Commissioners shoot down proposal

SPAG offers low interest mortgage

BY WES BROWN

The South Plains Association of Governments Board of Directors is in the process of forming a multi-county housing finance corporation, to issue bonds for mortgage loans for persons in participating counties. Resolution for the program was offered to Floyd County commissioners.

The bonds, according to Sylvia Clark, director of economic development, would let people buy houses in Floyd County at a low interest rate (12-14 percent) rather than the current high rates. This, according to Clark will encourage people to build or buy houses.

Commissioner Jack Lackey, precinct 4 and Commissioner Bob Jarrett, precinct 2, shot down the resolution proposal, voicing their suspicion of government backed programs.

Commissioner Sam Spence, precinct 1, and Commissioner Thomas Warren, precinct 3, abstained from voting stating that they had not had time to study the proposal and make a decision. After hearing Clark's proposal, County Judge Choise Smith quickly called for a decision. Commissioner Lackey motioned that Floyd County not become a part of the Housing Finance Corporation to issue bonds for mortgage loans. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Jarrett.

Commissioners Jarrett and Lackey voted in favor of the motion. Commissioners Spence and Warren abstained from voting. The tie was broken when Judge Smith voted in favor of the motion.

The program will entail bonds being available to the participating counties. These bonds will be sold by an underwriting company.

The buyers generally are home builders or contractors and the bonds will be used to finance the building of new homes or buying of existing homes.

The value of this type of financing is that the interest rate is held at 12-14 percent.

The only responsibility the participating county will have is to appoint three incorporators and a director to oversee the program.

Clark stressed that the county would be in no way liable in case of default on the loans.

Clark said that she didn't know whether or not there was a housing shortage in Floyd County.

In a separate interview with Susan Garms, Executive Vice President, Floydada Chamber of Commerce, she said, "We (Floydada) on the average have five families per month moving into Floydada wanting to rent or buy a place to live."

"Industries that are interested in moving into Floydada are concerned with employees finding suitable housing. If it isn't here, they won't consider moving in. We really need middle income housing. And more nice apartment complexes would alleviate the situation."

Other Court Business

Other points of business accomplished by the Court were:

Motion made, seconded and carried that all bills properly presented be approved and paid.

Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve three requests for the use of county equipment and machinery.

Motion was made by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Jack Lackey that the County Employee Policy be tabled until the next regular court meeting, July 12, 1982 in order to give the court time to study the policy before adoption. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Thomas Warren and seconded by Sam Spence that upon the recommendation of the Floyd County Library Board rules and regulations be adopted by the commissioners court. Vote: All in favor.

Motion was made by Sam Spence and seconded by Thomas Warren that the court accept the low bid from Reed Ford Sales for two 1982 Ford pickups per the following specifications: Precinct #1 to pay $7,341.00 and Precinct #3 to pay $7,041.00. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Sam Spence that the county authorize the Sheriff to sign the Antenna Site

Lease with Red River Gas Pipeline Corporation. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Sam Spence and seconded by Thomas Warren to increase the line item for extra labor for Precinct #1 from $4,000 to $14,000. Vote: All in favor.

Motion made by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Thomas Warren that upon the recommendation of County Auditor, Bobbie Hamilton the proposal for an independent review of the Tax Office be approved. Vote for Bob Jarrett, Thomas Warren and Jack Lackey. Abstain: Sam Spence.

SOS Check Alert organized

Jeff Scovern, Chairman of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Retail Trade Committee, is organizing an SOS check alert system with the merchants of Floydada.

Each merchant will have one other merchant to call when a bad check is written.

When a merchant receives a bad check, he calls the Floydada police dispatcher who then calls one merchant. That merchant then calls his assigned merchant and so on. The last merchant then calls the dispatcher to verify that the chain is complete.

Within minutes, the information about the bad check is known over town.

The contact schedule is being prepared. For more information or to take part in the system call Scovern at the Shop Rite Food Store in Floydada.

Also, if a checkbook is lost or stolen, call the police dispatcher in Floydada and the merchants in town will be notified.

Vehicle registration increased

Texas motor vehicle registration fees will increase July 1 for the first time in 15 years and on vehicles weighing less than 3,500 pounds the increase is almost 30 percent.

Vehicles weighing less than 3,500 pounds the fees will increase to $15.80; for vehicles weighing from 3,501 pounds to 4,500 pounds will go from $22.30 to $25.80; fees for vehicles weighing 4,501 to 6,000 pounds will jump from $30.30 to $33.80.

Those vehicles weighing more than 6,000 pounds will pay fees at a rate of 60 cents per 100 pounds, up from 55 cents per 100 pounds.

Vehicles affected by the increase are passenger cars, city buses and private buses. Trucks are not affected by this increase.

Floyd County will keep $225,000 of the fees before sharing 50 percent with the state, according to Jonelle Fawver, Floyd County tax assessor-collector. Previously Floyd County retained only $50,000 before sharing with the state.

The fees will be divided with the four precincts in Floyd County to maintain county roads as the county commissioners see fit.

Floyd county has 1,094 miles of county roads that will receive more support from the increased fees.

Chamber's Ruckus raised in Floydada

BY DAVID CATES

Raisin' A Ruckus by South Plains College was a rare treat for some 300 brave souls who shivered in the cool West Texas night air.

The music ranged from Bluegrass to gospel to Country and Western. The final song "That Ragged Old Flag" by John Hartin caused chill bumps that exceeded those of the cool night.

The cast is supported by a traveling crew consisting of Terry Isaacs, booking agent and history instructor at South Plains College; Dr. Marvin Baker, lighting director and president of South Plains College.

The entire show is self contained with generators, spotlights, traveling stage and the newest addition, two water cooled speakers.

The cost of the equipment to put together a show of this kind costs from $150,000 to $200,000.

They plan to have 24 performances this year. In 1981 they had 33 shows and only lost one to bad weather.

If the opportunity to see this show knocks, answer it for this is one of the best family shows around.

Steers to be validated

All 4-H and FFA members planning to show steers at any junior livestock shows in the state of Texas in 1982-83 must have their steers validated before July 1, 1982.

Floyd County Steer Validation Day will be held on Monday, June 21, 1982, beginning at 8:30 a.m. at the Brock's Feedlot located 6 miles north of Lockney on FM 378. Cost for the validation (which includes ear tag, noseprint and photograph) will be approximately $2.00 per head. Please bring your checkbook with you.

Steers which are not validated on this date set by the Floyd County Validation Committee will not be eligible to show at any major stock shows in Texas, so please make every effort to attend the county validation day.

Coffee causes considerable curses

Wes Side Story

By Wes Brown

Here it is after closing time and all I have for this week's column is a blank sheet of paper. It has been a fairly busy day and I am getting tired. I got myself a cup of coffee ten minutes ago and it is just now cool enough that it will only give my tongue a second degree burn.

I don't understand why people scream for hot coffee and sit and wait for it to cool. Matter of fact, I don't understand coffee.

It has become one of the most consumed beverages in the United States. It is even considered a social drink. Haven't you ever noticed that when you visit a friend or make a business deal that you are offered some coffee?

It can be 100 degrees outside and someone would offer you a cup of hot coffee. Who wants hot coffee then?

Well a brilliant and enterprising person came up with an equally brilliant solution - iced coffee. I remember my first glass of iced coffee.

The coffee was poured, not out of a coffee pot, but out of a pitcher with ice.

I took my first drink of what I expected to be a new taste experience. No one told me that coffee congeals when it is iced. Drinking that thick cold stuff was like drinking molasses that had been kept in the freezer for two hours. I swallowed hard and managed a gracious smile to my hostess.

My question is, "If they can put man on the moon, why can't they do something to improve the taste of coffee?"

A friend of mine in Amarillo said that he doesn't drink coffee for the taste, he drank it for the medicinal purposes. Which is true, the caffeine in the coffee is a good "pick-me-up". But, why do people drink decaffeinated coffee? If you believe the commercials, they drink it for the taste.

Speaking of commercials, my favorite decaffeinated coffee commercial is the one where the wife says, "I've just decaffeinated my husband."

The husband smiles, elated that he is decaffeinated. I think decaffeinating someone is grounds for divorce.

Another favorite is the one where a person yells at someone for some trivial thing. Robert Young then asks what the problem is. The friend says that it is too much caffeine. I think Robert Young just has crabby friends.

But, too much coffee can make some people nervous. You can spot them, they are the ones that always have the coffee pot in their hand. They greet you in the morning with "goodmorning-wouldyoulikeacupofcoffee?"

I knew someone like that, he almost cried when the coffee machine broke down.

Some people seem to have a skill at making coffee. I can make coffee fairly well but it is rather inconsistent. Once I made some that was so weak that I could read a newspaper through it. The next time I made some, it was so strong, it got up and mugged the salt and pepper shakers.

Well my coffee is cold now and I'm not going to drink it. I was going to write something about Father's Day, but I couldn't think of something that hasn't already been said. Besides, I didn't write anything on Mother's Day.

I wanted to tell my parents how much I appreciate what they have done for me. So, tell your Dad how much you appreciate him on his day, I just did.

Father's Day

Looking back seven years

Coco and his Master

BY SHELLY HARRIS
[Published February 4, 1975 in the Southwest Texan]

They were friends, the man and the dog. In the quiet later years of his life the man enjoyed the companionship of the small dog. They went for long walks, exploring country roads. The dog would dart about, following trails of delightful scents, and would sometimes be rewarded with a rabbit or ground squirrel to chase. His short legs were never equal to the faster animals, and panting from the effort, he would return happily to his Master.

In the afternoon they would sit on the porch, napping in the warmth from the sun or watching the people go by.

Gentle by nature, the little dog greeted everyone with a wagging tail, and an invitation to scratch his back. He would stand on his stubby hind legs and dance for the children, knowing they couldn't resist his plea for a piece of a cookie or sandwich.

