

Mackenzie Bond Election Coming Up November 22

Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority met Tuesday night to go ahead with the bond election on November 22, 1980. Total cost of the bond will be $15,000,000.

The Mackenzie Authority where the four towns would tie into the lines.

Cost of the lines from that distribution point to the four towns would need additional funding. Total estimated cost of the plant facilities and water lines to the towns is about $15,000,000.

The Mackenzie Authority has applied for government funding of the total project. Although the $15 million has not yet been appropriated by FHA, the feeling now is that the government will come nearer to making the money available if it seeks that the people have voted their approval of the project.

At the August Mackenzie board meeting, a delegation from Silverton met with the board and said it very plainly...they are about out of water and the City of Silverton cannot afford some $300,000 to improve underground water facilities and pay its share of obtaining lake water.

The delegation stated that if Silverton receives the assurance that Mackenzie water is forthcoming (by virtue of a positive bond election vote) it will try to get by on its present water wells until the pipe can be laid from the lake. An article in the Tulia Herald said that "Tulia isn't far off from needing more water wells."

Lockney is in about the same position as is Floydada. The Mackenzie Board has invited the City Councils from each of the four towns to a special meeting in October. At that time they will present the total picture of the project and receive input from each of the city governments.

If It's Raining It Must Be Fair Time

A big fair parade through the downtown Lockney business district, fair exhibits, a carnival, a sheepbreeders show, ladies day, gospel singing, livestock show, Little Wranglers Rodeo, a Jack-pot roping and the Miss Floyd County Fair Queen's contest are a few of the events on tap as the 27th annual Floyd County Fair unfolds today (Thursday).

ADMISSION Gate admission will be $1.50 each day for adults and 75 cents for children. A three day pass will be available for $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children.

FAIR PARADE The fair parade will begin at 3:30 (not 4:40 as stated in last week's paper and in the catalogue) today (Thursday) at the north end of Main Street and proceed south. Floats should be in place by 3 p.m. for the first part of the judging. Final judging will take place during the parade.

Bicycles need to be at the north end of Main Street by 3 p.m. at the railroad track. The judging on the bicycles will be at this time.

State Representative James "Pete" Laney from Hale Center, State Representative Foster Whaley from Pampa, and State Senator E.L. Short from Tahoka will be in town to participate in the parade and fair festivities.

EXHIBITS The judging of all exhibits will be on Thursday.

TALENT SHOW The talent show will be held Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the entertainment building. There are age divisions, 12 and under and 13 through high school. Ribbons and trophies will be awarded to first, second and third place in each division and cash awards of $25, $15, and $10 will be given to the three persons having the most points accumulated.

Results Of Citizens Survey Presented

by Janice Lloyd

In August a group of Floydada residents walked the streets of their city to hand out a citizen's questionnaire. Later that same evening they retraced their steps to pick up the survey forms.

Why did these men and women willingly give of their time? Why did an organization like the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, which usually gives its busy membership the summer off, head this project?

For one reason - to help make Floydada a better place to live, raise a family and someday retire.

How to do this? Ask the citizens!

A total of 528 citizens questionnaires and 42 community business questionnaires were completed and turned over to the South Plains Association of Governments office in Lubbock for tabulation. Arlene Miller, who works for SPAG as the director of regional service, presented the results of the survey to the Women's Division last week at their regular meeting.

The purpose of this article - and the others which will follow - is to inform you, the citizens, of just what you want to see happen in Floydada.

For some the questionnaire was a sounding board to vent their frustration at the rising cost of energy bills. Others expressed their opinions, both good and bad, on the city government and its leaders. Most had good things to say about Floydada and why they live here.

The best thing about the survey is that you the citizens had a chance to speak your mind, to express your concerns for the future of your city and were willing to spend some time thinking about what will make Floydada a better place to live.

We will report the totals and also give you a few of the comments concerning each question.

To organize the survey, the city was divided into 12 sections in addition to the business district and a miscellaneous section was created for those who returned the survey after the door-to-door canvass was completed.

An example of the surveys ability to pinpoint problem areas can be found in question four. "Do you feel the current tornado system is adequate?"

Fifty-six percent of the city said yes, 36 percent responded no and eight percent had no response. In section seven, the area East and South of the downtown area 68 percent said yes, 26 percent no and five no response. In contrast section 10, which includes the area around Duncan Elementary, said 43 percent yes, 51 percent no and six percent no response.

It is easy to see that the people in certain areas of the city have more difficulty hearing the tornado alert and will make it easier for the city to help correct this vital warning system.

Of those answering the survey, 160 have lived in Floydada one to 10 years, 104-11 to 20 years, 96-21 to 30 years, 72-31 to 40 years, 36-41 to 50 years, 28-51 to 60 years and 21 persons have lived here 61 or more years. There were 11 no responses.

CITY SERVICES

The services that the city provides were rated with responses of adequate or inadequate.

The police department was rated as 68 percent adequate, 24 percent inadequate and eight percent no response. Section eight, northwest of downtown to the Lockney highway, showed the largest response in inadequate with 34 percent indicating the police department needs improvement.

The main concern of many residents from all sections was the seemingly lax attitude of the police concerning speeders on the city streets and the amount of unsolved burglary cases.

Several persons suggested the Floydada Police Department and the County Sheriff's office should be combined in order to work more effectively.

A large number answered that what they like about Floydada is "it's nice not to have all the crime" and "it's quiet."

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Fire Department received the largest approval of any service with 87 percent adequate, five percent inadequate and eight percent no response. One respondent stated that volunteer firemen are not appreciated by the community and suggested the department be given more opportunities for training.

When it came to the question of streets the citizens were not so kind. Even though 60 percent responded adequate, 31 percent said inadequate and 9 percent no response. The suggestions included a request for gravel on one street and plea for "Dip" signs on the main highways through town.

Use of the term refuge instead of garbage may have resulted in the 17 percent of no responses to this city service. But the person who wrote that his trash goes two and three weeks at a time without being emptied, knew. He was one of 19 percent who marked inadequate while 64 percent said adequate.

Health services received 73 percent adequate, 13 percent inadequate and 14 percent no response.

City parks showed 69 percent feel they are adequate, 21 percent inadequate and 10 percent no response. Many expressed the need for the parks be up graded and better maintained during the summer.

LIBRARY

Seventy-two percent responded that the library is adequate, but many of these joined the 17 percent who responded it as inadequate because of its location.

One resident of 27 years feels that the city should "help support the library by providing part of the expense of building."

When the need for more reference books was noted it was interesting to see the suggestion by another that the location of the library be moved closer to the high school.

