READ THIS ONE up at a church in Lubbock Monday. Possibly the most accurate forecast ever made when God told Noah to build the ark because of the 100% precipitation.

WEDNESDAY when Sheriff Fred Cardinal spoke to the Rotarians about the drug and liquor problems in Floyd county, he also mentioned that everyone should ask for the city permit when a door to door salesman approaches you.

He especially urged folk to check with his office, if they are suspicious of a salesman.....he cited problems more recently with insulation salesmen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING at the Bob Kendrick wildcatter? It seems that the fracturing with some 16,000 barrels of water has been completed and now liquid nitrogen is being shot into some formations.

THE SHERIFF DIDN'T ASK ME... but I gave him a tip on who robbed the Dougherty firms Monday night. I told Fred they were tall and probably skinny. How do I know? Here's the clue, they stole two basketballs at the Dougherty school.

MOST FARMERS I TALK to figure we received at least an inch of moisture from the big snow. However, the official rain gauge only shows .4. Now you all know that was a blowing snow and likely a lot of it didn't get in the rain gauge. Don't you think I should add another .6 to the official moisture for the year?

Il Penseroso Has Cake Decorating Program

Susan Flippin was in charge of the program Thursday night when Il Penseroso Junior Study Club members met at the Flippin home in the Providence community. Brenda Elam was co-hostess.

Susan discussed cake decorating and showed various cake pans, decorating equipment and pictures of decorated cakes. Cathy Barnett completed the decorating of a birthday cake while those present watched. Each lady also helped ice the cake and then enscrined her initial on an iced cupcake. The prize of basic decorating equipment items was given to Cheryl Bradley—not for the best job of decorating, but because her cupcake paper liner was of a different color than the others.

Mrs. Flippin also shared the recipe for decorator's icing: 2 lb. bag of powdered sugar, 1 cup Crisco, 1 tsp. vanilla and 1/2 cup evaporated milk. Use mixer (not hand mixer) to whip for about 5 minutes. This makes a double batch, which stores well in the refrigerator for a long period of time. If icing is to be white, a prettier icing can be achieved by using white vanilla, and substituting water for the evaporated milk. Use slightly less than 2/3 cup water.

Guests for the program were Cathy Barnett, Robin Stoerner, Ginger Mathis and Cynthia Bybee. They joined the club members in answering roll call of "I've best birthday party I've ever had."

A sandwich loaf decorated with creamed cheese to resemble a basket, chips, cake, soft drinks and coffee were served to Sheryl Bybee, Cheryl Bradley, Anita Bigham, Gayle Jackson, Barbara Coffman, Kay Martin, Janette Workman, Judy Jackson, Betonia Belt, the hostesses and the guests.

Special guests were Miss Carthel's grandmothers, Mrs. Sally Miller of Gonzales and Mrs. Hershel Carthel of Plainview, and Mrs. Odie Chasteen of Lubbock, maternal grandmother of the prospective groom. They wore corsages of yellow daisies and acacia tied with yellow tulle and satin.

Mrs. Mike Mathis, Miss D'Lyn Mathis and Mrs. Stan Reyes, cousins of the honoree, served refreshments. Homemade cinnamon rolls, nuts, hot spiced tea and coffee were served from a table laid with an embroidered white organdy cloth over yellow. The white napkins had "Ronnie and Cathy" and the wedding date, March 18, imprinted in gold. The centerpiece was a formal arrangement of yellow daisies and acacia in a silver urn. Silver appointments were used.

Mrs. Bryan Smith, Mrs. Raymond Lusk, Mrs. Marvin Gilbert, and Mrs. Jerry Cannon assisted in displaying gifts. Hostess gifts were a blender and a toaster.

Miss Carthel and her mother were given yellow daisy corsages with miniature rice bags in them.

NEWS 'N' NOTES
(by Sharon Hillis)

INFILTRATION & WINDOW SHADING
During recent weeks Floyd County Family Living Committee and I have been busy putting the finishing touches on the "SAVE HOME ENERGY" seminar to be conducted in Floyd County on March 7 for all County residents. Building contractors and dealers have extensive rating tables which show the amount of heat gained and lost by transmission for various kinds of building materials. Heat gain and loss by air infiltration is caused by air leakage through cracks and crevices. Infiltration causes from one quarter to one third of the total heat loss in a typical home.

