Floyd commissioners vote to accept settlement offer

'Grandparents Brag Pages'

Smiles of pride covering their faces, grandparents are bringing photos and information of their grandchildren to reserve hearts for the annual Hesperian Valentine feature, "Grandparents Brag Pages."

The youngsters will be presented in the Feb. 12 issue of this newspaper.

Names of the children, parents and grandparents are to appear with the pictures.

Cost of each heart is $10, to help defray reproduction and space expenses. Clear, closeup photos [without an excessive amount of red in faces of the children in colored pictures] allow for optimum reproduction.

Deadline for reserving hearts is 3 p.m. Friday, Feb. 6.

A unanimous vote by the Floyd County Commissioners on Monday, January 26, may signal the conclusion of a lawsuit initially filed in October by Precinct 4 Commissioner Jack Lackey against former District Judge George Miller.

The lawsuit, later joined by the county on a split vote, asked that ownership of certain legal volumes removed from the courthouse by Miller be determined and that those volumes be returned to the county along with payment of such other monies, "lawyer's fees and court costs as the court deems appropriate."

Following an emergency session of the court to meet in an executive session to consider "a conclusion of the George Miller litigation," Jack Lackey, commissioner of Precinct 4 made a motion that "Commissioners court accept the settlement offer made by George Miller's attorney on January 23." Floyd Jackson, commissioner of Precinct 2, seconded the motion and both Thomas Warren, commissioner of Precinct 3, and Sam Spence, commissioner of Precinct 1, joined the pair in hefting right hands in favor of the motion.

When asked to elaborate on the details of the settlement, Judge Bill Hardin declined, saying only that "The exact terms have not yet been worked out. After they have been worked out, they will have to be approved by Judge McCoy and until that has been done, we don't have a settlement. All we are doing here is saying that we will accept the offer they have made."

Judicial approval of the settlement is expected in "hopefully two weeks or so" according to Hardin.

Upon contacting Amarillo attorney Tom Morris, who recently replaced Plainview attorney David Teel (also Miller's law partner) as Miller's representative in this litigation, The Hesperian was told that no details were available at this time. Morris stated only, "A settlement agreement has been reached but the details are not ready for release."

REWARD OFFERED

Hot air balloon 'chase' due Sunday

Lubbock and Amarillo clubs launch from Floydada airport

What a way to spend a birthday. Stuck in Atlanta, Georgia, waiting for the weather to clear in Washington.

It all started somewhat pleasantly Sunday afternoon. The first leg of the flight, from Lubbock to Dallas, took us over Cone. To the north lay Floyd County, mostly covered with snow. It was all very pretty. In fact the snow was so deep in the canyon that not even Bill Hale could be observed (from that altitude) on the golf course.

From there on, the rest of the trip was a downer. The connecting flight in Dallas didn't connect. "Equipment failure" we were told. That required a different plane and a different route. That meant Atlanta, which meant a tight connection there. After rushing the one-quarter mile between gates we got on board and settled just in time to hear the captain say we were on "gate hold," since it had started snowing in Washington. We sat in the plane at the gate for two hours before they decided there would be no traffic into Washington that night. Overnight in a nearby airport motel, then back to the terminal next morning and another round of going from gate to gate until the word came down that more snow was in progress and there would be no traffic into Washington. Rather than spend

It's called a "posse and desperado shootout," but the participants actually are hot air balloons.

Community residents will have an opportunity for a first-hand view of such a "chase" or "shootout" this Sunday, Feb. 1, when Amarillo Balloon Association and Lubbock Balloon Club vie in the event which originates from Floydada Municipal Airport.

Sponsored by Floydada Chamber of Commerce, the "shootout" is scheduled for "sunrise." Nettie Ruth Whittle, CoF manager, expects the desperado balloon to become airborne about 7:30 a.m.

After the "desperado" balloon has lifted off, other balloons are filled and set off in pursuit.

Hot air balloons are extremely picturesque. Lubbock balloons, for example, fit the following descriptions: medium blue, white gores, red penants, skirt of royal blue with white stars; maroon with white skirt and Texas insignia; yellow, blue and orange stripes; blue and white, red stars; red, white and blue stripes; rainbow colors; red and white; and dark blue.

Persons who have viewed such a chase describe the view as being "stunning" as the balloons depart and become airborne.

Community residents are welcome to view the Sunday morning spectacle.

Competition between the Panhandle-South Plains organizations was initiated in the spring of 1986 when the Amarillo group issued a "challenge" to the

Higginbotham will manage Arkansas cooperative

Alton Higginbotham, general manager of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., for almost 15 years has been named general manager of First Electric Cooperative in Jacksonville, Arkansas. Higginbotham assumes his duties in Arkansas on March 1.

He succeeds the late James L. Cox as general manager of First Electric Cooperative, which is the largest of Arkansas' 18 electric distribution cooperatives. It serves more than 40,000 homes, farms, businesses and industries in parts of 13 counties.

The system is headquartered in Jacksonville and has district offices at Benton, Heber Springs and Perryville. It has 144 employees.