"No library is worth the investment unless it is maintained in conjunction and in proximity to the high school in this town." A much better location "would be adjacent to the Massie Activity Center which is an accessible and a convenient location for the young, the adults and the high school students." This location would also provide plenty of available parking space.

"The library itself, with its branches, is a model of excellence for Floyd County."

Others commented that the library needs to be open on Saturdays or in the evening for those who work and would like to have the use of these facilities.

The city owned swimming pool is believed to be adequate by 66 percent, inadequate by 20 percent and 14 percent did not respond. Of the comments made some would like the present pool to be enlarged or another larger pool built.

Twenty-six percent marked that their utility billing is inadequate and 62 percent said adequate. The problem of the increasing cost of energy was noted here.

When the residents looked at the water/sewer services of the city they replied with 70 percent adequate, 18 percent inadequate and 12 percent no response.

"What services should be provided by the city but are not at this time?" The most often mentioned by you were animal control, street repair, clean up of alleys and lots, supervised recreation, street cleaning, the drainage system and the airport.

Next week a look at the school system.

FARM & RANCH NEWS

Around The County

FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

Farm Bureau

Holds Meeting

Rainfall in appreciable amounts finally came to the northern part of the county last weekend, but it fell too late to be of any benefit to most crops. It received a warm welcome by many producers who had forgotten what rain looked like and will help soil moisture levels in fields to be planted in wheat as well as help green up some pastures in the area.

Corn harvest continues in the county and was only temporarily delayed by rains last weekend. Sunflower desiccation and harvest is picking up in the area, as is the first picking of bell pepper fields in the county. Soybean stands are looking better everyday as insect pressure decreases and chances for rain increase.

Seed maize is being cut in the southern part of the county and commercial grain sorghum harvest should be just around the corner. Most of the sorghum fields are mature enough to be free of any further threat of greenbug damage, however, heads still need to be checked for headworms. It appears that many fields of dryland maize will have to be baled or grazed out due to poor grain development.

Cotton bolls continue to open prematurely across the county and desiccation of some dryland and limited-irrigation fields is already taking place in northern Crosby and southern Floyd County.

Dryland fields continue to be plowed under, particularly in the eastern half of the county. Bollworm activity is all but over in many parts of the county, and where eggs and small worms are being sighted, chances of their survival are minimal due to the cooler nights and increased beneficial insect populations. However, bollworm activity will not completely cease until nighttime temperatures dip well into the fifties, so don't count them out yet if your cotton is still lush and loaded with tender green bolls.

The annual meeting of the Floyd County Farm Bureau and banquet was held September 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the Duncan Elementary Cafeteria. Approximately 150 members and their families attended.

Special guests were introduced by President Kenneth Pitts. Those guests included Mr. Carrol Chaloupka, Texas Farm Bureau President and Mr. Jim Sims, District Sales Manager.

The main purpose of the meeting was to adopt policies for the coming year. The resolutions were proposed and accepted.

Having no new proposed county resolutions, all other approved resolutions will be forwarded to the state convention as recommendations for state and national policies.

Two Lockney High School students who attended the Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar this summer on Baylor University Campus in Waco reported on their experiences at the school. They were Byron Brock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Brock, and Dwight Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.K. Jackson.

J.E. Eckert attended the Fireman's Training School at Texas A&M in July of this year. He also spoke on the programs and activities he experienced.

Ballots were then distributed to replace outgoing directors. Those elected by voting members were Warren Mitchell and Billy Fulton. Dan Smith was re-elected.

President Kenneth Pitts made his annual report and Dan Smith made the financial report. Agency Manager, David Cates reported on insurance activities for the year.

Convention delegates were elected for the state convention in San Antonio November 30-December 3. Those elected were Mr. and Mrs. D.K. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Colston, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scheele, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mitchell, and Paul Schacht.

The door prizes were won by Mrs. Byron Brock and Mrs. Victor Smith. Their prizes were two free tires each.

The meeting was then adjourned by the President.

COMBINE moves through corn field as corn harvest continues in the county.

Citizens For Natural Weather

Group Meets In Plainview

Representatives of Citizens for Natural Weather from eight Panhandle and South Plains counties met in Plainview recently to review the status of cloud seeding and weather modification attempts and to map plans for opposing future attempts to seed clouds in attempts to modify weather.

The group also discussed plans to confer with elected officials, particularly those currently seeking reelection, and those seeking election to office to ascertain their views on weather modification efforts.

Citizens for Natural Weather indicated they will continue to oppose efforts to interfere with the natural formation of weather systems until there is scientific evidence that such efforts are safe or will not accomplish adverse effects or benefit one area at the expense of another area. The Citizens for Natural Weather will continue to oppose the efforts of cloud seeding proponents to obtain permits from state agencies to experiment with the weather.

Reports were heard of alleged cloud seeding efforts being made currently at various locations throughout this area. Persons suspecting such attempts are requested to notify Citizens for Natural Weather officials.

cause leaves to curl downward, leaves and small bolls to shed and premature boll opening. Most fields are far enough along that no economic problems will develop. A few spider mites can also be found in most fields but these can be placed in the same category with the aphids.

SORGHUM

Sorghum midge have been found in the area. Any late planted fields that are blooming at this time should be checked carefully for this small orange gnat. If 25-30% of the heads are blooming (yellow anthers present) and midge number at least 1 per head, treatment is recommended.

Sorghum that is still developing can also be damaged by headworms.

FLOYD COUNTY FARM TOUR

Floyd County Agent Jett Major invites all to attend this year's farm tour. We will meet at the Courthouse in Floydada at 1:30 on Tuesday, September 16. Tour stops will include soil moisture testing, cotton growth regulator test, narrow row soybeans, cotton varieties and sprinkler irrigation systems.

Educational program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin.

COTTON

Bollworm problems appear to be coming to an end for the season in the area. With cotton terminating its growth and many open and mature bolls present in most fields, no new problems should develop. Decisions to treat bollworms from this time on should be based on how many immature bolls that will be harvested are present on the plant. With the cooler weather we are experiencing now, egg and worm development will be slower. Many eggs are already being found that are not hatching and small worms that have not survived more than a couple of days. Increased beneficial activity has helped reduce bollworm survival in many fields. Heavy populations of minute pirate bugs and lacewing larvae are present in fields not treated recently with harsh insecticides.

Scouting activity is revealing some new activity in recently irrigated and late cotton. Egg counts of up to 40 and bollworms numbering 12 per 100 plants have been reported. Control decisions in such cases will be difficult. Most fields should not be treated just because they have eggs and small worms. If small worms are found re-check the field in a day or two to determine the effects of cooler weather and beneficial insect activity.