Differences in outdoor and indoor temperatures can cause infiltration. When it's hot outside and cool inside, hot air leaks in. This requires air conditioners to operate more often.

Hot air in summer also brings in moisture, which causes the air conditioner to run more frequently, trying to wring out the moisture. Heat gain in summer and loss in winter can be reduced by caulking, weatherstripping and landscaping and by having a light colored roof and exterior.

Dr. Bill Stewart, Agricultural Engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will be providing two hours of additional valuable information to you about heat loss and gain, ventilation, moisture control, heating/air conditioning, solarizing your home, and fireplaces on Tuesday March 7 at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada. His programs will be presented from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

In thinking about window shading, the coolest and most effective begins OUTSIDE—but inside shading is effective, too. Protecting the inside of a house from solar heat gain can cut the summer cooling load—and shading is most effective if it is outside the windows.

Examples of external shading devices include canvas awnings, louvered type shutters, commercial "solar screens," and trees. Roof overhangs or trellises also give shading.

Inside a window, draperies, blinds, and shades can reflect most of the sunlight back outside the house rather than allowing it to heat the inside of a room.

Some examples of shading devices—and the percentage they reduce solar heat gain—are:

- white opaque roller shade—50 percent
- white lined drapery—33 percent
- venetian blind (slats at 45-degree angle)—18 percent
- Closed venetian blind—29 percent
- white translucent roller shade—44 percent

Dr. Everett Janne, Landscape Horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will be discussing landscaping ideas specifically for our West Texas Plains area including plant and tree selection, placement and care. Outside energy conservation treatments will become more important to us in the near future. And remember—it does require a few years to grow a tree or shrub. So "plan to plant now" and reap the benefits in a year or two.

Dr. Janne's presentations will be given from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. and from 7:45 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Other topics to be included in the Energy Seminar include insulating glass areas inside and outside the home from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Interior decor treatment energy conservation ideas will be presented from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

In addition, a special insulation program for existing and new homes will be presented during the evening sessions from 7:00 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

A registration fee of $1.00 per person for the day session and $1.00 per person for the night session will be charged at the door.

Each year for the past three years the Floyd County Family Living Committee has presented a special educational program for Floyd and surrounding counties families that is designed to meet the families needs. A day and time of year when most adults can attend is selected by the Committee. This year the educational program is the SAVE HOME ENERGY SEMINAR.

We hope you have made your plans already to join us for this highlight program of the year.

Educational programs sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all persons, regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin. Notification in advance has hereby been provided of a registration fee for both the day program and the night program.

ROSE PRUNING TIME—For top quality blooms, now is the time to prune hybrid tea roses, says a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Mid-February is rose pruning time in Central Texas while pruning in North Texas should be done in late February or early March. Cut back top growth to 12 to 15 inches above ground. Keep four to six healthy canes. Remove all dead, diseased and injured twigs and branches as well as any spindly growth at the base of the plant.

Business Histories To Be In Special Historical Book Section

A special section of the Floyd County Historical Book will be devoted to histories of past and present businesses in the county.

Since the businesses played a vital part in the building of the county, the project committee feels that it is very important that every story be told in this book.

Oldtime businesses should tell when the business was established, why it was established in Floyd County, some of the changes that have been made through the years, and possibly how the business contributed to the growth and development of the county.

An oldtime business may have extended credit to early settlers to help them get on their feet. If that is true, those times would be interesting in a story. Early day and present day photos would add interest to the story.

New businesses should tell why they have been located in Floyd County, and what influences might have contributed to the success of the business.

To help finance the book, it is necessary to charge for the business pages. Cost of a full page is $150, half page cost is $80 and a fourth page cost is $45. Deadline is March 15.

Members of the book committee are available to help in organizing or writing a business history. For more information, contact Nancy Marble at 983-2937.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, February 27, Rev. Fred Blake went to Tulla this Monday where he attended an all-day State Vacation Bible School Clinic. The South Plains Baptist Church will have Vacation Bible School from May 29-June 2.

