

Pickup-truck collision injures Lockneyites

Two Lockney men sustained injuries in a pickup-truck collision Tuesday morning about 8:15 a.m. Marion Travis Dunn, 69, driver of the 1982 blue pickup and Ivan Thompson, of Route 1, Lockney, occupant of the pickup were both taken to Lockney General Hospital.

Dunn sustained lacerations of the head and injuries to the neck and was transferred to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. At press time it was not known the full extent of his injuries. Thompson, 74, complained with chest pain and not being able to breathe. He was being kept for observation.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Hwy. 378 and Hwy. 70. The pickup was traveling north when the collision occurred. Thomas Edward Davis of Rule, Texas, was the driver of the 1975 white International truck. The truck driver was not injured.

Hilton honoree of birthday party

Friends and well wishers packed the Methodist Church reception room to bid Wernie Hilton a "Happy Birthday" Saturday afternoon as he turned 100.

Hilton's sister, Mary Whitesides, flew in with her nephew's family for the event. Mrs. Whitesides, Wernie's baby sister at 86, is a bright-eyed doll of a lady and was happily greeting friends that she had made in Floydada during the winter stays here.

She had undergone eye surgery and so is staying with a nephew, James Hilton Griffin and his family in Brookshire. In the spring she will return to her home in Elmo, Texas.

Hilton's only living daughter, Blanch, and her husband Billy, came from Port Aransas for the party. Their son and his wife, Bob and Judy and their three children: Glenda, Stacy and Tom drove in from Odessa.

The birthday cake was decorated with a pair of scissors and comb made of icing to signify Hilton's 57 years as a barber.

The large family gathering included younger members who were meeting different branches of the family for the first time.

Blanche's son and his wife, Doyle and Ruth Grundy, arrived from Port Aransas.

Another son and his wife, Tommy and Donna, came from Corpus Christi. A daughter and her husband, Lola Kay and Mark Huddleston arrived from Plainview.

A daughter and her family, Lynn and Jim Garrett and their son, Lonnie also came with the group from Port Aransas.

From New Mexico the relatives were Loretta and Joe Szalov; their son Arthur Joe, his wife, LaRose, and their daughter, Sharon. Also from Tucumcari was another son, Laurence, and his wife Patsy. A daughter, Katherine Herber came from Texline, Texas.

The Griffins account for a large number of family members and Dorothy joked to someone, "I had seven children and they never left home." She said that someone had commented after one of the weddings that she had lost a daughter. "I've never lost a child to matrimony in my life," she said. "In fact some people can't keep straight which are the natural children and which have married into the family."

The couple, however, has lost a son, James Edwin, 38, to cancer on January 2 of this year.

Another branch of the family, a nephew and his wife, Buster and Denver Honey, arrived from Lubbock.

Helms and Tom Duvall. They were sworn in for another two year term.

Tom Duvall was elected Chairman and Adrain Helms Secretary of the Board for the ensuing two year period.

After other business matters were transacted by the Board, it adjourned until next regular meeting day, February 3, 1982.

Over Coffee

BY SHELLY HARRIS

I woke up this morning, coughing, again! Nose running, again! Throat sore, headache, the works, again! For the third or fourth time this winter. Every time I get over it someone at home or the office, or around someone gives it back. And in between someone is clutching their stomach and sure enough in a few days I've got "that" kind of flu.

I asked Jerry about it at Thompson's Pharmacy. "Jerry, isn't this the sickest winter you've seen?"

He agreed. "I've decided it's time the newspaper did something about it. You know, I don't come out editorially for or against things often, but I am on this."

I believe the whole thing is caused by kissing and I propose a 30 day ban on all kissing in Floyd County.

I got the idea at the Floydada Football Banquet Saturday from something Norman Allen said.

When it was time to present the Football Sweetheart award, the team of Allen and Todd Beedy, were to do the honors.

Todd slipped backstage for the traditional bouquet of long-stem, red roses. Norman was left to approach the microphone.

