Twister spotted

It isn't spring, but turbulent weather followed a turbulent spring pattern Monday night.

Floyd County Sheriff's Department observed a funnel cloud shortly before 9 p.m. that day, located northwest of Muncy or south of Lockney.

"It kept coming down and going up" but never touched ground, according to Deputy Sheriff David Hart, one of the spotters. He identified the location as being "between Muncy and Farm Road 378."

"None of it lasted very long," Hart said, explaining that "There was heavy rain for a minute but it was moving real fast."

Herman Graham of Muncy said "a little hail" fell at both Muncy and Sandhill, but apparently little if any damage resulted. Muncy gauged only two-tenths of an inch of moisture.

"Small hail" was reported in Liberty community, but "there was not enough hail to hurt our turnips," according to Keith Marble.

Heavier hail was reported in three neighboring counties. "Golf ball size" hail fell in the Crosbyton area, along with heavy rains.

Hale and Briscoe counties also reported hail. A funnel was observed "on the ground" southwest of Ralls, but no damage was reported.

According to news reports, the most severe weather occurred to the south, southwest and west of Floyd County. Numerous funnel clouds appeared on the South Plains.

Moisture was nominal in the Floydada area.

A "hard rain" fell in Lockney.

Planning-Zoning Commission suggesting change to council

A September 25 meeting of the Floydada Planning and Zoning Commission resulted in passage of a resolution urging the Floydada City Council to change the R-2 multi-family zoning on both the north and south sides of Houston Street between Main Street and Third Street to a B-2 designation.

Chairman of the commission, Richard Hale asked that the commission recommend this action to the council after hearing the thoughts of three property owners in the area. Forty-eight had been notified of the meeting and asked to attend and give their views on the proposed change in the area of their residences.

The three offering opinions felt that the possibility of having a business come into the three block area would create problems for the home owners along this section of the highway through Floydada.

Hale urged the change to create a symmetry of zoning the city.

"This is the only area along the highway that is not zoned B-2," said Hale. "This is a high traffic area and is an appropriate area for business as it is a commerce route."

The commission and those attending the session were reminded that there are already businesses in the three block section which existed prior to the zoning of the area as R-2. Among these are Bishop-Ramsey Pharmacy, Billie's and the old City Trim shop now used by Leatherman Trucking.

The resolution was passed unanimously by attending commission members Louis Anderson, Monte Williams and Ricky Burns. According to city manager Bill Feuerbacher, the city does not anticipate any immediate changes in the area, such as new businesses opening, and the zoning change will not alter the tax status of the property in the area.

"This change in zoning is being asked as a matter of expediency," said Feuerbacher. "It will avoid having to hold a series of hearings each and every time someone contemplates establishing a business in the area and will make the zoning along the highway uniform in Floydada."

Drug program Tuesday at schools

Parents, other adults encouraged to join students

"Keeping drugs away from the schools and reducing the number of students willing to experiment with drugs" is the goal of a program which is about to be introduced to Floydada schools.

Programs during which the "drug-sniffing dogs" system and the dangers of drug use and abuse will be pointed out are scheduled next Tuesday at local schools for students, parents and other interested adults.

Superintendent Jerry Cannon "encourages" all parents and other adults to attend any of the four program scheduled at the various schools next Tuesday by Carl F. Rickert Jr. of Gainesville. He has been engaged by the school to operate the drug-sniffing dog program.

Rickert's schedule during Tuesday morning visit to Floydada:

8:30 a.m., high school auditorium, 45 minute program

9:30 a.m., junior high auditorium, 30 minute program

10:30 a.m., Duncan Elementary, 20 minute program

11:15 a.m., Andrews Elementary, 30-minute program.

Rickert and his dogs are scheduled for four "totally unannounced" visits each month. The dogs will be utilized to examine lockers, vehicles and classrooms for drugs.

Classes will not be disrupted and only the handler will know when the dogs smell a controlled substance.

Adults are welcome to attend any of the programs. However, the session at Floydada High School will involve the greatest in-depth information and the high school auditorium has the greatest number of seats.

School officials anticipate that time will allow for a question-and-answer session, particularly during the one-hour program at high school.

SCHOOL POLICY

Following is the school's drug deterrent procedures policy:

1. General Procedures:

A. The dog will work the different schools at unknown intervals.

B. Except for authorized personnel, there will be no movement outside the classroom, offices, etc., during the time the dog is at work in the building.

C. Parent(s) will be called to school if the dog alerts to the car a student is driving, his/her locker, or personal belongings.

D. Procedures to be followed when necessary to contact the student's parent(s):

1. The parent(s) will be contacted by telephone. If this is not possible, the school parent worker or a member of the administrative staff will personally make the contact.

David Cave to be sworn in Friday as district judge

Following the resignation of Judge George Miller, David Cave will be sworn in as judge of the 110th District Court, at 2:00 p.m. Friday, in the Dickens County Courthouse. Cave will be sworn in by Dickens County Judge Bill Young.

Governor Mark White appointed Cave as judge on September 24 and it was confirmed by the Senate. The appointment is effective until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Cave is the Democratic nominee for the office for judge of the 110th Judicial District and he has no general election opponent.

Who will wear the Miss Floydada crown in '87?

Who will wear the Miss Floydada crown during 1987?

That decision will be made during the Miss Floydada Pageant, sponsored on Nov. 22 by Floydada Chamber of Commerce. Floydada High School Auditorium will be the site.

"Young ladies who wish to enter are asked to pick up an entry form at the Chamber of Commerce office or Williams Florist," according to the sponsors.

Requirements for entry are: —must be a student at FHS during 1987-88

—must model both formal and sports-wear

—must submit a recent photograph —sponsor (parents, business or civic club) must submit entry fee of $25.

The winner is to receive "many prizes" as well as being Floydada's representative at many civic events throughout the year.

Entry forms must be returned to the Chamber of Commerce office or Williams Florist by Nov. 1.

Kelli LaBaume is the reigning Miss Floydada.

For further information, persons may contact the Chamber office at 983-3434 or James Williams at 983-5013.

Correction

An article in last week's Hesperian concerning crime stated that Gilbert Garza was assessed a $50 plus court costs fine in county court. The actual assessment, handed down by County Judge Choise Smith, was 14 days in jail plus the $50 fine and court costs. This newspaper apologizes for the error.

'Love will find a way'

"Talk about answered prayer," says Worth Merry Howard, who like her mother, Jeffie, is a Floyd County native. "This pump is covered by Medicare as of September 19. It came just in time for me to enter All Saints Episcopal Hospital in Fort Worth.

Suffering from lymphedema, Worth might proclaim "the pump" as another "answered prayer." It was developed by Edward Wright Sr., a retired industrial manager who had taken courses in engineering, after his granddaughter, Jennifer, developed lymphedema. More than 250 Wright Linear Pumps are now used in homes and hospitals across the county, and in Canada, Italy, Japan, the Bahamas and South America.

Unless there is another breakthrough in the treatment of lymphedema, Jennifer will have to use the pump for the remainder of her life. But because her lymphatic vessels appear to have shrunk, she needs to be on it for only an hour a day and can otherwise look forward to living normally, according to a Ladies' Home Journal article.

Worth Merry Howard hopes her body's response to the relatively new machine is as successful as that of the Pennsylvania girl.

Lymphedema is the accumulation in the limbs of lymph fluid and tissue that normally would be circulated throughout the body with the help of a system of muscular lymphatic "check valves."

"I was not born with lymphedema. After a very difficult delivery of

Winds seek upset over ranked Antelopes

Final non-conference contest Friday in Abernathy

Whirlwinds, who haven't pulled off a major upset in several falls, would like nothing better than to turn the trick Friday night in Abernathy.

That would be a major undertaking since the Associated Press last week ranked the Antelopes seventh in state among Class AA squads. Harris Rating System tabbed them 12th.

The Whirlwinds, owning a 2-1-1 season mark, will be facing a large, experienced and talented club when they take the field for an 8 p.m. kickoff against Abernathy.

The Antelopes downed AAA Dimmitt 20-6 last Friday for their third victory against a lone loss, 28-0 at the hands of powerhouse Littlefield.

"I don't think it's inconceivable for us to beat Abernathy," Wind mentor Joe Paty said early this week, although he admits "it will take an error-free game and we would have to get the breaks."

SIMILAR TO ROOSEVELT

Abernathy is "a physical team, somewhat like Roosevelt," Coach Paty observes. In fact, they resemble Roosevelt a lot.

This resemblance starts with the Antelopes being "a physical ball team with good experience in the line. They have one of the best linebackers we've seen in Rowdy Powell (178 pound senior). He doesn't go around you, he runs over you."

Anchoring the hefty line is 226 pound senior Brandon Houston. Adding size to the forward wall are Robert Palacios (260 pounds), Pete Garcia (220 pounds) and noseguard Ronnie Williams (200 pounds).

Again bearing a resemblance to Roosevelt, the Antelopes have a "shifty" halfback (junior Irvin Dunn), a powerful fullback (Powell) and a quarterback who throws well (Flint Bingham, 168 pound junior), Chuck Thompson, a 6'2", 185 pound receiver, can also maneuver at quarterback.

