Floyd County voters cast ballots for Reagan-Bush

Voters in Floyd County cast their ballots and helped make the November 6 General Election a part of history. Floyd County cast 2092 votes for the Republican team of Reagan-Bush and 1023 votes for the Democratic candidates Mondale-Ferraro. These totals show that over 65% of the county voters preferred Reagan, while 31.9% voted for Mondale. The Populist Party candidates, L.H. LaRouche and Billy M. Davis received 19 votes, less than 6% of the votes.

Of more local interest, Sheriff Fred Cardinal was re-elected by an overwhelming margin of 2205 to 818 over Ray Macha. Unopposed candidates on the ballot who will return to office for another term are: Franklin Spear, Supreme Court Justice, Place 1; C.L. Ray, Supreme Court Justice, Place 2; W.C. Davis, Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, Place 2; Bill White, Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, Place 3; Ray Farabee, State Senator, District 30; Foster Whaley, State Representative, District 84; Charles L. Reynolds, Court of Appeals Chief Justice, 7th District; J.R. Hollums, District Attorney, 110th Judicial District; Kenneth Bain, County Attorney; Jonelle Fawver, County Tax Assessor-Collector; Sam Spence, County Commissioner, Precinct 1; and Thomas A. Warren, County Commissioner, Precinct 3.

In other Floyd County results Gramm defeated Doggett 1922 to 1158 for the office of United State Senator. Jack Hightower came out ahead of Beau Boulter 1710 to 1122. John Thomas Henderson lost to Mack Wallace 1669-1122 in the race for Railroad Commissioner. John L. Hill took the position of Chief Justice, Supreme Court 1788 to John L. Bates with 1063. Virgil E. Mullanax lost the race for Criminal Court of Appeals Judge, place 1 to Sam Houston Clinton 1424-1051.

There were very few voters who voted a straight party ticket. 112 voters, or 3.5% of the ballots cast were straight Democrat. The Republican party fared no better with only 2.8% or 90 of the 3202 ballots cast being straight Republican.

Over 67% of the registered voters in Floyd County voted in the election, a fact which county co-chairman of the Reagan-Bush campaign organization,

Bill Gray says, "can be attributed to the effectiveness of the get out the vote efforts and the telephone voter identification efforts made by volunteers throughout the county."

"A special thanks goes to Robin Boedeker in Lockney for her hard work on the telephone campaign," said Gray. "Albert Scheele also deserves a thank you."

Gray also praised the efforts of his co-chairman, Hank Blanchard, who concentrated primarily on the Gramm campaign.

Gray was very pleased with the Reagan victory and commented, "People are thinking more about their votes before making a decision. I think this shows in the small number of straight party ballots cast."

TAMMY LEATHERMAN was chosen as the 1984 Band Sweetheart during the game against Dimmitt.

LARS ALKEMADE was selected as the 1984 Band Beau last Friday Night.

American Veterans to be honored

"A grateful nation remembers" is the theme of the 1984 Veterans Day Ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery and other sites nationwide.

The 31st annual Veterans Day Observance at Arlington on Sunday, November 11, 1984, will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the amphitheater with a musical prelude provided by the United States Air Force Band.

At 11:00 a.m. the Presidential Wreath-Laying Ceremony will be held at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier with other activities to follow in the amphitheater.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Harry N. Walters, who serves as the Veterans Day National Committee Chairman, said, "While Arlington captures much of the national attention on Veterans Day, the rest of the nation's observances are as meaningful.

"And while the Veterans Administration is the means by which all Americans are able to express the spirit of Veterans Day all year long, it is on this special day that we all can gather to voice our gratitude," Walters said.

To support nationwide activities, Walters has asked all state governors to name Veterans Day chairpersons for activities in their respective states. The person appointed will be responsible for coordinating various activities throughout the state and will represent the governor in dealing with service organizations, military officials, community groups and the many citizens who recognize Veterans Day as a very special occasion.

The National Committee has designated St. Louis, Atlanta, Nashville, Birmingham, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Oakland, and Auburn, Washington, as sites for regional Veterans Day observances.

Some 6,000 packages of promotional materials including posters, booklets with information on proper display of the flag and a Veterans Day history have been mailed to the states for distribution.

Another 25,000 promotional kits have been mailed to schools across the country to enlist the support and understanding of America's youth in this annual observance.

Junior Historians attend ranch program

On a recent brisk fall day, twenty Junior Historians from Floydada Junior High School experienced bits of life on a ranch. Led by host Frank Potts, they traipsed through the barnyards and corrals, splashed in the creek, and visited the old spring house which once supplied water for the line camp. The enthusiastic youngsters, seventh grade Texas History students, were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Feuerbacher, Mrs. Edris Edwards, and Mrs. Kay Cage. The occasion was "History Day at the Ranch," a sesquicentennial project sponsored by the General James Smith Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, on October 28 and 29.

As the crowd gathered in front of the former line camp for the Matador Ranch, "Cottonwood Mott," established about 1880, Motley County Judge Billy Joe Whitaker and Johnny Stevens recounted the early history of the Matador Ranch and the Matador Land & Cattle Company. The original log cabin was torn down to build a two room house with white ship-lap siding trimmed in red with red cedar shingles. This same house, although rooms have been added over the years, serves the Burleson Ranch today as housing for ranch hands.

