Rodeo slated tonight

The 27th annual Floydada rodeo kicks off tonight and continues through Saturday, July 28. The T.C.R.A. sanctioned event will be held at the rodeo grounds east of Floydada and the three performances are slated to begin at 8:00 p.m.

Joe Mack Tilson reported that "the Terrell Rodeo Company out of Roaring Springs, producer of the event, has some of the best bucking bulls and horses in the country at this time. There will also be good clowns to entertain the crowd."

Each night comprises a variety of events including bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, girl's barrel racing and team roping.

The special attraction of the rodeo will feature a calf dressing. Competitors who have signed up for the event include Monty Williams and Gary Brown from the First National Bank of Floydada, Sam Fortenberry and Darrell McCandless; and teams from Script Printing and Floydada Livestock. It is not too late to sign up for this event.

Admission for the rodeo will be $3.00 for adults, $1.50 for children over twelve and no charge for those under 12.

After the performances on Friday and Saturday night, a dance will be held on the slab at the rodeo grounds with music by Lynn Gibson and Wildfire. Admission to the dance is $3.00 for singles and $5.00 per couple.

The rodeo queen will be crowned Saturday night. The contestants are Tonya West, Lorie Knight, and Angie Hinsley. Contestants vying for the title of Princess are Branda Breed, Jo Lee Ellis, Misti Lobban and Tiffany Bennett.

Tonya West is the eighteen year old daughter of Jimmie Jo West of Floydada. Her hobbies include horseback riding and ceramics. Tonya is currently attending an aviation academy in Arlington, Texas.

Lorie Knight is the sixteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knight and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breed of Floydada. Swimming, horseback riding, and playing the flute in the Whirlwind band are among the hobbies enjoyed by Lorie. Her sponsor is My-T Burger.

Angie Hinsley is the fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hinsley. Angie raises show calves through the local 4-h program and is active in the organization.

Branda Breed, daughter of Joe Mack and Debbie Breed, is eleven years old. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breed of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones of Brownwood. Branda likes to ride horses, run the barrels, and also enjoys swimming and skating.

Jo Lee Ellis is the twelve year old daughter of Otis and Dana Ellis. A member of the junior high cheerleading squad, her hobbies include swimming, roller skating and playing the piano.

Misti Lobban is the daughter of Birch and Diann Lobban of Floydada. A member of the 4-h Horse Club, Misti enjoys riding her horse, Sucker Rod, swimming, and playing sports.

Tiffany Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bennett, is ten years old and a member of the 4-h horse program. Tiffany also participated in the baseball program this summer.

The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

Well the show in San Francisco is over and the teams are in place. Now we begin the long march to November.

The Democrats have gathered, if that is the word, around Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro, the liberal Congresswoman from New York, and will go forth and do battle with Ronald Reagan and George Bush. Most of the special interests that make up the backbone of today's national democratic party were pacified to the extent that they at least left that strange town congratulating themselves on the fact that they had a relatively peaceful convention. To an extent they are unified, but one wonders how the folks back home will react, not only to the convention, but to the chain of events leading up to the convention, which, more often than not, paints a much better picture of reality than the television presentation of actual proceedings.

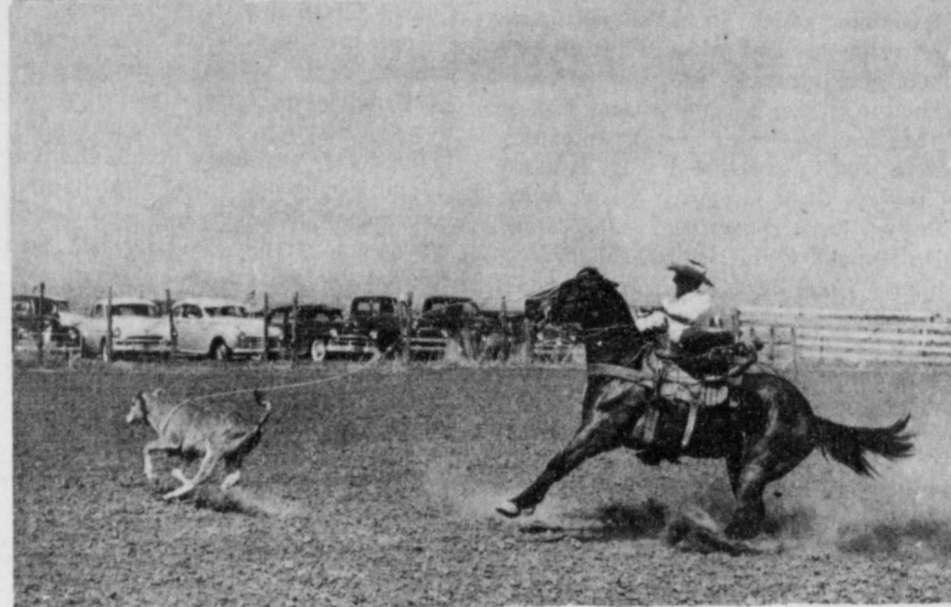

On the eve of the convention Senator Fritz Hollings of South Carolina, himself an early casualty in the primary battles, was quoted in the Wall Street Journal as saying of his fellow Democrats "We chase around like a bunch of scrippers...zapping the president with oneliners--totally oblivious to the distance between real America and Democratic rhetoric."

Some of that distance is revealed in a recent survey of voter attitudes in West Texas. The survey was completed just before the convention, and others will come soon, I am told. It takes in all the South Plains and most of the Panhandle. Unless things change drastically, Reagan will win in a walk in this area. The survey asked many questions, but to the crucial question of "If the election for President were held today, and you had to make a choice, for which of the following candidates would you probably vote, Ronald Reagan the Republican or Walter Mondale the Democrat?" the voter response was an overwhelming 63% for Reagan and 34% for Mondale.

I do not believe the selection of Ms. Ferraro as a running mate will help change that at all, particularly when Texans contemplate the fact that before Mondale selected Ms. Ferraro, he rejected Lloyd Bentsen, the Democratic Senator from Texas, and Henry Cisneros, the Mayor of San Antonio. Oh, Bentsen and Cisneros will both be out there beating the drums for Mondale. They can do little else. But nothing is going to change the fact that Mondale essentially wrote off the state of Texas in an effort to carry the Northeast.

