Lockney B&PW Club Meets

The Lockney Business and Professional Women's Club met on Tuesday evening, November 7, at Rebekah Lodge Hall for a salad supper. The meeting was directed by the Personal Development Committee, chaired by Ruby Kiser, assisted by members Zora Reecer and Evelyn Thomason.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Frieda Mild, a registered nurse, former field missionary, and wife of Dr. Andrew Mild, Lutheran rector at the Providence Community. In keeping with the theme of Personal Development, Mrs. Mild's subject was "Who Am I?" encompassing self-examination, self-direction, and self-determination. Following the program, President Gladys Ragle presided at a short business meeting during which there was discussion of the Club's annual Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 5, and the annual Christmas Party for residents of the Lockney Care Center on Tuesday December 19th. Treasurer June Bybee reported that the recent Bake Sale had been most successful. Those present at the meeting were June Bybee, Gladys Ragle, Ruby Kiser, Zora Reecer, Evelyn Thomason, Dorothy Shipp, Viola Rowell, Lolell Graham, May Pearl Burns and guest Frieda Mild.

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening November 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church, Shyrl Denise Cates became the bride of Raymond Anthony Spoth Jr. The Reverend Jim Smith, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie C. Cates of Floydada. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anthony Spoth Sr. of Lubbock.

Palms of commodore foliage and a tall arrangement of apricot gladioli and white daisies and pom pom mums formed the background for the wedding scene. Brass candelabra decorated in apricot gladioli and white pom pom mums completed the wedding scene.

Miss Penny Bertrand of Floydada provided organ selections and also accompanied Mr. Barry Watts of Lubbock as he sang "Evergreen" and "The Wedding Song."

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a Juliet gown of candlelight organza over peau, with a high neckline of French imported chantilly lace. The bodice had wide bands of the lace forming a yoke and coming to a point at the waistline in the back and full Bishop sleeves capped by the lace and wide lace cuffs. The full skirt had a ruffled flounce that swept full to the back to form a chapel train. The headpiece was a halo of orange blossoms and pearls with candlelight satin streamers with love knots and orange blossoms falling to the waist. She carried an old fashioned colonial bouquet of ivory elfin rose buds and showered with double baby's breath and trimmed in satin streamers. "Something old" was her mother's wedding ring and "something borrowed" was her maternal grandmother's rings received on her 50th wedding anniversary. She wore the traditional blue garter.

The groom was attired in an ivory cutaway and ruffled ivory shirt. His attendants wore dark brown tuxedos.

Miss Donna Cates of Lubbock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Patty Morgan, also of Lubbock. The attendants wore brandy floor length veil dresses with square necks and long full sleeves trimmed in bands of ivory satin ribbon and lace. The full over-skirt also had a band of satin, ribbon and lace around the bottom. They wore combs with silk apricot rose buds and baby's breath in their hair and carried colonial type bouquets of apricot pom pom mums, white daisies, cocoa satin steamers and double baby's breath.

The flower girl was niece of the bride, Stephanie Pufal of El Paso. She wore a cinnamon velvet dress with ivory lace collar and cuffs and ivory satin sash. She carried a lace basket of rose petals.

The ring bearer was Jeff Fitzpatrick of Oklahoma City, nephew of the groom. He wore a navy vested suit.

Serving as best man was Richard Riborde of Lubbock. Groomsman was David Cea, also of Lubbock. Ushers were George Spoth, brother of the groom, and Gilbert Castillo, both of Lubbock.

The bride's mother wore a cinnamon quiana dress and the groom's mother wore a pale apricot crepe dress. Both were complemented by an cymbidium orchid corsage.

Registering guests was Mrs. Johnny Rowan, Canyon, cousin of the bride.

Following the wedding the bride's parents hosted the reception in fellowship hall. The table was covered with a pleated white satin cloth with chiffon sways anchored with apricot ribbon bows and fern at the corners. A seventeen branched brass candelabra holding apricot candles centered the table with the bridesmaids' at the base of the candelabra. A two tiered white wedding cake decorated in white with clusters of apricot flowers and topped with white lace wedding bells was served with apricot colored punch and mints from crystal appointments.

Miss Michele Lynn, Memphis, Tennessee, niece of the bride, served the punch and Mrs. Gayle Ross, cousin of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Mike Fitzpatrick, sister of the groom served the cake. Jennifer and Kenny Devaney of Dallas passed brandy and ivory satin rose rice bags.

For travel, the bride wore a mauve print dress with mauve suede jacket and a rose corsage from her bouquet. After a honeymoon to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will live in Lubbock.

The bride attended Floydada High School and South Plains College, where she was a Tex-Ann. She graduated from Jessie Lee's Beauty Institute.

The groom attended Christ the King School in Lubbock and is a graduate, magna cum laude of Northwood Institute with a B.A. degree in marketing.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Cates, Carma Jarrett; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anthony Spoth, Sr.; Mrs. Jewel McCuan; George Spoth; Gilbert Costillo; Richard Riborde; Michael Cea; Patty Morgan; Nancy Neagle; Brenda Walker; Barry Watts; Nancy Kelly; Teresa Norris; Mrs. Connie Bearden; Connie Power; Mr. and Mrs. Clint McKibber; all of Lubbock.

Never leave a baby or small child alone in the bathtub--or even in the bathroom, warns Carla Shearer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Babies can easily be scalded if they turn on hot water or drown in very small amounts of water in the tub, the specialist explains.

Plan Ahead For Holiday Meals

PLAN AHEAD FOR HOLIDAY MEALS
Plan ahead for holiday meals--and stay "sane and merry."

Prepare chicken for dinner--and cook extra chicken meat for a casserole to freeze and have ready for unexpected company or a last-minute meal.

Have packaged seasonings on hand to dump into cottage cheese and blend for a quick dip.

Buy a supply of low-calorie crackers to use as dippers.