Judge Whitaker told of a shoot-out between two cowhands, Harkey and Barbee who died at the Mott over a disagreement about the song "Yankee Doodle." A mulberry tree stump which was pumped full of lead in another fatal disagreement stands in front of the house as a mute reminder of frontier justice, or lack of it.

As the students traveled through pastures dotted with mesquite and redberry juniper, brilliant fall colors were provided by the shinnery oak's purples and oranges and the cottonwood's yellows. Wildflowers such as broomweed, groundsel, and lazy daisy splashed golden hues along the countryside.

Texas history buffs themselves, the guides Vance and Betty Campbell, Jaynette Marquis, DRT members Lou Burleson and Marisue Potts discussed points of interest, told about the early history of the area and answered questions about ranch life. Vance and Betty who have recently toured all of the Matador Ranch locations from Matador to Channing to North and South Dakota to Saskatchewan, Canada, shared their extensive knowledge about early ranch operations with the visitors. Because Jaynette's grandfather was Humpty Briggs, a well known chuckwagon cook in this area, she was raised on cowboy folklore and has a real interest in local history which she enthusiastically shared with her groups.

The local DRT chapter president, Mrs. Veta Blackburn of Hobbs, greeted the visitors at the rock-lined dugout, giving a brief history of the James Fields family who once lived there and the items they might have used while nesting along the winding stream called Chimney Creek. Mrs. Blackburn told how Fields had been reduced to chasing rabbits to feed his small family, and thinking he had one cornered in a hole, reached in only to be fatally bitten by a rattlesnake.

Mrs. Linda Moore of Lubbock, also a DRT member, explained what it might have been like to have lived in a dugout, the good things about living in one, such as it was cozy and warm in the winter, as well as the bad things, such as uninvited stinging scorpions, centipedes, tarantulas. Linda's husband Bill, dressed in cowboy attire complete with six shooter and leggin's, flew the Texas flag over the settlement.

Under an eighty year old pecan tree, Mrs. Harold Campbell and Mrs. Josephine Hamilton demonstrated the art of quilting on a fifty-year old quilt top, pieced by Mrs. Campbell's grandmother in bright blue and yellow. Mrs. Campbell gave a brief history of the types of quilts and answered questions about the craft. The ladies were ably assisted in setting up the quilt by Harold Campbell, quite an expert himself, having had experience helping and observing his mother.

Pioneer Mrs. Edna Leonard Waybourn of Childress narrated facts about the dugout as told to her by her father, J.F. Leonard, who bought the place from the Fields family. Leonard later sold this and his other holdings to the Matador Ranch when homesteading surrounded by a large ranch proved too difficult. Her father's initials, J.F.L. can still be seen on the fireplace arch stone where her sister carved them cons ago.

When the scouts returned to the camp area, they were greeted by Wayne Parker of Ralls, fourth cousin to Quannah Parker, and Choise Smith, grandson of Blanco Canyon pioneer Hank Smith. Parker, a highly sought-

This is a nice afternoon for November. Nights and days have been cold, but mostly dry. We feel that winter is just around the corner.

Mrs. Hartline had company Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Maudie Muncy and a girlfriend, both of Lockney, visited in our city Friday. They visited Mrs. C.M. Meredith and Mrs. Green, and maybe others.

Miss Francis Mitchell who has been ill reports she feels much better.

Mrs. Fred Battey had a fall Saturday which left her with a broken wrist and other injuries. She is a patient in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock. Let us remember her with visits and prayers and hopes for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green of Peralta, New Mexico arrived at Ma Greens Thursday evening on their way to college homecomings. Clyde to Wayland's and Ouita to Howard Payne where their daughter Annie is a sophomore. Sunday afternoon we had a get-together at Ma Greens. (Clyde had been spending nights with me.) Vic and Sue came from Plainview, Anthony and Evelyn had arrived home Friday from their two week vacation trip, and Ouita arrived from Brownwood about 8:30 p.m. We all, I hope, had a good visit. Clyde left for home Monday morning.

Mrs. Mayfield reports five of First Church's W.M.U. women have just returned from a day at Quitaque at a district W.M.U. meeting. A good time.

The annual observance of the Great American Smokeout focuses public attention on cigarette smokers from coast to coast. It's their day! The Smokeout is an up-beat, good natured effort to encourage smokers to give up cigarettes for 24 hours, if only to prove to themselves that they can. Everyone enjoys watching and rooting while they try.

Editor,
I want to express my admiration and appreciation to Jack Stansell and his staff for the outstanding success of "Homecoming '84". I know that an event of this magnitude doesn't just happen—it takes a lot of planning and work and I hope that everyone agrees with me that this reunion was a great success.

I also want to say what a pleasure it was to see again friends of half-a-century ago. I wish we could have had more time together so as to catch on the visiting, and I hope for many more opportunities to do just that.

I'm looking forward to Homecoming '88. Be sure my name is on the mailing list!

Editor,
I am writing this letter in an attempt to locate William L. Hallmark, who was a member of the "252nd Port Company," U.S. Army stationed in Calcutta, India during World War II.

A reunion of the company will be held at Conway, Ark., on May 17-19, 1985.

On May 18-20, 1984, 43 members were present for the second annual reunion and our goal is to renew as many old acquaintances as possible.