Abernathy's defense utilizes "real good technique."

A perennial playoff squad, the Antelopes advanced to the quarterfinals last fall, when they amassed a 12-2 record.

No common opponents have been faced by the Whirlwinds and the Antelopes this fall. Abernathy downed Cooper 34-0, while Floydada outscored Cooper, four touchdowns to none, in a scrimmage. In its third outing, the Lopes dumped a good Shallowater squad, 20-10.

"KIDS PLAYED HARD" Reviewing the Lockney game, Coach Paty says "I thought our kids played hard. In our (coaches') opinion, this was one of the hardest games a Floydada team has played against Lockney in some time. We're still making mistakes, which are resulting in penalties, but I felt that we played hard enough to win."

Coach Paty adds that "We don't like a tie, but it's much better than a loss."

As the Whirlwinds prep for their largest opponent to date, they are doing so without their most experienced lineman. Joe Gonzales suffered a knee injury during a second quarter goalline stand against Lockney. Severity of the injury was unknown early this week. Gonzales is a three-year, two-way starter.

David Pyle, David Medrano and Darin Martinez — all of whom have missed some action due to injuries — are expected to be ready for the Abernathy contest. Pyle, senior center-linebacker, played against Lockney.

Gonzales is expected to be replaced on offense by Martinez and on defense by possibly Ruben DeLeon.

Whirlwinds cited by their coaches for

David Kirk 'critical' in Lubbock hospital

David Kirk, well-known Floydada businessman, is in "critical condition" in the intensive care unit of Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He underwent 4½ hour surgery Friday morning, having a double by-pass, removal of a kidney and spleen and repair of a "descending aneurysm" in his lower abdomen, according to family members. The long-time Floydada resident had hernia surgery in June and a heart attack in late August.

my first-born child, the delicate lymphatic system was injured, causing my leg and feet to swell. I also developed phlebitis. Then, five years ago, after a mastectomy and radiation treatment, my arm and hand began to swell."

'MY MIRACLE HAPPENING'

The personable former teacher, whose "thing" seems to be helping less fortunate, explains that "now my miracle seems to be happening. I've always told my grandson, Worth Shipley Anderson, that love will find a way. And since God is love, this is an answered prayer." "Love will find a way," she continues.

Before reading an article about the Wright Linear Pump and conferring via phone with Dr. Alexander in Pittsburgh, Pa., she was running short of hope. She "spent everything I had" to be examined by specialists at Mayo's and Scott & White clinics, where she was told to "take aspirin for the pain."

For this, Worth uses the word "idiopathic": "The doctors are idiots and the patients are idiots for believing their diagnosis."

INDEPENDENT WOMAN

Mrs. Howard, who was accused by her late mother as being "as independent as a hog on ice," is having to give in for once. She will be on the pump "for the rest of her life."

At the Fort Worth hospital, she will "be on the pump for 48 hours and will not put my feet on the floor."

Her disease, which afflicts an estimated 12,000 to 13,000 Americans, is regarded as somewhat rare.

The Wright Linear Pump she will be using is even more of a rarity. Thus, it is quite expensive. After checking into the hospital, the Floydadan must purchase both an arm and a leg "appliance" or a "sleeve" at an approximate cost of $470 and the pump at an approximate cost of $3,965. This equipment will be hers and will return home from Fort Worth with her.

All Saints Episcopal Hospital is the lone Texas medical facility and one of only 12 in the United States which offers the equipment and patient care.

A Pennsylvania woman had a similar situation to Mrs. Howard's and used the new device, which pushes out the accumulated lymph, which swelled the woman's arm to about 100 pounds.

Following is her story, published by a Pennsylvania newspaper:

PARALLEL SITUATIONS

"Surgery and radiation therapy cured Ruth Van Der Poel of breast cancer but left her lymphatic system seriously impaired.

"Within days her left arm swelled like a balloon, and doctors told her she would have the condition known as chronic lymphedema the rest of her life.

"The lymphedema worsened, and by 1982, three years after her surgery, Mrs. Van Der Poel's arm had bloated to 50 pounds.

"She gave up driving, wore capes instead of coats and rested her arm on a chair when she ran a vacuum cleaner.

"I propped it when I slept," the Secane, Pa., woman said. "To get out of bed I'd throw my right foot out and then my arm and I learned to kind of roll out."

"She sought the help of specialists in the Philadelphia area and New York but was told nothing could be done.

"No operation would help me," she said. "It was very depressing."

"To make things worse, the skin on her arm stretched and cracked, leaving her open to repeated infections and high fevers. She feared the arm would have to be amputated.

"Mrs. Van Der Poel had abandoned hope when her daughter-in-law, Jill, a Lancaster County resident, read about a device developed by a retired Pittsburgh area engineer that was helping people with lymphedema.

"It is called a Wright Linear Pump, and it uses three inflatable cuffs that sequentially squeeze the stagnant lymph, a clear bodily fluid, out of the limb and into the abdomen for natural elimination through the urine.

"The incidence of lymphedema in women who undergo radical mastectomy, which involves removal of a breast and underlying lymph nodes, is not known, according to Dr. Michael A. Alexander, medical director of D.T. Watson Rehabilitation Hospital in Sewickley, Pa.

"The more radical the dissection of lymph nodes, the greater the risk," said Dr. Alexander, who developed protocols for the use of the Wright Linear Pump.

"Normally, skin resistance and muscular activity help pump lymph out of the limbs, but when the network of lymph vessels is disrupted, the fluid pools in the limb. Some children are born with the condition.

"Dr. Samuel A. Rice, a Lancaster internist, and his partners have seen a few people in their practice with congenital lymphedema and asked St. Joseph Hospital to acquire a linear pump.

"With therapy lasting up to 16 hours a day, the thick fluid loosened up and began to be squeezed out of her arm.

"There's been such an improvement," she said. "I lost three inches in my shoulder overnight."

"Mrs. Van Der Poel was discharged with plans to continue using the pump each day at home. She may need to use it for the rest of her life, but the duration of therapy should lessen.

"It was like a miracle. I had been in prayer," she said. "Now I just want to see the big change."

"Dr. Alexander said about 90 patients have been treated with the pump at his institution since 1981 and in 75 to 80 percent of the cases there has been a 'significant decrease in the size of the affected limb.'

"A good result is when the limb reduces to within 10 to 15 percent above its normal size, he said.

"There's always a little bit of that symptom left," he said. "It doesn't cure it. It just manages the symptom."

HEFTY PRICE TAG

"The biggest drawback to the Wright Linear Pump is its $3,965 price tag, Dr. Alexander said. But Pittsburgh area insurance companies have been reimbursing 80 percent of the cost, he noted.

"Ed Wright, vice president and general manager of Wright Linear Pump, Inc., of Pittsburgh, said several centers are doing research into other uses for the pump.

"Dr. Harold Weingarden of Memorial Hospital in San Barbara, Calif., is studying how the pump helps stroke victims suffering swelling in the hand and arm. Others are studying its effect on arthritis, rheumatism and venous stasis ulcers of the skin.

"Dr. Alexander said he thinks the pump may help reduce the risk of blood clots in the leg during or after surgery.

"The pump is also going to find its way into sports medicine,"

Wright said. "The point is there are two areas that the pump will help. It will move any swelling and it acts as an aid to circulation."

LABOR OF LOVE

Love may not always be enough. But combined with an understanding of fluid dynamics, a grandfather's love has led to the development of the device that gives victims of chronic lymphedema their first opportunity to live a relatively normal life.

Edward S. Wright Sr. watched in distress as the only treatment available for his granddaughter, Jennifer, proved futile. This led to birth of the Wright Linear Pump, despite his two heart attacks during the development period.

In his early 70s during the time he was developing the machine, Wright now is blind. And the granddaughter he greatly aided now reads to him.

Wright Linear Pump, which weighs approximately 40 pounds, has been approved for marketing by the Food and Drug Administration. It is available in sizes for infants, children and adults.

Edward S. Wright Sr. and his inventory, plus the Fort Worth hospital which is offering the treatment and enlarging of the Medicare benefits to provide this coverage are "answers to prayers" for Worth Gwendolyn as she has been called in Floydada since childhood.

ROOTS IN COUNTY

Her roots in this area and county trace back to the point where her maternal grandfather was a wagon boss on the famed Matador Ranch.

She obviously is proud of her heritage and equally proud of her progeny. Her daughter, Mrs. Jeff Anderson, practices veterinary medicine at her own Alpine Clinic in Pocatello, Idaho, under her maiden name of Linda M. Merry. Dr. Merry, formerly a syndicated columnist for 17 publications, and who, like her mother, "has a flair of writing," is the first woman to have been elected as a director of the American Animal Hospital Association.

Worth is no less proud of her grandson, "a brilliant young man," who presently is an exchange student in Spain, "near Madrid."

Despite her feelings of "frustration," Worth Merry Howard has never lost sight of the future. She believes her prayers are literally being answered.

Liability insurance secured by city

The City of Floydada has been able to secure liability insurance on all of its obligations except the electric utility and related property. Insurance on this should be secured in a few days on these properties, according to city manager Bill Feuerbacher.

