespread myths—perhaps held over the past—have stood in the way of many couples' enjoyment of marriage, Miss Taylor points out.

One is the belief that marriage is instinctual and natural for human beings so there is no need to learn any special ways of handling it.

Another is that the wedding ushers bride and groom into a permanent state rather than an ever-changing process.

Also, the new state is regarded as a very private one, about which even minor difficulties are never revealed to other people.

Because of those myths most couples are ashamed to admit problems, so many of them either go unsolved or are left to steep and build in pressure, the specialist says.

"Despite mutual affection and a genuine desire to build a good marriage, a husband and wife often find their small problems growing into larger ones.

They may settle for a superficial, bland relationship in which they paper over the difficulties with daily routines. They may become cynical about the possibilities of fulfillment in marriage and accept their dissatisfactions as par for the course.

"Or their unhappiness may eventually drive them to seek professional help—perhaps too late to save the marriage and certainly too late to wipe out the pain that has gone before," Miss Taylor adds.

HONEYMOONS—STRATEGY FOR STRENGTH

Instead couples should design a "preventive strategy" to build up the strengths each partner brought to the relationship and to equip themselves with skills for coping with problems. Mini-honeymoons help insure a rewarding continuously working strategy, she says.

SOUTH SIDE OF SQUARE FLOYDADA, TX

The Floyd Philosopher
Claims Some Thinkers No Further Along Than The Flat-World Thinkers

Dear editor:

A lot of people, including some scientists, are alarmed over what science is doing in the field of human life, the cells, the genes, the chromosomes and things like that which I don't know anything about and don't intend to learn, any more than I intend to learn the metric system.

In fact, some reputable scientists want those exploring scientists to stop, saying it's dangerous and may lead to no telling what, maybe an entirely different type of human being.

Here we are, nearly 500 years after Columbus discovered America and proved the world was round, and, like those thinkers in Spain who argued that the world was flat and Columbus would sail off the edge if he kept going, we still have fraidy-cats.

Incidentally, I've often wondered why some school boys back then, on being told you'd plunge off the edge of the earth if you kept sailing outward in a straight line, didn't raise his hand and ask his teacher if that was the case, then what kept the ocean from flowing over the edge and completely draining itself? You mean schools in those days weren't any more successful than schools today in teaching kids to think?

On the other hand, most of us today still believe pretty much what we're told. For example, everybody wants to save gasoline, so companies have now come out with tires and special brands of oil they claim will save gas. I myself am now trying to invent gas-saving rear view mirrors and windshield wipers.

Changing the subject, if I had one to start with, I notice that Congress has labored long and hard and come out with an unemployment bill. It doesn't end unemployment or tell how it ought to be achieved, but it does come out flat footedly for a goal of no more than 4 percent unemployment by 1980. I guess this is the first time in history Congress has stopped passing laws and started passing wishes.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Improved driving could cut gasoline bills by 10%

WASHINGTON (AP) — How do you like to save one of every two dollars you spend for gasoline? The Department of Energy says the amount you can gain by being a better driver.

The department says the average driver in the United States uses more than 1,000 gallons of gasoline a year. That total by 10 percent better driving habits, the government says. Assuming gasoline is 30 cents a gallon, you could trim your bill from $378 to $340.20.

The department is developing a course to help motorists improve driving skills to save energy. Six key tips:

• Anticipate stops, turns, lights, and lane changes and hills.
• Stay yourself from other traffic by an adequate distance from the front of you to allow you to stop smoothly and efficiently.
• Preserve momentum by avoiding unnecessary braking, turning and shifting.
• Accelerate through natural resistances of the engine, exhaust, road, tires and wind.

• Economize in motion. Start smoothly but briskly and get to cruising speed quickly. Keep a steady, light foot on the accelerator and a steady hand on the wheel.

• Fix up your car. Maintain proper tire pressure, reduce idle speed, set and timing and carburetor properly.

GET 'EM WHILE THEY LAST —

The Agriculture Department reports that it has a limited supply of booklets available which may be of interest to homeowners and prospective homeowners.

The booklets are available without charge, while they last, from the Publications Division, Room 506-A, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250. Among those available are:

- "Fireplaces and Chimneys."
- "Fire Resistant Construction of the Home... of Farm Buildings."

• "House Construction: How to Reduce Costs."

• "Wood Siding: Installing, Finishing, Maintaining."