If anyone knows the address of William L. Hallmark, please call collect or write me as it will be greatly appreciated.

"The True Meaning of Spirit"

For years, the mere mention of "Floydada Whirlwinds" struck terror in the hearts and minds of opposing area football coaches and fans of the game. It wasn't just the winning and tough-playing Floydada teams that commanded attention. Whirlwind supporters were the envy of every host team, often outnumbering the home crowds. Year in and year out, visitors coming to Floydada generally knew they were in for a long night as the "Winds" winning record on home turf was almost as impressive as the fellows who play in that well-known roofless stadium about 350 miles east of here.

There was no end of civic pride and school spirit -- football was king and winning was everything. It was very easy to have that spirit when the teams were "top dog" every year. Now that the tide has turned and football fortunes at FHS have seen some lean times of late, it has been difficult keeping the spirit at the fever pitch of the winning years.

However, last Wednesday, when about twenty carloads of fans followed a fire truck through town for a surprise visit at the "Winds" practice field, it was very apparent that the SPIRIT is still there. The team displayed an intensity in Friday's Dimmitt game that hasn't been seen for a while. Just how much effect the impromptu pep rally at the field or the "funnel" in pre-game had to do with the team's on-field play is anyone's guess...but those outward displays of spirit and support HAD to help.

There is one more opportunity for us to show our grit this year and back the "Winds to the hilt. Granted, there is no district trophy or playoff berth on the line -- there's not even a winning season within reach. There is something far more important: that Floydada backs its teams whether they win or lose. THIS will make a lasting impression upon our young men and a lesson they will take with them long past their high school years. Our boys and coaches will be playing for PRIDE against Tulia this Friday...how about the FANS giving an all-out display of support by loading up in cars for an old-time caravan and show our neighbors to the north that WHIRLWIND SPIRIT is still alive and doing well in Floydada! Think about it...that "shudder" of opposing teams when they think of the Floydada Whirlwinds could only be another season away!!

Over 50% of the students and faculty participated in the mock election process and when the votes were tallied, Reagan had defeated Mondale 140 to 64. Jan Thayer is the faculty sponsor for the Student Council.

Arts Assn. seeking home

Floyd County Arts Association is looking for a home. More and more, as the Association grows, there is evidence of need for a place that can be used for small exhibits, classes in the arts, meetings, etc. Anyone who has a vacant building or a residential dwelling that is in useable condition, and who would be willing to allow the Association the use of it in return for upkeep and maintenance please contact Sara Probasco at 983-3834. If you have such property that you would be willing to donate to the Association, it would be greatly appreciated, and it would be put to good use in serving the entire county.

The basic needs of the Association are as follows:

1. A place for small exhibits (may be a large, open room, or several small rooms)
2. A place for art classes (the above space could be used)
3. A small office area
4. Restroom facilities (a simple bathroom would do)
5. Storage space for general supplies and for stage scenery and furniture (a storage room or garage would work)
6. An accessible location for all ages
7. Structure in reasonably good condition, so that repairs and upkeep would not be too expensive for us to handle.

If you own such property, or know someone who does, please let an Association member know.

TRAVIS CURRY

Victory Baptist gets new pastor

Travis Curry began his new duties as pastor of the Victory Baptist Church on Sunday, November 4. Curry said, "I have found the people of Floydada to be very friendly and very receptive. I am looking forward to working closely with the church and the community."

Curry is a 1973 graduate of Bible Baptist College in Springfield, Missouri. He received a degree in theology before becoming pastor at the Fayetteville Bible Baptist Church in Fayetteville, Arkansas in August of 1973.

Curry served there until February of 1976 when he moved to the Cushing Baptist Temple in Cushing, Oklahoma. In May of 1983, Curry arrived in Lubbock to spend a year as an Associate Pastor before accepting the post in Floydada this month.

Curry and his wife of 22 years, Louise, have one son, Eric, and two daughters, Julia and Pamela. The Currys will be moving into the house adjacent to the church which will serve as the parsonage when it is ready.

"I want everyone to feel free to stop by the church and get acquainted. I would also like to invite everyone to attend services with us," says Curry.

Rucker grandson to march in Macy's

Daren Woodall, son of Mayor and Linda Woodall of Clovis, New Mexico and grandson of Ralph and Pat Rucker of Floydada, will be marching in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City on November 22. Daren plays alto saxophone during marching season and bass guitar for concert season with the Clovis High School Wildcat Marching Band, an organization built with effort, discipline and pride.

Band director Gordon Hart was notified in April of the bands' selection from a field of over 300 entrants. A contest was held in May to develop an appropriate slogan for the fund raising activities necessary to raise more than $50,000 to pay for lodging, meals, and tours on the trip. Daren's entry "March on Manhattan" was chosen and has been highly visible in the area as the students and sponsors work to achieve their goal.

150 band members and approximately 30 sponsors should be making the trip. Each is responsible for raising the cost of their own airfare to New York.

Representatives from Macy's and NBC were in Clovis recently to see the band in action and map out camera coverage of the 2½ mile parade route. An estimated 80 million television viewers will watch as the Wildcat band represents Clovis and the state of New Mexico in the 58th annual event.

