The Floydada businessmen were asked to respond to a Floydada Community Business Questionaire at the same time that the citizen's were being surveyed by a door to door campaign.

the survey was conducted under the leadership of the Women's Division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce in August. The purpose of this question-aire was to get the opinion of the businessmen on the current state of various business conditions in Floydada. The results will be used to pinpoint where difficulties exist and where action must

Of the 42 businessmen that responded to the questionaire, 12 might be considered new businesses, because they have been in operation for 10 years or

Robinson to preach at services

Darrell W. Robinson, 45, will be the preacher for the revival services at First Baptist Church of Floydada, October 12-19. He is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Pasadena, Texas.

A native of Big Spring, Robinson has been pastoring since the age of 18. He began pastoring at Lakeview Baptist near Stanton, held student pastorates while in college and seminary, and since then has pastored in Big Spring, Amarillo, Liberal, Kansas, and Vernon. He has been in Pasadena since 1973.

Since Robinson's going to Pasadena, the church membership has increased from 2,372 to more than 6,600, and Sunday School attendance has grown from 700 to 2,200. Hundreds of members have been equipped to share Christ personal witness. Personal winning by lay people is a strength of the church. The church budget has grown from $250,000 annually to more than $2 million. In mission giving in Texas, the church has moved from 51st place among Southern Baptist churches to third place .. Robinson is a graduate of Howard County Junior College, Baylor University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has been very active in denominational service on both the associational and state level. He is also the author of three books. He and his wife, Kathleen, have four children. Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, has issued an invitation to the entire community to participate in the revival services. They begin Sunday at 7 p.m., and then continue Monday through Friday at 7:30 p.m. The final service will be Sunday morning, October 19, at 11 a.m. Noon services will be held Tuesday through Friday followed by a meal.

Several special activities are scheduled during the week. On Monday night, there will be a Battle of the Banners involving all Sunday School departments. Department members will sit together at the beginning of the service, and the department with the largest number present, and the highest percentage of enrollment present will be recognized. Visitors will be counted, so departmental directors are being encouraged to bring as many visitors as possible

There will be a youth hamburger supper on Tuesday night, a hot dog supper for grades 4 through 6 on Thursday night, and a senior citizens old-fashioned pie supper on Friday night. All evening services and the morning service will be televised on Cable Channel 2.

HOUSING

The businessmen of the community voiced the same concern over the housing situation as the citizens did when they responded that housing is needed to attract new business/industry. Ninteen said housing could make a difference and of those 19, seven would like more privately owned housing to be available and 16 want more rental property.

Twleve merchants believe that the appearance of the community needs to be improved to attract more people to Floydada and six see a need for more available labor force and community services. There are five businessmen who believe that nothing needs to be improved or changed in the community to attract new businesse/industry.

"I think especially the downtown and square area needs a facelift. This might help to attract industry and give the city a better general appearance," commented one businessman.

"I think housing is a serious problem. It also keeps new people from coming in. You can't usually find a house or an apartment, without looking for a while or having to "make do."

"Appearance is also a factor. The only good'first impression' you get, is when you come in from Ralls. All others have junky buildings and other stuff." wrote another.

"We need a builder who will build tract type homes in the $30,000 to $50,000 range. Housing for teachers and others who would buy in this price range is virtually nonexistent.

"Need more apartment type rentals for middle income families. Close to schools for convenience of working parents. "This possible would attract young families to move into our community without having to live in low rental houses or buy expensive new homes." One businessman believes that there is a need for more leisure time activites to appeal to the families of the business community. Twelve businessmen responded that they have plans to expand their firms in the next two years, two said they are planning cutbacks and 21 businesses plan to remain operating as they are at the present.

City Park plans gospel meeting

The City Park Church of Christ will be holding a gospel meeting Monday through Thursday nights next week. Guest preacher for the meetings will be Minister Doyle Gilliam from Lubbock. He teaches in the Sunset School of Preaching in that city.

Brother Gilliam has done extensive mission work in Africa. He lived there for many years. For the last five years he has lived in the United States, but has repeatedly visited Africa.

He returned a month ago for the beginning of the school year.

The services will be held at 7:30 each evening October 13-16.

The City Park Church of Christ extends an invitation for all to attend the services.