Stash away canned and frozen fruit juice and ginger ale for quick-to-mix punch.

Check pantry and freezer to see that a supply of foods from each of the basic four groups of foods are ready and available for putting together nutritious meals.

Have a supply of non-fat dry milk and canned milk to fall back on if fresh milk supply runs out unexpectedly.

Keep canned meats such as chopped meat, boned chicken and canned tuna on hand for quick sandwiches.

Have a supply of canned and frozen vegetables and fruits, such as green beans, asparagus, peaches, apricots and pineapple, in stock.

Preparation takes little time and efforts.

Store a variety of ready-to-eat cereal on the shelf and an assortment of breads in the freezer.

Buying foods ahead when there's time to plan for the purchase and time to store them so they are in easy reach will make for a merrier holiday season of good cheer.

Grapefruit, Chicken, Potatoes Good Buy

COLLEGE STATION--Best buys this week at Texas grocery markets include grapefruit, fryer chickens, potatoes and winter squash, according to Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Large-size eggs and grocery market feature items in several departments are other economical buys, she reports.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

FRUITS--Grapefruit offers high quality and low prices, especially in bags--5, 8 or 18-pound bags. Apples have moderate prices.

For best buys on other fruits, compare prices on oranges, grapes, bananas, cranberries, tangerines and tangelos.

POULTRY--Fryer chickens make an economical meat choice in spite of slightly higher prices. Large-size eggs are a budget buy, also.

VEGETABLES--Best buys are potatoes, sweet potatoes and winter squash (hard-shell).

Other budget-stretching items are cabbage, carrots, turnips, broccoli, rutabagas, cooking greens and dry yellow onions.

DAIRY--Feature items are eggnog, yogurt and cottage cheese.

GROCERY MARKET AISLES--"Specials" include canned applesauce, peanut butter and sugar.

FROZEN FOOD CHESTS--Check for low prices on vegetables, strawberries and dinners.

BEEF--Markets follow no pattern on "specials." Some offer chuck cuts, while others offer loin or rib cuts or ground beef.

For economy, buy less-tender cuts--shoulder or chuck, flank, shank, round--and cook them with slow, moist heat.

PORK--"Specials" include Boston butt roasts, end chops, quarter loin cut into chops and pork liver.

LAMB--Some features appear on leg of lamb and lamb shoulders.

For tenderness, choose a shank or sirloin half of the leg of lamb.

For economy, choose a shoulder roast.

HOLIDAY WATCHWORDS: In buying fruit-cake ingredients, remember these guides:

--Use high-quality fruit. It is relatively high-priced but means more flavor.

--to cut costs, use less expensive items, such as prunes, for part of the candied fruit.

--Mixed, ready-cut candied fruit costs less than each kind of fruit which is not cut.

--Use only fresh nuts to avoid rancidity problems with older ones.

--In buying nuts, compare prices of in-shell nuts against those already shelled.

A pound of shelled pecans equals two pounds of in-shell pecans. The same is true for almonds. However, a pound of shelled English walnuts equals 2 1/2 pounds of in-shell walnuts.

Also, one pound of chopped pecans equals three and three-fourth cups.

Consider "free" photo offers carefully before investing.

Often these advertisements mean bargains, but occasionally consumers get cheated.

In general, bargain photographers offer a decent picture at a reasonable price.

However, one major drawback is having little recourse when dissatisfied with the photos.

In addition, they offer a limited variety of props, few settings and little privacy.

HIGH-PRESSURE TACTICS
Also, be wary of pressure to buy more pictures for friends and relatives.

One scheme is for the photographer to print pictures of varying sizes and make them available--just in case the consumer wants more than the special offer.

READ FINE PRINT
Always read the fine print of the offer carefully.

For example, the free photo may be good only with the purchase of $50.

So, inquire if there are purchase requirements before accepting a photo offer.

DELIVERY TIME
It may take three to five weeks to get the photos.

Ask what form of notification to expect--mail or phone--and try to get the delivery date in writing.

PAYMENT
Sometimes consumers are asked to pay for extra pictures at the sitting time, but it's wise to wait and pay for additional pictures after receiving them.

Also, beware of long-term picture packages.

These contracts can run for ten or twenty years, promising a family portrait or child's photo each year.

These companies may go out of business, leaving the consumer with only a few pictures.

CHECK REPUTATION
Check with the Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce when in doubt about the reputation of a photographer.

Floydada Baptist Church Library NEWS & REVIEWS

What do you think about when you hear the word creativity? Some think of the visual arts...and assume because they have no abilities in that direction they are not creative. In BEING CREATIVE, Mancil and Suzanne Ezell tell us that being creative for one person may mean something different to another, and it is because being creative is a real part of the person you are. There are definitions to stimulate your thinking and "stop and do" exercises to help put into practice these ideas. If you have ever said "I don't have any talent" you need to read this small book.

Have you wished for Bible storybooks that beginning readers could read? We have a new series entitled "I Can Read a Bible Story" designed for first and second year readers. Some of the titles are DANIEL WHO DARED, SEVEN BATHS FOR NAAMAN and LED BY A STAR (about the trip of the wise men). The story of the Tower of Babel is entitled CLIMBING UP TO NOWHERE. The colorful illustrations will add to the enjoyment of this series.

Bob Brown says, "The church is for everyone or it is for no one. No one is left out. Most of us would say that, but not many of us have practiced it." HOW CAN WE GET LILY ROSE TO SETTLE DOWN is a book about people and somewhere you will find yourself in it. This pastor has come to realize that redeeming and changing great numbers of people is wrapped up in loving and caring for them daily—one at a time. He knows from experience that one Sunday morning prayer doesn't guarantee that everything will be fine ever after, but is aware that most problems are worked out in the midst of tears, prayers and frustrations. This look into a pastor's experience is interesting, humorous and encouraging.

