District Judge George Miller announced this week the resignation of O.M. Watson Jr. as County Auditor of Floyd County.

Judge Miller expressed his regret losing a person of Mr. Watson's ability and dedication to public service.

"I feel that twenty-two years in the auditor's office is long enough," Watson said in his resignation letter.

The County Auditor is appointed by the District Judge for a two-year term. Watson was appointed on November 15, 1959, by District Judge L.D. Ratliff.

and he must be a competent accountant of at least two years experience in auditing and accounting.

Applications from men and women should be written and mailed for delivered to Judge Miller.

Court accepts budget

The mood in the County Court Room Monday afternoon at the Revenue Sharing Budget Hearing was one of benevolence as County Commissioners approved, almost without discussion, each of the expenditures in the tentative budget.

The only changes came about as the result of a request by one of the petitioners... Speaking in behalf of the Senior Citizens, Menard Fields said that the insurance payment on the hail-damaged roof of the Senior Citizens building amounted to $200 more than they expected and, therefore, the group only needed $1600 instead of the original $1800 they had requested.

Commissioner Thomas Warren made the motion to deduct the $200 from the Senior Citizens roof repair and add that amount to the funds for the Soil Conservation.

The soil conservation representative, R.G. Dunlap, had asked for $1000 for his group, but was only assigned $500 in the tentative budget.

The Commissioners and County Judge Choise Smith approved the budget unanimously, but with one condition. The condition, stated as part from 1981 Revenue funds. The total amount due will be $80,594.

The notification stated that the first quarterly payment would be paid to the county in January 1982.

Since that date in August, fears have been raised that the money would not be forthcoming as the present administration in Washington continues to make budget cuts.

The approved budget reads as follows:

- 1. Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation $ 3,200.00
2. Floyd County Historical Committee $ 500.00
3. Senior Citizens Mini Bus $ 1,500.00
4. Senior Citizens Building (roof) $ 1,600.00
5. Soil Conservation $ 700.00
6. Floyd County Library Branch in Lockney $ 2,000.00
7. Floyd County Pioneers Shelter Project $ 2,000.00
8. Floyd County Courthouse Fund $10,000.00
9. Floyd County Precincts (4 Pcts. $14,125 each) $56,500.00

of the approval motion was that the monies would be paid only if the Revenue Sharing Funds are received.

Again and again, during the hearing, Judge Smith, and Commissioners Bob Jarrett and Jack Lackey particularly expressed major concern that the funds would be cut off this year.

Though Floyd County had received notification dated August 17, 1981 that the county was allocated $78,407 for the year beginning October 1, 1981 through September 30, 1982. The County is also to receive $2187 more as an average

Doctor Acar welcomed

It was during that time that Dr. Acar decided that he wanted to practice medicine in the United States. He returned to Turkey and after completing his internship and medical residence, specializing in internal medicine, he returned to Texas.

"I chose Floydada because I preferred the hospital facilities here over those in the other towns I looked at," Acar said.

He also said that he was very pleased with the offices in the clinic and of being provided with a secretary.

Though he and his family have only been in Floydada for two weeks, he said that they, "enjoy living here," and commented on how very nice the people have been and how very helpful. "That is my sincere feeling," he added.

His wife, Ayse, is trained as a pharmacist and is licensed in Turkey, but not in the United States.

"She needs to renew her license here," he said. But at present she is a homemaker taking care of the couples two sons, who are five and eight-years-old, and attend Duncan Elementary School.

Dr. Acar said that he enjoys football and soccer and also enjoys hunting.

His home was in Ankara, the capital of Turkey. He said that politically Turkey is similar to the United States.

WE APPRECIATE YOU. MERCHANTS!

The Women's Chamber of Commerce would like to invite each and every merchant and their employees to an appreciation coffee, October 20, 1981 in the Community Room of the First National Bank from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.

The merchants are so giving of their time, money, and merchandise, that we would like to show them that we do appreciate it and give them a big THANK YOU.

Come and go as you please and let us give you a cup of coffee and show our appreciation for your openheartedness and openhandedness.

The women's chamber would also like to let the community know that work has now begun on the Annual Fund Raising Extravaganza production. This year it

Floydada expecting invasion

Spooks, goblins, and all manner of creatures will invade downtown Floydada on Halloween, Saturday, October 31, when the Retail Trade Committee of the Chamber of Commerce sponsors an old fashioned carnival to be held in each participating merchant's establishment.

Prizes for each age group are: $20 first, $10 second and $5 third. Ages 11-18 and 10 and under will compete. Children 10 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

After the parade and judging, merchants will remain open until 6:00 p.m. Each participating merchant will have a game or concession booth in his store with food and/or prizes and will also be in costume. Tickets for each booth may be bought for 5 cents at the Chamber booth on the square.

Radio station KKYN will do a remote broadcast from the square and will also have an apple bobbing booth. Participating merchants, so far, include Perry's, Hale's Department Store, Sears, Lovell-Collins Jewelry, The Hesperian, Anderson's Department Store, Stitchin Pretty, Sue's Gifts, Script Printing, City Auto, Roye's Merle Norman, City Trim Shop, Gene's Cleaners, White Auto Store, Azteca Cafe, Kirk and Sons and Parker Furniture.

Floyd County Library Update

Branch Library in Lockney was given the full $2000 requested to be paid by Revenue Sharing Funds. Commissioners even indicated that if the Revenue Sharing funds are cut short, that the monies would be prorated and that the branch library would receive part of their funds in January when the first payment is expected.

"Friends" are hopeful that there will be enough money to go ahead with the card file system at that time.

At the Commissioners Court meeting, Janice Lloyd recommended that a Library Board be formed with two representatives from each precinct and one member-at-large from the county. Commissioners indicated they would study the suggestion.

Judge Smith said that three applications had been received and that another had indicated that she would submit an application for the County Librarian position.

Jim Scheppke of West Texas Library System informed the court of the requirements necessary to certify the librarian so that the county can continue to receive state funds.

- Those requirements are: Graduation from high school (or GED) and successful completion of 30 semester hours in an accredited college or university; or Graduation from high school (or GED) and six years library experience within the past ten years; or Graduation from high school (or GED) and three years library experience and attendance at four library-related workshops or professional meetings within the past five years.

Renewable annually with attendance at a minimum of one library-related workshop or professional meeting (i.e., TLA, SWLA, ALA, etc.)

