South Coast fishing village stage for spring style show

The women of Floydada were transported to the coast of Texas and a small fishing village Monday night as they watched the newest in spring fashions presented by local merchants during the annual membership style show and salad supper sponsored by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Women's Division. The theme for the event was "Sail into Spring."

Darlyn Hambricht, president of the Women's Division, welcomed everyone and set the mood for the evening with a glimpse of the newest trends in clothing for spring.

"For style setters of all ages," she said, "there's a surprise in store when you check our new spring lines. Bright colors are here, in every shade possible, used together in every imaginable way. If you have enjoyed pretty pastels as your Spring wardrobe for the past few years only to watch them grow pale and wan by the end of summer, you won't have that problem this season. By investing in fresh, bright, colors, your wardrobe will make as much of an impact in August as it does in March. White, the old stand-by for warm weather, is again the best investment since it mixes with any color."

She stated "there is a deliberate un-balance of proportion and color seen in warm weather wear. Think of small and big, loose and tight. A large, loose blouson top might be teamed with a skimp skirt."

"Paints are in even greater variety than before, from ballerina shorts to bermudas, bloomers to clam diggers and knickers, to cropped pants."

"This year the nautical influence has come shining through. Skipper Blue, Regatta Red and Crisp White branch out into two more sailor colors: tan and black, creating an unforgettable nautical combination."

"Accessories will make your closet come alive this spring, as belts and headbands take over. Fashion details such as dropped shoulders, sleeve flanges, cording, rows of stitching, and special buttons all make news."

Evangelist team to be at Assembly of God Church

Pastor Jim Guess invites everyone to be apart of special services at the First Assembly of God Church at Floydada with Evangelist Gary and Renee Martin, beginning April 4-7. Service time will be 6 p.m. Sunday night and 7:30 p.m. Monday through Wednesday.

Gary and Renee Martin, of Springdale, Arkansas, are an extremely talented couple who combine their talents to form a unique evangelistic team. They have traveled throughout the United States ministering in revival services, camps, retreats, and other special services.

The Martins minister in music by combining a large variety of songs both fast and slow, that will appeal to people of all ages and backgrounds. They have recorded several long play albums that attest to their talent and ability, yet, the greatest factor of all is the special anointing of the Holy Spirit upon their music that leads into worship.

Renee, is an accomplished pianist and has a special, personal touch while singing and ministering. Gary has sang with various gospel quartets and is an excellent soloist. Many of the selections they sing have been written by Gary.

Indeed, they minister in song so beautifully, but still believe that the greatest emphasis of their ministry is placed upon the preaching of the word. Gary has stated, "there is a great revival sweeping our land today and God is meeting individual needs in great numbers. I am excited to be ministering in this great revival age!" You will be inspired by Gary's anointed delivery of God's word.

In their years of ministry, thousands of lives have been touched by the Spirit of God in a very special way.

Gary and Renee are joined in their travels by their son, Zachary, who is a very special part of their family.

A rewarding experience will be yours when you participate in services with Gary and Renee Martin.

In addition to the regular Sunday services at 10:55 a.m. and 7 p.m.,

Lockney Care Center Capers

BY VICKIE HUTTON

Well, spring didn't stay long! Even though the weather turned off cold, we have had a very pleasant week. Our current events class has really taken off. Alma McDonald told us about the launching of the space shuttle. The Residents were undecided whether the space program was necessary. We wish the astronauts a safe landing.

There is no doubt which activity is the favorite of the Residents. Bingo. Our lucky winners were Ruby Vaughan and Myrtle Payne. Thanks to Josephine Hamilton for donating the fruit for bingo and we thank our faithful volunteers, DeLinda Glasson, Almada Phillips and Linda Holley for helping with bingo.

We tried something new this week, a spelling bee. The only problem was, I ran out of words before we had a winner. After thinking up some new words our winner was Mary McCracken.

Thursday Laverne Christian and myself attended a luncheon in Lubbock to help organize the South Plains Chapter of the Texas Nursing Home Association. This has generated a lot of interest among all nursing home administrators and their staff.

I would like to thank the members of the El Pnseroso Study Club for asking me to present a program to them about the Care Center. I was able to share with them all the special people we have at the home and tell them about all our activities. The slide presentation, "Let's Grow Together" that was given to us by a grant from the Levi Strauss Corporation was shown. The Residents are a very important part of my life and I love telling others about the special things they do and the different personalities they have.

We welcomed Bill Holt home this week. We sure missed him! Bingo wasn't the same without him.

We lost Belva Gibson this week. She has been a member of our family for a long time and we will miss her very much. We send our sympathy to the family.

Lovell Edwards is in Lockney General Hospital. We hope she will be able to come home soon.

Thanks to J.B. Mercer, we can really tell that spring has come by watching the birds. Mr. Mercer put up a 16 room Purple Martin house. It is beautiful and we thank him for his thoughtfulness. We invite everyone to come see it, it is really a work of art.

Until next time; a smile is worth a thousand words!