Higginbotham says the bulk of the Arkansas electric cooperative's 40,000 connections are residential. By contrast, a majority of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative's connections are irrigation wells. Lighthouse has customers in all or parts of 12 South Plains and Panhandle counties.

"Based on square mileage, Lighthouse Electric's area of service is not that much smaller," Higginbotham explains, "it's just sparsely populated."

"We look forward to having him as First Electric's chief executive officer," says B.J. Swaffar, board president. "His 23 years of experience in the electric cooperative program will be a valuable asset to our operation."

NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Well known in rural electrification circles, Higginbotham is serving his second year as president of the National Rural Utilities Cooperatives Finance Cooperation (CFC) and his fourth year on the board. He represents three states on the national CFC board.

Beginning his electric cooperative career at Lighthouse Electric as member services adviser in 1963, Higginbotham was promoted to general manager in 1972.

A Floydada native, he attended Texas Tech University and was graduated from West Texas State University in 1961 with a degree in agricultural education. He is a past president of the Texas Association of Electric Cooperatives and is a director of the High Plains Research Foundation.

Higginbotham and his family are active in the Floydada community and in First Baptist Church. He serves as president of Floydada Development Company and is a past president of Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Floydada Rotary Club.

Both Alton and Sue Higginbotham are graduates of Floydada High School. They are parents of three offspring: Kelly Higginbotham, a second grade teacher in the Temple public school system; Bry-

CRP inquiries received, bids set February 9-27

With "lots of inquiries" and "people asking questions," Jon LaBaume expects a significant number of bids during the next CRP signing period,

Feb. 9-27. CRP is a 10-year land retirement program offered by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

LaBaume, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, says bids may be submitted during the three-week period at the Floyd County ASCS office in Floydada. SCS personnel will assist as the two agencies will work together.

"We do not yet know what regulations there will be to get into the program," LaBaume stresses. USDA has yet to reveal guidelines, including the basis for eligibility.

Five-year crop history and production and soil type have been the basis for determining eligibility for the previous three bidding periods, which were in March, April and August of last year.

New guidelines stipulate that "only certain soil types" will be eligible for the CRP program. However, the USDA has not announced which stipulations will apply during the February signing period.

One change is a one-year bonus for entering "corn land" into the CRP. Interested persons are advised to contact the ASCS office for details.

17,000 ACRES

LaBaume informs The Hesperian that approximately 17,000 acres of Floyd County cropland have been accepted for the 10-year program of land retirement program to date. This involved 77 different land owners or operators.

This county had 473,322 acres in cultivation as of Sept. 1, 1986. The division between non-irrigated and irrigated was "pretty even": 259,000 irrigated acres and 214,000 dryland acres.

Nineteen percent of this county's cropland is categorized as "erodible

Resignation due

The Hesperian learned immediately prior to printing that Floyd County Commissioners Court will meet Thursday in emergency session "for the purpose of considering the following: Accept the resignation of Jack Lackey, commissioner of Precinct Four."

Thursday's emergency session is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Frenship vo-ag teacher named judge for Floydada stock show

Scott Doss, vocational agriculture teacher at Frenship High School, has accepted an invitation to judge animals in the Floydada Livestock Show. Sponsored by Floydada Chamber of Commerce, the event is scheduled Saturday, Feb. 7, at the county stock show barn.

The barn will be open Friday night "for those who wish to come into the barn" although no weighing will be done that day.

Weighing of all lambs and swine begins at 8 a.m. Saturday. Steers are to be weighed following the lambs.

Officials point out that lamb judging is scheduled to begin at 11 a.m., with swine to be shown 15 minutes following completion of the lamb show. Steers start entering the ring 15 minutes after the swine grand and reserve champions have been chosen.

There will be no lunch break. A refreshment stand is to operate at the barn.

FIRST BABY OF 1987—Young master Thomas Shawn, son of Dale and Kim Harris of McAdoo, has the honor of being the first baby born at Caprock Hospital this year. He was born January 26 at 8:59 a.m. The baby weighed 6 lbs. and 7 oz. and was 21 inches long. Thomas has a 3 year old sister, Nicole. He was delivered by Dr. Andy Hale and Director of Nursing Myra Poteet.

4-H, FFA sweethearts will assist with livestock show

BECKY REEVES

SHARON SMITH

Four sweethearts — one each from Floydada FFA, Floydada 4-H, Lockney 4-H and Lockney FFA — will assist with the Floyd County Livestock Show by distributing ribbons and other awards to winners and by selling stock show memberships.

The girl who sells the greatest number of memberships is to be recognized at the annual banquet as stock show sweetheart.

Officials say that the four may start selling memberships next Monday afternoon, Feb. 2, and continue through the stock show, Feb. 15.

Individual memberships are priced at $5 each. Business memberships are $10 or a greater amount if desired by the donor. A membership entitles the bearer to vote on and help plan next year's event.

Money derived from the sale of memberships goes into the stock show account. It is utilized to help maintain facilities, pay judges' fees and to defray other expenses.

Entry fees from exhibitors are used to help pay for ribbons. All trophies are donated by businesses and individuals.

Joe Tator, a Lazbuddie swine breeder, will judge barrow entries on Saturday, Feb. 14. Names of other judges were not available early this week.

