Heaven's Grocery Store

HEAVEN'S GROCERY STORE
 I was walking down Life's Highway a long time ago. One day I saw a sign that read Heaven's Grocery Store. As I got a little closer the door came open wide. And when I came to myself, I was standing inside. I saw a host of angels, they were standing everywhere. One handed me a basket and said, my child shop with care. Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store. And, all you couldn't carry, you could come back the next day for more.
 First I got some PATIENCE, and LOVE was on the same row. Further down was UNDERSTANDING, you need that everywhere you go.
 I got a box or two of WISDOM, a bag or two of FAITH.
 I just couldn't miss the HOLY GHOST, for it was all over the place.
 I stopped to get some STRENGTH and COURAGE to help me run this race. By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered I needed some GRACE.

 I didn't forget SALVATION, for salvation, that was free, so...I tried to get enough of that to save both you and me. Then, I started up to the counter to pay my grocery bill, for I thought I had everything to do my Master's will. As I went up the aisle, I saw PRAYER and I just had to put that in.
 For I knew when I stepped outside, I should run right into sin. PEACE and JOY were plentiful, they were on the last shelf. SONG and PRAISES were hanging near, so I just helped myself. Then, I said to the angel, how much do I owe? He just smiled and said, just take them everywhere you go. Again, I smiled and said, how much do I really owe? He smiled again and said, my child, Jesus paid your bill a long time ago...
 (Our thanks to Mrs. Bonnie Shultz in Portales, New Mexico who shared the above with us)

Dear Citizens of FLOYD COUNTY:

FLOYD COUNTY, and Texas as a whole, are facing some difficult times. Recent layoffs in our oilfields and other major industries and the problems confronting our farmers, ranchers and older Texans must be addressed without delay.
 These major problems, combined with federal budget cuts and the demands of our growing population, are affecting state spending and will require careful decision making on the part of your government leaders. In these times, you need leaders who have the strength and experience to make the difficult decisions and the compassion to guard your interests.
 There are no instant solutions to the national recession, but I will help insure that we strengthen job opportunities by maintaining a healthy economic climate that encourages business development. This can be accomplished only by continued prudent state spending and keeping our tax burdens low.
 Our educational system had advanced significantly in the past nine years, but there is still room for improvement. My efforts to improve the quality of public education for your children and grandchildren will begin in the classroom -- by improving teacher salaries and benefits and by giving more control to local school districts.
 Our past approach to crime has won us many battles but now is the time for a new approach. For this reason, I will ask the 1983 Legislature to approve a comprehensive strategy that attacks crime on all fronts - police, courts and corrections.
 It has been a privilege and an honor to have served you as Lieutenant Governor for the past nine years. I am asking for your support on November 2 so that I can use my experience and leadership to help face the important challenges confronting you and all other Texans.

Sincerely,
 Bill Hobby

Letters to the Editor

To: The Community of Floydada

There have been a lot of negative comments and derogatory statements in recent editions of the Hesperian, about the care given at Caprock Hospital. As administrator of Floydada Nursing Home, I am closely involved with the staff of the Hospital. I think we are very lucky to have such a facility in this town. They have provided services to the elderly people in our home with efficiency and competence. When you are dealing with people, it is impossible to please everyone. These people are trained to make judgements and decisions you and I cannot make, and they do the best they can under very difficult circumstances.

They have the most modern equipment, and they are always striving to improve and make their facility the best it can be.

I would also like to take time to comment on the Doctors. I don't think you could find any Physicians with as much concern for people as we have in Floydada. They are often called at night to prescribe care and treatment for our residents, and are invaluable to this facility.

I for one would like to congratulate and thank Caprock Hospital for doing a very tough job, very well!

Steve Westbrook, Adm.
 Floydada Nursing Home

Dear Sir:

We have been reading letters in your paper which dis-credit our local hospital. This letter is written to praise our hospital, which we never see in print. It seems the only time a letter is written to the Editor of a paper, it is to complain about something.