"Guess you know who's going to do the talking and who gets to do the kissing," Norman said indicating Todd, arms full of flowers, who was approaching the center aisle.

Then I recalled that afternoon at Wernie Hilton's birthday party with relatives gathered for the first time in years. Nothing like a family reunion to have alot of kissing going on in short weeks it's going to be a mess. Day. Well, I could see a mess coming.

I imagine that the worst offenders will be the classes and to an extent '84.

Probably the safest group are the High boys. They're not kissing girls yet, and they've caught DEAD kissing parties.

Another danger, as I see it, will have two U.S. Congressmen from Floydada this weekend for the house Electric Open House. What they say about politics babies.

And speaking of babies, this ban on kissing is for grandparents. There's just about soft, tiny fingers and cheeks that makes kissing so much restraint is going to be used here.

Cousins will have to quit kissing each other for a long time to settle for a handshake, like the old days.

And for heavens sake, tell anyone to "kiss and make up."

I'm sure if we make this effort we'll have the cold and flu licked in no time.

Note: Staff at the Floyd Hesperian suggests that she really wasn't serious when she said to ban kissing for 30 days!

Gin fire not extensive

A fire alarm was sounded at 4:15 a.m. Saturday morning. Fire trucks were quickly dispatched to the Lockney Coop Gin where burrs had ignited.

Firemen fought the fire all through the day despite the 40-45 mph winds, the blowing snow, and the chilling 5 and 6 degree weather until it was brought under control about 2:00 p.m. Fire chief Jerry Johnson, reported the damage to be extensive to a boxcar that was being used as storage for parts. He stated that the entire gin yard seemed to be on fire.

Gail Kring, gin manager, reported that they were very fortunate to have not suffered any more damage considering the weather and the wind.

The fire department wished to express their thanks to the Spudnut Shop in Plainview who sent two cases of doughnuts to the scene of the fire for the firemen and to the wives of the firemen who kept the coffee coming.

Chamber Banquet set

The Great Floydada Frontier is the theme of the Annual Banquet for the Chamber of Commerce to be held at Duncan Elementary Cafeteria on Saturday, February 27.

King's Restaurant will cater their (in)famous barbeque to Panhandle Slim, Coyote Jack and many long, tall, Texans and their ladies. Serving line will begin at 6:45 p.m. (no shoving please).

Mark Wideman, 1981 Chamber President, will emcee the event and hold tight reign on all rowdies.

An infamous and notorious speaker has been roped and corraled and will be brought in unharmed, mostly, to give locals, and a few friends from down the road a-piecc, an evening's entertainment of fun and hilarity (no dancing girls). After we whet your appetite, we'll tell you who he is next week.

The program will include a presentation of the new Board of Directors and an invitation issued to the old Board to "get outta town".

The Women's Division will also "change podners" in their introduction of their new Board and present the "Employer of the Year" award.

Long winded speakers will be shot at sunrise.

JIM WILSON, Indiana, was principal speaker at the Producers Coop Dealer meeting Friday night. The dinner was catered by Southern Seas in Lubbock, and was served to over 200 members and customers.

Wilson is a Financial Advisor, tax expert, author, and C.P.A. He spoke on estate planning and the rapid changes in the economy.

Extension Homemakers encouraged to participate

The Floyd County Extension Homemakers Council met January 14 in the Council Room. Ruth Trapp, council chairman, opened the meeting by reading the following poem:
 "Are you still an active member, the kind that would be missed?
 Or are you just contented that your name is on the list?
 Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock?
 Or do you stay home and criticize and knock?
 Do you take an active part to help the work along?
 Or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belongs?"
 Do you ever go to visit a member who is sick?
 Or leave the work to just a few and talk about the "clique?"
 There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about.
 And will appreciate it if you will come and help us out.
 So come to meetings often and help with hand and heart.
 Don't just be a member, but take an active part.
 Think this over, member. You know the right from wrong.
 Are you an active member, or do you just belong?"