Council members met on Monday, September 29, to consider and approve the single bid submitted for coverage for the coming year. A bid from the Texas Municipal League offered $2 million in coverage in all areas of liability with the exception of the electric utility and public officials for a premium of $31,852 per year.

The public officials will be covered for a maximum of $500,000 and coverage on the electric utility is expected to cost less than $10,000 for the year when quotes are available through the TML. The TML bid for the coverage was accepted by the council on the recom-

Floydada Lions Club is sponsoring a pancake supper on Friday, Oct. 10, prior to the Whirlwinds-Tulia football game. Serving is planned from 5 until 7:30 p.m. in the junior high school cafeteria.

Lions are offering tickets to the pancake supper. Admission is $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12.

Proceeds will be used for humanitarian purposes undertaken by the Lions. Dinks Eckert is the chairman.

Courtroom Activities

Probation was revoked on Johnny Garza in the 110th Judicial District court on September 29, 1986. Garza was originally placed on probation for forgery. His probation was revoked because of several criminal and technical violations including assault and curfew violations, and lack of payment of court costs and restitution. He received two years in TDC.

In county court on September 29, Martin Marin Suarez, 29, of Floydada pled not guilty to the charge of DWI. Bond was set for Suarez at $1,000.

In J.P. court for the week of September 23-30, there were six misdemeanor citations filed.

FHS students take advantage of momentos

By Andrea Reed

"Now! it is gone. ...Our brief hours travel post, Each with its thought or deed, its why or how; But know, each parting hour gives up a ghost To dwell within thee--an eternal now!"
--Coleridge

As it is common knowledge for most and stated by Samuel Taylor Coleridge, the present time, or "now", is what we need to concentrate on, for one day it will be the past. Therefore, we need to take advantage or the chances to personalize concrete items which will always remind us of the good 'ol days of high school. Examples of this are purchases of annuals, school rings and graduation invitations.

Last Thursday, the Junior class was given such an opportunity. It was class-ring time and nearly every Junior bought one. Judging from what the Seniors told me and from what I saw, I came to the conclusion that the class of '88 had a bigger variety of styles and colors to choose from. Most of the Juniors chose the classic ring with the green stone; however, others decided on either their birthstone or favorite color. To most of them, it was an exciting day for, as the Juniors ordered their rings, it gave them a sense of accomplishment and a true feeling of pride.

Also experiencing this feeling of exultant joy, were the Seniors. On the same day and from the same company (Herff-Jones) the class of '87 ordered their graduation invitations. Each person was able to choose his own personal design, according to his particular taste and budget. Like the Juniors, the Seniors also felt a sense of accomplishment, even more so for this clearly acknowledged the fact that their high school career has nearly come to an end.

Also contributing to the memories of FHS is the Student Council. Throughout the year, this group of student officers and representatives work diligently on various projects and activities which contribute to the series of unforgettable events.

One activity that they sponsor each year is some sort of supper which is held in honor of the faculty. This year they held a salad supper. While the faculty members enjoyed various dishes which were prepared by the students, they were also able to meet this year's Student Council members.

Another activity that this group of students sponsors each year, and if possible 2 or 3 times a year, is a dance given for the entire student body of FHS. The first dance of this school year will be held Saturday night from 8:00 p.m.-12:00 p.m. at the Duncan cafeteria. The admission fee will be $1.50 per person. The members are expecting a large turnout, for each dance held in the past has proved to be a success.

Game breaker — Julio Flores

Not only is the Student Council concerned with the students and faculty of FHS, but also with the people of Floydada and of surrounding towns who are affected by diseases such as diabetes. Starting on Nov. 15th, the Student Council of FHS will be participating in a "Ride-n-Stride-a-thon" to benefit diabetes victims. The students will be encouraging participation of the entire student body as well as the townspeople. The "Ride-Stride-a-thon" will consist of people basically doing "their thing," whether it be walking, running, riding a bike, riding a skateboard or roller-skating a certain distance. Before beginning, the participants will be asking for pledges from townspeople. All money made will be going to aid the Diabetes Association in the on-going struggle against diabetes.

Every activity stabilizes itself in the memory of FHS students. The good times are what need to be remembered and we as students, need to take full advantage of every opportunity offered. We need a reason to want to leave our print in the history of FHS, for other students need something to guide them down the path of excellence.

Grid contest dominated by female contestants

Females dogged their mail counterparts in last week's Hesperian football contest, claiming first and second place honors.

Pam Woody, walked away with the $10 first place check, thanks to an excellent entry which bore only three losses from 22 games. Outcomes of several of the games were regarded as "upsets."

Trudy Hazlett was all alone in second place with four misses. She receives the second place check.

Jim Curtsinger and Wes Campbell each submitted entries with five incorrect winners. Curtsinger receives the third place check on the basis of the tie-breaker. He guessed 27 points, and Campbell predicted 28.

Floydada and Lockney placed to a 7-7 deadlock, a total of 14 points in the tie-breaker.

CURTSSINGER HOLDS LEAD

Jim Curtsinger has increased his lead for the two Cowboys tickets on Thanksgiving Day, which go to the season winner. He has a score of 68 points.

Sherry Hale has vaulted into second place with a score of 65.

All alone in third place with 64 points is Brent Sanders.

Other contestants with scores in the 60s include:

63 — Trudy Hazlett, Dell Gray, Paige Cannon and Lisa Mosley
62 — Jean Hale, Weldon Emert, Glenda Wilson and Bill Gray
61 — Bob Alldredge
60 — Andy Hale and Tiffany Gentry.

Contestants are reminded that they may submit entries if they are Floyd County Hesperian subscribers or purchase copies off local newsracks.

4-H Week Oct. 5-13

Floyd County 4-H members are gearing up for a lot of special programs and activities the week of October 5-13, National 4-H Week. Join 4-H today so that you will not miss out on one activity.

Floyd County boasts some 520 4-H members who are among more than 4.3 million young people across the country who will participate in the week-long celebration using the theme, "4-H for Youth, For America."

"In celebrating National 4-H Week, we recognize that 4-H is truly a people development program," says Mary True, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H. "4-H helps young people develop skills that will be useful in the real world. It helps them discover their strengths and weaknesses. It exposes them to activities in a variety of career fields. And, most importantly, 4-H'ers learn and have fun doing it. And families can add to the fun by learning and growing together."

Learning doesn't stop with the 4-H member and family. Volunteer leaders learn new skills while sharing their expertise with young people. Through a network of volunteer leaders, state land grant universities, state and local governments and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, 4-H has been able to stimulate youth to develop life skills.

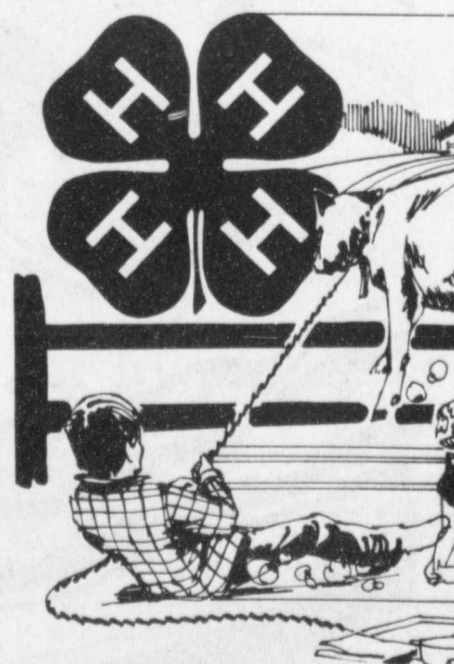

Some 35 adult volunteer leaders work with 4-H boys and girls in Floyd County through the two 4-H clubs.

4-H'ers can choose from some 70 different project and program areas designed to help them prepare for the future.

Four-H'ers learn life skills, meet people they will continue to see in the future and can win thousands of dollars in scholarships. More information about the 4-H program is available at the county Extension office. Call 983-2806 or write Mary True, Courthouse-Ag. Bldg., Floydada, TX 79235. Join 4-H Today — It will be with you for a lifetime.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Evening ceremony joins Lovelady and Blair

MRS. GREGORY WARD BLAIR

Janice Lynn Lovelady became the bride of Gregory Ward Blair during a 7 p.m. ceremony September 27, 1986 at the First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo. The Rev. Earl Blair, father of the groom and pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Floydada, conducted the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Patricia Brewer Lovelady of Amarillo and the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Blair of Floydada.

Giving the bride in marriage was her brother, Samuel B. Lovelady of Amarillo.

Serving as maid of honor was Marilee Lovelady Thomas, sister of the bride of Lubbock. Bridesmaids were Carol Vahue Lovelady, sister-in-law of the bride of Amarillo, and Janet Blair Rambo.

Wheeler and Wilson host salad supper and meeting

The Buffalo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Lighthouse Electric in Floydada on September 23.

The meeting began with the call to order by the Regent, Susan Dunavant, and the other Rituals, followed by singing the Star Spangled Banner.

Mmes. Silas Wheeler and George

Fall revival planned at Abundant Life

Abundant Life Fellowship-First Assembly of God will host a full revival meeting, October 12th through the 15th, with the Rev. David A. Crowley of Durango, Colorado preaching. The services will begin on Sunday morning, October 12 at 10:45 a.m., and will continue nightly, Sunday through Wednesday, at 7:00 p.m.