There is of course no way the vote in November, in Texas, will be as one sided as the polls now indicate. Traditional party ties will tend to narrow the gap. Jessie Jackson's involvement will energize the black vote, probably to an extent not seen in this state before. The homosexual community, pleased by the favorable treatment given them by the Mondale forces in charge of the platform committee, will do their bit to RAZ WARE, at 19, competes at a rodeo during the 50's.

AT THE SAME age, Clinton Ware ropes a calf at a rodeo during the 80's.

Two generations of Wares compete in rodeos

By Cindy Smith

W.R. (Raz) Ware of Cedar Hill competed in rodeos as a calf roper during the "dry years of the fifties," and has noted a metamorphosis during the last thirty years. Clinton, his son, and a second generation calf roper, ropes in area rodeos and will participate in this week's rodeo in Floydada.

Raz laughed and said, "One change I have noticed is that during the fifties, cowboys didn't need the help of Copenhagen to win an event. We didn't have much money during that period but we also did not have the expenses that are incurred now. Gasoline was sold for about 21 cents a gallon back then." Clinton looked ruefully and noted, "Now it's almost $1.21 a gallon."

Raz thought a minute and drawled, "The atmosphere of the rodeo has changed. During the fifties it was an event to anticipate weeks in advance and attracted massive crowds. I think television and all the activities we have tarnished that image a little. Rodeos find it hard to compete with the electronic world we live in today."

"Cowboys were different then. In my day, most of the men used the riding and roping skills on the job everyday. To practice, we would rope 10 or 15 head in a pasture and now they have modern chutes and corrals," Raz related.

Clinton added, "Cowboys attend roping schools now to develop and perfect the skills necessary to compete in rodeos. Today there are more good, tough ropers than there used to be." Raz agreed and said, "Then we had one good 'hot rod' roper who would stand out over a large area. Now colleges like Clarendon and Levelland emphasize and recognize rodeoing as a major sport," stated Clinton.

"Everything, has changed. During the fifties, grass ropes were used widely and often broke. To keep them in the proper condition, the ropes were kept in cans in order to keep the moisture controlled," explained Raz. "Now, nylon ropes are used mainly because they are much stronger and maintain the right stiffness."

"Facilities around the rodeo arenas are more modern now. During rodeos stock would often break out and on more than one occasion, I have seen Brahma bulls escape and journey downtown," Raz related.

"Horses are trained better now, but rodeos were more exciting then." Raz went on to explain that work horses were just taken off the ranch, thrown into the arena with a big Brahma and no one could predict what either animal might do. When officials were introduced during the opening ceremonies, half of the time they would be bucked off their horses. Horses are much gentler now and are bred better according to Raz Ware.

"They were just starting quarter horse breeding then and the horses used were half outlaw. We had to train our own horses and often did not do a very good job. Now, whenever a boy is interested in rodeoing, his dad goes out and buys him a high priced horse that has already been trained," added Ware.

Clinton said that there is more team roping now and when his father was competing, ribbon roping was popular. "We rope smaller calves now and I have heard my father say that they roped 300 pound Brahma calves," stated Clinton.

Raz agreed that the stock is easier in those days. "We saw more wrecks in those days. I think the recorded times are faster now because of the smaller calves being used. Maybe the cowboys are softer today," laughed Raz with a twinkle in his eye.

Raz explained that his father, Bill Ware, taught him how to rope in a pasture when he was 7 or 8. His father was a good roper, but never competed in a rodeo. "I began contesting when I was 18 and became a member of the Rodeo Cowboy Association. We had a lot of naturals back in those days and most of us thought it was an easy way to make money," said Raz. "We were not nearly as mobile as the rodeo contenders are today. We rode horses all the time."

"I traveled to Phoenix, Houston, Fort Worth, and all over the southwest participating in rodeos on the weekends. My most memorable experience was winning my first saddle in McClain, Texas. At the Amarillo rodeo in '53, I won $500 which was a lot of money in those days," related Raz.

"I stopped competing in 1965 because I wanted to devote more time to my family and share in their interests. I felt I needed to do more constructive things. I still rope for the fun of it; I don't think you ever get too old to enjoy the activity. I use the skill on the ranch, roping steers and calves -- I never want to hang my rope up," Raz admitted.

Clinton said that he began roping seriously when he was about 17 and was a member of the roping teams at Clarendon Junior College and Texas Tech University. He was a past director of the Floydada Rodeo Association, past president of the Clarendon Rodeo team and voted Cowboy of the Year in 1982 at Clarendon. Clinton was also affiliated with the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. Clinton related that he usually attends anywhere from 50 to 60 rodeos and ropings per year. Like his father, he usually travels to rodeos on the weekends.

The Eastern New Mexico University College Rodeo has been the highlight of Clinton's rodeo experience. He was with the Tech rodeo team two years ago and won $984 at this event. "However, regardless of the purses won, rodeoing

Gas rate hike suspended

A special meeting of the city council was held at city hall, Tuesday, July 24. Council members awarded the bid on reconstruction of the Floydada Municipal Airport to Applan Construction of Hereford in the amount of $224,388.39.

Members passed a resolution to call a public hearing on August 14, concerning the intent of Ener gas to increase natural gas rates 7.7%. The council also passed an order suspending the intended natural gas rate increase for a period of ninety days.

Canyon Club vandalized

According to the Sheriff's Department, sometime between the night of July 21st and morning of the 23rd the Canyon Club located on highway 62, south of Floydada, was broken into. Raymond Hamilton, Floyd County chief deputy stated that the perpetrators broke into the window on the south side of the building.

The cigarette machine and juke box were forced open. A door upstairs was pried open and a tire tool found nearby. Hamilton went on to relate that possibly a few bottles of liquor were taken.

JERRY MURRAY, Bill Hicks, Michael Hicks, and Brenda Hicks are ready to serve customers during their Grand Opening July 26-28.