Recently, we had to take my father to the hospital on a Saturday night to the emergency room. Of course there are no doctors in the hospital at a late hour in the evening, but Dr. Hong was called, and was there in a very short time. Dr. Hong stayed with my father the most of that night, and took him into surgery early on Sunday morning. Dr. Acar came to the hospital that Sunday morning to assist in surgery, and an anaesthetist came from out of town to be of assistance. Dr. Hong stayed nearly all day Sunday, which is to be well commended. These doctors are a great asset to our community, of which we are to be proud.

My father is home now, after a two-week stay in the hospital, and is doing very well, after receiving the best of care, here in Floydada, at our own Caprock Hospital, under the care of our local doctors, nurses and other hospital personnel.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. L.B. Stewart, Jr.

Zone 4 of the district includes an area southeast of Floydada. The north boundary line is the Floydada-Matador US highways 62-70. The west boundary is the Floydada-Ralls US highway 62 or state highway 207. The south and the east boundary are the county lines.

Thoughts regarding the Floyd County Library. The number of books is growing and location. The Library is for everyone. It should be on the second floor of the Courthouse. Because it is located on the second floor of the Courthouse, it is difficult to climb the stairs.

But if the thousands of dollars spent to update our library masterpieces, it would be worth it.

If it resulted in just one child being curious enough to read about science and then go on to become a scientist and discover something new, it would be worth it.

If it resulted in just one child reading enough about philosophy to grow up and lead the world to peace and harmony, it would be worth it.

If it resulted in just one adult having a place where he could read a book, it would be worth it.

If only someone, everyone would become involved in the greatest assets "THE LIBRARY"...

Dear Editor:

I would like to express how much care, gentleness, kindness and love the Caprock Hospital has shown to my husband since he has been in Dr. Hong has tried hard in every way to do every thing a human being can do. His loyalty and concern are very commendable. The entire staff when needed, with kind words of encouragement, gentleness and love, they — the doctor and staff should be commended for their efforts. My family feel the same as I do. May God Bless them and The World.

Dear Editor:

My Mother has been in the Caprock Hospital since Aug. 12, 1981. Nothing but praise for ALL of the nurses and doctors. I think it is a great thing to be said for our hospital. My Mother has had surgery and as to the nurses who played cards (3 yrs. ago), they lasted many years. They were relieved of their jobs, at the time my Father-in-law was in the hospital. You to the Caprock Hospital."

P.S. An example of the caring, on Sept. 22, my Mother celebrated her birthday. The hospital sent her a cake.

Discovery by partners

"...one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."
 Neil A. Armstrong, 1969

When U.S. Astronaut Neil Armstrong made the first footprint on the moon, he and his partners Buzz Aldrin and Mike Collins fulfilled a centuries-old dream for all mankind.

The success of the Apollo 11 mission was more than a triumph of three crew members working together. It was a triumph of a great network of partners that spanned generations, uniting the discoveries of the past with the skills, courage and imagination of thousands of scientists, engineers and others.

The Apollo 11 lunar mission, which rocketed mankind into the computer age, pioneered the way to a new era of people working together as partners managing technology.

Today, you and Southwestern Public Service Company are partners discovering new ways to manage electricity. For instance, when you install a high-efficiency add-on heat pump to your present furnace, you and SPS work together to help save money. Because the add-on heat pump is a difference worth discovering.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

Floydada Rebekah Lodge members recently honored Eula Parrack during a regular meeting.

Artie Webb wrote and dedicated the following poem to the honoree: I know a lovely lady, she always tries to please.

And if there is some work to do, she'll just roll up her sleeves
Someone may suggest a party, I'll bring a cake she'll say.
Then maybe she will just bake two and take one to a friend on her way.

We love this lovely lady, now it's our turn to repay, so we got our head together and this is what our Barbara had to say.

Let's start a ball rolling, now all the girls jumped in.
For we knew this lovely lady would love a Rebekah Jewel Pin.