• "Renovate an Old House."

• "Home Heating: Systems, Fuels, Controls."

• "Plumbing for the Home and Farmstead."

• "Simple Plumbing Repairs ... for the Home and Farmstead."

SHOPPING TIP — When shopping for toys this gift-giving season, the Commerce Department recommends that you look for labels that say the toy conforms with Voluntary Product Standard PS 72-76.

Many manufacturers have met the requirements and some toys now display labels indicating this.

Silverton Young Farmers News

The Silverton Young Farmers held its regular meeting Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the Ag Shop. The upcoming welding short course was discussed. It will be given by Royce Hart, a graduate of Texas A&M University, Dec. 5-8, at the Ag Shop in Silverton.

The Young Farmers will have a turkey shoot Saturday Dec. 17. Members present were Tobe Riddell, Calvin Shelton, John Thacker, Bailey Lloyd, Clinton Dickerson, Fred Hill, Fred Brannon, Orville Turner, Fred Minyard, Rick Fangman, Van Freedlove, and Jerry Bean.

NOVEMBER 10 MEETING

The Silverton Young Farmers held its regular meeting Tuesday Nov. 10 at 7:30 in the Pioneer Room. President Tobe Riddell introduced the guests, Mr. & Mrs. Edwin Roberson of Tahoka. Mr. Roberson is associated with Merrill Lynch, Inc. of Lubbock and spoke to the group on commodity hedging.

The blood drive and turkey shoot were discussed. A new sample vest was shown and approved for all members of the organization. Members present were Tobe Riddell, Calvin Shelton, Fred Hill, Orville Turner, Jeep Jarrett, G. W. Chappell, Fred Brannon, Van Freedlove, Clinton Dickerson, and Jerry Bean. Winners at the Nov. 19 turkey shoot were: Perry Brunson, Walter Dunham, Donald Thomas, Lynn

'Ag value' bill may up taxes

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — If Texas starts assessing rural land on its productivity instead of its value as real estate, tax rates would jump an average of 19 percent statewide, a House Study Group report says. Legislators passed an "ag value" taxation bill this year, but Attorney

John Hill placed 'On the Spot'

HOUSTON, Texas (AP) — Supporters of John Hill, a Democratic candidate for governor, gathered in 134 Texas cities Saturday to watch their candidate being put "On the Spot."

Hill said he would discuss the campaign and answer questions from a studio audience and from telephone calls. A studio audience of about 200 was in the studio (KPRC, Houston) where the program originated. It was carried live on 16 other stations.

Hill's campaign headquarters said $5 tickets were sold to the 278 "watch party-organizational meetings" in an effort to cover the $25,000 cost of the telecast.

General John Hill has ruled it unconstitutional.

The study group's 20-page report said that since school districts would have to make up the revenue lost by lowering assessed values of farms and ranches, the money would have to come from higher tax rates.

"Tax relief for farmers and ranchers would cause an increase in property tax rates averaging 19 per cent statewide. The amount of increase would vary tremendously in different parts of the state, from zero in some urban areas to 100 percent or more in certain rural areas," the report said.

It found that a third of the state's taxing districts would have to raise their tax rates by 65 per cent or more over what is required by assessment according to market value.

The study group report also said that the more relief given to farmers and ranchers, "the greater will be the burden on other residents of the district."

A constitutional amendment backing up the "ag value" bill failed largely because the bill would have allowed corporations to benefit from the tax break.

Whirlettes Down Fillies In Overtime Fashion, 55-53

By Doug Simpson

When Whirllette forward Kathy Davis ripped the court with a 25-foot jump shot with 3 seconds to play in regulation time, all bedlam erupted on the north side of Graves Gymnasium Tuesday night.

But truthfully, it couldn't have even been compared with the confusion that broke loose after the hosts took control in the overtime period, scoring three quick buckets, and hanging on for a narrow 55-53 win over Olton, in what will go down as one of the most memorable Floydada basketball games of this time.

Hometown fans were treated to a game that was characterized most by its final three minutes of regulation and the extra period that followed. The contest was a real test in the Whirlettes' awesome ability to turn a game around in a matter of moments.

An understandably pleased Linden Weese had plenty to say just after his girls had wiped out a previous 6-point deficit and gone on to win with incredible poise.