Rev. Crowley is the pastor of First Assembly of God in Durango, as well as serving as a Presbyter with the Rocky Mountain District Council of the Assemblies of God.

There will be a variety of gifted singers ministering in the revival meetings, and there will be prayer for the sick in every service.

A nursery will be provided for children up to 3 years of age. The public is cordially invited to be a part of this exciting series of gospel meetings.

sister of the groom of Big Spring.

Evan Bennett of Amarillo acted as best man. Travis Smith of Arlington and Brent Daniels of Dallas were groomsmen. Seating guests were Swift L. Lindley of Ft. Worth, Steve White of Amarillo and Elden Allen of Amarillo.

Musical selections provided for the ceremony included "The Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, who attended Amarillo College, is employed by Coulter Pharmacy of Amarillo. The groom attended Amarillo College and graduated from Texas Tech University in 1984. He is employed with West Texas Utilities in Haskell.

Following a wedding trip to Boston, Massachusetts and Maine, the couple will reside in Haskell, Texas.

COUPLE TO WED—Mrs. Leonard D. Blakney of Lubbock announces the engagement of her daughter, Sheri Lynn, to Kelly Blayne Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Warren of Floydada. The couple will be married in a double ring ceremony at 3:00 p.m. November 15 at Trinity Baptist Church, Lubbock. The bride-elect is a graduate of Texas Tech University, and is currently a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Tyler Junior College, Wayland Baptist University, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. The couple plans to reside in Ft. Worth.

Customs from around the world examined by club

The Homebuilders Extension Club met Sept. 23 in the council room. Ruth Trapp, president, called the meeting to order and the T.E.H.A. prayer was repeated in unison.

Mrs. Trapp led the group in a question and answer game about vegetables.

Roll call was answered with a word from a language besides English. Words in French, German, Japanese and Spanish were used. The program "Culture around the World" was given by Gladys Widener.

One of the most widespread customs is the New Year's celebration, "Watching the Old Year out and the New Year In."

Germany has many factories where fine china and crystal are made. Coburg is the site of the Goebel factory where the famous Hummel figurines are made.

Spain has many handcrafts that are being preserved by the government, included pottery and lace making.

Rosemaking, which originated in Norway, several centuries ago, is enjoying a revival today. She also told of some of the customs in Japan, Ireland and East Central Africa.

Refreshments were served to all present.

The next meeting will be in the home of Gladys Widener with Doris Drysdale presenting a book review.

Group conducts Ritual of Jewels

The Alpha Mu Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met September 16 in the home of Debra Graham.

Ritual of Jewels ceremony was conducted for LeShay Everett.

Plans for the taco supper to be hosted by the club prior to the Lockney-Floydada game were finalized and work assignments handed out.

The group discussed several service projects, primarily a Lifeline system for Caprock Hospital.

Kelly presents program

Alpha Sigma Upsilon met Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. in the home of president Ginger Warren. Members discussed donating to the rest home and to the Senior Citizens.

Mary Ann Kelly gave a program on "Girls, Mothers, Blessings, and Love."

A counted cross-stitch of a goose and bear was raffled by Karen Elliot. Mary Ann Kelly received it for the highest bid.

Rituals were held for Jodie McGuire.

Hostess Ginger Warren served refreshments to: Karen Elliot, Debra Bailey, Mary Ann Kelly, Kathy Himes, Rhonda Guthrie, Sheryl McCroy, Jodi McGuire, Jan Nichols, Alice Ogden, Sheri Turnbow, and Brenda Watson.

Ceremony unites McCormick, Havens Sept. 27

Jerri Ann McCormick and Gordon Douglas Havens were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Saturday, September 27th at 7 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Lockney, Texas, with Frank Oglesby, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Abernathy, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Audry and Barbara McCormick of Lubbock and Richard and Vicki Havens of Stanton. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Hunter of Floydada and Mr. Ray McCormick of Lockney. The groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Davenport of Abernathy.

The sanctuary was decorated with arched candelabras entwined with fresh greenery, flanked by arrangements of burgundy roses. Parents' and grandparents' pews were marked with satin bows in matching burgundy.

Lucy Dean Record, organist, and Patsy Tucker, pianist, accompanied Ronee Thornton, as she sang, "Surely the Presence," "The Wedding Song," "You and I," and "With This Ring."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an organza gown accented with schiffli embroidery lace. The ballgown bodice was trimmed with ruffles of lace, which also highlighted the bishop sleeves. The organza skirt was hemmed with double race ruffles that flowed into a sweep chapel train. The bride's oval buckram picture hat featured a crown of satin and Venice lace dotted with pearls, highlighted with a rolled edge butterfly pouf over a shoulder length veil.

The bride chose a cascade of white roses for her bouquet, and carried a Bible used in her mother's wedding. Beautiful cross-stitch embroidery ribbon, made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Turner Hunter, completed the bridal bouquet. Following tradition, the bride wore "something old," a pearl necklace, which had also been a part of her mother's wedding and "something new," her wedding attire. She borrowed a lovely lace handkerchief from her grandmother, and, for "something blue," donned the customary blue garter and a counted cross stitch garter, handmade by the groom's mother, Mrs. Richard Havens.

Stephanie Bybee of Lubbock was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Amy McCormick, sister-in-law of the bride, of San Angelo, Kara Havens, sister of the groom, of Stanton and Heather Holt of Lockney. The attendants wore tea length gowns of white taffeta and carried bouquets of miniature burgundy roses. The scoop necks, bishop sleeves, V-shaped waistlines and gathered skirts of their dresses complemented the old-fashioned look of the bride's gown.

Groomsmen were Mark Havens, brother of the groom, of Canyon, Jeffrey McCormick, brother of the bride, of San Angelo, Randal Stillwell of Lubbock and Randy Houston of Abernathy. Rick Houston and Brandon Houston of Abernathy and Lance Horsford of Meridian were ushers.

Holly Hunter, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hunter of Garden City, Kansas, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a tea length gown of white taffeta cut in a style similar to that of the bridesmaids. Tobi Carthel, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dart Carthel of Lockney, was flower girl. Her tea length gown of white taffeta was accented with a burgundy satin ribbon tied at the waist. Her small wicker basket of miniature rosebuds was accented with flowing ribbons. Shawnda Foster of Lockney registered guests.

Cross stitch embroidery items, handmade by the bride's mother and grandmother and the groom's mother, gave a personal touch to many aspects of the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with a white cloth accented with country ruffles. Crystal appointments were used. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with tiny hearts and fresh flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom which had been a feature of the bride's parents' wedding cake. Counted cross stitch rice bags and a hat featuring counted cross stitch ornamentation completed the bride's table.

Silver appointments decorated the groom's table, which featured a German chocolate cake accented with hearts.

Serving cake and punch from the bride's table were Belynde Ortiz of Lubbock, Lisa Phillips of Lubbock and Shawnda Foster of Lockney. Serving coffee and cake from the groom's table were Shandra Bybee of Lockney and Jill Havens, sister of the groom, of Stanton. Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Cheryl Teeter, Jackie Holt, Sheryl Bybee, Pat Thornton, Andy Ford, Zora Reecer, Ann McCormick and Charlotte Brock.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will be at home in the Oakridge apartments in Lubbock. The bridegroom is employed as a surgical technician at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and the bride and has a position at Dunlap's Department Store.

A rehearsal dinner was held in fellowship hall on Friday night. A bridesmaids' luncheon was held on Saturday in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Holt.

Other courtesies honoring the couple included a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Delvin Bybee of Lockney, a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Mac Houston of Abernathy, a homemade shower in the home of Mrs. Eddie Teeter of Lockney, a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Jack Frizzell of Lockney, with Mrs. David Frizzell and Mrs. Emma Collins assisting, a lingerie shower in the home of Ronee Thornton of Lubbock, with Mrs. Ronnie Thornton of Lockney assisting and a Christmas ornament shower in the home of Melanie Foster of Lubbock, with Karyn Foster and Mrs. Jody Foster assisting.

Baskets displayed at Fall Bazaar

"Beautify your home with baskets," suggest local basket-weavers, Doug and Lynn Dezotell. Beautiful baskets of varying shapes, sizes, and colors are their handiwork and will be displayed for sale at the 4th annual Fall Bazaar, Saturday, October 4 at First Christian Church in Floydada. The bazaar will be held inside the church at 301 W. Missouri from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

The Rev. Doug Dezotell is the pastor of Abundant Life Fellowship-First Assembly of God in Floydada, and is working on a Master of Arts degree at Wayland Baptist University. His wife, Lynn, is a full-time mother of a two-year-old and babysits for several local school teachers throughout the week. In between their many activities at church, home and school the Dezotells take time to weave their unique and exotic baskets.

"I find basket-weaving to be very relaxing for me," says Pastor Dezotell. "It's a good way to ease the tensions of an active life." Mrs. Dezotell had started weaving baskets first, and as her husband looked on in fascination he decided it was something he could do too.

The public can see the Dezotells' baskets, along with many other gift items and arts and crafts made by other area craftsmen this Saturday, October 4 at the First Christian Church.

