City Water Consumption 1 1/2 Million Daily Gallons

By Wendell Tooley
Temperatures hitting over 100 Floydada residents are using and a half million gallons of water each day.
The amount of that water is being used to water the lawns. If you've watered lately, you don't know how much green lawns, Priority is to water and trees if there is a chance to be done.
Bobby Welborn, superintendent of the City Water Department, would have to beat anyone else a day to beat any one else in years past.
Olney just recently made a deal with Wichita Falls to buy a million gallons per day from lake

Kickapoo.
TWO WELLS OUT
Floydada's four good wells west of the city (all four six inches) continue to supply enough water by running night and day for the city's needs. "The wells get ahead of the need and build up storage supply during the night," Welborn said.
Two of the city's six wells are undergoing repair at this time. One, which had an eight inch pump, will be replaced with a smaller submersible pump due to declining water table in that part of town.
Several towns have curtailed water for washing cars and watering the lawn: Petersburg, Seagraves, Childress, Olney to name a few.

Hot Weather...And Hot Checks!

Perhaps hot weather doesn't attract hot checks, but the hot check problem is prevalent in Floyd County at this time. Sheriff's officers and Justice of the Peace officers are trying to find the hot check writers and get the money back for losing merchants.
"We can help the merchant recover hot check money...if we have proper identification," deputy James Hale and J.P. H.E. Porter told this newspaper Tuesday.
"The merchant or clerk should not be concerned about embarrassing the customer by asking for identification," Hale added. Hale said that it is very important that the clerk get the following information:
1. Check writers driver's license number.
2. Full name and address, date of birth.
3. Credit card number.
"And it is very important that the clerk initial the check and see that the persons look like the picture on the driver's license," Hale continued.

Clerks may later have to identify hot checks writer in court.
Judge Porter said the fine for writing hot checks could go as high as $200.

Cash In Advance

Due to the increased cost of postage and bookkeeping, this newspaper will begin a new policy August 1 on payment of classified advertisements.
Unless the person or firm has an established account with the newspaper, cash in advance will be required.
This newspaper regrets this new policy is necessary, but many people just don't pay when the statement is sent to them.....even after several mailings.

All boaters who travel to the Mackenzie Lake are reminded that the boat ramp will be closed from July 31 to August 3 while a new concrete ramp is being built.
Manager of the lake Neal Taylor also reports that work will begin on a dirt ramp at the beach area so that boats can soon be launched from there.
Taylor also said the water is clearing up, fishing is good, water temperature is 84 degrees at six feet depth.

Identi-Kit Aids Suspect Identification

By Wendell Tooley
If you are running a 7-11 convenience store, pulls a suspect the money....and you report the hold-up to police immediately ask,
"Does the suspect look like?"
Identi-Kit II recently helped the Floyd County Sheriff identify a suspect who you tell a deputy about the had a long face, he had he wore glasses, his hair was grey, there was a quint to on the likeness of the suspect,

the description can be put on teletype.
Suppose the suspect is in an arrested lineup over in the Lubbock police headquarters. The Lubbock deputy or policeman takes his Identi-Kit, follows the code numbers and then compares the likeness from the kit with the suspect.
Floyd County Deputy James Hale went to a school in Tulia to learn how to use the kit and feels that it will be a good help in identifying all types of suspects.

COST OF KIT
The kit was purchased through the contributions of $65.00 each from the City of Lockney, the City of Floydada, and Floyd County.

government that makes it a crime to get something wrong in a news story is no fit government to live under.

You set out to track down and jail every reporter guilty of it and the courts will collapse from sheer over-crowding. The right to get at least a few things wrong in a news story is as fundamental to journalism as high rates are to medicine, or promising is to politics, or gossiping is to neighbors.

And when it's the government, as in Russia, that decides what's inaccurate, all the fun is taken out of newspapering.

