Floyd Pioneer Reunion Saturday

Outstanding Oldtimers To Be Revealed

Recognition of the outstanding pioneer man and woman of 1979, the oldest man and woman in attendance, and the person traveling the longest distance will be among highlights of the 51st annual Floyd County Pioneer Reunion, which unfolds this Saturday (May 26) in Floydada.

Another major attraction of "Old Settlers Day" will be a colorful parade in downtown Floydada. It is scheduled for 2:30.

The courthouse lawn will be the site of most Old Settlers activities.

REGISTRATION AT 9
Registration at 9 a.m. leads off the day's agenda. Mrs. Jonelle Fawver is to be in charge of registration in a tent on the courthouse square.

Complimentary tickets for the catered barbecue lunch are to be issued during registration to anyone who has resided in Floyd County or in an adjacent county 50 or more years and to those who lived in Floyd County 50 or more years ago. Sponsoring the luncheon are: Light-house Electric Cooperative, Floyd County Farm Bureau, Production Credit Association, Producers Co-op Elevator, Floydada Co-op Gins, Consumers Fuel Associations of Lockney and Floydada and Lockney Cooperatives.

Anyone not eligible for a free lunch ticket may purchase the barbecue meal for $3.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Beginning at 10 o'clock, the morning program features a memorial service conducted by Mrs. J.D. Copeland of Lockney.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of First Baptist Church in Floydada, is to deliver the main address at 11 a.m.

Group singing of pioneer and traditional songs is to be led by J.D. Copeland of Lockney.

Recognition of the oldest man and woman attending the reunion, the person having traveled the longest distance, the outstanding pioneer man and woman of 1979 will be given during the morning session.

The Barber Shop Quartet of Plainview will provide lunch entertainment.

Exhibition square dancing is planned from 1 until 2 p.m.

PARADE AT 2:30

Everyone who plans to participate in the parade is asked to register before

2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Josephine Lyles at Duncan Abstract Office.

The parade will form on South Wall Street, near Piggly Wiggly. It will advance north to Missouri Street, travel west up Missouri to Lamplighter Inn, turn south to California, and then move east to Main where it will be disbanded.

All organizations, businesses, and individuals are encouraged to enter a parade float.

Immediately after the parade ends, the Quitaque-Silverton Hee-Haw Version group will provide "many laughs, good music and songs."

The B.W. Cox Band also will furnish entertainment.

OLD TIMERS DANCE

Traditional old timers dance begins at 5 p.m. on the slab. The two-part dance is planned from 5 until 7 o'clock on the slab and then resumes at 8 p.m. at Massie Activity Center.

The Don Richardson Musicians again will provide dance music.

Admission is $4 for each man who dances. There is no charge for women dancers. Spectators are invited at no admission fee. "One charge covers the time on the slab and center dances," officials say.

WILD FLOWER SHOW

Floyd County Historical Museum will be the site Saturday for a wild flower show, held as a part of Floyd County Pioneer Reunion. Money prizes are to be awarded winners.

Mrs. Jettie Moss and Mrs. Mamie Wood are supervising the show. The public is invited to enter.

TRICYCLE DECORATING

Another Old Settlers-related event is a tricycle decorating contest, planned Saturday by 1956 Junior Study Club of Floydada.

Youngsters between the ages of two and five years are encouraged to participate. Parents may enter their children by phoning 983-5252 or 983-2198. Deadline for entering is Friday.

Prizes and ribbons will be awarded in each age group, with winners and their tricycles being on the study club's parade float.

LIBRARY BOOK SALE

A bevy of books are on display at Allen's TV Service, 115 E. Missouri (across the street north of the courthouse) for a Floyd County Library Book Sale this Saturday.

Proceeds from sale of the books — which have been given by the public — will be used for the county library.

Area artists will have table displays for an arts and crafts show Saturday at Art Southwest. The show is planned from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Up To 9.9 Inches Fall In County

When it finally rained, it poured! Monday afternoon cloudbursts dumped as much as an unconfirmed 9.9 inches west of Acco Seed at Aiken, which is near the Hale County line.

"Good rainfall" was received throughout virtually all of the county, with the least amount reported being nine-tenths of an inch at the Sterling Cummings place near South Plains. Another site near South Plains reported 1.4 inches.