A chili lunch will be served and there will be other baked goods available for purchase.

Wells and Hurlbut exchange vows in Denton

Marilinda Jill Wells and John Howard Hurlbut were united in marriage Saturday, September 20, at the Asbury Heights United Methodist Church in Denton, Texas, with the Reverend Richard Dunagin officiating.

Parents of the couple are Marvin and June Wells, Denton, and Howard and Marilyn Hurlbut, Highland Village. Grandparents of the groom are Mrs. Margaret F. Hurlbut and the late Mr. Hurlbut, Whittier, California, and Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Schmitt, Oceanside, California. Grandparents of the bride are the late Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Marble, South Plains, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wells, Cedar Hill.

A blessing for the couple was asked by Nelson Fay, Whittier, California, uncle of the groom. Trina Carpenter sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whether Thou Goest". Sue Smith was organist and played selections from "Ice Castles."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white satin. The scalloped sabrina neckline came to a "V" in the back. The fitted basque bodice featured iridescents, alencon lace and handsewn seed pearls. Sleeves were puffed at the shoulders, tapered to the wrist and came to a point over the hand. The A-lined skirt was edged in alencon lace which accompanied the entire length of the cathedral train. Seed pearls and iridescents adorned the sleeves and train. Her illusion veil was waistlength and attached to a caplet of seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of gardenias, white dendrobium orchids, champagne roses and English ivy, attached to a Bible given her by her grandmother, Lillian Marble.

Terri Barnes, Nacogdoches, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kim Wells, Lubbock, and Kay Wells, Denton, sisters of the bride, Diane Grey, Denton, and Stephanie Kinzelman, Houston. They wore tea length dresses of teal green taffeta, designed with a scooped neckline, puffed sleeves and a full skirt. They carried bouquets of lavender dendrobium orchids, gerber daisies, roses, blue cornflowers and freesia.

David Hurlbut, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Don Lynch, Jim Warren, Denton; Chris Gurtis, Houston, and Tony Williams, Lewisville, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Dwight Wainwright, Duke Barnes and Stacy Hagen.

The ceremony was performed before a background of trees, arched candelabras garlanded with greenery and baskets of white magnolia blossoms and foliage, white daisies and English ivy. Topiaries of white daisies and English ivy lined the center aisle. Flower arrangements for the ceremony and reception were designed by Kelly Marble, Lubbock, cousin of the bride. The couple left the church in a 1936 Ford sedan.

The reception was held in Denton's Visual Arts Center amid an English garden setting. Columns were adorned with hanging baskets of mixed flowers and English ivy. The bases were surrounded with palms, caladiums and assorted flowering plants. Trees with clear twinkle lights outlined the room. Quartet tables covered the floral chinz cloths and centered with mixed flower arrangements were scattered throughout the room.

Focal point of the bride's table was a tiered cake decorated with fresh gardenias, champagne roses, dendrobium orchids and maidenhair fern. Flanking it was a matched pair of silver epergnes with mixed white flowers and foliage. Silver appointments were used.

The groom's table was decorated with an oversized basket filled with fruit and mixed flowers and foliage. The chocolate cake was adorned with frosted grapes. Brass coffee service was used along with reed and brass baskets of nuts and chocolate mints. A pair of ice dolphins graced the champagne fountain.

Presiding at the registration table were Julie Hurst, Lewisville, and Marty Page, Irving, cousins of the groom. Servers were Tommy Moore, Demetri Payovlo, Dale and D'Lee Powell, Jeff and Cindy Bertrand, Karen Swanson, Teresa McKay, Elaine Bezdek, Tracy Trevino, Marsha Ewing, Ealizabeth Healy, Donette Marble, D.J. Whitlock and Lisa Hitch.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, at the Denton Country Club on Friday night. A bridesmaid's luncheon was hosted by the bride's mother on Saturday afternoon.

After a wedding trip to Jamaica the couple will be at home in Carrollton.

1980's Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Adams 1/2 mile North U.S. 62. Refreshments will be served at this time.

Sams spend week in Ozarks

Several members of the Floydada Whirlwind Sams traveled to Bronson, Missouri, September 17, for a week in the beautiful Ozarks. They enjoyed the music shows, boat rides and sightseeing. Some members attended the play, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

Members making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Weathersbee, Willie Bunch, Fred Thaxton, Paul Westbrook, Mac McElyea, Floyd Lawson, Boone Adams, George Miller, W.B. Cates and Bob Kendrick.

On the return trip home, the Adams', Weathersbee's, Westbrook's and McElyea's stopped in Lawton, Oklahoma, for the 1986 Oklahoma State Samboree.

A trip to Glen Rose, Texas, to the Blue Grass Festival is planned for the next outing of the Whirlwind Sams.

An Enlightened Age?

Years ago, when London was being blitzed during World War II, this article appeared in one of the British newspapers:

"We have been a pleasure-loving people, dishonoring God's day, picnicking and bathing...now the seashore is barred--no picnics--no bathing.

"We have preferred motor travel to church going...now there is a shortage of motor fuel.

"We have ignored the ringing of church bells calling us to worship...now the bells cannot ring, except to warn us of an invasion.

"We have left our churches half empty when they should have been well filled with worshippers...now they are in ruins.

"We would not listen to the way of peace...now we are forced to listen to the way of war.

"The money we would not give to the Lord's work...now is taken from us in higher taxes and the high cost of living.

"The food for which we refused to give God thanks...is now unobtainable.

"The service we refused to give God...is now conscripted for our country.

"Lives we refuse to live under God's control...are now under the nation's control.

"Nights we would not spend watching unto prayer...are now spent anxiously in air raid precautions.

We don't listen very well to the rhythm of history. Too frequently we must learn our lessons of truth to the tune of bitter regret.

Perhaps our age will become an enlightened one.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Ann Landers: I am writing in regard to "A Steady Reader in Waterford, Wis." whose wife was killed because of his drunken driving.

I would like to tell you about another woman who had a nervous breakdown because of the same problem.

It happened when he didn't come home after work until 2 a.m. When he got upstairs to their bedroom, she could see he was cockeyed drunk.

The next morning he was pulling out of the garage onto the driveway to go to work. His wife ran to the door to give him his lunch, which he had forgotten. She went as far as the porch and fainted. Her husband got out of the car to see what was the matter. He saw an eight-year-old girl imbedded in the grill of his car.

He reported himself to the police—said he had a complete blackout, didn't remember hitting anything. He was charged with D.W.I. and a few other things that will keep him in prison for quite some time.

Maybe others who drink and drive may decide it's not worth the risk after reading this letter. — Still Horrified in Portland.

Dear Portland: What a grisly story! Bone-chilling, to say the least. I hope it makes an impact on drivers who chance "a few" and don't think it will make a difference.

Dear Editor, We in law enforcement are not surprised to see the Ann Landers article submitted by "Still Horrified in Portland." Many times vehicles in Floyd County are stopped by law enforcement officers because the officer has reason to feel that the driver of a vehicle may be intoxicated.

The most common reason to feel that an operator of a vehicle is intoxicated is that the vehicle is being driven on or over the center stripe or shoulder, which is a violation.

In 95 percent of the cases the driver of the vehicle is a farmer checking on his crop or the operator who is talking with a passenger and not quite watching the road as well as he should.

There are 100 reasons why a driver crosses the center or shoulder stripe, from dropping a cigarette on the floor to cleaning mustard off his shirt, from a rush lunch on the road, or the driver may be intoxicated.

The officer can only stop the vehicle and check out the driver.

Sure, this is an inconvenience to the driver 95 percent of the time. Many times people have made it clear to me that they felt they were being harassed or inconvenienced. This is not the case.

Maybe if an officer had stopped the operator of a vehicle in Portland an eight year old girl would have seen nine years old.

Please believe me, the same thing can happen in Floyd County. The same thing can happen to your child or mine, to your grandchild or to you.

So, if you are stopped by an officer in this or any other county, please understand that it is out of concern for you and the victims of these killers that you are stopped.

P.S. Thank-you, Ann Landers. Deputy Sheriff Leonard Gilroy

To the Editor:

Random execution of pets is legal? After losing a pet in an execution manner I chose to ask why. By going through proper channels I was told the police officer who shot my dog was within the law, although my dog had vaccination tags on and was on private property.

I admit my dog was not pinned or on a leash, but to execute an animal in this manner is heartless. It seems as though we have an officer dedicated to serving his own ego by shooting dogs within the city limits, which makes one wonder about the safety of children playing in yards.

Who knows maybe the City of Floydada will be the first to proclaim "Kill A Pet Week."

Very Deeply Hurt, Vicki Edwards

Whirly and Windy

WHIRLY'S OPINIONS

Wow, another rough week for Whirly. With Windy beating me twice in a row, I'm beginning to get a complex. All that hot air seems to be gaining a little steam. Had a little set-back this week as I learned my crystal ball has been back-ordered.

The good people from Ronco also informed me that I have to pay the freight. Sometimes you just can't win. But I hope to improve with this week's picks.

Floydada vs. Abernathy — The Winds made a good showing in the tie with Lockney. The Antelopes look hard to beat, but I'm picking the Winds to get back on the winning track.

