Floydada ISD decreases ad valorem tax rate

The proof of the pudding is in the eating someone once said. Or something like that.

Which brings us to the subject of politics, which most things usually do.

We see by the papers that the Texas Democratic Party Chairman Bob Slagle, is joining with his National Party chairman, Mr. Paul Kirk, formerly of senator Kennedy's staff, in calling on fellow Democrats to change their "image." That will be kind of hard to do, considering the fact that they have spent many years deliberately trying to arrive at the image they now have.

The situation has gotten so bad that the Chairman of the Coalition of Black Democrats is even saying that they have got to reach out to white Anglo-Saxon Protestants. This comes after years of telling those same people to get lost, along with Catholics and others who at one time made up the mainstream of the Democratic party.

In all we have read on the subject, we have not noticed that they are proposing to change the substance that led to the "image." They merely speak of changing the image itself. In fact, Mr. Paul Kirk makes the point that they will not be "turning away" from the special interest groups such as minorities and organized labor; they merely want to downplay their involvement publicly, so their "image" will not be one of catering to them.

In so doing, it seems to this writer that they take the electorate to be kinda dumb, and unseeing. They lay all the blame on the wording of the National Democratic Party's platform, not on legislation put in place over the years by the congressional leadership of that party. It is that that Americans, including the rank and file of mainstream Democrats, are rebelling against. Not the "image" of the party.

Always trying to be helpful, we have a solution for Mr. Slagle. If he will convince his Congressional leadership, both House and Senate, to drop their opposition to a balanced budget amendment, forego their support for school bussing to achieve racial "balance", back off from their support for "quotas" and affirmative action, and quit blaming America for all the ills of the world, the "image" problem will take care of itself.

And speaking of image, there appears to be a few members of the Republican State Executive Committee who are also intent on creating an image. Only this would be an image for dumbness.

We note that that illustrious group met up in Amarillo over the weekend, and one member, committeeman Gary Jones of Baytown, tendered a resolution asking former Gov. Bill Clements to withdraw from the upcoming gubernatorial race. The former governor evidently made Mr. Jones unhappy by getting into the race without "clearing" it with the SREC. The resolution was withdrawn because he couldn't get enough support for it, but the damage was done.

Senator Gramm, who addressed the group, was quoted as saying a better idea would be to pass a resolution praising all those who entered the race, not in urging one to get out. He is right of course. There was a time in Texas when the Jones approach would have worked, back when Republicans almost had to bludgeon a reluctant candidate to make the sacrificial race. But no more. Being the nominee of the GOP now means one has a good chance of being governor, and it is only natural that qualified candidates will get into the race, with or without the blessings of the governing committee. That is how it should be. The Republicans no longer have the "image" of having their candidate for governor hand picked by the party leadership. It would have been exceedingly dumb to go back.

As far as Clements is concerned, he may or may not be the best candidate against Mark White. He of course does have a reputation of speaking plainly. He has not yet learned, as Mark White learned long ago, that words can be

Following a tax rate decrease of $0.05 cents last year, a divided school board elected to again decrease the Floydada Independent School District Ad Valorem tax rate by $0.03 this year. A proposal by board member Fred Zimmerman III asked that the board decrease the rate in view of the projected $450,000 surplus for the 1984-85 school year and the additional estimated $104,000 surplus to be carried over from the 1985-86 proposed budget.

"This proposal does not affect the proposed budget expenditures. No cuts will have to be made and if our budget works out as expected, a $94,000 surplus will still be added to the current surplus giving us over $500,000 for a cushion," said Zimmerman. "The $0.03 cut will only take $38,035 out of our funds."

Board member Bill Orman indicated his support for the proposal as did board member Hulon Carthel. Carthel stated, "I think we could lower the rate even more and still have a healthy surplus."

Orman said, "I think we should share the surplus and give the taxpayers a break by cutting the rate at this time."

Following this discussion, Zimmerman made the motion to adopt the 1985-86 budget with a tax rate of $0.70. The motion was seconded by Hulon Carthel. When board president Don Hardy called for the vote, Zimmerman, Orman and Carthel voted in favor. Board members Weldon Pruitt, Harvey Allen, and Freddie Morren voted against the motion.

Called upon to cast the deciding vote, Hardy said, "I have mixed emotions about this thing. I can remember the years we have had our hands strapped and couldn't do anything. Having a surplus is a comfortable feeling." He continued by saying, "I think we have a good school district and I want to keep it that way. In this case I have to go with the tax decrease."

Hardy also stated, "I want everyone to know that I will vote for an increase in the future if I feel it will be best for the district."

Other matters taken up by the board were the re-election of the current Appraisal District board. That board is composed of Tom Duvall, Adrain Helms, Fred Zimmerman III, Jack Lackey, and Eddie Teeter.

The regular August session of the school board is scheduled for Monday, August 12 and is open to the public.

Chamber members and community supporters. ShipShape will be Floydada's health and fitness club featuring universal gyms and tanning salons. "We will try and work the hours around what the public wants," said Gene. "If someone wants to work out early in the morning or late in the evening we will try and arrange it."

New feature series begins

Beginning today the Hesperian will run a weekly feature photograph of "People at Work." The series will seek to feature Floyd County folks pictured doing what they do for a living. Our reporter and photographers will make their selections, but if our readers have thoughts on what and who would make interesting subjects, their ideas are welcomed.

People At Work...

Appraisal District undergoes inspection

State Property Tax Board on site reviewer Keith Nixon made an inspection tour of the Floyd County Central Appraisal District recently according to chief appraiser Shiela Faulkenberry. He found the property evaluations to be well in line with market values at present. His only negative comment about the district was regarding the effective age factor of a few in town business properties. "Nixon expressed the concern that they may be a fraction off of the norm," stated Faulkenberry at the August 7 session of the appraisal district board members.

Hiring temporary help to fill in for an employee who will be taking a leave of absence was also discussed. The board agreed that this should be done.

Board member Adrain Helms asked the board to consider salary increases to bring appraisal district employees up to the level of county employees if they receive a 5% increase. No decision was made.

Faulkenberry told the board that a personal property seizure suit will be carried through to a sheriff's sale on August 9th at 10:00 a.m. at the Floyd County Courthouse door. A 1977 Ford belonging to Mrs. C.O. Woody will be sold to satisfy taxes, penalties, and interest totaling $2,452.33. This is the total of amounts owed to the City of Floydada, Mackenzie Water Authority, Floydada Independent School District, and Floyd County.