Aphids can be found in many cotton fields. Heavy numbers can

MRS. JACKSON JORDAN JR.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Bonnie Jack And Jackson Jordan

Wedding promises pledged Saturday evening in First United Methodist Church of Lockney joined in marriage Miss Bonnie LaDelle Jack and Mr. Knox Jackson Jordan Jr. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Delton Jack of Lockney and Mr. and Mrs. Knox Jordan of Odessa.

Frank Duckworth, minister of West College and Third Street Church of Christ in Lockney, directed the 7 o'clock exchange of double-ring wedding vows as the couple stood in the altar area of the church that was centered with a brass candle arch.

Also in the nuptial area were spiral candelabras tied with tropical foliage and pink satin bows, baskets of picardy gladiola and white China mums and a kneeling bench. Candles were lighted by the bride's cousin, Miss Sharon Talley of Amarillo, and Clay Adrian.

Wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Lindan Morris of Floydada and escorted to seating in the church by ushers Randy Laycock of Lubbock and Bernie Ford.

Organ music for the ceremony was by Mrs. C.L. Record. Miss Janet Lovvorn of Stamford sang "Longer" and Mrs. John Wendeborn, also of Stamford, sang "One Love."

Flower girls, Rainey Whittington, and ring bearer, Jackie Don Schacht, the bride's cousin from Lubbock, preceded the wedding attendants down the aisle.

Miss Christie Jack of Lubbock was her sister's maid of honor. Matron of honor was Mrs. Randy Laycock of Lubbock and the groom's sister, Miss Julie Jordan of Odessa, was bridesmaid. The feminine attendants wore gowns of pink lace knit. The blouson bodice featured a scoop neckline and shirred cap sleeves. An accordion-pleated skirt fell to a floor-length from a natural waistline accented with a self-fabric belt. They carried nose gays of pink pixie carnations, white China mums and pink satin bows and streamers, and wore matching flowers in their hair.

The feminine candle-lighter's dress was styled identically to the bridal attendants and her flowers were fashioned into a wrist corsage. The flower girl's dress was of the same material but was accented with ruffles. She carried a white basket with pink flowers and wore pink pixie carnations and a satin ribbon in her hair.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore formal-length dresses and corsages of cymbidium orchids. All of the male members of the wedding party and the fathers of the bride and the groom wore black tuxedos with white shirts ruffled in the front. Their boutonnieres were of white carnations. The groom's tuxedo was formally styled and had a white coat. The ruffles of his white shirt were edged in black. His boutonniere was a pink rose.

Best man was Gary Frederick of Dallas, and groomsmen were Ron Lewis of Lubbock and the groom's brother, Kyle Jordan of Odessa.

BRIDAL ATTIRE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white organza. The moulded bodice featured a deep yoke of Cluny lace sewn with seed pearls forming a scalloped and diamond pattern down the center of the yoke. Narrow Cluny lace edged the yoke and formed the Elizabethan collar. The Cluny lace made long, fitted sleeves and seed pearls repeated the scalloped and diamond pattern down the entire sleeve. Narrow bands of Cluny lace formed the cuffs. The natural waistline was encircled in lace and the skirt was fashioned with a redingote front opening over an organza crystal-pleated panel edged in Cluny lace that extended around the gown to form an apron effect in the

Weddings and Engagements

Candlelight Wedding Unites Bearden-Couch In Marriage

Garland Street Church of Christ was the scene of nuptial vows pledged Friday evening September 5 by Cheryl Denise Bearden and William Everett Couch in the presence of Weldon Couch, brother of the groom, who officiated the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Bearden of Floydada are the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James C. Couch of Plainview, are the bridegroom's parents.

Vows were repeated in a candlelight setting with centered archway decorated with greenery and white daisies. Candelabra with baby blue candles and greenery flanked the archway.

Attendants of the bride were Mrs. Bill Brown and Elisa Cervantes. Bridegroom attendants were Mike Muniz and Lewis Couch, brother of the groom. Michael Bearden, brother of the bride and Tommy Love, nephew of the groom, were ushers. "Annie's Song" and "The Wedding Prayer," were sung by Randy Williams.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Lustaglo Quiana knit. The moulded bodice featured a "V" neckline defined in silk Venise lace. Long tapered sleeves were accented at the wrist with an applique of silk Venise lace.

Silk Venise lace encircled the empire waistline which fell to a natural waistline in the back. The full accordion pleated skirt swept to back fullness forming a chapel length train. Her veil of illusion was secured to a Camelot headpiece that was bordered with Venise lace and had stitched pearls.

The bride carried an arrangement of white daisies and baby blue carnations with baby's breath on a Bible covered with white silk lace. For something old she wore her mother's wedding band. Something new was her wedding gown. Something borrowed was the Bible she carried, belonging to Kathy Brown. She added the traditional blue garter and in her shoe were pennies minted in the years she and the bridegroom were born.

Gowns of her attendants were of baby blue polyester accented with a multi-colored small flower pattern. The dresses had an empire waistline, round neckline and long cuffed sleeves. Each carried a stem of white daisies and a single baby blue carnation with baby's breath, tied with a baby blue ribbon.

RECEPTION

Reception assistants were Mrs. Vaudie Holbert aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Randy Brown, sister of the groom.

A light blue tablecloth draped the bride's table, with a memory candle forming the centerpiece.

American sports are in a state of ruin in the eyes of one sports ex-best is measured by how much money one can make," he explained. When combined with the intensity of competition, this can lead to corruption and a shift away from competition toward conflict, he said.

Spencer Wertz, Christian University associate professor of philosophy and an author-sports ethics says of the country's sports have degenerated competition to near conflict. Wertz, recently made a presentation on the subject to a national workshop on sports philosophy, football and ice hockey two of the worst of this trend.

Another reason for the debasement of the nation's sports is the tendency of Americans to materialize everything, Wertz said. Instead of looking at the spiritual and educational value of sports, the country turns sports into a commodity to be bought and sold in the marketplace, he told the group. "The sports and business sections which usually appear in the same part of newspapers have in some ways become indistinguishable.

Football has become so full of so disrespectful fans and officials that the activity is no longer a game but out- confrontation." Wertz said the West German- ence.

"The business transactions of players' contracts or new franchises take precedence over the games," he said. "The talk of money in sports has replaced talk of the ennobling qualities of sports..." Wertz added.

Study Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. Louise Turner, president of the Floydada Women's Chamber of Commerce was guest speaker at the opening meeting of the 1980-81 1929 Study Club, Thursday morning at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Cleo Goins.

