Vital signs clinic important class

Monday, March 1, is the date for the vital signs class on blood pressure. The class will be held in the meeting room of the county agriculture building at the courthouse square at 1:00 p.m. The class is open to the public and is free.

This is a valuable skill to learn when your doctor recommends that you monitor your blood pressure at home. Instructors for the class will be Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Marquis, and Mrs. Q.D. Williams.

The class will be held in the meeting room of the county agriculture building at the courthouse square at 1:00 p.m. The class is open to the public and is free.

Area residents should call the Extension Service Office at 983-2806 to register for the class and also come by the office to pick up the free workbook if they would like to preview the book before the class.

The vital signs blood pressure instruction is a planned service to the area of the Floyd County Red Cross Chapter.

Part of the late collection is due to the fact that the statements did not get sent out until the first part of December.

School continues discount

Floydada Independent School District reports that the 1% discount on property taxes will be allowed on 1980 taxes until February 2.

Only five more days remain for citizens to file for school board election. So far only one, June Ware, has filed. Two places are open and one unexpired term.

Irrigation meeting planned

Lighthouse Electric Cooperative is sponsoring a second annual irrigation forum, Tuesday, March 3, at the Massie Activity Center, 513 W. Georgia in Floydada. The meeting will begin with registration and coffee at 9:30 a.m., with the program beginning at 10:00 a.m., followed by lunch at 12:00 noon.

Featured speakers will be Dr. Bill Lyle of Ralls. Dr. Lyle is actively engaged in farming and has worked extensively on better water application methods at the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station, Halfway, Texas.

Leon New, Ag Engineer with the Extension Service, will present results of pump efficiency tests that have been conducted during the past year in the area counties.

Members of Lighthouse are encouraged to attend and should contact the Floydada office for a reservation.

The Floyd County Jr. Livestock show will wind down tonight with the annual banquet at Lockney School Cafetorium in Lockney.

For the first time in memory, Floydada breeders walked away with top honors in all three classifications.

This could have put a strain on the buyers since the top sales all came out of the one town. It could have taken money away from the exhibitors further on down the line, but buyers held the sale up very well.

Grand Champion Barrow was a heavy weight Hampshire shown by Keith Hancock. Keith's father, Tommy, is the new Ag teacher at Floydada High School.

The reserve champion was also a heavy weight Hampshire shown by Brad McNeill.

Bob Skaggs, Pampa, was judge. He is an Ag teacher.

In the lamb category, Garland Easter took the Grand Champion honors with a heavy weight Suffolk.

Marty Covington took reserve with his Suffolk Breed Reserve Champion. A former Ag. teacher, Calvin Helm of Winters was judge.

The Grand Champion Steer was a heavy weight cross shown by Chris Fulton.

Mark Nutt took Reserve with the only medium weight winner of the show, a cross.

County Agent Bob Benson from Colorado City was the judge.

The show classifier was Gary Stanford who is a County Agent from Jones County.

The barns were full as 20 more hogs and 30 more sheep came in than last year. The same amount of steers were shown.

Full report of the County Show will be in next week's Beacon and Hesperian. Staff of both papers need some time to get photos and results together.

First local show deemed a success

The first local Jr. Livestock Show in Floydada proved an important event in terms of practice for the exhibitors.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce the six hour show was judged by Edwin Dubose, who has taught animal science at Abilene Christian University for 16 years.

He placed Marty Covington's Suffolk at Grand Champion and Shannon Shurbert's Hampshire at Reserve.

In the barrows it was a heavy weight Duroc shown by Kristy Dawdy that took Grand Champion. Reserve Champion was a Hampshire shown by Clay Lowrance.

Dusty Burleson's crossbred steer took the Grand Championship. Reserve honors went to Mark Nutt's medium-weight cross.

Three club sweethearts who helped show officials were: Karen Pruitt, 4-H Sweetheart; Shelley Bearden, F.F.A. Sweetheart; and Mysti Younger, F.F.A. Plowgirl.

Showmanship awards were given to Mitch Ross in the steer showing; Garland Easter in the barrow class; and Monty Williams in the lamb showing.

Photos of the Champion winners are in the First National Bank ad on page two of this issue. Complete wrap-up of the show will run in next week's Hesperian.