Caprock Meat opens

Caprock Meat Company will celebrate its grand opening July 26, 27, and 28 with a drawing for a 1/4 beef and various specials. Bill Hicks is the new owner and manager of the company. Summer program ends

The Floyd County Library's summer reading program, "Magical Mysteries", ended July 18 with closing day festivities which included costumes, refreshments and prizes. First prize, a book of magic tricks, was won by Aimee Fondy. Fifteen second prizes, iron-on "Magical Mysteries" T-shirt transfers, were won by Heather Fondy, Brittany Gregory, Josh Gregory, Misty Avila, Betty Rose Drummond, Jon Dean Drummond, Elaine Gibbs, Austin Williams, Viola Hernandez, Joe Michael Hernandez, Casey Carthel, Corey Carthel, Kathy Burns, Amanda Jo Fawver and Jason Tilson. All winners were determined by drawing names from a box. Other reading club participants included Micheal Gilliland, Brandon Gilliland, Brent Gibbs, Amber Poole, Ashleigh Williams, Robert Eckert, Charlie Tilson and Kasey Vickers.

This year's reading program owes its success to the special help given by Sallye Galloway, Alissa Hambricht and Rebecca Redding, who presented story telling for the preschool group, Jim Bob Hambricht, who gave a delightful magic show for everyone, and Jackie Walls, who supplied the refreshments enjoyed by all on the closing day. Thanks to all these wonderful people from the children who came to this year's reading club, and especially from Sandra Crawford, who always appreciates their contributions.

letters to the editor ...

In reference to the letter to the editor in last week's paper, I regret that my comments concerning the proposed private club opening in Floydada were misconstrued. I am vehemently opposed to any establishment selling alcoholic beverages within Floyd County. In my capacity as probation officer and County judge, I have witnessed the problems that the consumption of alcohol can lead to—the destruction of families, of individuals, and a general degradation of the community as a whole.

On the subject of the County Library I agree with Mr. Probasco, in that the location of the present library is not satisfactory and not accessible to everyone. The Commissioners considered the building located at 211 E. Missouri as a possible site for the relocation of the library. I personally thought that it would be a good investment for the County and would establish the library on ground level.

The Court declined to take action at this time, however future long-range plans have not been shelved. As you know, Floyd County is an agricultural community and farmers and area businessmen have been hit hard in recent years by the declining economy. The County Commissioners believed that with the funds now available, in order to re-establish the library, additional funds would need to be raised. The Commissioners did not feel that a tax increase would be in the best interest of Floyd County residents at this time.

'84 Campaign starts

A steering committee for the re-election of Republican candidates in the November election met in the home of Bill Gray, Tuesday evening the 24th of July. Fourteen representatives from throughout the county outlined plans for the November campaign and according to Billy Gray, co-chairman of the Reagan-Bush re-election committee, evening's work showed progress toward the election.

The committee discussed President Gerald Ford's visit to Lubbock Friday, July the 27th. Interested persons are urged to attend a dinner on behalf of Larry Combest, who is running for Kent Hance's vacant seat, at the Holiday Inn Civic Center at 6:30 p.m.

Members of the committee also discussed the visit of a major candidate during the Floyd County Fair or later during the campaign.

Volunteers are needed to work in different aspects of the campaign within Floyd County. Interested persons in Floydada should contact Floyd County co-chairman for the Reagan-Bush campaign, Bill Gray at 983-5440, or co-chairman, Hank Blanchard in Lockney at 652-2712.

Bill Hale encouraged all residents of Floyd County to welcome Congressman Phil Gramm at an airport rally Saturday, August 4, at 4:30 p.m. at the Floydada Municipal Airport. Bill Gray stated, "It is not often that we have a major candidate visit Floyd County and I hope that we have a good turnout that will entice other candidates to make similar trips."

Gray went on to say that although the steering committee is very optimistic about all the Republican candidates and the '84 campaign, in view of the overwhelming turnout in 1980, the Floyd County Republicans are still leaving no stone unturned.

is not a profitable sport," Clinton explains. "The expenses nearly always outweigh the profit. For me, roping is mainly a hobby. I work with my dad and often drive a tractor until 6:00 p.m., get off, load my horse and head for a rodeo that night."

"My dad has been the principal influence in my life," Clinton went on to say, "He has been my teacher, coach, and inspiration."

June Ware, Raz's wife of 25 years, stated, "It requires a lot of self discipline to develop the skills, to practice and perfect them. It entails a lot of concentration."

Raz added, "The skills can be useful. The experience acquired through roping and riding competition can be applied to the daily routine of life on a ranch and at times these skills are desperately essential."

For those beginning the sport, Clinton warns, "They better have a lot of money. However, he and Raz agree that the sport is beneficial to the character and enjoyable."

"The enthusiasm of the ropers promote the sport. You get a certain elation when you win," stated Clinton. Raz agreed saying, "The sport gives you a psychological lift."

The Loft is featured

The Loft is the featured business as the Floydada annual rodeo approaches. Kay Hicks, manager, has been with the firm, owned by Lon Davis, for four years. The Loft specializes in men's western wear and women's sport and casual wear.

Resistol hats, in straw and felt are carried in the store, as well as belts and buckles by Tony Lama. Hand braided belts are also available in a variety of colors.

Wranglers are convenient to shoppers in an assortment of sizes and cuts. Men's dress western pants are also on hand in a variety of colors.

Long sleeve and short sleeve western shirts featuring brands of Prior, Miller, and Wrangler are ready for rodeo-goers whether one is a bronc rider or a drug-store cowboy.

Hicks states that the ladies and junior department underlines active and sportswear. Lady Lee Wrangler jeans in an assortment of sizes as well as a varied array of blouses can adapt to any life style.

Hicks stresses that there is always a sale rack filled with quality clothing at a reduced price. She also related that a layaway plan with 1/3 down has been helpful to the customer shopping for school needs.

Kay Hicks is a mother and a wife, as well as clothes buyer and manager. For more see related article on Caprock Meat. She stated that she entered this business because she enjoyed buying clothes, keeping up with the latest styles and considered the job a challenge.