One of the pleasures in life is seeing if a newspaper, whether it's The Beacon, The Hesperian or The Lubbock Avalanche got something right or wrong in its account of a meeting you attended. The pleasure is intensified if you figure they got something wrong.

As for columnists, the right to be inaccurate is practically a Constitutional prerogative, employed daily right and left. I'm too diplomatic to mention editors. If I were a Russian I'd be writing this from Siberia.

Yours faithfully,

It pays to read paper

ALPINE, Calif. (AP) — Three sisters from Holland will tell you it pays to read a newspaper story closely. They did and found themselves vacationing here after hopping a jetliner for 50 cents each.

"I was reading a news story on the front page of an Amsterdam newspaper about an air fare war between two airlines," 21-year-old Michelle Helendoorn said Friday. "The one airline was offering to fly charter passengers to the United States for about $60 per person."

"The last line of the story said another airline was making the same offer for 50 cents per person, but it was just for the few seats that would be left on the flight."

So Michelle and sisters Ricki Ann, 18, and Marieke, 13, who live in Leersum about 60 miles south of the Dutch capital, said they were the first ones in the line. An airline employee told them only a handful of people had inquired about the newspaper story.

The sisters wish to visit Alpine, which is near San Diego, was sparked by a story Michelle read about efforts to save wild horses in the United States. It mentioned Roy Kupphaldt, and after the sisters contacted him, Kupphaldt invited them to visit him.

What To Look For In Waterbeds.....Besides Water

COLLEGE STATION — Improved quality and more readily available waterbeds add to the popularity of flotation sleeping, says Glerda Moore, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Most people currently buying waterbeds are young —21 to 35 years old—but other age groups are taking a serious look at flotation sleeping, she continues.

Furniture manufacturers are offering case goods or foundation frames in numerous designs and styles to match almost any bedroom decor—from early American to ultra-modern.

There are even two basic types of waterbeds on the market, the specialist reports.

One type is the water mattress that sits in a liner in a frame.

A newer type is the hybrid waterbed. A hybrid has an insulator pad over the water mattress and is completely covered with padding.

When shopping for a waterbed, look for specific features and services, she advises.

Select a water mattress and safety liner made of high quality polyvinylchloride.

Look for a support frame preferably made of metal. The unit should include or allow the use of a heater approved by the Underwriters Laboratory (UL). A heater is a must since the cool water pulls heat from the body.

A difference in body and water temperature causes condensation which leads to mold and mildew. A heater eliminates these problems, the specialist explains.

The dealer or manufacturer should provide service, delivery and installation services. Many offer "satisfaction guaranteed."

A style that is lower than existing waterbeds. Today's waterbeds are more comfortable. The insulator pad is added.

At its July meeting, the Board of Directors of the Plains Underwater Conservation District No. 1 has voted to amend the rules governing the rules for a permit to call for a deposit instead of the amount required.

The report prepared by the District, A. Wayne Wyatt, District Manager, reported that Shallowater had approximately 7 1/2 years of water supply left in the aquifer underlying the corporate limits of the City.

The Mayor and City Council Members already formed action committees to study various solutions that were recommended by the District. Wyatt said that there is "a definite problem and a definite need for some action; however, the Shallowater city leaders are already involved in considerations that should give them adequate time to come up with a near-permanent solution."

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

I want to thank Fay Walter for filling in for me. I had a nice week in the Colorado mountain. It was nice and cool, but not one mountain shower all week. It's nice to be back home. Our devotions have been so nice this week. The singing seems to get better each week.

Monday the residents had to hear all about my trip. I brought back lots of pictures to show to them. Tuesday we had some volunteers to help us make doll heads and finish up some plaques.

Wednesday was so hot, everyone decided to stay home and not take our bus trip. We played games and did manicures. Think every one enjoyed that more anyway! Thursday was our monthly birthday party day. Our three honorees were Annie Carr, Lola Grider and Helen Fisher. Cake and punch was served to all residents by the City Park Church ladies.