Activities are planned from Friday, Feb. 13, through the following Tuesday night.

ROYALTY SELECTED BECKY REEVES

Becky Reeves is the Floydada 4-H Club sweetheart who will assist with the county livestock show. A Floydada High School junior, she is the 17-year-old daughter of Keith Reeves. The five-year 4-H member held the office of 4-H secretary-treasurer her sophomore year and serves this year as a delegate on the 4-H County Council.

She has attended State Roundup in public speaking for the past two years and participated in the Interstate Exchange Program for the past four years.

Miss Reeves was a junior varsity cheerleader during her freshman and sophomore years and this year she is a varsity cheerleader. She is also a Student Council representative.

SHARON SMITH

Sharon Smith is the Floydada FFA candidate for sweetheart of the Floyd County Livestock Show. She is a 16-year-old sophomore at Floydada High School and the daughter of Dale and Carolyn Smith.

This is her first year in FFA, but she has enjoyed participating in a number of activities such as parliamentary procedure, swine and a number of leadership labs.

Miss Smith also is a member of the Floydada 4-H Club and the Floyd County 4-H Council. She is the reigning '86-'87 Miss Floydada.

KELLI LaBAUME

The Floydada FFA Plow Girl is Kelli LaBaume, 16-year-old daughter of Jon and Elaine LaBaume. She is a junior in high school and has been an FFA member for four years.

This year she has participated on the Parliamentary Procedure team and the FFA Creed Speaking Contest. For the past two years she has exhibited barrows at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and for the past three years at the local, county and San Angelo stock shows.

Miss LaBaume also is an active member of 4-H, having held several offices. She was the '85-'86 Miss Floydada and the '84-'85 Floyd County Livestock Show sweetheart.

still another day in limbo we headed back to Floyd County. From that point on, everything went smoothly.

There's probably a message there, somewhere. Especially since it was the second time in two weeks that something like that happened. A week earlier we got only as far as Houston before being turned back.

Still, it's probably just as well that it all worked out like that. We didn't want to go in the first place. I suppose it is no secret to folks here, or at least some of them, that state law enforcement officers, in the person of one or more Texas Rangers, have been in and around town investigating goings-on that have previously been commented about in this paper. Our information, sketchy as it was, indicated the Grand Jury was about to make its report and we didn't want to be out of town when that happened. Too, our reporters are told by their sources that Precinct 4 Commissioner Jack Lackey may resign within days, but we have been unable to confirm this information, one way or the other. If the sources are accurate, and Mr. Lackey does in fact resign, Floyd County will have to get by with only four commissioners until a new Commissioner is named to fill the seat.

Then there is the matter of a settlement in the suit brought by Mr. Lackey against former District Judge Miller. The suit, as our readers will remember, began with a quarrel over ownership of certain lawbooks the County had an investment in, and was later expanded to include a whole host of complaints completely unrelated to the lawbook question. Now we are told that this suit is on the verge of settlement, awaiting only the approval of the presiding judge.

In a way that is good news and bad news, it is good that they settled the matter, and Floyd County taxpayers will be spared the expenses that would have been involved if this matter dragged on and on, which it had every promise of doing. But in a way we would have liked to see it played out in its entirety. There would have been sworn "depositions", and sworn testimony that might have allowed people to find out just who it is that seems not to worry about saddling our citizens with worrisome publicity and legal bills. Or who it is that is not worried about splitting the community apart over issues that probably could have been settled outside the court room.

At any rate we believe the long term effect of all this will be good for the people of our county. We believe the people sent out a very clear signal, a very clear message, that they expect and demand a certain standard of behavior from those they elect and place in office over them. If they make a mistake once in a while, that's understandable up to a point. But this ought to serve notice again that the people are still in charge.

While that is a comforting thought we all know it is only one side of the coin. The other side is eternal vigilance.

Every once and a while an office holder will do something for which he, or she, deserves much credit. Some more often than others of course.

Such is the case with two who come readily to mind. We believe Congressman Beau Boulter deserves our thanks for two recent acts on his part. One is the re-introduction of legislation that would curtail the use of American financial "aid" for the production of agricultural commodities that are in world surplus. The other piece of legislation would turn down a proposed boost in salary for Congressmen. Boulter says he can't see why a Congressman can't get by on $77,000 per year, plus a few other perks, and besides that they don't deserve it anyway, considering how hard they work to solve the nation's problems. We appreciate him more all the time.

The other office holder who deserves plaudits for trying to do something worthwhile is Bob Bullock, our comptroller of Public Accounts. Bullock figures our state treasury would be at least $100 million better off if out-of-state mail order houses and t.v. huksters had to pay the same taxes local merchants have to collect and pay over to the state. He's right of course, but the issue goes even further than that.

Texans spend more than $3 billion a year on mail-order goods, mostly through large national catalogues and those toll-free t.v. numbers that seem to fascinate some people. Those firms like Sears who operate stores in Texas, are required to collect the tax. But those who have no operation in Texas, who hire no employees here, who pay no property taxes here, can get by by selling their goods at least 5% percent cheaper in this state simply because they don't have to pay the sales tax. The whole thing is backward, in our opinion. And the small towns are being hit hardest of all in the process. Merchants are having a hard enough time at any rate. When they get hit with this kind of unfair competition it merely hastens the day that some of them have to close their doors and move to the big city. But maybe something will finally be done about it, thanks to the leadership of Bob Bullock.