Kay Hicks wants to invite old customers back and introduce new customers to The Loft. Women can see the current styles in casual wear. A variety of boots are available to men that are very competitively priced, as well as an outstanding selection of western clothing. Kay said, "Since we are located on the edge of town, customers have to put forth a special effort to drive to our location. However, once they get here, the extra inconvenience is worthwhile."

Kay also wants to remind residents that the Floydada rodeo will be held the 26, 27, and 28 of July and urges citizens to come out and support it. Rodeo specials will be available in the store during this week.

prove they are worthy of the Party's designation of homosexuals as a special grouping deserving of special attention. And the state's liberal community, frightened by the prospect of Reagan naming more members of the Supreme Court, will send Jim Hightower and Ann Richards scurrying around the state, attacking the President on all fronts.

Still, when all is said and done, there is "the people". And I have the feeling that they have pretty much made up their minds, having witnessed Reagan in office and Mondale on the campaign trail. It is that, as much as anything else, that has resulted in the "distance" alluded to by Hollings.

Gramm comes to city

U.S. Republican Phil Gramm, candidate for the U.S. Senate, will attend a news conference for Floyd County media at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 4, at the Floydada Airport to discuss his candidacy.

Gramm is best known for co-authoring the Reagan economic recovery program, and for resigning from Congress and winning re-election as a Republican after Tip O'Neill stripped him of his Budget committee seat in reprisal for his successful efforts to control spending.

The congressman, who won the Republican nomination with an extraordinary 73% of the vote against three opponents who spent a total of $4 million, said Texans deserve an issue-oriented campaign in the general election race for the U.S. Senate this year.

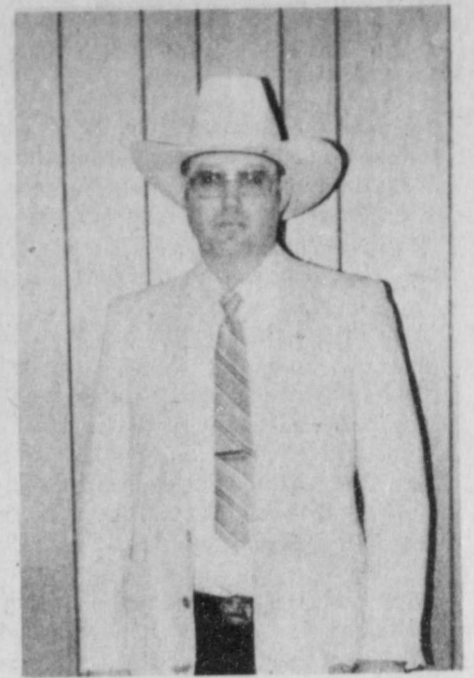

"The people of Texas face a clear choice between two dedicated advocates of distinctly different philosophies of government," Gramm said. "I have spent six years in Congress working for a balanced budget, lower taxes, greater economic opportunity for the working people of this country and a strong defense."

Where Congressman Gramm introduced a balanced budget amendment to the Constitution on his first day in Congress--January 3, 1979--Lloyd Doggett voted against the resolution adopted by the Texas Legislature which urged approval of the balanced budget amendment. Doggett also has opposed the balanced budget amendment in his primary and runoff campaigns.

A survey conducted on May 8-9 by noted Texas pollster Lance Tarrance showed Gramm with an 11-point lead over Doggett.

Congressman Gramm's stop here is part of 75-city swing "aimed at continuing to build on our grassroots base of support for the November general election."

JAMES WILLIAMS of Floydada was appointed Adult Probation Officer for the 110th Judicial District on May 9th by State District Judge George Miller.

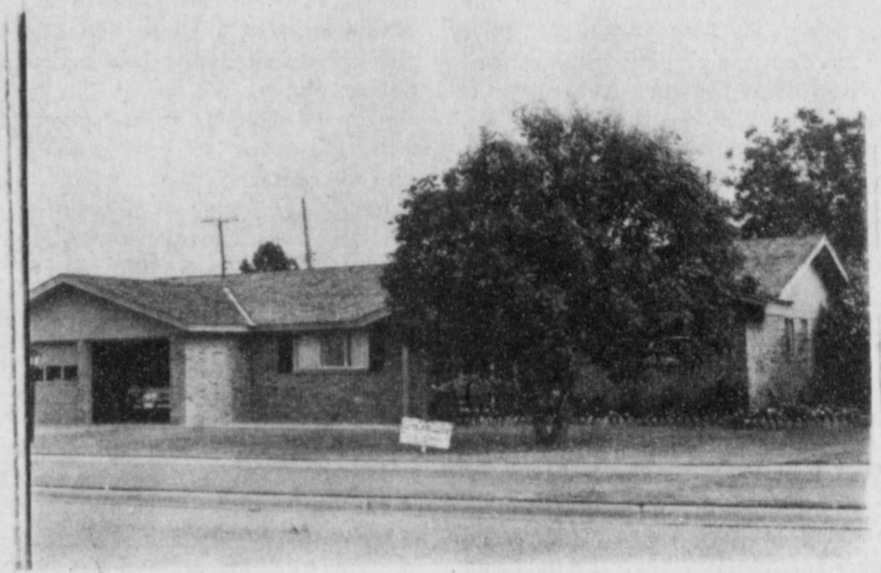

Probasco & Gray win

Bill Gray of Floydada and Sara Probasco of South Plains community were winners in their divisions of the Crosby County Cultural Classic Arts Festival, held at the Pioneer Museum in Crosbyton last weekend, (July 20-21). According to Festival Registrars, there were over 450 entries from a wide area, including New Mexico, Oklahoma, and many cities throughout the state of Texas.

Divisions included many categories of photography, painting (oil, watercolor and pastel), sculpture, stained glass, and mixed-media. The contest was judged by Paul Milosevich of Taos, New Mexico, fine arts divisions, and Jim Childress, of Lubbock, photography division.

Gray won second place for his leather-art entitled "The Bulldogger", a western art design, hand-tooled in natural leather, depicting men on horseback roping cattle. A self-frame of leather framed a variety of brands from around the area.

Sara Probasco took a first place award for her stained glass design entitled "Pheasants", a 24"x48" design featuring a pair of life-sized pheasants, etched clover, and Brazilian agate. She also took a third-place ribbon on another large piece entitled "King of Kings", a religious design of the Art Nouveau period which incorporated some very old glass from one of the local church windows.