High school bands from New York, Texas, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Virginia will also be in attendance, as will the McDonald's All American High School Marching Band which includes one Clovis student.

after historical speaker, illustrated his lecture on the different types of people who inhabited this area for the last 12,000 years with many examples from his extensive artifact collection. An atlatl, projectile points, pottery and other artifacts were on display. Attentive students who could answer his questions were awarded an arrowhead, and one student from each group was selected to wear an Indian costume.

Moving from the Parker lecture, the group surveyed a Buckskinners' camp where four Lubbock members of the Free Trappers club had set up an eighteen foot tipi, depicting the 1840 historical era. Larry Reat, wearing a blue fox hat, calico shirt and buckskin britches, and Dale Jones, wearing a coyote hat and full Northern Plains Indian regalia, described the authentic details of their costuming, their flintlock guns, and their bedding and lodging. Showing the inside of the lodge, the men answered questions about tipi living and invited the students to inspect the tanned hides of bear, deer, badger, and fox used for

Sorority holds teen dance

Alpha Sigma Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a teen dance Saturday, November 3rd from 8:00 to 12:00 at the MAC. Some of the money made will go for different donations. They would like to thank the businesses for letting them put up posters. A big thank you to: Pizza Gold, Buddy's, Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada Cable TV, Lockney Cable TV and to all the teens that helped support the group.

Members attended were: Janice Poeteet, Rhonda Guthrie, Karen Elliott, Sheryl Derryberry, Ginger Warren, Alice Odgen, Barbara Edwards, Vikki Yeary and husbands Max Yeary, Bud Edwards, and Tommy Ogden.

On their last stop, the history students gathered around a chuckwagon where Eddie Fortenberry of Abernathy, Donnie Bybee of Lockney, and S.C. Burleson were dishing out black coffee, son-of-a-gun stew, beans, Eddie's specialty of Dutch oven sourdough biscuits. While sampling the cowboy grub, the group listened to fiddler J.B. Cooper and guitarist Morris Stephens play old western songs. J.B.'s grandparents were among the very earliest settlers in Motley County, establishing the post office at TeePee City in a dugout. His grandmother lived in a dugout for thirty five years.

Cowboys who had worked on the Matador range were available for interviews and answered questions when not reminiscing about mean horses or mean bosses. Tutt Garnett recalled the time when he and a few other hands made a dugout for their own protection from the severe weather, only to have it taken over by a higher ranked ranch hand. The men had their revenge on the fellow by smoking him out. Banny Brandon and Jack Lackey traded stories and tried to keep the others honest. Johnny Stevens, the last manager of the Matador Land and Cattle Company at the home ranch, remembered the worst horses he ever rode were on the Pitchfork Ranch, known today for its outstanding horses.

Bundy Campbell, who was instrumental in the research of which cowboys had worked for the Matadors, who had lived at the Mott Camp, and who bossed the various wagons over the years, served as coordinator of the cowboys, and kept the banter and tall tales flowing. Bundy, and his brothers, Harold and Vance, are the grandsons of H.H. Campbell, the founder, manager, and stockholder in the original Matador Ranch in 1879.

Kirk Brock's mule team, upset by all the unusual activity, added a little excitement to the morning by having a little run away. They soon settled down and provided many rides for children and adults alike. Beverly Brock and Carlla Burleson, dressed in their pioneer dresses, were responsible for greeting visitors, keeping schedules, routing people and traffic.

The purpose of "History Day at the Ranch" was to give Texas History students a chance to experience some of the exciting events that took place in the early history of our area. By seeing an actual dugout, tipi, chuckwagon and line camp, and by hearing people who have actual historical connections with the early settlers, ranchers, and Indians they talk about, students and history buffs alike who were a part of the General James Smith Chapter of Daughters of the Republic of Texas program saw history come alive for a day. DRT members Mrs. S.C. Burleson and Mrs. Frank Potts, assisted by Mrs. W.E. Burleson, owner of the ranch, planned and executed the program with the help of numerous volunteers, friends, neighbors and DRT members.

"HISTORY DAY AT THE RANCH", a sesquicentennial project sponsored by the General James Smith Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, on October 28 and 29 was enjoyed by twenty Floydada Junior Historians including, Mickey Schneider, Tishia Daniel, Shayla Barbee, Kim Perry, Wade Brooks, Lars Alkemade, FHS student from Denmark; Heather Henderson, Stephanie Zimmerman, Amy McCormick, Misty Warren, Kelly Wood, and Anita McCormick, with guide Jaynette Marquis Harrison, who are pictured.

Baptist Women's Association World Day of Prayer met with First Baptist Church of Lockney Monday, November 5. The program topic was "We are the church - called to be one for God's mission."

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Laura Harris, who brought the calendar of prayer and lead in prayer for the missionaries who were having birthdays.

Mrs. Harris introduced the speaker,

Statue of Liberty was topic of program

On November 1st, the 1929 Study Club had an interesting program about the Statue of Liberty during their meeting at Lighthouse Electric. The statue stands in New York harbor beckoning to homecoming Americans and traveling foreigners alike.

Miss Anne Swepton first showed slides of the statue made at various times and angles. She told the story of this monument which celebrated the 100 years of American Liberty won with the help of the French people. The Statue of Liberty is a gift from the people of France to the people of America. It was constructed by a French sculptor, Bartholdi, by bolting sheets of copper to a steel frame, and depicts the giant figure of the Goddess of Liberty, standing in the gateway to the New World. During the story Miss Swepton held a little quiz on certain facts about the statue, and added more details.