THE AMERICAN ENTERPRISE SYSTEM: YOUR VOTE COUNTS... YOUR VOICE COUNTS MORE!!!

Election Day Fever! The hoopla, the flag waving and the promise... Everybody gets excited. But what about the morning after...and all the following days?

In a democratic system of representative government, our responsibility doesn't end with election day. If anything, that's when the responsibilities begin. Whether it's City Hall, The State House or Capitol Hill, elected officials must continue to hear our voice on the issues.

The very fibre of a free enterprise system demands a vigilant citizenry.

Never assume that your elected officials have all the answers. Never assume that you can't change the course of legislation. And never assume that the bureaucracy is too deaf to hear.

Unfortunately, too many of us think we'll be considered a kook or a wild-eyed rebel if we speak out. That's what a lot of people said about the men who gathered in Philadelphia two hundred years ago. And they had a lot more to risk than we do.

True, it's difficult to redirect national affairs to have an individual influence on the course of national destiny. But our national elected officials are responsive to a chorus of voices.

And what about local affairs? Have you ever attended a School Board meeting? A City Council meeting? A Commissioners Court meeting? Have you ever spoken out on zoning matters or supported the tough issues even though the right position might have been unpopular?

It's a lot easier to sit back and criticize "government" for whatever ills are created. But maybe that's how the ills were created in the first place. Because government itself simply "assumed."

Because we assumed our job was done when we voted on election day.

But the fact is that we are the "government", all of us, elected or not. This basic tenet of our Constitution has never been changed, but never forgotten, but never used.

Our free enterprise democracy which sometimes creak with inefficiency get frustrated or angry actions of our elected officials surrounding bureaucracy feel that taxes are too low.

But with all its apparent shortcomings, our country guarded throughout the most personal freedom.

There's only one America's unique system for all of us to get into political process, every

Dot Golightly is current guest artist at local bank

The First National Bank, Floydada, is pleased to have on exhibit the oil paintings of Dot Pude Golightly, Lubbock artist.

A former resident of Floydada, Dot Golightly will be remembered for her efforts and services as Floyd County Librarian as well as for her other contributions to the community.

The Lee Golightlys and daughters, Nancy and Nita Faye, moved to Austin in 1958, then to Kingsland in 1965. There, deep in the hill country, Dot turned her energies back to art, a talent that had been set aside for some years for other interests.

"My husband bought me a pair of sturdy boots, a good easel, supplies, and encouraged me to spend days in the pastures blanketed with wild flowers, and on the lake shore. Lee was my most ardent supporter and my best critic," said the artist. "I loved especially the bluebonnets; but everywhere I looked I could see God's handiwork."

The artist's instruction includes a year of art in Plainview High School under Mrs. Bennington, and a year in Mary Hardin-Baylor, Belton, plus some workshops, and "lots and lots of practice."

"Someday I hope to do some watercolor, but now, I enjoy oil painting because it allows me to change something, move around on the canvas as I feel the need. My subject matter? Everything I see I like to try to paint."

Mrs. Golightly returned to West Texas after the death of her husband, and chose Lubbock where a daughter, Nancy (Mrs. Dale) Tardy lives. She is active in the Lubbock Art Ass'n. and is on the library committee, as well as being on the library committee of the First Baptist Church. She has just completed an exhibit at Hemphill-Wells downtown. Other exhibits in which she has participated are the Kingsland Art Show, the Elizabeth Ney Gloria Laguna, Austin, Garden and Arts Center and Lubbock Airport.

The First National Bank cordially invites you to view the interesting exhibit in the lobby which includes landscapes of the hill country, Bluebonnets, Winchester Oak, Shrimp Boat, Dogwood in Vase, Serenity, Man's Best Friend, Sand Dunes, and The Kiss. All are oil paintings.

The lobby is open on Monday from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.; Tuesday through Friday from 9 until 3.

II Penserosa Jr. Study Club met March 25 in the home of Bill and Anita Bigham. Co-hostesses were Lesca Durham and Kelly Fortenberry.

Vicky Hutton, activity director of the Lockney Care Center, gave the program. Vicky started off by telling us she didn't have a job it had become her life. She told of all the beautiful people, and that she thanked God each day for each one of them. Vicky told of her big family, the games they play and the love they have for each other. Vicky then showed a film given to the Care Center by Levi Strauss. The film showed how to work in a Center. It told of ten important needs of the residents. Each one needs pride and love. We are lucky to have a young lady with so much love and energy to take care of Lockney's special people. Vicky reported to us there are nineteen eligible voters. She will take their absentee votes to the poll. She plans games and crafts for the residents. The residents have church everyday. Vicky said they love to sing and praise God. Vicky shows a film each week of which she gets from the Lockney library. The Care Center is owned by Capitol Health of Dallas.

The Care Center's cookbook is in. They sell for $6.00. Remember to care.

The Homebuilders Extension Club met in the home of Mrs. Gladys Widener on March 23. Mrs. Lela Mae Burns called the meeting to order and the hostess read the devotion from Romans 16:1-3.

