

Summer finally got here! Here's proof:

Wheat Harvest Starts

First Load Comes In Tuesday

The first load of 1979 wheat delivered to an elevator in the Floydada trade area arrived at Producers Cooperative Elevator in Floydada at 5:20 p.m. Tuesday (June 12).

Howard Bishop collected the $25 first-load premium check from the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Agricultural Committee. Bishop donated the premium money to the Floydada Boy Scouts' bus fund.

The first load weighed 20,100 pounds, had a test weight of 60.5 pounds per bushel and a moisture content of 12.8 percent.

It came from the Howard Bishop-Q.D. Williams place 14 miles southeast of Floydada. W. B. Cates and Son cut the wheat. David Cates, who brought the wheat to the elevator said they started cutting about 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, and the first load would have been about two hours earlier if they hadn't had mechanical problems (a belt on the combine broke).

FIRST WHEAT — Producers Cooperative Elevator manager Bill Cagle (left) takes a sample from the first load of Floydada-area wheat, which was delivered to the Floydada elevator Tuesday afternoon. With Cagle are Daniel Coward, a Producers employee; Larry Barbee, Producers sales manager; and David Cates, who cut the wheat and delivered it to the elevator for Howard Bishop, producer of the first load. FUN IN THE SUN — at the pool. Young (one year old) Neal Nelson was having a big time Tuesday afternoon at the Floydada swimming pool, with help from his mother Terry (Mrs. Kevin) Nelson. The pool opened Wednesday of last week, but Monday and Tuesday were the first "big days," when temperatures neared summertime levels and swimmers flocked to the pool in large numbers. The city pool, open 1-5 p.m. every day, is managed by Mike Coccannougher. Admission charge is a dollar a person. Swimming lessons are planned at the pool July 2-13. (Staff Photo)

Nominate Your Dad (Do It Today) For Father Of The Year

Today (Thursday) at 5 p.m. is the deadline for nominations for the Floydada Father of the Year Award.

The Retail Trades Committee of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the award. The winner will be named tomorrow, and his picture will appear in the Sunday (Fathers Day) edition of The Hesperian.

To nominate your dad, explain in 25 words or less why you think he is worthy of the Father of the Year honor. Submit the nomination to any of the 32 Floydada merchants who are co-sponsoring the contest.

Floydada merchants who are participating in the event, and with whom nominations may be deposited, are Anderson's Department Store, Beall's, Hale's, Roye's, Arwine Drug, Thompson Pharmacy, Sears, City Auto, Azteca I, Pizza Gold, Tommy Assiter Insurance;

Floyd County Farm Bureau, Goen & Goen, Hale Insurance, Travel Center

Restaurant, Builders Mart, Caprock Motor Parts & Hardware, Higginbotham-Bartlett Co., Kirk & Sons, Parker Furniture, Day Heating & Air Conditioning, Dyson's Shoe Shop; Parker Studio, Solomon Jewelry, Kirtley's, City of Floydada, Pioneer Natural Gas, Collins Implement, Case Power & Equipment, Baker Insurance Agency, and The Floyd County Hesperian.

Nine Teachers Hired * School District To Assess Land Taxes On Market Value

The Floydada Independent School District board of trustees accepted the resignations of eight employees Tuesday night and approved the hiring of nine teachers for next school year.

Also Tuesday night, the school board voted to:

Raise substitute teacher pay from $20 to $25 per day ($30 per day if the substitute has a teaching certificate);

Call for bids on P.E. dressing-room facilities at R.C. Andrews Elementary School;

Designate the junior-high campus

"closed" during lunch hour next school year;

Continue to tax automobiles for 1979 and continue to tax land on its market value for 1979 only.

All board members were present, as were Superintendent Jerry Cannon, Finance Coordinator Leonida Cleveland, Business Manager Tommy Cathery, and Andrews School Principal Preston Watson.

TEACHER RESIGNATIONS

Resignations accepted by the board Tuesday were those of Fleeta Adams, fourth-grade teacher; Diana Gross and Phyllis Tone, both kindergarten teachers; Sally Willie, history and P.E.; Joel Kimble, compensatory math; Wendy Montandon, high-school English; Phyllis Cross, seventh-grade math; and Ina Hammonds, tax deputy.

