There's going to be big doings in Floyd County this weekend. The Floyd County Fair gets underway Thursday and ends with the crowning of Queens, big and little, Saturday night.

A County Fair is somewhat like a picnic dinner. Everyone puts in a little, and gets out a lot. This one promises to be a treat for everyone, so plan on being part of the festivities. Many of our citizens have put in long, hard hours so the rest of us can celebrate. Let them know we appreciate their effort. Don't let them down by being a no-show.

Elsewhere in today's paper you can find a schedule of events for the fair. Check it out and make as many as you can.

Actually we have a good bit to celebrate this year. This area is a veritable paradise compared with much of the state. Below the caprock and all the way to the coast, crops leave a lot to be desired. The central part of the state, the Hill Country, the Gulf Coast, all have had a rough year. It is only when one rises above the caprock that the eyes are met with abundant greenery and lush crops.

I know these are nervous times. Only when those crops are out of the fields and on their way to market will that nervousness end. But in the meantime, one of the best ways to beat that situation is to go to the Fair, relax, meet old friends, and applaud the winners.

I suppose this is as good a time as any to say something I've wanted to say for some time, but have avoided lest I end up sounding somewhat "preachy."

Perhaps our annual County Fair celebration is a good time to assess where we came from, where we are, and where we are going, as a community. I'll leave to historians the task of telling the story of where we came from; and to our political leaders the task of telling us where we are and where we are going, as they see it.

On the latter point, however, perhaps we can make at least one valid observation. Before we make that point it might be helpful to lay out our credentials, such as they are.

When I leave Floyd County and drive to the office in Austin, I put on another hat for a while. In that capacity I advise, for a substantial fee, people who wish to spend a great deal of money advancing the sale of ideas and merchandise. There are those who think the advice is valuable, or at least useful, for they keep coming back. In other words, it is a subject I know at least a little about.

Smaller communities all across Texas, and the nation for that matter, face a common danger. That is the tendency of people to travel to larger cities nearby to do a substantial amount of their shopping. Technically this is called "retail drift." It can be measured quite accurately, and it does indeed have an effect on the overall economic health of the community. Not just the local merchants, but all the people in the community.

For instance: The consumer price of practically every product sold carries a state sales tax. The lion's share of that tax stays with the state, but a portion is returned to the community where the sale was made. The city fathers can use that money for community-building. So when a citizen of Lockney, or Floydada, goes to Plainview or Lubbock to shop, he is, in a very real sense, contributing to the growth of the larger community, and to the decline of his own. In so doing, he is reducing the value of his own property, simply because that property becomes less valuable in a declining market in a declining community.

We don't want that to happen to this county, and we are convinced it won't. We believe we are in a wonderful, viable community that is going to grow and prosper. One of the things that will make that possible is the encouragement of a county-wide sense of community. And in that sense the County Fair, and all such endeavors, is very valuable.

I am not foolish enough to think that a few words from the Publisher is going to change, overnight, the shopping habits of our people. If potential shoppers feel

City makes Menefee Street paving a priority

In Tuesday night's regular meeting of the city council, city officials placed the paving of Menefee Street running on the west side of the track field on a priority list for 1985. The street serves as an access road from U.S. 82 to the hospital, rest home, and school. Residents of Stewart and Price 1st Addition of necessity must travel the high-traffic road. More than once the council has attempted to coordinate their resources with those of the county on this project for the welfare of residents and essential institutions of the southwest corner of Floydada. Referring to Menefee Street, city manager Bill Feuerbacher said, "Not much of it is even in the city limits but it would serve so many of our city residents." Approximately 50% or 333' of Crockett Street is within the city limits. The remainder of the unpaved portion lies in precinct 1 of Floyd County.

Sam Spence, commissioner of precinct 1, has agreed to split the work and the expense of putting sand and gravel on the roadway at a cost of $522 to each, the County and the City. Councilmen unanimously agreed to take that action at the present. "If we do that now, I think we ought to see to it that we get that thing paved by next year," Leroy Burns stated emphatically. "By starting now, all three, the City, the County and the school could budget for the item next year and that street could be made an easy access for everybody." Councilmen will meet with commissioners and school board members in the immediate future.

Ted Myrick of San Angelo, representative for Commercial Body based in San Antonio, met with the council to discuss the specifications for new electric bucket equipment. The Versalift insulated elbow unit, containing special safety and convenience options such as the emergency hydraulic system, will have a 34' working height with a 21' horizontal reach. Gary Carthel made a motion for the service truck to be bid by the three local dealers. Upon a unanimous vote, the councilmen agreed with the manufacturer's representative to have the new truck drop shipped for mounting. The bids on the 4-wheel drive truck will be opened at the second regular council meeting, November 13. A 1969 Reach-all unit will be purchased from the electric department by the street department.

Another agenda item which received some special consideration was the discussion of hiring a full-time employee for emergency management, civil defense and disaster relief for Floydada, Lockney, and Floyd County. Texas Department of Public Safety has been a staunch supporter of such a program over the last several months, with many schools and workshops being offered for those designated city officials. Feuerbacher agreed to meet with J.D. Copeland, Lockney mayor, and Choise Smith, County Judge, to make a "concerted effort" between the three governing entities to provide such a service to the residents of the county.

Progress on the electric rate case pending was reported by the city manager. He said attorneys, Duncan, Winburger and Miller of Washington, D.C. and Southern Engineers of Atlanta, Georgia, had been hired. Legal costs of $28.53, Floydada's 5.77% of the cost, was unanimously voted to be paid.

After the pre-construction conference was held at Municipal Airport with FAA officials, Applan Construction and city engineer, Bill McMorris of Amarillo, September 5, construction on the airport runway will start on September 19 with a completion target of 60 days if weather permits.

The $44,000 of revenue sharing funds received by the city annually was discussed with particular emphasis being placed on the definition of handicapped and what action would be necessary for meeting the requirements.

A delinquent utility bill of $5600 left by Caprock Medical Service, Inc. was discussed, with several options brought out. Action was tabled for 30 days. The hospital board members will be furnished copies and further action will be discussed at the next council meeting, October 9.

Bids were opened on two properties for demolition. Lots 13, 14, 15 and 16, Block 2, Original Addition, belonging to the Mrs. H.A. Copeland Estate, located at 601 N. Second was bid by Pascal Plumbing Backhoe Service of Matador at $900, Vernon Wickware at $950, Juan Rodriguez at $925, with RVA Construction submitting the low bid of $670.

Property belonging to Mrs. W.H. Foster described as 53.4' of Lot 1, Block 2 in Bartley Heights Addition located at 200 E. Crockett received bids of $600 from Vernon Wickware, $775 from Juan Rodriguez, $900 from Juan Ibarra, $850 from RVA Construction, $800 from Juan Guzman, and $850 from Pascal Plumbing Backhoe Service. Wickware was awarded the bid. Both bidders have 30 days for complete clearance of the properties.

A public hearing is set for the October 9 council meeting for two additional properties failing to meet standards specified in the city ordinance: Lot 5 and 6, Block 2 of Barker Addition located at 629 W. Tennessee Street owned by Harold Vernon Brown and S/2 of Lot 10, Lot 11, Block 1 of Baker Heights Addition belonging to Rex Brown.

County receives check

State Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling over $52.4 million to cities all over Texas on September 4. These tax payments come from the one percent city sales tax levied by 990 cities in the state.

Floydada received a check for $5840.77, bringing the 1984 total to date to $67,776.54, slightly ahead of last year.

Lockney's check totaled $2663.08. The total received year-to-date is $30,537.09, slightly above the total year to date last year.

Matador received $885.81, making the total received this year $15,022.45, very close to the total at this time last year.

Hale County fared better with three cities receiving sizable checks. Plainview took top spot with a check for $64,743.62, reflecting an increase for both this time period and the year. Their yearly total comes to $771,532.75. Petersburg and Hale Center came in with just over $1000 and $1600, respectively. Abernathy received a check for $3,201.78, making their total for this year $39,039.28.

Crosbyton received a check for $1661.83. Collections there are up from last year with a current total of $35,589.02.

Lubbock again garnered the largest of the checks to be sent to our area. $754,805.29 raised the total for the year to $9,266,495.43 for the city. Lubbock is over $700,000 ahead of last year at this time.

These checks reflect the taxes collected on sales made in July and reported to the state comptroller by August 20.

This Week

FAIR TICKETS

Tickets are available at the Hesperian office and First National Bank in Floydada to the fair. They are $7 for gate admission and as many carnival rides as one wishes for any one night.

Currently donations are being collected for scholarships which will aid the 15 local students currently registered for the classes in receiving the training. $200 has been given by an anonymous donor, $100 has been donated by Floydada Coop Gin, and Thompson Pharmacy contributed $50. The classes are presented at a cost of $200 to each student. A scale will be shown on the front of our paper in the next weeks showing the progress of the worthwhile fund. Deadline for donations will be Friday, September 14.

Commissioners court sets tax rate

Floyd County Commissioners Court voted to accept the 1985 tax rate as presented at .31 cents per $100 valuation, which remained unchanged from last year. The action came at the regular meeting of the court on Monday, September 10. The court based estimates of revenue to be raised for the 1985 budget on this rate. Estimated revenues should total $1,517,040, which with the carry over from 1984 of $488,884.94. It will cover the estimated expenditures of $1,786,914 leaving an estimated balance of $219,010.94 in the county funds at the end of 1985.

