

City building permits down 65.5%

The city of Floydada issued a total of $172,700.00 in building permits during 1984. This total is down by 65.5% from the $498,517.00 total issued in 1983, but is compares more favorably with 1982 total of $180,690.00, showing a decrease of only 4.4%.

Three permits were issued for the construction of new homes totaling $108,500.00 in 1984. There were no permits issued for the construction of new business facilities and only one permit totaling $4,000.00 was issued for a home to be moved in. Application for mobile home permits amounting to $22,200.00 were issued for 5 residences. The remainder of the permits were for additions, carports, and storage buildings totaling up to $38,000.00.

The number of permits issued has shown a sizable fluctuation as well. 1982 saw only 15 permits issued. During 1983, a total of 32 permits were issued. The total fell to 24 in 1984. At this early date in 1985 no permits have been issued in the city.

Fire destroys pumphouse

An early morning blaze at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dunavant on FM 651 three miles south of the Matador Highway destroyed a pumphouse near the dwelling. The fire erupted shortly after 6:00 a.m. Sunday morning. The Floydada Fire Department logged the call at 6:25 a.m. and arrived on the scene soon after.

The fire was responsible for the destruction of the pumphouse and the equipment it contained. An adjacent garage was also slightly damaged. No estimate of the damages has been made and no injuries were reported.

"We believe the fire was caused by an electrical short," said Bobby Welborn of the Floydada Fire Department. "The fire was out within 20 minutes of our arrival, and the damage was kept to a minimum."

The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

What a way to spend New Year's Day. Behind the wheel of one of Wayne Tipton's U-Haul trucks, windshield wipers pushing snow out of sight's way, so we could make our way to Floydada with a load of furniture that began the trek in Houston.

Our daughter had decided that this was the field she wanted to be in, and this was the area she wanted to live in. Needless to say, her mother and I are most pleased. I hope our readers will pardon the use of this column, this one time, for the personal reference.

Alice was born down in Cuero, in DeWitt County, when I was editor of the Cuero Daily Record, and was heavily involved in a story that became known as the Veterans Land Scandal. She has been around newspaper people for a good part of her life, but has never worked on a paper before. She will have to learn, but her history tells me she will learn fast, that she will do a good job, and that she will make a good citizen for Floyd County. It may take a little time, but I have no doubt that these newspapers will benefit from her presence.

I know she would rather have sneaked into town quietly, and learned her new job thoroughly before anyone knew she was here. But we seldom have our "duties" in this life, and at the expense of perhaps embarrassing her further. I will relate one small conversation with her back in the early seventies. She, at the time, was a high school senior in McLean Virginia, working during summer months in one of the Senatorial offices in Washington. I was Deputy Director of the United States Information Agency, an agency operating in the field of foreign affairs and engaged primarily in countering Soviet propaganda efforts aimed at America worldwide.

It was my practice, when I was not engaged in something abroad, to drive down to Capitol Hill at the end of the work day and meet her at the corner of Second and "C" Streets by the Old Senate Office Building and we would make the long ride back to McLean together. It was a good time for talking.

To step back just a moment: By this time she had decided that she was going into the field of law enforcement, and that she was going to be a narcotics officer. This was before women were involved in such things, and her parents tried mightily to persuade her otherwise. But the drug culture held sway at the time. Hippies were seen almost nightly on t.v., throwing rocks at the police, and liberal politicians were heard almost nightly on t.v. defending their actions, and pleading for Americans to "understand" the frustrations of those relatively few malcontents who were out to set a new agenda for the country. But Alice was different. Rather than sympathize with those who were throwing rocks, she empathized with those who were trying to maintain law and order. She determined to be one of them. Naturally we did not want our only daughter placed in position where her life could be in danger. Thus, the argument persisted in our household.

At any rate, on this particular day the weather was hot, and the traffic was terrible. As we crept along, she asked how my day had been. Not so terribly good, was the reply. While our project in Country "X" was doing alright, our project in Country "Y" was not. We would have to do better. However, I said, one of the good things I liked about my job was that at the end of the day I could always feel that I had turned a tap to help my country in some small way.

Her response was "Daddy, that is exactly why I want to go into law enforcement. I want to feel that at the end of the day I have helped someone, somewhere."

That ended the argument. She ultimately changed her mind about the narcotics aspect of law enforcement, and chose instead to work on Rice University's campus police force. She pursued that career and did well in it. But now a new career, in a new town, in a new year, offers new challenges and new opportunities among new friends.

WARNIE HILTON

Hilton marks 103rd birthday

Floydada resident Warnie Hilton was born on January 16 one hundred and three years ago. He is active and continues to live alone, drive his own car and is active in the Masonic Lodge. When asked on his 100th birthday to what he attributed his long life and good health, Hilton replied, "I've never smoked, never chewed, and never tasted coffee, but I sure drank a lot of milk. I still do, in fact."