Marilyn Tate, the Extension Agent, gave the Leader Training program. A motion was made and carried that the council will have a food booth at the "Christmas in October Fair." Dobbins, Fleming united during ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony Debra Carole Dobbins became the bride of Randy E. Fleming January 9th at 4:00 p.m. in the home of her mother, Pat Cochran.

Flute selections of Endless Love and the Wedding Prayer were presented by Tammy Booth, as she was accompanied on the piano by Dell Gray.

Candlelighters were Misses Melissa and Rebecca Quisenberry of Plainview. They were dressed in identical floor length dresses of ivory chemise with bodice tucks.

Attending the bride as maid of honor, was her sister Tammy Cochran and the bridesmaid Melinda Morton of Lubbock. They were attired identically in floor length dresses of nectarine imported lace and Qiana cloth. The bodice was accented with the same features of the brides gown. The long skirts were of accordian pleats. They carried silk cascade bouquets of nectarine daisies with brown and ivory accents. Flower girl was Kimber Williams. She wore a full length dress of ivory lace over satin with fingertip sleeves of the lace. The ruffle hem was gathered at intervals and accented with tiny satin bows of nectarine. She carried a lace basket of rose petals.

The grooms best men were Gayland Fleming Jr. and Danny Fleming, both brothers of the groom. The groom was attired in an ivory and brown tuxedo and the groomsmen wore brown tuxedos.

The bride descended the stairway adorned in lily of the valley flowers accented with palm leaves and greenery at the base. Escorted by her father, Truman Dobbins of Houston, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory chantilly lace fashioned with a high victorian neckline edged in Brussels lace. The fitted bodice had a deep "V" voke of English net with a deep ruffle encircling the shoulders. The A-line skirt had a detachable train that cascaded in cathedral length. The headpiece was a picture hat of matching Chantilly lace adorned with an ivory silk flower and a bow of imported illusion.

For her something old, the bride carried in her bouquet her great-grandmother's gold wedding band. Something new was her gown, something borrowed were her shoes which also contained a token penny with her birthdate. Something blue was the traditional garter.

They exchanged marriage vows before an arched candelabra adorned with nectarine gladiolas, pom pom chrysanthemums and bronze daisies. The Rev. Floyd C. Bradley directed the recitation of vows.

Risenhoover of Shallowater and Cynthia Middleton of Lubbock. Guests were registered by Jana Finley, cousin of the bride.

An ivory cloth belonging to the grooms grandmother covered the table which featured a tiered wedding cake accented with a miniature candelabra and topped with a miniature silk bouquet of the brides colors. Centered on the table was an original sculpture of the bride and groom and a large silk flower arrangement. A nectarine punch was also served with crystal and silver appointments.

The couple reside in Abernathy where they are both employed at Struve Implement.

A story of a long lost brother unfolded here in South Plains last week as Mrs. M.M. Julian heard from her youngest brother, Willis Everist in Bremerton, Washington, that he had bought a new genealogy book and in studying it, found the name of the oldest brother, Ted Everist, who was presumed dead many years ago, as he left the Colorado and New Mexico area nearly 49 years ago, and no word was heard from him throughout the years, and all the writing and searching availed nothing, until his name was discovered in this new book. Calls to Ted Everist found to be in Bakersfield, California, indeed show him to be the brother who had disappeared so very long ago. A reunion of sisters and brothers hoped for soon.

Conference to aid farmers with crucial choices

Changes in agriculture present threats for some farmers and opportunities for others during 1982, economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service warn. In either case, they caution, these changes will affect how farmers fare not only in 1982 but in years to come.

Suggestions for ways to make the most of these changes will be presented during a special one-day program at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, January 28 at the Koko Palace, 50th St. and Avenue O, in Lubbock.

The program, "Profitable Decision Making in 1982" is especially tailored to the needs of Floyd County producers.