HIRINGS APPROVED

Teachers hired Tuesday night were Juanel Farmer, first or second grade; Bill Montgomery, high-school assistant coach and history teacher; Julia Hipp, special education; Nancy Sterling, assistant girls' basketball coach and assistant tennis coach; Gene Moore, high-school distributive education; Delores Moore, high-school English; Barbara Willis, junior-high math; Joe Willis, high-school speech.

CHANGES AT ANDREWS

On Watson's recommendation, the board approved self-contained classes for fourth-graders next year; fifth and sixth-grade classes will remain departmentalized.

The trustees voted, also on the principal's recommendation, to call for bids on construction of new P.E. dressing rooms at Andrews Elementary.

Watson reported that the RIF (Reading Is Fun) program at his school was highly successful, with 83.87 percent of the students involved in the program showing a definite improvement in reading skills during the past school year.

SUBSTITUTE PAY RAISE

Superintendent Cannon recommended that substitute teacher pay be raised from $20 to $25 a day and that those substitute teachers who hold a valid teaching certificate be paid $30 a day. The school board passed unanimously a motion to that effect.

SCHOOL CROSSING

The trustees asked Cannon to investigate obtaining a school crossing designation on the Ralls highway, where students cross the highway going between the track and junior high school.

CAMPUS CLOSED AT NOON

The board designated the junior high school campus closed during the noon hour next year.

AUTO, LAND TAXES

Taxpayers in the Floydada ISD will continue to pay taxes on their automobiles, and landowners will continue paying school taxes on the market value of their land, for 1979 only. The school board made both decisions at the meeting Tuesday night.

OTHER ACTION

In other action Tuesday, the school board voted to continue the contract with McCreary and Huey as the delinquent-tax attorneys for the district. And they approved the sale of two used 1967 Chevrolet school buses to City Auto Inc.

P&Z COMMISSIONERS NAMED

Ray McDonald was named to serve another year on the city's Planning and Zoning Commission, and R. L. Giesecke was appointed to serve the unexpired term of Frank Barrow on the commission. McDonald's and Giesecke's terms expire July 1, 1980.

Danielle's Farewell Party Set Tuesday Night

The Floydada American Field Service chapter will sponsor a farewell party

Tuesday night for Danielle Biever, the Floydada High School AFS student from Luxembourg.

Danielle's farewell party will be in the back yard at Pete and Wanda Hickerson's home, 815 West Mississippi, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Tuesday (June 19).

She is scheduled to leave from Amarillo the following Sunday morning on a bus trip to Washington, D.C. with other AFS students. From Washington, she'll fly to Paris; the final leg of her journey home will be by train. She's scheduled to arrive in Luxembourg July 12.

Danielle, who lived with the Donald Bean family during her stay in Floydada, asked The Hesperian to thank her Floydada friends for "a good year" and added "I really enjoyed my stay here."

"WELL PARDNERS, reckon I'll be moseying along back to the old home spread..." The sad and serious business of packing for AFS student Danielle Biever's trip home to Luxembourg is interrupted by a bit of horseplay

City Makes 'Full Application' For HUD Grant

The City of Floydada has filed "full application" for a $132,000 housing rehabilitation grant under the Community Development Block Grant Program of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The filing of the full application came after a public hearing (attended by no one but city officials) during the regular monthly city council meeting Tuesday night.

The City's pre-application for the grant has already been approved. Filing of the full application is the next step in the effort to obtain the housing grant.

CITY TO TAX AUTOS

The council voted Tuesday to continue to collect city taxes on automobiles for 1979.

Floydada Rebekah Lodge

Honors Fathers

Floydada Rebekah Lodge enjoyed family night at the lodge on Tuesday night.

A program honoring Fathers Day was given by Ruby Davis.

First readings from the bible were God created man, then a history on how Fathers Day originated.

Fathers Day was started by Mrs. Senora Dodd and finally passed by president Woodrow Wilson to decree Fathers Day June 17th or every third Sunday in June.