"We started playing a great deal more intensity in the fourth period," Weese remarked. "We had gained confidence and all our forwards (Poage, Davis, West) gave us big mental lifts. The guards also applied more pressure on defense." Weese went on to say that it was his team's best over all performance.

With 2:54 remaining in the see-saw battle, Olton had utilized its penetrating offense and 1-3-1 zone defense to take a 49-43 advantage. If ever there was a time for the hosts to begin doing something about it, this was definitely it!

And Kathy Davis, whose offensive ability had been temporarily halted for most of the contest by the tough Olton defensive front, made some things happen for her team in that little time left.

She started the rally with a 15 footer from the left side with 2:07 remaining. The Fillies went down the floor, missed a shot, and Tolya Hickerson pulled down the rebound and Floydada had regained possession. This time, Jill Poage ripped the next from 22 feet to narrow the deficit again, to 49-45.

Kim Curry followed with a turn-around jumper to make it a two-point ball game with 40 seconds left. Olton immediately called time to regroup.

The visitors brought it down the floor and for awhile did an excellent job of controlling possession to stall time. But with just 10 seconds to play, Rhonda Bennett came up with one of the very biggest plays, a steal at near-midcourt, to set up the winning points.

Davis responded with a 22 footer from the left side just under five ticks on the clock, much to the delight of the Whirllette boosters on the north side.

In overtime, a quick lead and a swarming defensive unit were about all it required to put the Fillies out of contention. Davis scored a couple of buckets in the three-minute period, and Jill Poage added another. Olton had one last chance to win with 10 seconds left.

The Fillies brought it down the floor, shot once, rebounded, put it up again, missed, and Rosemary Barnes recovered the ball and just hung on till the clock expired.

The completion of the Whirllette rally marked the fourth time Floydada has come from behind to win, and erased an earlier 35-23 halftime deficit and a 43-39 third quarter Olton advantage. Actually, the Whirlettes began about midway through the third period, with the hosts down 10 points.

Whirlwinds "Best Effort" Short 53-48

By Doug Simpson

No one can argue the fact that the Whirlwind varsity team continues to improve with experience and with the rugged level of competition which they must face.

But so far after six games, Floydada's boys' team has not managed to make those factors pay off in the victory column.

The Olton Mustangs survived three quarters of neck and neck competition and a late rally in which the Ponies' once-commanding lead had been short-ended, to defeat the winless Whirlwinds, 53-48 before onlookers at Graves Gym Tuesday night.

As indicative of past games, Floydada displayed its finest performance in the initial period. The outside shooting of Danny Emert, Quinn Coleman, and Kary Helms enabled their team to post an early 13-10 lead.

Olton recovered in the second stanza and outscored its opponents 17-14, but the Winds still managed to salvage a 27-27 halftime deadlock.

In the second half, Mike Cocanougher's troops were severely victimized by a poor shooting attack and the damage of Olton's hustling fast break offense.

Floydada made only 7 of 26 shots in the entire half. A very big play that gave Olton increased momentum came with 4:30 left. For the first scoring by either team in the period, the Mustangs completed a 3-point play that assured a 30-27 lead. They went on to lead 40-37 as the buzzer sounded.

Although the Whirlwinds were very potent from the line, hitting 6 of 8 in the final period, they made only 3 of 13 field shots in that quarter, resulting in a 9-point performance.

Olton took advantage of the situation nicely, controlling possession and hanging in on in the final minute to grab a well earned 5-point victory.

JV Girls Win Home Opener, 26-9

Floydada's junior varsity girls squad took command of Tuesday afternoon's showdown with a 3-AA foe Olton from the very opening tip-off, displaying superb defensive play, and going on to win by the commanding margin of 26-9 in their first home game of the season.

The win raised their season ledger to 1 win and a loss, and was accomplished through excellent rebounding ability on both ends of the floor and a swarming style of play, particularly, once again, on defense.

Kelly Higginbotham and Darla Assiter scored four points apiece en route to a 10-4 advantage after an entire period.

In the second frame, the Whirlettes did not register as high a shooting norm, but hit 75 percent of their free throws to go into the locker room leading 15-7.

Karen Turner scored 7 of her team's 11 third quarter points and along with Assiter and Higginbotham provided rebounding strength for an eventual 26-7 lead.

