Clements Designates

May As Senior

Citizens Month

The month of May has been designated as Older Texans Month by Gov. William P. Clements, Jr.

Texas has "almost two million senior citizens," the Governor said. "We are deeply indebted to this rapidly growing segment of our population for the rich heritage they have created for us."

"In recognition and appreciation of that heritage, it is important that we encourage older Texans to remain active so that our State can continue to benefit from their experience and wisdom," Gov. Clements said.

He urged Texas communities to honor senior citizens during Older Texans Month "to encourage their continued participation in the decision-making process."

ASCS Committee Meets

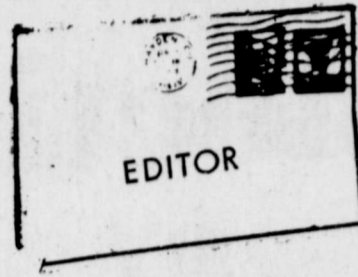

At the ASCS County Committee meeting March 31 Thomas Moore reported that the disaster program is extended through 1980. Disaster payment rate is one half the target price for wheat and feed grains and one third the target price for cotton. He says that when the level of target price is chosen by plantings you have also chosen the payment rate for any disaster you may have.

A $100,000 payment limit per person is in effect for 1980. Farms planting only cotton will have the same target price and disaster payment rate whether or not they plant within their NCA base. There will not be any required set-aside acreage nor will there be any set-aside payment. There is no early sign-up for program participants. Participants must timely certify to program by May 15 is the final date to certify. Acreages accurately before...

Moore says you must have your wheat acreages on a base application for an appropriate payment, if interested in...

He says applications for programs will be given equal attention without regard to race, national origin.

Floyd County Hesperian Editor:

Yesterday morning about 10:40 a.m., I had my car parked north of the fire plug south of Martin & Company. As I backed out to go home, a middle aged white man opened the right front door and told me to go to the high school. As we headed west, he asked me if I was a basketball fan. I told him I wasn't. He said he was the school coach. He told me to go down the street west of the school as a friend was parked there.

At the end of the street, he told me to turn because his friend must have went to the east side. When we turned down east of the school about where the light transformers are, there was a Negro man standing in the street. The white man told me to park and the Negro man came up and said he was from Amarillo town but had got off the bus here and was lost. The white man told him to get in the back seat out of the rain. The black man showed the white man a letter from an Amarillo attorney saying he had inherited $50,000.00 and he was from Alabama. The white man said why don't you go and get the money. The black man said he had all the money but $3,000.00 that he had given an Amarillo town woman to stay all night with him. He then said he had drunk too much coffee and had to go to the bathroom. The white man told him to get in front of the car which he did. The white man pulled out three cards, one was red and the other two were black and said let's get that money. I told him I wanted nothing to do with this deal. The white man said he did because he had a wife and two hungry kids. The black man got back in the back seat and handed each of us a hundred dollar bill for good faith in telling him where he was. I told him he didn't owe me anything. I realized I was in a con game. The black man asked me if I gambled. I told him no. The white man showed me the red card laying on the seat between us. The black man said I will bet you $200.00 that you can't pick out the red one. The white man saw my watch and also asked for my pocketbook and felt something in my shirt pocket where I carry some heart pills and also there was a $50.00 bill there. I would start to back out and the white man would cut the switch and the car would go to the curb. This went on for about 30 minutes and black man said he would make me another bet for $12,000.00 and the white man showed me the red card. I told them I wasn't going to touch the cards but the red was in the center. The white man turned it

Mr. Stovall from Plainview and said that Martin & Co. income tax was ready. So they went to his office and told him they had two black and one red card. That they did and he said two men had been took by one black and one white man the same way now I realize I was lucky.

Speed Up Tax

Refunds By Using

Peeloff Label

Taxpayers can help speed up the processing of their Federal income tax return and receive their refund much faster by using the preaddressed, peeloff label on their return, the Internal Revenue Service said. The label, which is located on the cover of the tax return package, lists the taxpayer's name, address, and social security number. If any of the information is incorrect, the taxpayer should make needed changes directly on the label.