Lady of the year award ready

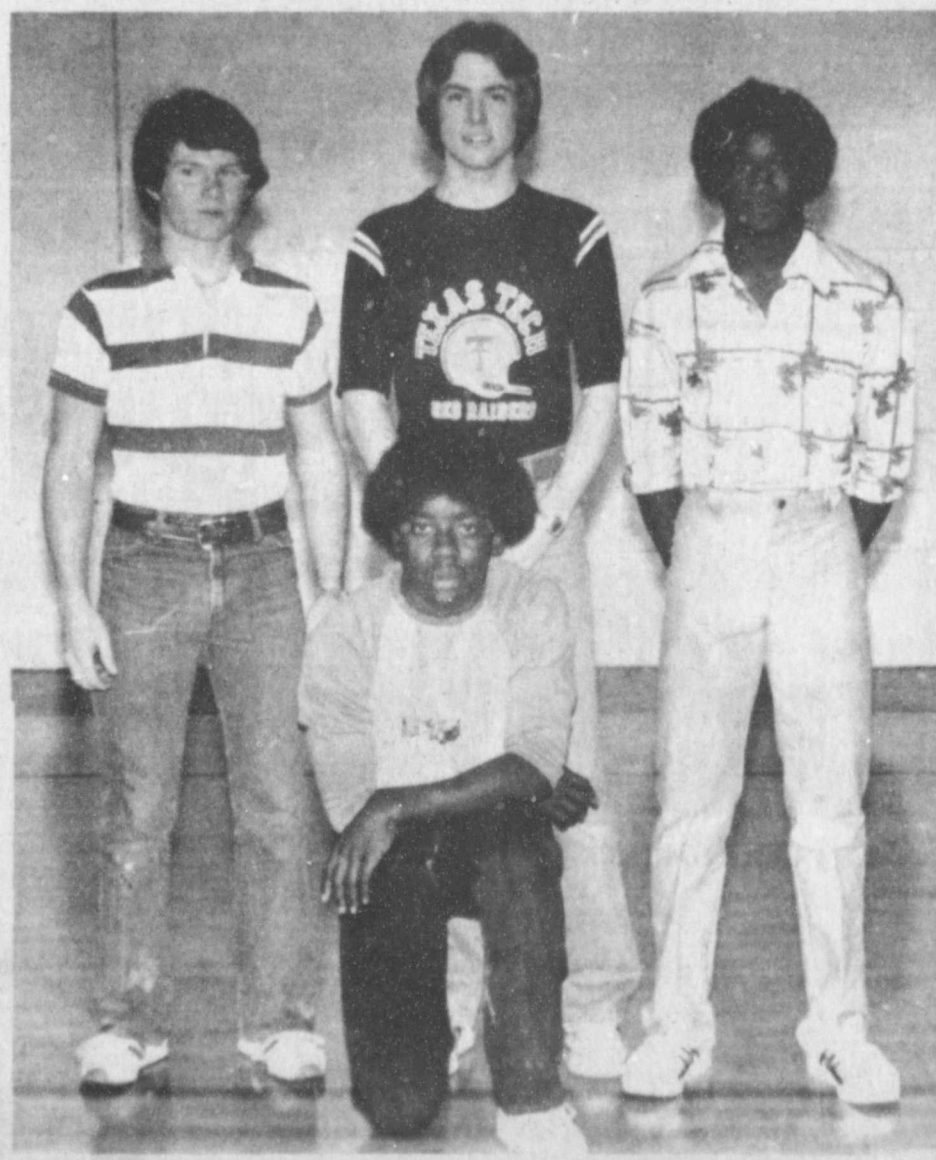

The Alpha Mu Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is sponsoring the Annual "First Lady of the Year" award, which is recognized through the International Offices of Beta Sigma Phi in Kansas City, Missouri.

Nominations are being sent in by each of the women's organizations in Floydada. The women nominated should be of high character, qualified and recognized in their field and an asset to this area.

If you know of a woman who is worthy of this honor send your nomination to: First Lady of the Year Duffy Hinkle Star Rt. Box 17 Floydada, Texas 79235

If you are sending a nomination in please include the woman's position held, qualifications, and why you think she should be "First Lady of the Year." These letters are very important because they will be judged by a sister sorority not familiar with the Floydada community.

Nominations must be postmarked no later than March 23, 1981.

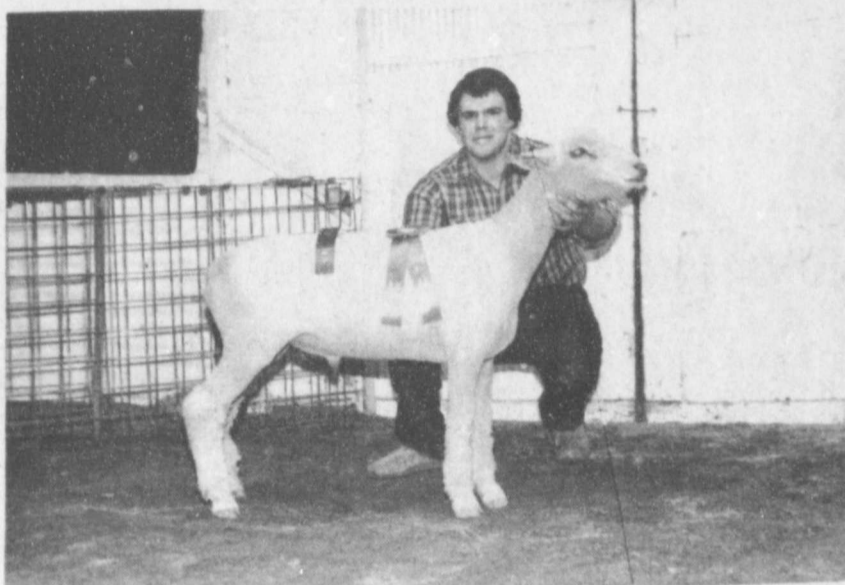

FLOYDADA WHIRLWINDS receiving district recognition were [kneeling] Donnell Weeks, Sophomore, who made All-District. He averaged 11 points per game and 4 rebounds a game. He had a total of 312 points for the year. Receiving Honorable Mention were [l-r] Mike Self, Senior; Carlos Rainwater, Junior; and Andra Ledbetter, Senior.

Dope on drugs

BY SUNNY MCDONALD
 This week's article dwelt upon the dangers of marijuana and drug use from the parents' War on Drugs Committee. Something positive to think about: the profile of the child least vulnerable to drug use.
 A strong family in which there is a policy on drug use and personal conviction on the part of the child.
 A strong religious conviction on the part of the child.
 A child is an independent thinker, not swayed by group or peer pressure.
 A child's parents know the parents of their friends.
 Parents stay in contact with one another to establish reasonable standards of behavior for the group.
 The parents take a very clear stand against drug use, and set a good example in their personal use of medicine and drugs—including the pills in the medicine cabinet.
 A child frequently has friends come to the home and the behavior of the child and his friends is open and normal.
 A child is busy, productive, pursuing a number of athletic, academic and personal interests.
 In summary, the child is secure, confident, knows who he is and what he stands for and has an overall good opinion about himself.

Evangelist to speak at First Assembly

EVANGELIST CHARLES RUSSELL

Evangelist Charles Russell will minister nightly March 1 through March 4 at First Assembly of God, 701 W. Missouri Street.

Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday services will begin at 10:45 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., according to the Rev. Jim Guess, pastor.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, the Rev. Russell has ministered throughout the United States, as well as three foreign countries.

He trained for the ministry at Southwestern Assemblies of God College at Waxahachie, Texas and International Bible College, San Antonio, Texas. He is often used in deliverance ministries, including healing for the body.

The Rev. Russell, and his wife, Loeta, are the parents of a daughter, Shawna Christine.

The Rev. Jim W. Guess extends a warm welcome to the public to attend each service.

As a community project, a group of Floydada High School and Jr. High boys built the new restrooms at the County Stock Barn in time for this year's show.

The class is the VEH Construction trades under the instructorship of Clar Schacht.

The boys, who do woodworking, chose this as a special interest 4-H project.

Approximately 180 man hours were used during the months of December and January to complete the work.

