Floydada Boy Is Top Speller In County

Eleven-year-old fifth grader from Floydada won the Floyd County Spelling Bee Tuesday night in Lockney. He spelled down a Floydada eighth grader for the first place ribbon after a two-student battle. Scott Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, correctly spelled "lethal" after Todd Denton, the runner-up, misspelled it. Scott then spelled "perforate" to win the county bee. Floydada fifth-grade student, Alldredge, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alldredge, was third, going the word "perforate." A Floydada sixth grader, David Carr, age 11, spelled "menial" and was fourth. Jesse Sessom, a sixth-grade student from Lockney, was fifth. The 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sessom stumbled on the word "lethal" and placed fifth. Eighth grader Margie Arjona, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Arjona of Lockney, went out just before Shelley when she misspelled "landlord."

Also in the contest were Sheresha Cannon, a 12-year-old Lockney sixth grader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cannon; Lynne Julian, 12, a sixth-grade South Plains student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian; Barbara Moore, 12 a seventh grader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore of Lockney; and Rene Mulder, an 11-year-old South Plains sixth grader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder.

The top-finishing bee contestant from each school (Scott, Shelley and Lynne) received blue ribbons, and the first-place speller received another blue ribbon and the right to represent the county at the regional bee April 15 in Lubbock. The Lubbock bee winner goes to Washington, D.C. to compete in the national contest.

WE HAVE A PICTURE here at the Hesperian of a couple of men sitting in a Floydada place of business in 1910. The caption under the picture states "Bank Lawyers, Floydada 1910."

If you think you can identify the men please call me, or come by and look at the picture.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS to the Beedy boys on showing the champion Angus at Houston. They help put Floyd County and Floydada on the map in a great way. County Agent Doyle Warren estimated that over $100,000 worth of fat stock auction money went to young showmen in this part of Texas at the Houston show.

Think the champion Angus brought $12,187...something like $10.25 per pound.

Miss Floydada Pageant Features Lubbock Violinist (Fiddler)

Mayor Parnell Powell will crown the 1978 Miss Floydada Saturday night. This has been a busy week of preparation for contestants in the Miss Floydada Pageant according to Leora Younger, pageant chairman. The 18 contestants have met a number of times during the past two months preparing for the Pageant and will have several rehearsals this week. A cocktail party and interviews with the judges have been scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Featured with the 18 beauties will be Tammy Payne and Christy Stringer, local talent, and Miss Cheryl Ann Kiner, talent winner in the Miss Lubbock Contest.

CHERYL KINER

Cheryl was the talent winner in the Miss Lubbock contest last month. She is 22 years of age, a Junior at Texas Tech, her major is Violin Performance. She has received offers from Merle Haggard, Mel Tillis, and she has made several appearances with the original Bob Will's Texas Playboys. She wants to "go country all the way" after graduation.

Her favorite hobby is playing dances with her band.

Doris McLain will emcee the Pageant. Mrs. McLain, Ruth McIntosh, and Joanne Cagle have assisted in writing and choreographing the production numbers.

The Pageant will be held at the Floydada High School Auditorium on Saturday, March 11th, at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from any director of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce. Tickets will sell for: Adults $2 and Children (under 12) $1.

The Pageant is sponsored by the Women's Division, Chamber of Commerce.

Tigers Entertain FHS Thinclads

By Doug Simpson

Unless another of those sudden outbreaks of severe weather conditions similar to what you saw last Friday invades the area, count on the FHS track squads kicking off the 1978 season this Saturday. The varsity "Winds and Whirlettes" are scheduled to journey to Frenship and participate in the Tiger Relays at 9 a.m.

Armed with an unusual blend of talent, depth, and inexperience, coaches Joe Paty and Linden Weese will guide their squads into action this weekend and return home on the 17th of March for the annually prestigious Whirlwind Relays. District 4-AA's meet in April will also be held at the Floydada track.

The Whirllette team of Coach Weese returns regional qualifiers Jaine Guest in the hurdles, Kim Curry and Paula Ratliff in the field events (shot and discus) Rosemary Barnes in the high jump, and the sprint relay team.

The boys team and events appears below:

Shot and Discus: Paul Radloff, Junior Cuevas, Keith Nixon, Mike Allen, Neal Becker, Mac Collins.

Pole Vault: Rusty Cagle, Kary Helms, Jay Waller, Larry Westbrook, Mike Campbell.

Annual Girl Scout Father-Daughter Banquet Slated of the highlights of the banquet year is the annual banquet to honor Girl Scouts and supporters of the event Saturday, March 11, at the Activity Center to begin at 7:00 p.m. as Girl Scouts from the seven active units in Floydada escort favorite gentlemen to the banquet for the evening.

wish wife, Judy. The slapstick situations have delighted audiences for centuries and are still favorites of young and old alike!

Cast members include Rick Allen as Punch and Virginia Stogner as Judy. Steven Cummins plays the adorable singing dog, Toby, while David Daniell is the comical dancing horse, Hector. The zany doctor is portrayed by Kay Chapman. And last, but not least, April Draper plays the Devil, that villain whom all men (and puppets) must eventually encounter.

The Massie Activity Center will be colorfully decorated by the troops and their leaders for this gala occasion Saturday night, and the program for the banquet will include participation by the troops in addition to the special entertainment. The "Punch and Judy" actors will go out into the audience during part of the play which adds to the enjoyment of the evening.

'29 Club Hears Americanism Program Featuring Music

Members of the 1929 Study Club met Thursday in the Noman Hamilton home for an Americanism program featuring music America enjoys and appreciates. Musical presentation were by school students, Tammy Payne, Angie Turner, Kristi Julian and Jett Cheek, who played piano selections with which they had recently won honors in a contest in Lubbock.