In the final period, Floydada did not manage to score at all. Coach Linden Weese began substituting to give his players experience and the Whirlettes were only able to put up a few shots from the field. Defensively, however, they were just as superb, allowing only 2 Ol-

Breezers Split With Lockney

Floydada's Junior High boys' basketball squads traveled to Lockney Monday, and came home with a win and a loss, the 7th grade team coming out victorious by a 29-19 count.

In that game, Donnell Weeks had 10 points, Bruce Williams contributed 9, Marty Covington, 6, and Andy Dominguez, 4.

The score after an entire half of play stood 16-7 in favor of Floydada, and Mike Brownlee's troops were able to increase that advantage by 3 points in the second frame.

Brownlee praised the defensive performances of Grant Turner and Andy Dominguez.

The 8th grade squad didn't fare quite as well, in a losing effort to Lockney, 41-35. The loss left Floydada with an 0-2 mark, and the 7th grade is currently 2-0.

Norman Allen and Todd Beedy tied for the scoring honors with 8 points apiece. Ronnie Minner added 7, Bill Collins had 6, Carlos Rainwater chipped in 4, and Mark Nutt finished with 2.

Both Breezers teams will host Idalou next Monday at Graves Gym, beginning at 5 p.m.

Freshman Winds Edge Lockney, 34-33

Tommy Faxter's freshman Whirlwind basketball team withstood a ferocious fourth quarter comeback by arch rival Lockney to take a narrow 34-33 victory in a district 4-AA contest played Monday night at Lockney Gym.

The contest improved Floydada's season record to 1-1 and climaxed an exciting battle which saw the visiting 'Horns go ahead of the winners in the final two minutes of the game.

It was several key defensive steals and a pair of free throws by Michael Self that enabled the 'Winds to finally take command in the final minute of play.

Previously, the hosts had led by as much as 10 points. Next Monday, Floydada will host 4-AA foe Idalou at Graves Gym, tip-off will be at 7:30 p.m.

Cal Farley's Boy's Ranch Needs New Suits For The Boys

The annual drive to outfit all of the 370 boys of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with new suits began today. Purchasing new suits for the boys with donations of $35.00 is a favorite way for many friends of the Ranch to help at Christmas time. "His first suit is something a boy never forgets."

Virgil Patterson, Ranch President, said, "We want to make it a happy Christmas, not only for the boys now living at the Ranch, but also for new boys who will be coming to us during the coming year." Amarillo department stores cooperate with the Christmas Suit Fund by giving special discounts on boys' suits. Other boys will receive gift packages of clothing that will include shirts, ties, jackets, trousers or other articles needed by them.

"A new suit or clothing package is the best Christmas gift any of our boys will receive," Mr. Patterson said. "It is a year-round reminder of those who really care." Donations to the Christmas Suit Fund may be mailed to the Boys Ranch Office, P.O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas 79174, or be taken to the office at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C.-- in one form or another, doom has always been a best seller and, in many instances, profitable. The production and distribution of doom have sales outlets to be admired by Sears, Wards and General Motors.

The doom ideas crop up in religious, political and economic versions. For decades, it has appeared in population projections, I.Q. studies and weather. Universal doom-day -- the end of the world -- at a specific time has been sold to thousands on innumerable occasions. No one's money was ever refunded when the time came and went uneventfully. We would assume that there have been many customers satisfied with the mere foreboding.

Why doom is popular evidently remains a trade secret -- like the flavoring of Coca Cola or the batter used on Colonel Sanders' fried chicken.

The prophets of doom have been maintained by constantly updating classic models. When science became sort of a religion, doom began to appear in graphs, equations and computer printouts. The trick of sounding specific while being vague has taken on statistical dimensions. For instance, we may be told that 40 million Americans are gored to death by bulls each year and another indefinite number pulverized by pile drivers or otherwise subjected to death, disease and pestilence. Some of these can be found in "movements" and social agencies and in Government.

Facts might be called a rival product but are more often defeated in attempts to compete with the doom-sayers. Population explosions have, since the 18th century, been a favorite in the doom industry and continue to be in many parts of the world.

In the 1930's, an underpopulation model was marketed with equal success. Doom was promised on the basis of declining growth which would reduce demand and bring on massive unemployment throughout the western world. This idea was endorsed by the economist, John Keynes, and by a representative of the American Economic Association.

Within a little more than two decades, overpopulation staged a comeback under the same argument advanced by Malthus in the 18th century.

