Finally here. The air is a little cooler, the leaves will start turning and people will be winning the football contest.

I've won't have to wait for the fall to win. She won first place with only three incorrect answers. The second place winner, also had three incorrect answers, also had three incorrect answers. The tie breaker was a three-way tie for third place. Rainer, Bill Weir and Brent Cathey missed four guesses and all missed the tie breaker the same.

The money had to be split between the two winners. Honorable mention goes to the two who also had four incorrect answers. The Spirit coloring contest

Lubbock Avalanche Journal Miss Mackenzie, 16, of Silverton was crowned in a field of 21 contestants. She was crowned by Miss Mackenzie, Silverton and schools to reign as Miss Mackenzie.

The contest took place Saturday afternoon at the Silverton High School auditorium and was sponsored by the O.A. Junior Study Club of Silverton.

Contestants participating make up the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority. Mackenzie will promote and help advertise Lake Mackenzie during her reign.

Contestants were judged on appearance, poise and personality.

Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards, of Silverton, and sponsored by Nance's Food Store.

Linda Stone, 17, of Floydada was chosen first runner-up and Angel Edwards, 17, of Tulia was second runner-up.

The winner of the Miss Congeniality award was Jan Reynolds, 17, of Silverton.

Church seminar hosted Assembly of God Church in Silverton hosted a series of seminars for the New Hope Crusaders of Silverton. These seminars ended in a musical.

One of the members of the New Hope Crusaders, a powerful force in the church, said that his message was to "open some eyes and hearts that are happening in the world. Many Christians are aware of the message from the Bible, warning of the end times.

During the program, Narboe presented various types of music specimens. First of all many artists back mask their songs," he said. Back masking is playing the song backward and hearing a message that is hidden in the song.

Narboe went on to say that the information he gave may be shocking and unbelievable but it was true and documented.

He cited examples of various song writers and their dealings with the occult. He also mentioned various country and western songs that had less subtle messages in them such as "intoxication and fornication."

Anyone interested in further information in the New Hope Crusade may contact Jim Guess at the Assembly of God Church.

Rep. candidate visits Floydada

Stating that American is in "serious, serious trouble" and has "hard times ahead" Republican Congressional Candidate Ron Slover spoke before a group of interested Floyd County citizens Monday.

Slover, a "predictable conservative" said that he believed that cuts in unnecessary spending programs are the key to lower inflation, lower interest rates, and lower unemployment.

He said that the Southern Conservative Democrat party philosophy is the same as the National Republican philosophy. The National Democratic party is "off base."

Slover, a supporter of President Reagan and the amendment to balance the budget, said we "need a long term predictable change to take effect."

As an independent businessman and former news and farm director Slover says that "we need someone that will take an active interest in the people and their concern."

Later during a press conference he commented on the sunset law. He said that his law probably will not be passed by congress, although it is the closest thing to a balanced budget.

Slover also commented on crime placing the blame of the majority of the problem on the court systems. Slover also commented on the national defense saying the United State needs to "develop an anti-balistics system. It needs to be funded today."

Slover is a candidate from district 13 from Amarillo and has been a resident in Amarillo for 31 years. He is a graduate of Amarillo High School, an Air Force Veteran and former employee of Burlington Railway.

ALBERT SCHEELE republican chairman of Floyd County with Congressional candidate Ron Slover and Bill Hale after Slover visited with an interested group at King's Restaurant.

Stan Coffey leads Baptist Revival Oct. 17-21

REV. STAN COFFEY

This Week

Reverend Stan Coffey, one of the outstanding pastors in the Southern Baptist Convention, will be here October 17-21 to lead the Fall Revival services at First Baptist Church. The membership of the church extends an invitation to the community to attend.

Sunday services will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., and services Monday through Thursday will be at noon and 7:30 p.m. The noon services will be followed by a meal served in Fellowship Hall and guests are invited. There will be a nursery for all services.

Coffey has been pastor of the First Baptist Church in Albuquerque since September 1979. Prior to that, he was pastor of the San Jacinto Baptist Church in Amarillo. While serving in these two pastorates, his churches have consistently been among the leaders in the Southern Baptist Convention in baptisms and Sunday School growth.

In what many consider to be a pioneer area of Southern Baptist work, there have been more than 1,600 additions to the church in Albuquerque in the first two years of his ministry. More than 1,000 have been by baptism, and Sunday School attendance has increased by 40 percent. In 1981, the church was first in the convention in baptismal ratio for churches of 1500 or more members.

For four consecutive years, his churches have led their state conventions in baptisms. In 1979, the Amarillo church led the state in baptisms, and also led the Southern Baptist Convention.

Reverend Coffey has held more than 100 revival meetings in seven states. He currently is pastor-advisor of the Southern Baptist Evangelists Conference, and is immediate past vice president of the Pastors Conference of the Southern Baptist convention.