Strickland tells how it feels to be caught in Cairo The day of the assassination

BY BILL SAYERS

It was a very traumatic experience. I was extremely apprehensive whether we would be allowed to enter the country and return to our homes. I was never more homesick in my life than when Mrs. Bill Strickland described her experience as an American in Cairo, Egypt on the day President Anwar Sadat was assassinated.

Finally a tour director arrived from Cairo and escorted them through customs. Then, after many more miserable miles they arrived at the Suez canal and were ushered onto a boat to take them across one of the northernmost lakes in the canal system.

Mrs. Strickland stated that there were several thousand people crowding the embarkation area waiting passage across. She added that when the boat left the dock it was almost inundated with people, with many dozens clinging to the sides of the boat for the short passage across the lake.

Thus they arrived at their hotel in Cairo in a state of almost total exhaustion "Even then," Mrs. Strickland states, "I was ready to get back to Lockney just as soon as I could."

Nevertheless, the entire tour group was out at the appointed time the following morning, continuing the prescribed program. It wasn't until late that afternoon that they were told of the assassination, and then it was as if they were in a daze.

Morris elected president of Friends of the Library

Increased membership with more active participation is the goal of Mrs. Linda Morris, newly-elected president of the Friends of the Library organization.

Other officers elected for 1981-82 are Mrs. Gordon Hambricht, vice president; Mrs. Charles Hamilton, secretary; Mrs. Fred Marble, treasurer; Mrs. Kerry Kirk, historian; and Mrs. A.C. Pratt, reporter.

An immediate concern is the need for a new librarian since the resignation of Jackie Walls as County Librarian. The Commissioner's Court is accepting applications for the job. Application forms are available at the County Judge's office.

The librarian must meet certain guidelines for the library to remain a part of the West Texas Library System.

A minimum of 30 college hours or three years experience out of the last five years spent working in a library comprise the basic educational requirements for a library of this size, according to the coordinator of the West Texas Library System, Jim Schieppke.

The Friends organization also has an advisory board and members of that board are Olin Watson, Amy Hollums, Jean and Bob Kendrick, Mary Martinez, Mac Willson, Carol Bell, Ella Reue, Sally Galloway, Jim Word, Janice Lloyd, Jane Pruitt, Louise Turner, Janet Lloyd and Gettie Moss. Ex-officio members of the board are County Judge Choise Smith and County Librarian Jackie Walls.

The public is invited to attend the next regular meeting of Friends of the Library at 5 p.m. in the County Library, October 27.

17th TACLD conference slated for Lubbock

A Texas group which is made up of parents, professionals, learning disabled adults and any other persons interested in the welfare of individuals with learning disabilities will be joining together for the 17th annual TACLD conference in Lubbock next month.

The Texas Association for Children and Adults with Learning Disabilities (TACLD) will meet at the Lubbock Civic Center on November 11-13.

A country and western shindig is planned and conference goers are asked to pack western gear for "a foot-stomping good time." Country-western music by Cecil Caldwell and his cowhands, a square-dancing exhibition, and an old-fashioned bar-b-que dinner are planned for Thursday night.

The daytime schedule on both Thursday and Friday are a variety of workshops and lectures run concurrently so that members will be able to choose according to their interests.

Resources and publications will be on display for examination and/or purchase. Commercial exhibits of products and materials will also be displayed.

The conference headquarters hotel is the Lubbock Hilton Inn.

It does, however, present without partially many ways to assist learning disabled children and adults in reaching their full potential.

Reward offered by Crime Call for missing camper trailer

Sometime during the night of September 29 a Starcraft camper trailer was stolen from in front of a building on Houston Street in Floydada.

Crime Call of Floyd County is offering a $250 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty party.

The beige-colored camper belonging to Billy Dawson had been parked at 207 E. Houston for three weeks in order to sell it.

The camper had been parked on the east side near the front of the building owned by Earl Rowan.

Rowan stated that he had worked late the night of September 29 and when he left the building at 9 p.m. the camper was there.

The next morning Dawson found the camper missing and notified the authorities. The theft is being investigated by the Floydada Police Department.

Description of the camper is as follows; beige, 1973 Starcraft camper with license tag Texas 5A145. The trailer also had new tires and a 500 btu air conditioner mounted on the rear.

Anyone having any information on this theft is asked to call 983-5200. The caller does not have to leave their name. They only give the information about the crime.

If the information leads to the arrest and conviction, the informant is then to call the Crime Call number again and tell whoever answers when and where someone is to drop off the reward money.

No questions will be asked to try to find out the identity of the person calling the Crime Call number.

Helping unemployed youths find jobs and establishing programs to rehabilitate individuals released from correctional institutions are among the steps that could be taken, the task force chairman noted.

"There are all kinds of opportunities," he commented. One initiative, Verity said, would be encouraging broad use of the Middletown Plan, which was developed by business, government and other leaders in his home town of Middletown, Ohio.

Under the leadership of the local chamber of commerce, a representative group of citizens took a hard look at federal aid to the community and concluded that a sizeable reduction was achievable "without unacceptable loss in serving the needs of Middletown or its citizens."

"I would like to see a Middletown Plan started in every chamber in the country," Verity said. He said a prime benefit of the plan is realized "when you begin to build a momentum and you see an awful lot of things that don't have to be done by the government."

Verity said he also saw a role in the private-sector program for the economic rebirth developed under his chairmanship at the U.S. Chamber. That program, "Let's Rebuild, America," calls among other things for strengthening the nation's institutions and for providing economic opportunities.

So what happens if the funds, like so many others are trimmed or cut off entirely? So what indeed? America, the free enterprise system and the good neighbor policy were not built on "gimmies."

Financial assistance being offered to residents

The City of Floydada began taking applications for the Community Development Block Grant housing rehabilitation program on October 2 and so far only five have applied.

"We need 25 more," said City Manager Bill Feuerbacher. "We have the money for the program, and sure don't want to have to send it back," he added.

Homeowners have until the close of the business on Friday, October 30, for applications for this initial enrollment period to be accepted.

Under the CDBG housing rehabilitation program, persons who meet specific income limits and own their homes may be eligible to receive grants to make needed repairs to their homes.

Only persons living in the City's 1981 target area will be eligible for assistance. A map of the target area in North Floydada is available for inspection by all interested persons at the Floydada City Hall.

The target area is bounded on the south by Missouri Street, on the west by third street, on the north by Price Street and on the east by Twelfth Street.

The City will provide all necessary assistance to interested persons in completing applications for the housing rehabilitation program.