The thesis project that Mike Hale chose for his architectural degree was remodeling the old depot into a county library. He included a caboose to be used as a children's reading room. Part of the project is a Scout complex and an activity

"Is your turnover high at any of these skill levels?" Yes, responded nine employeers and the level that the turnover is the highest is with unskilled and semi-skilled help. Twenty-six businessmen responded that they do not have a high rate of employee turnover.

SALARIES

In response to the question of salaries that employees are paid at the various skill levels, the survey showed that of the 12 businesses that employ unskilled workers, four pay a salary of $3.15 to $5. per hour and one pays $5.01 to $10. an hour.

Of the businesses that employ semiskilled workers, eight pay their employees $3.15 to $5. an hour, two pay $5.01 or $10. an hour and one pays $9,000. a vear.

Salaries for workers at the skilled level started with five firms who pay $3.15 to $5. an hour, four pay $5.01 to $10. an hour and 10 pay $9,000. a year for skilled help.

Thirty-four of the employers believe that their employees are productive in light of what they are paid and five responded that they do not believe their employees are productive enough.

Fourteen businessmen responded that adaquate help is availiable to work in their type businesses, but 24 said that there is a shortage of help available for the type of businesses that they have.

The type of workers in short supply for 12 business are in skilled level.

JOB TRAINING

When asked if they were willing to train people to obtain the skills that are needed in their business, 35 answered ves and six said no.

Twenty-seven businesses said that they already have a training program available for employees that may not have the needed job skills and 14 said they do not provide job training. "In light of the current energy situation, are services provided by the city/ county/ or private concerns reasonably priced?" Yes answered 25 businessmen with 15 replying no.

When asked if they have utility problems 25 said no and 17 said yes. Thirty responded that if they have had problems they are taken care of quickly and efficiently.

TAXES

The survey then asked the businessmen to look at taxes. "Do taxes at the city, school, county, state or federal level put an undue burden on your business compared to other cities this size? If so which one?" Fourteen people believe that they are not under any tax burden.

Of those who responded that they believe that taxes are a burden, the only area that received no response was the county. Seven believe that taxes are too high on the federal level, five believe school taxes are too high, four

INDUSTRY

When asked, "Do you feel that your city needs an Industrial Foundation?" 22 merchants said yes, 15 replied no and five did not respond.

"What should an Industrial Foundation be doing?" Actively seeking new industry and funds and helping with acquiring additional water supply, came the responses.

Seventeen said that they would be willing to donate money to help create/ reactivate an Industrial Foundation while 19 said they would not be willing to give money.

Comments concerning the Industrial Foundation included:

"Yes, the city needs an Industrial Foundation that is actively seeking grants and possible new businesses." "Actively solicit new industry and ag gressively develop and expand business already here.

"Need more industrial type businesses to promote new people to the city." "What should an industrial foundation be doing? I don't know, but Don Hardy's business is one of the few that wouldn't shut down if something happened to the farming businesses. "It should be working toward obtaining new industry."

"We had one at one time and it didn't seem to get alot done."

Chamber of Commerce

"Is the Chamber of Commerce any help to you?" No, responded 24 businessmen, yes answered 14.

The activities that the merchants would like to see the Chamber involved with include promoting the city, recruiting new industry, more community involvement, help existing businesses with promotion, and working on a downtown renovation program.

Following are some of the businessmens comments concerning the C of C. 'We have never needed them but nice to know they are there."

Yes, Chamber does a good job." Yes, they need to be involved in bringing new businesses to town. improving housing and improve appearance of this town.

'Yes, activities that they need to be involved with are retail sales promotion and downtown modernization.

Is the Chamber of any help to you? "not that I am aware of."

"Very little. Obtaining new industry."

************ ASC Committee Around The County By Jett Major FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT *****

Rainfall amounts ranging from 2.5 to 4.5 inches were reported over most of Floyd County late last week and an additional two inches fell in the northwestern portion of the county early this week. Although the rainfall hampered harvest operations in the area, it was generally well received by all producers, especially those that have, or are sowing, wheat this fall. Rains have also stimulated growth in droughtstricken pastures causing grasses to finally turn a healthier green color.

Desiccation of cotton has, however, been made more difficult by the rainfall because of the harder-to-kill regrowth it has generated. Those fields that had been desiccated prior to the rainfall have also suffered some reduction in yield potential due to lower grades and stringing out of open bolls. Head Smut has been a problem in some sorghum fields that could not be harvested soon enough due to heavy rains.