Roll call was answered by nine members telling about the most unforgettable woman they have known; mothers, grandmothers, mother-in-laws, Helen Keller, Lady Bird Johnson, and from Floydada, Mrs. Earl Edwards, J.M. Williams, Hester Moore, and Grandmother Carr, brought loving comments.

Six of our members plan to attend the district TEHA meeting in Snyder, March 30. Mrs. Lillian Smith gave a very interesting program on "A Notable Woman I Have Known," and Lillian chose Jackie Kennedy, a very lovely refined lady. In the book, "My Life with Jackie Kennedy," Mary Beralli Gallagher, who was Jackie's secretary, describes her as a very loving mother and wife. Mary and Bobby Kennedy were Jackie's closest friends and she depended on them in time of joy as well as sorrow. We all felt we knew the real Jackie and her life as First Lady in the White House.

Refreshments were served to Lela Mae Burns, Blanch Williams, Inize Walker, Doris Tinsley, Eunice Hong, Ruth Trapp, and Lillian Smith.

Red Raider Girls' Basketball Camp set

Some of the finest basketball minds in the state will be on hand this summer for the 1982 Red Raider Girls' Basketball Camp. Marsha Sharp, staff director and Tech assistant coach, has brought together five of the most successful and experienced coaches in the state to provide the instruction.

Headlining the staff will be Texas Tech head coach Donna Wick. After two years at the helm of the women's basketball fortunes, it is apparent that Coach Wick has a great deal of expertise concerning basketball technique and is a staunch believer in fundamentals. Wick has previous experience as a player and coach at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas.

The featured lecturer will be Dean Weese, one of the most respected coaches in the state of Texas. After attaining unmatched success at Spearman High School and Wayland Baptist University and a brief stint in the pros, Coach Weese has returned to the high school ranks in Levelland where he once again has turned a sagging program into a winner.

The other clinicians for the camp read like a Who's Who in Texas Basketball. Diana Lewis, head coach of the Slaton Tigerettes and previously at Abernathy, has led her teams to numerous post season competitions. She is presently serving as the Vice President of the Texas High School Girls' Coaches Association. The Panhandle Plains Super Team Coach of the Year in 1981, Lyndon Hardin will also be on hand as a camp clinician. Hardin led his Canyon High School team to the 1981 Class AAAA state championship. Also providing instruction throughout the sessions will be Dimmitt High School's Jimmy Hoyle. The basketball teams of Coach Hoyle have made repeated appearances in the Class AAA Regional tournament, while also compiling one of the finest district records in the state of Texas. Coach Karla Kitten of Lubbock Cooper High School returns to Tech to lend her expertise to the camp after standout careers at both Slaton High School and Texas Tech University. Coach Kitten recently enjoyed the most successful season of her coaching career.

Rounding out the staff is Texas Tech assistant coach and staff director Marsha Sharp. Coach Sharp recently completed her first year with the Tech program after a highly successful career at Lockney High School. Like Wick, Coach Sharp is committed to the development of sound fundamentals.

Texas Tech will offer three camp sessions during the summer months: July 11-16 and July 18-23 (for overnight campers) and July 26-30 (for commuter campers only). Members of the Texas Tech women's basketball team will serve as counselors.

Each session, conducted at the Student Recreation Center on the Texas Tech campus, will consist of a six-day program promoting the fundamental knowledge and skill level of all participants. The final evening of the session will be reserved as a demonstration night for parents and interested persons.

The cost for the camp is $135.00 for overnight campers and $80.00 for commuter campers. This fee includes all instruction, housing, t-shirt, insurance, use of Texas Tech facilities and awards. A $40.00 deposit should be made at the

He was taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, after men of the community got him out of the canyon, which took them about 2 1/2

Many owners of SPS common stock are also customers who live within its 45,000-square-mile service area. Twenty-nine percent of the total shareholders live in the southwestern part of the United States. Of this group, 80% live in Texas and about one-half of the Texas shareholders live in the area served by Southwestern Public Service Company. SPS common shareholders in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and 12 foreign countries.

Energy-efficient electric water heater can save you money installed close to the point of use. And, since the heater is insulated and fully-insulated, it keeps water hot longer. You reduce the amount of water your household uses by filling the dishwasher to capacity before turning it on or by using the cycle. Using your clothes washer only when you have a load and taking showers rather than baths also can save money on water and electric bills.

Don Pemberton, Consumer Services Representative, Lubbock.

Keeping track of the amount of electricity your family uses is easy when you know how to read your own electric meter. Many consumers are confused by the four or five dials they see on the meter, yet reading the meter is not difficult and may help you save for your monthly electric bill even before it arrives. For complete instructions on reading your meter, check the back of the envelope your electric bill comes in or contact your local SPS office for the free "Reading Your Meter."

Charlie McVay, Meterman Journeyman, Roswell.