Two private farm work contracts were submitted. Contracts for work on the Ona Jones farm made by Tony Johnson to have washes filled in 12 miles northwest of Lockney and for Travis Jones to have land leveled and ditches filled 10 miles east of Floydada were approved.

Three bond and liability policies were up for renewal at the meeting. The court cancelled the bond and insurance policy on the tax office after Sam Baker from Baker Insurance Agency explained the coverage it gave. Baker said "This policy covers burglary and theft in or out of the courthouse. Such as going to the bank or in the tax office itself." Judge Choise Smith stated "I think this policy is not needed since the county treasurer now handles the deposits and the employees in the tax office are bonded by other means." The court agreed by unanimous vote to cancel the policy.

A one million dollar liability policy the county has carried against errors of omission was renewed, protecting county employees and officials from law suits resulting from unintentional errors. County Attorney, Kenneth Bain stated to the court "This policy is the only place I can obtain coverage of my work as county attorney. No individual policy will cover it."

A blanket bond covering all employees not otherwise required to be bonded was also renewed in action at this time.

A handbook for county employees was submitted by Bobbie Hamilton. She expressed the wish to see the county adopt a policy book of its own in the near future. The court chose to review the handbook and compile a policy at a later date for Floyd County employees.

South Plains Emergency Medical Services sent a written request for funding in the amount of $2500 to enable them to continue providing services to this area. The issue was tabled until further information as to the services being provided could be obtained.

A written notification that Roger Garms is moving and a replacement is needed on the Child Welfare Board was

Hulon Carthel joins school board

Hulon Carthel was sworn in as a member of the Floydada Independent School District board of directors at the regular meeting September 11. Carthel replaces Bud Rainey, who recently resigned to move to Friona.

Other action taken at this meeting centered on the opening and reading of bids. Bids were received from Hamilton Acoustical, Southwest Specialty Company, Mac Acoustical, and Smith and Dunavant for the lowering of the ceilings and installation of new light fixtures at R.C. Andrews and the Junior High. The bid went to Mac Acoustical with a low bid of $41,704, which was estimated to take about two to three weeks with a minimum of class disruption. The old light fixtures being removed will be offered for sale to the public at a cost of $5.00 each. The sale of the fixtures will be handled by the principal at each school.

Bids for the stripping, sanding, drying and refinishing of the floor at Graves Gym were submitted by Ponder, Galloways, and Witt Builders Supply. The bid from Witt Builders Supply was accepted. The moisture tests on the floor show a moisture content of 26%. The contractors said it would have to be dried to a minimum of 9% before the floor can be refinished. The floor can still be used during the drying process.

The Ag Department newly purchased pickup will be received within thirty to sixty days if no strike is called by the UAW. The low bid of $12,400 by City Auto was awarded the sale. The 1985 ¾ ton four-door pickup with crew cab will be white with blue interior. Other bidders were Oden Chevrolet-Oldsmobile and Reed Ford Sales Inc. The board voted to sell the old ag pickup for $3000 after the new vehicle arrives.

The board accepted the resignation of Shelda Reams, special education resource aide, who is moving. Belinda Rodriguez was employed as a migrant bilingual aide and Katherine Mulder as a library aide.

Superintendent Jerry Cannon reported a total enrollment of 1243 as of September for the entire district. "This compares with 1323 on the same date last year, reflecting a drop of some 70 students. We can expect to pick up a few more, but the enrollment will still be low," Cannon said.

Dues of $100 for membership in the South Plains School Board Association and a $180,000 loan to provide operating money until tax and other revenues are received for the 1984-85 year in October were approved. Authorization to borrow funds for 30 days was given to Alyne Evans, the finance coordinator.

Freddie Morren and Weldon Pruitt will be the local delegates to the school board convention in San Antonio on September 29.

The board accepted revisions and adjustments to the 1984-85 budget to meet state and federal requirements and the method for disbursements of federal funding.

The onus is on all of us. It is on our merchants to be as aggressive as possible in competing with the merchants in the larger communities. It is upon our shoppers to think things through before they spend a day's time and a tank of gas trying to make short term savings at the expense of long term advantage, for themselves and their community.

Pledges honored

The Alpha Mu Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi honored its pledges with a swimming party August 3 at the Floydada Country Club.

The group enjoyed a hamburger cookout and homemade strawberry ice cream for supper and then swimming and water volleyball.

Those attending were: Jerry and Abby Battey, Eric and Julianne Cornelius, Scott and Debra Graham, Joel and Holly Hendrix, Bill and Duffy Hinkle, Stan and Wendy Pierce and Rick and Kelli Reddy.

History repeats itself at Burleson arena

By Marisue Burleson Potts
Area team ropers, novices and amateurs alike, are making plans to be in Flomot, Texas, on September 29 and 30 to compete in Team Roping at the Burleson Arena, located on Farm Road 2009 between Whiteflat and Flomot. Activities will begin on Saturday at 9 a.m.

Students are expected from Texas Tech, Tarleton, West Texas, South Plains and Clarendon Junior Colleges to rope against their peers. Local 4-H groups will participate in flag races, western pleasure and horsemanship, while younger children will compete at their own level.

Even the older cowboys will have a chance to put on their spurs in over 40, AB, and Draw Pot contests. Open Pasture Roping will provide spectators with thrills reminiscent of early day ranch scenes. Other activities include Washer Pitch, Ranch Cutting, and a Western Art Show. Sixteen local artists will exhibit their western art in the house known as Headquarters.

The Team Roping proceeds and admission fees will go to the Dusty Burleson Scholarship Fund, Clarendon Jr. College Ranch Management Program, at Clarendon, where Dusty was a student.

S.C. "Teen" Burleson, who is sponsoring this event, wanted to create a place for novices, as his son Dusty was, to practice and compete with their peers, gaining experience and poise in the rodeo arena. These events take place on land that has been in the family since Burleson's great-grandfather, I.E. Martin homesteaded here in a dugout in 1891. Later J.C. and Onie Martin Burleson began their ranching enterprise from Headquarters.

Rodeoing at Flomot, Texas, is a long standing tradition with the Burleson family. In 1940, W.E. Burleson and Norman Martin sponsored the Annual Flomot Rodeo a few miles down the road.

The Downtown Flomot Daredevils, as the group of working cowboys (and one cowgirl) were dubbed by Douglas Meador of the Matador Tribune, were making a name for themselves at all the local rodeos. Known for their toughness and competitiveness were Dude Barton, later to be inducted into the Cow Girl Hall of Fame, John Bourland, Rooster Gilbert, France and Clayton Barton, Bob Echols Jr., Buster Durham, Pete Keeling, Martin and Burleson.

Many Sunday afternoons were spent roping, often in sandstorms, which the cowboys claimed improved their times since they were used to such conditions, while their opponents were not. Among those winning at Flomot in the early forties were John Stotts, Motley County Sheriff; Houston Schweitzer, famed saddlemaker; John Hamilton, district attorney; Leland Timmons, winner of the Turkey-Memphis Pony Express race; Nig Reid, Silverton's championship roper; Grady Timmons, Twister Ware, Wild Horse Warren, Nash Blasingame, Ollie Nall, Walter Russell,

Marvin Green, Tutt Garnet, Bob Martin, Norman Martin, J.C. and W.E. Burleson.

Youngsters winning in steer riding and calf roping were Billy Joe Stevens, Herb Martin, Sonny Russell, Lane Decker, and Morris Stevens.

As true today as it was in 1940 when Meador wrote: "Where Flomot riders appear, there is action without let up. Broken bones, dislocated joints, burns, 'skint' places don't keep these punchers from competition...the saddest but toughest of all is the forelorn cowboy who rides and ropes with the rest of the crowd—in spite of a broken heart."

For more information on the up and coming event, Team Roping at the Burleson Arena, call S.C. Burleson at 806-983-2977 or Dickie Garrison at 806-469-5327.

Reese takes best of show

Carol Reese, local amateur photographer and school librarian, took the Best of Show with a double exposure photograph in the first annual Shutterbug Contest sponsored by the Floyd County Arts Association.

Reese's winning entry of an old barn near Jayton with a sunrise over Grand Canyon superimposed in the background, stole the show.

There were approximately 30 entries in nine categories. Winners were selected as follows:

Floral: 1st: God's Handiwork by Kathy Sherran of Lake Ransom Canyon; 2nd: Touch of the Master's Hand by JenniSu Smith; and 3rd: Mostly Mums by John Quebe.

Animals: 1st: Butterflies are Free by Nancy Barker and 2nd: Shadows by Rex Bell. JenniSu Smith's Soup's On and Neta Marble's Grace tied for third.

Still Life: 1st: Fancy Free by Joy Lawson and 2nd: Years of Weather by John Quebe.

Portraits: 1st: A New Beginning by Kathy Sheeran and 2nd: Meredith by Judy Tucker of Slaton.

Children: 1st: Be Right Back by Judy Tucker; 2nd: Snips, Snails and Puppy Dog Tails by John Quebe; and 3rd: My Little Friend by Beverly Barker.