Hilton began his journey through life as a rancher's son in Jacksboro, Texas. Among the chores he remembers as a youth was the administering of regular Sunday haircuts to the family's hired hands. The experience served him well later in his life. Hilton earned his living as a barber for 56 years.

The family lived in New Mexico for 7 years before moving to Floydada 1915. Hilton first arrived in Floydada alone on a train while "prospecting" for a new location for his barber shop. He was able to purchase an existing shop from Shorty Lauderdale and soon moved his family here.

Floydada did not have the conveniences at that time that the citizens enjoy today. There was no city water, no electricity, and the streets were not paved. Hilton says, "The streets were muddy all the time." He recalls the first paved streets in town as being "the brick streets around the courthouse."

Hilton used gas lights in his shop and his water came from a windmill in the rear of the shop. One particularly frigid winter, water pipes all over town froze except for Hilton's. He had taken the precaution of wrapping exposed pipes and burying other pipes five feet deep of the home he built in 1918. Most of the town's citizenry carried water from his place until their own lines could be repaired.

Floydada had two banks in those early years and Hilton recalls, "Other things were different, too. Homer Sten had a little printing office here and charged $1 a year for the paper."

A. Towery joins staff

Alice Towery, daughter of the Publisher of Floyd County Newspapers, has joined the staffs of the Hesperian and the Beacon. She moved to Floydada during the New Year holidays from Houston, where she has been employed on the police force of Rice University. During her nine years of law enforcement work, she rose from the rank of private to Sergeant in charge of the day

Council attempts to set precedent

City Councilmen attempted to "set a precedent to keep from raising taxes" at their regular meeting Tuesday night, according to councilman Wayne Russell. The action was brought about when the council discussed the collection of city delinquent personal property taxes by seizure of personal property for the second consecutive month. Councilmen indicated that they could agree on the seizure of "licensed motor vehicles" were removed from the 1985 tax roll.

Councilman Leroy Burns said, "It doesn't hurt me; I own a dealership. But it hurts practically everybody else." He cited the taxes already involved in owning a motor vehicle. "They pay a 5% sales tax on a vehicle with a $15 transfer of title fee, practically any car will cost $40 to register each year, an inspection sticker is required each year, and sales tax is paid on every purchase of gasoline used in that vehicle at all times."

Upon checking with the Floyd County Appraisal Office Wednesday morning, Shelia Faulkenberry, chief appraiser, said that decision would be costly for the city because of the loss of revenue from practically the entire personal property tax roll throwing the tax burden on the property owners. In addition, the cost of a programmer to rewrite the city's taxing program would be incurred because of the consolidated tax statements issued from the appraisal office.

Faulkenberry said a change could be brought about by all of the 11 taxing entities being represented by their office meeting together and coming to some agreement. Voting members include the City of Floydada; the City of Lockney; Floydada, Lockney, South Plains, and Dougherty Independent School Districts; and Floyd County; four of the voting members could reverse the present system. Bill Feuerbacher, city manager, gave an estimated $20,000 to $30,000 loss in revenue if the licensed motor vehicles were dropped from the tax roll.

The issue of a rate increase for Floydada Cable TV was on the agenda. Approximately a dozen citizens attended the meeting to express their opinions on the issue of a rate increase. Their opinion varied from "trash" to those requesting the new programming for the daytime dramas in Spanish and rock music channels for their teenagers who might otherwise be watching X rated movies.

The four-week newspaper survey produced a total of 191 responses from the public. 79 voted for the increase and the addition of 6 channels; 112 voted against the proposal.

"No one likes to see a rate increase, but I think we are offering a good rate for a quality line up," said Joe McKinnis, representing the cable service.

The council decided to table the issue while attempting to determine if the survey presented a true picture of public opinion on the matter. A final decision will be made at the next council meeting. Citizens are urged to contact a councilman to voice additional opinions on the matter before January 21.

Mayor Parnell Powell was authorized to sign a new contract for natural gas to power the local power plant. The new contract will be made with Energas, Inc.

Melvin Dunavant appeared before the council to request a one time variance allowing a permit to be issued for the construction of a 40'x80' steel building on his property at 128 W. Crockett. The request was approved.

A decision concerning allowing the collection of City of Floydada delinquent personal property taxes by seizure of personal property was tabled for further consideration. This discussion led to a motion removing all licensed vehicles from the city personal property tax rolls in 1985. This motion was passed unanimously.

Authorization to advertise for bids on the demolition of property belonging to Floydada Pepper and Vegetable, lot 12, block 22, Original Addition, 508 W. Grover Street was approved.

Property at 818 W. Ross belonging to L.A. Lane (c/o Dorothy Lloyd) 2208 W. 4th, Plainview, Texas, 79072, and described as Lot E. 40 ft.-11, Block 13, Western Addition Annex was entered as a possible site for demolition. The council voted to proceed with the paperwork necessary to institute demolition procedures.