Water is safe

Neil Taylor at Mackenzie Lake reports that the lake water is clearing and should be back to sparkling clarity as soon as the odiferous water clears the pipes.

Although the water has a strange taste and has sometimes been off color, it has been tested and is perfectly safe for drinking. Recent heavy rains are credited for the disturbance in the water quality.

Commissioners again tackle budget

In yet another preliminary budget session, the Floyd County Commissioners' Court addressed the budget issues they are concerned with as they enter the final stages of budgeting for 1986. Judge Choise Smith told the court that on large possible burden has been alleviated by the two county hospital districts.

"Indigent health care will be handled by the Caprock Hospital District and by the Lockney General Hospital," stated Smith. "This will allow the county to see that the care is provided as mandated by law at a minimal cost to the taxpayers."

Secretary to the county judge, Margaret Herrera, has asked that the court consider a 10% pay increase for the performance of her duties. She serves not only as secretary, but also as Veterans Service Office for the area. In light of the additional duties she performs, the increase has been tentatively okayed.

The cannery at Lockney again came under scrutiny from the commissioners. The budget for the cannery in 1985 was $10,000.00. There was no appropriation scheduled in the proposed 1986 budget. At the recommendation of both Judge Smith and Precinct 2 commissioner Bob Jarrett, $10,000.00 was written in for 1986.

"I would like to see funding continued at the same level next year," stated Jarrett. "If the public usage of the cannery does not warrant it or if the cost of cans and operation increases significantly, I feel that serious consideration should be given to possibly closing the facility in 1986."

Requests for extra labor and equipment were once more studied with no definite decisions being reached. Extra labor was strongly opposed by Precinct 4 commissioner, Jack Lackey.

"I cannot support the proposed budget for 1986 at this time," said Lackey during a morning break. "As far as I am concerned, it has too much fat in it."

The proposed 5% pay increase appears to be well on the road to becoming fact.

The regular August session of the county officials is scheduled for Monday, August 12 in the county court room and is open to the public.

ATPE plans to prepare teachers for mandatory competency exam

The Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE) Texas' second-largest teacher group, announced that it plans to prepare its members for the mandatory teaching competency test and will not oppose the exam.

ATPE officials announced the decision at the group's annual Leadership Workshop, held July 21-23 in Austin, and attended by more than 250 educators from throughout Texas.

At a special meeting July 21, the ATPE Board of Directors agreed that the association would not attempt to thwart the competency test but would instead accept the challenge posed by the examination, scheduled to be administered next March.

The teacher competency test was one of the school reforms mandated by House Bill 72, the education reform bill passed last year. Teachers must pass the test in order to remain employed as public school teachers in Texas under the law.

"We will support the competency test although we do not believe that it is a true evaluation of a teacher's teaching ability," said ATPE State President Sue McGarvey, a Hallsville High School government teacher. "But, ATPE has always acted in a positive manner. Competency testing is the law and we have always obeyed the law."

"Students must abide by no-pass, no-play and the exit level test," McGarvey said, mentioning other HB 72 reforms to which students must adhere. "How can we give tests to our students when we ourselves refuse to take them?"

In announcing its decision to support the test, ATPE elected not to follow the rival Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA), which has said it will go to court to fight administration of the test.

Instead, ATPE will take steps to help its members prepare for the first phase of the test, a reading and writing skills exam which will be given to 212,000 Texas educators in March 1986. ATPE representatives will conduct local meetings and workshops for members to offer information and advice and answer questions about the test after the state distributes study guides for the exam in November.

Awnings returning to Texas

Awnings add more than a cheery, nostalgic touch to Texas homes. They can take a lot of heat off of summer energy bills, according to the Energy Efficiency Division of the Public Utility Commission.

Awnings can reduce summer solar heat gain to a home by up to 65% on south-facing windows and 77% on west-facing windows. Light colored awning materials work best since they stay cooler and transfer less heat to the window. Because of the sizeable energy savings, awnings are regaining the popularity they had in Texas in the early 1900s.

Louvered, operable exterior shutters are even smarter window accents. Used properly, exterior shutters can effectively block all direct sunlight and reduce solar heat gain by 80%. Strategic landscaping can also help filter sunlight.

It's important to look at windows when trying to make a home more energy efficient. That's why the Public Utility Commission of Texas offers a free brochure on windows. It charts the effectiveness of different window treatment like multiple panes and solar screens.

The Energy Efficiency Division of the Commission has compiled and published smart energy solutions for Texans on a wide range of topics. Brochures, consumer guides, books and films are available by calling 1-800-643-SAVE.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH—Joe Belt of Lubbock is being honored this month by First National Bank. He specializes in western realism. His work can be viewed at the bank throughout the month of August.

Joe Belt honored as artist by First National Bank

The First National Bank of Floydada this week named Joe Belt as the August artist of the month. Belt, a Lubbock resident specializing in western realism, has achieved a steadily growing reputation as an accomplished artist.

Belt is a veteran exhibitor of four one-man shows for Hemphill-Wells in San Angelo. He has also participated in the Collector's Western Art Exhibit at the Ranching Heritage Center in Lubbock, an exhibit at the State Fair in Texas, and the Texas Arts Festival of Kerrville. Belt showed his work in the National Western Art Show where he won a second place award. He is now a member of the National Western Art Association and has been recognized by the American Academy of Fine Arts.

In the fall of 1979, Belt was commissioned by the Food and Fiber National Institute of Achievement, to create an eight by twelve foot mural for their exhibit at the Museum of Texas Tech University, where he attended college. The pencil drawing used to create the mural was used as the exhibit poster and later reproduced as the first herd print, the Food and Fiber series Entitled "Wherever the foot of the sheep touches, the land turns to gold." This rendition of a shepherd and his flock has received national acclaim.

Since the introduction of the "shepherd" print, the Food and Fiber series has been expanded to include two additional pencil drawings, one of a longhorn and one of a windmill. Special commissions for murals, oils, acrylics, and drawings depicting our western heritage have been received from private collectors, businesses, and galleries. As an illustrator and designer, Belt has won more than fifty local, state, and national awards.

Collectors of fine arts are beginning to notice Belt's potential. His works are included in many private collections including that of the Governor of Texas. His works have been acquired by people from 42 states and four foreign countries. His best selling pencil drawings have appeared on the covers of the Ranch Magazine and the National Wool Growers Magazine.

A native Texan, Belt and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters and are active in church, school, and civic programs.