Married taxpayers filing joint returns should be sure that both social security numbers appear on the label. If only one spouse's number is shown, the other number should be placed on the label, according to the IRS.

IRS encourages taxpayers to send their return in the coded envelope provided with the tax package and to make sure they have attached all required schedules and forms.

Tech Studies

"Drylines"

Most people don't know what to call them, but West Texans can feel the "drylines" that weathermen believe important in forecasting severe storms. Because drylines are particularly prevalent in the Lubbock area, atmospheric scientists at Texas Tech University have designed a geographical honeycomb of 17 weather shelters, housing special instruments to continuously measure temperature, pressure, relative humidity and wind within a 1,000 square mile area.

Dr. Richard E. Peterson of Texas Tech's atmospheric sciences group said the shelters will be placed in the Lubbock area. Data gathered from the instruments will be analyzed in an attempt to find patterns conducive to outbreaks of severe weather. Of special interest are the form and movement of drylines.

These lines develop as a sharp boundary between very moist air moving up from the Gulf of Mexico and very dry air moving in from the West. The boundary between the two may be less than a mile wide, Peterson said.

On the day of the Lubbock tornado of 1970, a dryline was perceived moving through the city before the storm. After it had passed, it was believed that the threat of severe weather had passed. The dryline, however, backed up and atmospheric scientists believe this contributed to the severe storm development.

Peterson said that before tornadoes struck Vernon and Wichita Falls last year, a dryline was noted moving through Lubbock about 1 p.m. The storm struck Wichita Falls about 6 p.m.

The most numerous passages of these lines occur across this area in April and May, Peterson said. Storms appear to develop just ahead of the drylines.

One clear evidence of the occurrence, he said, is the dew point. That can be 60 degrees Fahrenheit in the moisture-laden Gulf air and drop to 20 degrees as the dryline passes.

Peterson said that the National Severe Storms Laboratory at Norman, Okla., is lending the equipment for the pilot study of drylines. If results obtained in April and May this year indicate that sharp transition zones between dry and moist air are important measurements needed to forecast severe storms, efforts will be made to continue the research.

over and it was red. The white man handed me a roll of hundred dollar bills and told me to count off $12,000.00. So I counted off the money and pitched them in the back seat. The white man said you don't owe me anything. I went to the bank and cashed the $12,000.00 and we are going some more. I told them I was getting home and I knew they would be calling the store to tell me. I told them that the store would well as the police are looking for them. I told them they could have opened the door and started north in the rain. After I got north corner, the white man said I could have my car. The white man standing back of it. I got in and out going north the wrong way. The black man said you are not white yellow S.O.B. The white man opened the door and said get in to let that Nigger call you. The white man told him that was only his opinion. The white man had given me my book, watch and $50.00 bill. I had been eating some peanuts that he feed the squirrels with. He said could have some more and I had pick up the whole sack. When this, I drove off and went home. The police, I also called Tommy the bank and told him there were cons in Floydada and to help handle money to watch over me. I was told to get $12,000.00 in the morning the police said these were working out of Dallas, nothing but I could have been dead in some country ditch.

When I woke up this morning to think that I has a nightmare empty dream but then I remember about our second round of play. The white man had told the black man the watch he was holding (of money) had been given to his Grandfather and we had went from him to have them back and the black man to hand us our and my pocketbook and money. I remember wondering why we at high school instead of some road, and also why there were athletics across in from of some practicing. But it was rain at times and country roads were

Mr. Stovall from Plainview and said that Martin & Co. income tax was ready. So they went to his office and told him they had two black and one red card. That they did and he said two men had been took by one black and one white man the same way now I realize I was lucky.

The next monthly meeting will be on April 27 in the Wester home.

W.M.U. Has Salad Supper

The Baptist women met Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church for a salad dinner and a study of the home Mission book, "Just Folks From America's Heartland."