The class is conducted at Della Plains and involves four Jr. High and nine high school students.

Schools jump rope for heart fund

Students in Floydada schools and at South Plains will jump rope to raise funds for the American Heart Association in a Jump Rope for Heart scheduled for March 7th for Jr. High students and 18, 19, and 20th for Duncan and March 17th for Andrews Ward students.

The three-hour event will feature students who will jump rope as members of six person teams. Each team member will jump until tiring and then pass the rope to another team member. The sequence is repeated for a maximum of three hours.

Prior to the event, each participant will collect pledges from family, friends, and neighbors on each minute their team jumps. Following the event, the student will return to sponsors with a verified report and collect the pledges. These pledges will then be turned in to the Jump Rope for Heart coordinator and forwarded to the local American Heart Association.

All participants will receive a Certificate of Appreciation. Students who turn in their pledges on time will receive an official Jump Rope for Heart T-shirt. Each member of the team raising the most money, over $200, at their school will receive a warm-up suit. And the individuals turning in $100 or more and not members of the winning team will receive a windbreaker.

"The kids really get excited over this. More than the prizes, they get a real sense of satisfaction from helping people," said Lynn Marler, president of the Floyd County division of the American Heart Association in Texas.

"Everyone is encouraged to pledge to these kids because this will be our main money making project this year," Vickie Rainer, Jump Rope for Heart coordinator, said.

Each school participating also competes for statewide prizes. The top three elementary schools have a chance to win springboards, tumbling tables, vaulting horses, horizontal bars, tumbling mats, and other gymnastic equipment, based on the highest amount raised per student, according to the school's average daily enrollment.

A nine-station Universal gym unit will go to the junior or senior high school in Texas raising the most money. The physical education department of the college or university raising the most money will receive a $1,000 gift.

Ramaekers-Rainwater exchange double-ring marriage vows

Double-ring wedding vows were exchanged by Sharon Ramaekers and Randy Rainwater in a ceremony conducted by Rev. James Sonderman, at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers of Umbarger are parents of the bride. She is a graduate of Canyon High School and West Texas State University.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rainwater of Dougherty. He is a graduate of Floydada High School and farms south of Dougherty.

For the nuptial service, selections included "Theme From Ice Castles", "Today", "Wedding Song" and "Our Father" with the bride's sisters, Elaine Scott and Debbie Wiecek, as vocalists. Organist was Mrs. Don Dolle and Robert Byrd played guitar accompaniment.

Bouquets of large white mums, pink carnations and red roses accented the altar. A unity candle garland with greenery, was tied with pink and burgundy ribbons completing the decor.

Escorted and presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white organza and Venice and Chantilly lace with a Victorian neckline. A ruffle of Chantilly lace, circled with a band of Venice lace, complemented the collar and delicate embroidery accented the V-shaped yoke that was outlined with a matching lace ruffle and scattered with pearls and sequins. The sheer Bishop sleeves were adorned with vertical lace and gathered onto lace edged cuffs. The sheer A-line skirt fell from a slightly raised waistline and was bordered with two lace edged ruffles. The top ruffle rose in back to form a bustle effect and the bottom ruffle dipped with an added back ruffle to form a chapel length train.

Her ensemble was complemented with a bridal picture hat covered with Chantilly lace and draped with illusion with silk blossom embellishment. Her cascade bouquet was an arrangement of white gardenias, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Karol Rainwater, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and bridesmaids were Linda Ramaekers, the bride's sister, Lori Novak and Marcie Bridges. They wore floor length maroon velvet dresses with V-shaped yokes in front and back of white lace and outlined with lace ruffles and fastened down the back with maroon velvet covered buttons.

The full sleeves were cuffed with white lace and fastened with maroon velvet covered buttons. Each attendant carried a nosegay of pixie carnations and white cushion mums and red roses.

Mary Ellen Ramaekers, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress styled similar to the bride's attendants and carried a white basket of pixie carnations, white cushion mums and red roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Mike Rainwater, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jerry McGuire, and the bridegroom's brothers, Andy Rainwater and Carlos Rainwater. Junior groomsmen were Blake Conrad, nephew of the bride.

Ushering were Jim Covington, Danny Colston, Mike Bean, and Morris Keele.

South Plains News

by Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, February 23rd: There was good attendance at Sunday School and church services at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning with visitors Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Camp and baby, Mandy of Idalou, present with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton. It was also good to see Mrs. Jim Roberts (Peggy) here, but we missed many others who were away for the week-end or were ill.

The Cub Scouts, Pack #1, Cub Scouts Troop #358, of South Plains will have a Blue and Gold Banquet at the South Plains Fellowship Hall of the Baptist Church, Thursday evening, February 26, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton enjoyed the visiting on Sunday in the home of their granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy and Shelley Camp of Idalou, with their six month old daughter, Mandy. The Camps had dinner and the afternoon here with the Uptons.

Mrs. Mamie Wood returned home this Monday from Amarillo where she spent the past week, taking care of her sister, Ruth, Mrs. Buster Dunham. Mrs. Glen Wood is going up there to stay a few days with her, as Mrs. Wood comes home. After the car accident on Christmas Eve, Mrs. Dunham has had a hard climb back to health.

Sterling and Gleyne Earle Cummings have been spending time with their mother, Mrs. Z.C. Cummings, who is in the Lockney General Hospital since last Tuesday. We hope to hear she is better this week.

John Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings, assisted last week with the installation of the new members of the Lockney Honor Society.

Many from our community went to the Lockney Co-Op, at the South Plains Gin on Wednesday, February 18th, at the noon hour and enjoyed a luncheon meeting with a fish fry, and later Gary Kennedy, with CIBA-GEIGY, gave information on sprays for weeds, and grasses.

We are sorry to hear of the illness and death of a former South Plains resident, Mrs. Maggie Davis of Kilgore, who died on February 11, Wednesday, after a short illness. The family has been living in Kilgore since 1980, and funeral services and interment were held there on Saturday, 2:00 p.m. at the Raider Funeral Home Chapel with Baptist preacher, Rev. Marshall Taylor officiating. Maggie's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dock Jones now of Floydada. Frank Jones, stationed in the Armed Services in Frankfurt, Germany was here for his sisters funeral. Peggy Jones Hinsley and Bob Jones are sister and brother of Mrs. Maggie Davis.