Club members answered roll call by naming their favorite musical composition or instrument.

Mrs. Ian Moore, club president, reminded members of the annual Caprock TFWC Convention to be held March 10-11 in Post. Also during the meeting arrangements were made for mailing wigs which had been contributed to the M.D. Anderson Hospital for use by cancer patients. The announcement of the Miss Floydada Pageant to be held Saturday, March 11 was made by Mrs. Clay Henry. Tentative plans were made for the installation of new club officers in May.

Mrs. Hamilton served refreshments to Mmes. J.A. Arwine, Vance Campbell, H.O. Cline, C.W. Denison, Clarence Goins, Clay Henry, C.M. Meredith, Ian Moore, Lee Rushing, Emma Lou Whitaker, Q.D. Williams, J.M. Willson Sr., and Miss Anne Swepston and guests. Mrs. Weldon McClure, Tammy Payne, Angie Turner, Kristi Julian and Jett Cheek.

Singing

Evangelist At

First Christian

Mercer Shaw, "the big man with the big voice and even bigger heart," will be at the First Christian Church tonight, March 9, through Sunday, March 12. The evangelistic singer and concert artist is one of today's gifted Christian witnesses and has been in full time Christian service for 28 years.

Shaw has a wide and varied background of service and experience plus his great ability as a soloist. A graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shaw received his Doctor of Music from Florida State Christian College. He has served as minister of music for Immanuel Baptist Church, Tulsa and First Baptist Church, Sunray; Minister of Music and Director of Fine Arts for First Christian Church, Oklahoma City and Wichita, Kansas. He is a former member of the Baptist Hour Quartet and soloist for the Southern Baptist Convention; Producer-Director of the Jewel Box Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Services at the First Christian Church are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday; Friday, and Saturday nights. Following the Friday night service, there will be a Youth Fellowship with refreshments in the fellowship hall of the church.

The Sunday service at 11:00 a.m. March 12 will conclude the evangelistic revival. This Sunday morning worship-in-song is also being observed as Girl Scout Sunday, and the Floydada Girl Scout troops and leaders will be special guests of the First Christian Church.

"Mercer Shaw is doing a wonderful service in his one-man concert-witnessing revival," said Ron Pingelton, pastor of the First Christian Church. "He is able to draw congregations into great witnessing through hymn singing."

Mercer Shaw has thrilled thousands of people around the world. Floydada citizens are cordially invited to share the experience of hearing this christian concert evangelist, March 9, 10, 11, and 12.

The proportion of women between ages 14 and 25 surveyed by the American Council of Life Insurance who are attracted to the role of housewife dropped from 42 to 25 percent in the last six years.

Annual Benefit Bridge Tourney

Board members of the Floyd County Heart Association are looking forward to good attendance at their annual Benefit Bridge Tournament slated for Tuesday, March 14th at Massie Activity Center, 513 West Georgia in Floydada.

A spaghetti plate along with a garden salad, bread sticks and a sweet will be served at 12 noon. Door prizes will be awarded throughout the day as well as first prizes for the tournament winners.

Even if you don't play bridge you are invited to the luncheon, so buy a ticket at $5 per person and enjoy being with the crowd. A ticket entitles everyone to a chance at a door prize, plus, there will be one door prize given away for those not playing bridge but present for the lunch only.

BY PEGGY MEDLEY

ITS good to be back at my desk after such a long absence and hopefully I'm back for good. Thanks to Mary Tom for filling in while I had to be away. Debbie is doing great and is expected to be dismissed from the rehabilitation center in Dallas in about two weeks. We are very encouraged with her progress for she is walking without support (slowly but surely as she says) and she has movement in her arm and is talking up a storm. Candi is also doing great and in company with her grandmother Guffee returned to Duncan yesterday from a two weeks visit in Floydada.

THINGS I wish I had known before I was twenty-one:

That my health after thirty depended in a large degree on what I put into my stomach before I was twenty-one.

How to take care of money.

That a man's habits are mighty hard to change after he is twenty-one.

That a harvest depends upon the seeds sown.

That things worth while require time, patience, and work.

That you cannot get something for nothing. The value of absolute truthfulness is everything.

The folly of not taking older people's advice. More of the helpful and inspiring messages of the Bible. The greatness of the opportunity and joy of serving a fellowman.

Whitehead

LUBBOCK—Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy of Lubbock ruled Monday that Melvin Wesley Whitehead, 32, of Big Spring died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Whitehead was found in his bed at the Johnson Motel, 4801 Ave. Q in Lubbock about 4:35 p.m. Saturday by a motel clerk who went to the room to find out why Whitehead had not checked out. The clerk told officers at the scene he had assigned the room to a new tenant Saturday, anticipating Whitehead's departure.

When the second lodger returned and said Whitehead had not left, the clerk went to investigate. Whitehead was found dead in his rented room.

Detectives said several other tenants earlier Saturday had complained of a strong odor resembling gas in the area where Whitehead was found. The lodgers were given different rooms, thereafter.

Services for Whitehead were held yesterday in Highland Baptist Church in Lubbock with the Rev. H. C. Payne, a Baptist minister of Floydada, officiating. Burial was in Lockney Cemetery.

Born in Floydada, Whitehead had lived in Big Spring for eight years where he owned and operated the Culligan Water Conditioning Co.