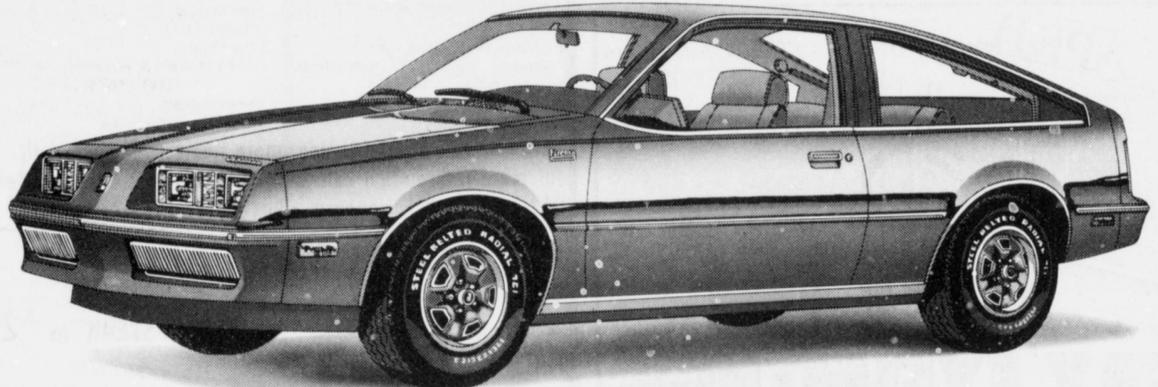

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing. For answers to your questions, call or write your SPS manager.

Norman attends photography course

Weims Norman, Dougherty, was enrolled in a professional photography class at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

Norman attended a session on commercial photography.

This class was conducted as a part of the 1982 Texas School of Professional Photography under the leadership of the Texas Professional Photographers Association. Classes began on March 21 and continued through March 26.

The school was created seven years ago in an effort to give photographers in Texas and the Southwest an opportunity to improve the quality of the work they produce. This is the third time Sam Houston State University has been selected to sponsor the professional school. Sam Houston was selected because of the facilities it has to offer for a program of this type.

Nearly 200 photographers attended this school and were involved in seven areas of instruction. Instructors in these sessions are widely known for their expertise in their particular area of photography. Many of them have lectured or have assisted in similar schools throughout the nation.

Lakeview receives high winds

BY JOYCE WILLIAMS
A light drizzle and high humidity over the weekend resulted in about one-tenth of an inch of moisture. Strong March winds Monday helped blow the month off the calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston received a phone call Saturday evening from their grandson, Jeff Andrews, who attends Texas Tech and works at station KLLI in Lubbock. Jeff said he and his sister, D'Lene, of Midland, would meet them at church Sunday. They are children of the former Anella Thurston. D'Lene is a computer worker at Exxon and attends Midland Jr. College.

Lt. Thomas Montgomery Williams completed work for his Masters degree in Management and Business Administration from Webster College of St. Louis, Missouri on March 12. He graduated from Texas Tech University in December, 1979, with a degree in Finance. He is stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma and serves in the Field Artillery.

Iantha Smith entertained with a birthday dinner Sunday evening honoring her father, Louis Pyle. Other guests included Mrs. Louis Pyle and David, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pyle and children, Jason and Amber, and Michelle and Scott Smith.

The Don Harrisons stayed home this week, both having the flu.
Mrs. Buell Neff was in Littlefield from Wednesday through Thursday visiting her daughter, Patricia and her husband Bill Smith.

Mrs. Annie Neff is somewhat improved at the Floydada Nursing Home. Her family checks on her, but no longer has to sit up with her.

Greg Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Speck Brian and Kendell, of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Calloway and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Williams and daughter, Amanda, of Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, were Saturday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams.

Mrs. Robert Pyle's brother, John Cummings, was home from Henderson County Jr. College for spring break and he and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings of South Plains visited the Pyles Saturday evening for a cook-out. Other supper guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sanders, Shay and Dane of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. Zach Cummings, Adam and Courtney, of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop spent the weekend at their ranch near Roaring Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Bunch recently vacationed in Carrollton with Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bunch and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Bunch and their families. Darrel had some vacation time and Willie took his golf clubs and all three men enjoyed playing golf in the beautiful weather.

Andy Brown visited the Edmund Browns last week.

Mrs. Joe Dunn received a phone call from her sister, Mrs. Armalee Scott in Amarillo, reporting their mother, Mrs. Hallie Fuqua was doing fine. Mrs. Dunn visited her sister, Mrs. Amelia Ashton, who is not feeling so well in the Lockney Rest Home. The Dunn's daughter, Norma Hughes, called from Los Angeles to report the good rains they have received there.

Jo and Marvin Crabtree and son, Kyle Joseph, of Clarendon, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston Tuesday night. Mr. Crabtree has leased grass-land and attended the cattle auction Wednesday to buy cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Calloway.

The Wayne McHams are all staying indoors with the flu this week.

Lilac blooms are opening at Center

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN
March 29:

Another month nearly gone. The last few days have been "cold and dark and dreary. It is misty and the wind is never weary."