"The Chamber's year begins in the spring at their banquet," Mrs. Turner reported. "Then committees are appointed for the year's projects. The style show, yard beautification, blood donation drive, Old Settlers Play Day booth, community planning survey, appreciation coffee, Christmas tree lighting ceremony, assisting with open house for new businesses if requested, coffee for teachers appreciation, doctors, and nurses, Vaudeville show for the County library, all are part of the work the Woman's Chamber of Commerce have done. When Floydada returned their questionnaires from the rural community planning survey, the South Plains Association of Governments said it was the best response of any of the towns surveyed," the speaker said.

Mrs. Vance Campbell, president, led the group in repeating the Pledge of the Bible, to open the club meeting. The business meeting was held after the report by Mrs. Turner.

Mrs. S.W. Ross read the minutes of the May meeting, as the secretary, Mrs. Weldon McClure, had to leave early. The club voted in May to go local, rather than continue in their fifty year tradition of National and State Federation. They will donate the dues money to local projects.

The new yearbooks were reviewed by program chairman, Mrs. Ben Whitaker and Mrs. Campbell. "Have you helped someone today?", is the theme for the year.

A breakfast buffet of hot sausage balls, hot cheese wafers, muffins, nuts and plates of fresh fruit tidbits was served with coffee. The serving table was covered with pale green linen. China appointments were used. Mrs. C.M. Meredith poured.

Other members present for the opening meeting included Mmes. H.E. Cline, C.W. Denison, W.B. Parrack, Ben Whitaker and Q.D. Williams.

The next meeting will be October 2 at the ranch home of Mrs. W.D. Williams in Lakeview community. Sheriff Cardinal will be guest speaker.

Approximately 200 people were in attendance at the event. A picnic supper of hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings, and ice-cold watermelon was followed by entertainment for all ages. Green Thumb Program Has New State Director Diane L. Parrish of Waco has been appointed state director of Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb employment program.

She replaces former state director David Hartwig who left in order to become Green Thumb's Regional Coordinator of the Western Region in Idaho.

Mrs. Parrish has worked with Green Thumb since 1976, as office manager, area supervisor and district director prior to her promotion.

A native of Oklahoma, she has a degree in business administration from Oklahoma State University. Green Thumb Inc., a part-time work opportunity for disadvantaged rural senior workers, is a federal program funded through the Department of Labor and sponsored by National Farmers Union. Green Thumb, an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, places Green Thumb workers with non-profit organizations to help serve the needs of rural communities. The program's goal is to place older workers in unsubsidized positions.

Currently, Green Thumb operates in 107 counties and employs more than 950 workers, program officials say.

MAURO MARTINEZ AND FREDDIE GONZALES receive plaque for first place in Tye Company horseshoe tournament from Jack Covington, picnic chairman. Frankie Graves served as tournament director.

SLOW DOWN

THEY DEPEND ON YOU

The Texas Department of Public Safety wishes to warn the motorist that daylight hours will be getting shorter. It is difficult to see a person on foot during the twilight hours.

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Department of Public Safety Commander said, "Children will be attending school and this will cause an increase in pedestrian traffic. Human life is the most precious commodity we have, more especially our school children's lives." Look for the pedestrian and the big yellow school bus. It's easier to see something when you are looking for it.

When you see a child in the street, expect him to do anything, and be ready to give him the right-of-way.

Back to school time is a good time of the year. Let's make sure all the children enjoy it all year long!

FIX-IT FACTS
Thurman Davis
Now is the time to repair... if your home has attractive stucco walls but unattractive cracks. Time before the cold weather gets here. Using a chisel, remove all loose stucco to get a smooth base for patching. Widen the crack to nearly twice its width and undercut to provide a ledge to hold patching cement. Wet the crack thoroughly with a brush or soaked cloth. Using a putty knife, fill the crack. Be sure the cement fills the crack thoroughly and overlaps each side about 1 inch. If your stucco is colored, a colored stucco (sandfinish) can be applied over the crack by dappling a wet sponge into the stucco and working the wet material in a circular motion to blend with the older stucco. After amply filling the crack with cement, use the putty knife to smooth out the filler into the surrounding stucco.

Apply wheat fertilizer now... ahead of the drill.

Give your wheat a head start. Those deep-rooted stubble plants are able to survive a rough winter. If you pasture your wheat, fertilizer will give you more and better forage. When the weather turns warm in spring, your wheat will be well on its way to the high yield you planned.

Base your fertilizer application on soil test results.

Let our Fertilizer Specialist help you. We have all the materials that have proven effective in this area. Also arrange for custom application if you wish. Call today and let us help you develop a comprehensive wheat production program.

Economic Conditioning

If you have central air conditioning, keep the thermostat at a steady setting no lower than 78°F. Depending on where you live, the difference between 72°F and 78°F can save you anywhere from 12% to 47% in cooling costs.

With room air conditioners, use only the ones in rooms you are occupying at the moment; shut down the others.

When buying air conditioners, get sound advice on air-conditioner capacity; too powerful or too weak a unit will waste energy and money.

Clean or replace filters at least once a month during the cooling season. Set the fan at high speed, except in very humid weather. A low setting will remove more moisture.

Agri-Facts

By Jerry Perry

Producers who have been in the cattle business for any time at all know there's nothing harder to predict than the cattle market. Now that reporting systems for the total number of cows on pasture and cattle in feedlots are much more accurate it seems things would get easier. But then, you have a few other factors which come into play. High interest rates may change the projection of new cattle coming into feedlots. Prices of other meats may be drastically lowered because of oversupply. Also, consumers may get a big dose of misinformation on nutrition from beef. Inflation may shoot up beyond expectations causing family food budgets to be sharply scrutinized. Any one of these factors could make earlier projections worthless at any given time, but when they all happen in the same year it can drive all the predictors right back to coin flipping. What do you think? Heads or tails?

Workers And Seagos Tour Europe

Note: This is of a three part second paper in next week's

Stansell
Faye Barker and Roberta Seago left July 29 on a 17 day tour of several European countries to attend the Oberammergau Play that is held every 10 years.

The amount of traffic was surprising. Traffic was very heavy and gas is over $3.00 a gallon. As we crossed over the Inn River, we saw the Alps for the first time before we reached the German/Austrian border which was very relaxed and easy as they checked our passports. We stopped at Moonsee Lake to change our money into schillings. It takes 12 schillings to make $1.00. This is where we ate our first (but not our last) tortes. We passed by the little church where the wedding was filmed for "The Sound of Music." Churches are dotted all over the mountain sides, in the valleys, villages, and cities. 90% of all the churches we saw are Catholic, then the Lutheran, followed by the rest of the Protestant faiths. Some of the churches show the eastern influence with the onion domes.