Now if I can't tell her name, I know I just can't bear it.
So I'll yell it out loud and clear. It's our own Sister, Eula Parrack.

Following the reading of the poem, Barbara Gilliland presented her with a Past Noble Grand Jewel Pin which all the members had bought for her.

Following a snack supper of cake, hot spiced apple juice, tea, sandwiches, cheese crackers and dips was served.

Are you sure your locks are the right kind, strong enough to resist a break in? Are the screws long enough to really hold the locks? Do you insert long nails at the side of windows so they cannot be raised even if locks are pried loose? Check your homes to see if you have the best of security.

Ruth Trapp gave a report on the very interesting and informative State Extension meeting held in El Paso.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served by Lela Mae to Lillian Smith, Gladys Widener, Eunice Hong, Ruth Trapp, and Marilyn Tate.

For some reason the Winds couldn't seem to get it together Friday when the Littlefield Wildcats managed to sail past in a 43-0 shutout.

Littlefield dominated the game with a total of 339 yards rushing as compared to Floydada's 142.

The Winds had a few breaks and some mistakes which the 'cats capitalized on. About the only thing that went Floydada's way, was that they had fewer penalties than usual, but the penalties they had cost them crucial yardage.

The winds seemed to be fired up after during the third quarter and seemed to be making a come back, but the 'Cats just out-played them. The 'Cats held the Winds as close as inside the 10 yard line.

Bruce Williams made an impressive 80 plus yard apparent touchdown only to have it called back because of a penalty.

Overall the Winds made a good effort but couldn't seem to get it right.

The Winds will host the Lockney Longhorns tomorrow in the season's first district game.

The Fighting Winds of Floydada hit a very fired up group of Littlefield Wildcats last week. From the opening play the Winds were behind. How many times can you ever remember the Winds losing much less by that lopsided score. Freak of nature.

Let's see what is at stake this week. County championship! First district

BEAT LOCKNEY

Coach's Comments

BY COACH L.C. WILSON

There were several negative things in our Friday night loss to Littlefield. We made far too many mistakes to be playing the fifth game of the year. There was perhaps not enough team play. And most of all, outside influences had effected both the coaches and the players mental preparation for an important and tough game. All these can and will be corrected by the Whirlwinds, a really fine group of kids.

On the positive side, we had excellent fan support - from boys who have been Whirlwinds, their parents and all our loyal friends. That victory line at the half when we were down was really encouraging. Thanks -- we all needed that. (and still do).

We had a completely exhausted bunch of boys who had given their all - who really wanted to win the game but made far too many mistakes, mainly from trying too hard. One Whirlwind had tears in his eyes when told he would not be playing the second half because of injuries. Others continued to play though not at full strength.

Best of all, this group bounced back Monday for a spirited work out in preparation for the Lockney game. I am proud to be associated with young people like the above mentioned.

Local

From the top to the bottom takes only one week and two incorrect prognostications. All of you Tech fans that I did not have the strength of character to pick your Raiders last week. Speaking of strength of character the Red Raiders of Tech proved they had more than enough to come back from a first half deficit.

This week the Raiders travel to Fayetteville to wallow with the Hogs. I am going out on a limb to pick the Raiders. If they can play 4 quarters like they played the third quarter against the Aggies, Tech will win by 3 points.

The Lockney Longhorns won a resounding victory over the Abernathy Antelopes. They are gaining pride, courage, and football prowess under new head coach Bob Purser. They should be flying high come this week-end.

The Fighting Winds of Floydada hit a very fired up group of Littlefield Wildcats last week. From the opening play the Winds were behind. How many times can you ever remember the Winds losing much less by that lopsided score. Freak of nature.