Mrs. David Seay was in charge of the program. Mrs. W.H. Bunch led in prayer; Mrs. Glenda Livingston told about our work in Ohio; JenniSue Smith, Illinois; Barbara Cocanoughar, Iowa; Sharon Vickers, Michigan; Kay Bethel, Minnesota; and Mrs. Seay closed with the work in Indiana. Mrs. Faye Benson voiced the closing prayer.

Three visitors were present Mrs. Gordon Appling, Vel Simpson and New Susan Garms.

New members present were Mamie Wood and Bonnie Julian from South Plains.

Others present were Mrs. Donna McClendon, Lee Finley, Linda Emert, Debbie Bearden, Kathy Miller, Jane Carter, Charlene Brown, Mabel Redwine, Evelyn Latta, Thelma Jones, Oleta Collier, Lois Guffee, Ina Hammonds, Janet Lloyd, Vina Crawford, Aline Bradley, Dorothy Holland, Queen Annie Lawson, Jean Appling, Mary Gonzalez, Vada Meredith, Mae Garrett, Eula Parrack, Beulah Denison, Carrie Cline, Lorene Newberry and Thelma Crawford.

Microwave Popcorn

Be careful with microwave popcorn — there's a slight danger of damage, and the popcorn may be dried out, a family resource management specialist cautions.

If you're popping corn in your microwave, you could damage the oven itself — even if you have a special popper for the oven, Lillian Chenoweth says.

There are so many variables involved that at least one major microwave manufacturer recommends against the practice.

Another manufacturer can recommend only their brand of popper for use — only in their oven with strict adherence to the precise times.

If you still want to try microwave popcorn, first check the cookbook that came with your oven. Although many food-product packages offer information and directions, these may not apply to your oven.

In addition to painting, Janice enjoys snow skiing and flying. She and her husband Darrell have one daughter, Raine.

Former Lockneyite Models At Ginners Convention

A daughter of Bob and Dorothy Jarrett of Lockney modeled fashions Saturday at the Texas Independent Ginners annual convention in Dallas.

Trudy Jarrett Anderson of Lamesa was helping to exhibit fashions by Star Shelton of Lamesa. Mrs. Shelton does all her weaving in her studio on looms which she inherited from her grandmother. Each piece she produces is one-of-a-kind, and of her own original design. She uses natural fibers almost exclusively in her work.

All the garments presented in the style show for the ginners convention were hand-woven originals. Some were specially dyed; others were hand-dyed after weaving, and sometimes the yarn was dyed on skeins prior to weaving. All were 100 percent cotton and were designed and woven especially for the showing.

A total of 24 ensembles was shown by the former Lockneyite and three other models. Included in the group were beach wear, jackets, day dresses, evening wear and vests, parkas and tunic tops. Some were modeled with ready-to-wear cotton garments, and many were shown with custom-designed accessories. The focus of the showing was to depict the versatility and unique qualities of cotton, and some new faces of cotton.

Mrs. Anderson and the other models were shown with some of the page spread on the women's section of the Avallanche Sunday.

Forty-six Attend Bishop Celebration

Forty-six persons attended the luncheon honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bishop on the occasion of their 75th wedding anniversary. The Rogelein Company of San Antonio originally asked the Bishops to attend a celebration at another site in Texas but then offered to come to Floydada.

The San Antonio visitors flew to Floydada from Lubbock for the occasion.

Attending were W. Rogelein Jr., Sam Riklin, Bonnie Place, Bunny Tinor, Dana Parish, San Antonio; Ernestine Sisk, Austin; Marie Harris, Plainview; Bill Baldwin, Chris Brock, Larry Elliott, Betty Howard, Minnie Ola Mullins, James and Juanelle

Teague, Sherry Lu and Brandon Fincher, Sherry and Jason Tison, Lubbock;

Floyd and Susie Rose Tomball; Cora Hayes, Hearne; Roy H. Teague, Hurst; Dr. Rodney Teague, Duncanville; M.L. and Alice Bishop, League City;

S.M. and Olga Hayes, Carlsbad, New Mexico; Hank and Jeanie Woodruff, Orval and Dollie Pardy, Shallowater; Davis and Lois Bishop, Tahoka; Choise Smith, Parnell Powell, Carolyn Fuqua, Ruby Shoemaker, Harvy and Marie Tardy, Holt and Leona Bishop, Earl and Lillie Bishop, Riley and Lula Teague and Reverend Floyd C. Bradley.

