Stenholm Coming To Lockney And Floydada

Lockney and Floydada Monday will be met by Stenholm when it comes to the visit has been made by the coordinator; and J.T. Lockney and John Stenholm, Floyd County...

The Federal budget must be balanced," Stenholm has repeatedly told his followers. Speaking of agriculture, Stenholm states, "The most critical problem facing agriculture today is low farm prices received vs. high cost of production. Supply management and improved marketing are vital to a profitable agriculture."

'Winds Out To Avenge Last Year's Idalou Victory

By Wendell Tooley
The Idalou Wildcats will be out to retain their number one district rating and sixth ranking in state when they hit Wester Field Friday night. The Wildcats cinched the district championship as they defeated the Whirlwinds 17-6 last year. The 'Winds only allowed three points the last half, but the Wildcats got loose the first half. Kick-off time is 7:30 p.m. and a standing room only crowd is expected if the weather is good.

Brad Debusk, both considered "small quarterbacks". The Idalou team is tall, rangy, and the Whirlwinds will be keying on veteran fullback 200 pound Ricky Hobbs. Another running back they remember from last year is 170 pound senior Buckles Bryant. Buckles also catches passes. The Wildcat power attack also features a hard running back by the name of Gary Smith.

WHIRLWINDS

Lions Pancake Supper

Everyone is invited to eat at the Lions Pancake Supper Friday from 5 to 7:30 p.m. preceding the Idalou game here. The supper will be served in the Junior High Cafeteria. The Lions promise all you can eat, plenty of pancakes and Ponderosa sausage. Admission is $2.00 for adults, $1.00 for children. Proceeds will go to help buy a school bus for Girltown.

Mrs. Bill Tye, Edell Moore, and Wanda Hickerson (l to r) display awards received from the American Cancer Society October 19.

Claude Wins Again!

Claude Estes, Box 201, Lamesa 79331 again wins the Hesperian football contest with only two misses. He wins the $10 first prize. Claude missed the Abernathy-Tulia and Arkansas-Texas games. In second place and winner of the $6.00 cash prize is Cody Joe Paty, Floydada. He...or more likely his mother...or his sister...missed only three contests. Tom Cathey is back in the winner's circle. He missed four contests and will receive the $4.00 third place prize. Others who missed only four contests include: Shannon Paty, Jim Curtsinger, Greg Pruitt, Bill Moore, and Glenda Moore. Tom picked Floydada to beat on the tie breaker game with a total score of 21. The total was 17. Only four more big contest remain in the season, so better fill out a copy of the contest in Sunday's Hesperian.

Rash Of Vandalism Investigated

Lockney police and Floyd County sheriff's office personal have investigated several incidents of vandalism (the kind described as "criminal mischief") in recent weeks. Three incidents were reported on October 9. Someone shotgunned the radiator of a tractor belonging to Paul Hrbacek, started the engine, and left it running. Hrbacek discovered the vandalism and shut off the tractor engine before it "burned up." Someone broke the windshield of a tractor belonging to Pat Frizzell and took a radio from the tractor. Both tractors were in the same area three miles east and a mile and a half south of Lockney. In another incident reported the same day, vandals shot out all the glasses and shot holes in the hood and radiator of a truck belonging to R.C. Clark Trucking Company of Lubbock. A first-aid kit and a fire extinguisher were taken from the truck, which was parked at a construction location 12 miles east of Lockney on highway 97. On Sunday, October 15, the sheriff's office learned that a building on the fairgrounds in Lockney had been broken into. The vandals had ridden motorcycles into the fair exhibit building after breaking into a metal door on the south side. Near the east end of the building they had built a huge bonfire, using banners, hay, and wood which they found in the building. Pegboard in the fair art department was destroyed, and a plate-glass door in a cooler near the east end of the building was broken. The following day, Kelton Shaw reported vandalism to an automobile parked in a storage building at Patterson Grain. Police chief Bill McConnell said someone entered the building, shattered the back glass of the car, broke the windshield, tried to pry the trunk open, tore off both side mirrors, broke the top part of the grille, tore the hood scoop loose, and cut all four tires with a knife. The vandalism is under investigation by the police department and sheriff's office. Anyone having information about any of the incidents is asked to contact the Lockney Police Department of the Floyd County Sheriff's Office. Three Lubbock men were arrested and charged with theft after they pulled "quick-change" maneuvers at several Lockney stores. The Dairy Queen restaurant and the Gulf station lost $10 each, but the quick-change artists were not successful at Allsup's and Thomason's grocery store, where they apparently tried to pull the same trick. Police Chief McConnell, Deputy Sheriff Jim Gollihar, and DPS Trooper Keith Gross, who had been investigating the scheme, arrived at Thomason's just as two of the men were leaving the store. The third sat in the 1972 Cadillac in which the men were reported to have been travelling. All three were taken into custody at the sheriff's office in Floydada and charged with theft.