Let's see what is at stake this week. County championship! First district games! Lion's club pancake supper before the game. Pride of the Horns! The Whirlwind comeback! Band Boosters concession stand North end of the field! Do you folks get the feeling I don't know the outcome? Your right my crystal ball gets cloudy each year about this time. I am evading the issue. The game should be decided by a field goal. Those of you who are reading this flip a coin and help me guess the winner Heads - Lockney; Tails - Floydada.

Everyone come out and give your team the fan support the boys need to win. Plenty of clues this week.

He also expressed a need for two wheelchairs and several blood pressure cuffs to be installed on the patients rooms. The Hospital Auxiliary voted to purchase these and that plaques would be placed telling of the donor.

There is a need for comfortable chairs to be placed in the patients' rooms. It was suggested that perhaps gifts of chairs could be arranged from interested families.

Zumwalt, Myrick given national honor

The Society of Distinguished American High School Students has announced that two students from Floydada, have been selected as members for 1982.

The Society is one of the most selective high school honoraries in America today. Membership is not only an honor but also an incentive for those exhibiting top performance while in high school. To be accepted, students must have excelled in academics, extracurricular, or civic activities and be nominated by a local sponsor.

Students awarded this honor include: David Myrick and Deon Zumwalt.

The Society is unique in that it combines the honor of membership with its National Awards Program which earmarks college scholarships for Society members. This scholarship program, now in its fourteenth year, is funded by 104 prestigious American colleges. The Society preserves the students' honor by listing their biographical accomplishments in an annual Membership Registry which is distributed nationally.

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN

October 4th:

Summer is about gone and we are faced with "October's bright blue weather." Time marches on for the well and the unwell. And there is always work to do.

Mrs. Ethel Warren is back home after a ten day visit in Amarillo with friends and a son Bill Warren and family.

Mrs. Glenna Watson of Mt. Blanco visited Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hartline of Levelland visited Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Cora Hartline.

Visitors to see Mrs. Flora Warren Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Clyde Frizzell, Mrs. Erma Welborn and Mrs. Frank Dunn.

Wednesday morning Gertrude Massingill, my sister who had visited with me over the weekend and I took a spin over our old stomping ground. We drove first to Lakeview—Stopped at the well kept Cemetery—last resting place of so many of our loved ones. Then on towards Mt. Blanco via the Canyon. When we were growing up we didn't notice how beautiful it was. And such beautiful crops further south of town. Then west to Cone and home.

After dinner suddenly (to me) Gertrude decided she must go home. But how nice these visits are! I feel there aren't enough of them.

My younger sister native of Mt. Blanco and husband, Winifred and Bill Coggin of a farm home north of Hereford had the misfortune to have a bad fire in their home recently. Thanks to the Hereford fire department it didn't all burn but it was made uninhabitable from heat and smoke, furniture ruined. It pays to have insurance. It was believed to have been struck by lightning. It helped, too, that two of their children and families live in Hereford.

Now our sick friends: Mrs. Hal Thomas of Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, was reported to be a bit better Saturday. Doyle Sandifur entered Methodist Hospital last week. He may have to have surgery. Let us remember these in prayer.

And those in Caprock Hospital: Also these, Miss Alma Ruth Nelson, Ms. Jeffe Smith. We are glad to learn Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Moore were able to have gone home.

Of Mrs. Amelia Ashton, Lockney Rest Home I haven't heard the latest, but was much the same. So was Bro. Clay Muncy at home in Lockney.

BY GRACE LEMONS

Harvesting is in full swing. Combines are busy cutting soybeans, milo and sunflowers. Weather conditions have been good and the farmers are anxious to get their crops to the elevator.

We are glad to report that Edna Gilly is slowly improving. Ruthie Clark, Ruth Fortenberry, Gladys Fortenberry, Clara Redd, and Janet Lackey, Janet had supper with her Saturday evening.

Shelli Bethel and Traca Lemons attended Jana, a classmate's birthday party in Floydada Thursday afternoon.