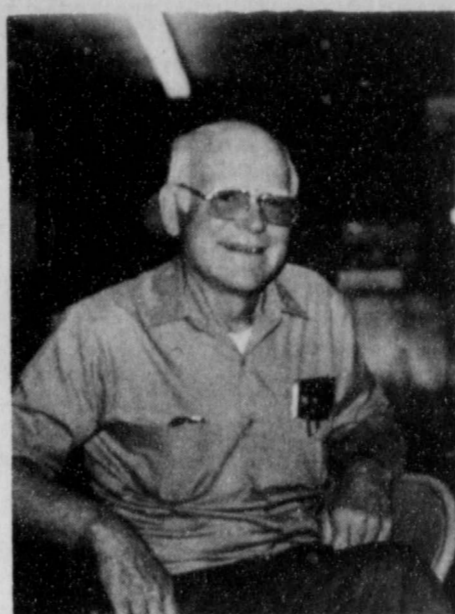

Landscape: 1st: Double Exposure by Carol Reese; 2nd: Sunset on the Beach by Tom Johnson; and 3rd: Winter at Lake Tahoe by Carol Reese.

Agriculture: 1st: Helping Out a Neighbor by Neta Marble; 2nd: Harvest Mist by John Quebe; and A Farmer's Dream by JenniSu Smith.

People in Action: 1st: My Hero by JenniSu Smith; 2nd: Looking for Seashells by Tom Johnson; and 3rd: Hard Hat by Irvin Seymour.

Student [15-18]: Animals: 1st: Curiosity by Jana Lawson; Landscape: 1st: Off the Cap by Jana Lawson.

Judges for the contest were Chuck Wilson of Wilson Photography of Lockney, Jack Robertson of R Photography of Floydada, and Carolyn Redding of the Floyd County newspapers. Entries were judged anonymously. Titles of the photographs were provided by Martha Farris, a member of the Floyd County Arts Association, in categories where the judges found difficulty in judging. There will be a People's Choice award to be determined by the viewers during the Floyd County Fair where the photographs will be exhibited this week.

JAMES WORD, local archaeology enthusiast, discusses his avocation.

Archaeology lures Word

Floyd County can count at least one very enthusiastic archaeology avocationist among its residents. James H. Word has lived in Floydada since 1946 and operated a successful insurance agency here for many years.

Since selling his business in 1981, he has more time to devote to the pursuit of archaeological work. Word prefers to be called an avocationist rather than an amateur. Says Word, "Amateur includes even the pot hunters who vandalize and destroy sites. I do not want to be in any way, associated with these irresponsible people."

Word first became interested in archaeology around 1954 when he happened to find a projectile point (commonly called an arrowhead or a dart) while on the golf course in Floydada. Another point and artifacts caught his eye on a boy scout camp ground a couple of weeks later. Word took his finds to the Texas Memorial Museum director, W.W. Newcombe. Newcombe identified the points and aroused Word's curiosity about the subject. He asked for suggestions for further study and was given a reading list.

Having learned the basics of archaeology on his own, he has learned from practical experience and from working with many respected men in the archaeological field. "I have picked the brains of experts for a lot of my knowledge," Word said.

The Word family has been very supportive of his avocation. By 1962, the family spent long weekends at Baker Cave near Del Rio where Jim had become involved in an excavation. "The long time periods between the excursions to the cave gave me time to curate properly (clean, process, and tag) the items I found," said Word.

Curation is very important in Word's estimation. "It is very necessary for even the first time locator to keep records. They need not be sophisticated, but they must be accurate." Word wrote a report titled "Responsibility of Amateur and Avocational Archaeologists" which has been published by the Texas Archeological Society. The report details the reasons for concern and care when dealing with the history of cultures as archaeology.

The TAS also sponsors a field school each summer in a different area of Texas. Students gain first hand knowledge and experience at excavating, processing and recording the workings of a site. Word has been a participant at the schools and recommends it for anyone with any interest in archaeology.

Jim Word has earned a respectable reputation. He has written several reports on sites in Floyd County. The Montgomery Site, located in south central Floyd county on the O.D. Williams ranch and the Floydada Country Club Site, located about seven and a half miles south of Floydada on the White River have both been projects of his. The work he has done in these areas has provided a look at the recurring cultures of hunting and food gathering dwellers who lived here in centuries past. He has also worked on the Cogdell Burial Site and published a report with Ann Fox on this historic Indian burial site.

Word's latest endeavor has been as consultant to the latest excavation of Baker Cave. The fourth major dig to be conducted there was recently completed by the University of San Antonio Archaeological Department.

Delving into the past continues to fascinate Word. He says, "Archaeology uses the full range of all the natural sciences. By evaluating a site from all angles such as anthropologically, geologically, and biologically a variety of diverse information can be pieced together to form a picture of life at the time the site was inhabited." Word added, "Each site is unique in it's own way. By combining the information from related sites, an entire culture can be reconstructed."

Lockney set for site

"Christmas in October" has been tentatively changed to Saturday, November 3 by the Floyd County Family Living Committee when members Mary True, Martha Sue Lusk, Carolyn Redding, Bess Carr and Ofelia Ortegon met Thursday, August 13. The site of the extravaganza has been set in Lockney if at all possible. Lusk was appointed to make arrangements with the school.

No entrance fee will be charged this year for the "Christmas in November" program. Fees for renting booths will remain the same as prior years: $10 and $15 for the small and large booths.

Ads will be placed in Plainview, Lubbock, Tulia, Silverton, Idalou, Petersburg, Crosbyton, Lockney, and Floydada papers.

The program schedule includes presentations on: Dolls, Quick Foods for the Holiday, Christmas Fashions, and A Family Tradition. A special invitation was expressed to anyone who is interested in attending by Mary True, Home Economist for Floyd County.

In addition to the "Christmas in October" the members of the committee set the subject of emphasis for next year: Housing - Energy Conservation. Two program ideas mentioned were "How to do Home Repairs for Women" and "New Energy Saving Devices." The group's next meetings will be September 28 and October 19. Anyone interested in joining the Family Living Committee may do so by calling Mary True at 983-2806.

Bits of Humor, Trivia, and an occasional Word of Wisdom
BY DON & SARA PROBASCO

Just when you think you've got a hedge against inflation, Congress decides to do some hedge trimming.

There's one comforting thing about inflation: The money you pay back isn't worth as much money as the money you borrowed.

A luxury becomes a necessity if we can make the down-payment on it.

Old-timers can remember when a family that couldn't afford to own a car, didn't.

Wealthy people miss one of the greatest thrills of life—paying the last installment.

The main difference between Russia's economy and that of the U.S. is that in Russia the state owns everything, and in the U.S. the finance companies do.

One reason why a great many American families don't own an elephant is that they have never been offered one for a dollar down and a dollar a week.

We don't sell elephants...We don't have installment plans, but we do offer beautiful gift items at reasonable prices. Come see some of our stained glass at "Movies and More", (just East of the Hesperian office in downtown Floydada) and at the "City Connection" (at First and Locust) in Lockney.

Indian Chiefs defeat Whirlwinds

The Floydada varsity team ran into a tough bunch of Indians last Friday night. For only the third time in the history of competition between the two schools, the Crosbyton Chiefs defeated the Winds 27 to 0. The Chiefs worked well together and rolled up an impressive total of 276 yards for the game. Floydada was unable to break through and mustered only 51 yards gained in their combined ground and air performance.

Coach Paty stated, "The Whirlwinds did not execute well and were not intense enough. We knew it was going to take a while for our team to come around. We are optimistic that we can bounce back. We have had some good workouts this week. These boys are new at working together and are using a new offense lead by a new quarterback. It will take time, but we are improving."

Floydada meets Clarendon on Friday there tomorrow night. Play begins at 8 p.m. Clarendon is in the AA class and has a good team with many returning varsity players. Paty says "We will have to improve to stay in there with them. They have a new coach who is instituting some new plays, but we will have to play well. They will not be a pushover."

Everyone is asked to encourage and support the team as much and as often as possible. They need the community support to succeed.

REPORT CHILD ABUSE

Child abuse and neglect are against the law in Texas, and so is the failure to report suspected cases of child mistreatment. If you report suspected child abuse or neglect in good faith to the Texas Department of Human Resources, you are protected by law.

To report, contact Department of Human Resources at 983-2280. Child Abuse Hotline, 1-800-252-5400. Caseworker - Regina Gross - 983-5509.

The important thing is that you tell someone what you suspect, so that specialists can intervene before more harm is done.

If no one is available at the local number, there will be someone on call at the Hotline twenty-four (24) hours a day.

Gentry wins football contest

Winners of the first Floydada football contest this season have been announced. First place winner of $10.00 is Tiffany Gentry, who missed only three games. Debra Graham won $6.00 for second place with only four games wrong and a tie breaker total score of 28. The third place winner, Nell Ferguson, also had four errors, but had a total score in the tie breaker of 21. She won $4.00.

Entrants are reminded that entries in the Floydada football contest will only be accepted from Floydada area residents. No out of town entries can be accepted. Please choose a winner in each football by circling the team of your choice. It is very important that all entries mark a total score of both teams in the tie breaker football. This score may be the deciding factor in determining the winner. In addition, to circling a winner on the tie breaker.