WALLPAPER WITH "PATTERN DESIGNS" — WHERE TO PUT IT

Pattern is an important ingredient in any decorating scheme. However, the use of patterned fabrics and wallpaper in a room is still a controversial issue. Many contemporary designers feel that the less they see of a pattern the better, although print fabrics and wallpaper are effective in the traditionally styled room. Whether or not to use patterned fabric and wallpaper depends on the size and location of the room. A living room is no place for a large, decorative wallpaper. An over-powering pattern tends to make the space look busy and visually jarring. A living room ought to be easy on the eyes and inviting. The people in it should be the room's most obvious element. On the other hand, patterned fabrics, such as a colorful chintz spread for the sofa or used as draperies, can be highly effective in giving the living room a sense of warmth. Now — for the places you can use wallpaper: small rooms or tiny areas — such as the ceiling and walls above the tops of kitchen cabinets — are good places to use wallpaper. Rooms that are used infrequently are also good candidates for patterned wallpaper.

the room to it — the color for walls, trim, and ceiling. Otherwise, you might search in vain for a pattern which blends in well with a desired scheme and an established wall color.

COST-PER-WEARING — A KEY IN BUYING

"Cost-per-wearing" will stretch clothing dollars if you pay attention to it. It's like figuring cost-per-serving in food buying. To find the cost-per-wearing of a garment just divide the number of times you'll wear it into the purchase price. Here's an example: you've found a sweater on sale for $20, you buy it, then don't like it, so you only wear it twice. Its cost-per-wearing is $10 — expensive for most people's budgets, even if it was on sale. On the other hand, say you buy a seemingly expensive all-weather coat for $100 and wear it four times a week for six months. Its cost-per-wearing is only $1 — a very reasonable cost-per-wearing. Also, if the coat last two years, the cost-per-wearing would be 50 cents, or for three years, just 33 cents.

wear, buy the best quality you can afford. Think of high-quality basics as investments, and don't just buy "bargain-priced" garments each time you need a clothing item. Of course, when high-quality basics actually have sale prices, they can mean a great savings and a really wise investment. Finally, "bargain-priced" items can have a place in your clothing budget — especially for very limited needs, such as unusual occasions. To help you decide, always figure the cost-per-wearing of high quality items and "bargain-priced" items.

FLOYD DATA

Weldon and Frances McClure had as their guests Monday through Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brigham from Port Townsend, Washington.

WHITTLE

Cook of the week

PEANUT BRITTLE

If this recipe is followed explicitly it will not fail.

In a large iron skillet boil to 230 degrees:
2 cups sugar
1 cup white corn syrup
1/2 cup water

When mixture reaches 230 degrees pour in:
3 cups raw peanuts quickly and stir constantly until mixture reaches 320 degrees. Do not rush this rise in temperature as there is danger of scorching. When this combination reaches the proper temperature remove from fire and very quickly add:
2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. butter
1 tsp. vanilla

(These three additions should be measured in advance.) Stir this in vigorously until it is thoroughly mixed and pour onto buttered foil or large buttered cookie pans while it is still foaming. Pour and scatter over the pan, but do not shake or smooth out because this has a tendency to make the candy too brittle and hard to eat.

Women's Club To Sponsor

1980 Pioneer Round-Up

The Plainview Business and Professional Women's Club has announced Saturday, May 17 as the date for the 1980 Pioneer Round-Up. This will be the 52nd year the club has sponsored this annual event, according to Lou Ella Scarbrough, President of the sponsoring club.