It is good to be grateful for our good warm homes. We expect April to bring us April showers.

We had two ministerial students from Wayland Sunday at Calvary Baptist. One of them filled the pulpit in the absence of Bro. Payne.

Mrs. Clarence Ashton of the Lockney Rest Home is reported about the same. Mrs. C.M. Meredith is reported doing fine today after several days in Caprock Hospital.

Mrs. Mayfield reports the District H.D. meeting at Snyder expects to be attended Tuesday by some Floyd County women.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warren spent the weekend farther east. But "Six Flags" was off limits because of rain, and they reached home Sunday night.

My sister, Mrs. Gertrude Massingill, who had surgery last Monday at St. Anthony's of Amarillo is to be dismissed today. We are thankful. Saturday I had a nice surprise. My granddaughter from Lubbock called Saturday morning and said they'd be over in two hours or so. When they arrived, Sara and Doug Chandler and son Doug Jr. (my great grand), Sara said, "Happy Anniversary!" I was dazed a bit till I realized it was March 27, my 61st wedding anniversary! And it was a happy one. Their coming made it so.

Mrs. Anthony Latta visited Mrs. Green this afternoon. Then some local children dropped in.

Tuesday morning. The sky is clear, the lilacs are opening. Nice world.

"TALL TALES"

The Endless Ladder

By Tiffany Gentry

On a very hot summer day in June, I don't remember exactly what day and time it was. I was chatting with my birds that lived in the garden.

Hector, the biggest bird, grew to be very rude and bad-mannered, and his favorite expression was "Can it, nimbol!" But, believe it or not, he was the one who found it. A ladder. A quite tall ladder. In fact, this ladder was the tallest ladder I had ever seen. I guess I should have told dad first, but I wasn't thinking and started climbing it. It reached through the clouds, higher and higher all the time. I thought it would never end, but I kept on going.

Finally, after what seemed hours, I was high enough to see the mountainsides. I even saw the Atlantic Ocean and even Russia! I could tell it was Russia because there were funny-looking people with long, square noses and fat lips running around everywhere.

Then I decided to climb further up. Gradually I began to lose sight of Russia and I lost sight of my house long ago. All of the sudden the ladder step began to break! I thought I was a goner, but some arms of the ladder reached out and grabbed me.

The next few steps were weak and then one broke again, and this time there weren't any arms to save me. As I was falling, I had my funeral all planned out just as I bumped into a bird that looked like Johnny Carson and landed on a pink, fluffy cloud.

My pet dinosaur, whose name was Dinosaur, was still in my shirt pocket which was squashed. But Dinosaur was a compact beast that folded into the size of a pin head, so he didn't get crushed.

It started to get late, and I was wondering how to get home when the cloud drove me over to the ladder and I started climbing where I left off. That was when it started raining Juicy-Fruit gum. I grabbed packages and more packages of it, forgetting that I already had six cavities. I chewed it anyway.

I got tired of climbing (and chewing) and wondered if this ladder would ever end. I spotted Mars, Venus, and Jupiter. I even saw the space shuttle Columbia making its orbit back to Earth.

Before I knew it, morning came and I feasted on some crushed Cheerios that I found in my pocket. I asked a pink-polka-dotted bird that was flying by what time it was and he said with a confused tone, "What's that?"

I kept climbing and suddenly bumped my head into --- the ground?! No, it couldn't be the ground because it was above me. Heaven, maybe? No, not that either because nobody was coming with me. Well I climbed up on top and decided to explore. Then, I walked into my garden, then, my house, and mother said, "I was just going to call you for supper."

Across My Backyard

By Sharon Smith, 5-B

Once when I was traveling across my backyard, I went over mountains large and steep and when I got to the top I slid down. (It was really a slide.)

Once when I was traveling across my backyard I met a monster trying to grab me he had about 1,000,000 arms. I was very, very scared I almost didn't get away he grabbed me (It was really a bush.)

Once when I was traveling across my backyard aliens were taking me in their ship to their planet we seemed to be going back and forth I finally jumped out (It was really a swing.)

Once when I was traveling across my backyard I was pulled into a huge roaring river I swam and swam and finally ended up on a huge beach. (The river was my wading pool, the beach was my sandbox.)

Once when I was traveling across my backyard I was surrounded by giants. They were so tall and so big I almost screamed but I didn't (they were really trees.)

Mom says I have a big imagination! I guess I do, but it's a lot more fun.

Me and My Teddy Bear

By Kristy Dawdy, 5-B

Me and my teddy bear have lots of fun together. He teaches me these neat games. We dream about when we grow up how we're going to capture a mean old robber.

Once I was in bed and my teddy bear jumped up into my bed and told me this story about this guy who I wanted to be like, capture all them ole mean outlaws.

Well, the next morning I jumped up, got on my old clothes so the outlaw me and Teddy were going to catch wouldn't ruin them, that is my good clothes.

I was just fixin to run out the door and my Mommy asked me where I was going. Well, I had to tell her, I didn't want her to cry though. So I told her. She said I dreamed to much. But I didn't listen to her and neither did Teddy.