If dry weather prevails next week. soybean and sorghum harvest should again get underway and be well on the way to completion. Cotton harvest, on the other hand, hasn't really had a chance to get a good start, but should be well underway this next week.

Bell pepper fields continue to be plagued by light to moderate worm infestions and some airial spraying for these pests continue to be made in some portions of the county even at this late date.

Election Nearing

The ASC Community Committee election this year will be held on December 1, 1980. Ballots will be * mailed to voters about 10 days before the election. The voted ballots must be mailed or returned in person not later than December 1.

The ASC communities in the county are known as A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, and I. You will be sent a ballot for the community in which your principal farming interest is located.

A slate of at least six nominees will be developed for the community. This letter informs you of the right to nominate candidates by petition. A blank petition suitable for this purpose is printed on the back of this letter. If you need additional petitions, you may copy this one or you can obtain more copies at the county ASCS office. Each petition submitted must be:

1. Limited to one nominee. 2. Signed by at least three eligible voters in the community. 3. Include a certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. 4. Received at the county ASCS office not later than October 27

If six or more eligible candidates are nominated by proper petition, no further nominations will be made. If less than six are nominated by petition, the present community committee will add the number of nominees needed to complete the slate of six. A person who is nominated by petition found ineligible will be so notified and given 7 days in which to appeal.

Persons nominated should be currently engaged in the operation of a farm or ranch and be well qualified for committee work. In general, a farmer is eligible to be a community committee member if the farmer lives in the community in which he/she is eligible to vote. The duties of community committee members include:

1. Informing farmers of the purpose and provisions of the ASCS programs. Keeping the county committee

4-H Achievement Banquet

Set For October 11

Floyd County 4-H Clubs have scheduled their Achievement Banquet for Saturday, October 11 at 7 p.m. in the Lockney Elementary School Cafetorium. All members and their families are urged to attend this annual event. Awards for outstanding work done in 4-H projects and leadership will be presented by County Judge Choise Smith during the ceremony.

Barbecue will be provided at the banquet, but each family will need to bring a salad or vegetable and a dessert.

Immediately following the banquet, there will be a dance at the American Legion Hall in Lockney. The cost is $2.50 per person and the public is invited.

Those planning to attend are requested to contact the County Extension Office at 983-2806.

Winter Stocker Cattle-Are They Profitable?

Whether or not producers can make money from stocker cattle this winter depends largely on how well they buy and sell the animals as well as their rate of gain.

Yet, to make sound management decisions, stocker cattle operators must know what they're up against, and that means developing a budget, points out Norman Brints of Vernon, area economist in management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Brints provides some estimates of variable cost for budgeting purposes which total $400.50 a head. These are based on grazing of wheat pasture at 25 cents per head per day, a stocking rate of two acres per head, 130 days of grazing, a 3 percent death loss and stockers grading high good. His costs include the following for a 400-pound steer: steer cost, $320; death loss, $9.60; wheat pasture, $32.50; hay, $12; medicine and veterinary costs, $3; salt and minerals, 56 cents; miscellaneous expenses, $2; hauling and marketing, $5; and interest, $15.84.

Based on these expenses (not including labor or a pickup), the economist lists the following breakeven prices per hundred pounds depending on the rate of gain per day for the 130-day grazing period: $75.56 with a 1-pound gain; $71.26 with a 1-1/4-pound gain; $67.31 with a 1-1/2-pound gain; $63.87 with a 1-3/4-pound gain; and $60.68 with a 2pound gain.

By using a breakeven price, a producer can determine the price he must receive to at least get his operating money back, notes Brints. As the rate of gain increases, the breakeven price drops.

Producers can boost the gate of gain or the stocking rate through a supplemental feed program, adds Brints. Of course, the economics of such a program depend on the price of cattle in relation to the price of feed and the amount of additional gain. Usually a high energy supplement fed at the rate of 1 percent of body weight will increase gain per had by about 1/2-pound per day. If supplement costs $150 per ton, the cost per pound of gain would be 75 cents if 5 pounds of feed is fed per head per day

As production costs continue to increase, stocker producers need to consider several factors in making sound management decisions. Excluding the calf purchase price, interest rate and cost of pasture are the two key factors that influence producers' decisions for a given grazing situation, believes Brints. However, some of these factors have a greater effect on breakeven price than others.