Heaviest rains apparently fell in the northern and northwestern sections of the county. Fields and roads were virtual lakes in many areas until water subsided that night.

An estimated eight inches fell on the Claude Brown-Bill Race farm near Irick. The rain gauge overflowed.

John Terrell, west of Irick, had 7.2 inches and Buster Terrell gauged seven inches.

At Providence, Ronnie Thornton received six inches. Marvin Lemons and D.K. Jackson had 4.75 inches reported 6½ inches at Prairie Chapel.

W.J. Lee reported 6.75 inches at Aiken.

3.6 INCHES IN 'LESS THAN AN HOUR'

Herman Graham said 3.6 inches fell in "less than an hour" Monday afternoon at Muncy Elevator. Total rainfall there was placed at 4.9 inches.

Sandhill had 3½ inches, as did Pleasant Valley, according to a spot check Tuesday. Three inches were reported at Lakeview and McCoy.

John Dorman had 5½ inches at Barwise.

Aaron Carthel had five inches at his farm, five miles north of Floydada.

Amounts varied in the two county towns.

Jon LaBaume said he measured 2.88 inches in Floydada. Hubert Davis said four inches fell at his Floydada home. "Five inches came down at the cemetery and more than that further north," David said. He believes that actual rainfall was heavier than gauged due to high winds.

Open House Friday Night At Museum

Floyd County residents have been extended a special invitation to attend an open house at the Floyd County Historical Museum Friday night (May 25) from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Large crowds are expected at the museum on Saturday, "Old Settlers Day," and the Friday-night opening is planned for the purpose of giving local persons the opportunity to see the museum — and several brand-new exhibits — under less crowded conditions.

The museum is located at 105 East Missouri in Floydada.

Lockney Gin's gauge showed 5.25 inches and the First National Bank of Lockney showed 3.8 inches.

RAIN gushing from the roof of a downtown building creates a waterfall image Monday.

John L. Riley at Prairie Chapel reported 5½ inches, and John T. Carthel, northwest of Lockney, had four inches.

Joe Richard Noland had four inches at Center.

HAIL AT LONE STAR

Two and a half inches came at both Liberty (Wayne Bramlet) and at Lone Star (G.C. Applewhite).

Some crop and vehicle damage was sustained in the Lone Star community.

Amounts were lighter in the western parts of Floyd County. Dougherty had "1½ to 2 inches." An inch and a half fell at Cone.

MIXED EMOTIONS

While most farmers were "thrilled" to have the badly needed moisture, many would have preferred lesser amounts. Some cotton acreage will be replanted.

HAIL STRIKES EARLIER

Hail wiped out some wheat and young crops "north of the Matador highway" last Thursday night. Information on the amount of acreage lost was not available. One source said "several sections" were wiped out. Wayland Jones was one farmer reportedly having losses.

A report of hail damage last week in the Sandhill-Barwise area could not be confirmed.

Baccalaureate Service For FHS Seniors This Sunday

Floydada High School's Class of '79 will have its baccalaureate service this Sunday evening in First Baptist Church. It is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Tom Pauley, minister of the City Park Church of Christ, is to deliver the baccalaureate message.

The seniors are to enter the church auditorium as Kristi Julian plays the professional. Invocation will be given by Rev. Hollis Payne, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

Bobbie Miller is to lead the audience in singing "He Leadeth Me." A solo, "He Never Changes," will be presented by Miller. Mrs. Bob Copeland is to accompany the soloist.

Mrs. Copeland and Mrs. Lon Davis Jr. will perform an organ-piano duet before the baccalaureate address.

Another audience song, "He Keeps Me Singing," is scheduled. The Rev. Dennis Swearingin, pastor of First Christian Church, will voice the benediction.

Miss Julian is to play the recessional. White pendants are to be worn by seniors who are members of the National Honor Society.

GRADUATION WEDNESDAY

Approximately 95 class members will be candidates for graduation during Wednesday evening, May 30, commencement exercises in Floydada High School auditorium.

Principal Charles Tyer says high school tests are to be given next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Faculty members are to be involved in workshops Thursday, May 31, and Friday, June 1.