November 27: this Monday arrived with cold, partly cloudy weather. Everyone is glad to see some sunshine again, drying conditions for crop harvest are not too favorable at this time.

Another Thanksgiving Day has passed and most folks either had company or went visiting. A few "like us" just stayed at home and enjoyed a good traditional dinner.

Wednesday morning Walton and Veda Wilson went to the Amarillo airport to meet her sister, Marquerite Reeves of Kansas City, Mo. When they arrived back home they found Veda's daughter Louise Lytle of Wichita Kansas, had arrived at the Wilson home. She had driven through. These guests spent the weekend with Walton and Veda. Later Wednesday evening the above group was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilson, Brenda and Brent of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tye, Britta and Joshua of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt, Greg, Karen and Christy were Thanksgiving Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye. In the afternoon Bill's brother, Jim Tye, joined the group.

Ann Swebston was hostess Saturday night for supper for a belated Thanksgiving meal. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns;

Roxanne and Doyle Roy; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dickson of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Swebston and children of Alpine; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Campbell of McAdoo; Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Swebston; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Wes Campbell and children; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Don Colston and sons and Bill Colston all of the Floydada area; and Mrs. Mike Stark and children of Borger; Thirty-one were present for this enjoyable get-together of family members.

Sunday Mrs. Ray Cook went to Childress to visit her sister, and nieces, Mrs. Velma Cates and daughter Cathryn, and Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Payne spent Saturday in Plainview.

Friday evening guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson were: Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy, NICE SALMON CATCH....Buddy and Terry Lutrick caught these salmon at the Navaho Reservoir near Farmington, New Mexico the first part of the month. The Lutricks gigged some 30 salmon and have the delicious pink meat canned for eating later. A special "gig season" is opened each year at the reservoir for these three year old salmon that spawn and die. Buddy said, "we hit a real cold spell up there and nearly froze to death while fishing....but it was worth it."

Charles Beedy and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye.

Mrs. Velma Lee Cardinal and son, Jerry Cardinal, made a business trip to Dimmitt last Monday to see about her farm.

Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls went to Plainview Thanksgiving Day where they met several other family members and ate dinner out at Furr's Cafeteria. Later Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Walls. On the way home they visited at Lockney with Mr. and Mrs. D.D. Tate.

Mrs. Kate Crabtree was among the members of the Lone Circle Sunday school class of First Baptist Church when they met at the home of Mrs. Mable Smith last Tuesday for a social.

Thanksgiving Day Mrs. Kate Crabtree was a guest for dinner at Mrs. Edna Phillips. Then in the late afternoon she went to the home of her son and family the Kay Crabtrees and enjoyed a Thanksgiving supper with them.

Nancy Graham and Dolly Emert visited Mrs. Jewell

The Floyd Philosopher Finds One Group Who Has Now Come To Understand A Farmer's Problem

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm thinks some headway is being made in understanding a farmer's problem.

Dear editor: While many city people have a hard time understanding a farmer's problem with fluctuating prices, I have a notion there's one group that now understands it thoroughly.

As you know, all year a farmer fights weather and insects and the high cost of equipment, repairs, fertilizer, seed, fuel, etc., and when his crop is harvested, if there's anything to harvest, asks a buyer what he'll give for it.

It's as though General Motors, after producing a batch of new cars, came around and asked, "What'll you give us for one of these?"

And a buyer clears his throat and says, "Well, the market on cars dropped 200 points this morning; $2500 is the best I can offer you.

Take it or leave it."

As I say, a lot of city people can understand the predicament farmers are in but I have a notion city gold-buyers can't. A month ago gold was selling for $250 an ounce. Last week it was selling for $200 a drop of $50 an ounce, which is $800 a pound $1,600,000 a ton. The guy who bought some $250 and finds it's now worth only $200, at least is up against with fluctuating prices.

It'll be hard to convince a gold buyer the supply and demand caused the drop, due to bumper year in gold production. Try telling him the weather was just right this year in mining gold and there were very few insects.

My suggestion to him is that he switch from buying gold to growing cotton. Never in the history of agriculture has cotton dropped $1,600,000 a ton in one month. He won't make anything but he'll lose less.

Yours faithfully

Teague Thanksgiving night. Last Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cozby and Kara were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Hoose.

Others there for the Thanksgiving day dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Mize, and the house guests in the Walton Wilson home, her sister Marguerite Reeves and Veda's daughter, Louise Lytle.

were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Tim Warren and children Mr. and Mrs. Jim McMath and Mrs. Dixon.

Taiwanese Corn Purchase Totals Over $11 Million

DALLAS--Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced that the Republic of China (Taiwan) recently signed contracts for $11 million worth of Texas-crop corn. The contract was awarded to the Louis Dreyfus Corp. of Stamford, Conn., during ceremonies at the World Trade Center. The contract called for 99,000 metric tons of Texas corn to be delivered to a Texas Gulf Coast export location. The meeting between Republic of China buyers and potential American sellers was coordinated by the Texas Department of Agriculture, in a continuing effort to stimulate foreign sales of Texas and American agricultural goods.

The Taiwanese buyers were part of a grain procurement mission which will arrange for the purchase of 1.9 million metric tons of U. S. grains during a 45-day tour in this country. As well as agricultural products, the mission will also purchase American industrial equipment.

So far in 1978, Taiwan's trade with the U. S. has totaled about $5.4 billion, with almost $1 billion of this going for agricultural products.

ARSENIC ACID SURVEY--Cotton producers are urged to respond to a survey by the manufacturer of arsenic acid and to give their opinions regarding the benefits of the chemical for continued profitable cotton production. Arsenic acid has been used as a harvest-aid chemical in areas where cotton is stripper harvested. However, the Environmental Protection Agency is now demanding more evidence on

PROTECT SURVIVORS...MAKE A WILL

COLLEGE STATION--If parents make wills, they make estate-settling less painful for their children, advises a family resource management specialist.