Grace Lemons accompanied Linda F. Lemons, Twyla, Traca and Vance to a football game in Lockney Thursday evening. Their grandson and nephew, David Lemons was one of the players. Lockney beat Abernathy 24 to 0. Another nephew to Linda, Troy Bigham played in the first game.

Clara Mize is improving after recently having surgery and returned to Plainview Monday for a check up. She has had numerous visitors. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conner who visited her Friday. Grace Lemons and Walton and Veda Wilson who visited her Sunday afternoon.

Imogene Fortenberry who recently broke her arm is improving and able to be about some.

Peat Kelley injured her arm in a freak accident when she confronted a shovel while her hired hand was spading. It immediately swelled and discolored considerably but is looking much better at this time.

The book, Clyde, that was mentioned at the Fortenberry reunion that was written by his wife Altha Henson on experiences and achievements of her husband who is deceased. Clyde was very concerned about the American Indians and devoted much of his time helping support the Indian Missions and establishing an Institute with the Indian Reservation in Phoenix. This book is selling for $2.95 and the proceeds will go to the Memorial in Phoenix. If you are interested in buying one you may contact Norma Welch.

Linda Lemons and children attended a birthday supper honoring her mother, Laverne Cooper Sunday evening at the home of Anita and Bill Bigham. They enjoyed Mexican food for the occasion. Others present were, W.T. Cooper, Kay and Ronnie and children of Plainview, and L.T. and Karen Cooper of Lockney.

We regret to hear of the death of our neighbor and friend, C.H. Wise, 79, whose services were held in Floydada at the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 4:00 with Dr. Floyd Bradley officiating. He was married to Offie Viola Denton in Paducah and moved to Floyd County in 1933 where he was engaged in farming. Burial was laid to rest in the Floydada Cemetery with Moore-Rose directing, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Cephus Fortenberry and possibly others from our community attended the funeral. The funeral of his brother-in-law, S.K. Porter was approximately the same time. S.K. and his wife Marie and family lived in Cedar Hill at one time. Preparation, opportunity, and success are closely related.

Q: I wash my car in my driveway with a hose. Lately the car is dull and marked. What could be wrong?

A: Hand wash jobs are extremely harmful to auto finishes. A study conducted by the University of Texas showed that a single wash on an auto can produce scratches that penetrate the surface of the total thickness of the auto paint. Tests have shown that average backyard hose is not able to supply enough water pressure to avoid damaging the car's finish. The use of different detergent action to avoid damaging the car's finish. The use of appropriate mechanical action from cloth pads or brushes which the backyard hose is not able to supply. This interesting study at the university concluded that the automobile owner is much better off washing his car in a car wash rather than in his own back yard.

FARM NEWS

What Are Farmers Made Of?

BY PAUL HARVEY

A farmer is a man who wears out two pairs of overalls growing enough cotton for one.

A farmer can shape an ax handle from a persimmon sprout—and shoe a horse with a hunk of care tire.

A farmer starts every year with nothing, loses everything he grows and at the end of the year comes out even. Nobody knows how he does it.

He doesn't even know himself.

What are farmers made of?

Farmers are made of bent nails, rusty horse shoes, barbed wire and held together with callouses.

Planting time and harvest season he finishes his forty hour week by Tuesday noon—then painin' from tractor back puts in another seventy-two.

He can make harness out of hay wire, feed sacks and shoe scraps.

He grows corn and melons mostly to make fat crows.

He loads his planter with fifteen hundred dollars worth of seed, fertilizer, herbicide and insecticide. That's one hour's worth.

In a normal farm afternoon, one to ten p.m., he'll bury $13,500 in the ground in half a day.

Odds are it'll get too wet or too dry—or there'll be hail, wind, early frost, early snow, bugs, brickbats and bureaucrats.

And if he gets a good crop, he won't meet expenses.

Yet the only lines on a farmer's face are from grinning.

You look at his unattended chores, unpainted buildings, unsharpened tools and untidy barnlot and you say, "The smartest man in the world would starve trying to do all that!"

And you're right.