Handicapped individuals who may have difficulty in coming to the City

Office to obtain an application form should contact the City Office to arrange for special assistance.

The goals of the Community Development Block Grant are: code enforcement, housing rehabilitation, voluntary relocation, and clearance/demolition.

The 1981 funds are sufficient to rehabilitate 33 owner-occupied units, relocation of 6 owners into replacement dwellings, rehabilitation of 17 rental units, and 25 units to demolish.

The City office are located at 114 West Virginia Street and are open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

For further information on the CDBG housing rehabilitation program, contact Dorr Blasingame, Neighborhood Improvement Coordinator at 983-2834.

Because of it's strategic location, it is half European and half Asian which leads to its interesting and unique culture.

The country is a little larger than Texas, mountainous, and houses 45 million people. It's history dates back to Roman times before Christ.

"It is a very historic country, and yet is very modern now," he said. The religion of the country is Moslem. The people, however, dress after the European fashion and the women are treated as equals, except in the very rural areas.

"It is much like the United States," he said.

Butcher, Hulcy repeat vows in Plainview

In a 6 o'clock ceremony Friday evening, in Plainview, marriage promises were pledged uniting Carman Waynette Butcher and Monty Wade Hulcy in matrimony. John Peck, Elder of Garland St. Church of Christ in Plainview, directed the recitation of vows which were performed at a fireplace setting featuring the mantle graced with brass candelabras accented by burgundy and white tapers. Candlelight was Mrs. David Hasley of Lubbock, sister of the groom. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Butcher, 228 SE Alpine, and Mr.

and Mrs. Travis Hulcy, 195 SW 9th, in whose home the ceremony was held. The flower girl and ring bearer were Carrie Dee and Jason Perkins, cousins of the bride. Names for the guests registry were secured by Mrs. Kurt Hinds of Hale Center and Perri Dawson of Plainview. Mr. Butcher gave his daughter in marriage and she chose to wear a traditional white gown of Chantilly lace, designed with a sweetheart neckline accented with a lace ruffle which formed the cap sleeves. Ruffled lace circled the hemline of her A-line skirt and chapel length train. To compliment her attire the bride wore a matching lace covered hat and carried a floral silk cascade bouquet fashioned of burgundy roses and stephanotis, centered with a pale blue orchid. For something old she wore a gold wedding band belonging to her great-grand mother, Una Billington. Borrowed was a necklace from her aunt, Sharon Perkins added the traditional blue garter, made for her by an aunt, Elaine Beecher. Attending the couple as maid of honor and best man were Laurie Lee Sanders of Plainview and Carlton Shaw of Lockney. The bride's show attendant was attired in a pale burgundy sheer knit dress featuring spaghetti straps and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of burgundy roses and pink streamers. Mrs. Larry Perkins, Plainview, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Clyce Ballard, Hico, aunt of the groom served the bride's cake and punch from a table covered with a pink linen cloth and complemented with silver and crystal appointments. Focal point of the table was an arrangement of burgundy roses, blue orchids and white apple blossoms. A small table covered with a burgundy cloth and accented with glass love birds and candleholders held the silver coffee service and was attended by Mrs. Mark Bender of Wichita Falls, co-

Everywhere I go, people are talking about "Herman". If you are not familiar with "Herman," it is a yeast starter recipe that you add ingredients to every week, and then use part of the starter to make a tasty treat for your family.

The unique aspect of "Herman" is the chain method of operation. Friends give 1 cup of "Herman" to other friends, along with specific direction for "feeding" him. One of the main reasons for this wide-spread appeal is that he's simple to use and good tasting.

The starter for "Herman" can stay in the refrigerator for two or three weeks without feeding — but no longer, or you'll have to give him a funeral. If you want to keep him going but don't have time to use him, keep the starter alive by dividing and feeding. Never get down to less than one cup of this interesting recipe. If you have more than you need, make up some goodies for the freezer!

"HERMAN"
2 cups flour
1/4 cup sugar
2 cups warm water
1 envelope yeast

Mix in plastic or glass container, cover and let stand overnight in a warm place. Cover should not be air-tight. Next day cover and refrigerate, but stir daily. Five days later measure out one cup of "Herman" for yourself, giving the rest to a friend. "Herman" must now be fed.

CARE AND FEEDING OF "HERMAN"

1 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup milk
Stir these ingredients into one cup of "Herman." Keep refrigerated in a glass or plastic bowl and keep covered. Stir "Herman" again as above.

On the tenth day: Measure one cup of "Herman" to give away. Because it has grown, you should also have enough to make the coffee cake or other recipe and still have one cup left to start the process all over again.

HERMAN COFFEE CAKE
2 cups Herman
1 cup sugar
2 cups flour
2 eggs
3/4 cup milk
2/3 cup oil
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup raisins

Mix at medium speed the following: Herman, flour, sugar, eggs, milk, oil, soda, baking powder, cinnamon, and salt. Stir in nuts and raisins. Pour into a greased and floured 9x13 inch pan. Mix topping and sprinkle over unbaked coffee cake. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes.

TOPPING:
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1/4 cup soft margarine
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup brown sugar
Blend together with pastry blender.

VARIATIONS:
Fresh or canned fruit may be substituted for the raisins or nuts. Apple or cherry pie filling in bottom of pan, covered with batter and topping. Pineapple rings in bottom of pan, centered with a marshino cherry, covered with batter and topping.

HERMAN DOUGHNUTS
1 cup Herman
1/2 cup milk
2 cups flour
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons soft shortening
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Combine ingredients to make a soft dough. Roll out on floured board and cut with doughnut cutter. Let rise for one hour. Fry until golden brown. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

HERMAN COOKIES
1 cup Herman
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 3/4 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter
1 egg
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
3/4 cups nuts, chopped

Sift flour, salt, baking powder, soda and add to mixture of Herman, sugar, vanilla, butter and egg. Add nuts and form into balls. Roll in sugar and cinnamon mixture and bake on lightly greased baking sheet at 350 degrees for 12 minutes.

HERMAN PANCAKES
1 cup Herman
1 cup flour
3/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/3 cup oil
2 eggs
1/2 cup milk

CINNAMON ROLLS
1 cup Herman
1/4 cup sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/4 cup oil

Mix together Herman, salt, baking powder, flour, soda and oil. Form into a soft dough. Knead lightly. Roll out to one-fourth inch thickness on a floured board. Spread with soft margarine. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Roll up as a jelly roll and cut in half-inch slices. Spread topping on the bottom of a 9x13 inch baking pan. Place cinnamon roll slices on top. Bake at 360 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove from pan immediately.