The council agreed to lend the city's support to a complaint filed with the Railroad Commission by Energas, Inc. The complaint seeks to force Cabot Corporation to reveal the true cost of gas being provided to Energas by Westar Transmission Company.

Other matters taken up at the meeting included a motion stopping the funding for the Sewer Improvement Fund, which was passed and a unanimous vote to advertise for bids for seal coating to pave streets during the 1985 summer program. The city liability insurance policy was renewed. January 21 was set as the date for a budget workshop on the 1985-1986 budget.

LOWELL BILBREY (left) takes his oath of office from County Judge Chaise Smith after his appointment to the Justice of the Peace post for Precincts 1 and 4 on January 2, 1985.

Bilbrey assumes duties

Lowell Bilbrey, the newly appointed Justice of the Peace for Precincts 1 and 4, was sworn in on January 2 and assumed his duties on January 3. Bilbrey will be in his office during normal Courthouse business hours and will be available as needed at other times.

Bilbrey, a 60 year old Floyd County resident, said of the appointment, "It surprised me a little. I really didn't expect to be appointed, but I am very pleased by the decision."

Born in Victory, Oklahoma, Bilbrey came to Lockney as a young man to work for his father, John Bilbrey, who operated a Chrysler-Plymouth automobile dealership at that time. Bilbrey was next employed as a city policeman in Lockney for several years before becoming a deputy during Walter Hollums' tenure as sheriff.

A change of pace in the form of employment at Martin & Co. was to last 23 years for Bilbrey after leaving the Sheriff's Department in 1962. He worked first in the Lockney branch of the company and later in Floydada. Bilbrey has been employed at Don Green Auto Parts for the past several months. Bilbrey says, "I applied for the Justice of the Peace position because I wanted to get into something a little different, and I feel like I can do some good for the people of these precincts."

Bilbrey's wife, Joy, is employed at Southwestern Public Service and the couple have two daughters, Judy McClure of Edmondson and LaDonna Bilbrey of Amarillo. They also have two grandchildren.

"I appreciate Judge Smith and the Commissioners' for appointing me," said Bilbrey. "I know it will be hard to fill the shoes of Walter Hollums, but I intend to do the very best that I can to do the job well."

Lawsuit is acknowledged by City

Floydada Mayor Parnell Powell acknowledged receipt of the summons notifying the City of the lawsuit filed against them by a group of Hispanic citizens. The suit was filed in United States District Court in Lubbock on December 21, 1984. The suit attempts to force a change from at-large election of city officials to a single member district system of election.

Powell stated, "We received the summons on Saturday, December 29, 1984. It was signed and a return acknowledgement was sent to the filing attorney, Rolando Rios. The summons was then forwarded to the insurance company in Scottsdale, Arizona, which will be handling the matter in accordance with Floydada's coverage against lawsuit liability." Powell continued, "We will not know anything else until we are given a court date."

Rolando Rios, a San Antonio attorney representing the minorities, was quoted in an interview by telephone with Veronica Young and was televised on a

6 p.m. newscast on January 4, 1985, when he said "Over 30% of the population in Floydada is Mexican-American, yet no minority has ever been elected to City Council." Rios also said, "The at-large system of election is the single most devastating device used in Texas to keep minorities out of government."

Francisco Morales, one of the plaintiffs in the lawsuit, declined to comment on the expectations of those filing the suit. He said "We are just going to wait and see until we hear from the City."

Shelley Bearden-Brock say nuptial promises

The First Baptist Church of Floydada was the Saturday afternoon site of the exchange of nuptial vows between Shelley Lyn Bearden and Clifford Byron Brock. Directing the ceremony was Dr. Floyd C. Bradley of Plainview, former pastor of the church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Connie D. Bearden of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Brock of Lockney. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Raymond Irby and Mrs. O.L. Bearden of Floydada. Brock is the grandson of Melvin Brock of Lockney.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white sheer organza and re-embroidered chantilly lace with imported seed pearls over bridal taffeta. It was designed with a Queen Anne neckline, empire waist and tapered sleeves. Four rows of ruffles cascaded down the front of the skirt with the back of the gown fashioned with rows of lace ruffles ending in a chapel length train. She chose a two tiered veil attached to a halo styled of white pure silk flowers and centered with seed pearls.

The bride carried a cascade of cymbidium orchid, alstroemeria lilies and baby mums with lemon leaves and baby's breath. She wore a gold wedding band belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. O.L. Bearden.

Stacey Smith of Floydada, sister of the bride, was maid of honor with Marcha Porter of Lubbock, Cathy Hohartz of Shallowater, Shawnda Brock of Lockney, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids. Joni Smith of Floydada, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid with Shonda Smith, niece of the bride, and Lauri Irby of Odessa, cousin of the bride, as flower girls.