He was a Vietnam veteran, having served in the U.S. Army. He was a member of the American Legion and Elks Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Janet; a son, Timmy; a daughter, Tammy, both of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Whitehead of Floydada; three brothers, Ed and Aubrey, both of Lubbock and James of Morton; three sisters, Helen McClure of Nashville, Tenn., Ethel Brown of Lubbock and Sue Trimble of Ratcliff, Ky.

Mrs. Pierce

Rites for Mrs. Bessie Lee Sanders Pierce, 80 year old longtime Floyd County resident, were held Tuesday in Calvary Baptist Church with Ron Pingleton, minister of First Christian Church officiating. Interment was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Mrs. Pierce died Sunday night about 8 o'clock in Floydada Nursing Home. A native of Springtown, she married Robert Lee Pierce on February 19, 1911. They moved to Floyd County in 1933. He preceded her in death in 1947.

Chess Allmond

Funeral rites for Chess Allmond, a former Floydada resident, were held March 3rd at Cortez, Colo. Allmond had lived in the Dove Creek, Colo., area since 1934 where he was a farmer and rancher before retiring.

Rev. Wesley Case and Rev. Samuel Thompson officiated for the service in Ethel Memorial Chapel. Interment was in Cahon Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mary; a stepson, Richard Miller of Bathell, Wash.; two daughters, Shirley Davis and Pat Knuckles of Dove Creek; five sisters, Rachel Garner of Panhandle, Leona McCray of Floydada, Vera Blankenship of Stephenville, Ola Spence of Amarillo and Ila Mauer of Clovis, Calif.; and one brother, Buzz Allmond of Kent, Wash.

Mrs. Johnson

Evelyn Johnson, 63, of Plainview was killed Sunday when her auto struck a concrete culvert at the intersection of Southwest Third and Columbia Streets in Plainview.

She was pronounced dead at Central Plains General Hospital by Justice of the Peace Glenn Stone.

According to investigating officers, Mrs. Johnson was traveling north on Columbia when she apparently lost control of her car. The car traveled approximately 150 yards along a grassy median of the highway before striking the culvert.

Stone said Monday that a formal ruling as of cause of death will be pending until results of an autopsy are available. He indicated that Mrs. Johnson may have suffered a heart seizure and apparently was unconscious when the accident occurred.

Services for Mrs. Johnson were held Tuesday in Lemons Memorial Chapel, Dr. Carlos McLeod, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiated.

Burial was in Plainview Memorial Park. The former Evelyn Virginia McDonald was born Nov. 21, 1914 in Coleman, Okla. and grew up in Silverton and Lockney. She was a ton and Lockney High School and moved to Plainview in 1938. Mrs. Johnson was an employee of the Texas Employment Commission.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church, was First Baptist Church, was secretary of her Sunday School class and was a Lady Elk.

She was married to Beryl Johnson Aug. 23, 1939, in Stamford.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Mike of Houston; two brothers, H.N. McDonald of Cocoa, Fla., and W. R. McDonald of Little Rock, Ark., three sisters, Mrs. Marie Dillard of Dimmitt, Mrs. Martel Stewart of Dallas and Mrs. Rosemary Salzman of Mabank; her mother, Mrs. Myrtle McDonald of Lockney; and a grandson.

Roy Hale

Funeral service for Roy Hale, 66, are tentatively scheduled for Friday at 2 p.m. in First Baptist Church in Floydada. Hale died at 10:58 a.m. yesterday (Wednesday) March 8th, in Lubbock Methodist Hospital where he had been in intensive care for the past month.

A native of Delta County, Texas, he came to Floyd County with his parents, the J. S. Hale in 1919. He attended Floyd County schools and was married to Ruth Snell on December 27, 1936.

He was a member of First Baptist Church, served on several boards including: Lighthouse Electric, Producers Cooperative, Floydada Cooperative Gins, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill,

Briscoe Supporters To Meet In Floydada

There will be a called meeting of Floyd County Dolph Briscoe supporters at 7 p.m. Tuesday (March 14) in the Lighthouse Electric building in Floydada, according to H. E. Frizzell of Lockney. Frizzell is coordinator for government information and will be distributing information, Frizzell said.

Women Elected To Water Board

For the first time in the 11-year history of Water, Inc., women have been elected to the corporation's board of directors.

Mrs. Tom (Argen) Draper of Route 3, Hereford, and Mrs. Nolan (Georgia) Holt of Route 1, Spearman, were elected at-large directors at the recent corporation meeting.

Both women and their husbands are original members of Water, Inc., and fully realize the value of an adequate water source for the High Plains. The women's agricultural backgrounds have emphasized to them the need for a supplemental water supply on the High Plains.

"I probably realize the need for water more than many people," Mrs. Holt said. "When my parents first moved to the Panhandle during the Depression, I was a child. We lived on a farm and it was about a year before we were able to afford to have a well drilled.

and old Peoples Hospital. Services will be under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home and burial will be in the Carr's Chapel Cemetery.

Hale is survived by his wife; four sons: James and David of Floydada, Barry of Midland and Dan of Lubbock; three brothers: Ralph of Palm Desert, California, Jay S. of Floydada and Dr. John of Abernathy; a half brother, Sammy of Floydada; three sisters: Mrs. Kenneth Roberson of Petersburg, Mrs. Jake Morris of Temple and Mrs. Paul Kern of Pontiac, Michigan; and seven grandchildren; a stepson, Mrs. Mona Rainier and a stepbrother, Gene Blackmon both of San Diego, Calif.

102 EAST HOUSTON FLOYDADA,

The Floyd Philosopher Takes A Semi-Bold Stand On Problem Of Kids Eating Sugared Cereal

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm plunges into the controversy over children's diets this week. It's his lookout, not ours.