Lockney vs. Muleshoe — Muleshoe will probably be favored, but the Longhorns will come out on top.

Tech vs. A&M — Tech had a bad game last week and should improve, but A&M will take this one.

Cowboys vs. Denver — Probably should pick Denver, but my instincts say go with the Cowboys. After the battle, Dallas on top.

WINDY'S OPINIONS

What a showing; 4 for 4 (excluding the tie). About as good a week as one can have. Poor Whirly, the squirrels fed you wrong again.

Maybe you better get you some kind of better equipment.

This week's guesses (predictions) seem to be somewhat easier, according to my calculations. Here goes:

The Winds have shown this year that they are capable and that they could be just one play away from something big. Look for that play this week as ranked team finds it hard to keep Winds from blowing.

Horns will regroup and be more than ready for the Mules. Although the Mules are undefeated, they probably have not faced a team like the Horns. Horns rattle again.

A&M is ranked and that is for a reason. Tech is not ranked (except on toughness of schedule) and their leader says that is because of. Although Tech usually plays A&M tough, it is hard to win on the Brazos and this year will be no exception. Grudgingly this Tech picks the Aggies.

Dallas has been impressive during the early season and could be 4-0 with just a little bit of luck. Feel the Cowboys will need more than luck to be able to ride the Broncos. Dan Reeves showing he is a good coach and has the personnel to get the job done. Broncos throw the Cowboys.

Powers claims to be gaining in ag commissioner race

"We're gaining ground on him every day, because Texas is ready for leadership instead of showmanship," Bill Powers, Republican candidate for Texas Agriculture commissioner, said during a Thursday morning visit to Floydada. He is opposing incumbent Jim Hightower in the November general election. "He (Hightower) is very colorful and very quotable, we admit, but a liberal comedian does not make an acceptable commissioner of agriculture," Powers told a Hesperian reporter. "The most exciting thing we have going right now," the challenger said concerning his race, "is that not only are more than 80 percent of the farmers and ranching supporting Bill Powers, but also there is growing support in urban and suburban Texas."

Powers explained that "Basically what we're going to do is return the department to the role of excellence and to the priorities it had in previous years. We are going to do that by returning some characteristics to the office that are important. These include: credibility, integrity, dedication and a working knowledge of Texas agriculture. "In addition to that, we're going to be a shining example to other state agencies. Fiscal responsibility is badly needed in the TDA (Texas Department of Agriculture). TDA is the only agriculture agency in Texas that blatantly refused to cut its budget when Gov. White asked for the voluntary 13 percent cut."

The commissioner of agriculture candidate adds that "TDA said it cut 11 percent and offered another 2 percent cut. We have facts and figures to show that is not correct. They actually didn't cut anything. Powers stated that the TDA said it made an 11 percent cut, but this figure had actually been cut by the Legislature the previous year.

The additional 2 percent cut offered by TDA was actually a produce recovery fund, not even tax dollars but from a fund collected from the produce industry, Powers contends. "Some of the people who had put money into the fund found out about this scheme and got the Legislature to stop it." Powers' data points out that he helped write and get passed into the Texas Right-to-Farm Act, fair property tax laws for producers, the Pullorum Typhoid Act which guaranteed consumers could buy healthy chickens and eggs and reforms in trucking regulations for agricultural shippers.

Powers contends that, unlike Hightower, he was born on a farm and realizes the true agricultural situation.

JV rides third quarter rally

Thanks to two third quarter touchdowns, the Whirlwind junior varsity claimed a 14-0 victory over the Hale Center junior varsity last Thursday. This brings their unblemished record to 3-0.

According to Coach Lee Hurt, defensive coordinator, the Whirlwind defense shined, limiting the junior Owls to 66 yards rushing, 17 yards passing, 83 total yards and seven first downs. This was the second shutout for the Whirlwind JV.

The locals meet Abernathy JV at 6:30 p.m. today (Thursday) on the Floydada field.

After a scoreless first half, Floydada lighted the scoreboard as Amando Morales returned a blocked punt 22 yards for the first touchdown. Heath Robertson connected with Jason Brown on a 3 yard pass for the two-point conversion and an 8-0 lead.

Also during the third period, Danny Caballero ran 6 yards to make the final score 14-0 as the two-point conversion failed.

Defensive standouts, according to coaches, were (unassisted tackles, assisted tackles, interceptions, fumble recoveries); Jacob Galvan, 3-8-0-0;

Leonard King, 5-12-0-0; Dana Cooper, 3-5-0-0; Danny Caballero, 5-13-1-1; Adolpho Chavarria, 5-5-0-0; and Cory Mulder, 4-1-1-1.

Cited as offensive standouts were Jason Brown, tight end; Heather Robertson, quarterback; Danny Caballero, fullback; Jim Bob Hambright, center; and Leonard King, guard.

Individual statistics include: Individual rushing (carries, yardage, average, touchdowns): Dana Cooper, 9-41-4.5-0; Cory Mulder, 6-40-6.6-0; Danny Caballero, 10-39-3.9-1; Rod Davis, 5-5-1-0 (Team: 30-125-4-1-1)

Return yardage (punt returns, yardage, average): Amando Morales, 1-22-22.

Individual passing (attempts, completion, percentage, yardage, average, interceptions, touchdowns): Heath Robertson, 10-3-30-8-2.6-1-1 extra point; Rod Davis, 1-0-0-0-0-0-0 (Team: 11-3-28-8-2.6-1)

Punting (number punts, yardage, average, longest): Jacob Galvan, 3-108-36-43

Individual receiving (number catches, yardage, average, TDs): Danny Caballero, 1-3-3-0; Jason Brown, 1-3-3-1 extra point; Dana Cooper, 1-2-2-0 (Team: 3-8-3-1 extra point).

Seventh graders shine in win

"Playing a good game on both offense and defense," the seventh grade football team knocked off Lockney 16-0 in a game here last Thursday. The win brings the Breezers to a 2-1 won-lost record.

Receiving the opening kickoff, the Breezers sustained an offensive drive before being halted and turning the ball over to Lockney on downs. Remainder of the first quarter was a defensive battle.

Early in the second quarter, the Breezer defense blocked a Lockney punt and gained "good field position." They marched 40 yards for the touchdown, which came on a carry around left end by Ruben Chavarria. David Johnston added the two-point conversion for an 8-0 first half Floydada lead.

The second half opened with the Breezers returning the opening kickoff into good field position. The FJHS offense held the ball for most of the third quarter on a long drive which ended in the end zone. Billy Villarreal scored on a quarterback bootleg from about 10 yards out. Two-point conversion was a quick pass from Villarreal to tight end Dirk Rainer and upped the count to 16-0.

Remainder of the game was a scoreless defensive battle.

Coach Rex Holcombe says outstanding offensive players were Billy Villarreal, David Johnston, Dirk Rainer, Ruben Chavarria and Quincy Johnson.

He cited defensive players of the game as Clint Lamb, David Mercado, Scott Redden and Steve Morales. "Each one of these young men put forth a fine effort and played team ball," Coach Holcombe says.

He adds, "I would like to thank the fans for coming out and supporting the team. The Breezers will play Abernathy next week at Abernathy." Kickoff in the seventh grade game is scheduled for 5 p.m.

Whirlwind frosh downed, 18-8

A second quarter rally carried the Lockney JV to an 18-8 victory over Whirlwind freshmen during a Thursday night match.

Floydada struck first with an opening quarter TD, set up when Frank Suarez raced 30 yards. Shay Hearon tallied the six-pointer on a 25 yard run. Suarez ran across for the two bonus points as the Whirlwind frosh lead went to 8-0.

Two second quarter TDs propelled Lockney into a 12-8 intermission lead. Both extra point attempts failed.

The same score prevailed until the fourth quarter when the Longhorn JV intercepted a pass and returned it for a touchdown. The PAT attempt again failed.

THIS WEEK'S GAMES

Thursday: JV and freshmen at home vs. Abernathy, frosh game at 5 p.m.; eighth and seventh grade teams at Abernathy, seventh game at 5 p.m. Friday: Whirlwinds at Abernathy, 8 p.m.

County game

yard line. Holding nullified the TD run and Lowrance punted to the Floydada 46.

Ballejo's 30 yard return -- and resulting half-the-distance penalty -- handed Lockney a golden opportunity, 8 yards from paydirt. Cates carried the pighide in from the 5 and Schuster's kick knotted the count with 7:34 left.

Both the green and white shirts gained one first down before punting. Lowrance led the charge to can Ballejo for a 7 yard setback on a pitch and intended halfback pass.

Then came the quick Ballejo's interception and return to the Floydada 19.

The Mean Green defense again rose to the occasion, as it did seven days earlier in the victory over Olton, to set up Schuster's field goal attempts.

Although both squads obviously were disappointed that they could not lay outright claim to the county championship trophy, no fan left the stadium without believing the price of admission had not been well worthwhile.

Eighth Breezers defeat Lockney

Eighth grade Breezers remain unbeaten Thursday with a 30-8 verdict over Lockney. Coach Tim James said the squad produced "a very impressive offensive showing."

Breezers opened the scoring in the first quarter when Kenneth Collins went 65 yards around the right side on the second play from scrimmage. Try for two points fell short.