A panel of Extension educators will spend the day addressing real-world problems of farming and ranching. They will cover farm policy, production and financial decisions, and marketing alternatives.

The Lubbock meeting will focus upon conditions and alternatives in cotton, corn and grain sorghum. It is one of eight such meetings being conducted across the state by the Extension Service. The local meeting is being held in conjunction with the South Plains Development Program.

Policy and marketing trends will be examined by Dr. Ron Knutson, economist and policy and marketing specialist; Dr. Roland Smith, economist and marketing specialist, and Dr. Carl Anderson, economist and cotton marketing specialist. Knutson will discuss implications of the 1982 farm bill. Smith will discuss marketing outlooks for corn and grain sorghum, and Anderson will look at cotton prospects.

The relationship of production and financial decisions will be covered by Dr. Wayne Havenga, farm management economist. He will offer some suggestions on how to stretch credit, evaluating risk position, trade-offs between income and survival, crop insurance, spending money to make money, selecting the best crop from the standpoint of profit and risk, and the implications of such choices for the farmer, the landlord and the banker.

During the afternoon, Knutson will compare marketing options for risk and returns, evaluate marketing methods for 1982 and the future, and offer suggestions for developing a marketing plan.

Smith and Anderson then will provide a detailed look at selection of selling prices, pricing versus delivery, and evaluation storage for three principal crops in the South Plains: cotton, grain sorghum and corn.

Farmers and ranchers in the South Plains have demonstrated their ability to produce. Their ability to survive in today's economy will depend upon their success in management and marketing.

This conference is designed to help our producers in these critical areas of management and marketing.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Despite low grade cotton, high-quality seed available

Although low grades of cotton were harvested over much of Texas in 1981, agronomists with the Southwestern Division of Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., indicate that ample supplies of high-quality seed will likely be available to farmers this year.

"In reviewing tests by our quality control people, the quality of our 1981-produced seed looks excellent. And we should have good supplies available for farmers planning their 1982 crop," said Jim Schrib, an agronomist who specializes in cotton production for the Southwestern Division, headquartered in Plainview.

"The maturity of our seed was excellent at harvest, germination counts are high, and free-fatty acid content is extremely low — all indications of great seed quality."

Schrib said virtually all of the Pioneer cotton planting seed was grown in the Rolling Plains region of Texas, where growing conditions were excellent for seed production.

Micronaire ratings for much of the cotton grown on the South Plains were below normal in 1981, indicating that the quality of seed produced there could be low, Schrib pointed out.

"Conditions on the majority of the South Plains and lower Panhandle were not good for seed production because of so much cool, damp weather in the latter part of the growing season," he said. "But the quality of the seed Pioneer produced on the Rolling Plains looks excellent."

"There are real advantages to good quality seed...faster germination, better stand establishment, more uniform populations and better resistance to seedling diseases."

"All of those have an effect on higher yields and grades — which are the ultimate goals of cotton production," he said.

Schrib noted that even though late summer cool weather and heavy rains on the South Plains hampered seed production and lowered lint grades, yields in the huge cotton-producing area were higher than expected.

"In visiting with farmers in that area, we have found that yields were somewhat surprising, considering the weather conditions there during the summer," he said.

According to statistics from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin, the South Plains had cotton yields that averaged about 380 pounds per acre, far better than the low average yield of 216 pounds in 1980. The South Plains produced more than 2.7 million bales from 3.6 million acres, half the state's entire 1981 production.

Other Texas yield ranged from about 315 pounds on the Rolling Plains and 290 pounds in the Blacklands of North Texas, to about 425 pounds in the lower South Plains and 375 pounds in the lower Panhandle.

The Speaker Reports

BY BILL CLAYTON
The energy crisis has hit every section of our society. For the farmer, it hits hardest at the gasoline pump and the home heating bills, but it is affecting the prices of the food on the table because it is affecting Texas agriculture.

Electricity was $1.44 per 100 kilowatts in 1970, while in 1980 it was $3.51. Diesel was $2.20 per gallon in 1970, and $1.00 per gallon in 1980.