C.V. Blake, son of former pastor of the South Plains Baptist Church, Rev. Fred and Genet Blake, of Winston, Arkansas has gone to Slaton, where he is minister of music and youth activities at the First Baptist Church. He was formerly at O'Donnell at the First Baptist Church. The Blakes youngest daughter, Atha Blake, is in Wayland this winter attending college classes there.

We offer our sincere sympathy to Sandra and Zach Cummings in the death of Sandra's grandmother, Mrs. Jewell Rigdon, 88, of Lockney, who has been ill for some time and passed away Tuesday at the Lockney Care Center in Lockney, on Tuesday, February 17th, and was buried February 19th at 2:00 p.m. in the Lockney Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure received word last week of the sudden passing of her nephew, Carroll Griffin, who passed away on Monday, February 16th, in Las Vegas, Nevada. He was employed there as building contractor. There were memorial services in Riverside, California. We offer our sympathy to Mrs. McClure and family.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham had week-end guests and visitors in her home over the past week-end, as Friday her brother, Warren Cybert of Austin flew in to Lubbock, and she met him and brought him here for the week-end. That night she had supper guests here in her home to visit with Warren, including several cousins, other relatives and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Higginbotham and children from Floydada. Saturday her sister from Amarillo, Edith and husband, spent the night and Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Zach Cummings II have gone for a mid-winter vacation to San Antonio with a group of friends of high school days. They will return on Wednesday. Little Adam is staying with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorman of Barwise.

Mrs. Letha Mulder left Saturday for Amarillo where she went to spend the week-end with her daughter and family, the Jerry Taylors, and to help her granddaughter, Candy, celebrate her twelfth birthday on Sunday, February 22. Mrs. Mulder is expected home this Tuesday.

Athenas tour Thornton home

Athena Study Club met at the home of Kathleen Thornton, who presented a very interesting program on antiques.

A tour of her home and information on some of her prized antiques was given.

The club members presented paper goods showers to Judy Schacht, Cindy Smith, and Martha Sue Lusk.

Refreshments were served to thirteen members and one guest.

RUBY SMITH with help from Lockney students presented "The Kaleidoscope of Freedom", a festival of historic flags, to all Lockney elementary school students. Ruby and her husband Carl have been bringing their flag program to area schools for six years. Mrs. Smith described each of their 78 flags, telling its history and as much as possible about each state and how it was named.

TRIBUTE

On January 30, 1981 Arthur Womack was born in Floyd County, where he had lived most of his life. He was never a public figure, or rich or famous but he was loved by all on all who really knew him.

He loved sports and participated in them all his life. He was one of the most loyal and best fans the Whirlwinds have ever had.

He served his country in WWI, and watched his sons do the same in WWII.

He loved the people of Floyd County. He met the people he met nor was he ever too busy to give them some time. He talked to them, listened to them and laughed with them and cried with them.

He loved his family and his influence will always be felt in his children and grandchildren. He was unobtrusive, but like a pebble in a brook, reached many people.

He loved Floyd County and was always proud to be a part of it, as indeed he was a part of it. A special thank you to all of you who have made Floyd County the place we live in so much, and a special thanks to all who shared with daddy the love that made him so proud of Floyd County.

Faculty does it!

(again)

The annual faculty-senior basketball game would be an odd-better's dream. The game wasn't actually fixed in that everyone played their hardest to win. But the faculty did have an advantage.

One couldn't help but notice that not one of the Winds varsity basketball players was on the floor against what amounted to the entire coaching staff.

This oversight was even more obvious as the senior team members came out in football jerseys.

Referees for the game were Coach Chadwick and Coach Ward and the game calls were particularly challenging.

At one point Coach Cocanougher, frustrated with the way the game was going picked up the opposing team player and started down court.

Referee Chadwick blew her whistle and called a foul for traveling against Cocanougher.

Halftime entertainment was provided by the boys athletic team going through their paces on the mat. They keep in training on a year around program of fitness.

With only 45 seconds left in the game, the students began chanting, "We want Brian." Brian Emert responded to the call by pulling off his boots, rolling up his blue jeans and going into the game barefooted.