Promoters of doom usually have only to produce the theories but prove nothing. Some are like the temperature having risen 15 degrees since early morning and, should it continue at that same rate, we would all be burned to a crisp before the

Area Towns Pledge $87,000 Annually To Juvenile Center

By JEFF SOUTH
Avalanche-Journal Staff

NEIGHBORING governments already have promised to give Lubbock County $87,000 a year to help run the region's proposed juvenile detention center -- a pledge far surpassing local expectations. Commissioners courts of nine counties surrounding Lubbock have passed resolutions supporting the project, and two others have indicated they soon will do the same.

"I'm thoroughly delighted with the response we've received," Lloyd Watts, administrator of the Lubbock County Juvenile Probation Department and an organizer of the proposal, said Monday.

Pledges Still Coming
"At first, I thought we'd be lucky to get $70,000 out of the surrounding counties. But we're already well past that -- and pledges are still coming in," he said.

Counties represented in the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG), the umbrella organization pushing for a regional facility for juvenile detention, aren't the only parties interested in getting in on the proposal. "Watts said four counties outside the immediate SPAG area have offered money in exchange for reservations at the $1 million facility Lubbock County plans to build and open by September, 1979.

And the Texas Youth Council (TYC) also wants to use any available space at the center for detention of youths from other parts of the state, he said.

SPAG Gets First Choice
But Watts said the juvenile center won't be opened up to agencies outside SPAG until all of the 14 counties around Lubbock have had an opportunity to participate in the project.

So far, he said, written commitments have been received from Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Motley, Cochran, Hockley, Crosby, Terry and Lynn counties.

Also, Floyd and Dickens counties have given "oral indications" of support and probably will respond with resolutions in the "near future," Watts said.

Only King, Yoakum and Garza counties remain uncommitted. "Financially, this project is so well girded I don't see how it can go wrong," Watts said.

Besides strong support from outlying counties, local agencies have rallied behind the juvenile detention proposal, he added.

On Monday, Watts met with Superintendent Ed Irons and other top administrators of the Lubbock Independent School District.

They gave their "unqualified support" to Project Intercept, the district's new alternative school for problem students, and agreed to move the special educational program to the proposed detention center, Watts said.

He added that architects will begin designing the juvenile center next month on authorization from the Governor's Crimi-

Full Parity MUST BE DEMANDED!

It should be clear that no one is going to GIVE 100% of parity to farmers. Farmers and ranchers must get it for themselves. To do that, we must control our own commodities and simply NOT SELL them until a fair price is offered. It is the system of the free enterprise which everyone enjoys EXCEPT THE FARMER.

IF YOU WANT A FAIR PRICE, it is crucial that you join us on December 14. At that time farmers across the nation will stop their tractors. Cattlemen, especially the cow-calf man and feeders if possible, should halt all sale of cattle. Picketing is scheduled to stop the unloading of imported beef. Farmers and ranchers will not buy any agricultural equipment, and only purchase the bare necessities needed for their families.

AGRICULTURE MUST FLEX ITS ECONOMIC MUSCLE TO SLOW THE FLOW OF FOOD AND DEMAND THE ATTENTION OF THOSE WHO CARE ONLY ABOUT THEIR MONEY!

THESE EVENTS WILL MARK THE COUNTDOWN TO STRIKE:

December 1 &amp; 2	Country &amp; Western Music Benefit 12 Noon and 10 PM Texas Stadium Irving, Texas
December 10	Agriculture Rally 2 PM State Capitol Austin, Texas
December 14	THE STRIKE BEGINS!

Isn't it odd that USDA crop reports tell of surplus throughout the farmer's peak marketing period... and then the Soviets come into the picture to get part of the "surplus" before it's gone?

Isn't it strange that Japan buys grain from America and resells it to their own mills for twice as much?

Isn't it to everyone but the farmer's advantage to take advantage of the way a "surplus" suppresses the futures market to buy cheap and sell high.

WE THINK IT'S TIME WE SAY NO! WE SAY NO SELL! NO TO BUYING EQUIPMENT! NO TO IMPORTS! AND NO TO WORKING FOR NOTHING!

Dear Santa,
I'm only 15 months old so I'm little to write this letter, so I got my big sister, Shawnda, to write it while I dictate it to her.

I've been a good little stinker, at least that is what my Mommy and Daddy say. So I would like a little car that I can ride on in the house, some pull toys, to and if you have plenty to go around a little red wagon, so my big brother can pull me around in it.