A native of Sweetwater, Oklahoma, Coffey is a graduate of Wayland Baptist University and of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. While at Wayland, he was named "Outstanding Student" in the field of Religion in 1968 and 1969. He is married to the former Glenda Fincher of Elk City, Oklahoma. They have a son, 18, and a daughter, 8.

Q: I've always heard that a brand new car should not be washed or waxed for a certain period of time.

A: That may have been true 25 years ago, but the new modern acrylics and enamels need proper care almost from the moment you drive them off the dealer's lot. The thing to be most careful of immediately is that you wash the car properly. Many initial errors can result in waterspots, setting stains and loss of lustre. Without the benefit of layers of protective coating that a car receives over the years, mistakes on a few car may not be correctable.

Letter to the Editor

The following letter refers to the Floydada vs. Littlefield football game. I have always been proud of the way Floydada football teams. But last Friday, I was disgusted with the way the team needed fan support the most, they received none. And I was even disappointed to hear the fans booing. I am not sure of you who bood, where is your sense of pride? Did you feel that by booing you would correct what was wrong on the field? I am concerned, nothing that happens on or off the playing field, support or anywhere else deserves to be bood. The kids out there playing football games those fans will be able to conduct themselves in a manner that will not be a disgrace.

MRS. KIRBY COLLINS

Collins, Pearson wed in Maine Saturday, October 9th

Nancy Ellen Pearson and Kirby Lane Collins exchanged vows in the United Methodist Church of Corinna, Maine, Saturday at 4 p.m. Terry McKinley, pastor of the church, officiated.

Sprays of fresh flowers, a candelabra, and altar arrangements of red roses formed the nuptial setting for the ceremony. Baby's breath was used in the pewmarkers.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Gene Collins of Lockney and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearson of Corinna.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown fashioned of white chiffon over taffeta with a high Victorian neckline. A deep set yoke covered with beaded Schiffl lace topped the tucked pleats of the blouson styled bodice. Full Bishop sleeves accented with vertical tucks were gathered to cuffs covered with lace and pearls, fastened with matching covered buttons to those fastening the gown in the back.

The flowing chiffon skirt, its hemline bordered in Chantilly lace and a narrow satin ribbon, fell to a cathedral-length train. Her matching veil also was bordered in Schiffl lace. Completing the bride's attire she dawned a bouquet of long stem red roses and baby's breath.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Albert Smith of Orono, Maine, was the matron of honor.

Sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ronnie Gammage of Plainview and Mrs. Gary Dorman of Corinna were bridesmaids.

The female attendants all wore matching burgundy jersey floor-length gowns accented by chiffon capes featuring lace standup collars. They carried bouquets of long stemmed white roses.

Thomas Nerbonne, organist, provided wedding music. "If Thou Be Near" was sung as a solo.

Peter Gloor of Huntington Station, New York, was best man. Groomsmen were Todd Quackenbush of Rocky Hill, New Jersey, and Randy Mamiaro of Bellmore, New York.

A reception and buffet dinner was catered in the Pearson home by Mrs. Clifford Sawtelle. Mrs. Irving Packard of Corinna and Mrs. Gilbert Adams of Newport, Maine, aunts of the bride, assisted. Mrs. Ruth Pooler of Corinna registered guests.

Decorations of white wedding bells and streamers were used with candles accenting the reception room.

An arrangement of roses and cut flowers highlighted the bride's table. The 3-tiers of the traditional white cake were climaxed with pink roses and a crystal wedding top.

The bride is a graduate of Nokomis Regional High in Newport, Maine, and Maine Medical Center School of Radiologic Technology. She is employed by the Lutheran Medical System of North Texas as a special procedures technologist in the radiology department of Brookhaven Hospital in Farmers Branch.

Collins graduated from Lockney High School and Princeton University. He was a member of the Tower Club while there. He is a systems analyst for Gould, Inc. Systems Engineering Laboratories, Computer Systems Division in Dallas.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's mother, was held at Dominick's Restaurant in Pittsfield, Maine. The bride's traveling attire was a camel wool suit with brown accessories. The couple will be at home in Dallas after a wedding trip to Bar Harbor, Maine.

Study Club plan for garage sale

The 1934 Study Club met in the W.O. Newberry "Home Beautiful" Tuesday night. Mrs. W.H. Bunch, the club president, conducted a business session, during which plans for the fall garage sale to be held at the Anthony Latta home were completed, and invitation to an appreciation coffee to all people who contributed to the Child Welfare Board was read. The club welcomed their new member, Mrs. Walton Wilson, and Mrs. Dennis Dempsey reported that Mrs. Wade Warren was in the Plainview Central Plains Hospital.