1909 MAJESTIC woodburning stove is examined by Razz and June Ware in the building east of the main Floyd County Historical Museum facility in downtown Floydada. The kitchen from yesteryear was designed as a window display in time for Old Settlers Day.

Miss Sparkman, Henry G. Presley III Wed Saturday In Lockney

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Presley III will be at home in Waco after a wedding trip to New Mexico. The couple, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hank G. Presley Jr. of Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sparkman of Lockney, were joined in marriage in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday, May 19.

Scene of the wedding vows exchange was the First Baptist Church of Lockney. Church minister Rev. John C. Jenkins directed the service.

The nuptial area was centered by a brass candelabra which was flanked by spiral candelabra covered with flowers and tropical foliage tied with tri-color satin. A brass kneeling bench held the unity candle and completed the setting. The candles were lighted by the bride's sister, Miss Terri Sparkman, and by their cousin, Miss Amy Hinkson of Stephenville to mark the beginning of the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. C.L. Record was organist for the program of music and also accompanied Mrs. Richard Wiley as she sang "O Promise Me", "Never My Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Preceding the bride down the church aisle were bridesmaids Lou Ann Skinner of Amarillo, Julia Garrett of McAllen and Roanne Riley of Big Spring; maid of honor, Robbie L. Sparkman of Beeville, sister of the bride; flower girls Michelle and Marlodee Sparkman of Perin, cousins of the bride, and ring bearer Greg Sparkman, brother of the bride. The attendants wore yellow floral polyester dresses and yellow hats trimmed with yellow satin ribbons. Dresses worn by the candlelighters were of apricot floral polyester. The attendants carried crescent arrangements of yellow gladiola buds and white daisies accented with apricot and lime green satin streamers.

The groom's brother, Kenneth Presley of Richardson, served as best man. Mike Wende of Arlington, Brian

MRS. HENRY G. PRESLEY III

McFarland and Wyatt Allen, both of Richardson, were groomsmen. Ushers were the bride's brother, Doug Sparkman, and Brent Rickles of Spur, Joe Bell and Randy Bell, both of Richardson.

George Sparkman accompanied his daughter to the nuptial area. For her wedding, the bride chose a white gown of imported silk organza. The Czarina bodice was frosted with French chantilly lace and tiny seed pearls. The sheer lantern sleeves were cuffed with an organza ruffle. The crescent waistline fell into a full, bouffant skirt that ended in a chapel train. Chantilly lace motifs centered with seed pearls trellised the skirt. Bordering the hemline was a ruffled flounce.

Her waist-length veil of imported silk illusion was layered in three tiers and was attached to a camelot half-cat. The veil was edged in Chantilly lace. The bouquet, a cascade arrangement of yellow roses and white starburst pomps showered with gypsophila was carried on the Bible used by the bride's mother in her own wedding.

The reception honoring the newlyweds was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table held a three-tiered cake and the bride's bouquet in a crystal decanter.

The groom's table was accented with a brass candleholder surrounded by greenery, and apricot and yellow silk flowers. The groom's cake was shaped like a top hat.

Reception attendants were Cindy Smith, Dianne Brewer and Elaine Lackey.

Presley is a graduate of Richardson High School and will be graduated in August from Baylor University. He will be employed this summer with Sears. His bride, a graduate of Lockney High School, is attending Baylor, and will be graduated in December.

The Alpha Sigma Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for a salad supper in the home of Vikki Yeary on May 15.

Following the delicious meal members revealed their secret sisters by presenting them with a gift. Many gorgeous gifts were received.

Committee pictures were then taken for the past year's committees. Lynn Daniel led the business meeting. It was reported that Wichita Falls is still planning to have the area convention in the fall.

Rhonda Guthrie gave the treasurer's report and June McGaugh asked that each member let her know which programs they would like to work on so that she could plan next year's program. Ilene Kendrick gave a report on Service projects for the year.

Donna Lipham presented several ideas for a salad supper honoring the "Man-of-the-Year."

Lynn Daniel welcomed the guests and asked Ilene Kendrick to give a short explanation of Beta Sigma Phi for their benefit.

Present were members Lynn Daniel, June McGaugh, Ilene Kendrick, Vicki Yeary, Jantha Smith, Linda Jackson, Rhonda Guthrie, Donna Lipham, Audrey Thomas, and Gaya Hale.

