MONTHLY FEATURE: SALUTES

Sheriff's Department

Floyd County residents are protected by one of the best sheriff's departments in this area, who keep vigil on the county night and day. The staff of four men and four women are on duty around the clock and are equipped with good radio and other communications equipment.

They not only have good communications from headquarters to patrol cars, but with other police and sheriff's departments in this area of the state.

The four women maintain the radio and help cook for and feed the prisoners in the jail kitchen. (The men also help feed the prisoners) Louise Newton has been with the department a little over three years, Eunice Lewis 1 1/2 years, Mary Corine Mankins a little over a year and Irene Miller four years.

Sheriff Fred Cardinal is finishing a two year appointed term and is seeking re-election to a full four year term. He has been in law enforcement 12 years and has lived in Floyd County many years.

Deputy James Hale came with the department back in December and had worked part time for 15 months. Deputy Olan Poteet has been with the department two years and in law enforcement 17 years. Deputy David Hart has been with the department 1 1/2 years and six years in law enforcement. He and James are Floyd County natives, both graduated from Floydada High School.

The sheriff's salary is $862 a month and the deputies receive $735 a month. They own their own autos and receive 15 cents per mile travel allowance.

The county jailhouse, where the department headquarters has been condemned by the state jail inspector and plans are currently being approved for remodeling the 52 year-old jailhouse.

There has been an average of eight prisoners a day in the jailhouse this year.

ground available, groups without any accompaniment, gospel, classical, country and western and anything that is available to help make the show a success.

Anyone interested is urged to attend this Monday meeting. If it's not possible the first time, there will be practice sessions each week until April 24. "We want to keep the program flexible because we really don't know what kind of talent and musical interests we have in the Floyd county area," Rick Son added. The idea, according to the coordinators, is for everyone to have fun and to encourage vocal music in this area.

"Our school officials tell us vocal music instruction will be given in the Floydada schools if enough students express an interest, so we would like for our young people to participate with us, and maybe show us "old folks" how to have fun in music," Ratzlaff concluded.

COMMUNITY CONCERT MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

The organizational meeting and first practice session for a community concert will be held Monday night, 7:30 in Duncan elementary school auditorium. It was announced this week by Coordinators Rick Son and Art Ratzlaff.

The project is sponsored by the Floydada Lions club. The concert will be held April 24 and will be free to all. "All we want to do is have fun, fellowship and give those who like to sing, play or otherwise perform musically a chance and place to do so," said Art Ratzlaff. The program is not connected with any church or special interest. Music will range from smaller groups of octettes, sextettes, quartets, duets, trios, and solos, to a community choir doing things like Norman Luboff's "Dixie", a couple of spirituals, some gospel songs, and a classical piece by Handel.

There will be instrumental back-

El Progreso Elects Officers

The El Progreso Study Club met February 22 in the home of Anna Dell Quebe for a tasting bee. "Happiness is like a potato salad—share it and you have a picnic" was the theme of the meeting.

After an invocation by Bobbye Kellison, the members enjoyed many delicious foods prepared by individuals. Recipes for each dish were exchanged.

Following the meal, Juanita Jenkins, president, conducted a business meeting. After the roll call and reading of the minutes, several items were discussed and voted on. A $25 donation to the Lockney Cemetery Association was approved. The name of Cornelia Johnson was submitted as a prospective member.

A slate of new officers for the club year 1978-79 was presented by the nominating committee and elected: Anna Dell Quebe, president; Polly Gilbert, vice president; Kathrine Ball, secretary; Bobbye Kellison, treasurer; Juanita Jenkins, critic-palamentarian; and Hazel Johnson, reporter.

Because of bad weather and canceled meetings, several changes were announced for the yearbook. The next meeting will be in the home of Alice Mitchell with Josie Taylor having the program on Southwestern Bell Telephone. The meeting closed with the reading of Club Women's Collect.

The members present were Polly Gilbert, Bobbye Kellison, Kathrine Ball, Josie Taylor, Juanita Jenkins, Faye Ferguson, Dimon Schacht, Arla Copeland, Hazel Johnson, Dorothy Smith and Anna Dell Quebe.

SAVE HOME ENERGY SEMINAR SET-

INTERIOR DESIGN & DECOR CAN SAVE ENERGY

How interior design and decor can save energy will be included in two programs during the morning session only of the "SAVE HOME ENERGY" seminar Tuesday, March 7, from 9:35 to 11:30 a.m. Registration and coffee will be from 9:00-9:30 a.m.

