Don Williams receives key to city

Don Williams said he was overwhelmed at the warm greeting and drop off...

Susan Garms. The singer was then escorted to the County Courthouse lawn where a temporary stage had been set up.

"Others were from such notables as the president of MCA records and Don Halsey, promoter.

Mayor Powell then bestowed the "key to the city" with these words, "This ceremony, Don Williams, is an expression of a group of people who believe in you, as a man with much ability, sincerity, honesty."

Measles shots a necessity

Several outbreaks of measles have occurred this year in different parts of Texas. Because of the serious nature of the outbreaks, the Texas Board of Health adopted revisions to the measles immunization requirements.

School taxes out this week

School tax bills are being mailed Thursday and Friday of this week with the tax rate remaining the same as last year, but there is a new schedule of penalty and interest rates.

Table titled 'Schedule of Penalty and Interest Rates' with columns for DATE, PENALTY, INTEREST, and TOTAL.

Hightower Highlights

"I was disappointed the President did not present a program that would directly reduce interest rates. High interest rates are destroying our economy and making it impossible for the program we just passed to succeed."
 "I am in general agreement with the thrust of his speech, particularly with the abolition of the Departments of Education, Energy, the concept of user fees and the reduction of 75,000 federal employees. I want to now see the details of the proposals and I will base my decisions on each issue according to how they are to be implemented."
 "I was glad to hear the President call for restoration of the $122 minimum social security benefit. Congress passed and I voted for a resolution to that effect earlier this year. Cuts must not be made at the expense of the social security retirement recipient. I intend to work with the President as a Democrat in order to see that the best and fairest solution to the social security problem is found."

Nursing Home Costs

By Laverne Christian

Everyone talks about the high cost of health care these days. Let's take a look at the "high cost" of nursing homes.

Consider that a motel room now averages about $35 to $40 per day. What do you get for this price? A lovely room with two beds usually. If you stay there for more than one night, they will clean your room daily. For an extra charge, you can get your meals brought to you. (If that particular place provides that service.) You might even get some entertainment if you can pay for it!

In Floyd County you can get a private room in a nursing home for about $30 per day. What do you get for this cost? Well, you get a room that is not quite as nice as the local motel. You have your room cleaned by the housekeeping staff each day. And, if you happen to make a mess during the day that needs to be cleaned up, they will even come back to your room at no extra cost!

Nursing Assistants are on duty 24 hours a day to help you with your dressing and bathing, if you need that service. You also have a licensed nurse on duty at least 16 hours per day.

A registered dietician is on staff to be sure that your meals are always nutritious. They also prepare well balanced menus. They even will help you with that special diet that the doctor has been trying to get you to stay on! In the kitchen is also a Certified Food Service Supervisor that has gone to school to be certified by the State of Texas.

Entertainment? Well, they have hired a person that does just that! Activity Directors are there to do primarily nothing more than just keep you some type of entertainment going on all day long. (Sometimes even in the evening hours!)

Also each nursing home will have a whole army of consultants that are required by the State of Texas, to visit at certain intervals. They have Registered Nurse Consultants, Consultants for the the Activity Director, Consultants for the Dietary Department, and even a Registered Pharmacist to check the administration of all medications.

They will even have a person that is State Approved to make sure that all staff are properly trained.

Oh, something that I nearly forgot, they will even do your laundry for no extra charge. They pick up and return it to your room and properly put it away. (While you are probably at the Activities.)

If you happen to be one of those lucky folks that can get state approval, you will get all of your non-prescription medications paid for by the nursing home!

Feel bad this morning? Don't worry about it, just tell the Nurses and they will bring your breakfast to you in bed! You don't even have to get up to answer the door when they get there. And just think about it — they call nursing homes "high priced."

The Rev. Michael O'Connor's

Perspectives

At times, events get to the point where one feels like he never again would hear anymore about the events. If you are wondering what in the world I am talking about, I refer to the continuing controversy over the body of Lee Harvey Oswald.

A British author claims that the body interred under Oswald's headstone is not that of Oswald, but instead an imposter, notably a Russian agent. This is intended to lend credence to the various conspiracy theories involved with the assassination of President Kennedy.

The widow, Marina Oswald Porter, used to staunchly insist that the body was, of course, her deceased husband's and, for a long time, refused to go along with exhumation requests. Now she says she is not so sure, and the body ought to be disinterred in order to put an end to the speculation.

If there were some kind of guarantee that the controversy surrounding the deaths of the President and his alleged assassin might be resolved then it might be worthwhile to have a look in the grave. But the truth of the matter is that nothing will be resolved.

Suppose the body they were to dig up was the same man we saw Jack Ruby shoot. That would still not put down those who insist that the man who went to Russia and latter returned was in fact Oswald. Without supporting the position, I would remind you that one of the theories is that Oswald went to Russia and was replaced by a Russian agent look alike. Divergent themes off this theory place the time of the replacement both before and after his marriage, the latter making more sense.

Those people fond of conspiracy hunting will not be deterred by anything found in a grave, they will simply invent new theories. If Oswald is really buried in that grave, this will not stop the theories. If he is not there, we will be no closer to a solution to the assassination than we are now.

To everything there is a season, and the season for this whole episode, especially as a piece of "news," is long since past.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — With primary attention directed toward the economic recovery program, which will be continuing, other major issues to be addressed by Congress this year have been overlooked to some degree.

I have discussed the Omnibus Farm Bill, due to be considered by the full House either this week or next, at considerable length, but I would like to touch on some other important issues that Congress will be tackling sometime this fall or the beginning of 1982.

IMMIGRATION — Some heated battles are expected during hearings on the White House's comprehensive immigration and refugee policy during hearings expected in Congress in late September. Most controversial provisions deal with granting amnesty to illegal aliens already in the country, as well as plans to set up an experimental "guest worker" program; create penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal aliens; and enforce existing statutes more strictly.

Because Texas shares such a large border with Mexico, these proposals will be of special interest to the state and its economy, especially those aimed at stemming the flow of nearly 500,000 undocumented aliens per year into the country.

CLEAR AIR ACT — The Act comes up for renewal September 30, but could be extended in its present form until an agreement on proposed changes can be reached. The White House is seeking to ease the standards, especially those controlling emissions from cars and coal-fired plants.

Congratulations Mr. Don Sutterfield

on the first bale of cotton in the Lockney area.

The first bale of cotton was brought in by Mr. Don Sutterfield who farms 1 1/2 mile east of Lockney. The bale weighed 466 lbs. It was Mor-Cot variety.

We are ready to do the best ginning job possible on your cotton.

Social Events

Anderson reunion held September 20th

The children and grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Anderson held a family reunion September 20th at the Andrews Cafeteria.