Based on these factors, the economist offers several examples with regard to the variable costs mentioned earlier and a rate of gain of 1-1/2 pounds per head per day to increase the breakeven price by one cent per pound:

--interest rate must increase by 5 percent

-pasture cost must increase by $3 per acre.

--cost of pasture paid on an in-weight basis must increase by 35 cents per hundredweight per month.

Having a good handle on operating costs and how they affect profitability is a key to a successful stocker cattle operation, contends Brints,

Additional Comments

The questionaire provided the businessmen with the same opportunity that residents of the city had when the last page of the survey was left for comments that the merchants felt were appropriate.

One merchant responded, "We need better police protection, especially night patrol to help prevent burglaries-possibly combining city and sheriffs forces under one command."

"A second bank could stimulate some new investment in businesses in Floydada," wrote another.

So, what do the businessmen believe are areas that need to be looked at and improved? The overall responses were: another bank, general city cleanup, more doctors, the city out of the light business, more apartments or rent houses, recreational activities, city renovation, street repair and make the town wet.

This last comment about making the town wet was interesting, because at the time of the survey it was hot and very dry. One person said that they were sure that a good rain was what

Car/train crash fatal to Plainview woman

A Plainview school teacher, Helen Frances Reese, was fatally injured in Lockney Wednesday when the car she was driving collided with a train.

Mrs. Reese, 52, was pronounced dead on arrival at Central Plains Regional Hospital about 5:30 p.m. by a hospital physician.

A Department of Public Safety officer who investigated the accident said Mrs. Reese was driving alone eastbound on FM 97 about 4:40 p.m. and was struck by a Fort Worth and Denver train as her vehicle crossed railroad tracks on the western edge of town.

After being hit, the officer said Mrs.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor.

Floydada High School Homecoming. 1980 has come and gone. The fun and excitement of the entire happening was most memorable

The coverage given the events and activities of homecoming by your paper was more than the extra mile. Congratulations on having a big part in helping everyone know everything that was to happen.

A special thanks to those who worked so hard in seeing that the events were well planned and thought through. As far as I could tell, everyone who attended Homecoming was very glad they did! I know several "locals" who worked extra hard in getting tables set up for Saturday's lunch. Many, many other "locals" did a tremendous job in seeing to it that everyone had a great time. Thanks "locals"!

The rain did not dampen our spirits at all. It is always great to visit Floydada, especially during homecoming. Why don't we have homecoming every two years, rather than four? With more than 1,000 or so registering this year, surely the Chamber of Commerce would promote the idea along with a lot of us that enjoyed seeing old friends again

The credit for coverage of the Homecoming events goes to Judy Allen. She wrote stories, compiled lists, and got everything to us ahead of dead-line. Working with her was a real pleasure. Editor

Taylor re-elected to board

Junior Taylor was re-elected to the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation Board Tuesday night. The election was held at Producers Elevator in Cedar Hill at 8 p.m. Taylor will represent zone 2 for the next five years, zone 2 is the northeast part of Floyd County.

Taylor was appointed to the Board in the spring of 1978 to fill the unexpired term of the late Gerald Lackey for zone 3. Taylor served as director for zone 2. At that time, zone boundaries were changed and were approved by the State Soil and Water Conservation Board and Taylor was appointed as director to fill Purcell's unexpired term for zone 2.

The board of directors then appointed Leslie Nixon Jr. as director for zone 3. Zone 3 consists of an area bounded by the Cedar Hill highway on the north, Matador highway on the south and the west boundary is the Silverton highway.

The purpose of the Floyd County SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has the authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purpose.

In Texas there are 200 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have the powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the districts are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

uniting Jana Kim King and Mark Steven Cannon of Tulia was held Saturday October 4 in the First Baptist Church Chapel of Tulia. Rev. Charles Davenport, paster of the First Baptist Church in Tulia, performed the 6:00 ceremony

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Gene King of Tulia and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Cannon of Floydada.