The Monastery of Melk was built in 900 A.D., burned and finally finished in 1703, with a large cathedral in the center. It is still a place of education and boarding school and it was the capitol in the 11th century. From Melk, we took a two hour boat ride down the Danube River to Krems. Grapes were growing on both sides of the river. Krems has a reputation of having the best wine in Austria. Signs above the doors of the cafes or taverns are wreaths of evergreen or wheels of straw with straw spokes to tell that they have new white wine. We ate lunch on the boat and had our first confusing experience of paying with foreign money, it was expensive. A second glass of tea cost $2.25. After that we were careful about seconds.

Vineyards are grown all up and down the rolling hills along the Danube, which is also lined with old castles and garrisons. One of the castles was where Richard the Lion Hearted was held. We drove through the Vienna woods into the beautiful old city of Vienna. We went up to the top of a lookout mountain to get a panoramic view of the city of 1.4 million people. Vienna was the capitol during the 12th century and one could not help feeling the power of the Holy Roman Empire as we looked down on that ancient city, which at one time had a population of 2.1 million.

Our first sightseeing in Vienna was the Schonbrunn Castle. Leopold built this palace in 1696 as a summer home at the edge of the city but it is now in the center of Vienna. It was later to be the summer palace of Maria Theresa, which she had enlarged and redone in the style it is today. Schonbrunn means "beautiful spring" and is crystal clear that still flows from the spring today. It has 1,400 rooms and we toured 18 rooms at the rear, overlooking the most beautiful garden that we were to see at any of the castles or on the entire trip. The palace was heated with porcelain wood stoves in the corner of each room. They were vase shaped and stood 7' or 8' tall. We saw the triumphal arch called Gloriette in the garden and sculptured fountains, trees, and hedges. Since the Halsburg family once occupied this palace, the native Viennitians are still fond of coming here.

We toured around the "Ring" which really is a ring around the center of town on which are located many of the historical and ornate buildings. Here we saw the statue of a Russian hero which was made by Russia as a part of the treaty and must remain there. The people of Vienna have erected a fountain in front of the statue which sprays water higher than the Russian hero thus hiding him from the front view.

Vienna is so filled with history it would take a lifetime to see and hear it all. We drove through Hofburg or Imperial Castle into the Platz and on into Hero's Square where Hitler once made speeches. Hofburg is a city within a city and the President of the Republic still lives there. Eating lunch at the sidewalk cafes, pastry shops (you wouldn't believe the goodies), and shopping in the quaint shops that were expensive, was a fun and a unique experience.

We saw Vienna at night going to the Stadtpark (the big city park) to a concert which honors Johann Strauss and Mozart and waltzed under the stars to their beautiful music. Several thousand people go there each evening during the summer. Art found coffee expensive at the park. It was $5.00 a cup. He really appreciated the coffee at the First National Bank in Lockney. Later that same evening we rode the tallest Prater (ferris wheel) which is 190' high. Later we went to an open air beer garden in Donaupark (we had apple juice, scouts promise). By a mix-up we left Roberta at the place, but not for long! We went around the "Ring" to see the historical and government buildings flooded in light. The evening was cool and the trees and flowers were gorgeous on this mountain side garden. Getting back to the motel at 1:00 a.m., we vowed to return to Vienna.

South Plains Fair Report

The complete story of the sixty-third annual Panhandle South Plains Fair is contained in a 124-page catalog just distributed throughout the South Plains and eastern New Mexico areas.

More than 4,500 copies of the 1980 catalog have been mailed to potential exhibitors and fair superintendents and other volunteer workers, according to General Manager Steve L. Lewis.

It also contains a list of premiums totaling more than $75,000, Lewis noted.

The theme of this year's fair, scheduled September 20-27, is "family fun at the fair."

The center section of the catalog is devoted to virtually an all-new lineup of stars booked for the stage of Fair Park Coliseum.

"We're tickled to death with the lineup," Lewis said, adding that ticket sales so far are well ahead of last year.

The coliseum attractions include:

Sept. 21—The Merle Haggard show, with Susie Allanson, 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Sept. 22—The Oak Ridge Boys, with Joe Sun, 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Sept. 23—The Marty Robbins show, with Little David Wilkins, 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Sept. 24—The Eddie Rabbit show, with Susan Raye, 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Sept. 26—Moe Bandy and Joe Stampley, 8 p.m. only, and Sept. 27—Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers Band, 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

All seats are reserved and tickets are $4, $5 and $6.

Mail order requests for reservations currently are being accepted by the fair, P.O. Box 208, Lubbock, Texas 79408. Orders will be processed in the order in which received.

Requests must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Beginning August 1, tickets also will go on sale at the fair office, 105 E. Broadway.

Registration For Aerobics Nearing

The Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at Wayland Baptist College will be offering a beginning and advanced course in Aerobics for persons in the Lockney area this fall, according to Dr. Sylvia Nadler, head of the Department.

The course, to be taught by Anne Carthel, will meet each Monday from 6-8 p.m. or 8-10 p.m. beginning September 8.

Registration will take place on September 8 and 15 beginning at 6 p.m. at the American Legion, and persons planning to enroll should wear exercise clothing and tennis shoes. The first class session will be held the night of registration.

Cost for the class, which offers one hour college credit, is $50 for persons wishing only to audit the course. In addition, a $15 fee will also be charged credit students who are enrolling in Wayland for the first time.

The class was offered by WBC for the first time last fall and attracted more than 1,400 participants during the 1979-80 year. Aerobics is "a fun way to get in shape," according to Mrs. Carthel.

"It tones the muscles, gets the heart and lungs in shape, burns up calories and really gives you energy."

"Aerobics combines jogging and jumping with choreography," says Carthel. "It's a physical fitness program designed to build up the cardiovascular system."

Each session will consist of a warm-up period followed by several routines, and finally, a "cool-down" period of other exercises. All routines and exercises will be done to popular music.

Heart rates will be constantly monitored during each class period. In addition, the program will be geared according to each person's capabilities.

Although the classes are primarily designed for college students and adults, high school students, freshmen through seniors, may enroll in the course; however, only high school seniors may take the course for college credit. Anyone younger than high school freshmen may enroll if accompanied by a parent.

Persons interested in enrolling in the course should contact Jill Golden at 652-3196 as soon as possible.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

True, all hearing problems are not alike . . . and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 52329 Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

Floyd County Towns That Preceded Floydada And Lockney

Out in the west it is a rare town that is standing on the original site, and with the same name as it began. The railroad location and other factors often made the difference. Floydada is no exception. According to an early history of Floyd County written by Claude V. Hall, founder and first editor of the Hesperian, Della Plain was the first town in Floyd County.