The South Plains Baptist Church has set the spring revival date for April 2-9, with the Reverend Bob Griffith from Seth Ward Baptist Church in Plainview as evangelist. The church voted to have morning services at twelve o'clock noon, with luncheon served at the church each day.

Stanley Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanders, is an alternate in the County Spelling Bee which will be held in Lockney in March. Stanley attends Andrews Ward Elementary School.

Kenneth Bean's little house on the farm here at South Plains burned to the ground last Tuesday night despite the efforts of the Floydada Fire Department which came as soon as possible. The fire presumably was caused by the explosion of a small stove inside the building.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ABANDON

AB-109 (Sub-No. 1F)

Quannah, Acme and Pacific Railway Company hereby gives notice that on or about March 10, 1978, it intends to file with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C. 20423, an application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity, permitting the abandonment of a line of railroad extending from Railroad Mile Post G-728, plus 10 poles plus 700 feet, near Acme, Texas, to Railroad Mile Post G-833.2 near Floydada, Texas, a distance of approximately 104 miles, in Hardeman, Cottle, Motley, and Floyd Counties, Texas. The line for which the abandonment application will be filed includes the stations of Paducah, Texas at Mile Post G-766.1 and Floydada, Texas at Mile Post G-833.2.

The reasons for the proposed abandonment are the public convenience and necessity no longer require the continued operation of the line and the continued operation of the line would be a burden upon applicant.

The line of railroad has appeared on the System Diagram Map in Category 1 (§ 1121.20) (b) (1) since November 3, 1977.

The interests of railroad employees will be protected by appropriate conditions as set forth in Chicago, B. & O. R. Co., Abandonment, 257 I.C.C. 700 and the applicable provisions of the Rail Passenger Service Act.

Any interested person, in response to this notice, is entitled to take either of the following actions:

1. File with the Interstate Commerce Commission written comments containing:
 - (a) exact name and address of the commenting party;
 - (b) brief statement of interest in the abandonment or discontinuance proceeding;
 - (c) specific statement of position and summary of evidence with regard to any or all of the following:
 - (1) intent to offer financial assistance;
 - (2) environmental impact;
 - (3) impact on rural and community development;
 - (4) suitability of the properties for other public purposes; and
 - (5) recommended provisions for protection of the interests of employees.

Written comments will be considered by the Commission in all proceedings in developing conditions and in determining whether to conduct an investigation on its own motion. In the event an investigation is conducted, then the commenting party may participate in the proceeding as its interests may appear.

2. File with the Interstate Commerce Commission a petition requesting that the application and proposed abandonment be investigated.

The petition to investigate shall be in the form of a verified statement, and at minimum, contain:

- (a) identification of petitioner including its name, address and business;
- (b) statement of petitioner's interest in the abandonment or discontinuance proceeding; whether petitioner uses the involved service; and if it does not, information with respect to the group or public interest it represents;
- (c) specific reason(s) for requesting the institution of an investigation, including information with respect to petitioner's reliance on the involved service, with allegations of fact supported by an affidavit of personal knowledge of the facts;
- (d) any rebuttal of information or material submitted by applicant; and
- (e) request for oral hearing and reasons therefor if desired.

Upon receipt of a petition to investigate, the Commission shall determine the extent of the investigation to be instituted. Those parties filing petitions to investigate should be prepared to participate actively in either oral hearings or via the submission of additional material in the form of verified statements. Parties seeking information concerning the filing of petitions should refer to 49 CFR 1121.36.

Petitions to investigate and written comments should indicate the proceeding designation No. AB-109 (Sub-No. 1F) and should be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C. 20423 no later than April 14, 1978. Interested persons may file either a written comment or a petition to investigate with the Commission to become a party to this abandonment proceeding. A copy of each petition to investigate or written comment shall be served upon the representative of the applicant, D. E. Engle, Vice-President-General Counsel, St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company, 905 Olive Street - Suite 1023, St. Louis, Missouri 63101. Replies to comments or petitions, the latter shall be in the form of a verified statement, shall be filed with the Commission no later than April 24, 1978 and shall be served on all commenting parties and petitioners. The original and two copies of all petitions, comments and replies shall be filed with the Commission together with a certificate of service.