The attendants wore identical formal dresses of china blue taffeta styled with a natural point waistline and an off-the-shoulder bodice. They wore pearl and gold earrings which were a gift from the bride. Matching headpieces and a cascade bouquet of cymbidium orchids completed their attire.

The flower girls dresses matched the bridesmaids gowns. They carried white baskets decorated with China blue bows and wore wreaths of baby's breath in their hair.

Kyle Brock of Lubbock attended his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Shane Bearden of Amarillo, brother of the bride, Mark Moon, Jody Foster, and Greg Taylor, cousin of the groom, all of Lubbock. Escorting guests were John Fortenberry, Nick Christian and Dwight Jackson, all of Lubbock.

Ronee Thornton of Lubbock registered guests. Mrs. Mike Giesecke, pianist, Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, Tammy Payne and Sherman Aten, vocalists, provided the nuptial music.

Ms. Payne and Aten sang "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do," and "To Me." Harvey Allen of Floydada then accompanied the duo on the harmonica as they vocalized "Let It Be Me." Ms. Payne closed the ceremony with "The Lord's Prayer."

The church altar was decorated with tiers of candelabras entwined with plumosia, English ivy and baby's breath and baskets of mixed flowers. The center aisle was highlighted with votive candles. Floor palms completed the setting.

The reception area was enhanced with garlands of grape ivy on gazebo panels with miniature lights. The bridal couple greeted guests from beneath a brass archway twined with ivy, plumosia and miniature white lights.

The bride's table was draped with a garland of grape ivy centered with a cluster of mixed flowers. Her cake was four-tiered with four smaller cakes surrounding it. Topped with a pair of angels, the cake was highlighted with bouquets of fresh flowers.

Covering the groom's table was an ivory tiered cloth, accented with China blue bows. The focal point was a beautiful silver service, belonging to the groom's grandmother, the late Mrs. Josie Taylor. A chocolate cake, inscribed with the couple's names, was served along with an assortment of finger sandwiches, ham balls, coffee and spiced tea.

Serving at the bride's table were DeAnn Fry and Mrs. Kelly Allen of Lubbock. Mrs. Mike Ford, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Kyle Brock of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at his table.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Larry Irby of Odessa, O.L. Bearden of Matador, Albert Jones, Bill Fulton, Lewis Reddy, Norman Muncy of Floydada, Kenneth Holt of Lockney, and Joe Taylor of Tulsa.

After a wedding trip to Ixtapa, Mexico, the couple will be at home in Lubbock where they attend Texas Tech.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church at Lockney. The tables were beautifully draped with navy cloths and centered with grapevine wreaths. Candles with hurricane globes lighted the tables.

Other courtesies include a bridesmaid luncheon given by Mrs. Lewis Reddy and bridal showers hosted by Mrs. Norman Muncy of Floydada and Mrs. Kenneth Holt of Lockney.

Lawsuit to be filed concerning nuclear dump at Hereford

Now high on the federal list of atomic dump sites is a Deaf Smith County location, but Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox promised last week he will file a lawsuit challenging the process used to screen potential underground sites.

Mattox accused the feds of "ignoring the importance of the prime farmland in our panhandle and the danger to our aquifers and residents... The stuff they want to dump will be highly radioactive and dangerous for at least the next 10,000 years."

A second Texas site targeted by the feds is in Swisher County near Tulia.

Co-ops sponsor workshop

Producer's Coop of Floydada and the Lockney Coop along with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will be co-sponsoring a workshop entitled "Profitable Weed Control" on Friday, January 18, at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada. Registration will begin at 8:45 with the program to begin sharply at 9:00. The primary focus will be on controlling problem weeds with segments on weed identification and methods to control each of the weeds discussed in various crops grown in the county. Weeds to be discussed include Lakewood, Texas blueweed, Field bindweed, Silverleaf nightshade, Yellow and Purple nutsedge, Lanceleaf sage, Venice mallow, Cocklebur, Morning glory, and others.

Extension specialist Dr. Kirby Huffman will discuss how to control these weeds in wheat, corn, grain, sorghum, and sunflowers. Dr. James Supak, Extension specialist in cotton, will discuss controlling them in cotton and soybeans. Both specialists will be basing many of their recommendations on research done by Dr. John Abernathy at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Lubbock. Benny Butler, Floyd County Extension agent, will talk about weed identification and report on success in controlling many of these weeds in county result demonstrations. Lunch will be sponsored by both Lockney Coop and Producer's Coop and will feature barbecued brisket. Door prizes will be given away during lunch. All area producers are invited and urged to attend this workshop.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

High Plains Irrigation conference to be held

Amarillo--Water issues in Texas will be given special emphasis at the High Plains Irrigation Conference here on January 17, 1985. S.M. True of Plainview and president of Texas Farm Bureau will discuss the importance of planning for the future.