THIS HALF BEEF will be given away at halftime Friday night by the Quarterback Club which will be selling tickets now and before the game. # COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Department of Agriculture is calling for public comment on cotton program provisions, some of which will be effective as early as November 1 of this year.

Interested comment must be received by Ray Johnson, Director of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20510, by October 20.

Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, issues most likely to elicit comment from High Plains cotton producers include the target price, and whether the Secretary should use any of the available mechanisms to reduce 1979 target price.

Recommendations will be developed by the organization of Directors at a meeting October 11, Johnson is expected to direct comment to USDA, he adds, and producers are invited to convey their thoughts to PCG through their respective counties or to the PCG office in Lubbock, Texas, by October 11.

Target price for 1979 must be announced no later than October 11. Under existing law the loan cannot be below 85 percent of a three-year average target price, based on the last five years, from which the highest and the year with the lowest target price are excluded. According to USDA figures, this year's target price is to be 50.23 cents per pound.

USDA also has authority under the law to set the loan level between this minimum and maximum, provided 90 percent of the adjusted average Liverpool "A Index" for the year beginning July 1 of this year falls below 50.23 cents.

The minimum target price for 1979 is 51 cents per pound. The Secretary is directed to adjust the 1978 target price to reflect any change in the cost of producing cotton in 1976 and 1977 cost to the average cost for the years 1977 and 1978. The Secretary also has authority to adjust target price if a cotton set-aside is in effect for 1978. Target price is increased for any other commodity if a set-aside is in effect.

When cotton is required if the Secretary determines that the set-aside of upland cotton will, in the absence of a study of Japan, be excessive. And, if a mandatory set-aside is required, the Secretary has authority to place a limit on the amount of cotton in the U.S.

When a required set-aside is in effect for cotton, the Secretary has authority to make land diversion payments to producers if he determines that such payments are necessary to assist in adjusting cotton production to desirable levels. The amount of voluntary payments may be determined by the Secretary on a bid basis or by such other means as he determines appropriate.

Fires often start in workshops due to the presence of flammable materials—oils, paints, and varnishes. Be sure to carefully clean up after using these materials; keep cans of paint remover, turpentine and other flammable materials tightly sealed and stored in a fireproof cabinet. Also, be sure to pick up and discard oily rags after use.

PSYCHOLOGY

Second Honeymoons

Once children are born, husband and wife all too often start redefining themselves as "mommy and daddy"—exclusively. But maintaining the adult-to-adult relationship is critically important to a marriage.

Taking a vacation without the children can be a positive step: a few days "away from it all" at a resort may be ideal. There, with no pressure, the focus of your time can be on each other. At resorts with good facilities, you can be as busy or as idle as you choose. And all the work is done by someone else!

The Catskill Mountains in New York State are scenically beautiful and easily accessible. One of the area's resorts, the Nevele Country Club, rates Mobil's Four Star Award. Operating the year round, the Nevele offers facilities for all popular sports, fine meals and nightly entertainment.

Many young parents hesitate to take a vacation until "the children are old enough." Be assured that your children are not likely to suffer if you entrust them to the care of friends or relatives for a short time.

FAMILY HEALTH

HAY FEVER

"Hay fever" is actually a medical misnomer since it has nothing to do with either hay or fever. According to a pamphlet issued by Abbott Laboratories, it is quite simply an allergy developed by people with a heightened sensitivity to certain substances called allergens that are inhaled, swallowed, touched or injected into the body.