The dog's name was Coco. The day was in early January. Coco, who had been fine in the early morning, began having muscle spasms. Alarmed, the old man called his granddaughter, and asked if she could take him, and the small dog to the Veterinarian. She rushed to pick them up, but as they entered the Animal Hospital, Coco stiffened in her arms.

"That's a bad sign," the old man said. He had been raised on a farm and had been around animals all his life.

Before they could get to the examining room the small dog went limp in her arms. She couldn't see the dog's face, but the man could. He saw the small mouth go slack, the eyes roll back, and he knew.

The Veterinarian laid the dog gently on the table, and bent over him. "I'm sorry," the Dr. said. "He's dead. It looks like strychnine poisoning. It acts that fast."

The old man steadied himself against the table. "Are you alright, Sir," the Dr. asked.

"Yes," the man said. "when you're my age you get used to dying."

The granddaughter turned to hide her tears, and walked into the waiting room. A woman, who realized what had happened, went to the girl and put her arm around her.

"Thank you," the girl said gaining control. "I'll be alright now."

As she walked back into the examining room she heard the old man saying, "You'll take care of Coco for me, Doctor?"

"Oh, yes Sir," the Veterinarian replied kindly.

"Come on, Grandpa," the girl said. "We best go home now."

The old man looked for the last time at the still little body on the table. "I'll miss him," he muttered. "He was a good friend."

Tribute to my dad, 1982

I wrote that article in 1975 when I was editor of the Southwest Texan in Uvalde. The man, Al Heskett, was my father.

We ran across the clipping the other day and I was struck again by the particular magic that he found in children and animals. In fact the world as a whole held his interest, especially the people in it.

My mother used to complain with a sigh that she had spent half of her marriage waiting for him, a fair estimate.

She would be sitting in the car by a filling station gas pump waiting...because my dad was having an interesting conversation with the attendant.

He was a talker, my dad, but even more he was a listener. His curiosity touched on everything around him. Daily living was an adventure.

His pleasures were simple: the challenge and excitement of working the sales desk on a produce shed; a game of gin rummy with a worthy opponent; a good book beside a comfortable chair.

He was a big man, athletic, he trained until he was well into his 30's. Probably because of that he never smoked nor drank. Chocolate cake was more his vice.

One time a highway patrolman spotted my dad's car weaving down the road and pulled him over, sure it was a DWI.

What he found was my dad with two fingers of each hand guiding the wheel; the remaining fingers of one hand holding a spoon and the others a hot fudge sundae. As my dad would dip the spoon in the ice cream the car would veer to the left, then as he'd lean to take a bite the car would veer to the right.

"Mister," the officer said with exasperation. "why don't you park until you finish that thing."

My dad had many stories he told on himself, but that was one of his favorites. In trying to analyze my feelings of him as a father, the thing that stands out was his approval.

If I made a speech, he ignored the words I faltered over and praised the point I brought out strongly.

I grew past my lovely, petite mother when I was still in grade school. But he would never let me slouch to hide my height. "Square those shoulders," he would say. "Walk tall. Proudly. Like a queen."

When I blundered pitifully, and it would have been false to have made less of the incident, he would say. "Ah, but you recovered quickly. You handled it well."

I wasn't alone in his approval. He found little fault in most of those he came in contact with. He was so busy in finding out about them, what they were involved in what they were thinking, that he had little time for criticism.

Several heart attacks, and a stroke weakened his strong body so that the last years of his life were spent quietly taking pleasure in his grandchildren, his dogs.

The article about Coco was written in February. On April 15 of that same year he died quietly in his sleep.

I don't believe he feared death. I think he looked on it as the ultimate interview.

Editorial

I write this editorial to you as a fellow businessman of this county. As I make my daily rounds of visiting with many of you I hear many times how hard times are and at times you have convinced me of that fact.

But the next businessman I talk with tells me of some success he has had or deals he is working on. I hear of local businesses taking advantage of the extra trade the oil and pipeline crews have brought to our community.

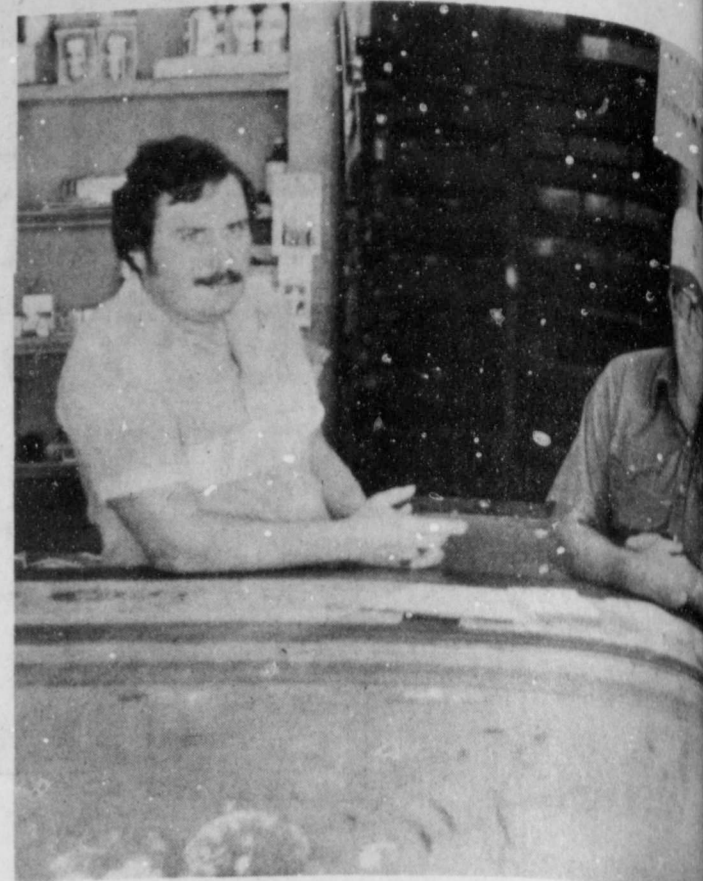

How many of you have looked for new and different ways to keep the business that Floyd County people generate in this county and others. Some of our businesses run items that are as well priced as any in the larger cities. When these businesses let the people know that they have these items their sales show it.

We the people of Floyd County if we were to trade at home how many more dollars would pass through each of our hands. It has been said that each dollar spent in this community will turn over 7 times before it leaves. If there is any truth to it this would benefit us all.

We have in Floyd County many of the items we all travel to Lubbock and Plainview for. We have local craftsmen and women who do some of the best work around. Artists, people who make picture frames, craft shops, leather workers and others, who turn out handmade items that are second to none.

In these days when our farmers economy is not what we want for them we should all do our best to trade with our neighbors, competitors and friends and in the long run will help ourselves. I believe that we as merchants and businessmen should keep as much of the slow economy news in our back office and keep a prosperous outlook as we serve our customers and friends.

BY SUSAN GARMS

An open letter to non-Chamber member citizens and businesses of Floydada from President Stan McClelland and Membership Chairman Roger Garms:

Over the past several years your interests in the growth and well being of our community have been affected by the work of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

From increasing local business potential, to working for better community facilities - from agribusiness development, to promoting our city to others, the chamber is working for you and the betterment of Floydada.

As a voluntary organization of Floydada businesses and citizens, our goal is to improve the local economy and the quality of life in our community. In brief, the Floydada Chamber of Commerce is our city's department of progress.

For the next month the Membership Committee will be contacting several people to consider the best investment they can make in this city and its future. More members - their interest and involvement - is needed to insure the continuous development of our community. We hope you will join us as a member of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

When God made the oyster, he guaranteed him absolute economic and social security. He built the oyster a house - a shell - to protect him from his enemies. When hungry, the oyster simply opens his shell and food rushes in for him. He has no worries. He doesn't fight anybody. He's not going anywhere.

But, when God made the eagle, he gave him the sky as domain. The eagle then nested on the highest crag, where the storms threaten every day. For food he flies through miles of rain, snow, sleet and wind. He screams his defiance at the elements and goes about his own business, building his own life. When he's aroused, he's a vicious foe to his enemies.

KEEP IN MIND the eagle, not the oyster, is the emblem of America.

Black, Collins announce July wedding plans

Mr. and Mrs. James King wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nora Cornelius to Mr. Timothy Jerome Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Collins. The couple will be married July 10th at Mount Zion Baptist Church. They will reside in Floydada where they are both employed.

Old fashioned ceremony unites Assiter, Campbell

Janie Hagood Assiter became the bride of Douglas Neal Campbell in a simple old-fashioned wedding ceremony Saturday morning, May 29th in the home of the bride's parents. Billy Joe Whittaker of Matador, a friend of the groom's family, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The couple are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hagood of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Campbell of Matador.

Baby orchids from Hawaii, brass candleholders with candles in shades of lavender and English Ivy decorated the mantle and formed a background for the wedding party.

Flute selections were presented by Miss Deanne Howard, including "Morning Has Broken", "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", and "Evergreen".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white cotton lace trimmed dress of mid-calf length, made by her maternal grandmother. Her headpiece was a small brimmed hat, also designed in an old-fashioned style. She carried a bouquet of orchids with greenery and broomsweed gathered on the ranch. The groom's mother fashioned the bouquet.

Following tradition for something new the bride wore diamond ear screws, a gift of the groom. Something borrowed and something old was the heirloom gold bracelet worn by all the brides in the paternal grandmother's family and the blue was the garter worn by her mother at her wedding.

Mrs. Sam Erwin of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, and Miss Memori Dawn Assiter, daughter of the bride were her attendants and carried old fashioned nosegays. Billy Paul Campbell of Childress served his brother as best man.

Brad Hagood, brother of the bride, seated the guests who were members of the bride's and groom's families.

