4-Hers are winners

Floyd County now has two more State-bound 4-H'ers to be proud of. Karyn Foster and Earl Broseh, both from Lockney 4-H Club, won 1st place in the Dairy Division at District Roundup which was held May 8th on the Texas Tech campus. Jean Badger art displayed at FNB

Jean Schofield Badger is no stranger to West Texas art, and the First National Bank, Floydada, is happy to have on display currently a number of her paintings.

Born and raised in Terry County, she received her Bachelor of Science degree from Texas Tech University with a major in Broadfield Art Education, a degree which offers art technique in every medium. Jean has always had an appreciation for art, and began her first lessons when she was in the sixth grade at Wellman schools.

After finishing Texas Tech, she taught art at Estacado Jr. High in Plainview and at Estacado High School in Lubbock. She has studied with many outstanding artists including Eric Gibbard, Ted DeGrazia, Albert Handell, Ben Konis, Juanita Pollard, Dr. Clarence Kincaid, and Paul Milosovitch.

"Although I have worked in almost every medium, oil, pastel, batik, charcoal, watercolor, crayon resist, I prefer oils," stated the artist. "With oil, there is such a variety of technique and style possible."

Having grown up on a farm, Jean Badger loves the outdoors. With her husband, Bob, and their two sons, she goes camping as often as possible. Now, the assistant supervisor of the Municipal Garden and Art Center in Lubbock and the executive secretary to the Lubbock Art Ass'n., she is a member, also, of the Texas Fine Arts Ass'n. and the West Texas Watercolor Society.

Jean Badger has won numerous state and local awards, and her work is included in public and private collections. She had recently had an exhibit in Hemphill-Wells, Lubbock, and the Texas Med Center.

"My landscape paintings center on capturing the indomitable spirit of rural life in West Texas as reflected in its agriculture and architecture," said Jean. "but for my still life paintings, I like to choose simple, everyday objects."

The public is cordially invited to enjoy the exhibit by Jean Badger in the lobby of the First National Bank, Floydada, during regular banking hours. Some of her work which you will see includes:

"The Iron Butterfly", batik on cotton, "The Yellow House", "After the Rain", "Country Living" in oil, "January Morning", a pastel, "Backyard at Plainview", a crayon resist.

Jean Badger will teach a class in charcoal study at the Garden and Art Center in June.

Music group to perform

The concert is open to the public and is free. A free will offering will be collected for those who wish to help with their ministry.

"Desert Rain" is a ten member summer music ministry group from Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma, directed by Doug MacMunn, featuring vocalists and musicians. The group's purpose is to refresh and encourage people in the love of Jesus Christ.

Desert Rain will be traveling for eleven weeks this summer in Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma ministering in song and word. Desert Rain is one of six groups being sent out by Oral Roberts University this summer.

A reception will follow the concert in fellowship hall with refreshments. This will give everyone a chance to visit with members of the group.

Everyone is welcome to this special time.

CLAR SCHACHT presented a plaque to Elvin Lyon for his 31 years of teaching in the Lockney school system. He taught 22 years of agriculture. LHS ex-student presented gold putter with the inscription "Pobey".

AWARD RECIPIENTS at Lockney FFA banquet Tuesday night were (l-r) Hugo Araujo, diversified livestock; Ricky Prisk, outstanding general ag mechanics; Daron Widener, swine; and Terri Sparkman, Star Greenhand title.

Entomologist named for Floyd and Crosby counties

A new county Extension agent for pest management has been named to serve Crosby and Floyd counties.

Dale Spurgeon, a native of Quincy, Illinois, and a graduate of the University of Missouri, will begin his duties June 1, it was announced by Billy C. Gunter and Dr. Catherine B. Crawford, district directors for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Spurgeon will be headquartered at Crosbyton.

Spurgeon comes from a farming background and has extensive experience in corn, soybean and grain sorghum productions, said Dr. Mike McWhorter, Extension entomologist and pest management leader, College Station.

He holds a B.S. degree in pest management and an M.S. in entomology from the University of Missouri. While at the University, Spurgeon supervised field scouts and was involved in other activities in the pest management program.

A former 4-H'er he is a member of the Entomological Society of America.

He will work with county Extension agents Andy Vestal in Crosby and Jett Major in Floyd to give leadership to boll weevil and other pest management programs in the two-county area.

Weekend police report

BY SGT. RAY MACHA
Floydada Police Department

City police made two arrests over the weekend. One arrest for disorderly conduct stemming from a family disturbance.

The other arrest was of a juvenile for public intoxication and minor in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Two tires were cut on two pickups parked at Reed Ford on Ralls highway some time after 11:00 p.m. Saturday night.

Also city police investigated a report of a saddle and related items stolen from a trailer and pickup while unattended at the rodeo grounds Sunday afternoon. Value of the items was estimated at $900 to a thousand dollars.

Reserve city police officers Dan Holt and Jimmy Forbes have to date logged 163 hours of patrol time assisting the city police department in a time space of about 2 1/2 months.