Sufficient energy is a mandatory item for farmers to produce at their current rate. One farmer now produces enough food for an average of 56 other persons. Also, certain amounts of energy must be available particularly at certain stages of crop seasons.

Three-fourths of the energy used on Texas farms goes for fuel purchases. Texas farms use an average of $830 million of fuel per year.

Forty-one percent of all the energy used in productive agriculture in Texas goes for pumping irrigation water. About sixty percent of our crop production comes from irrigated areas. Natural gas is the fuel most often used for irrigation.

Farmers do not pass increased fuel costs on to consumers directly; instead, they must absorb them. However, in trying to absorb higher fuel costs, they must cut back on production which results in higher food costs at the supermarket.

To combat the energy crisis in agriculture, several areas are being thoroughly researched. These areas are conservation of land, water, and energy; more efficient crop and livestock production systems; different kinds of improved crops; increased production to reduce capital risk; and development of new markets and marketing systems.

The energy crisis is forcing farmers to reevaluate their methods of farming. Undoubtedly some changes will have to be made. But I am confident that our advanced agricultural and technological research, when set the task, will arrive at innovative solutions.

Renting bulls good idea in Texas

In Texas, renting a bull to settle cows is an alternative to owning one, though cattlemen need to consider numerous factors before making a decision either way.

Several factors exist favoring bull leasing for the producer, according to Dr. Ashley C. Lovell of Stephenville, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

These include the tax deductible rental charge, less investment capital needed, and less annual expense in feeding and caring for the bull.

"An important factor for smaller producers is that renting gives them a chance to use a better quality bull than they often could afford to own," says Lovell. "Also, by using a different bull each year, producers can keep heifers from each calf crop, and there is limited bull death risk."

The economist states that acquiring a herd bull has short- and long-term consequences, and these must be weighed and individually considered before deciding whether to rent or own.

Long-term satisfaction to cow-calf producers from choosing bulls is measured by the performance of the progeny through future generations, he says. Bull costs per calf and pounds of beef weaned per cow are the short-term consequences from the bull selection that may determine if the producer can stay in business long enough to realize any long-term benefits.

"To achieve the economic advantage of lower annual feeding and maintenance costs, producers might need to keep a bull only three to four months a year, which is where renting would be the ideal answer," Lovell says. "For herds that calve all year, six-month to one-year leases are necessary."

In comparing figures for a three- to four-month bull leasing program, the economist notes that leasing a $2,125 bull is projected as less expensive per calf than owning a $750 bull.

In many cases, renting a high-performing bull for periods up to one year will be more economical than owning an average bull when rental costs, bull ownership costs and performance of offspring of the two bulls are observed and compared, Lovell adds.

Bleak outlook for soybean grower

Soybeans can be an excellent money crop when conditions are right, but they haven't been right for some time, especially in Texas.

Between last year's drought and this year's alternating periods of either too much or not enough rain, soybean production has suffered. Adding to the woes of growers is the fact that the bottom has dropped out of the soybean market.

In the wake of this bleak outlook, growers must plan their marketing strategy, says Johnny Feagan, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Putting this year's crop of soybeans into storage might be the best move and would give growers an opportunity to capitalize on a possible market upswing in a few months. However, Feagan cautions that soybean prices would have to move up 10 to 12 cents a month to cover storage and interest costs.

Currently, soybeans are bringing $5.25 to $6 a bushel, down sharply from the $9 to $10 range two years ago, notes the economist.

Texas' 1981 crop stands at about 650,000 acres with an average yield of 23 bushels per acre. This total of almost 15 million bushels is above last year's drought-plagued crop, but that's little solace to growers because of the sluggish market.

U.S. production is estimated at 2.1 billion bushels, 18 percent above last year's crop due mainly to average yields of 31.5 bushels per acre, 19 percent higher than in 1980.

