Hornets in the remainder of the game. It seemed Tulia had the Winds pegged when they had the Wind offense on the 11 yard line. But, it took only sig plays for the Winds to charge downfield for the fourth touchdown. Mike Salazar ran in from two yards out and made the score 23-7 with 2:10 left in the quarter.

Another intercepted pass gave the Winds the ball on the Hornet 49 yard line. With a little more than six minutes left in the game Mark Hatley ran in the touchdown from ten vards out.

In the Tulia game he rushed 137 yards in 16 carries, caught a 32-yard pass, completed two out of two passes, kicked a 32-yard field goal, punted twice with an average of 44.5 yards each, intercepted a pass, and was in on seven tackles. ## Hesperian football contest winner named

Although the pro football teams are striking to get more money, W.L. Carthel from Lockney will not have to go on strike for more money. For him, it was easy to get more money because he won the Hesperian football contest.

Carthel had missed only one game. This is the best record to date. The game he guessed incorrectly was Yale vs. Connecticut.

Getting extra money was also easy for Penny Bertrand. She won second place in the football contest. She only had two incorrect guesses. She won first place by the tie breaker.

Third place went to Cody Paty who also had two incorrect guesses, but missed the tie breaker. Honorable mention goes to Tommy Cathey, Jr.

Thinking about going on strike for money? It is easier to turn to page 4B and enter the Hesperian football contest. $20 in cash prizes are given away

The voices, opinions, and influence of the voters of Texas are all recorded at the polls - with their vote.

But their vote can be stolen, as surely as a thief can steal their property, through an act of criminal vote fraud or coercion. If our elections can be corrupted through fraud or coercion, the valuhave will be lost.

As each week passes a new letter is written about the inadequate care that Caprock Hospital delivers. My father was a patient in Caprock. He did not receive adequate care, as he lay hemorraging not a nurse or doctor checked on him. I went to look for the faithful crew - I found them all right - playing cards behind the nurses desk. I could go on and on. The doctor attending did not see my father until the next morning. My father was admitted via emergency. By that time I was furious and demanded transfer to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. Thank God my father survived - no thanks to Caprock. It is such a waste to have such a beautiful facility with such inadequate and unskilled employees. It might interest you to know I did report these complaints to the Director of Nurses only to find she was dealer of the deck.

The amount was part of a budget of $23.4 billion approved by Congress. It called for the highest funding level in VA's history and placed special emphasis on the problems of Vietnam-era veterans and the increasing needs of older veterans.

The fiscal 1981 spending for Texas included $900 million for compensation and pension payments to veterans and survivors. That compares to $810 million during fiscal 1980.

VA expenditures also included $178.8 million for education, training and vocational rehabilitation payments in the state for fiscal 1981. The previous fiscal-year amount was $178.9 million.

The difference is accounted for by the decrease in the number of Vietnam-era veterans receiving readjustment benefits and GI Bill payments. Nationally, spending in this area peaked in 1976.

Raising minimum law reduces death

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety for Region 5, said, "Several studies conducted on the effect of raising the minimum legal drinking age in various states concluded that on an average a state-can expect about a 28% reduction in nighttime fatal crashes involving young drivers affected by the law. In addition, a factor commonly referred to as the 'spillover effect' can possibly have a significant impact on the younger age when the 18-year old can no longer purchase alcoholic beverages for younger persons in their social group.'

The Texas statute raised the minimum drinking age to 19 effective September 1, 1981. During the first ten (10) months since the law changed, fatal accidents experience reflects an overall reduction of drivers involved in fatal accidents of 16.7% for-18 year olds and 36.8% for 17-year olds whereas an increase of 7.9% occurred for 19-year olds. Further, nighttime fatal accident experience indicates a reduction for 17-year old drivers of 41.2% and 7.4% for 18-year olds. In comparison 19-year old drivers involved in nighttime fatal

This may be my last column in this series. We began this column ten weeks ago, hoping it would be a success. And judging from the response of the readers, I would call it an unqualified success. The mail has been very favorable. The columns that drew the most response were those dealing with education of our children, the property tax issue, and the issue of Mr. Hobby raising funds for the ACLU to use in that organization's crusade against prayer in schools and in defense of pornographers.

I have made a point in these columns that Texans need a Lt. Governor who is in touch with the people he is supposed to serve. Mr. Hobby is clearly out of touch with the thinking of Texans, and, in my opinion ought to be retired.