Snipes-Cagle exchange wedding promises

Sheila Jo Snipes and Billy Jay Cagle were united in marriage Saturday, June 30, at the First Church of the Nazarene in an afternoon candlelight ceremony. Benjamin Johnston, brother-in-law of the bride, officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snipes of Clovis. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Artie Cox and Mrs. Jake Snipes, all of Clovis.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cagle of Floydada. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. B.D. Vick of Brownwood, Texas, and Mrs. Jo Cagle of Tulsa.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. The elegant altar was filled with nine gazebo panels. Each open window panel was adorned with either a seven branch brass candelabra or a large basket of peach and light blue flowers. On each corner of the altar was a circular nine branch brass candelabra entwined with flowers. The double kneeling bench, large green palms, and potted greenery, filled the nuptial area. The center aisle was adorned with individual pew markers of peach and blue flowers and bows with peach votive candles on each pew. Large pew markers of three candles in chimneys on brass stands marked the area for the parents and grandparents. The stairways leading from the balcony on each side of the church was draped with garlands of white staphanotis and greenery. An arch at the foot of each stairway formed the setting for the bridesmaids who entered from the balcony. They were met at the archway by the groomsmen and escorted to the altar, where they awaited the entrance of the bride.

The bride was lovely in a formal length white gown. An original creation fashioned of pure silk chiffon veiled over silk taffeta, accented with imported venise lace and schiffli embroidered lace. The fitted bodice formed a sweetheart neckline with an off the shoulder short puff sleeve. Beautiful organza petal flowers with seed pearls outlined the entire neckline and extended around to the back. The semi-full skirt of silk chiffon veiled over silk taffeta unfolded across the center back to form a magnificent chapel length train. Two rows of schiffli embroidered lace edged the hemline. Her white picture hat was overlaid in schiffli embroidered lace, accented with pearls and sequins with the back silk illusion extending into a lovely fingertip length veil. She wore schiffli lace open finger gloves and white lace shoes. She carried a cascade of fresh white phalaenopsis orchids, white roses, and staphanotis intertwined with long stems of english ivy, atop a lace covered Bible.

Observing tradition for something old, the bride and bridegroom wore in their shoes a penny minted in the birth year of the bride and the bridegroom; for something blue, a garter of white lace trimmed in blue ribbon made by her aunt, Wanda Snipes; something borrowed was pearl and diamond earrings belonging to her mother; her bridal gown and hat was worn for something new. She wore a beautiful strand of graduated pearls purchased in the Orient for her wedding day and brought to her by her uncle Jim Price.

while serving in the Vietnam War. The bridegroom was attired in a designer tuxedo by Bill Blass of pearl grey with tails. The white tuxedo, wing collar shirt was accented with grey stain lapels, a bow tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was a white staphanotis and white rose bud matching the bridal bouquet.

Serving as matron of honor was Sheri Johnston, sister of the bride. She wore a peach taffeta ballerina length dress with matching satin ballerina shoes and a peach eyelet embroidered lace jacket with a taffeta cummerbund. She wore a peach veiled hat with crocheted gloves, and carried an arrangement of fresh peach and white roses with baby's breath and english ivy. Maid of honor was Valinda Spangler, bridesmaids were Pam Hewett, Robin Morgan, and Brenda Vaught. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor. Erin Hickerson, daughter of Stan and Lianna Hickerson, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She was adorable in a ballerina length peach taffeta dress designed with a full shirt edged with a ruffle and white lace. The dress was completed with a white dotted swiss pinafore accented with lace and peach ribbon. She wore a peach hat, white gloves and white ballerina shoes. Her white and peach lace basket was filled with rose petals.

John Cagle, served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were David Foster, Mark Moon, Cliff Campbell, and Scotty Snipes. They all wore designer tuxedos by Bill Blass of pearl grey fashioned like the groom, without tails. The candlelighters were Nelson Franse and Nathan Price, who also served as ushers along with Jon Jones, and Robert Coolidge. They were dressed exactly like the groomsmen. The ring bearer, Erik Erwin, son of Larry and Micky Erwin, was dressed identical to the groomsmen. Erik carried a grey antique satin pillow with grey tassels and grey satin ribbon designed to hold the rings.

The mother of the bride wore a two piece street length dress of ecru lace. The groom's mother wore a street length dress of periwinkle blue lace. The father of the bride and groom wore black tuxedos by Bill Blass.

Selected pre-nuptial organ music was presented by Nancy Gressette. Stan and Lianna Hickerson each presented a solo and also sang two duets accompanied by Gary Johnston, pianist, and Nancy Gressette, organist. After the grandmothers and mothers were seated Lianna Hickerson sang "Two Candles", as Nelson Franse and Nathan Price lighted the candles. The groom, groomsmen, bridesmaids and brde entered to the musical selection of "Trumpet Voluntary". A congregational hymn of praise was then sung as everyone remained standing, entitled "Come Thou Almighty King". The parents of the groom and the mother of the bride then joined the bride and groom and father of the bride at the altar as Lianna and Stan sang a duet, "As for Me and My House". Then the bride and groom were given in marriage. A duet entitled "Author of Love" was presented and the vows were exchanged. As the couple knelt at the kneeling bench Stan Hickerson sang "Thine Be the Glory".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Hostesses for the event were Wanda Snipes, Linda Geries, Jerry Franse, JoNan Price, and Nancy Hewett, assisted by circle five of the First United Methodist Church. Serving at the bride's table were Reagan Campbell, sister of the groom, and Rene Smith, cousin of the bride. Serving at the groom's table was Lynn Schmid, and Dondra Lonsdale. Lynn Schmid also registered the guests.