Following the ceremony, friends were invited for a small reception. The two-tiered all white wedding cake topped with an arrangement of orchids was made by the bride.

Old-fashioned lemonade was served from an antique punch bowl and coffee from a copper service. Finger sandwiches and assorted nuts completed the refreshments, which were served by Mrs. Rance Young, Mrs. Brent Sanders, Mrs. Rick Fuller, Judy Emert and Kathy Smith.

The couple left for a brief honeymoon to the Inn of the Mountain Gods in Ruidoso after which they will be at home in Matador.

COURTESIES

The happy couple was honored with a miscellaneous shower in Matador at the home of Mrs. Bruce Mars.

Girlhood friends of the bride honored her with a shower May 15 in the home of Mrs. Rick Fuller.

Couple friends were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brent Sanders.

The church family of the bride surprised her with a gift going-away party before church services on May 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Campbell, parents of the groom, assisted by their son Billy Paul and his wife, Lori, served the entire bridal party and their families with a bountiful supper in their home on Friday night preceding the wedding.

D'Lee Marble honoree of bridal shower

D'Lee Marble, bride-elect of Dale Powell, was honored with a bridal shower, Saturday, June 5 at the home of Mrs. Travis Young.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Young, the honoree, her mother Mrs. Keith Marble, and Dale's mother, Mrs. Melvin Powell.

Special guests were grandmothers, Mrs. Jewel Fowler, Crosbyton, Mrs. Eron Powell, Ralls, and Mrs. George H. Robertson, Plainview.

Lori King, Shandra Simpson, and Theresa Whiteley presided at the serving table. The table was covered with an ecru embroidered cloth. The centerpiece was of blue and brown silk flowers flanked by blue candles. Silver tea and coffee services were used.

Hostesses presenting D'Lee with a

MR. AND MRS. JAMIE LEON MCCULLOCH

Hooten, McCulloch repeat wedding vows

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Hooten in the Providence Community provided a yard setting for uniting their daughter, Rhonda Beth, in marriage to Jaime Leon McCulloch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McCulloch of Lockney, on Saturday June 5th at 3 p.m.

Reading vows for the couple was Dale Rowell of Dumas, uncle of the bride. Dixie Rowell of Lubbock, the bride's aunt, read I Corinthians 13.

The bride wore a multi-colored plaid prairie skirt and white blouse for her wedding. Something old and borrowed was a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. Something blue was the traditional bride's garter. Her wedding attire was new. The groom wore a shirt very similar in print and color to the bride's skirt.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Backdrop for the ceremony was a lovely row of white flowers. Rhonda carried a bouquet of multi-colored flowers. Her hair she wore blonde.

The bride's table was ecru lace tablecloth and ecru lace tablecloth. The bouquet was added for the multi-tiered cake was white icing and garnished with blue and pink. The groom and bride as a wedding gift. Lena Casanova of Plainview and Rhonda's bridesmaids were Virginia Stapp, Rhonda's sister, and Janette Stephan.

The couple left for a trip before returning to the Hale Center where McCulloch is a 1982 graduate of DelMar High School, Toole.

Lockney setting for Taylor, Ford wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C. Joe Taylor of 712 N. El Paso, Tulia, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ford of Lockney announce the engagement of their children Rise Shea and Even Micheal Ford.

Miss Taylor is a Lockney High School graduate and attended West Texas State University. She is employed with the Lockney Feed Yard.

Ford also graduated from Lockney High School and attended Angelo State University. He presently farms in the Lockney area.

The couple have set August 14, 1982 for their wedding date. The ceremony will be held in the First United Methodist Church in Lockney.

MICHEAL FORD, RISE TAYLOR

Froh, Dipprey announce plans for August wedding

Mrs. Kenneth Froh of Comanche, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Dub Dipprey of Lockney take pleasure in announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their children, Nancy Jane and Todd.

The bride-elect attended Tarleton State and is a graduate of Southwestern Oklahoma State University with a B.S. degree in pharmacy. She is employed as a pharmacist at the St. Jude Hospital in Bonham, Texas.

The groom-to-be is also a graduate of Southwestern Oklahoma State University with a B.S. degree in pharmacy. He is employed as a pharmacist at Albertson's in Lubbock.

The couple plan an August 7, 1982 wedding at the First United Methodist Church in Comanche.

Smith Family reunion to be held June 25-27

Plans are being made now for the annual Smith-Mickey family reunion, to be held at the Ceta Glen Christian Church Camp, located east of Happy, Texas on June 25-27.

C.W. and Annie Smith were pioneer residents of Floyd County, coming to Della Plain in 1890 from Bosque County.

Of the original thirteen children of this couple, only five are left: Mrs. Irene Pope, Amarillo; Mrs. Maggie Tinnin of Flagstaff, Arizona; Alice Smith of Amarillo; Almy N. Holmes of Duncanville, and Mi'on and his wife, Bertha Ragel Smith of Mountainair, New Mexico.

All plan to be at the reunion along with numerous children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Members will come from as far away as Oregon state to Washington, D.C., as well as most states in between, such as New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Kansas, Florida, Missouri, etc.

The clan is especially looking forward to Friday, June 25, when most of them will be in Floydada for the dedication of the historical marker at the Old Della Plain Cemetery. Several members of the Mickey family are buried there.

The dedication service will take place at 2:00 p.m. at Della Plain Cemetery six miles north on the Silverton Highway. Speaking at the program will be Milton Smith, Kline Nall and J.W. Beddingfield, along with members of other pioneer families and celebrities.

The public is cordially invited to attend these dedication services.

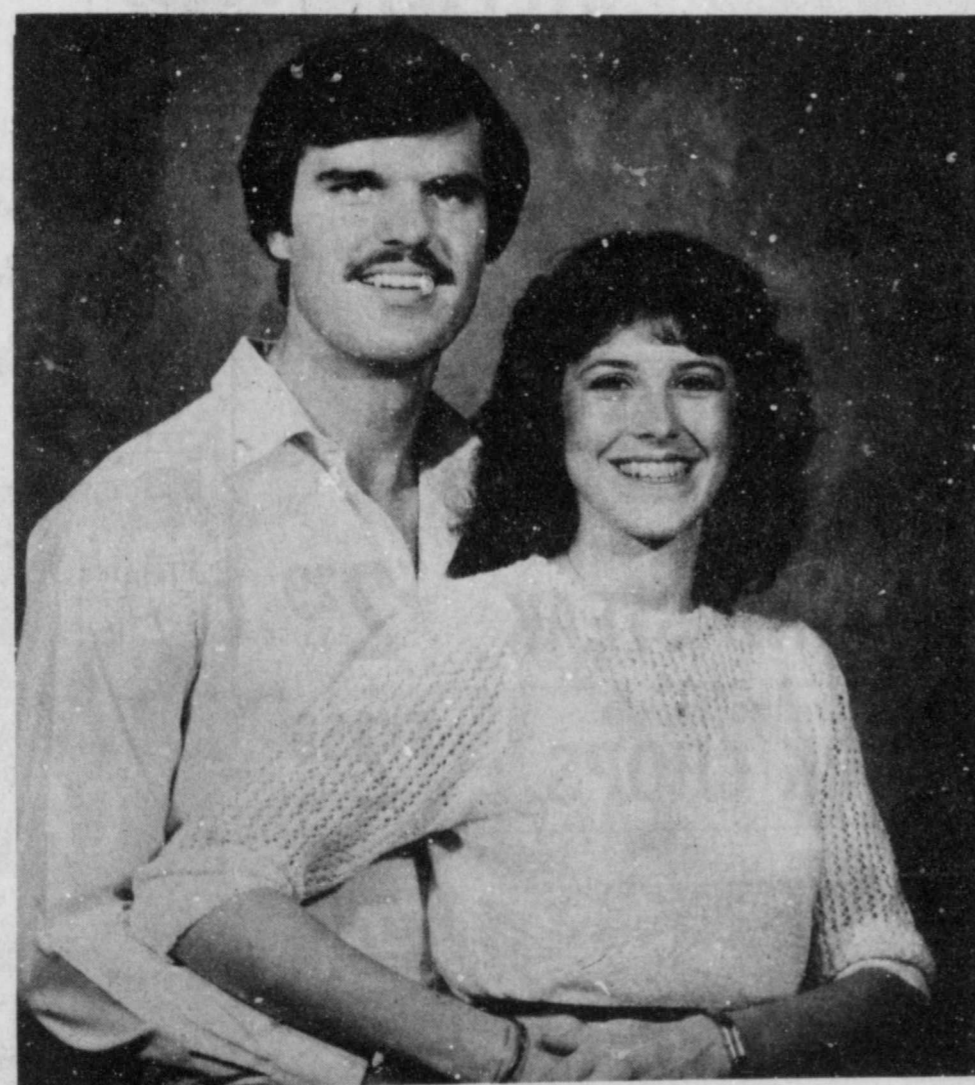

KEITH TOOLEY, DONNA TUMLINSON

Tooley, Tumlinson set September wedding

The engagement of their daughter, Donna Tumlinson, to Keith Tooley of Lockney, is being celebrated at the home of Mrs. Fred Marble, 1010 S. Main, Lockney, Texas.

Miss Tumlinson and Tooley plan to marry September 3 at 6:30 p.m. in Slaton First Baptist Church.

Athenas learn about computers

Athena Study Club met Thursday, June 10, in the home of Mary Ann Kring, Lockney. The meeting opened with a devotional from Psalm 149 given by Charlotte Mitchell.

David Howard, a former sixth grade teacher at Ash Elementary in Plainview, presented a very informative program on computers. He gave a brief history of computers in which he told about the first computer, developed by the Navy in the early 1950's. Athenians also learned that the origination of the expression that something "has a bug in it" came about when a moth was found caught between two wires in that first computer, causing it to malfunction. The first computers were so highly technical that only specialists could manage them. Our world has now advanced to the point that computers are common in many offices and some homes.