After so many years this famous statue has changed color, cracked, and become very weather beaten. Americans are raising funds to make the necessary repairs to restore Miss Liberty to her original beauty.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS

By Mrs. Murray Julian

Our time change on Sunday morning, Oct. 28, with "Fall back" an hour, is nice for most of us, as mornings are still so dark. We have had sunny, beautiful days over the weekend and this Monday farmers are busy with all their machinery as they can hopefully begin stripping cotton, and doing other field jobs.

Mrs. Dorothy Schenk of Dallas, sister of Mrs. Fred Marble, flew home to Dallas Saturday after spending the past week here with Carolyn and family.

Mrs. Bobbie Kinnibrugh went to Truscott and spent the weekend there with her sister, Mrs. W.H. Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruth and Ernest Smitherman spent most of their weekend down at Stamford where they enjoyed a stay and visit with their niece, Mrs. Ennis Bishop. They returned home Sunday evening. They report a big rain down that way recently.

You will want to attend "Christmas in November" on Saturday, Nov. 3rd from 9:00 in the morning until 5:00 in the afternoon at Lockney with Christmas traditions, Fashion of Yesterday and Today, by an interesting and knowledgeable lady, then kitchen creations for Christmas, and lastly Christmas fashions. I have heard some of these speakers, and they are very interesting.

Many from here attended the services Friday in Lockney for Mrs. Elaine Hardy, wife of Clifford Hardy. She was one of the bravest women I have ever had the chance to know, and we extend sympathy to her husband, daughter, and to all her family. The services were held at the First Baptist Church in Lockney at 2:30 p.m. Friday. She had passed away at Lubbock General Hospital at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday.

No prayer meeting was held here at the Baptist Church last Wednesday night, because of the rain, and the very cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Annette Staples arrived back home on Friday from their wonderful trip to Maine where they visited his mother and uncle last week.

NOTICE: General Election will be held November 6th. Voting will be held at the church in South Plains, in fellowship hall. Tuesday, November 6th.

Sunday was High Attendance Day throughout churches of the area, and a good attendance here at the Baptist Church was realized. Hopefully all the visitors and everyone enjoyed church. Visitors noted from Lubbock were Kristi Julian, Charles Street, and Mitzi Julian, home from Texas Tech. After the evening Sunday night services, a pancake and waffle supper was given and enjoyed by a nice crowd in the fellowship hall. The tables were decorated with pumpkins and beautiful autumn leaves of rich colors, and fellowship of young and older ones brought a special joy. Thanks to everyone who helped in any way to make a good evening.

Halloween is coming to South Plains in a big way this evening, Tuesday, Oct. 30th, at the South Plains school, when everyone attends the Halloween Carnival, with fun, games, delicious foods, and ghosts and goblins. The carnival begins at 6:30 and goes to 9:00 p.m.

South Plains, November 5:
Mrs. Neta Holland of Lockney, mother of Mrs. Don Marble of our community, became ill last Wednesday, and was taken to Lubbock to Methodist Hospital and has been in intensive care there for several days, but she is better at this time, and we understand she is in a regular room at the hospital this Monday. Doctors did not say what it was Mrs. Holland had suffered.

We extend our best wishes to Lori Susan Kemp and Monte Lyons as their engagement and approaching marriage has been announced. Monte grew up here in the South Plains area, and is now completing his master of science degree at Texas A&M University, and Lori is now employed at Texas A&M University. They plan their wedding for December 22 at the St. Alice Catholic Church in Plainview.

Mrs. Bonnie Moore of Floydada was taken to Lockney General Hospital in Lockney early Saturday morning, and is there at this time. She is receiving treatment. She is doing fine this Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham spent much of last week down in Lubbock with her son, Bud Higginbotham, as she helped him at his store.

Latham Dickens of Plainview came down with a case of chicken pox on Friday, and is really broken out by this Monday. He is staying here with his grandparents, Bobbie and Sylvan Kinnibrugh this week.

There will be a Home Interior Show demonstrated by Pam Hill of Amarillo on Saturday morning, Nov. 10th, at the home of Mrs. Janis Julian, there will also be new Christmas items to be shown. You are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparky and Maurine Parks went back to Kinwood, Texas near Houston recently to visit their son, Eddie Parks and family, and had started home the middle of the week. They were at breakfast when Mrs. Parks began getting very ill, and was taken to Northeast Medical Center Hospital in Humble, where she underwent a gall bladder operation. She was very ill and in the Intensive Care Unit for several days. She is in a private room there, and doing very well this Monday we are glad to report. If you would like to write Maurine, please send it to: 2606 River Long Street, Kinwood, Texas 77039.

Remember Hobby Club will meet at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Connie Sanders, and bring Christmas decoration you have made. Dot Cummings will have the program for the day. Remember, too, the Home Interior Show on Saturday, Nov. 10th, at 10:00 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Janis Julian.