Since soybeans are a major oilseed crop, they are affected by world oilseed production which is currently at record levels and 9 percent higher than last year, notes Feagan. U.S. oilseed production, which includes cottonseed, peanuts, sunflowers and flax in addition to soybeans, is up almost 20 percent.

Although domestic use of soybeans is expected to increase about 10 percent due to record supplies and low prices, a flat livestock sector, high interest rates and a continued weak economy will likely have a dampening effect on net income of growers, says Feagan.

Meeting with Reagan requested to help farmers' economic crisis

Amarillo — Thirty members of the House of Representatives including Rep. Jack Hightower have written a letter to President Reagan requesting an urgent meeting with him to discuss the economic crisis in agriculture. The meeting was requested for sometime soon after Congress reconvenes January 25th.

"It is impossible to overstate how bad economic conditions are for the agricultural sector," the letter reads. "...the increasing debt into which farmers are forced in order to stay in business and the resulting high bankruptcy rate is at a much more critical level than can be appreciated from Washington."

"This is a matter of utmost urgency and we respectfully ask to meet with you to present our views regarding the state of agriculture and see if we can work together to improve this sector of our economy," the letter concludes.

Brucellosis program to continue in Texas areas

Commissioners of the Texas Animal Health Commission took action recently which will allow Texas to continue its two area brucellosis programs.

They requested the U.S. Department of Agriculture to reclassify the present brucellosis control areas of this state. The present Class A control area (generally the western half of the state) would become Class B area, and the present Class B control area (generally the eastern half of the state) would become Class C area.

"We are taking this action so that the Texas livestock producers will be aware of impending changes as soon as possible," John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, chairman, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

New federal regulations are expected to be in place not later than the end of this month. Even then, however, it will take additional time to fully implement them.

"Until the new regulations are in effect, Texas producers should continue to operate under the present Texas brucellosis program," Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

Dr. Holcombe said it may be early Spring before the new rules will apply in Texas.

Wayne Appling did not have to worry on her eyes as the youngster for the first of the new year she is wearing contact lenses and she is controlling her visual acuity.

dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDougle of Crosbyton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robison of Lubbock. Brenda is much improved from her phlebitis condition and taught school at Duncan Thursday. Mrs. O.D. Williams was in Ft. Sill, Oklahoma last week looking after little Amanda Lee while her mother, Mrs. Monte Williams recovered from a virus. She visited Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children, and attended a magic show at Came-on University on Saturday with her grandson, Austin. Returning home Sunday, she visited in Vernon with Mrs. Norma Lee, in Crowell with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones, and at Truscott with Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Brown. Mrs. Roy Fawver enjoys lunch at the Senior Citizens three days a week and the games on Monday and Thursday. She was in the hospital right before Christmas but has felt much better ever since. On Sunday she visited Mrs. Nettie Adams. On Tuesday she and her brother, W.N. Anderson went to Lubbock to see about his hearing aide. The weather has been very cold over the weekend and then a warm, sunny and wind blown early part of the week. Everything is very dry. Pastures and wheat fields need rain. Mrs. S.G. Appling accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling to Lubbock Monday where they visited Mrs. S.J. Latta in her home. She has a nurse on 24 hour duty to look after her, as her hearing is bad, and her leg bothers her, but she is able to remain in her home. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pyle attended a basketball game at Lockney Monday evening to see their son, David and team play. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mooseberg visited in Duncan, Oklahoma from Tuesday to Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. Don Winslow and family. Other houseguests included their other daughter and her husband, Alice and Ken Steele of Perryton. Ken was attending a training school for Halliburton Oil Company employees in Duncan, for the week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston are planning to visit in Cleburne as soon as they get their work caught up. Alta's mother has been placed in a rest home there after breaking her hip before Christmas.

Long-term credit that's productive.

Winds and temperatures make life miserable

BY GRACE LEMONS
The Assembly of God Church will host a C.A. Rally at the church Thursday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Vance Mitchell's left last Wednesday to visit Mrs. Mitchell's father, Rev. H.E. Barnard in Eakly, Oklahoma.