Myths and facts about seat belts

It is indeed strange thinking about seat belts that permits so much death and suffering in the name of personal convenience and unwrinkled clothing, says a safety official.

Most of this "strange thinking" is based on a number of common myths about seat belts, says Dr. Gary Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

-Myth: Seat belts are unnecessary for short trips.

Fact: More than 70 percent of injury-causing traffic accidents occur within 25 miles of home, according to the National Safety Council. More than 80 percent of all collisions happen at speeds of under 40 mph. People who were not wearing seat belts have been killed in accidents that occurred at speeds as low as 12 mph—about the speed you would be driving in a parking lot.

-Myth: Seat belts trap people inside cars, and I'd rather be thrown clear.

Fact: "Thrown clear" is a misnomer. Being thrown from a vehicle usually means flying through the windshield or catapulting out a door. The force of a collision can fling you as much as 150 feet onto a roadside object, into the path of oncoming traffic or scraping along the pavement. For these reasons, if you are thrown from a vehicle in an accident, your chances of being killed are 25 percent greater. What's more, instead of being trapped, belted occupants are likely to be conscious and unhurt, and therefore better able to escape in the rare situation where fire or submersions are added dangers.

Duke assigned to Florida

Air Force Airman Brent Duke, son of Jackie L. and Edna Duke of Floydada, has arrived for duty at Patrick Air Force Base, Florida.

Duke, a telephone repair specialist with the 2179th Information Systems Squadron, was previously assigned at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas.

He is a 1982 graduate of Floydada High School.

-Myths: Seat belts cause injuries.

Fact: Study after study in the United States and abroad show a substantial decrease in the number of serious injuries in actual auto accidents among those who are belted versus those who aren't. In the rare instances where injuries due to belts have been reported, either the belt was inappropriately worn or the crash was so severe that the occupants would have been killed or seriously injured if they had been unbelted.

-Myth: I don't need belts since I'm a careful driver.

Fact: No matter how good a driver you are, you can't control the other car. There's no way to protect yourself against someone else's bad driving, poor judgements or mechanical failures. Even good drivers can be killed or injured in a crash.

-Myth: I don't need seat belts; I can brace myself.

Fact: The force of an impact at just 10 mph is equivalent to catching a 200-pound bag of cement thrown from a first-story window, according to the National Safety Council. At 35 mph, the force of an impact is even more brutal. There's no way your arms and legs can brace you against that kind of force—even if you could react in time.

THANK YOU

A Thank You or a handshake can only come close to expressing my concern and gratitude to the many individuals, businesses, Fire Department and the churches in Floydada that helped with donations or time with the Love Fund and car wash that was for my benefit in helping with the treatment I needed.

Times are very difficult now for everyone and I know it was very hard to dig into your pockets, but somehow you did. I and my family will never forget this. We greatly appreciate your concern and help in whatever way you chose, whether it be prayers, thoughts or donations to the Love Fund. These were all equally important and uplifting to all of us.

Thank you again Floydada and thanks especially to the Don Hardy's, the Joe Jackson's, the Earl Blair's, Terry Turner's, Jackie Gregory, and the Lions Club. Our hearts and many thanks go out to all of you. May God Bless each of you.

Davis and Hilliard exchange double ring vows

The double ring wedding vows of Miss Tonya Ann Hilliard and Guyian Thomas Davis were solemnized in a formal, candlelight ceremony at 7:00 p.m. Friday, August 2, at the Church of God in Blossom, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hilliard of Blossom. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Davis, also of Blossom.

The groom is the grandson of Ruby Davis and the late Hubert Davis and Grace Giles and the late Joe Giles, both of Floydada.

Mrs. Jenita Baker of Pattonville played pre-nuptial selections and the traditional wedding music. She accompanied Mrs. Charles Whitley, aunt of the bride, who sang "If." Following the vows, the bride sang "My Only Love" to the bridegroom.

The Rev. Lynn Hitt heard the couple's vows before the altar centered with a brass heart candelabra flanked by brass spiral candelabras. Each candelabra was decorated with English ivy and held white tapers and was accented with royal blue and gray ribbons and fresh greenery. Massive Boston ferns completed the altar decor. Pews were marked with brass aisle markers holding white tapers and tied with royal blue and gray ribbons.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a gown of sheer white organza over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice applied with lace and embellished with seed pearls. The bodice featured a victorian neckline and yoke of illusion. Wide double ruffles of organza covered the shoulders of long fitted sleeves which tapered to points at the hands. The flared skirt formed a train and was completely encircled with lace and rows of wide double ruffles of organza which were stiffened on the edge with wire to cause a rippling effect. The bride wore a Gibson hat with the brim swept up on one side, trimmed with lace and pearls and an illusion veiling. She carried a colonial bouquet fashioned by her aunt of silk white anemones, daisies, morning glories, miniature carnations, gypsophila and blue tea roses with white satin and lace streamers tied in love knots.

Mrs. Bobby Suddeth of Detroit was matron of honor, Mrs. Martha Wideman of Paris was bridesmatron and Miss Judy Hilliard of Blossom, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identically designed gowns of royal blue moire taffeta fashioned with sweetheart necklines, off-the-shoulder puffed sleeves and fitted bodices. The full gathered skirts were floor-length and tapered into a short train. Each wore a hairpiece of blue organza with baby's breath and royal blue ribbon and each carried a nosegay of white daisies and deep blue miniature carnations and baby's breath tied with royal blue and white satin ribbons.

Miss Amanda Hitt of Paris was flower girl and wore a dress fashioned similar to the bridal attendants. She carried a white wicker basket of fresh petals. Cameron Langley of Detroit was ring bearer.

Ladd Davis of Blossom served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Rod Rodgers of Sylvan and Phil Graves of Blossom.

Candlelighters were Gary Don Davis of Blossom, brother of the groom, and Bradley Hilliard of Paris.

The groomsmen and candlelighters served as ushers.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception in fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Clay Minton of Blossom, Miss Teresa Reves, Miss Lisa Leonard of Blossom, Miss Benette Holland, Miss Kim Anderson, and Miss Laura Hilliard of Paris.

Rice bags were distributed by Miss Tara Suddeth of Detroit and Justin Wideman of Paris. Miss Glynese Davis, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the register.

The bride is a 1984 honor graduate of Prairiland High School and is employed by the Western Sizzlin Steak House in Paris.

The groom is a 1983 graduate of Prairiland High School and attended Paris Junior College. He is employed by C.C.I. Cablevision in Paris.