Mrs. Bond, the program coordinator, directed her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Greg Bond, to present the "Home Beautiful" program. Mrs. Bond grew up in Lubbock, graduating from Monterey High School and Texas Tech University with a BS degree in Home Economics Education. She taught in the Floydada school system for six years, and is now employed as FCS Federal Credit Union manager. Mrs. Bond is well qualified to discuss the topic "Home Beautiful" and she brought a very enlightening and fun program.

She began by eliciting amused groans as she gave a test to determine the decorating style of the members, as to whether they were Formal, perfectionists; Casual, desiring comfort and convenience; Modern, the young at heart; Traditional, very domestic, wanting things to stay the same; Independent, does not go along with the crowd just to be in style.

Many found their style was eclectic, the combination of the best of each style. The good points about eclectic decorating is that the furniture, heirlooms, accessories, sentimental pieces which a person already owns can be used to good advantage. Of course, there are also bad points, for the end result might have a hodge-podge look. The items used may be very expensive but could develop into a junky look.

Mrs. Bond concluded her program showing slides of different rooms and how the pieces used could be tied together with different woods, cloth material, accessories, and wood pieces.

Mrs. G.W. Switzer led the members in the club collect for adjournment. The hostesses, Mrs. W.O. Newberry and Mrs. George Springer, served refreshments of chicken salad, coffee balls, yogurt coated raisins, tea andmelon to the following: Mmes. Alan Benson, W.H. Bunch, Dennie Dempsey, Anthony Latta, J.P. Moss, L.D. Simpson, Floyd Lawson, Floyd Bradley, M.J. McNeill, Allen Bingham, W.L. Davis, A.L. Wylie, Jr., G.W. Switzer, W.W. Trapp, Milton Ashton, L.B. Stewart, Jr., Walton Wilson, Garland Foster, J.S. Hale, Jr., J.R. Turner, Wilson Bond, and Greg Bond.

The October 19 meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Dennis Dempsey.

Lockney Care Center Capers

BY VICKIE HUTTON

This week has been filled with much activity and enjoyment. We are all feeling well and many of the residents attribute this to our exercise class before church each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning. We start by warming up with deep breathing exercises and moving our arms and legs. Then we finish it off with our Hand Jive exercise. These exercises are a lot of fun and give us a chance to socialize more.

Our domino champs are really giving those dominoes a good workout. The competitive spirit really shows during these games. I think our two greatest players are Esker Pyle and Bill Holt.

Myrtle Payne, Myrtle Burke and Richard Lanham were our bingo winners this week. A special thanks goes to Almeda Phillips and DeLinda Glasson for sharing their time and talent with us.

We send a special thanks to the Home Ec students at Lockney High School for the delicious cinnamon rolls they brought us. We also send our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ike Clay of Flomot for the watermelons and to Blanche Newman of Silverton for the ceramic paints that we will get a lot of use out of.

We will say good bye for now and wish you all a good week.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Puckett of Ruidoso, New Mexico announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Tracey DeAnn Puckett to Danny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Well, I do believe that winter has come. The mornings have been real cold. I have noticed several people have pulled out some coats this past week.

Monday Kim Sherman came and we had a real good time. These residents just love her so much.

Tuesday we had a good group of people for Bible Study. We are still studying in Psalms.

Wednesday we played bingo and had six players. I believe we had two tie for first place this week. They were Una Clark with six games and Emmitt Lawrence with six games. Other players were Geneda Roberts with four games, Sue Thompson with three games, and Vera Duke with two games.

Thursday the residents just visited one another and we played a game.

Friday we had two movies and had popcorn.

We have three residents in the hospital. We wish them well and to come home soon. We also got one of our old residents back. Mrs. Lyndell (Wendy) Jackson in north nine. We are glad to have her back.

We are going to have our monthly birthday party Thursday at 2:30.

Here is a list of visitors for the week.

Plan 'Super Snacks' With Nutrition In Mind

Are you snacking more? Recent food consumption surveys indicate that more Americans are eating more foods between meals.

Snacking is a part of our lifestyle. Unplanned snacking, however, can lead to health problems such as obesity and tooth decay.

To avoid potential problems select snack foods carefully, and make them "super snacks." "Super snacking" doesn't require special foods.

Old standbys, such as carrots, celery and apples, are excellent choices, but so are other foods. For variety try fresh pineapple, unbuttered popcorn, cheese, vegetables juice or frozen yogurt.

The best way to approach snacking is to plan for the in-between meal times.

Take time to think about your food habits.

Do you skip breakfast or do you frequently miss lunch or do you snack while watching television?

Recognizing when you snack can help you avoid snacking on empty calorie foods.

If you know that you will eat between meals you can be sure to have nutritious "super snacks" available.