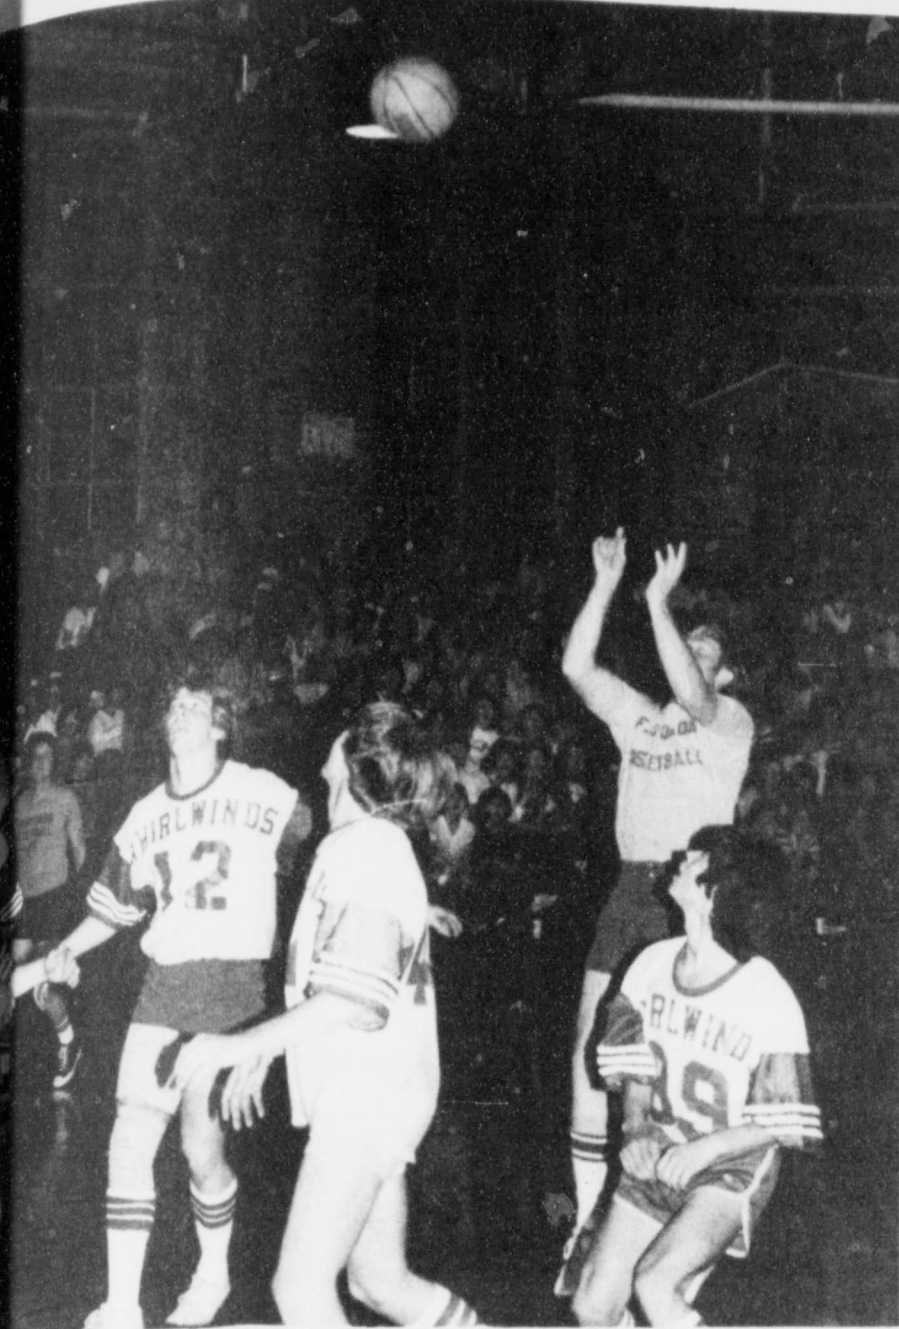

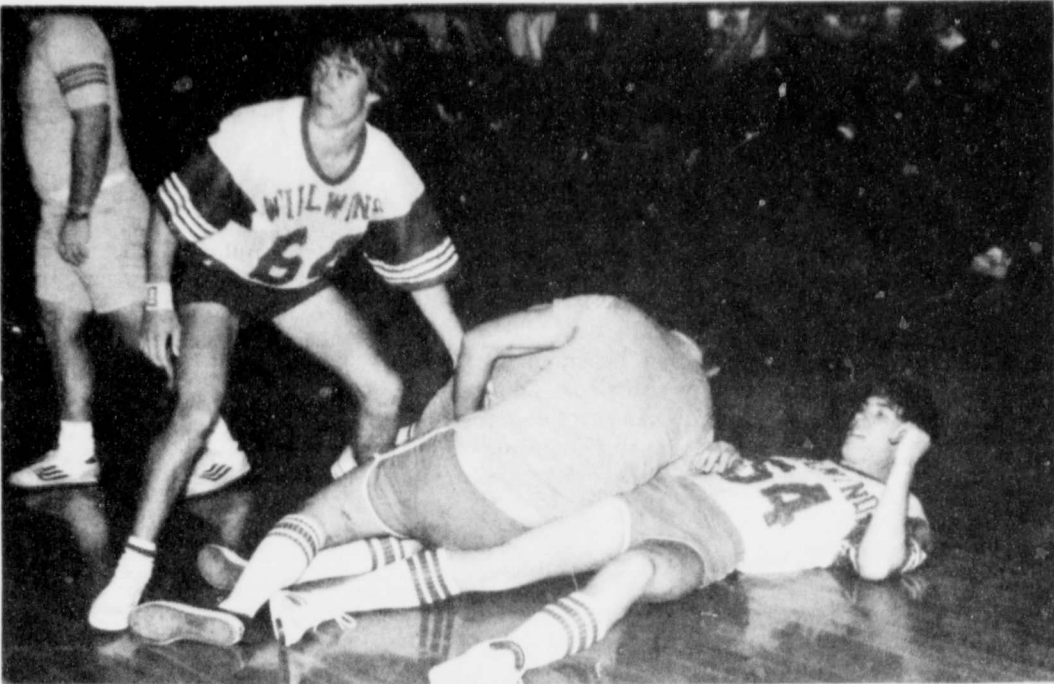

Emert, who tops 6 foot easily and 200 lbs. just as easily was pitted against Joe Willis, head of the high school speech department.

The strategy however was too late and the students lost for the 13th year in a row. No one can remember the score.

FIX-IT FACTS
Curb that impulse to paint over wallpaper! The reason: You might not want to take the paper off now, but you may in the future. Painted wallpaper is tremendously difficult to remove. However, if your circumstances require painting over the wallpaper, it will pay in final results to prepare the surface correctly for painting. First, sandpaper away any ridges or laps in the paper, and remove any paper which is loose. Where loose paper was torn away, spackle the edges, and fill all defects in the wall. Sand very lightly with a hand-held block (a power sander will roughen the paper). Apply a coat of latex sealer, check the wall for loose spots when dry, repair as above, then paint.

THE LIVING GOD

"My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God" (Psa. 42:2).
 The "God is dead" theory has little true comfort or satisfaction for men in trouble or sorrow.
 For years we supposed that the term "the living God," in the above passage, had reference to God's power to help, in contrast to the impotence of dead heathen idols. A careful examination of the context, however, leads us to believe that it has rather to do with His ability to respond. The gods of the age says nothing of this. Palestine is a dry land and entirely apart from being hunted down, a deer might well pant for streams of running water.