These suggestions can help make your work area comfortable:

Good ventilation and sufficient lighting are essential for your workshop. Unless the area is beside a big window, you'll need a strong fan and a bright overhead light by your workbench. For close work, you can install an adjustable droplight fixture, or a gooseneck lamp.

Loose papers, wood shavings and sawdust must be swept up before you "lock up." To clean away tough, greasy soil, spray Grease relief* all purpose degreaser directly onto washable surfaces and wipe with a damp sponge. To remove greasy spots and stains from washable workclothes, spray the degreaser directly onto greasy areas and launder normally.

Corn Still Left From Last Year

WASHINGTON — A huge leftover reserve of corn, the largest in six years, is in storage just as farmers are in the midst of harvesting another record crop this fall.

The Agriculture Department said corn inventories on Oct. 1 totaled more than 1.06 billion bushels. That was about 57 million bushels more than experts earlier estimated the Oct. 1 corn "carryover" to be.

The Oct. 1 inventory is the amount of corn left over as the new 1978-79 corn marketing year began. Farmers are harvesting another record crop, estimated by the Agriculture Department at 6.82 billion bushels.

John Hill calls for state tax freeze

state taxes in Texas are among the lowest in the nation, and I want to keep them there. As I've said many times, I'll veto a tax increase before the ink dries on the paper.

Attorney General, John Hill said he could increase the efficiency of his office without any necessary budget increases. He absorbed a three-fold increase in office caseload by hiring top talent capable of higher productivity. The result: his staff has doubled their average workload, and the increased court caseloads and enforcement of penal laws returned $25 for every $1 of state funds spent on the courts.

Governor, John Hill will insist on this same type of increased productivity for all state agencies. He will institute new controls on federal funds, demand that we follow our "pay-as-you-go" policy, and use zero-base budgeting to eliminate unneeded programs before any new programs are added. And he'll veto any state tax increase — there won't be any new taxes on Texas.

JOHN HILL GOVERNOR

Quitaque News

An old time soaker drenched this area on September 19 and 20, and after the front had moved out the best moisture conditions in many months prevailed. From 3 to 4 1/2 inches of rain fell over a WIDE AREA, and it left the country in great shape. This rain was too late to be much help to the cotton, but in West Texas no matter when the moisture comes it ALWAYS HELPS, and this was certainly true this time, for it broke a PROLONGED DRY SPELL. Earlier in the month, over Labor Day weekend, from one to three inches of rain fell and this

WAS in time to help most of the cotton below the Caprock. As a result most of the valley crop looks VERY GOOD at this writing, and if we do not catch an early freeze, we could have a fine harvest.

The rains were also great on the newly sowed wheat and pastures, and they should improve the already favorable cattle outlook even more in the days ahead. The good rains did not leave a dry spot in the entire region. Even the Cedar Hill vicinity on the edge of the Plains, which had been so dry all this year, was a virtual sea of water when the rains ended. It was an inspiring sight to see furrowed fields full of water and see bar ditches brimming full of nature's precious commodity. The best thing of all about the moisture, however, was the WAY IT FELL, for it covered a span of 48 hours, and very little water was lost by runoff. Even the peanut growers, who have to water their peanuts until harvest time in late October, were able to shut down their irrigation wells for a few days, and all over this area farmers and businessmen alike were jubilant and happy over the wonderful turn of events.

There was a heavy influx of bollworms on much of the Plains near the last of August and in early September, and quite a bit of spraying had to be done for worm control. The Plains area was hit harder than under the Caprock, where damage was inflicted only in scattered localities. The boll weevil picture is MUCH BRIGHTER this year than in years past, for the number of weevils caught in traps in individual fields range from zero to 450 per week, which is only slightly higher than peak weevil catches last June. A few weevils have been caught above the Caprock, but no weevils were found in fields adjacent to the traps. This is a WELCOME SURPRISE to program officials, for they had expected a westward migration to the Plains by the boll weevil this year. Only 40% of the fields had had weevil infestations this year, compared with 100% of the fields at this time a year ago. This means that the Diapause Program this winter will also be MORE SUCCESSFUL than normal, and the chances are EXCELLENT that very few weevils should be able to overwinter and plague our 1979 crops.