State leaders in government say water for Texas will be given special consideration during this year's legislative session. Water shortages in many Texas cities in 1984 created new interest in water plans for the state. High Plains farmers have a lot at stake by who controls water in Texas.

The conference will be at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Boulevard, West. Registration and display of equipment will begin at 8:30 a.m. The program will conclude at 3:00 p.m. It is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Panhandle Economic Program.

A popular feature of this conference each year is the discussion by a panel of growers, said Leon New, Extension agricultural engineer who is conference coordinator. Addressing the topic of "Managing Irrigation and Soil Moisture on My Farm", will be Willie Wieck of Etter, A.W. Rasor of Gruver and Tom Dennis of Panhandle.

The 1985 conference will also include an irrigation equipment panel. New equipment and management techniques are made available to growers each year. Surge, LEPA, soil moisture, furrow diking and center pivot equipment will be addressed by James Mitchell of Wolfforth, Dick Cook of Dumas and Dick Laursen of Stephenville.

Managing furrow irrigation will be addressed by Jack Musick, USDA research agricultural engineer, headquartered at Bushland. New will speak on LEPA irrigation with center pivots.

Exhibits at the conference will include components for center pivots, surge valves and control units, furrow dikes, modified engines for greater pumping efficiency and other irrigation equipment.

Cotton Incorporated to meet

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. are joining other cotton industry leaders in urging all-out attendance at the second of Cotton Incorporated's annual producer meetings to be held in Lubbock January 16, beginning at 6:00 p.m. in the Memorial Civic Center.

For producers, ginners and others connected with the industry in the High Plains and nearby southwestern areas, says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "It's a once-a-year opportunity to update their knowledge of CI's extensive work on behalf of U.S. cotton."

The meeting will open with a Big-ham's barbecue dinner, provided, as last year, compliments of American Cyanamid Company.

The hour-and-a-half meeting to follow will work from the theme "Building Markets for You." Featured will be top CI executives in charge of consumer advertising, retail merchandising, international marketing, product development and production research.

CI has assured us, Johnson says, that there will be no "dry speeches." Instead, states CI's Associate Director of Field Services Earle Younts, "The reports will be interesting and fast-moving, with plenty of audiovisual illustration and ample time for questions and answers."

CI funds come from producer contributions of just over two dollars per bale, collected by first buyers. Called the "producer's fiber company," CI conducts programs of research, product development, consumer promotion, farm production research, foreign market expansion and fabric development, plus supplying technical assistance to mills, manufacturers and retailers.

Before 1984, CI held a single annual meeting at its Raleigh, North Carolina research headquarters, providing an opportunity for only a limited number of cotton people to view its market development activities. Four meetings were held across the Cotton Belt, with good attendance, in early 1984.

This year the Lubbock meeting is one of seven being held, making it practical for thousands to hear a firsthand update on what's being done with producer dollars.

All southwestern cotton producers, ginners and other interested parties are invited.

Floydada area gins 53,000 bales

Ginning facilities in the Floydada area have processed a total of more than 53,000 bales of cotton as of January 4. A telephone survey conducted on that date shows that approximately 75% of the expected cotton harvest this year has been processed with about 25% or 15,000 bales yet to be stripped from the fields.

Gins contacted include Brown Gin, Darty Gin, Floydada Co-op Gins, Inc., Lakeview Gin, and Scott Gin. All indicated that the adverse weather conditions have had a definite impact on the crops this year. At the onset of harvest, staples and grades were very good, but the effect of the wet weather has taken a severe toll in lowering the quality. The micronaire has not been especially good, and this makes it difficult to sell the cotton.

Farmers are facing a depressed market with prices being paid for cotton down about 20% from 1983 and production costs have been on the increase as usual. Even with the cotton crop being better by far than the previous two or three years, farmers stand to lose if the market does not take a turn for the better, and the weather continues to work against them.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS

By Mrs. Murray Julian

December 31:

Wet skies and rain blanket our area and it has been this way for so many days. The roads are bad, and travel is curtailed. Families that have gone to other places to visit relatives and friends, will be having a hard time as they have had weather in every direction.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham, former employee of Lockney Elementary School, was a guest at the annual Christmas breakfast sponsored by the faculty and employees of the school. The event was lovely and enjoyed by around 50 people.

The candlelight service at the Baptist church here on Sunday night, Dec. 23rd, was a lovely, sacred event, and later fellowship was held in the fellowship hall, with delicious food and a time of visiting for everyone.

Congratulations to Kristi Michelle Julian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian who was graduated at the coliseum in Lubbock on December 21, with a BS degree in home economics in interior design.