In the second quarter, the Breezers added 12 more points to the board while Lockney was held scoreless. First second quarter TD came on a 40 yard run around the right side by Collins, and the second involved "a very impressive 100 yard interception return" by Collins as the half ended.

Lockney had the ball on the Breezer 4 yard line with four seconds remaining before intermission. It tried "the old swinging gate play, but things backfired for them when Collins intercepted the ball and went the length of the field." The extra point tries following each touchdown failed, leaving the score 18-0 at half.

During the third quarter the Breezers added 12 more points. The first was set up when Collins hit Chad Williams for a 30 yard gain. On the next play, Harvey Espinoza went around the left side for a 15 yard touchdown run.

On the next series, Collins ran around the right side 35 yards to paydirt for the Breezers' final score.

Lockney managed to score late in the fourth quarter on a sweep around the left side from 10 yards out. The pass for two points was successful, leaving the score 30-8 with four minutes to play. Late in the fourth period, Freddie Martinez went 50 yards to paydirt, "only to be called back on a clipping penalty."

"I was real pleased by the way the entire team played. We are still making a few mistakes, but we are getting better and better each game," Coach James says.

The coach lists Kenneth Collins, Brian Teeple, Lalo Delgado, Mike Poffinbarger and Michael Aleman as outstanding offensive players. Defensive stalwarts were Larry Galvan, Johnny DeOchoa, Nufu Morales and Donelee Cooper.

Next game for the Breezers will be today (Thursday, Oct. 2) at Abernathy. The seventh grade game will begin at 5:00 and the eighth grade contest is to follow.

"We really do appreciate the support we have been getting," James says.

IS THE FAMILY COTTON FARM DISAPPEARING?

YOUR INDEPENDENT GINNER SAYS NO!!

Lion's Club sponsors blood drive

The Floydada Lions Club and United Blood Services will be sponsoring a blood drive on Wednesday, October 8, from 3:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. The drive will be held in the community room at the First National Bank in Floydada.

The Lions Club would like to invite all adults age 18 or over to come and give the 'Gift of Life' during this time. Donating blood takes approximately 30 minutes and causes only minor discomfort to the donor.

United Blood Services is a non-profit corporation which supplies hospitals all across the South Plains area, including Caprock Hospital in Floydada.

The requirements a donor must meet are simple. A donor must weigh at least 110 pounds, not have AIDS, hepatitis, diabetes, or have had an active infection or vaccination in the past 24 hours. Major surgery in the past six months or pregnancy in the past six weeks will also preclude donating blood.

United Blood Service recommends that potential donors eat a good meal prior to donating and refrain from strenuous activity following the donation.

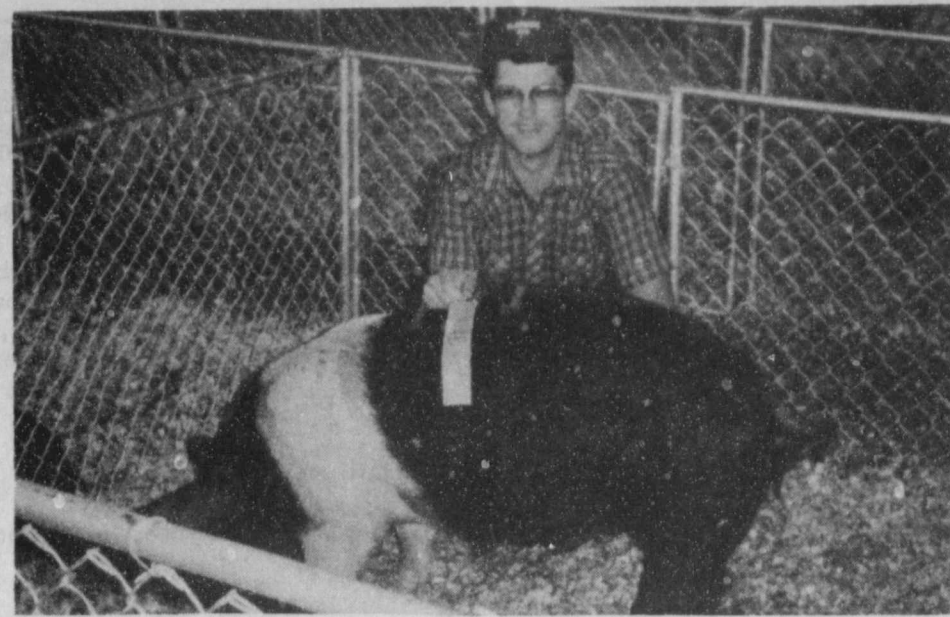

A major concern to the general public in recent months has been the possibility of contracting AIDS (Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome) through donating blood or receiving donated blood during a medical procedure. This is no longer a danger, if indeed it ever was. Only sterile equipment is used in drawing blood during the donation process and all equipment is only used one time. This eliminates the possibility of a donor contracting any infectious disease.

New testing procedures are utilized to identify antibodies corresponding to AIDS, hepatitis B and syphilis. These tests are not diagnostic, but serve to screen blood donations to remove potentially harmful units from the available blood supply.

United Blood Services needs more than 500 donations each week to meet the needs of the South Plains area. Everyone is urged to join the local Lions Club in donating blood for this all important aspect of modern medical care.

This event is part of a week long national club effort to serve the public by sponsoring a service day project in the local community.

BARROW AT FAIR—Coy LaBaume, a freshman at Clarendon College, recently drove his heavy weight Hampshire barrow to a fourth-place standing at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair in Lubbock. Twenty-two barrows competed in the heavy weight class. The barrow was bred and raised out of LaBaume's sow herd operation. LaBaume will be selling show barrows at several pig sales this fall.

Lion's host telethon

The Floydada Lions Club will be participating in the 12th annual Texas Boys Ranch Telethon being held October 4 from 7:00 p.m. until 12:00 midnight on Channel 28, KAMC, Lubbock.

The local Lions will be manning the telephone to take pledges during the five hour program. Anyone wishing to make a pledge or donation can do so by calling 983-3284 or going by Floyd County Insurance at 116 W. California.

Local chairman for the project, Richard Hale, says, "This event offers local residents a chance to make a tax deductible contribution to a worthy cause, Texas Boys Ranch. This organization provides 26 boys with a stable home environment and enables them to grow up with positive influences and role models."

Now, West Texans have an opportunity to play their part. The 12th Annual Telethon goal of $75,000 will once again require the cooperative effort among those concerned individuals who want to be a part of the Texas Boys Ranch success story.

This year's telethon promises to provide its audience with non-stop entertainment and comedy. The line-up of hosts and entertainers are as popular to West Texans as Bob Hope and the Mandrell Sisters are to the nation.

Telethon hosts will include a wide variety of area personalities. Those already named are Big Ed Wilkes, Morris Wilkes, Jeff Klotzman, Bob Nash and Sharon Maines.

"We will have something for everybody," Smith said. "From Country and Western to Gospel singing. I can promise that our audience will truly enjoy the telethon while at the same time become familiar with Texas Boys Ranch."

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM ADAMS

Funeral services for William Virgil Adams, 823, of Plainview were at 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, in Lemons Memorial Chapel in Plainview. Officiating was the Rev. John C. Jenkins, a retired Baptist pastor.

Burial was made in Plainview Memorial Park.

Mr. Adams, a former Lockney resident, was claimed by death at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, in Central Plains Regional Hospital, Plainview, after a lengthy illness.

The Tuxedo native married the former Ruby Lee Moffett on Nov. 11, 1939, in Clarendon. She preceded him in death on Sept. 14, 1978.

Reared in Jones County, he moved in 1939 to Clarendon, where he operated a dairy and farmed. He moved to Tulsa in 1949 to farm, to Lockney in 1952 and to Plainview in 1961. He farmed until his retirement and operated a car wash until 1977. Mr. Adams was a Baptist.

Survivors include two daughters, Eula Jane Archer of Lockney and Ruby Nell Adams of Plainview; three sons, Tommy of Dallas, Virgil Lee of Amarillo and Gordon Allen of Marlin; a brother, John of Stamford; a sister, Dawcie Sullivan of Claude; 19 grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren.

NELL BROWN

Mary Nell Calahan Brown of Lockney was claimed by death Friday morning in Lockney General Hospital following a brief illness. She was 77.

Memorial services were at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 27, in First Baptist Church of Lockney. Officiating was the Rev. H.S. Calahan Jr., a Baptist minister from Abilene, who was assisted by the Rev. Murle Rogers, pastor.

Burial was made in Lockney Cemetery, under direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Serving as pallbearers were Bob Jarrett, Tom Marr, Joe Nance, Wendy Clarke, Tommy Billington and Kenneth Holt.

Member of a well-known early Floyd County family, the former Mary Nell Calahan was born in Simsboro, La., and moved in 1924 to this county from Farmersville. She and Arthur S. Brown were married on Sept. 29, 1934, in Silverton.

A member of First Baptist Church, Mrs. Brown was a homemaker.

Survivors include her husband; one daughter, Karen Cooper of Lockney; four sisters, Doris Casey, Helen Karr and Ora Brown, all of Lockney, and Nina Upton of South Plains; two brothers, the Rev. H.S. Calahan of Abilene and Shelby Calahan of South Plains; and two grandchildren.