It would be nice if the Texas Legislature passed a resolution asking the entire Texas delegation in Congress to get behind the effort.

Thanks to You Floydada !!

Hot air balloon 'chase' due Sunday

Lubbockites. The first "shootout" was in Canyon. "Those that survived had one (race) later on in Amarillo and now we'll meet in Floydada on Feb. 1," states Ron Bush, president of Lubbock Balloon Club.

COMPETITION EXPLAINED

He explains that "The Lubbock Balloon Club and Amarillo Balloon Association will have an equal number of pilots who will try to outscore each other in a traditional posse and desperado race.

Bush explains that "a desperado balloon will launch about sunrise and by flying various wind currents will make it difficult for the posse balloons to follow. Therefore we have a posse and desperado 'shootout.'"

Some clubs use a "hare and hound chase" terminology.

The posse balloons will search for a target (large red 'X') that is left on the ground at some point where the desperado balloon had touched down. Then the posse balloons will try to maneuver by wind currents to the target, at which time someone in the gondola will toss a projectile, trying to hit the center of the 'X.'"

First, second and third place winners will be determined. The total of each club's score determine which takes home the "traveling trophy." Bush says "The trophy is a large beer mug which has etched on it a couple of cowboys shooting it out and it shows bullets and jackrabbits going every which way." Lubbock presently holds the trophy.

Jim Smith from Monument, N.M., who is "not in cahoots with either balloon group," will be flying "Red Cloud" as the desperado balloon.

The Lubbock club president, in a letter to Mrs. Whittle, asks that all airport lights be switched on by 6:30 a.m. Sunday and that, if possible, a public address system by available. He suggests that public parking be on the east side of the runway, away from the runway where balloons will be launched.

"Chase vehicle" are to be parked nearby.

A possibility exists that T-shirts and caps bearing the wording "Floydada, Texas, Shootout" may be offered for sale at the airport Sunday morning. Officials were not certain early this week whether a Lubbock firm would have time to prepare the shirts and caps.

THE FLIGHT UP AND AWAY

As an information piece for persons not familiar with hot air ballooning, Bush has submitted the following article, entitled "The Flight UP and Away":

"Arriving at the launch site, the pilot feels lucky to have a crew who responds to alarm clocks at very early hours. Many hands are needed to unload the balloon from its carrier and spread out the 1,000 yards of fabric downwind, making certain the vent is under the balloon so that hot air cannot escape during inflation.

"After a careful pre-flight check of all equipment is made — instruments, fuel system, load cables and balloon — the pilot signals the crew to start the gasoline-powered inflator fan which begins filling the huge envelope with cold air.

"The pilot checks to see that the rip line and vent lines are free and rip panel is secure. He checks once more for propane leaks and takes a position behind the burner. Using a welder's striker, he lights the pilot light and cracks the blast valve.

"The resulting flame is much like a blast furnace. Crew members, stationed on each side of the mouth, keep the fabric from the flame. (If flame contacts the nylon, it will not catch fire, but melts a large hole.)

"The balloon begins to rise, the basket if pulled upright by the huge envelope, the pilot again checks all equipment and, ready for flight, he again cracks open the blast valve to heat the balloon for lift off. (The valve has only two positions: on or off, resulting in either a loud roar during the blasting or complete silence between blasts.)

'HANDS OFF'

"The temperature nears the required heat point and the pilot gives the command 'hands off.' This means: 'let go of the basket, so I can determine bouyancy but be ready to grab it.'

"The takeoff is gentle (a feeling of the earth falling away from the balloon rather than an ascent). The pilot gains the chosen altitude and maintains the level by frequent, short blasts of the valve.

"How high can a balloon go? One designed for high altitude flying reached over 45,000 feet; however, most rarely exceed 2,000 feet.

"Away from city traffic and power lines, a favorite flight is over tree top level where a pilot can talk to folks below and bark back to dogs (if so inclined).

"Altitude can be controlled by adding heat from the burner or allowing the air in the balloon to cool slightly. However, speed and direction are entirely dependent on the wind. Literally, you're 'flying with the wind.'

"This quiet flight can lull the mind, bring a philosophic calm to the heart and give an intimate view of our world of birds, animals and low-flying ghosts.