The bride's table was covered in a white floor length embroidered eyelet cloth. The lovely three tiered, all white, cake was separated by columns with fresh bouquets of flowers consisting of peach roses, staphanotis, and baby's breath on all three layers. Fresh flowers also encircled the bottom layer of the cake. The punch, made by Linda Geries, was a peach flavored slush served in a beautiful brass punch bowl. A thirteen branch brass candelabra with peach candles and fresh flowers completed the appointments. The groom's table was covered with a periwinkle blue floor length cloth with a white linen overlay and blue and white runner down the center. Appointments were a silver coffee service, five branch silver candelabra with blue candles and fresh flowers and silver trays filled with chocolates and nuts. The groom's cake was chocolate with light chocolate icing and personalized with Sheila and Rusty written in the center. Both cakes were made by Mrs. Wilma Barnes.

A rehearsal dinner given by the bridegroom's parents was held at Colonial Park Country Club with 35 present. A humorous story was read by Bill Cagle and toasts were made to the bride and groom. Gifts were given to all the wedding party. A brunch given in honor of the bride and bridesmaids was held at Colonial Park Country Club with 12 in attendance. for their honeymoon. They are now residing in Lubbock where the bridegroom is currently employed as an engineer for Furr's Cafeterias and the bride will be teaching in the fall at Hutchinson Jr. High.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Florence Van Hoose

Monday morning devotions were by Trinity Church. The singers were the Rev. G.A. Van Hoose, Dartha Westbrook, Shirley Varner, Mary Poole, Mildred Thrasher, and Lavada Garrett. Lavada sang a special song, "Because He Lives." The Rev. Van Hoose spoke about God's Love and how Jesus died for the sinner. In the afternoon we had a hot game of '42'. Our new resident, Ova McPherson, A.J. Huckabee, Emmit Lawrence, and Bonnie Howard played. They seemed to really enjoy the game.

Tuesday morning devotions were the Rev. and Mrs. Neeley Richardson. Second Timothy 3-16 was his scripture. He spoke about speaking kindly to each other and comforting one another. We all enjoyed the devotion and also the banana break. Rev. Neeley brings bananas to all the residents and the staff each week. We appreciate this act of kindness very much. In the afternoon we had a time of Bible Study about showing love and kindness to those around us. Then we had the resident's council meeting. Myra Hall was appointed to the council, to take Irene Fuller's place, since she has moved away from the home.

Wednesday morning, Lucy Pettit's sister and brother-in-law brought donuts for all the residents and the staff. We appreciate this and the donuts were very good. Wednesday morning devotions were by City Park Church of Christ. The singers were Evelyn Pollan, Beulah Baker, Eva Tackett, Vernola Hanna, Lula Teague, Lorilla Bradley, Mary Spears, Elva Blum, and Eunice Hardy. Wednesday afternoon we went on the bus ride. We rode over to Plainview, stopped on the way and got some cucumbers then on to the Sonic Drive-in and we were treated with ice cream cones. The residents going on the bus ride were Iva Simpson, Sue Thompson, Addie Lindley, Dozier Dilard, A.J. Huckabee, Ruth Benson, Lura Brashears, Ruth Benson, and Ollie Birnie. We appreciate Evelyn Pierce very much for taking us on the bus ride each week. We all look forward to it.

Thursday morning devotions were omitted because Rev. Earl Blair was unable to be here. In the afternoon the residents were treated with bananas and blueberry muffins by Rubie Ratjen from the Sunshine Sunday School class from the First Baptist Church. We also played Bingo Thursday afternoon. Lura Brashears bingo'ed first and got the 30 cent coke money. Ollie Birnie won on the blackout and Myra Hall bingo'ed the most times. Candy and fruit were the prizes.

Friday morning devotions were by Mary Corley, Mrs. Fawer, and Oleta Wilson. Oleta led the singing. Mary spoke about learning to grow and following Jesus. In the afternoon several of the residents played dominos. Visitors have included: Jo Walker, Buster Mooney, Allene Henry, Grady and Esther Freeman, Ruby Gooch, Millie Burgett, Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Hartness, Lucille Sisson, Leona Mayo, Dolores Cannon, Ernestine Gilly, Janice Davis, Ruby Gooch, Opal Kratzer, Zula Mae Emert, Deoota Odum, Marvin and Vertie Powell, Bill and Tenia Cooper, from Crosbyton; Charley L. Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

New "Premises Work Charges"

There has been an important change recently regarding telephone wiring. The change involves the installation and repair of jacks and "inside wiring."
Inside wiring is required from the point where our lines end in a "network interface." On most new homes, this interface—a large plastic box—is usually installed near the power meter. (In new apartments, it's usually located near the circuit breaker box.)
If you don't have a new home, you probably don't have a network interface (we just started installing them in 1982). Instead, you have a similar device called a "protector."
Like a network interface, the protector is the point where our line ends and your inside wiring begins.
Until recently, we did all the installation and repair of wiring inside our customers' homes. We will still perform that work if you ask us—but the way the work is charged has now changed.
If we do the wiring, we'll now bill you "Premises Work Charges." These charges are billed for each 15-minute period required on the job. Charges cover all costs associated with the work, including materials, but costs differ for installation and repair.
Here's how the charges break down if we do the work for you:

		PREMISES WORK CHARGES FOR JACKS AND INSIDE WIRING
		8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday	Other Times
Installation	Initial 15 Minutes	$18.50	$22.75	$27.00
	Each Additional 15 Minutes	$10.50	$12.50	$14.75
Repair	Initial 15 Minutes	$28.25	$31.75	$35.25
	Each Additional 15 Minutes	$10.50	$12.75	$15.00

If you don't wish to have Southwestern Bell Telephone perform the work, you now have two other options. Those are hiring someone else (such as an electrical contractor), or doing it yourself (materials are available from many retail stores).

New rates — Small increase to you

By now, you are probably aware that Southwestern Bell Telephone received final approval for a rate increase effective June 1, which included the change in Premises Work Charges. I say you are "probably aware," because most customers will hardly notice it on their local exchange phone bill.
The rate award sounds like a lot of money—and it is, but the increase for residence flat-rate local exchange service is only 30 cents per month, or less.
Most of the increase (about 89%) was put on one group—Texas' long distance companies (who pay for access to Southwestern Bell Telephone's network).

Grub control important

White grub control in lawns is important during the summer season. May or June beetles are emerging from the soil and starting to swarm in late evenings. Females are laying eggs and white grub worms that hatch will soon be feeding on roots of bermudagrass and buffalograss in home lawns. Once grubs begin feeding, control measures should be taken.