That's 163 hours of free time donated to the citizens of Floydada for their protection.

Their assistance has been of great help and they are making very fine reserve officers.

They have made quite a sacrifice for the city and I salute them for their dedication to helping Floydada Police Department.

I think we are fortunate to have citizens who care enough to get actively involved in stemming the crime problem in our community. With an active reserve force, well trained and supervised coupled with an awareness on the part of our citizens for suspicious activity, we can all make this year a safer one.

I hope that many citizens will support the crime watch program that is getting off to a start. Criminals do not like to go where they know that someone is watching them.

Better yet they fear judges and juries where stiff sentences are handed out, and the local populace and elected officials are anti crime and pro law enforcement and don't mind letting the criminal know about it.

I understand that the statement has been made that crime is on the decrease in Floyd county and that all the police officers that the whole county needs is a Sheriff in Floydada and a deputy in Lockney. That there is no need for any city officers or hiway patrol.

I think he should tell that to the recent crime victims in our area.

I guess he doesn't read the Hesperian or talk with any of the people in the county. Otherwise, he would know of the homes and businesses broken into and robbed or vandalized.

Maybe he hasn't heard of the tractor stolen recently. The value of the tractor alone would more than pay for two deputy's salaries.

Evidently no farmer or city resident has informed him of the property crimes being perpetrated against honest citizens struggling to keep their heads above water financially only to lose large amounts to lazy scum of the earth criminals who refuse to work for a living.

Perhaps he believes that the police department and sheriff's office instituted a reserve program to play games. Or that citizens are instituting a crime watch program because they have nothing else to do. And the chamber of commerce hosted a shoplifting seminar for local business people simply for entertainment.

Perhaps I am misinformed, but the people I talk to in Floyd county seem to think crime is on the increase and that something must be done about it now.

I certainly hope that some citizen can inform him of what's really going on so he can change his attitude. But then there are still some people today who still believe in the tooth fairy and Peter

Letter to the Editor

Editor,

Congratulations to the city of Floydada on its birthday May 28. I too was born on May 28th in Floydada 70 years ago. And spent my youth and young manhood there.

I worked for "The Plainsman" (the weekly that was your competition in the 30s and 40s) and for awhile published "The Advertiser" a memograph give away paper. Some of the "old timers" will remember it.

I left Floydada in 1936 and went to Los Angeles where I was with the county Sheriff's Dept. for 27 years. I retired in 1964 and live in Rancho Bernardo California, near San Diego where we play lots of golf and generally live "the good life."

Very Truly Yours,
Reeves Scott

Dear Editors,

We are having a Littlefield High School yearbook this year. While we have a number of addresses of mates and teachers in the area, we are sure there are some who have not been able to get in touch. We would like to ask the readers.

Anyone who attends there during this period has information concerning the yearbook committee. Box 386, Littlefield, Texas 79239.

Spring season lineup ready

BY COACH L.G. WILSON

The Whirlwinds will return only 10 lettermen from their 1981 Bi-District champions. With everyone always pointing toward the defending champs we cannot afford to rest on our laurels and not be ready for an all out effort from everyone.

I'm real pleased with the way our team shapes up after Spring work. Our young boys have worked hard and I see a lot of good things. We've still got a long ways to go to equal our 1981 season performance but with alot of individual work this summer and a good attitude this fall I believe we are going to have another good football team.

Our backfield will be returning almost intact except for Todd Beedy at Quarterback. Bruce Williams, Donnell Weeks and Mike Salazar gives us talent at the running back positions. Mark Hatley has had a good spring at the O.B. position and appears ready to step in for Todd. Coming along by leaps and bounds are our young boys in the backfield Mike Saens and Bill Harris.

Our offensive line has a ways to go. They are working hard and with proper dedication should develop as the season progresses. We lost good linemen in Chris Fulton, Rick Heflin, Norman Allen and Robert Nixon but Walker Brooks who we've moved to Center, Wayne Morren, Shannon Smith, Pat Lloyd, Felix Soliz, and Jesse Cedillo should be a good line. Our offensive ends Carlos Rainwater and Ronnie Minner were all-district and a real battle for their position is going on between Grant Turner, Calvin Coleman, Max Bearden and James King.

Probably where we have the most developing to do is on defense. I thought our defensive unit in 1981 was one of our best in several years.

Replac-ing Wynsdell Davis, Robert Nixon, Mark Nutt, Norman Allen and Todd Beedy will be a man size chore. We will have Richard Vela, Bruce Williams and Donnell Weeks returning to form a good beginning. Luis Martinez, Rick Poole and Fernando Arvizu will battle for the defensive tackle positions while Wayne Morren, James King, Gilbert Flores and Pat Lloyd will play the defensive ends.

Our inside linebackers will come from Vela, Mike Kuff, Mike Salazar or Bill Harris. Corner linebackers will be Bruce Williams, Mike Saens, Max Bearden or Salazar. In the secondary we have a good battle for the three positions between Donnell Weeks, Grant Turner, Calvin Coleman, Mark Hatley and Derrick Jenkins.