 Be this as it may, the stag, in this passage, is not seeking for help; he is thirsting for refreshment and so does the psalmist long for the refreshment of fellowship with God, the living God.
 How wonderful it is that we may know the living God through faith in Christ! Indeed, He bids men come into His presence and communions with Him in view of that fact that Christ died to take away the barrier of sin. This is why the Apostle Paul declares in Hebrews 10:19:

 "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which He hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, His flesh." In other words, by His death at Calvary our Lord tore away the veil that kept us from entering into God's presence, and now says: "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace . . . and find grace to help in time of need" (Heb. 4:16). Yes, God is A LIVING GOD.

heathen, by contrast, were like children's dolls; they could not even change their countenance or respond in any way.
 "The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; they have ears, but they hear not, neither is there any breath in their mouths" (Psa. 135:15,17).
 But the true God is a living God. He does see, hear and respond. The psalmist in Psalm 42 compares himself to a stag, panting with thirst. It is sometimes supposed that the scene is one of a stag pursued in the chase, but the pas-

JUDAH of Lubbock Christian College was the judge for Lockney Junior Livestock Association Show at the county fairgrounds. Judah is coach of the LCC's intercollegiate stock judging team and is an instructor of vocational agriculture.

BOB SKAGGS of Pampa was a judge in the Barrow category this week in the county stock show.

TWIN DUBOSE, who has taught animal science at Abilene Christian University for 16 years, was also a judge in the local Floydada Jr. Livestock Show this week.

Tech developing shipping fever vaccine

The incidence of shipping fever, a plague of the cattle industry and particularly feedlot operators, can be greatly reduced by a vaccine being developed at Texas Tech University.

Dr. Clarence L. Baugh, associate professor of biological sciences at Texas Tech, is doing research on a combination vaccine that combats the most common bacteria involved in the shipping fever and provides cattle a high degree of immunity against several dangerous bacteria species in one treatment.

San Angelo veterinarian Dr. W.H. Wohler is assisting in the project by providing Baugh with tissue and serum samples from feedlots throughout the state. Samples are taken from animals which have died from pasterellosis and salmonellosis, the two most common forms of shipping fever found in Texas.

Wohler often brings the samples personally from feedlots in Pecos, Hereford and other areas, travelling by plane. Baugh meets the veterinarian at the airport and quickly takes the sample to his Texas Tech lab, where he begins streaking for culture growths. By the next day he can have the shipping fever bacterium isolated.

"Wohler is getting the advantages of a laboratory, and I am getting the advantage of having somebody in the field," Baugh said.

The three main organisms the researchers are battling are Pasteurella multocida, Pasteurella hemolytica, and Salmonella typhimurium, bacteria which cause either death or significant weight loss in cattle.

Cattle become susceptible to infection by these organisms after stress, especially during shipping.

Baugh's combination vaccine contains these three bacteria, and others. Animals injected with small doses of the dead bacteria develop antibodies in their blood stream that produce immunity against later infection by those bacteria.

Field observations showed that Baugh's combination vaccine, prepared as a water in oil emulsion and injected subcutaneously, was highly successful in preventing shipping fever. The treatment reduced the incidence of the disease from 30 or 40 percent to 4 percent or less, and reduced deaths from as high as 10 percent to 0.9 percent or zero.

Baugh and Wohler have not found significant differences in the occurrence of different types of shipping fever in different parts of the state. They attribute this fact to a common source of the disease.

"Most of our cattle are coming through sale barns in the southeastern part of the United States," Baugh said. "They pick up the same diseases."

The vaccines Baugh is using are not new, the researcher pointed out, but a product that combines them in one emulsion is unique. The vaccine is being marketed only in Texas as Poly-Bac B. Texas Vet Lab, Inc., is funding Baugh's research.

Wohler and Baugh published experimental data on the shipping fever vaccine in the November 1980 issue of "Modern Veterinary Practices."

Armstrong 4-H holds farm machinery sale

Starting time is 9:30 a.m. Saturday, March 21, for the annual Armstrong County 4-H Farm Machinery Sale. This will take place at the American Legion Grounds, Claude.

Items will be many and varied, and not restricted to farm machinery. We welcome all consignments. Auctioneers will be Chester Butler, Wildon Hundley, and Bedford Forrest.

The 4-H Clubs received a small commission on all items handled. This money finances 4-H activities conducted during the year.

The 4-H girls will be operating a concession stand. Many bargains will be available. Everyone is invited.

Bargain seed is oftentimes not a good buy. Packets of seed which normally sell for 79 cents each may be offered for as little as three packages for $1.

If you have a large garden, consider buying bulk seed. Bulk seed can be purchased in small quantities and, in general, is higher quality and has a higher percent germination. Also, it's usually less expensive since the cost of packaging and the packet is not included in the price.

Whether or not this is a real bargain will depend on whether or not the seed is of high quality and will produce a good crop of vegetables.

In buying plants, again buy recommended varieties. When selecting your plants, remember the biggest plant is not always the best buy. Ideally, transplants should be about as tall as they are wide. They should be dark green in color, vigorous looking and certainly without spots, lesions or damage to the foliage. Purchase only the exact number of plants you will need according to your garden plan.

Check the seed packet to see when it was processed. Most seed packets are dated and indicate the year seed was produced. Also, make sure that sale varieties are varieties recommended for this area. Saving a little money by purchasing seed of the wrong variety certainly be reflected by lower yields at harvest-time.

Residents honored at birthday party

February 19, 1981
Party time is here again
...The month of "hearts and flowers"....
And birthdays, too, to celebrate
No matter...sun or showers!

We greet a lovely lady
...Her name is Mamie Gray....
She ALWAYS loves a party
To celebrate her "day."

Mrs. Iva Simpson
...Who dates from '93....
Is someone we can count on
To NEVER miss a "tea."

To Mr. Walter Collins
...Whose years are 92....
We wish a HAPPY BIRTHDAY and
For many others, too.

Mr. Travis Corley is
A very kindly man...
He loves to help his neighbor
Just any time he can!

To serenade these people
Let's do the birthday
"ditty"....
So get your voices tuned up
And sing out loud and pretty!

Thursday, February 19, was party time at the Rest
Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting the festivities.

Residents and guests were ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table.
Their places were marked with special birthday cards.

The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of blue flowers.

Mr. Collins had as his special guests his daughter-in-law,
Mrs. Wayne Collins, and a cousin,
Mrs. Jack Henry.

Mrs. McSwain has as her guest Mrs. Bob Kendrick.
The poem was read and all joined in singing the "birthday song."

A refreshment plate of delicious butternut cake and fruit punch was served to everyone.

The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking"
and the party ended on a happy note.