A will also ensures that a parent's wishes are respected since it says how he or she wants property to be distributed, Nancy Granovsky explains.

In addition, a will allows the parent to name an executor to carry out the terms and provisions of the will, the specialist says.

Mrs. Granovsky is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

ESTATE WITH NO WILL Without a will, property is distributed according to the benefits of the chemical before permitting further registration, points out a cotton specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

U.S., MEXICO ANIMAL HEALTH PROGRAMS GET SUPPORT--The U.S. and Mexico will continue to work together closely in animal health programs, according to officials of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation (SWAHRF). Joint efforts between the two countries are paying off in the success of screwworm eradication efforts. Mexican ranchers are becoming more enthused about animal health programs, according to T.A. Kincaid, SWAHRF president.

ACCIDENT CONTROL--Poor work procedures often lead to accidents, points out the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These include using defective tools, using hands or feet instead of proper tools, operating at an unsafe speed, removing or making safety devices inoperative, and taking shortcuts by not following recommended job procedures.

AUSTIN--Texas grain stocks would create a pile 4,000 feet high if stacked on a standard-sized football field, the Texas Department of Agriculture estimates.

WILL SPURS ORGANIZATION

A will also encourages parents to organize their important papers and documents.

Eventually, the executor will need to know where important papers and assets are located.

One easy way to summarize that information is by compiling a family records notebook.

In making a will, naming an executor is important, because an executor is the key figure in settling an estate.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, November 27: After a week of fog, cold misty rain and bleak, gray days, the beautiful sunshine on Monday was really wonderful. Most of the cotton, maize and soy beans are still too damp for cutting, stripping and gathering, but another day of sunshine, and the farm work will really begin to hum.

Some of the farmers and others around who came home with deer from their hunting trips have been Ronald Kitchens, son Blake, Brett Marble, Deral Young with an Aoudad ram. Also Raymond Reeves, Sylvan Kinnibrugh and Rance Young are among those who have been hunting that we know of.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Julian and boys of Perryton spent weekend before last here with his folks, and with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Edell

Moore of Floydada, and Mrs. Jerry Moore of Plainview. Mrs. Murray accompanied them home Sunday night when they went back home to Perryton, and she spent the week up there with them. They traveled in mist, rain, and heavy fog all the 200 miles home Sunday night, with never a let up, and the weather stayed that way all week. Sunday afternoon they brought Mrs. Julian to Clarendon where they were met by Mrs. Kendis Julian and Mitzl, and Tim, and she came home with them.

New shutters at the South Plains Baptist Church baptistry were affixed during the past week, making a beautiful picture at the church. The shutters for the baptistry were gifts in memorials from many different people, and everyone is very proud of the wonderful look that the new shutters give the church. Many thanks go to everyone who had a part in the gift. December 3-10 has been designated as Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and December 6 has been set for the meeting for the WMU members of the Baptist Church who will take part in the study. A goal of $350.00 has been set for the mission offering this year.

Mrs. Alvin Nichols was on the sick list last week, suffering with a sore throat and chest infection. Guests who visited them Friday and Friday night in their home were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis of Irving. Saturday the Niehols went to Lockney to have Thanksgiving dinner in the home of her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Holcomb. Many other guests also shared the turkey dinner.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake went to Haskell last Friday to spend the day visiting with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Grant, Jeremy and Monica of Riverton, Wyoming. The Grants had flown to Haskell to see his grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Edwards who is very ill.

We extend congratulations to Kristi Julian and Renee Sanders, juniors at Floydada High School, who along with several others from the high school, were initiated into the Floydada National Honor Society Monday morning November 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble, Cindy and Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marble and Justin went to Aiken Thursday to have their Thanksgiving dinner in the home of Tonya's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Brashear, Tonya's grandparents of Floydada, Floyd Brashear, of Tulia, Tonya's uncle, and Jim Tye of Floydada, Mike's uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Kristi, Mitzl and Tim went to Floydada to have Thanksgiving in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.V. Stewart, on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. Murray Julian had Thanksgiving in Perryton with the Bruce Julian family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure went to Shamrock to spend the weekend before Thanksgiving with their granddaughter, Rev. and Mrs. Jeff Messer. He is pastor at the 11th Street Baptist Church. Friday they went to Plainview to the home of another granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cypert and girls to have another Thanksgiving dinner with them and other guests; Mr. and Mrs. Jean McClure of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McClure of Hillsboro; and Boyd McClure of Waco, where he is attending a welding school, and Rev. and Mrs. Jeff Messer of Shamrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh went to Lubbock on Monday a week ago, to stay at the Methodist Hospital with her sister, Mrs. Ray Dillard of Lockney who was there until Wednesday taking tests. Thursday morning they left for Ruidoso, New Mexico where they had Thanksgiving, and joining them there at Alto Alps where they stayed, were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Horne and Melissa and Mr. and Mrs. Hank Dickens and Latham, both families from Plainview. The Kinnibrughs were in Ruidoso until Sunday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake went to Lubbock this Monday night, where they attended revival services at the Slide Baptist Church, where Rev. J.L. Bass from the Friendship Baptist Church is the evangelist. The Blake's son C.V. Blake, is leading the singing at the revival services.

Celebrating birthdays during December are Dickie Julian, Dec. 2; Regina Sanders, Dec. 6; Hazel Powell, Dec. 9; Mrs. Kenneth Powell, Dec. 15; Kathy Mulder, Dec. 20; Kay Bethel, Dec. 22; and Glen Wood, Dec. 24. Mrs. George Weast celebrates her birthday on Dec. 24, and she is in Amarillo in a convalescent home, the Golden Age.