Mr. Hobby's lack of understanding can be illustrated: Texans are overwhelmingly in favor of President Reagan's efforts to transfer power and responsibility back to the states. I agree that Texans can do a better job for Texas than Washington can. Mr. Hobby disagrees. The vast majority of Texans do not believe they ought to be forced to pay for the education of the children of illegal aliens. I have compassion for these children— but I must confess that I care more for Texans who are faced with the burden of supporting their own children in hard economic times. Mr. Hobby disagrees. Most Texans think our Right to Work law should be incorporated in the Texas constitution. I agree here, too. But Mr. Hobby disagrees and has fought the effort. The list goes The problem with continuing my column is a simple one-money. We originally budgeted for ten columns, and we have now reached that point in our budget. If we are successful in raising more campaign funds, you are likely to see more columns. I hope so, for this seems to be a good way to get the issues to the people.

These columns are needed. Without them Mr. Hobby will clearly avoid the issues and seek to confuse us with 30second TV commercials created by his image builders. If you would like to see these columns continue and would like to help in that regard, please send your contribution If you can't make a contribution, I assure you that your opinion will be equally important. ## Yearbook dedicated in memory of Dunlap

You were someone very special Who truly made an art Of living first for others, And sharing from the heart. The story of your kindness Is the sweetest ever told, Your wit and thoughtfulness In our hearts we will hold. Of all the happy memories So special to recall, The times we've shared together Are the dearest one's of all. You've filled so many moments With so much warmth and cheer, That every thought of you will bring Love throughout the years.

With these words the 1934 Study Club dedicated their yearbook in memory to a valiant lady, Helen Dunlap, a beautiful friend and member.

Opening the new club year, members met in the J.S. Hale, Jr. home for a supper. Mrs. Garland Foster gave the invocation, and a plate featuring quiche, fruit salad, lettuce and tomatoes, and homemade cookies was served by the Program Committee: Mmes. J.S. Hale, Jr., A.L. Wylie, Wilson Bond. Allen Bingham, Floyd Bradley, Milton Ashton, Alan Benson, and L.B. Stewart Roll was called and the minutes of the called meeting held July 7 were read. At this meeting a new member, Mrs. Walton Wilson, was extended an invitation to join and accepted.

The yearbooks were distributed by Mrs. Ashton and she gave a program review, stating that the theme is "Any One Can Be Beautiful", and she brought out facts from an article written by the famous model, Chervl Tiegs, who says that she really believes that all women have the capacity for beauty within themselves and according to her "You Can Be Beautiful". There is no such thing as outer beauty without inner beauty. The key to beauty is to play up your assets and forget your flaws. It is amazing how many women make this mistake. Don't focus on a flaw, says Miss Tiegs.

Mrs. W.H. Bunch, the club president, gave a short message paying tribute to the charter members of the 1934 Study Club, those who have served as presidents, and to both old and new members. All of these, through hard work and perseverence, have contributed something to the building and maintaining of the object of the club which is to stimulate intellectual growth and strengthen individual effort by Those members attending other than the hostesses were Mmes: W.H. Bunch, Dennis Dempsey, Garland Foster, Floyd Lawson, J.P. Moss, W.O. Newberry, Vernon Parker, George Springer, G.W. Switzer, W.W. Trapp, Wade Warren.

The next meeting will be October 5 in the home of Mrs. W.O. Newberry.

Our weather is still dry and the farmers are dry sowing wheat hoping for some moisture. The women are still canning fruits and vegetables.

We are having some illness in the community that we trust will soon recover and gain their strength.

Clara Mize is improving satisfactorily after undergoing surgery in the Nichols Hospital in Plainview. She was able to return home and went back for a check up Monday. Norma Welch and Peat Kelley visited her Wednesday.

Edna Gilly has been a patient in the Lockney General Hospital for the past two weeks. Grace Lemons visited her Thursday and Pauline VanHoose visited her Friday. She has had many more visitors and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Imogene Fortenberry is recuperating steadily after breaking her arm and spraining the other one. We trust she will soon have use of her arms.

Mrs. Myrt Guest is still confined to her home after breaking her arm several weeks ago. She is improving and will soon be about. We miss her in church and anxious for her to be back with us.

Gladys Fortenberry spent Thursday night in the home of her daughter and husband Patsy and Lafayette Boone in Lubbock and attended the bridal shower of her granddaughter, Danita Boone who is the bride-elect of Paul Clark of Fort Worth. The shower was held Friday afternoon in Lubbock.