Visitors at the Baptist church on Sunday, and here to visit and be with their parents from Lewisville were Mrs. Ron Somers and daughters, Jennifer and Jaime. Her husband is the Rev. Ron Somers, Baptist minister at Lewisville. Mrs. Karen Osborne also of Lewisville was here. Other guests at the parsonage for the holidays was Mrs. Corda Taylor of Muleshoe, mother of Joyce Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Higginbotham, and Kelly, Bryant, and Lori of Floydada, and Bud Higginbotham and children, Bret and Shea of Lubbock were those who enjoyed Christmas Day and dinner here with their mother, Mrs. Ruby Lee Higginbotham.

December 21st was the first day of winter, and the shortest day of the year.

Home for Christmas with the Harold Hamm's were their children, Pat and Jeaneva Huff, Duane and Marlaine from Amarillo; Mike and Arlaine Berkes and Aaron, from Arlington, and from here, Howard, Nelda, Stacy, Bill and Kevin Staples. With them for New Years were from San Antonio, Dr. Tom and Dena Aufdemorte and children, Christy and Lori.

Among recent visitors to the Baptist church here was Carl Roberts (Mrs. Brett Spiere) from Houston, with her grandmother, Mrs. Epperson; her mother, Mrs. Peggy Roberts and Mrs. Terry Roberts of Sterley.

Bud Higginbotham and children, Bret and Shea of Lubbock were visitors with Bud's mother in South Plains, from Tuesday evening through Christmas day. They all had Christmas eve dinner with Mrs. Nell McClung and family in Floydada.

Rhonda and Bill Parker from New Orleans, and Sherlene and the Rev. David Reddout and Tanya from Springfield, Missouri, spent the Christmas holidays here with their parents, Leigh ton and Juanita Teeple. After Christmas they all went skiing at Taos, New Mexico and got home Sunday night. Dwight and Helen Teeple and boys, Bryan and Keith also accompanied all the above on their skiing trip to Taos.

Mrs. Nelda Staples, Bill, Stacy and Kevin went to Vernon Sunday afternoon to visit with Mrs. Becky McNeese, Holly and Van.

Hobby Club of South Plains will have its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Harold Hamm, on January 9th, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. for the first meeting of 1985. There will be election of officers, and a planning program for the coming year. The club will be meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Hamm, on the paved highway north of South Plains.

Kelly Higginbotham, who teaches 2nd grade in Temple, and Bryant, a student at Texas Tech, spent Friday night here with their grandmother, Mrs. Higginbotham.

Mr. and Mrs. Early and Nell Pritchett had all their children home with them for Christmas, except Jimmie and family who live at Nashville, Tennessee. Prices' came from Dallas, Steves from Canyon, and Louise and all their family from Floydada.

Letha Mulder spent her Christmas and New Year holidays in Amarillo, with her daughter and family, Jerry and Kathy Taylor and children, and arrived home Jan. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan and Bobbie Kinnibrugh, their grandson, Latham Dickens and Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnibrugh of Truscott spent the holiday week in Ruidoso, New Mexico and report nice weather most of that time.

School began this Wednesday morning, January 2, here at South Plains, with a cold day in the teens. Snow fell yesterday, New Year's Day, but it melted during the day.

January 7, Monday:

Here it is, a New Year starting with sunny skies, and cold, cold temperatures. Schools have started again since the long holiday season and things are about back to normal, for this time of year. We only had a light skiff of snow in the last spell, and New Year's Day here was cold and gray with 32 degrees as everyone gathered around their tv's to watch the glittering parades from Miami and the Orange Bowl, and then out to Pasadena and the Rose Bowl and parade. There were football games and all kinds of excitement.

Despite the cold weather Sunday, a good crowds were present for Sunday services here at the Baptist morning services.

We are sad to find that Mrs. Alvin Nichols, who used to live here, and now resides in Sweetwater, is in the Rolling Plains Hospital there, with a surgical operation. You may write her a card there, if you would like to wish her well. She was operated on last Wednesday.

We are sorry to hear about the passing of an old friend, Harry Hartman, 85, who lived west of South Plains. He passed away at 9:50 p.m. Tuesday at the Plains Convalescent Center in Plainview. Surviving are his wife, Mamie Lou; five sons, and one daughter. Mr. Hartman had been in the High Plains Hospital with hip surgery, and other complications, before his passing.

The services were at the First United Methodist Church in Lockney with the Rev. Bill Beachy, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. Cecil Osborne.

Mrs. Mamie Wood went to Amarillo Saturday to attend to some business matters and returned home that night.

Mrs. Bonnie Moore accompanied Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham to Lubbock last weekend, where they are still visiting with relatives and friends there.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

Expense cutting saves millions

If you're like me, you've probably been hearing a lot lately about expense and budget cutting on the national and state levels.

Southwestern Bell Telephone is also cutting expenses. These cuts saved the company millions in 1984.

Just like on the national and state levels, we know financial health begins by holding down expenses. We're doing that by ensuring every dollar we do spend provides maximum benefit.