She then read an article by Erma Bombeck on how fathers were created. Artie Webb then read an article by Paul Harvey on "What are fathers made of?"

A banquet table was set up for all the Rebekahs and their husbands and families to enjoy ice cream, cake, ice tea and coffee.

Single Adults To Meet Saturday

Single Adults will meet Saturday night June 16 at 8 o'clock at Mamie Wood's home for a backyard supper. Sandwiches, cake and ice cream will be served by the club.

Hostesses are Mamie Wood, Cecile Fyffe, Helen Solomon, and Ruby Lee Higginbotham.

Following the supper, games will be played. Everyone is invited and should wear something western.

Attending Wilkins Family Reunion

Mills, Deanna and Scott, Dallas; Mona Kennimer and Jackie Kennimer, Lubbock; Yancey Hogg, Lubbock; Gladys Peaks, Wanda and Marvin Hughes, Oscar, Joyce, Denise and Arlene Daily of Perrin; and J. R., son of Eddie Wayman, also attended.

The next Wilkins family reunion will be held in Moorpark, California in June 1981.

Mrs. Hrbacek To Athena Hostess

Athena Junior Study Club will have its first summer meeting Thursday (tonight) on its new year-round schedule.

Mrs. Paul (Vida) Hrbacek

For Those Who Face Loneliness

Depression, feelings of alienation, loneliness. They're all part of what's known as the "human condition." Everyone has them, and no one should have to face them alone.

That is the philosophy of the staff at the Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center in Plainview, and the reason for the day treatment unit at the Center.

"When persons begin to have mental problems, they often feel isolated. They back their heads against the wall and feel that no one understands them. The staff at the Center is trained to help these people. They use a variety of techniques, including group therapy, individual therapy, and social adjustment. The staff also provides a supportive environment where people can share their feelings and experiences. This helps to reduce the sense of isolation and provides a sense of community.

There is usually no need to worry if your young child mispronounces many words.
Most do at first. You can correct her occasionally in a friendly way, and you'll be amazed at how quickly her vocabulary grows.

NEWS 'N' NOTES
(by Sharon Hillis)

Termites cause wood decay and damage that threaten home upkeep. "Subterranean termites live in colonies in the ground and require moisture to survive. The worker termites attack damp wood which is in contact with the ground. They may build earthen tunnels from the ground up to the wood. They will sometimes completely eat away the inside of a piece of wood while leaving the outside surface intact."

HOW TO CHECK FOR TERMITES

- 1 - Check for termites at least twice a year.
- 2 - During the spring and summer (termite mating season), call an exterminator to identify large numbers of flying insects that you cannot identify.
- 3 - Look for earthen tunnels in the following locations:
 - along masonry foundations and basement walls,
 - along openings where pipes enter walls, and
 - along the surface of metal pipes.
- 4 - Examine all cracks in slabs and loose mortar in masonry walls. Check all joints where wood meets with concrete or masonry, at walls, slabs, piers.
- 5 - Inspect all wood structures that are near the ground. Pay special attention to any that touch the house, such as fences, wood trellises, carports. Examine crawl spaces that provide moist conditions.
- 6 - Check windowsills, door thresholds, porches and the underside of stairs. Be on the lookout for peeling and blistering paint.
- 7 - Where termite damage to wood is suspected, probe with a sharp point, such as an icepick or penknife. If the point penetrates the wood to a depth of one-half inch, when using only hand pressure, wood damage by termites is likely indicated.

HOW TO PROTECT AGAINST TERMITES

Chemicals needed to control termites are toxic to animals and plant life. There is also danger of contaminating the water supply. Therefore, the chemicals should be applied with extreme caution and preferably by an experienced person. Follow this procedure when chemical treatments are necessary for an existing building:

- 1 - Dig a trench, approximately one foot wide and three feet deep, adjacent to the foundation wall.
 - 2 - Prepare a solution of the insecticide. Consult your county Extension office or local exterminator regarding the recommended type and mixing instructions.
 - 3 - Pour the insecticide against the exposed wall surface and into the trench as it is backfilled.
 - 4 - Apply the solution to all other locations where wood and masonry meet at a joint. It should also be applied to other areas that have earth floors.
 - 5 - Use extreme caution with these chemicals since they will also be poisonous to humans and pets. If a chemical is used inside the house, the room or space must be well ventilated and vacated for a period of time. Other considerations should include:
 - All surface water should be directed away from the building, allowing no water to accumulate at the foundations.
 - Keep crawl spaces well ventilated. A house of 1,000 square feet should have at least eight vents, 16 by eight inches, open at all times.
 - Crawl spaces should be at least two feet in height. Keep space clear of wood scraps.
 - Untreated wood should not come closer than six inches to the ground.
- Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, or origin.