The next party will be Thursday, March 19, at 2:30 p.m. Please come and be with us.

Thank you

For the past two years the Floydada businessmen have made our residents a part of the American Heart Association drive by sponsoring the residents in a Rock and Roll Jamboree.

Not many of the residents are physically able to do much rocking or rolling. However on this day each year they put forth a special effort to do all they can to help this cause.

So from everyone at the Nursing Home to all the businessmen of Floydada thank you for your cooperation and donations of $656.50.

Mr. Guthrie places in photo contest

SECOND PRIZE WINNER—The strong structure of this ferris wheel at the Texas State Fair emphasizes on its structure. Aubrey Guthrie, of Hurst, won second prize with this photograph in the MD Magazine photo contest.

MD Magazine recently held their MD Photography Contest. 18 winning photographs were chosen from more than 1700 submissions.

Unaware of any photographer's identity, the judges were impressed with the quality, professional vision, and artistry of the many works sent in by the physicians.

Aubrey Guthrie M.D., of Hurst, won second prize in the sports and recreation category of the contest.

He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A.E. Guthrie of Floydada.

Guthrie turned in a photograph of the ferris wheel at the Texas State Fair, which emphasized on its structure.

Formerly of Floydada

Looney manages D.Q. at Lorenzo

The Lorenzo Dairy Queen opened this past week bringing to fulfillment the letter-writing campaign conducted by the citizens of this West Texas town of 1,078 population to get a Dairy Queen here.

Moreover, the nearly 100 personal letters, most signed by several people and sent to the office of Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants in Ralls, asking for a Dairy Queen to be built in Lorenzo, were framed and mounted on the walls inside the new Lorenzo Dairy Queen. Four 45 inch picture-type displays are required to exhibit the letters.

The Jones organization in Ralls was the target of the Lorenzo citizens' letter-writing campaign to get a Dairy Queen for their town because Mrs. Looney and operates the two Dairy Queens closest to Lorenzo, in Ralls and Idalou, about 15 miles to the east and 10 miles to the west, respectively, where Lorenzo is wanting Dairy Queen for drinks have been going to go in the past.

Managing the new Lorenzo Dairy Queen is a Jones Dairy Queen veteran, Mrs. Looney of Ralls, who has worked for the firm in Ralls, and has since previously managed three other Jones Dairy Queens, the Wilbarger DQ restaurant in Vernon, the Crosbyton Dairy Queen and, most recently, the Ralls Dairy Queen. She was promoted to manager of one of the two Jones Dairy Queens in Vernon in 1974, just 13 months after joining the firm, then headed its Crosbyton DQ from June, 1975, to 1976, and the one at Ralls from June, 1976, to November, 1979.

Further, during her previous six years with the Jones organization, she served for a time, on two occasions, as district manager, as well as managing an individual Jones Dairy Queen. Also, Mrs. Looney is known in the Jones organization as the manager who has trained the most new managers for Jones and his wife, Sue, who are the second largest private operators of Dairy Queen restaurants in the United States.

Among the more than a score of managers she has trained for them is her husband, Pete Looney, when he joined the Jones organization after she did, and he is now one of the two vice presidents of Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants. After he had become an executive of the Jones organization, she left the company to start her own business in ceramics, the Hobby Shop, in Ralls.

But, now, the coming of the Lorenzo addition to the Jones organization, has brought her back into the Dairy Queen business. "I previously enjoyed working for the Jones' Dairy Queens so much that I simply could not resist the opportunity Hollis and Sue offered me to open and become the first manager of this new Dairy Queen in Lorenzo," she said.

The Lorenzo restaurant became the 27th Dairy Queen owned and operated by the Joneses, who have another under construction in Groom, which is expected to open later this month as their 28th. In addition, Jones is the managing partner of two other Texas Dairy Queens which he has leased to an associate to operate.

Hence, in total, Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants is a company encompassing 30 Texas Dairy Queens.

Twelve full- and part-time workers have already been employed to staff the new Lorenzo Dairy Queen, according to Mrs. Looney, as its manager. She, of course, will continue to live in Ralls with her husband, Pete, and family and will commute to Lorenzo to manage the new Dairy Queen.

A native Texan, born in Saint Jo in Montague County near Nocona, Mrs. Looney has spent most of her life in the immediate area of the Panhandle, where she now lives and works, and attended high school at Floydada. She and her husband have five children.

Three are adults, two sons, Edward, a staff sergeant stationed at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and Anthony, who has enlisted in the Army and will begin his service in May, and a daughter, Karen, now Mrs. Gordon Schulz of Vernon. The other two are also sons, William, 16, and Peter, 15, and both are students at Ralls High School.

Her husband, Pete, was just installed Saturday night as president of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce. Hence, this past week included another major event for the Looneys, in addition to the opening of the Lorenzo Dairy Queen. The Looneys, incidentally, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last July 11, 1980.

All the rice in China may be going to buy U. S. wheat. When the final figures are in, U. S. D. A. experts who predict that China may "nudge" its way into the top ten U. S. markets for farm goods may have predictably red faces. It seems that China may well end up the third or fourth leading market for U. S. goods, with the October signing of the first trade agreement between the U. S. and China adding a tremendous leap to the upward climbing graph. Six to nine million tons of U. S. wheat are part of that bargain with China, which experienced a considerable crop shortfall in 1980 due to dry planting weather and below normal temperatures. That estimate places China's wheat production down 5.5 million tons from its 1979 mark of 60.5 million tons. A government plan for gradual expansion of livestock and poultry production to increase domestic consumption of meats has added additional pressure to China's grain needs. Any move in this direction could mean larger Chinese grain imports in the future.

Death cause preventable

What will be the number one cause of death in Texas for 1981?

Will it be cancer, or homicides, or how about automobile accidents? "None of these," claims Dr. C.R. Allen Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Health's Chronic Disease Division.

Dr. Allen says that according to the latest available 1979 statistics, heart disease kills more Texans than cancer, accidents and homicides combined.

"Many cardiovascular deaths are preventable," says Dr. Allen. "Take heart attacks, for example. Each year about 10,000 Americans died needlessly from heart attack because they don't seek medical attention early enough, according to the American Heart Association."