The children attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson of Lodi, California; William Anderson, Everett, Washington; Edwin Anderson, Grand Junction, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Anderson, Tyler, Mr. and

Mrs. Otis Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anderson, all of Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Watson of Abilene, Dorothy Thompson of Lubbock and Nita Kastner of Austin. Grandchildren attending were: Tony and Julie Anderson, Tyler; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Galloway, Guy, Rusty and Robin, Floydada; Mrs. David McCulley, Jim and Joe, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson, Angie, Trent and Libby; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Leatherman, John and Ludusia, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Anderson and Monty, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Anderson and Brady, all of Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kirk and Cory and Lisa Anderson of Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Collins, Kurt and Kristal of Petersburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Thompson and Trey of Abernathy.

Other relatives attending were Mrs. Roy Fawver, Mr. and Mrs. W.N. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Fawver, Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Carthel, Casey and Cory, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dunavant and Mr. and Mrs. John Redding, Rebecca and Matthew, all of Floydada. Everyone enjoyed a day of fellowship and fun.

Colston hosts Homebuilders

Homebuilders Extension Club met September 22 in the home of Wilma Colston. Devotional was read by the hostess from Revelations 15:7.

Club president had charge of the meeting. Evelyn Latta directed a very clever game. Murl Mayfield gave a very informative program on the "Vine of Life." The vine of life is a Texas Extension Homemakers project.

The suggestion was to take a small piece of paper and write any severe allergies to medicines, or serious physical conditions, such as diabetes, and enclose this in a small vial or bottle. This information is to be taped on the inside of your refrigerator under the top shelf on the right. Place a vial of life sticker on the refrigerator door.

This will indicate the information is inside the refrigerator. The vial of life kit may be obtained by contacting extension agent Marilyn Tate.

This could be helpful to the EMS Unit or anyone who might find a person unconscious or ill and alone. A skit was given depicting an unconscious elderly diabetic. Characters were Blanche Williams, Ruth Trapp, Mattie Norrell, Lila Mae Burns and Lillian Smith. A lovely refreshment plate was served to one guest Mrs. T.T. Hamilton, and members Mrs. Eunice Hong, Murl Mayfield, Lila Mae Burns, Ruth Trapp, Lillian Smith, Mattie Norrell, Blanche Williams, Gladys Widener, Barbara Willis, Evelyn Latta and Inez Walker.

The club adjourned to meet October 27 with Barbara Willis.

L.C.C. Associates hold meeting

The Lockney L.C.C. Associates held their September meeting in the home of Alma Baxter. Tommie Williams was co-hostess.

Janie Klein, Madge Huff, Marilyn Cates, Jane Archer, visitors were DeLynn Morgan, Mrs. Baxter and Mrs. Williams.

The success of the booth at the Floyd County Fair was discussed and plans were made for participation in the South Plains Fair in Lubbock. Everyone signed up to make pies, cakes, or brownies.

Streamers, maize stalks, hay and pumpkins decorated the barn. Refreshments of stew, sausage logs, crackers, chips, queso, dips and hot popcorn were served to all present. Everyone enjoyed dancing to country and western music.

Those attending were Larry and Rhonda Guthrie, Jimmy and Jan Nichols, Dale and Cheryl Derryberry, Max and Vikki Yeary, Wayne and Janice Poteet, Danny and Lynn Daniel, Bud and Barbara Edwards, Jerry and Darla Chappell, Jimmy and June McGaugh, Dewane and Pat Franklin and Mary Emert.

There was also some discussion on projects for the Gift Fair to be held in Lubbock in November. The meeting then adjourned for refreshments of cake, cookies, nuts, lemonade and iced tea.

Those attending were Anabel Bramlet, Mildred Gammage, Carol Huggins, Brenda Poole, Mavis Reecer,

Today's Lifestyles

By Marilyn Tate
County Extension Agent

In visiting with parents of teen-agers today, I am not at all surprised to find that one of their greatest fears is the possibility that their teenagers might get involved with drugs. Their fears are not unfounded. Facing decisions about drugs seems inevitable for a startling number of today's teens, but watchful parents can recognize signs of drug use and help their teens deal with the situation.

Some signs to watch for are these:

- 1) Loss of interest in school and even expression of the wish to drop out
- 2) Dropping grades
- 3) A change in style of dress or appearance and loss of interest in looks
- 4) Loss of outside interests
- 5) Dropping of extracurricular activities, such as sports, to "hang out" with a different crowd
- 6) Differences in moods — the child may become withdrawn, defensive and often depressed
- 7) Glassy-eyed appearance and/or disorientation
- 8) Excessive fatigue and the need for abnormal amounts of sleep
- 9) Lying about where they're going or where they've been
- 10) Selling family valuable or even stealing to support a drug habit
- 11) Blackouts

In order to help, parents must understand that adolescence is one of the most difficult periods of growing up, and, in today's stressful society, teenagers often find themselves encountering many pressures.

These signs may not necessarily mean drug use, but they do indicate some type of problem.

It's important to discuss these things with the child in an open, honest and understanding atmosphere, and it's important to seek help if the situation seems to indicate a need for it.

Careful parents may be able to detect a drug problem

South Plains loses come crops to storms

BY MRS. MURRY JULIAN

South Plains, Sept. 28th:

Farmers are trying out here at South Plains after the heavy rains and the storm of last Thursday night. The first part of the storm passed us by, but by 11:30 the wind, lightning and thunder became intense. South Plains only had about 1 1/2 inches of rain but to the south of us, the Kinnibrough, Pritchett, and other farms around there, clear to the Sanders' farms, and the vegetable farm of J.D. Busby, received three inches of rain, and water was across the Silverton Highway. In the north part of our vicinity, farms and pasture land of the Taylors still need rain. We are hoping for sunshine and hot days to bring out the cotton. We are sorry for those who lost cotton and maize to the bad fall storms.

The Floyd County Farm Bureau will have their annual meeting at the Lakney Elementary School Cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. October 1, so please remember the time and place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Reeves and family have moved to Ida Bell, Oklahoma, where he will be with a paper company, working with computers. They are recently from Oregon. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reeves of South Plains.

Mrs. Cecil Osorne and mother, Mrs. Cord Taylor of Muleshoe are expected here very soon from Mineral Wells, where they spent the past week with Mrs. Osborne's daughter and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Ron Somers, Jennifer and Jaime.

Mrs. Louzella Nichols left here two weeks ago Wednesday for Sweetwater, where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Jewel and Glen Whitfill, and with her brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mark and Prue Nicols, Sunday evening she attended with her children a fellowship dinner at the First Christian Church of Sweetwater and later attended a musical jamboree at the city auditorium of Sweetwater.

he arrived home this Monday evening.