Simmons named CO of NOAA ship Peirce

Commander Walter S. Simmons of Rockville, Maryland, has been named commanding officer of the hydrographic survey ship Peirce, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration announced.

The 163-foot Peirce, designed and outfitted for hydrographic surveys involving nautical charting, operates off the U.S. Atlantic coast, in the Gulf of Mexico, the Great Lakes, and the U.S. Caribbean island territorial waters. She carries 41 officers and crew, and is currently working on a 4-month hydrography survey of Lake Superior.

Simmons, a native of Floydada, received a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering at Texas Tech University in 1964, and a master of engineering administration degree at George Washington University in 1978.

Simmons is married to the former Barbara J. Huckabay of Floydada. The couple and their son and daughter reside in Rockville, Maryland. Cmdr. Simmons' mother, Curtis M. Simmons, resides in New Braunfels, Texas, and his mother-in-law, Doris Huckabay Preston, resides in Lamesa, Texas.

Simmons joined the commissioned corps of the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, predecessor to NOAA's National Ocean Survey, in 1964. Prior to his new assignment as commanding officer, Simmons served as chief of the National Ocean Survey's Photogrammetry Division in Rockville, Maryland. He also has been Chief, Flight Operations, and Chief, Air Photo Mission of the Survey's Photogrammetry Division. He has served as operations officer on the NOAA ship Researcher; as Chief, Special Geodetic party at the Pacific Missile Range; and on the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey ship Pathfinder.

Awards granted Simmons for his government service include the Department of Commerce bronze medal; three Karo awards for the U.S./Mexico Seaward Boundary Survey, the Boston Harbor Estuarine Environmental Investigation, and the GARP/Atlantic Tropical Experiment (GATE); and a NOAA unit citation for response to the Campeche Bay oil spill.

Coach's Comments

BY COACH L.G. WILSON

Offensively, I thought our boys played a good game Friday night. We need to work on eliminating the little mental mistakes that tend to get us a penalty or cause a foul up on our execution. But, we turned the ball over only once by the fumble route and that was encouraging especially with our backs running as hard and determined as they did.

Our offensive line blocked real well. They're coming around. I think they're at the stage now that we will see improvement week to week from them. Our backs haven't blocked any better in a game since our 'wishbone' days. They were really doing a good job leading the way.

I was especially pleased with Mike

Salazar at fullback. In our offense the fullback doesn't get to carry the ball very often, but is utilized as a lead blocker and Friday night he tore them up.

We need to improve our pass offense to take a little of the load off the running attack and then I believe we can move the ball on anyone.

The secret of the success or failure of our team this year is our DEFENSE. Right now we are not aggressive enough. Too many slipped tackles, wrong pursuit angles and lapses in the defensive secondary. Should we get more alert and aggressive on defense and with the potential of a high powered offense and the best kicking game in the district, we'll be able to compete with anyone for the district crown.

DONNELL WEEKS strong running behind a strong line makes up some of the penalty yardage.

Local

Here I sit with eggs all over my face again. I ran into trouble on giving too much faith to the Raiders. They tried hard but ran into a much better team. For the county championship I was real close to the point spread. The coin flip turned up tails.

My cap is off to both teams. They showed a lot of poise and ability. Both teams need to hold their heads high, they represented themselves and their schools very well.

This week the unclouded crystal ball reveals the following correct forecasts:

The Longhorns, whose roundball club I used to play on should have another close contest this week. But I predict the Lockney Horns will win by 7 points. This will be the first of 3 district wins.

The Whirlwinds who have to travel 9,000 miles to Childress thru no mans land should pick up their second district win. Boy it is a long way for the team and Band to travel. My child will play Friday night.

Texas Tech should win over hapless Rice this week. Hope the Raiders don't have a let down. Tech by 14 points.

Now for Yocal!! What is this calling me an Old Salt. That is a sailors term I think. I would not be caught close to the water. I quit taking baths many years ago because the water was too deep. I have owned a boat but not because I liked water. If I liked the water I wouldn't need a boat I'd just go jump in. Deductive reasoning Ha - sounds like your some 'Old Fossil' using bones and rocks some Indian gave you. People just expect you to do something, anything even if they have to pay for it.

Boy oh boy polly gee whiz you do your best and somebody always puts you down.

& Yocal

Red Raider fans, join me for a few moments of silent meditation. Now that we've got that off our chests, let's look at the brighter side of life. Where has all the optimism gone? I've often been told that a pessimist never thinks anything will work for the good and an optimist knows it won't. Now I ask you, is that any way to be? Of course not. I Longhorn Country wearing their spurs, wielding branding irons, and they like their beef rare. But, you better beware. Idalou, these Longhorns are gristled up and don't take kindly to being served as prime rib. Idalou by 7 is the way the bones lay.