Wiring may fail due to faulty installation, overloading, physical damage, aging, and the deterioration caused by circuit breakers. Check wire size with the amount of current being used. For example: At 110-120 volts, No. 14 A.W.G. copper wire will handle a maximum of 15 amperes or 1800 watts; No. 12 wire will handle 20 amps or 2400 watts; and No. 10 wire 30 amps or 3600

* Be careful with matches, lighters and smoking. Do not smoke in places with combustible or flammable materials, nor when refueling or handling flammable or explosive materials.

* Think about fire prevention when you use a welder; especially when you use an oxy-acetylene torch for cutting. Too high oxygen pressure can blow sparks twice as far as need be.

* Locate above-ground fuel storage tanks at least 50 feet from buildings; keep the tanks painted white, under shade. When refueling a tractor, turn off the engine and extinguish smoking materials. If the engine is hot, let it cool for a few minutes. For added protection. have a fire extinguisher handy.

In addition to the standard 45-minute graphic fire prevention demonstration for junior high, high school and adult audiences; Farm Bureau now presents the E.D.I.T.H. Electricity is vital to our food supply. A full 16.5% of the energy consumed in the United States is used in the production, processing and distribution of food. Additional electricity is used by businesses like farm equipment dealers and feed suppliers who depend on agricultural sales. Managing electricity wisely helps the farmer, the utility company and each of us, since the cost of electricity directly affects the price we pay for food at the supermarket.

Sam Thomas. Agricultural Development Manager. Amarillo.

Air leaks in your home can increase your yearly electric bill by 20 to 40%. Air can enter your home through cracks around doors, windows or any other place where two materials or parts of the house meet. To find air leaks around your home, wait for a windy day, then turn off your furnace or air conditioner. Hold a small piece of tissue or a candle next to cracks around windows and doors. If the tissue or candle flame flutters, leaks are reducing your home's energy efficiency. Weatherstripping and caulking can help plug these leaks and save you money, too.

Helen Hernandez, Order Clerk, Carlsbad

Caring properly for portable appliances improves their safety and efficiency. Always plug an appliance cord directly into a wall outlet, rather than into lightweight extension cords. Unplug the appliance immediately after use. When disconnecting an appliance, pull the cord plug from the outlet first, then remove from the appliance. Always grasp the plug itself; do not pull on the cord. When cleaning portable appliances, first check the instruction book to see if the appliance is immersible. Then wash it with hot sudsy water and rinse and dry thoroughly. And always read the instruction book before using an appliance for the first time.

FULLBACK Mike Salazar receive the handoff and makes a break for the open field.

A TULIA HORNET flies over a Whirlwind in this tackle in last Friday's game in Tulia.

Whirlwinds progressing

BY COACH L.G. WILSON

We thought that our kids played one of their best ball games last week, overall. This is the best that our offensive line has blocked all year, and probably one of the best defensive games we have played overall.

From week to week we continue to improve a little. It is good that we can continue to improve a little each week as we go into the season. We felt this has been the way we have been doing it so

There are still a lot of areas we still need to improve on and we hope we can improve on those and do a better job each week.

We are in pretty good shape. We have one or two players that are a little crippled but it looks like it is going to be the same crew that we had last week starting against Tulia, if we can keep everybody healthy until Friday night.

Littlefield is probably not as a powerful ball club as they were last year, I know that they are not as a powerful ball club as last year. But, they are a good sound ball club. They are a younger team than they have been in the past few years. They have a lot of talent. It will be a good ball game.

It will be a real test and we are really looking forward to seeing what we can do as we get ready to enter our district playoffs. The experimenting time is over. It is time for us to get set in what we're going to do offensively and defensively as we get ready for district

Local trample the hopes of Abernathy. My

The Raiders of Tech almost cost me this past weekend. If football was like horseshoes and being close counted they would have been great. They spotted the Bears to many turnovers.

Their next opponent seems to come from College Station. It's a small school with only a little football tradition. If Tech plays hard, does not turnover the ball, scores alot of points, holds the opposition to a few points, causes many turnovers by the wishbone they would

Do not expect all of this or you will be the Horns. Hook em Horns.

The strike has helped!! With only three games to choose from I had 100% correct. I see my counterpart is living in the past. He is still guessing or predicting as I am sure he or she or it would say the NFL games. Yocal must really be outstanding in his field. Way out where there aren't any television sets or he would have known about the strike. I do feel I am taking advantage of him. I do watch TV and read alot of newspapers.

The pride of the Horns is still held high. They jumped on the hares of Ralls astoundingly well. They have arrived. With this momentum they should disappointed. Aggies by 10 over the Raiders.