Commodity Prices—Things are not always as dark as they seem, even with farming and the prices received for agricultural products. We ran across a PRICE COMPARISON of agricultural products in the Southwest Farm Press on September 7, 1978, compared with prices a year earlier, and here are the results. Grain Sorghum, in 1978, $3.60, last year, $2.80; Cotton, $58.10, last year, $46.50; Wheat, $2.92, last year, $2.12; Soybeans, $5.46, last year, $4.35; Corn, $2.27, last year,

$1.79, and Peanuts, 38 1/2%, last year, 36%.

Tractors Headed For Congress

SPRINGFIELD, Co.—Farmers and ranchers of the American Agriculture Movement (AAM) plan to start rolling their rigs to Washington, D.C. shortly after Congress convenes in mid-January.

"We'll give Congress or Ag Secretary Bob Bergland the length of the time it takes us to get to D.C. to act," said Derral Schroder, spokesman for American Ag. "We'll stay there until it happens. We'll camp anywhere and everywhere and become residents of Washington, D.C. until we get our demands."

Schroder said the National American Ag Tractorcade will begin from five or six locations in the country, including Lamar, Co., Amarillo, Tx., Dallas Tx., Houston, Tx., Bismarek, ND., and Pierre, SD.

"We'll travel about 100 miles a day," Schroder said. "We'll have meetings every night and pass out flyers on the way. We'll gather more tractors and supporters as we go."

Schroder said that tractors from the West Coast will be hauled to the closest starting point. The tractorcade will, according to the AAM spokesman, "Parade through most of the large metropolitan areas such as Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Indianapolis."

American Agriculture Representatives are counting on making the winter trek in two weeks.

"After reaching Washington," Schroder said, "Each morning we will travel to the capitol to urge our Congressman to act."

Schroder said American Ag is getting businesses to help sponsor the tractorcade. "Four sponsors per tractor should be our goal," he said.

EXPORT FINANCING
The Export-Import Bank of the United States and the Foreign Credit Insurance Association announced a new program designed to facilitate increased commercial bank financing of bulk agricultural commodity exports. The program is designed to aid commercial bank financing for agricultural commodity exports.

SEASON NEAR

Aoudad Sheep

LUBBOCK—An unlimited quantity of aoudad permits are available to landowners in eight Panhandle counties due to the increase in the number of the sheep throughout the caprock country.

"The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will issue approximately 500 aoudad permits to the landowners and they in turn can issue these permits to sportsmen wanting to hunt the elusive aoudad sheep," said David Dvorak, wildlife biologist.

The 1978 aoudad season will be from Nov. 4-17 in Armstrong, Briscoe, Donley, Floyd, Hall, Motley, Randall, and Swisher counties.

The daily and season bag limit of one aoudad will be hard to fill if the statistics from recent years are duplicated in 1978. Last year, approximately 450 permits were issued to hunters with only 133 aoudad bagged during the two-week hunt for a hunter success rate of only 30 percent.

The record aoudad for the Panhandle was bagged in 1976 with a horn length of 34 1/2 inches. This record still stands with many 1978 hunters hoping to come home with a bigger horn. P&WD wildlife biologists will be spot checking the hunters during the hunt to obtain animal and hunter information vital to future management of the sheep.

Texas game wardens will also be checking hunters for the permit and license requirements throughout the eight-county area.

Most successful aoudad hunters spend 95 percent of their time glassing the caprock areas due to extreme difficulty in the sheep. The aoudad is a wild sheep of the mountains. It has a thick, curly coat of wool. Its horns are curved and pointed. It is a very hardy animal and can survive in the most rugged and high altitudes. It is a very elusive animal and is difficult to hunt. It is a very important animal in the mountain regions of the world. It is a very beautiful animal and is a very popular animal to hunt. evidence that the Council will on merit win its case against OSHA. The Council president said the stay serves the interests of employees and employers alike. "Textile workers are now adequately protected by the existing standard and industry-initiated health and safety programs," he said, "and non-textile workers have not been shown to have any more respiratory problems than the general population." Mann pointed out that the District of Columbia order does not apply to a separate cotton dust standard affecting gins. Cases relating to this standard are pending in the Fifth Circuit Court of appeals in New Orleans where briefs are to be filed shortly.