I always take care of Teddy and he takes care of me. One time I saw him laying in his bed and he had purple dots all over him I took him to my Mommy so she could doctor him. She said it was where I spilt my grape juice. I didn't listen to her. Besides, I hate grape juice, I guess.

Me and Teddy like nature. Once we were outside and I heard these two little birds fighting. I peaked into their nest. And WOW, the feathers flew, in my face unfortunately, and Teddy's too. The sight of the worm in their mouths made me and Teddy sick.

Next we heard some pigs fighting. They were scolding each other terribly, just like the birds, except the feathers didn't fly. Boy did I have alot to tell my Mommy. Well then I got home to tell her guess what she said? Yes, thats right, you hear to good. I guess she thinks I do everything good. I guess she likes me.

The best thing me and Teddy like to do is eat. Every once in a while my Mommy will fix me a peanut-butter and jelly sandwich. I tell her to set the honey on the table for Teddy. But she thinks I'm crazy, so I have to get it myself But I think my Mommy really likes me. In fact I know she loves me. But I love Teddy too.

Herd health one topic for Swine Course

An experienced veterinarian will counsel producers on maintaining herd health during the annual Swine Short Course of Texas A&M University, April 5-7.

Dr. LeRoy G. Biehl, Extension swine veterinarian from the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois, will be one of the featured speakers at the short course. This year's course will be presented as three one-day seminars at College Station, April 5; Fredericksburg, April 6 and Plainview, April 7.

The three presentations, each identical, will make the course more convenient to the producers, requiring less travel and time away from home. Dr. William B. Thomas, swine specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, explained.

The swine short course is part of the annual Texas Animal Agricultural Conference conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The conference also provides short courses for dairymen, cattlemen and horsemen.

Biehl has a quarter-century of practical experience as a veterinarian working with producers in private practice, conducting field service clinics and as Extension swine veterinarian. He will present a veterinarian's view of practical ways to correct swine herd health problems, said Dr. Robert S. Cohen, Texas Extension swine specialist at Lubbock.

Biehl received his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois in 1956 and his DVM in 1958. He practiced for 14 years in southeastern Illinois at Olney and Albion. In 1972 he returned to the University of Illinois to teach in its field service clinics. He received his MS degree in 1975 and joined Extension in 1976 as swine veterinarian.

Swine Shortcourse goes to producers

Concerns confronting swine producers today will be addressed during the annual Swine Shortcourse of Texas A&M, April 5-7.

This year's course will be presented as three one-day seminars at College Station, April 5; Fredericksburg, April 6; and Plainview, April 7. This was done to make the course more convenient to the producers, requiring less travel and time away from home, said Dr. William B. Thomas, swine specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Topics for the course were suggested by producers. Extension researchers as critical producers. Thomas said from grain pricing, reduced costs to grain processors from money costs to prices, and include programs and programs.

The Swine Shortcourse annual Texas Animal Agricultural Conference conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The conference shortcourses for dairymen and horse enthusiasts.

The swine session will be preceded by boards and committees. The Pork Producers Board of Producers Assoc.

The instruction will be identical at all three sites. Robert Cohen, Extensionist at Lubbock, said.

Registration will be a.m. At College Station and includes the Texas Assoc. annual meeting noon. At Fredericksburg the fee is $10 - lunch.

The morning session a.m. Dr. Roland Smith, marketing specialist, will look for feed and Danny A. Kliefelder, director of agricultural extension will discuss emerging outlook for ag credit.

An evaluation of programs and products will be by Dr. LeRoy G. Biehl, veterinarian of the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois.

Dr. Thomas, manager of Extension in Texas, will discuss production and facility outlook for ag credit.

After lunch, Biehl, veterinarian's view of swine herd health and implementing a program will be discussed.

Tanksley, Jr., professor of swine specialist, and Knabe, assistant professor of science, both at A&M review new equipment in the swine industry.

Registration forms from county Extension offices. Thomas, Room 212, Texas A&M University, Texas 77843.

Control range weeds with herbicide application

Ranchers can knock out most annual range weeds with an early spring herbicide application.

Otherwise, an abundance of weeds can reduce grass production and rob ranchers of their profits.

"The herbicide, 2,4-D gives excellent control of annual range weeds if they are growing rapidly and have not yet flowered," points out Dr. Tommy G. Welch, range brush and weed control specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Welch recommends using 2,4-D amine in areas of more than 25 inches of annual rainfall and 2,4-D low-volatile ester in areas of less rainfall. For harder-to-control weeds, he suggests mixing 2,4-D and dicamba in a 3 to 1 ratio.

"Weed control on rangeland can produce significant returns," says Welch. "Demonstrations have shown that a pound of grass is often produced for every pound of weeds controlled."

Good soil moisture conditions last fall over the state allowed many weeds to germinate. These will begin to grow rapidly as temperatures moderate and spring rains come. So ranchers need to make frequent checks and begin control measures as soon as weed infestations appear.