Treatment time varies with the particular area of the state and ranges from early July in South Texas to mid-August in the Panhandle. Homeowners here in Floyd County will need to treat between about July 25-August 20. Timing of application is critical for adequate control.

White grubs in excessive numbers can heavily damage lawns. Check for white grubs by cutting a square foot section of sod with a shovel and examining the roots and soil to a depth of 4 inches. Examine at least one square foot of sod for 1,000 square feet of lawn area. Chemical treatment is needed if there are more than four grubs per square foot of sod.

Diazinon, Durban, or Dylox provide adequate control and should be used at recommended rates given on the chemical container label. The granular form is easier to apply and to wash into the soil than liquid or spray formulations. After using granules, drag the grass with a tow sack or water hose to knock them down to the soil. Then apply enough water to soak the granules into the soil.

Apply diazinon sprays at the rate of 25 gallons of water, including the insecticide, per 1,000 square feet to wash the insecticide into the soil. Wetting the lawn before spraying also helps. Always keep children and pets off the treated lawn until the grass is dry.

The key to white grub control in home lawns is proper timing of chemical applications and getting the insecticide through the grass to the root zone where grubs are feeding.

Further information is provided in the publication, "White Grubs in Texas Turfgrass," available at the county Extension Office.

Alfalfa info given

Before Floyd County area alfalfa growers seed a new crop this fall, they should select seed proven in this area, check soil for fertility and prepare a good seed bed, says an agronomist for Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc.

"These important management practices should help farmers produce higher yields and better quality hay when they harvest the first cutting next spring," says Jim Higdon, director of agronomy service for the Southwestern Division of Pioneer.

He says that university and Pioneer field tests indicate that several commercial varieties are adapted to this area. One is Pioneer alfalfa variety 555, which has proven itself as a high-yielding, quality hay throughout the region.

In irrigated field tests conducted in Plainview from 1978-1982, Pioneer 555 had total per-acre production of more than 39 tons, compared to 33 tons for Texas common, he says.

"According to the Oklahoma State University/Central Alfalfa Improvement Conference report for 1983, Pioneer variety 555 had the highest production record among 23 commercial varieties in regional yield tests conducted the past four years," he says.

"Farmers can expect five to six years of production from this variety. It is a semi-dormant alfalfa which is high in forage quality and bred specifically to withstand the extreme weather conditions found in the Southwest. It has a high leaf-to-stem ratio and excellent heat tolerance, high disease and aphid resistance and fast recovery after harvesting."

Higdon says that prior to planting any alfalfa seed, farmers should have soil samples analyzed to determine how much, if any, phosphate and potash will be needed. These fertilizers are important elements in alfalfa production.

He says that under normal circumstances, seed should be planted at a rate of 15 to 20 pounds per acre at a soil depth of a quarter to a half inch. Seed should be planted in late August or early September so a proper stand can be established before the first freeze.

For more management tips for growing alfalfa or other regional crops, contact Higdon in Plainview.

Cotton prices drop

U.S. cotton prices dropped in June largely because of improved crop prospects over the dryland acreage across the Southern High Plains of Texas. The market lost in about two weeks what it had gained in five weeks. This is typical of price movements during the weather market. Some growers who watch and plot prices daily were able to take advantage of the rally and price their cotton accordingly.

The market will now be responding more to the fundamentals of supply and demand. Trading has slowed in most markets. The crop is making good progress across the Cotton Belt. The first planted acreage report for 1984 cotton was 11.3 million acres, which was in line with trade expectations. Good yields on that acreage would easily balance supply and demand for the 1984 crop. With market prices presently somewhat lower than in the first half of the year, prospects for a sizable deficiency payment remain good. Carry-over, at the end of the 1984 crop year currently is not expected to reach the 3.7 million bale level necessary to trigger the 25 percent acreage set aside provision for the 1985 crop.

Export demand holds the key to offtake of U.S. cotton. Foreign production and export shipment for the next 12 months are subject to both weather conditions and policies of foreign governments.

Given the uncertainty, present trends suggest a sharp drop in U.S. cotton exports. As a result, carryover stocks a year from now may increase. That would normally put downward pressure on markets.

"I was surprised how quick the variety was ready to graze."

"In fact, some of my neighbors tried to rent my pasture when they saw how much better established it was than others all around us."

Pioneer® variety 2157 gets off to a fast start, quickly establishing the kind of healthy, vigorous growing stand so necessary for good pasture. Its upright growth habit helps provide maximum available grazing.

And because 2157 has proven to be such a good yielder, you can count on it to deliver top-quality wheat at season's end.

If pasture is part of your wheat program, new 2157 should be, too.

New Wheat Variety 2157

Superior Yield • Excellent Standability • Outstanding Grazing

"When I pulled my combine into the field, I knew for sure this wasn't an ordinary wheat crop."

"That 2157 was standing out there good and straight. And when I moved down the rows, I could hear the cylinders running full."

Farmers who've seen this impressive new high yielding variety like its standability and tolerance to dry growing periods and severe weather. It has excellent resistance to leaf rust, fungal leaf blights, soil borne mosaic virus and the Hessian fly.

In side-by-side comparisons, Pioneer® brand 2157 wheat has consistently out-yielded other popular varieties. And it has shown consistently high test weights.

PUBLIC NOTICE

AT&T Communications has filed with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to introduce a new intrastate, optional long distance service to begin August 1, 1984, the same date "Reach Out® America" plan will be available for interstate calls.

A new service designed to give customers the opportunity to reduce the cost of long distance in Texas has been filed with the state PUC by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc.

"Reach Out® Texas" is an optional calling plan which will provide additional discounts on long distance rates for Texas customers who frequently place calls in the evening, weekend, and night time calling periods.

The new "Reach Out® Texas" plan for the first time extends the benefits of competition to many Texas consumers who previously have not had any discounted long distance service available to them.

AT&T Communications customers who choose this new optional service will pay a monthly charge of $14 which entitles them to one hour of intrastate "Direct Dialed" (1+) calling during the weekend and night rate period.