Following the program, delicious ice cream sundaes were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Peggy Hall-mark.

President Charlotte Mitchell called the evening business meeting to order. Members discussed and decided to sponsor the summer Story Book Hour at the local library. The theme for these sessions is to be "Space Capers." The annual Old Fashioned Saturday Night was also discussed. Members are being asked to save items for a possible flea market at that time. The club will sell snowcones again this year at the event, scheduled for August 21.

Members present for the meeting were: Judy Schacht, Tanya Covington, Martha Sue Lusk, Vida Hrbacek, Donnie Meriwether, Virginia Owens, Barbara Mathis, Charlotte Mitchell, Peggy Hallmark, Kathy Hunter, Janie Klein, and Mary Ann Kring. Also present was one guest, Barbara Cawley.

The next Athena meeting will be the annual Family Hamburger cookout at the home of Larry and Jill Golden on July 8.

MACHINE EMBROIDERY CLASSES

Machine embroidery classes will be taught in Floydada beginning Friday, June 18 and continuing on June 25 and July 2. Classes will be from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Agriculture Building on the Courthouse Square. Cost for the 12 hours of instruction will be $30. Interested persons should bring a portable sewing machine with a zig-zag stitch and a pair of scissors. Thread and embroidery hoops will be available for purchase. Machines should be oiled and in good working condition.

SILK NEEDS SPECIAL CLEANING

Silk fashions need special cleaning techniques to preserve the longlasting, hard-wearing qualities. Dry cleaning won't hurt any silk, but handwashing is better for some washable silk. Above all, read care labels and follow instructions.

Handwashing in warm water actually "refreshes" washable silk, rejuvenating a gum-like coating put on by the silk worm in the fiber stage. Called "sericin," the coating is a natural sizing that dry cleaning does not destroy or refresh.

In handwashing, take special-care steps. Handwash in lukewarm water with mild soap. Rinse the garment and gently press out excess water in a towel. Do not wring or twist. Smooth and straighten seams and air dry fabrics out of direct sunlight until slightly damp. While damp, press on wrong side with steam.

Careful handwashing will not harm solid silks, such as broadcloth, pongee and crepe de chine, but do not wash iridescent. Since silk cannot be made colorfast, do not wash prints or very bright colors. Dry clean them instead.

Also, take stained garments to a professional dry cleaner. Remove water spots or surface shines on washables by dunking the garment in warm water and then letting it dry.

To keep white silks white, occasionally put a drop or two of ammonia and hydrogen peroxide into warm sudsy water, and wash the garment in that.

To remove yellowing from a pale-color silk, add three tablespoons of white vinegar to cool water, and wash the garment in it.

To prevent unremovable perspiration and sticky deodorant stains, use dress shields.

Flora McNeill honored Eastern Star meeting

Floydada Chapter No. 31, O.E.S. met Thursday, June 10, 1982, in the Masonic Hall, with the newly installed worthy matron and worthy patron presiding at the meeting, honoring Grand Esther of the Order of Eastern Star.

During the business meeting, the secretary read a letter from the Grand Examiner, District II, Mrs. Betty Phillips, which revealed that twelve members of Floydada Chapter had earned "A" certificates at the Eastern Star School of Instruction held at Canyon in February; namely, Frances Crass, Ruth Daniel, Dell Gray, Geneva Griffin, Bobby Kendrick, Jean Kendrick, Glen Lindsey, Lillian Lindsey, Flora McNeill, Noma Lou Rainer, Roberta Russell and Wayne Russell.

Annual reports were given by Jr. Past Matron, Mrs. Jean Kendrick; and Secretary Anne Swebston, who reported that the membership of Floydada Chapter is now 178, which number includes 60 affiliated members from Silverton Chapter, which consolidated with Floydada Chapter in June, 1981.

During the meeting, the Worthy Matron recognized the grand officers present: Mrs. Roberta Russell, member of the Music Committee; and Wayne Russell, member of the Masonic Relations Committee, both of the Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S.

As an expression of appreciation of their faithfulness and contribution to the Order, the Worthy Matron recognized the past matrons and past patrons present, who were Jean Kendrick, Ruth Daniel, Frances Crass, Roberta Russell, Flora McNeill, Eula Par-rack, Anne Swebston, and M.J. McNeill.

Special recognition was given to Mrs. Flora McNeill as Grand Eastern Star for this year as Grand Eastern Star. She was seated at the head table and given a fitting tribute. Grand Esther, who presided, was given an appreciation of her service to the Order of Eastern Star. The Worthy Matron presented the Worthy Patron with the emblem of the Order, which was made by Bobby Rainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trina Savage hosted the dining hall after the closing.

Students on Deans

Two Lockney area students are listed on the Dean's List for the Spring semester at Angelo State University.

Those listed on the Dean's List include Donny Duggan, Jr. and Mrs. Richard Duggan, and physical education major Michelle Ferguson, and Mrs. James Hall Ferguson, and physical education major.

Rainers installed in O.E.S. ceremony

In an impressive service, June 5, 1982, in the Floydada Masonic Hall, Mrs. Noma Lou Rainer and Bobby E. Rainer was installed as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, respectively, of Floydada Chapter No. 31, O.E.S. for the year 1982-83.

The ceremony opened with a musical prelude by Mrs. Amy Marjorie Hollums and prayer by Noman Hamilton, father of the Worthy Matron.

Kay Lyn and Mary Ann Rainer, daughters of the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, presented the Bible and Square and Compasses at the altar.

Others participating in the opening ceremony were the Rev. Jim Smith, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, who led the Lord's Prayer; Bob Kendrick, leading the pledge to the flag; and Bobby Rainer, who led the national anthem.

Mrs. Lucille Hancock, aunt of the Worthy Patron, was the Installing Officer, assisted by Wayne Russell; Mrs. Roberta Russell, Installing Marshal; Mrs. Louise Hamilton, mother of the Worthy Matron, was the Installing Chaplain; Mrs. Amy Hollums, Installing Organist; and Noman Hamilton, Installing Secretary.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Dell Gray, Associate Matron; Bill Gray, Associate Patron; Anne Swebston, Secretary; Mrs. Melba Vickers, Treasurer; Mrs. Regi Gross, Conductress; Mrs. Sherry Colston, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Eula Parrack, Chaplain; Keith Gross, Marshal; Mrs. Trina Savage, Organist; Mrs. Frances Crass, Adah; Mrs. Jean Kendrick, Ruth; Mrs. Mary Myers, Esther; Mrs. Ruth Daniel, Martha; Mrs. Fern Hartsell, Electa; Bob Vickers, Warder; and Bob Kendrick, Sentinel.

Following the installation, a musical program was presented by Mary Ann and Bobby Rainer singing "Bind Us Together, Lord," accompanied by Kay Kenner; a piano selection, "Rhapsody on a Theme From Paganini" by Kay Lyn Rainer; and a solo, "The Star of the East" by Mary Ann Rainer, accompanied by Kay Kenner.

The newly installed Worthy Matron was honored by the presentation of gifts: a gavel, presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton; and a traveling Worthy Matron's pin, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray. This pin will be presented to each succeeding Worthy Matron at installation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kendrick were presented past matron's and past patron's pins by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rainer.

The installation service closed with the benediction given by Bobby Rainer.

In her greetings to the Chapter, Mrs. Rainer gave her theme for the year as "Peace and Harmony Through Love"; her motto, "Where Love Is, Harmony Lives"; Scripture, Romans 12:18; her purpose, "Let Peace and Harmony prevail and Love endure"; and her watchwords, Peace and Love. Her colors for the year were carried out in the decorations in the Chapter room, fellowship hall, and the color of the dresses of the elected officers, those colors being shades of red.

The Worthy Matron's chosen flower is the red rose and her emblem, the dove of peace. Baskets of red roses, crocheted by Mrs. W.B. Parrack, with a white dove perched on the handle of the basket, decorated the Chapter room and the serving table in the dining hall, where immediately following the installation service, a reception was held, hosted by the past matrons of the Chapter.

Farmers continue to fight the elements

BY JOYCE WILLIAMS
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Aldredge visited his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Strickland, in Lubbock Saturday. They went on to Hobbs, New Mexico to spend the weekend with another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trice.

Hail, rain and blowing dust have frustrated farmers the past few weeks. Some wheat was cut before the hail two weeks ago, and some since, but most fields are too wet for crews to move into. The heavy hail week before last broke windshields and dented trucks and cars as they travelled through Blanco Canyon. The most recent rain was Thursday night. Farmers have been kept busy running sand fighters to keep the crusted fields from blowing.

Mr. Walter Craft, father of Mrs. Dee Adams, has been returned to the Lockney Rest Home after being in the hospital at Lubbock.

Hunter Smith visited in Lubbock from Wednesday through Saturday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Flukie Smith, who brought him home. They spent the weekend here, also looked at the fields and crops.

Mrs. Randy Bertrand, Angie and Misti and Carolyn Cunningham of Lockney, visited Connie Lu's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Connie Reed, in Panhandle over the weekend. On Saturday, they attended a Miniature Show, at the Civic Center in Amarillo.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams visited last week in Idabel, Oklahoma, with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Goodwin, and little daughter, Hilary. Nancy celebrated her birthday, and Hilary her third birthday part during the visit.

Mrs. B.L. Breed visited her son, Odell for Sunday dinner. Janell and Odell also were Sunday hosts to their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Towler and son, Brody, of Lubbock. Brody stayed for a longer visit with his grandparents.

Jason Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Harrison, and Angie Bertrand, are playing on the same T-ball team this summer.

Mrs. Roy Fawver visited Sunday with her son, Leslie, who returned home Saturday, after surgery in Lubbock last week.