Mrs. K.D. Julian (Janis) went to Lubbock last Tuesday to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she was with the family at the hospital with her oldest brother, Lyndell Roberts of Floydada, who underwent a hip operation. He was able to come home this weekend, we are very glad to hear.

Mrs. Mamie Wood went to Lubbock this Sunday afternoon to spend the night and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Juanel Teague, (James).

Mrs. Letha Mulder went to Littlefield on Tuesday of this past week to spend the week with her sister, Mrs. Inez Minyard, and they enjoyed the week sewing and visiting. She returned home Friday evening.

Mike Wilson, who has been director of evangelism for the Colorado Baptist General Convention, with home in Denver, Colorado, has been named orientation manager for the Foreign Mission Board, at Richmond, Virginia, and with his family will soon be moving to that field where he will be working with evangelists and mission work. His wife is a niece of Mrs. M.M. Julian, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Lubbock. They have three children, and at this time Mike is in England on a training mission.

House guests with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry and Darla Chappell here over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Steve and Karen Lesika and Mr. and Mrs. Terry and Janet Tschishast of Duncan, Oklahoma, who arrived Friday evening and left Sunday afternoon. The group with the Chappells were in Baptist Church services Sunday morning.

Visitors at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning were Mrs. Vera Rogers of Lockney and Steve and Karen Lesika and Terry and Janet Tschishast. Mr. and Mrs. Deral Young were in Amarillo part of last week where Deral underwent some tests.

The WMU Annual Meeting will be held down at the Baptist Encampment on October 1, Thursday evening, beginning with the banquet which will start at 6:30 p.m. You will certainly want to attend for the main speaker will be Mrs. Ivaloy Bishop (Millie), who will speak on, "Life's Changing Commitments."

We extend best wishes for happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Bud Higginbotham, who were married in a home wedding in Amarillo, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.M. Cox, on September 4, at 6:30 p.m. Bud is the son of Mrs. Ruby Lee Higginbotham of South Plains, and his bride is Becky Jenkins of Lubbock. They are at home in Lubbock in their home on 91st Street.

Happy congratulations are in order here in South Plains for Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stewart whose daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roby and Teresa Lutrick of Hereford, became parents of twin girls, named Tobey Lynn and Tessa Lannette, born Thursday morning, September 24 in Hereford. They weighed at birth 4 lbs., 14 ozs. and the other one 4 lbs., 1 1/4 ozs. Mrs. Stewart has gone to Hereford this Monday to be with her daughter and the babies when they get home from the hospital, and they hope to come home this Monday or Tuesday.

Word was received this Sunday of the death of Mrs. J.A. Kinnibrough on Saturday. She had been in the hospital at Wichita Falls for several weeks. We do not have any report of when the funeral will be, but her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Sylvin Kinnibrough are there in Truscott and Vera with the other relatives. We send sincere sympathy to Sylvin and Bobbie, and all the other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wood recently returned from a trip to Rosebud, Montana, where they visited Glen's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Crocker. They enjoyed the long trip, with lots of driving, and came back through the Yellowstone Park, and spent the night there.

War kills less!

From 1775 to 1979 there were 1,186,654 Americans killed in wars. During the period of 1900-1979, 2,290,750 Americans were killed on U.S. highways. Help stop the slaughter, drive safely!

Watch your backing!

What driving activity occupies less than 1% of a driver's time, but causes 25% of all accidents? The answer is backing. These accidents are usually less severe, but remember children and even adults crush easily, even at low speed. These aids may help prevent a backing accident: Avoid backing when possible... sound your horn as a warning...check behind vehicle before backing.

HEADING FOR A TOUCHDOWN, this Whirlwind looks a little worried, and with good reason!

Easter gave the large Floydada crowd (about 3 times larger than the home stands) a preview of what some of the younger players can do. Outstanding defensive play led by Robert Nixon, Wynsdell 'Speed' Davis, Norman Allen, Donnell Weeks, Chris Fulton, Todd Beedy and Billy Collins, shut down the Mustangs so thoroughly that only 3 times in the game did Olton cross the 50-yard stripe. Some aspects of the 'Winds kicking game again broke down (three conversion kicks failed due to a hard Olton charge), but Week's booming kick-offs, with no returns, kept the crowd buzzing and Olton frustrated. Although the Winds passing game was inept at times, it

Floydada Junior Varsity whomps Olton 40-0 for third win Thursday

Floydada Junior Varsity chalked up their third victory Thursday night as they whomped Olton 40 to 0. The first quarter play of a Mark Hatley pass to Max Bearden for 34 yards gave the Winds their first touchdown. The PAT failed. In the second quarter, Michael Saens scored another 6 points with an 8 yard run. The PAT failed. Another Mark Hatley pass, this time to Carlos Baker, netted 18 yards and another TD. Bearden kicked the extra point and the score at half time was 19-0. Hatley scored on a 29 yard run in the third quarter and Bearden kicked the extra point in. Derrick Jenkins scored on a 37 yard punt return and Bearden's kick brought the score to 33-0. In the fourth quarter Hatley went over on a three yard run and Bearden kicked the PAT. Defensively for the Winds, Quint Anderson intercepted two passes and Rob Potts covered three fumbles.

The seventh grade won their game against Olton Thursday afternoon with a 22-6 score. This gave them a 2-0 season. The eighth grade lost 14 to 8 against Olton. They also lost 16-0 to Post the week before giving them a 0-2 season. Special mention goes to Romero Medrano, Manuel Arellano, Jerry Clayton, James Burns, and Kelly Jarrett. "We were very proud of both teams," said Coach Dan Pair. They will play Littlefield Thursday night in Floydada. There will be a "fifth quarter" play at 4:30 to give the third and fourth string seventh graders some playing experience. The seventh grade begins at 5 p.m. and the 8th grade game follows.

Gun laws fail to curb rising crime

A National Rifle Association analysis of the latest crime statistics published by the FBI reveals that those major metropolitan areas with strict gun laws lead the nation in their rates of violent crime.

Among cities whose populations exceed 500,000, Boston was listed as America's most violent town last year. The 1980 statistics are contained in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports released on September 10, 1981.

Boston is followed by New York City, Baltimore, Washington, D.C. and Cleveland, all of which have extremely rigid gun laws.

Massachusetts, in 1975, adopted the Bartley-Fox Act, establishing a mandatory jail term for the unlicensed carrying of a firearm. In 1974, the year before Bartley-Fox took effect, Boston ranked fifth in overall violent crime. It now ranks first.

New York, which passed Bartley-Fox type legislation in 1980, has become America's second most violent city since the law passed, jumping from fourth place in 1979.

New York City leads the nation in armed robbery with 1,429.2 per 100,000 population, more than 100 thousand last year.