Among broadleaf weeds that ranchers should control are distaff thistle, annual broomweed and camphorweed, notes the specialist.

Since some weeds seeds are important food for certain wildlife species, Welch suggests applying herbicides so as to leave strips of weeds. Also, applying 2,4-D early in the spring to control certain annual weeds will allow later-germinating plants such as croton (dove weed) and snow-on-the-prairie to survive and provide feed for quail and dove.

"To get maximum benefits from weed control with herbicides, good grazing management is important," emphasizes Welch. "Proper grazing management helps provide a good cover of grass and keeps weeds down."

Crucial decision faces grain, cotton producers

One of the most crucial and immediate decisions facing grain and cotton producers is whether to participate in the acreage reduction program announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, says an economist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Dr. Ron Knutson explains that American agriculture, has again entered a period of surplus production—at least temporarily—and the Reagan Administration has responded to these conditions by announcing production controls on all major grains and cotton.

"The 1982 farm program requires that cotton, wheat and rice producers reduce their planted acreage by 15 percent and feed grain growers reduce planted acreage by 10 percent," Knutson says.

He points out that farmers who choose not to participate won't have access to any of the farm program benefits.

"They will have to fend for themselves in the marketplace," Knutson says.

Many Texas farmers and ranchers have already planted their wheat or prepared their land for planting sorghum, rice, corn or cotton—and in southern parts of the state some of these crops have been planted. The initial "gut" reaction of these producers is likely to be not to participate, Knutson says.

"Producers will find that if they analyze and compute the acreage reduction decision on a crop-by-crop and farm-by-farm basis, there are net benefits from participation," Knutson explains.

He points out that an economic decision on acreage reduction involves weighing the costs of reduction against the benefits.

Costs of participation include the income foregone from the reduced acreage, any costs that have already been sunk into the reduced acres, and maintenance costs. In regard to wheat, for example, any returns from grazing out or making hay on the reduced acreage should be subtracted from these costs, Knutson says.

Benefits of taking part in the acreage reduction program include potential deficiency payments, access to the farmer-owned reserve and access to the non-recourse loan, Knutson explains.

"These benefits could run as high as 14 cents a pound for cotton, 95 cents per bushel for wheat, 50 cents per bushel for corn, 91 cents per hundredweight for grain sorghum and $2.71 cents per hundredweight for rice, Knutson says.

Whether farmers realize these maximum benefits, however, depends on market conditions and grower access to the farmer-owned reserve.

"Even if they realize only 50 percent of the benefits, many Texas farmers and ranchers will find participation will increase their profits," Knutson says.

Farmers who choose not to participate in acreage reduction programs will assume substantially increased price and income risk during times of surplus production. Thus, every farmer should carefully evaluate participation in the acreage reduction program, the economist says.

Lawn Fertilization

A good reasonable fertilizer program is one of the basic parts of any turfgrass maintenance program and, of course, the home lawn maintenance program is no exception. Lawns that are under-fertilized tend to be thin and have poor color, while lawns that are over-fertilized, especially with high levels of a soluble nitrogen fertilizer, may tend to develop excessive thatch and be more prone to insect and disease damage.

Fertilizer Ratios and Analysis
There are several factors that are used when considering the best ratio to be used for a turf fertilizer. Considered are the functions of each nutrient in the plant, the amount of each nutrient required by the plant and the relationship between each nutrient in the growth of the plant.

Putting these factors all together, research has shown that the best N-P-K ratio for turf establishment is 1-1-1 or 1-2-2. For a mature established turf, the best N-P-K ratio seems to be 3-1-2 or 4-1-2. Table 1 defines examples of fertilizer analysis that fit the suggested ratios.

Table 1. Examples of Fertilizer Analysis

| Fertilizer Analysis | Fertilizer Ratios | | | |
|---------------------|-------------------|----------|---------|---------|
| | 1-1-1 | 1-2-2 | 3-1-2 | 4-1-2 |
| | 8-8-8 | 5-10-10 | 15-5-10 | 16-4-8 |
| | 12-12-12 | 10-20-20 | 12-4-8 | 20-5-10 |
| | etc. | etc. | etc. | etc. |

Yearly Fertilizer needed

The grasses used for lawns vary in the amount of fertilizer they need for optimum growth during the year. (Table 2.)

Table 2. Fertilizer Requirements

| Turfgrass | Pounds of Nitrogen Per 1,000 sq. ft. per year |
|--|---|
| Hybrid bermudagrass (Tifway, Tifgreen) | 5-7 |
| Common bermudagrass | 4-6 |
| Bluegrass | |
| Ryegrass | |
| Zoysiagrass | 3-5 |
| St. Augustinegrass | 2-4 |
| Tall Fescue | |
| Centipedegrass | 1-2 |

Both the rate at which a fertilizer is applied to a lawn and the interval between applications has a great deal to do with the form of nitrogen used in the fertilizer. (Table 3.)