Mrs. Dean Watson took her children to Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist Church each day last week.

Jimmy McLaugh's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander, of Lewisville, visited them Saturday afternoon.

Marlis McLaugh's tap recital is planned for Sunday in Plainview. Memorial Day guests of the Dean Watsons at Roaring Springs Ranch included Brenda's family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moore, and family of Dumas, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Fuller, Steve Moore of Kilgore, Bill Moore, Mike Moore and Pam Parrott of Canyon. All cooked out at the Watson's camper.

Mrs. Byron Kendrick and children visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Daniels, at their camp at Roaring Springs Ranch.

Mrs. Nettie Adams visited Mrs. Roy Fawver Saturday. Flora ate lunch with the Senior Citizens last week.

Mrs. Jill Warren and children, Lezlie and Will, of Tahoka, are spending a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bertrand.

Amanda and Deanna Watson are going into town twice a week for their baseball team. Fortunately, both are on the same team.

Mrs. Pat Brown, history education director of the Crosbyton Historical Museum, has recently completed the first phase of the summer youth program, the Nature Study. Students age ten through teens, paid $3 each. They traveled to Silver Falls, the English Ranch and Caso del Sol, collecting wildflowers and grasses. They pressed their collections into books at the museum.

Mrs. Georgia Mae Erickson was hostess for a swimming party for members of the Museum Summer Youth program last Friday at her home in Blanco Canyon.

Pat and the museum plan for the forth-coming Domestic Arts Youth Program to be conducted in the Crosbyton Home Ec. department. They will sew prairie skirts under the supervision of the Home Demonstration Agent, Colleen England. Also planned are lessons in bread dough sculpture, needlepoint, and making pot pourris.

Around July 1, the Crosbyton museum summer youth program will conduct a Fine Arts Workshop, $15 to $25 enrollment fee. Glen Gray, local artist, will teach basic beginner drawing. Art work may then be entered in the Crosbyton County Art Festival.

The last of the summer, the museum will hold an Archeology Workshop and plan to tour the Lubbock Lake Site. They will be taught basic techniques of research. Fee will be $4. Pat is having as much fun as her students. The students bring sack lunches and become very involved with their courses.

Those listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 honor roll include Bart Joseph Patzer, an undecided major, Jeffrey Lewis Rainey, an undecided major, and Melody S. Stringer, a nursing major.

Two Floydada students at Angelo State University were among 357 students to receive degrees during Spring commencement at the University.

Melody S. Stringer received an Associate of Science in Nursing degree with a major in Nursing, and Jill Deonne Poage received an Associate of Science in Nursing degree with a major in Nursing.

Graduate heard Financial Consultant Dr. P.E. Coldwell during the ceremonies on the Academic Mall at ASU.

To qualify for a dean's honor roll, a student must have a grade point average of 3.5 or more on a 4.0 scale and must have taken 12 hours or more of classes.

Three Floydada area students attending Angelo State University in San Angelo, are listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the Spring semester at the University.

South Plains News

South Plains Vacation Bible School comes to an end

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN
South Plains, June 14:

Today, June 14, is Flag Day. Those of us who have flags should have them bravely displayed, for this is a great country, our America, and I for one, am truly proud to be called an American. The first flag was made in 1777, and at that time there were 13 stars, and now there are 50, since Alaska and Hawaii were entered as states 23 years ago. God Bless America!

Sunday morning was black and stormy, and wind and rain lashed South Plains just before church time. Less than 30 were able to get to the South Plains Baptist Church, but the sun came out and we had a beautiful day Sunday. We had one half an inch in the mornings rain. Visitors Sunday morning at Sunday School and church included Mrs. Emily Bragg of Duncan, Oklahoma, who was a house guest of Darla and Jerry Chappell. She left Sunday evening for her home in Oklahoma.

South Plains Vacation Bible School closed out Sunday night with a commencement and family night, where teachers told what the children had made and enjoyed during the week, and then rooms with their work were opened and displayed to all the visiting parents and everyone adjourned to the fellowship hall where refreshments and a time of visiting were enjoyed. Such precious little children as they were! Mrs. Royce (Kay) Bethel was director of the VBS, and there was an enrollment of 31, with an average of 29. Mrs. Diane Johnson played the piano for them; Mrs. Nina Sanders led the singing, and headed the refreshments, and teachers were: Mrs. Nelda Staples, assisted by Stacy Staples and Jenesse Lemons; Mrs. Connie Johnson had the kindergarten and 2nd graders, with helpers, Mitzi Julian and Mrs. Joyce Osborne, and Mrs. Janis Julian had 3rd thru 5th grades assisted by Mrs. Liuda Clarke and Kristi Julian.

Mrs. Nina Sanders was head of the refreshment committee at the Vacation Bible School, and thanks go to those who brought refreshments. Monday, Darla Chappell and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. served. Tuesday, Mrs. Bonnie Julian served; Wednesday, Mrs. Letha Mulder and Mrs. Mildred Hamm brought the refreshments; Thursday, Mrs. Carlene Johnson and Mrs. Shari Smith served; and Friday, Mrs. Gleyne Earle Cummings and Mrs. Helen Teple brought refreshments. Sunday evening there were sandwiches, cookies, tea, coffee and punch served to all the guests and others attending. The Vacation Bible School was thoroughly enjoyed by the children, the teachers, and we owe a lot of thanks to all those who worked so hard to make it such a happy, good week.

Mrs. Linda Clark and her girls, Angie and Kelly, left Friday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crabb of Silverton for a family reunion which was held with their family members down near Waco. They were to return home this Monday.

Another family reunion was held in Amarillo at the Thompson Park for members of the Holland family. Sunday, June 13, There were 69 who gathered, and a bountiful lunch was spread for everyone. Pictures were taken, and families visited together. Due to rains and storms around, there were less present than last year. Those who went from here were Mrs. Letha Mulder, who accompanied her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland and Florene Fitzgerald of Rock Creek. The reunion lasted all Sunday, and those from here who went were in the terrific rain storm which was in our area early Sunday morning.

We are very happy to hear that Mrs. I.H. Parks (Maurine) is in hopes of getting to come home this Tuesday, June 15. She has had to have some additional surgery, but she is getting along well at this time. She has been down in Lubbock at the Methodist Hospital for the past three weeks.

E.J. Kinslow was dismissed from the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock last Friday, and we are glad to find he is getting along well at his home. He had been in the hospital two weeks with a chest infection.

Mrs. Nathan Mulder (Kathy) with Cory and Cindy is in Wellington this week in the mornings, where she is teaching Vacation Bible School at the Faith Baptist Church where her husband Nathan is minister. She is driving back and forth each day. Kathy also is looking after her Aunt Ruth who is in the Wellington hospital at this time.

Donald McClure, who has been here with his mother, Mrs. Frank McClure, left Friday, flying to his home in Houston. He has been here since the death of his father, Frank McClure.

The Hobby Club "Breakfast at Mamie's" which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Mamie Wood last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, had to be postponed last week because of the big rain which came the evening before the breakfast. The rain made the roads inaccessible. This Wednesday, June 16th, at 8:00 a.m. the breakfast is planned again, and it is hoped for dry weather. Please make your plans to attend, because this is the last Hobby Club meeting until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamm went to Amarillo Friday and took their grandson, four year old Duane Huff, back to his parents, after they had kept him with them two weeks, while his father, Pat Huff was recuperating from a fall through the attic of their home, and had surgery following the fall. He is doing well now.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain and Bobbie Kinnibrugh went to see his father, J.A. Kinnibrugh Wednesday in the hospital at Seymour as it was getting along just fine. Jeremy Gilbreath of Perryton fell Thursday at his home and broke his collar bone. He is the six year old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Powell, and son of Wanda and Gary Gilbreath of Perryton.

Grandaughter of Mrs. Alvin Nichols, Daveyonna, from Virginia Beach, Virginia, was in a spelling match last week in her school, and she won the spelling bee over five classes of 3rd graders of her school. Mrs. Judy Allen in Virginia Beach said they were having much rain there at this time.

There was rain here Monday, Tuesday, and Sunday, with tornado reports reported nearly every night. Many farmers have had to replant crops, and there is no way of knowing how much more will have to be replanted. We can be glad the tornadoes have not done damage here.

Miss D'Lee Marble, wife of Dale Powell, was honored at a lightful rice bag party, Sunday noon at 3:00 p.m. in the home of Fred Marble (Carolyn). The serving table was decorated with an arrangement of magnolia leaves. The fresh fruit, cookies, cakes and they sat around the table made little rice bags, which were used in the wedding. Guests were the honor Mrs. Neta Marble, and mother of Neta Marble, her granddaughters Lela Robertson of Plains, and Kim Wells, Donna of Lubbock, and Cindy of Lubbock. Mrs. Onita Powell, mother of the groom-to-be, Lisa Wells, of Ralls, granddaughters of Floyda, Jo Betsy of Hopson, La Deanna of Kay Butler of Plainsville and the hostesses Mrs. Marble and her fiancée, Mrs. Carolyn Marble, will be married Friday, June 18 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Tahoka; and a reception at the Wall Street parlor.

MRS. CLAUDE PRICE and her granddaughter, Gayle Dean and her husband Wayne Dean from Las Vegas proudly show their twin century plants.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

The weather has been real stormy this week. Trees have been blown down and things like that. The wheat is going to be later and later if the rain don't stop.

Monday we played games. The ceramics man did not come. Tuesday we had Bible study with a good group of residents there. Wednesday we played bingo with four residents playing. W.C. Cates won two games, Sue Thompson won three games, Emmitt Lawrence won four games, and Una Clark won five games. They all really enjoy playing bingo very much. Thursday we had crafts and the residents made golden foil pictures and enjoy it. Friday we had two good movies.