Singing Convention Sunday At Matador

The Motley and Dickens County Singing Convention will meet in the First Assembly of God Church in Matador at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 17. The event will feature many good singers and everyone is not only invited, but urged to attend. Walter Craft is president of the convention, and Bobby Martin is secretary.

The Floydada chapter No. 31 Order of Eastern Star met Thursday for the purpose of installing officers for the ensuing year. Theme for the new year is "Love Through Service."

Carolyn Stovall was installed as Worthy Matron and Harold Woodson was installed as Worthy Patron. Assisting Mrs. Stovall in the coming year as Associate Matron will be Mrs. Ruth Trapp with Bill Colston serving as Associate Patron. Other officers are secretary,

Veterans Administration News

The Veterans Administration wants to identify a relatively small group of veterans' survivors who are eligible for a new form of VA compensation payments authorized just before Congress adjourned in October. Members of the group are survivors of certain totally service-connected disabled veterans who died prior to October 1, 1978, of non-service-connected causes. Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Office director, said the agency's problem is that its records system is not designed to identify survivors of these veterans. "While we believe the number of these spouses and children is relatively small, we are doing everything we can to make sure that all potentially eligible survivors are made aware of these new benefits," Coker said. "We are seeking the cooperation of the national veterans organizations and the press in bringing this to the attention of potential beneficiaries," Coker said.

CONDITIONS STATED

- Several conditions must be met before survivors can qualify for these new dependency and indemnity compensation payments:
 - * The veteran must have been receiving 100 percent service-connected disability compensation payments from VA for at least ten years before his or her death, or for at least five years from discharge if death occurred within ten years of leaving service.
 - * The surviving spouse must have been married to the veteran for at least two years prior to the veteran's death.
 - * Benefits will not be paid if death was due to the veteran's willful misconduct or was wrongfully and intentionally caused by the claimant.
 - Eligible survivors: totally disabled veterans who died before October 1, 1978, will receive benefits," Coker said. "But the benefits will be retroactive only to October 1, no matter how long ago the veteran died."
 - Survivors of veterans who died prior to October 1, 1978, must apply for this new benefit, Coker said, but VA will automatically notify survivors of veterans who die subsequent to that date of their potential eligibility for the new payments.

Complete information as to eligibility for the new dependency and indemnity compensation payments may be obtained by contacting any VA office, veterans county service officer, or a service officer of a local veterans organization.

Summer Reading Club Begins June 20

An invitation is extended to all children to join the Summer Reading Club. Beginning on Wednesday, June 22 children are encouraged to attend each weekly session through 25.

The theme for learning will be "In Search of Texas Treasures." Activities have been planned around our Texas heritage and include films, storytime, puppet shows and demonstrations of arts and crafts.

Each weekly session will be held in the Floyd County Public Library which is on the second floor of the courthouse.

Ages 3 through children having completed the 2nd grade will meet from 9:30 a.m. until 10 a.m. each Wednesday. Children having completed the third grade through the sixth grade will meet from 10:30 a.m. until 11:15 a.m. on Wednesday also.

Parents are encouraged to pre-register their children on Thursday June 14 or Friday June 15 at the library during regular library hours.

This project is sponsored by the Floyd County Library and the 1956 Junior Study Club.

College Station — Creativity offers a way for personal enrichment, says Patricia Lamson, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Everyone needs a proper environment to get in touch with his or her creative self.

Floydada FFA'ers Win State Awards

Two members of the Floydada Future Farmers of America chapter have won first-place Proficiency Awards in statewide FFA competition, two more have placed second, and 10 local FFA'ers have qualified for State Farmer Degrees.