George Weast is at his home here, and is feeling well at this time. His daughter, Mrs. E.T. Evans is staying with him at present and E.T. is expected from Amarillo on Tuesday. Another daughter, Mrs. Robert Lee Smith of Sterley came home from the hospital in Plainview this past weekend, and is recuperating from ulcer troubles.

We extend sincere congratulations to the Floydada Whirlwind Band students and band master who for the second year in a row, came home from Lubbock's Jones Stadium with the top award given by the University of Interscholastic League for Marching band. The band was given a First Division, and those from here that we have in our community as members of the band include Renee Sanders and Kristi Julian.

Mrs. Keith Marble was hostess in her home this Monday, Nov. 27, at 2:30 p.m. for a Tiara Glass Party, with around twelve ladies attending the party. Demonstrator was Joyce Pegram.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marble, D.Lee and Dwayne spent their Thanksgiving holiday in Plainview with her folks, the George Robertsons, with other members of her family present.

Bruce Julian, Kendis Julian and Mrs. Murray Julian went to Roscoe Sunday, November 19, to have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Terry Julian and Dickie. Others present were Dr. Wm. Barnes and Dee Julian of Abilene. They all went to the First Baptist Church at Roscoe at 3 p.m. where they attended an ordination service for Deacons which was held for seven men. Among those in the ordination service was Terry Julian. Present for the services was Rev. Glen Roenfeldt, who was the pastor for Terry and Leona's wedding service 21 years before. The family returned home to South Plains after the services in heavy rains and fog all the way. The Bruce Julians and his mother had the fog all the way to Perryton.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Marble were hosts in their home, on Thanksgiving Day to twenty-five guests, including members of the Texas Tech Women's basketball team from Lubbock, the Lady Raiders, whom Donette Marble, a member of the team, brought home with her after the basketball team played at Wayland College Thanksgiving morning. Turkey and ham with all the accompaniments were served at the dinner. Other guests were Tom Musser of West Texas State University at Canyon, Donette's cousin; J.H. Lane of Sterley; Mrs. Nita Holland of Lockney, Donette's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Havens of Arlington; Coach Gay Benson and husband Frank Benson of the Lady Raiders; and manager Marilyn Payton, all present at the Thanksgiving dinner.

FARM & RANCH NEWS

American Farmer Has A Right To Expect A Secure Income" President Carter

the President succeeded in a Panama Canal treaty that is equitable and just, and removed a festering sore in our relations with our friends in South and Central America.

He met personally with leaders from Israel and Egypt to offer his good offices to help bring peace to the Middle East. The first peace treaty those two countries have ever had, now seems close to reality. This has to be one of the most remarkable diplomatic achievements of this century.

I do not pretend to be a foreign policy or energy expert. My post in this Administration deals with rural development. But I have been a rancher, and I have borrowed money. So I would like to finish by discussing what we have accomplished with credit in a part of the country we are all from -- rural America.

First, farm credit. With long years of low prices, a depressed cattle industry and high operating costs, credit was desperately needed last year. Under the President's leadership, Farmers Home Administration provided it.

-- Farm credit more than doubled over the 1977 fiscal year, from $2.4 to $5 billion -- credit that, together with Secretary Beg and's moratorium on foreclosures, helped many farmers and ranchers stay in business. Of this, nearly half a billion dollars went to newer farmers -- many of them young people struggling for a step up into a place of their own.

-- Housing. A lot of rural families cannot get credit through normal sources to buy a decent house, because their income is too low. Last year we helped over a hundred thousand of these families buy a place of their own, and another 4,800 families to repair or insulate their homes. Nearly 30,000 families were helped by FmHA-financed new rental housing.

-- Jobs. They are often scarce in rural America. But last year, under a program that guarantees business and industrial loans through rural lending institutions, some 38,000 new jobs were created, and 53,000 saved, in rural areas.

In all, investment in rural America is up by one-third this year over last, and has nearly doubled since President Carter took office. This is not a give-away program. About 93 percent of all Farmers Home investments in rural America are loans one that established the first farmer-held reserve program, that raised net farm income 25 percent over last year's and which helped boost agricultural exports to record levels this year and last. Along with the legislation, he took a firm stand against the agricultural embargoes that shook confidence in America as a reliable supplier during past years.

CREDIT. This August President Carter -- recognizing his signing statement that credit is no substitute for income -- nevertheless saw the need for adequate credit and far-reaching new agricultural credit act that: For the first time provides farm credit for economic emergencies, along with natural disasters, and provides up to $4 billion for hard-pressed farmers who have difficulty obtaining credit through conventional sources.

-- Established a new, low interest loan program for younger and beginning farmers to help them get started.

-- and, to make more credit available, set up a government guarantee for emergency credit through local lending institutions.

ENERGY. And finally, in the closing hours of Congress -- after over a year of delay -- Congress passed the President's landmark energy bill. The first such legislation in history. More that almost any other industry, the new energy legislation protects and benefits farmers in that it guarantees them priorities on available energy supplies. Incidentally, it was the last-minute all-out support by the various farm groups that help tip the balance in favor of the new energy bill.

The President has also tackled some other tough problems on the international front.

Over the great opposition,

AGRICULTURE COMMISSIONER REAGAN V. BROWN, right, congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Kosse in Limestone Co. after they were honored as owners of the 100-year-old Todd Farms during ceremonies in Austin recently. A total of 66 century-old farms and ranches were honored this year by the Texas Department of Agriculture, in the fifth year of its Family Land Heritage Program.

TDA Recognizes Vital Part Of Texas Farm History

AUSTIN--A rich and vital part of Texas history was recognized recently when the Texas Department of Agriculture honored 66 farms and ranches throughout the state which have been in continuous agricultural production for a century or more.

In ceremonies held in Austin, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown presented certificates to owners of Texas properties which have been operated by the same family for at least the past 100 years. This year marked the fifth year of the successful Family Land Heritage Program, which has recognized some 1,245 Texas farms and ranches since its inception in 1974.