The Pioneer Round-Up was started as a method of honoring pioneers of this area. This continues to be one of the purposes of the event, but in addition, it has become an entertainment feature for people of all ages in Plainview, Hale County and surrounding areas.

and Housing, Lou Ella Scarbrough; Kuntry Kitchen, Verne Shields; Concessions, Jacqueline Masso and Publicity, Jo Ann Clements.

The Pioneer Round-Up on Saturday night will be held in the Hale County Agriculture Center on the south edge of Plainview. The reception will be held in the meeting room at the Center and pioneers will gather for this at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday morning. The traditional Pioneer Round-Up parade will roll at 2:30 p.m.

The Saturday evening's program will begin at 6:00 when the chuck wagon supper will be served in the large assembly room at the Agriculture Center with the program to follow.

BY MRS. CLYDE BAGWELL

March 31 - Our weather the past few days has been changeable. We have had several showers of rain and early Saturday morning we had some snow that showed up in places. Our weather Monday morning is more like winter than spring.

Mrs. Ray Cook reports that during the showers we had last week they received 1 and 2/10 inches of rain.

Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt and daughters Karen and Christy, and Mrs. Bill Tye went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Hize.

The group met to celebrate the birthday of Bill and Edna Beth Tye. Bill's birthday was March 25 and Edna Beth's was March 28. However, Bill Tye was unable to be present due to the fact he had to make an emergency trip to Lubbock for Caprock Hospital.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Son Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy visited Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Graham hosted a dinner Sunday for a group of family members. Mrs. Jerry Piercy of Long Beach, California, was here visiting in the home of her sister Mrs. Wendell Graham. Others there for the Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brown of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Gilbreath and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Watts and children.

Mrs. E.W. Walls has been in Central Plains Hospital for a week. Last report I had from E.W. is that she may return home in a few days.

Anne Sweptson visited Friday with Mrs. E.W. Walls at Central Plains Hospital.

Last Tuesday Zane Colston visited his aunt, Anne Sweptson.

Carolyn Burton visited Mrs. Margaret Springer Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jewell Teague and Mrs. Ethel Graham spent Friday in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cozby went to Lubbock Sunday and enjoyed a dinner out, celebrating their eighth wedding anniversary.

We are sorry to report Mr. and Mrs. Bud Warren are both sick.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy. The Beedy's son and wife, son. Mr. and Mrs. Brad Beedy of Spearman, were also there. Jim Tye of Plainview visited Sunday night with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye.

Mrs. Ronnie Upton and son Rocky of Los Alamos, New Mexico, came Wednesday and stayed until Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Blum. Rocky was out of school for spring break. Betty and Rocky visited at South Plains one day while here visiting with Rocky's other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton.

Wendy Forbes visited Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Wise and Charles Denton Monday and ate dinner with them.

Mrs. C.H. Wise visited Mrs. Roe Jones Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Verna Lee Cardinal talked Saturday night by phone with her son, Jerry Cardinal of Houston. He had been to Elkhart to see his sister, Kathleen Branch.

Mrs. Ethel Graham and Mrs. Walter Hollums went to Lubbock Thursday where Ethel had a medical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Wise visited Sunday with Wayne Day, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Meek.

Dorcas Class Meets With Mrs. Stewart

The Dorcas Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church of Lockney, met in the home of Mrs. Elvira Stewart, Tuesday March 25. Mrs. Pauline Sams, held a short business meeting, and Rebecca Truett gave the devotional on Easter.

Mrs. Stewart was presented with a birthday present from each of the class members, and refreshments of birthday cake, coffee and punch were served to: Pauline, Sams, Annie Cunningham, Maudie Muncie, Lillian Payne, Emma Thomas, Bessie Smith, Ethel Carroll, Ruth Reves, Sylvia Yeary, Rebecca Truett and the hostess, Mrs. Stewart and one guest Mrs. Doris Bartel, Mrs. Stewart's sister, who is visiting from Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Floydada Care Center Happenings

I would like to thank Faye Walters for filling in for me while I was on vacation. I had a wonderful trip and a nice visit with my mother, Mrs. Gladys Manchaek, and other relatives in east Texas. The area was real pretty with everything in full bloom.