It was named in honor of Della, daughter of a real pioneer settler, J.S. McLain, who later settled in the Sandhill community. Its location was five miles north and one mile east of the present site of Floydada.

In 1886, seeking to escape a severe drought, T.J. Braidfoot, of Baylor County, drove his herd of cattle in early summer to this county. Seeking to found a new town, he formed a partnership with J.S. McLain of Seymour, being joined in the town promotion venture by two other Seymour men, Dr. L.T. Wilson and Judge I.R. Darnell.

Lumber and other materials were hauled from Wichita Falls by ox wagons, 175 miles, and though intended for a store, floor lumber and shingles being as yet unobtainable, the unfinished building served as an all-around community center. McLain induced his uncle, J.R. McLain of Seymour, to move, as well as Paris Cox, founder of Estacado and Crosby County clerk up to 1888.

Surveyor Seg Bradford located a quarter section in the homestead strip just north of Della Plain near the close of 1887, and in 1890 located school lands for the Floyd County permanent school fund, in Bailey county.

Early storekeepers were Dr. Wilson, the Davis Bros., A.J. Sams and A.D. White, the latter using the old store building on the north side of the square as a residence, store, and post office in 1893. The McLain family took care of the mail in the early years, Estacado being the originating point.

The McLain name has meant much to Floyd County, particularly in the eastern and southern section. J.S. McLain came from Randolph County in Arkansas to Baylor County, Seymour being the county seat, and remained but a few years before moving back to Floyd County in 1887.

His uncle, J.R. McLain, and Paris Cox, the founder of Estacado, were the men chiefly responsible in influencing him to move. According to Claude V. Hall, long-time Hesperian editor who narrated the early history of the county for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society (p. 88) "Cox spent some time in the winter of 1886-1887 at Seymour transcribing the records of Baylor County pertaining to Crosby County.

Cox lost no opportunity to set forth the resources and advantages of the "Staked Plains." "The most pretentious building of the first year or two was occupied as a hotel by T.J. Braidfoot. In all directions from Della Plain habitations were fast provided, and most of them were dugouts and sod houses. The settlers in general were not well supplied with funds, but they had ample time to devote to the construction of homes which cost nothing save muscular exertion on the part of the owners." D.R. Wilson put in a small stock of merchandise in the fall of 1888, in the first building erected at Della Plain, consisting mostly of tobacco, canned goods, and small wares. This totaled only about $100.

Davis Bros. bought him out in the spring of 1889, and enlarged the stock of goods; they were succeeded by A.J. Sams, though they remained in the general section as homesteaders, near the present site of Lockney. Sams moved his store to Mayshaw in 1895, staying there until the founding of the rival town of Lockney in 1895, when he moved there.

R.E.L. McLain found the first weekly newspaper, The Della Plain Review, in January 1889, but it ceased to publish in August 1891, and moved to Silverton.

Roads were poor, but there was a trail to Plainview running about one mile south of present-day Lockney.

In 1888 J.C. White set up a blacksmith shop, but moved the next year to Lockney.

The first public dance in Della Plain was held on Christmas Eve in 1888, with most inhabitants present. J.C. White and daughter furnished the music. They used violins of his own handiwork.

A four month school term with salary at $30 monthly was held in 1888-1889, with 15 pupils. Miss Emma Lewis of Estacado taught the school, and trustees were T.J. Braidfoot, J.S. McLain, and A.V. McCracken. Private subscriptions increased the teacher's pay. The roll jumped to 20 the following year, with William Massie holding a four-month term at $40 monthly. Half his pay was in cedar post and wood. Two sons of W.A. Merrill of Blanco Canyon traveled a distance of twelve miles to attend.

R.T. Miller was superintendent of the first Sunday School, organized in 1889, with keen interest on the people's part. Occasionally a worship service was held. The store building was sometimes the site; some meetings were conducted in dugouts. Anson Cox, of Estacado, joined with O.A. Shook, J.H. Stegall, and Thomas Duncan in these pioneer sermons.

As was quite typical of pioneers in their rough surroundings and often hazardous contacts with nature, a longing for higher forms of education was soon manifested, and so there was a sympathetic hearing when Rev. B.F. Fronabarger, proprietor of a large private school at Springtown, Parker County, delivered an address at Seymour relating to his educational work.

Since there were many associations by now between Della Plain and Seymour, it was not a mere happenstance that J.R. McLain should contact him at the close of his address relating to the possibility of locating a school at Della Plain.

After a visit there, he entered into a contract with McLain and seven others to erect a school building, maintain and supervise a school for five years, and then receive title to the building and some town lots.

DELLA PLAIN INSTITUTE

Called Della Plain Male and Female Institute, the school endured only a few months, in 1890-91. A graduate of Fronabarger's school at Springtown, C.W. Hutcherson, served as principal, with Miss Anna Bedecarrax as assistant principal. Although much vigor was expended by the founder at first, he soon resigned, and Fayette Copeland took his place.

Then it ran as a public school for six months and closed. Though a "failure" in a sense, the school was at least the product of great dreams; its advertisements stated that it had primary, preparatory, and collegiate departments, the latter offering these subjects: General History, Composition and Rhetoric, Metaphysics and Logic, High Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Surveying, Greek, Latin, French, German, Hebrew, Spanish, Natural Science, Commercial Law, and Art.

A glimpse of the high hopes of at least one person for life at Della Plain can be seen in the letter published in the Della Plain Review: "Come to the beautiful little Della Plain, in the county of Floyd. Send your children. They will find board cheap but good; tuition reasonable; instruction thorough; discipline kind, but rigid. Send your sons that they may get the advantage of a college course without having to leave their homes to get it. Send your daughters that they may become skilled in the finer arts, as well as being equipped for the sterner duties of life."

In 1895 the building from this school was converted into an additional room of the Floydada public school.

Despite the initial high hopes, Della Plain's population ebbed away in 1891-92. Briscoe County to the north was organized March 15, 1892, and Braidfoot, Briscoe, and others, having lost faith in the future at Della Plain moved to Silverton and became numbered among its founders. A.D. White, upon the discontinuance of the postoffice at his home in 1893, in the autumn, settled on a homestead of a quarter section nine miles west of Floydada. In 1900 twenty acres of the townsite were planted in cotton, and six bales were harvested and ginned at Childress.

The relationship of Floyd County people to other towns is interestingly displayed by Claude V. Hall. "Meanwhile the Ft. Worth and Denver City Railway extended its train service to Childress, which was thenceforth, for a few months, the trading point for Floyd County settlers. From the latter part of 1887 to the summer of 1898 Amarillo was the principal trading point during the warm seasons while Childress was the market for cold seasons. Estacado was about thirty miles southwest of the new town in Floyd County settlers for mail facilities, for land and legal business, and for trading in small wares.