Honorees receive certificates affirming the century-old status of their property, and background information on each provide undesirable meat, but rather that most consumers may prefer the less intense flavor of the female.

2. Whenever possible, place the shot in the neck or head to insure a clean, rapid kill. This prevents post-shot stress and also reduces tissue damage considerably.

3. Field dress the animal as soon as possible. If contents of the intestine or paunch have been spilled, the carcass should be rinsed with water. A publication, L-634 entitled "Field Dressing Big Game," is available from any county Extension office and provides more information.

4. If weather permits, leaving the skin on the carcass will help conserve moisture. However, a little common sense dictates that carcasses should be skinned and covered with a fly proof bag in hot weather if a cooler is not accessible. Also, a male in the rut may have a strong urine odor on the hind legs and probably should be skinned prior to storage.

5. If the family prefers a somewhat more intense flavor which is similar to aged beef, the carcass may be hung in a locker for about a week before final processing. Again, common sense dictates storage in a clean locker which eliminates contamination of odors from poorly handled carcasses.

"These recommendations are not the only way to

Hunter Influences Deer Meat

COLLEGE STATION --- Deer hunting provides many hours of outdoor recreation for Texas sportsmen each year. Besides providing recreation, deer harvested also yield a huge resource in terms of table fare-venison.

The potential yield runs in the neighborhood of 11 million pounds of boneless deer meat annually, points out Dr. Milo Shult, area wildlife specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Quality of venison is not determined solely by the culinary talents of the home-maker, Shult emphasizes. "The entire process of handling the carcass from field to table can add or detract from the desirability of the final product. The hunter plays an important role in determining whether a deer steak is tender and tasty or tough and bad-flavored," says Shult.

In January of 1976, a group of specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service conducted a result demonstration emphasizing the effects of handling on deer meat quality. Thirty-six deer were collected on a permit obtained from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. These deer were treated in several ways with each group of six deer receiving the same treatment.

"Since the hunter cannot control all factors which affect deer meat quality--for example, age of the animal harvested and the like--the treatments were designed to look at only those things which the hunter can control," notes Shult.

Variables considered in the result demonstration were these:

1. Sex--whether or not a difference exists between male and female animals with respect to meat quality.
2. Delayed skinning--the animals were not skinned for 12 to 16 hours after harvest.
3. Delayed field dressing--if an animal is not found right away, can delayed field dressing cause decreased quality in the meat? These animals were not field dressed for four to 11 hours after harvest.
4. Stress--will shot placement which causes immediate death provide higher quality venison than one in which the animal runs off before dying?
5. Aging--does aging a carcass in a locker for one week enhance the flavor?

Of the tests run on the carcasses, one of the most interesting was the taste panel test. A panel, consisting of five to eight people, was trained to evaluate meat quality, then given samples of venison from the various treatment groups.

"Only ham and backstrap muscles were used for testing, and each sample was cooked to uniform internal temperature. At no time did panel members know what sample or samples they were evaluating. The panel rated each sample on the basis of flavor intensity, flavor desirability, juiciness, tender-

Minimum Size Mail Standards Coming

Implementation of new minimum-size mail standards will take place next March or April, the U.S. Postal Service said today. The same effective date will be used to implement a surcharge for oversized mail -- a matter now pending before the Postal Rate Commission.

The Postal Service's Board of Governors established the timetable for the common implementation date at its regular monthly meeting today in Washington. The Postal Service had previously stated that the minimum-size standard would become effective "not before Nov. 30, 1978."

The Board decided, at the recommendation of the Postmaster General William F. Bolger, to defer the minimum-size standards to avoid any unnecessary complication during the Christmas mailing season and to allow major mailers a final opportunity to prepare for the change.

Rather than have separate implementation dates occurring around the same time for the minimum-size standards and the oversize surcharge, the Board decided to consolidate the actions.

Currently, the independent Postal Rate Commission is considering the Postal Service's proposal for a 13-cent surcharge for oversized mail and has until February 25 to act on it. Assuming PRC action around that date, the Board of Governors would consider setting the specific implementation date at its March meeting.

The Commission approved the minimum-size criteria and the principle of a surcharge for oversized or non-standard mail pieces in April, 1976. The Postal Service announced its intention to put them into effect in 1978 in order to permit customers to use up existing supplies and prepare new inventories.

The minimum-size standards, which apply to all classes of mail, establish that envelopes and cards measuring less than 3 1/2 inches high or 5 inches long and certain other items that can jam machinery and damage other mail will not be accepted. Also, the new requirements call for a thickness of at least .007 of an inch. Postal cards have a thickness of .009 of an inch.

The new standards for oversized or nonstandard mail allow that mail to be accepted, but to be subject to the surcharge under consideration by the Postal Rate Commission.

In discussing the decision to put the implementation date off until early 1979, Bolger noted there have been a number of appeals for extensions of the minimum-size standards for utility companies in order for them to have more time to change their billing systems to a format which produces bills of a mailable size. He said deferral of the effective date would provide "one final warning."

The Art Of Getting Along

Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

He learns that it doesn't pay to be a sensitive soul—that he should let some things go over his head like water off a duck's back.

He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses. He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then, and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously.

He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight.

He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

He learns that most people are human and that it doesn't do any harm to smile and say "good morning" even if it is raining.

He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work, and not cleverness, is the secret of success.

He learns that it doesn't matter so much who gets the credit so long as the business shows a profit.

He comes to realize that the business could run along perfectly without him.

He learns to sympathize with the youngsters coming into the business, because he remembers how bewildered he was when he first started out.

He learns not to worry when he does not make a hit EVERY time, because experience has shown if he always gives his best, his average will break pretty well.

He learns that no man ever got to first base alone and that it is only through cooperative effort that we move on to better things.

He learns that the fellows are not any harder to get along with in one place than another, and that "getting along" depends about 98 percent on himself.