Dr. Allen said the average person waits three hours from the time of the first symptom before seeking medical attention. He stressed that the first few hours are critical. "If each person would place himself or herself under the competent medical surveillance within one hour after the onset of symptoms, needless deaths could be prevented," he said.

"Even though a heart attack may come suddenly, the underlying causes may have been developing over the years. The heart is a muscle pumping blood to the rest of the body — and just like any other muscle, it needs some of that blood for its own nourishment."

Coronary arteries supply the heart with the nourishment that it needs. But sometimes the arteries become narrowed, roughened and eventually blocked with fatty deposits and cholesterol. This is called arteriosclerosis and this coronary artery disease has been compared to the formation of lime deposits that build up in a water pipe.

When the arteries get too narrow, or a clot is formed, the blood flow to the heart is blocked off entirely and that part of the heart dies. Doctors call this condition a coronary thrombosis, coronary occlusion, or a myocardial infarction.

Symptoms of heart attack vary, but these are the usual warning signs: (1) prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone. (2) Pain that may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw. (3) Pain or discomfort that is often accompanied by sweating, nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath. (4) Sometimes these symptoms may subside and then return.

Dr. Allen says "prevention" is a word often heard today in the medical discussion of heart attacks. There are things that can be done — starting early in life — to help prevent heart attacks in later years. These may be related to proper diet, exercise, and proper rest.

Extensive clinical and statistical studies of family medical histories, physical conditions and life styles have identified several factors associated with an increased risk of heart attack and stroke. Among these factors are heredity, sex, age, race, cigarette smoking, high blood pressure, elevated blood cholesterol, diabetes, stress and lack of exercise," said Dr. Allen.

Studies have documented the significance of the major risk factors in heart attack and stroke. They also have shown that the danger increases with the number and severity of risk factors — the more risk factors present or the greater the degree of abnormality of any factor, the greater the risk.

Emphasis in the past few years — from state and national levels — has been placed on high blood pressure. It is a silent, mysterious killer with no characteristic symptoms. More often than not, the cause may remain unknown although in most cases high blood pressure can be controlled.

"High blood pressure adds to the workload of the heart and arteries," says Dr. Allen. "If it continues for a long time, there is increased risk of stroke, heart failure, kidney failure and heart attack."

Dr. Allen says the Texas Department of Health currently has high blood pressure screening programs in public health regions and in local health departments. The purpose of these programs is to find people with high blood pressure and refer them to their private physicians.

For more information, contact Dr. C.R. Allen, Jr., Texas Department of Health, 1100 West 49th Street, Austin, Texas 78756.

Sewing contest to feature natural fibers

The "South Plains Fibers - Naturally" Sewing Contest will be one of several featured events of Agricultural Awareness - Appreciation Week. The purpose of this activity is to promote Texas natural fibers - cotton, wool, mohair, and to emphasize elements of good clothing construction, homesewing and fashion. It is sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and the Food and Fiber National Institute of Achievement in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Skills in homesewing and fashion will earn rewards for the top contestants in a new contest "South Plains Fibers - Naturally" at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center on March 26.

The competition will have three divisions: young teens (grades 6-8), teen (grades 9-12), and adult.

Eligible garments must be made from a fabric that is all cotton or wool or mohair, or from a fabric that is a blend containing at least 50 percent cotton or wool or mohair.

For example, a fabric of 70 percent cotton and 30 percent polyester is eligible. Mohair may count with wool toward the 50 percent minimum wool percentage. Thus a fabric containing 30 percent wool, 20 percent mohair, and 50 percent acrylic would be eligible, as an example.

Accessories such as blouses, trim, and inner construction fabrics are excluded from this requirement. Contestants are eligible to enter one ensemble that has been made in the last three months. Single items such as pants only, a skirt, or shorts only are not considered a complete ensemble.

The entries will be judged on construction as it affects the overall appearance, compatibility of fabric and design, quality of work, creativity, overall appearance, accessories, becomingness, fit, poise, and representation of current fashion trends.

A panel of judges will determine first, second, and third place winners in each of the three divisions. Winners will receive cash awards and will be introduced at the March 26th Food and Fiber National Institute of Achievement Taste of Texas. All contestants will receive participation certificates.

Entry forms may be obtained from Lubbock area homemaking teachers and county Extension agents, or by contacting the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Box 561, Lubbock, Texas 79408, 806-763-4666.

Completed entry forms must be returned to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce to be received by March 13.

The contest will begin at 8:30 a.m. on March 26. A public review of contestants and announcements of winners will be featured at 2:00 p.m. in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Theatre.

SOUTH PLAINS PLAZA, a condominium for independent retirement, will be having their grand opening Sunday, March 1, in Lubbock. Approximately 160 units will be available with one or two bedrooms, bath, kitchen, living room, walk-in closets and balcony. 24-hour security and a registered nurse will also be available.

Tech hosts media workshops

"Mass Communications - It's Your Business." That is the theme of Mass Communications Week 1981 to be held at Texas Tech University February 23-27.

The week is an annual event sponsored by the mass communications students, and supported by local and state business.

This year's theme was selected to emphasize the fact that the mass communications industry is just that, an industry. Besides providing basic information for the public, mass communications must also function as a business.

Strange gets lead in Rainmaker

Rick Strange, son of Mrs. R.L. Crawford of Childress and formerly of Floydada, is playing the lead role in HSU's production of "The Rainmaker", which opened February 24 and will run through Saturday, February 28.

Set in 1928, the story revolves around schemes to marry off 27-year-old Lizzie, played by Mary Carter. The old-maid character is a mixture of practicality and dreams, allowing a newcomer, Starbuck, to bring reality to her fantasy.

Starbuck, played by Rick is "the epitome of the con man," said Betty Hukill, guest director of the play. "He knows how to sell them a story," she said, and he promises the one thing the town needs—rain.

The Rainmaker opened Tuesday evening for a five-night run. Call HSU's Moody Center at 677-7281. Abilene, Texas for ticket information.

Retirement plaza holds open house

The grand opening of the model residence of the South Plains Plaza, a condominium for independent retirement living, will be from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday in Lubbock. Thereafter, the model will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and noon to 6 p.m. on Sundays in Lubbock at west Loop 289 between 56th and 58th streets.