We have several other boys who have not been mentioned who may develop a lot during the summer and enter the battle for starting positions.

Information on season tickets will be mailed out in July. Fall practice will begin August 9 and the first game will be September 3 with Dimmitt at Dimmitt.

ANNIE TAYLOR awards the first scholarship in her name to Sammy Rodriguez at the awards assembly Tuesday morning.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,
I don't know if this can be called a letter to the Editor or not but here is something I would like for you to check into.

We want to know why the school hired an Ag teacher who is just out of college when we have an experienced Ag teacher living right here in the community.

We know that Floyd Easter applied for the job. He was an Ag teacher in Wolforth for many years before he came to Floydada. He knows our kids and how we do things here in Floyd County. He has helped our kids many, many times when it wasn't even his job.

The whole family has been very active in the community ever since they came here. We would like the Easters to stay in Floydada. They want to live here too.

We can't understand why the school would hire a fellow just out of college with no teaching experience and who isn't from here when Floyd wanted the job.

An interested parent

Dear Interested Parent,

We have verified the facts in your letter that an Assistant Ag Teacher, recently graduated from college, was hired for Floydada High School.

Floyd Easter did apply for the job. He was considered for the position.

The open meetings law, which allows the press to be present at meetings of elective bodies does not include review of personnel.

Our suggestion is that you and your group approach Superintendent of Schools Jerry Cannon yourself.

We have edited your letter for the sake of brevity and hope the gist of it is as you meant it to be.

MR. AND MRS. RANDY FRY

Johnson, Fry united in garden wedding

Phyllis Lea Johnson became the bride of Randy Wayne Fry during a 4:00 wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon, March 14, 1982. Ron Wheeler of the First Christian Church, Crosbyton, read the vows.

The couple are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jay V. Johnson of Tulsa and Mrs. and Mrs. Dan Fry of Floydada.

A large indoor garden at the South Park Inn in Lubbock was the setting for the repetition of vows. A Holland imported 14 ft. urn filled with fresh spring flowers accented the garden.

Music was presented by Ruby Braxton, pianist, of Lubbock and Derek Cheek, guitarist, also of Lubbock.

Musical selections chosen were "Color My World", which was played as the processional, and "Here Comes The Sun" as the recessional.

Escorted and presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chiffon with a semi-cathedral train. It featured a fitted bodice waist and Queen Anne neckline overlaid with English netting with silk venise appliques embroidered with seed pearls. The back of the dress was V cut to the waist with sheer English netting and silk covered buttons all the way down to the waist. The full bishop sleeves had a fitted inner-sleeve with venise appliques, the fitted lace cuffs closed with tiny silk covered buttons. Lace edging circled the hemline accented with seed pearls.

She carried tiny fresh spring flowers with baby's breath, arranged by Kelly Marble, as her bouquet.

Along with her bouquet the bride carried a Bible belonging to her late mother, Gloria Carthel Johnson. Mrs. Johnson had carried the same Bible at her wedding.

The bride presented both her grandmothers with a red rose and laid a single white rose in an empty seat in memory of her mother. She also presented her mother-in-law with a long stem red rose.

The bride was attended by Adeana Morris of Floydada as Maid of Honor. Miss Drew Ann Johnson and Miss Dee Ann Fry, both of Floydada, sisters of the bride and groom, respectively, served as bridesmaids. Danika Dudley, a cousin of the bride from Floydada, and Heather Willis, a niece of the groom of Lubbock, were flower girls.

Dresses of the bridesmaids were of rainbow pastel colors and the dress of the maid of honor was pink. Other attendants were dressed in peach and the other in yellow. Dresses were off the shoulder with a bodice waistline made of taffeta and a light chiffon overlay. The attendants carried similar spring bouquets as that of the bride and wore a fresh wreath of baby's breath and spring flowers in their hair.

Danny Fry of Plainview served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Rick Reddy of Floydada and Jeff Johnson, brother of the bride of Lubbock.

Ushers were Mark Gilly and Rex Rose, both of Floydada, and Nelson Carthel, cousin of the bride, of Snyder. Robert Eckert of Floydada was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Bronze Room of the South Park Inn with approximately 160 guests present.

The party was catered by South Park Inn. The wedding cake was made and designed by Susan all of Abilene.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple is residing in San Diego, California.

Order of the Eastern Star members receive service pins

The Floydada Chapter No. 31 Order of the Eastern Star met May 13 in the Masonic Hall, with Jean and Bobby Kendrick serving in the East as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron. Noma Lou and Bobby Rainer associate matron and patron served in the West.

The Worthy Matron welcomed several members who had been unable to attend for a while. A special recognition was extended to Louise and Noma Hamilton from Lubbock but are members of Floydada Chapter. Ann Swebston Chapter secretary read greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron Elise Hammack of the Grand Chapter of Texas Order of the Eastern Star.