The smartest man would starve. But not the farmer.

His wife won't let him.

She has a basic menu: she serves what she has.

In good years that may be six vegetables at one meal.

In lean years she jumps from poke salad to black-eyed peas.

The farmer orders a seventeen inch John Deere disc—$4,300.

By the time it's delivered it's $6,500.

He's got a forty thousand dollar machine needing repair. It's five-thirty p.m. and the company owned stores are closed. And he's got five hours of daylight he can't let go to waste.

So he borrows a machine from a neighbor, is movin' it down the highway when he's run into a ditch by some joker pullin' a boat.

Yet he remains the world's most stubborn optimist.

He believes that the fact he's come this far proves he can go the rest of the way.

He buries last year's disappointments with springtime plowin' because his faith is not in himself alone.

He'll finish a hard week's work with a five mile drive to church.

And so he plants in hope, cultivates in faith and ends in debt—then starts over with greater hope and stronger faith.

Checklist helps decide whether to harvest cotton

Cotton farmers, beset all the time by disastrous weather and all the more difficult decisions, are facing a difficult choice as harvest time approaches. With thousands of acres following spring hail and a lower than average yield, producers are wondering when they will pay to harvest their crop. The decision is further complicated by the federal disaster assistance payment programs authorized by the Texas Legislature, four in all, for Texas cotton. In Oklahoma, Gary Condra, agricultural economist, and farm management specialist, Randy Bertrand and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Condra said.

Producers resolve their question by using a checklist. Condra and two other Extension specialists have developed a checklist to help in estimating the individual's cost of harvesting and the return. Working with Condra were Dr. Ken K. Grubaugh, cotton agronomist, and Supak, cotton agronomist, and K. Grubaugh, agricultural engineer. Copies of the checklist may be obtained from county agents in the affected counties.

Condra stressed that the decision really boils down to whether the harvested cotton will pay more than the cost of the cotton. The cost of the cotton is the price of the cotton. The cost of harvesting is the cost of the cotton. The cost of the cotton is the price of the cotton. The cost of harvesting is the cost of the cotton.

The significance of these two payments, the specialists explained, is that the producer will give up the disaster payment and gain the deficiency payment for every pound of lint he harvests up to 75 percent of his established program payment yield. "Of course, if he expects to harvest that much cotton, he probably isn't faced with a decision of whether or not to harvest," Condra said.

Rental arrangements will also affect the decision because the renter normally has to pay for stripping all the cotton while he sells only share. In this example, a traditional one-fourth share arrangement is used. Had this been a cash rent arrangement, the rent would not have been included because it is also a "sunk" cost which is unaffected by the harvest decision, the Extension economist explained.

The old rule of thumb that one boll per inch of row on a 40-inch spacing will produce a bale of cotton will serve fairly well, they said. This means that it takes 100 bolls per three paces (100 inches), 157 bolls per 13 feet, or 1,570 bolls per 131 feet to make a bale of cotton.

"The key is to take an accurate sample and count only harvestable bolls," Supak said.

To estimate the yield potential of a given field, make five to 10 boll counts at various locations in the field, the specialists advised. If the stand is uniform, counts can be obtained from three-pace or 13-foot strips. However, if the stand is not uniform, boll counts should be made from 131-foot strips.

The checklist includes an example situation for a producer who (1) is renting his land, (2) has his own two-row, tractor-mounted stripper, (3) has his cotton custom moduled and hauled to the gin, (4) is located in a disaster county, and (5) expects to put his cotton in the loan with grade 42 (SLM, Light Spot), staple 31, and micronaire of 3.0 to 3.2.

In this example, the out-of-pocket costs for stripping were estimated to be $8 an acre including hired labor. This includes fuel, oil, lubrication and repair. No allowance is included for depreciation and other fixed costs because these will be incurred regardless of the situation.

A custom rate for modulating and hauling of $85 per module was used. This is based on $50 for the modulating operation and $35 for hauling to the gin of each module. Each module was assumed to make seven bales due to expected low turnout (15 percent), instead of the more normal 10 bales.