Baltimore, with stringent gun licensing and registration requirements, saw a 19 percent increase in its rate of robbery last year over 1980.

And Washington, D.C., where the private ownership of handguns was banned in 1977, moved from eighth place in overall violent crime before the handgun ban to fourth place in 1980.

Since the District of Columbia enacted its handgun ban its murder rate has risen 17 percent, according to the FBI's data. In near-by Virginia, where there are relatively few restrictions on gun ownership other than those imposed by Federal law, the murder rate dropped 9 percent.

The UCR statistics show that, overall, the United States' murder rate has fluctuated in recent years. It fell from 9.8 per 100,000 in 1974 to 8.8 in 1976 and 1977. Then it rose to 9.7 in 1979 and rose again to 10.2 in 1980.

Firearm involvement in murder, however, has declined during those years, down from 67.9 percent in 1974 to 62.4 percent for 1980.

Additionally, handgun involvement in murder has fallen from 1974, when handguns were involved in 54 percent of U.S. murders, to 50 percent in 1980. This decrease has occurred despite the influx of more than 13 million new handguns into U.S. circulation during the same time period.

Introduction to wellness: the healthy life style

A short course on the concept of "wellness" as a life-style alternative is being offered by South Plains College at Plainview.

The short course will be open to individuals wanting to gain information about changing their current life-style to one that allows them to gear their lives to optimal health rather than fighting off illness, stress, tiredness and obesity.

The class will begin October 1 at 7 p.m. in room 102 of the Wheeler Building, located at 8th and Yonkers. The class will be composed of six sessions meeting on consecutive Thursdays, except for October 22.

Registration will be at the first class meeting and the cost of $8.00 will be payable at registration.

Instruction of the course will be by Mr. Tom Siekmann, Program Coordinator of the Nichols Health Fitness Center. He will cover six areas of interest: Introduction to the Five Dimensions of High Level Wellness, Self-Responsibility, Nutritional Awareness, Stress Management, Physical Fitness, and Environmental Sensitivity.

For further information, contact Bill Pohl at (806) 293-3605.

It's decision time in Farm Bureau!

In Farm Bureau, members are encouraged to take part in all three major phases of the organization... Education—through publications, seminars, meetings. Decision—through policy development process. Action—through legislative activities.

It's now decision time... when policy for 1982 will be decided. If you are an agricultural producer in Farm Bureau, please attend the county annual convention and let your voice be heard.

Chief probation officer workshop

Bill Hendrix, Chief Probation Officer for 110th Judicial District attended the Chief Probation Officers' Workshop September 15-18, at The Criminal Justice Center of Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas.

Hendrix, along with Chief Probation Officers from throughout the state were able to attend sessions dealing with both general and specific problems that are acute in their everyday situations.

Tuesday's keynote address featured SHSU Professor of Marketing and Management, Dr. Ross Lovell, on "Why We Manage to Manage." Dr. Rolando Del Carmen, Professor of Criminal Justice, spoke to the group regarding the "Legal Aspects of Probation" and Larry Miggins, Administrative Assistant to the Director and Presiding Judge of Houston described the characteristics of a good probation officer.

Other distinguished speakers included in the three-day meeting were Truman Roberts of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, on the "Pitfalls in the Revocation Process of Probation;" Phil Silvers, Tucson, Arizona, on "Management Competence;" and Don Stiles, Texas Adult Probation Commission, "Current Issues in Adult Probation."

Sheldon L. Lehner, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice spoke on the "Ramifications of the Juvenile Justice and Prevention Act of 1980 on Probation." Robert M. McAvoy of Burleson addressed the group on "Employee Selection Techniques and Interviewing" to round out the technical activities of the week.

Considerations for potential club calf producers

COLLEGE STATION — More commercial cattlemen are investigating the club calf market each year. This is not surprising, for at least 10,000 show steers are fed annually in Texas, a few of which command very high prices.

Considerations important to the club calf producer include most of those which the purchaser must also heed, says Dr. Stephen Hammack.

Hammack, of Stephenville, an area beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, says these include age, breed, color, type or body conformation, and price.

Regarding age, Hammack emphasizes that in order to show a calf at a major livestock show, the calf must have its temporary teeth. The first pair of temporary teeth are generally shed at around 19 to 21 months of age but this may vary considerably.

"The oldest steers may not always be the best steers, but some degree of maturity generally allows maximum expression of skeletal size, muscling and some degree of fattening," Hammack says.

So, because most of the major livestock shows in Texas are held from January to March, steers born in late spring to mid-summer are often the most competitive, he continues.

It is well-known that calves born at this time usually weigh less (thus returning fewer dollars when sold commercially) at weaning.

Hammack notes that anyone contemplating changing their breeding program to a spring-summer calving period should carefully consider this disadvantage beforehand.

Breed is another important factor. Some shows have as many as 14 different breed and breed-cross classes.

"An important point here is that, at most shows, determination of breed is based on visual evidence of breed characteristics, a subjective evaluation," he says.

Genetic background is also important for another reason in small county shows, where separate breed classes may not exist, or in competing for overall grand champion at larger shows.

In these cases, where all breeds compete against each other, steers with 3/8 to 3/4 of one of the large, heavier muscled, "exotic" breeds are usually most competitive.

Hair color can be an important factor in showing placing. Solid black is probably the most frequently seen color on a grand champion.

Other popular colors are solid red, or red with a small amount of white markings. Other colors can be competitive but are just not as common as those mentioned.

Type or body conformation is important because most judges look for a balance of skeletal size, muscling, finish and a general blending of body parts, Hammack says.

In a tough show where several steers may be extremely close in these basic factors, such fine points as head and neck carriage, amount of brisket and sheath, extreme straightness of legs, and overall "style" and showiness are important," he adds.

Hammack says the easiest way to get started in club calf production is through the use of artificial insemination. "Good calves are possible through natural service, but it can be a problem to find and buy the right sires," he continues.

The production of club calves might be a profitable sideline or even a principle enterprise, Hammack says, but it does have special requirements and attention to detail is necessary. Many who attempt to enter this market are disappointed because they fail to realize the problems as well as the opportunities.

A reputation must also be established before meaningful price bonuses are realized, he adds.

Landscape & Gardening

By Ken Langley

CLIMATE - FALL GARDENING

What is the climate situation and how will it affect the fall gardening?

The situation is about the reverse of the pattern of climate in the Spring. The days are shorter and the nights are cooler. There tends to be higher humidity than in Spring time. There will be little or no wind. All the time during the fall the air is quite calm. The temperature drops in the mornings and there will be dew. All through the fall the Plains typically has bright days and good growing weather. The plants tend to grow slower because of this weather. The plants that bear fruit like the tomatoes, peppers, egg plants and squash will grow slower especially at the time they have the fruit on the plant. But with a little bit of advance planting, the plants can grow into the fruit maturity along in mid September or early October.