We are pleased with the participation and encourage everyone to get their entry in early. Also remember to thank the merchants who are sponsoring the contest this year. Some of these are: First National Bank, City Auto, Martin and Company, Pizza Gold, Cornelius Conoco, Floydada Implement, Ernie's Body Shop, and Floyd County Implement. Other sponsors include Gene's Cleaners, Consumer's Fuel Assn., Don Hardy Race Cars, Thompson Pharmacy, Floydada Co-op Gins, Allen's Dixie Dog, Brown Implement, Inc., Floyd County Farm Bureau, Moore-Rose Funeral Home, Shop Rite, Don Green Auto Parts, Tipton Oil and McCandless Tire.

Everyone is invited to hear Ray Starnes in a series of gospel sermons on September 17 - 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the City Park Church of Christ in Floydada.

RAY STARNES

Ray is a graduate of the Fruitland Bible College in Hendersonville, North Carolina, and the Clarksville School of Theology in Clarksville, Tennessee. He is presently living in Lockney and minister of the Main Street Church of Christ in Lockney.

SHOP RITE boasts 31 years of experience by 3 department

Charlie Wise, born and raised at Floydada, has been an employee at Shop Rite for almost 16 years, starting Feb. 2, 1968. He went to work when Gerald Hall was manager, having worked with six other managers: Johnny Summers, Donnie Galloway, Jeff Scovern, Frankie Buckner, Rex Savage, and currently Lee Webb.

Wise graduated from FHS in 1957. He attended Draughn's Business College and farmed with his father, C.H. Wise, until he joined the army in 1961. After returning to his hometown, he went to work at Wester Grocery in 1965, working in the market, produce and groceries until 1968.

Being a native, Wise believes, gives him advantages with his customers. "They trust you. They know they can depend on you."

"Top priority of my job is to keep our produce as fresh as possible. We are presently trying to arrange where we can handle more exotic items such as alfalfa sprouts, bean sprouts, and eggrolls; some Hawaiian fruits like papayas and mangos. Of course, we have carried things like mushrooms for a while.

"I enjoy my job. This company has been very good to me. I have been here so long none of the employees I started out with are still here." Hazel Bradley and Sue Sue, former checkers, were employed when he joined the company in 1968. Webb had managed the store just prior to Gerald Hall.

CHARLIE WISE Produce Manager

Jimmy Forbes joined Shop Rite in 1972, after gaining 15 years of experience in New Mexico and Plainview as a butcher. He had worked as a DECA student in high school in a market. After two years in the U.S. Navy, he returned to the trade.

"The thing I like most about my job is dealing with all kinds of people. I like to work with people.

"I like the friendly store atmosphere here and working with good people and good customers.

"We want to keep up the same good quality and service our customers have learned to expect from us. We want to let everyone in town know we put out the best meats. We cater to special orders...anything to please the people."

Forbes and his wife Judy, who works at a furniture store in Plainview, have four children: Cory, 15; Craig, 12; Wendy, 10; and Jennifer, 5.

JIMMY FORBES Meat Market Manager

Arturo Delgado, Jr., the youngest of the managers, graduated from FHS in 1981 after having worked as one of Gene Moore's DECA students his senior year. He immediately advanced to full time work. He is quick to credit that training for his position today. "I'm glad it came around."

He served under the guidance of Jeff Scovern for a year. He also worked under the management of Rex Savage. Delgado served as acting manager recently for about three weeks during the interim between Savage and Webb.

"Helping customers and talking with them is the most enjoyable part of my job," Delgado said. "We have the best grocery store in town. It is clean, and we have friendly people. We have some good customers."

Delgado is the son of Tomas, a grain elevator manager at McCoy, and Elias Delgado. He is the eldest of three brothers and three sisters.

"My goal is to be what I can be...what I'm capable of doing. I probably would like to be a store manager some day, but not now. I know I need more training. There will always be changes and we have to meet competition. But grocery stores are here to stay," he shyly confided.

OCTOBER WEDDING SET—Mr. and Mrs. Neal Smith announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Terri Wynn, to William Kirk Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Gordon III of Midland. An October 13 wedding is being planned by the couple. Terri graduated from Floydada High School. She is presently employed at Our Place. Kirk graduated from Midland High School and has recently been discharged from the United States Navy.

Brenda Hicks feted with bridal courtesy Sept. 8th

The home of Ouida McCandless was the setting Saturday, September 8, for a bridal shower honoring Brenda Hicks, bride-elect of Rick Heflin.

A living centerpiece of Swedish ivy with earth-tone flowers adorned a serving table draped with a white lace tablecloth over beige. Guests were served coffee and Russian tea from a pewter tea service and fruit breads and fruit kabobs on crystal appointments. Rust, beige, and brown napkins completed the table setting.

Guests attending the shower included Mrs. Bill Hicks, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Rob Heflin, mother of the prospective groom, and a host of family and friends.

Cookware was given to Miss Hicks by the hostesses.

Hostesses were: LaNell McCandless, Donna Pernell, Ann Ferguson, Laura Turner, Judy Allen, Debbie Breed, Gladys Jones, Joy Fulton, Mary Martinez, Barbara Willis, Judy Beedy, Rosaline Rainwater, Jo Payne, Jerry Pearson, Pauline McCormick, Alta Smith, Freida Dunn, Sharon Quisenberry, Cindy Fuller, Pat Battey, and Roberta Hardin.

Cox-Estrada pledge vows

Karan Cox and Lee Estrada pledged their wedding vows August 24, 1984 at 8:30 p.m. in the Calvary Baptist Church, Floydada, with the Rev. Hollis Payne officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Elsie Ivy Cox and the late Emory H. Cox. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luna of Tulia.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Floydada High School and attended Levelland Jr. College. She is presently employed at United Farm Industries of Plainview.

The groom is presently employed with Belk and Cook Contractors, Plainview.

The couple will reside in Plainview.

Club holds Ritual of Jewels

The 175th meeting of Alpha Mu Delta, Floydada chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held in the home of Julianne Cornelius on September 4. In the absence of the president, Julianne Cornelius, Donna Anderson, vice president, presided over the meeting.

Donna Anderson, Barbara Anderson and Kelli Reddy performed the ceremony, Ritual of Jewels. Donna Anderson read the Rituals and pledges. Stacey Westbrook and Debra Graham accepted the rituals and pledged themselves to the sorority.

The girls then revealed their Secret Sisters with the exchanging of gifts, and drew for new ones. Wendy Pierce and Holly Hendrix served refreshments prepared by hostesses, Julianne Cornelius and Linda Phillips. The meeting was adjourned with the closing Rituals.

Those attending were Donna Anderson, Penny Ogden, Duffy Hinkle, Abby Battey, Wendy Pierce, Barbara Anderson, Stacey Westbrook, Kelli Reddy, Holly Hendrix, Mitzi Nixon, and Debra Graham.

Sixtieth anniversary observed by Browns

Former Floyd County residents Ralph and Hettie Brown of Plainview were honored Thursday night with a family dinner and a reception to observe their 60th wedding anniversary.

Brown and the former Hettie Morrison were married September 6, 1924, in Plainview. They farmed in the Providence community for over 20 years before moving to Ruidoso, New Mexico, where they owned and operated a private airport for 20 years. After another five years in Ruidoso, the couple moved in 1973 to their retirement home near Edmonson.

The Browns have been active in the Flying Farmers organizations for 40 years. In July they flew to Winnipeg, Canada, to attend an International Flying Farmers convention. Brown was given a trophy for being the oldest farmer to fly a private plane to the meeting.

The Browns have five daughters: Otero Scheele of Providence, Maxine Rigler of Austin, Marie Sammann of Dimmitt, Shirley Burrows of Fayetteville, Arkansas, and Patsy Haley of Socorro, New Mexico. They have 19 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Attending the dinner were the Browns' daughters: Shirley and Don Burrows of Fayetteville, Arkansas; Pat and Scottie Haley and Crystal of Socorro, New Mexico; Marie and Ernest Sammann of Dimmitt, and Otero and Albert Scheele of Lockney, and son-in-law, Bruce Rigler of Plainview.

Also present were Mrs. Brown's sisters, Faye Holmes of Lockney, Kate Skelton of Lubbock, Leta Tannahill of Friona, and their brothers, Jiggs and Venita Morrison of Center, Colorado, and Roy and Mildred Morrison of Plainview.

Also attending were Mr. Brown's sister, Evelyn and Luther Lesly of Hereford; brother, Gib and Annie Laurie Brown of Hereford, and brother-in-law, Lucille Brown of Lockney.

Other relatives present were Tommy and Delores Auld, Randy Martin, Eugene Tannahill, Larry and Traci Tannahill, all of Lockney; Dean and Jan Brown, Helen Lesly, all of Canyon; Tommy and Paula Lesly, John Lesly, Sam and Susan Lesly, all of Hereford;

Alfred Sammann and Eric, Charles and Kathy Sammann and family, all of Dimmitt; Bob Hedgecock of Ruidoso, New Mexico; Cheryl and Kelly Wing of Lubbock; Stan Rigler and Julie Williams of Dallas.

Friends who attended were Jarvis and Marjorie Nowell, Wilda Hutcherson, Moss and Larue Foster, Emmett and Virginia Palmer, B.F. and Eddie Sammann, Nadine Foster and Kay Jackson, all of Plainview; and Jan Jackson of Dimmitt.