Dear editor:
According to the Federal Trade Commission the average child between the ages of 2 and 11 sees 20,000 commercials a year while watching 1,300 hours of television.

Furthermore, it said, more than half the commercials aimed at children are for food, "almost all of which contains large amounts of sugar."

The Commission wants something done about it, even if it takes banning such ads. This is a ticklish problem and I am approaching it with great diplomacy. For example, if a mother doesn't want her 2-year-old child eating sugared cereal, why doesn't she tell him he can't have any?

Such an answer, it was explained to me, indicates I don't know anything about raising modern children. You're not supposed to say no to a child these days except possibly when he's about to touch a hot stove. From then on you're supposed to reason with him and if he won't listen to reason, give in. The only way to keep kids from eating sugared food, I understand, is to ban sugared food advertising, and if you can't and the kid grows up sickly or cavity-prone, it was the advertiser's fault, not the parents'.

You can see I'm out of touch because I didn't know kids from age 2 to 11 did the grocery shopping these days.

Another thing that puzzles me is why, if sugared cereals were banned, a modern kid wouldn't be smart enough to reach for the sugar bowl and sweeten the stuff himself. I guess it'd be like expecting him to walk to school instead of ride.

What puzzles me even more is the fact that despite all the sugared food kids are forcing their parents to buy, everybody is living longer these days, in fact so long they're about to bankrupt the Social Security system.

I guess raising kids these days is like conducting foreign policy. A kid demanding sugared cereal because he saw it advertised is like a foreign country's demanding guns, tanks and fighter planes from us because other nations have them and if we don't come across it won't be our friend anymore. Who wants to be a friendless country or a friendless parent?

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

EXTINGUISH AN EXPLOSION?—A dust or gas explosion can be detected and actually extinguished before damage is done, says a safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A suppression device can be installed, which, when activated by a detector—releases an extinguishing agent under high pressure. All this takes only 60-thousandths of a second, less than the time required to blink an eye.

ACCIDENT CONTROL—Before exposing yourself to accident risks, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service urges you to ask: "What benefit will be gained?" "Is the benefit worth the risk?"

NEW GRAIN RESERVE PROGRAM—As of Mar. 1, farmers may place their 1977-crop wheat, oats and barley directly into the grain reserve being developed by the USDA, notes a grain marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Early entry of 1977-crop and sorghum is expected to be announced later. Farmers may place their grain into the reserve program for a three-year period and receive storage payments annually in advance.

Capital Gains Can Reduce Income Taxes

COLLEGE STATION—Farmers and ranchers gearing up for income tax time can reduce their total tax load by giving proper credit to capital gains income, advises Dr. Richard Trimble with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"From an income tax standpoint there are two types of income—ordinary and capital gains. The basic difference in the two is the way they are taxed," says Trimble, an agricultural economist.

Ordinary income is fully taxable whereas only one-half of long-term capital gains is taxed, explains the economist. Therefore, any-time income can be reported as a long-term capital gain rather than ordinary income, income taxes can be reduced.

Sales of farm produced items are usually reported on Schedule "F," as ordinary income. However, sales of some items used in the farm or ranch business or held for investment can result in long-term capital gains. Some of the most common items that may qualify for capital gains treatment on Texas farms and ranches are dairy and breeding livestock and timber.

"Livestock held for breeding or dairy purposes is treated as a capital asset when sold," notes Trimble. "However, to qualify for long-term capital gains, cattle and horses must be held for at least two years. Other kinds of livestock, such as hogs, must be held at least one year to qualify. In addition, the amount of capital gains that can be claimed on breeding livestock depends on whether the stock was raised or purchased."

In the case of cash-basis farm-raised breeding livestock, the selling price less any expense of sale is a capital gain. The cost basis of raised livestock is zero since costs are deducted during the years they are being raised, explains the economist. For purchased breeding livestock, any gain resulting from depreciation taken after 1969 is treated as ordinary income. Any other gain is treated as a long-term capital gain.

To explain capital gains regarding purchased livestock, Trimble offers this example. A farmer bought a cow for $350 on Jan. 1, 1974. At that time he estimated the useful life of the cow to be five years. He also figured that the cow could be sold for $100 at the end of the estimated five-year useful life. Using the straightline method of depreciation, the farmer claimed $50 of depreciation each year. Assume that he sold the cow last Dec. 20 for $225. Since he took $50 depreciation each year for four years, the remaining cost basis at the time of sale would be $150. A total gain of $75 would result from the sale ($225 less $150). Since the gain resulted from the depreciation taken during the four years, all of the gain would be ordinary income and would be taxed as such.

One situation in which capital gain can result from the sale of purchased breeding livestock is when the selling price of the animal is more than the purchase price. In this case, the difference between selling price and purchase price would be a capital gain. Any depreciation taken would be recaptured as ordinary income, notes the economist.

Gains or losses on the sale of breeding livestock should be reported on "Form 4797." Ordinary income is separated from capital gains on this form, says Trimble. Additional details on income taxes for agricultural producers can be found in the 1978 Farmers Tax Guide available at any county Extension office.

USDA Shorting Payments To Milo Farmers

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The disclosure of information came through members of Texas Farmers Union currently in Washington and has been openly admitted by officials in the Production Adjustment Division of USDA. The result will be confirmed to all grain sorghum producers in Texas when the payments are released in the coming weeks.

The disclosure of information came through members of Texas Farmers Union currently in Washington and has been openly admitted by officials in the Production Adjustment Division of USDA. The result will be confirmed to all grain sorghum producers in Texas when the payments are released in the coming weeks.