"On the road again", the Mighty Whirlwinds travel to Childress Friday night to that big rock pile called a stadium. Oh well, maybe those rocks will be all "het" up and keep our little buns warm while our boys are waylaving those vahoos. Now while good grammar ain't nearly as important as good taste, my mouth is watering with the savory flavor of a win by the Mean Green with 10 points to spare.

Now for the riddle of the week: My spouse refers to me as a - tiller - de - hon.

I have a garden, but mainly for fun. I love to play golf, go fishing and hunt. When in a bind, I exclaim "Let's punt!" say the glass is half full, not half empty. How about you Local, with your "going out on a limb to pick the Raiders"? Son, you've done went and sawed off your feet as well as the limb. Local, in your mind we were beat before we started. Let us now join together with positive thinking as our leader and pride as our reins while we "hoot-a-tize" the Rice Owls on the 16th by 10 points.

Local, I swear son, you went and done it again. What's with you and this straddling the fence over the Whirlwind and Longhorn game? Surely you graduated from one of these towns. Where has all that nostalgia and ole alma mater taken you? First you use a crystal ball, then you flip coins, next you'll be shooting dice. Get with the program Local, see if you can't swap something with an old Indian and get you some reliable rocks and bones!!!

The 15th of October brings Idalou to Whirlwinds edge past Lockney

The Whirlwinds edged past the Lockney Longhorns Friday in the first district win, final score 16-12.

The Winds were the first on the scoreboard with a 31-yard field goal to get an early lead. The first attempt at the field goal was deemed no good because of a penalty.

But after the ensuing kickoff the Winds were driven goalward by the Horns. Eight plays later the Longhorns scored six points giving them the lead.

As quickly as the Longhorns took the lead, the Winds took it back from them.

Weeks charged 83 yards downfield for a touchdown then turned around and booted in the PAT.

After the half both teams did not make any major gains. Then toward the end of the third quarter, a roughing the punter penalty gave the Longhorns the first down they needed. Two plays later the Horns were in the lead again with another touchdown.

Surprised about not being in the lead, the Winds marched downfield and ten plays and 41 yards later it was first down at the Lockney 41 yard line. Once again Weeks ran in the points. The PAT failed.

This win places the Whirlwinds in a 4-2 season and a 1-0 district standing.

The Winds had 435 total yards as compared to Lockney's 227. However penalties took their toll with the Winds having ten penalties for 100 yards as compared to Lockney's four for 45 yards.

Go Winds!

Freshman victorious over Lockney

BY MIKE COCANOUGHER

The freshmen Whirlwinds were victorious over the freshman Lockney Longhorns Thursday. The final score was 12-6.

The first half was scoreless. Both teams had quite a few fumbles, so the ball was traded quite a bit.

Lockney scored early in the second half and the PAT was no good. Then, in the third quarter, J.D. Wilson scored on a four yard quarterback sneak, but the PAT failed.

Once again at the end of the fourth quarter J.D. Wilson scored again on a 20 yard quarterback sneak, and the attempted PAT failed.

Our boys recovered a lot of fumbles and played a good ball game. Outstanding offensive players were J.D. Wilson, Brad Rainer and Jeff Matsler. Outstanding defensive players were Coy LaBaume, David Coronado and Pete Morales.

Center News

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN
October 11, 1982:

Compared to August weather "today is cold and cloudy and dreary, no rain yet but the wind is never weary." No frost to speak of yet. A little fire early in the morning feels appropriate.

And on such days there is much staying in except going to church. Sunday dinner guests at Mrs. Fred Batey's were Mrs. Ola Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren.

Over weekend visitors at the Gordon Mayfields are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendricks of Sierra Vista, Arizona. They are cousins of the Mayfields.

Mrs. Ethel Warren's son, Johnny and family of near Lubbock, arrived at her home to visit over Sunday nite.

Bro. and Mrs. Clay Muncy of Lockney are at home where friends and relatives recently helped him celebrate his 85th birthday anniversary. Congratulations! Many of our group stayed home after church with no news. Some of these were: the Henry Brewers, the Marion Carpenters, Mrs. Leo Frizzell, Mrs. Hartline, Mrs. Meredith, Miss Mitchell, Charley Spence, and of course, Ma Green. Also the Plumlees.

Oh yes, I did get my chow chow made last week. Now some tomatoes.

Now our sick, or recently sick friends: Mrs. Amelia Ashton, Lockney Rest Home, about the same; Mrs. Hal (Sudie) Thomas in Methodist Hospital, her daughter said the doctors have diagnosed her case, is more able to communicate with her family; Doyle Sandifur of Methodist last heard from - not at home yet; from Caprock Hospital, Miss Alma Ruth Nelson, doing pretty well; Mrs. Jeffie Smith, gone home, Wiley Rogers, doing pretty well at home.