There will be an Easter Party in the lobby Friday April 4. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the fun.

Mrs. Mamie Gray enjoyed visiting with her brother, L.V. Asiter, of Chicago this week.

Mr. Albert Martin is home from Caprock Hospital and feeling fine.

After a week of rest, Mr. Lawrence was ready to get back to making owls.

About 30 residents played Easter games in the lobby Tuesday afternoon. Ice cream bars were served to all residents after the games.

Twenty-three residents enjoyed a movie and a popcorn "All About the Movie Radio Comedians."

Many thanks to our visitors for the week:

Mrs. J.C. Anderson, Tutta Engler, Sherry Colston and Ross, Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Hartness, Hubert and Ruby Davis, Pauline Faulkenberry, Ella Goodwin, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Wiley Rogers;

Bernice Carey, Lois Jones, Dennis Snodgrass, Marie Baxter, Latrell Smith, Dorothy Coleman, Hubert and Ruby Davis, Christine Robertson, Jewell Price, Wiley Rogers, Mrs. J.E. Green, Illa Belle McPeak;

Former Floydada Resident To Go To Shanghai

Houston rancher John Joyce's plea for someone to accompany his prize, 1,500-pound bull to Shanghai resulted in offers from a New York City nurse, a retired banker and a lot of people more interested in adventure than they were qualified to bullsit, he said Saturday.

But among the 500 people who responded during a telephone blitz of his Boling, Texas, ranch this week, Joyce also found a winner.

As a result, Mr. Sugarata, Joyce's gift to Vice Premier Deng Xiaoping and the People's Republic of China, will sail in the company of a Houston radio station employee who grew up on a farm.

"We had calls from every state in the nation, I bet," Joyce said in reference to a UPI story detailing his unusual needs. "We must have had 300, 400, 500 calls. We chose Wes Johnson. He's gonna document his trip and try to report to us every day from the ship. He's well-qualified and has an agricultural background."

Action 80's Theme Of WT Convention

"West Texas Action 80's is the theme of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce 62nd annual convention to be held April 16-18 in San Angelo, Texas featuring programs on travel, industry, energy, money, relations with Mexico, the 1980 Census and Free Enterprise Teaching Awards.

WTCC President Bob Corkins of Alpine said that the convention will be extremely important to all West Texans. He emphasized that the WTCC is the Voice of West Texas Business and that the convention was fortunate to have an outstanding gathering of speakers and panelists to provide insight into vital areas affecting the West Texas economy. Special emphasis was placed on a panel discussion that would provide an indepth review of the importance of an accurate 1980 census count to the West Texas area.

A total of $1000 in cash awards will be presented to three West Texas Teachers selected for outstanding efforts in Teaching Free Enterprise courses.

Key speakers include: Kenneth T. Derr, President, Chevron, U.S.A., Inc., San Francisco, California, who will discuss "Energy 1980's"; Robert Krueger, Ambassador-At-Large and U.C. Coordinator for Mexican Affairs, U.S. - Mexico relations; Ernest T. Baughman, President, Federal Reserve Bank, Dallas, on monetary policies and the economy; Jerry Heare, Texas Industrial Commission; Willis Albarado, Information Division, Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation; and Frank Hildebrand, Texas Tourist Development Agency.

Appearing on the Census Panel will be: State Representative, Gary Thompson, Richard D. Brown, Texas Municipal League; John Potter, Texas Legislative Council; Kenneth M. Scarborough, Chamber of Commerce of the United States; and Joe H. Collins, General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Anacani, the popular Latin singer featured on the weekly Lawrence Welk Television Program, will entertain during the annual banquet Thursday, April 17 accompanied by the San Angelo State University Jazz Ensemble.