Table 3. Forms of Nitrogen
Quickly Available urea, ureaformaldehyde (UF), ammonium sulfate, sulfur-coated urea (SCU)
Slowly Available ammonium nitrate, isobutylidene diurea (IBLU)

It is generally recommended that a quickly available nitrogen fertilizer not be applied at a rate any greater than one pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet per application. The slowly available material may be applied at higher rates. The relative difference in growth rates that results from the same amount of nitrogen as a function of the form of nitrogen is illustrated in Figure 1.

Several years of research on mineral supplementation of normally low quality winter range forage will be reported at Throckmorton Thursday, April 8, at the field day of the Texas Experimental Ranch.

The best time to fertilize a lawn is when it needs it. Generally, a fertilizer containing one of the quickly available nitrogen sources needs to be applied about every 4 to 6 weeks, but if the nitrogen source is slowly available the interval between applications can be extended to every 6 to 8 weeks.

Lawns should not be fertilized during periods of dormancy or during stress periods. Dormancy occurs during the winter for the warm season grasses such as bermudagrass, St. Augustinegrass, buffalograss, centipedegrass and carpetgrass. The first application of fertilizer on these lawns should be made in the spring after they have "greened up." The last application should be made in north Texas about September 1 and about October 1 in the south.

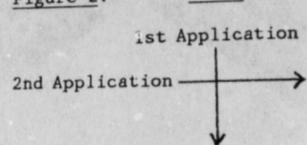

A slowly soluble fertilizer should be used on St. Augustinegrass during the summer months to reduce the chance of disease or insect damage. St. Augustinegrass may, from time to time, suffer from iron chlorosis. Applications of iron sulfate or an iron chelate at the manufacturer's direction should eliminate the problem.

The cool grasses such as tall fescue and bluegrass should be fertilized during their active growth periods in the spring and fall, but not during periods when they are under stress such as during hot weather.

METHODS OF APPLICATION

A fertilizer can be effectively applied with either a "cyclone" type spreader or a drop-type spreader. Dark and light stripes may appear in the lawn as a result of an uneven fertilizer application. The best way to prevent this problem is to divide the total amount of fertilizer needed for the lawn into two equal amounts. Apply one-half of the total using either type of spreader in one direction and the rest at right angles to the first application. (Figure 2.)

SUMMARY

1. Use a fertilizer that has a nutrient ratio of 3-1-2 or 4-1-2.
2. Do not apply a quickly available fertilizer at rates any higher than one pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.
3. Do not fertilize a lawn during periods of dormancy or during environmental stress.
4. Quickly available fertilizers should be applied every 4 to 6 weeks while slowly available fertilizers should be applied every 6 to 8 weeks during periods when the lawn is actively growing.

Ranch Field Day to spotlight range nutrition studies

Several years of research on mineral supplementation of normally low quality winter range forage will be reported at Throckmorton Thursday, April 8, at the field day of the Texas Experimental Ranch.

Also to be featured in the morning program will be reports and exhibits of research on a short duration grazing system, control of pricklypear cactus, and response of livestock and vegetation to grazing management.

The program begins at 8:30 a.m. and concludes with a barbecue lunch at noon, said Dr. Earl C. Gilmore, resident director of research with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) at Vernon. Tours begin at 9:30 a.m.

The experimental ranch is on U.S. Hwy. 183 and 283 between Throckmorton and Seymour. It is 11 sections on the Throckmorton Ranch of the Swen R. Swenson Cattle Co.

Low quality forage constitutes a major portion of the diet of a range animal during winter in the Rolling Plains of Texas, noted Dr. Rod Heitschmidt, TAES associate professor of range ecology. During winter, dormant forages alone are often deficient in protein, calcium, phosphorous and potassium needed to meet the nutrient requirements of a beef cow.

For the past two years, the ranch has conducted research with potassium supplements for one of two herds on heavily stocked, continuously grazed land, and one of three herds in the deferred rotation system, explained Dr. Bruce Johnson, TAES assistant professor of animal nutrition at the ranch. Tests also were started last fall to investigate the effects of phosphorous supplementation.

Results of this work and continuation of research to obtain a better understanding of the nutrient status of heifers and cows and to refine range management procedures will be reported by Johnson.

Another feature of the tours will be a visit to the cell-designed short duration grazing system (SDG) at the ranch. The Texas Experimental Ranch began research on a 14-pasture, one-herd SDG system in March 1982. Heitschmidt said.

Since its inception in 1957, the Texas Experimental Ranch has conducted research on livestock responses to rates of stocking, type of grazing system and level of winter supplementation of feed; long-term vegetation response to grazing treatments; effects of stocking and grazing systems on rate of water infiltration and sediment, production and calf growth and development.

The Texas Experimental Ranch is a cooperative venture of ranchers, businessmen and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, part of the Texas A&M University System. Pasture and livestock are provided by the Swenson Land and Cattle Co. TAES provides personnel and funds for research, and citizens formed the Texas Experimental Ranch Committee to raise private funds for construction of facilities. The committee also serves as a lay advisory board.