In question is the production allotment given each grain farmer on which the amount of payment is based. In the past there has been no distinction made between allotments of corn, barley and grain sorghum and county officials usually termed all allotments simply "feed grain" allotments. Many farmers have even attempted to convert unused corn allotments to grain sorghum, but were told that it was unnecessary since disaster payments have always been figured solely on "feed grain" allotments. Now, with deficiency payments due grain farmers for the first time, USDA officials are instructing ASCS offices to count only specific grain sorghum allotments and to exclude corn bases. An example of the net difference can be seen in Hill County in Central Texas where the enforcement of specific allotments will cost the county's farmers at least $600,000. Jerry Tekell, President of the Ellis County Farmers Union and a participant in Washington trip says he feels that the change in calculating payments is "obviously another move by the Administration economists to save money."

"The shame of it is," says Mary Degner, a farm wife and participant from Hill County, "that farmers in our area could use the additional $600,000 to help pull themselves out of the depression we're in."

No calculation has been made yet on the total cost to Texas milo farmers, but the payments will undoubtedly be short by several million dollars. The smaller payments will also affect much of the rural economy since studies prove that when farmers spend their money, each dollar turns over five to seven times in the economy. Texas Farmers Union President Jay Numan of Waco has called upon Texas Congressmen to challenge the USDA's decision and Congressman Jack Hightower from North Texas' 13th district has already committed to call for a reversal of the decision.

STAN'S PICNIC CAULIFLOWER

Now, the next time you're looking for a vegetable to take on a picnic or a church social, think back on me... and this glorious cauliflower. It's easy to make, nutritious, pretty to look at -- and absolutely delicious. And, be sure when you're picking out your cauliflower you get a nice, firm, white head. Naturally, one of my boys will be glad to help you choose it.

1 large head cauliflower
1 pkg. garlic salad dressing mix
1/2 T. order vinegar
2 T. water
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup sour cream or yogurt
2 scallions, chopped
1/2 cup crumbled bleu cheese
1/4 cup slivered, toasted almonds
3 slices bacon, crumbled
Steam cauliflower for 20 minutes. Cool. Mix salad dressing mix with vinegar, water and salad oil. Add sour cream (or yogurt), scallion, blue cheese, almonds and bacon to dressing. Pour over the cauliflower and chill.

Mexican Sheep Purchase Set At 500,000

AUSTIN--The Mexican government has approved purchases of a half million slaughter sheep from Texas and other states for the coming year, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

According to a directive from the Mexican director general of Animal Health of Border Stations, the sheep must be shipped through the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) export facilities in Del Rio, Eagle Pass or Laredo. If this directive is not followed, Texas could lose Mexican purchases of 800,000 pounds of beef tripe per month, as well as purchases of purebred cattle, it was pointed out.

"We intend to follow this directive because these shipments are so vital to our producers," Brown said. "However, we hope that private operators will be able to work out agreements with Mexican officials in the future."

1977 Wheat May Be Put In Grain Reserve

COLLEGE STATION--As of Mar. 1, farmers may place their 1977-crop wheat, oats and barley directly into the grain reserve being developed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Previously, farmers who wished to enter grain in the reserve needed to wait until a government loan on the crop matured, points out Roland Smith, grain marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Early entry of 1977-crop corn and sorghum into the reserve program is expected to be announced later by the Secretary of Agriculture.

There is also a change in the farm storage facility loan program. Under the change, a farmer will be able to obtain a loan for storage structures to store two years' crop production. However, in determining eligibility, existing capacity used to store grain in the reserve program will be excluded.

USDA offers farmers an opportunity to place their grain in the reserve program for a three-year period and receive storage payments annually in advance, notes Smith. Storage payments are 25 cents per bushel for wheat, corn, barley and sorghum and 19 cents per bushel for oats. In return, farmers must agree to hold their grain off the market at least until the price reaches the minimum release level (140 percent of the current loan rate for wheat and 125 percent for feed grains) or the contract expires. Under current procedures, farmers must pay 6 percent interest on the loans.

The goal of the grain reserve program is to accumulate about 17 million metric tons (670 million bushels, corn equivalent) of feed grains and around 9 million metric tons (330 million bushels) of wheat. Participation will be on a first come, first served basis until the goal is reached.

A farmer without an existing loan can obtain a loan and immediately place grain into the reserve by contacting his county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office, adds Smith.

Hospital Auxiliary To Hold Rummage Sale

Members of Caprock Hospital Auxiliary voted at their past monthly meeting to invite the Emergency Medical Technician's Association to join in a rummage sale Thursday and Friday, April 6-7 from 8:30 until 5 at 105 North Main, first building north of Stewart's Cleaners.

Members of the auxiliary met in the hospital dining room during which time the treasurer's report showed $1,565.98 on hand.

They invite the public to bring contributions of baked goods or other articles for the rummage sale. Lillian Smith is chairman of the preparation committee and Jo Bryant is publicity chairman. The hospitality cart used at Caprock Hospital is being discontinued and its remaining stock to go into the rummage sale.

Discussions were voiced regarding the selection of the auxiliary's next project.

Caprock Hospital administrator Troy Patton, reviewed the local EMT program and some of the events leading up to its organization. In April of 1975 manning of the local ambulance service was taken over by Caprock Hospital personnel with R.N.s as attendants. Shortly thereafter Patton took a 120 hour course in Emergency Medical Technology at Lubbock L.C.C. When Shirley Meredith, also a licensed EMT, moved back to Floydada the two set up a course for 22 of the hospital's employees, of which 20 completed the course and 18 passed the state examination. A review course is required every two years to maintain one's license. At present 10 licensed EMTs remain in the employe of Caprock Hospital and now serve as attendants for the ambulance service.