Let us remember that prayer changes things.

(I forgot today is Columbus Day) How many of us remembered Sunday October 10 was World Hunger day? Bro. and Mrs. Jack Mattox and son of Knox City were visitors in the Calvary Church Sunday. We were happy to see them. They were with us a few months four years ago. He preached for us some when Bro. Payne was so unwell. We enjoyed Sunday the song all five, sang, too.

Smith named chairman of Texas Farmers & Ranchers

Senator Lloyd Bentsen has announced that Mr. J.D. Smith of Sudan has been named chairman of the 83-member Texas Farmers and Ranchers for Bentsen Committee.

Bentsen, one of only four U.S. Senators to cross party lines and oppose both Presidents Carter and Reagan by voting to end the recent Russian grain embargo, believes that prices for agricultural products must be brought up to a healthy level by increasing exports and decreasing productions.

As Ranking Member of the Senate Trade Subcommittee and Co-Chairman of the Senate Export Caucus, Senator Bentsen has made the effort to expand markets for U.S. farm products one of his top priorities.

"Agriculture is very important to Texas. Ours is the third largest state in the union in the sale of farm and ranch products," Bentsen said.

"We must get agriculture back to full health if we expect to get the Texas economy back to full health."

"Texas Farmers and Ranchers for Bentsen represent every aspect of agricultural life in our state. I am pleased that these leaders have agreed to work for my reelection."

Committee Chairman Smith served as Texas Chairman of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service from 1977-1980.

Area members of the Bentsen committee are: Mr. Edward Breihan, Lubbock; Mr. Tommy Fondren, Lorenzo; Mr. Don Marble, South Plains; and Mr. Joe Rankin, Ralls.

Interest rates lowered on FHA loans

Interest rates on most loan programs at the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration have gone down as of October 1. Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced.

Block said the reductions, which will be as much as a full percentage point for farm operating loans and market rate community facilities loans, reflect progress in the nation's drive to roll back inflationary interest rates.

Reductions will apply to farm, community and rural housing loans made by the rural credit agency.

The reductions are a result of legislation that calls for the USDA agency's interest rates to parallel those in other key sectors of the money market.

"We are able to lower our interest rates because the cost of money to the U.S. Treasury has been down in recent months and the average yield for municipal bonds also has been lower," said Charles W. Shuman, Farmers Home administrator.

In farmer programs, the interest rate for farm operating loans is reduced from 14.25 percent to 13.25 percent. For long-term farm loans, such as farm ownership, soil and water, recreation, grazing associations, irrigation and drainage and Indian land acquisition, the rate declines from 13.25 percent to 13 percent.

For limited resource borrowers, operating loan rates drop from 11.25 percent to 10.25 percent and farm ownership loans move downward slightly, from 6.625 percent to 6.5 percent.

In the emergency loan program, the rate drops from 17 percent to 16.25 percent on actual loss loans for disasters occurring after October 1 to applicants who can obtain credit from other sources but choose to borrow from the agency. For borrowers unable to obtain credit from other lenders, actual loss loans will continue to be made at 8 percent. For borrowers eligible for continued annual production loans, the rate goes down from 16 percent to 15.5 percent.

Under the agency's housing programs, the interest rate drops from 13.5 percent to 13.125 percent for single family housing, rural rental housing and housing site loans.

The rate for housing loans to above-moderate-income borrowers (and moderate-income borrowers who can afford Housing and Urban Development Department rates) was lowered from 15 percent to 14 percent on September 20.

For community facility and water and waste disposal loans, the full interest rate drops from 11.625 to 10.625 percent. This rate is based on current market yields for municipal obligations. The intermediate rate, for communities of moderately less than average means, declines from 8.375 percent to 7.875 percent. The rate for lower-income communities remains unchanged at 5 percent.

Shuman said the intermediate rate recently introduced by the USDA agency "will keep credit resources alive for many communities that need public facility improvements to create job opportunities or maintain present employment."

Guaranteed loans for business and industrial development continue to be negotiated between borrowers and lenders. Loans made by Farmers Home for small scale biomass energy projects will be made at 13 percent instead of the previous rate of 13.25 percent.

Farmers Home Administration is the rural credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It makes a wide variety of loans and grants and provides technical assistance to help improve economic and living conditions in rural America.

Services of the agency are delivered through a system of nearly 2,000 county offices, 300 district offices and 46 state offices covering rural areas throughout the nation.

Upcoming frost could hurt livestock

by Jett V. Major, CEA

Frost will be hitting Floyd County before long, and this could lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock grazing certain pasture grasses and forages, points out Jett Major, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Although many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when grazing after they have been frozen and wilted are Johnson and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.