TOPPING:
Combine one stick melted margarine, one cup brown sugar, and one-half cup nuts.

HERMAN CHOCOLATE CAKE
1/2 cup Herman
1 cup water
1/4 cup dry milk
1 1/4 cups flour

Mix above ingredients and let stand 2-3 hours in a warm place until bubbly. In a separate bowl, cream 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 1/2 teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 2 eggs, beating well after each. Melt 3 squares semi-sweet chocolate and add to creamed mixture. Combine Herman mixture and creamed mixture, using low speed just until mixed. Pour into 2 greased and floured pans or a 9x13 pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 25-30 minutes. Cool in pan for 10 minutes, remove and frost with favorite icing when completely cooled.

FACTORY-BUILT HOUSING — A CLOSER LOOK

As movie-goers of the 50's enjoyed the antics of Lucille Ball and Desi Arnez in "The Long, Long Trailer," few people dreamed they were seeing the forerunner of many future families' permanent housing.

Understanding the different types of factory-built housing is an important first step in making an effective housing decision. Mobile homes are only one type. In addition, consumers can consider "modular housing" or a "panelized package" or a "sectional home."

Shortly after Lucy and Desi parked their trailer, it became a "mobile home." Then somewhere in the 60's and 70's versatility became the market byword, and mobile homes began to change even more — some became extra-long, some double-wide for one thing. As the 80's begin, they're attracting more interest, and they have a new name in some quarters: "manufactured housing."

More changes are underway, especially in the way America views them. Trends toward mobile-home subdivisions, attempted in Florida and other states in the 50's are on the increase — with status, as mobile-home condo's dot the horizon. Some experts even say that mobile homes could be the "affordable home of the future." Federal Home Administration (FHA) now insures mortgages on double-wide mobile homes situated on land the buyer owns under its Title II program — opening up 30-year financing with FHA-approved lenders. And there's a mobile-home resale network now.

HOUSING OUTLOOK

Pressure for affordable housing will increase at the federal, state and local levels, further easing zoning and financing restrictions for factory-built housing. More mobile-home subdivisions will be one result.

Modular homes will continue to be an important factor in the multi-family market, particularly in small towns and rural areas, where incomes and available financing will not support high-priced housing. Modular homes have the economic advantage of large numbers and standardized products operating efficiently on a factory production line.

Although this is a closer look at factory-built housing, which is only one part of the entire housing picture, consumers should understand that it is an increasingly important part.

A look at the outcome of football

BY BILL GRAY

There is a saying in West Texas that a person has to be crazy to "predict the weather or the outcome of football seasons." We all know the accuracy of the weatherman sometime show, and it appears many pre-season football pollsters have "egg on their face" when one compares how the area's school-boy teams are doing at the midway point of the 1981 season, as compared to how the teams were rated in the various pre-season publications. An analysis of District 3-AAA teams certainly bears out this point. Let's take a look at some of the predictions made back in the summer:

TEXAS FOOTBALL

(Dave Campbell)

1. Tulia
2. Abernathy
3. Childress
4. Idalou
5. Floydada
6. Lockney

TOP-O-TEXAS FOOTBALL

(Sam Mayo)

1. Tulia
2. Floydada
3. Abernathy
4. Childress
5. Idalou
6. Lockney

FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

(Bill Gray)

1. Tulia
2. (Tie) Floydada
2. (Tie) Abernathy
4. Childress
5. Lockney
6. Idalou

While these polls were the projections of the order of district finish, the overall season success was also considered. So far, District 3-AAA is living up to its billing as one of the better balanced AAA leagues in the State. In fact, 3-AAA has now emerged as the strongest district in Region I, based upon the best composite winning record against opponents from the neighboring districts. Through five non-district games, this is how 3-AAA now shapes up:

Team	Record	Points Scored	Opponent Points Allowed
Idalou	5 0	94	13
Floydada	4 1	132	29
Tulia	3 2	113	71
Abernathy	3 2	89	33
Childress	3 2	82	72
Lockney	2 3	67	70

The combined winning percentage of all 3-AAA teams is .667, as compared to District 1-AAA (Dalhart, Perryton, etc.) of .520; 2-AAA (Littlefield, Muleshoe, etc.) of .470; and 4-AAA (Post, Friendship, Tahoka, etc.) of .570. These statistics illustrate the balance and strength of 3-AAA.

Many pre-season polls (including this writer's) picked Tulia as the favorite to walk off with the 3-AAA crown. After a slow start (losing two of their first three games), Tulia came on strong against Dimmitt 41-7. However, everyone has clobbered Dimmitt except Boys Ranch, so this is no gauge of the Hornets' power. They had some early season injuries to some key people, but now seem to be at or near full strength.

Abernathy has also dropped two decisions (7-8 to Roosevelt and 13-18 to Muleshoe), but remain a title threat in district play. The 'Lopes have rolled up 89 points while allowing 33. Their quarterback question is resolved and they have an excellent defense.

Childress has had consecutive setbacks at the hands of Wellington and Clarendon (State-ranked AA teams). However, Charlie Johnston will have his Bobcats ready when they open District against Floydada on October 16. The 'Cats don't appear as strong as in 1980 when they went 11-0, before losing to Littlefield in the Regional playoffs 17-0.

Lockney is the only club under .500 and played Muleshoe tough for 3 1/2 quarters before falling 6-7. The 'Horns lack consistency, but have a scrappy ball club have to be cast in the roll of "spoiler" in district play. Idalou, picked low by most pollsters, has to be one of the two surprise teams after five games. The Wildcats are undefeated, have scored 94 points while allowing 14, and are yet to really be tested. Fullback James Sherman is the leading ball carrier in 3-AAA. Henry Vega is having a better-than-average year at QB and several younger players have helped contribute to the 'Cats' success. At this point, Idalou has to be one of the teams to beat.

Last, but far from least, the Whirlwinds of Floydada have opened some eyes, blowing away their first four opponents by a combined 125-8 score. The depth problem surfaced last week in the 'Winds hard-fought loss to #1 (Harris Poll) Littlefield. Floydada is currently the number 7 ranked AAA team in Texas, according to the Harris Poll. Bruce Williams has emerged as one of the

Breezers chalk up wins over Childress

Both Floydada Jr. High teams won their games against Childress Thursday night playing here. Seventh grade took a 14-6 win and eighth grade rolled up a 36-0 score.