Following a wedding trip to Arkansas, the couple will make their home in Bogata.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis were hosts for a barbecue dinner Thursday evening in fellowship hall of the church following the wedding rehearsal.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mary Lineaweaver and Donnie of Plains, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Giles, Lisa and Eric of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Steiner of Garland; Miss Gina Roe of Fresno, California; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Whitlock of Garland; Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Rogers of Irving and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Roland, Gary and Jana of Garland.

The bride was honored with several parties prior to her marriage.

A brunch was given by her aunts on June 15 at the home of Mrs. David Hilliard. Hostesses were Mrs. Vicki Hilliard, Mrs. Gary Hilliard and Mrs. Don Hilliard.

A miscellaneous shower was given June 18 by the Hillcrest Baptist Church ladies auxiliary.

The Blossom Church of God ladies auxiliary were hosts for a miscellaneous shower on July 18.

A rice bag luncheon and personal shower was given July 28 by Mrs. Charles Whitley and Mrs. Bobby Suddeth at the Whitley home.

Huggins celebrates 1st birthday

Melanie Huggins, daughter of Jim and Carol Huggins, celebrated her first birthday in her home in Lockney on Monday, August 5. Although her actual birthday was August 3, the party was late so everyone could attend.

The party area was decorated with pink streamers and balloons; and the plates, cups, and napkins were decorated with teddy bears wearing pink and white sailor dresses. The white layer cake was decorated with a candle made to look like a teddy bear with a birthday hat on and holding up a big "1." Everyone was served red punch and Granny's homemade peach ice cream. Brother Dan was a big help when it came to opening the gifts.

Those attending the party were: Melanie, Jim, Carol and Dan Huggins; grandparents, Wayne and Annabel Bramlet of Lockney and Harold and Eveilyn Huggins of Floydada; Aunt Sharron and Uncle Elbert Sammann of Lockney; and Uncle Larry Bramlet of Lockney.

"Flashbacks of A Spectator"

By Marisue Potis

A crumpled ticket in the dust; someone's lost dream of winning a golden filly? A smashed can by the sagebrush; it was hot, wasn't it. The hilltop where Walter sliced his juicy brisket; coyotes sniff while cattle graze peacefully in the background. One last walk down the deserted arena; the Burleson Memorial Roping is put to bed for another year, but the memories will last.

A 3/4 inch rain kicked off the three day event, but cowboys (who never let the weather, sand, blizzard, or rain, slow them down) said it just improved the sandy footing and cooled things off for a while.

Although it is always a thrill to see the well-trained spirited horses and witness the coordination and skill that a successful header or heeler uses in roping, the interest for me was in the young, just learning, riders. For some it was a beginning of this odd relationship of horse and man. There was five year old Wade Arrington whose gentle horse walked the last leg of the flag race, commenting at the gate, "I was really whupping him up, wasn't I, grandmother!" And so it must have seemed to so young a rider on such a tall horse.

Sometimes the competition wasn't between the kids so much as between the horse and rider. Little Molly Bomar didn't set the world's record in the barrel race, but she did finally get her horse to go around the barrel, and she brought him home, a triumph in itself.

A teen-age rider from Plainview got up at 4:30 to come to Flomot to compete while her friend, Lisa Luna and family, in the rodeo tradition, drove straight through from another event. The extra effort they put into their hobby made each of them winners, with or without the buckles, ribbons, or trophies they took home.

And the activities didn't stop in the arena. There were hills to climb, gates to open, baby owls to find, colts to rope, washers to pitch, and bareback rides to share with friends.

Pride swelled within me to see the family teams ride out, pause to plan their strategy, then go after their cut of the steers. Whether or not the goal of penning the calves was reached seemed of little consequence, the importance seemed to lie in working together, of being a unit against an adversary.

There was the Trail Doc who dispensed lemonade to the cowboys, saying it was better to prevent sunstroke rather than treat it. For two days he patiently waited, hoping for nothing to treat, but ready for any emergency. Then when a cowboy lost his thumbnail dallying in the final open pasture roping event, being a cowboy, he wouldn't even let the doc look at it. Guess cowboys have to be unconscious to receive first aid.

With the Quitaque Peaks looming in the west, it was a good time to be in the sandhills, a good time to be with friends and family. Though it was a memorial, accentuating rather than alleviating the loss of those so honored, the emphasis was on the living, young and old. As one winning roper whose wife drove into the night to make the roping said, "It's good to be home. You try harder at home."

Miss Battey and Ross recite marriage promises

Kathie Ann Battey and Mitchell Craig Ross exchanged marriage vows Saturday, August 3, at 6:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Floydada, with the Rev. Hal E. Farnsworth Jr. officiating. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Battey of Floydada. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ross, also of Floydada.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin, Alencon and Venise lace. The gown featured a Queen Anne neckline and long straight sleeves of satin and appliques of Venise lace. The bodice was accented with alencon and Venise lace, which was highlighted with seed pearls. The natural waistline fell to a full floor length skirt featuring scalloped Alencon lace accented with seed pearls. The lace encircled the skirt and extended around the full cathedral train.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a small brimmed hat, which was covered with alencon lace and accented with seed pearls. A fingertip veil attached to the hat completed the ensemble.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, agapanthus buds, gypsophyllia and stephanotis.

In keeping with tradition, for something old, the bride carried, intertwined within her bouquet, a gold watch and chain, which had belonged to her great-grandmother Battey and pinned to her petticoat a handkerchief which had belonged to her great-grandmother Grigsby. The bride's wedding attire was new. For something borrowed, she wore pearl earrings belonging to her sister-in-law, Abby Battey and a pearl necklace belonging to her mother.

For something blue, her white satin garter was accented with a royal blue bow. For luck, she wore pennies in her shoe bearing the couples birth year.

Prelude music was presented by pianist Kay Crabtree. Mrs. Hope Crabtree, accompanied by the piano, vocalized selections including, "The Theme from Ice Castles," "Annie's Song" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Wedding March and recessional was played by organist Mrs. Roberta Hardin.

The bridal aisle was marked with brass hurricane pew markers decorated with Ti leaves, white sinuata static, snapdragons and royal blue bows. The altar scene was centered with a double pyramid brass candelabra, with spiral candelabras on each side. All decorated with white gladiolas, agapanthus, asters, freesia, snapdragons and sinuata static. Large palms backed the center with smaller palms to each side. Two brass baskets holding arrangements of white gladiolus, agapanthus asters, snapdragons, freesia and sinuata static stood behind bridal ropes of gold attached to brass hurricane posts.