The other thing that happens because of this weather is we have to watch out for certain diseases like powdery mildew. Powdery Mildew tends to develop and attack the plant better when there is warm weather and cool nights with a little bit of dew in the mornings. The Powdery Mildew doesn't get much start in most cucumber varieties, but be careful with winter squash, summer squash, melons, and cantalopes through this time of the year. Spraying will prevent infection of the Powdery Mildew. The fungicide to use is either Benlate or Carothane.

This kind of weather will bring out a higher quality in the leafy crops: the lettuce, spinach, broccoli, cabbage, and cauliflower. Those vegetables in which the leaves are used will attain a higher flavor and will be able to enjoy them over a longer period of time, because they mature more slowly in this kind of weather.

There are some problems that you need to be aware of in this type of weather, but it also is a good condition for a fall garden. It's a time of year when there is very little windstress on the plants and you don't have to worry about protecting plants from hail. Vegetables and all kinds of plants do very well here in the fall. The leaves aren't bothered by wind or hail. The insects have done about all their damage. Aphids are much less active in the fall when it's cooler. Spider mites do not like cool weather at all. It's a very enjoyable time to have a garden and to enjoy the fruits of your labor.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Brucellosis vaccination of eligible heifers urged

Vaccination of eligible heifers should be a top priority for cattlemen in their efforts to control brucellosis, Dr. Martin Brillhart, Lubbock, area 2 veterinarian, Texas Animal Health Commission, recommends.

This is one of 15 areas of the Texas Animal Health Commission throughout the state. It includes these counties: Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Fisher, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Glasscock, Hale, Hockley, Howard, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Nolan, Scurry, Terry and Yoakum.

These are among advantages for cattlemen who vaccinate their cattle, Dr. Brillhart said.

1. A vaccinated heifer will bring a higher price at market;
 2. Vaccination will bring about control of brucellosis, leading to eradication;
 3. Vaccination reduces the probability that an infected cow will abort her calf.
- The vaccine is free. Complete information may be obtained from your veterinarian, county agent, or the area TAHC office.

Vaccination is a key element of the Texas brucellosis program, although it is not the single answer. One of the goals of the Texas brucellosis plan is to have 70 percent of the eligible heifers in Texas vaccinated with the reduced dosage of Strain 19 vaccine. Use of the reduced dose virtually eliminates the titer problem (false reaction to brucellosis) which was a drawback in use of the former stronger dose of vaccine.

Vaccination ages for eligible heifers are now four to 12 months of age for all breeds. Being able to vaccinate animals up to 12 months of age is another great advantage. Adult vaccination also provides benefits for the entire herd.

"Statewide, we have seen a lot of progress in vaccination of eligible cattle," Dr. John Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, said. Vaccinations have increased about 50 percent in a year's time.

"But we have a long way to go to meet our goal. Producers in this area are to be congratulated on their efforts to increase vaccination," Dr. Holcombe said.

REMEMBER The Floyd County Farm Bureau meeting

The Floyd County Farm Bureau annual meeting will be October 1, at the elementary school in Lockney, beginning at 7:00 p.m., according to County Farm Bureau President Delmas McCormick of Floydada.

"Our members will be deciding how they are going to tackle the problems facing agriculture through the policies of Farm Bureau," Delmas said.

Election of the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District Board to be held October 6

Application for a director to serve in the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District Board is for October 6, 1981 at the Agricultural Building located on the east side of the courthouse and Gilbert Fawver, chairman of the election will be held at 8 p.m. State law decrees that anyone wishing to vote in a soil and water conservation district directors election must own land in zone 3 and live in the county and be at least 18 years of age.

To be eligible as a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director, one must own land in zone 3, live in the county and be at least 18 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching.

Zone 3 of the district includes an area northeast of Floydada. The north boundary of the zone is the Cedar Hill-Floyd highway #97. The West boundary of the zone is the Silvertown-Floydada highway #207, the south boundary of the zone is the Floydada-Matador highway #70, the east boundary is the Floyd-Motley county lines.

Mr. Leslie Nixon Jr. currently serves the zone as director. Nixon was appointed to the board 1 1/2 years ago when Cecil Purcell retired as director and district boundaries were changed.

The purpose of the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch land within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state, and national and federal agencies and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies. All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowners or operator

Firearm safety taught to Floyd County 4-Hers

The hunting season offers youth who have participated in the 4-H Shooting Sports program an opportunity to practice their skills, says Ken Langley, County agent with Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

With thousands of people enjoying hunting with friends and relatives, young, safe hunters can take the lead in avoiding accidents, he says.

Ken Langley reminds hunters that most accidents occur in and around private homes and vehicles. He urges youth and adults to review the following 10 commandments of gun safety and apply them at all times in all locations.

—Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.

—Watch that muzzle! Carry your gun safely. Keep the safety on until ready to shoot.

—Unload guns when not in use, take down or have actions open. Guns should be carried in cases to shooting areas.

—Be sure that barrel is clear of obstructions and that you have only the proper-sized ammunition for the gun you carry.

—Be sure of the target before you pull the trigger. Know identifying features of the game you hunt.

—Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot. Avoid all horseplay.

—Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded gun. Never pull a gun toward you by the muzzle.

—Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or water. At target practice, be sure your backstop is adequate.

—Store guns and ammunition separately, beyond reach of children.

Avoid alcoholic beverages before or during shooting.

The Texas 4-H Shooting Sports program is conducted through the county Extension office with the help of volunteer leaders, notes Ken Langley. If you would like to participate, contact the county Extension Office on the Courthouse Square or call 983-2806 for more information.

Windbreak tree orders accepted

Applications are now being accepted for windbreak seedlings from the Texas Forest Service.

These seedlings are grown from seed collected in West Texas and eastern New Mexico.

Conifer species available this year include Arizona cypress, Eastern red cedar, Austrian pine, and Ponderosa pine. These containerized seedlings cost $1 each and are sold only in multiples of 30.

Hardwood species include bur oak, Shumard oak, Russian olive, native plum, mulberry, honey locust, and green ash. These bare root seedlings cost $20 per hundred (minimum order) and are sold only in multiples of 50.

Seedlings ordered now will be ready for pickup and planting in March 1982. Trees sold by the Texas Forest Service may not be used for landscaping or ornamental purposes.

For applications and information on windbreaks, contact the Soil Conservation Service, Box 430, Floydada, TX, 983-2352 or the Agriculture Extension Agent, Courthouse Ag. Building, Floydada, TX, 983-2806.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK—County Judge Choise Smith, seated, signs a proclamation designating Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10, 1981. Also pictured with Judge Smith are [l-r] Larry Guthrie, assistant fire chief; John Guzman, fireman, and Delmas McCormick, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau.