Annual meeting and symposium set

"Action Today for Tomorrow's Success" is the theme of an educational symposium and annual business meeting of the Texas Wheat Producers Association and Producers Board which is set for Thursday, November 15. The one day session will be held at the Hilton (Kiva) Inn in Wichita Falls according to Otis Harman, Tulsa, Board Chairman and Robert Graves, Perryton, Association President. The officers pointed out that top authorities in various phases of wheat production, marketing, research and education from throughout the country are being assembled to shed light on current off-farm issues affecting producers present and future operations, prices and income.

The 9:45 a.m. keynote speaker will be Dr. Dan Padberg, newly appointed Head of the Department of Agricultural Economics at Texas A&M University. Dr. Padberg will discuss "Action Today for Success in the '90's." His remarks will be based on a recent research study of the subject in which he participated with the Farm Credit System.

"Ag Options: What's All the Action About" will be covered by Dr. Lowell Catlett, Professor of Agricultural Economics at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces. Hard Red Winter wheat options began trading on the Kansas City Board of Trade October 31 for the first time in about fifty years. Dr. Catlett has assisted in developing educational and informational programs in preparation for such trading in cooperating with the Commodity Future Trading Commission and the Boards of Trade. It is expected that he will detail how individual producers may be able to use this new tool to enhance income and profit.

Erv Friehe, McCook, Nebraska farmer-elected Secretary of U.S. Wheat Associates, the producers foreign market development arm through their Boards and Commissions, will detail that organizations current and future efforts toward expanded markets and income. His subject is "Action Today for Tomorrow's Markets". Friehe is also chairman of the Nebraska Wheat Commission and widely traveled at home and abroad in connection with wheat market expansion and foreign trade policy.

The National Association of Wheat Growers, through which Texas and sixteen other states wheat associations conduct their Washington D.C. legislative and administrative liaison, will be represented on the program by their producer-elected Secretary-Treasurer, John "Bud" Leuthold of Billings, Montana. He will describe needed "Action Today Effecting National Farm Issues."

President Graves indicates that the highlight of the day's activities will be the memberships' discussion and adoption of resolutions setting the Association's policies to be followed by the officers and staff during 1985. This will be followed by the election of officers

Jackson elected director

Keith Jackson of Providence was recently elected to the Floyd County board of directors representing zone 1 which is the northwest part of Floyd County. Keith has been serving as director from zone 1 since last December when he was appointed to fill an unexpired term of Herman R. King.

The purpose of the Floyd County SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

In Texas there are 201 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local landowners with assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have the powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the districts are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator. The Floyd County SWCD was organized in the very early 1940's.

Local group attends meeting

Leslie Nixon, Weldon Becker, Junior Taylor and Keith Jackson, directors from the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District attended the forty-fourth Annual State Meeting of Texas Soil and Water Conservation District in Corpus Christi last week. Their wives also attended the meeting with them. Others attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Jon J. La Baume, La Baume is the District Conservationist with the Floyd County Soil Conservation Service. The meeting was held at the Corpus Christi Convention Center.

The purpose of the meeting was to review developments affecting Texas conservation programs. Several workshops were held on various subjects also during the meeting. An array of top agricultural leaders and state legislative officials attended the meeting. State Senator John Sharp of Victoria, state representative Phillis Robinson of Gonzales, and State Senator Carlos Truan were on the program along with Peter Myers, Chief of the Soil Conservation Service in Washington.

Approximately 1200 directors and guests attend the meeting.

LAKEVIEW NEWS

By Joyce Williams

Thursday, November 8, 1984:

Mrs. Nora Norris died Sunday morning. Her funeral service was held Tuesday at 2:30 in the Floydada New Salem Primitive Baptist Church. Burial was in the Floydada cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wright of Lubbock visited Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verlon Wright.

Cotton trailers are on the road again, heading for the Lakeview Gin and the ones in Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hammonds went to Wichita Falls Monday to visit Mrs. Robert Hammonds, who was a patient in a hospital there.

Mrs. Roy Fawver joined her daughter, Evelyn Golightly and husband, L.D. Golightly for a week in Clovis, New Mexico with Linda and Jerry Hall and daughters, Kristi and Kandi. Four generations attended church services together at the First Baptist Church in Clovis. The Golightly's and Mrs. Fawver returned to Floydada last Wednesday. Flora is now making plans for eye surgery in Lubbock later on.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children and Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Monte Williams and daughters. They enjoyed a meal of the last of the summer's vegetables before the freeze got them.

The Sitton Drilling Company of Lubbock plans to move their rig into Lakeview in about two weeks to start drilling the oilwell on the Adams land, reports Tim Fraley, land man from Amarillo, representing the O.G.M. Producers. Mr. Fraley said, in an interview, the recent rains had slowed operations down about two weeks behind schedule. He revealed that Travis Weems, Ft. Worth geologist, formerly of Floydada, has an interest in the Lakeview leases. For all you may hear about the price of oil dropping in OPEC lands, Mr. Fraley said leasing and drilling is strong in West Texas. A ranch in Moore County, near Dumas, recently sold their minerals for $13.8 million. The heirs had separate interests and wanted the money now to use for development rather than waiting for a monthly check. East of Lakeview, at Roaring Springs, the Gilmer Oil Company of Midland is leasing land, with land men busy in the Motley County Courthouse and cafes getting owners and heirs straight. Good for the economy.

This is voting day, and by the time this is read, we will all know the outcome.

Mrs. Lanny Glasscock will show her woodcraft and other handwork Saturday at the Floydada Lions Club Arts and Crafts Festival at the Massie Activity Center.