Friday was bingo day and we had eight players. I believe that is the most we've had in quite some time, and we really had a ball. Henry Love won three games, Agnes Anderson, Mamie Gray, Anis Franks, Victoria Asher and Ray Reed won two games each and Mary Jordan and Ruby Leonard who didn't play very long won one game each. Clara Williamson missed the game this week, she was busy getting her hair fixed, but she will be with us this next week.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, JULY 11, 1978--Local FFA chapter members attended the 50th Anniversary Convention of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America, July 11-14, at the San Antonio Convention Center. Attending the convention were Blake Kitchens and Jay Waller.

More than 6,000 persons attended the four day convention, the highlight of the year's activities in FFA. Some 1,600 voting delegates representing 828 chapters in the state were on hand to elect officers for the coming year and to honor outstanding members of the organization.

Texas is the state with the largest membership in FFA. There are more than 60,000 members and the national organization has drawn many of its national officers from the ranks of the Texas membership. The current national FFA president is J. Ken Johnson from Nacadoches.

The convention, which celebrated the 50th anniversary of FFA, had as its theme "FFA at 50: A Golden Past and A Brighter Future". Created in 1928, the Future Farmers of America has had almost a million members since its inception. In its first half century, the organization has been noted for its distinguished contributions to youth, leadership, agriculture and vocational education. Current FFA programs encompass every phase of agriculture from livestock production to development of leadership to agricultural economics.

At the convention, outstanding FFA members were recognized for significant achievement in FFA programs including supervised farming, agribusiness and leadership. Also, more than $300,000 in college scholarships was presented to 70 FFA members by nine organizations that are long time supporters of FFA.

LONGER LIFE FOR CUT FLOWERS--There are a number of techniques which can be used to prolong the life and keep cut flowers looking attractive. A Texas Agricultural Extension Service landscape horticulturist suggests that home gardeners and others should cut flowers in the early morning or late afternoon, select flowers that are not fully open, keep them in cool locations, and pamper them to provide longer life.

FLOYDADA Rest Home Birthday Party

Rest Home Birthday Party A summer birthday party... With cakes and lemonade Makes a lazy day more "perky"... And keeps us "on parade".

Our Mrs. Carr is with usHer age is 92.... To friends she's known as Annie... AND with affection, too!

Mrs. Helen Fisher Counts back to 1908... Although she has slowed her pace a bit She carries, still, her "weight".

To Mrs. Lola Grider... We wish a happy day... Her years are 87... And COUNTING all the way!

The birthday song we're singing... ..You know, the same old beat... So sing it like you mean it And give these three a treat!

Thursday, July 13, was birthday time again and ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosted the occasion. Honorees, other residents and guests were ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the special table. Their places were marked with individual birthday cards. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a lovely arrangement of silk roses. The poem was read and all joined in singing the "birthday" song. Mrs. Grider was unable to attend, for which we were very sorry. The birthday cake was delicious angel food, covered with white icing. It was served, along with a most delicious fruit punch to the honorees, residents, guests and employees. At the close of the party The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking". The August party will be Thursday the 17th., 2:30 p.m. You are especially invited to attend and help make the day a little brighter for these lovely people.

This person is Treasa Melton of Madill, OK, formerly of Levelland, TX and is receiving a special welcome and gifts in front of the crawling image of one of the area's giant prehistoric animals of one hundred million years ago. The gifts included sets of Medallions from the Canyon and Amarillo Chamber of Commerce; a weeks vacation in one of several interesting parts of Texas, made possible by the Discover Texas Association; the tooth of a Phytosaur, left nearby 10 million years ago; a Kalanchoe from the Irwin family marking the shipping of over one million patented plants, like the ones decorating the theatre area; and a diamond, formed far in the earth over a million years ago. This diamond has been set in a Texas State charm. Since the show began in 1966, visitors have watched, listened and thrilled to one quarter of a million seconds of "Texas", in a theatre which would cost over a million dollars to rebuild. They have watched one five-hundredth of a million people on this stage, eaten one third of a million barbecue dinners and drunk more than one million cokes.