The seventh grade game was a battle of the unbeaten as both teams owned a 3-0 record.

Johnny Davis scored two touchdowns and two extra points for the Breezers.

Davis made runs of 25 yards and 5 yards for the touchdowns.

The eighth grade got it's first win of the year in a big way with a 36 point shutout.

Rabel Contreras scored on a 25 yard pass from Alvin Cooper to open the scoring.

The Breezers added two more touchdowns in the first quarter on runs of 45 yards by Daniel Morales and of 10 yards by Manuel Arellano. In the second quarter the eighth grade Breezers scored once more on a 10 yard run by Arellano. The Breezers iced the victory by scoring two second half touchdowns.

Dale Minner caught a 45 yard pass from Alvin Cooper and Ramiro Medrano ran 45 yards for the final score. Defensive standouts were Alex Garcia, Kelly Jarrett, James Burns, Haneey Robertson, Manuel Arellano and Jerry Clayton.

The seventh and eighth grade Breezers travel to Lockney tonight. The seventh grade game will start at 5 p.m. and the eighth grade game will follow immediately.

Coaches Comment

BY L.G. WILSON
With the open date behind them, the Winds are busy preparing for their first district ball game against the defending champs. The Childress Bobcats come to town for a 7:30 encounter Friday night.

Bobcats will be fired up after losing two games in a row (Wellington and Clarendon). It's been a long, long time since that has happened to them and if we intend making it three in a row we've got to be ready for an all out effort.

Even though this edition of the Bobcats may not compare with some of the others as far as overall ability, they are still dangerous. Good coaching and a winning tradition will see to that.

The Winds have had good, spirited workouts this week. We encourage continued support of the townspeople. We are coming off a defeat ourselves to a fine Littlefield team.

Our effort was great, but we lost and we don't want two in a row staring us in

JV tromps Childress

The Floydada Jr. Varsity tromped their counterparts in Childress 16-0 last Thursday night.

The game was played on the Childress field and the first score was in the Bobcat's den as Mike Ruff tackled the Childress quarterback in his own end zone.

The 2 point safety was scored in the second quarter.

Also that quarter, Michael

ENTERTAINERS—The Floydada Whirlwind has a wonderful halftime performance despite the lack of weather which had kept them in for several evenings.

Whirlwind band is heavily waterlogged

While driving around the vicinity of the high school on Tuesday night, you probably saw a bunch of kids marching on the school grounds. It was the Floydada High School Marching Band. You learn it's contest band has been heavily waterlogged.

understood that the crazy band director, Bruce Kenner by name, did not make them. He came to Tuesday night rehearsal figuring to keep them inside and work on music. But the kids were so tired of not being able to work on their show because of bad weather, they talked him into going out. So they went outside for about 30 minutes and got very wet. When Mr. Kenner got as wet as he could stand, he sent everyone back to the band hall. The students didn't want to go, but they did.

Tomorrow night, the band will present its U.I.L. contest show for the first time. The students are very proud of their band this year and have given it their total dedication. The weather has not been in their favor, but they have done the job in spite of the conditions. By the way, there is a song the band plays in the stands that they will not play on the field tomorrow night. It's called I Love A Rainy Night.

Whirlwind track team

New record highlights
Allsup's Marathon

Seventh Annual Allsup's Marathon, held in Clovis, New Mexico this week, was highlighted by the setting of a new State record in the 10 kilometer event. Joe from Portales, New Mexico shaved a little more than one minute off the existing state record by completing the course in 31:58.6. George Chavez, a teacher from Tucuman, New Mexico, captured the Full Marathon in 1981 with a winning time of 2:35:31.7. The Half Marathon was won in 1:02:22 by Mathew Segura from Albuquerque. Although he failed to set a new record, he outdistanced his closest competitor by more than three minutes. A new age group record was set by 14 year old Daryl Sorger of Clovis, who ran the 13.1 mile Half Marathon in a record time of 1:34:16.8. The Marathon attracted 400 entrants this year with runners coming from Puerto Rico, Colorado, California, Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, Louisiana, and Maine. More than 300 of the runners completed their respective races. Sponsored by Allsup's Convenience Stores, the race was sanctioned and certified by the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).

How to get to the top

[Photos and story by Shelly Harris]

The sound is similar to a child beating on a drum. Except that this sound echoes over the entire city as workmen pound steel pieces into place on the water tower being built on the south side of Floydada.

The awesome sight of workmen perched on a sphere 130 feet in the air has kept Floydadians interested throughout the building project.

"When we came up with the first pieces of the tank, we looked out and there were cars stopped all over town watching us," one workman said.

The 200,000 capacity tank is being built by Hydrostorage, Inc., whose main plant is in Franklin, Tennessee. There is a sales office in Irving, Texas.

The company is strictly in the water tank building business.

The construction supervisor is Gary Beaty has worked for the company for four years, in 25 states.

"Safety and quality come before anything else with this company," Beaty said, "it is the safest company I've ever worked for."

"It is dangerous to climb up on a water tower because the ladders and balconys will weaken with age. It is easy to fall off especially these older tanks," he said.

"You have to keep in mind who all's around you and what everyone is doing," he said.

Workers are attached to a safety belt giving them 3 foot movement. The belts are attached to a rope that is tied off solid from the top.

Each Monday morning the crew takes time off for a safety meeting. If anyone has seen anything that may be a danger it is discussed at that time.

Also on Monday morning there is inspection of equipment. All small tools are run off of air pressure.

"We really do depend on each other," Beaty said of the six man crew. "It's real dangerous work and there isn't much margin for error. I also depend a lot on the Lord."

The Floydada tank is basically ornamental in design. It is safer, Beaty said, because there is no outside access to it. Kids can't climb it from the outside.

Entry to the new tank is gained through a metal door in the base. There is a four foot dry well through the center of the tank that allows a workman to go up to the roof of the tank.

There is a platform, inside the sphere, at 90 feet, but the dry well goes to the top. There is a ladder on both the inside of the dry well and on the outside.

This will allow workers access to the inside and outside of the tank.

"It shouldn't need much," Beaty said, "the life span of the tank is 100 years."

The tank has a head range of 40 feet. That is the distance at its equator or the widest part.

The company is part of Pittsburg Steel, Des Moines, and they have been in building tanks for 80 years.

"In Mountaine, Iowa I talked to a man who had worked for the same company and built a tank in the '20's. He said they had a 40 man crew and it took them a month to build it," he said.