In the event a petition to investigate prepared in accordance with the above instructions is filed, then the Commission will conduct an investigation of the abandonment. Written comments filed with the Commission will be considered by the Commission in all proceedings in developing conditions and in determining whether the Commission should conduct an investigation on its own motion in the event no petition to investigate is filed. Additionally, if an investigation is conducted then parties filing comments may participate in the investigation as their interests may appear.

Persons desiring further information concerning abandonment procedures may contact the Interstate Commerce Commission's Section of Finance, Office of Proceedings or refer to the full abandonment and discontinuance regulations at 49 CFR Part 1121. Persons desiring information concerning financial assistance for the continued operation or acquisition of the involved line should contact the Commission's Rail Services Planning Office. The carrier's representative to whom inquiries may be made is D. E. Engle, Vice-President-General Counsel, St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company, 905 Olive Street - Suite 1023, St. Louis, Missouri 63101. Cotton ginners and allied industry people by the hundreds and guests by the thousands will converge on Lubbock's Memorial Civic Center March 10 and 11 for the 65th Annual Meeting of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association (TCGA). This is the convention's first appearance in Lubbock and attendance of 4,000 or more, some 800 greater than the previous record.

Ninety-three exhibitors will use over 28,000 square feet of floor space to show machinery, supplies and services related to cotton ginning, production and marketing.

Keynote speaker for the business session at 9:15 a.m. on Friday, March 10, in the Memorial Civic Center Theater will be Democratic Congressman David Bowen of Mississippi. Chairman of the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture, Charles Russell, National Cotton Council economist, will also speak at the session, directing his remarks at cotton export prospects and opportunities for 1978.

Presiding at the business session will be TCGA President Morris Jones of San Juan, Texas, and Vice President Gayle Craft of Plains.

A highlight for the ladies at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, March 11, in the Convention Center Banquet Hall will be a "Harvestfaire" featuring presentations by five food consultants on microwave and crepe cooking. Two microwave ovens will be given as door prizes.

For entertainment TCGA is bringing in "Grand Ol Opry" stars Jeannie Pruitt, Ronnie Profit and other musical groups to close out the meeting on Saturday night. Tickets to the performance will be free at exhibitor booths throughout both days of the convention.

Another special event is the "Last International Ginners Pinto Bean and Cornbread Cookoff" featuring cooks from all over Texas and a few out-of-state chefs.

Price has issued a special invitation to all members of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, saying "Every one will have a badge waiting, with only the name to be filled in at registration."

This is the first time in TCGA's 65-year history that its directors have chosen to hold the annual meeting outside Dallas, the headquarters city. The meeting was moved to San Antonio once in the 1930's and to Fort Worth once in the 40's, but both times it was because space was not available in Dallas.

Youth's Recovery Termed 'A Miracle'

(Notes taken from Avalanche-Journal Writer Jack Douglas)
 "It's a miracle" is the term used by the family, friends, doctors and staff at the Golden Age Nursing Home in Lubbock, when they look at Kyle Compton's situation.
 Kyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burwin Compton, 4513 47th St., Lubbock and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Eubanks of Floydada who were told by doctors that their 16-year old son and grandson would never again speak or recognize them because of extensive brain damage he suffered in a tragic five-car accident on Slide Road last September 4. The Coronado High School track star, it seemed, was destined to be what has been termed a "living vegetable." But no one told Kyle that.

 "One-Hundred and twenty-nine days after the surgery, I was working with his right arm," Mrs. Compton said. "I asked, 'does that hurt?' and he said 'yes.'"
 After the boy began responding, bowed heads and saddened faces were replaced with an air of hopeful anticipation. The youth has gone from a low weight of 90 pounds to 150, five pounds more than before his mishap. Several weeks ago the teen-ager's blank stare left him and he asked, "Where are my parents?" Wednesday morning, for the first time since the accident, Kyle sat in a wheelchair and watched the snow and passing cars. The neurologist last week said, "He's definitely making progress, and I expect him to continue (to improve)."