The winner will be greeted in a canyon greener and more beautiful than ever before and may drive to the end of the park to camp in one of the sixty camping spaces which have been reopened. To see "Texas" write Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call (806) 655-2182. It is wise to make reservations in advance.

The tours are designed to help 4-H members understand the heritage of western culture and opportunities and horizons for employment and future economic developments.

A's Eliminated From NBC Baseball Tournament

By Doug Simpson
The Brownfield A's eliminated the Floydada A's from the prestigious NBC Baseball Tournament Saturday in Lubbock with a convincing 14-2 victory.

Ruben DeLeon took the loss on the mound for the A's, who closed out the 1978 season at .500 with a 12-12 mark. The A's scored their only two runs, first when Johnny

Stenholm Receives Endorsement Of Congressman Omar Burleson

Charles Stenholm received a public endorsement from retiring veteran Congressman Omar Burleson recently in Mineral Wells. The endorsement came after the two had appeared together several times during Stenholm's recent campaigning. Stenholm is the Democratic nominee to "fill the shoes" of Burleson as the 17th District's new Congressman.

"I am so glad you have selected as my successor Charles Stenholm," Burleson opened his remarks. He closed his introduction of Stenholm by stating, "I take great pride in presenting for you and with you Charles Stenholm, our next Congressman."

Burleson was on hand for his public endorsement at a Stenholm Appreciation Get-Together/Fish Fry. The more than 300 persons braving the 106 degree temperature to attend the gathering gave both Burleson and Stenholm standing ovations as they each approached the platform. Stenholm was interrupted seven times with applause from his supporters.

Texas gets cash payment from USDA for lunches

Texas is getting a $4.2 million cash payment from the U.S. Department of Agriculture to make up for a shortfall in commodity donations to the state school for school lunches.

The cash payment is to be used to purchase foods produced in the United States that meet specifications of the school lunch and breakfast programs.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carol Tucker Foreman explained that the "National School Lunch Act provides that states be given a specified value in donated commodities for each lunch served in their schools. If states are not provided with all the programmed commodities, they are given cash payment to make up the difference."

Value of donated commodities for the 1978 school year was programmed at 12 3/4 cents per lunch.

As of May 15, commodities actually donated and scheduled to be donated by May 30, end of the school year, amounted to about 11.05 cents a lunch. USDA's cash payments are therefore, approximately 1.7 cents a lunch. The per lunch amount will vary from state to state.

Nationwide, cash payments by USDA's Food and Nutrition Service to make up for the commodities donation shortfall is about $74 million.

The notice announcing the cash payments appeared in the Federal Register of June 20.

ing. Either is capable of contributing to increased livestock production by as much as 31 percent, according to recent research.

Harvesting, though, removes all the woody material from the pasture. This enables the rancher to put cattle on the cleared pasture immediately.

With aerial spraying the trees are killed, but the woody material remains an obstacle to cattle attempting to get to the forage underneath. With other mechanical forms of mesquite control, such as rootplowing, raking, roller chopping or tree dozing, the forage is usually damaged to the extent that the pasture needs to be rested for a considerable amount of time before livestock can be grazed.

With all methods re-growth control is necessary which averages an additional $2.18 annual cost per acre using a tractor harvester removal system.

The study proposed, however, that the ranchers only bear a minimal amount of the cost of harvesting, perhaps as little as $1 per acre.

The majority of the cost would be born by the processing plant, which would, according to Cauble, receive the wood from the rancher free.

Cauble said the proposed uses for the chipped wood ranged from livestock feed to fuel to insulation material to cheap building materials.

The system would be beneficial for both the plant, which would have a continual, adequate supply of raw material, and for the rancher, who could increase the use of his pastures and the efficiency level of his labor, said Freeman.

The amount of profit generated by the system would be affected by several factors, including distance of the pasture from the plant, the density of the available mesquite, transportation and labor costs and equipment replacement costs.