We want to welcome a new resident, Mr. A.J. Standifer, who came to live in the home Monday. He is in eight West if you know him come visit him and even if you don't know him visit him anyway. He would appreciate it if you would visit him.

The birthday party for the month is June 17th. Come help us wish the honoree a happy birthday.

Mr. Lawrence has made his two hundredth owl. It will be hanging on the wall in the lobby for you to see. We will be raffling off his two hundredth and one owl in the future.

Here is a list of visitors for the week: Dorris Tobin, Illa Belle McPeak, Otis, Dana, Kim and Jo Lee Ellis, Betty Draper, J.T. and Dorthey Roberts, Jimmy and Susan Roberts, Alisha Roberts, Rodney Roberts, Debra, Jason and Justin Bailey, Dixie Harris, Illa Belle McPeak.

Also, Gene Baird, Ana Lee Brown, Maurice and Ella Goodwin, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Estelle Eubanks, Thelma Favver, Tammy Wilcox, Mae Joyce Smith, James and Joyce Crowley, Corene and Murry Stewart, W.H. Eubanks, Rebecca Smith, Ruth Harrison, Inez Furrow, Dick Furrow, Charley L. Berry Sr., Deota Odam, Beady Owens, Merlene Breeding, Edna Patton, Evelyn Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Vallie McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Hart, and Shelly Coleman.

Smith hosts Extension Club June 8th

Mrs. Lillian Smith was hostess to the Homebuilders Extension Club June 8 and roll call was answered with "The oldest outfit I still wear."

Several members said they still wore the first pantsuit (knit) that they had made or bought and that comfortable old nightgown that just can't be thrown away.

The program was presented by Ruth Trapp on "Create the look you like with color." Your hair, skin, and eye color should be considered when selecting your best color. Color sets the mood you are in, so when you are depressed put on your brightest colors and bring your spirits up.

Members attending were Gladys Widener, Ruth Trapp, Blanche Williams, Lela Mae Burns, Eunice Hong, Muri Mayfield, Lillian Smith, Inez Walker and Barbara Willis.

Members were reminded of the county-wide luncheon which will be held June 22, along with an auction for council funds. The program will be given by Mrs. Mona Bond on "Electric Decorating."

An air conditioner can improve the performance of your furnace.

An air conditioner?

A very special air conditioner called the add-on heat pump. It cools in summer and heats in winter. It works with whatever kind of furnace you have. This add-on heat pump will improve the performance of your furnace by keeping it off completely during a good portion of the winter. The add-on heat pump can satisfy your home's heating requirements more economically when temperatures are above 30° or so. That's about 80% of our area's normal heating season. So, when summer comes, the heat pump becomes a cool pump, efficiently air conditioning the home. So, when you're in the market for air conditioning, look into the add-on heat pump.

JEAN HALE continues the time honored tradition of feeding the squirrels that reside on the Floydada town square. This tradition was started by the late Mark Martin, one of Floydada's founding fathers. Mrs. Hale feeds the squirrels twice a week or when they are out. After Mr. Martin's death no one fed them. Mrs. Hale said that "worried me so." She has been feeding these squirrels for about a year.

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN

June 14:

We've had more rain and wind since a week ago, much of it at nite. There has been some hail, not very destructive. Gardens are growing. It is partly cloudy today.

Among the sick — Mrs. Amelia Ashton in the Lockney Rest Home is reported about the same. Mrs. Bud Warren is a patient in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. We trust she will soon be better.

Gene Mayfield and family of Henrietta visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mayfield. They came Wednesday and visited over the weekend.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell and Mrs. Ava Jackson visited Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter recently.

Mrs. Roe Jones' daughter, Christine Perry of Petersburg, is visiting her mother today.

Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview and son Steve visited Ma Green Wednesday afternoon. Steve was home on vacation, Friday he left for Providence, Rhode Island to resume work at Brown University.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son David of Lubbock spent over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas.

Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey were guests of the Thomas Warrens Saturday.

A birthday dinner honoring their son Don. Also present were Mrs. Paul Stout and girls of Muleshoe, Miss Joyce Owens and sons, city, Ed Warren and family and other young people. Surely Don had a happy birthday.

The Doyle Sandifurs don't seem to be home today.

Mrs. Fulkerson's company today are Mrs. Opal Smith of Conroe, Texas and Oleta Smith of Bayfield, Colorado.

Thursday will be Senior Citizen's Day at the Center.

Calvary Baptist Church and others were saddened last Tuesday when Mr. Hubert Davis passed away in a Plainview hospital. Another of our faithful members has gone to his reward. Last rites were held in Calvary Church Thursday. Bro. Payne presiding. Our sympathy is with his many friends. I can't get the Henry's. Their near neighbor probably out in the gate were.

We wish to extend our heartfelt appreciation for the kind expressions of sympathy by our friends and neighbors during the recent loss of our loved one.

She was a dear person and we will miss her for we loved her so very much; however your words, gifts of cards, floral offerings and contributions to worthy causes have made our sorrow a little easier to bear. We love to thank each and every one of you.

CITY OF FLOYDADA
PUBLIC NOTICE
INVITATION TO BID

The City of Floydada, on behalf of applicants to the Community Development Block Grant Program, is soliciting bids for home repair and improvement contracts. Work write-ups, including specifications and the addresses of the homes to be repaired, may be picked up at the Floydada City Office, 114 W. Virginia St., Floydada, Texas.

Sealed bids will be observed and the deadline for submitting bids on Case Numbers 8112, 8134, 8128, 8125, 8201, is 5:00 P.M. on the 6th day of July, 1982. The bids will be opened at 7:00 P.M. in the City Council meeting room at the Floydada City Office on the 6th day of July, 1982.

The right is reserved by the City and the applicant-owner to reject any and/or all bids. All qualified bidders will receive consideration for award without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Dorr Blasingame
REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Housing Authority of the City of Floydada, Texas (hereinafter called the Local Housing Authority) will receive bids for a single construction contract with an add alternate for the total Modernization of forty (40) Dwelling Units including mechanical, electrical, plumbing, interior remodel, exterior utilities and etc., and all other work as noted on drawings and in the specifications until:

THURSDAY - JUNE 24, 1982 - 2:00 P.M., CST
OFFICE OF THE LOCAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
201 EAST CALIFORNIA, FLOYDADA, TEXAS

at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Proposed forms of contract documents; including plans and specifications are on file at the office of the Architect - Whitaker McQueen Jones & Assoc., 2517-74th Street, Lubbock, Texas, (806) 745-5485, and the Dodge Plan Room in Lubbock.

Copies of the documents may be obtained by depositing $25.00 with the Architect for each set of documents so obtained. Such deposits will be refunded on return of the plans, specifications, and other documents in good condition within 10 days after bid opening.

A certified check or bank draft, payable to the Local Housing Authority, U.S. Government Bonds, or a satisfactory bid bond executed by the bidder and acceptable surety in an amount equal to five (5%) percent of the bid shall be submitted with each bid.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish and pay for satisfactory performance and payment bond or bonds.

Attention is called to the provisions for Equal Employment Opportunity as reflected in these documents.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the specifications must be paid on this project, and that the contractor must perform with his own forces at least the construction branches of carpentry.

The Local Housing Authority reserve the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in the bidding.

No bid shall be withdrawn for a period of sixty days (60) subsequent to the opening of bids without consent to the Local Housing Authority.

CFDAR HILL NEWS

Wheat harvest started in the Cedar Hill Community

BY GRACE LEMONS

More rain and storms this week with about 2 1/2 inches of moisture. Some of the cotton is up and doing good while other fields did not come up a good stand. Harvesting of wheat began about two weeks ago. Now there are fields that are fully ready but too wet to cut.

Your correspondent left by plane the first of May to be with her brother, John E. Anderson who is a patient in a military hospital at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio in critical condition with a terminal disease. R.C. Anderson of Gyman and Lavena Decker of Amarillo also spent some time with J.E. Grace, stayed with her daughter and family, Clark and Carla Gayley who live in San Antonio. She flew to Dallas on the 25th of June to attend the graduation exercise of Bryan/Adams High School held at the Dallas Convention Center. Karl Whatley was one of the 545 graduates. Grace remained in Dallas two weeks visiting her daughter and family Frances and Eddie Whatley and returned home Saturday June 12th.

Mamie Wood, Art Linkletter work on People Plus, Inc. seminar

Most people probably think that Mamie Wood has her hands full taking care of her lovely home in South Plains. However, in addition to her household duties, Mamie has been working for People Plus, Inc., a positive-living seminar production company located in Lubbock, Texas.

People Plus, Inc. is a corporation which sponsors events that feature well-known speakers who specialize in personal growth, development, and motivation. Her daughter, Juanell Teague, is the president of People Plus, Inc.

Mamie worked closely with Art Linkletter on an event in Lubbock, and worked as the Assistant Office Manager in Baton Rouge on an event which took place on April 27 that featured Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Zig Zigler, and Ed Foreman. She looks forward to working on future events throughout the southwestern United States.

May 20th in Oklahoma to Paula and Jackie Hayhurst. His grandparents are Patsy and Lafayette Boone of Lubbock and Jack Hayhurst of Oklahoma. Great grandparents are Tom and Gladys Fortenberry of Cedar Hill and Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Boone of Plainview. Trevor weighed 8 lbs. and 4 ozs. and was 20 inches long.

Gladys Fortenberry left Lubbock by plane Sunday June 13th for Dallas to be with her granddaughter and family, Pam and Ron Vick and Patrick. She will return next Friday. Her granddaughter Danita Bocue of Lubbock is also present.

John D. VanHoose went to Louisiana last week and brought household good belonging to Delise Harrison back with him. Delise and daughters stayed a few days with Edna Gilly and found a house in Lubbock where her brothers, Craig and Mark helped them move.