Over 400 Attend Fisher-Connally Dinner

Over 400 people attended the John Connally-Bill Fisher Appreciation Dinner Tuesday night, October 17th. The event, billed as "An Evening of Political and Musical Entertainment" featured three musical groups and three political speeches. Connally was introduced by Jack Cox, who was Connally's Republican opponent for governor in 1962. Connally, responding to his introduction, told the crowd "we didn't come here to talk about me, but about Bill Fisher."

Connally said through his travels he sees that the people lack confidence in government. "They are concerned," he said, "about inflation, taxes, the bureaucracy, budget spending and deficits." He pointed out that the President was not totally at fault. The blame, he said, goes to the Congress that has been controlled by Democrats for all but two sessions since 1931. Governor Connally said he did not know Fisher's opponent and he did not need to. "I'm sure he's a nice man and a good farmer," he said "but we need good farmers to farm." Connally added that Stenholm should not be elected to Congress for any reason because "what we don't need is more Democrats." In his speech, Fisher said he is "tired of promises" from Democrats including his opponent.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

October 23. The South Plains News has hit its Monday morning newsstand with a cold, gray, gloomy atmosphere. The high temperature has not been above 50 degrees. We feel like we are in a winter wonderland. The Baptist Union and family, and Mrs. Murray Julian. The music recital was held at 2:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chappell from Duncan, Oklahoma were here visiting with their folks, the Grigsby Miltons, the Bud Edwards and the O. Chappells, over the weekend. We offer our sympathy to Mrs. A.V. Bethel in the death of a sister Mrs. Parry Hodge, of Magnum, Oklahoma, who died October 8. Services were held there in Magnum on October 11 at 2:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Bethel and another sister of Snyder, Mrs. Eris Guynes, went to Magnum, for the funeral and services of this sister, who had raised her. Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Calahan

Jr. were appointed as missionary associates in Libya, Africa. Junior will be teaching at the seminary. He is a former pastor of Fairmont Park Church in La Porte and is from South Plains, where he was ordained. He and his family have lived here most of their lives. June was formerly June Foster of Floydada. We extend our best wishes and love to them in their new venture. Junior held the last revival meeting held here at the South Plains Baptist Church. The Calahans are among the 45 missionaries that were appointed last week. There were 27 Texans. Next Sunday, October 29 is Great-Day in the Morning High Attendance Day in Sunday School, so everybody should be on hand. Try to bring one other person with you. Also, there will be a guest speaker for the morning worship hour, Mr. Grover Little, Gideon speaker from Odessa.

On Monday, October 30 Rev. Fred Blake and Mrs. Blake will leave for the Baptist General Convention, which will be held in Austin October 31-November 2. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton left last Monday to spend the week over in Los Alamos, New Mexico, with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Upton and boys. They came home Friday. They went on to Amarillo where they spent Saturday with their granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abel.

Mrs. Jimmy Hunter was ill last Thursday, and Mrs. Margaret Kitchens taught her 5-6th grade pupils that day. On Friday Mrs. Kendis Julian taught her 5-6th grades while Mrs. Hunter was still on the sick list. The South Plains PTA is having their Halloween Carnival at the South Plains School at 8 p.m. on Thursday, October 26, this coming week. Make your plans to attend and take in all the fun of Halloween. Enjoy the games, the children in all their Halloween dress, and also, added this year is the Country Store, where you may find something you would like to buy.

WMU of the Baptist Church was held at the church Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. L.T. Wood and Mrs. Genet Blake giving the program on "Japan", and Mrs. Fletcher Powell assisting. Mrs. Tillman Powell gave the call of prayer. Others present were Mrs. Kendis Julian and Mrs. Murray Julian. There were 40 RA's, GA's and others present for the organizations at the Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon.