The buck stops here

Here's how we're tightening our belt in Texas:

- reducing our work force — by not hiring behind retirements and other losses. On an annual basis this is saving us more than $50 million.
- mechanizing jobs and procedures — where there are potential savings and efficiencies.
- holding the line on overtime — we've cut these expenses by 33 percent since 1983 for a savings in Texas of $25 million.
- renegotiating contracts — with outside office equipment suppliers. Compared to previous contracts, we're spending $5 million a year less on office supplies and machinery.
- reducing customer telephone-line reports — our statewide effort is paying off. Total trouble reports are down 88,000 a month compared to last year. Savings in report processing costs exceed $45 million a year.

On top of all these measures and others, we'll take up the spending belt a few more notches in the coming months. Our major operating departments in Texas have already committed to doing their jobs in 1985 with a zero budget increase.

That means they'll have to absorb the traditional expenses — inflation and growth.

Additional mileage from the network

Beyond expense measures, we recognize there's also an important revenue side of running a well-managed, self-sufficient business.

We're continuing to look for new sources of revenue outside of the "rate arena." And we're also constantly seeking opportunities to get additional mileage from the telephone network investment already in place.

It takes months, and sometimes years, to bring a new service on line, successfully market it, and then realize a revenue stream. But we're working on developing these new services. In fact, we have a number of them in the works which should produce new revenue in Texas in the near future.

Providing you with quality service

So, as you can see, there's plenty going on in Texas to improve our business from within. These internal efforts have helped us provide you with more efficient and responsive telephone service than ever before.

Southwestern Bell Telephone — meeting your telecommunications needs today and tomorrow. We're at your service.

Do you know a Southwestern Bell Telephone employee who should be honored for performance above and beyond the call of duty?

If so, Southwestern Bell Telephone is accepting nominations for the Rider Service Award. If you'd like to nominate someone, please write us for a nomination form (deadline for all forms is February 15); Rider Award Nomination Forms; Southwestern Bell Telephone; 308 S. Lakeview News

By Joyce Williams

Thursday, Jan. 10, 1985:

Cold, sunny weather; getting braced for the wet, cold weather that is predicted for us here this week.

Lots of visiting went on among Lakeview people during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling went to Roanoke Dec. 17, the week before, to celebrate Christmas with their daughter and family, Beverly and Lon Connors and family. They gathered around the nine foot tall spruce tree for a gift exchange and dinner with family, who also included their other daughter, Phyllis, and her husband Chuck Farley and sons. It rained during the entire visit, from Monday through Wednesday, but all had a grand time.

On Sunday, the 23rd, the Applings drove to Tulia for the Appling family Christmas dinner and tree with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller. Next day, Wayne and Bertha left Floydada about 4 a.m. and drove to Albuquerque, New Mexico for a visit with Wayne's uncle on his mother's side, Louie Archer. Other relatives of the late Mrs. Appling had flown in from California, including Flora Archer and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Brady of Hemet, Calif. Also present was Wayne's 91 year old aunt, Alpha Christian, of Duncan, Oklahoma. They all enjoyed Christmas Eve brunch at Mr. and Mrs. Louie Archer's home. That evening they attended a Christmas program at the First Presbyterian Church with cousins, Ed and Betty Brown. After the program all boarded a chartered bus, as guests of Louie Archer, to tour Albuquerque to see the beautiful decorated homes and the luminarias so typical of the southwest. On Christmas day they ate dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown. They were treated to perfect weather during the entire visit. New Years was welcomed in back at home with Mr. and Mrs. Olin Watson as guests.

Charlie and Mary Wright and their clan celebrated early also. On Sunday before Christmas, all the girls and their families came home to Mama and Daddy's. There were Sandra and Don Martin, Terri, Charles, Erica and Reuben of Muleshoe. From Lubbock came Coleta and Gene Mitchell, Laqueta and Chipper. Mary Elizabeth and Carroll Sims, Therese and Randell of Floydada were also there for the family dinner and gift exchange around the tree. Grandsons, Chipper Martin of Lubbock and Randell Sims visited awhile last week with their grandparents before their schools started.

The Carl Moosebergs have a new baby granddaughter. She is Miss Robbie Lynn Winslow, daughter of Carla and Don Winslow, with an older brother, Zade. Her aunt Alice (Mrs. Ken Steele), of Perryton, went to Duncan, Oklahoma, to help for a few days after the Dec. 7 birthday.

Lucille Custer had a houseful of guests during Christmas. Her son, Ken, was here from Dallas. Also her sister, Adele Whisenant and daughter, Carla and son Chris of Lamesa were here. They visited here from Saturday through Tuesday. Lucille and Ken also visited in Lubbock with her brother, O.G. Evers, and in Slaton with Custer relatives.

CENTER NEWS

by Mrs. J.E. Green

Jan. 1, 1985

Here we are starting on another year. Almost mid winter. How fast 1984 has gone!