I will have my little stocking hanging up, so I would appreciate it if you would fill it up with little soft candies. I will have some fudge, and a little glass of milk out on the snack bar so you won't get hungry while your delivering all the other little boys and girls toys.

Well thats all I want this year, just be sure and bring my big brother a football, and my sister some clothes.

Love,

Dear Santa,
I have tried to be a good boy this year. Would you please bring me a Dallas Cowboy zipper bag and a race car. I will leave you a bunch of things to eat. Please be sure to come to my Nannys house.

Saturday Movies For Kids

It has been several years since kids could go to the movies on Saturday in Floydada. But through the cooperation of 26 local businesses kids (12 years and under) can go to the movies free on Saturday, December 10 & 17.

Walt Disney films and cartoons will be featured each Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Massie Activity Center. Movie showing times will be at 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., and 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Adult supervision will be provided at all showings, so parents and grandparents will be able to leave their children at the movies while they do their Christmas shopping.

The Multi-purpose Service Center will sell movie concessions at "old fashioned" movie prices.

Businesses sponsoring the event are: Office & Art Supply Center, Arwine Drug, Bishop Ramsey Pharmacy, Thompson Pharmacy, Stewart Printing, Hale's Department Store, Bealls Department Store, Anderson's Department Store, Betty's Place, Dyson Boot Shop, Sears Catalog Sales Store, Kirk and Sons Hardware, Higginbotham Bartlett Co., Oden Chevy-Olds, Royes Merle Norman Gifts, The Hanging Basket, Mize T.V. Sales & Service, Kirtley's Market, Piggly Wiggly, Buddy's Food, Parker Furniture, C & J Floral Service, City Auto, Builder's Mart, and Daniel Auto Parts.

Deliver to Santa

Dear Santa Clause,
I have worked every day like I was supposed to and sometimes I worked harder than I was supposed to. I have looked and looked for what I want and am unable to find it. Now I must ask for your help.
Here is my Christmas wish! In my stocking Christmas morning I would like to see 2 or 3 Registered Nurses-any age-any color or creed-and able to hold a pen in hand.
I will leave you a dozen cookies and a cup of hot chocolate.

Dusty Rhoades Campaign

Sponsors Flag Design

Some students in the Floydada Public Schools in the fifth grade, junior high, and high school, have completed turning in their ideas on a design for a Floyd County Flag. This flag is being designed to hang in the office of the next representative to the U.S. Congress from this area, and is sponsored by the Dusty Rhoades to Congress Campaign.

Students were given only a few days and in some cases only a class period to come up with their ideas and then to put them down on paper. It is very interesting to see what students feel Floyd County is best represented by.

In the fifth grade it seems the students are more impressed with color rather than symbols, seals, mottos, etc. There were a few flags showing the various crops raised in this area and some with the names of the football teams (Whirlwinds and Longhorns). Several of the fifth graders had shown the communities in the area, pictures of local crops, or activities in Floyd County. Overall the fifth graders all used the name Floyd County on their map and then drew things or used beautiful colors to surround the name. Some of the best mottos were: "Floyd County-Land of Freedom and Love"; "Floyd County-The Agricultural Gateway to the Plains"; and "Floyd County-Land of Cotton." One student had a very unique idea when he planned his flag. He showed the way farmers plowed and watered back when farming began in Floyd County, and then on the opposite side he showed the present ways of farming.

During the Christmas and New Year weekends, thousands of Texas motorists will be burning their headlights day and night as a visible reminder to others to drive safely. Join this effort to make the Holidays accident-free.

Don't Take Chances with Antifreeze

AUSTIN—With winter coming, many consumers are scurrying to buy antifreeze for their automobiles. But be sure the brand you select won't let your car freeze up and leave you boiling mad, says Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

If the price seems extremely low, and you're not familiar with the brand, better check to see if it meets certain minimum standards, states Brown. Consumers may call any Texas Department of Agriculture regional office or the TDA Weights and Measures Section in Austin (512-475-6577) to see if a brand is registered.

By law, all antifreeze offered for sale in the state must be registered with the TDA and must meet rigid standards.

"With the high cost of autos and equipment today, it is vital to know what goes into the radiators," Brown said. "If a brand of antifreeze is registered, consumers can be assured that it will offer freeze protection to within two degrees of the specifications stated on the label."