World Day of Prayer will be held at the Pansy Baptist Church on November 6, beginning at 10:00 a.m. and several from South Plains plan to attend for the program. Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake, Mrs. Tillman Powell and Mrs. Murray Julian went to Crosbyton Thursday afternoon and evening to attend the 18th annual meeting of the Caprock Baptist Association, which was held at the First Baptist Church on October 19. The 1979 meeting will be held at the Silverton First Baptist Church. Rev. Fred Blake will be moderator at the Associational Meetings next year.

Time is turned backward on Sunday, October 29. Be sure to turn your clock back before you go to bed, so you won't be late for church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. C.L. Julian, Clifford Julian and David Julian, from Hollywood, Florida, flew here October 5 to be here for the services for Murray Julian on October 6. They were here until October 7 with Mrs. Murray Julian and children, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Julian, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Julian and families.

Teenagers from the South Plains Baptist Church went to Plainview Saturday night for a bowling party with their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake joined them in Plainview, and there were seven from the church who enjoyed games of bowling and supper at the Taco Plaza.

of production, as determined by USDA, and a 10 or 15-year average of actual yields.

Producers would have the option to cover 50 percent, 70 percent, or 90 percent of the average yield established for each farm. At the 50 percent level the farmer would be asked to pay about half the "true risk premium," and the government would bear the other half. Producers would pay about two-thirds of the true risk premium for 70 percent coverage and about 85 percent of the premium to insure 90 percent of production.

USDA gave two examples showing how the numbers would look for coverage on typical High Plains cotton farms, using the 52-cents per pound cost of production set by USDA for 1978.

The true risk premium, as figured by USDA on an irrigated yield of 490 pounds, would be $7.75. The producer would be asked to pay an estimated $3.70 and would have coverage on 245 pounds of production at 52 cents per pound or $127 per acre in the event of a total loss. A premium payment of $9.35 per acre would get coverage on 345 pounds or $179 per acre. For a $22.50 premium, 445 pounds of production would be insured and a total loss would bring $231 per acre indemnity.

A dryland farm, where the risk is greater, would pay $4.25 per acre premium for 50 percent coverage of a 270-pound yield, $10.65 premium for 70 percent, and $25.60 per acre for 90 percent coverage. Dollar indemnities after total loss, respectively, would be $70, $99 and $127.

Officials emphasize that these figures are tentative pending further cost calculations and Congressional action.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., 25-county producer organization based in Lubbock, was represented at the meeting by its executive officer, Donald Johnson. The PCG Board's position calls for an extension of the current disaster program until it is certain the FCPA will be an adequate replacement.

Additional details of USDA's planning for an all-risk crop insurance program were revealed at a recent meeting of USDA officials and producer representatives in Kansas City.

Meanwhile the odds are increasing against getting the proposed Federal Crop Protection Act (FCPA) passed and the program in operation before the disaster payment section of current law expires at the end of 1979. The House Agriculture Subcommittee heard Administration witnesses at a one-day hearing July 27 but hearings have not been scheduled before the full House Committee or the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland said earlier that legislation needed to be passed in July of this year if insurance was to be available on 1980 crops, but it now appears unlikely that the FCPA can become law before next year.

The Administration plan calls for the FCPA to provide all-risk insurance to all producers of cotton, feed grains, wheat, sunflowers, soybeans, sugar beets and other crops of less importance on the High Plains. Coverage would be based on cost

About 4,000 school personnel are expected for the eleventh annual convention of District XVII, Texas State Teachers Association, to be held in Lubbock, Friday, October 27. Most of the schools in the 17 West Texas counties that comprise the district TSTA group will dismiss classes Friday....and so will Floydada.

Along with teachers and administrators, educational secretaries will be participants in the general session. A TAXPAYER'S
BILL OF RIGHTS IS PAST DUE

Bill Clements believes we still have a chance to preserve our future by establishing constitutional protection against excessive taxation and runaway government spending.

Bill Clements believes the people of Texas should have the power necessary to ratify or reject tax policies made by legislators.

To establish this power (of the people), Bill Clements will introduce an amendment to the Texas Constitution that would give the people of Texas this right.