Christmas was good for us. I had the pleasure of eating Christmas dinner with son Victor and family of Plainview. All present even Steve of Nashville, Tennessee.

The Hollis Paynes had spent the holidays in Tennessee, but we were happy to have them back at Calvary Sunday morning.

Mrs. Eula Battey is still improving at home. Most of December has been cold and foggy.

The Henry Brewers were all together for Christmas at least 42 of them.

Last week Thursday I had a nice surprise. My youngest sister and husband, Winifred and Bill Coggin of near Hereford stopped by for a too short visit. They were returning home after spending a week of the holidays in Corpus Christi with some of their children.

The Green Christmas get together was Saturday and Sunday after Christmas at Ma Greens. We had a wonderful time. I think all attended church Sunday.

Families represented whole or in part were: the Dr. Ryman of Hubbard, the Clyde Greens of Peralta, New Mexico, the Don Clark Greens of Big Spring, the Donny Mae Greens of Eunice, New Mexico, Sara and Doug Chandler of Lubbock, Susie Ryman and roommate, Judy of San Antonio; Victor and Sue of Plainview, and more local relatives including, the Anthony Lattas, the David Lattas, of Floydada; Carol Latta, who is employed in Lubbock; and the Sam Lattas of Mt. Blanco. There were 35 or 36.

The Clyde Greens went on to Dallas Sunday morning to be with his wife's brother, who is very ill. They returned to Floydada Tuesday night and traveled home to Peralta this morning.

"It is sweet to meet, but sad to part."

The rest had left Sunday afternoon at 4.

Monday, Jan. 7: A bright sunny day, but some wind as usual. Not so cold as it is sometimes.

The Brewers had all their children home Christmas, but no company this weekend.

Mrs. Plumlee spent Christmas in Plainview with daughter, Mary Alice and family.

The Mayfields went to Henrietta to spend Christmas with their son and family. They also attended the wedding of a grandson.

Mrs. Hartline and June and family were at Ruidoso.

Mrs. Eula Battey is able to be in a wheelchair some. She is accompanied by some relatives.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell is home.

Mrs. Roe Jones enjoyed having all her girls home Christmas.

Mrs. Doyle Sandifer spent the holidays in Tulia with her sister and family.

Mrs. Wiley Rogers had all her children home for the holidays. Opal Rogers is better too.

The Thomas Warrens had all their children and families for Christmas.

The Letha and Travis Lightfoots stayed home Christmas. Part of their children came home "part of them didn't."

Tuesday, a cold cloudy day, but the sun is coming out.

Saturday afternoon, Victor and Sue came awhile. So did Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Latta.

Holiday guests at the Carl Moosebergs included June, Tommy and Rolf Sherman of Lockney, also Alice and Ken Steele of Perryton, as well as Lorilla, Sandra and Sammy Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Nile Bryant were in the canyon on a wood cutting trip last week.

Lots of people are down with the flu now that the holiday rush is over.

Cotton is still in the fields, on the stalk. It looks like the gins will be running up into February, if wet weather keeps slowing down cotton stripping. Many families of workers have left for South Texas, saying they cannot afford to wait for the gins to start up between weather. But people have enjoyed having money to spend for Christmas. Children of field and gin workers tell at school of the new stereos, video recorders, rock concert tickets and clothes they got for Christmas. When the gins close down and before onion planting starts, the SOS will be busy, but for now the good times roll.

PUBLIC NOTICE

In accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the Rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. (AT&T Communications) gives notice to all of its Texas customers that a new procedure for long distance billing was made effective on an interim basis on August 6, 1984 in Docket No. 5800.

The procedure referred to is "Rate Period Specific Billing" and it applies to all message telephone service (AT&T Long Distance calls) including non-REACH OUT Texas calls within the State of Texas. This new procedure effects all AT&T Long Distance customers. All intra-LATA long distance calls and all interstate long distance calls are currently billed using this procedure.

Under this procedure, customers are billed a specific charge for long distance calls according to the rate or rates in effect throughout the time of each call. If a call begins in one rate period and extends into a different rate period, the customer will be charged whatever rate is in effect for each portion of the call.

For example, if a customer places a call at 4:58 p.m. on a weekday and talks for ten minutes, the first two minutes of the call would be charged at the full weekday rate which extends from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The remaining eight minutes of the call would be billed at the evening rate which extends from 5:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. and includes a 25% discount. If Rate Period Specific Billing were not in effect, the entire call would have been billed at the higher day rate. Calls which extend from the evening rate period (25% discount) to the night and weekend rate period (40% discount) or from the night and weekend rate period (40% discount) to the day rate period (no discount) would also be billed according to the actual minutes of use during each rate period.

AT&T Communications anticipates a minimal increase of approximately .02% in its revenues or approximately $250,000 annually.

A complete copy of the "Rate Period Specific Billing" tariff is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.