Invitations were read from chapters throughout the section inviting Floydada members to attend the Friendship meetings.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of three members who were recipients of pins for their years of service. Joy Assiter received a twenty-five year pin with Ruth Trapp making the presentation. Frances Cross received a pin for forty-one years of service and Lillian Lindsey was afforded the honor of presenting it to her. Fay Hart received a thirty-five year pin and his wife Amanda had the pleasure of presenting it to her husband.

The Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron expressed their appreciation to the recipients for all the years of faithful service and cooperation rendered the Order. Four other members who were eligible to receive pins for their years of service, but unable to attend, were Bonnie May, Frankie Berry, Marcella Brown, and Marjorie Davis. They will receive them at a later date.

In appreciation for a progressive year in the East as Worthy Matron and Patron, the Kendricks were presented a gift from the Chapter members. Noma Lou Rainer made the presentation, in a most impressive manner, as she gave the meaning of the Star of the East. The gift was a beautiful stained glass Star, carrying out the Star paint colors and emblems, made by Bobby Rainer. The Kendricks also received a love gift from Roberta and Wayne Russell.

Regi Gross, directed a beautiful memorial service, in the absence of the program chairman, Flora McNeill. She read an inspirational poem and dedicated it to the memory of the deceased loved ones, and members of the Eastern Star who have died within the last year, also for Mrs. Flora Best Boone past Grand Matron who recently passed away.

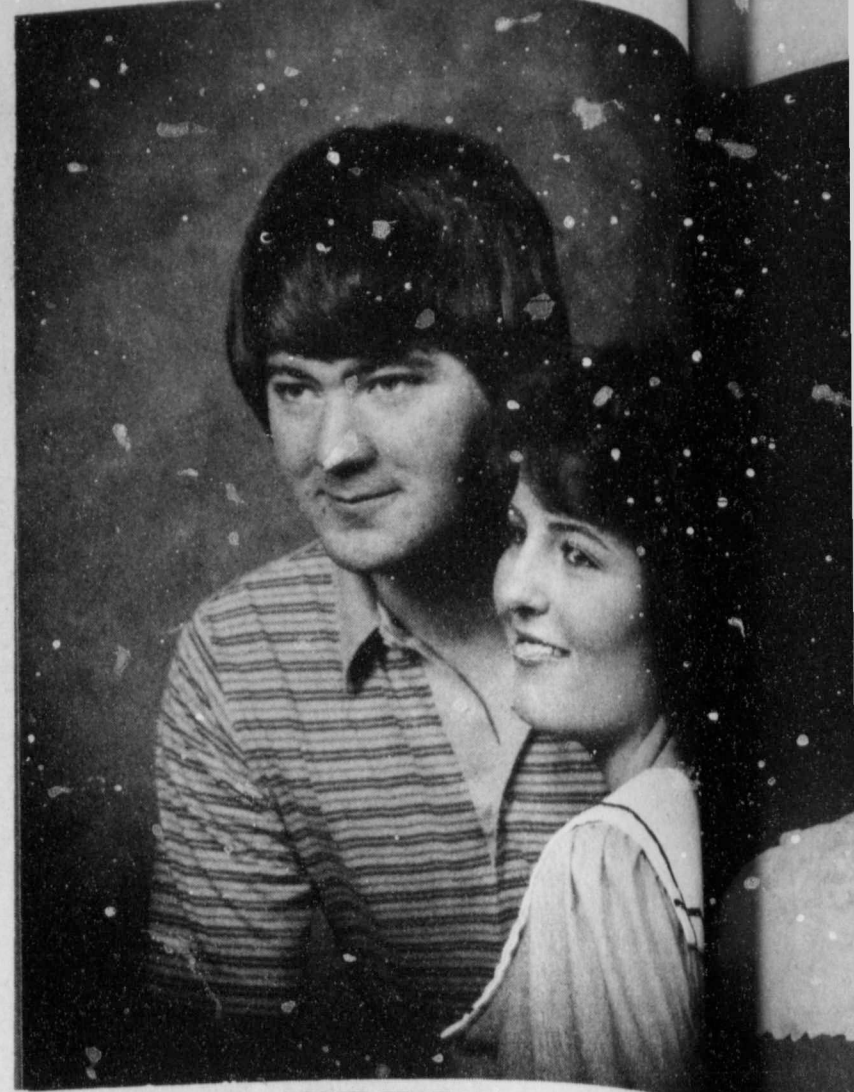

Mrs. Boone served the Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star as Worthy Grand Matron in 1951-1952.

Bobby Rainer paid special tribute to these as he sang, "Shall We Gather At The River," accompanied at the piano by Dell Gray. Eula Parrack offered a prayer of dedication.

Following all business and program, the meeting closed with the officers retiring drill.

Hosting the fellowship hour, were Jean and Bobby, Alene and Byron Kendrick, with Eula Parrack assisting.