Guests present were Penny Bennett, Penny Gallagher and Lori Rendon.

NEWS 'N' NOTES

(by Sharon Hillis)

County Extension Agent

FREQUENCY AND POWER

Most microwave appliances operate on a frequency of 2,450 megahertz, (MHz = Million cycles per second). This is a relatively short wave length and is sufficient in cooking normal-sized food items. Some also operate on a frequency of 915 MHz, a longer wavelength for deeper penetration of larger food items. Portable microwave appliances plug into ordinary 110-120-volt household circuits, but a large, free-standing one will require its own 220-volt line. Because cooking time is so much shorter when using a microwave appliance, it costs less to operate than a conventional range.

OPERATING FEATURES

* Interlocks-Turns off the energy as soon as the door is opened. All microwave appliances must have at least two operating safety interlocks. Some models also use special energy-absorbing material around the door.
* Signal-A buzzer or light indicates when set cooking time is over.
* Start button-is pressed to start cooking action. Some models eliminate the switch-cooking begins by setting the timer and closing the door.
* Timer-Regulates cooking time. Usually marked in seconds so that short heating cycles can be set. The energy stops at the end of the present time.

SPECIAL FEATURES

* Browning devices-A special browning unit or a special utensil that produces browning by capturing microwave heat is available with some models. If the microwave appliance you select does not have this feature, foods can be browned in a conventional oven after being cooked in the microwave appliance. The initial cost of the microwave appliance will be higher with the browning feature, but it is more economical and convenient than using two appliances to cook one food item.

* Automatic defroster-Switch power on and off every 30 seconds to achieve even thawing. Without this feature, microwave appliances have the tendency to overdo the outside of foods and leave the inside icy.

SUNSHINE CHEESECAKE

Makes 8 servings
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
3 tablespoons sugar
4 packages (3 ounces each) cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1/2 cup water
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
Lemon slices, if desired

1. Microwave butter in 9-inch glass pie plate at regular power until melted, about 30 seconds. Mix in crumbs and 3 tablespoons sugar; press firmly onto bottom and side of pie plate. Microwave uncovered, rotating plate twice, 3 minutes; cool to room temperature.

2. Beat cream cheese, 1/2 cup sugar, the flour, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and the vanilla in a small mixer bowl until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs, 1 at a time until smooth. Pour mixture into cooled crust. Microwave uncovered at regular power, rotating plate every 60 seconds, until edge of filling is firm but center is soft, 4 to 4 1/2 minutes. Do not overcook. Cool to room temperature.

3. Mix 1/2 cup sugar and the cornstarch in 1-quart glass measuring cup; stir in water and 3 tablespoons lemon juice. Microwave uncovered at regular power, stirring every 60 seconds, until mixture is thickened and bubbly, 2 1/2 to 3 minutes. Stir some of the hot mixture into egg yolk; return yolk mixture to remaining hot mixture and stir until smooth. Microwave uncovered 30 seconds.

4. Spoon sauce over cheesecake, spreading to edge. Refrigerate lightly covered until cold, at least 3 hours or overnight. Garnish with lemon slices.

Next week: PART III of Maxi-Microwaving.

TWO YOUNG FLEAS FELL IN LOVE
And it came to pass that two young fleas fell in love, and after a short courtship, married and settled down. They found a large, good-natured and inactive dog for a home.

Theirs was truly an ideal life. Food, shelter and heat were provided. There was a housing unit in every wrinkle. Life was sweet and easy. All they did was eat, sleep and multiply.

Freedom from want and freedom had been attained, and they and their offspring enjoyed the abundant life.

But the patient old dog — sore and unappreciated — grew weak with wear. Unable any longer to support the hungry and rapidly multiplying non-productive population, he finally staggered off into the woods and died.

Consternation reigned among the fleas. They held meetings, protesting that the economic system had let them down. Some even threatened to vote for the other party. There was talk of using the old dog for lack of cooperation.

Many of those panicky parasites perished on the spot. Others, bitter in spirit, trudged off into the cruel world and died by the roadside, trying to thumb a ride on another dog.