Brown added that TDA regulations require that an antifreeze not foam excessively, and contain corrosion inhibitors.

If too much moisture condenses on the inside of your bottle terrarium, remove the top for a few hours until it clears.

TDA Opposes Enforcement Of Outdated Water Law

EL PASO—"It is reasonable to enforce federal irrigation guidelines which were set up 75 years ago?"

This was one of the questions posed by Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown in testimony presented Nov. 16 at the regional reclamation hearing held here by the U.S. Dept. of the Interior.

Brown questioned whether it was reasonable for the Interior Department to restrict ownership of irrigation land on Reclamation Bureau projects by "guidelines set three-quarters of a century ago."

Landowners in four Texas counties—El Paso, Hudspeth, Reeves and Tom Green—are protesting the Interior Department's plans to begin enforcement of the 75-year-old Reclamation Act of 1902. Under rules announced by the Department in August, farmers owning over 160 acres will not be allowed to sign contracts to receive irrigation water from government projects until they dispose of the excess land under a lottery system, with the sale price set by the Interior Department.

Your Pecan Pies Deserve Only the Best

AUSTIN—Texas pecan trees are putting forth an abundant crop this year, and you can be sure homemakers throughout the state will be baking up plenty of delicious pecan pies.

But Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown says to be sure the pecans going into those pies are the best possible. To aid in selecting top-quality pecans, he offers the following tips:

1. When buying pecans in the shell, be sure the shells are intact and free from mold and insect damage.
2. Be sure shelled pecans are not discolored or soft.
3. Before storing shelled nuts, be sure they are thoroughly dry and sealed in air-tight containers. Pecans easily turn rancid if exposed to warm, wet air.

growth." Brown said Texas farmers needed time to change the law, "to bring it into the realities of this decade."

Dusty Rhodes Supporters

Open Office Friday

Several residents from Floyd County will be joining supporters of congressional aspirant A.L. (Dusty) Rhodes from the 32 other counties in the 17th district Friday, December 9th when they travel to Abilene for the grand opening of the "Rhodes to Congress" campaign headquarters in that city. A musical arrangement will begin the festivities at 6:30 followed by the ribbon-cutting officially opening the doors of the campaign offices. A number of speeches will be made by leading residents of the 17th district, followed by a speech by Rhodes. Music and refreshments will round out the event.

walls of the building. Those flags will later hang in Rhodes' office in Washington if elected.

Rhodes, an Abilene businessman, was the first of six hopefuls who have announced for the 17th congressional race. He announced his candidacy on the Democratic ticket August 16th.

Day's Prices, It Pays

Know Facts on Firewood

If you think heating oil is what you looked at recently?

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown says that wood logs for the home fireplace are fast becoming a luxury fuel because of cost. Selling at an average of $30 to $35 a cord two years ago, mixed loads of green and dry firewood are now ranging from $60 to $95 over the state, with some quotes as high as $120 a cord, he said.

Brown, whose department regulates weights and measures in the state, advised consumers to be aware of how much wood makes up a legal cord, and avoid buying by the pickup load or rick. "A rick can be a rip-off since there is no legal definition of that measurement," Brown warned. "And how many logs are in a pickup load?"

A legal cord of wood is defined as a reasonably tight stack of logs measuring four feet wide, four feet high and eight feet long, or 128 cubic feet.

OF BOOKS

From Patch to Pot ($5.95), by Lloyd Dinkins, is a complete guide for backyard vegetable gardeners, with full coverage of growing, canning, and freezing home-grown produce.

The book contains tables showing how to protect home garden plots from pests, how many vegetables are needed for various size families, and how to store many fruits and vegetables under natural conditions.

A chapter called "Good Ideas for Gardeners" tells how to stretch the tomato-growing season, how to grow a weed-free garden under plastic sheet mulch, and how to build a cold frame for sturdier plants. Another chapter tells how to grow many vegetable

IT'S THE LAW!

In an effort to protect America's environment, some people are supporting legislation that could waste America's resources.

AMERICA MIGHT BE BETTER OFF if some laws were off the books.

According to the Du Pont Company, the Federal Water Pollution Law that will require by 1983 installation throughout industry of the "best available" technology, does not take into account that by 1983 many of the nation's waterways will either be clean enough to be enjoyed by both people and wildlife, or polluted by natural or municipal sources which industrial devices cannot control.