Sandwiches, cake, pie, chips, tea and coffee were served. The next meeting will be an open installation for the new officers in the Masonic Hall, 130 W. Mississippi St., June 5 at 8 p.m.

Miss Ann Swebston was hostess for the final meeting of the 1981-82 year of the 1929 Study Club. Originally scheduled to be held at her country home, the meeting was moved to the Light-house Electric Community Room due to heavy rains the evening before in the Hillcrest Community.

Mrs. Carl Dennison led the group in reciting the pledge to the Bible.

Mrs. Ben Whitaker read minutes of the previous meeting at the home of Mrs. S.W. Ross. Jett Majors, Floyd County Agent, had discussed how best to plan a garden. Following the business and program, the members had toured the Ross's bluebonnet garden.

Among new business, Mrs. Campbell reminded members to bring baked goods Saturday for the American Field Service bake sale to be held at Shop Rite. The club always looks forward to the program presented each year by the student sponsored by the A.F.S.

Mrs. Eula Parrack conducted a jewel installation service for incoming officers. Quoting from the Bible, "There is gold, and a multitude of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel." Proverbs 20:15.

Mrs. Parrack urged officers to let their lives shine like jewels before other members and the community. Officers installed included Mrs. Q.D. Wil-iams, president; Miss Ann Swebston, first vice president; Mrs. Vance Campbell, second vice president; Mrs. Cleo Goins, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Francis Mitchell, reporter. Officers were gifted with necklaces of their choice.

Hostesses served tea time refreshments from a lace covered table. Fresh white mums centered the table, and later were presented to Mrs. Parrack by Mrs. Campbell in appreciation of her installation service. Refreshments were banana punch, fresh strawberries rolled in sugar, and an array of cookies served on silver trays.

Club members expressed their gratitude and appreciation to Mrs. Campbell for her two years of work as their club president.

Members present included: Mesdames Nettie Adams, H.O. Cline, C.W. Dennison, Clarence Goins, C.M. Meredith, W.B. Parrack, S.W. Ross, George Smith, Ben Whitaker, Q.D. Williams, Vance Campbell, and the hostess, Miss Ann Swebston.

Next meeting will be in September.

Around The County

By Jett Major
County Extension Agent

Floyd County extension agent, Jett Major, is now receiving agricultural weather advisories for use by producers in the county. The advisories are coming from Dr. Bill Dugas, Assistant Professor with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Agricultural Meteorology Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service stationed at the Blackland Research Center in Temple, Texas. Dr. Dugas has established an automated weather station in the county located on the Warren Mitchell farm, west of Lockney.

Information from this weather station and other National Weather Service observing locations in the county are incorporated into agricultural weather advisories which will be sent to the County Extension Office to be included in News Releases and New Letters for Floyd County producers. The weather station collects information on soil temperatures, air temperatures, precipitation, relative humidity, wind speed, and sunshine. The objective of the program is to assist producers in making management decisions, especially those related to weather and climate. The advisories will give producers information as to status quo conditions concerning crops and soil moisture and this information, in conjunction with National Weather Service forecasts, will increase the information base with which producers have to make decisions.

Similar programs exist in the Central Texas area and in the Coastal Bend.

Education programs conducted by the Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

VFW, Auxiliary plan Poppy sales

Post #7993 of the Lockney Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Hospital Auxiliary are banding together in joint effort to raise funds for both of their organizations by participating in the Buddy Poppy campaign. They will be selling poppies Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29 before Memorial Day.

When a Buddy Poppy is offered during the coming sale in this community, it should be bought willingly and with gratitude. It is an investment you can make with very little sacrifice on your part.

Across America tens of thousands of men and women volunteer poppy sellers are offering you a once-a-year opportunity to personally thank the uniformed lads who have made the supreme sacrifice and those countless men in hospitals who may never again be physically fit.

hospitalization, but the help you can give them through the Poppy sale conducted by their own organization comes from those willing to contribute from the heart — not through what they are forced to pay in taxes.

If gratitude means more than lip service, Buddy Poppies will be bought and worn proudly when it is offered by a Veterans of Foreign Wars volunteer.

Landscape & Gardening

BY BENNY J. BUTLER

SEEDING, TRANSPLANTING

Many gardeners become confused about whether vegetables should be planted from seed or transplants. Transplants insure the reliable plant population and usually produce earlier than crops planted from seed. The main disadvantage of transplants is the cost per plant.

Because of the cost involved, only certain vegetable crops should be transplanted. Whether or not a crop should be transplanted or seeded directly into the garden depends on (1) cost of seed, (2) plant population needed, (3) earliness of crop maturity desired and (4) convenience. Vegetables which should always be transplanted in the spring include eggplant, onions (bulb), pepper, sweet potatoes and tomatoes. Vegetables which can be directly seeded into the garden in early spring or transplanted a little later include broccoli, collard, cabbage, lettuce and cauliflower. Seed all other vegetables directly into the garden area because transplants are not economical. Timing and varietal selection determine the success or failure of directly seeded crops as well as of transplanted vegetables.