PROFICIENCY AWARDS

Applications from Jay Waller and Danny Nutt were first in state judging June 4 and 5 in Austin. Waller took a state "first" in Horse Proficiency, and Nutt was named first-place winner in Fruit and Vegetable Production Proficiency. Their applications advance to regional judging.

Second-place state proficiency honors went to Kelly Marble, in Floriculture, and to Tom Potts, in Fish, Game and Wildlife.

STATE FARMER DEGREES

The 10 from Floydada who have qualified for State Farmer Degrees — and who will receive those degrees next month at the state FFA Convention in Lubbock — are Sammy Bradley, Danny Nutt, Kelly Marble, Dwayne Marble, Kim Warren, Todd Williams, Rex Reeves, Gary Vick, Danny Tinney and Keith Nixon.

The 1979 Texas Future Farmers of America Convention is scheduled July 11-13 in the Lubbock Civic Center. Some 6,000 FFA members and 1,500 advisors are expected in the Hub City for the state convention, according to Orville Harris, advisor for the Floydada chapter.

LOCAL CHAPTER SEVENTH IN STATE

The Floydada FFA Chapter won the seventh-place BOAC (Building our American Community) Award and qualified for national competition in the BOAC program.

Solar Home Tour Set Saturday

'Casa Del Sol' Tour To Benefit Floyd County Libraries

Saturday, June 16, from 2 to 4 p.m. is the open house at Casa Del Sol, the solar home of Mrs. Georgia Mae Ericson.

Tickets for the event are priced at $2.50 and are available at the Floyd County Library in Floydada and at the library's Lockney branch.

After the death of her husband in 1976, Mrs. Georgia Mae Smith Ericson has returned to her family property in Mt. Blanco Canyon.

Her collaborative effort with the Texas Tech Department of Civil Engineering has resulted in a public education project in order to disseminate information concerning the energy prob-blem.

Solar energy, via panels located strategically around the home, is used for domestic water, space and swimming-pool heating.

Throughout the school year seminars will be conducted at Casa del Sol for civil engineering students by Ernest W. Kiesling, professor and chairperson of the Department of Civil Engineering. All fees collected will be donated to the Stanley G. Ericson Fund in memory of Georgia Mae's late husband.

The solar home will be involved in other community activities with the Crosby County Museum and area hospitals (in whirlpool therapy for physically handicapped patients) in which all fees and donations will also go to her late husband's fund.

The interior design of the home has been enhanced by rock sculpture by an East Berlin refugee, Manfred Kater.

The rock utilized for the exterior and interior has been carefully selected from Slaton, Canyon, Mt. Blanco, Caprock, and Silver Falls.

Casa del Sol sits on a 38-acre land tract — part of the original property of Hank Smith (Georgia Mae's grandfather), where the original rock house of the pioneer and his family still stands — Gioletta Hacienda.

As one approaches the solar home, a gazebo is first encountered, which has been designated as a memorial to her late sister Evelyn Smith Lowrie.

The rest area has been created to match the surroundings, and there will be a twin waterfall added later.

A nostalgic all-wood windmill stands outside the enclosed pool area and is functional as a weather vane and enshrined as a tribute to pioneer well drilling.

Georgia Mae is a philanthropist. She hopes to promote solar utilization within the community and offers her unique home as a haven for and health therapy.

Continental Singers To Perform At First Baptist Church

The "Continental Singers and Orchestra," directed by Paul Boyd on their annual 75-day international tour, will present a live 90-minute concert of contemporary Christian music on Sunday, June 24 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

Boyd will direct the 25 vocalists and 10-piece orchestra plus technical crew as they tour the United States and Canada.

Now in his fifth year with the "Continental Singers and Orchestra," Boyd started in 1974 touring the U.S., South America and the Caribbean, and in 1975 toured the U.S. and Southern Europe. In 1976 he was assistant director for the U.S. and Canada tour, and in 1978 was the assistant director for the tour of the U.S., Russia, Sweden, Finland and Denmark.

Born and reared in Oakland, California, he was graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and economics. He is currently a second year law student at Baylor University in Waco, Texas. He played in the UC Berkeley Jazz Band and served as a church music director.