Ginning, bagging and ties were charged at $2 per hundredweight of seed cotton, based on a 15 percent turnout. Seed credit was allowed at $70 per ton for 4-10 tons of seed per bale.

All of these costs and returns were calculated on a lint pound basis to allow calculation of the break-even yield.

The loan price for the example grade, staple and micronaire (42:31, 3.0-3.2) cotton in Lubbock is 44.8 cents per lint pound. "This value was used for the cotton price since supply and demand conditions don't appear to warrant a more optimistic assumption," the specialists said.

In the affected counties, the disaster program will pay 20½-cents per pound for the difference between 75 percent of the established program payment yield and actual yield. The target price program will then provide a deficiency payment for the difference between the established program payment yield and the portion of the yield for which disaster payment was made. The U.S. Department of Agriculture has projected a deficiency payment of 12 cents a pound, but the final level of payment won't be determined until later this year.

Second, disaster payments can be received immediately if the crop isn't going to be harvested. This money would be available to reduce the operating interest costs.

Third, if the crop is going to be plowed under, it may be more beneficial to do so promptly to eliminate further depletion of soil moisture and retention of plants that serve as hosts for insects and diseases.

The decision because the renter normally has to pay for stripping all the cotton while he sells only share. In this example, a traditional one-fourth share arrangement is used. Had this been a cash rent arrangement, the rent would not have been included because it is also a "sunk" cost which is unaffected by the harvest decision, the Extension economist explained.

The worksheet includes a section for calculation of a break-even yield. This is the yield of cotton this will just over the out-of-pocket stripping costs and costs for modulating, hauling, ginning, and other necessities.

In this example, the break-even yield was calculated to be about 41 pounds of lint—with 30 pounds net to the renter. The costs and returns per acre are:

Co-ops: What they are and do

Some 60 million people in this country use cooperatives—about 50,000 of them. That's a lot of people and a lot of businesses. And they do many billions of dollars worth of business each year. As one example, the farmer-owned marketing and supply cooperatives did almost $50-billion worth of business at the latest counts — in 1981.

What Is A Cooperative?

A cooperative is a business owned by its users. These users-called members -- elect a board of directors from their ranks. The directors hire a manager who in turn hires the employees needed and sees that the business is properly run on a day-to-day basis.

The directors, however, retain overall responsibility and authority for operating the cooperative business. Many of our state and national leaders gained experience and stature through their cooperative work—and carried this over into public affairs and other activities.

In a cooperative the money left after operating costs are paid belongs to the members. Members receive a portion or all of it back at the end of the year as patronage refunds based on the amount of business they have done with the cooperative. Many times they re-invest this money in the cooperative to help finance expansion, needed buildings and equipment, or other expenses to keep the business operating effectively.

Cooperatives operate under law, regulations, and rules just as other businesses do. They are incorporated as businesses; they pay taxes to their local and state governments just as other businesses do.

One thing about cooperatives is different: the law limits the dividends that can be paid on stock in cooperatives to eight percent. This is to keep control in the hands of member users and out of the hands of those who might want to use the business merely as an investment or speculation.

What Does A Cooperative Do? FOR MEMBERS--

Cooperatives do many things for people. They can be places to buy, places to sell, places to get a needed service.

Members use them to market farm products...obtain farm supplies such as petroleum products and fertilizer...get groceries, and other consumer goods...provide themselves with health, insurance, housing, and other consumer-type services...obtain credit in the large amounts needed for operating farms and cooperatives through the Farm Credit System...get consumer-type credit through credit unions...provide themselves with electricity and telephone services in the rural area.

The purpose of the cooperative is to make money for members, reduce costs for products they buy, and provide better services and quality goods to them.