Janette Lackey and Edna Gilly went to Lubbock Monday on business. Jim and Viola Conner and Clara Mize visited Helen Dunlap in the Caprock Hospital in Floydada this week.

A large number from Cedar Hill attended the Old Settlers in Floydada. It has always been a big event that our neighbors look forward in seeing old timers and the special events of the day.

The Love-Dillard reunion met last Saturday at the Massie Activity Center for a covered dish dinner and enjoying the togetherness of relatives and friends. Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry, Lindsey and Billy Ruth Lackey, Mrs. Peat Kelley, Norma Dean Welch were among those who attended.

A baby girl named Angelita Maria was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sisto Arrendondo May 25th in Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview. She weighed 8 lbs. and 5 oz.

A baby boy was born to Rex and Brenda Yeary May 15th in Lubbock General Hospital. He was named Jess Ryan and weighed 5 lbs. and 6 oz. and was 18 1/2 in. long. Grandparents are Jack and Dona Yeary of Cedar Hill, Bill and Darlene Fulton of Floydada, Preston and Betty Coomer of Graham. Great grandparents are Sarah Beard of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Fulton of Floydada, Mrs. Sylvia Yeary of Lockney and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Bryant of Idalou. Irene and Claude Cash of California spent Memorial Day and night with Tom Fortenberry. Gladys Fortenberry and Patsy Boone were in Oklahoma with Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Hayhurst and new baby.

The Dell Gray piano recital was presented in the First United Church in Floydada May 20th and Sandra and Virginia Mitchell participated in the program.

William and Frances Hensley of Denton arrived in Floydada Thursday to visit Frances' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. VanHoose. The group went to Lubbock and had supper with Alfred and Barbra VanHoose and the Hensleys returned to their home in Denton Monday evening.

Eula Mae and Chic Wilson and John Wilson of Ralls were supper guests in the home of John D. and Pauline VanHoose last Saturday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Vance Mitchell and girls went to Okemah, Oklahoma Saturday evening to attend the wedding of her father, the Rev. H.E. Barnard of Eakly, Oklahoma to Nola Rogers. The wedding took place in the Assembly of God Church in Okemah and the couple will make their home in Eakly where he is pastor of the Assembly of God Church.

Mattie Davis accompanied Gus and Agnes Wesley to California visiting relatives and making a tour of interest recently. On the way they visited Gus's brother, Carl Wesley in Galap, New Mexico, Lelia and Dooley in Suter Creek, California and the Cosby's in Selma, California. They went to Boulder Dam, Disney Land, Grand Canyon and the Painted Desert in Kansas and other points of interest before returning to their homes in Plainview last week.

Belle Lemons sustained a painful injury to her leg some time ago when she fell and it is showing some improvement at this time.

Several from Cedar Hill attended the Vacation Bible School at South Plains Baptist Church last week. Kay Bethel was the director of the school and Shelly Jayme, Bethel, Twyla and Traca Lemons, Brandi and Casey Lackey, and Trudi Gilly attended the school and Jenese Lemons helped. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lackey and Mack, Mr. Royce Bethel, Trudi Gilly and baby, Linda Lemons and Vance and Grace Lemons also were present for the commencement exercises Sunday evening and enjoyed refreshments of sandwiches.

cookies and Kool-Aid and coffee in the fellowship hall after they viewed the work the children had been doing all week.

Joyce Harper of Stamford Lack, Twyla Woodring and children, Tammy and Ricky of Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lemons and Latricia and Durrel Fortenberry Monday.

Donnie and Carla Fortenberry of Amarillo are the proud parents of a baby boy, Eric Wayne, who was born at the Northwest Hospital in Amarillo, Texas, weighed 9 lbs. and 4 ozs. and was 19 inches long. He has an older brother, Chad. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. of Amarillo and Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. of Floydada, Marcia Fortenberry, Ilo and Durrel and Latricia of Cedar Hill.

The best way to promote is to give a good example.

Tech releases spring honor roll

More than 2,200 students at Texas Tech University qualified for the deans' honor rolls in the university's six colleges during the 1982 spring semester.

Students making the honor roll included the following from Lockney: John K. Belt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Belt; Dawn M. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holyfield; Christie L. Jack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delton Jack, Kristi M. Julian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian; Kevin T. Stennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stennett; and Mark A. Vincent, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Vincent.

To qualify for a dean's honor roll, a student must have a grade point average of 3.5 or more on a 4.0 scale and must have taken 12 hours or more of classes. Texas Tech has an enrollment of almost 23,000 students in six colleges: Agricultural Sciences, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering and Home Economics.

Spanish course offered at Texas Tech Univ.

"Beginning Conversational Spanish II" will be offered 7-9:30 p.m. Tuesdays, July 6 through August 24, at Texas Tech University.

Sponsored by the Texas Tech University Division of Continuing Education, the course will meet in Room 117, Foreign Language Building.

Instruction will include vocabulary, sentence structure and development of speaking and listening skills. Fee is $50. Course instructor Dr. Steve Corbett is assistant professor of Classical and Romance Languages for Texas Tech. He has taught several conversational Spanish courses for the division and has designed "Conversational Spanish II" as a follow-up to the basic Spanish course offered through the division.

For further information and to register, contact Tracy Freeman, Division of Continuing Education, Box 4110, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79409, (806) 742-2404.

Gas pipeline bisects Floyd County

[Photos and story by Wes Brown]

[3]

Natural gas is a precious natural resource. Many people depend on it for a primary source of energy. Thanks to the new pipeline that is being constructed four miles west of Floydada more gas will reach people that need this valuable fuel.

The pipeline bisects Floyd County from the southwest to the northeast. The total length is approximately 295 miles long. It starts at the Wheeler gas fields in Wheeler County and will end in an Odessa receiving plant.

Majestic-Wiley Contractors Ltd. is constructing the section from Lubbock to Silverton. This 67.2 mile stretch of pipeline cost approximately 12 million dollars, according to Majestic-Wiley office manager Tony Hudson.

Hudson said that they employ about 240 men and two women with a gross payroll of $265,000. Approximately one third of this payroll will stay in the local community.

Hudson said that they are "working well with the local community" and "they are getting a lot of cooperation there." The pipeline was started April 19 and is due to be completed July 15 with everything on schedule.

BUD BURGESS, fore-man over tie-in crew, directs the lining up of the pipeline [1]. Kevin Gilmore, Jack Rodgers and Dave Harlan put spacers in the end of the casing [2]. The seams of the pipe must be free of mud before they can be welded [3]. The next section of pipe is ready to be placed in line [4]. Greg Ford, radio graphic inspector, waits to X-ray the welds in the pipeline [5].

4-H LEADER AWARD—Distinguished 4-H adult leaders of Texas were honored during the recent Texas 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University. Kenneth Broseh (at left) is greeted by Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and Jim Morris of Austin, trustee with the Texas 4-H Foundation. Leaders were recognized at a special luncheon program arranged by the 4-H Foundation and Extension Service. Recognition went to two leaders from each of the state's 14 Extension districts. Broseh is from Floyd County, District 2.

Two area 4-h leaders honored

Two area 4-H leaders were among 29 in Texas honored at the 1982 State 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University June 9.

Barbara Finch of Tulia and Kenneth Broseh of Lockney were recognized as the top adult volunteer leaders in the South Plains District of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The Extension Service is the parent organization of 4-H.

Each honoree received a special plaque provided by the Texas 4-H Foundation, the service organization of 4-H in the state.

Finch, who is coordinator for the Swisher Memorial Center, has been a leader for the Town and Country 4-H Club for 17 years. She provides leadership for method demonstrations and projects in entomology, gardening, foods, clothing, sheep, veterinary science, citizenship, recreation and leadership.

Finch has coached several farm and ranch management teams to qualify for state competition. She also has helped coach several youth with state award-winning record books in beef, rifle, photography and veterinary science, including a national award in veterinary science.

The adult leader was a leading force in raising funds for the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood which totaled more than $4,600 in one year. She also initiated a county 4-H exchange trip with another state.

Finch has chaired the Swisher County Adult Leaders Association and is active on the county fair board. She is active in the Chamber of Commerce and has chaired the Miss Tulia Contest.

A former Gold Star Award winner from Swisher County, Finch received the Silver Spur Award in 1974.

Broseh, who is in the farming business, has been a leader for the Lockney 4-H Club for 24 years. He has provided leadership for sheep projects and exchange trips plus a number of other activities.

Broseh helped initiate the first 4-H budget for Floyd County when he was president of the county adult leaders association. He also had a major hand in establishing an interstate exchange program and got Floyd County involved in the 4-H International Ambassador Program. Because of his involvement, 4-H members have traveled to Indiana, Kentucky, South Dakota and Missouri in exchange trips.

He has provided leadership for a host of method demonstrations and has also assisted youth in obtaining lamb projects. In fact, he has donated many lambs for projects as well as for barbecues and other activities.

Broseh has been on the board of the Floyd County Fair and the Floyd County Farm Bureau. He has been president of both of these organizations as well as a director of the Floyd County Junior Livestock Show.

He has received numerous recognitions for his 4-H work, including county, district and state 4-H alumni awards and the Outstanding Male Adult Leader in the county.

Tax incentives for soil, water conservation

Farmers investing in soil and water conservation now get additional tax incentives.

A recent announcement by Secretary of Agriculture John Block indicates that farmers receiving payments made for conservation practices approved under the Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) after September 30, 1979, can exclude them, under certain conditions, from their gross income for federal income tax purposes.

"This will affect landowners who don't qualify for special tax treatment of soil and water conservation expenses and farmers for whom these expenses are high relative to their gross income," points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist in management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Previously, farmers were allowed to treat as current deductions certain expenditures for soil or water conservation or the prevention of erosion that would otherwise be capitalized. As capitalized expenditures, they would be added to the cost of other basis of the land and deducted for tax purposes as depreciation or according to the new accelerated cost recovery system.