The bridal attendants carried nosegays of white asters, agapanthus blooms and gypsophyllia. Serving as maid of honor was Miss Sherese Cannon of Floydada. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Abby Battey of Floydada, Miss Renee Renfro of Matador and Miss Julie Pollard of Canadian. Flower girl was Miss Kristie Felts of Arlington. They wore identical gowns of royal blue matte taffeta with a circle flounced drop shoulder bodice and side drape intermezza skirt. The gowns were accented with a bow at the shoulder and waist.

The groom wore a traditional black tuxedo with matching vest and bow tie. He wore a white rose and stephanotis boutonniere.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Tom Ross of Floydada. Groomsman were Marty Covington and Rick Heflin of Floydada and Brad Fulton of San Angelo. Ushers were Jerry Battey Jr. and Scott Battey of Floydada, Scott Harmon of Idalou and Brent Campbell of Matador. All male attendants wore identical silver grey tuxedos with matching vest and ties and white rose boutonnières.

Kristi Rainey of Friona presided over the registration table.

A reception followed in Wall Street Parlor. A traditional three tiered wedding cake was decorated with small nosegays of white freesia and gypsophyllia. The cake was topped with a Precious Moments bride and groom, a gift from special friends of the couple. Serving at the bride's table was Debra Graham of Floydada and Christy Pruitt of Lubbock.

Serving at the groom's table was Mrs. Brenda Heflin of Floydada and Mrs. Beverly Brock of Levelland. The table was centered with an arrangement of fresh fruit and featured cheese, crackers and coffee.

Members of the houseparty included: Mmes. Elaine LaBaume, Joyce Anderson, Sherese Cannon, Barbara Covington, Donna Pernel, Rue Nita Robertson, Sandra Rainey, Lou Burleson, Joy Fulton, Libby Anderson and Kelly LaBaume.

Special guest at the ceremony included: the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Battey of Paris and the groom's grandparents, Mrs. W.J. Ross of Ralls and Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Blasingame of Lubbock, along with numerous other relatives.

A rehearsal dinner for the Mitch Ross and Kathie Battey wedding party was held at the Floydada Country Club August 2. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ross hosted the event.

After a wedding trip the couple will be making their home east of Floydada.

Shower given for Payne

Tammy Payne, bride-elect of Sherman Aten, was honored with a bridal shower on August 3 in the home of Mrs. Andy Rainwater.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Rainwater and received by Miss Payne, the bride-elect, and her mother, Hollis Payne and the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Tommy G. Aten. Silk corsages of blue mini tiger lilies were worn by those in the receiving line.

Guests were registered by Julianne Cornelius. Special guests included Mrs. J.C. Wester, grandmother of the bride-elect, and Crystal and Morletta Aten, sisters of the prospective groom.

Hostesses, Penny Giesecke and Jeanine Helms, served refreshments from a table covered with a cut work linen cloth. Crystal and milk glass appointments were used and the centerpiece was a brass bowl accented with silk flowers of blue, mint green and peach. Brass candlesticks with blue tapers were placed on either side of the centerpiece. A variety of cheeseballs, bacon crescents, olive biscuits, finger sandwiches and lemonade were served to guests.

The hostess gift was a white eyelet comforter with pillow shams.

Hostesses were Mmes. S.C. Burleson, Carolyn Cheek, Eric Cornelius, Scott Faulkenberry, Al Galloway, Mike Giesecke, Bob Hambright, Gordon Hambright, Bill Hardin, Adrain Helms, Kary Helms, Ray McDonald, Doris McLain, J.R. After you're registered, DHR will be on call if you need help. There will be community child care workshops which DHR will invite you to.

A DHR representative will visit your home upon your request or if there is a complaint. Although the Department will not inspect your home routinely, a small number of homes will be visited—unannounced—each year.

Registration is to help you give children good care. By finding out who's registered, parents know which homes to choose from.

Everyone benefits. But registration also makes child care everyone's responsibility. You must supervise yourself. And parents help oversee the care their children receive.

Registration is needed for care of children at home

Want to care for other people's children in your home? If so, you must register if:

- * you will be caring for six or fewer children (plus your own children and brothers and sisters of the other children during after-school hours. But you can't have more than 12 children at one time.);
- * the children are under 14 years old;

- * the care is less than 24 hours a day; and
- * the care is regular—for more than four hours a day, more than two days a week, and for at least five consecutive weeks.

Write, call, or visit a licensing office of the Texas Department of Human Resources (DHR). The people there will answer your questions and give you the papers you need to register.

You'll get instructions, forms, check lists, and other information. The check lists will help you make sure you're following the rules. (Otherwise, state courts may fine you or not let you operate.)

The rules are for the sake of the children. For instance, your home must be inspected for fire prevention, health, and safety. And parents must give you emergency medical information about their children.

When you're sure your home is set up by the rules, fill out the registration form and mail it to DHR. DHR will mail you a notice of registration and place your home on its list of Registered Family Homes.

After you're registered, DHR will be on call if you need help. There will be community child care workshops which DHR will invite you to.

A DHR representative will visit your home upon your request or if there is a complaint. Although the Department will not inspect your home routinely, a small number of homes will be visited—unannounced—each year.

Reports from Washington

POSTAL CLOSINGS NOT IN THE PLANS

In rural communities throughout Northwest Texas post offices play a vital role. I am particularly aware of the importance of small post offices in the 13th District, and of the role they play in rural community life. Without them, not only would an essential communications link be lost, but many rural towns would lose a central source of community identity and spirit. There has been much printed lately about efforts to close rural post offices. In large part, these reports are completely false. I resent the unnecessary fear that these reports have caused throughout the nation, and hope that I can play a role in getting the truth out.

At a recent oversight hearing of the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, Postmaster General Paul Carlin said the U.S. Postal Service is "not now considering or plans to take up the question of massive rural post office closings."

The National Association of Postmasters of the U.S. has asked that the point be emphasized: USPS is not preparing to trash thousands of post offices, nor is Congress, nor the Reagan administration.

Much of this controversy has stemmed from the report of the President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control, also known as the Grace Commission. That report asked the question, "Can the U.S. Postal Service reduce the costs of providing service to rural areas while maintaining adequate service levels?" And accordingly, suggested that as many as 7,000 post office consolidations be considered.

As founder and chairman of the Grace Caucus in the House, I have studied this recommendation. And while I am convinced that many of the savings suggested by the Grace Commission are necessary and legitimate methods to reduce waste in the federal government, I do not support this particular suggestion, and will assure each and every person in the 13th District of Texas that this will not be an issue for the Grace Caucus.