An additional customer savings for those participating in the plan will be that any Direct Dialed calls placed during the weekend and night rate period that exceeds the one hour period will be charged at an hourly rate of $12, or $.20 per minute.

Customers selecting this option also receive an additional 15 percent discount for intrastate Direct Dialed calls during the evening discount rate period for a total savings of approximately 38 percent.

A one-time charge of $6 is billed when a customer orders the "Reach Out® Texas" plan. The $6 is collected by AT&T Communications and paid to the local telephone company to establish the service. This charge will be waived during the first 90 days that the offering is available.

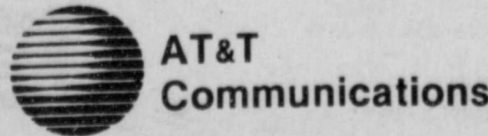

AT&T Communications is proud to offer this optional service for its Texas long distance customers and will in the future continue to introduce cost cutting programs to help Texans reduce their long distance bills.

A complete copy of the "Reach Out® Texas" tariff and rate schedule is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas.

AT&T Communications estimates that the revenue impact of this new service would be significantly less than 2.5 percent of annual gross revenues.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

*Customer billing for the optional calling plan will be provided for AT&T Communications through billing contracts with the local telephone companies. Therefore, the introduction of these rate plans into a specific area is contingent upon local company billing capabilities. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has agreed to handle the billing in its service areas effective August 1, 1984.

Deadline extended

The deadline for registering for classes in clay sculpture or wood carving has been extended to include today (Thursday, July 26). Anyone wishing to take either or both of these classes MUST have fees in by 5:00 p.m. today in order to register. The classes are scheduled to begin Monday evening, July 30, at 7:00 p.m. However, if there are not more students registered by this evening, the classes will be cancelled, due to insufficient interest.

The instructor that has been engaged for these classes is Judy Kracke, of Amarillo. She is presently working on her PhD in Fine Arts at West Texas State University, and is an art teacher at West Texas State and at Amarillo College. Ms. Kracke has been a professional artist for most of her adult life, and has had a number of one-man shows. Some of her work may be seen in the Louisiana Museum of Natural History.

Wood carving classes are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings (July 30-August 1) from 7:00-10:00 p.m. Clay sculpture classes are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings from 9:00-12:00 a.m. However, if you wish to take one of these classes at the opposite time period, this can be arranged. Cost of instruction is $45 per class, with a supplies fee of around $5. Tools will be provided.

The classes will be held at Sara Probasco's studio at South Plains (about 17 miles north of Floydada on the Silverton highway). Carpooling will be available for anyone who needs a ride. Floyd County Arts Association is sponsoring these classes. It will really be a shame if the Association is forced to cancel this wonderful opportunity to have quality art instruction brought to our county, but they will be forced to do so, if the instructor's fees and expenses cannot be met. Don't delay. If you're interested, call 983-3834 or 652-3771.

A canny farmer was approached by a stranger one day and asked how much he thought his prize cow was worth. The farmer thought for a moment, looked the stranger over, then said: "Are you the tax assessor or has she been killed by your car?"

Business will continue to go where invited and will remain where appreciated.

We appreciate "The City Connection"--a new store in Lockney featuring children's clothes. Be sure to stop by and see all of the beautiful, new merchandise there. (Don't miss our stained glass designs in their front windows.) Congratulations, Lisa and Kathy. Good luck on your new business.

CENTER NEWS

by Mrs. J.E. Green

July 24:

Good morning, everybody! I am home again after a month visiting down state at Hubbard, home of my daughter, Margaret Ryman and family. I didn't mean to be away so long. I found it the time to be brought home the time for the family vacation time had arrived. So we started Friday P.M.

The first stop was Brownwood where Nancy had some messages to deliver. Then to Abilene where two daughters live. All dined out for supper together and a long visit together Saturday. In the late afternoon we took off to Lubbock where another daughter and family (Sarah and Doug Chandler) and two children (2 of my great grands) live.

Sunday morning I and the four of the "still at home" Ryman children left Lubbock for Floydada and Calvary Baptist Church.

The whole group including the Chandlers dined with me.

While I enjoy visiting with my children and attend their churches on Sunday I am also glad to be in Calvary again. And to see my own white house again. (Be it ever so humble--)

Other relatives who came in the afternoon were Victor and Sue Green of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Latta, Floydada. Yesterday the Ryman left for Clydes in Peralta, New Mexico, who are just back from Seattle. More later.

He attended classes in computer programming and journalism as well as participating in Mind Bender sessions, Quiz Kid competition, Trivia Pursuit and athletic events. He received an award as outstanding team member in the computer programming competition.

Kevin, 13, is the son of Mike and Phyllis Badgett, grandson of Peck and Frances Badgett, and great-grandson of Burmah Probasco.

His brother, Kyle Badgett, recently went to Camp Constantine, a Boy Scout camp on Possum Kingdom Lake. He survived the 104° to 107° temperature and earned three merit badges.

Kyle, 11, is a Tenderfoot Scout.

Mike Badgett, son of Peck and Frances Badgett, employed by Bell Helicopter of Ft. The Badgetts will reside in Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania, until the summer of 1986.

Marker dedicated July 22

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ferguson were among the relatives and friends attending the dedication ceremonies Sunday, July 22, of a historical marker commemorating her grandparents and uncle, William Miles and Mary Ida Dye, and their son Roy Lee. Roy was the first white boy born in Armstrong County.

Roy was born April 17, 1892, in a half-dugout located 13 miles south of Claude on State Highway 207 and 2.5 miles east on FM 2272. The lower portion of the dugout is still visible.

The Will Dyes moved to Armstrong County from Cooke County in a covered wagon in 1891, a time when there was no fence between the present site of Claude and Palo Duro Canyon.

They lived in the dugout for several years and were there at the time of the false Indian scare when women and children in the area took refuge in dugouts.

Mr. Dye hauled rocks from the Palo Duro Canyon to Claude to help build the Courthouse and jail house.

When the house was moved from this location to another place, Mrs. Dye was not one to let it interfere with her home work. While the house was being moved on a wagon, she finished cooking lunch for the men that were helping move it.