PROCLAMATION BY THE

COUNTY JUDGE OF FLOYD COUNTY TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, Choise Smith, County Judge of Floyd County, do hereby declare the week of October 4-10, 1981 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK in Floyd County, for the following reasons.

WHEREAS, FIRE PREVENTION WEEK is observed annually by the United States and Canada each year during the week of Sunday-through-Saturday period that includes October 9. This date is the anniversary of "The Great Chicago Fire of 1871" that killed 250 people and destroyed property totaling $168 million; and,

WHEREAS, this is the 59th consecutive year that the sponsoring National Fire Protection Association is reminding people of the need to practice fire safety — with the theme — "Exit Drills In The Home"; and,

WHEREAS, according to 1978 statistics compiled by the National Fire Protection Association, (NFPA), one American home is involved in an accidental fire every minute of the day. Over a 24-hour period, approximately 14 people will die in some 1,700-plus fires in one-and two-family homes across the nation. House fires are only one part of the overall fire picture. For the calendar year 1978, fire departments reported there were some 3 million fires, and property damage was estimated at $4.4 billion. There were 8,783 deaths associated with fires and 32,023 injuries. And 162 firemen were killed fighting fires, while another 106,000 were injured on the job; and,

WHEREAS, the greatest amount of property loss and the greatest number of injuries and deaths are associated with accidental house fires. For example, cigarettes account for 35% of all deaths in fires of one-and two-family homes. NFPA lists cigarettes as the cause in five of 18 major sources of fires in homes. In most fires, the association says, cigarettes ignite upholstered furniture in living areas and bedding in sleeping quarters; and,

WHEREAS, flammable liquids, primarily gasoline, are responsible for about 10,000 burn injuries treated in hospital emergency rooms. Some are caused by improper storage of these liquids, resulting in fires when the volatile gases from these liquids are ignited by a source many feet away; and,

WHEREAS, beyond fire prevention, prompt fire detection offers the greatest hope for saving lives. Statistics show that the majority of home fires occur between midnight and 8:00 a.m., with many fires burning for upwards of 20 or 30 minutes before detection. NFPA points out that no matter how skilled at fire fighting a fire department may be, firemen are unable to save many victims because they have died before the fire is detected; now, THEREFORE, I urge all citizens of Floyd County to join hands in "Observing" this special period of working together fifty-two weeks a year to fully realize the benefits of FIRE PREVENTION WEEK.

Signed Choise Smith
County Judge

JAC Club hold meeting

The Llano Estacado Junior American Citizens Club of Dougherty Independent School held their charter membership installation at 11 a.m. Thursday, September 24th in the school auditorium. The club is sponsored by the Mary McCoy Baines Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Plainview.

The club promotes good citizenship and teaches respect for their American heritage. The 28 members and the club directors, Mrs. A.O. Dennington and Mrs. Joe Adair were presented with their JAC pins by Mrs. Billy Don Colston and Mrs. Wes Campbell, members of the Mary McCoy Baines Chapter of DAR.

club members elected Chad Pernel as their club president. The other officers will be elected on October 8th at their next regular meeting.

Other DAR members attending the installation were Mrs. Vance Campbell and Miss Anne Swepston. Mrs. Lance Poole, Mrs. Kenneth Robertson and Mrs. Steve Barton were also present.

Ford hosts Il Penseroso

Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club of Lockney met in the Home Economics lab. Cindy Ford was hostess. Co-hostesses were Sandy Adrian and Cynthia Bybee.

The meeting was held to prepare for the farm sale. Members made fried pies and cinnamon rolls. Beans were assigned to five members to cook. Lisa Mosley volunteered to prepare the meat. The committee also discussed where the tomatoes, onions and pickles were to be obtained.

The business meeting was at a slower pace. It was discussed that the past fair committees were pleased with prizes won. The Pet Show was a success and it was decided that the fair was a huge success.

The club by-laws were passed out and read, due to

Sales tax not due on therapeutic devices

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Tuesday reminded Texans that sales tax is no longer due on any therapeutic device bought or rented by a person when it's prescribed by a doctor.

"This exemption doesn't cover hot tubs," Bullock warned. The change, authorized by the Legislature last spring, affects the buying or renting of oxygen equipment, devices which help reduce or eliminate pain and all therapeutic items obtained under a physician's prescription.

Bullock said the Legislature also broadened the motor vehicle tax exemption to include vehicles modified for orthopedically-handicapped persons.

The exemption now applies to modified vehicles whose primary use is to transport an orthopedically-handicapped person.

Chamber of Commerce meeting set

The Mid-Year Meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been set for October 16-18, in Abilene.

Water Resource Development, National Issues and the "Texas 2000" program will be among topics addressed during the regional chamber's regular fall conference.

Speakers appearing on the program will include Congressman Charles Stenholm representing the 17th District of Texas; State Senator Grant Jones of Abilene, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee; House Speaker Bill Clayton; Louis Beecher, Jr., Chairman of the Texas Water Development Board; Dr. Herbert Grubb, Director of Planning, Texas Department of Water Resources and Ray Hutchinson of Dallas, Attorney and Legislative Consultant. WTCC President Burvin Hines of Arlington stated that information on the proposed Water Fund Constitutional Amendment to go before Texas voters in November would be presented. A question and answer panel will give WTCC members present an opportunity to become better informed on this important issue.

Registration will open at noon Friday, October 16, at the Kiva Inn. Friday afternoon activities will include a golf tournament, West Texas 2000 Committee Meetings and an evening reception.

Saturday's agenda will get underway with program sessions beginning at 8:00 a.m. The afternoon schedule includes a meeting of the WTCC Board and an address on National Issues.

The meeting will conclude with the Annual WTCC Century Club Breakfast, Sunday morning, October 18.

Lockney Locals

BY DOTIE STANSELL

Kenneth and Retha Wofford returned home last Tuesday a week ago after spending twelve days visiting with their children and touring California.

They left Thursday September 10th and went to Cedar City, Utah, and visited with their children Jan, Tommy, Tasha and Jordan Ball. Saturday they all left for California and Sunday they attended church in Anaheim and then visited Lions Country Safari, Disney Land, Universal City tour, Graumanns Chinese Theatre, Hollywood, Farmers Market and then visited the ocean and the San Diego Zoo. They left Friday and went back to Cedar City.

The Woffords left Monday and arrived home on the 22nd. They reported that the weather was real nice every day of their trip.

When compressed to as little as 12 PSI, air can pop your eyeball from its socket. Air can enter the navel through a layer of clothing, then inflate and rupture the intestines.