FLOYD DATA

A joint Thanksgiving celebration and birthday party was held on November 23. Those celebrating a birthday were Doris McLain and Kylan D. Weems. (Kylan is Doris' granddaughter and their birthdays are November 24.) The honorees each received "lots and lots" of gifts at the party and enjoyed the birthday cake which was made and decorated by Marilyn Weems.

Others attending were Cliff McLain; Randall King; Allison and Greg Campbell of Lubbock; Jakey and Leora Younger, Moody, Mysti, Leif and Tian; Travis and Marilyn Weems of Fort Worth; Ora King; E.L. Cornelius; Herschell Hinson of Dallas; and Mr. and Mrs. T.R. Corley.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Denison spent Thanksgiving day in Lubbock with their son Gilmer and Maudine and their children and families:

Southwestern PS Co. is utility of the year

Southwestern Public Service Co. has been selected Electric Light & Power magazine's Outstanding Electric Utility of 1978.

Southwestern Public Service (SPS) was picked for the honor by a panel of judges on the basis of its strong financial performance in the face of a difficult fuel supply situation, its innovative efforts to solve the fuel problem, and its success in bringing order to the rapid growth in its service territory.

Southwestern has been able to cope with the many problems facing electric utilities today and still become an innovator in the industry because of its strong, close-knit senior management led by Chairman Roy Tolk and President Berl M. Springer.

Through mid-1976, SPS was virtually 100 percent fueled by natural gas. In August 1976, the first of three 350-MW coal-fired units at the Harrington station went on line. Last summer, the second unit came on line. The third unit is expected in operation in 1980. All three units will burn low-sulfur Wyoming coal, which has been contracted for through the expected lives of the units. As a result of this effort, Southwestern went from having no coal generation prior to 1976, to having 14 percent of its kWh generated by coal in 1977. A quarter of all kWh this year will come from coal, 36.5 percent in 1980, 57.9 percent in 1985 and about 75 percent in 1990.

Harrington Unit 1 was put on line for just $296/kWh, and Unit 2 was put in service this year for only $285/kWh. The reason the units were so cheap, SPS explained, is that it designs all its own facilities — power plants and T&D installations — and it builds its own substations and T&D lines, as well.

Growth expected to continue

Between 1972 and 1977, SPS had an average annual kWh sales growth of 6.08 percent. Its peak growth has remained so steady that forecasts made in the late 1960s still hold today. Peak growth in the future is pegged at 6.5 to 7.0 percent. And, SPS has an active area development department. With about 250,000 customers in a service territory of 45,000 square miles, Southwestern says there's a lot of room for new business, industry and customers.

As a result of this growth, SPS had to accelerate the schedules for the Harrington units and is pushing planning for 650-MW units at its Tolk station in the 1980s.

Despite all these pressures, the company logged excellent financial performance last year, and seems to be matching it this year. Revenues last year rose 30 percent on top of a 33 percent gain in 1976 and another 30 percent increase in 1975. Earnings were up 30 percent in 1977, 22 percent in 1976 and 18 percent in 1975. Earnings per share rose 21.4 percent in 1977 on more shares outstanding than in 1976. And that came on top of a 21.8 percent gain in earnings/share in 1976.

In order to bring fuel costs under control, SPS formed a fuel-supply subsidiary, TUCO, Inc. in 1974. TUCO is seeking greater control of the gas supply needed for the parent company and may go into exploration of natural gas in its area. TUCO has contracts for Wyoming coal to supply the three Harrington units through 1993, with options to extend supplies beyond that date. And TUCO will probably buy and operate the unit trains necessary to supply coal for the Tolk station once it's built.

Innovation a key to plans

Southwestern hasn't been content to stand pat on tradition. It was a leader in proposing life-of-unit coal contracts. It pioneered use of municipal sewage wastewater for cooling and makeup water purposes. When it went to coal, SPS put a scrubber on Harrington Unit 1 (which burns 0.3 percent sulfur coal) to clean up particulates. Then, for Unit 2, it went with the biggest baghouse installation put into operation so far. Although it has no plans for nuclear plants, SPS also has actively supported nuclear development and has waged a strong campaign for a helium breeder reactor program.

Southwestern Public Service is the tenth company to win the EL&P annual award. Previous winners were: Duke Power Co. (1977), Tampa Electric Co. (1976), Southern California Edison (1975), Florida Power & Light (1974), Carolina Power & Light (1973), Northern States Power (1972), Virginia Electric & Power (1971), Florida Power Corp. (1970) and Sierra Pacific Power Co. (1969).

SANTA LETTERS

Dear Santa,

I want a Death Squad member to take care of my mother. She's 93 and she's a pain in the neck. P.S. I am 7 years old.

Jim

Dear Santa,

Our names are Shayla and Kayla Turner and we are 19 months old. Mom is writing this letter for us as you probably couldn't read our scribbling. We each want a doll, magic drawing board, drum, and piano. We sure do need some rocking horses and a story book with all the mother goose nursery stories. We's also like to have two Walt Disney Busy Poppin' Pals and some surprises.

I sure hope you have room to bring two of each thing we ordered on your sleigh as you know we are twins.

Mom said she'd leave cookies and milk for you.

Love you Santa, Shayla and Kayla

P.S. Please remember all the little boys and girls of the world.

James & Robert O'Neil

Dear Santa,

How have you been this year? Fine I hope. My name is James, and I hope you've been a good boy this year. For Christmas this year would like to have a Star Wars Death Vader and a fighter and a new bicycle.

My brother, Robert, would like a new bicycle and a space helmet. Thank you for all the gifts you bring.

See you at Christmas. Thank you.