In all fairness, and in the wake of a $200 billion yearly deficit, we must look everywhere for possible savings. And while there may still be room in the postal service for changes that will improve the efficiency and service by eliminating waste and abuse, the rural post office is not the place to find those savings.

I will continue to study the Grace Commission report. It has over 2,400 suggestions that could ultimately reduce our deficit significantly. Most of these are good suggestions which I think the people of the 13th District would support.

For example, I have just learned that because of outdated and inadequate computer equipment, taxpayers are not receiving their tax refunds from the IRS. The Grace Commission has recommended that updated equipment would save millions of dollars and improve efficiency at the IRS. These are the types of changes that the Grace Caucus is working to make; real structural reforms.

Madagascar periwinkles are superb for Texas gardens

Need a flowering plant that withstands summer heat and has few insect problems?

Try the Madagascar periwinkle. This colorful plant is finding its way into more and more gardens each summer because it is so tough and heat tolerant, says Dr. Bill Welch, landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

At the same time, plant breeders have been able to bring new characteristics into this plant that has made it even more desirable for home garden use. A good example is the variety Morning Mist. It's the first periwinkle with clusters of flowers. Each flower is pure white, centered with a red eye. Periwinkle varieties presently available have white, pink, rose or lavender flowers (many with a contrasting eye), but flower breeders have additional varieties almost ready to release that will further extend the color range.

The foliage is one of the Madagascar periwinkle's most attractive features with its narrow, dark-green, glossy leaves, Welch says. The contrast between the foliage and the flower is as attractive as any summer flowering plant available.

Periwinkles are superb for Texas gardens where heat frazzles many other plants. They will deliver a fine show in full sun throughout the summer until a killing frost gets them in the fall.

Clean up, fix up, paint up. And plant trees. The birds will love you. So will your kids, when they are playing in the shade.

41st annual Boys Ranch rodeo set for Labor Day

The forty-first annual Boys Ranch Rodeo will be held over the Labor Day weekend with up to 10,000 people expected for the two performances. Nearly 250 of the Ranch's boys will be riding calves, steers, bulls, bareback broncs, along with area riding clubs that will participate in the grand entry. It is a rodeo for all of the boys and those who do not compete as contestants will be selling barbecue beef plates, soft drinks and snow cones, or working at the many jobs required for a successful rodeo.

The boys will be competing for belt buckles and for the titles of Junior and Senior All-Around Cowboys. Specialty acts will include a wild steer race, FFA project parade, calf scramble and barrel races with five and six-year-old boys riding stick horses. Among the spectators will be many of the Ranch graduates who are expected to return for their annual reunion. Over 3,000 boys have called the Ranch home since 1939 and some travel long distances to attend the rodeo and for a meeting of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association.

A new addition to the rodeo arena this year is an expanded, covered reserved bleacher section with seats priced at $3.50. Reserved box seats are $4.50, general admission $2.50 and children 6-12 are admitted for $1.00. Barbecue beef plates will be prepared by the boys and sold for $3.50 at noon each day. Rodeo action begins at 2:30 p.m. September 1st and 2nd.

The Boys Ranch Rodeo is the only one of its kind in the nation with boys of all ages riding professional rodeo stock under R.C.A. rules. Further information and reservations are available by calling (806) 372-2341, or by writing P.O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas 79174.

Texas State Library to present special exhibits

In celebration of Texas' 150th birthday, the Texas State Library will present seven special Sesquicentennial exhibits beginning November 1985.

Visitors to the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives and Library Building in Austin will be able to view priceless manuscripts, original documents, books, photographs, and other historical treasures throughout the celebration. Showcased will be a draft of the 1836 Constitution, diaries and journals of early settlers, plus documents relating to Revolutionary War heroes such as Sam Houston, Ben Milam, and J.W. Fannin.

The exhibits will cover the spectrum of Texas' development since early Spanish exploration and will focus on the laws, people, cities, and events creating today's modern state.

The first display features "Texas Books and Writers: 150 Years" and will spotlight the variety and depth of literature including biographies, fiction, folklore, and history. In conjunction, a statewide campaign will be launched urging each citizen to conduct a personal observance by reading one Texas book per month during 1986. Contributions to local libraries will also be encouraged to augment and expand Texana collections and research materials.

The exhibit schedule for January-February 1986 includes "Legislative Landmarks of Texas," a survey of significant laws which continue to affect daily life. On display will be official copies of legislation, landmark laws, and governors' messages to the House of Representatives and Senate. Both the process and influence of legislation will be highlighted.

Open March-April will be "The Texas Revolution," depicting political and military events of the period through private papers, government records, and printed works.

"The Republic of Texas" during May-June will survey the stormy ten-year period of independence and the achievements during this unique era of American history.

During July-August, "The Governors of Texas" will spotlight the chief executives of Texas, the accomplishments of their administrations, and the role of the executive branch in state government.

Photographs, documents, and publications on view in September-October will trace the development of Texas cities, businesses, and family life in "150 Years of Texas' Growth."

Culminating the Sesquicentennial exhibits will be "Texans in the Wars" during November-December. Maps, diaries, correspondence, and military records will honor the valor of Texas fighting men from the Revolution to the present.

A exhibit summary brochure will accompany each display and list significant dates and bibliography. In addition, special Sesquicentennial souvenir certificates will be available to document visits to the archives during 1986.

Visitors will also be able to view items on permanent display, such as copies of the Texas Declaration of Independence, the Travis letter from the Alamo, and various treaties between Texas and other countries. Group tours of the lobby can be arranged by calling (512)475-2445.

TTUHSC sets symposium

"Not tonight, dear, I have a headache" is a legitimate excuse and should be respected, according to Lee Kudrow, M.D., keynote speaker for the second annual Symposium on Pain to be held Saturday and Sunday, August 31 and September 1, at the Medical School of Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center (TTUHSC) in Lubbock.

A leading authority on headache, Dr. Kudrow says that over 80 percent of all headaches in women are related to hormonal changes during the menstrual cycle. The five types of migraine and the two types of cluster headaches are vascular in origin. They will be contrasted with three other general categories of headache, giving physicians, nurses and other health professionals an overview of the multiple causes underlying this common human experience.