A course of 400 hours for paramedics is being planned which will be taught here over a two year period. A prerequisite for the course may require the students to be EMTs.

Patton stated that locally a two year period is considered a very long time for hospital staff employment except in cases where the

Last week we were busy finishing braided rugs, and making plans for Easter. If you would like to see some of the resident's works we have a display just inside the lobby door. We welcome and encourage everyone to come look around and visit with our residents.

We want to thank Avis Bartley for the "Upper Rooms" in large print. The residents have enjoyed reading them. We also want to thank Art Ratzlaff, Harvey and Judy Allen, Tom Powell, Thomas and Don Warren for two hours of beautiful gospel music Thursday night. It was enjoyed by employees as well as residents.

Playing bingo last week, Hope Hammonds, Pearl Carriek, Ray Reed and Willie Stambough won two games each. Clara Williamson, Agnes Anderson and Anis Franks won one each.

Mr. Reed fell and broke his hip last week and we will miss him in our exercise classes and playing dominoes. He is in Central Plains hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

We lost two of our long time residents this past week. Aunt Sister McNeill and Bessie Pierce. Both had been ill for several weeks. We extend our deepest sympathy to each family.

We thank each of our visitors which included:

Frances Badgett, Anna Terri and Clinton Morriss, Lorene Reasoner, Artie Webb, Grady Freeman, Wiley Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Davis, Helen Patterson, Darlyn Williams, Brent Williams, Riley and Lula Teague, Lewis and Ona Pesch, Gwen Orozco, Mr. and Mrs. J. If fuel costs are squeezing the profit out of your corn crop, plant

The Cost Cutter

Less Irrigation Cost — Lower Harvest Costs Because of Lower Moisture — Less Drying Cost

- Pioneer® brand 3780 can cut your costs to improve corn profits in four ways —
- ★ Less Irrigation Cost — 3780 needs less total water than commonly grown corns because it grows off fast. And because of its early water use, 3780 uses early-season rainfall more efficiently than other corns or crops.
- ★ Less Harvest & Hauling Cost — Fast drydown with good standability and ear retention lets 3780 dry in the field — you harvest and haul less moisture from the field.
- ★ Less Dockage — Less water hauled from the field means less dockage or drying expense.
- ★ Lower Potential Weather and Insect Loss — Because of its rapid growth feature and fast drydown, 3780 is ready for harvest well ahead of commonly grown corns. Fewer days in the field mean less exposure to potential bad weather and late-season insect problems.

MORE NET INCOME PER ACRE

High Plains farmers have consistently found 3780 producing more net income per acre than competitive corns of later maturity . . . even though the green weight of later maturing corns may have been more.

With 3780, you don't take big cuts in yield like you might expect. In fact, in 96 tests under many conditions in the past four years, 3780 has averaged 7,817 pounds per acre. Few farmers will boast of a higher four-year-average, dry-corn yield than this.

Yields like you'd expect from corn with input costs similar to grain sorghum . . . that adds up to more net income per acre.

3780 — 96 High Plains tests — 4-year average — 7,817 lbs./A. Here's How 3780 Performed For 5 Area Farmers in 1977

Helmuth Quebe — Plainview
Planting date: April 11
Harvest date: August 20
Results: 8,200 lbs./A. at 15.0% moisture; pre-water plus three waterings; outyielded later maturing competitive corn by 600 lbs./A.
His comment: "I like 3780 because of its early maturity."

R. E. Lance — Hereford
Planting date: April 20
Harvest date: September 25
Results: 6,500 lbs./A. at 19% moisture; watered 3 times.
His comment: "3780 did as good as I thought it would."

Don Ott — Dimmitt
Planting date: April 27
Harvest date: September 10
Results: 8,590 lbs./A. at 19% moisture; watered 5 times.
His comment: "3780 had a very good yield for a fast maturing variety."

Vernon Jackson — Stratford
Planting time: April 7
Harvest date: August 5
Results: 8,680 lbs./A. at 16.5% moisture; watered 5 times. Popular competitive variety in same field planted earlier, received 1 additional watering, yielded less, and was harvested 12 days later at 24.5% moisture.

J. L. Francis — Kress
Planting date: June 2
Harvest date: October 20
Results: 7,100 lbs./A. at 14% moisture; watered 5 times.
His comment: "My 3780 was planted after a hail and I was really satisfied with the results."

Cotton Farmer
3780 is an ideal crop for cotton because of its unusual water use. Because it reaches demand much earlier than cotton or sorghum, it promises better efficiency than when used as a crop to cotton.

HOUSTON—March 2, 1978—"Number Two" won Reserve Champion and "Goose" won Champion of the Angus Market Steer Show at the Houston Livestock Show.

Todd Beedy, 16, wasn't giving his steer enough credit when he named him "Number Two," as the 1,170-pound animal took top honors. The 18-month-old steer did fit the bill in a previous show, winning second in San Antonio.

Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beedy of Floydada, Tx., is a junior at Floydada High School. He is a member of the Floyd County 4-H Club and his hobbies include track and football.

The steer was owned by brothers Mark and Todd Beedy.

"Goose," at 1,044 pounds and 19 months of age, was second in the heavyweight class in addition to winning the Reserve Championship. James Jeffrey, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jeffrey, showed "Goose." James is from Roby, Tx., where he is a member of the Fisher County 4-H Club.