Bill Clements' "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights" would:

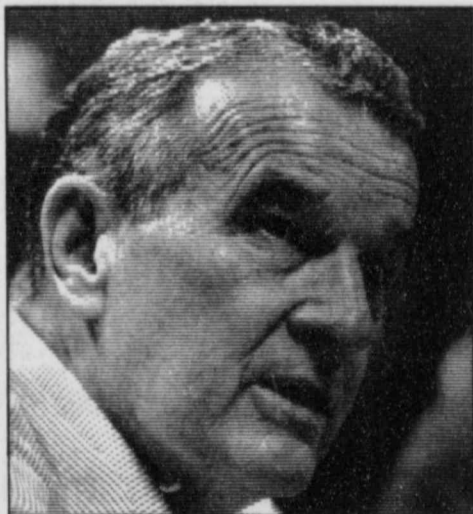

- Give Texans the right of initiative and referendum, a phrase that means we, the people, have a right to vote on the taxes to be levied on us.
- Place a ban on corporate or personal income tax in Texas.
- Require a two-thirds record vote of both houses of the legislature to pass a tax bill.
- Allow local taxpayers to call an election to ratify or reject a tax increase created by a local governmental unit.

Bill Clements believes in Texas and the people of Texas.

Bill Clements thinks that elected officials must work for the people and represent them properly.

As governor of Texas, Bill Clements will work for and with the people of Texas.

people and provide the means to insure that principle endures.

Amendment Pros And Cons

governmental powers. Beginning in 1919 with its creation as the state purchasing agent, the board of control, in effect, has exercised the function of calling for and awarding all state contracts. Compliance with the constitutional provision requiring approval of the governor, the secretary of state, and the comptroller has generally been perfunctory, although the board of control does give notice to the three officers when bids on printing or fuel are to be opened.

A proposed amendment eliminating the approval-function of the governor, the secretary of state, and the comptroller was submitted to the governor in 1968 and was defeated. In 1975, the legislature enacted Articles 664-5 and 664-6. Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, which authorized state agencies to purchase products and services from "nonprofit agencies for the blind" without letting competitive bids. The legislature found that the program would result both in the employment of persons with no alternative employment and in substantial savings over the cost of institutionalizing the individuals employed. Two years later the attorney general issued an opinion ruling that Article XVI, Section 21, of the Texas Constitution prohibited the purchase of stationery and supplies, including items such as pens and pencils, without competitive bidding. (Op. Atty. Gen. H-984 (1977).) Those items are some of the principal products of the visually handicapped. This constitutional provision therefore thwarts full realization of the legislature's attempt to help the visually handicapped.

ARGUMENTS

For:
1. The social and economic value of employing otherwise unemployable handicapped individuals far outweighs any value of competitive bidding on products and services that can be supplied by them. The taxpayers would not suffer any loss because the law requires that the items be purchased at a fair market price. If an apparent loss were suffered, it would be offset by the savings resulting from private employment of these individuals rather than their state-supported institutionalization.

2. The governor, the secretary of state, and the comptroller have many important duties and should not be burdened with the strictly storekeeping function of approving purchasing contracts. Approval of contracts by these officials has in actual practice become a mere formality and something of a nuisance. The "approval" is actually performed by ministerial subordinates, so that the requirement has in reality become so much "red tape."

Against:
1. Even though the legislature's policy of helping employ handicapped individuals is praiseworthy, the policy of competitive bidding established under Article XVI, Section 21, is also sound. Competitive bidding for these products and services insures that the state will receive the lowest possible price for what it purchases. The establishment of a "fair market price" under a statute is not assurance to the taxpayer that the government is operating in the least costly manner. This constitutional requirement is stronger than any statute enacted by the legislature since change requires an affirmative vote of the citizens. It is therefore the best protection of the taxpayer's dollar.

2. The action of the governor, the secretary of state, and the comptroller in approving purchasing contracts awarded by the board of control may be perfunctory, but nonetheless it serves as a check on those actually performing the function. Purchasing agents and officials exert more caution with knowledge that their actions are subject to review by high state officials. In addition, because the governor and the comptroller are elected officials, the voters have recourse if it becomes apparent that these contracts are being improperly awarded.