Success in seeding vegetable crops depends on factors such as seed vigor, soil moisture, planting technique and soil fertility. Use new, viable seed to insure a good plant population. Seeds need to absorb moisture before growth can begin. During dry weather, water several days before planting the seed.

When planting, do not cover the seed with too much soil. A general rule of thumb is to cover seed approximately 2 to 3 times their widest measurement. Seed thickly with the intention of thinning to an optimum stand later.

Using high phosphorus starter solutions and/or placing a band of super phosphate fertilizer (1 tablespoon per linear foot of row) 1 inch below planted seeds can increase vegetable yields twofold.

Bigger is not the same as better when selecting transplants for your spring garden. Research shows that the age and size of seedlings when set in the garden can make a striking difference in yield.

For best results use transplants that are about as tall as they are wide, dark green in color, vigorously growing and free of spots and lesions on the leaves which indicate disease problems. Transplants of this description usually give greater yields than larger and older transplants.

LAWNS RECOVERING SLOWLY FROM WINTER

Many lawns are recovering slowly this spring due to winter injury. St. Augustine and bermudagrass lawns appear thin and slow to recover. Floratam St. Augustine, which is particularly sensitive to low temperature injury, was hard hit.

Lawns that were in poor conditions last fall were severely damaged by low January temperatures. Lawns affected by brown patch and St. Augustine decline last year were in a weakened condition before low temperatures produced further injury. Heavily thatched lawns and heavily shaded lawns also suffered extensive winter injury.

What can homeowners do to promote lawn recovery and prevent similar problems next year? I would suggest you "scalp" the lawn with a mower, and then dethatch the lawn, either with a power dethatcher or a rake. This will remove weeds and other debris. Then apply a complete fertilizer, and mow regularly to promote lawn recovery.

I would caution against using pre-emergence herbicides for weed control on lawns that are slow to recover from winter.

Also, avoid excessive fertilization throughout the growing season because it increases the turf's susceptibility to environmental stresses such as drought and low temperature. Three to four pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet per year is about the maximum you should apply. Lawns deficient in iron should receive two to three supplemental iron applications.

Locally, the lawns that best survived the winter were planted to the hybrid bermudagrass variety, Texturf 10.

Detailed information, including disease, insect and weed control, is provided in the publication L-1372, "Lawn Care", available at the County Extension Office.

This information comes from Dr. Richard Duble, Extension turfgrass specialist. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Zumwalt wins $4,000 Scholarship

Deon Zumwalt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Zumwalt, competed in the Miss Northern Texas National Teenager Pageant this past weekend. May 14, 15, 16 at Clarendon College in Clarendon.

Out of eighty-two competitors, Deon was selected as third runner-up.

She also won the Citizenship Award which was based on scholarship and leadership qualities. A trophy and a $4000.00 tuition scholarship to Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida, was the award in this category.

Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida will award two $4,000.00 tuition scholarships to the Citizenship Award winners, one to a senior, the other to an underclassman.

Each Citizenship award winner will be considered for one of ten Regional Citizenship Tuition Scholarships in the amount of $10,000 each, and two National Citizenship Awards of a $20,000 tuition scholarship from Eckerd College.

The weekend consisted of rehearsals, talent and patriotic speech competition, interviews with judges and the pageant itself, which took place Saturday evening.

Each contestant was asked to have a business or Civic Club to sponsor her as a representative of that community. The sponsorship fee was $250.00 which was given to Deon by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

All finalists were to have a red, white and blue western outfit to wear for the opening number and an evening gown for a portion of the pageant.

The pageant winners were selected by a panel of judges. Each contestant had a two minute interview with each of the five judges. The contestants were judged based on the interviews, poise and personality, leadership, scholastic achievement, volunteer work and evening gown modeling.

Janet Nix of Sudan, received the crown and banner as she became the new Miss Northern Texas National Teen-ager. She was also awarded a $500.00 cash scholarship, a $300.00 scholarship to Clarendon College, and the opportunity to compete at the state pageant.

Other awards given are as follows: Lori Hanes, of Wichita Falls, first runner-up, was also chosen as the talent winner. Second runner-up was Sheryl Waltrip, from Enochs; Deon Zumwalt, third runner-up and Citizenship Award winner, including a $4000.00 scholarship; and fourth runner-up was Lisa Wood of Amarillo. Vonda Bounds, of Lubbock, was named Miss Hospitality and was invited to attend the pageant next year. Mary Nell Clayton of Roby, was selected by all other contestants as Miss Congeniality.

All winners of the individual categories and the five finalists were awarded trophies and all contestants were given participant trophies.

Last week was our party week. Wednesday our Birthday boys and girls. Dennis Grabbe, Edna Thomas, Lois Rucker, Mamie Wofford and Ray Mitchell were honored by the Ladies of the Main St. Church of Christ. These ladies are very special to us! They have given our monthly Birthday Party for years and we appreciate their kindness.