The last two years the company has received the "tank of the year award." In 1981 the award was given for a million gallon tank in Alabama. In 1980 the award was given for a tank at a shopping center in Galveston. "It is a very prestigious award," he said.

The tank is expected to be completed this weekend. The crew got a late start and has been held up by weather conditions throughout the construction time.

Next week painters will begin painting the tank white.

The city pipe hook-up work has already begun.

"We really appreciate the hospitality of the people in Floydada," Beaty said. "It is nice to work some place where people are friendly."

The crew next goes to Brownsville to build a tank there.

Whether the company makes it or not depends on the crew Beaty commented and added that this is a hard working crew of responsible people.

The men who work on the top are 19 to 25 years old. "Everyone has to watch out for everyone else," Beaty said, "a lot of welding rod and alot of prayer go into building a tank."

GARY BEATY, construction supervisor.

Interest rate ceilings outlined

With fluctuating and occasionally higher interest rates in the offing, borrowers should be aware of recent Texas legislation relating to interest rate ceilings.

House Bill 1228, dealing with permissible interest rate ceilings in Texas, became law last May 8 and provides alternative interest rate ceilings that apply to almost all types of loans. Exceptions include loans for mobile homes and home solicitation transactions.

The law allows creditors (lenders) to choose an interest rate allowed by a weekly, monthly, quarterly or annual ceiling, points out Dr. Ashley Lovell of Stephenville, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This rate is calculated for each of the time periods on the basis of weekly auction rates of U.S. treasury bills.

An example of a recent interest rate based on this new legislation is as follows: a 24 percent interest rate applied for the weekly rate for August 24-30, for the monthly rate for August, for the quarterly rate for July 1-September 30, and for the annual rate for July 1, 1981-June 30, 1982.

In this example, borrowings for personal, family, household or agricultural uses would be subject to a 24 percent per annum maximum rate. Credit in excess of $250,000 for business, commercial, investment and similar uses would be subject to a 28 percent per annum limitation.

The state interest rate ceiling law does not affect federal preemptions for agricultural loans, notes Lovell. Regarding the provisions of this new law, the economist notes the following items for agricultural producers:

The law applies to variable rate loans. A monthly ceiling is available only in variable rate contracts.

Once a creditor has chosen a ceiling rate, such as the weekly rate, for a particular contract, he can not change to another ceiling rate during the life of that contract.

Applicable rules of the law to a specific situation depend on whether an open-end account or a closed-end contract is involved. An open-end account is a typical charge account or a revolving loan agreement.

If the open-or closed-end loan is on a variable interest rate, the rate charged must not exceed the ceiling chosen for that agreement.

Once parties have agreed on an interest rate, they are also considered to have agreed to any lesser rate that a creditor may elect or be required to implement, unless other arrangements have been made.

Regarding an open-end account, once a fixed rate is elected for a quarter or a year, that rate may not be increased during the specified period. If a borrower refuses an interest rate increase on an open-end account, he has the right to pay off the existing balance, at the old rate and over the time period, under the same terms as prior to the rate change. However, additional charges to that account will be subject to the new terms.

Applicable ceilings for renewals and extensions are the same as any other contracts negotiated at the time of the renewal or extension.

Monthly, quarterly and annual interest rate ceilings calculated by the Consumer Credit Commission are published in the "Texas Register," points out Lovell. Local financial institutions also have this information.

A more detailed explanation of this new interest rate ceiling legislation is available from the Texas Bankers Association, 203 West 10th St., Austin, Tex. 78701. Include $1 for postage and handling.

Halloween safety: goblins and ghostly things that don't go bump in the night

Tiny spooks and goblins are busy getting their scary costumes and masks ready for the big night. Halloween is coming!

The ancient observance of All Hallows' Eve is almost strictly for the younger set these days. They take full advantage of the occasion to mooch candies and other goodies from willing neighbors, chanting the call, "Trick or Treat!"

Although Halloween has been tamed somewhat in recent years, and many parents and schools organize parties to replace the traditional neighborhood rounds, a lot of kids will still opt for that old standby, trick or treating. You can help make this Halloween a safe and memorable one for the little ones by giving some thought to safety, suggests the Texas Medical Association (TMA).

It's a good idea to accompany youngsters on their neighborhood treks, since in their excitement they may be less than cautious about traffic hazards. Also, encourage them to go trick or treating early in the evening while it's still light outside.

When making your small spook's costume, use bright colors for visibility. You might even sew on some reflective tape that can be easily seen in the dark. Don't make loose-fitting costumes that may catch on fences or other obstacles. And make sure that costumes aren't so long that little ones trip over themselves.

Masks that cover the entire face can be dangerous. They often block vision and, if they slip, they can even block breathing. A "skin mask" made of grease paint or make-up is safer, and a lot more creative, too.

If the giddy goblin wants a light, give him or her a flashlight not a candle. Never allow small children to carry around sharp objects that can hurt them if they happen to fall.

Difficult though this may be, convince your children not to eat any goodies until you have inspected them first. There have been a few incidents of twisted individuals giving children fruit or candies with needles, razor blades, glass or drugs hidden within.

Be considerate of other people's children. Try to make your yummies nutri-

Questions and Answers:

Question: If a veteran is buried in a private cemetery and his relatives put up a headstone purchased locally, isn't there some sort of reimbursement if a government headstone was not used?

Answer: There is a monetary allowance payable by the VA in lieu of a government-furnished headstone. Current payment is $59, which represents the average actual cost for the fiscal year 1980.

Question: I am attending school under the VA's dependents' education assistance program on a full-time basis. Do I qualify for the VA work-study program?

Answer: No. The work-study program is available only to veterans.

Question: What happens if the loan payments for a VA guaranteed home loan are not made?

Answer: Failure to make GI home loan payments may lead to foreclosure and loss of the veteran's home. In addition, if the government is required to pay a claim as a result of failure to repay the loan, the veteran will become indebted to the government for the amount of any such claim.

Question: During the burial ceremony of my brother, who was a veteran, the flag which draped the casket was presented to his wife. Why wasn't our mother entitled to the flag?

Soil moisture now being prepared

Your best source of information about next spring's pre-plant soil moisture conditions may be obtained from a cooperative soil moisture monitoring study already in progress on the High Plains.

Soil Conservation Service and High Plains Water District staff are now preparing over 140 soil moisture sampling sites for the 1981-82 monitoring program. They hope the study will provide data for accurate pre-plant soil moisture maps on the High Plains.