Compressed air has been known to strike a small hand wound and fill the arm with air. Many cases of foreign material in the eye are caused by compressed air.

CITY OF FLOYDADA HOUSING REHABILITATION PROGRAM

The City of Floydada will begin taking applications for the Community Development Block Grant housing rehabilitation program on Friday, October 2, 1981. Plainview Gibson's opening under new ownership

Opening of the "new" Discount Center at 2801 Olton Road is slated for 9 a.m.

The store is now under the ownership of Gibson Distributing Inc.—Permian Basin. The store was a privately held corporation's store in the early 1960s in Odessa and it has since become the most successful Gibson franchise, serving 1,500 people with stores in Midland, El Paso, Big Bend and Amarillo plus its distributing center located in Odessa.

The store is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from noon to 7 p.m. on Sundays. Many specials in all departments are being offered during the Grand Opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday including buy one-get one free offers in the grocery departments.

"We're proud of our new ownership and our new look and we invite you to visit us. Continued On Page 6

FLOYD MCKEOWN

McKeown happy to be back

Floyd McKeown was more than happy when he was named manager of the Gibson's store in Plainview in September of 1980 because it meant coming back to an area he enjoyed while heading another discount store here several years before.

A native of Weatherford, Texas, McKeown attended Weatherford Junior College and Sam Houston State University.

He has 17 years experience as a retail manager in stores in Dallas, Oklahoma, Plainview and Louisiana.

"We really liked Plainview when we were here before and we were very happy when this position opened up and we had the opportunity to move back here," said McKeown.

His wife, Diana, is a bookkeeper for West Texas Industries in Plainview. Their children are Carla, 16, a junior at Plainview High; Kevin, 13, an 8th grader at Estacado; and Deena, 11, a 6th grader at Ash.

The McKeowns are members of First Baptist Church and own their home at 4105 Villa Drive.

BOB DERINGTON

Derington a native of Lamesa

Assistant store manager for Gibson's is Bob Derington, a native of Lamesa.

A 1963 graduate of Lamesa High School, he spent nine years in the U.S. Army in Korea, Germany and Vietnam and was discharged with the rank of sergeant. He sold insurance in Lamesa for two years prior to joining Gibson's in 1975 in Midland, working as a stocker in housewares before becoming manager of that department.

He worked in three El Paso stores, training at the first for front end manager in the same city in the second garden center in the third manager in stores.

Derington, manager in Plainview. He and his wife have three children: Robert, a freshman; Robert, a sophomore; and Robert, a 702 Amarillo student. He is a member of the Church of Christ and enjoys boating, camping and other hobbies.

everyone in this area to come take a look at the new Gibson's," said Manager Floyd McKeown.

"The new management is very aware of how much our business depends on the outlying areas. We are going out of our way to let the people in Lockney and Floydada know how much we value them as customers."

"It is our goal to maintain a wide selection of quality merchandise at competitive prices with efficient and courteous personnel," said Richard Anthony Sr., vice president of marketing.

Anthony added, "We pioneered full line grocery service among the Gibson stores, and combined with a wide selection of hard goods and a clothing department serving every member of the family, we believe we have a lot to offer our customers."

Company president Tom Mennell said, "We will be a good cooperate citizen of Plainview." While the company's corporate offices are in Odessa, Mennell indicated that the company has no intention of being an absentee landlord. Rather, he indicated that while the store will be managed and staffed by local people, there would be frequent visits by the Odessa personnel.

The Gibson's store has undergone extensive remodeling and rearrangement to make for more spacious aisles and easier location of various items.

Computerized cash registers highlight the store front that now has seven check-out stands including an Express Lane for 10 items or less.

The grocery section is better stocked and includes a 50-foot counter exclusively devoted to generic label foods which provide considerable savings. Gibson's Select Beef is featured in the meat market. Fresh produce, milk and other dairy items also are available.

The toy section has been expanded and the sporting goods, hardware, clothing, houseware, drug and beauty aids departments are fully stocked and offer a wide selection of brand names. TVs, stereos, records, tapes and other electronic items, cameras and film, and books also are offered at Gibson's.

PAINT, ANYONE?—Gibson's Hardware Department has plenty of paint and painting accessories, all types of hardware items and

County Spotlight

BY DON STRASNER

Beedy, 77, came to Floyd County in 1914 from Donley County when he was 10 years old. Bill met and married Winnie Wilson Beedy in Floyd County, where she was born. Bill's father was a farmer in Donley County, coming to the county in 1886, when the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad completed its line through Clarendon and eventually reached Amarillo. The five Beedy children, two girls and three boys, were raised on the farm. Bill worked for his father on the farm until he married Winnie in 1929. "My father died in 1929, shortly after we were married," Bill said. We started farming in the South Plains Community, about 12 miles north of Floydada and had a few head of cattle. We lived there for seven years and bought a section of land five miles east of South Plains where we raised our family, consisting of ourselves and three boys. The Beedy's son, Bradford is in the furniture business in Spearman; Charles is on a ranch in Randall County; and Eugene "Button" Beedy, lives in Floydada on farms and ranches near Floydada. The Beedy's have six grandsons, one granddaughter and six great grandchildren. Floyd County was nearly all grass in 1914," Bill said. "We came up Flomot Cap and opened a gate or two and didn't see a fence for 15 miles, until about three miles from Floydada. My mother, sister and daddy were in a covered wagon and I was driving stock. My daddy bought a place one mile south of Floydada," he said. Bill said the present court house in Floydada was built in 1912. "It burned down and was added on. The fire was in the county clerk's office. There were three houses up in Floydada in 1914. There wasn't much cultivated land in the county in 1914," he recalled. Bill finished high school in 1922 in Floydada. "That building (the old high school building) is gone now. There is a housing project located there now," Bill said. "I think education has changed a lot, from his time to today. 'I think we need to get closer back to the three Rs. I think some courses taught in school now are a bit far out. When I finished high school it was the exception if a boy or girl went on to college. Now it's the exception if they don't go on to college. That's how we've come," he said. Bill served on the county school board in Floyd County for 12 years and was on the school board at South Plains 12 years. "At one time there were 32 rural schools in Floyd County. Now there are only four schools in the county—Floydada, Lawrence, South Plains and Dougherty," he stated. Concerning life's philosophies, Bill said "I don't exactly live one day at a time. I anticipate the future and I try not to be too critical of the modern generation; it's not like it used to be. We older people are inclined to believe our young people aren't what they used to be, but they have to keep up with the times. We are in a different world now and our young people are not all bad." "Our mode of transportation has changed drastically. When I was young, if we were as far as Lockney or Plainview, we were a long way from," said Bill.