While some settlers moved north, and the McLains southwest to Sandhill, others made a shorter move, only a couple of miles west, and founded another short-lived town, Mayshaw, in the community now known as Muncy. A.J. Shaw was one of the promoters of the new enterprise, and his wife was named May, thus the name Mayshaw. After 1896 only a few dugouts marked the scene. Floydada having been chosen as the county seat town, many of Della Plain's residents regarded its cause as hopeless, and a capital stock company with $11,000 at its disposal was organized, dubbed "The Citizen's Town Company," headed by A.J. Shaw of Galesburg, Illinois. A.F. and J.H. Dodson, as well as A.J. Sams, B.F. Farmer, and other joined in.

As usual, a newspaper quickly sprang up, the Mayshaw Zephyr, which gave this explanation of the town's existence: Tired of the warfare for the county seat, citizens had determined to construct a town of their own. The reason for the site was this, "That this section was near the geographical center of the county, had a perfect land title, was almost the exact agricultural center of the county, had a splendid natural drainage, a magnificent view, and last, it was known that plenty of water could be secured upon this section at a very small expense."

During the 1892 summer it seemed that Mayshaw would prosper, with a post office in operation, a small public library, and a few business enterprises projected.

Some of Della Plain's houses were moved to Mayshaw, others to Briscoe County. Despite the great help of Col. and Mrs. Shaw, the settlers could not withstand an invasion of grasshoppers in 1893, which followed fast upon a prolonged drought. (The hoppers must have carried their thermos jugs with them!) So interested was J.H. Dodson, the Zephyr's editor, that he sent his paper free on a countywide basis, and even ran for county judge to help his town, but he resigned as editor in 1893 and moved to California.

His interest had extended so far as to insert free advertising for the marks and brands of reading notices. W.C. Hawkins revived the Zephyr in 1894, but discontinued it the following spring to become the editor of The Floyd County Times at Floydada.

Besides the Dodson brothers, leading men at Mayshaw were I.R. Voorhees, whose services were in great demand as a mechanic and windmill expert, S.H. Brown, blacksmith, G.W. Farnsworth, public-spirited farmer, C.F. Ramsey, early-day county commissioner, A.J. Sams, merchant, Mrs. T. Cromartie, who was proprietor of the Winsor Hotel, E.P. Thompson, and G.W. Grammer. Thompson proclaimed that he was "Prepared to put up or repair all kinds of windmills on short notice." Reflecting the versatility and enterprise, as well as ways of thinking of a previous century, Grammer asserted that he was an instructor in music, stenography, and phrenology.

Connections with the outside world were evident. Callaway Bros. of Amarillo were advertising a new wagon yard, wholesale and retail, where a person could buy "Grain, hay and feed stuff." The boast was also made: "Best Wagon Yards & Stock Sheds on the Plains!"

Memphis was advertising itself as "The nearest Rail Road Town to Floyd County," with directions as to finding Memphis, including Curlew post office, Adam's Camp, Vernons House, Parmer's house, etc., and the Red River. Childress advertised its Ice and Coal Co., selling "EGG AND LUMP COAL." Even from as far off as Gainsville there was advertising for Springdale Nurseries.

A large advertising spot, that would now be known as a "public service," described Mayshaw, Texas, as "THE FUTURE TOWN OF FLOYD COUNTY," and ended with "A GOOD OPENING FOR A GENERAL MERCHANDISE STORE."

Ft. Worth and Denver City Railway Co., and Union Pacific System, "The Only Line Running Through the Great Panhandle of Texas, The greatest wheat producing country in the world," advertised cheap houses and direct route to western states.

The newspaper itself, the Zephyr, in the boom spirit of those days advertised itself as sending its issues to all in the county whose names were available, and dubbed Floyd County as "THE BANNER SPOT OF TEXAS." There were advertisements from Panhandle, Higgins, and Canadian, in the Texas Panhandle (the spellings varied as to one or two words from panhandle), and from Wellington, Kansas. A doctor was wanted, and he was promised the practice for two-thirds of the county. A detailed description of the county was given, headed thus: "The County which has the greatest amount of the richest land, and inexhaustible supply of the purest water, and the

was S.M. Brown, vice-president, H. Terry, Secretary, S.F. Lindsay, the first meeting taking place May 14.

In number for January 24, 1893, there was also a call for "THIRD PARTY MEETING." This related to Populist organization. If the activity during this time is any sample of what happened—and there the young lawyers were even asked to indicate their preferences, and sea-soned community, leaders declared whether they were still Democrats or had gone over to the "radicals," the interest must have been quite keen.

The close connection between hotels and railroads was displayed in an advertisement: "THE CITY HOTEL. This Hotel is 80 yards of the Passenger Depot. They have a Night Clerk and will call you in time to take the cars. This Hotel sets the best table in the City for the money. Terms:—Meals 25 cents, bed 25 cents." Thus an Amarillo firm reached out to Mayshaw.

Mayshaw had a Sunday School, and Rev. Anderson Cox of the Friends Church preached each first Sunday, with C.W. Smith of the Church of Christ taking the pulpit each third Sunday.

Young people had the opportunity to take part in a group aside from most of their elders. In February of 1893 the Zephyr reported: "The Christian Endeavor Society gave their regular monthly social on Wednesday night of last week at the Residence of A.F. Dodson. On account of the unusually cold weather the attendance was smaller than had been expected, but the seven or eight couples present seemed to have quite a nice time and the social was pronounced a success.

Miss Rosa Ewing, daughter of J.A. Ewing, taught the first session for the Mayshaw school district, which was created by the county commissioner's court on May 19, 1892.

The social graces were not neglected, for on May 2 in 1892 "a number of the youth and beauty of Floyd County" went to celebrate the finishing of a business house owned by J.B. Anthony. Messrs. Cox and Farmer furnished the music, "and dancing continued until the wee small hours."

In February of 1893 the directors of the town company decided that it was high time they improved the appearance of the public square and at the same time provide a good time. They accordingly made plans to celebrate Washington's birthday a little late, on March 1, hold a picnic and set out trees on the public square. Since they would have to get the trees in the breaks it was decided to spend the night there. Doubtless there was small objection from the youth of that day.

The Mayshaw Public Library advertised "Something For The People to Read." Library dues were 50 cents per quarter, and for that one could read a history of Parker County, Texas, of the State of Massachusetts, or of Rome; or the novels of Scott and Dickens; Hawthorne's Twice-Told Tales; the early English novelists; Shakespeare and history of the Civil War; how to be good doctor at home; and practically any of the staple authors and poets then in favor. The public was asked to donate books. The services were donated.