The Floyd Philosopher State And Local Governments Have Out-Smarted Washington

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm thinks he has discovered an odd fact this week.

The states, counties, cities, towns and school districts of this country have out-smarted Washington.

Look at it this way: when people complain about high taxes and government waste, who are they thinking of? Mostly Washington, of course. "It's those tax-eating, tax-spending politicians in Washington that're ruining this country," they say.

As though it was minor news hardly worth mentioning except to fill up space with an inside page, a big newspaper I got hold of printed the following:

State and local government tax collections across the country increased 10.5 percent in the past year, reaching a total of $192.2 billion."

The authority for this? The U.S. Commerce Department in Washington, D.C.

You see, state and local governments have managed to keep everybody's tax attention focused on Washington, while they slip in a 10.5 percent increase on their own in one year, although it'd be hard to find anybody who claims state and local governments on the average over the country have increased their services 10.5 percent. Looks like all the political brains aren't concentrated in Washington.

In fact, Washington clearly has been out-smarted and it had better hurry up and hire a public relations firm to distribute the blame.

Yours faithfully
J.A.

Bentsen Urges Carter Sign Beef Import Bill

DALLAS — Senator Lloyd Bentsen said Monday the President would be making a "tragic mistake" if he vetoes the Bentsen Counter-cyclical Beef Imports Bill.

Bentsen spoke Monday morning to the annual convention of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association in Dallas.

"We produce and consume more beef than any country in the world—and the United States is willing to share its market to a far greater degree than any of our competitors," the Senator said.

"We import seven percent of the beef we consume; no other beef-producing country comes even close to this figure."

"One problem, however, has been the way we have managed our beef imports. We have traditionally relied on a pro-cyclical beef import policy: when the cattle cycle is such that the domestic price of beef is low, the gates have been opened to more imports. When the domestic price is high the formula in the law permits fewer beef imports."

"Now, you don't have to be an economic or agricultural genius to understand that such a policy makes no sense. It accentuates the high and low points in beef price fluctuations. It operates to the detriment of both the consumer and the producer."

"But that's not the whole story. Under the previous law, the President had discretionary authority to suspend the beef import quotas and frequently did so when the price was up."

"Earlier this year we got together and decided to do something about this situation. We decided to press for a counter-cyclical import formula. We'd maintain roughly the same level of beef imports—about seven percent of domestic production—but we would permit them to come in when prices were high and reduce imports when prices were low. This approach has the obvious advantage of evening out the peaks and troughs in the beef cycle."

"We also decided to exempt live cattle from our bill. There were a lot of people who thought they should be included, but there were also a lot of people—like the Texas Cattle Feeders Association—who understood what an adverse impact this would have on your industry and on the economy of Mexico, our primary foreign supplier of live cattle."

"We went one step farther in this legislation: we took away the President's discretion to waive the quota, except in cases of real emergency."

"It was probably this provision, more than any other aspect of the bill, that brought about the strong Administration opposition we have been fighting for the past six months."

"But, despite this opposition we were able to sell the bill to Congress on its merits. It made sense. We were able to respond to any argument levied against it. We got it through the Senate Finance Committee and passed it on the Senate Floor last May."

"Congressman Bob Poage took up the fight on the House side. There were negotiations, compromises, some changes. But the bill that emerged from the House was essentially the bill that I got through the Senate; the Bentsen Counter-cyclical Beef Imports bill. It has the twin attributes of the counter-cyclical approach and limitations on the President's ability to suspend the beef import quota."

"It is no secret that the Administration does not like this legislation. The threat of a veto—either an outright veto or a pocket veto—is still a factor to be reckoned with."

"President Carter will be making a very real and tragic mistake if he vetoes the beef bill. There is no good reason for a veto; no economic justification, no political justification and no inflationary justification. The proposal we offer is a substantial improvement over current procedures," Bentsen said. "It leaves the President discretion to waive quotas when such a waiver is really warranted. It will help even out fluctuations in the beef market without any marked decrease in imports. It makes good sense for America and for our trading partners. It makes sense for both the consumer and the producer," Senator Bentsen said.