Discovery Center opens

Harrington District in Amarillo, has been closed since July for equipment modifications, celebrating the opening on the 3rd and 4th of October 3rd and 4th. The attraction is the "COSMOS," shows have been scheduled at 3:00, 4:00, 7:00, 8:00 p.m. On Sunday are scheduled at 11:00 and 4:00 p.m. Admission prices will be $1.00.

"The Cosmos is all there or ever was or ever will be." With those words Dr. Carl Sagan opens the new planetarium program, distilled from his 13-week PBS-TV series. COSMOS' cornerstone is the belief that human beings are intelligent, that it is a joy to understand the world, that science can be conveyed in a planetarium in a way comprehensible and exhilarating without compromising accuracy. In the Cosmic Calendar, the 15 billion years of universal history since the Big Bang are compressed into a single year to illustrate the sweep and power of cosmic evolution. COSMOS probes spacecraft missions of discovery to the planets, black holes, contact with other civilizations in space, the births and deaths of stars and galaxies, relativity, the origin of life, time travels, Martian canals, the future of our planet and our civilization and the origin and fate of the universe. COSMOS runs through Thanksgiving.

Debbie Griffeth, Rhonda Robertson attend Dairy Queen managers' meeting in Lubbock

Debbie Griffeth, the manager of the Hollis Jones Dairy Queen restaurant in Lockney, and Rhonda Robertson, manager of Dairy Queen in Floydada, Tuesday September 15 attended the annual meeting of all managers of the 28 Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants in Texas held in Lubbock at the Villa Inn there.

All 28 of the heads of the restaurants in Texas' fourth largest Dairy Queen organization, Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants, were present at the session, the program for which featured three guest speakers and all six executives of the Jones firm.

Including the local DQ head (s), the 28 managers present at this meeting were from 26 towns in West and North Central Texas, including Lockney and Floydada. The Hollis Jones group of Dairy Queens began in March, 1969, when he quit a five-figure-annual salary position as district manager of Allied Finance in Dallas, where he had worked for more than a decade, to enter the food field by opening his first DQ in Decatur. His wife, Sue, a native of Decatur, joined his first restaurant's staff in 1970; they married in 1973; and their Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants organization has been growing continuously ever since. Its two newest DQs were opened this year — in Lorenzo in February and in Groom in March.

Inheritance state law now in effect as of September 1st

State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office Monday reminded Texans that a new state inheritance tax law took effect this month and will apply to estates of those who died on or after September 1, 1981.

The Comptroller's office reported the new law will save Texas taxpayers at least $20 million in death taxes the first year.

The new law did away with the state's basic inheritance tax schedule and statutes, replacing them with a law that ties Texas inheritance tax collections to a part of the federal estate taxes owed.

For example, under the old state law if the federal tax due was $5,000, the "federal credit" would be $500 and the state inheritance $700, resulting in the Internal Revenue Service collecting $4,500 and Texas $700.

Under the new law, Texas would now collect the "federal credit" of $500 and the IRS would collect $4,500, using the $5,000 example. In effect, the new law allows persons who owe federal estate taxes to deduct from the amount due the federal government any inheritance tax paid to the state. The amount is determined by an IRS formula.

The Comptroller's office said this also means that if federal estate tax rates are cut, Texas inheritance taxes are automatically dropped back.

More than 45 other states have similar laws that piggy-back on the federal law.

Estates of those who died before September 1, 1981 are subject to Texas' old inheritance tax law and tax schedule, Bullock's office noted.

Zesty season ahead for most Texans

Wintertime in Texas is a zesty season. During the period when much of the country is bundling up for survival, Texans are taking to lakes and woodlands, to fairgrounds and festival streets for celebrations ranging from Highland flings to tortilla tossing to symphonic music.

Hundreds of pageants, fiestas, and community frolics are cited in the brand-new Calendar of Texas Events just released by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Beginning with robust Octoberfest in the Calendar's opening month, the variety of activities throughout the six-month period includes such outdoor happenings as art and music encounters, barbecue and chili cookoffs, flea markets, golf tournaments, fun runs and walk-fests.

Harvest jubilees honor such typical Texas products as pecans, sugar cane, rice and peanuts. Winter vegetables, citrus and prized livestock are featured in dozens of events reflecting the bounty of Texas agriculture. Even the Christmas season is celebrated outdoors in Texas. There are land parades to welcome the season, a water parade of decorated boats, as well as the internationally famous Fiesta de las Luminarias along the San Antonio River. The new calendar spans the months of October through March, and free copies are available at any Texas Tourist Bureau or by mail from Calendar of Texas Events, Box 5064, Austin 78767.

Lakeview News

By Joyce Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Duane McClintock enjoyed a week at Lake Falcon, returning home last Friday. They were accompanied by Duane's brother, Durwood McClintock and wife, of Morton.

Heavy rain, with lots of thunder and lightning occurred in our community Thursday afternoon and night.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pyle were among the football fans who went with the Floydada Chamber of Commerce group to see the Dallas Cowboys play recently.

Hunter Smith spent Friday night with his friend, Tye Stovall, and the boys went to the Whirlwinds football game.

Mrs. Robert Pyle entertained her Sunday school class with a party in her home last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams attended the Southwest Collection seminar on "Women in the West," at the Texas Tech student center, the Friday of the Ranching Heritage weekend. Later in the afternoon she attended a reception honoring the new dean of the Home Economics College at the university.

Greg Bishop, Gary Nixon and Holt Bishop left last week to get in a few days fishing on the Texas Coast before cotton harvest starts.

Dean Hunter spent Friday night with Shane Orman.

The boys attended the Floydada football game.

Judge Choise Smith attended a sheep sale in Vernon Saturday.

The Grady Dunavants son, Melvin, of San Angelo, has been adding on to the homestead the past few weeks.

When the Dunavants all get together now they will really have the room. Their mama's kitchen has been added to the north, along with a big new dining room. They removed the partition between the living room and old dining room to make one big room, added a new bath and a garage connection.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayne Golithly, Lana Bloys and Shannon, along with Rance and Lacy Golithly, went to Plainview last Saturday evening to play racquetball.

Mr. and Mrs. Smoky Quilantan went to Petersburg Sunday to visit Mary's niece, Mary Lou Cavacas.

A walk across the Tech campus will gladden the heart of any cotton farmer. The beautiful Tech coeds are dressing in cotton plaid shirts with little ribbon ties, and narrow legged cotton jeans with their high heeled sandals as they greet fall weather on campus. Not a recognizable synthetic fabric in sight, only as it helps make cotton crisp.

FAMILY FASHIONS—Gibson's family fashions department features shoes and clothing for the entire family at discount prices. Gibson's has Levi and Wrangler pants for men and boys and Sassoan for women and girls. From casual to dressy, you'll find it for the whole family at Gibson's.