MRS. A.B. DAVIS

Mrs. A.B. Davis of Lubbock was claimed by death at 9:15 p.m. Sunday at her residence after a lengthy illness. She had been under a doctor's care.

Mrs. Davis was the mother of Emily Johnston of Floydada.

Funeral rites were at 4 p.m. Wednesday in First Presbyterian Church of Lubbock with the Rev. Kirt E. Anderson, pastor, and the Rev. William R. Ripley officiating.

Burial was in City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Mrs. Davis was born in Nocona and married to Lubbock in 1924. She was moved on Jan. 27, 1912, to A.B. Davis in Bonham. He preceded her in death in 1967.

Davis served as general manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development and South Plains Fair Association prior to his retirement.

His wife was a member of the Lubbock Women's Club, the 1916 Needle Club and First Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include one son, A.B. Davis Jr. of Hurst; two daughters, Emily Johnston of Floydada and Mary Ann Davis of Lubbock; three sisters, Kate Davis, Ruth Davis and Lucy Lesh, all of Nocona; six grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

CRUZ ESTORGA

Mass for Cruz Martinez Estorga, 67, of Levelland, was at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The Rev. Clarence Huber, pastor, officiated.

Rosary was at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Hammons Funeral Home Chapel in Littlefield.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park.

Mr. Estorga was a brother of Zeke Estorga of Floydada.

He died at 11:34 Saturday in Cook Memorial Hospital after a brief illness.

A Ruidoso native, he had resided in Levelland for 35 years. He married Guillerma Silva in 1948 in Pecos, and she preceded him in death in 1954. He was a Catholic.

Survivors include one son, Tony Estorga of Houston; two daughters, Chris Coons of Alliance, Neb., and Celia Ybarra of Copperas Cove; four brothers, Victor of Brownfield, Manuel of Portales, N.M., Doroteo of Pecos and Zeke of Floydada; two sisters, Frances Conteras of Littlefield and Andrea Loyosa of Lovington, N.M.; and 10 grandchildren.

BEULAH REAVES

Services for Beulah "Boots" Reaves, 84, of Plainview were at 11 a.m. Saturday in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Travis Bird, pastor, and the Rev. Roy McClung, past president of Wayland Baptist University, officiating. Burial was in Plainview Memorial Park under the direction of Wood-Dunning Funeral Home.

She died Thursday morning at Central Plains Regional Hospital after a sudden illness.

She was born in Newport, grew up in Clay County and had lived in Plainview since 1944. She married Loyd M. Reaves Nov. 11, 1921, in Joy. He died May 22, 1950. They owned and operated Reaves Grocery from the mid-1940s to the early 1960s. She served as a dorm mother at Wayland Baptist University for six years. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Thelma Cave Sunday School Class and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Survivors include a sister, Ruth Thompson, Plainview; and a cousin, Mrs. J.D. Odam of Floydada.

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 110th District Court of Floyd County, Texas, at the courthouse in Floydada, Texas, at or before 10:00 a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of 42 days from September 8, 1986, the date of issuance of this citation, by filing a written answer to Plaintiff's Petition that was filed in the Court on May 5, 1986, numbered 8010 on the docket of the Court, and entitled Lester C. Carter, Plaintiff vs. The Unknown Heirs of E.M. Jones, deceased; Katie Jones, if living, or if deceased, the Unknown Heirs of Katie Jones; and, J.H. Harper, if living, or if deceased, the Unknown Heirs of J.H. Harper; and, the legal representatives of all of the foregoing Defendants, including their surviving spouses, if living, and the heirs and legal representatives of each of them, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows:

This suit is a trespass to try title suit wherein Plaintiff seeks to recover title and possession of the West Half of Block 12, E.M. Jones Addition to the Town of Lockney, Floyd County, Texas. Plaintiff alleges that on February 1, 1986, Plaintiff was and is the owner of the property described above, and that on that date the Defendants unlawfully entered upon the property and dispossessed Plaintiff from possession of the property, and that Defendants continue to withhold possession of the property from Plaintiff. Additionally, Plaintiff claims title to the property by reason of adverse possession.

If this citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve it and make due return according to requirements of law, and the mandates of this citation.

Issued under my hand and the seal of the Court at Floydada, Texas, on the 8th day of September, 1986.

/s/ Mary L. McPherson
Mary McPherson, District Clerk
110th District Court of
Floyd County, Texas

Variety of situations reported to Floydada Police Department

Two thefts, a case of criminal mischief and three vehicle crashes have been reported to the police department during the past week, according to officer Harold Snell.

A tool box was taken "sometime during the week-end" from the back of a pickup in the 300 block of West Missouri Street. Exact time of the theft was unknown.

A "Hispanic female and five children" were observed taking cookies, a birthday cake, ice cream, punch and soft drinks from First Baptist Church "about 6 p.m." Sunday. Police have a suspect.

Criminal mischief to an apartment of the housing authority residences in the 1200 block of East Price occurred about 11 p.m. Saturday. Police received the report "about 11 o'clock Sunday morning."

A suspect has made restitution.

Three arrests for public intoxication were made about 1 a.m. Sunday in the same housing area. At least one of the subjects involved in the public intoxication possibly was involved in the criminal mischief.

Jerry Graham of Clovis, N.M., driver of a 1986 Ford Bronco, collided at 12:02 p.m. last Thursday with a 1983 Cadillac driven by Sherry Holmes of Floydada. There were no injuries in the collision which occurred at the "Y" in Floydada.

Police cited the Clovis man for "unsafe lane change." Damage to the two vehicles was placed at "around $2,000."

Mike Poteet of Floydada "lost control" of his 1986 Chevrolet in water on South Main Street, following a Monday afternoon rain. The accident occurred at 6:05 p.m.

The vehicle struck a utility pole and then a fence before coming to rest in the yard of Al Galloway, 913 S. Main. The vehicle and fence were damaged.

A Lubbock man was "slightly injured" about 3 p.m. last Tuesday in the 500 block of West Georgia. Robert Eli Lafedre of Lubbock, a TV serviceman for Montgomery Ward, was in the back of a 1985 Ford van, owned by his employer and parked in front of a residence, when the van was struck by a 1980 Ford driven by Della Ruth Harrison of Route Two, Floydada. The impact "knocked Lafedre into equipment" in the back of the van.

The Good As New the Second Time

Around Shop will again be open, as will the Country Store with delicious home cooked goodies. The Cookie Jar will delight young and old with many varieties of homebaked cookies.

The ladies will again be serving a chili lunch beginning at 11:30 a.m. The meal will feature chili, coffee, tea, crackers and breads. The chili is available with or without beans.

A 4:00 p.m. drawing from those registering throughout the day will award a door prize. The winner does not have to be present to win.

Have a good day

Goen October bank artist

Jo Goen's paintings are being shown at the First National Bank in Floydada for the month of October.

Painting has been Jo's avocation for several years. Studies with instructors in various mediums have given her a versatility in many subjects. She has studied with Lonnie Mason, Ruth Barnett, Mary Montandon, Ben Konis, Ray Vinella, Ramon Froman, William Henry Earle, Pat Krahn and Connie Martin.

Jo paints for joy and the pleasure of painting. A good painting is a sensual delight, like eating delicious foods, according to her. Color is one reason for this delight and Jo gets excited about color and paint, enjoying the actual quality of oil paint. She finds it fascinating to mix the pigments and get the many luscious colors that are possible.

People and western landscapes are Jo's favorite subjects. Her favorite mediums are oil and pastel. She has no particular message to convey, except possibly preserving current western heritage. She feels fortunate in being allowed to use Burleson Crazy C cowboys, horses and cattle for models. Many of her paintings are set in Crazy C Ranch locales.

The public is invited to see this exhibit at the First National Bank in Floydada from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. during October.

Fourth annual bazaar set by First Christian Church

Among the offerings at the First Christian Church's fourth annual bazaar this year will be party mints by Karen Elliot.

"This is like a hobby for me," says Elliot. "It is a lot of fun, so come on by the bazaar and see what's stewing."

These lovely mints are ideal for parties, showers, weddings or receptions. They are made of white chocolate and spearmint oil and are available in any color desired.

Elliot will also have a display of cross stitch items at the bazaar.

Virginia North of Lubbock, a former Floydada resident, will be displaying some of her handiwork including crewel pictures, magnets, wicker boxes, Christmas ornaments, hoops, stenciled pillow cases, dresser scarves and hand towels. She will also have hand embroidered cup towels, pillow cases, dolls and much, much more.

The annual bazaar, planned by the Christian Women's Fellowship will be held on Saturday, October 4 at the church in Floydada. Other displays include Doug Dezotell with baskets, Darlean Stovall with handmade items, Nancy Graham with linen items, and Suzanne Wyrick with Discovery Toys.

Paintings by Florence Van Hoose, crafts by Sharon Wolfe and hand painted wooden articles by Sharon Smith will also be available. Gleyenn Earl Cummings will have Beauty Control Cosmetics and Lorena Dayton will have wreaths, vests and snowbird ornaments for sale.