 Kyle has a long way to go before the Sept. 4 accident can be put on a back shelf and he is able to continue the goals he was hoping for before the accident but, as a wall plaque hanging above his bed suggests, "Be patient...God isn't finished with me yet."
 The Floydada grandparents were thrilled when Kyle told someone, "I have grandparents living in Floydada."

E. M. T. To Purchase Base Station

The Emergency Medical Training Association met this week in the dining room of Caprock Hospital for a business meeting. The announcement was made that there will be a paramedic course offered to the members, though the date has not been set for the two year course.
 The association voted to buy a base station for the hospital that will enable them to stay in contact with the ambulance at all times. The hospital now has a beeper system for contacting ambulance personnel. In the past the ambulance has been able to call their call only through the hospital department, thus the ambulance personnel and ambulance as well as to the public.
 The E. M. T. Association met the fourth Monday of each month at 7 p.m. All members are present. Application for membership has been made for two years.

Nine Music Lovers Attend First Rehearsal

Only nine people attended the first rehearsal for the Community Concert to be held April 24. The meeting was held at Duncan school Monday night of this week and decisions were made as to the type of music that would be used.
 The group sang several songs as a choir and then everyone joined in a sing-along around the piano with Nina Copeland doing the honors, along with a harp and electric bass and guitar.

 A trio "jammed" for an hour or so after everyone else left.

COMMISSIONERS STUDY JAIL PLANS

In a called meeting Tuesday Floyd County Commissioners and Sheriff Fred Cardinal met with architect Marvin Stiles and continued efforts to scale down the cost of remodeling the county jail house.
 "We of course must meet state jail standards, but hope we can get the cost down as much as possible Judge J. K. Holmes told a Hesperian reporter Wednesday.
 The plans will now be submitted to the state office and there is no telling how long it will take for them to clear on the state level before they will be submitted to contractors for bid Judge Holmes said.
 The Commissioners anticipate using revenue sharing money to remodel the jail.
 All Commissioners were present at the meeting.

FARM & RANCH NEWS

Five farm groups endorse parity

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five major agricultural organizations Monday again endorsed the mechanisms in last year's overhaul of federal farm policy and called on the Carter administration to use them to raise crop prices.

As Senate Agriculture Committee hearings on the farm economy continued, the major farm groups did not endorse the main goal of the American Agriculture protest movement: new legislation forbidding the sale of farm products at less than 100 percent of parity.

But all endorsed parity as their goal — either through collective bargaining contracts between farmers and processors, the aim of the National Farmers Organization, or through greater manipulation of market forces by government, including higher grain support prices.

UNDER THE LAW, parity is a formula comparing farmers' prices and production costs. The formula uses the favorable cost-price ratio that existed between 1910-1914 period as a base, or 100 percent. The ratio now is about 65 percent, on the average, for 114 commodities on which the Agriculture Department calculates parity prices.

The five farm groups were the NFO, the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Farmers Union, the National Grange and the Midcontinent Farmers Association.

They emphasized administrative actions by Secretary Bob Bergland to raise farm prices now under the authority of the 1977 farm act.

centives for farmers to participate in the three-year reserves program and acreage cutbacks Bergland has emphasized as the solution to the two-year price slump.

The supports operate through a program of government loans repaid the following year if market prices stay above the support rate, which generally sets the minimum price.

er and early spring when crop residues are also needed for wind erosion protection.

"THE CASH flow and income problems of American farmers cannot wait for the legislative mills to grind out a substantial change in farm-policy legislation. Farmers need help now," testified John W. Scott, master of the Grange.

Scott called for higher price supports for grains and soybeans and more in-

L.C. CARPENTER, vice president of Midcontinent Farmers, said that both mandatory production controls and adequate acreage reductions to turn prices around appear politically unacceptable to farmers unless support prices are high enough to encourage them to go along.