He is currently director of music for St. John's United Church of Christ, Robinson, Texas, and is on the music staff at the First United Methodist Church, Waco.

Boyd will direct this year's program, entitled "Praise and Rejoice," which features many of the great Christian songs being heard around the world. Medleys of favorite hymns and praise songs will be featured along with contemporary gospel songs like Don Francisco's "He's Alive" and great standards like "How Great Thou Art."

The "Continental Singers and Orchestra" is a presentation of Continental Ministries, Thousand Oaks, California, with Cam Florida, president.

"The plumber is here."

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,
The letter to the editor in the June 7 edition of this newspaper was very interesting. I agree with the writer. The police officers should not have taken away the water pistols, yet if the kids had a place to shoot their water pistols they would not have had them taken away. Maybe next year the Old Settlers planning committee can come up with some ideas to entertain the kids.

There are empty lots that could be used for water balloon tosses, water pistol shooting contests, horse shoe pitching and other games. Why couldn't we have a carnival? There are many things that we could do to help our kids enjoy the Old Settlers and bring in more people for the weekend. It could help the whole area by having more interesting things going on for all ages.

This year Old Settlers was very boring! It should be something everyone looks forward to. It would help if the police officers stopped taking away kids toys, and put themselves to work doing their real jobs. Like giving tickets to speeders, kids under sixteen with no drivers license driving, drunk drivers, and other violations that go unattended! It's about time this community found something to entertain its kids! It seems everytime something is set up for the kids, the adults take it over! With correct supervision many things would go over real well for our kids here.

More concerned parents,
Bill and Sheila Nelson

AAM Changes MO

The time for a change in present modus operandi of the American Agriculture Movement arrived during the National Meeting held in Wichita, Kansas, June 2 and 3. Because a plateau had been reached using previous protest, educational, and lobbying efforts with little more progress being made, farmers felt a new approach should be taken. The delegate body voted to loosely organize in order to better achieve the original five points of the American Agriculture Movement.

The need to keep strong input from the grassroots level was seen by the delegates as basic. Spontaneous individual involvement has been the root of the tremendous gains that farmers, united as the American Agriculture Movement, have during the past twenty-one months. It was felt this support must be maintained and encouraged in order that the needs of agriculture and all farmers would best be served.

The by-laws were adopted with the amendment that, in the future, something was found not to be effective, changes could be quickly adopted to better implement the goals of the American Agriculture Movement, Inc.

We are hopeful that indeed good things for agriculture are in the offing and that more stumbling blocks have not been thrown in the path to achieving 100 percent of parity for all domestically produced agricultural products. As one delegate said, "You've come a long way, baby, but you've got a long way to go!"

Insects Abundant Due To Wet Weather

by Stephen R. Herber, County Extension Agent
Thrips "like" young, stressed cotton. And if current cool, wet weather continues long into June, a lot of cotton from the Blacklands to the South Plains will be under stress from one source or another. Excessively wet fields, possible herbicide damage, seedling diseases and cool nights will all take their toll.

Watch for movement of thrips into late-planted cotton, especially from nearby maturing grain and hay fields that have just been cut. The 30-day weather outlook indicates that better growing weather for cotton is coming up, so perhaps the thrips problem will end. Thrips need not be controlled on vigorously growing cotton.

Fleahoppers from the Blacklands to the Rolling Plains will also be a problem until cotton makes good growth.

June weather, on the average, will be on the dry side for all of Texas, according to the National Weather Service. Temperatures will be on the cool side in South Texas but are expected to be near seasonal levels elsewhere.

Cotton in South Texas, including the Lower Valley, is past the danger stage for thrips and fleahoppers but is heading into mid-season insect problems. Dry weather would help farmers, since cotton that is on the dry side is not as attractive to bollworms and tobacco budworms as lush cotton. Also, survival rates of eggs and young worms are lower in dry weather.

Boll weevils have a tougher time in dry weather, too. Squares that are shed tend to dry out before the boll weevil can complete his life cycle. Since most cotton growing areas have good moisture, the potential is set for mid-season insect problems.