When the dull ache of a headache is accompanied by extreme sensitivity to light, noise and touch sensations, symptoms indicate a form of migraine called the common migraine. Current theory holds that the "everything makes you want to scream" syndrome is an accompanying deficiency of neural (related to nerves) hormones which affect the sense organs, making these stimuli extremely painful. The only immediate help is to head for a dark, quiet room and wait it out.

Most types of headaches will respond to proper therapeutics, however. The trick is being able to diagnose the cause accurately. Dr. Kudrow, director of the California Medical Clinic for Headache, has been one of the nation's leading researchers into the causes and classifications of headaches. The author of over 50 publications and some 137 lectures and symposia for faculty will discuss his system for classification and treatment.

The two-day symposia will also include six treatment methodologies for other forms of intractable pain. The Pain Center at TTUHSC School of Medicine is one of a few centers in West Texas specializing in the management of pain which has proven unresponsive to usual treatment methods.

Abuse of toxic inhalants on the rise among Texas teens

Most parents worry about their children using drugs, but of growing concern lately is the abuse of toxic inhalants, many of which are cheap, easy to buy, easy to use and easy to hide. Although "sniffing" solvents and aerosols to get high is not new, authorities report the number of inhalant abusers has increased dramatically over the last few years.

"There are at least 60,000 chronic sniffers in Houston, El Paso and San Antonio alone," said Nancy Neff, M.D., assistant professor of community medicine at Baylor College of Medicine. Neff studied 97 adolescents who abused toxic substances.

To help families counter the problem, Baylor College of Medicine has developed a brochure entitled "Preventing Inhalant Abuse."

Sniffers inhale fumes from products such as gasoline, glue, paint, shoe polish and other chemicals to produce a brief, light-headed, and sometimes lethal high.

"Chronic sniffers typically suffer organic brain syndrome," Neff said. "This results in a loss of memory, an inability to reason or solve problems, and sometimes a drastic personality change."

Certain inhalants can even cause death if sniffed too much, she said.

"Like other forms of substance abuse, inhalant abuse is a symptom," Neff said. "The abuser is probably unhappy, alienated from his or her family and has only a few friends who don't sniff."

Parents should treat inhalant abuse as a real problem, not just a passing fad. Neff said parents should wait until the sniffer is no longer high before talking about the problem. School counselors and community agencies are available to help parents and abusers overcome the habit.

For a free brochure on inhalant abuse, its dangers and how to stop it, call 1-800-392-4444 or write: Preventing Inhalant Abuse, We Care for You, P.O. Box 13567, Houston, Texas 77219. The brochure is printed in both English and Spanish.

Texas REA leaders meet

Some 700 Texas co-op leaders joined last week in celebrating 50 years of rural electrification. They cited the record as reason for the celebration—from 97 percent of the rural populace without electricity in 1935 to 97 percent with electric service today.

In compiling this record, Texas' 80 rural electric systems have constructed more than 241,000 miles of lines throughout the rural areas of all but nine of Texas' 254 counties. They're now looking forward to connecting their one-millionth meter later this year.

The TEC government relations department presented a panel discussion on issues concerning co-ops such as dual certification of service areas, recent legislation, and Public Utility Commission management audits.

A.T. (Sonny) Turner of Southwest

Texas EC consoled concerned co-op officials about the audits: "A PUC management audit is the best thing that can happen to a co-op; you should welcome one...don't be afraid of one," Turner said.

Voting delegates elected three men to two-year terms on the board of directors: Sam Houston of Hill County EC Hollis E. Joslin of Johnson County EC J.R. (Russ) Vander Zee of Bandera EC. The board in turn selected new officers: Sam Houston, president, succeeding Bill McGinnis of Denton County EC, Hollis E. Joslin, vice-president, and James Barr of Coleman County EC, secretary-treasurer.

The Texas Rural Electric Women's Association elected Mrs. Pat McAlister of North Plains EC Texas member of the national board. Mrs. J.R. Vander Zee was elected to the TREWA board.

South Plains News

by Mrs. Murray Julian
South Plains, August 5th:
Hot, dry weather continues here this August 5th, and fields of maize, and other grains are having to have lots of water. Sunflowers with their bright faces are all around us here at South Plains, as they face the sun in the morning. The bright fields of sunflowers this year just seem endless, as we look at them over the countryside. How the farmers do need rain at this time.

It was such a happy surprise to get to see Cherry Mullins and his wife from Grand Prairie, last Saturday. They were here a few days. While here they attended the golden wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. John and Oleta Wilson which was held at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Staniforth on Saturday afternoon. Cherry lived here with his mother and we hadn't seen him for so many years. He and wife visited old friends around the vicinity.

Sunday morning at the South Plains Baptist Church there were many visitors attending with Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, and although I cannot name them all, I saw old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny and Sue Wilson and Loran Wilson of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blythe (Sue) and boys, Dennis and Russell, from Clint, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Billy and Frances Staniforth, their daughter Sara and husband, and little son, were present and Mrs. Blythe, Tom's mother, was also present. We extend best wishes to all of them on the occasion of the golden wedding anniversary of Oleta and John Wilson.

Other visitors at the Sunday morning services at the South Plains church were Mr. and Mrs. Modine and Willie Stryker from Hawkins, who later visited Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Osborne during the afternoon. Modine and Rev. Osborne are cousins.

Others celebrating their golden wedding day on Saturday, August 3rd, were Mr. and Mrs. Carl and Grace Jarrett of Floydada. Their children hosted the celebration, which was held in the Primitive Baptist Church in Floydada. Grace and Carl were wed 50 years ago, August 3rd, in Wellington. We wish them happiness.

There will be a surprise party held at the South Plains Baptist Church this Wednesday night, and friends in the community will come to fellowship hall to celebrate the occasion of the Osborne's fifth anniversary here at the South Plains Church. After prayer service the couple will go to fellowship hall where refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and homemade ice cream will be served to everyone attending. A money tree will be presented the pastor and Joyce. We are so thankful for such a fine pastor and family.

Poffinbarger participates at Tech camp

Twenty-two gifted and talented teenagers from throughout Texas participated in the second annual Shake Hands With Your Future Computer Camp at Texas Tech University June 2-7.

The camp provided bright teenagers with extensive computer programming experience.

Participants from Floydada included Mike Poffinbarger, 12, son of Wilford and Michele Hanson, Floydada.

During the camp, University faculty help students examine computer languages such as BASIC and Assembly and to study keyboard skills, word processing, computer modeling and the writing of computer games and graphics. Students spend more than six hours a day developing their programming and applications skills on mainframe and microcomputers. In addition to classroom instruction, students interact through field trips, recreation and social activities.