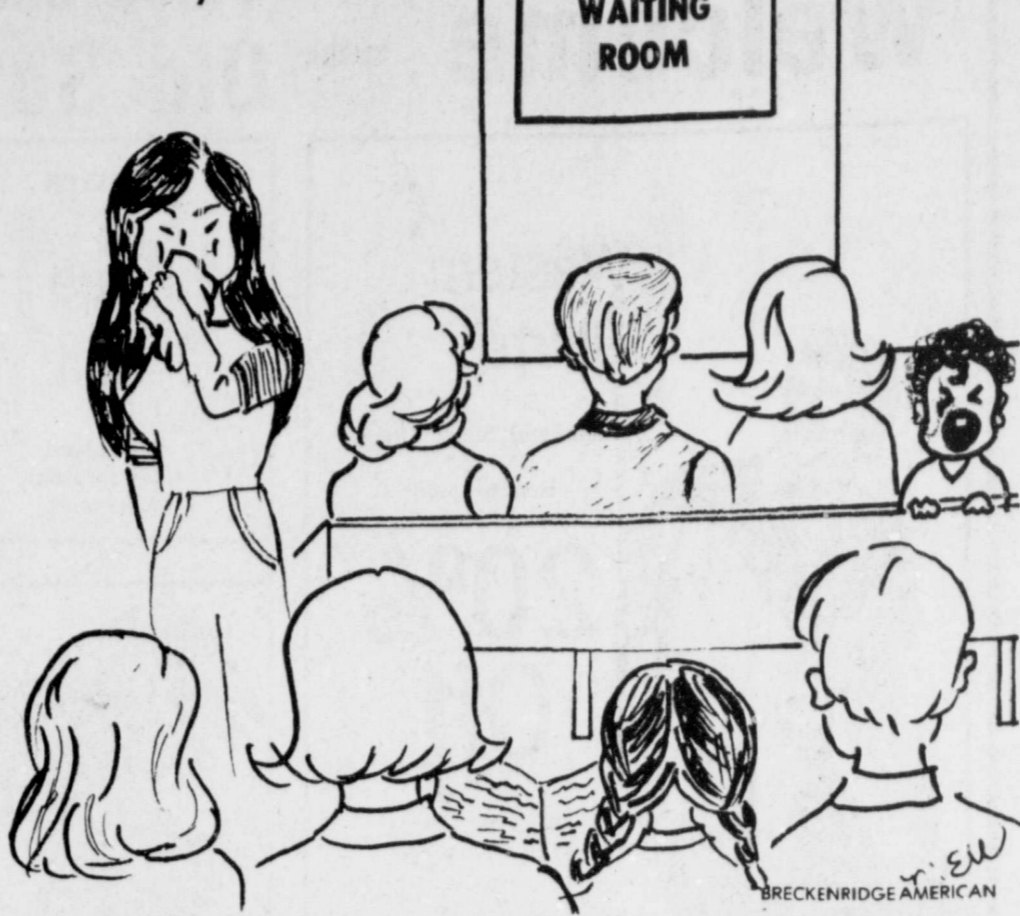

Now the moral of this story is that if too many people depend on society, industry and government to look after them, to provide them with security, they may end in want and distress amid the wreckage of the nation.

Men must never forget that there is no substitute for self-reliance, individual striving and thrift to provide for their future needs.

It's a pretty good lesson.

DOCTOR SHORTAGE

The drive is on again to cut back enrollments in United States medical schools.

Dr. Donald B. Louria of the New Jersey Medical School is the latest to get big headlines from coast to coast. He did so by saying that American medical schools should cut back their enrollments that to avoid a glut of physicians that could tuck doctors into cutthroat competition and promote unnecessary treatment.

"Increasing evidence suggests that there will be a surplus of physicians in this country within the next three decades," Dr. Louria declared.

To back up his claim, the note health specialist said that in 1950 there was one doctor in the United States for every 735 people. In 1980, there will be one for every 500, and by 2020, there may be one physician for every 250 or 300 people if the current trend continues.

Somehow Stephens County got left out. There is one doctor for every 1,555 people here if you use 1970 census figures.

Probably the figure is closer to one doctor for each 1,800 people. That means we have half the 1950 national average.