AROUND THE COUNTY By Richard Crow

FARM DEBT PROBLEM

American agriculture is going through the most difficult financial adjustment period since the Great Depression. Since 1977 total farm debt has doubled, debt has risen from five times net farm income to 13 times income, and interest costs have increased from 10 percent of farm production expenses to 16 percent. While 40 percent of farmers remain essentially debt free, 20 to 30 percent are in serious financial trouble. The culprits include high interest rates, declining land prices, and low farm incomes.

Reality suggests that the best solution for the debt problem is a turnaround in exports and a rise in farm incomes. Neither are likely prospects for the next two or three years.

In the meantime, policymakers are feeling increased pressure to deal with the farm debt problem. This culminated in the recent action by President Reagan to liberalize FmHA policies toward refinancing and restructuring debt.

There are basically four options for dealing with the farm debt situation: bankruptcy, debt restructuring, interest buy-down, and principal write-downs.

Current programs deal with the debt problems primarily by debt restructuring and if that does not work by bankruptcy proceedings. Debt restructuring simply spreads out interest and principal payments over a longer time period. While debt restructuring buys some time, for most borrowers it simply delays the inevitable -- bankruptcy. Our analysis indicates that debt restructuring does not significantly increase the chances of a typical Texas cotton farmer surviving. While the benefits to a wheat farmer are larger, they are still marginal.

On the other hand, the interest buy-down and principal write-down options do materially increase the chances of high debt farms surviving the financial crisis. An interest buy-down involves the government paying of a portion of the interest payments on loans for a two to three year period to qualifying farmers. Principle write-down involves the lender writing off a portion -- say 20 percent -- of the loan principal as a bad debt. The government also may absorb a portion of the principle write-down loss.

Agricultural refinancing is now on the 1985 farm bill agenda. The question is whether policy changes are to be largely cosmetic by emphasizing restructuring of debt, or substantive by emphasizing a full combination of these tools including interest buy-down and principle write-down.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serves people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

SOS chairpersons give reports

The Spirit of Sharing met Tuesday night, October 30, at 7:30 in the fellowship hall at the Methodist Church. Paul Westbrook opened the meeting with a prayer. Margie Sue presented the minutes of the last meeting, and they were read and approved by all present. Jack McIntosh gave the financial report, and stated that the month of October was an unusual month, and that the expenses were over the income taken in.

The food pantry chairperson, Peggy Medley gave a report on the food pantry. She said there was a full crew right now for each day, but could use more volunteers to fill in, in case of sickness, emergency, etc. A food drive will be announced later. There is a great need for more food, as the food bank in Lubbock does not always have the needed food which they can get.

Pauline Pierce gave a report on the clothing closet. She expressed thanks to all who helped in the summer clearance sale, and to all who assisted in getting out all the clothes and coats for winter. There is a new need for blankets, quilts, and bedspreads. Also four to six volunteers are needed.

Mrs. Bennie Leibfried reported on the volunteers. There is a need in every department especially the receptionist department. There is also need for on call, (after hours,) especially men. You may call Mrs. Leibfried at 983-2378 if you can be a volunteer.

Ruth McIntosh reported that there hadn't been any memorials since the last meeting, but a few thank you notes that she had written. Helen Lipham reported on the communications that she had advertised the summer clearance sale with an ad in the Hesperian, Cable TV, radio, and posters made by Jo Bryant.

Jo Bryant has been chosen to serve on the scrapbook. She reported that she had purchased a book, and has started on it. Lorin Leibfried, transportation, reported not too much going on lately in this department.

Builders Mart has donated a storm door for the front entrance, and Jack McIntosh has installed it. This was greatly appreciated.

New business discussed was the food drive, and the Thanksgiving community service at the Methodist Church in November. All churches and interested persons will be notified about the food drive. Also discussed was the need for a storage shed for the future, closets and other storage for the clothing. The parking lot was also discussed, and the need of gravel, as some has been donated for the parking lot by Elvis Warren, building committee.

Lorin Leibfried made the motion that the meeting adjourn and Ethel Carmack seconded.

Members present were Helen Martin, Paul Westbrook, John Campbell, Rainey Varner, Elvis Warren, Peggy Medley, Helen Lipham, Esterline Windom, Pauline Pierce, Ethel Carmack, Margie Sue, Jack and Ruth McIntosh, Jo Bryant, Lorin and Bennie Leibfried, and the Rev. Earl Blair.

The Rev. Blair closed the meeting with a prayer.

The top manufacturers of heating and cooling systems in the country, with more than 500 years of combined experience, all recommend a heat pump.

Find out why.

Ask your heating/cooling contractor about the energy-efficiency and comfort of a heat pump before you consider any other system. Look in the Yellow Pages under "Heat Pumps" or call Southwestern Public Service Company for your free Heat Pump Buyer's Guide.

9th defeats Abernathy

On October 18, the Freshman team traveled to Abernathy and defeated the opponent by ten points. The game got off to an excellent start when Ralph Casillas made the opening touchdown and David Medrano scored the extra point on a reverse play. In the second quarter, Ruperto Jimenez scored a touchdown, and Randy Enriquez made the extra point on a pass from Ty Stovall.