Freeman said the technology already exists to operate such a harvesting and processing operation. All that is lacking is setting up such a system.

The plant itself could be begun either by a private business or by a cooperative of the area ranchers.

Such a system could be beneficial for all concerned, he said, by providing readily available, low-cost raw material for the plant, and helping to increase rancher profits by helping increase livestock production.

participate in a Livestock and Money Symposium and party together.

The National Golden Spur Award will be presented for the first time to honor one person who has brought distinction to the industry. The award, designed to spotlight humanistic and scientific contributions of the livestock and ranching industries to society, is sponsored by six organizations.

They are the American Quarter Horse Association, the National Cattlemen's Association, the National Wool Growers Association, the Ranching Heritage Association, the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

The Ranching Heritage Association is headquartered in Lubbock, and it will hold its annual Ranch Day Saturday, Sept. 23, at the Ranching Heritage Center of The Museum of Texas Tech University. The center is a 12-acre outdoor exhibit of authentic ranching structures, furnishings and paraphernalia depicting the history of ranching in America.

The National Golden Spur Award sponsors, with the Texas Cattle Feeders Association and the Texas Tech University College of Agricultural Sciences, will sponsor the Livestock and Money Symposium.

Events will begin at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 22, with the symposium, expected to attract participants of national prominence discussing, in morning sessions, government regulations as they affect the livestock industry and, in the afternoon, production problems including economic factors as well as the end product.

The symposium is expected to end at 2:30 p.m., and at 6:30 p.m. a Prairie Party will begin in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. More than 1,000 are expected to attend.

The National Golden Spur Award will be presented at the Prairie Party. Entertainment will include a parade of historic fashions and historic ranch music. Artist John Meigs is designer for the decorations. Dancing will follow the program.

For participants who intend to make a weekend of the events there will be the Texas Tech-Arizona football game in Jones Stadium in Lubbock Saturday night.

Tickets to the symposium, including a luncheon, are $15 and Prairie Party tickets are the same with tables of eight selling for $120. Additional information may be obtained by writing any of the sponsors or the Ranching Heritage Association, P.O. Box 4499, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

West Mesquite Trees!

A new look at harvesting has shown that one of the most economical means for mesquite for fuel is by using a tractor harvester removal system. The annual cost per acre for harvesting was approximately $21.18 in the study, versus approximately $3.99 for aerial spray-

American Hot Wax, 50's Rock 'n' Roll Film Opens Sunday At CAPADA THEATRE

Paramount Pictures' "American Hot Wax," a film about the exciting early days of rock 'n' roll, will open Sunday at the Capada Theatre, set in New York City in 1959. The film re-creates one of the most emotionally-charged moments in history to have been a teenager. "American Hot Wax" stars Tim McIntire as Alan Freed, the most influential disc jockey of the period. Jerry Lee Lewis and Chuck Berry are special guest stars. Along with "Screamin'" Jay Hawkins, they perform in the film's climactic Big Beat Show at the Brooklyn Paramount. The film is produced by Art Brauner and directed by Floyd Mutigny from a screenplay by John Kyle and Art Brauner.

who are most affected by the music he is playing. The film company also formed a group called The Chesterfields, who are discovered in the course of "American Hot Wax" to open the Big Beat Show. The group (Carl Earl Weaver, Al Chalk, Sam Harkness and Arnold McCuller) has already been signed by A&M Records, who will produce their own album, as well as the two-record soundtrack album of the film.

Filmed entirely in Los Angeles and at the Paramount Studios in Hollywood, the Wiltern Theatre served as the Brooklyn Paramount for the movie's rock 'n' roll show. Director of photography William Fraker had as many as eight cameras rolling to capture the performers on film for the movie's most ambitious sequence. All the music heard in the film was recorded live, with music supervision by Kenny Vance, who also formed all the groups who appear in the show.