Dr. Louria would also limit the number of Americans trained abroad who would be allowed to take postgraduate programs in the United States. He would also make foreign doctors who come to the States train five years before being required to return home.

There may well be too many future doctors being trained, but if that is the case they are all going to the big cities.

Perhaps rather than cut down the number of students accepted by medical schools there should be less emphasis on training specialists and more on training family physicians.

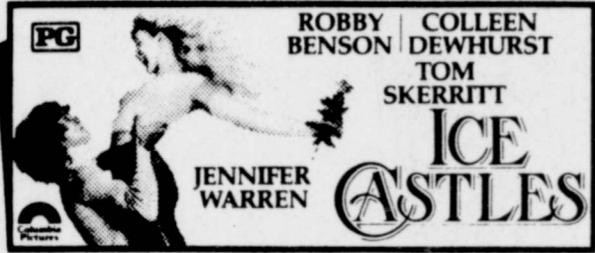

Using Dr. Louria's average on the number of doctors now practicing nationwide Stephens County should have 10 doctors, not just four.

Let's solve the problem of too few doctors in the rural areas before we reduce the number of physicians being trained.

POSITIVE THOUGHTS TO GASOLINE SHORTAGE

People need to give some positive thought to our gasoline shortage. No need to get all uptight with nasty negative reactions.

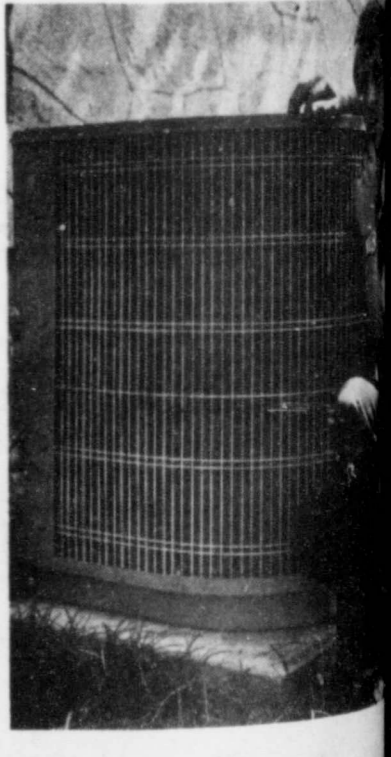

For example, people in towns our size could walk to work instead of driving, and even kids could walk to school—and probably be a whole lot healthier for it.

Maybe you don't like that one, but we have another one which is pretty good. That is to start scheduling vacations to begin in mid-week. That way you can get where you are going to "vacationate" before the gas stations close for the weekends and come home early in the week after they reopen.

Vacations should only be scheduled in the first three weeks of the month because gasoline supplies will be shorter at many stations toward the end of the month.

A third idea is to get smart, and find some vacation fun close to home so you don't have to roar down the road all day, or maybe more than one to get there, and the same on the return trip. If you're enterprising you might convert the idea into a money maker yourself.

E.E.R.? I never worried about it until I found out what it meant!

When I discovered that an Energy Efficient (E.E.R.) of 10 was twice as good as one with a rating of 5, it got my attention. Because with electric power at present price and likely to go up for the years ahead, twice as much energy for my money makes real sense.

So shop for the higher E.E.R. when you buy any appliance. Compare prices. Just remember, the higher E.E.R. means less electricity required. And conservation is the only sure way to save on your electric bill.

GI Benefits Clarified

Texas veterans who have been led to believe they are entitled to receive an insurance dividend on lapsed World War II GI insurance policies are being notified they are not.

The only dividend that the Veterans Administration pays is on insurance policies that are still in force from World War II and the Korean Conflict, Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Office Director.