The staff honored all the Mothers and the Care Center with a surprise Mothers Day Party after Bingo Friday. Mothers are very special people! The cakes were delicious and with the mens help their wasn't much left.

Our lucky bingo winners last week were Myrtle Payne and Mary McCracken. Thanks again to our wonderful volunteers DeLinda Giasson, Almada Phillips and Linda Holley.

We started a new activity last week, solving crossword puzzles. You might say it was a real challenge. Two of our ladies, Mary Jo Fielding and Mary McCracken, were determined to stay with the puzzle and solve it. They were still working on them when I left for the day. Now that's determination. Our Bible Study Class is really going strong. The Bible is the one book the Residents love to read. teacher Jerry Klein. Until next time, esp.

This has been a busy week! May 9 through May 15 was National Nursing Home Week and we had many exciting activities.

We started the week off by having our parade of Residents. Each Resident was awarded a certificate telling why they are so special. Their honors are Edna Thomas, oldest mother; Robert Peel, oldest father; Thomas Jones, most children; Birda Bradley, most children; Rubye Vaughan, youngest mother; Chaferd Tipton, youngest father; Walter Craft, most unusual occupation; Kay Mitchell, most unusual occupation; Myrtle Burke and Donnie Hester, Heart of Gold; Richard Lanham and Myrtle Howle, onryest residents; Mary Jo Fielding and Albert Poole, cheerfulest; Bill Holt, sleeping beauty; Sam Lide and Birda Foster, sexiost; Dennis Grabbe and Mary Green and Mary Crutropia, cutest; Lewis Roberts and Mary McCracken, 10 figures; Alma McDonald and Mable Griffin, #1 nurse; Euna Bradshaw and Erma Walker, #1 teacher; Joseph Gilmore and Dawn Jasper, baby face; Mamie Wofford, sassvest; Myrtle Payne, #1 Sunday School teacher; Ethel Carroll, Amelia Ashton and Jessie Harris, sweetest; Marie Leach and Mattie Codgell, most intelligent; Jeffie Griffith and Evie Henderson and Stella Wilson, quietest resident; and Jewell Miller and Bertha Gregg, most distinguished.

Tuesday was a very special day for all of us. We had an Enchilada Luncheon of the Lockney High School Band. We were able to raise $150.00. It was very important to us to raise this money for the band. They work so hard all year around and we feel they deserved the help.

The Kitchen Clapper Band from Levelland entertained us Thursday afternoon. Among the instruments they played were kazoo, tamborines, washboard, spoons, etc. They brought along with them a turkey, a 1920 flapper, and many others. We really enjoyed their entertainment. Afterwards we all were treated to homemade ice cream.

We concluded our week by having Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon. This gave us an opportunity to thank all our wonderful volunteers for all the special things they do for us. It was an especially enjoyable luncheon and we are hoping to do it again soon.

We would like to send a special thanks to Carolyn Redding of the Lockney Beacon for taking all the pictures of our activities. She is a lovely lady.

Until next time, enjoy.

I would like to take this time to thank everyone who voted for me and gave me their support during my campaign.

As Commissioner I will do the best job to my ability.

Thanks again!

A Public Service of This Newspaper & The Advertising Council

Yes, thanks a lot. But I still need your help

Student broadcasting increased

West Texas State University's radio station, KWTS, has increased its broadcasting in stereo. The station manager said the station manager and television major students began in the fall of 1981. Federal Communications Commission regulations which required stations to increase their power or to begin sharing frequencies, forced them to broadcast at 100 watts.

"We had two options," he said. "We could have either increased power and risked going off the air or we could have done it right," he said.

Robert Busch, a senior speech major from Los Alamos, New Mexico, and KWTS news director, said to increase power and become a Class A radio station, KWTS would have to pass several equipment standards set by the FCC.

The KWTS staff and the administration decided to purchase stereo equipment as part of the station's renovation. "A wall was knocked out and a large window was put in to allow students passing by the station to watch the disc jockeys on the air," said Busch.

Dr. Jim Pratt, assistant professor of speech and director of radio and television, said the equipment installation, studio renovation and the actual purchase of the equipment, including the new transmitter, cost about $30,000. "We should be able to broadcast in a 15-mile radius, but the antenna is nine feet below average terrain and the signal might not quite reach that far," Pratt said.

"We will not know what our broadcasting times for the summer will be until after enrollment for the first summer session is completed," said Busch.

Registration for the first term of summer school begins on June 1.

"Everyone is really happy about the changes here at the station and it has really boosted our morale," Busch said. "The renovations have really made our disc jockeys proud, and hopefully, it will motivate them to do better on the air," he said.

Student disc jockeys receive credit and practical experience in broadcasting, radio and television production, reporting and in writing news and commercial advertisement and students fill air time with popular music, student-produced interview and talk shows, information and public service announcements and campus news.

The radio station is located in the WTSU Fine Arts Building.