Adorning the chapel was a gold archway with white silk mums, greenery, blue ribbons and wedding bells hanging from the center. At the front, on each side was a pedastal with a bouquet of white mums. To either side were gold candelabra with greenery, blue bows and seven candles. The families pews had blue bows marking them. Registering guests was Carmyn Edwards, of Tulia, and escorting them to their seats were Kevin King and Max Jones, both from Tulia. Candlelighters were Shawn Perez and Jill Edwards also of Tulia.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a dress of all over Chantilly lace with long fitted Bishop sleeves, high neckline and sheer yoke outlined with satin ribbon. A bouffant skirt of layered ruffles edged in satin ribbon formed a chapel length train. She wore a lace hat with illusion gathered at the back.

Following tradition, for something old the bride wore her grandmother's wedding band, a new aquamarine and diamond pendant, she borrowed her grandmother's diamond earrings and wore the blue garter.

Her bouquet consisted of white silk daisies, dark green ivy and baby's breath. Lorene Luper of Brown-open house. Preston Watson, principal and the faculty would like to express their appreciation to all the interested parents and friends of the community who took their time to come. Besides the work of the students, the library was a place of interest. The library has been expanded to twice its size and is now a media and video center. Also our new P.E. dressing rooms were open for the public to see. This year the halls are being decorated with art work of the students. The art theme will be changed about every nine weeks.

Sixth grade students registered guests, helped in the library, and served refreshments.

Local Women Attend The 1980 Churchwomen's Conference

Worth Howard, Floydada, and Dona Winter, Lockney, attended the 1980 Churchwomen's Conference for the Doicese of Northwest Texas in Amarillo September 26-27.

The two day conference was held at the Episcopal Conference Center located on the Lee Bivins ranch. Speaker at the conference was the Rev. Robert D. Hughes. He has a P.H.D. from the University of the Old South in Swanee, Tennessee. It is a private liberal arts institution owned by the Protestant Episcopal Church. The conference theme was "The Image of Jesus in the Gospel According to St. John. 'Learning to meditate on scripture was beautifully led by Dr. Hughes," Worth Howard said, "The Episcopal Church women of the Diocese were given a spiritual bouquet to be taken away and shared with all we meet.

FLOYD DATA

Mrs. W.A. Lovell, the former Maggie Creed, has just returned from a trip to the Creed Family Reunion, in Ashland, Alabama. There were about fifty family members present. Those from Texas were Mrs. Lovell, her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Bates, Henry Bates, and niece, Marie Lowe.

Mrs. Lovell along with a troup of Creeds visited home sites in adjoining counties and also visited the birthplace of Mrs. Lovell, which was Heflin, Alabama.

Coach's Comments

"It's back to the drawing board," commented Coach L.G. Wilson after Friday night's game with Littlefield. "There's not many pluses to come out of a game when you've been beaten that Wilson described it as the worse defeat the Whirlwinds have had since I've been coaching." He went on to say that it was brought on by "our inability, plus we were playing a real fine ball club." When a team plays a good ball club their mistakes are always magnified and 'we made plenty of those.'

"We felt like the boys were truly hurt because they did not perform up to their standard." he added that he expected the boys to bounce back and play better football as we go into district.

He felt that we are fortunate to have an open date this week so that the players and coaches can regroup and start a NEW SEASON.

Worried About How You'll Look With A Hearing Aid?

Chicago, Ill.-A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

True, all hearing problems are not alike . . . and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

"Thunderbirds" To Appear In Lubbock

Plans continue to be made for the 1980 aerial demonstration by the U.S. Air Force 'Thunderbirds'' October 12 at Reese Air Force Base. Gates to the base will open at p.m. with pre-show activities beginning at 2:30. Letters of invitations have been sent to area school superintendents and some local churches inviting them to bring buses full of people from their organization to the base for the event. Air Show planners stated that those groups bringing buses wouldn't find themselves in a traffic jam before and after the show like they would if they came by car. The Thunderbird activities will begin with a precisely choregraphed launch ceremony. Once airborne, the team will perform for 30 minutes demonstrating complete rolls, loops, dives and fly through and under other formations. This, combined with a sharp appearance, descriptive narration, vivid paint schemes and trailing smoke transforms an ordinary flight exhibition into an exhilarating Thunderbird aerial ballet.