The SCS has used a statistically sound random sample developed by Dr. Bob Davis, with the Agricultural Economics Department at Texas Tech University, to locate sites for up to 300 neutron probe access tubes on farms over the 15 county area. Site selection is based on the complexity of local soils and variations in saturated thickness of the Ogallala Formation.

Jon J. LaBaume, District Conservationist for Floyd County, is currently contacting landowners and operators asking for their cooperation and permission to drill the probe holes and place the tubes. A minimum of disturbance to cropland is necessary to install these two-inch diameter, thin wall aluminum tubes which will be set to a depth of seven feet below the land surface.

Crews will use a soil auger mounted on a small two-wheel trailer to prepare the sites. Readings of the soil moisture profiles will be taken with a hand carried instrument in late January and early February.

LaBaume says, "this study will give us an accurate picture of our soil moisture reserves over the entire area.

This information will help farmers make more accurate pre-plant irrigation decisions to avoid both over and under irrigation this spring, and give an indication of potential dryland production."

Overapplication of water above that needed to fill the soil to field capacity costs the irrigator at least $2.00 per acre inch, in fuel cost alone. Each "extra" inch can cost a farmer over $320 on a 160 acre field. Under-irrigating, on the other hand, can cost producers millions of dollars in reduced yields.

For the dryland producer, the soil moisture monitoring program can provide data to help him select crop varieties most suitable for his existing soil moisture conditions.

The survey will also have a tremendous irrigation water saving potential, especially in years when the soil moisture deficit is small, such as is expected for this season if current weather patterns continue.

The High Plain's first soil moisture monitoring program was developed and maintained for many years under the guidance of Oliver Newton, who worked for the National Weather Service at Lubbock. Technical guidance was provided by Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock with funding support from the Plains Cotton Growers Association.

With Oliver Newton's recent retirement and the closing of the local Weather Service offices, a new sponsor was needed to continue the program. The High Plains Water District accepted prime responsibility for the program, and developed a cooperative agreement with the SCS to expand the program. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station will continue to provide technical assistance as needed.

Pesticide Applicator Training to be held

BY JETT MAJOR
FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

The Floyd County Extension Service, in cooperation with the Texas Department of Agriculture, will conduct a Pesticide Applicator training for producers who do not have a Certified Private Applicator License. State and Federal Laws require an individual planning to purchase pesticides bearing a "Restricted Use" label to have a Certified Private Applicator License.

Many farmers, ranchers, and homeowners obtained a license in 1977 by attending a similar training meeting when the State and Federal law first went into effect. Other individuals have completed a home-study course since that time in order to obtain an applicator license. However, many producers in Floyd and surrounding counties still do not have a license and will no doubt need one in the near future as State and Federal laws continue to crack down on the use and abuse of hazardous chemicals.

The Pesticide Application Training will be held on Tuesday, October 20, at the Lighthouse Electric Co-op Meeting Room in Floydada. The training will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. and should be completed by 10:00 p.m.

All producers in Floyd and its neighboring counties that do not have a Certified private Applicator License are invited and encouraged to attend. Those that cannot attend and would like a copy of the Home-Study Course may call Jett Major at 983-2806 or come by the Floyd County Extension Office located in the Agriculture Building on the east side of the Courthouse Square in Floydada.

HARVESTING — FALL GARDENING

What should we do with the vegetables in fall garden after they have grown?

The harvest time in the fall is important to know and understand for each vegetable so that you can get each vegetable at their prime quality. For example tomatoes, the tomato fruit that are set today, the blossoms that are set will not produce their red ripe fruit for at least 60 days. If the temperatures are cooler, the last stages of ripening form the time the tomato is premature (as large as it's going to get, but before it starts to turn red) that time from the green mature to full ripe, is extended as much as 3 weeks to a month. If you got tomato fruit coming along toward maturity during the cool days of fall, as soon as they are full size and have started to turn color at the very blossom or tip end, they should be picked from the plants and taken inside. They will ripen (finish the final stage of ripening inside) faster because temperatures are higher inside then they are out in the garden. All tomatoes will have to be harvested before the first frost date or they will be killed by the low temperatures. We usually have a frost around late October or early November. Any vegetable like tomatoes, squash, cucumber, beans, anything that is frost susceptible has to be harvested before that date. As far as the other vegetables are concerned, you've got many weeks after the first frost; cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, all the root crops, the green lettuce, spinach, beets and leaf lettuce.

References to commercial products or trade names is made with the understanding that no discriminations is intended and no endorsement by the Texas Extension Service is implied. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

head is about 3 inches in diameter and will weigh less than a pound. Harvest some at this stage and use them. The outer leaves are going to be killed by the frost, but the inside of the head of cabbage is perfectly fine.

ROOT CROPS

Carrots, beets, turnips, the true root crops don't have to be harvested when they're mature. There is nice sandy soil in most areas of the Plains. All you have to do to keep the roots in the garden and keep them in prime condition is to mulch up around the crowns with good clean wheat straw or clean mulchy material that will protect the crowns from freeze damage. You can obtain some of this wheat straw when harvesting wheat. Many wheat growers and livestock men will stack pile of good clean wheat for feed in the fall.

How should you look at harvesting of the crops in the fall garden in the summer?

You should keep in mind the average date of the first frost in the fall and make certain that as the vegetables come into early maturity that you harvest as soon as possible, but don't harvest everything at once. If you're a month or several weeks away from frost, harvest steadily over time so that you can have a little bit in the house. Don't try to stack pile a bunch of crops, like the greens the vegetables that you know will tolerate the frost. Keep disease out of the vegetables and if worms get started make sure you plant Diapale to keep the worm population under control.

The harvest period is going to be different for the various vegetables. The important thing is to harvest the vegetables as they come into early maturity and extend the harvest period in this matter. Don't wait until the entire crop is ready. A good example is the cabbage, the some head variety, will have a hard head when the little INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER 5288 tractor is one of the high-performance, high horsepower models in the PTO hp range. Its 6-cylinder, 466 cu. in. diesel engine develops 160 PTO hp. An all-new transmission provides 18 closely spaced forward and 6 reverse gears and combines the features of full synchronization and power shifting for efficiency and field performance. Like the other advance design models in the new series, the 5288 has a new drive train, forward air flow cooling, and Power Priority hydraulics, according to Brown's Implement, Ralls Highway.