The show was judged by George Strathern of Fresno, Ca. Strathern said, "I'm looking for calves I think will grade Choice with a high cutability. I do not want the largest or the smallest steers, but the ones that are the middle of the road, yielding the highest grade."

COTTON TALKS

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, were back in Washington last week, continuing the effort to get better price protection for cotton producers under the 1978 farm program.

PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson spent March 2 conferring with key legislators and USDA personnel and on March 3 presented testimony before the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry. The High Plains cotton producer organization is urging Congress to amend the Farm Act of 1977 to permit higher loan rates and target prices on 1978 through 1981 crops.

The 44-cent loan rate for this year is grossly inadequate, Johnson says. PCG since early last year has maintained that the loan should be based on a percentage of average U. S. spot market prices, objecting specifically to language in current law which required that the 1978 loan be set at 90 percent of the average CIF Northern Europe price (Liverpool "A" Index) during the first two weeks of October.

This "first two weeks of October" provision should be taken out of the law, Johnson told Senate Agriculture Committee members. He pointed out that "It has given us a loan below the loan for the previous year; a loan too low to serve as an effective marketing tool as was intended, and a loan well below the level necessary to keep our cotton competitive in world markets."

With the Liverpool "A" Index provision out of the law, the loan would be set at 85 percent of the four-year average of U. S. spot market prices, or about 50 or 51 cents, PCG calculates.

PCG is also asking that the Administration use existing authority to institute for cotton a program under which the government pays storage charges on cotton in much the same way as is done on wheat and feed grains.

Now is the time to think about controlling some of the hard-to-kill pests on trees and shrubs around the home.

"Dormant oil applications are particularly effective for controlling scale insects, mites and certain insects which are passing the winter in the form of eggs.

During the growing season, control of scale insects is difficult because of their hard, waxy covering. Other pests also are more difficult to control at that time, requiring careful timing of toxic chemicals.

Dormant oils kill insects and mites by smothering. When compared to pesticides, oils are cheaper, safe to handle and don't harm the environment. Dormant oils also give good covering action when applied properly.

However, dormant oils will damage most leaves and should not be applied to evergreen shrubs and trees. There are different oils which are less concentrated and can be used safely on several evergreen plants.

Dormant oils can be applied anytime trees or shrubs are in a dormant state. The oil is most effective, however, if applied in late winter or in early spring just before bud break. The oil should be applied when temperatures are between 40 and 65 degrees. Freezing weather within 48 hours of the treatment may cause the oil to be less effective.

When mixing and applying dormant oils, extreme care should be taken to avoid using excessive amounts. Also, thorough coverage of trunks and limbs is necessary for good control.

Some trees and shrubs may be damaged, even with application of normal amounts of dormant oil. Therefore, you should always read and follow the manufacturer's instructions on the container label.

Carthels Selected Conservation Farmers

Aaron and Hulon Carthel who farm north of Floydada have been selected as Conservation Farmers for Floyd County by the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District. Gilbert Fawver, chairman of the board, stated, "Aaron and Hulon were selected for this award based on their complete program of resource conservation and practices applied on their farm."

Aaron and Hulon each received a plaque from the Good Year Tire and Rubber Company presented by the local dealership Babe's Service Center.

In 1970 they entered into a Great Plains Conservation Program contract with the Soil Conservation Service which provided cost-share assistance for a complete conservation program on the farm. In August of 1970 the construction of parallel terraces was started. Each year more parallel terraces were constructed until the farm was completely terraced in late 1976.

When asked why they entered into the conservation program Aaron stated, "To keep water from running off the land as it was too sloping and was also causing erosion. By keeping the water on the land we can produce better crops."

Aaron and Hulon spend a great deal of their time promoting resources of our natural resources among the farmers of their community. Aaron is currently a county commissioner in Floyd County.

They use their farm whenever possible to show what conservation can do for the land, the water, and for the future financial situation of the American farmer.

Church Group Organizes

A church group organized recently and will be known as future leaders of St. Mary Magdalen Church and community (F.L.C.C.). Purpose of the organization is to get closer to Christ and help the people of Floyd County and surrounding areas when in need.

Officers are Deacon Robert Cortinas, Sr., sponsor; Virginia Garcia, co-sponsor; Lois De La Cruz, president; Janie Cortinas, vice-president; Sally De La Cruz, secretary; Belinda Vallejo, treasurer; Robert Cortinas Sr. and Hector Mercado Sr., sargent of arms.

Recent activities held by the organization have included a Valentine get together at Floydada Nursing Home; a bake sale and prayer meetings. Another bake sale will be held in the near future by the group. They will also hold choir practice Tuesdays and Fridays from 8 until 9 p.m. Prayer meetings are bi-weekly on Tuesday nights followed with refreshments. All are welcome to attend. Next prayer meeting will be March 14, 8 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalen Church.

"Eleanor Says"

It's time our thoughts were turning to spring and spring helps us to want to get outside. Our lawns is the most important single feature in a well-landscaped home area. It is the first improvement which the home owner plans as soon as the home is completed. Although the lawn provides the setting for the entire landscape, including trees, shrubs, flowers and buildings, its primary purpose is functional rather than aesthetic.

A lawn eliminates soil erosion, reduces runoff, lowers surface temperatures, muffles noise, reduces glare and filters harmful pollutants from the air. In addition, lawns provides recreational surfaces that are inexpensive, non-abrasive and have the capacity to recover from injury and environmental stress.

A green, well kept lawn always makes us feel better and gives a warm welcome. Here at Producers Elevator we have just received our spring shipments of Fertilone weed and seed fertilizer, Lawn Food plus Diazinon, Lawn Food containing chelated iron and our Famous Zipp Fertilizer.