Such precision cannot be accomplished by the daredevil or stunt flier. It comes from hours of practice, discipline and sacrifice. Today's airspace is rigidly controlled and monitored with sophisticated computers and radar tracking equipment. Strict regulations are enforced, with the safety of the spectators and crews of prime consideration. The aerial demonstrations performed by the team are variations of maneuvers which have proven to be successful in actual combat situations. Every U.S. Air Force pilot has been taught variations of these same aerial combat tactics. Everyone is invited to attend the show. Schools, churches or civic groups desiring to bring a bus are welcomed to do so. Parking arrangements for the buses can be made by calling the Public Affairs Division at Reese. The number is (806) 885-3843. If possible, please call by October 3.

Class Of '62 Sets Date For 20th Reunion

members.

Members of the 1962 graduating class of Floydada High School met in the home of Melvin and Janet Boren Lloyd for a class reunion on September 27. Class members enjoyed renewing old friendships and visiting with each other.

In an informal business meeting conducted by Max Campbell, the class members present discussed having a 20th class reunion in 1982. It was decided that the best time would be the weekend of July 4 since it will fall on Sunday and Monday will be an official holiday

Those present then voted to hold the reunion in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area and appointed Rick Holland of Irving, Kit Zimmerman Huller of Dallas and Margaret Nash Irby of Duncanville to work out details for lodging and activities.

Class members who live in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area are urged to contact one of these persons so that they will know how many will be willing to help with the arrangements.

Linda Lutrick Matsler and Janet Lloyd will be sending a letter to all class members with more information in the near future.

The class also took up donations to help with the expenses of mailing letters to

> Floyd County Insurance Agency Jerry Cooper LOUKNEY

Much of the production in our company is instigated from the efforts of two or three highly productive men. Realizing this fact, one of the measures I am considering taking is some type of "key man" insurance. Can you shed some light on this subject?

It is good business for a company to insure against the loss of its most valuable assets, the services of its key men. In determining an employee's value three methods are frequently used: 1) by his contribution to earnings, 2) by the salary test and 3) by measuring the productive difference . . . the difference between the key man and his replacement. Using these methods, a company can determine its potential financial loss. This potential financial loss can be lessened by a life insurance policy owned and purchased by the company on the life of each key man. The company pays the premiums and

Floyd County Library Receives Representative Eight Book Gift From Foundation

one of over 300 public and school libraries in the state State Comptroller Bob Bulchosen to receive a gift of lock announced he is sending eight books from the Amon a representative from his Carter Museum in Fort Worth

The gifts were made possible by a grant from a private Dallas foundation. The museum undertook a similar program in the mid-70's under a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities house, Room 104 from 9:00 said that they were pleased to be able to share the programs of the museum, as represented by the books, with such a large number of libraries

The books cover a wide range of American art, history, and photography. All exhibitions that chronicle appeared at the museum and other institutions thoughout the country. The Amon Carter Museum opened in 1961 and is devoted to the "west-

The Floydada Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $75.00 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the Department's work on the property of James A. Colston The money will be used for their purchase of equipment. The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them The Insurance Company believes fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and more importantly, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department in their program.

as well as medical and liabi lity insurance.

A.S.S.E. will furnish training and materials and will assist in finding host families. Representatives will recieve approximately $125.00 for each student they are responsible for.

This is a unique opportunity to share in the culture and customs of other countries and to promote understanding in the local community.

soaking, measured 31/2 inches in our community last week. What's the weather for this fall? Well, from the museum column in the Foard County News at Crowell is an old German weather observation:

"An old Coryell County farmer, Arthur Krause, whose parents came to Texas from Germany in the 1880's, had a formula whereby he could tell if his parched tinder-dry land was due to three more months of drouth.

A legacy left by his parents was the old family weather lore, the traditions and beliefs that often defy scientific explanation. Sometimes scoffed at, many of them have an amazing high

"We bought a house a few years back, and it had a heat pump in it. I was very satisfied with it and simply decided to have it put in our new home here. The reason I like the heat pump is because it is efficient, simple and clean ... you don't have to fuss with any change over from heating and cooling. I was given projected operating costs of the heat pump in both homes by Southwestern Public Service. And, in every month since I've had the heat pump, my actual monthly operating costs have been considerably lower than the estimated projections. So, consequently I've been very pleased. I would definitely recommend the heat pump to my friends or anyone else because in my opinion, it is a good