The Green and White of Floydada coached by Lovem Green Wilson will be looking for a revenge match with Littlefield. Littlefield will be trying to come back from last week's loss to Post. What will be the outcome? This Whirlwind fan expects the boys of Floydada to rise to the occasion and carry the tradition of Pride that Floydada has always had. Winds by 3 over littlefield.

I once again snuck a clue in the beginning read real close to see if you

& Yocal

Boy, when I pick 'em, I pick 'em to good! I knew them Lockney Longhorns had it. It just takes a while to get things rolling.

Now about that strike. I figgered that the pro football team will be the last ones to strike. Don't worry they will be back on the field soon, we just can't survive without football.

Local, ol' boy I see you're getting better at this forecasting game. I should say guessing game because that is all you are doing. Your luck will run out soon and the folks around here will know that Yocal's the one to come to for fantastic football facts.

Cheer up son, I'll tell you what I'm gonna do. As soon as this here season is over I'm gonna be mighty generous and teach you a few tricks of the grade. If you are lucky I might take a liking to ya and let you have my lucky rabbit's foot when I retire from this forecasting business. I have been offered as much as 75 cents for that lucky bit of fur.

But all of the lucky rabbit's feet in the world did not help them Raiders. They just had to go for the two point conversion. They should a known they couldn't get past those bears.

Tech will need more than luck to get past the Aggies this week. Either a small miracle or an act of Congress will get the Raiders out of the hole. Look for the Aggies to be triumphant by 14 points.

Floydada whirled past the hornets ast like I said they would but more so than I thought. Well they will need that confidence this week 'cause those boys in Littlefield is going to give them a run for their money. But the 'Winds will fall short by seven points.

Those Longhorns trampled them Jackrabbits just fine and dandy. But, I am afraid that they aren't going to make it this week. The Abernathy Antelopes will get past the Longhorns by 10 points.

And now for my reasonably rhyming rebus:

I reside in Floyd County, of this I boast.
I'm a Texan by chance, and can't stand the coast.

The Beacon and Hesperian are read by most.

Guess who I am and end this roast.

Breezers victorious over

The Tulia seventh grade managed to edge past the Floydada seventh grade 14-6 last Thursday. Tulia was first on the scoreboard with a 45 yard run. The two point conversion was no good.

The Breezers came back in the second quarter with a five yard run by Rusty Rainey. The score was set up by a 55-yard run by David Medrano. The two point conversion failed. The score remained tied at the end of the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Tulia was back on the board with less than two minutes left on the clock. The touchdown was scored on a 35-yard run. The two point conversion was good.

Outstanding offensive player this week was David Medrano, halfback and outstanding defensive player this week was Julio Flores, linebacker.

The eighth grade breezers were triumphant over the Tulia eighth grade with a final score of 38-14.

Breezer Johnny Davis the first to score with a 42 yard run. The attempted two point conversion failed.

We played a good ball game. We had a new quarterback and a new tailback. This worked real well. This is what we are going with the rest of the year. J.D. Wilson did real well for us. We play Frenship at Frenship this week, it is going to be tough. They have a good ball club.

Step 2 — Learning Basics

The second step in controlling snack choices is understanding nutrition basics-and how snacking can fit into each day's total nutrition picture. We need facts that point out pathways to our nutrition future and suggest the time and effort that success will require. Most of us are interested in nutrition only if it means something good will result today. We seek immediate results, and we are not too realistic about the time and effort needed to reach or obtain our desired goal. Learning nutrition basics will help us be realistic for now and for later as we make meal and snack choices throughout life.

Step 3 — "Unlearning" Learning and "unlearning" is a never ending process, and nutrition education is not a simple process. Changes in types and forms of foods will continue at a pace which staggers the imagination. Choices we face now will become even greater in the future, so there will be "unlearning" along with the learning. Realizing that this is a constant process which will go on throughout life will make this step in changing our eating and snacking habits more successful.

Step 4 — Change

overall success of 4-H.

One key to success is knowing how strongly food habits become entrenched in our daily routines. Their grip is so strong that we often fail torecognize that the laws of nutrition apply to everyone - or we ignore that

How do we know if we need to change? Start with self-analysis:

How does your overall dietary pattern affect your lifestyle and health? How does your lifestyle determine your eating habits?

Do you make food choices on impulse, or are you rational about your choices?

Do you really understand why you choose the foods you eat? Remember that for most people, the price of food items does not play a central role in consumer decisions. Cost does limit our purchases, but it doesn't determine our eating habits.