Now is the time for all of us to prepare our lawns for our summer enjoyment. In spite of the hard work it requires, an attractive lawn is the most enjoyable part of the home landscape. Our garden seed and supplies are on the way. We will be expecting you to come in to Producers and stock up on your Lawn & Garden needs. See you at the Elevator.

Mackenzie foray into area recounted Eddie Guffee provided the program on Col. Ranald S. Mackenzie for the regular February meeting of Hale County Historical Commission, held in Osborne Auditorium of Llano Estacado Museum, where he is assistant curator of archeology. Guffee based his comments, to a large degree, on the book "On The Border With Mackenzie," (1935) written by Congressional Medal of Honor recipient Capt. R.G. Carter, a member of Mackenzie's staff. Guffee talked about Mackenzie's foray into the Running Water Draw area in October, 1871, calling it the Blanco Canyon-Plainview Campaign, "because that's about all they did. This campaign was not as glamorous as his Palo Duro Campaign in 1874," he said. Mackenzie brought eight companies of the 4th U.S. Cavalry into this area from Fort Richardson. The question is, "What were they doing in this area?" said Guffee. "Why didn't they stay at Fort Richardson? The answer is that in 1865 the entire Panhandle and South Plains of Texas were given to the Comanche and Kiowa Indians as their hunting grounds. Then two years later, in 1867, a Council was called at Medicine Lodge Canyon to take away this territory from the Indians.

"AT THIS BIG feed, the Indian delegates to the Council signed the treaty, turning the Panhandle back to the U.S. Government, although this territory belonged to the State of Texas. And the Comanches and Kiowas were not even represented at the Council. So Mackenzie had a legal reason to be in the Panhandle. But the Comanche and Kiowa people assumed that this was not right, and that they had the legal reasons to be here."

So about midnight, October 9, 1871, Guffee continued, while Mackenzie's troops were camping in Blanco Canyon, they heard gunfire and sounds of Indian raiders running through camp and stampeding the Cavalry's horses. The troopers spent the rest of the Disabled veterans and widows of veterans who are receiving disability and death pension benefits must reestablish their eligibility for these benefits each year. According to D. G. Ayres, County Service Officer for Floyd County, these persons are eligible for pension benefits only when their income from all sources is within the limitation prescribed by Federal law.

VANERNS

Claimants who were required to report their annual income to the Veterans Administration received an Annual Income Questionnaire Card on November 1, 1977. The income card, when properly completed, provides the VA with information showing the claimant's income during 1977, and his or her anticipated income in 1978. The monthly payments of pension for 1978 are based upon the person's estimate of anticipated income.

Persons who failed to return the income card by January 1, 1978, will have their pension benefits terminated. Payments may be resumed only when the report of income is received by the VA, and it is shown that the annual income is within the limits prescribed by law. During 1978, veterans and widows with no dependents are eligible for pension if their income is not more than $3,770. Persons with dependents may receive pension if annual income is no more than $5,070.

Veterans needing assistance in reporting their income to the VA, or any other matter relating to VA benefits, may contact their local Veterans Service Officer or any office of the Veterans Administration.

CAPITAL GAINS TO REDUCE INCOME TAX- Farmers and ranchers gearing up for income tax time can reduce their total tax load by giving proper credit to capital gains income, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Only one-half of long-term capital gains is taxed. Common items that qualify for capital gains treatment are dairy and breeding livestock and timber. The time that various animals must be held to qualify varies. And whether breeding livestock was farmed or purchased also makes a difference. Specific instructions are in the 1978 Farmers Tax Guide.

night trying to hold on to picket pens and round up the few horses scattered near the camp. At sun-up, they looked down the canyon and saw about a dozen Indians and about that many horses. Two small detachments started to pursue these Indians, who led them down the canyon about a mile or two. Here they crossed a dry gully. About a thousand yards past the gully they ran into a well-laid ambush. One trooper was killed and Captain Carter was wounded. ACCORDING TO Guffee, the troopers remained there a full day. Then on the morning of October 12, a cold, wet day, they followed the Indian trail up the canyon. He traced the route of the 300 men, in and out of the canyon, until midmorning. They seemed to be gaining on the Indians. About noon they came to a deep playa lake which Guffee believes to be near the Hale-Floyd County line. They continued until they were near the present site of Plainview. Suddenly a typical West Texas norther blew in, accompanied by a devastating hail storm. The troops, dressed in summer uniforms, suffered through the night. The next morning, though the weather was again clear and balmy, Mackenzie abandoned the drive and the troops began their withdrawal to Blanco Canyon.

New Schedule For Social Security Representative

Beginning with April, the representative from the Plainview Social Security office will be visiting Floyd County each Wednesday at the courthouse between the hours of 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. The schedule has been changed slightly from prior months in order to provide more time for aged or disabled persons to reach the office. Although the office is scheduled to close at 11:30 persons who arrive at the office before 11:30 will be served. Another service now offered by the Plainview Branch office is toll free telephone service. Persons may call the office in Plainview free of charge by dialing the operator and requesting extension 8-4132. The Plainview Branch office is prepared to provide assistance by telephone for nearly all available types of service. By using the enterprise telephone number, an individual can eliminate waiting time and transportation cost.

HORSE SHORT COURSE PLANNED-Tours of horse ranches in the Brenham area, the Horse Research Center and Large Animal Clinic at Texas A&M University will highlight the annual A&M Horse Short Course, Apr. 3-4. There will also be discussions on health problems, reproduction, conditioning, and specialist with the cultural Extension Service.