FOR THE COMMUNITY--

Cooperatives not only put money in members' pockets, they also add to the community's financial basis. They provide jobs to local people who in turn buy goods and services and pay taxes; they pay for telephone, transportation, and other services a business needs; they use hometown banks and stores; they pay all the local taxes other businesses do to keep schools, roads, and like community needs going; they return money to members in turn is spent in the community.

Cooperatives are truly... "Building A Better America."

Texas farmers seeks action to boost soybean prices

Plainview soybean farmers LaMarr Ramsey joined soybean leaders from 25 states who gathered in Washington, D.C. last week to launch an intensive effort to gain congressional action to bolster soybean prices.

"We need action," says Ramsey, who currently serves as Texas Soybean Association President. "Unless we sell what we produce and sell at a profit, 'bin bustin' crops will continue to depress farm prices while government supports add to federal budget deficits. We don't want a tax supported surplus hanging over the market to lower prices. We want to sell soybeans at profitable prices and we're asking Congress for immediate action."

Ramsey was one of more than 50 soybean leaders who attended the emergency meeting which included briefings from Agriculture Secretary John Block; Congressman William Emerson (R-MO); Senator Richard Lugar (R-IN); and an official from the White House. Following the briefings, the farmers sought action during meetings with their local congressmen and senators. A small group of the soybean farmers met with Vice President George Bush.

Ramsey said soybean farmers seek approval of a 4-point emergency sales program. The program includes:

- * Approving anti-embargo contract sanctity legislation which would guarantee fulfillment of private export shipments of all U.S. exports.

* Increasing CCC export financing for soybeans and soybean products.

* Expanding PL480 Food for Peace soybean oil shipments to countries such as India and Pakistan.

* Aggressively opposing unfair subsidy programs used by Brazil, Argentina and other nations. While such subsidies continue, ASA seeks U.S. efforts to provide reduced interest loans or other competitive export tools which allow the U.S. to compete on equal terms.

"U.S. farmers are sinking in the quicksand of international distrust," said ASA President B.B. Spratling, Jr. "While ASA's proposals for export expansion are important, our No. 1 priority is gaining congressional approval of anti-embargo contract sanctity legislation. Four times in the past 10 years, the U.S. government has cancelled private export contracts. Is it any wonder that our international customers no longer believe the U.S. is a reliable supplier of life-sustaining feed and food products?"

"It's time to end embargoes, get the State Department out of agriculture, stop using food as a political weapon and restore international trust in U.S. contracts."

Floyd County Farm Bureau News

BY DAN SMITH
Concerned with the nation's excess buildup of cotton, the American Farm Bureau Federation has called for a 15 percent upland cotton acreage reduction program for 1983 and an added optional diversion of 10 percent.

In a letter to Howard Williams, Director, Analysis Division, USDA Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, AFBF Secretary John Datt, asked that the diversion payment rate be set high enough to result in maximum participation, the target price be set at the legal minimum of 76 cents per pound and that producers be allowed to extend their loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation for an additional six months, if necessary, after their normal loan period expires.

Jim Simmons, Director of the AFBF Cotton Department, said that Farm Bureau analysis indicates that without an acreage reduction and paid diversion program, cotton stocks would increase next year, causing prices to fall and further damaging the already depressed farm economy, while establishment of Farm Bureau's recommended provisions will reduce production and improve prices.

Datt also reiterated Farm Bureau's opposition to a farmer-held reserve for cotton.

Rubber Strike — The strike continues at the General Tire plant in Waco which makes Safemark tires for Farm Bureau. Safemark tires are also manufactured by other General and Kelly-Springfield plants around the country. The Waco strike began in mid-June.

However, due to a large inventory before the strike, most Safemark products are in good supply. Also, Safemark has begun to contract with other manufacturers for additional supplies.

Elevator Bankruptcies — AFBF this week asked the House Judiciary Committee to approve elevator bankruptcy legislation that is before that group. The Senate has already passed the bill. AFBF said that the House committee is the final obstacle blocking legislation that would adequately protect producers.