Here's one last "food for thought" question: Do you really control your snack choices - or do your habits control you?

Educatoinal programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are available to people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, sex, color, religion, or national origin. For a program on nutritious snacks for your club or organization, contact the County Extension Service.

4-H offers a variety of projects

How would like like for your son or daughter to join 4-H? They can, you know, if you really want them to, and Floyd County 4-H would be happy to 4-H is a national youth program for all youth between the ages of 9 and 19 regardless of race, color, ethnic background, economic status or cultural differences. The Texas 4-H program is administered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, a part of the Texas A&M University System.

The purpose of 4-H is to develop leadership and character in young people. 4-H'ers learn by doing through actively working on projects and participating in club meetings and 4-H activities, says Benny Butler, Floyd County Extension 4-H program Coordi-

Youth can participate in a variety of projects in 4-H, such as foods, clothing, animal projects, electricity, photography, arts and crafts, and many, many others. In fact, almost anything you want can be a project, points out Butler.

Most important and most of all, 4-H is lots of fun! Where else can you get together with other people your age and have fun while you learn? Boys and girls in 4-H are always on the move doing something and participating in various activities.

For instance, the 4-H shooting sports projects attract numerous voungsters each year who are interested in riflery. trap and skeet, and archery.

Livestock projects give youngsters a chance to be responsible for an animal and enter stock shows where they learn competitiveness and sportsmanship.

4-H'ers can even learn to make their own clothes through clothing projects. Besides projects, other activities such as the share-the-fun give youngsters a chance to participate in organized recreation. County 4-H Camp is the time for playing games and making new friends. Members in 4-H can go on trips, take tours of interesting and educational places, and help finance their college education with scholarships awarded through 4-H.

Boosting the 4-H program is the private sector which provides great resources of money, personnel and materials for the advancement of 4-H. The many business and industrial leaders who support 4-H give significant testimony that 4-H is a valuable educational program for America's Remember, you are what you want to be in 4-H, emphasizes Mr. Butler. It is educational, interesting, challenging and lots of fun. If you would like to enroll your son or daughter in 4-H. contact Benny Butler at the County Extension Office (983-2806).

MARKETING ALTERNATIVES FOR COW-CALF PRODUCERS

Fall is always a critical time of the year for cow-calf producers because it's then that they must usually make marketing decisions. The best decisions, however, come after looking at all possible alternatives.

Marketing alternatives for cow-calf producers include holding calves over winter, backgrounding or feeding calves during the winter months, forward contracting, retaining ownership through feeding by placement into custom feedlots, and simply marketing

Short-term prospects for feeder cattle must be considered when reviewing these various marketing alternatives. Some positive factors for the feeder cattle picture are these:

1. Fed cattle prices should decline only slightly in the third quarter and show some strength late in the year.

2. Commercial cattle feeders have rebuilt some equity in recent months. 3. Total 1982 meat production will be down about 4 percent from last year.

4. Competing pork prices are expected to remain firm into the fall

5. Cheap feed and good grazing exists throughout most of the West. 6. Available feeder cattle supplies appear no larger than last year.

Negative factors for the feeder cattle outlook are the following: 1. Profit margins for cattle feeding

are narrowing

2. Equity positions of most cow-calf producers have been sharply eroded. 3. Financing costs have come down but still remain high.

4. Beef production is expected to increase in the last half of 1982 and throughout 1983.

5. Unfavorable general economic conditions still prevail.

All these factors--both positive and negative--must get careful attention as cow-calf operators look toward the months ahead and ponder their individual situations. Educational programs conducted by

Stenholm says loans available eligible for the loans follows:

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm (D-Stamford) has announced that Economic Injury Disaster Loans from the Small Business Administration will be made available to small businesses in 22 counties of the 17th District.

"These are counties which suffered extensive rain and hail damage this June." Stenholm said. "Because agriculture is the foundation of the economy in so much of West Texas, many small businesses in the region find themselves in dire straits through no fault of

added, will provide needed assistance region, including firms such as cotton farm program benefits for cotton, wheat and feed grain producers were announced in July. In addition, the Farmers Home Administration is expected to make many West Texas counties eligible for emergency disaster loans to farmers in the near future.

Operators of small businesses in the 22 counties should contact the SBA for more details on the loans, Stenholm said. Three SBA offices in Texas will be dealing with the emergency loans, and will be open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. beginning Monday, September 27. One office is located at 2306 Oak Lane, Suite