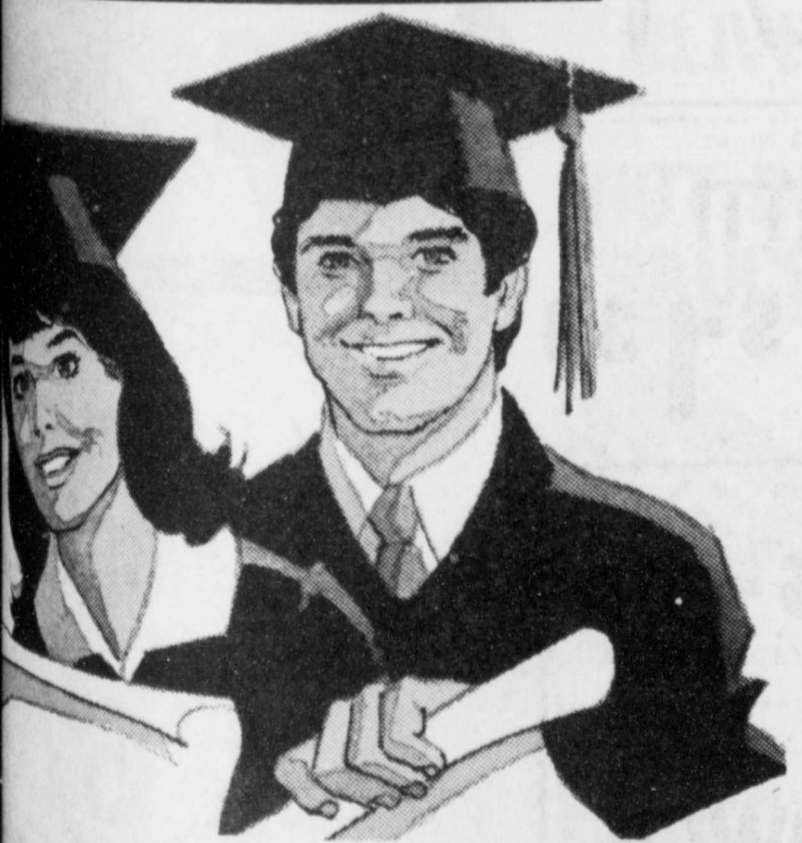

VA is receiving many calls weekly from veterans who have been deceived into expecting dividends on GI insurance that was allowed to lapse years ago.

Coker said the hoax comes up each year in various parts of the country as a result of news stories and reprints of phony application forms which appear in many publications throughout the U.S.

Coker said VA has been paying dividends on policies in force as announced each year and the dividend is paid on the anniversary date of the policy.

Methodists To Pick Delegates

Balloting for delegates to represent the 92,904 member Northwest Texas Annual Conference at Next Year's Quadrennial meetings of the United Methodist General Conference and the eight-state regional South Central Jurisdictional Conference is expected to extend over the three-day meeting of the annual conference which opens May 29 at Polk Street United Methodist Church in Amarillo.

The 1979 Annual Conference is one of seven Methodist conferences meeting within a four-week period in Texas and New Mexico. The conferences are composed of an equal number of clergy and laity.

This annual session will elect four clergy and four laity delegates to represent them at the denomination's law-making General Conference scheduled for April 15-25, 1980, in Indianapolis. The General Conference sets the policy that determines the worldwide ministry of the 10-million member denomination for the following four-year period.

Tomatoes Like To Be Caged

By: Stephen R. Herber
County Extension Agent

West Texas in spring can be a hostile place for young tomato plants. Newly set plants suffer a severe setback, sometimes death, when exposed to wind and cold. However, there is a way to set out tomato plants in May and protect them until the wind calms down and the nights warm.

Enclosing tomatoes in plastic-wrapped cages gives them much needed protection during May. Caged plants will grow much faster and produce many more early fruit and greater total yield than those grown with staking and pruning or ground culture systems.

Construct cages from concrete reinforcing wire, hog wire or sturdy wire mesh fencing that is two-and-a-half to five feet tall with openings for four to six inches. Cut and bend the mesh material into cylinders about 18 inches in diameter. Fasten the ends together by bending the wire inward so that it will not scratch you as you work around the plants. Wrap the full height of the cage in a sheet of clear plastic. Allow enough extra plastic to make a neat baker's fold which you will staple every four to six inches to tightly secure it around the cage wire.

Allow four to five feet between plants to give you plenty of room to work around your caged plants. Select tomato varieties well adapted to caging such as Spring Giant Hybrid, Big Set Hybrid, Small Fry Hybrid, Jack Pot Hybrid, or Sun Ripe Hybrid.

After transplanting the tomatoes and watering them in with a stater solution, place a cage over each plant with the plant centered inside the cage. Anchor the cage to a stout stake driven into the ground and tied to the cage with wire or string. This is about all there is to it.