Dr. Norman awarded Graduate Excellence

Dr. Bill M. Norman, a 1973 graduate of Floydada High School, has been named recipient of the Robert E. Stewart Graduate Excellence Award in the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University.

Dr. Norman received his Doctor of Engineering degree in May 1981 and is currently employed by Bush-Hog Continental Gin Company in Fresno, California.

Outstanding achievement worthy of the Stewart Award is exemplified by not only academic excellence but also character, integrity and leadership. Those who receive the Award have demonstrated the belief that technology must serve humane purposes.

Look to the G for leading over-all performance.

Year after year, growers come back to Funk's G-522DR. Why? Because it performs consistently. Through good years and bad, disease pressure or drought.

And now, G-522DR is available as HERBISHIELD seed, so you can use BICEP or MILOCEP herbicide for tough, highly effective control of both weeds and grasses.

All across the sorghum belt, G-522DR yields are impressive, topping major competitors time and again.

G-522DR is resistant to downy mildew. Head smut, too. And has resistance to Strain A of Maize Dwarf Mosaic Virus (MDMV-A), and tolerance to northern leaf blight. It's tropically adapted for extra weatherability. Develops sturdy stalks. Stands uniform. And produces high-quality golden-bronze grain.

Its wide adaptation and medium maturity make G-522DR easy to manage, a wise addition to most sorghum programs. Plant G-522DR this year. Chances are, you'll come back.

G-522DR, HERBISHIELD or regular. Setting a new pace in sorghum.

We really want to be part of your sorghum program.

Flappers and roosters entertain residents at the Lockney Care Center

The staff and residents of the Lockney Care Center enjoyed special programs each day of last week. Texas Nursing Home Week.

Monday there was a balloon lift-off at 10:00 a.m. and a Resident Parade at 2:30 p.m.

Tuesday an enchilada luncheon was served at noon. The proceeds were donated to the Lockney High School Band.

Wednesday open house was held from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Friday an appreciation luncheon was held to honor the "volunteers" who help in and around the Care Center. A meal of ham and pecan pie with all the trimmings was served to approximately 40 guests.

But Thursday was probably one of the highlights of the entire week for the residents. They were entertained by the Kitchen Clatter Band of Levelland. The group appearing at Lockney was made up of 18 members of a 25-member band of senior citizens. The oldest member was Phillip Gillespie, 88, and the youngest was Lonnie Northan, 47.

Vivienne Kisner, supervisor, with the assistance of Verna Mae Caddell, pianist, and Opal Mixon, director presented a half hour performance that gave each and every person in attendance a twinkle in their eye, a song to hum and rhythm to beat.

The renditions of old favorites like "Put Your Arms Around Me" gave everyone a laugh.

The performers used rub boards, Mexican maracas, shaking bottles, drums, a kazoo, tamborines, cymbals, and a triangle to make music.

The group has appeared before birthday parties at Knox Village in Lubbock, at the Civic Center at the Art Festival and the Cotton Ginners Association meeting, in rest homes in several towns, and at meetings of Eastern Star and the Rebekahs. They have appeared in Tahoka and Crosbyton, besides appearing in Levelland a number of times.

They have entertained the patients at the veterans hospital in Big Springs the last two years.

The timid Indian maid was played by Viola Castle. Jessie Gillespie came on strong as a 1920 flapper. And Dolas Rand made a fantastic rooster. There was no more sleeping after she "crew."

Plans finalized for Texas State Field Day

June 11 and 12 have been set aside for the Texas Angus Association state field days to be held at Deep Down Ranch in Paluxy.

Members of the association will meet Friday at 5 p.m. at Lake Granbury Motor Inn, Granbury, with a dinner and stage play to follow.

The Texas Junior Angus Association heifer show will be held on Saturday. Registration begins at 9 a.m. with the junior heifer show, showmanship contest and junior membership meeting to follow at 2 p.m.

Entry deadline is June 1. Send an entry fee of $7 per head with name of animal, birth date and registration number to Steve Overpeck, c/o Deep Down Ranch, Route #2, Bluff Dale, Texas 76433.

AN APPRECIATION LUNCHEON was held in honor of the volunteers at the Lockney Care Center last week. 40 persons enjoyed ham, sweet potatoes, rolls, green beans and pecan pie.

Frizzell, Record are Amarillo College graduates

The following two students graduated from Amarillo College on May 14, at the Amarillo Civic Center auditorium: Gay Yvonne Frizzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Frizzell of Lockney, with a major in Dental Hygiene and Breck

Charles Record, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Record, also of Lockney, with a major in Court Reporting.

The commencement address was given by the Honorable Wilhelmina Delco of the Texas House of Representtatives. There were 474 in the graduating class of Amarillo College. The first summer session of the college will begin on June 2, with registration on the Washington Street

DOLAS RAND of the Kitchen Clatter Band of Levelland made a fantastic rooster in her performance at the Lockney Care Center luncheon Friday.