Sorghum will have midge problems as a result of weather delays in planting. Some sorghum planting dates in the same area varied by more than one month. Regardless of June weather, past weather has set the stage for extensive midge control.

Green bugs and cornleaf aphids have not been major problems so far in sorghum. Frequent, heavy rains in most central areas have effectively controlled these aphids. Watch out for population increases if the weather turns dry, though.

Screwworm potential will remain high as long as mild, wet weather persists. Survival rates of pupae and adults are enhanced by moist soils and mild temperatures.

Stockmen should take good care of heads, be careful to dress wounds from surgery, check stock frequently, and send suspect larvae samples to the Mission laboratory. Tick populations tend to be up in wet weather, so wounds from ticks will have to be treated.

Grasshoppers shouldn't be as big a problem this year although there has been some scattered buildups of lubbers in the Permian Basin and other West Texas areas. If the weather does turn dry in June, grasshoppers could become more of a problem; otherwise, wet weather should keep them largely in check.

Insects will continue to thrive on abundant grasses, wildflowers and other native plants as a result of a wet spring through most of Texas. Some may migrate into crops if a dry spell develops; otherwise, only one potential problem comes to mind.

Peach growers need to control grasses and weeds in orchards to cut down on population potentials for leaf-footed plant bugs and stink bugs. These have moved into peach trees in the past and damaged fruit when their preferred food plants dried up.

Homeowners will continue to have insect problems until wet weather ends. Cockroaches, ants, termites, fleas

Reservoir Water Analyzed

AUSTIN, Texas—The Texas Department of Water Resources has published the results of water-quality surveys of 17 Texas reservoirs and miscellaneous chemical analyses of additional water samples collected periodically from 58 reservoirs by the United States Geological Survey (USGS).

The report was prepared by the USGS under cooperative agreement with the Texas Department of Water Resources and its predecessor, and it covers the water years of 1974-75.

Title of the report is "Water Quality Records for Selected Reservoirs in Texas, 1974-75 Water Years," and the report number is 232.

Copies of the report are available without charge from the Texas Department of Water Resources, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711.

The 17 reservoirs surveyed include Lake Meredith, Greenbelt Reservoir, Lake O' the Pines, Sam Rayburn Reservoir, Lake Arlington, Lewisville Lake, Livingston Reservoir, Lake Conroe, Hubbard Creek Reservoir, Possum Kingdom Reservoir, Lake Granbury, Whitney Lake, Belton Lake, Somerville Lake, Town Lake (Austin), Canyon Lake, and Lake Corpus Christi.

Reservoirs sampled for miscellaneous chemical analyses include Lake Meredith, MacKenzie Reservoir, Greenbelt Lake, Lake Wichita, Lake Kickapoo, Lake Arrowhead, Farmers Creek Reservoir, Moss Lake, Pat Mayse Lake, Wright Patman Lake, Lake Cypress Springs, Ellison Creek Reservoir, Lake O' the Pines, Lake Tawakoni, Martin Lake, Murvaul Lake, Striker Creek Reservoir, Bridgeport Reservoir, Lake Amon G. Carter, Lake Worth, Benbrook Lake, Mountain Creek Lake, Lewisville Lake, Grapevine Lake, Lavon Lake, Lake Ray Hubbard, and Lake Cherokee.

Additional miscellaneous chemical analyses were made of samples from Cedar Creek Reservoir, Navaro Mills Lake, Bardwell Lake, Houston County Lake, Lake Houston, White River Reservoir, Fort Phantom Hill Reservoir, Lake Stamford, Lake Graham, Lake Palo Pinto, Lake Past Cleburne, Waco Lake, Leon Reservoir, Proctor Lake, Stillhouse Hollow Lake, Somerville Lake, Lake Mexia, Lake J. B. Thomas, Lake Colorado City, Champion Creek Reservoir, E. V. Spence Reservoir, Oak Creek Reservoir, Twin Buttes Reservoir, Lake Nasworthy, O. C. Fisher Lake, Lake Clyde, Hords Creek Lake, Lake Brownwood, Brady Reservoir, Canyon Lake, and Median Lake.