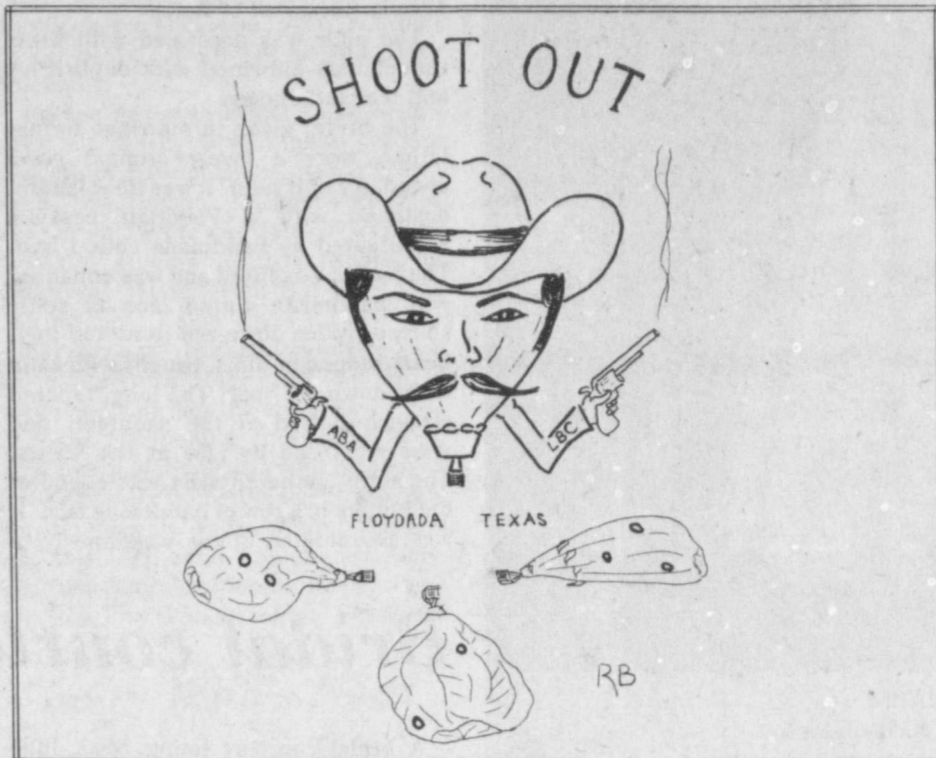

"While we on the ground hear a WHOOSE or see the majestic beauty... and marvel.

"The exhilarating experience nearly over, the pilot searches for a landing area free of trees and other obstacles. Allowing the trapped air to cool somewhat, he eases the balloon down and advises passengers to bend their knees slightly on contact with the ground.

"Opening the maneuvering vent, the pilot controls the rate of descent and just before touchdown, closes fuel valves and shuts off the pilot light. On the ground, he pulls the rip cord, opening a large area of the balloon to quickly release the hot air and prevent dragging if ground winds are gusty.

"And, all of this traditionally calls for a celebration!

"The balloons fly week-ends and holidays shortly after sunrise and occasionally at dusk — weather permitting."

Burglars strike Friday at Morris family home

The Vinoka Morris family returned to their Allmon community home Friday afternoon to find that their residence had been visited by burglars in their absence. The estimated loss is $2,850.

The house is three miles south and two miles west of Allmon.

Morris reported the burglary to Floyd County Sheriff's Department at 2:10 p.m. Friday. It reportedly occurred between 8:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. that day.

The family found that drawers had been removed and contents scattered on a bedroom floor.

Reported missing were: two hats, two necklaces, small ring, wedding ring, class ring, dress wrist watch, pocket watch, earrings, two pump shotguns, microwave, 19 inch television, VCR, jambox, jewelry box, ceramic box, belt and belt buckle.

'Quiet week-end' reported by city police department

Offenses received by the city police department were minimal during a very quiet week-end," according to Sgt. Harold Snell.

An "undetermined amount of quarters" was taken from a Pac Man game machine at Pizza Gold last Wednesday. Money from "five days of play" was inside the machine.

The incident resulted during business hours. After two youngsters were asked to leave the establishment for scattering food, the management discovered the loss.

Ice apparently was the contributing factor in an 8:05 a.m. Monday traffic mishap at the intersection of Houston and Fourth. A 1980 Mercury driven by Hope Crabtree was attempting a left turn onto Fourth when it "spun on the ice" and was struck in the right back quarter by a '79 Ford driven by Lupe Sanchez. Officers said the Sanchez vehicle almost came to a stop but was unable to totally halt its progress due to ice before striking the Mercury.

Following the impact, the Mercury reportedly spun around and temporarily blocked the intersection. Snell said that while investigating, he witnessed other "near misses" (accidents) due to the ice.

Minor damage resulted to both vehicles, and there were no injuries.

This means that the proposed guidelines are more restrictive for Floyd County landowners desiring to enter the program.

CRP program regulations allow for up to 25 percent of any county's cropland to be entered. The stipulation would allow approximately 118,000 acres in this county.

$40 MAXIMUM BID

Highest bid accepted for Area I land in the three previous signing periods has been $40 per acre per year, according to the SCS official. Area I is a "huge area" which spans 50 West Texas counties.

The eastern boundary is Floyd and neighboring counties, with the Oklahoma line the northern boundary, Del Rio the southern edge and the New Mexico line the western boundary.

Obviously, some land within the area is much less productive than in much of the South Plains area.

A cost-sharing program is now available to "get grass established" on CRP land, with a maximum of $55 per acre.

LaBaume has received "lots of inquiries" since the last bidding period, but "particularly within the last month or six weeks."