As the days grow warmer and daytime temperatures rise into the 80's, slip the plastic wrap inward to allow cool air to enter the cage, thereby preventing excessively high temperatures around the plant. When the night temperatures stop going below 55 to 60 degrees, you can remove the plastic wrap entirely.

Cages will cost about 50 cents apiece and will last at least four to five years. The cage supports all fruits up off the ground and encourages the plant to grow upright so that the leaves shade the fruit and prevent sunburn. The plants are easier to spray and you will have less problems with insect and disease control.

Caged plants are not pruned, but simply trained so that several stems grow to the top of the cage while others grow out through the openings at different heights.

Other vegetables adapted to caging include peppers, egg plants, cucumbers and pole beans.

Youth Baseball Leagues Opening June

JC Marathon This Saturday

Baseballs are filling the air as Floydada area youngsters are drilling on their throwing and hitting skills before the summer program begins.

League President Bob Gilliland anticipates that T-Shirt and Little League seasons will be inaugurated June 4.

Five teams are to compete in the T-Shirt League for players seven to nine years old. Little League — for 10-12 year athletes — will consist of four teams.

Both leagues "probably" will have Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday night contests.

All-star squads, selected after the regular season ends, are to participate in Little League playoffs.

Floydada Jaycees are sponsoring an Old Settlers Day Marathon this Saturday.

Prizes are to be given in four age divisions.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. at Floydada High School.

Three trophies and a bonus prize are being offered in the open division. Persons of all ages may enter this event, which will be conducted over a four-mile course. Entry fee is $3.

High school division entries are to travel two miles vying for honor of three medals plus ribbons. Entry fee to test the two-mile course is $2.

Junior high age participants are to travel one-half mile in quest of three medals and ribbons. Entry fee is $1.

One dollar also is to be given to the winner of a one-fourth mile race. Those with ribbons, go to winners.

FLOYDADA Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Day visited in Lockney May 20 with their daughter and son-in-law and Mrs. Bob Taylor. Denisons were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Parrack.

"MORE TWINS than I ever saw on a plum tree," Hubert Davis says of fruit bearing on his Blue Damson tree. Davis holds small plums — all doubles or "twins" — which blew off during Monday's thunderstorm.

Greg Thompson Among Top Ten

Greg Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson of Floydada, placed in the Top Ten piano students who were presented in recital Monday May 21 by the Fine Arts Center in Plainview. Greg, who received a certificate pin signifying his level of achievement, also received a gold medal recently for having a 98 or above on a state theory test.

Greg is the student of Mr. Winston Redwine and has been a student of the piano for two and one half years.

Two Feted At Nursing Home Party

A time so bright and sunny Is the lovely month of May... And a time to have a party Is this very, very day!

We greet our Mrs. Stambaugh... Her parents named her Willie.... She's ready for her "party time" And she likes to have a "dilly"!!!

To Mrs. Lola Cavanaugh... Who counts from '93 We wish a happy birthday With MANY more to be!

Let's serenade these ladies With the good ole birthday song.... To let them know we love them.... So come out good and strong!

Tuesday, May 17, was birthday time again at Floydada Nursing Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting the party. Home residents were ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table.

Their places were marked with special cards. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in pink. The beautifully decorated birthday cake also graced the table (for a time). The poem was read and all joined in singing the "birthday" song. The Hesperian photographer was unable to be there so we do not have a picture this time.

Mrs. Stambaugh had as her special guests her daughter and granddaughter, Laurita and Kim Bertrand. Also, as special guests were Joyce Lipham and her little daughter Spring.

Following the serving of the delicious cake and tasty pink punch to residents, guests and employees, Mrs. Lipham entertained the group with piano selections and a game called "Name That Tune."

The next party will be Thursday, June 14, 2:30 p.m. You are invited to attend, and more especially if you have a loved one or close friend who is being honored.

Reception To Honor Grads

All graduating seniors, their families and special guests are invited to a reception in the Floydada High School cafeteria immediately after the graduation ceremony, Wednesday May 30.

Refreshments provided by the City Park Church of Christ will be served to guests and seniors after the seniors have checked in their caps and gowns. After the social hour at the school, seniors may go on to other places and private parties.