CONFAB ON "LEGAL ASPECTS OF AGRICULTURE"

A conference on the "Legal Aspects of Agriculture" is set for Dec. 7-8 at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Dallas to deal with the increasingly complicated situation relating to agriculture and the law. Featured speakers will be law professors, attorneys and agricultural officials who will discuss four major areas—undesirable loss of farm land by conversion to non-agricultural uses, food safety and product liability, pesticides, and labor and agriculture. Sponsors include the University of Texas Law School and Texas A&M.

HUNTING RECORDS TO EVALUATE DEER MANAGEMENT

Records can be a big help to the landowner in evaluating his deer population, says a wildlife specialist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service. Hunters can help landowners by providing information on deer harvested, such as deer ages and weights, general body conditions, and antler characteristics of males. Armed with such information, landowners can make management decisions from year to year that will enhance both the deer populations and their livestock operation.

HOW MUCH WATER SHOULD YOU DRINK?

All living cells of the body function in a fluid environment. This fluid is steadily lost through the gastrointestinal and urinary tracts. More is lost by perspiration and through the lungs. It must be replaced because the skin cannot absorb moisture from the air no matter how humid the day. The body usually functions best if two quarts of liquids are taken in each day. One quart is considered the minimum. So estimate how much you get each day in coffee, etc., and drink additional water to help keep you healthier.

Center News

By Mrs. J.E. Green

November 27: After the foggy, wet weather, we are glad to see sunshine again. We hope the week will be sunny so people can get their cotton out.

Thanksgiving has come and gone, and I hope we will realize our blessing. We hope the people who are sick or discouraged will feel better.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas had in their home Thanksgiving day their children, Sue and Milton Mensch and baby David of Lubbock; also Bill Thomas of Lockney. Sunday the Thomases, including Bill, were in Post at the home of a sister, where all the local relatives had gotten together. They had a good time.

Mrs. Fred Battey and Mrs. Ola Warren ate Thanksgiving dinner with the Thomas Warrens. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warren were in the Ft. Worth area celebrating with her brother and family.

Guests in Mrs. J.D. Welborn's home for the holiday get together were all her children and families except James David and family of Ft. Worth. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Fay Gooch.

Some of the visitors with the Claud Carpenters during the week at the Lockney Nursing home were: Mrs. Conway and Miss Florrie of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conway of Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenters, City.

Joe and Claudine Conway dined Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter and left for home later in the evening.

Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Hollis Payne were on the sick list over the weekend.

The Henry Brewers and the Dean Watsons were Thanksgiving guests of the Millard Watsons for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDougle of Crosbyton visited her parents, the Henry Brewers, Sunday afternoon.

Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spence were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Self and daughter of Sherman, Mrs. Victoria Asher and Mrs. Charley Spence. Mrs. Spence also had a long distance visit with his son Orville and family of Sherman.

Miss Francis Mitchell spent the holiday with her family in Lubbock in the home of a niece.

Bro. and Mrs. Clay Muncy spent Thanksgiving day with Miss Vera Meredith and Mrs. Walters.

Mrs. Hudson came Sunday afternoon.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Plumlee during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Thelma Jones, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wright arrived Wednesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jackson. Thursday they and Mrs. Jackson went to Amarillo to spend the holiday with another daughter and family, the Orbin Carrolls, returning home Friday. Saturday Mrs. Jackson's son, Vern Jackson of Odessa, came and stayed over night.

Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Ross are out of town visiting some of their children.

Mrs. Elmer Warren spent from Wednesday till Friday with her son John and family near Idalou. Mrs. Warren dined Sunday with Mrs. Lois Durham, and Monday visited Mrs. C.M. Meredith.

Mrs. Green had a nice Thanksgiving. She ate Thanksgiving dinner in Plainview with son Victor Green and family as did Miss Florrie Conway. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lloyd and her mother, Mrs. Garner of Silver City, New Mexico. In the evening when the women brought me home we found my sister and husband, Gertrude and J.B. Massingill, from Phillips, complete with trailer home south bound from warmer country. Then we all had another nice visit. Gertrude and J.B. resumed their journey to San Antonio Saturday. This Tuesday, scheduled to dine at Mrs. Ava Jackson's are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Warren.

Company at the Peck's during the weekend were a sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Griffith of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Peck and Jim Moore of Levelland; and Kay Bain of Amarillo.

The Dale Millers had a "phone visit" with his mother of Paul's Valley, Okla. So did Ma Green with the Dr. Ryman of Hubbard.

Two Texans To Help Lead Cotton Board

Two Texans have been elected to help lead the Cotton Board in 1979. They are L.D. Anderson from Lubbock and Billy W. Golden from Seymour.

At the agency's annual meeting in New Orleans, Anderson was elected Chairman of the Cotton Board and Golden, Treasurer. Other officers are Vice Chairman, J. Wayne Griggs of Humboldt, Tenn., and Secretary, Dolan Brown of Twin City, Ga.

The Cotton Board is composed of 20 members and 20 alternates who are appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture from nominees made by the certified cotton producer organizations in their respective states. Each member serves a three year term with one-third of the terms expiring annually.

The Cotton Board administers collection of producer assessments and contracts with Cotton Incorporated for the sole purpose of conducting cotton research and promotional programs.

Food Stamps Ineligible To Those Who Quit Jobs

Primary wage-earners who quit their jobs without good cause would find their families ineligible for food stamps for two months under a proposal made today by Assistant Secretary of Agricultural Carol Tucker Foreman.

"The proposed regulation will ensure that an able-bodied head of household cannot quit a job in order to start receiving food stamps," Foreman said. The proposal implements a provision of the Food Stamp Act of 1977.

Foreman said that the new rule is consistent with the desire of the administration and of congress to assure that those not in need of food stamps not receive them while doing more to get in need, such as the elderly and the working poor.

The proposed rule is scheduled to appear in today's Federal Register. Comments should be sent to Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

"Each of these advertised items is required to be readily available for sale at or below the advertised price in each store, except as specifically noted in this ad." Prices good November 26 thru December 2, 1978.