No operators submitted low enough bids to be accepted into the CRP program during the initial signing period in March. Two landowners were accepted in April and 75 submitted successful bids in August.

A "public meeting" is probable, according to LaBaume, to explain the program when "all the details are known."

Reams and Reese exchange wedding vows

Tamara Susan Reams and Zane B. Reese exchanged wedding vows at 5:00 p.m. January 3, 1987 in the First United Methodist Church in Lorenzo.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Joseph E. Johnston of Crosbyton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reams of Lorenzo, formerly of Floydada, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyse Bradshaw of Lorenzo and Mrs. Nellie Reams of Ralls.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Reese and the grandson of Mrs. Mamie Reese, all of Ralls.

The altar was decorated with brass candelabras entwined with english ivy and teal satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely original gown styled in white satin. It was floor length, designed with a Victorian neckline accentuated by handmade cotton lace.

The bodice was fitted and was enhanced with handmade cotton lace in softly shirred ruffles down the front and tiny, heart-shaped buttons, caught with satin loops down the back. The long, tapered sleeves, puffed at the shoulder, and were enhanced by lace at the wrists.

The softly gathered skirt was edged at the bottom in a row of handmade lace. It was accentuated at the waistline by a softly pleated cummerbund. The bride wore a circlet of tiny white and teal flowers in her hair.

The bride's bouquet was designed with teal enchantment lillies, white stephanotis, and cascading english ivy. The bride's traditional something old was a gold locket, belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Loyse Bradshaw; something borrowed was a white Bible carried by the bride's mother at her wedding; something new was her gown; and something blue was the traditional garter.

Music selections were "Annie's Song" and "The Wedding Song" sung by Miss Kathy Tutt of Lubbock. She was accompanied by Darrell Thrash on the guitar. The wedding march and recessional was played on the piano by Miss Annaleta Bradshaw of Floydada, along with several other selections.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Christi Wilmoth of Cone, with sister of the bride Tiffany Reams of Lorenzo as bridesmaid. They were attired in teal satin gowns styled with round necklines and dropped waists. The long sleeves were styled with puffed shoulders and tapered to the wrists. The gowns were enhanced by detachable ivory lace collars, a gift from the bride. They carried single ivory long stemmed roses and sprays of baby's breath and ivy, tied with teal streamers.

Flower girl was Elisha Bradshaw, cousin of the bride, of San Antonio. Her dress was made of teal satin with an ivory lace collar. She carried a 14 inch embroidery hoop wrapped in ivory satin ribbon, caught at the top with a large ivory satin bow and streamer accents with tiny teal silk flowers. Ring bearer was Eric Bradshaw, cousin of the bride, also of San Antonio.

Brent Reese, brother of the groom of Ralls, served as best man. Serving as ushers were Matt Wilmoth of Cone and Jeff Shipworth, cousin of the groom of Muleshoe. The groom was attired in a black tuxedo with gray and black striped pants, as were the other male attendants.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Berniece Walters, Carolyn Smith and Sharon Smith of Floydada. Mrs. Benny Poulson and Jenny Poulson of Lorenzo, Rhonda Ratliff of Lubbock and Mrs. Gary Bradshaw of San Antonio.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents Friday evening at the University City Club in Lubbock.

Other courtesies included a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Craig McDonald of Ralls. A bridal luncheon given at Creatively Yours, by Oleta Jones and Margie Calley of Ralls. A spice shower was given by Mrs. Matt Wilmoth of Cone, in the party room of the Lorenzo State Bank.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and a senior telecommunications major at Texas Tech University. The groom is a graduate of Ralls High School and Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will be at home in the Fairview Community where the groom is engaged in farming.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By D'Anna Westbrook

Monday morning the residents woke up to cold weather with snow and most decided to sleep late. By afternoon the sun was out and things warmed up. Mac McElyea came and played his guitar, while Dartha Westbrook played on the piano. We had such a good time clapping and tapping to the music. Twenty-two residents turned out for the festivities and forgot about the gloomy weather. A big "thank-you" goes out to Mac & Dartha for taking time to share their talents with others who so appreciate it. We would invite anyone interested to call and come out to share their hobbies or talents with the residents.

Tuesday morning Bro. Richardson braved the snow and brought us bananas and our devotion. In the afternoon we had our monthly resident council meeting. Those present were Una Clark, James Taylor, Myra Hall, Iva Wells, Faye McMahan, Addie Lindley and Charley Spence. Everyone stayed for Bible study afterwards.

Wednesday morning Bro. Russell McAnally filled in again for Bro. Blair. We have so enjoyed getting to meet all the nice people coming in Bro. Blair's absence. Jo Bryant came out and called Bingo for us. We passed out bananas and bugles to Gertrude Feuerbacher, James Taylor, Della Halencak, Myra Hall, Oda Birchfield, Estelle Eubanks, Opal Morrison, Thelma Hoffman, Faye McMahan, Iva Wells, Charley Spence and Robbie Hatley.

Thursday morning Bro. Travis Curry came and brought our devotion. That afternoon we played rhythm band with the help of two little girls, Juliann Sharpley and Amy Westbrook. Thank you girls!