Residue important

Residue management offers numerous advantages including protecting your soil, conserving soil fertility, reducing soil erosion, and increasing grain sorghum, corn and wheat yields. Crop residue management is the practice of leaving crop stubble and other crop residues on the field to protect the soil from wind and water erosion. Crop residue provides natural protection for the soil from wind and water erosion. Residues tend to hold and store snow and slows runoff so that rainfall can be stored in the soil rather than lost to runoff. American Agriculture 'wise up' to Washington ways

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Agriculture, which has been heavily on the political agenda, is showing signs of developing political muscle. At House and Senate committee hearings on farm issues, farmers often are vocal, but they have not resorted to eggs or snowballs to make their points.

Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., and Rep. Jack E. Hightower, D-Texas, have introduced bills which would create a "flexible parity" plan to give farmers higher prices when they voluntarily reduce crop production.

Under this concept, for example, if farmer opted to set aside 50 percent of his wheat land from production, he could get full parity — about $5 a bushel — for wheat that he produced. The federal guarantee would be scaled down for farmers who set aside less of their acreage.

At a meeting here late Wednesday, the Washington crew of American Agriculture adopted a resolution giving support to "the concept of 100 percent parity for those producers reducing production in order to reach a fair price for their products."

But an American Agriculture spokesman, who asked not to be identified, said the group stopped short of endorsing either Dole's or Hightower's bill.

One reason, he said, is that the group felt that a newly introduced bill is a long way from being law and there are many legislative hazards along the way.

"We haven't seen them out of committees and we don't know for sure that they won't be butchered up in committees," he said.

Further evidence that some in American Agriculture are doing their homework involves what the farmer described as the political realities of getting legislation through a Democratic-controlled Congress and accepted by a Democratic president.

"If Mr. Dole puts his name on a bill, he's on the minority side," the farmer said. "We'd probably prefer — and we hate to get into politics, but I guess we're going to have to get something done — a Democrat to introduce something we really want."

The recognition by some in American Agriculture that political realities are involved is a step which Bergland urged the group from its beginning last fall to comprehend and use to its advantage.

There is no evidence, however, that American Agriculture will soon evolve into a slick lobbying institution. The group today still relies on its ability to attract attention by its tractor parades, solidarity at congressional hearings and — in the case of a minority faction — boots, jeers, eggs and snowballs.

Further, the group has had success in calling public attention to the financial plight of many farmers.

No one can overlook the upwards of 200 bills that have been introduced in Congress since American Agriculture came on the scene last fall, all of which — in one way or another — represent some tinkering with federal programs to help farmers.

United States consumption of tea—the world's most popular beverage, next to water—is second only to Great Britain, says Mary K. Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

A GREAT BIG
THANK YOU FROM
WILLIE WIREDHAND

We wish to thank our many fine consumers and members for your understanding and patience during the recent ice storm and for the assistance given, offers of help, and reports of damage.

The damage amounted to over 300 broken poles, 100 separate instances of lines burned down because of the ice load, and as yet untotaled damage to transformers, crossarms, and materials. Most of the pole damage was in the north and eastern areas of our system, but much of the other damage occurred throughout the area.

"SINGLE TREE TYPE" PITFALL-Tree planting programs are under way in many Texas communities now, and community leaders should give careful attention to the selection of tree species, points out a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This means avoiding the use of a single tree type. Should a problem arise, such as a disease or insect epidemic, all trees could be wiped out if they are all of one species.

Singer Evangelist Coming To First Christian Church

Mercer Shaw, evangelistic and concert artist, will be at the First Christian Church in Floydada for four days, March 9-12. "The big voice and the big heart" is one of the gifted Christian witnesses and has been in full Christian service for 28 years. His repertoire includes a wide variety of ranging from new songs of great old current religious composers, dispersed with his in-depth testimonies and personal experiences, congregational singing and a special service in his concert witnessing revival," said Ron Pingelton, pastor of the First Christian Church. "His tremendous voice is alive with conviction coming from his own personal experiences." Services at the church are scheduled for March 9, 10, and 11 (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday) at 7:30 p.m. Following the Friday night service, there will be a Youth Fellowship with refreshments in the fellowship hall of the church.

MERCER SHAW

The Sunday service at 11:00 a.m. March 12 will conclude the concert-revival. This Sunday morning service is also being observed as Girl Scout Sunday, and the Floydada Girl Scout troops and leaders will be guests of the First Christian Church.