They returned home Saturday. Claude Gene Hammitt is a patient in a hospital in Denver, Colorado. Tests are still being run. We trust that his condition is not serious and he will soon gain his strength. Janette Lackey of Floydada visited Edna Gilly Friday afternoon. Edna Gilly and Janette Lackey had lunch out in Plainview Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John D. VanHoose entertained 19 in their home Sunday evening with a supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Durham and family and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Durham and family of Lockney, Eula Mae and Chic Wilson of Ralls, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil VanHoose of Kingsville and daughter, Edith of South Plains College and Mr. and Mrs. Alford VanHoose of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil VanHoose of Kingsville spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. John D. VanHoose. Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lemons and grandson, Vance, and Marvin Lemons of Lockney went to Amarillo on business Tuesday and while they were there they visited Grace's sister, Lavena Decker who is still improving after falling and breaking her left leg recently. The Lemons had supper in Lockney in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lemons before returning home. Linda Lemons, Twyla and Traca were among the seven that attended a Tupperware party in the home of Charlene Langly Tuesday evening. We regret the death of W.O. Whitehead whose services were held recently in the Davis Funeral Home in Georgetown. His wife Minnie preceded him in death about 60 days. The family moved to Cedar Hill about forty years ago to farm. They were active in social activities and were members of the Cedar Hill Baptist Church. They moved away for a few years and came back and built a new home and stayed until their health failed and moved to Georgetown. Memories of their lives will remain with us. We rejoice with the Brown family that Sid is able to leave the hospital after falling recently and breaking several bones. His daughter and husband, Geraldine and Peat Callaway will stay with him in his home. No one is useless in the world who lightens the burden of it for someone else.

Wild weather hits hard

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN
We had some cold weather? It was beautiful day, but the wind usually holds on, slightly in the afternoon. But time flies! It brings us closer to spring with rains and blessings.

Mrs. Dale Miller is on a trip to Amarillo today. Mrs. Clarence Ashton of the Lockney Rest Home seems about the same. Mrs. Claude Carpenter is back in the Rest Home after a seige in the hospital. Mrs. Anthony Latta and Ma Green visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Rogers and company one late afternoon last week. They are glad to be home after his long stay in a Dallas Hospital following a car wreck. Sunday visitors of the Doyle Sandifurs were Mr. and Mrs. B.P. Sandifur, City, and Jackie Don Tyler of Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son David of Lubbock spent over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas. A procession has passed by going to the cemetery. Let us say a prayer for the loved ones, and for the sick in our hospitals.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

BY LYNN DANIEL

Warm hearts are hard to come by, when it's so cold outside. The residents of the Floydada Nursing Home would like to thank everyone who warmed their home, with love the past two weeks. We've had a great time despite the weather and the bug that keeps nagging at everyone.

Last Wednesday, the bus ride took us to Ralls. Cecil Griggs, one of our new residents, served as narrator on the trip.

Our Bingo winners the last two weeks were, Clara Williamson, Iris Colston, Nora McKnight, Emmitt Lawrence and Vera Duke.

Tuesday at 6:00 the Floydada Whirlers danced their way into the hearts of our residents bringing back memories of the past. Some of the residents had never seen a square dance and were delighted.

Wednesday the choir of St. Mary Magdalen sang and played guitars. We all loved it, and hope they return soon.

Thursday, the lobby filled with love, hugs and singing, all the necessary ingredients for a lovely visit from the City Park Church of Christ girls group.

With all our love and appreciation, we offer our thanks to the ladies of the City Park Church of Christ for a beautiful birthday party. The guests of honor were: Florence Simpson, 84, Juanita Bailey, 63, W.C. Cates, 93, and Francis Childs, 90.

A special thank you to Worth Howard for a wall hanging, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baxter, for quilt scraps, and flowers from the Reeves family.