Friday morning the Baptist women brought our devotion. Letha Mulder led the service. Evelyn Latta played the piano and Nettie Adams brought the devotion. In the afternoon we took our bus ride to Plainview for milkshakes at Burger King. Those enjoying the trip were Una Clark, Charley Spence, Iva Wells, Faye McMahan, Florence Curry, Maude Powell and Della Halencak. We were saddened this week at the loss of Jessie Freeman. A native of Roaring Springs, Mrs. Freeman had been with us for many years. Our deepest sympathies go to her loved ones. In the hospital this week are Lucille Duncan and Olive Russell. Our thanks go to Bob and Judy Howard, owners of "The Sweet Shop," for all the delicious doughnuts they brought to us. Both residents and employees enjoyed the goodies. We also want to thank Jessie Stuart for bringing magazines. Many of our residents spend a good deal of time reading and anyone with reading material to donate would be greatly appreciated.

Everyone coming out to the home want to thank Paul Westbrook for clearing off the lot and making travel so much easier. Don't forget our "volunteer coffee" coming up in February. Mark the night of the 26th off and plan to attend.

This week's visitors included: Frances Badgett, Jettie Moss, Winnie Neil, and Lucille Daniel.

Lodge officers installed in formal rites

Floydada Rebekah Lodge #77 observed a formal installation of officers during a regular meeting Jan. 13. Preceding the 6:00 meeting, a time of fellowship and an evening meal of stew, cornbread, desserts and drinks were served and enjoyed by the group.

Following the business session, she introduced Mrs. Hazel Tolar of Abernathy, District Deputy president for District 9 as the installing officer. Mrs. Tolar then presented her chore of officers who were to assist her. They were Mmes. Wava Barrack, Betty Johnson, Helen Tolar and Mamie Hill, all from Abernathy.

Reasons for depression examined by Harmony

By Maye Williams

"What I Do When I Am Depressed" was the roll call answered by the Harmony Extension Club members at their regular meeting at the center, January 26.

Devotional scripture was Psalms 13: 1-3, read by the hostess Maye Williams. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

It was decided to change the meeting on "Pretty Punch" to February 23 instead of April 27.

Blanche Williams gave the council report. TEHA meeting will be in Lubbock, February 5.

Finace will have a garage sale in the spring at the garage of Bess Carr. Each club member is to furnish a pie for the 4-H concession Feb. 13-16.

Anna Maude Hopper gave the program on "Dealing With Depression."

Depression can be found in babies as young as 6 months, teenagers between 13 and 15 are very prevalent as well as older persons. Causes vary from hormonal, medications, death, sorrow, and may even lead to suicidal tendencies. Symptoms of depression include sad, irritability, crying, hopelessness, helplessness, slow motion, loss of appetite, weight loss and sleep disturbances.

Recreation was directed by Imelda Murry. Refreshments were served to Ruth Scott, Lucille Miller, Imelda Murry, Bess Carr, Arvie Schulz, Anna Maude Hopper, Juanita Pool and Blanche Williams.

Square Dance News

By Carol Huggins

Seven couples braved the big snow storm to dance to Sid Perkins at Whirlers' regular third Saturday night dance. Not surprisingly, we had no visitors; however, we enjoyed some good dancing anyway.

There were 18 people at our second "free" square dance lesson. Because of the weather, we have decided to have one more open lesson tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. at the MAC in Floydada. Come on out and try it — you might like it.

"Friendship set to music."

PRO™ TEXAS
A NEW OPTIONAL CALLING PLAN FROM AT&T

On November 13, 1986 AT&T Communications of The Southwest, Inc. ("AT&T") filed with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to introduce a new intrastate, optional calling plan, PRO Texas. A comparable interstate plan, known as PRO™ America, is currently available to Texas customers.

PRO Texas gives Texas consumers an opportunity to save money on direct dialed in-state long distance calls. Customers who choose this new AT&T plan will receive a 10% discount on all AT&T intrastate direct dialed station calls by paying a monthly charge of $15.00.

The PRO Texas discount applies to calls placed during all rate periods and all days. The discount is in addition to the AT&T intrastate evening discount of 25% and the night/weekend discount of 40%. A one time charge of $6.00 will be billed to initiate the service. However, this charge will be waived during the first 90 days that the offering is available.

PRO Texas will be available to all Message Telephone Service customers in Texas. AT&T estimates that it will generate revenues in the first year of almost $8 million, which is .7% of AT&T's annual revenues for all Texas intrastate service.

The PUC has assigned Docket No. 7194 to this proposed service offering. The proposed effective date for PRO Texas is March 16, 1987. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the PUC as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

SWBT plans for emergencies to ensure public safety

No one likes to think about the unthinkable. However, to protect public safety, Southwestern Bell Telephone employees not only think about disasters, they plan for them.

Under the direction of the company's National Security Emergency Preparedness (NSEP) group, employees of Southwestern Bell Telephone stand ready to provide telecommunications services in the event of natural or man-made disasters, national emergencies or critical government requests.

The NSEP group was created in 1984 as a result of divestiture and works closely with other Regional Bell Operating Companies to provide comprehensive emergency services formerly directed by AT&T.