Covington marks birthday

The children of Bea Covington honored her Sunday, September 9, with a surprise birthday party at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Steve and Dixie Covington.

Other children attending were Darlene Torrez and her children, Bryan, Eric and Bradley of Plainview; Robert Covington and wife, Vickie; Keith Covington and wife, Mary, their son George of Plainview; Stanley Covington and wife, Jerry and children, Tina, Sheri and Lea, and her son Glenn, who resides with the honoree.

Children who were unable to attend but who sent their love and regrets of absence were Glenda Spencer of Rising Star, Diana Nelson of Arlington and Kenneth Covington of Dimmitt. Various friends and neighbors were also in attendance to honor Bea on her 54th birthday.

Il Penseroso discusses fair

Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club had their first meeting of the year Thursday, September 6. Hostess for the meeting was Rhonda McCain. Co-hostesses were Marilyn Biggs, Kelly Fortenberry, and Sharon Kleypas.

The members enjoyed a meal of stuffed baked potatoes, salad, and cherry pie.

A business meeting was held with fair committees giving reports on plans for the fair; the farm sale was also discussed.

Members present were: Rhonda McCain, Marilyn Biggs, Kelly Fortenberry, Sharon Kleypas, Judy Jackson, Jessie Johnson, Patti Purser, Julie Hickerson, Karen Quebe, Janette Workman, Charlanne Burson, Linda Marr, Kim Lambert, Brenda Mangold, Sandra Cummings, Cindy Ford, Linda Gant, Treena Aston, Cynthia Bybee, Reeda Cay Smith, Lisa Mosley, Sherry McDonald, Robin Stoerner, Cathy Barnett, Kay Martin, Lesca Durham and Kathy Kellison.

Shower given for Huggins

Melanie Ann Huggins and her mother, Carol Huggins were honored with a baby shower on September 4 in the home of Martha Mangold. Special guests were Melanie's grandmother, Annabel Bramlet and her aunt, Sharron Huggins.

The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations in a basket. Refreshments of finger sandwiches, chips, cookies, mints, and pink punch were served by Brenda Mangold, who also registered the gifts.

Guests attending were Zora Reecer, Wilma Brown, Jody Baccus, Vera Jo Bybee, Katherine Ball, Margaret Jones, Euna Bradford, Rita Webster, Virginia Byrd, Mavis Reecer, Bonnie Graham, Mary Louise McCarter, and Tanya Covington.

Layette shower honors Abby Battey and twins

A layette shower honoring Abby Battey was held in the Bob Ross home Thursday, September 6.

Special guests were Mrs. Wayne Battey of Paris, Texas, and Joy Allen, great-grandmothers; Barbara Hendricks and Pat Battey, grandmothers; Debra Graham, great aunt; and Kathy Battey, aunt.

Guests were served banana punch and cookies from a linen covered table highlighted with a blue and brown floral arrangement. Crystal candleholders with blue tapers were on either end of the table with matching ceramic babies to carry out the "doubles" theme carried out during the shower. Crystal appointments and a silver coffee service completed the setting. Holly Hendricks and LaShay Everett served guests.

Hostess gift was two corsets. Hostesses for the occasion were: Mmes. Ted Anderson, Freida Dunn, Gary Fuller, Don Hardy, J.R. Pernell, Eric Cornelius, Rob Everett, Billy M. Fulton, Joel Hendrix, Stan Pierce, Kent Covington, Bob Ross, Billy G. Hinkle, Kenneth Robertson, and Miss Dedra Hardy. The honoree opened the gifts and shared them with guests in an informal visiting session.

Twin boys, Tanner Brynn and Tyler Ross were born to Jerry Don and Abby Battey August 11 at Lubbock General Hospital. They were released to their parents Friday, September 7, after about a month's stay.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH BROWN

Guthrie hosts Alpha Sigma Upsilon

Alpha Sigma Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of president Rhonda Guthrie, who called the meeting to order at 7:00 September 4.

Communications from International were discussed about "The 1st lady of the year."

Giving a scholarship donation to the college classes at the Texas A&M Training Center and to the EMS were discussed. Plans were also made for the members who will be attending the state convention in Pampa.

Alice Ogden, who gave the treasurers report, also presented a program on friendship.

Names for rushees were submitted. Ways and Means projects and service projects were discussed. All outstanding bills were paid. Karen Elliott had the raffle. The next meeting will be September 18. Everyone repeated closing ritual and mizpah.

Rhonda Guthrie was hostess and served tea, cake, dip and vegetables.

HERE'S OUR MINT NEW PENNY WITH A FIGURE THAT MEANS SOLID GOLD

Dear Pat Walker's
For years I made excuses for my large arms, saying it was because I'd used crutches for a long time. That was a real crutch! Now I have slender arms and a size 3 figure.

I really do and... I lost a total of 50 pounds and 80 inches in 1 1/2 years and maintained it for 2 1/2 years. That changed my looks, wardrobe, attitude and career. Now I am an executive of a large international corporation.

Thanks, Pat Walker's. We love you.

Williamses provide fun

The Capada Drive In is a special type of local business. It is in business to be fun for its customers. Jean Williams, who along with her husband Toby, operates the drive in says "We have a lot of fun and provide entertainment for our patrons while we make our living." The Williams took over the operation of the theatre in January of 1976. They have been successful sufficiently to expand their business to include the Royal Theatre in Tullia.

The Williams family has lived in Floydada for about seventeen years. Mrs. Williams says, "We have put down roots here. Dee was born here and her sisters were raised here. It is home."

The Williams family includes three daughters: Debbie, an employee of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal; Duffy, a part time employee at Bishop-Ramsey Pharmacy; and Dee, a high school junior.

"Dee is well acquainted with the operation of the theatre and is very helpful in running it whenever necessary," her mother commented.

Mrs. Williams credits the success of the drive-in to hard work and good help. John Campbell has been in the box office since our first year and John Leatherman operates the projection booth. Peggy McHam and Linda Turner serve customers in the snack bar.

"We try to give people the best service we can," says Mrs. Williams. "We want them to have a good time and get their money's worth when they come here." She adds, "I think that a theatre is important to a community."

CENTER NEWS

By Mrs. J.E. Green
Monday, Sept. 10:

How time flies! I am home again. School is here again. Weather getting cooler at nites.

It is harvest time, and canning. And college time. Vacation is over.

Mrs. Roe Jones is home. Mrs. Mayfield informs me this is the first W.M.U. in their week of prayer.

Miss Francis Mitchell is away visiting.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell is home.

The Brewers are canning.

Mrs. Ellis visited Mrs. Green one afternoon last week.

Dawn Ateberry is home again after visiting grandparents and others on the North Plains.

Mrs. Green enjoying having all her children at home and at the Center-Fairview homecoming Sept. 2. Some grandchildren and greats came, too, 17 in all. Not all (there were 3 of the Clyde Greens of Peralta, New Mexico, four of the Vic Greens of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark Green of Big Spring, Mrs. Margaret Green, Ryman and Beth of Hubbard; a granddaughter Mrs. Donna Ryman Byrd of Abilene; and another granddaughter and four in family, Doug and Sarah Ryman, Chandler and family of Lubbock.)

How we enjoyed seeing long ago Centerites not seen for years.

I enjoy being in church at Calvary again. Though I enjoy going to church when visiting my children, too, or when ever I am.

We were happy to have our retired missionaries, Ruth and Ulman Moss with us at the reunion. They now live not far from Hubbard. They called on us recently there. So glad to see them.

Mrs. Anthony Latta visited Mrs. Green Monday afternoon.

Some I can't get today (Tuesday).

We missed Bro. and Mrs. Clay Muncy and many others at the reunion. Brother and Mrs. Hollis Payne are both lonesome. They two children are in college. We know how they feel.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS

By Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, Sept. 10th, Monday:

Fall has come, and with it the beginning of Hobby Club meetings here at South Plains. The first autumn gathering will be at the home of Mrs. Leighton Teeple (Juanita) next Wednesday, September 12, at 2:00 p.m. with thought for the day by Mrs. Jewel Fortenberry, and roll call: show a project that I have just finished this summer. The program is on candlewicking, and led by Mrs. Juanita Teeple.

Since the illness of Rev. Cecil Osborne, who is now doing very nicely, there have been several speakers from the Wayland Baptist College in Plainview filling the pulpit both for the morning preaching and the evening services. They have all been enjoyed. This past Sunday here from Plainview was Roy Merworth from Lake Arthur, New Mexico, who preached and coming with him, Perry Edwards of Albuquerque, and Allen Jones from Olton. All three are junior students from Wayland College.

We extend best wishes and happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Wayland and Florene Fitzgerald on the occasion of their golden wedding, with the celebration being held in the entertainment room of the First National Bank in Silverton, on Sunday afternoon, September 9, from two o'clock until four o'clock. Mrs. Letha Mulder from Floydada was a guest at the happy celebration for her brother and sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond and Nina Upton and their sister-in-law, Mrs. Elva Blum of Floydada went to Los Alamos, New Mexico to spend their Labor Day with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie and Betty Upton of Los Alamos, New Mexico, and they all returned home on Wednesday of last week.