Despite the high hopes of its founders, the devotion to duty of the manager of the town company, A.F. Dodson, in spite of the longing for permanence of its settlers, Mayshaw lasted less than two years. By 1896 only a post office and blacksmith shop were left, both under the management of S.H. Brown.

In story on organization of Farmers Alliance at Della Plain, reference is made to a Baptist minister and Populist organizer name is T.E. Leake.

Come To The Fair

A fishing trip to Lake Hubbard near Breckenridge was enjoyed last week by Mr. and Mrs. Alvie McHam, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McHam, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Geyer (Peggy) of Lubbock, Dennis and Barbara McHam. They stayed from Friday through Friday. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McHam planned to leave for a trip to Carlsbad Caverns. Miss Pam Veazy, Floydada kindergarten teacher, visited her student, Rance Golightly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dayne Golightly, Thursday afternoon. The little kindergarten students get out of school at noon and the teachers try to visit every family in their class.

Mrs. Blanton Hartsell has been working hard in her summer kitchen, putting up taco sauce, pickles, okra and peas, and is ready to start canning green beans. This is a separate kitchen where she keeps all her canning and freezing equipment and can have all the work space she needs without messing up her house. Mrs. Ora Nell Norrel and her sister, Mrs. Wayne Appling Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Green visited her mother, Mrs. Holt Bishop, over the weekend. Shirley Faye and Lester were in the process of moving from San Antonio to Lubbock. Brandon Harrison, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Harrison, visited his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Snider, in Amarillo for a week. Beverly and Rex met them at her parents cabin at Eagle Nest, New Mexico, where Rex helped Mr. Snider work on his cabin. They all enjoyed a week's vacation in the cool mountain air before school started. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling visited Bertha's sister, Mrs. Wynell Rogers, in the hospital in Ft. Worth last week. She is critically ill. The Appling's also visited their daughter, Beverly Conner, and family while in Ft. Worth. Then they went on to Dallas to visit their other daughter, Phyllis Farley and family. They were gone from Thursday through the weekend. Bertha has started canning tomatoes from her garden now. Mrs. J.E. Green

September 8:
Today is cool with great white and gray clouds resting against the most beautiful blue sky. We hope it will terminate in a good rain.

We had a nice weekend. Good services at churches as usual. So nice to be able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Watson dined Sunday in Lubbock with another daughter, Peggy Ayers and family. In the afternoon they visited other of their children in Lubbock.

Miss Vera Meredith's visitors last week included Mrs. Clay Muncy and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas who came Tuesday, and Sunday Mrs. Edna Patton and Mrs. Pierce.

Mrs. Anthony Latta visited Mrs. Green briefly after church Sunday. Later in the afternoon callers were Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. J.D. Welborn and Mrs. Joe Ann Gooch.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huckaby of Dumas, here also for the Homecoming Sunday, August 31, spent the night afterward with Mrs. Fred Battey. On Monday they and Mrs. Battey and Mrs. Ola Warren were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Huckaby.

Weekend visitors of the Dale Millers were friends from Ft. Worth, Pete and Virginia Brisco.

The Thomas Warren's report a two inch rain Thursday. Sunday visitors at the Warren's were Joyce and Jimmy Owens and boys and Mr. and Mrs. William Bertrand.

Mrs. Ethel Warren spent Friday P.M. and evening with Mrs. C.M. Meredith.

Dreams Come True In The Cub Scouts

Adventure and excitement is the dream of many a young boy. But it's more than just a dream for the two million members of the Cub Scouts—an organization now celebrating its 50th Anniversary.

Robert L. Untch, national director of the Cub Scouts, says Cub Scouting is more popular than ever during this Golden Anniversary year.

"Cub Scouting offers fun and adventure to every boy from ages 8 through 10," says Mr. Untch. "Cub Scouts participate in weekly meetings where they make lasting friendships. They also have fun at games and sports in which they learn good sportsmanship, and go on nature trips where they learn about the beauty and value of our environment."

Other Cub Scout activities—the list is almost endless—feature summer cookouts, museum and plant tours, swimming parties, physical fitness competition, and bicycle rodeos.

These diverse activities have several things in common. They are educational and fun but, most of all, they encourage family participation, good citizenship and leadership. And that's what Cub Scouting is all about.

If you would like to make a dream come true for your son, join the Cub Scouts. Contact your local Boy Scouts of America Council for information. Consult the white or yellow pages of your telephone directory.

The Ford dealership has been in Floydada since the Model T days when the cars came in only partly assembled. Ray Reed bought the agency in 1962. The new building was completed in 1964. Reed said that the automotive industry is changing so much that by 1985 we won't be running the kind of cars we are now. Automobiles will be 90% electric fuel injected. Operated by on-board computers. They will be down sized, with all kinds of fuel saving devices, and will be in the 30 to 31 mile per gallon range. Also everything will be front wheel drive.

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHY YOU SEE SO MANY "CITY AUTO" STICKERS? ONE REASON IS OUR PRICES. YES, IT IS A FACT THAT THE 1981 VEHICLES WILL BE HIGHER. BUT, BEFORE YOU BUY THAT 1980 MODEL CHECK OUR PRICES ON THE '81's. THE WAY WE SELL OUR CARS AND PICKUPS YOU MIGHT BE SURPRISED AT HOW LITTLE THE DIFFERENCE IS BETWEEN A ONE YEAR OLD VEHICLE (1980) AND A BRAND NEW ONE (1981).

Winds Have The Talent And The Size To Make Their District Mark

The overall forecast for the season looks good, Coach L.G. Wilson said, but he felt it was too early to make any predictions.

The Whirlwinds face a tough season this year. "Everyone in our district won their games last Friday night," Wilson said. "In fact, everyone on our schedule won their game with the exception of Post and they lost to Lockney which is one of our district opponents."

He added that they are all tough schools and that it will depend on what happens each week to determine which one will be the toughest.

"We need to gain some experience," he said. "We have good personnel in certain areas, but we are basically a green team. We are going to have to have good senior leadership. They'll just have to carry the load until the other boys get the experience they need."

"We weren't prepared as much as we should have been last week. There were too many inconsistencies," Wilson explained that it is harder for the green linemen to develop play know-how.

They are down in the stance and can't see what the opposition is doing to them. It's harder for them to pick up on what to do. That knowledge comes with experience. It doesn't take as long for the skill positions to develop as it does for the line positions.

Even though Wilson hesitates to make a prediction for the coming season, the 'Winds have the talent and the size to make their district mark this year.

There are 12 seniors playing this year and they are pretty well positioned throughout the team.