Line of two-wheel drive tractors available

International Harvester dealer, Ralls Highway, Floydada, is now offering a totally new line of advanced design, two-wheel drive tractor from 90 to 185 PTO hp, which offer farmers increased productivity, fuel efficiency and ease of operation. The new line includes three 50 PTO hp models, rated at 90 PTO hp. The transmissions for easier operation and increased fuel savings, are forward air flow cooling and sophisticated electronics are the major advancements of the new line. The new line represents an investment of more than $200,000 in the largest engineering and development in the 150-year-old company. The new line includes a new transmission, featuring 18 forward gears, fully synchronized shifting and fuel efficiency.

With three forward ranges (low, medium and high) and power shifting in each range, the transmission further allows the operator a near-optimum speed for virtually all farm operations. The brain of the transmission is a microprocessor that monitors and safeguards it, ensuring that one clutch pack is released before another engages for smooth shifting. Also, IH's mid-mounted wet master clutch requires less than 15 lb. pedal effort.

An IH exclusive, according to the dealer, is forward air flow cooling in both the 50 and 30 Series models. With the system, cooling air is pulled in through a top grille across the radiator and is expelled through the front grille across louvers that direct air downward and outward from the tractor and operator. This air flow pattern blows dusty air away from the front of the tractor, improving operator comfort and visibility. It also results in minimum chaff buildup, providing added engine protection and more efficient cooling.

Other advanced features, the dealer said, include: a hydraulic system that provides pressure and flow to meet exact load demands, conserving fuel and increasing drawbar horsepower availability; the choice of a standard three-point hitch or new claw hitch; and improved control center visibility.

The dealer invited area farmers to visit his dealership and learn more about the new IH 30 and 50 Series tractors.

On all tractors, the control centers have left and right doors for easy entry and exist. All controls are located in a seat-side console at the operator's right hand, leaving the left hand free for steering. An IH exclusive electronic data center provides digital readouts of engine, rpm, travel speed, exhaust gas temperature and PTO speed.

Around The County

By Jett Major

FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

With corn harvest measuring completion in Floyd County, minimize next year's southwestern corn borer problem is at hand.

Corn borer infestation were especially bad and widespread this year, necessitating as many as three expensive chemical applications to achieve control. Borer larvae can reduce yields by tunneling in the stalk and by stalk girdling, which frequently results in lodged plants.

Girdling is a behavior pattern in which larvae, preparing to overwinter in the plant stub, chew a groove around the inside of the stalk a few inches above the soil surface. Girdled plants are weakened and susceptible to lodging.

Cultural practices such as winter stalk destruction by single disking, shredding or knifing are the most reliable management tools to minimize losses next year due to this pest. These tillage practices expose the tap root to freezing weather and will decrease corn borer survival.

If shredding is used, the stalk must be cut at ground level.

Data obtained from a three-year study conducted at Halfway by Dr. Tom Archer, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist, indicated that shredding, disking or knifing by mid-January reduces by 80 percent the borers which would normally survive the winter. These tillage practices combined with natural mortality result in 95 percent reduction.

If stubble destruction is delayed until February or later, only a 45 percent reduction in survival was obtained, Archer pointed out.

Many producers are drilling in wheat behind corn without destroying their stubble. However, even if corn isn't going to be planted next year, you owe it to your corn producing neighbors to destroy your stubble.

Producers planning to graze out their stalks or who are concerned about soil erosion should still consider some type of cultivation which will expose corn borer larvae.

Grazing itself will not reduce the number of corn borers that emerge in the spring. Stubble destruction through shredding will still permit grazing and should assist in preventing soil erosion.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Nixon elected to the Floyd Co. SWCD board

Leslie Nixon Jr. of Floydada was elected to the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors October 6. Nixon will represent zone 3 of the district which is an area northeast and east of Floydada.

Nixon was appointed to the board for zone 3 in August of 1980 when zone boundaries were changed and when Cecil Purcell retired as director. Nixon will now serve a five year term on the board as one of the five directors.

The purpose of the Floyd County SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes. Policies and procedures for carrying out the district program will be within the framework of the Texas soil conservation district law. In Texas there are 201 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have the powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the districts are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator. The Floyd County SWCD was organized in 1941.

The Nixons live east of Floydada and have three sons, Gary, Keith, and Robert. The Nixons are involved in FFA and stock shows.

Lincoln Center chamber music to be presented at Tech

University Center Cultural Events presents The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center at the Texas Tech University Center Theatre on October 28.

Proclaimed as "the musical success story of the generation" by the New York Times' Harold Schonberg, The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center is the official performing organization of Alice Tully Hall.

Charles Wadsworth, the Society's Artistic Director since 12 years has set exceptional performance standards for the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center that have gained a brand-new audience and spurred a revival of chamber music throughout the country. Wadsworth admits, "chamber music is no longer the closed society that it once was when all the audiences were elderly and spoke German."

The Society has given nearly 600 concerts to date including an annual series of three sold-out concerts in the Concert Hall of Washington's John F. Kennedy Center.

For its New York concerts the Society has also invited world-famous soloists and vocal and instrumental ensembles.

The six performers at the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society's concert in Lubbock are part of the Society's permanent personnel of eleven eminent virtuosi.

The six member ensemble includes pianist Andre-Michel Schub, the Gold Medal winner of the Sixth Van Cliburn International Piano Competition on May 31, 1981. Also included are violinist James Buswell, violist Walter Trampler, cellist Leslie Parnas, oboist Leonard Arner, and bassoonist Loren Glickman.

Twice the subject of a "Live from Lincoln Center" international telecast, the Chamber Music Society has achieved a large international following on records. Its initial recording for the Book-of-the-Month Club sold more than 20,000 copies in the first three months. Currently the Society is engaged in a major recording project for the Musical Heritage Society.

Among the Society's efforts to enlarge the audience appeal of chamber music are a series of experimental workshops called "Together with Chamber Music," in which more than 30,000 students of New York public and parochial high schools have participated enthusiastically thus far. At each of these delightfully informal sessions, artists of the Chamber Music Society play works from the Society's regular subscription programs and discuss and demonstrate the instrumental and interpretive problems involved in their performance, followed by an open discussion.

The Society will perform music by Danzi, Mozart, Britten and Faure in Lubbock on October 28.

Tickets may be purchased at the University Center Ticket Booth at Texas Tech and Hemphill Wells in the South Plains Mall. Ticket prices are $3 for Tech students, $5 for faculty/staff and $6 for the general public. For further information on this concert, please call the UC Ticket Booth at 742-3610.