The most dangerous time as far as the grazing of these plants is concerned is following frost when the plant material begins to wilt, emphasizes Major. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted material until it has dried completely. This usually takes three or four days of good sunlight. New plant growth usually becomes nontoxic and can be grazed within 10 days to two weeks following a rain.

As far as prussic acid poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases, animals become affected within 10-15 minutes after eating toxic material and can die in two to three minutes. Symptoms may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues. This also causes the blood to appear bright red.

To prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock, Major outlines these steps:

1. Allow plant material affected by frost to dry thoroughly before grazing. This may require a week or more of good sunlight.

2. Feed animals hay or a supplement before turning them in on plants that may contain prussic acid. Animals that are not hungry will not be affected as seriously by toxic material since their intake will be limited.

3. Remove all animals from the pasture if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning.

4. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early. This product is available from veterinarians.

5. Have suspect plant material checked by the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratories at College Station or Amarillo. Local Veterinarians will be happy to submit samples for you.

The overall key to prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and then to keep cattle from grazing such plants until a safe period has passed.

Bloat and Grass Tetany

Wheat pasture forage with a high percentage of water leads to frothy bloat and grass tetany. Dr. B.A. Stewart, Soil Scientist at the USDA Conservation and Production Research Laboratory at Bushland, and three other researchers determined this in a three-year study in Texas and Oklahoma.

Frothy bloat and grass tetany usually cause 2 to 3 percent death losses on wheat pasture or the Southern Great Plains. This is bad enough, but sometimes losses jump up to 20 percent. Stewart says most severe losses occur in the spring after a cold winter when the soil is wet and temperatures rise fast. Under these conditions, wheat plants take up a lot of water and nutrients. This increases the level of potassium in the forage to above normal levels, which can cause grass tetany. The percentage of carbohydrates decreases, which in turn increases chances of bloat.

The scientist found also that N in forage increased rapidly under these conditions. High nitrogen in forage leads to increased concentration of fatty acids. This causes foam formation in the rumen, which results in bloat.

In looking over all of their data, the scientists noticed a common denominator. When conditions leading to grass tetany or bloat come about, wheat forage contained a high percentage of water. In other words, measuring dry matter in the forage would be a good indicator for the hazard of grass tetany and bloat.

Although studies were not conclusive, Stewart and the other scientists think that wheat forage that has at least 25 percent dry matter is safe. There is some hazard when dry matter ranges from 18 to 25 percent. If dry matter drops below 18 percent, there is a good chance that bloat and grass tetany will be a problem.

The scientists advise people with cattle on wheat pasture to watch for weather conditions leading to rapid growth after a cold spell and take the following precautions. Lactating cows should be put on other pasture, and young calves and feeder cattle should be fed some hay or other dry feed. Feeding cattle molasses salt blocks with an anti-foaming agent will decrease the chances of bloat. These precautions should be continued until wheat growth starts and dry-matter content of the forage increases.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serves people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Private participation in farm operation loans rises sharply

Private-lender participation in farm operating loans is up sharply this year at the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration, Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block said.

Block credited participation lending and other cooperative efforts of federal and private lenders with successfully providing needed agricultural credit for thousands of hard hit farmers in 1982.

Meeting with representatives of the American Bankers Association, the Independent Bankers Association of America and the Farm Credit Administration, the secretary emphasized the need to continue cooperation and participation lending to meet farmers' credit needs in 1983.

He said the USDA agency will continue to enlarge its role with the private sector in making farm operating loans to meet the anticipated heavy demand for credit in crop year 1982.

Charles W. Shuman, administrator of the USDA lending agency, attributed the increase in participation lending directly to cooperation between the USDA and rural lending institutions.

"Although our funds for operating loans are about a third over last year," Shuman said, "demand for those funds is heavy. Through participation loans involving commercial banks and local members of the farm credit system, we stretch our limited funds, making them available to those who need help most."

"In many cases, Shuman said, the agency has subordinated its security to the private lender, helping borrowers stay with their regular credit sources.

Loans of about 5,800 of the agency's operating loan borrowers were shared with other lenders in fiscal 1981. In the first 11 months of fiscal 1982, the number rose to 28,032.

In dollars, the amount of the agency's farm borrowers' debt held by private lenders rose from $91.6 million for all of fiscal 1981 to an estimated $1 billion for the first 11 months of fiscal 1982.

While the participation loan may begin with either a private or public lender, Shuman said the USDA-initiated effort begins at the county level when borrowers and a Farmers Home county supervisor review the borrower's "farm and home plan," which is the credit and economic blueprint for that borrower's crop year.

"When the plan shows a need for more operating credit than the agency by law can supply to an individual, or when the plan shows that private credit can be utilized for the borrower's needs, a local lender is contracted," Shuman said.