The Week of Prayer for State Missions for 1984 for the Mary Hill Davis state offering will be held this Tuesday morning, Sept. 11th at 9:00 with a covered dish luncheon after the study, at the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

Mrs. Lora Bethel was hostess at a luncheon in her home on Sept. 6th on Thursday at noon to members of the South Plains PTA of South Plains School. Following the salad luncheon a PTA meeting was held at 2:30 and they decided on the Halloween carnival, which is to be held this year on October 30, at the school house at South Plains.

PROCLAMATION

Mayor Parnell Powell signed a proclamation this week designating the week of September 17-23 as National Constitution Week. The Buffalo Grass Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution is promoting Constitution Week locally. The following is the proclamation signed by the mayor, followed by "What The Constitution Means To You."

To Whom It May Concern;

WHEREAS, it is the privilege and duty of the American People to commemorate the one hundred ninety-seventh anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and

WHEREAS, Public Law No. 915 guarantees the issuance of a proclamation by the President of the United States of America, designating September 17 through 23 of each year as Constitution Week,

NOW, THEREFORE, I Parnell Powell by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Floydada in the State of Texas do hereby proclaim the week of September 17 through 23 as Constitution Week, in the City of Floydada, and urge all our citizens to pay special attention during that week to our Federal Constitution and the advantage of American Citizenship.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed at Floydada this 11th day of the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty four and the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and eighth.

Signed Parnell Powell

What The Constitution Means To You

It establishes for you a stable and responsible government.

It makes you a citizen of the United States, if native born.

It gives you citizenship, if foreign born, on complying with liberal naturalization laws.

It allows you a voice in the government through the officials whom you help to elect.

It guarantees you life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

It defends your rights even against the government itself.

It makes you equal with all men before the law.

It confirms your religious freedom, and liberty of conscience.

It accords you free, lawful speech.

It guarantees you together with all people the right of peaceable assembly.

It permits you to petition the government to right your wrongs.

It guards your property rights.

It prohibits the government from taking your property without due process of law.

It lets you hold any office in the gift of the nation for which you are qualified.

It enables you to become a citizen of any state.

It prevents you from being held to answer to a complaint unless you have been lawfully accused.

It insures your right of trial by jury of your fellow men.

It grants you the right of habeas corpus, that is, the right to know why you are held a prisoner.

It assures you a speedy trial.

It permits your having counsel for defense.

It prevents your being tried again if once acquitted.

It permits you to have a trial in the state and district in which you may be charged with an offense against the laws.

It lends you the power of government to compel witnesses to appear in your behalf.

It relieves you from compulsion to testify against yourself.

It forbids excessive fines.

It forbids excessive bail or cruel punishment.

It protects you from slavery in any form.

It keeps any state from depriving you of your constitutional rights.

It sanctions your bearing arms for the protection of your life and home.

It secures your home from search except by lawful warrant.

It guarantees you that the legal obligation of contracts shall not be impaired.

It permits you to participate in amendment of the Constitution from time to time.

PUBLIC NOTICE

AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., has filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) a proposal to reduce intrastate, interLATA long distance revenues to offset proposed increases in specialized service rates for private line, WATS, 800, OCC facilities and directory assistance services. The proposed tariff restructure will not result in any increases in the overall revenues of the Company. The proposed effective date for the tariffs is September 20, 1984. All customers and classes of customers will be affected by this filing.

The restructure in the basic long distance service (MTS) results in an overall decrease in the revenues received by the Company from such service of approximately $100 million. While this proposed restructure results in an overall decrease in revenue, certain MTS rates are proposed to be increased to more nearly recover the access charges approved by the PUC for such service.

AT&T Communications has also filed restructured tariffs designed to more closely recover access costs for private line, DATAPHONE* Digital Service (DDS), OCC facilities, WATS, 800 and directory assistance services. These restructured tariffs result in an approximate overall revenue increase of approximately $100 million from increases in its WATS, 800, DDS, OCC facilities and private line rates, and institution of a charge for directory assistance.

The result of these proposed tariff changes and the restructure of our service offerings is to more nearly recover access costs from those services for which such access costs are incurred.

This proposed restructure results in no increase in overall revenue to AT&T Communications and is not a major rate change as that term is defined in Section 43(b) of the Public Utility Regulatory Act.

A complete copy of all tariffs and rate schedules is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Wardell is keynote speaker

Jay H. Wardell, vice president of the Beef Industry Council for the National Live Stock and Meat Board, will deliver the keynote address for Livestock Day September 21 at Texas Tech University.

Wardell will discuss implications to beef producers of consumer trends and how the beef product is viewed by the public.

The speech and slide presentation will cover findings of council research which has shown dietary and health issues are only one of three broad factors the public considers in its meat selection.

The image or fashionability of beef and the convenience of the beef product are just as important to many consumer segments, Wardell said, and should be considered by the beef producer.

The opening session of Livestock Day will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the DeVitt and Mallet Ranch Building at the Ranching Heritage Center.

Other speakers will include biotechnology pioneer George E. Seidel Jr. of Colorado State University and Texas Tech animal science Professor Robert

A. Long on cattle and biotechnological research; David K. Hayes, director of the Texas Tech Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management program, on the food industry's perspective on beef; and Texas Tech Home Economics Dean Elizabeth G. Haley about how the home economics profession works with the livestock industry.

Livestock Day will be the opening event of National Golden Spur Weekend September 21-22, honoring well-known southwestern rancher Foy Proctor of Midland, Texas. The weekend of activities will include presentation of the National Golden Spur Award to Proctor at a prairie party at 7:30 p.m. September 21 in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, and Ranch Day September 22 at the Ranching Heritage Center.

The Livestock Day program is open to the public free. Cost of the luncheon is $7 per ticket. Livestock Day is designed to update producers on the trends and issues facing the livestock industry. For information, contact the Texas Tech Animal Science Department, P.O. Box 4169, Lubbock, Texas 79409, (806) 742-2825.

VIGOROUS SPRING LAWNS REQUIRE FALL PREPARATION

The end of summer may be in sight but not the end of yard work. There's still more work to be done to insure a weed-free winter lawn and good recover of your lawn next spring.

Insects, including chinch bugs, white grubs and armyworms, must be controlled before the end of the fall. Otherwise, winter weeds will rapidly invade the weakened turf. Timely applications of insecticides such as diazinon or chlorpyrifos (Dursban) will control most lawn insect problems.

Fall fertilization is another requirement for maintaining green color and promoting early spring green-up of your lawn. A dense, vigorous turf produced by proper fertilization also helps keep out winter weeds.

If winter weeds have been a problem in past years, apply a preemergence herbicide for additional protection.

As far as disease control is concerned, be ready next spring to put down a fungicide application after scalping the lawn if you have one of the African varieties of bermudagrass.

Another fall task for homeowners is to remove excess accumulations of grass clippings or tree leaves from the lawn. The excess debris from these sources increases thatch accumulation and creates a favorable habitat for insects and disease organisms.

So, for attractive lawns this fall and good spring recovery, be sure to fertilize, eliminate insects and disease, and clean up. Then you can take a break for the winter.

Emergency farm loan applications being accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by this summer's drought and extremely high temperatures are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office located in Floydada, FmHA county supervisor Becky Via said today. Floyd County is one of seven in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the drought.

Ms. Via said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses, or the operating loan needed to continue in business, or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate on the first $100,000 borrowed is five percent; interest rate is 8 percent on the balance borrowed over that amount. For farmers who can obtain commercial credit but who choose to borrow from FmHA, the interest rate is 13.75 percent.

As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30-percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan, Ms. Via said. Farmers participating in the PIK or federal crop insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until April 23, 1985, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly carry over into the new farming season, Ms. Via said. FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens, and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Floydada is open from 9:00 to 5:00 Monday through Friday.

Acarine mite to be regulated

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is establishing regulations to help prevent the spread of the acarine mite, an internal parasite of honeybees first detected in July in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

Regulated areas include all or part of the following counties, all in Texas: Bee, Briscoe, Cameron, Chambers, Floyd, Hale, Hall, Harris, Hidalgo, Live Oak, Starr, Swisher and Willacy.

These regulations became effective August 14, the date they were scheduled to be published in the Federal Register. Comments may be submitted to Thomas O. Gessel, Director, Regulatory Coordination Staff, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, USDA, 6505 Belcrest Rd., Rm. 728 Federal Bldg., Hyattsville, Md. 20782.

Workshop to be held

The Floyd and Briscoe County Livestock Production Committee will co-sponsor a Livestock Workshop on Tuesday, September 18, 1984 in Floydada. Registration will be from 8:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. at the Texas Agriculture Engineering Center on the Matador Highway.

Three main topics of interest to be discussed include:

- BEEF - Wheat pasture cattle
- Health updates for stockers
- Can wheat pasture cattle be profitable
- SWINE - Herd management
- Production practices
- Trends
- SHEEP - Herd management
- Production practices
- Rations

Dr. John McNeill - Extension Beef Cattle Specialist from Amarillo and Dr. Bob Cohen - Extension Swine Specialist from Lubbock will be here to lead the workshop.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

COTTON TALKS

Fifteen Texas certified cotton interest organizations caucused in Dallas August 30 and selected a total of 20 cotton producers from around the state, 12 of them from the High Plains, to fill positions or serve as alternates in national cotton industry groups.