Visitors included: Corene and Murry Stewart, Lindsey and Billie Lackey, Marie Baxter, Harvey Tardy, Merlene Breeding, Beady Owens, Deotia Odam, Ethel Barker, Nealey Richardson, St. Mary Magdalen Church Choir, Sophie Garza, Carmen Quilantan, Irma Briones, Esmer DeLeon, Belinda Vallejo, Emma Martinez, and Diana Vallejo; Wesley Day, Sallye Dav, Charley L. Berry Sr., Ethel Warren, Thelma Jones, Beulah Denison, Lucille Sisson, Maurice and Ella Goodwin, Worth Gwendolyn Howard, Dixie and Zacha Harris, Christine Robertson.

Care Center Capers

BY VICKIE HUTTON

As the days and months go by, my job becomes more and more enjoyable. The residents have become very important to me and have a special place in my heart. They have given my life a whole new meaning. I feel God has guided me in my work and made me realize I need these special people very much.

I received a very special letter from Cheryl Bradley this week. She told me how much she enjoyed reading about the residents and the memories they brought back about the residents she knew. Thanks Cheryl for your letter and please keep in touch.

Our lucky bingo winners this week were Myrtle Burke and Richard Lanham. Our games are filled with a lot of excitement and fun.

We really love this activity. Thanks to our wonderful volunteers DeLinda Glasston, Almeda Phillips, and Linda Holley.

Our bus trips this week were cancelled because of bad weather. We are hoping the weather is warmer next week so we can tour the country-side and see the many changes that are made season after season.

The first resident council meeting of the new year was held Wednesday morning. New officers were elected: Mamie Wofford, president; Albert Poole, vice president; and Richard Lanham, secretary. The residents meet every second Wednesday of the month. They discuss the activities planned and the activities they would like to have planned such as picnics, special parties, etc. If they have any complaints, they air these and we try to work it out. This gives the residents a chance to voice their opinions and express their feelings. After being elected president, Mamie Wofford told everyone she was really going to keep them in line.

We welcome our ceramic teacher, Chuck Shakley back from vacation. We sure missed him. Our ceramic classes are truly enjoyable.

Until next time, have a nice week.

Resthome Birthday Party

Thursday January 14 was birthday time again at the Rest Home and ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosted the celebration.

The honorees were seated at the "honor" table and their places were marked with special cards. Other Residents and guests were also seated in the dining room.

The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a silk flower arrangement in colors of rose, wine, shades of pink and brown. A beautiful birthday cake iced in white and with floral decorations in matching colors to the centerpiece also graced the table.

The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking" after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the birthday song.

Mrs. Childs had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Neely Richardson. Other guests included Mrs. W.R. Daniels and Mr. P.L. Hart.

A delicious refreshment plate of birthday cake and a tasty fruit punch was served to the honorees, guests, Residents and employees.

The next party will be Thursday, February 18, 2:30 p.m. Please attend and help your loved ones and friends celebrate their special time.

SPS is investigating numerous ways of producing electricity in the future. Supplemental energy studies are being conducted in generating electricity through solar, wind, nuclear fusion, burning waste products for fuel, and the liquefaction and gasification of coal.

Jack Payne, Working Foreman, Artesia.

Standard-life lightbulbs conserve more electric energy than long-life bulbs and give the most light for your dollar. Higher wattage incandescent bulbs are usually more efficient than smaller wattage bulbs. For instance, you get more light from one 100-watt bulb than from two 50-watt bulbs. Additional energy and money-saving tips are available from your SPS office.

Doris Jones, Senior Clerk, Canyon.

SPS builds coal-fired power plants for less than half the average utility industry cost. Coal-fired Harrington Station was designed and engineered by SPS employees and built at a cost of about $300 per kilowatt, substantially less than the nearly $1,000 per kilowatt that other utilities spend for construction of coal-fired facilities.

Billy Hammers, Maintenance Foreman, Amarillo.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing. For answers to your questions, call or write your SPS manager.