Interior design in a home influences energy use—particularly color, lighting, window treatment and surface coverings, and all of these elements make a difference—in "feel" and in fact.

Cool blues and greens make a room seem cooler, just as reds and yellows make the room warmer—and experts say the colors really do make a temperature difference. Also, light absorbing colors make areas seem warmer and smaller, so a light color on walls and ceilings will result in a brighter, more usable room without increasing artificial lighting.

Smooth fabrics seem cold, while heavily textured ones seem warmer. In the same way, heavy and dark wall coverings absorb light and require "extra" light.

How much furniture, and where it is placed, effect room temperature, too. Crowded rooms look small and warm while sparsely furnished areas seem colder. Heavy, dark furnishings make for a crowded, warm feeling.

In lighting fixture, fluorescent lighting is more efficient than incandescent lighting. One large bulb gives more light than several small ones. However, something very interesting is happening in the lighting field as in other fields. This year, you will be able to purchase an incandescent bulb that uses 60 percent less energy and will have a longer life. Through a special process developed by one company, a bulb with the new coating can produce the light of a conventional 100 watt bulb BUT will use only 40 watts of electricity AND will have a life of 2500 hours as compared to 1000 hours for conventional bulbs. The price?? The company estimates from $3.50 to $4.00 each.

Like the lighting field, every other energy field is developing new techniques, new products, and new concepts that will cause you and me—the consumers—to become well informed and wise owls if we are to get the most for our dollars spent and meet our individual needs.

Other topics include how to select insulation and determining amount needed for your home, how to solve ventilation and moisture problems, how to select and place trees, shrubs, and other plants to assist in saving energy inside the home, heating/air conditioning and solar products available, their use, cost and maintenance. In addition special information on making your fireplace work for you—both summer and winter will be presented.

These topics will be presented in the afternoon and evening sessions from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. and 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The Floyd County Family Living Committee and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, sponsors of this special program designed especially for Floyd and surrounding counties of the High Plains area, urge you to attend these sessions whether you own or rent your home and/or your business. Energy-saving information and techniques are for everyone.

There will be a registration fee of $1.00 per person for each of the two sessions. For $2.00 you can have the benefit of seven (7) hours of valuable information that can save you hundreds of dollars on your annual energy bills.

Seminar speakers will be Dr. Bill Stewart, agricultural engineer; Dr. Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist, and Glenda Moore, housing specialist, all of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

mply means that as a whole earns e into circulation onest production times honest prices. Then and only then can the nation provide markets for its labor and production without the necessity of excessive debt expansion which creates illiquidity of banks, business and industry.

Money, like the rain must recycle. Money either gets into circulation by earning it from production times honest prices, or everyone is forced to go into debt and borrow money into circulation. This is how we have managed to create a 4,000 Billion Gross Public and Private Debt. This is why it now takes over $250 billion in interest costs each year to service debt.

Interest is now the biggest industry in the world and it is going to bring about a collapse such as the world has never known. Interest to service all debt is greater than the profits and savings of our entire Private Enterprise system. In 1976 we added $362 billion to the total gross debt and we couldn't even re-employ our unem- ployed.

... THE WALLS AND CEILINGS
The outside walls of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME meet standards according to three options. The first option uses 6 inch studs with 6 inch batt-type (R-19) insulation. Option two has 4 inch studs and 3 inch insulation (R-11) with 3/4 inch styrofoam sheathing. The third option uses R-15 minimum insulation with any other method. All options include a vapor barrier of 6 mil. polyethylene or foil-backed sheetrock. Sill insulation or sill caulking between the bottom plate and the floor also is required. The ceiling is insulated with R-30.

... THE DOORS AND WINDOWS
Outside doors and all windows on the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME are weather stripped and caulked. In addition, double pane glass or storm windows and insulated core or storm doors are vital contributors to the dollar-wise built to save ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME. A recommendation is made that maximum glass area comprise 8% or less of floor space.

... THE FLOORS
The very foundation of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME — the floor — is an important factor in saving energy and money. Slab floors contain vermiculite in the cavity between bricks and slab up to the top of the floor. An alternate is a layer of rigid urethane or styrofoam (minimum of 3/4 inch thickness) from top of floor along the outside edge of the slab down to the brick ledge. Wood floors (pier and beam) must be insulated with R-13.

If you're planning to buy or build a new home, you start by taking a really good look inside. Because the key to comfort and saving is INSIDE . . . INSIDE the doors and windows, under the floor and in the ceiling. So peek INSIDE the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME — really INSIDE. You can see that it's BUILT TO SAVE — Energy and Money.