Advance registration may be made by contacting the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Office, P.O. Box 1561, Abilene, Texas 79604 or phone 915/677-4325.

WTCC Speaks Out On Census

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has strongly stressed the importance of counting all West Texas residents during the present 1980 census to prevent loss of representation in state and national government and loss of future business opportunities which will be based on population projections using the 1980 census as a standard.

In supporting the importance and urgency of the 1980 census, Edward H. Coltharp, WTCC Executive Vice President, has presented a WTCC Statement to the Texas House Committee on Regions, Compacts and Districts at a Census Awareness hearing held in Wichita Falls.

Coltharp added that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will also conduct, at its 62nd Annual Convention in San Angelo April 16-18, a special Census 80's Panel discussion to stress the importance of a complete count for West Texas.

He emphasized that the WTCC is the largest regional chamber of commerce in the nation serving almost 60 percent of the State of Texas.

This area currently is represented by all or portions of 46 State Representative Districts, 10 state Senatorial Districts and 12 United States Congressional Districts.

He said that the July 1975 Official Census Estimate indicated that the lengthy trend of out-migration from West Texas had finally reversed itself.

"Even though West Texas is now growing in population at a healthy rate, the region is not growing as rapidly as some other areas of the state. Herein lies the urgency of the census for West Texans," Coltharp stressed.

"West Texas stands to lose legislative representation as a result of the census when the State is redistricted for state and national legislative representation. Therefore," he said, "West Texans must do everything possible to see that this loss of representation is minimized!"

FIX-IT FACTS

THURMAN DAVIS

Door latches that stick are a real source of irritation. This is easily eliminated with lubrication.

To lubricate, turn the handle until latch is all the way in. Put powdered graphite into the works of lock and latch. Next, put a very small amount of graphite between the stationary collar and shaft of the knob, on each side of the door. Lubricate lock with the thumb-pressure latch lever by putting graphite into crevice where lever enters the lock body.

Depress the lever until latch tongue is in. Never use oil on a cylinder lock... the kind with keyhole and mechanism in cylindrical case. Oil gums the tumblers. If lubrication does not solve the problem, replace the latch.

Simply take off knobs, remove faceplates, and finally the latch. Be sure to take the old latch to the store to assure the proper size.

By Mrs. J.E. Green

March 31—Sunday was a beautiful day, but today we have strong winds though clear. The few showers settled the dust some. We had some cold nights, too.

Mrs. Fred McDougale and daughter Karen of Crosbyton visited Sunday with her parents, the Henry Brewers, and the Anthony Lattas Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W.L. Hartline spent two or three days in Plainview last week with her daughter June and family, the Bob Landrys.

Mrs. Joe Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ashtown Sunday. Mrs. Oleta Collier came Monday morning.

Mrs. Collier also visited Mrs. Gordon Mayfield one afternoon.

Mrs. Roe Jones and Mrs. Tate Jones have returned from a visit to a sister-in-law Mrs. Inez Otten, of the El Paso area.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas were in Lubbock Friday and spent the night with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son David. Saturday they visited and shopped, and returned home in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas reports that her sister, Mrs. Price Scott, is in a hospital in California. Let us, her many friends here, remember her in our prayers.

Callers to see Miss Vera Meredith last week were Mrs. McPeak and Mrs. Green, Bro. Payne, and Sunday Bro. and Mrs. Muncy and Miss Mary Pearl Coward.

Mrs. McPeak and Mrs. Green visited friends in the Rest Home Friday and later

Miss Esther Peck.

Mrs. R.C. Ross is in the rest home in Muleshoe. She is reported about the same as she was while here. Let us, her friends, write and tell her how we miss her. She made a short visit home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Plumlee and baby of Amarillo visited over night one day last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Plumlee.

Mrs. Ethel Warren visited in Lockney Friday with her sister, Mrs. W.H. Workman.

Mrs. Leona Warren dined Sunday with Mrs. Ethel Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Huckabee of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren visited Sunday with Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey.