The marquee lights blaze bright as the crowds throng to Alan Freed's Big Beat Show at the Brooklyn Paramount in "American Hot Wax," a film that re-creates the exciting early days of rock and roll.

Uphold Children's Rights
 "Children are the most under-represented and under-privileged group in our society," an executive of the Children's Defense Fund told a recent symposium on "The Family: Setting Priorities."
 Adult Americans must fight for the rights of all children, not just our own. Ellen Hofmann told family health care professionals at the meeting, sponsored by the Institute for Pediatric Service of the Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company.
 We must stop thinking that children are outside the political process, identify child benefit goals and funnel our energies into a powerful political striking force for the welfare of the world's children, Ms. Hofmann stated. Their salvation is also society's, she concluded.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C.—PEOPLE ARE ASKING IF WASHINGTON HAS received the "message" from California's adoption of Proposition 13. The answer is definitely yes.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, FOR THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS, momentum has been gathering for the reduction of taxes at all levels of Government. The California action is spurring efforts in many States, including our own State of Texas, to reduce taxes. On the Federal level there is reasonable certainty that when a tax bill is enacted by the Congress, there will be a reduction of approximately $15 billion - $10 billion for individual taxpayers and $5 billion for business.

THERE IS ALSO GREAT MOMENTUM TO REDUCE TAX ON CAPITAL GAINS from its present rate of about 49% to at least 35% or possibly to 25%, which was the rate before the tax act of 1969.

WHEN A TAX BILL IS BROUGHT UP FOR CONSIDERATION BEFORE THE year is out, there will be a proposal to cut income taxes by as much as one-third. This is known as the Kemp-Roth Amendment which we will, in the meantime, be hearing a great deal about. There is no question that people are fed up with big Government, big spending, and big taxes. The weakness in these proposals for tax reductions is the usual failure to relate it to spending. In the case of California, the State is already looking to Washington for money to make up revenues lost by the property tax decrease recently voted. New York City has led the Nation in asking the Federal Government to bail them out of their bankrupt situation. Aside from taxes, the only way a State or municipality can raise money is through the sale of bonds voted by the people; the Federal Government can either turn the crank at the Federal reserve and issue more paper money or go out into the money market and borrow it.

THROUGH REVENUE SHARING AND GRANTS OF VARIOUS KINDS, the Federal Government is already contributing a substantial part in support of state and local governments. As taxes are reduced by local governments, Washington will be looked to more and more to make up the difference in the cost of various programs. Forty-four States have a surplus in their treasuries at this time, five States have a balanced budget, and one State is in deficit. But, the Federal Government with its huge National debt and a deficit hovering between $50 and $60 billion will be called upon to make up the difference to finance programs at levels before tax cuts were made.

THE POINT HERE IS THAT IT IS MORE POPULAR TO TALK OF reducing taxes, than reducing expenditures.

EVERYONE HAS THEIR IDEAS ABOUT WHERE CUTS IN SPENDING should be made. Some want to cut back on defense preparedness by eliminating some of the most modern weapons. We know that Social Security is not going to be trimmed and no one really believes that our expensive unemployment compensation system, costing $20 billion, is going to be appreciatively cut back.

THOSE FROM THE CITIES THINK THAT A CRACKDOWN SHOULD BE made on agricultural supports, others believe that our interstate highway system, the finest in the world, should be practically eliminated, while some feel that more money instead of less should go into environmental protection, industrial safety, and public health.

NO ONE BELIEVES THAT VETERANS BENEFITS ARE GOING TO BE tampered with and so on and on it goes with not very much said about how all these obligations, authorized for four or five years in advance, are really going to be shrunk to the point of real savings.

JUSTICE OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES ONCE SAID THAT HE WAS glad to pay taxes. They were, he said, his "investment in civilization". Most people probably feel this way too, but as we have said in this space time and again, the real complaint should be how our hard earned tax money is spent. So, firing one barrel at tax reductions is half the answer; the other has to shoot down high spending.