Voting representative to the caucus from Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. was Gerald Caswell of Brownfield, current PCG President. Caswell was selected for the task and given guidance for his actions by the PCG Board at a meeting July 11. He was accompanied at the caucus by PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson of Lubbock, Board Chairman Tommy Fondren of Lorenzo, and Vice President Bennie Claunch of Bula.

Three members and three alternates were named as directors to Cotton Incorporated (CI), the national cotton producers' fiber company which conducts research and market development programs under the Cotton Research and Promotion Act of 1966.

Named to the CI board as members and alternates, respectively, were Larry Nelson, Tulia, and M.J. Williams of Shallowater; Don Bell, Wolfforth, and Gerald Caswell, and L.C. Unfred of Tahoka and Daniel Hirt, Garden City.

Four members and four alternates were nominated for two openings on the Cotton Board, the administrative body responsible for collections, disbursements and project approval in the CI program. The Secretary of Agriculture is required by law to appoint two of the "pairs" submitted by interest organizations and normally chooses the two for whom the organizations express preference.

S.M. True of Plainview and W. Reed Lang of Rio Hondo, and Steve Verett of Ralls and James Ray Adams of Oden, were nominated as first and second choices for member and alternate, respectively, to fill one Cotton Board position. B.H. (Bill) DeBusk of Anson and Jack Young of Stamford, and B.M. Smith of Colorado City and Mark Lundgren of Avoca were submitted as first and second choices for member and alternate in the other position.

Three producer delegates and three alternates were named to the delegate body of the National Cotton Council (NCC), the industry's seven-segment research, promotion and service organization.

Named NCC delegates and alternates, respectively, were Myrl Mitchell of Lenora and Wayne Huffaker of Tahoka, Tommy D. Fondren of Lorenzo and Ben Simmons of Idalou, and Clifford Hoelscher of Garden City and Rusty Andrews of Brownfield.

In addition to PCG, seven other regional cotton producer organizations in Texas and the Texas Farm Bureau took part in the naming of producer delegates to the NCC. All of these, plus American Cotton Growers, Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, the Texas Agricultural Cooperative Council, Texas Cotton Growers Cooperative, Southwestern Irrigated Cotton Growers, and Cotton Pool, Inc., are certified by the Secretary of Agriculture as interest organizations for the nomination of Cotton Board members and the selection of CI board members.

Lightweight - Price is Right

DON'T KISS $8,938 GOODBYE

That's how much you could lose just on resale value if you don't buy a John Deere

Looking for a big discount when you buy a tractor? Don't get stuck with an even bigger discount when you want to sell it.

Always consider resale value when you price a field tractor. Because the differences among brands may sometimes be bigger than ANY purchase incentive.

Compare John Deere with our two leading competitors. According to the Spring 1984 Official Guide of the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association, the average 5-year-old John Deere 4440 sells for 106 percent of its 1979 list price. One leading competitor averages 87 percent of its 1979 list price. The other averages 73 percent.

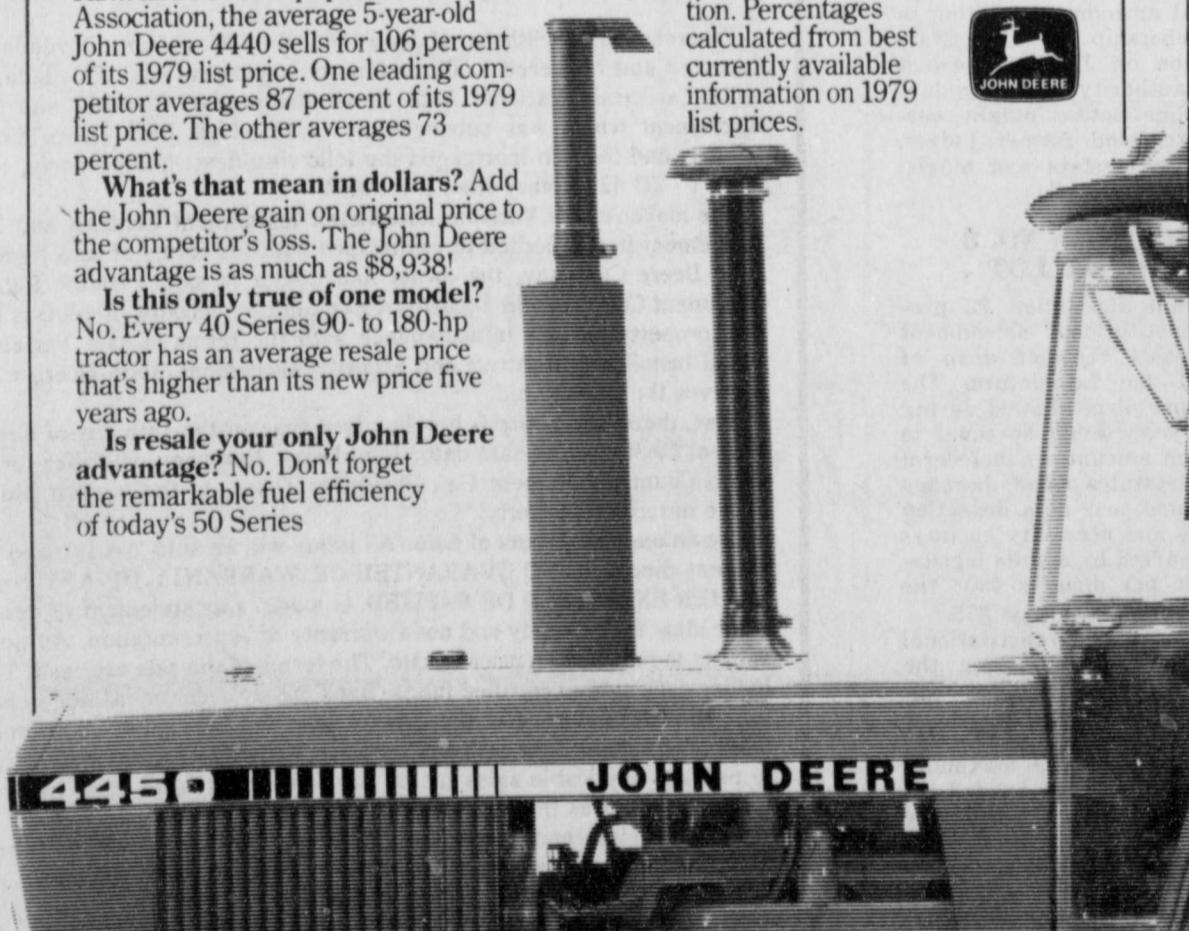

What's that mean in dollars? Add the John Deere gain on original price to the competitor's loss. The John Deere advantage is as much as $8,938!

Is this only true of one model? No. Every 40 Series 90- to 180-hp tractor has an average resale price that's higher than its new price five years ago.

Is resale your only John Deere advantage? No. Don't forget the remarkable fuel efficiency of today's 50 Series

John Deere tractors. And don't forget our unmatched reputation for high quality and high reliability. See your John Deere dealer. He'll be happy to explain the big difference between a low-price tractor and a low-cost John Deere: 100-hp 4050, 120-hp 4250, 140-hp 4450, 165-hp 4650 or 190-hp 4850.

NOTE: Average resale prices taken from Spring 1984 Official Guide of The National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association. Percentages calculated from best currently available information on 1979 list prices.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECCIÓN

NOVEMBER 6, 1984

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 29 proposes a constitutional amendment that provides to state-chartered banks the same rights and privileges that are or may be granted to national banks of the United States domiciled in this state. For example, if national banks become authorized to maintain branch offices, this amendment would extend the same privilege to state banks.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide state banks the same rights and privileges as national banks."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that restructures the Permanent University Fund to provide: (1) for the expansion of the institutions eligible to participate in the bonding capacity of the fund to include the components of The University of Texas and Texas A&M University systems that have been added to those two systems of higher education since the Permanent University Fund was last restructured by constitutional amendment; (2) for the expansion of the purposes for which bond proceeds can be expended from new construction to include major repair and rehabilitation projects and the acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials; (3) for an increase in the bonding capacity from 20% (2/5 for The University of Texas System and 1/5 for the Texas A&M University System) to 30% (20% for The University of Texas System and 10% for Texas A&M University System) of the value of the assets (exclusive of real estate) in the Permanent University Fund in order to provide sufficient bond proceeds to care for the addition of 10 new institutions to those authorized to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program and to care for the expanded purposes for which the bond proceeds can be spent; and (4) for the dedication of the dividends, interest, and other income from the Permanent University Fund remaining after payment of principal and interest due on bonds and notes issued, to the provision of support and maintenance (over and above normal legislative appropriations) for Texas A&M University in Brazos County, Prairie View A&M University, and The University of Texas at Austin.