It was good to meet old friends and some new ones at the Anthony Latta's open house Sunday afternoon. The daughter, Carol of Plainview brought me home afterward and visited briefly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulkerson spent this Monday in Lubbock with their daughter. (A full fledged dust storm pushed them home.)

Visitors at the C.W. Denison's Sunday were children and grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Denison, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Teaff and sons Trent and Ty and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Denison, all of Lubbock.

Richard McPeak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McPeak flew over Sunday afternoon and visited with them a while and also visited with his sister, Mrs. L.B. Stewart Jr.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas House Speaker Bill Clayton spent a day-and-a-half last week answering questions to a federal grand jury in Houston about allegations he accepted a $5,000 bribe last November.

Clayton told reporters afterwards he answered all questions, did not take the Fifth Amendment and discussed several subjects during the questioning. He is alleged to have taken the bribe in exchange for his help in obtaining a multi-million dollar state insurance contract for an undercover FBI informant.

Clayton maintains he took the money to avoid embarrassing the donor, but he planned to give it back and never spent the money. His lawyers handed over the stack of $100 bills to federal prosecutors last week and received a receipt listing the serial numbers of the bills.

Authorities say it may take several weeks for the grand jury to return an indictment or a "no bill" decision on the Speaker.

In the meantime, business in the House has slowed down until Clayton resolves his troubles. Many of the Speaker's friends are predicting that if he is indicted, he will abandon plans to seek an unprecedented fourth term as speaker.

Recruiting Clayton Foe

The only announced candidate to unseat Clayton, Rep. John Bryant of Dallas, admitted last week he tried unsuccessfully to recruit an opponent to run against Clayton for re-election to the House.

Bryant said he made an 11th-hour trip to Hereford before the filing deadline to offer support to Sheriff Travis McPherson and four other men if they would run against Clayton.

Bryant told reporters Clayton worked for four months to find him an opponent, and he was merely returning quid for quo.

He also flatly denied having any advance knowledge of the Brilab probe which touched Clayton's office, contrary to Rep. Buck Florence's allegation two weeks ago.

Scuttling the Primary

Texas Democrats were to meet last week to discuss cancelling the non-binding presidential primary they voted for last week.

Neither Carter nor Kennedy Democrats seem to want the primary, saying it would be pointless and a waste of campaign funds, said Ms. Billie Carr, leader of the party liberals.

She also theorized that if Kennedy dropped out of the race before May 3, (Texas primary date) liberals could vote uncommitted and beat the president.

Interest Raised

The three-member State Depository Board has hiked the interest rate for state deposits 2 1/2 points to an historic high of 14 percent.

A State Treasury Department official estimated the higher rate would earn Texas about $50 million a year more interest on time deposits of about $2 billion.

DRIVELINE

Nothing could be dumber than a head-on collision, right? Here's a pop quiz: How many occur every year? 500,000? One million? According to the National Safety Council, cars have over four million head-on collisions every year.

GASOHOL! GASOHOL! GASOHOL! The body's talking about gasohol these days. It's a solution to our energy conservation problem. You do it take pure alcohol distilled from grain and blend it with regular gasoline. Isn't it wonderful? Funny thing, though, gasohol is the oldest ideas around. We were first (and oil was too cheap) to do anything like it. Amazing fact: Henry Ford designed the earliest autos, back in the 1880's, to run on alcohol. And famous Model T was built with a carburetor so it could run on pure alcohol. As late as 1938, there were 2,000 independent vice stations in the Midwest selling gasohol under the brand name "Agrol."

Maybe this is an idea whose time has come.

Grim Statistic: Over 100,000 Americans are injured every year in car accidents. And our children should buckle up.

Four out of every ten Americans ride a bicycle at least once a year. One fifth of bicycle accidents occur to persons over 35. Many accidents happen at night; so if you ride after dark, wear bright clothing and reflectors and lights on your bike. A driver will see you unless he sees you first.

Question: What is a toroidal shaped membrane pressure vessel composed of macromolecules?