To take soil and water conservation expenses as current deductions, the taxpayer must cultivate, operate or manage a farm for profit, either as an owner or tenant, notes Hayenga. For an owner receiving farm rental, the rent must be based on farm production.

"Someone receiving cash rent not based on production does not qualify unless he participates materially in the farm's operation or management," says the economist.

Also, the total deduction of capital expenditures for soil and water conservation in any tax year is limited to 25 percent of the gross income for farming during that year.

In the past ACP payments received as incentive for soil and water conservation practices were included in income but were offset by the allowable deductions for these expenditures up to the 25 percent limitation, if the farmer qualified.

"Now, landowners need to include only those payments that are for expenses they can deduct in the current tax year," Hayenga explains.

Farmers receiving ACP payments for expenses exceeding 25 percent of their gross farm income can now exclude them from their income.

Also, those individuals who don't qualify as farmers and are not allowed to report these expenses as current deductions can exclude ACP payments from their income.

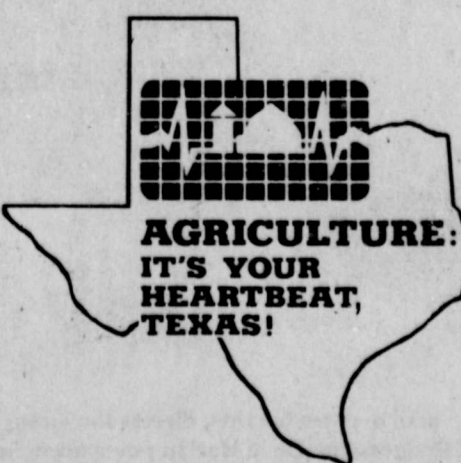

However, before such payments can be excluded, certain other conditions must be met, says the economist. For example, the IRS must find that the payments do not substantially increase annual income from the property involved. And no deduction, depreciation or investment credit may be claimed for any expenditure made with excluded ACP payments.

"A landowner who disposes of property that was acquired, improved or otherwise modified with money excluded from income under these rules must treat all or part of any gain from the disposition as ordinary income," adds Hayenga.

The decision to exclude all or part of any ACP payments from gross income must be made no later than the tax filing deadline including extensions.

Since these tax regulations are rather complex, Hayenga advises farmers and landowners to seek advice from a tax consultant.

Further information is available from the Internal Revenue Service and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Producers invited to Swine Evaluation Clinic

West Texas pork producers are invited to a Swine Evaluation Clinic July 19-20 at the Gillespie County Fairgrounds on Highway 16 south of Fredericksburg. The opening session begins at 9 a.m.

Topic discussion on market hog visual appraisal and carcass merits of various phenotype market hogs will be highlighted by visiting swine experts. Dr. Lauran Christian of Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa; Dan E. Hoge, Black Hawk East Junior College, Keosauqua, Illinois; and Jim Rucker, Lexington, Oklahoma, will lead the discussions.

Participants will have the opportunity to visually appraise some different type of hogs and later view their carcass data. During this activity the concepts of production oriented market hogs versus carcass oriented market hogs will be debated.

Ten producers in the state are fitting barrows to exhibit before the visiting experts. Live evaluation of these barrows takes place on July 19 and carcass evaluation on July 20.

In addition, 37 barrows consigned by 29 breeders across Texas are on a 100-day feeding test which ends July 17. Texas A&M University swine specialists will provide detailed carcass evaluation which will be made available to each registered clinic participant. Six different slides are being made of each barrow at the start of feeding period, at 35 days, 70 days, 100 days and carcass. The barrows will be evaluated live by the visiting judges and participant producers.

The clinic also includes a panel discussion on "Selecting Weaning Pigs for Show Barrows" and "Building a Breeding Herd or Mating System to Produce Champions."

Talks emphasizing the importance of nutrition, facilities, genetics, selection, health regulations and stock show ethics will be presented.

Several area Extension home economists will spotlight pork as part of a nutritious meal with live demonstration, recipes and a food booth.

The clinic is open to producers, 4-H and their parents, leaders, agents and vocational teachers who wish to participate.

Cost of the clinic is $10 which includes printed materials, two meals. Pre-registered participants are sent to District Extension Center, Texas A&M University Extension Center, Rt. 21, Angulo, Texas 79814. Checks should be made payable to Extension District 7 Cattle Agents Association, Inc., 1204 S. 1st St., Angulo, Texas 79814.

Assistance in arranging for out-of-town accommodations is provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Department of Agriculture, Extension Service, 2016 St. Louis St., Austin, Texas 78761.

Motels for out-of-town guests are available at Fredericksburg, Boerne, Johnson City, Mason.

LAWN WATERING

Watering is one of the most basic practices in the maintenance of a home lawn. During our dry summers it may become absolutely necessary to water a lawn in order to assure its survival. With the increasing cost of water, and in some areas the reduced availability of water, it becomes even more important to water the lawn correctly and when establishing a new lawn give consideration to those turfgrasses which require less water (Table 1.)

Table 1. Relative Need of Turfgrasses for Water.

1. Tall Fescue (requires the most)
2. St. Augustine
3. "Tif" Bermuda
4. Zoysia
5. Common Bermuda
6. Buffalograss (requires the least)

There are a number of factors that should be considered when developing a watering program for lawns.

NEW LAWNS

Newly seeded or sprigged lawns should be watered lightly at frequent intervals while established lawns should be watered heavily at infrequent intervals. During the period of seed germination or the growth of sprigs, it is important to keep the soil moist - not wet. After the new plants are visible the frequency of watering should be reduced gradually, and after about one month the lawn should be watered like an established lawn.

SOIL TYPE

Water penetrates a sandy soil much faster than a clay soil, so lawns grown on sandy soils will require more frequent watering than those grown on soils that are high in clay. Because water moves fairly slowly into a clay soil, the rate at which water is applied to this type of lawn should be as slow as possible.

SLOPE

Lawns with a high degree of slope present a particular problem. It is very easy for water to run down the slope without penetrating the soil. Water must be applied at very slow rates from sprinklers near the top of the slope. Sprinklers near the bottom of the slope may prove ineffective.

FERTILIZER

The faster the lawn grows, the more water it requires. The new slow release fertilizers that contain materials like sul-fur-coated urea or ureafomaldehyde as nitrogen sources do not tend to produce high growth rates. Heavy applications of fertilizers high in soluble nitrogen should be avoided.

MANAGEMENT FACTORS

The use of an aerifier or coring device will aide in increasing movement of air and water into the soil. A surfactant or wetting agent may also aid the movement of water into high clay soils.

WHEN TO WATER

Ideally a lawn should be watered just as it begins to wilt. Most grasses take on a dull, dark appearance, and the leaf blades begin to fold or roll. A lawn under stress also shows evidence of tracks after someone walks across it. A common bermudagrass lawn should be able to go at least 5-7 days between waterings.

Early morning is considered the best time to water. The wind is usually calm and the temperature is low so less water is lost to evaporation. The worst time to water is late evening because the lawn tends to stay wet all night making the lawn more susceptible to disease.

HOW MUCH WATER

When a lawn needs water, enough should be applied so that the soil is wetted to a depth of 4-6 inches. One to 1½ inches of water should wet the soil to a depth of 4-6 inches. If the water applications are too light and too frequent, the turf tends to become weak and shallow rooted which makes it more susceptible to heat and drought stress.

HOW TO WATER

1. Find out how much water your sprinkler puts out in 1 hour. In order to find out how much water your sprinkler puts out and check its distribution pattern at the same time:

1) Set out 3 to 5 empty cans in a straight line going from the sprinkler. Set the last can near the end of the sprinkler's coverage.

2) Run the sprinkler for a period of time such as an hour.

3) Measure the amount of water in each can.

4) If each can has a different amount of water in it, the sprinkler is not providing an even coverage.

2. Run sprinkler long enough to apply at least one inch of water or until runoff occurs. If runoff occurs first:

1) Stop sprinkler (Note running time.)

2) Allow water to soak into soil for half an hour.

3) Start sprinkler (Note running time.)

4) If runoff again occurs, repeat No. 2 and No. 3 until at least one inch of water has been applied and allowed to soak into the soil.

3. Do not irrigate again until the lawn has completely dried out and shows symptoms of drought stress. (This usually means 4 or 5 days.)

USE DRIP IRRIGATION

One of the best ways to water a garden is by using a drip irrigation system. Drip irrigation is the controlled application of water at a very low flow over a prolonged period. It differs from conventional watering systems in that the soil is not supersaturated with water. When the rate of drip irrigation is adjusted correctly, there are no puddles of water and no runoff. If puddling occurs, decrease the irrigation rate.

Many types of drip systems are available. Some systems use small water-releasing mechanisms called emitters which drip a certain volume of water when a certain water pressure is supplied. Many of these systems are prepackaged and allow little versatility or adaptation to the various sized and shapes of gardens.

Several systems currently available in garden centers can be adapted easily to almost any garden size and situation. The most common system has small holes in plastic tubes which allow the water to come out in small amounts. The tube is placed along the row in which the plants are grown so that the root zone is moistened by the dripping water. Holes are pre-punched in the tubing at 12-inch intervals so that adequate water is available for all vegetables crops.

Once the drip irrigation system is in place and operating, the question always arises as to how long it should be used for optimum plant growth varies with the plant species and season of the year. The recommendation is to water the system 3 hours a day during dry days such as Monday, Wednesday, Friday. When rainfall is not necessary to water the lawn. To insure adequate moisture in the garden is planted, apply inches of water to the soil before seeding or transplanting referred by farmers as pre-soak the water moves laterally as well as downward. In sprinkling the entire garden be necessary to settle the soil for the drip irrigation system horizontally and not going into the rows. This is needed in sandy gardens.