Abernathy scored in the third quarter but failed in the extra point attempt. The final score was Floydada 16 and Abernathy 6.

The Mighty Fish faced Idalou on October 25 with a scoreless first quarter. Leonard Flores scored a touchdown on a short run, but no extra point was made.

The third quarter of the game brought a flurry of activity with a touchdown scored by Ralph Casillas on a run from 20 yards out and Ty Stovall passing to Randy Enriquez for the extra point. Chad Pernel passed to Randy Enriquez to score a touchdown and the extra point again came on a pass from Stovall with Heath Robertson receiving.

Fourth quarter action saw Leonard Flores score from about 40 yards out with Ruperto Jimenez making the extra point. An interception by Julio Flores allowed the Fish to score from about 30 yards out. Daniel Medrano made the extra point. The end of the game came with Idalou down by 38 points for a score of Floydada 38 and Idalou 0.

The Floydada Freshman steamrolled to another victory against Dimmitt on November 1. The first half did not even hint at the final outcome. The score at half time was 0-0.

During the third quarter, Ruperto Jimenez scored on a sweep with a 30 yard run to put the first points on the board. David Medrano added the extra points. Leonard Flores made the second touchdown, but the extra point attempt failed.

Fourth quarter action picked up the pace even more. Ty Stovall scored on an option from the 15 yard line and Leonard Flores made the extra point. Daniel Medrano took the ball across from the 20 yard line and Ralph Casillas ended the game with a run from the 25 yard line. The Mighty Fish defeated Dimmitt 36-0.

Defensive stand outs were Ty Stovall, Joe Peralez, Julio Flores, Leonard Flores, Pat Hazlett, Rickie Porter, and Chad Morris.

"The boys played the second half the way they are capable of playing. I am very proud of each and every one of them," commented Mike Cocanougher.

The Fish have an 8-1 record and will face Tulia on November 8. Tulia is also 8-1.

LaBaume leads 4-H group

Kelli La Baume is the leader of a 4-H food and nutrition group. The group offers a learning experience for the four young ladies involved. They are Brittany Gregory, Wendy Forbes, Jennifer Crow, and Stacy Hinsley.

The purpose of the group is to help the girls learn nutrition, food preparation, and safety in the kitchen. They also receive some practical experience in the kitchen by preparing a variety of food dishes at their meetings. La Baume is present to assist and advise as well as demonstrate for the lessons.

"Working with the girls is fun. We got a late start this year, so we have to meet more frequently than usual, but they still seem to enjoy it," said Kelli.

The girls will be displaying their skills at the Floyd County Food Show on November 10.

We had a light frost again Monday night although it warms up during the day and we still have not had any moisture. The farmers are stripping cotton, baling hay and bringing in grain to the elevator.

Patsy Boone of Lubbock, Paula Vick and sons, Patrick and Preston of Dallas, arrived at the Tom Fortenberry home Friday night. Lafayette Boone joined them Saturday evening. Mrs. Peat Kelley visited them Saturday and Gary and Glenda Kay Chadwick and two daughters visited them Sunday evening. This is little Preston's first outing. He is three weeks old.

She loved people, her church, and most of all, God. We have all felt your love and you have shown it in so many ways.

If we missed thanking everyone, please know it was unintentional.

Simona,

As a friend and also known to many people as Mona, has left us friends and family with many memories. She was one to keep up with the people of our community and would lift them to God in prayer. For her friends and family she did her best to stand by them in times of need and in times of joy. She was always there with a word of comfort, courage, strength.

She was a woman of faith, at a very early age, she had dedicated her life to God's will. She enjoyed singing for the Lord and working with children. That's how her oldest daughter Mary Ann, started singing with her, since a child. She taught Sunday School for the children and with the youth.

She faithfully worked with the Baptist Women, where she was a member, serving as their president for a two year term. She also served as Secretary and Treasurer. In 1975-76 she served as Director of Mission Friends in the Hispanic Fellowship "El Compañerismo de Iglesias Bautistas de los Planos". She always took part in Christmas programs and all special occasions.

We'll miss her. But we are grateful for the time she was ours.

The Blanco family would like to say "Thank you" for all your kindness in our time of need; for the visits at the hospital, for the food, cards, money gifts.

Thank you to our friends and relatives and to so many people that had part through all our sorrow for their help.

Noe Blanco and family

"Laugh Lines"

Bits of Humor, Trivia, and an occasional Word of Wisdom
BY DON & SARA PROBASCO

There are always two kinds of people at a party: those who want to go home early and those who want to be the last ones to leave. Why is it they're usually married to each other?

A politician who says he won't accept an appointive office from the president is like a woman who says she won't get married. They're both just waiting to be asked.

A lot of us were ready to vote a straight ticket this year. The trouble was, we couldn't figure out which party was straight.

One problem with elections in this country is that only about half of the voters vote, and usually it's the wrong half.

We sure do need voting machines with a space for "Comments."

A democracy is a system where the fellow who didn't vote can spend the rest of the year kicking around the candidate that the other fellows elected.

In our haste to deal with the things that are wrong, let us not upset the things that are right.

Studio South is filled with beautiful stained glass items in all sizes and price ranges. Be sure to come out and make your selections for your Christmas gift-giving EARLY, before they're "picked over." We still have time for a FEW custom orders for Christmas. Call today.