House Joint Resolution 19 also annually appropriates $100 million in each fiscal year, beginning September 1, 1985 (from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution) for the use of those education which are not included in The University of Texas or Texas A&M University Systems and, therefore, not eligible to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program. The amount of this appropriation could be adjusted every five years by a 2/5 vote of the Legislature, but could not be adjusted in such a way as to affect outstanding bonding indebtedness. Each institution of higher education that is eligible to participate (i.e., those institutions of higher education outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M University Systems) would be authorized to expend directly its share (such share to be determined pursuant to an equitable formula) of the $100 million appropriation for the purposes of acquiring land, constructing and equipping buildings or other permanent improvements, major repair and rehabilitation of other permanent buildings or improvements, and acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials. Additionally, each institution would be authorized to issue bonds backed by a pledge of up to 50% of its share of the $100 million annual appropriation for the purpose of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

Except in the case of fire or natural disaster and in other extraordinary cases, verified by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, all institutions of higher education would be precluded from receiving appropriations of general revenue funds for the purposes of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to create from general revenue a special higher education assistance fund for construction and related activities, to restructure the Permanent University Fund, and to increase the number of institutions eligible to benefit from the Permanent University Fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 65 proposes a constitutional amendment which authorizes the legislature to provide for the payment of assistance to the surviving dependent parents, brothers, and sisters of officers, employees and agents of the state or its political subdivisions, including members of organized volunteer fire departments and members of organized police reserve or auxiliary units authorized to make arrests, who die in the course of performing hazardous official duties. Payments to surviving spouses and dependent children of agencies and institutions of higher

Money management seminar to be held here

The Floyd County Extension Service (Crops Committee) and the FGL Commodity Service of Plainview will co-sponsor a three night Money Management Seminar in Floydada on September 18, 19, and 20, 1984. The seminar will be held at the Texas Agriculture Engineering Center, located on the Matador Highway beginning at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Mr. Curtis Muegge, a technical analyst for FGL Commodity Services in Des Moines, Iowa, will present the program. Curtis was raised on a farm in Oklahoma and has become one of America's most respected authorities on technical trading. His strong emphasis on the principles of Money Management has made him a leading authority.

There will be no charge for the first meeting. If you decide to attend the second and third sessions, the total cost is only $50.00 (spouses can attend for only $15.00).

Reservations to attend the Money Management Seminar can be made by calling the Floyd County Extension Office in Floydada at 983-2806 or FGL commodities in Plainview at 293-9534. There have been many seminars held concerning this subject, but this one will allow you time to comprehend the subject matter and not be so confused.

Educational program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

such officers, employees, and agents are already authorized by the Constitution.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for payment of assistance to the surviving dependent parents, brothers, and sisters of certain public servants killed while on duty."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 20 proposes a constitutional amendment which abolishes the office of county treasurer in Bexar and Collin counties if a majority of the voters in each of those counties vote in favor of abolishing the office of county treasurer in a local election to be held on the issue. All the powers, duties, and functions of the office of county treasurer in each of these counties would be transferred to the county clerk.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Bexar and Collin counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment which provides a new method of filling a vacancy in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The amendment requires the President pro tempore of the Senate to call together the committee of the whole Senate within 30 days after a vacancy occurs in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The committee would be required to elect one of its members to perform the duties of the Lieutenant Governor until the next general election. This individual would continue his duties as Senator at the same time that he performs the Lieutenant Governor's duties. If the Senator who is elected ceases to be a Senator before the next general election, another Senator must be elected according to the above procedure to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties. The President pro tempore would be required to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties pending the election of one of its members by the committee of the whole Senate.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the state senate to fill a vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that permits the use of public funds and credit for payment of premiums on non-assessable life, health, or accident insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by a mutual insurance company authorized to do business in this state. The constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company has limited life and health group policies of political subdivisions to non-mutual insurance companies. The amendment would permit mutual insurance companies to bid for those policies.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE
THE STATE OF TEXAS KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS THAT COUNTY OF FLOYD

Whereas, on the 28th day of December 1982, Billy W. Fulton, Floydada, Texas executed and delivered to Floyd County Implement Co., Floydada, Texas, Seller, certain Variable Rate Loan Contracts and Security Agreements which were subsequently assigned to John Deere Company, and thereon mortgaged the following described property, to wit:

- 1 - JD 4850 Tractor, s/n 1712
- 1 - JD 8650 Tractor, s/n 6926
- 1 - JD 1610 Plow, s/n 6923

The maker of the Variable Rate Loan Contracts and Security Agreements has defaulted in compliance with the terms of said Agreements. John Deere Company, the owner and holder of said Variable Rate Loan Contracts and Security Agreements on account thereof, is offering said property for sale in accordance with the terms of said Variable Rate Loan Contracts and Security Agreements. John Deere Company reserves the right to bid.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that on the 18th day of September 1984 at 10:30 a.m. of said date, John Deere Company will offer for sale at Floyd County Implement Co., Floydada, Texas, to the highest bidder the above described property.

Conditions and Terms of Sale: All items will be sold "as-is" and in their present condition. NO GUARANTEE OR WARRANTY OF ANY NATURE, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, is made. Any statement of description is for identification only and not a warranty or representation. All goods are subject to redemption prior to sale. The terms of the sale are cash. The high bidder must submit certified funds (Bank money order or cashier's check) for the full purchase price at the time of sale. All bids must be submitted in person; all sales are for cash and are final. Individual buyers may be required to pay any applicable sales tax on the sales (purchase) price. John Deere Company reserves the right to bid.

To determine the highest bidder, the seller will take bids on each individual item of equipment, sell same conditionally as single units, and shall then sell all this property as a single unit and shall then aggregate the unit prices to determine whether final sale shall be accepted on the individual bids or the simple unit bid.

Additional information concerning the security interest held by John Deere Company in the above described collateral may be obtained from:

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Florence Van Hoose
Monday morning devotions were by Trinity Church. The singers were Dartha Westbrook, Shirley Varner, Darlenda Marquis, Sabrina Varner, Mildred Thrasher, and Ira Sullivan. Dartha was the speaker. Monday afternoon the residents had self-directed activity.
Tuesday morning devotions were by the Rev. and Mrs. Neeley Richardson. Neeley spoke from 2nd Kings concerning Elijah and his friend Elisha, how Elisha saw Elijah taken up into Heaven in a whirlwind and Elisha received a double portion of the Spirit. In the afternoon we had a good time of Bible study and sharing about the Giver of sight.

We want to thank Mrs. Albert Mize for donating the beautiful flowers to the Nursing Home this week.

We still need some double knit for quilt scraps, if any of you have some you would like to donate to activities.

Wednesday morning devotions were by City Park Church of Christ. The singers were Lorilla Bradley, Mary Spears, Beulah Baker, Eunice Hardy, and Lula Teague. In the afternoon we played Bingo. Beno Wilson bingo'ed first and got the 30 cent coke money. Ona Jameson, Myra Hall and Sue Thompson bingo'ed on the blackout and Myra Hall bingo'ed the most times. Bananas, purple plums, and candy were the prizes.

Thursday morning devotions were by the Rev. Earl Blair. He spoke from 1st Corinthians teaching us that not all of us have the same ministry in life, and that we are all important, working together. We all enjoyed the devotion. Daily devotions is one of the most important activities of the Nursing Home.

Thursday afternoon we went on the bus ride. We rode over to Plainview and were treated to ice cream cones by the Sonic Drive-in. The ice cream was very good. We appreciate the different places that donate refreshments to the residents. The residents going on the bus ride were Emmitt Lawrence, A.J. Huckabee, Addie Lindley, Lura Brashers, Ollie Birnie, and Ruth Benson. On the way back from Plainview the bus broke down and we had to be brought back home in a van.
Friday morning devotions were by Mrs. Fawver, Mrs. J.C. Wester, and Margie Sue. Margie led the singing and Mrs. Wester spoke about John the Beloved, about God calling him to leave the fishing nets to become fisher of men.

Friday afternoon we had ceramics. We painted some nice vases. The residents painting ceramics were Emmitt Lawrence, Sarah Huckabee, Lura Brashers, Addie Lindley, Myra Hall, Beno Wilson, Una Clark, Bonnie Howard, and Iva Simpson.

Last week Myra Hall had some out of state visitors. They were her niece and her family, Annett McDaniels, from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

On Sunday, September 9th, Myra Hall got to go home for the day to celebrate her husband's birthday.

Visitors have included: Mrs. Albert Mize, Mrs. Leona Mayo, Ruby Gooch, Grady and Esther Freeman, Ray and Lucille Nelson, Allene Henry, Elder and Mrs. Joe Jackson, Rachel Nance, Winnie Neil, Jess Glover, Hazel Bradley, Ossie Lee Brown, Floyd and Artie Webb, Mae Della Hughes, Charley L. Berry Sr., Deota Odam, Edna Patton, Evelyn Pierce, Ruby Davis, Beady Owens, Grady and Lorena Dunavant and Allene Henry.

CONTEST RULES

Any local residents above the age of 7 except employees of the Hesperian may enter. Three cash prizes are given each week-ties will split prize money. Members of the sports department are sole judges of the contest and their decision is final.

It is not necessary to indicate scores on all the games...But total score (scores of both teams) of the tie breaker must be indicated at right.

Simply circle the team you choose to win in each of the footballs. Deadline for submitting entries is 5 p.m. Friday - winners will be announced the following week. Enter one entry per person per week, print name and address plainly on blank below and mail or bring entire page to the Hesperian office.

Tie breaker game will be considered only in case of ties.