In Texas — a state known for its unpredictable and violent weather — Southwestern Bell Telephone employees make every possible effort to maintain telephone services during floods, tornadoes, hurricanes or ice storms. Likewise, they do all in their power to restore service after man-made calamities such as large-scale accidents.

Because thousands of lives may depend on Southwestern Bell Telephone's quick response in an emergency, employees participate in annual full-scale exercises designed to test the company's ability to recover from disaster.

Drill tests employees, emergency procedures

The most recent drill, held last month, challenged Texas employees to restore telephone service after fictional tornadoes and floods knocked out telephone service in several communities across the state.

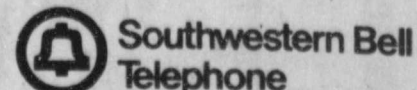

For eight hours, employees charted strategies that quickly re-established service to the affected locations. As the day-long exercise progressed, the situation changed — just as it would in a real disaster — requiring employees to adapt their plans and methods of operation in response.

As a result of the exercise, the company now has a better idea of how its employees and procedures might fare in a real crisis and is adapting its plans accordingly.

When not preparing for disaster, Southwestern Bell Telephone employees may also be involved in filling special requests from the federal government. In the past, this has included providing telecommunications services for the president, NASA and visiting dignitaries.

For its outstanding service to the government, the company has earned five official commendations, including one from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

Although accolades are welcome, the company will never become complacent about emergency procedures and will continue to look for ways to improve crisis response time. The men and women of Southwestern Bell Telephone believe that when it comes to public safety, nothing should be left to chance.

Long night at Tulia for FHS

There are such days in sports! Tuesday as a 1-o-n-g day for Whirlwind basketballers as their first round (district) hopes were dented in Tulia. The Hornets claimed victories in three of four games, losing only the girls JV match. All four contests were close, but only wins and losses enter the record books. Tulia's girls notched their first district victory, overcoming a two-point deficit in the final quarter to triumph 35-33. Whirlwind boys produced another fourth quarter rally, but it wasn't enough to overcome an early Hornet surge. Tulia jumped into what proved to be an insurmountable 24-10 first quarter lead and were in front 37-25 at intermission. The score was 53-38 entering the final eight minutes, during which the Whirlwinds outscored their opponents 23-18. Final score was 71-61.

Ty Stovall and Chad Pernell, the Winds' sterling pair of junior guards, poured in 22 and 19 points, respectively. Four Hornets scored in double figures. Hornets are now nestled in second place for the 2-3A first round with a 3-1 mark, while the Whirlwinds are 2-2. Floydada's boys own a 16-6 season mark.

DEFENSIVE STRUGGLE
The fem varsity match was a low-scoring, defensive struggle as each squad put six points through the nets in the first quarter. Whirlwinds went up 13-10 at intermission, but the Lady Hornets cut the gap to 21-20 entering the final stanza. Tulia scored 15 fourth quarter points and Floydada netted 12. Paige Cannon, who scored 11, was the lone Whirlwind in double digits. Floydada girls are 2-3 in district warfare. Whirlwind JV girls garnered a 31-29 victory in another thriller. Tulia claimed a 38-35 decision in the boys JV tilt.

FOURTH QUARTER MAGIC CONTINUES FOR WINDS
For the second consecutive contest, the Whirlwind boys relied on four quarter magic to claim their second District 2-3A victory Friday night in Friona. Typical of their dramatic final period flurry against Littlefield three days earlier, the Winds overcame a 46-39 deficit after three quarters to outlast the Chieftains, 59-53. Floydada outscored its opponent 20-7 in the decisive final eight minutes. The Whirlwinds started just as they ended -- with a hot hand -- as they built up a 20-14 first quarter advantage. Friona pulled to within 2 -- 30-28 -- at intermission and went in front during the third quarter by outscoring Floydada 18-9. A trio of Winds scored in double digits: Ty Stovall 18, Chad Pernell 14 and Roel Cisneros 13.

LIONS DEN
Whirlwind girls found themselves in a lions den at Friona, bowing 57-30 to the defending district champions who remain undefeated in league warfare. Regarded as one of the area's better AAA clubs, the Squads went in front 11-4 after one quarter, 23-11 at half and 38-19 following three quarters of action. The victory handed Friona girls at 4-0 district mark and dropped the Whirlwind fems to 2-2. Friona is 22-3 for the year. Paige Cannon and Amanda McDaniel shared the scoring lead for Floydada with 10 markers each. Friona took a 33-20 decision in the girls JV match.

CARD OF THANKS

To the People of Floydada, There is an endless list of people we would like to thank for helping us recover from our fire. We would like to take this time to thank the fire department for their service. Floydada is very blessed to have these dedicated men to serve our community. We would like to thank the many people who helped us clean up after the fire and also helped in moving us to our new location.

Many cards, phone calls, and prayers were made to show love and concern for our recovery. Many people expressed their desire that we re-open our business and stay in Floydada. These people's desire is what helped give us incentive and desire to recover and re-open our business. We have grown to love this community and we now know we have a home in Floydada. Thank you and God bless you, Jack and Allison Robertson 1-29c