Requiring technologies and costs that don't result in tangible benefits to environmental safety and public health is a waste that diverts scarce resources from other national priorities—productive growth, energy conservation, formation of jobs and control of inflation.

Fairview News

By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

Most of the cotton has been harvested in Fairview community.

Weather conditions have been good, however, a rain for the wheat crop would be nice.

Weather conditions in the state of Washington are bad at this time and flooding has ruined many homes and property. Our niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pierce and children are near that area as they live on high ground they are not in danger at this time.

Last report, Sunday, from my brother, P.L. Joiner, who is in a hospital at Eugene, Oregon, with a heart attack is that he is improving nicely and is looking forward to going home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy and Mrs. Bill Tye went to Slaton Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. A.E. Pruitt, grandmother of Weldon Pruitt.

Mrs. Verna Lee Cardinal returned home Sunday evening by plane, from Houston where she spent two weeks with her son, Jerry Cardinal and her daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Branch, Jerry had surgery on his jaw while his mother was there. Mrs. Cardinal also visited her granddaughter and their families while in that area. She visited at Conroe with Mr. and Mrs. Armond Jone and family and at Victoria with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cantrell and family. Mrs. Cardinal and Jerry spent Thanksgiving Day in the Gary Cantrell home.

Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls visited Mrs. Clyde Bagwell Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Larry Walls and son of Plainview visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls Saturday.

Mrs. C.H. Wise visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Roe Jones, Mrs. Berch Gilliland and Mrs. Dink Eckert and son, Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker and Mrs. Phillip Wilson spent Sunday at Lubbock Methodist Hospital with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Gracie Riggle who was transferred there last week from Central Plains Hospital in Plainview. Mrs. Baker remained over night and Monday to be with her mother. Mrs. Wilson said the report from tests run on her grandmother this morning were good, but she will be in the hospital for a while yet.

Jack Moore visited in the E.W. Walls home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Randell Warren of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lud Warren Sunday and had dinner with them, the occasion being Mrs. Bud Warrens birthday.

Mrs. Jewell Teague visited Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Graham Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Watts went to Lubbock Saturday night and visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bass.

Lecky Crabtree spent Friday night at Sandhill with Barbara Schwertner. Renee Sanders and Kristi Julian of South Plains were also there.

Visitors during the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Graham were Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hullucks, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Huckabee, Mrs. Mable Redwine, Mrs. S.L. Holmes Jr. all of Floydada and Gene Collins Jr. of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baxter. The Baxters had

PEANUT SEMINAR TO FEATURE PRODUCTION MYTHS—Some light will be shed on popular peanut production myths that have cropped up over the years during a special seminar December 13-14 at the Marriott Hotel, Coit Road and L.J. Freeway, Dallas. The program will feature three panel discussion groups who will deal with myths related to the three major phases of production—planning and preparation to stand establishment, stand establishment to harvesting, and harvesting to marketing, notes an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Meetings Set On Farm Bill

AMARILLO—Choices farmers in the Texas Panhandle can make about the best products to raise and how to market them more profitably this year will be explored at a meeting here Dec. 14 & 15.

A feature of the public meeting, to be held at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd. West, will be an explanation of the 1977 Federal Farm Bill and its implications to farmers in the Panhandle.

Extension agricultural economists and marketing specialists from Texas A&M University, College Station, will conduct the program.

Paul E. Gross, district agricultural Extension agent here, said. They are Dr. William E. Black, Project Leader in Marketing and Economist-Marketing and Policy, and Dr. Ronald D. Knutson, Economist-Marketing Policy and Research. They will analyze the current farm marketing situation and direct the discussion of the future outlook.

The program is arranged so that farm producers, Extension agents and others interested in agriculture can attend all or portions of the meeting, Gross said.

From 1 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, December 14, Black and Knutson will explain marketing alternatives which are open to the farmers.

At 7 p.m. Wednesday, December 14, Knutson will summarize the provisions and affects of the new farm bill.

Thursday, December 15, the program will begin at 9 a.m. and adjourn at 3 p.m., with a recess for lunch. It will include discussion groups on farm marketing, recommendations for production in each county in the Panhandle, and questions and answers.

CATTLE MAY NEED VITAMIN A—Beef cattle may not be getting enough vitamin A in their diets this fall due to drought conditions and lack of green forage, says a beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. So producers may want to supply a supplemental source of vitamin A for cows since the vitamin is particularly important to reproduce.