The Shake Hands With Your Future Computer Camp is an integral part of the Division of Continuing Education's Institute for the Gifted. To participate in the Computer Camp, students must be nominated by a parent, teacher or counselor and provide documentation of standardized test scores of 90 percentile or higher in math, an IQ of 120 or above, or a B+ grade average for the 1984-85 school year.

LAKEVIEW NEWS

By Joyce Williams

August 8, 1985:

Mr. and Mrs. William Bertrand will host the Batteny family reunion at the picnic grounds on their Blanco Canyon ranch this week-end.

Mrs. Wayne Appling and other local homemakers have been busy canning and freezing fruit and vegetables the past few weeks. Bertha has canned fifty quarts of green beans, made pickles, and is now starting on the corn.

Over at the Howard Bishops they have the pea sheller going in the backyard as fast as they bring them in from the garden.

Neal Bertrand and son, Glenn, have been cutting corn down around San Antonio the past two weeks. Sam Green and Glenn took their equipment down last month.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Harrison met at Lubbock Christian College last week with other shareholders of Roaring Springs Ranch. The owners met to exchange ideas on maintenance and representation of the ranch.

Mrs. Gladys Widner, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertrand, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bertrand and Mr. and Mrs. William Bertrand and families met for a Bertrand family reunion last Saturday. They met at William Bertrands picnic grounds in the canyon. Picnic tables are set up under trees around the clearing near the river. Volleyball, horseshoe pitching and horseback riding were available for the active guests. Table games kept the more sedate relatives occupied.

Miss Tara Williams was honored on her first birthday, Monday, August 5, with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Williams. A cake decorated with Kermit the Frog, was served with ice cream and punch. Guests included her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Calloway; grandmother, Mrs. Q.D. Williams; cousins, Ashleigh and Austin Williams, and her sister, Amanda.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayne Golightly and children, Lacy and Rance, visited in Lubbock Saturday with Penny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane McClintock, also Dayne's parents, Bennie and Jim Russum. The Golightly's ate lunch and attended a movie. On the way home they stopped by the McClintocks again to pick up fresh vegetables from their garden.

Miss Lacy Golightly has been taking up donations for Muscular Dystrophy this week. Volunteers will then skate in a Skate-a-thon on Labor Day at Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children returned home Sunday evening from a vacation at Red River, New Mexico. Weather was not just cool but cold in the mountains, and very relaxing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Watson attended the special music evening at the United Methodist Church last week. Afterwards they went to the Watson home for cake and homemade ice cream. Mrs. Watson's mother, Mrs. Ruth Carouthers, was also a guest from Wise County.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Breed drove to Kerrville Saturday to meet their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Breed of Portland, near Corpus Christi. Ryan, age 10, and Linda, age 11, came to Lakeview for a two week visit with their grandparents.

Mrs. Mike Bishop and sons, David and Warren, tried out their new blue suburban Chevrolet on a trip to Oklahoma to visit Rozanne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paige at Cameron. They returned home by way of Oklahoma City to visit her sister.

The Bishop boys visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop on Saturday.

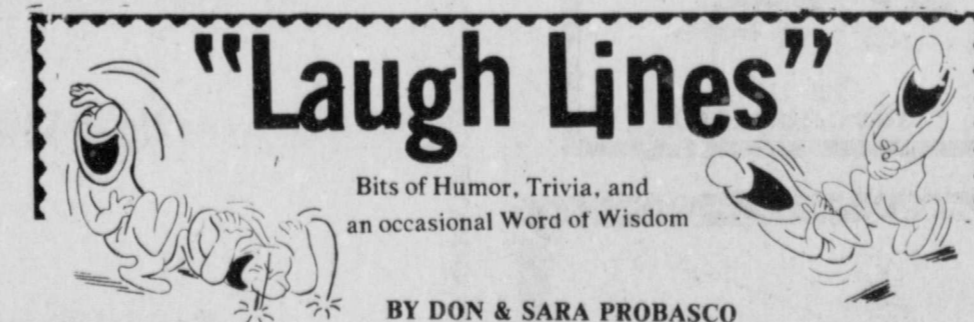

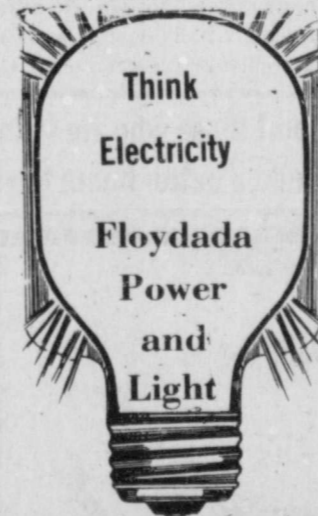

No rain recently. Hot, hot weather. It was good to visit with Charlie and Flukie Smith when they were here for granddaughter Jodie's wedding recently.

UP WITH AGRICULTURE

By David Garst

Read carefully the words of Mike "Black Elk" Stuart, an American Indian living in Omaha, Nebraska, and a state winner in the UP WITH AGRICULTURE Writing Contest we sponsored for FFA kids this year.

"As I sat by the pond watching the sun and listening to the leaves rustling through the trees, I felt myself slipping into the past. I saw the summer prairie grass and the never-ending herds of buffalo that my forefathers saw. I felt the sorrow my people felt when they lost this beautiful land to the white man. I looked at my reflection and ran my fingers through the water. I felt the tears my people cried. Enough tears to fill this pond. I love this land, too."

We in America are indebted to the American Indian. He was the first to till the soil of North America, and the first to understand the richness locked within it. He was the first to harvest golden ears of maize — the first to recognize the value of this crop which is our nation's greatest. Just think! Those small patches of Indian corn are ancestors to the tall, high-yielding hybrid corn that blankets millions of acres today. There's no more fascinating tale of genealogy to be told.

The American Indian made efficient use of the huge herds of buffalo that grazed the Great Plains. And he knew the importance of using every piece of meat, every inch of hide.

Perhaps most importantly, the American Indian was the first to nurture the special symbiotic relationship between man and the land, the first to realize that whatever we take from the land must be replaced. He was our first conservationist, environmentalist, and guardian of the land.

To the American Indian, the land was everything. He drew his strength from it. And his blood fell like rain on the land he fought to protect.

We in American agriculture cannot share the sorrow of the American Indian. But we can share his love of the land.

And we can promise to protect the legacy for which he wept.

Enough tears to fill a pond.