"If the local lender can make the loan, the USDA agency may subordinate part or all of its security in favor of the local lender — in effect giving the private lender first rights to collect its debts in the event of default."

Participating in the meeting with Block were Under Secretary Frank Naylor and Shuman of the USDA; American Bankers Association representatives Ken Lee, associate director, Michael Fitch, vice president for agricultural affairs, Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco, and Alan Tubbs, president of First Central Bank in DeWitt, Iowa.

Representing the Independent Bankers Association of America were Weldon Barton, agricultural rural representatives; Thomas Olson, president, Lisco State Bank, Lisco, Nebraska; and J.R. Kuiken, president, First National Bank, DeKalb, Illinois.

Deputy Governor Larry Edwards of the Farm Credit Administration represented his organization.

Windbreak tree orders accepted

Applications are now being accepted for windbreak seedlings from the Texas Forest Service.

These seedlings are grown from seed collected in west Texas and eastern New Mexico.

Conifer species available this year include Austrian pine, Ponderosa pine, Arizona Cypress, Red Cedar, and Scotch pine. These containerized seedlings cost $1 each and are sold only in multiples of 30. These seedlings will be 6-12 inches tall.

Hardwood species include Bur Oak, Green Ash, Honey locust, Mulberry, Native plum, and Russian Olive. These bare root seedlings are 12 to 18 inches tall and cost $25 per hundred (minimum order) and are sold in multiples of 50.

Seedlings ordered now will be ready for pickup and planting in March 1983. There will be fewer trees available this year due to early season hail. Trees sold by the Texas Forest Service may not be used for landscaping or ornamental purposes.

For information and applications, contact the Soil Conservation Service, Box 430, Floydada, 983-2352; or the Agriculture Extension Agent, Court-house Ag. Building, Floydada, 983-2806.

Agricultural leaders set meeting

A Farm Leadership Conference will be held in Lubbock, on October 21, 1982. The purpose of the meeting is to analyze the 1983 farm programs and the importance of farmers' participation in them. It is planned primarily for the agricultural news media and officers and leaders of agricultural organizations and commodity groups who will be responsible for disseminating information about the 1983 programs to their members. Leaders of the nation's major farm organizations are expected to be present.

The 1983 programs for feed grains, wheat, cotton, rice and soybeans will be reviewed along with the basic alternatives of each. A comparison of the effects of full participation versus low farmer participation will be made.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. at Plains Co-op Oil Mill, 2901 Avenue A, Lubbock, Texas. Sponsoring organizations include: Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organization, Grain Sorghum Producers Association, Texas Wheat Growers Association, Texas Soybean Association, American Rice, Inc. and Women Involved in Farm Economics.

CONGRESSMAN JACK HIGHTOWER meets with the Hon. E. Roy Roybal, a Japanese trade delegation. In Hightower's Washington office, Roybal is a member of the Diet or Japanese Congress, and is in the U.S. to meet with members of Congress on American-Japanese trade issues. Roybal is Mr. Nakao to tell his government that Japan should allow the import of Texas and American farm products. Presently Japan maintains restrictions but is under pressure to liberalize its trade policy. Japanese trade surplus and a weakened U.S. economy.

Fall Copper Applications Reduce Peach Diseases

Between October 15 and November 15 most areas in Texas will need to make a Kocide application on their peach trees to prevent leaf curl. This is a disease that is erratic in its occurrence and in many years is not a problem, however, once the disease is present it is too late to control it. A fall application of Kocide 101 just as the foliage begins to fall from the tree is the best time for controlling the fungus. Applications of Kocide applied before this time will cause defoliation and should the fall weather be extended and rains occur, new leaf growth will be forced out which will reduce the amount of stored food in the tree. This will then weaken the tree next year. The Kocide application in addition to controlling peach leaf curl will have a positive effective in reducing the amount of bacterial canker that occurs by reducing the movement of the bacteria into the leaf scars at the time of defoliation. This should not be considered as a complete control program but is one step of the program for reducing losses from bacterial canker.

Kocide is also effective in reducing the carry over bacterial leaf spot on the tree. It is important that the Kocide be applied just as the foliage is beginning to drop from the trees in the fall. As indicated earlier this occurs in most cases sometime between October 15 and November 15. The rate is 2 lb Kocide/100 gal. water or 1 1/2 tbs/gal. water. It is important when spraying Kocide to thoroughly soak the tree to

CCC loan interest rate lowered to 11%

Commodity and farm storage loans disbursed in October by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Commodity Credit Corporation will carry on 11 percent interest rate, according to acting CCC Executive Vice President C. Hoke Leggett.

The new rate, down from 12 percent, reflects the interest rate charged CCC by the U.S. Treasury in October, Leggett said.
